Chapter 1071: Suppressing Two Big Forces!

“Whoosh!”

An ear-piercing, whooshing sound was heard.

“Pfft!”

Everyone present then heard a piercing sound.

Tyler, who was fending off the Great Hand of Destruction, got his chest pierced through by a stream of sword Qi before he could break down the energy of the Great Hand of Destruction.

There was a thin cut on his chest, just like the one on Thomas’ chest when he was killed.

Tyler looked at Fang Qiu with a blank face and turned his head to glance at everyone present. After that, he fell down face-up, still with that blank expression on his face.

“Bang!”

With the sound of him falling onto the ground, blood started to flow down his body.

There was a dead silence in the place.

Everyone was too dumbfounded to speak because of Tyler’s sudden death.

“John Doe killed Tyler with just three moves?

“How could this be possible?

“How?”

Everyone on the scene was stunned.

However, those who did not know about Tyler were not that shocked while those who knew Tyler well, such as those mercenaries and those people from big forces, were utterly shocked.

Tyler was a super expert ranked 30th on the Underground List and even stronger than Thomas!

How did John Doe manage to kill him so easily even before the latter could fight back?

How could John Doe be so strong?

How could he be so powerful?

In the face of everyone’s shock, Fang Qiu still looked indifferent.

Without even glancing at Tyler’s body, he turned to look at all the people outside the town and shouted, “Who else wants to try?”

Everyone present was pulled back to reality from their shock by the shout.

They looked at the dead Tyler and finally realized that what happened was true, not just their illusion.

Everyone present kept quiet out of fear.

They were afraid that John Doe would pick on them and they even started stepping back out of fear.

Seeing that there was no response for quite a long while, Fang Qiu snorted, turned around, and walked into the town. He silently helped the living people in the town collect the corpses on the ground that was soaked in blood.

Seeing this, everyone around fell silent.

Certainly, they were afraid of John Doe because he was too strong.

But when they saw that John Doe helped those ordinary people collect those corpses despite his high status, they had a very special feeling in their hearts.

Then, they thought of how John Doe killed hundreds of members of the Truth Division and Gospel Division and even killed Tyler, who was ranked 30th on the Underground List, just to protect those ordinary people.

In the eyes of all the people from the underground forces, John Doe should take delight in everyone's awe and fear for him after he killed those hundreds of people.

But he didn't. Instead, he chose to do something small and even sorrowful in the eyes of ordinary people, like he was an ordinary person too.

Though those people from the underground forces were cold-hearted and didn't regard killing as a crime, they couldn't help but respect Fang Qiu when seeing what he was doing.

"Maybe this is what Huaxia people are like and John Doe is like."

They sighed with emotion in their hearts.

They finally understood why Huaxia had always remained true to its original aspiration, which was upholding peace, and why Huaxia could have become a top country in the world while avoiding having a war with any other country and region.

The reason was that the Huaxia people were all merciful, and so was their nation.

Those onlookers didn't move.

They watched Fang Qiu and the people in the town clean up the ground from a distance.

Half a day later, the town had been cleaned up.

However, outside the town was still a pile of corpses.

"Pitter-patter..."

Just as Fang Qiu walked out of the town, he heard two groups of people hurrying over.

Hearing the footsteps, the people present immediately looked sideways.

Another batch of members of the Truth Division and Gospel Division finally arrived.

They were in a much larger number than before and each armed with a gun and antitank grenades.

"Who is it that killed those people from our Truth Division? Get the hell out here!"

Standing outside the town, the members of the Truth Division shouted angrily while staring at the dead members of their division.

"Who is it that killed those members of our Gospel Division?"

The members of the Gospel Division looked very gloomy. The leader of the group stared at the corpses all over the ground and shouted angrily, "No matter who it is, I'll make you pay with your life!"

No other organization could compare with these two divisions in terms of majesty.

After all, they were very influential at that place.

Under the gazes of people from these two divisions, all the onlookers around turned to look at John Doe, who was walking out of the town.

Standing at the entrance of the town, Fang Qiu glanced at the crowd in front of him indifferently and said, "All of them were killed by me. So what?"

"You're courting death!"

Two voices spoke at almost the same time.

With the voices, two men rushed out of the crowd of the Truth Division and Gospel Division respectively, and charged at Fang Qiu.

"Hmph!"

Fang Qiu snorted coldly. When the two men reached him, he stretched out his hands and instantly grabbed their fists that were coming at him. Then he turned around and shattered their attacks while spinning. Then, his arms exerted huge strength and smashed the two spinning men against the ground like he was waving ropes.

"Puff..."

At the moment the two men fell to the ground, blood spurted out of their mouths like water rushing out of pipes. They died on the spot.

The scene stunned the members of the two divisions that just arrived.

They were well aware that the two experts who took the lead to attack Fang Qiu were both in the seventh class, but they were killed by John Doe with one move.

Although they were just seventh-class experts, they were also very important to the two divisions. Their death weakened the strength of the two divisions.

“Go to hell!”

An elder man from the Gospel Division was furious. He immediately stepped forward and tried to hit Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu could clearly feel that this person should be the Divine Envoy of the Gospel Division and the only Half-step Guru among the members of the Gospel Division in the place.

“John Doe, you’ve gone too far.”

The fat middle-aged man from the Truth Division also stood out. He stared at Fang Qiu with malicious intent and then turned to look at the Divine Envoy from the Gospel Division. After that, he was about to attack Fang Qiu.

“You want to fight?”

Fang Qiu snorted and waved his right hand.

When the divine sword was formed in his hands, he performed the Three-point Shadowless Sword at once.

In the blink of an eye, the three streaks of sword Qi overlapped with each other and bombarded the ground with an extremely sharp stream of energy Qi.

“Crack...”

An enormous crack appeared on the ground after the stroke, as if an earthquake had occurred.

“Are you sure you want to fight?” Fang Qiu asked in a cold voice after the move was made.

The members of the Truth Division and Gospel Division were shocked.

“How did he get the sword in his hand?”

“This sword actually split the ground apart?”

The members of the two divisions were so shocked that they were at a loss for words.

The onlookers were also shocked.

Previously, because John Doe killed Tyler so quickly that even Tyler himself couldn’t react, the onlookers failed to detect how powerful John Doe’s moves were and how the sword in his hand was formed.

The same happened as well when he wiped out some members of the two divisions.

Now, they finally saw how he made his move.

“So powerful!”

“This move seems to be the first move he previously made!”

“I remember Tyler fending off this attack, but he was still killed by John Doe’s third move.”

“I didn’t notice that he hadn’t carried any weapon with him. How did he get the sword in his hand?”

“This sword is so powerful.”

Everyone was surprised.

They were all very curious about the sword in John Doe’s hand.

Of course, there were also many people who were staring at the sword with greedy eyes.

After all, the ancient swords from Huaxia were popular all over the world, let alone such a powerful one. It was no exaggeration to call it a divine weapon.

Among these people, the most emotional person was none other than Lester from Murica.

Seeing Fang Qiu’s attack, the members of the two divisions were immediately a little terrified. The Divine Envoys of the two divisions narrowed their eyes at the same time.

Originally, they shouldn’t have come to this place.

However, they couldn’t resist the temptation of the holy fruit. If they could get the holy fruit, it was very likely that they would be able to improve their strength to another level, become a real top expert, and even dominate the whole Zhongdong.

For their own sake and for the benefit of their divisions, they came here in advance. At the same time, they made up their minds that no matter what price they had to pay, they must get the holy fruit!

However, they didn’t expect to meet John Doe there as soon as they arrived.

The two of them were well aware that if they fought against John Doe now, their own strength would definitely be weakened. It would be great if they could kill John Doe, but if they couldn't, their energy would be consumed in vain, and the loss would outweigh the gain!

After a second thought, both of them waved their hands to signal their men to step back.

They decided not to fight John Doe for the time being.

Although this would make them look like cowards, they decided to let it be since the holy fruit was more important. They thought it worth it if they could improve their strength.

To make great achievements, one had to be able to endure humiliation!

The Divine Envoy of the Truth Division could only shout with a gloomy face, "Once this is over tomorrow, I will definitely settle this score with you."

"Hmph!"

The Divine Envoy of the Gospel Division snorted, and his anger was obvious.

Seeing this, the onlookers were dumbfounded.

"What the f*ck! Are they going to stop fighting?"

"No way! Their Divine Envoys are here, yet they're going to stop fighting?"

"Awesome. John Doe deserves his reputation. He actually subdued these two local forces!"

"Hmph."

Seeing the members of the two divisions step back, Fang Qiu snorted, turned around, and found an empty space. He then sat down in front of the town entrance and waited quietly.

Everyone sat there quietly, waiting for the Heaven Treasure to mature.

The sun set in the west before long.

There was a faint energy fluctuation in the air.

Everyone immediately stood up and looked at the ruins of the temple on the second mountain in front of them.

At this time, a golden ray rose up in the ruins and flickered like candlelight.

The Heaven Treasure was about to mature.

Everyone was ready to go up.

Fang Qiu glanced at everyone present and said, "If you accidentally kill anyone in the town in the fight for the treasure, I'll make you pay the price."

Medical Master

Chapter 1072: Fang Qiu Standing High!

The people from all the forces present frowned upon hearing John Doe's words. They found those words quite unpleasing.

After all, they had come all the way here to fight for the treasure, and some of them had even placed the treasure before their own lives.

Although they pitied these ordinary people in the town, they wouldn't care about their lives since they had risked their own lives to come here.

Nevertheless, they didn't dare to utter their objections before the fight for the holy fruit ended because John Doe was too strong.

They all knew that it was not a good thing for them to confront John Doe at that time.

"Let's go up the mountain!"

The fat middle-aged man from the Truth Division immediately waved his hand and led his men up the mountain quickly.

On the other side, the members of the Gospel Division quickly rushed up from another direction.

The mercenaries and those other forces did not want to lag behind, so they all rushed up quickly as well.

Isabel, Lester, and Yakov went up the mountain as fast as they could.

However, Fang Qiu was not in a hurry to go there.

He followed behind the crowd and slowly went up the mountain.

He knew very well that many people from all forces around the world had come solely for the Bodhi Fruit.

Their arrival would displease the Gospel Division and Truth Division, the two powerful, local forces. After all, the Bodhi Fruit grew in the Gospel Division's territory and was first found by the Truth Division. Besides, the two divisions had declared that they would get the holy fruit at all costs.

Therefore, when they went up the mountain, they would definitely make some trouble to stop other forces from going up the mountain.

That would easily lead to a riot.

Therefore, it might not be a good thing to walk at the front of the crowd.

Because he was walking at the end of the crowd, Fang Qiu could clearly see that the top of the second mountain was very wide.

The temple ruins on the mountain top looked like those in the desert. Most of them had been weathered, and some green plants and vines grew in the corners and cracks of the stones.

The ruins were surrounded by lush trees. Although they were full of vitality, they were not thick.

Everything could be seen clearly at a glance.

After walking down the first mountain and reaching the mountainside of the second mountain, Fang Qiu saw high stairs about five hundred steps. The stairs looked magnificent with a slope angle of 70 degrees, which would give ordinary people a great sense of oppression.

However, those people were all from big forces, and even the weaker ones among them were stronger and braver than ordinary people. Thus, no one stopped their pace when seeing these stairs.

Leading the way, the members of the Truth Division and Gospel Division quickly rushed up the stairs.

