

Chapter 321

"Then let me have her."

Hearing that Ethan sneered at Ryan. "She knows you are a playboy. Do you think you can actually have her?"

Ryan shrugged his shoulders. "There is nothing in this world that Ryan Iversen can't have."

"Don't forget who her father is. She is Beta Glen's daughter. He will kill you."

"The one who rejected his daughter talking about his capability to me. Funny isn't it?"

Ethan averted his gaze from Ryan. He tilted his neck. His bruised cheek by Ryan's punch was also healed in a few minutes.

"What if your impressed dad will get to know about his son's action? What will happen to your name in his good books huh?" Ryan said to him and raised a brow.

His eyes turned dark. "If you want to tell him, you can. I am no one to stop you."

"Are you serious? A coward like you who could not dare to accept an omega, talk like this?"

Ethan turned around. "I am already messed up. Just leave me alone."

Ryan nodded his head. "Looks like you are not happy after rejecting her. Why?"

He stepped toward him and whispered in his ear,

"Are you regretting it already, brother?"

Ethan turned and pushed him. "She is just a normal girl like others. Why would I regret it? She is no match for me. She knows that. I don't even like her. So shut your mouth and get out of my room."

Ryan smiled at him. "I see. Okay then."

He was about to leave when Ethan spoke out,

"Stay away from her. She will not be one of your playthings."

Ryan scoffed when he heard him. "Bye, my Alpha Brother."

Then Ryan left Ethan's room.

Ethan stared at the door which was just shut by Ryan.

He did not know why but he got enraged when Ryan said about taking Allison.

He lay down on his bed, one hand behind his head. He closed his eyes and the pain in her eyes when he rejected her flashed in his mind.

'I should have given her some time before rejecting her. She is an omega. It might be painful.' He thought.

He opened his eyes and sat up. He shook his head.

"What are you thinking, Ethan? She is just a girl you know. You just could not make her your Luna. Julie is an Alpha female. So she is the better option. Yes, she is the best option for this pack too. Moonlight Crown is the largest pack among the all packs. I could not risk my pack with this silly mate thing. I don't even like her. So I made the right decision." He told himself or he could say convince himself.

Ryan was heading downstairs. He saw his parents had just entered the pack house.

Alpha Neil looked at him and asked,

"Tell me truly what you did with her?"

He stopped and frowned at his father. His parents came to him and stood in front of him.

Luna Ella gulped when she saw her husband was fuming. She could not help and asked her son,

"Dear, why was she with you? You were with Ethan right? Where was he at that time? Why did you take Allison back alone?"

Ryan was stunned that his mother also doubted him. For once he wanted to tell them about what Ethan did. He parted his lips but paused when he heard his father.

"What are you saying? Have you lost your mind, Ella? Do you think Ethan could do anything bad to any girl? You know how reserved he is. He doesn't have any scandal either. But this spoiled brat is the one who is always in controversy with women. Ask him what he did. It's not his foreign country but Moonlight Crown pack. Glen is not just my beta but my best friend. I know he will never say anything to me. But I saw how hurt he was when he saw her daughter in that miserable state. Her hair was messed up. Her makeup was ruined as if she cried. Do you think it was a normal fact? Do you think Ethan could be the reason behind it? Impossible! I can't even ask him about it. He will take all the blame on behalf of his brother."

Ryan rolled his eyes. He nodded his head.

"So what do you want me to answer? Do you want to hear that I did something to her? Then okay fine. I tried to molest her. Is that now oka-"

Before Ryan could complete he felt a slap in his right cheek. It was so hard that he almost felt his cheekbone broken.

"NEIL!"

Luna Ella shouted when she saw her husband slap her son.

Ryan turned his head slowly to his father. His eyes were profound that made almost shook his parents but they were also powerful. The Alpha and Luna of Moonlight Crown were not fearful of anyone and it was just their son.

"Why am I not surprised, Alpha Neil?" He said while gritting his teeth.

Alpha Neil glared at him. "Stay away from her. I don't want you to be around her. She is precious to us, a family member. You can't touch her."

An illumination of hatred glowed inside Ryan's eyes.

"I will not let you stay peacefully with your son. Just mark my word, Alpha Neil Iversen."

Luna Ella gasped. "Ryan, my child listened to me. Don't do anything stupi-"

Ryan did not listen to his mother and left the pack house furiously. He had only one place to ease his mind. He dialed a number.

"I am coming to the club. Meet me in ten minutes." He hung up and got in his car then left for the club.

Allison could see herself. She was in a dark forest. It was a full moon night. She was all alone in the forest and lost her way to go back.

Suddenly she heard growls. She turned around and saw two black wolves were rushing toward her.

They both looked dangerous to her.

"No." She said and started to run away from them. She did not know where she was going. All she wanted was to save herself.

However, she could not escape. She felt them close behind her. She could not help but scream,

"NO!"

Allison opened her eyes and sat up. She was huffing. She was sweating. She wiped the cold sweat from her forehead and sighed.

"It was just a dream. I was scared to death." She said and was about to get down from the bed.

But her eyes widened. She frowned her brows and placed her hand on her heart. She could not feel anything inside. Her lips quivered.

"Where is my wolf?"
