

Chapter 322

Everyone was worried for Allison. Teresa just left the house after assuring Allison's mother that she would be okay.

Beta Glen and his wife Joey left Allison's room half an hour ago. They would check on her in the morning.

All of a sudden they heard Allison's scream.

"NO!"

Beta Glen looked at Joey, she also looked at her husband.

"Allison!"

They let out and went on upstairs. They opened the door and saw Allison crying.

"What happened, my princess?" Beta Glen asked and hugged her.

Joey started to cry when she saw Allison crying. What happened to her daughter?

Allison shook her head when she realized that her parents came to see her.

She wiped her tears and replied,

"Nothing, Mom and Dad."

They looked at her carefully. "Why are you crying?" Joey asked.

Allison was silent.

"It's okay if you don't want to say anything." Beta Glen said.

Allison shook her head. Her voice was hoarse. She replied with that broken voice.

"I just had a nightmare."

Beta Glen and Joey felt relieved when they heard her.

"Don't worry. We are always with you, my child." Joey said.

Allison nodded her head. She heard her father ask with a serious tone,

"What happened that you fainted a few hours ago?"

Allison had already remembered all the things that happened to her. Her rejection, the pain after that, everything. She tightened her fists on the bed sheets.

"Who took me here?"

"Ryan took you here." Joey replied.

"Tell me without any fear, Allison. Did he do anything to you? Don't worry about his dad. I will punish him by my way." Beta Glen ensured her.

Allison frowned when she heard that.

"What? No, Dad. What are you saying? Ryan did not do anything. In fact..." She paused. She wanted to tell them it was not Ryan but Ethan who did wrong to her, who broke the law after getting his mate.

He rejected her because of her low rank. He thought she did not deserve him.

"In fact what?"

She glanced at her father and then at her mother. She did not want to break her parent's hearts. They would feel heart broken if they heard about their daughter's broken mate bond.

So she took a deep breath and lied to them.

"In fact, I was lost in the forest while looking for those two brothers. I was exhausted and fainted. Ryan helped me to get here. Nothing else."

Beta Glen's face became calm as if something heavy moved from his chest. Joey smiled at Allison.

"It's a relief that nothing wrong happened to you. I am happy that you are okay. The doctor also said that you are just tired and weak. You need to eat more, okay?"

"Yes, Mom." She mumbled.

"Good night. You need rest. And Happy birthday once again, my princess."

"Thanks, Dad."

Joey kissed her forehead. "Sleep tight."

Allison nodded and smiled at them. They left her room.

She stood up and closed the door. She did not forget to lock it.

Then she ran to the bathroom and opened the shower.

She started to cry loudly. She wanted to let out all of the pain in her chest.

"Did I lose you?" She asked her wolf.

She could not get any reply. It felt like a curse. What happened to her wolf? Was her wolf dead?

"Why are you not responding to me?"

She slid against the wall and pulled her legs to her chest. She screamed as she thought how disgusting Ethan was.

"How could you do that to me? All of my life I wanted you as my mate but what did you do? You rejected me without thinking twice. All you want is a high ranked woman. You don't have a heart."

She got mad at herself that she had been in love with such a man.

"I just hate you, Ethan. I hate you."

She did not sleep the whole night. When it was early morning. She dressed up and went out of her house.

It was too early for anyone to wake up. So she did not tell her parents.

She took a cab and went directly to the pack hospital.

When the cab stopped in front of the hospital, she gave the money to the driver. The driver took it but stared at her.

"What?" She asked furiously. She was in a really bad mood.

"Miss, are you okay?" The driver asked.

Allison did not understand why the driver said that. But then her eyes fell on the side mirror.

She could see her dark circles and red swollen eyes. She bit her lips and shook her head.

"No, I am not. But thank you for asking, brother." She replied and entered the pack hospital.

She took an appointment and waited on the bench for the head doctor.

"Miss. Allison."

The receptionist called her name. She stood up and went to the chamber of the head pack doctor.

"Doctor Linus."

"Allison? What are you doing here?" Doctor Linus asked.

He was a young delta. But he decided to serve the whole pack and became the head doctor of the Moonlight Crown pack.

He was a family doctor of the head Alpha and the officials. So Allison knew him well.

"I came to ask you something."

She said and sat on the chair.

"I went to your house last night. You were sick. I had a feeling something was wrong. But I didn't say anything to your parents. I wanted to check on you when you woke up. It's good that you have come by yourself. However, what's wrong with your eyes? Did you cry?" Doctor Linus asked and looked at her carefully.

"M-My m-mate rejected me, Linus." She said in a lower tone. She could not hide it from her doctor who could help her to learn the situation.

"WHAT?"

He was shocked. He stood up immediately.

Allison nodded her head. "I can't feel my wolf, Linus. What happened to her? Did I l-lose h-her?" She stuttered.

Doctor Linus checked on her. He sighed and took out a tonic. Then placed it on the table in front of Allison.

"Your wolf is not dead. But she caged herself inside you. She needs time, Allison. She had to bear the pain of a sin which is forbidden to accomplish."

Allison was thankful to the moon goddess that she did not take her wolf away from her.

"I am surprised that you are not in an alarming situation like other rejected wolves usually are."

"What do you mean?"

Doctor Linus shook his head and made a shocking statement.

"Only a powerful high ranked wolf can come out of the consequences of rejection. But you are an Omega,

How did you do that, Allison?"
