

Chapter 278

Victor hurried towards his lawyer as he spoke.

"You bastard! How did you betray me?"

But before he could reach him, Bryan blocked his way and grabbed his neck.

Bryan growled at Victor, and it was so loud that it almost pierced other people's ears.

Victor did not pretend to be calm anymore, as he also grabbed Brayn's neck in anger.

"You are so afraid of your mate that you broke every rule and married her," Victor said to Bryan.

Sophia stared at them. She had nothing to say. She did not want to stop any of them either.

She had seen Victor's true colors today.

She assumed he had come here to free her from Bryan, but he seemed to have his own agenda from the start.

She had no value in anyone's eyes. She had become just a play toy for others.

The rape thing hit her mind so hard that she felt numb in her heart and mind. It felt like Bryan committed a bigger crime than killing the woman.

The officials pulled the two Alphas away. Bryan glared at Victor and roared,

"Dare to touch my men, and I will chop you in front of your fellow pack members right now. Did you forget your past? Did you forget how I killed your mate in front of your eyes? Your so-called grandpa could not even save her. Do you think I am afraid of anyone? If it had not been for my pack members, I would have killed you the day you escaped from your destination, the mental asylum. A psychopath like you belongs there, not here."

The lawyer took out some documents and handed them to Victor. Victor looked at him with fiercer eyes.

"You have the audacity to approach me! Don't you have any fear of death?"

He raised his head and looked into Victor's eyes. "Alpha Bryan is my Alpha. How can I feel afraid of any other Alpha in the world? I am bound to obey him, not anyone else."

"You!"

Victor tried to attack him, but his officials kept him from doing so.

"Bryan, what's that on the paper?" Alpha Harry asked his son.

Bryan did not reply as he waited for Victor to see it by himself. When Victor looked at the document, he exclaimed,

"Impossible! How can I sign these papers? I can not remember signing them. How could I possibly agree with it?"

Alpha Lucas went to Victor and snatched the document from his son.

His brows lifted when he read the papers.

"Mila Laurant is free to marry anyone she wants. She has no obligation to wed Alpha Bryan. But Alpha Bryan is bound to take responsibility for her safety. He will take care of her forever. He will not take over half of the Moon Valley Pack either."

Alpha Lucas' voice echoed throughout the hall. He could see the head Alpha's sign there.

Victor grabbed the papers and tore them apart.

"Now what? There's no proof. You deceived me into signing the document. You sent your gamma into my pack without my permission. My own lawyer turned out to be a traitor."

Bryan sneered at him. "Ask yourself first. Are you really a head Alpha? Did you think that was the main deed? It was just a copy. I will send you thousands of copies like this. Tore them one by one while taking your time."

Theta Noble grabbed some papers and handed them to Bryan.

Bryan signaled Noble to give it to Alpha Lucas instead of him.

"This is the contract that you made years ago when you were the head of Alpha. You still have the power of a half pack, and the map needs your sign, too. It's your choice now to tear it or let me wait for your action."

Victor shook his head at his father. But Alpha Lucas did not look at him.

He tore the contract he had signed five years ago and proceeded to sign the map that was resting on the table.

"YOU CAN'T DO THAT!"

Victor yelled in anger. But Alpha Lucas did not listen to him. It was like he was more loyal to Bryan than his own son.

After signing, Alpha Lucas gave the map to Beta Robert and said,

"Alpha Bryan let go of the half pack. What is there to ask more about? He sacrificed the half-throne."

There was silence throughout the hall once again, and Bryan turned to look at everyone.

Bryan sighed as if he had finally gotten his hands on something he had wanted for years.

"The meeting is over," he said before turning around.

He could hear angry growls from Victor, which he did not care about.

While making his way to the door, there was another woman standing near it who was looking at the table with a blank face.

He did not even give her a glance before leaving the meeting hall.

"Sophia."

Abraham walked up to her and grabbed her hand. He dragged her out of the hall, far away.

He could see her lost eyes.

"I have a lot of things to tell you. But right now, I have to go and see Mom first. What happened to her?"

Sophia blinked her eyes as if she had just come back to her senses.

"She had surgery."

"I need to go," Abraham said with concern.

“Brother, take me with you,” she said, begging him with her eyes.

“Sophi, you should not go outside the pack house tonight. You can see mom tomorrow.”

Sophia saw her brother leaving. She let out a deep breath and went upstairs.

She saw Rosa coming out of the room. She bowed to Sophia and said,

“This is your and Alpha's first night. We prepared everything for you both.”

Sophia was confused. When Rosa left, Sophia opened the door and was stunned.

She closed the door and looked around.

The bedroom had been decorated with flowers. She walked inside and noticed the rose petals on the bed sheet, which looked so welcoming to the new bride and groom.

Sophia shook her head. “I can't stay here.”

She turned to the door to leave the room. But as soon as she opened the door, she saw Bryan standing outside the door.

She took a step back and mumbled,

“I-I can't stay he—”

Before she could finish, Bryan entered the room and shut the door behind him.

When she noticed him locking the door, she stuttered, "W-What are you doing?"

Bryan's angry eyes met hers. He grasped her hand and pressed her against the door.

“You dared to humiliate me again. I swear, no one will be able to save you from me tonight.”