After they walked up the stairs, they saw a piece of flat and wide ground. It seemed to be a place where the incense altars of the temples were placed, but the altars were no longer there, so the place was empty.

There was another floor above the ground, about thirty stairs higher, and the real ruins and the Bodhi Fruit were there.

Feeling the energy fluctuations of the holy fruit, everyone couldn't wait any longer and all rushed up.

"Pitter-patter..."

However, just when they reached the first step of the thirty stairs and were about to go up, they heard sudden footsteps.

The members of the Truth Division and the Gospel Division came forward at the same time and blocked the entrance of the stairs.

"What are you doing?" someone asked.

"I'm sorry," a man from the Truth Division said, "but the holy fruit was found by us and has nothing to do with you guys. The holy fruit belongs to us. I understand that you're curious about it. You can stay here and watch if you want to have a look at it, but don't cross the line, or you will have to leave."

Hearing that, everyone immediately understood that the Truth Division wanted to stop others from grabbing the holy fruit.

They became furious.

They had prepared quite a lot in order to get the holy fruit.

Never had they imagined that they would be stopped at the mountainside.

Since they had come all the way here and prepared so much, they would not back down and watch someone else get the holy fruit.

The people from those forces got furious.

The atmosphere instantly became tense, as if a war was about to break out at any time.

“Haha.”

But right at this moment, a burst of laughter was heard.

Everyone turned around and saw a middle-aged man with a thick beard come near. He was wearing a uniform of the Murican special forces and armed with rifles, pistols, military daggers, grenades, and so on.

“Is he Iron Wolf?”

“He is the head of the Iron Wolf Mercenaries. The organization is ranked seventh among all the mercenary organizations in the world.”

“This organization is quite powerful. I heard that it could be considered one of the top forces in the world. It’s stronger than the Truth Division and Gospel Division.”

The crowd whispered among themselves.

However, the members of the Truth Division and the Gospel Division remained indifferent, showing no respect to Iron Wolf at all.

Under everyone’s gaze, Iron Wolf stepped forward, looked at the members of the Truth Division, and then at the members of the Gospel Division. “Hey, this is the Gospel Division’s territory, right? Whatever grows here belongs to the Gospel Division and has nothing to do with you guys from the Truth Division.

“Since you guys tried to stop me, I want to ask you, will you let the Gospel Division get the holy fruit if we leave?” he said.

As soon as he said that, the faces of the members of the Truth Division instantly changed.

Although they knew that Iron Wolf was trying to sow dissension between the two divisions, they couldn't refute him at all, because what he said was true.

The members of the Gospel Division also turned to look at the people from the Truth Division with hostility in their eyes.

It seemed that the newly formed alliance would break soon.

The atmosphere suddenly changed.

The people from those other forces were no longer aggressive. Instead, they were all ready to watch a good show and see how the Truth Division and the Gospel Division would deal with this matter.

"Howl..."

But right at this moment, a thunderous roar reverberated in the air.

The roar startled everyone.

Many experts among the crowd quickly looked at the ruins at the top of the mountain.

"It's coming!"

Fang Qiu also looked at the top of the mountain immediately.

Under the setting sun, Fang Qiu saw a huge shadow walking out from the ruins at the top of the mountain. At this time, the shadow was howling to the sky!

"Pitter-patter..."

As soon as the shout died away, the sound of something leaping was heard.

A giant wolf jumped out of the ruins at the top of the mountain, guarding the entrance of the stairs. With its deep blue eyes wide open, it opened its huge mouth and roared at the people at the mountainside.

“Howl!!!”

The howl caused a gust of wind in the air.

A disgusting smell of blood wafted out from the giant wolf’s mouth.

Some ordinary people couldn’t help vomiting when they caught the smell.

However, most of the people were shocked!

They had never seen such a big wolf before.

They looked up and found that the wolf’s legs were as thick as those of the human beings. The wolf was about three meters high, almost as tall as a one-storey house!

It was even bigger than an elephant.

What shocked those people even more was that the wolf’s teeth were extremely sharp, which caused their hair to stand on end.

Someone shouted, “It wants to snatch the holy fruit!”

The fat middle-aged man from the Truth Division and the old man from the Gospel Division moved at the same time and rushed to the ruins above. Obviously, they were going to fight against the guardian beast for the Bodhi Fruit!

The remaining people of the two divisions were still blocking the entrance of the stairs to stop others from going up.

With the appearance of the guardian beast, all the people present who knew about the Heaven Treasure realized that the Bodhi Fruit was about to mature.

They immediately tried to break through the defense line of the Truth Division and Gospel Division despite the two divisions blocking the entrance.

At the back of the crowd, Fang Qiu stood quietly and stared at the ruins at the top of the mountain for a while. Then he moved, quietly disappeared into the forest behind him, and climbed to the top of the mountain from another path.

If his guess was right, the people from the Nirvana Organization would definitely try to add fuel to the fire and trigger a great battle among those forces.

As a result, Fang Qiu would not join the fight for the holy fruit before he could catch the person sent by the Nirvana Organization.

After he arrived at the top of the mountain, Fang Qiu flew straight to the highest wall of the ruins, which had been severely weathered. The buildings built in ancient times were very thick, and because he was hiding behind the highest wall, no one could see him at all.

Standing high, he could see far.

He carefully observed the situation for a while and found that some people from the Truth Division in the crowd were attacking the people from the Gospel Division, while some people from the Gospel Division were also attacking the people from the Truth Division.

The alliance formed by the two divisions was quickly broken. While trying to stop other forces from going up, the two divisions were also fighting against each other.

During the fight, some people from the Truth Division killed a few mercenaries ruthlessly, and so did the people from the Gospel Division.

As a result, those mercenaries and people from medium-sized and small-sized forces immediately joined the fight and started killing.

A crazy battle quietly broke out.

During the fierce battle, some experts from the big forces left the battlefield and flew to the top of the mountain to besiege the giant wolf with the people from the Truth Division and Gospel Division.

Certainly, there were also some people who wanted to take the opportunity to seize the Heaven Treasure that had just matured, but they were all stopped.

Fang Qiu standing at the highest place just watched the fight without any intention of intervening.

It was because he knew it would be useless for him to intervene.

He still had to wait, just like how he did for the Ambergris Grass the last time.

Fang Qiu knew very well that the people of the Nirvana Organization were not so generous as to watch others get the Heaven Treasure that ranked the ninth among all.

In any case, the Nirvana Organization would never let anyone else take the Heaven Treasure away so easily!

Medical Master

Chapter 1073: Rebirth Only by Breaking!

Five minutes.

Under the siege of a group of experts, the giant wolf only held on for five minutes and was beaten away.

Originally, with the strength of this group of experts, they could have killed the giant wolf.

However, human hearts were cunning.

Although these guys worked together to deal with the giant wolf, none of them was willing to kill the wolf, for fear that the giant wolf would go crazy after being hurt and then target them.

After all, they had yet to fight for the holy fruit.

On the highest thick wall.

Fang Qiu saw with his own eyes that the giant wolf jumped directly from the top of the mountain to the bottom. After a few angry roars to the sky, it quickly ran away and disappeared into the jungle.

“It’s a pity. If this wolf were to be taken back to Beijiang to watch the door, the effect would be as good as that of the giant tiger under the snow-capped mountain.”

Fang Qiu secretly felt that it was a pity.

He also withdrew his gaze from the giant wolf and turned to look at the center of the ruins. It was a room that had been weathered to the point where it had no walls, and even the floor had become sand.

At the center of that place, there was a badly damaged rush cushion.

In the middle of the rush cushion.

There was a small withered yellow tree the size of a palm.

Both branches and leaves were yellow.

There was no golden light. It made one feel as if they had dried up.

However, there was a fruit hanging on the seemingly withered tree.

It was thumb-sized and round like a longan fruit. It was transparent and there was a faint golden light flowing in it.

On the periphery, golden light swirled. It was truly a beautiful sight!

This was the Bodhi Fruit!

Repelling the giant wolf, the group of experts immediately changed their target to Bodhi Fruit.

Almost everyone rushed to Bodhi Fruit immediately.

However, there were too many people. The location where the Bodhi Fruit was located was a little narrow. Therefore, before they could rush to the side of the Bodhi Fruit, they collided with each other.

Even if one of them could take a step forward first, others would step forward to stop him before he touched the fruit!

They gave each other tit for tat.

The several people were fighting fiercely, neither giving in to the others.

If he couldn't get it, he wouldn't let others get it!

Atop the peak.

Fang Qiu glanced at the fierce competition between them and then turned to look at other places without worry.

He knew that it was very difficult to determine who was the best among these people. In their mutual restraint, no one could touch or get Bodhi Fruit at all, so Fang Qiu was not worried about it at all.

Compared with these people who were blatantly snatching the Bodhi Fruit, Fang Qiu cared more about the Nirvana guy!

He was searching.

Where exactly did the person from Nirvana hide?

However, after searching for a long time, he was unable to find him.

Fang Qiu couldn't help frowning when he saw that the battle below was getting more intense.

"Could it be that the person from Nirvana did not come?"

Fang Qiu thought to himself.

"No. He must have come!"

With a stir of his mind, Fang Qiu immediately released his Divine Consciousness, trying to find out where the Nirvana guy was hiding.

But right at this moment...

"Swoosh!"

Suddenly, a sharp sound was heard.

He looked in the direction of the sound.

He saw that in a corner of the ruins, a black shadow suddenly appeared. It was very close to the Bodhi Fruit. When the experts were fighting fiercely, it suddenly reached out and grabbed the fruit. Then it ran away at an extremely fast speed.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

“He’s here!”

Obviously, this black shadow was a member of the Nirvana Organization.

Looking at the place where the other party suddenly appeared, Fang Qiu saw a shell, which was made of stone. The inside was hollow.

The guy from the Nirvana Organization had been hiding in this shell!

“Who?”

The moment the fruit was taken away, the two Divine Envoys of the Truth Division and the Gospel Division withdrew from the battlefield at the same time. Regardless of the others, they immediately chased after him at a high speed.

The others didn’t fall behind and successively stopped, chasing after him.

Standing at the highest point...

“It really is them!”

Fang Qiu saw the appearance of the black shadow clearly.

He was the person Fang Qiu met the last time he went to Qingning Province’s Qinghai Lake to pick up the Ambergris Grass!

This proved that Fang Qiu’s guess was right.

Sure enough, the Nirvana Organization was the mastermind behind this incident!

Seeing everyone chasing after him, Fang Qiu also jumped down and rushed into the jungle in a flash to catch up with him.

Nevertheless, the young man from the Nirvana Organization was not afraid at all. Not only did he keep a constant speed, but he also kept moving in one direction, as if he had a purpose!

The pursuers were all very fast.

Along the way, he passed by several branches of the Gospel Division, which intercepted him one after another. However, these ordinary people could not stop him at all.

In this way, as he fled, he destroyed several branches of the Gospel Division and killed many people of Gospel Division.

This scene made the Divine Envoy of the Gospel Division extremely angry.

However, there was nothing he could do.

Even if he was a Half-step Guru, he could hardly catch up with him!

This chase lasted for more than an hour. Under the guidance of the Nirvana guy, everyone directly ran out of the jurisdiction of the Gospel Division and entered the jurisdiction of the Truth Division.

“That direction leads to...?”

