

MEDICAL GOD CHAPTER 719

After she took off her sunglasses, she seemed like someone with a good temperament and looked quite pretty.

Actually, Wang Dandan was just like any other woman. She was tall, fair, and average-looking, but she just knew how to dress up.

In the entertainment industry, everyone had to know how to dress up. If you placed Lin Yueyao beside her, Wang Dandan would definitely look prettier at the first sight. However, if you took a closer look at both their features, Lin Yueyao would definitely look better.

Who is Wang Dandan?

Everyone was stunned for a moment and they did not know how to continue the conversation.

They knew that she was supposed to be a famous celebrity, yet nobody could recall who Wang Dandan was.

Tang Jianqiang chuckled and he took out his mobile phone to play a song.

“Love is like alcohol, one drink after another...”

After everyone heard that famous melody, they all looked surprised.

Tang Jianqiang said, “This song is Dandan’s most famous work and I’m sure everyone has heard it before, right?”

“Of course, we have. I am very familiar with this song because our line dance uses it.”

“That’s really incredible, I didn’t expect Dandan’s song to be so popular.”

“Jianqiang is so lucky to have such an amazing girlfriend.”

Wang Dandan simply smiled, “It is my song that’s famous, not me. I’m just glad everyone likes it.”

“Look at this star who even speaks so humbly. From now, all of us will be your fans!”

Wang Dandan was actually just a YouTube singer. Some of her songs were more popular and they trended online for a while.

Such singers typically wanted to make a quick buck. They were not concerned about having a long-term career, but rather, they were more interested in the money they could make in the short term. Therefore, they were not particular about what they sang most of the time.

If their venture into the industry was not successful, or if they were not lucky enough to meet a benefactor, their fame might fade within two to three years.

Wang Dandan knew that she did not stand a chance to make it big in the future after being in the industry for some time. In a way, she had a good understanding of where she stood with her capabilities.

With her appearance and voice, it was impossible for her to achieve fame.

Therefore, she wanted to make as much money as she could now, while looking for a good man she could settle down with.

Although Tang Jianqiang was not a big boss of a company, he was still a famous Chinese medicine practitioner. On top of that, he was young and looked quite handsome.

Wang Dandan did not have high requirements. She only chose Tang Jianqiang because she could continue to live a luxurious life without her having to live with an ugly big boss who had a beer belly.

On the other hand, Tang Jianqiang was extremely proud that he was able to score a celebrity girlfriend.

He glanced at Lin Yueyao and asked, "Yueyao, how about you? Do you have a boyfriend?"

Lin Yueyao shook her head and replied, "No, I don't."

Tang Jianqiang had nothing to add. After all, she was a woman and everyone knew that Lin Yueyao was pretty. Hence, she probably did not have a boyfriend because she harbored high expectations.

However, that was not the case for Qin Jun. He was a male and when it comes to looking for a girlfriend, it was not all about the looks but her capabilities.

"Qin Jun, are you single too?"

Tang Min hurriedly said, "Jun's girlfriend will be here later."

"Oh, is that so? What does Jun's girlfriend do?"

Qin Jun raised his head to look at them and replied, "She's also from the entertainment industry."

"She's also from the entertainment industry? What a coincidence!"

Tang Jianqiang was doubtful. He looked at Wang Dandan then he chuckled, "Is she just a small social media influencer?"

Wang Dandan covered her mouth and giggled, pretending to be gentle.

"Nowadays, there are all sorts of people such as social media influencers and Tiktokers, who considers themselves to be in the entertainment industry. It also includes many people who work behind the scenes, but they are actually just like any other typical individual."

Although Wang Dandan did not explicitly spell it out, one could understand what she was trying to say.

In the entertainment industry, only the stars who were in front of the cameras could be considered to be within the circle. The people who worked behind the scenes and even social media influencers were just like any ordinary person.
