Chapter 1121: Promise Me, Be a Good Emperor

When Zhu Zhangyuan returned to the cottage and saw the 18 corpses, he was shocked and secretly praised the young man in his heart.

The young man pulled out the donkey carriage behind the cottage and let Zhu Zhangyuan sit on it. Then, he set fire to the thatch.

“The thatch cottage?”

Looking at the blazing flames, Zhu Zhangyuan asked with a puzzled look.

“Many people died here. It won’t be a peaceful place in the future. I won’t come back here after I send you back.”

The young man replied in a low voice and then drove the donkey carriage with Zhu Zhangyuan.

...

The expressions of all the audience changed.

From the previous scenes, they saw decisive killings, brutal battlefields in troubled times, and the rise of an ambitious hero. At this time, what they saw was the beginning of a promising young man’s life.

Home, what did it mean for a sixteen-year-old youth?

It meant everything.

But the young man let everything go up in flames.

The chaos caused by war, the turbulent days, and the appearance of Zhu Zhangyuan, disrupted the young man's peaceful life.

But even so...

The youth did not blame him, nor did he try to shirk his responsibility. Instead, he chose to serve the people and bring peace to the world.

This kind of righteousness was worthy of everyone's praise!

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief. After the intensive fight, they were prepared to enjoy the relaxed plot next so that they could soothe their nerves.

Unexpectedly, the roar of a tiger suddenly sounded.

Everyone was stunned.

Before everyone realized what had happened, a huge tiger appeared and instantly pounced on them.

What the fuck!

That was one huge tiger!

Everyone froze there when the tiger jumped out.

It looked so real!

Another exciting fight between a young man and a tiger took place. The situation became extremely dangerous.

However, the movie critics only fixed their eyes on the tiger. They didn't care about the fighting. They only wanted to find out how the tiger could appear so realistic.

Every strand of its fur looked so real.

Since when did the special effects technology become so advanced?

How did the director do it?

After this intensive fight, everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

A good movie should contain both relaxing and intense scenes. It shouldn't be controlled solely by a highly charged atmosphere.

The director was well aware of this, so thereafter, a light-hearted plot followed.

The scene changed.

The donkey carriage arrived at Jinling City.

"We're in Jinling City. Where are we going then?"

The youth asked.

"Let's eat something first. We'll talk about the rest later."

Zhu Zhangyuan poked his head out and asked, "Do you have any money on you?"

“No.”

The youth shook his head.

“Then go and steal some.”

Zhu Zhangyuan told him directly, without any hesitation.

“You’re a great leader. Don’t you feel ashamed to say such words?”

The youth sniffed in disdain.

He even looked down on him.

At this moment, Fang Qiu’s performance completely reflected the simple-minded, romantic nature of a young man. In the face of bloody and cruel battles, his resolute character shone through, but deep inside, he was still a sixteen-year-old child, innocent and amiable.

“Shameful?”

Zhu Zhangyuan chuckled and said, “Broaden your mind and see the world. Do you think anyone can live well in this world? Everyone is trying their best to get more benefits in order to survive. Do you think anyone will pay attention to you? What’s more, it’s shameful to be hungry in such a chaotic world. How can a person who can’t even fill his stomach survive and make a living in such a chaotic world?”

“I’ve already thought of a plan for you.”

Before the young man could say anything, Zhu Zhangyuan instructed, “Go steal from Shen Wanshan. He once secretly helped Zhang Shicheng collect food for the Yuan Dynasty.”

Hearing his words, the young man frowned and thought for a moment, then reluctantly nodded in agreement.

This scene amused the audience.

It was because of Zhu Zhangyuan's craftiness and Yang Yizhi's innocence.

This part was full of comedic elements.

Even some young girls in the audience thought that Yang Yizhi and Zhu Zhangyuan, a young man and an ambitious hero, were suited to be a couple.

Yang Yizhi decided to go out at night to steal.

Clad in black clothes, he sneaked into Shen Wanshan's mansion and stole a large bag of things in an incomparable and thrilling manner. He did not go back directly to Zhangyuan. Instead, he went to the slums and distributed all the stolen money to the poor people there, leaving only one ingot of silver for himself.

After doing all this, he went to Zhu Zhangyuan.

"You merely stole an ingot of silver?"

He was dumbfounded.

Chen Wanshan was such a wealthy man. How was it possible that he only managed to steal a small piece of silver?

"I gave the rest to the poor in the slums."

The youth told him the truth.

“Are you stupid?”

Zhu Zhangyuan was anxious and said, “By giving them all that silver, it may cause more harm.”

“You are such a fool.”

The young man snorted disdainfully and said, “I looted the money house and exchanged all the silver for copper coins.”

Their squabble caused another burst of laughter.

“Smart enough!”

Zhu Zhangyuan smiled and said, “Do you want to be my guard?”

“We have to stay alive first. We’ll talk about other things later.”

The youth told him.

“Do you agree?”

Zhu Zhangyuan asked with a smile.

“Not yet.”

The youth shook his head expressionlessly.

“It doesn’t matter if you don’t admit it. I’ll take it as a yes.”

Zhu Zhangyuan laughed loudly and then went out to buy some food with the money.

He ate his fill.

The youth continued his journey with Zhu Zhangyuan.

Under Zhu Zhangyuan's guidance, the young man drove the donkey carriage to a village and stopped outside.

They quietly hid in the cellar of a farmer's house.

They didn't disturb anyone.

"Next, I want you to help me get in touch with the army," said Zhu Yuanzhan.

"Get in touch with them?"

The young man was confused and asked, "Why don't we go to them directly?"

"Young and naive."

Zhu Zhangyuan shook his head and said with a smile, "I'm being hunted down, which proves there must be a traitor. If I go there directly, the traitor will find out. Therefore, it'll be safer if they come here to pick me up."

"Alright."

The young man understood instantly. After learning the army's exact location from Zhu Yuanzhang, he immediately went to contact them.

In the end, he was discovered by the traitor.

Their whereabouts were exposed.

As soon as the young man came back, Chen's army sent five hundred people to the village and directly surrounded the whole village.

They searched the entire village but found nothing.

However, they were still eager to kill Zhu Zhangyuan.

The traitor in the army openly showed up and threatened the villagers with their lives.

"Zhu Zhangyuan, come out."

"Zhu Zhangyuan, you can't get away anymore. If you come out, I promise I will not hurt these villagers. Don't force me to kill them."

"Zhu Zhangyuan, why haven't you shown yourself yet? Well, I'll kill one person every half-hour. Let's see how long you can hide!"

Shouts kept coming from the rebel army.

"Let me go out."

In a cellar at the edge of the village, Zhu Zhangyuan, his eyes bloodshot, wanted to confront the traitor and prevent him from killing people.

However, the young man stopped him.

“Either all the people of the village live, or you are the only one alive!”

The young man’s voice was filled with pain and his eyes were red. He said, “They have begun to kill people!”

“No. It’s not too late. Let me out!”

Zhu Zhangyuan got up and tried to force his way out.

However, he was knocked unconscious by the young man and then the youth carried him out of the cellar. He found a dark road and quietly left the village.

On the other side, the traitor together with Chen’s army, was still killing people.

He found a cave.

He hid Zhu Zhangyuan in it. Although they were far away from the village, he could still hear the painful and desperate cries for help from it.

He clenched his fists tightly, and even his nails pierced into the flesh of his palms. His eyes were red with anxiety!

Time passed by.

Zhu Zhangyuan suddenly woke up.

“The villagers? Where are they?”

The moment he woke up, Zhu Zhangyuan immediately stood up. He turned his head and looked around in a crazed manner, eager to get out to save the people.

“Pa!”

The youth stood up and threw the things he brought out of the villagers’ house onto the ground. He said, “This is your food. I’ve already contacted your people. They’ll be here soon.”

After that, he lowered his head and walked out silently.

“Where are you going?”

Zhu Zhangyuan asked in doubt.

The youth turned around and smiled at him, but his eyes were still red. He said, “Promise me that when you become an emperor in the future, you must protect your people well. Remember I saved you by sacrificing the human lives of a whole village...”

Then he said in a low voice, “Count me in.”

“Now, I’m going to kill!”

He finished the last sentence coldly.

The young man stepped out.

“Wait.”

Zhu Zhangyuan shouted, “I promise you, but you are not allowed to go there now. I will kill all of them when my army comes and avenge the villagers!”

“No!”

The youth shook his head and said, “I need to take revenge. Beyond that, I have to die with them. They died because of me!”

He ended his speech.

The machete in his hand flashed.

With a swish, he cut off Zhu Zhangyuan’s robe and immediately strode away.

In the big screen, the young man left.

Everyone, including the movie critics, was silent, their eyes red-rimmed.

Their eyes had brimmed with tears ever since the first villager was killed.

“How could he do that?”

“Why didn’t he let Zhu Zhangyuan go out and save the people? Why didn’t he go out himself? Was he afraid of death?”

“He did the right thing. He did it for the sake of the world!”