Glancing in the direction where the man ran away, Fang Qiu immediately realized that the man’s purpose was very likely to be the headquarters of the Truth Division in Esfahan!

At the thought of this...

“The Truth Division is going to fall into a trap!”

Fang Qiu shook his head secretly.

Sure enough.

Along the way, the Nirvana guy led all the pursuers and went past several branches of the Truth Division. However, unlike the branches of the Gospel Division, no one stopped him, and not even a soul was in sight. They were completely empty.

Apparently, this was the precaution that the Divine Envoy of the Truth Division had taken, when he saw the tragic situation of the various branches of the Gospel Division and noticed that the other side was moving toward their territory.

For the Truth Division, this kind of precaution was undoubtedly very good. It could completely prevent them from suffering losses.

However...

In the eyes of the Gospel Division and other pursuers, this was slightly unusual.

Why didn't the Truth Division stop him?

Although the Truth Division branches all included weak ordinary people, the obstruction of these ordinary people could also affect the speed of the other party so that it was more likely for them to catch up with him.

The mobilization of the Truth Division made the branches empty. Obviously, they didn't want to stop him!

It was even more different in the eyes of the Gospel Division.

They had already lost so many branches and brothers of the Gospel Division. Why didn't Truth Division lose a single one of them? Or was it the original plan of the Truth Division?

Between the two supreme powers, the one who suffered a little more might be the one to be suppressed by the other.

How could the Gospel Division be convinced in the face of such a situation?

As expected, the expression of the Divine Envoy of the Gospel Division had already darkened when he looked at the Divine Envoy of the Truth Division.

Originally, he wanted to take the opportunity to wipe out a few more branches of the Truth Division, but now it seemed that there was no chance at all!

"As expected, you're quite ambitious."

Fang Qiu murmured to himself.

After about an hour, night fell.

As Fang Qiu had expected, the Nirvana guy directly rushed into Esfahan and ran into the headquarters of the Truth Division.

This time, the headquarters of the Truth Division was obviously different from its branches. It had received the signal long ago and was obviously well-prepared. When the other party rushed in, they immediately opened fire!

The terrifying artillery fire came crashing toward him.

In response to the artillery fire that filled the sky, the Nirvana guy's figure flashed before he instantly dashed into the garden of the Truth Division headquarters. Then, he stealthily disappeared into the darkness.

Then, the pursuers rushed in and could only collide head-on with the bombardment all over the sky.

Because he was in the back, Fang Qiu didn't chase after them. When he saw that the pursuers were completely surrounded by the powerful firepower of the headquarters, he immediately stopped on the high wall at the edge of the headquarters.

As he hid his figure, he secretly released his Divine Consciousness and began to search for the location of the Nirvana guy.

Although in the last meeting, Fang Qiu clearly understood that this young man, who was good at setting up a trap with the Heaven Treasure, had a kind of technique that could completely hide his aura and could not even be detected by Divine Consciousness.

However...

This time, the situation was different from the last time.

This time, the other party carried the Heaven Treasure—Bodhi Fruit!

Therefore, what Fang Qiu used his Divine Consciousness to detect was not the opponent's energy aura, but the Bodhi Fruit's energy aura. A person could hide his aura, but the Bodhi Fruit couldn't, could it?

Where the Bodhi Fruit was, he could find the person!

"Over there."

As soon as his Divine Consciousness came out, Fang Qiu immediately detected the location of the Bodhi Fruit.

It was a dormitory in an extremely ordinary small building in the headquarters of the Truth Division.

Ignoring the pursuers who were being bombarded by the cannon fire of the Truth Division, Fang Qiu moved and quietly fell off from a corner. Then he walked toward the small building quietly.

He came to the side of the small building.

Fang Qiu pricked up his ears and actually heard two people's voices.

"The plan was carried out well this time."

"That's right, haha!"

"Zhongdong has completely fallen. The people here are living in pain that can't be removed. We should pity them, convert them, and stop them from suffering!"

"Yes, their pain is recognized by the whole world. And the source of all the pain in Zhongdong is these self-proclaimed top forces. Without these forces, there will be no source of pain or so many people's pain.

“Since they are living in pain, why do we let them continue to suffer? Even if there is no source of pain, they will still live in pain. Therefore, the more people die, the more people we will convert. The fiercer the battles in this place are, the more contributions we will make!”

“What about those ordinary people?”

“If they are dead, they are dead. Anyway, the place where they live is hell on earth. There’s nothing to enjoy even if they’re alive. It is better for them to die. Without pain, they will be free!

“Only by breaking can they be reborn!”

When he heard this, Fang Qiu’s heart tightened, and he immediately clenched his fists.

He had proved that the Nirvana Organization was behind this, but he didn’t expect that their purpose was purely to kill people.

He didn’t care about the survival of the Truth Division or Gospel Division, but what had the ordinary people here done wrong? Why should they die?

Medical Master

Chapter 1074: Fighting for the Holy Fruit!

Fang Qiu was furious.

He could tell that the Nirvana Organization’s actions were not only aimed at the Truth Division and the Gospel Division, but also at Zhongdong and even the whole world.

The situation in Zhongdong was already bad enough. If the Nirvana Organization stirred things up again, the flames of war would inevitably spread and the people of the several countries in Zhongdong would inevitably become homeless. At that time, it was hard to tell what actions those countries would take. Moreover, the resources in Zhongdong were very rich. If a war broke out, it was really hard to say whether other countries would join in.

Such a war was very likely to bring disaster to everyone in the world.

Perhaps that was the true purpose of the Nirvana Organization.

In their eyes, everyone in the world was suffering, including themselves, so they needed to destroy the old world and create a new one, and since the world would not be destroyed itself, they decided to do it so that a new world would form.

“All we need to do now is watch from the side. Those who died will thank us for our Divine Intervention.”

“Shall we leave now?”

“No, we’ll wait for the battle outside to become a bit fiercer first.”

“Why?”

“We need to see the result. If the battle stops, it means our plan might fail; but if the battle becomes fiercer, the Truth Division will face more anger from others. By then, the Truth Division possibly would look for the Gospel Division, and we could get the Gospel Division involved in this. Then, we could get what we want.”

“Whoosh!”

At that moment, a whooshing sound was heard all of a sudden.

“Crack!”

With the sound, the window glass of the room was shattered, and then a stone carrying great force shot into the room and toward the head of one of the two men.

“Who is it?”

The young man with the Heaven Treasure looked grave and immediately turned to look out of the window.

He immediately saw a familiar face.

It was John Doe!

The young man was shocked.

But when he was taken aback, Fang Qiu, who had already been furious, rushed straight into the room.

With a wave of his right hand, a ray of sword light instantly appeared.

The young man shouted coldly, “You’re courting death! You presented yourself to me before I go to look for you, haha!”

With that, he met the sword Qi from Fang Qiu with both fists that carried enormous strength.

“Bang!”

A loud explosion was heard.

This young man broke Fang Qiu’s sword Qi with a punch.

After the punch, the young man exerted his internal Qi and threw another even mightier punch at Fang Qiu’s chest.

“Hmph.”

Fang Qiu snorted.

He stretched out his right hand and slapped the young man’s fist. While making use of the force, he turned his body sideways at an extremely fast speed and grabbed in the air where his Divine Consciousness had detected. He directly tore off the man’s trouser pocket, then immediately turned back and rushed out of the room with a whoosh.

The thing in this trouser pocket was the Bodhi Fruit!

There was no way that his Divine Consciousness would make a mistake. What was more, as soon as he touched the pocket, he clearly felt the energy aura emitted by the Bodhi Fruit.

“Stop!”

The young man was furious, and so was the other man.

The two of them roared out at the same time and quickly gave chase.

Outside the room, everyone was furious under the crazy attacks from the headquarters of the Truth Division. When they were ready to kill the people from the Truth Division, they heard terrifying sounds of energy collision and fluctuation coming from the small building nearby.

They looked in that direction and saw three people running out of the building, and one of them was exactly the person whom they had chased after and who had grabbed the holy fruit!

These people immediately went after the three men while fending off the fierce gunfire.

At the very front, Fang Qiu flew all the way at a fast speed.

The two young men from the Nirvana Organization chased after him with all their might!

Just as Fang Qiu had said, the Nirvana Organization would never allow a top-notch Heaven Treasure like the Bodhi Fruit to be taken away by others like this.

Last time, Fang Qiu defeated them and got the Ambergris Grass, and this time, if Fang Qiu successfully snatched the Bodhi Fruit from them, they would suffer a great loss.

Fang Qiu flew all the way out of the city.

He knew that a battle was inevitable, so he ran all the way to the deserted wilderness.

Although he could now try to hide to avoid being attacked, the Nirvana Organization, the Truth Division, the Gospel Division, and those who went after him would not let him off easily.

Thus, he had to get rid of one of those forces first so that he would not be left with no way out.

After running for more than 50 kilometers, Fang Qiu stopped in a forest on the mountain.

“Kill him!”

As soon as he stopped, the young man’s voice came from behind.

“Swish! Swish...”

The two men who caught up with Fang Qiu exerted all their strength without saying a word. They wanted to knock John Doe down directly and take back the Bodhi Fruit from him.

With the lesson they learned last time, the two men from the Nirvana Organization did not dare to hesitate to attack at all, afraid that Fang Qiu would flee again.

However, to their surprise, Fang Qiu didn't flee this time but fought back when they attacked him.

"Clang!"

Fang Qiu unsheathed his divine sword.

He raised his sword and slashed down hard at the two men, meeting their fierce attacks.

The two men split up tacitly to dodge Fang Qiu's sword Qi and then attacked Fang Qiu from two sides.

"Humph." Fang Qiu snorted.

He could clearly tell that the young man he hadn't seen before was in the ninth class with one opened meridian, while the young man he had seen once before was at the peak of the ninth class.

If he hadn't gotten the Ambergris Grass or made a breakthrough, he would be no match for them.

But now, he was able to defeat a Half-step Guru, which meant that the two men couldn't defeat him even if they joined hands.

The moment the two sides exchanged blows, they immediately engaged in an incomparably fierce fight!

As John Doe had expected, the two men were no match for him in terms of strength and speed. He easily suppressed them though they joined hands.

Seeing this, the two men looked grim.

"He is so powerful!"

“How could he be so strong? Last time, he could barely take my moves and had to flee. Yet now, he has become so much stronger?”

Despite in shock, the young man at the peak of the ninth class had already begun to think about escaping.

Fang Qiu seemed to have seen through their intention.

Like the man at the peak of the ninth class, the other young man in the ninth class with one opened meridian, who was put under more pressure, had long wanted to escape.

Both of them knew very well that John Doe would never show mercy to the members of the Nirvana Organization.

Up until now, many members of the Nirvana had already been killed by John Doe.

If they didn't run now, they would be killed as well.

Both from the Nirvana Organization, the two men didn't care about each other's life at all.

Almost at the same time, they tried to escape, thinking that the other would hold off John Doe.

However, as they stopped fighting almost at the same time and chose to escape, Fang Qiu was free of attacks right now.

“Trying to run?”

He gave a cold snort.

He exerted all his strength, rushed to the man who was in the ninth class with one opened meridian in an instant, and threw out a punch without hesitation, sending the man flying toward the other escaping

man. At the same time, he also went after the latter, quickly caught up with him, and stopped him, whose face he was familiar with.

“You...”

