

Chapter 331

Allison recalled how she looked forward to that day every year.

Every year, she prayed and hoped that Ethan would not find his mate because she was not yet eighteen. To sense the mate bond, both mates must be eighteen.

She prayed that she would be Ethan's mate.

Surprisingly, Ethan did not declare anyone as his mate every year. The truth was that she was his mate.

"Yeah, you are right. How can I forget his birthday?" She mumbled to her mother.

Joey nodded her head. "Luna Ella has been calling me since early morning. Asking me to go early there. She is very excited."

She only listened to her mother while eating.

eating.

"You are right. Alpha is overjoyed as well. Ethan is turning twenty-two. Alpha decided to delegate entire authority to him after his graduation next year." Beta Glen told his wife.

"They really love Ethan like their own son. In fact, more than their son."

"They never differentiate their points of view between Ethan and Ryan. In reality, Ethan is their best boy. He is nice and quiet. Everyone appreciates him. He was always loyal to Alpha and even assisted him in political matters. He put forth a lot of effort in training only to please Alpha Neil.

Ryan, on the other hand..." Beta Glen came to a halt.

Allison raised her head and asked,

"What about him, Dad?"

"Ryan was a troublemaker kid from the start. He never listened to his father. He always did what he wanted. Alpha Neil was unable to tempt him. He was constantly worried about Ryan, so he sent him abroad. What did Ryan do after that? Became a notorious young man. There was seldom a month that went by when the principal did not call Alpha Neil and complain about his rebellious son. It was always about either girls or fighting. Alpha Neil was simply fed up with him. He then requested him to return the pack. But Ryan stopped communicating with Alpha Neil and began his life on his own.

This year, Alpha Neil planned to bring him back here forcibly. He warned him to keep quiet until Ethan took over the pack. He can go wherever he wants after that; Alpha Neil will not stop him again."

Allison was taken aback by her father's icy remark regarding Ryan.

Ryan's wrongdoings were well known to her father, and it was clear that he despised him.

Allison, on the other hand, was surprised that Ryan had been disconnected from his family for such a long time.

'So he told me the truth. He actually owned the card.' She paused for a moment, then pushed the thought aside.

"Glen, Ryan is also our kid like Ethan. Stop talking so coldly about him. He is just a naughty kid. Why so harsh?"

Joey did not have a son. So she loved Ethan and Ryan very much. They brought up in front of her. So there was an adoration in her heart for them.

"I am leaving now, Mom and Dad."

Allison said and stood up. She did not want to hear about the Iversen brothers anymore. Why were they always a hot topic wherever she went?

She went to the bus stop to wait for the bus. She caught the bus to school.

Boys were staring at her as usual. It had become a habit for her.

She met Teresa and attended her classes with her. When it was time for a break, they went to the cafeteria.

They overheard students talking about something.

"What happened now?" Allison asked Teresa.

"I don't know either."

They went to the counter to order.

"What happened? Why is everyone so silent today?" Teresa asked a girl.

"You don't know?"

"That's why I am asking, right?" Teresa moved her hands to gesture that wasn't it obvious.

"Ethan broke up with Julie."

"WHAT?" Teresa asked with a shocked face. Students looked at Teresa and she smiled awkwardly at them.

"Yeah. Julie was just arguing over it with several girls a few minutes ago. She just could not take it anymore after Ethan broke up with her."

Allison gave the girl a blank expression. She did not care if he broke up with Julie or not. But why did he do it? Wasn't she the ideal match for him? The high-ranking she-wolf?

Allison laughed at the thought. Teresa and the girl both turned to look at her. Teresa made eye contact and inquired as to why she was laughing.

"What? I can't even laugh now?"

Allison just laughed because a few weeks ago Julie talked rudely with her in front of the whole cafe. At that time she told her that Ethan was hers. Ethan also reacted well when he told that he only cared for Julie.

Now what happened to the love birds?

Allison and Teresa took their food and sat at the table where they always sat.

"Allison, he broke up with his girlfriend." Teresa said.

"I was there with you. I heard the girl too."

"No, but I was saying why did he do that?"

"Who cares?"

"Are you sure you don't care?"

Allison paused. "I have moved on. I don't care anymore. He will be the head Alpha, so he needs a perfect Luna. I can never forget what he did to my wolf. My wolf is still not reacting to me. Do you know what that means? I am wolfless right now. I don't know when she will come back to me. Ethan gave her so much pain that she became too weak to come back."

Her eyes turned glossy. She looked away to blink away her tears.

At that moment Max came and sat beside Teresa.

"Hey girls! What's up?"

Allison wiped the corner of her eyes and smiled at Max.

"Hi, Max." Teresa greeted back.

Allison frowned when she saw Teresa's cheeks turn red.

"What is going on?" She thought and looked at them carefully.

"Where were you yesterday? You didn't come to the school." Teresa asked Max.

"Ryan was in a really bad mood. So we didn't come to school and went somewhere else." Max replied.

"You are friends with Ryan?" Allison asked him.

"What are you saying? We are best friends."

"Oh."

Allison did not know about it. She looked at Teresa and realized she was already aware of it.

"W-Well, I got to know about it recently." Teresa said to her nervously.

Allison could see Teresa had a feeling for Max. If Max was Ryan's best friend then he might be the same as Ryan. She could not let him break her best friend's heart.

"Where is he?" Allison asked Max.

"He is on the second floor. Why?"

"Nothing."

Allison stood up. "I have some work. You too can talk to each other."

"I am coming with-"

"No." Allison said to Teresa. She glanced at Max for the last time and left the cafe.

She went to the second floor and searched everywhere for Ryan.

"Did you see Ryan?" She asked a girl.

"Of course, everyone saw him." The girl said shyly.

Allison rolled her eyes. "I mean to say, where is he?"

"Oh. He went to this side."

"Okay, thanks."

Allison headed to the silent hallway. A few classrooms were locked there.

"Ryan?" She asked a boy about him who was passing her.

"Why is every girl only after him? Come with me. We can go on a date." The boy said with a smile.

Allison glared at him. He cleared his throat and said,

"He is in the last room. But he is-"

Allison did not listen to him and headed to the room.

She grabbed the doorknob and opened the door.

But the moment the door opened, she was stunned.

A girl was laying on the teacher's desk wrapping her legs around Ryan's waist.

He was leaning over the girl.