In the movie hall, some people were very emotional and couldn’t help asking, as if they too were involved in this troubled situation.

Even though many people were in tears, no one answered them because the show was still playing.

The youth fought against five hundred people by himself.

Along the way, blood flowed like a river.

He was covered with wounds.

He wanted to kill all five hundred people to avenge the villagers!

He would not miss a single one.

He had been stabbed more than a dozen times, and his blood flowed from his body to the soles of his feet. His face was ghastly pale due to massive blood loss. In spite of this, he still continued fighting and killing.

In the end, all five hundred people were killed.

The young man was seriously injured and fell into the river.

At this time, all the movie critics and audience went silent.

No one made any critical remarks about the youth being selfish and afraid of death.

He was not afraid of death at all. He forced himself to make a tough decision.

He exchanged the lives of the entire village for Zhu Zhangyuan's life.

Then, he set forth to seek revenge and sacrificed his life.

He did all of this only for the people's well-being.

“Promise me, when you become an emperor in the future, you must take good care of your people...”

Soon after, Zhu Zhangyuan arrived with his army. He saw the corpses and blood all over the ground. He also found the half-broken machete that the young man often used, but he could not find the young man.

He was enraged.

Immediately, he gave the order to surround Jiangping.

At the same time, he was looking for the best craftsmen in the world to cast a new machete for the young man!

“Kid, I believe you will definitely come back.”

The heavy machete was forged, Zhu Zhangyuan held it, and launched a battle in Jiangping!

A huge battle started.

Chen Youliang’s former subordinates joined hands with the killers from the Yuan Dynasty to assassinate Zhu Zhangyuan.

The battle was so intense that the defense in the military camp was greatly reduced. Many killers took the opportunity to attack and rushed straight into the military camp. They weaved their way among the guards and headed straight for the center of the camp.

Zhu Zhangyuan left the camp with his saber, ready to fight to the death with his soldiers!

All the soldiers united for one purpose.

In the face of those rampageous killers, they were fearless and rushed out, one by one.

It was such a pity!

Since more and more killers with incredible martial arts skills kept pouring forth, the soldiers suffered heavy casualties!

Zhu Zhangyuan stepped forward with his saber, ready to fight against the killers in person.

However, the soldiers did not allow him to do that.

Meanwhile, the killers were getting closer and closer.

“Clang!”

Right at this moment, the clanging sound of a blade rang out.

A long blade appeared quickly from a distance and embedded itself into the ground before those killers.

Then, a figure flew over.

Seeing the figure, Zhu Zhangyuan laughed and shouted, “I knew you were still alive!”

The youth rushed into the group of killers.

With a blade in one hand, he fought against all the assassins in black.

The reinforcements rushed over and surrounded all the assassins in black. Zhu Zhangyuan ordered that no one was allowed to take action. The youth fought against all the assassins in black alone.

A big battle took place, and everyone at the scene sat up straight to watch it.

This battle was quite exciting and shocking.

The scenes, the special effects, and the fighting movements were undoubtedly exciting to the extreme.

What mattered most was that the young man no longer smiled, but had an indifferent look on his face.

A sixteen-year-old youth, who witnessed the loss of so many lives, fell silent. He had grown up as well.

Everyone suddenly felt sorry for this young man.

A great battle had come to an end.

The young man finally finished off all the killers!

At the same time, the good news came.

The battle of Jiangping resulted in a great victory!

“You’re back.”

When all the killers died, Zhu Zhangyuan immediately went up to him and grabbed the young man with great joy.

“I should leave.”

The youth replied.

“Stay here and be my guard!”

Zhu Zhangyuan tried to persuade him to stay.

“I didn’t promise you that.”

The young man shook his head and added, “A young man should travel around in Jianghu, not in the imperial court!”

“Alas.”

Knowing that he couldn’t persuade him, Zhu Zhangyuan could only hand over the precious machete he made to the youth.

The youth left.

He looked at his receding back.

Everyone’s eyes were wet.

It was not because of the reunion after a long separation, but because of the young man’s belief. When they thought about what the young man had done, his small figure became incomparably tall in the eyes of all the audience.

The movie was over.

“Whew...”

There was a collective sigh at this scene, and then tumultuous applause followed.

He turned his head and looked back. Everyone's eyes were still wet with tears, including those movie critics.

The applause went on for a long time.

After a long while, just as everyone got up to leave, a bonus scene suddenly appeared on the big screen: a young man with a glass of wine appeared in front of the graves of the villagers and toasted them, one by one.

"This world belongs to Zhu Zhangyuan. He is a good emperor. Everyone will have a good life in the future. This should be what you want, right?"

"I'm sorry you couldn't see it."

"I'm sorry..."

Chapter 1122: The Movie Ends, All Are Stunned

In the warm glow of the setting sun, a young man stood with a wine flask clasped in his hand, his eyes red-rimmed.

No one in the movie hall had expected that there would be this bonus scene in the end.

Thus, as soon as it appeared, everyone was drawn to this scene. Although it was very short, it gave people a sense of desolation.

The extra scene ended.

Everyone was deeply moved by the image of the young man sitting alone among the grave mounds at sunset, drinking wine amid the melancholy surroundings.

The movie itself was already an overwhelming masterpiece.

In the eyes of the movie critics, no other improvement was required for the whole movie. It was fulfilling and almost perfect. Both the movie critics and the rest of the audience thought that the unexpected footage of this extra scene won extra points for the movie.

Absolutely.

Yang Yizhi, though a teenager in troubled times, was remembered as a righteous martial arts practitioner. Fang Qiu's vivid performance demonstrated his upholding of justice to the fullest and the bonus scene further enhanced the character's image.

A good performance was far from enough to make a character dynamic and vivid from all aspects. A person's behavior is deeply linked to his temperament; for example, people who like fruit usually have healthy skin.

Yang Yizhi, as a youth with a strong sense of righteousness, would do what he was supposed to.

Offering sacrifices to the dead by toasting them showed that Yang Yizhi was a courageous and upright man. He knew what choices he should make and dared to take on the ensuing responsibilities.

He was the real hero!

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

Rapturous applause rang out again.

Everyone stood up and kept clapping with genuine enthusiasm which came from their hearts.

The movie critics in the third row also took out their pens to jot down their thoughts quickly, feeling that the movie was more than a simple story. Several scenes in the movie were worth pondering over.

“If the extra scene had been included directly into the movie, it would not have achieved such an effect.”

“Yes, the whole movie was well put together and rigorous. It touched the deepest part of my soul. The thread of thoughts and relevant viewpoints are clearly expressed in the movie. I suggest we watch the movie a few more times to comprehend it fully. Maybe each time we see it, our viewpoints will be different.”

“I enjoyed it so much that I’d like to watch it a few more times. Now I’m going to buy the ticket for the midnight screening. I can’t wait to watch it again.”

On the other side, there were also people discussing about the movie animatedly.

“It’s beyond doubt that this movie is far above the general level. In addition to the necessary factors such as the performance and plots, the most amazing thing for me is its special effects. They were perfectly executed! I heard it was a domestic special-effect team. I dare say even those specialists in Hollywood can’t compete with it, right?”

“Yes, especially that big tiger. It looks so real! I even thought I was looking at a real giant tiger.”

“I give the special effects full marks.”

“Although the special effects are superb, the martial-art movements are also top-notch. I’ve never seen such a performance in other martial-art movies. These original actions are eye-catching.”

“Their actions appear magical and it seemed that these people can actually do these fighting movements. In addition to the special effects, the actors performed outstandingly well as if they were fighting for real. Compared with them, the fight scenes in other movies were just mere form written in the scripts beforehand!”

...

Some of the audience were seated in the top two rows of the movie hall.

They were the lucky viewers who were specially chosen to watch the movie here. When the movie ended, they all uttered sighs of admiration unceasingly.

“It’s worthwhile to see a movie starring Fang Qiu, my idol. It’s fantastic.”

“It’s so wonderful. I haven’t seen such a wonderful movie in several years.”

“It’s amazing. No wonder Fang Qiu dared to say they would make two billion at the box office! Anyway, it’s absolutely worth it to watch the movie for the second and third time.”

“Oh, I can’t wait to share it with others. I’ll have to go out and ask the organizer for my phone. Then, I’ll advertise it to all through WeChat Moments and Weibo.”

“It’s a pity we can’t reveal the plots in advance. What we can reveal is that this movie is really awesome!”

“I will definitely bring along all the people I know to watch the movie again and let them know that Fang Qiu deserves to be admired!”

...

“Crack!”

As the movie ended, the lights in the movie hall lit up.

Everyone appeared to be in a daze; it was as if they had just come back from another world. Looking around and sighing with emotion, they could easily see the shock on the faces of others.

It was obvious.

Everyone agreed from the bottom of their hearts that this movie was really amazing.

Aside from these people, the members of the central production team were also very excited.

They were seated in the first row of the movie hall.

All these leading creators turned and shook hands as they congratulated each other with brilliant smiles!

He Gaoming was also very thrilled.