The young man’s face changed. Before he could finish speaking, he was hit in the chest by Fang Qiu’s heavy punch and flew backward to collide with his companion who had just been hit as well.

They fell to the ground at the same time.

Looking at Fang Qiu, both of them were completely shocked.

They had never expected John Doe to have become so powerful now. They thought themselves to be powerful, yet they couldn’t resist John Doe’s attacks at all.

For a moment, both of them wanted to commit suicide.

They certainly were not afraid of death as they were from the Nirvana Organization.

“Hmm? You’re still a bit too slow.”

Just as Fang Qiu was about to kill them, he perked up his ear and frowned hard.

“Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh...”

Several whooshing sounds could be heard.

Then, he saw the two Divine Envoys from the Truth Division and Gospel Division respectively, the head of the Iron Wolf Mercenaries, and the other four mercenaries that he didn’t know, as well as some experts sent by other big forces, coming at him.

Seeing this, the two men from the Nirvana Organization looked at each other and immediately wanted to escape again. They quickly stood up from the ground and tried to flee.

But Fang Qiu wouldn't give them the chance.

Before the two men could move, he directly rushed up to them and blocked their path.

However, those people who had just caught up with him all rushed up as well and surrounded Fang Qiu and the two men from the Nirvana Organization in a semicircle.

"Hand over the holy fruit! Don't make us use violence!"

"Where is the holy fruit?"

"Who is it that stole the holy fruit? Give it to me!"

"Hand over the holy fruit, or you'll die."

Those people shouted and asked Fang Qiu and the two men from the Nirvana Organization to hand over the holy fruit.

Fang Qiu stepped forward and said, "Calm down, guys. This is all a conspiracy. An organization called Nirvana stirred things up among you in order to make you fight each other. Don't be blinded by the holy fruit."

"What conspiracy?"

"What kind of organization is Nirvana?"

“You have to be better at telling lies to be convincing. We are all from the underground forces and know all the underground forces and organizations in the world, but we have never heard of the Nirvana Organization.”

“Cut the crap. Hurry up and hand over the holy fruit!”

Obviously, this group of people didn’t believe Fang Qiu at all because they had never heard of the Nirvana Organization.

Fang Qiu couldn’t help frowning after seeing this.

He couldn’t help but wonder if those people knew the Nirvana Organization.

“Hand over the holy fruit and you can say whatever you want!”

“Where is the holy fruit?”

They pressed forward step by step.

“The holy fruit is with John Doe.”

Seeing that things were getting worse, the young man at the peak of the ninth class rolled his eyes and immediately pointed at Fang Qiu!

Medical Master

Chapter 1075: Chase if You Can!

“John Doe has the holy fruit. He took it from me by himself.” The young man at the peak of the ninth class of Nirvana Organization immediately reached out and pointed at Fang Qiu.

He had known that he was no match for John Doe now. Even if he had a ninth-class ally with one opened meridian, it was absolutely impossible for him to survive from John Doe.

Hence, the pursuers of the holy fruit had become his only hope.

If he could make use of these people to pin down John Doe, he still had a chance to survive!

On the other side, the people who were chasing after the holy fruit immediately turned to look at Fang Qiu when they heard the man's roar!

"Alas," Fang Qiu sighed.

He originally wanted to explain it clearly to these people. After all, they were at the top of the major forces. As long as they saw the truth, then Nirvana Organization's plan to cause a large-scale war would naturally collapse on itself.

However, these people were all attracted by the holy fruit and couldn't listen to Fang Qiu at all.

Fang Qiu was well aware that even if he took out the holy fruit now, they would definitely not listen to him as well. Instead, they would fight against each other because of its appearance. In the end, their forces would inevitably have conflicts, which would lead to a large-scale war!

That was what Fang Qiu didn't want to see.

The reason why he returned to Zhongdong was to prevent all this from happening.

Therefore, he would never hand over the holy fruit in any case. Just like the plutonium material map, the holy fruit was the core of this war.

Only by completely erasing this core would the war be avoided!

At the thought of this, Fang Qiu looked at everyone present, shook his head gently, and said, “Yes, the holy fruit is in my hands. Chase me if you guys can!”

With these words, Fang Qiu didn’t bother to talk to them anymore. He turned around and flew out promptly.

“Chase!” As the envoy of the Truth Division roared, a group of people who came for the holy fruit immediately rushed out and chased after Fang Qiu quickly.

Seeing that, the two men of Nirvana Organization breathed a sigh of relief at the same time. They looked at each other and quickly fled in another direction.

“Swish...” The wind whistled.

Fang Qiu had a general understanding of the terrain of Zhongdong because of the previous visit to almost the entire area. Therefore, he chose to flee to the forest and deliberately shunned all the towns and villages, because he was afraid that the people behind him would attack ordinary people and threaten him with them.

Moreover, the two Divine Envoys of the Truth Division and the Gospel Division were from Zhongdong, so they had a better understanding of the terrain than Fang Qiu. Hence, they could quickly judge where Fang Qiu had run and the actual situation of the villages and towns ahead. In that case, they could absolutely inform the organizations and ask them to lie in ambush in the towns and villages, even controlling all the villagers to threaten him with their lives.

In order to prevent such a thing from happening, Fang Qiu had no choice but to immediately turn left, right, east, and north after running away for a distance!

The people who were chasing after him were almost confused by Fang Qiu.

Of course, while constantly changing directions, Fang Qiu deliberately kept a little faster than the people who were chasing him. As time went by, he gradually pulled away from them.

Seeing that, the people behind him were not willing to fall behind. They tried their best to chase after him in succession.

“It’s almost time. Something may go wrong if they continue to chase.” Arriving at the junction of the remit of the Truth Division and the Gospel Division, Fang Qiu no longer held back. The power of a guru inside of him directly burst out and his speed instantly soared.

Seen by all the pursuers, Fang Qiu directly rushed into the jungle, which occupied half of the area of the Truth Division and the Gospel Division respectively.

Then, he disappeared.

The group dashed into the jungle and searched for a long time, but even failed to find any footprint, let alone Fang Qiu’s figure, which drove them extremely furious and displeased.

How could John Doe run away just like that?

The holy fruit! The holy fruit they should have obtained had actually been taken away by John Doe.

For a time, the experts of all the major forces were so annoyed that they all wished they had had wings and flown high to see where John Doe was.

At this time, Fang Qiu had reached the forest dozens of kilometers away.

“Swish...” The sound of the wind became fiercer.

When Fang Qiu exerted all his strength, his speed reached the limit, which was simply incomparable to that of those people.

However, after running out of the pursuit range of the group of people, Fang Qiu didn’t stop. Instead, he continued to move forward in one direction at a high speed.

He well knew that there were a lot of forces behind those people. As soon as he disappeared, they would immediately inform the forces under their command to start searching the entire Zhongdong in the first place, especially the Truth Division and the Gospel Division. As long as the two top organizations gave the order, an encirclement around the place where he disappeared in a short time could be formed and the search would be expanded.

Therefore, Fang Qiu could only find a safe place to hide first, which was absolutely beyond other people's imagination.

There was only one safest place in his mind, that was, the place he was going to now!

After dashing at full speed for half an hour, Fang Qiu finally slowed down a little.

The destination was right in front of him.

In the dense forest, Fang Qiu looked up.

Through gaps between the trees, he could clearly see a high mountain, the ruins that had been weathered for the most part!

Right. That was where Bodhi Fruit grew.

Just a few hours ago, there were still countless people fighting and killing for the sake of Bodhi Fruit!

This was called "darkness under the light"!

Even if the whole Zhongdong was turned upside down by the Truth Division and the Gospel Division, they would never be able to get here!

Fang Qiu arrived at the foot of the mountain. Since he came from the back, there was no road or stairs here, except a particularly high and steep cliff!

Below the cliff was a lush forest.

At the top of the cliff were precisely the temple ruins that had been weathered for a long time.

Stopping in the woods, Fang Qiu released his Divine Consciousness, and then it completely covered the 20-kilometer surroundings. After making sure that the people on the mountain had left and there was no one else in the ruins, he just moved and directly rose into the air, stepping on the cliff and flying up.

In the blink of an eye, he rushed to the top of the cliff, landing in the ruins of the temple.

This time, Fang Qiu stopped directly at the place where Bodhi Fruit grew rather than the highest point.

“It is full of sand. How can Bodhi Fruit grow?” Fang Qiu was curious.

This was something that he was particularly curious about when he caught sight of the fruit.

There were no green plants or signs of life in this place, only yellow sand and rocks that had weathered for a long time left, which looked extremely desolate.

Why did Bodhi Fruit grow in this kind of place?

Perplexed, Fang Qiu squatted down and reached out to push aside the sand where the fruit was growing.

As a result, Fang Qiu saw a completely different piece of land at once.

“Hmm?” It turned out to be red soil under the sand.

“There’s actually red soil under the sand?”

Feeling confused, Fang Qiu waved his right hand, and then a wave of internal Qi swept out, sweeping away all the yellow sand under his feet.

In the next moment, a completely different piece of ground appeared in front of Fang Qiu.

This was a piece of land that was wholly carved from marble. In the center of this piece of land, a rhombic depression was suffused with a large amount of red soil. And Bodhi Fruit was just born from this red soil.

In addition to red soil, there were numerous complicated patterns carved everywhere else. A sapphire the size of a thumb was even embedded where the golden section existed.

“It is not a temple, is it?” Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

He thought this place was not a temple. The reason why it looked like a temple was that it had been weathered for too long. The wall turned into sand and completely buried the true appearance of this place. Plus, it seemed that nothing here could attract people superficially, so it was misunderstood as a temple for so many years.

“If it’s not a temple, what is it?” Fang Qiu began to carefully observe the complicated and dense patterns on the ground with curiosity.

After a while, he stretched out his hand toward the sapphire, pressing it gently.

“Crack!” A crisp sound came.

The floor under his feet suddenly moved, as if it had been drawn out.

It didn’t stop until the half had been moved.

Fang Qiu turned to look. A tunnel entrance appeared at the place where the floor had been moved. There were even steps leading down.

“There’s actually a tunnel?” Thinking of this, Fang Qiu immediately walked in.

As soon as he entered it, the tunnel was automatically closed.

In order not to be discovered, Fang Qiu used his internal Qi to control the yellow sand across a block of thick marble to hide the place again, just like before.

He had never expected that there would be such an underground passage in the ruins, but it happened to solve his current predicament.

No one had found this tunnel for many years, and it would not be found in a short time, so Fang Qiu could enter it with peace of mind.

As for what was in it, it would have to be explored by Fang Qiu himself.

At the same time, all forces in Zhongdong had gone mad!

“John Doe got it?”

“The things in our Zhongdong were actually robbed by a person from Huaxia?”

“John Doe can’t escape from Zhongdong!”

Of course, when all the major forces in Zhongdong went crazy, almost all the underground forces around the world burst into an uproar.

“John Doe got the holy fruit of Zhongdong!”

“Before the battle for the holy fruit, John Doe stood up and protected a town!”

“John Doe not only killed hundreds of people from the Truth Division and the Gospel Division, but also killed Tyler, the Demon King ranked 30th on the Underground List, with only three moves!”

“Chased by the top experts of all the major forces, John Doe still took the holy fruit!”

For a time, miscellaneous major events that John Doe had engaged in in Zhongdong were exposed on the forum of underground forces, which caused a heated discussion and a sensation!

Medical Master

Chapter 1076: John Doe Snatched the Map!

