

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 224

Chapter 224 When he realized Serena didnt like his gift .

Dominicks face visibly turned awkward .

He had very little experience interacting with little girls .

In the past , the girl he saw the most was Stella .

But he wasnt close to Stella either .

He only saw her as Graysons playmate .

And Stella was always so cautious around him .

barely speaking in his presence .

So , he had no idea what little girls liked .

It was the first time Paisley had seen Dominick looking so awkward .

After all , this man had been groomed as Pauls heir from birth .

Paul had even planned out his entire life to clear any obstacles in his way .

Dominick had followed that plan step by step .

As a result , he was naturally confident and rarely failed .

He also rarely adapted to others preferences because people usually adapted to him .

Dont you like it ? Dominick asked , his ears turning red from embarrassment .

Serena pursed her lips .

She genuinely didnt like it .

But thinking about how Dominick had come just to see her , rejecting his gift felt wrong .

So , she forced herself to nod .

Thank you for the gift , Sir .

Then she turned to Paisley .

Mom , can you put it away for me ? Ill play with it when Im older .

Alright Paisley helplessly took the massive LEGO box and weighed it .

The box was so big , it was almost as tall as Serena when stood upright .

Dominick finally realized his gift wasnt suitable .

Feeling regretful , he asked Serena , Then tell me what you like , and Ill buy it for you .

Anything you want , I promise ! His eyes were sincere , and his tone matched .

He even forced himself to keep a slight smile while talking to Serena , worried his usual stern face would scare her.

Little did he know , this forced gentleness made him seem even scarier to Serena Whatever I want .

Mom will buy it for me , Serena said , calling Paisley over .

She held her moms hand , tilting her head up with a puzzled look .

Mom , scary man is acting weird today .

She recalled a ghost story Maria had once told her about a beautiful princess possessed by an evil spirit .

The evil spirit used the princesss body to do bad things .

Looking at the strange scary man , Serena leaned against Paisley and whispered , Mom , do you think scary man is possessed ? Dominick was rendered speechless .

Paisley couldnt help but laugh , both amused and exasperated .

It seems Maria has made up another story for her .

Rena , can you not call me scary man ? Dominicks voice was a little dry , and he deeply regretted not leaving a good impression on this child .

Thinking back , every time he met Serena , it seemed like he was always in some kind of conflict with Paisley .

Especially that time at the club , when she was crying , shouting for them not to bully her mother .

Dominicks eyes dimmed .

His image in Renas eyes must have been ruined by now .

Im sorry , Rena , I did wrong before .

I apologize .

As he spoke , his gaze shifted from Serena to Paisley .

Ill change , give me a chance , please ? Paisley looked at Dominick , his eyes red , his voice choked , his whole presence shattered .

She had to admit , the shattered vibe was Dominicks most unique feature .

After all , when they first met , it was precisely that brokenness in him that had drawn her in .

But unfortunately , time and experience can make a soft hearted woman turn cold and heartless How dare you ! What are you stopping me for ? I want to see my granddaughter .

Do I need your permission ? Laurens sharp voice broke the atmosphere Dominick had just tried to create in the hospital room .

Ah , mom ! Serena gripped Paisleys hand tighter .

Its that scary woman from yesterday ! Paisley turned her cold gaze to Dominick .

Dominick froze and quickly explained , I didnt tell her.

On this matter , Paisley still trusted Dominick .

Besides , given what happened yesterday , the Vanderbilt family members would definitely have their suspicions .

Once there was suspicion , they would seek confirmation .

This was the hospital , and if the Vanderbilt family really wanted to confirm it .

getting Serenas sample would be a piece of cake .

Move aside .

Im going in Laurens voice rang out again from outside the door .

But Maria still stood at the door , not letting her in .

Mom .

Serena tugged at Paisley .

That scary woman from yesterday said I was a bastard .

Mom , whats a bastard ? I asked Maria , but she didnt tell me .

Is a bastard something bad ? Am I really a bastard ? Serenas words made Paisleys heart tighten .

She shot Dominick a sharp look .

Dominick , take your own mother and get her out of here .

Tell her to shut up and not appear in front of Rena , or I cant promise what I might do Outside the room , in the corridor , Lauren was furious , blocked at the door .

Behind her stood Reginald and three attendants carrying various gifts .

Do you know who I am ! Im this childs grandmother ! What right do you have to stop me ? Lauren continued to argue Maria sneered .

Ive never seen a grandmother who calls her own granddaughter a bastard .

As she said this , Maria paused and lowered her voice , afraid Serena in the room might hear .

Lauren was speechless , unsure how to respond .

But yesterday , in her emotional outburst , she had said some harsh words in front of Serena , and now she deeply regretted it .

So , please , let us in to apologize to Serena .

Weve realized our mistake .

Reginald stepped in to help his wife .

Maria didnt give Reginald any respect either .

Go to hell , youre so fake .

I didnt say anything about you , did I ? You think just because you didnt say anything yesterday , youre the good guy ? None of you are good ! Reginald , the powerful head of the Vanderbilt family , and the chairman of the Vanderbilt Group , admired by many , was being publicly scolded by a nanny .

Reginalds face turned crimson , but he couldnt argue with a nanny , so he had to hold his temper .

There was no choice .

Paul had given him a strict order to get Paisley and Serenas forgiveness , no matter how he had to do it .

Despite his anger , when he thought about his granddaughter in the hospital room , no matter how mad he was , he had to endure it .

Im going in today , no matter what .

You four , pull her away .

Lauren instructed her attendants .

The attendants stepped forward , ready to push Maria aside , when the door to the room suddenly opened .

Lauren immediately put on a smile , thinking it was Paisley coming to open the door , but instead , she saw Dominicks cold .