“I didn’t expect the battle scenes in this movie to be so exciting.”

“I had no idea the last battle could be as amazing as this. It’s really awesome! Even those masters in Wulin will be attracted by this fight, let alone ordinary people.”

He Gaoming thought to himself.

As a martial arts practitioner, he had personally experienced many Wulin battles, and he had even nearly been beaten to death. In this case, he was very familiar with the fighting scenes in the martial world of Wulin.

In his eyes, the last battle in the movie was brilliant. It made him feel like he was watching a great martial-arts battle.

The movements of those killers and Fang Qiu, as well as the killing intents from all directions, were as genuine and fabulous as those he experienced in Wulin battles.

It was purely because of this reason that he became so excited and exalted.

The most important thing was...

In this movie, the strength gaps between different levels were really similar to those in Wulin.

This was almost the mirror image of Wulin martial arts!

Even he himself was shocked.

He Gaoming was extremely happy and was looking forward to seeing the reactions of the Wulin people to this movie. These people used to ridicule him, claiming that he was not suitable to be a martial-arts instructor. He'd like to see what kind of reaction they would have after watching this movie!

In addition to the main production staff, it was the first time for all the actors who came to the premiere to see the movie. Whether it was the supporting roles or the protagonists, they were very excited.

They were proud to be a part of this movie!

...

On the other side, Fang Qiu also finished watching it.

"Good."

After watching the movie, he was also very shocked.

While shooting, he just needed to do whatever the director required him to and didn't think there was anything special to it. He had read the script but didn't think too much about the completed scenes at that time. Instead, he was focused on thinking about how to play his role to the maximum, according to the director's instructions.

Now, he saw the whole movie.

Even though he was an actor in this movie, it still moved him to tears.

He felt as if he was watching someone else's performance.

The person he saw in the movie did not seem to be him at all. Instead, he was Yang Yizhi, the real hero in Fang Qiu's heart!

The enthusiastic applause lasted for a long time before it died down.

"The premiere is over."

The host, his eyes slightly red-rimmed, came to the stage and said, "But our show is not over yet. Next, let's invite our film's main creators to come on stage again."

Hearing this, Director Chen Xiaogang immediately went up to the stage again with Fang Qiu, Li Baoguo and the other main creative staff.

"I have a question for you all."

The host looked at everyone on the scene and asked, "Is this movie fantastic?"

"Yes!"

As soon as the question came out, all the people present roared their agreement in unison.

“Exactly! It’s of incomparable brilliance!”

The host readily echoed and nodded in agreement. “The creative staff offered us a visual and spirited feast! Let’s thank them again by giving them thunderous applause!”

Under the host’s call, all the people present clapped loudly again.

“Thank you for all the support.”

When the applause was almost over, the host raised his hand and signaled the audience to stop. Then he took the microphone and walked to Director Chen Xiaogang, saying, “Next, let’s welcome Director Chen Xiaogang to make the final speech for us!”

As he spoke, he handed the microphone to Director Chen Xiaogang.

“Thank you, thank you all.”

Chen Xiaogang had been so excited that his mouth was dry. So, after taking the microphone, he swallowed twice to moisten his mouth before he gave his speech. “Thanks for your approval. But what I want to emphasize is that I can’t take all the credit. It’s the painstaking work of all the people in our team.”

With this, Director Chen Xiaogang took a step forward and glanced at each creator in chief. Finally, he fixed his eyes on Fang Qiu and said, “Everyone knows that Fang Qiu is a doctor. He is really busy, so busy that he can’t even find the time to give me a health examination.”

As soon as these words came out, the audience burst into laughter.

“I’m not joking. It’s true.”

Director Chen Xiaogang shook his head with a wry smile and continued, "Thank you, Fang Qiu. We want to thank him for sparing one month of his tight schedule for the movie."

"I initially planned to arrange some love scenes for him, but I thought that Fang Qiu, a teenager excellent both in conduct and learning, might not be good at doing romantic scenes. He might screw up during the acting, so I gave up on this idea."

Speaking of that, Director Chen Xiaogang added with a smile, "That's why it became a movie about a great man. Anyway, as the director, I hope that everyone will enjoy this movie."

"In addition, I want to thank Mr. Li Baoguo."

He turned to look at Li Baoguo and said: "Everyone knows that Mr. Li Baoguo is a national first-level performer and also the best veteran actor in the plays about Huaxia. I had never expected that he would accept my invitation and perform in the movie. It was exceedingly lucky for me that he agreed. So, I want to thank him from the bottom of my heart for his support for our movie."

"In addition, I've got to tell you the truth."

"I've always thought that Mr. Li Baoguo and Fang Qiu are a good match for each other since the filming began. There was always a certain chemistry between them."

His words instantly caused a tumult of screams.

As he had expected, young people nowadays loved romantic relationships between male characters!

Medical Master

Chapter 1123: Never Take Your Girlfriend to See This Kind of Movie

On the stage, Director Chen Xiaogang expressed his gratitude for the efforts of the main creative staff.

When he thanked He Gaoming, he suddenly laughed.

“Before we started filming the movie, there was one thing that sparked off a lot of discussion on the Internet. It was about the martial-arts instruction team for this movie.”

Chen Xiaogang continued, “I guess you must have known about it. When we set up the movie project, I tried my best to plead for Eighth Master’s help in order to shoot a better movie. What happened afterward was also known to everyone. The team of fight Choreographers that Fang Qiu introduced to me replaced the Eighth Master’s team.”

“As for the cause and effect, I won’t say much about it. All of you have witnessed the strength of this team of fight Choreographers. Now I’d like to introduce one distinguished fight Choreographer, He Gaoming, and his team!”

With this, Chen Xiaogang pointed to He Gaoming and introduced him to everyone. “I’m very grateful to Fang Qiu for introducing such a top-level team of fight Choreographers to us. I really appreciate their sustained efforts to make this movie. Without them, there wouldn’t be so many wonderful fight scenes in the movie. All the movements in the movie came from the real combat experiences of He Gaoming and his subordinates. If you don’t believe me, I suggest you fight with them so you can learn from them.”

Hearing this, everyone laughed.

Just like what Chen Xiaogang said, everyone had recognized the strength of this team of fight Choreographers. Originally, people were wondering what kind of team could outshine the famous Eighth Master’s team. Now, after seeing the finished product, they were all convinced!

The execution of each movement was smooth and wonderful!

“That’s all I’d like to say.”

After introducing everyone, Director Chen Xiaogang bowed and said, “I hope you will all watch the movie when it is out in the cinemas in order to support us and help us promote this movie. Thank you all.”

In the end, the premiere ended with a great round of applause.

Guided by the staff, the lucky fans left in an orderly manner.

.....

Under the guidance of Director Chen Xiaogang, the invited stars also left one by one, ready to meet and be interviewed by the barrage of reporters outside. Although Director Chen Xiaogang did not require them to give good comments, compliments were inevitable due to the excellent quality of this movie.

On the other side, the movie critics had rushed out excitedly long ago, intending to publish their movie reviews as soon as possible.

After all, the purpose of their joining the premiere was to comment on the movies.

Without a doubt, these movie critics must have received a decent fee for their reviews.

It was not from Chen Xiaogang, nor was it from the film's main creative team. It was from the distribution and production companies of this movie.

"How would you write about the movie this time?"

A group of movie critics walked out of the movie hall, chatting with each other.

"How? Just tell the truth," one of them said.

"To be frank, we wrote honestly by following our hearts at the beginning, so we won the trust of the movie audience. That's why we got the chance to join the new movie premieres. But as our fame grew, we stopped writing insincere comments long ago. I have been scolded by my previous die-hard fans several times because I recommended bad movies to them."

“We have no choice. As long as we receive the fees, we have to speak highly of the movies for the companies. The audience will know it, no matter how hard we try to cover it up. Frankly, we are selling our own reputation.”

“That’s right.”

“However, we must seize this opportunity!”

“This is indeed a great opportunity.”

“Although I’ve also received the fee, this is the first time that I feel at ease and justified because it’s indeed a movie that has quality. It’s worth bragging about.”

“Indeed, there is nothing to complain about for this movie. Director Chen has explained that the only shortcoming is that there is no heroine in this movie. It’s a play of men.”

“You know what, I’ve just booked a midnight ticket to see it for the second time. Would anyone like to go with me?”

...

Besides them, the fans also came out of the cinema. They were discussing the movie and exclaiming excitedly.

Some people were busy editing WeChat Moments and writing comments on Weibo to publicize the movie, and at the same time showing off.

Some people just called their friends, inviting them to watch the movie. They extolled the movie with ecstatic enthusiasm.

These fans did not even walk out of the cinema. Instead, they were all in a hurry to buy the midnight tickets, preparing to watch the movie again at midnight in less than an hour!

The premiere ended.

That night, more and more people came to the cinema, all of whom had booked tickets to watch the movie.

Midnight passed.

Countless people crowded into movie halls with tickets in their hands.

