

Chapter 309

In front of the mirror, Sophia was looking at herself. The white bridal gown fitted her perfectly. Bryan picked out the dress for her. She blushed just thinking about his reaction if he saw her in this dress.

"You look beautiful."

A voice reached her ear as she shifted her eyes on the woman standing behind her through the mirror.

The woman was also wearing a bridal gown.

"Thanks, Mila. You look gorgeous as always," Sophia said, turning around to face her.

Two weeks had passed since the war, and everything had changed for everyone.

Bryan reclaimed his position because Bruce had not been crowned before the war, and he had already marked her.

But he was a man of his words. He did not let down his younger brother. As he said, Bruce had become the head of Alpha. But not the head Alpha of the Night Shade Pack, but the Moon Valley Pack.

The Moon Valley Pack wanted Bryan to be their Alpha, but since it was his decision to give up and Mila got married to Bruce who was Bryan's younger brother, they were also happy with him. They accepted him wholeheartedly.

The rivalry between the two packs ended when Victor died in the war.

That night, Bryan declared that he would marry Sophia in front of the pack members with every ritual. Then he announced Bruce and Mila's wedding on the same date.

"Sophia, I want to apologize for all the rude behavior. Forgive me," Mila said, reaching out for her hand.

Sophia smiled and rubbed the back of her hand. From the day she learned about Mila's past, she felt Mila was not a bad woman. She understood her and her situation. She held no grudges against her.

"Don't apologize. I told you that I no longer have anything in my heart. I am happy with everyone around me. I know it's kind of awkward for you since Bruce is my ex-boyfriend, but I am happy to see you both happy together."

Mila hugged her with a smile. She would leave this pack with Bruce after the wedding, so she wanted to break all the ice before leaving.

Sophia patted her back with a cheerful expression.

At that time, they heard a loud sound at the door.

They broke the hug and glanced at the door.

Sara cocked her head to peek inside. "May I come in?" she asked.

"Yeah, yeah. Sure. I am leaving you both alone," Mila said, making her way to the door. She only came here to talk to Sophia since the wedding would start anytime soon.

Sara rushed into the room and hugged Sophia after Mila left.

Sophia embraced her tightly.

They broke their embrace, and Sara said,

"I can not believe how stunning you look!"

"Thank you, Sara."

"Oh, come on. By the way, I know how you are feeling inside. You are nervous, right?"

Sophia's cheeks turned red. "Well..."

"I know, I know. I saw Alpha Bryan in the wedding hall. He looks jaw-dropping handsome with his new haircut. I bet you will have to control yourself in front of us."

Sophia laughed at her remarks. After they had a conversation, they noticed Sophia's mother entering the room to take her to the hall.

Sophia hugged her mother. Hanna said she was blessed to have a daughter like her.

After a while,

Sophia walked to the wedding hall with her mother. Mila was beside her, accompanied by her mother. Bethany smiled at Sophia, who returned it politely.

Behind them were their bridesmaids, Sara and Angelina.

Angela was pleased to see how things were going. She was delighted to help Sophia when she was about to die. She believed Sophia had almost died, and it was a miracle that she had survived.

However, she was dissatisfied with Bryan's one decision. He declared her as the lead witch of the Moon Valley Pack.

But before she could argue with him, she realized he had made Ken the gamma of the Moon Valley Pack.

Bryan said that Bruce needed her more than he did, at the same time, a witch had a life and she could live her life with Ken happily. He also handled Ken's father regarding their marriage.

Together, they made their way into the hall.

Sophia caught everyone's attention as she walked on the red carpet, making her way to the stage.

Her mother moved to the corner as Abraham approached Sophia and took her hand. He kissed her head and said,

"Best wishes for your new life, Luna."

She hit his chest lightly and said,

"Brother, please. I told you I will always be your Sophi."

They shared a chuckle before he led her to the stage. Because she had no father, Abraham was the one who escorted her to her groom. Meanwhile, Alpha Lucas was holding Mila's hand.

They went on stage. Alpha Lucas put his daughter's hand on Bruce's, and Abraham placed Sophia's hand on Bryan's.

They left the stage, leaving the two couples on the stage.

Sophia glanced at Bryan. She blushed when she realized that what Sara had told her was true.

Bryan looked so handsome that it was difficult for her to stay under control. She could not take her eyes away from him.

The priest first approached Bruce and Mila. Everyone, including Bryan and Sophia, applauded when Bruce and Mila made their vows to each other.

But Bryan's eyes were on Sophia all the time.

When the priest approached them, he bowed to them because they were the Alpha and Luna of the pack.

"Do you, Bryan Morrison, accept Sophia Berge as your wife?"

"Of course. I do," Bryan replied with a smile.

Sophia bit her bottom lip to keep her smile under control.

"Do you, Sophia Berge, accept Bryan Morrison as your husband?"

"Yes, I do."

The priest pronounced them husband and wife. After that, they exchanged rings.

Everyone showed their admiration for them by bowing and cheering for them.

They had dinner together after having a gathering with their family and friends.

Bryan's officials, including Abraham, began to tease him.

"I know I am your Gamma, but don't mess with my sister. She is my Luna, too. So it's become tough to decide whom I should take a stand for," Abraham said with a laugh.

"No doubt. You have to be with your Alpha. Because your Alpha will always be with his Luna."

Abraham was stunned by his answer. However, it was not unknown to anyone how much Alpha Bryan loved his Luna.

Following the wedding reception, Bruce and Mila headed to the Moon Valley Pack with Mila's parents. Alpha Harry and Juliana were not upset, but rather proud that their younger son would lead the pack. Bruce asked that they spend a few months living with him and Mila, exactly as they would be staying here. They promised to visit and stay there annually to spend time with both of their sons.

When Sophia got into the car with Bryan, she started to feel nervous.

Though they had been married for more than one and half months and had sex once after the marriage, she felt nervous.

They had done nothing for the past two weeks. They wanted to give each other the true feeling of marriage.

So she was filled with excitement for the entire two weeks.

After a long journey, the driver pulled over in front of a bungalow.

Sophia was surprised to see how beautiful it was.

Bryan leaned in close to her ear. She turned her head, and their noses brushed against each other.

"Here's a small gift for you."

"For me?" she asked with a shocked face.

Did he give the house to her as a present?

He smirked at her and replied,

"Yeah, for you, baby girl. From now on, you will come here often to spend so many nights with me."

He winked at her when she blushed.

They stepped out of the car and went to the bungalow. There was no one inside except the two of them.

In the midst of her exploration of the house, Bryan reached out and grabbed her hand.

He pulled her closer, causing her body to press against his.

He tilted his head, brushed his lips against hers, and said,

"I love you, Sophia."