“That really is John Doe. Wherever he goes, he can do a lot of shocking things.”

“In Zhongdong, John Doe really does what he said before!”

“I don’t know who has obtained the plutonium material map now. If even it has fallen into John Doe’s hands, it would be too terrible.”

Countless people were discussing on the forum of underground forces.

“It is said that when John Doe was being pursued, he once said that everything happening recently in Zhongdong was a trap set up by Nirvana Organization, whose purpose was to cause chaos in Zhongdong and a war!” Just when everyone was talking enthusiastically, Fang Qiu’s statement was also spread on the forum of the underground forces by a person in Zhongdong in the meantime.

“Nirvana Organization? What kind of organization is that?”

“I have never heard of the so-called Nirvana Organization.”

“No way. All these were all set up by one organization? Isn’t this organization going too far?”

“How can there be such a force in the world that can mess up the situation at will? Besides, there are so many underground forces around the world. I have really never heard of any so-called Nirvana Organization.”

“Why do I feel that John Doe is cheating us?”

Hearing the news, no one believed it.

After all, they’d never heard of Nirvana Organization and didn’t think that the five great countries could tolerate the existence of an organization that could sow chaos and incite war in the world.

However, the major underground forces in the world dared’t treat it lightly despite disbelief. They all sent people to investigate if Nirvana Organization really existed or not. If so, did it relate to the recent situation in Zhongdong?

After all, all the major forces were also aware that what had happened there was too strange.

Firstly, the plutonium material map appeared in the Truth Division, and then the holy fruit appeared in the Gospel Division again. From the beginning to the present, everything seemed to be happening around the two divisions.

From this perspective, it was indeed a little abnormal.

At the same time, the Truth Division and the Gospel Division were also discussing this matter.

“Fuck. He actually escaped!” At the headquarters of the Gospel Division, no sooner had the Divine Envoy returned than he couldn’t help swearing, “John Doe is so cunning!”

“Calm down.” On the host seat, the middle-aged man in armor frowned, saying, “John Doe has been opposing us. This time, he not only did rob the holy fruit belonging to us, but has killed many of our people. He’s too arrogant!”

“We need to give him some punishment.” Next to him, the military counselor frowned slightly and said, “Now everyone knows John Doe has the holy fruit. It is so tempting to other forces that even if other forces have found John Doe’s whereabouts, they may not speak it out loud. Therefore, what we have to do now is directly issue the wanted poster and offer a reward!”

“Well, what Military Counselor said makes sense.” Nodding knowingly, the middle-aged man in the main seat waved his hand and said, “Send out the wanted poster immediately and offer a reward of 100 million dollars for the arrest of John Doe. Those who can provide relevant information will be generously rewarded!”

Soon, the wanted poster from the Gospel Division was issued.

And it was offhand spread on the forum of underground forces as well.

“100 million dollars?”

“It’s not a small sum of money, but don’t you think it’s a little inappropriate to use it to arrest John Doe?”

“Haha, the Gospel Division is really stingy. The general in Southern Yue was willing to spend one billion dollars to kill John Doe. Just 100 million dollars is definitely not enough.”

“That’s too little. How can the Gospel Division arrest John Doe with such a small sum of money?”

“100 million dollars is even not enough to buy information, isn’t it?”

Many people began to laugh at the Gospel Division on the forum.

Indeed, compared with John Doe’s value in the killer world, 100 million dollars was really not enough. However, everyone knew that this was just an act of the Gospel Division to show its determination to the public. Moreover, 100 million dollars was not easy to earn. Its purpose in hunting John Doe was just to take back the holy fruit from John Doe and save face rather than kill him.

“Since the Gospel Division has issued the wanted poster, what will the Truth Division do?”

“This time, the Truth Division has also suffered a lot. Although it is not as heavy as that of the Gospel Division, it got nothing after wasting so much energy, and even fought at the headquarters. If it doesn’t do anything, it will lose face.”

“The Truth Division is too slow. It’s been so long, but there’s still no news at all. Could it be that it is afraid of John Doe?”

As soon as the wanted poster of the Gospel Division was issued, everyone’s attention was immediately turned to the Truth Division.

At the headquarters of the Truth Division in Esfahan, just like the Gospel Division, as soon as John Doe escaped, the Divine Envoy of the Truth Division immediately turned back and sat in the conference room with the Lord and military counselor of the Truth Division.

“John Doe, it’s John Doe again.” Hearing the envoy’s report, the Lord of the Truth Division, who was sitting in the main seat in splendid clothes, instantly looked sullen, as if this name left him in great pain.

As a matter of fact, when one thought about it, it was true that John Doe really made the Truth Division feel very in pain.

The first thing John Doe did when he came to Zhongdong was to destroy Luna subordinate to the Truth Division and then break into the headquarters that night, which made it really lose face.

But that was nothing.

What made the Lord of the Truth Division furious was that the plutonium material map in their hands was inexplicably snatched away after John Doe barged in.

And until now, they even didn’t know who had done that!

The Truth Division was already indignant after losing the map. Then the appearance of the holy fruit diverted its attention, but John Doe came out again and killed their people before they could snatch the holy fruit. In the end, he even robbed the holy fruit.

He was simply going too far!

“Military Counselor.” Looking at the old man sitting in the first seat next to him, the Lord of the Truth Division asked, “What do you think we should do now?”

“Well...” The old man pursed his lips, starting to ponder.

“I didn’t believe it before, but now it seems that since John Doe has the ability to snatch the holy fruit from so many experts, I’m more convinced that it is really John Doe who robbed the plutonium material map from the Divine Envoy,” said the Lord.

“Maybe it’s possible,” the fat Divine Envoy frowned and said. “Although it seemed that it was a Murican wizard who robbed the map from me, he has not shown up yet. So I have to doubt if someone pretended to be a Murican wizard to distract us!

“If the person who took the map from me is really someone else in disguise, then his strength is too terrifying!”

When he finished, the Divine Envoy and the Lord turned their heads at the same time, looking at the military counselor.

“The current situation is very complicated for us.” After thinking for a long time, the military counselor finally said, “The most important problem now is not who owns the map, but that we should get rid of the slander as soon as possible. Since John Doe is so famous and so powerful that he is suspicious, why don’t we directly confirm it?”

Hearing that, the Lord and the fat Divine Envoy were stunned at the same time.

The military counselor continued, "Of course, first of all, we can't admit that the map was in our hands from the very beginning. We have to continue to frame the Gospel Division, telling everyone that after our people got the news that the Gospel Division had the map, they immediately set off to get it in order to prevent it from falling into the hands of the wicked. However, the map was taken away by John Doe halfway!"

"Good. That's a good idea!" The eyes of the Lord of the Truth Division lit up, and then he issued orders at once.

Soon, the Truth Division's wanted poster also appeared.

"John Doe is shameless!

"That day, when we learned that the plutonium material map had appeared in the Gospel Division as soon as possible, our Divine Envoy was immediately sent out to get it. Though we succeeded in obtaining the map, it was taken away by John Doe on the way!

"John Doe stole my holy fruit and took my plutonium material map. Today, the Truth Division is willing to offer 200 million dollars to reward for the arrest of John Doe. The person who captures John Doe and provides relevant information will also be generously rewarded!"

Hardly had the news come out when everyone on the forum of underground forces was shocked.

No one had expected that the missing plutonium material map was also snatched away by John Doe!

"No way. John Doe has actually got the plutonium material map?"

"My God. In this trip to Zhongdong, John Doe has become the biggest winner, hasn't he?"

"No wonder the Gospel Division used the dead as an excuse to attack the Truth Division. It turns out that the plutonium material map was really in the Gospel Division, but it was snatched away by the Truth Division before John Doe got it."

“It is so weird.”

“It seems that at first, the Truth Division was ready to deal with John Doe alone and take back the map from him. But now John Doe is obviously so powerful that it could barely imagine. That was why they chose to make it public.”

“John Doe is really too strong. How could everything be taken by him?”

“Not only did he take the holy fruit that everyone dreamed of, but he also got the plutonium material map. What kind of person is John Doe? How can he be so powerful?”

“I don’t dare to believe it. This is truly too unbelievable.”

Soon, as the news spread, all the people who saw it were shocked.

All the underground forces all over the world were shocked, too.

With the spread of the news, the name John Doe was completely well-known in the entire underground world. All the people there had remembered this name deeply because it was too incredible.

Every step he took caused a shock!

He not only destroyed a second-rate organization by himself, but also barged into the headquarters of the Truth Division and killed Thomas, the second-ranked killer in the world!

Moreover, he attacked the members of the two top forces head-on, annihilating all of them!

Next, he killed Tyler, the Demon King ranked 30th on the Underground List. He now had snatched away the plutonium material map from the Divine Envoy of the Truth Division!

These deeds were just too unbelievable and incredible!

Medical Master

Chapter 1077: Great Hand of Formlessness!

“If the people of the Truth Division had told this news earlier, wouldn’t we have worked together to block John Doe when we fought for the holy fruit?”

“The Truth Division is so stupid.”

“When they had a chance, they didn’t say it. Now that the chance has been lost, what’s the use of saying it?”

In Zhongdong, all the forces that came here were madly complaining.

In their opinion, this was totally Truth Division’s fault, but they couldn’t do anything about it. After all, they did it for their own interests. There was no problem with Truth Division’s action.

There was nothing they could do.

They could only look around for John Doe.

Without a doubt, John Doe had become a hotcake in Zhongdong.

If they found John Doe, not only would they be able to get the bounty given by the two forces, but they would also have a chance to take back the holy fruit from John Doe. They might even be able to get the plutonium material map.

At present, the most precious things in the entire Zhongdong were both in John Doe’s hands, which was really enviable.

The underground forces all over the world were talking about it.

All the underground forces in Zhongdong were searching for John Doe.

Suddenly, a small team of the Truth Division came to the border of Zhongdong, in a jungle.

The body of the L'hexagone Special Envoy Abel, who was buried here by Fang Qiu, was dug out by a small team from the Truth Division.

“Why is it so dry?”

Walking in the ruins tunnel in Zhongdong, Fang Qiu could clearly feel that the whole underground passage was particularly dry. There was no moisture at all.

Logically speaking, there should be some undercurrents in this kind of underground space that was developed in the middle of the mountain, causing the air in the underground tunnel to become moist.

After all, this was a mountain.

Even if there was a barren relic on the top of the mountain, there were a lot of flowers, plants, and trees on both sides of the relic.

If there was no water in the mountain, how could these flowers and trees survive?

Full of curiosity, Fang Qiu walked all the way forward quickly.

“Wu, wu...”

While walking, Fang Qiu suddenly heard a low howl in his ears.

“Wind?”

Slightly stunned, Fang Qiu murmured, "That is to say, this tunnel leads directly to another exit instead of an underground space or a secret chamber?"

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu immediately sped up and flew quickly in the passage.

"This tunnel is really long!"

Ten minutes later, Fang Qiu slowed down his speed. After ten whole minutes, if he were outside, he could fly hundreds of kilometers, but in this tunnel, Fang Qiu always felt that he seemed to be constantly changing directions.

Originally, he could remember the terrain outside very clearly, but the continuous turns had made him dizzy, so he didn't know where he was at all.

Fortunately, the sound of the wind was getting louder and louder.

The exit of the passageway was clearly just up ahead!

As expected, as soon as he slowed down, Fang Qiu saw the light in the distance ahead.