Although there were other movies on show on the same night, most of the audience came to the cinema with the tickets for “Yang Yizhi” and walked into the movie halls which were showing “Yang Yizhi.”

Pre-orders of “Yang Yizhi” kept increasing.

That night, sales of this movie were robust. Several cinemas in the capital launched two or even three showings of the movie simultaneously.

This kind of hot scene did not just happen in the capital city.

Tickets sales were also brisk in the cinemas of other first- and second-tier cities.

The movie began showing.

In the movie hall, laughter and screams could be heard from time to time.

Especially when it came to the final battle in the movie, all the audience couldn't help exclaiming out loud.

It was too awe-inspiring!

The audience, both men and women, became highly excited, and their eyes were full of tears!

The movie was so touching that...

Many people wanted to see it again after they enjoyed it so much the first time around.

Unfortunately, the cinemas closed after the midnight screenings ended. Thus, they could only see it again the next day.

...

The next day came.

It took those movie critics a whole night to come out with the most suitable and best film comments.

After they finished writing their reviews, they uploaded them, one after another.

Sure enough, they posted their articles on Fresh-bean, the biggest, best, and most authentic website in Huaxia!

On Fresh-bean, these famous movie critics were like the top stars in the entertainment circle. Every time a movie was screened, a considerable number of people would wait to see their movie evaluations. Then, they would decide whether they should go and see the shows at the cinema after their movie reviews.

In this case, as soon as these movie reviews emerged on the internet, they immediately attracted a lot of loyal readers.

On Fresh-bean, the first movie comment about “Yang Yizhi” from a guru-level movie critic appeared.

“Choice of Life!”

...

Upon seeing the title, the readers were initially stunned.

Then they clicked on it to check.

The beginning of the film evaluation showed a grading system with a star rating belonging to Fresh-bean.

This movie review rated “Yang Yizhi” as four-and-a-half-star out of 5 stars!

The movie was highly acclaimed.

The readers couldn’t sit still anymore.

They immediately began to read it carefully.

“I refuse to give out any spoilers. Those who are here specifically for that can leave!”

“I’m not bragging nor am I smearing anyone. I attended the premiere of ‘Yang Yizhi’ and watched the movie. Frankly, I admire Director Chen Xiaogang’s good grounding in producing movies and the outstanding abilities of the actors. They were truly awesome!”

“Among them, the most surprising thing was that Fang Qiu fulfilled his role and performed very well in his first show. At least his performance didn’t make me feel bored for even a second. He even managed to get me and all the people who participated in the premiere deeply involved in the movie. This is indeed something rare for a new actor!”

...

There came the second review.

“Never Take Your Girlfriend to See This Kind of Movie!”

This article was more straightforward than the first one.

Star Rating: Five stars! The movie critic awards full marks for this movie!

“I don’t need to say much about this movie. I hope everyone who sees my post will go to the cinema to see it in person, and then come back and let me know how you feel after watching it.”

“However, since I’ve decided to write about it, I’d like to share something with you.”

“First of all, this movie does not promote about the relationships between men and women. Those who never take movies seriously or who plan to do some romantic things in the cinema, you can give this movie a miss when you see this.”

“Don’t say that I didn’t warn you. This is not a movie for couples out on a date. The most critical thing is that your girlfriend would very likely be attracted to Yang Yizhi, played by Fang Qiu. You will regret it then.”

“Although it sounds a little absurd, I still want to emphasize that you’d better not take your girlfriends or boyfriends to watch this movie. After watching it, they are very likely to be attracted by the righteousness displayed by Yang Yizhi and Zhu Zhangyuan. What’s worse, they may think that romantic relationships are useless, which will only hinder their progress. Thus, I suggest you watch it alone or with your best friends to achieve your Chivalrous Swordsman Dream!”

...

Then, the third one followed.

“Two Billion Yuan at the Box Office May Not be a Dream”

Star rating: Five stars.

“I’d like to explain the source of this title. At the premiere, the host asked Fang Qiu to predict the box office of the movie, and the answer given by Fang Qiu was two billion yuan!”

“Before I saw it, I thought he was joking. But after I finished watching the premiere, I changed my opinion: Two billion yuan may become a reality!”

“The whole movie is full of awe-inspiring righteousness.”

“As an actor in this movie, Fang Qiu demonstrated excellent acting skills. He and Li Baoguo, a national treasure actor, have an inexplicable and wonderful on-screen chemistry. Their performance complemented each other wonderfully. They are simply a perfect match!”

...

The first three movie comments immediately ignited a flurry of animated discussions on Fresh-bean.

After that, all kinds of comments kept coming out thick and fast.

In addition to those who focused on Fang Qiu, Li Baoguo, acting skills, national justice, world peace, etc., there were many comments about the fight Choreographers, the relationship between characters, and so on.

Each movie comment displayed the details of this movie in one specific aspect.

Some people scanned through the website from top to bottom.

After skimming through all the movie comments, they found that nearly all of them rated “Yang Yizhi” above four stars, and few marked it below four stars.

The final score of the movie reached a terrifying 8.9!

Such a high achievement amazed all the netizens on Fresh-bean.

There were even many people who shared popular movie comments and the movie’s final score with each other on Weibo.

Unexpectedly, this aroused many people’s suspicions.

“Fuck, it can’t be?”

“Are they trying to trick us into watching the movie at the cinema?”

“The score is ridiculously high. It’s too drastic to be true.”

“The score is so high. I’m afraid they must have hired some paid Internet trolls.”

Chapter 1124: Break the Single-day Box Office Record!

A slew of movie reviews came flooding in.

All kinds of doubts also emerged.

After all, this was Fang Qiu’s first debut as an actor. He had never acted in a movie before. How could he perform as well as described in the comments?

Moreover, in recent years, there had never been a movie with such a high score in Huaxia

What did it mean to get a score of 8.9? At present, the highest score of movies on Fresh-bean was 9.6. It should be known that Fresh-bean had a collection of all the movies in the world! It meant that the best movies in the world just got 9.6. Therefore, how could Fang Qiu's first debut as an actor in a movie obtain a score as high as 8.9?

It was impossible!

Undoubtedly, everyone was most concerned about Fang Qiu's acting skills.

Fang Qiu starred alongside Li Baoguo, a veteran actor regarded as a national treasure. Could a newcomer like Fang Qiu be a good match for him?

They had their doubts, but all the movie comments they came across were full of praise for the movie, and thousands of short comments on the movie page were also good. When they saw all this, the netizens couldn't help wondering if it was really a good movie.

After the sweet comes the bitter, and when one is highly suspicious, he would doubt himself to the extreme!

"Oh, is it really that fantastic? Am I wrong?"

Looking at the good comments, those with doubts began to buy movie tickets on the Internet or went straight to the cinema to purchase tickets.

They were going to check out the movie and see if it was really as good as the reviews in the movie comments.

...

As soon as the movie was released, Director Chen Xiaogang brought Fang Qiu all around the country to promote the movie.

He brought Fang Qiu to three cities within a day.

One campaign was in the morning, one in the middle, and one in the evening!

After the last advertising campaign last night, they finally had time to rest. To reward everyone, Director Chen Xiaogang brought them out to have supper together.

It was early in the morning.

Everyone was eating late-night snacks and chatting happily with each other.

“Hey, it’s past midnight.”

A creative worker stood up, raised a glass of wine in his hand, and said, “Come on, let’s have a toast first, and then search the Internet together to check the result of yesterday’s box office!”

With this, he raised his head and gulped down the wine in the glass.

The others also agreed and drank up their wine. Then they took out their mobile phones to check the result on the Internet.

They logged onto Fresh-bean. Because the website specialized in movies, it had a real-time box office list. This list was linked to all the cinemas in Huaxia. The number of people who went for every movie in each cinema could be seen at a glance, and the box office data was also very up to date.

“What the fuck!”

Before the others could access Fresh-bean, a scream rang out.

“What’s wrong?”

Everyone turned their heads to look. Director Chen Xiaogang, Fang Qiu, and Li Baoguo also turned their heads in unison. They were also very curious about the box office on the first screening day.

“The signal of my mobile phone is weak. Did you see it?”

Besides them, He Gaoming had been fiddling with his phone for a long time, but he couldn’t find anything. After hearing the exclamation of the person next to him, he immediately leaned over, looked at his mobile phone, and said, “Thirty-five million yuan?”

“Hey, it’s close, but you missed a zero.”

“It’s 350 million!”

As soon as he said that, the others also located the number.

“The box office yesterday is 350 billion!”

“Wow, really?”

“350 million! It’s 350 million for real!”

When they saw this data, everyone was shocked.

No one had expected that.

How could the movie rake in so much at the box office?

350 million yuan for a single day. The figure was record-breaking!”

“You rock, Director Chen.”

“Mr. Li Baoguo, awesome.”

“Fang Qiu, genius!”

“Everyone here is badass!”

Everyone shouted excitedly.

On the other side, Director Chen Xiaogang couldn’t believe it and quickly took out his mobile phone to check. However, before he saw it, someone from the investment company called and told him that the box office yesterday was more than 350 billion yuan.

