

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 688

Teacher Sun did not know who Qin Yaya was. He only saw this name on the name list and thought that this was someone applying to enroll.

Someone who could offer a two million sponsorship must easily be someone extraordinary. Such a person must be flattered and not offended.

“You are such a great director,” Qin Jun sneered while he mocked her.

“I am still greater than you,” Teacher Sun laughed on the phone.

Teacher Sun called the security guard office after hanging up the phone.

“Guard, please get Qin Yaya and the parents out of here!” demanded Teacher Sun.

“Yes!”

Although the guard did not understand what had happened, he could only follow the director’s instructions.

Two security guards came over and spoke fiercely.

“Who is Qin Yaya? Get out of here immediately, or else we will do it forcefully!” The guard yelled.

Before Qin Jun could respond, a man who was wearing glasses and a suit rushed over from one of the classrooms.

“Mr. Qin?” The principal ran up to the group and tried to identify Mr. Qin.

“May I know which one of you is Mr. Qin?” The principal inquired.

“I am,” Qin Jun replied.

“Hello, Mr. Qin, I am the principal of Ao Hai Private,” the principal introduced himself while shaking hands with Qin Jun politely.

“What are you both doing here?” The principal was puzzled upon seeing two security guards standing there.

The security guards were stunned for a moment and replied truthfully, “Teacher Sun has instructed us to get them out of here.”

The principal’s expression darkened perceptibly.

“Nonsense! Qin Yaya is our student, and Mr. Qin is our VIP. How could you chase him away? Are you out of your minds?” The principal rebuked them angrily.

“We are so sorry, Mr. Principal. We were just following the director’s instructions.” The security guards were embarrassed.

“How could you mistreat Mr. Qin?” The principal’s face turned pale as he berated the security guards.

“Go get me Teacher Sun!” The principal demanded.

The two security guards ran quickly to find Teacher Sun. Not knowing what was going on, Teacher Sun followed the security guards. Perspiration beaded his forehead as he rushed to the scene.

The security guards had told him that the principal was very angry.

“Mr. Principal, did you ask for me?” Director Sun asked.

“Teacher Sun, I was informed that you wanted to chase Mr. Qin away and that you also rejected Qin Yaya’s enrollment,” the principal said.

“Yes, it was me.” Teacher Sun was stunned as he tried to make sense of the situation.

“How dare you! Who gave you the authority to do this?” The principal questioned him angrily.

“Mr. Principal, this is due to the conflict between them and President Liang. This is President Liang, the pharmaceutical businessman who donated two million to our school,” Teacher Sun replied softly with a stiff expression.

“Two million is nothing! Mr. Qin has donated a hundred million to us! Are you dense?” The principal said coldly.

Everyone was shocked by this new piece of information.

A hundred million?

The amount is way too big, isn't it?

A hundred million could be used to build a few more school buildings!

Liang Yi was not on the same level as Mr. Qin!

“How could this fella be so filthy rich? How could he afford to donate a hundred million?” Liang Yi felt confused.

Looking at Liang Yi, the principal said, “I am so sorry. Since there is a conflict between you and Mr. Qin, we cannot accept your child’s enrollment. We shall return the sponsorship of two million to you in full.”

Liang Yi could not hide his anger. His irritation was written plainly on his face.

“Hey, Qin, don’t you dare mess with me! I’m warning you that I am rich! Even if your sister studies here, I will make sure that her experience is an unpleasant one!” Liang Yi threatened them.
