

Chapter 338

"Done talking with your lover?"

Her steps halted when she heard the voice. She slowly turned around and saw Ryan.

He was leaning back against his car while smoking.

The smoke made a foggy atmosphere around him. His in-depth eyes were digging into hers.

She looked away and turned around. She started to walk again. She did not reply to him.

She felt him walking behind her. She ignored him and went to her father's car.

The car was locked. Where was the driver? He might go inside the party to have dinner. It was late so it was possible. Alpha Neil always arranged a feast for the servants at every party. And it was the soon to be Alpha's birthday, every pack would get something as a present on behalf of Alpha Neil.

"Where are you going?" Ryan asked her.

"In hell." She replied while thinking about getting a cab as she thought to get before.

"Okay, let's go then."

Hearing his reply, she turned to him. "I am not in the mood. So please just stay away."

Ryan nodded and puffed on his cigarette.

Allison frowned and headed to the road.

"Wait."

He threw the cigarette butt and smashed it with his shoe and then came in front of her.

She did not want to stop but he just came in front of her and said that she had to stop.

"You were good some time ago, what happened to you suddenly?"

"Nothing happened." She said and looked another way.

"Now where are you going?"

She felt annoyed by his questions. "What is it to you? Why do I need to answer you?"

He was quiet for some seconds then said,

"It's okay. Don't answer me. Just calm down first."

"NO, I CAN'T."

"WHY?"

She shouted so he shouted back.

Allison bit her lips to stop her tears from rolling down.

"H-He asked for f-forgiveness."

Ryan raised his brows when he heard her.

"It's too early to ask forgiveness." He reacted.

Allison raised her head and looked up at him.

"Do you think this is a game? Is my life a game that anyone can play anytime?"

"No, I didn't mean to say that."

"I don't care what you meant. I need to go now."

"Okay, I will drive you home."

"No need." She replied and began to walk.

"Then go back to the party and show him that you are not weak for him anymore."

She stopped. "What do you mean?"

"He asked for forgiveness. But what he did is unforgivable. He thinks you are still affected by him. Do you want him to think that?"

Allison was perplexed by Ryan's words. She could not deny that she was still affected by Ethan. But Ryan was right. She could not show Ethan that.

"I don't know what to do."

"Come with me. Go back to the party. Just relax and enjoy the party like normal girls do. Show him that you don't care anymore."

Allison looked at him. She could not believe Ryan either. She did not forget what he tried to do with her.

"Your brother is heartless. Don't be like him with your mate in the future. The way you are playing with girls, it would affect your mate too."

Ryan did not reply to her. He was looking at her indifferently. As if he was unbothered thinking about his mate.

Allison decided to go back to the party. Ryan did not follow her inside. He stayed outside thinking about what she had just told him.

Allison proceeded to the party hall. She saw her parents looking at her.

She went to them.

"Why did you leave the pack house this time?" Beta Glen asked.

"Nothing Dad. Just wanted to feel the fresh air."

"Have you talked to Ethan? About the training?"

"Dad, I don't want to."

"No. You have to. Ethan is a well-wisher. He put forward the topic today and asked me to send you here. He said you are afraid of the fight so he will train you by himself."

"What???"

Allison immediately looked at Ethan who was in the bar side. He raised his drink and smiled at her as if telling her that even if she did not want him, he had a way to get what he wanted.

'How dare he!'

"Dad, I don't want to join any kind of training. I don't need any man to train me."

"He is your head Alpha. He is your protector. I can only trust him. I know he will take care of you. Your mother also agreed with me."

Allison looked at her mother. Her mother nodded her head. "He is right. No matter what your rank is, you need to be strong. You should work hard for it. In any danger, it would help you to defend yourself. I am also an omega but a trained wolf."

Allison lowered her head and nodded. How could she deny them without any reason?

She went to the bar side. She just stood beside Ethan and ordered a drink.

Ethan made eye contact with the waiter. He nodded at him and gave her an apple juice.

"We can't give you any alcohol. It's our Alpha's order."

Allison thought the waiter was talking about Alpha Neil. So she just nodded her head.

She turned her head to Ethan. She was fuming.

"Why are you doing this?"

He looked relaxed which she did not like.

Wasn't he begging her for forgiveness some time ago? What was the sudden confidence?

Ethan sipped on his drink and looked at the guests.

"I told you. I will earn it."

She frowned at him. "Stop doing all of this. I don't even want to see your face. How did you think that I would come to you for training? I just despise you."

A smile shuffled on his lips. He really was affected by the rejection mentally. He had been cursing himself for that decision too. But now it was time to compensate. He decided to fix his mistake from now on.

"I know something happened to you and you are hiding it from me. But I will figure it out soon."

"Do wherever you want, you can't gain what you wish for. Because I will never forgive a heartless man like you."

Hearing that, he turned his head and came close to her face.

Suddenly she felt someone else's gaze on her. But she ignored it and glared at Ethan, showing how angry she was.

He chuckled,

"Okay, let's see how long you can resist me."