The moment he confirmed the box office data, Director Chen Xiaogang couldn’t help but get excited. He smiled radiantly, his eyes glistening with tears!

He had been waiting for this moment for several years.

Finally, he found the right theme and actors!”

He had experienced bad times for a few years. The outcome of this movie far exceeded his expectations. This movie was destined to become one of the best movies that Chen Xiaogang had ever directed. It would be deeply engraved in his memory. If things went on like this, the movie could rake 1.5 billion yuan at the box office as he had expected, or even better, it would reach 2 billion yuan as Fang Qiu had said!

The more Director Chen Xiaogang thought about it, the more thrilled he became.

As the chief screenwriter of this movie, Zhao Rulong was so excited that he couldn't even speak.

At this moment, everyone's face was radiant with happiness. Each of them held a wine glass and looked at each other with excitement.

"Cheers!"

Director Chen Xiaogang stood up and raised the glass in his hand.

Everyone got up immediately.

Cheers!

To propose such a toast, they had tasted much bitterness and gone through many painstaking efforts day and night.

Looking back at the past now, they felt it was totally worth it!

Everyone knew it very well.

This movie was about to go viral!

Everyone knew very well the importance of the score and popularity on the Internet. Now that it raked in such a high box office, this movie became an instant hit. It was just the first day, and it was Friday.

The box office would grow rapidly on the following Saturday and Sunday. And as the box office rose, the movie could be screened for a longer period at the cinemas!

Now, no one even dared to predict the box office numbers.

It was because no one knew how popular the movie would be. The movie might be popular for two or three days, and then its popularity would wane. It might remain popular for a week, two weeks, or even one or two months!

After a glass of wine, everyone calmed down a little.

“Well, everyone.”

Director Chen Xiaogang looked at everyone and said, “This is just the beginning. You have to work hard for the next few days.”

Hearing this, all of them echoed him enthusiastically.

The success of this move was an extremely great encouragement for everyone!

Even He Gaoming, a Wulin master, was filled with enthusiasm.

After all, once the movie became popular, as a fight Choreographer, he would become famous, and so would his team. He would no longer have to depend on his small detective agency to make money in the future.

...

The next day, after the astronomically high box office on the first day and the rave reviews on the Internet, all the cinemas in the country arranged more showings of “Yang Yizhi.”

Without many competitive movies at this time, the screen share of “Yang Yizhi” had risen to above 50% and directly crushed other movies at the cinema!

It was Saturday.

Fang Qiu's family members went to see the movie at the cinema to support him.

Jiang Mengjie also walked into the cinema alone as soon as she finished recording the show.

The students from Fang Qiu's junior, middle, and senior schools rushed to the cinema to support him. Students from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine watched the movie in groups.

...

"I told you, my son is good at acting. I almost thought he was going to die in the movie."

Walking out of the cinema, Fang Qiu's mother kept praising her son along the way, "What a brat. He worked hard to shoot such a difficult movie but chose not to tell his family. How could his small body withstand this kind of martial-art movie?"

"If he wasn't really cut out to be an actor, he couldn't act so well. Am I right?"

"That's right. He has done a good job. I almost cried when I saw him."

"It's a pity that we don't have a heroine. Otherwise, you might get a daughter-in-law," a few elders said.

Next to them, some juniors were also very excited.

"My cousin is a big star now."

"He is amazing."

"Brother Fang Qiu loves me the most. When he comes back, I want to take a photo with him and ask for his autograph. I'll go to school with him."

“This is so sudden. How could my brother suddenly become a big star?”

Fang Qiu’s cousins were very thrilled.

After all, their brother had become famous. Whether they were closely related to him or not, they were his relatives anyway. In the future, they could show it off.

Right after midnight the next day, the final box office for that day came out.

On the second day of the release, the box office reached 400 million yuan!

As soon as this data came out, it immediately caused huge waves on the Internet!

“The one-day box office record of ‘Yang Yizhi’ has exceeded 400 million. It became the highest of the domestic movie box office record!”

“The box office of ‘Yang Yizhi’ has broken through 400 million and is close to one billion!”

“The movie ‘Yang Yizhi’ is a huge box-office success! It has become the unexpected winner of the box office this year!”

In less than three minutes after midnight, various kinds of news flooded the Internet.

Before long, the netizens who previously had paid little attention to the movie box office saw the box office reports of the movie “Yang Yizhi” from the major media platforms.

As soon as these reports came out, the netizens were astounded.

“Yang Yizhi” shocked the movie industry more than it did the netizens!

Everyone in the industry was already very shocked when they learned that the box office of “Yang Yizhi” had reached 350 billion on the first day. Now, when they saw that the highest box office today had reached 400 million, they were even more shocked.

400 million for one day, the result was quite astounding.

In that case, the box office could be more than one billion in a week. It had only been two days, and the movie had already earned 750 billion yuan at the box office. If the trend continued, the final result would be a phenomenal number.

Netizens were in shock, and everyone in the movie industry felt ashamed of their inferiority.

At this time, people in charge of countless financial resources in the industry called Director Chen Xiaogang, one after another.

In less than half an hour after midnight, Chen Xiaogang’s phone rang non-stop, and all the calls were from people handling large capital in the industry. No one could ever refuse them.

Li Dong, the boss of the Luhai Boya Pictures, who had always competed with the Huayi Brothers, called him first.

“President Li?”

When he received the call, Director Chen Xiaogang could not help but smile bitterly.

Although he didn’t want to answer it, he had to show some respect for the boss of Luhai Boya Pictures!

“Director Chen, long time no see.”

On the other end of the phone, Li Dong’s laughter could be heard and he said, “I’ve watched your new movie. It’s terrific. Both the online evaluation and box office are excellent. Let me cut to the chase. I want the copyrights to this movie. I know that you’re still holding on to the rights and have not sold them to Huayi Brothers yet. As long as you sell it to me, I promise that you will still be the director of all the subsequent series. You're free to decide how many sequels you'd like to direct. Our company is only concerned with investments, and you have the final say in everything else. What do you say?"

Chapter 1125: The Fastest Movie Exceeding One Billion Yuan

"President Li, I'm sorry."

Director Chen Xiaogang immediately replied with a smile, "Of course, I want to make a sequel to the movie, but the movie has just been released two days ago. My team is now busy promoting the movie and we have not made any follow-up plans yet. Why don't you wait for a while? I promise that if my team wants to, I will contact you as soon as possible."

After he said this and exchanged a few evasive remarks with the other party, Director Chen Xiaogang hung up the phone.

As soon as the call ended, another boss of a large group called.

Chen Xiaogang, who had just taken a shower and was about to sleep, could only sit on the bed in the hotel and continue to answer the phone.

He had no choice.

These big bosses were not people he could afford to offend, so he had to take their calls.

But there was no need to be so polite when it came to making a sequel for the movie and investment.

Although he was a famous director in the circle, Chen Xiaogang always remembered that when he was in the midst of making a movie, he received a lot of rejection when he went everywhere to ask for investments for the movie.

Now, all those who previously gave him the cold shoulder, were now after him to sign the contract, which made him feel very happy.

Yes, it was invigorating.

It was not a gloomy outlook.

Of course, Chen Xiaogang didn't go too far. He was very polite to every boss. Although he had a backer, the author Hua Yi, but wasn't everyone just trying to live a better life?

Perhaps these big bosses could give him more time and better creation space.

As the saying goes, one should keep a distance from others, and it would be easier to meet each other in the future!

...

On the third day, which was Sunday, the Yang Yizhi film was still a hit, and it was even more popular than the last two days.

They lived in modern cities.

Generally speaking, people in Wulin were too lazy to go to a movie. In their eyes, the so-called martial arts movie and the so-called action movie were the same as children playing games. It was too fake.

Of course, this kind of false reasoning was not due to the fact that the leading protagonist in the movie was too mythical, but because the leading protagonist in those movies was too weak.

To put it simply. "That's right. I don't think the protagonist is too powerful, but that the protagonist is too weak."

It should be noted that the real masters in the martial arts world were very powerful!

In a famous fitness club in the capital city, “Can you accompany me to watch a movie after work?”

A woman in her twenties, who had her long tea-gray hair coiled above her head and wore tight-fitting clothes which showed off her nearly perfect figure. She was holding the arm of a fitness coach and acting like a spoiled child.

This fitness coach was about thirty years old. He was a real martial arts practitioner, and he had great strength.

This woman who held his arm and acted like a spoiled child was his girlfriend. This woman was only ten years younger than him.

“What movie?”

The fitness coach asked.

“Yang Yizhi, this movie is very popular recently. It’s a very good martial arts movie. Many of my friends have gone to see it, and they all said that it’s great.”

The woman said.

“What martial arts movie? They’re all deceiving.”

The man shook his head and said, “What’s so good about watching such fake movies? I can show you if you want to see boxing moves. It’s definitely much better than that movie.”

