

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 265

Chapter 265 Before long .

Lucy came back , and the assistant had a smile on his face .

35 % 2 Turns out , the assistant knew he had messed up , and Sam wouldnt let him off easily .

He definitely wouldnt get reimbursed for the money spent on the snacks , so hed have to pay for it himself .

It wasnt cheap to treat the whole crew to snacks .

Lucy reimbursed the assistant for the money , but of course , Paisley made sure to charge it to Dominick in the end .

After all , this whole mess started because of him .

As Paisley looked for Dominick with the bill , she saw that the bastard had somehow ended up standing next to Gary .

Here , pay up .

Paisley held the bill right in front of Dominick .

Oh , sure .

Dominick didnt even ask , just took out his phone and transferred the money to Lucy .

Paisley raised an eyebrow as Dominick didnt even ask what he was paying for .

Alright , I appreciate your kindness .

Now you can leave .

Paisley didnt want to argue with Dominick anymore , and she definitely didnt want to see him in her workspace .

It would just mess with her mood .

But Dominick just smiled .

Nion , you dont have the right to make me leave .

Paisley was confused .

Why was he calling her Nion ? She looked at Gary , demanding an explanation as to what they were talking about .

Gary looked a little apologetic as he looked at Paisley .

Uh , Ms.

Vaire , Mr.

Vanderbilt has just become our main investor .

Even if he wasnt an investor , with Dominicks status , Gary wouldnt dare kick him out .

After all , it was just one word from Dominick that made all the investors pressure Gary to cast Brittany as the lead .

Now Dominick had added more investment , just so he could have a more legitimate reason to be on set and keep tabs on everything happening in the crew , specifically , on Paisleys every move .

Paisley glared at Dominick , then coldly turned around and walked back to the set .

The pleasant mealtime ended , but the food trucks didnt leave .

Per Dominicks request , they would stay until the days work was done .

This way , whenever Paisley was hungry , there would always be food available .

After a short break , the filming continued .

Dominick moved a chair and sat next to Gary , giving off a vibe of an investor coming to visit the set .

Paisley couldnt be bothered with him as long as he didnt disturb her .

The next scene was a crucial one .

However , maybe because of the earlier incident , Sam couldnt get into character , causing multiple takes to fail .

In frustration , Gary looked at Paisley for help .

Paisley had no choice but to go over , gather all the actors together , and walk them through the scene , helping them with the performance .

Dominick sat next to Gary , watching the monitor .

The monitor showed Paisley walking the actors through the scene , and every moment of her expression was captured in Dominicks eyes .

She furrowed her brow , smiled , became serious , then relaxed .

Every change in her emotions deeply moved Dominicks heart .

This scene is beautiful , right ? Gary said , looking at the monitor , genuinely complimenting .

Yeah , its beautiful , Dominick softly replied , but his gaze stayed fixed on just one person .

Even though there were other 1/2 19:38 Tue , 18 Feb 50 Chapter 265 beautiful actresses around her , none of them entered Dominicks sight .

35 % Gary noticed Dominicks gaze and then looked at Paisley on the monitor .

Its a shame shes not an actress .

She has all the best qualities .

He was sure that if Paisley wanted to be an actress , she could potentially become the biggest and most beautiful actress in the entire industry .

Just then , on the monitor , it seemed like there was a flash of cold light above Paisleys head .

Dominick looked up , his expression immediately changing to a serious one .