He walked forward quickly.

After walking about a hundred meters, Fang Qiu finally saw the exit.

It was a very large cave.

Of course, the passage where Fang Qiu was in was not large, and the cave connected to the exit of the passage was really large.

“Is this deep in the mountain?”

Walking out of the tunnel and coming to the cave that was connected to the tunnel, Fang Qiu looked around and found that the cave was completely natural. There were no birds, beasts, or insects in it. The ground was full of pebbles.

These pebbles looked like they had been washed clean, which proved that there must have been a current of water flowing through the cave.

The entrance to the cave was very large and also very round.

There were clear traces of being washed by the current.

He flew to the entrance of the cave.

Looking out, Fang Qiu found that there was a huge gully of the mountain. Just like the cave, at the bottom of this very wide gully, there were also many pebbles of different sizes, just like a riverbed!

He looked up again.

On all four sides were mountain peaks that were over a hundred meters tall. In the distance were continuous and lush mountain ranges.

“It seems that I really came to the depths of a mountain in Zhongdong.”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile.

He had thought that there would be some secrets hidden under this tunnel, but he did not expect it to be just a secret passage to the depths of the mountain.

“However, this tunnel does not seem to be prepared for escape. If it was prepared for escape, it would definitely not be so winding. Moreover, the space in the tunnel is not very large.

“If it is not for escape, what is the point of this tunnel’s existence?”

With a stir of his mind, Fang Qiu began to look around the cave and began to search.

“Eh?”

Soon, Fang Qiu suddenly stopped in his tracks.

In the cave, on the only rock wall that could reflect the light, Fang Qiu found a few rusted words.

Because it had been too long, these characters were like rusty iron, difficult to be distinguished.

“Is this an ancient Huaxia language?”

He wiped the things on the rock wall with his hand. Then, he clearly saw that the characters on the rock wall were ancient Huaxia characters.

Although the handwriting was a little worn, it could still be seen clearly.

“Everything is tangible, and Qi is intangible!”

Seeing the first sentence, Fang Qiu was stunned.

He vaguely remembered seeing similar words from somewhere. After thinking about it for a long moment, he realized that back in the cave where he acquired the Great Hand of Destruction, he had also heard similar words.

While he was thinking of this, the memory in Fang Qiu's head was immediately refreshed.

He could still clearly remember what was written on the wall of the cave in Mount Taishan: Tao!

The Grand Tao was shapeless, emotionless, and nameless!

It was in that record that Fang Qiu learned the Great Hand of Destruction.

After learning it, Fang Qiu knew that the Great Hand of Destruction was just the first move of the attack method he had learned, followed by the middle and last part.

All these years, Fang Qiu had been searching. No matter where he went, he would deliberately see if there was any strange cave or something like that.

However, after searching for so long, he still couldn't find any clues.

However, what was recorded on the stone wall in front of him was...

It seemed to be a little similar to the Great Hand of Destruction.

Just the first sentence immediately aroused Fang Qiu's interest.

He continued to read.

"All things are intangible and full of life. All things are affectionate and transcend life and death. All things are known as heaven and earth!"

Fang Qiu trembled all over seeing this.

This was eighty percent similar to the first sentence he saw when he studied the Great Hand of Destruction.

“The origin of the nameless world, the mother of all things...”

“Is this Tao Te Ching?”

Seeing this sentence, Fang Qiu was stunned.

He still remembered that he had seen “Qingjing Jing” and “Mencius” in the cave of Mount Taishan. He didn’t expect to see “Tao Te Ching” in a foreign country!

“Why would someone carve these words here? Judging from the traces left behind by these words, it should have been very long, so long that one cannot even calculate how long it has been.

“If it’s judged based on the handwriting, then these words have existed for at least thousands of years.”

As he thought of this, Fang Qiu immediately came up with a bold idea, but he was not sure and could only continue to read.

However, what he saw caused his entire body to tremble.

“The derivation of the Tao is in harmony.

“The origin of all things is in dispersing!

“Things change in myriad ways because of fate. They are formless, and formlessness is the form of heaven and earth. It is the form of human emotions!

“And the convergence and dispersing of all forms are called Formless.

“Transform the Tao into strength, transform strength into nothingness, and transform nothingness into form!

“It’s Great Hand of Formlessness!”

Seeing that, Fang Qiu was stunned.

“Great Hand of Destruction, Great Hand of Formlessness...

“This, this is the middle part!”

Fang Qiu was excited.

Although he didn’t know the name of the technique he was cultivating, he could connect the record on the wall in front of him with the Great Hand of Destruction, and it was so closely connected that it was flawless!

After he finished reading, Fang Qiu also noticed it.

The Great Hand of Destruction focused on gathering!

This Great Hand of Formlessness sought to transform into nothing!

That meant the two were completely different.

Filled with excitement, Fang Qiu continued to read the few words. As he read, he was completely immersed in it.

He didn’t hesitate.

While watching, Fang Qiu immediately began to learn.

Soon, Fang Qiu unconsciously closed his eyes and immersed himself in cultivation.

The words he saw lingered in his mind over and over again, constantly breaking down, dispersing, and gathering together again, as if they were expressing something vaguely.

Just like this, time ticked by.

Immersed in it, Fang Qiu completely forgot everything outside.

SHEW!

After an unknown period of time, all of a sudden, Fang Qiu sitting cross-legged on the pebbles moved and directly flew up.

“Sure enough.

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

He lifted his right hand and flew straight out of the cave. Under the sunshine, Fang Qiu’s eyes were shining brightly.

Om!

His palm moved.

A low buzzing sound immediately came to Fang Qiu’s ears.

“Great Hand of Formlessness, what a nice move!”

Seeing the current situation, Fang Qiu couldn't help exclaiming.

While controlling it, he could clearly feel that the Great Hand of Formlessness could instantly gather a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth within a 500-meter radius. Moreover, under his control, the land of heaven and earth within this 500-meter radius could easily become violent.

If he wanted to, he could hit the violent Qi of Heaven and Earth out in an instant and directly on the opponent.

Not only could this move cause great harm to the enemy, but it also had a very strange and powerful effect that even Fang Qiu himself was amazed at.

That was, it could directly disperse more than half of the internal Qi of the victim.

To put it simply, this move could not only hurt the enemy but also consume the enemy's energy!

“This move is too vicious.

“Even a guru would not be able to stand such a blow!”

Fang Qiu sighed with emotion.

Thinking about it carefully, he found that if a guru at his peak was directly left with only half of his internal Qi after a palm, then how could he still fight?

Clenching his fist, Fang Qiu immediately stopped the Great Hand of Formlessness that he had just learned.

Then he immediately closed his eyes.

“Now that I’ve comprehended dispersing, can I take this opportunity to disperse the Divine Consciousness that I haven’t improved for a long time out faster and wider than before?”

While thinking, Fang Qiu began to try.

Medical Master

Chapter 1078: The Truth of the Envoys Death Exposed!

“Excuse me, I’ve brought the body back.” In the hall of the headquarters of the Truth Division in Esfahan, one person ran into the hall, knelt down on one knee, and reported to the middle-aged man in fine clothes on the host seat.

“Military Counselor, Divine Envoy, let’s go and have a look together?” The middle-aged man in fine clothes on the host seat stood up.

“Okay,” the military counselor and the Divine Envoy answered at the same time, then got up and followed the middle-aged man out of the hall.

Soon, they came to a dark cell-like place.

“This is the special envoy from L’hexagone?” The three of them walked over to the corpse that had yet to decompose.

“It’s confirmed that this person is the envoy from L’hexagone, Abel, a powerful metahuman of fire element!” someone replied.

“Yeah. I’ve also heard of him.” The fat Divine Envoy nodded in agreement. While observing the body, he raised his eyebrows and said, “Judging from this body’s condition, the fatal wound is on his neck.”

“That’s right.” The old military counselor nodded, squatted down and looked at it, saying with certainty, “This wound is not simple!”

“As the envoy from L’hexagone, this person must have extraordinary strength. Otherwise, he would not have been sent to Zhongdong. Although his death is not harmless to us, it is not good for us as well,” the well-dressed middle-aged man raised his eyebrows slightly and murmured. “However, if L’hexagone receives the news that he has died in our territory, it would definitely not stand by. Now the situation in Zhongdong is very bad. If L’hexagone adopts some unusual movements, it will absolutely be more chaotic.”

“Chaotic? That depends on how chaotic it is.” The old military counselor shook his head and smiled. He stood up and pointed to the body on the ground, saying, “Divine Envoy is right. The fatal wound of the envoy is on his throat. Judging from the situation of the body, he should have been dead for a period of time, and has even been buried underground once. After the body has been turned from side to side, the wound still hasn’t rolled over and been disrupted. Instead, it is very thin, as if the flesh and skin are still connected together.

“This proves that the weapon used to kill him is very sharp!” Speaking of which, the old military counselor turned to look at the Divine Envoy and asked, “Divine Envoy, now who in Zhongdong is able to kill the envoy from L’hexagone and use sharp weapons to cause such a thin but fatal wound on a person’s body?”

The middle-aged man’s eyes lit up when he heard that!

“As far as I know, there are many people using sabers and swords, but among them, only one person can cause such a wound.” Seeming to think of something, the Divine Envoy pointed to the throat of the body, saying, “This wound is obviously the same as that on the chest of Thomas, the second killer in the world. Does Military Counselor mean that the person who killed the envoy from L’hexagone is also John Doe?”

“Hehe,” the old military counselor chuckled and said. “The news has been confirmed and can be announced now. It’s time for the dogfight.”

The well-dressed middle-aged man echoed with a smile, sending someone to spread the news then.

“Leader Ameer.” After the servants left, the old military counselor looked at the middle-aged man and asked, “How’s it going with the investigation? Why did our people attack those forces?”

“Not yet,” the middle-aged man named Ameer shook his head and then said. “It is found that a large number of people disappeared overnight and we don’t even know how they infiltrated. Is John Doe right? Does the so-called Nirvana Organization really exist?”

“If so, then this Nirvana Organization is really too powerful,” the old military counselor frowned and said while thinking. “It won’t take much effort to continue to investigate, but we must do more. Since John Doe can protect civilians, he won’t do things at random when it comes to war. The two people who appeared that day must be from the so-called Nirvana Organization!”

Because the Divine Envoy has participated in the pursuit, Ameer and the military counselor knew the situation very well at that time.

The two men who appeared all of a sudden and guided the pursuers to the headquarters of the Truth Division were indeed suspicious.

At the same time, the Gospel Division was also searching for the information about Nirvana Organization.

Of course, while investigating, it paid more attention to John Doe.

There was no doubt that its main objective was the map!

Although it also knew that perhaps the Truth Division had just put up a smokescreen, it would be of great help to them to get the holy fruit despite the absence of the map.

In the hall of the headquarters of the Gospel Division, three high-level officials gathered.

“News.” The middle-aged man in the armor immediately took out his mobile phone after hearing a text message notification. When he clicked on it, he was immediately astounded.

“What news?” Next to him, the hunchbacked old man closed the book in his hand, turning his head at once.

Just now, he was still talking with the leader about Nirvana Organization that John Doe had mentioned, so he was particularly sensitive about every piece of news that appeared now.

“Could it be that the Truth Division releases the news again?” the Divine Envoy by the side raised his eyebrows and asked.