“Oh, just go with me. My friends went to see them, but I didn’t. I will have no topic to talk about when I go shopping with them.”

The woman said coquettishly, "Is that okay?"

"All right, all right, all right. Let's go."

The man was helpless.

In the past, he had gone to see those so-called martial arts movies, but in the end, all he wanted to do was to sleep, as the shows were too boring.

This time, it would be the same; he would only be going to sleep during the movie.

In the evening, the man was pulled into the cinema by the woman.

As soon as he arrived at the movie hall, he was ready to fall asleep.

However, it turned out to be a battle scene from the very start.

Amid the exclamations of the crowd, the man glanced at the big screen.

As a result, he was completely mesmerized by the movie. He, who originally had no desire to watch the movie at all, was completely immersed in the plot of the movie because of the play at the beginning.

"Wow, this is a sixth-class Martial Superior."

As a real martial arts practitioner, he saw the strength of the protagonist of the movie through the big screen!

"Damn it. This big tiger is still alive!"

When he saw the tiger, he was also dumbfounded. It was obviously a unique guardian beast in Wulin. How could there be a guardian beast in this movie?

“Did they use any special effects?”

But how could special effects be so real?

“Hey, you’ve broken through?”

“Class Seven, breaking through sixth-class to Class Seven?”

“Damn. It’s all true. Everything in the movie is absolutely real!”

After watching the movie, the man was shocked!

He had never seen such a movie before. It was like actually being in Wulin. It was too realistic.

His heart was filled with shock.

After returning home, this man immediately logged into the Wulin forum and posted his comments, which also caused a lot of heated discussions on the forum.

“Is it really that good?”

“It seems that this movie is the talk of the town these days.”

“According to the post starter, this movie is truly hypnotic?”

“It seems interesting. Did they really invite masters in Wulin to participate in the shooting?”

"I remember that when the movie started filming, Wulin was mentioned in the trailer but later, it stopped. Now, after hearing the post starter's words, I feel that there were really Wulin people involved!"

On the Wulin forum, everyone was talking about it.

However, just when everyone was discussing whether there were really Wulin people involved, suddenly, a person directly posted a comment.

"Didn't you see the video of the premiere of Yang Yizhi? John Doe's disciple, He Gaoming, participated in this movie. He went on stage at the premiere, didn't you notice it? Besides, it is said that the big tiger in the movie is real. It's the guardian beast of the Heaven Treasure that John Doe surrendered to. I have to go and see the big tiger and also his disciple. I'm also very curious how the Wulin people shot the movie Yang Yizhi. There shouldn't be any mistakes."

"He Gaoming?"

"John Doe's disciple?"

"So there's such a thing?"

"Then I have to go and take a look. Such a strong lineup should not be trash, and even the post starter has agreed, so there must not be such a big difference."

"I'll go and have a look too."

Soon, everyone expressed their stance and wanted to see what the movie was like.

That afternoon, all the people who had browsed the Wulin forum bought tickets and went to the cinema.

Undoubtedly, the first ones to go were the weaker Martial Superiors.

“Damn it, this is completely beyond my imagination.”

“This is a real action movie. It looks so cool.”

“Wow, sixth-class, this is a sixth-class Martial Superior. It’s amazing.”

“I’m sure I can’t defeat them in a one-on-one fight.”

“He’s amazing. He’s really able to show the strength of a martial arts practitioner.”

After watching the first action scene.

Those Wulin people who went to watch out of curiosity were all shocked.

Because of their weak powers, they didn’t know how formidable the strength of a sixth-class expert was. Therefore, when they saw the fight in the movie, they were all shocked by it.

As the movie progressed, they became increasingly shocked.

“Wow, this big tiger is real.”

“Everyone in the movie hall thinks this big tiger is fake and is a special effect. I’m the only one who knows if this big tiger is real and alive.”

“I’m so excited just thinking about it. If everyone knows this big tiger is real, what would it be like?”

As the audience, these martial arts practitioners seemed to be even more excited than the ordinary audience.

Especially when they saw the last battle.

Those Wulin people were so excited that they all stood up from their seats, feeling exceedingly overwhelmed.

After watching the movie, everyone immediately began to discuss it on the Wulin forum.

This kind of situation also created a furore on the Wulin forum.

In other words, this was the first time Wulin people talked directly about a movie. Before that, after they watched all the movies, they would make scathing remarks and didn't give any complimentary feedback at all.

But now, this movie truly shocked them beyond words. It was really a wonderful movie.

...

At five o'clock in the afternoon, when the update of the box office came in, a piece of news was suddenly released on the official Weibo of the movie Yang Yizhi.

It was a poster.

It was a poster with Fang Qiu's photo.

The post read: More than one billion!

This year's box office had surpassed one billion!

As soon as this Weibo was updated, all of a sudden, it attracted the attention of countless media and marketing accounts. A particularly authoritative movie media released a piece of news after the first investigation.

“Yang Yizhi’s box office record is now more than one billion yuan. It only took two and a half days to break the national record and became the fastest movie in the country that exceeded one billion yuan!”

Because of the box-office success two days ago, everyone felt that it was reasonable for the popularity of the big movie Yang Yizhi to soar, so this result did not cause too much shock to the audience.

At nine o’clock that night, the box office was already over 1.1 billion yuan!

Because of the hot news from two days ago, all the movie tickets on the third day were snapped up. Therefore, at 11 o’clock in the evening, the total box office on that day was counted.

430 million!

It seemed that this number was not much higher than the previous day, but when the people in the industry saw this number, they were all shocked.

Generally speaking, due to the fact that everyone had to work the next day, the box office of the movie on Sunday would be lesser than that on Saturday. However, the box office on Sunday this time had actually exceeded everyone’s expectations, which was 30 million more than that on Saturday.

How could people not be shocked by such a result?

In just three days, it recorded a box office of a total of 1.13 billion yuan. This kind of incredible explosive increase really frightened all the people in the industry, and also the audience.

How many years had it been since such a spectacular event had happened!

Many shocked practitioners in the industry tried to follow suit. They quickly tried to find the exact or similar scripts. Some people even began to study the historical books. They wanted to find a few ancient heroes in the industry and use Yang Yizhi as a model to shoot the same kind of movie.

“If I can’t make a movie, I can even make an online drama with my imagination.”

Suddenly, there was an upsurge of imitation films.

After receiving the results of the box office on the third day, Director Chen Xiaogang, who was overjoyed received calls from countless investors as soon as he returned to his room.

Medical Master

Chapter 1126: Fang Qiu, I Want to Be Your Patient!

In a hotel room, “Mr. Wang?” Chen Xiaogang picked up the phone.

Just like last time, with the one-day box office success of Yang Yizhi, all the top capital groups in the country called Chen Xiaogang immediately.

Wang Tian was the legal representative of the Jingdu World Media Co., Ltd.

Established in 1998, World Media had become the largest private media and entertainment group in Huaxia.

Like the Hua Yi Brothers group, World Media was also the leader of today’s media industry. Due to the fact that its rise was a little late, World Media’s influence was not as huge as that of the Hua Yi Brothers group. World Media had exerted great efforts in movie investments in recent years and had made several continuous investment counterattacks and invested in many small-scale but popular movies, which were well-known to the public.

“Director Chen.” A mature and slightly droll voice came from the other end of the phone, saying, “It really has not been easy to get through to you. I’ve been calling for several days, but you did not pick up my calls.”

“Mr. Wang, you must be joking. My new movie has just been released recently, and I’m busy promoting it everywhere. I haven’t touched my mobile phone for a few days.”

Chen Xiaogang replied.

“Oh, you really didn’t touch your phone?”

Wang Tian said,

“Even though I want to touch it, I have to have the time, don’t you agree?”

Chen Xiaogang answered with a smile.

“That’s good,”

.....

Wang Tian laughed and said, “You should know why I am calling, so I will cut to the chase. I only want to tell you one thing. On our side, Yang Yizhi can definitely be considered as a top-level IP. And we will never hold back on the investment of such a big IP. You should know it even if I decline to say more. So... what do you think?”

It was obvious.

Although Wang Tian’s words were not very straightforward, Chen Xiaogang clearly knew the meaning behind them. It meant that they had strong intentions to invest in Yang Yizhi’s big IP. As long as they could cooperate, it was enough. As for the specific investment plan, it could be put together by Chen Xiaogang alone.

“Mr. Wang, it’s not that I don’t want to. It’s just that I’m still busy doing the promotional work. I can’t do anything else at the moment. Besides, I took a long time to make a comeback with this movie, so I still think I should focus on promoting it first. Let’s talk about this later.”

Chen Xiaogang said.

“At this time, I am indeed a little anxious,”

Wang Tian responded soothingly, “Well, I don’t need you to give me an answer now, but I hope I can extract a promise from you. That is you will give us the priority when it comes to the investment matters of this IP.”

“Good.”

Chen Xiaogang replied, “Of course, of course.”

Chen Xiaogang once again rejected the cooperation and intention from one of the top media group.

