

Chapter 529

After hearing Jorge's statement, Allison was taken aback. She was trapped and had nowhere to escape.

She was surrounded by other men, all of them were laughing at her. Charles looked pissed on Jorge but he did not stop him from saying or trying to do anything with her. In fact, he was ready to watch a woman's disgrace who was the same age as his daughter.

Jorge grabbed Allison's dress and was about to rip it from her body when she growled at him.

It was a deep, rumbling sound. Everyone was caught off guard. They did not think that she could let out a powerful growl like this.

Her eyes turned ocean blue, and they gasped at it. It was a rare color in their pack. Omegas did not have this pale color of eyes.

Her canines came out, and she growled at Jorge once again.

Jorge released her hair and stood up.

"W-Who is she? You said she is a weak omega." He said to Charles.

Charles was in a state of shock since he was unable to let anything out.

Allison felt her wolf take over her. She twisted her hands and tore the rope that tied her hands and legs.

She did not know where she was getting this strength, but right now, it was a fight for herself. She could not let these men play with her.

She got to her feet and said,

"You dared to touch me? My Alpha will not let you go. If you want to wait, you can, but if you come close to me again, I will kill you before he comes."

Jorge got mad at her and rushed to her. But the moment he touched her hand, she twisted his hand and threw her to the ground.

"How did you have these skills?" Charles asked her with wide eyes.

"Foolish man, you can only do backstabbing. You don't even know who I am. I was the future Luna of the Moonlight Crown pack. I was the trained Luna you all heard about all these years, but you never got a chance to meet me since your Alpha did not allow you to do that."

Alpha Charles was shocked by it. He indeed heard about Alpha Ethan's Luna. They said she possessed an atmosphere of coldness and that she was as cold as ice. She was just familiar with how to deal with and perform her duties effectively. In addition to that, he heard she gave her best in training so that she could give competition to other ranks' Lunas.

"You were Alpha Ryan's brother's fiancée?"

"Yeah, but your Alpha had planned something else, so..." She smiled at him and kicked the men who came to hit her.

"Grab her and kneel her down in front of me." Jorge ordered his men in anger. He was still on the ground. His right hand was broken. He could feel that.

All of his men dashed over Allison and grabbed her arms.

"Leave me if you don't want to die." She yelled at them.

When they saw Allison was under their control. They felt relaxed. Jorge stood up and walked toward her.

"You dared to spit on me. You even broke my hand. I must say Ryan was adamant not to let you go for a reason."

He stopped in front of her. Allison tried to break free, but there were almost six men grabbing her tightly.

Jorge grabbed her dress from her shoulder and tore it from her front side. She was terrified by it.

She did not look broken or fragile. In fact, she growled and shifted there in anger. All the six men stepped back when they saw such a big white wolf.

Her wolf's size had changed when she found her mate. It came back to the actual size, which was concealed before meeting her mate.

She was a pure blood omega.

She was more potent than ordinary ranks.

Her mate was a true blood Alpha. Because of her mate, she got the power to which she was oblivious. It was the power Ryan always talked about that even she did not know what power she held.

She was surprised by her own size, but there was not enough time to examine herself at the moment. It was time to see retribution.

She ran towards the men who had been attempting to seize her all of these times. She bit their necks and then hurled them to the ground one by one like a feather.

She turned to Jorge, who was unmoved. She walked to him. He came back to his senses and punched her before she could attack him.

She let out a painful groan as her body hit the ground. He was an Alpha, so he also had some power to fight.

She struggled to stand up despite the pain that she was experiencing in her back.

At that time, they heard the sounds of cars screeching. All of them looked at each other.

"Who made their way here? It is a restricted area."

"No problem. I told my guards to stand up outside." Charles assured him.

After just a few seconds, the guards flew inside the room from outside.

"What hap-"

Charles could not complete his sentence before a man entered the basement with four other men.

"ALPHA!"

Charles said loudly and fell to his knees. He could not believe that Ryan had come there.

Allison looked at the love of her life, who came to save her. He killed the man who went to stop him from coming to her side.

When his gaze finally landed on hers, a furrow formed between each of his brows. He was looking at her wolf.

"Thanks, Ryan." She said in her mind.

Ryan was coming to her without breaking eye contact.

His steps halted when he turned his head and looked at Jorge.

Jorge was frightened by just looking into Ryan's eyes. The dark orange was enough to tell others who he was.

Ryan strolled to him, and he stepped back. He glanced around the basement and noticed the place, which was now filled with Ryan's officials and guards. They even captured Alpha Charles.

"I came here to take revenge for my brother." Jorge spoke out.

Ryan glared at him and turned his head to Allison.

"Did he do something?" He asked.

Allison felt his mind linked to her. She told him everything, which made him fiercer. His eyes were wide in anger, and he grabbed Jorge's neck.

Jorge tried to shift and fight, but Ryan did not let him do that.

"Since you came here for your brother, I should give you a different death than your brother."

Saying that he lifted his right hand in front of his face.

He clawed his face. Jorge cried out loud and growled, but it went in vain.

Ryan pushed him to Gamma Colin, who was ready to kill Jorge. He stopped him by raising his hand and ordering,

"He has a fantasy to show his manhood to others' women. So make it easy for him."

Jorge was dumbfounded. He was already in pain as Ryan's claws left scars on his cheek. It felt like poison, numbing her whole body with pain.

Then he heard Ryan's order, which shook him to the core.

"Cut his manhood and show it to the whole pack, especially to the women. Then, kill him. Tell the story to every pack member so that they would never dare to show their bravado to their new Alpha again."

Colin nodded his head and dragged Jorge outside with him. Jorge tried to shift, but he was surprised that he was unable to shift. Was that the effect of Ryan's poisonous claws?

Meanwhile, Allison rushed to Ryan.

Ryan embraced her in his arms. That big wolf looked lovable in his arms. He kissed her head and let out,

"I was afraid that I had lost you once again."

Allison and her wolf both had the same feeling. They were in love with their mate.

Allison was about to move away from him, but suddenly, he turned her body, and the sound of a gunshot could be heard in the basement.

Allison's eyes widened. She looked down and saw blood in her white fur.

But it was not her blood. It was Ryan's blood.

Since they were in a mind link, she screamed out in the link.

"RYAN!"
