

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 672

There were no rehearsals for the program. As it was a live stream, the audience's shocked expressions and the experts' courteous attitudes were all their true reactions. This had an amazing effect on the show.

Director Gao was very satisfied with everyone's performance, thinking that Master Qin truly lived up to his reputation. He could even cure Su Renlong's 'mental illness'! This time, he had spread the name of Traditional Chinese Medicine far and wide.

Initially, they were worried that Qin Jun was too young. Even if he knew how to cure illnesses, it might be because he managed to get his hands on some lesser-known methods. Hence, he was able to cure some complex illnesses and rise to fame.

However, after listening to Qin Jun, everyone was surprised as they did not expect Qin Jun's foundation to be so solid. His insights on foundational knowledge were very accurate. In fact, his grasp of such knowledge was even stronger than the experts in the audience who had worked for decades in the field.

This was really amazing. He was so young, yet so skilled in medicine. Plus, his skills were exceptional and brilliant. There had to be a famous master teaching him.

"Master Qin, may I ask who your teacher is?"

"Master Qin, you're so capable. You must not have learned everything by yourself, right?"

"To nurture a disciple like Master Qin, the teacher must be an exceptional expert."

Qin Jun laughed and said, "A few days ago, the netizens were joking about an old living deity who told others to believe in Science, but proceeded to jump down from a height of a hundred meters. Does everyone remember him?"

After Qin Jun spoke, everyone nodded.

Of course they remembered.

During the Huyu Annual Carnival, multiple journalists interviewed the Old Master Ye Xuanyuan. They wanted to know why there were so many powerful figures paying their respects to him, and whether he truly knew martial arts.

However, the Old Master looked at the camera and told everyone to believe in science. Then, he jumped down from the thirtieth story, landed firmly on the ground and left.

Everyone spread the video around rapidly, saying that he was a real deity. There were even people claiming that the video was photo-shopped, with special effects added to it.

Some also said that he was a master who hid in the depths of the mountain, just that the rest of the world did not know about him.

Everyone started discussing and making all sorts of guesses. The trend had only died down briefly. Hence, when Qin Jun mentioned it, everyone could remember it instantly.

“Could it be that the old living deity is your master?”

Qin Jun nodded.

A huge commotion erupted within the crowd. Indeed, only a master like him would nurture such a talented disciple! Everyone did not expect that old living deity, who had such a divine aura, to be a Traditional Chinese Medicine master! To be able to nurture a master like Mr. Qin, his capabilities must be exceptional.

The one-and-a-half-hour show featured two patients. For the remaining time, Qin Jun lectured simply about Traditional Chinese Medicine theories and methods of treatment.

He sounded very logical and convincing. Although there were a lot of technical terms, Qin Jun was a youngster and could speak in a relatable manner. Even outsiders could understand him.

This live-stream spread the name of Traditional Chinese Medicine far and wide.

Master Qin had become many people's idol, regardless of whether they were youngsters or the elderly.

After the live-stream ended, The Chinese Medicine Forum became the top trending search on social media platforms.

"The mysterious Traditional Chinese Medicine master is actually the disciple of the master who jumped down the building!"

"I can't believe that the old living deity, who told everyone to believe in Science, actually has a disciple."

"Master Qin from The Chinese Medicine Forum amazed everyone with his skills."

"The Chinese Medicine Forum will end its live-stream now."