Before this, he didn’t expect that the movie Yang Yizhi could cause such a big sensation. The source of all this was one person and that was Fang Qiu!

If Fang Qiu had not participated in the Run Wild & Survive event, then the crew of the so-called survival team would have never found the island cave, and no one would know about the existence of Yang Yizhi.

Not only did Fang Qiu make use of the variety show to promote the name Yang Yizhi on the Internet, but now he also made use of a movie that he played a role in with to make the name Yang Yizhi famous in Huaxia and become a super IP in Huaxia!

According to the box office results of 1.13 billion yuan in three days, Yang Yizhi’s IP had completely surpassed those of the domestic martial arts heroes.

As a director, Chen Xiaogang had his own estimation of the value of this IP.

It was precise because he understood the value of this big IP that he felt from the bottom of his heart that this big IP could not be destroyed. Therefore, no matter how high the prices offered by those top investors were, he did not dare to agree easily.

Of course, the most important thing was that he didn't have the confidence that he could persuade Fang Qiu to play a role in the second episode.

The reason why the movie could create such a big sensation was that Fang Qiu's contribution had played a big part in it. Without Fang Qiu, he would rather not make a sequel, and if he did, it would only destroy the classics.

Moreover, if he wanted to talk to Fang Qiu now, it would seem too urgent. With Fang Qiu's temperament, he would definitely not agree, so he could only take it easy and wait for a few more days.

In the next three days, Chen Xiaogang led Fang Qiu and the other main workers to tour nine cities in a row, and they worked non-stop all day long.

Three days later, everyone was exhausted.

But no matter how tired they were, when they saw the box office, their tiredness immediately disappeared. The box office was the biggest reward for them!

With the ongoing heated discussion on the Internet, Fang Qiu occupied the top three on Weibo and the hot topic list for several days in a row.

The headline of the entertainment news, which rarely appeared, was also changed to the news about the Yang Yizhi movie in recent days, and Fang Qiu was the one who had the highest appearance rate.

In this case, Fang Qiu had successfully transformed from being a Chinese Medicine doctor to a celebrity in the entertainment industry!

The number of followers on Weibo increased once again, and it was almost 70 million.

Fang Qiu didn't pay attention to these at all. Even if he had to go to three cities to promote every day, as long as he was free, he would still take the time to pore through his Chinese Medicine books.

Such a situation was also photographed by the media reporters of the promotion team and reported to the public. Immediately, it caused another heated discussion on the Internet.

"Fang Qiu is really born to study medicine."

"What is a student? That's what you call a student!"

"With this kind of learning spirit, is there anyone who will not succeed?"

The netizens all sighed with emotion. Only Fang Qiu could do this. If it were anyone else, they might not be able to do it. After all, the promotion period was particularly tiring.

Of course, Fang Qiu was in fact not tired.

After all, he was also at the guru level. It would be ridiculous if he felt tired.

When he accepted the invitation from Chen Xiaogang, Fang Qiu had already come to an agreement with Director Chen. After tomorrow, his role in the promotion was over, and the main production team would be responsible for the rest of the promotional activities.

When he signed the contract with Fang Qiu, he didn't state that Fang Qiu had to go with him to promote. These days, Fang Qiu helped him at no charge.

Although Chen Xiaogang wanted to pay Fang Qiu the promotional fees, Fang Qiu didn't want to accept it.

Seeing that the box office was really beyond everyone's expectations, Director Chen Xiaogang thanked everyone in his heart. Every member of the team was indispensable. It would have been impossible to make such a good movie without any of them, so he was very grateful to everyone.

In the hotel room, Fang Qiu, who had finished reading and was about to sit cross-legged to practice, suddenly received a call from Director Li Huawen.

"Director Li?"

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

"It's you."

Director Li Huawen's cynical laugh came from the other end of the phone. He said, "I didn't expect that you starred in such a popular movie. But It's really hard for me."

"What's going on?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

"Hey, you're already so popular. Why don't you go and find an agent?"

Director Li Huawen said, "It's good that I've become your agent. These days, my phone has been ringing non-stop. They are all looking for you, such as movies, TV series, network dramas, variety shows, and chat programs. Anyway, all the programs you can see on the Internet came to me. They all want you to go on their shows, so the viewership will pick up."

"Uh, I am sorry to trouble you."

Fang Qiu said with a smile.

“What’s your plan?”

Director Li Huawen obviously didn’t mean to blame him. On the contrary, he asked very seriously.

“Director Li, do you think I’ll even have some free time?”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

“No.”

Director Li Huawen paused and said, “I say, you don’t know what’s going on now, do you? You are much more popular now than those fresh-faced young actors in the entertainment circle. Now you are recognized as a powerful person in the entertainment circle. With such good reviews, don’t you really want to develop your career in the entertainment circle?”

“I don’t want to.”

Fang Qiu directly shook his head and said, “Although I’ve participated in variety shows, shot a movie and also sang a song, there is a reason for doing these things. I really have no interest in the entertainment circle, and there are still many things waiting for me out there. I really don’t have the time and energy to be an actor.”

“I knew it would be this answer.”

Director Li Huawen sighed softly and said, “Well, I’ll help you get rid of all these opportunities.”

“Good.”

Fang Qiu nodded immediately and said, “Sorry to bother you, thank you.”

“I have no choice. After all, I brought you into this circle.”

Director Li Huawen sighed with a smile.

...

On Monday, it was the fourth day and also the last day that Fang Qiu would take part in the promotion.

Because they had toured too many cities in recent days, Fang Qiu didn't even know which city he was in. He just followed Director Chen Xiaogang all the way to the promotion sites.

This was a big cinema.

After getting out of the car, under the protection of the security guards, Fang Qiu, Chen Xiaogang, and the others went straight into a large movie hall where hundreds of people were already seated.

These people were all fans.

"Let's welcome the production team of the movie Yang Yizhi."

With a loud shout from the host, the main production team quickly entered, following behind Chen Xiaogang.

Then, the fans sitting in the movie hall suddenly became excited.

"Fang Qiu!"

"Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu!"

Everyone chanted Fang Qiu's name in unison.

But when Fang Qiu entered the room, a fan sitting in the first row couldn't help but shout excitedly the moment he saw Fang Qiu, "Fang Qiu, I love you. I want to be your patient!"

As soon as he said that, it immediately interrupted the numerous voices, and everybody roared with laughter.

Even the host and all the members of the main production team couldn't help laughing.

Then, amid the cheers of everyone, the host started his introductions.

"Well, we welcome the main production team of our movie Yang Yizhi. Next, we'd like to ask Fang Qiu and Director Chen Xiaogang to stay on the stage. The others, please step down and have a rest."

After the greetings were done, the host reached out and pointed to the chairs that had been set up under the stage. After everyone took their seats, he said, "First of all, we will start with the Q & A session."

Chapter 1127: I Don't Want to Enter the Entertainment Circle

"Director, why didn't teacher Li Baoguo come this time?"

A fan asked first.

"Teacher Li Baoguo is a national performing artist. He has worked in the industry for decades. Although I also hope that Teacher Li can come with us to promote the movie, it is very tiring. I am afraid that the teacher can't adapt to the pace, so I discussed it with Teacher Li and we have asked Fang Qiu to be the representative to promote it first."

Director Chen Xiaogang replied.

"Okay, next one."

The hostess said with a smile.

Then, the staff handed the microphone to a female fan who raised her hand.

The fan immediately stood up, looked at Fang Qiu excitedly, and said, "Fang Qiu, I'm your fan. I like you very much."

"Thank you."

Fang Qiu responded politely with a smile.

"I have a question."

The female fan smiled very excitedly and said, "Will you be joining the entertainment circle so that fans like me can see more of your works?"

As soon as she asked that question, all the people present, including Director Chen Xiaogang and the host, turned, together with these fans immediately and looked at Fang Qiu curiously.

Logically speaking, Fang Qiu had done a lot of work in the entertainment circle, so he could be regarded as a member of the entertainment circle. However, it seemed that Fang Qiu didn't think much of this identity and often disappeared. He just showed up when he was in the mood. At other times, he was like a hermit; there was no news about him at all.

Therefore, everyone was curious about whether Fang Qiu would officially enter the entertainment circle.

If Fang Qiu agreed to enter the entertainment circle, there would definitely be more news about him in the future, and his fans would no longer have to wait for a few months to get any updates or news from him on Weibo.

“This is great.”

Hearing the fans’ question, Fang Qiu immediately sat up straight and said with a serious face, “This question came in a timely manner, I also think it’s a good time to explain to everyone that I won’t enter the entertainment circle!”

“Ah?”

The host was the first to ask. She looked at Fang Qiu in surprise and said, “You are so popular now. The first movie you starred in is also super popular, and your acting skills are very good. You are totally suited for the entertainment circle. Why don’t you want to enter the entertainment circle?”

“Yes, why?”

“What’s wrong with entering the entertainment circle?”

“Can’t we as fans get more updates about you?”

The fans below also echoed the same thoughts. Obviously, they were very puzzled about Fang Qiu’s answer.

