

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 687

I can't believe that this man is actually Master Qin!

Liang Yi gritted his teeth and felt extremely regretful. If he had known that the person was Master Qin, he wouldn't have argued with him. If they did not have that dispute, he could have had Master Qin diagnose his problem, and maybe he could be cured too.

Even though Liang Yi had adopted Hou Jia, wouldn't it be even better if he could have a child of his own?

"Daddy, my face hurts."

Hou Jia tugged on her father's arm from his side, looking wronged and innocent. Liang Yi clenched his jaw. "Don't worry, I will call a few people later. We will see if he still dares to be so arrogant then!"

Soon after, a car arrived and out came a few youngsters.

These youngsters dressed and walked very formally. They did not look like gangsters at all.

"Chairman Liang, what do you need help with?"

Liang Yi replied, "Doctors, my daughter got beaten up, please help me out."

As he spoke, Liang Yi pointed to Qin Jun, "It's him!"

The doctors looked towards the direction Liang Yi was pointing at, and all of their facial expressions changed.

“Master Qin!”

Qin Jun was stunned, he didn't know these people. Yet, he was somewhat popular, so it also wasn't surprising that people recognized him.

The doctors ran up to Qin Jun and held his hand with excitement. “Master Qin, we are doctors from the dental hospital. We've seen you at our hospital before.”

Qin Jun nodded. He realized that when he previously helped Lin Yueyao check on a patient, it was at the dental hospital. It wasn't surprising that others had seen him.

Liang Yi's face fell. He didn't think that this person would actually be Master Qin and that all the doctors he had called knew him. It was such an awkward situation.

“Chairman Liang, we're very sorry. Master Qin is our friend. We aren't able to help you this time.”

These doctors were already reluctant to fight in the first place. They had only come to help because they respected Liang Yi's status as their major pharmaceutical supplier. But now that their opponent was Master Qin, they clearly would not do anything.

Liang Yi looked resentful. He pointed at Qin Jun but had no words to say.

“You... Just you wait, your child does not deserve to attend this elite school! Just wait and see!”

Liang Yi immediately took out his phone and called a teacher, “Hello? Teacher Sun, there's a student here called Qin Yaya. The school must not let her enroll, if she is enrolled, my daughter will not go to this school. Don't even think about getting my two million sponsorship!” Liang Yi hung up right after he finished his sentence.

For regular parents who wanted their children to attend this school, the most they would sponsor was fifty to a hundred thousand. Twenty thousand would be an extraordinary sum.

Liang Yi had generously sponsored two million. His sponsorship amounted to more than what ten parents could offer. Naturally, the school treated him as a priority. It would be absurd to offend Liang Yi just because of one regular parent.

The teacher instantly answered, "Don't worry, Chairman Liang. The student's name is Qin Yaya, right? Let me take a look at the list... OK, I will take her off the list right away."

A few minutes after the conversation ended, Qin Jun's phone rang.

"Hello, is this Qin Yaya's parent? Our school would like to inform you that your child is not eligible for admission. Our school has rejected her enrollment. Please find her a new school."

Qin Jun frowned, "Is this Teacher Sun? Are you sure?"

Teacher Sun laughed coldly, "Nonsense! I am the person in charge here, of course I am sure. You should know who you've offended."