“It’s indeed the Truth Division,” the leader nodded and said. “It is really shocking. As a special envoy of the five countries, John Doe actually killed the allied special envoy from L’hexagone!”

“What?” The Divine Envoy and the military counselor were both stunned.

“John Doe killed the special envoy from L’hexagone?” The military counselor’s face changed. He murmured, “How could the Truth Division know about this kind of thing? And what kind of intention did they have to reveal this news? What are the details? Is there any evidence to show John Doe is the murderer?”

“Though this evidence doesn’t look too formal, it is solid.” The leader handed the phone over to the military counselor.

“Right, right.” After reading it, the military counselor was shocked again, and then he said with a complicated expression, “I didn’t expect that John Doe really killed the special envoy of L’hexagone!

“Things are starting to become chaotic.”

In the meanwhile, this piece of news was bursting out on the forum of underground forces.

Catching sight of the news, almost all the underground forces in the world were shocked.

“Damn it. The situation in Zhongdong has not been stabilized yet. The five major countries have already begun to fight against each other?”

“Did John Doe really get the plutonium material map? Otherwise, why would he make a move on the special envoy from L’hexagone? There should be no conflict between the two of them, right?”

“Could it be that the special envoy from L’hexagone got the news in advance about John Doe’s getting the plutonium material map and tried to snatch it from him, only to be killed by John Doe?”

“Although there is no more direct evidence, it seems that only John Doe can cause such a fatal wound!”

Everyone was discussing it heatedly on the forum.

At the same time, the special envoys of the other three countries in Zhongdong promptly frowned as soon as they heard of the news.

“John Doe killed Abel?” Isabel smiled faintly, but there was a look of disbelief in her eyes. She seemed to be overwhelmed by mixed feelings as if she was hiding something.

“What a pity.” Upon hearing the news, Lester looked composed without any changing expression. No one knew what he was thinking.

“Abel died?” Yakov looked astounded when he heard the news.

He hadn’t expected that Abel would actually die in John Doe’s hands. He could still clearly remember that before fighting for the holy fruit, he had once told John Doe about Abel.

Now he thought about it. John Doe said that Abel had slept, which seemed to indicate that he had been dead!

Astounded by this matter, the three of them completely couldn’t believe that John Doe got the plutonium material map. After all, although the allied five people were not always together, they would still pay attention to each other when taking action. It was not exaggerated to say that they were monitoring one another. In this case, they hadn’t seen any chance for Fang Qiu to get the map at all!

Moreover, they hadn't even known where the map was so far. How could John Doe get it?

People on the forum of the underground force were talking about the news fiercely, too.

"What the fuck. What did John Doe do on earth?"

"Why do I feel more and more strange as I listen? It seems that everything happening in Zhongdong has something to do with John Doe."

"Many experts had gone to Zhongdong this time, but up to now, it seems that all the experts dying there were killed by John Doe."

"Fuck. What else did John Doe do? Why did he do so many things? Where is he now?"

As the news spread, more and more people participated in the discussion of this event. Everyone expressed his own views on the forum, all shocked by the death of the special envoy from L'hexagone and John Doe's performance in Zhongdong!

Soon, the special department in L'hexagone also received this news.

The envoy was dead?

They had not expected this result at all, and at the same time, they were particularly irritated.

They had placed almost all their hope on Abel but he didn't make any reports after heading for Zhongdong. All people regarded it as his habit, so they didn't pay too much attention to it. But now it seemed that it wasn't that he wasn't willing to make reports, but that he didn't have a chance to!

Without hesitation, the special department in L'hexagone immediately took action, not only sending some people to Zhongdong to find out what had happened, but also sending people to Huaxia to put pressure on it!

Although the so-called envoy was only a high-end military force recruited by the government from the folk, and the deaths of these unruly people did not impinge too much, the envoy going to Zhongdong, after all, represented the country. Therefore, things could not pass so easily. At least, an explanation was necessary!

Consequently, L'hexagone was determined to put pressure on Huaxia, asking it to surrender John Doe.

On the other side, in the deep forest, Li Ji stood on a winding path outside a high mountain in Huaxia, feeling extremely nervous, for it was the first time he had reached this place.

He also knew very well that this was the most mysterious place in Huaxia, where the most mysterious department was located. The reason why he came here was to ask about the incident of Fang Qiu!

Medical Master

Chapter 1079: Huaxia Gets It!

"Pitter-patter..." Just as Li Ji was standing and looking around nervously, footsteps suddenly came from the first corner of the long and winding road in front of him.

Hurriedly turning his head to have a look, Li Ji caught sight of a young man with a smile on his face walking out from the corner.

He was not dressed in strange clothes, but he exuded a kind of ethereal aura, which gave people a sense of detachment at first glance.

Judging from his aura, this young man had at least eighth-class strength!

"How is it?" Seeing the man, Li Ji immediately inquired.

"Haha," the young man laughed and said, "The leader has said that it's impossible to surrender John Doe. Not to mention one special envoy, even ten special envoys can't exchange for John Doe. Tell them that if they're not as good as him, don't do superfluous things!"

Hearing that, Li Ji blushed with shame. He saluted the young man and was ready to leave.

“Wait.” Seeing that Li Ji was about to leave, the young man suddenly shouted.

“Hmm?” Li Ji was stunned, turning around with curiosity.

“Nothing,” the young man smiled and asked, “I am just wondering if you have any other suggestions.”

“This...” Pondering for a moment, Li Ji said, “I think that we can make it public now that the plutonium material map has fallen into our hands. In this case, the dispute about the map in Zhongdong will end, which not only tells the strength of Huaxia to the underground forces in the world, but also prevents the people in Zhongdong from thinking that the map is still in John Doe’s hands so that we can help John Doe relieve some pressure.”

Hearing that, the young man nodded thoughtfully and then said, “Well, I’ll report your suggestion to my superiors as soon as I return. You can leave now.”

“Okay.” Li Ji stood upright and saluted, then turned around and left.

Quickly, an official statement from Huaxia quietly appeared on the forum of underground forces.

The contents of the statement were very simple.

“The plutonium material map is in our hands now and we have already got it. Those who still want to get the map, forget about it, please!”

As soon as this statement was released, the forum of the underground forces was in an uproar.

“The plutonium material map has fallen into the hands of the Huaxia government?”

“What the fuck, aren’t forces in Zhongdong still fighting for the map? Why did it fall into Huaxia’s hands?”

“This news came too suddenly. Nothing happened before. How come it was taken away by Huaxia in the blink of an eye?”

“John Doe caused various shocks in Huaxia at first, and now the plutonium material map has fallen into Huaxia’s hands as well. Why do I feel that the beneficiary is always Huaxia? The other countries and forces didn’t get anything?”

In Zhongdong, the special envoys of the three countries also saw the statement of Huaxia as soon as possible.

“Impossible.” Hardly had Lester seen the statement than he changed his expression. He couldn’t believe it at all. How could the plutonium material map Murica was ambitious about and he had been tracking, had been taken away by Huaxia for no reason?

“Huaxia only sent John Doe here. Even if John Doe got the map, it could be impossible for him to take it back to Huaxia quietly!

“It is impossible that the map is gone.”

“Is it John Doe?” When Isabel heard the news, she immediately frowned and muttered, “I didn’t expect that he would take it away. If I had known this would happen, I should have been following him and looking for an opportunity to make a move rather than acting so quickly. Even if it costs me my body, it is worthwhile.”

As a matter of fact, Isabel had been paying attention to Fang Qiu’s strength from the very beginning.

Therefore, it was actually just an excuse for her to like John Doe.

After she saw John Doe and knew his strength, she showed extremely strong temptation to John Doe and did not hide her admiration for him at all.

Her purpose was just to get close to John Doe and make use of his power.

It was clear that she was a real witch who couldn't be as stupid as she looked.

Nevertheless, she had acted still quickly no matter how hard she tried.

After following John Doe, figuring out that the map might be in the headquarters of the Truth Division and thinking it must be in that small building, she couldn't resist the temptation and made the first move.

If she had just monitored John Doe instead of taking action, then everything John Doe could obtain might have fallen into her hands.

It was a pity, such a pity.

Isabel smiled bitterly.

"Sure enough, John Doe is really powerful." Yakov was not surprised when he knew the map had been obtained by Huaxia.

He had heard about the legend of Huaxia; after all, Rashk bordered Huaxia. At the same time, he occasionally knew something about Huaxia Wulin, so he didn't dare to look down on John Doe from the beginning.

Although he also came for the material map, after seeing John Doe and fighting with him, he had a strong feeling that John Doe was very likely to get the map!

Now it seemed that it was true.

Meanwhile, L'hexagone also received a reply from Huaxia.

Huaxia's strong attitude made them feel a little inexplicably surprised.

"Why?"

"Why are we bullied by you after our people died?"

Although they were very dissatisfied, there was nothing L'hexagone could say, because the news had spread on the Internet. It was said that Abel wanted to intercept John Doe and take the map from John Doe, only to be killed!

Originally, L'hexagone still hoped to conceal the truth so as not to lose face.

But now, it had been spread online. A saying from Huaxia "if you are not as good as others, don't do superfluous things" even made them feel very uncomfortable, but there was nothing they could do. They could only accept it in silence.

Feeling bitter in his heart at the same time, the special department in L'hexagone was also puzzled by Abel's actions.

"This guy found that John Doe got the map, but he didn't tell the country as soon as possible. Instead, he secretly intercepted John Doe. What did he want to do?"

"Damn it! Not only did he die, but he also implicated our country and we are being laughed at by Huaxia now. If I had known this, I wouldn't have sent him to Zhongdong!"

"It really is him." In the headquarters of the Truth Division in Esfahan, the three high-level officials of the Truth Division were not surprised to receive the news that the plutonium material map had fallen into the hands of Huaxia.

Before this, they had already guessed that the map was likely to have fallen into John Doe's hands, which was why they spread the news that the map was in his hands.

But what they hadn't expected was that John Doe not only got the map but also sent it back to Huaxia.

"When did John Doe send the map back to Huaxia?" The Lord of the Truth Division, a middle-aged man named Ameer, raised his eyebrows and murmured, "It was reported before that a checkpoint at the border was destroyed. Judging from the information given by the subordinates, the place where the special envoy from L'hexagone died happens to be on the same line as the checkpoint. It is said that there was a piece of inexplicably scorched land between the two places."

"If these are true, the whole thing is indeed much clearer!" The fat divine envoy raised his eyebrows and said, "I didn't expect that I've been deceived. If the person snatching the map from me is really John Doe, then what he showed in front of me is definitely not his real strength. Even though this person has hidden his strongest combat capability, he can still imitate the techniques of Murican wizards to mislead me about his identity."

"This person is not easy to deal with!" As soon as he said that, Ameer and the old military counselor beside him nodded in unison.

Now in the entire Zhongdong, no one dared to question John Doe's strength anymore, because he had done too many big things. Almost every good thing occurring in Zhongdong was related to John Doe, and in the end, only John Doe and Huaxia benefited from them as well!

Perhaps everyone believed in luck, but nobody believed that so many benefits could be explained by luck. Moreover, John Doe had killed a lot of people, even including Tyler, the Demon King ranked 30th on the Underground List.

Who would dare to question such strength?

