

Chapter 509

Ryan stared at the crowd for some time. Due to the large number of people from the town that came to see him, he could not meet each and everyone's eyes. But if he could, he did.

"Raise." He ordered, and everyone followed it immediately.

His attention was totally focused on his people.

Guards were stationed close by, and they kept their weapons pointed on the audience at all times. This ensured that if anyone attempted to cause their Alpha any harm, the guards would put an immediate end to the situation by taking their lives.

"I came back after winning another pack." Ryan said.

His statement confused everyone around him.

They were baffled as to why he was referring to only one pack in his statement. Didn't he win the East Flow Pack as well?

"But Alpha, you won two packs this time." A man spoke out from the crowd.

Ryan's attention was drawn to the individual who was in the front of the gathering of people. He appeared to be self-assured, and the frown that was visible on his face indicated that he was not impressed by the statement that he had made.

Ryan grinned at the man. "Charles, have you completely forgotten that it's against the law to interrupt your Alpha when he is speaking?"

"Forgive this naive, Alpha." The man named Charles let out. He was a middle-aged man, but a strong man.

Ryan looked at Neil, Ella, and Ethan, then turned his attention to the crowd.

"For many years, you have all had a question about where I came from. Who are my parents? Was I a rogue? Today, I brought my family to introduce you all. I hope you will respect them the way you respect me. Or you know, if your Alpha feels a little bit dissatisfied with you, what can he do."

There was complete silence among everyone in the crowd. They were paying close attention to his family. Since Alpha Neil and Ethan used to attend pack meetings before Ryan took control of the pack, several of the other Alphas were familiar with them. They recognized them and were shocked to find out that Ethan was Alpha Neil's son.

"My father, Alpha Neil, was a very successful Alpha who used to rule the Moonlight Crown Pack."

Neil felt proud of the introduction that his son gave to others. He smiled and shook his head.

"But now you are the owner of that pack."

Ryan stared at him for a moment without replying, then shifted his eyes to Ethan.

Ethan was silent all the time while observing the power of his brother. He did not experience any feelings of jealousy at all. He felt that Ryan had brought all of this onto himself. He believed Ryan deserved all of this. He heard Ryan saying,

"He is my brother, Alpha Ethan. Don't mess with him because it will go to waste. He is able to exert influence over others. You will, in the end, become one of his biggest fans."

Ethan chuckled when he heard Ryan. He liked how Ryan was caring for his family.

"It was a joke. Why are you all silent?" Ryan asked the crowd.

Everyone looked at him with a warm grin, but no one dared to laugh out loud because no one knew who might be the one to lose their head today because of a mistake.

"He is my brother. Of course, he has the power to beat anyone. So don't dare mess with him." Ryan repeated his words and looked at his sub-Alphas, which did not go unnoticed by others.

Ryan introduced his mother to the crowd. Ella was happy that, finally, his son was accepting them.

"Where is our Luna?" An Alpha asked.

Elora came out from behind everyone and looked at the crowd.

"She can't be your Luna." Ryan declared.

The whole crowd gasped. They could not believe that. They were under the impression that Elora was responsible for something that caused Ryan to change his mind about marrying her.

"She found her mate."

Hearing that, everyone was glancing at each other, including Ryan's parents and Ethan. Because Ethan was not Elora's mate anymore.

"She will be with her Alpha."

Elora lowered her head while listening to Ryan.

"Then what about our Luna, Alpha? You promised us that soon you would give us your wedding news."

Ryan walked to Allison and held her hand. She was stunned by his action.

He brought her in the middle and looked down at the whole crowd.

"I found my mate too."

The news that a true blood Alpha found his mate was shocking to everyone.

"Therefore, there is no need for any of you to be concerned. I will give you the Luna that was destined for you. She is not a simple wolf but a pure blood Omega."

Everyone started to whisper about it. They did not have a lot of knowledge regarding this rank.

"You don't have to know much. Just always keep in mind that she is more powerful than any other wolf after your Alpha. So show her the same level of respect that you show your Alpha. If you have the audacity to be impolite to her in any way, you will have to face me after that."

The words he said left Allison feeling numb. He was giving her so much power and respect that she had never imagined in her life.

Before she could react to this, she heard a shocking announcement from Ryan.

"I know that you have all been waiting for your Luna for quite some time. The time that you have been waiting for has finally come. You will be celebrating the wedding of your Alpha next week."

Both of Allison's eyes and the eyes of the people behind her widened in surprise. The two families were stunned by the sudden declaration.

Allison heard the crowd cheer together. As she turned her head to the crowd, she noticed that they were kneeling down for her.

"All hail to the soon-to-be Luna of our Black Moon Pack."