"Humph, so what if he's powerful?" Ameer snorted angrily and said in a cold voice, "He took my plutonium material map, and killed the people and stole the holy fruit of the Truth Division. No matter how strong John Doe is, he deserves to die. If 200 million dollars is not enough, I'll raise it to 300 or 500 million dollars. I don't believe that no one in the world can kill him!"

“Don’t worry.” The old military counselor hurriedly stopped him, shook his head and waved his hand, saying, “Don’t act rashly for the time being. John Doe is too strong so we still need to be careful and make a new plan. I just didn’t expect that we were lucky. The person who took the map is really him!”

At the headquarters of the Gospel Division, numerous people were discussing this matter, too.

“Is the news from the Truth Division true?”

“The plutonium material map has fallen into the hands of the Huaxia government?”

“I didn’t expect that he not only took the holy fruit, but also took away the plutonium material map.”

“Now, the situation is changing again.”

“Damn it.” In a hotel in a small town in Zhongdong, two young men sat on the bed, looking at the news they had just received on their mobile phones. Their faces were particularly gloomy.

Obviously, these two people were from Nirvana Organization.

“Huaxia is really something.” The young man whose strength was at the peak of the ninth class took on a ghastly expression on his face. “He admitted it so soon and even didn’t care about the thoughts of the other four countries at all!”

“What should we do?” the young man who had ninth-class strength with one opened meridian also frowned and asked. “Now everyone knows that the map is in Huaxia and the holy fruit is with John Doe. Our next plan can’t be carried out.”

“Let’s ask the superiors first,” replied the other man.

On the forum of the underground forces began a heated discussion.

“John Doe really took the map from the Divine Envoy of the Truth Division who has the strength of a Half-step Guru. If he makes it, doesn’t it mean that John Doe’s strength has reached SS level and is only one step away from SSS?”

“John Doe’s strength has refreshed our understanding of him again!”

“Now, the plutonium material map and holy fruit that attract the whole world have been snatched away by John Doe. How ridiculous his strength is!”

Medical Master

Chapter 1080: Twenty Gurus in the World?

Whether it was for the plutonium material map or the holy fruit, all the world-famous mercenary groups and people from various major forces were also shocked when they learned that John Doe had sent the plutonium material map back to Huaxia!

Especially on the forum of underground forces, when everyone was discussing that John Doe absolutely had the strength at SS level, they were even more shocked.

This time, they were truly hesitant.

After all, they were world-class underground forces and world-class large mercenary groups. Apart from not daring to fight against countries, they dared to do anything without hesitation.

But this time, in the face of John Doe, they were really a little flustered.

As underground forces, they were well aware that a person who had shown his SS-level strength was not as easy to deal with as they had imagined.

Not to mention anything else, a super expert with the strength of SS level could easily destroy any organization or force of theirs. Once they failed to catch John Doe, they would have to face John Doe’s anger in the future.

Was John Doe that easy to kill?

In the future, would they be able to bear John Doe's anger?

All of this became the focus of the major forces' thoughts and attention. Should they continue to chase John Doe and bet on the future of the organizations for the holy fruit?

At that time, all the major forces were talking about it.

In the heated discussion, no one dared to act rashly for the time being. After all, no one wanted to be the most eye-catching first person!

With the leakage of John Doe's strength, the fierce pursuit suddenly quieted down and disappeared.

Of course, apart from John Doe, Huaxia's reputation in the world was restored!

Previously, everyone knew that Huaxia was a giant, but all the underground forces in the world thought that Huaxia was called a giant because it had a large population and developed technology.

But now...

Everyone finally understood.

It turned out that Huaxia was using a low-key and peaceful method. It usually kept a low profile, but they didn't expect that such a powerful person would appear.

Most importantly, there was still a Wulin in Huaxia!

When they thought about it carefully, John Doe was obviously not the strongest expert in Huaxia Wulin. If all the experts in Wulin came out, how strong would Huaxia be?

Huaxia.

After the statement was released, Li Ji had been paying attention to the situation on the forum of underground forces.

Soon, he saw the reactions of all the underground forces in the world.

“Phew...”

Knowing that most of the attention had been attracted here, Li Ji let out a long sigh of relief and murmured to himself, “John Doe, where are you now?”

He knew he had succeeded. Although he didn’t help Fang Qiu much, at least he helped Fang Qiu relieve a large part of the pressure, so that Fang Qiu would be a little safer in Zhongdong.

In Zhongdong.

Deep in the mountain, in a cave.

“Sure.”

Fang Qiu, whose eyes were tightly closed, suddenly showed a hint of surprise on his face.

Divine Consciousness was a method of utilizing spiritual force!

Before he got the Divine Consciousness technique, what Fang Qiu learned was just a simple way to train his spiritual force. After he got the Divine Consciousness technique, he really began to cultivate his spiritual force.

After starting to cultivate spiritual force, Fang Qiu found that spiritual force could be improved even without training. It turned out that spiritual force was not only related to one's consciousness but also greatly to one's realm.

Previously, with each breakthrough, Fang Qiu could feel the improvement of his spiritual force.

But this time, after learning the Great Hand of Formlessness and comprehending the "transforming into nothingness", Fang Qiu felt that there seemed to be a slight change in his mental consciousness.

This subtle transformation was evolution!

That was right.

It was an evolution of the Divine Consciousness!

Fang Qiu didn't cultivate it on purpose, because he knew that this was the natural improvement he got as his realm improved after he comprehended things, so he only needed to feel it quietly and enjoy this improvement.

The subtle evolution took half an hour to stop.

"Divine Consciousness!"

After the evolution, with a stir of his mind, his Divine Consciousness, which had been rippling out like water ripples, spread out in an instant like lightning after the evolution.

Twenty kilometers?

More than that!

30 kilometers, 40 kilometers!

In the end, the brand new and powerful Divine Consciousness enveloped a radius of fifty kilometers before stopping.

“Nothing.”

Since it had been released, Fang Qiu didn’t waste it. He also used his Divine Consciousness to check if there were any Heaven Treasures or Earth Treasures within 50 kilometers of him. However, he didn’t sense any energy aura at all.

Swoosh.

He moved.

Fang Qiu returned to the cave. In front of the stone wall, he looked at the bottom part of the words recorded on it.

“Sure enough.”

When he first came here and saw these words, a bold idea came to Fang Qiu’s mind, but he couldn’t believe it or dare to be sure. But now...

After learning the Great Hand of Formlessness and improving his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu took another look and immediately confirmed his previous guess.

He saw that under the Great Hand of Formlessness technique, there was one ancient Huaxia character: Boyang!

Previously, Fang Qiu was immersed in the study of the Great Hand of Formlessness, so he didn't notice the word. Now, when he saw it, he was quite shocked!

Boyang, whose original name was Li Er, was called Laozi by the ancients!

"I didn't expect this place to be where Laozi educated the foreigners."

Fang Qiu exclaimed.

He had never expected that he would accidentally come to the remnants of the place where Laozi educated the foreigners.

It was when Laozi went through Hangu Pass to the west and implemented education events for Western Regions people, Tianzhu people, and other foreigners!

That was thousands of years ago.

He didn't expect that the remains still existed in this world.

At the thought of the words that had been left for thousands of years and were eventually obtained by him, Fang Qiu couldn't help rejoicing!

Just like when he was learning the Great Hand of Destruction, after his learning the Great Hand of Formlessness, the Great Hand of Formlessness technique recorded on the stone wall suddenly cracked, turned into gravel, and fell to the ground, leaving behind only a few words from Tao Te Ching.

He took two steps back.

Fang Qiu bowed to the stone wall to thank the scholar of the past. Then he moved, rushed out of the cave, flashed into the endless jungle, took out his mobile phone to confirm his position, chose the right direction, and moved forward quickly.

After confirming the direction, Fang Qiu logged in to the forum of the underground forces while he was flying quickly.

Since John Doe's verified account appeared on the underground forum last time, all the major underground forces in the world had followed his account immediately. Almost all forces asked their subordinates to pay attention to the information on this account at all times. Therefore, as soon as Fang Qiu logged in, he immediately attracted the attention of countless people!

The topics about John Doe recently attracted a lot of attention on the forum of underground forces.

Therefore, as soon as Fang Qiu logged in, he immediately attracted countless people's attention.

There were even many people who began to post or mention John Doe in the trending posts.

"@John Doe, hello, guru. Nice to meet you."

"You're so awesome! @John Doe."

"@John Doe, I'm your fan. You're amazing."

Similar words filled everywhere.

In the notice box on Fang Qiu's side, all kinds of notifications that said he had been mentioned appeared one after another. In the blink of an eye, there were a thousand of them.

However, Fang Qiu did not pay attention to these people. Instead, he browsed the forum, looking for information he wanted to get.

"Why did they admit to it?"

Seeing the statement issued by the country, Fang Qiu was very surprised. He had been ready to take the blame, but he didn't expect that the country would admit it at this time.

"It's good that they admitted it. Not only did the country make a name for itself, but they also helped me relieve a lot of pressure."

Fang Qiu nodded secretly and felt warm in his heart. What the country did warmed his heart. Just as Li Ji said, Huaxia would not mistreat any citizens because Huaxia people were a family!

Seeing this news, Fang Qiu clicked directly into the Underground List on the forum of the underground forces.

He had heard of the existence of the Underground List before, but he didn't pay much attention to it. This time, after killing Tyler, the Demon King ranked 30th on the Underground List, Fang Qiu was interested in the list.

He clicked on it.

"Hmm?"

Fang Qiu looked at the 30th place, but he didn't see his name. When he looked down, he couldn't find it. Then he looked up and found that he was ranked 25th!

This surprised Fang Qiu.

Of course, Fang Qiu was not the only one who was surprised.

Before this, people on the forum of underground forces had long discovered that John Doe had improved his ranking on the Underground List, which also caused a heated discussion among many people.

"Why is he in 25th place?"

“Although John Doe did kill Tyler, the Demon King who was ranked 30th and confirmed that his strength was stronger than Tyler’s, isn’t it a little exaggerated to rise from 30th to 25th?”

“Is it exaggerated?”

“No. John Doe has the strength of SS level. Isn’t it natural for him to be ranked like this now?”

“That’s right. Tyler, the Demon King who was ranked 30th, was instantly killed by John Doe in three moves. This is enough to prove that the strength of Tyler, the Demon King is less than 10,000th of John Doe’s. I still think it’s a little low for him to be ranked 25th.”

“25th place is also very good. You should know that the top 20 are all super experts with SSS level strength. John Doe can be regarded among the world’s best being ranked after them.”

“According to their estimation of my strength, I can kill a Half-step Guru, so I reach the SS level; then the so-called SSS-level experts must at least have the strength of a guru.”

At the same time, after reading the rankings, Fang Qiu secretly estimated, “There are nearly 20 people on the Underground List, but in the whole world, there must be more than this number of guru experts. Maybe there is more than this number in Huaxia alone.

“The patriarchs of the Four Great Families, Pear Garden, Chic Cloud Pavilion, the old master, and me... There are eight already, not to mention those reclusive ones. How can there be only 20 in the world?”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

Of course, he also knew that the Underground List was aimed at the underground forces. Many guru-level experts had nothing to do with the underground forces.

Somewhere in Zhongdong.

“Hmph, John Doe, do you think this is the end?”

When the young man at the peak of the ninth class of the Nirvana Organization saw that Fang Qiu was so famous on the underground force forum, he immediately sneered with dissatisfaction and said, “It’s not over yet!”

After saying that, he immediately posted anonymously!