“Since everyone has asked this question, I’ll clarify it.”

Fang Qiu smiled and said, “My main purpose is to become a doctor. There are many patients now, and there are not enough doctors, so I can’t leave. Compared with doctors, there are more than enough stars now. One more star will not make any difference, so I won’t join in the fun.”

Hearing this, the host took the lead in clapping.

As soon as he applauded, the fans below the stage also applauded, one after another.

Although they all felt that it was a pity that Fang Qiu did not want to enter the entertainment circle, they were also very clear about it. Fang Qiu was indeed a Chinese Medicine doctor, so he should focus on his patients.

Although many people from all walks of life tried their best to change their jobs and enter the entertainment circle after suddenly becoming famous, Fang Qiu was not that kind of person.

Even if it was due to his popularity and he changed his mind and decided to join the entertainment circle, he would not be scolded by others, Fang Qiu would not make such a choice.

And the reason why everyone liked Fang Qiu was because of his character. It was because he didn't forget his roots!

This kind of character with such good morals was really rare!

Hearing Fang Qiu's answer, Director Chen Xiaogang, who was sitting next to him suddenly became anxious.

Yang Yizhi was the largest IP in his hand, and it was also the one with the most potential to develop in the future. Apart from this IP, he could not come up with anything else.

In this case, if Fang Qiu really didn't enter the entertainment circle, how could he make the sequel of the following live show of the IP?

Could it be that he was really going to abandon this IP?

At that, Chen Xiaogang had to quickly think of a solution.

Unfortunately, even when the meeting was over, he couldn't come up with a solution.

After the meeting, under the protection of security guards, the group of people quickly walked out of the cinema and got in the car.

“Are you really not going to enter the entertainment circle?”

Sitting in the car, Chen Xiaogang hurriedly pulled Fang Qiu aside and asked him.

“No.”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

“Really? I still want to invite you to act in an online play. They all want to use your name. You can name your price.”

Chen Xiaogang said.

“Director Chen, I really don’t have time.”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

“Then I’ll ask you.”

Chen Xiaogang seized the opportunity and immediately said, “You don’t want to star in any online dramas and don’t want to enter the entertainment circle. What about the sequel of Yang Yizhi? Aren’t you afraid that I’ll use an actor and ruin the movie?”

“This...”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

He still had feelings for Yang Yizhi.

First of all, he was in awe of the hero Yang Yizhi. Second, he was the one who started the movie. His purpose was to let the hero's spirit and integrity be made known. Now, the first movie had a good effect. If the second one was really ruined, wouldn't it be a waste of time for the first movie?

"Doesn't that mean Yang Yizhi's fame is going to be ruined?"

In this way, it definitely wouldn't work!

Fang Qiu thought for a while.

The first episode was just released a few days ago, and it was probably too early for the sequel. He immediately said, "For the second one, it's better to read the script first, just like before."

"Good."

Chen Xiaogang's eyes lit up, and he immediately said, "We will still use He Gaoming's team for the fight Choreographer!"

...

The weight in Director Chen Xiaogang's heart was also lightened.

Since Fang Qiu said that he wanted to read the script, it meant that he didn't mean to refuse to participate. At least he didn't refuse outrightly.

"By the way." After feeling more at ease, Director Chen Xiaogang changed the topic and said, "If you really don't have time to act in that online drama, then come and be a guest performer. Just for one day."

"Good."

Fang Qiu nodded. He could still spare one day.

Hearing Fang Qiu's answer, Chen Xiaogang immediately laughed.

He was very clear about the entertainment circle.

Now, the most popular people in the whole entertainment circle were undoubtedly Fang Qiu and Yang Yizhi!

All the media in the country were watching this movie. As long as it was related to this movie, there would be a topic, not to mention that the guest performer was the absolute protagonist of this movie, Fang Qiu.

In terms of Fang Qiu's influence, having him for a guest performer for a day would be enough!

...

After the meeting, the topic they talked about at the meeting soon became the headline news of the major media and spread like wildfire.

Especially the news that Fang Qiu had no intention of entering the entertainment circle.

As soon as it went out, it immediately attracted everyone's attention.

"Phew... I'm fine."

"Our master Fang Qiu remains true to his original aspiration."

"I was really afraid that you would forget your identity because of the popularity of Yang Yizhi."

"If Fang Qiu is a Chinese Medicine doctor, he will be a Chinese Medicine doctor for the rest of his life. I don't eliminate the instances where he would participate in activities in the entertainment circle, nor will I stop him from performing on TV. As long as he knows that he is a Chinese Medicine doctor, I will be his fan for the rest of my life!"

"Don't worry. Master Fang Qiu's determination is beyond your imagination. Compared with a simple little star, how attractive is one billion Huaxia coin? It must be infinite! Unexpectedly, he donated it."

"That's right. He doesn't want a billion yuan, and he doesn't care about his identity as a small star. What's more, he just made a Three Billion Foundation and donated three billion yuan, didn't he?"

"There is indeed nothing to worry about. Fang Qiu is not short of money. What he needs is the time to treat the patients!"

Seeing this news, all of Fang Qiu's fans breathed a sigh of relief.

After all, many of his fans liked Chinese Medicine, or they were Chinese Medicine practitioners themselves. Some of them were influenced by his personality and charm to learn Chinese Medicine and fell in love with it.

So most of the fans didn't want Fang Qiu to go into the entertainment line. What they needed was Chinese Medicine doctor Fang Qiu, not the star Fang Qiu!

In addition to his fans, the passers-by who saw the news also gave likes.

"Not bad. It's a wise choice."

"That's right. The reason why Fang Qiu is popular is that he is a Chinese Medicine doctor. If he gives up his identity as a Chinese Medicine doctor and goes into the entertainment line for others, his fame will not last."

"Not bad, not bad. At least he didn't forget his roots."

“This favorability level is really good. Once a doctor, always a doctor. Don’t mess around with those clueless people, although the movie is really good.”

Fang Qiu’s way of doing things also left a good impression on the passers-by.

But it was far from being a fan.

After all, those who initially did not want to become fans had already changed after watching the movie.

Meanwhile, the anti-fans were also busy.

“You know yourself quite well.”

“You’re not from any class. Of course, you can’t enter the entertainment circle.”

“Oh, is it because you know you are not up to the mark? You know that you can’t survive in the entertainment circle, so you chose not to enter the entertainment circle?”

These anti-fans created a lot of buzzes. Unfortunately, Fang Qiu’s fans and passers-by didn’t pay any attention to them at all. Instead, they watched them as they made fools of themselves.

At the end of the show, the anti-fans were embarrassed.

...

Africo, Comores.

Jiang Miaoyu, who had been paying attention to Huaxia Weibo all the time, also saw this message for the first time.

“At least you still know yourself quite well.”

Jiang Miaoyu snorted and heaved a sigh of relief in her heart.

The entertainment circle was a big dyeing vat. She was really worried about Fang Qiu entering the circle with its corrupt and pleasure seeking environment.

...

In the capital city, “Ha-ha.” When Director Li Huawen saw the news, he suddenly burst into laughter.

He had been so busy all this time. How could he push away those invitations for Fang Qiu? Now when the news came out, he didn’t need to give any excuses now.

Now that the main character had said that he would not enter the entertainment circle, those who came to look for him should give it a rest, right?

At the moment, it seemed that everyone was happy that Fang Qiu didn’t want to enter the entertainment circle.

However, in the entertainment circle, those stars who were of the same age as Fang Qiu were completely speechless when they saw this news!

“You don’t want to enter the entertainment industry? What are you doing here? How nice it would be if the role of Yang Yizhi will be given to us. He has already become famous!”

Chapter 1128: Crazy Fans

“‘Yang Yizhi’ had been screened for four days, and its ticket sales were still on the upward trend with a box office of 89 million yuan in a single day!”

“Even on a hectic Monday, ‘Yang Yizhi’ had raked in 89 million yuan at the box office again.”

Soon, the box office on the fourth day was revealed.

Compared with the 350 million yuan on the first day, the 400 million yuan on the second day, and the 450 million yuan on the third day, the box office of 89 million yuan seemed to show a plunge. This pattern of decrease was a sore point in the movie industry. After all, there were only a few festivals in August, and everyone was busy with work after the weekend, so not many people had time to watch a movie at the cinema.

Everyone in the industry knew about this sore point.

On Monday, a workday, it was amazing enough to get a box office of 50 million yuan, even for a blockbuster. No one had expected ‘Yang Yizhi’ to get such a high box office.

Its outstanding performance came as a motivation for the industry, which refreshed the insiders’ understanding of this sore-point trend.

For a time, all the cinemas around the country decided to add more screenings and increased the number of showings of “Yang Yizhi” by 50% on Tuesday.

It was a rare move in the movie industry.

In a situation where the movie had gone viral, Director Chen Xiaogang continued promoting the movie with the key creative team. As a rule, after Monday and Tuesday, the box office of the movie would experience another period of explosive growth.

Everyone was looking forward to the total box office sales.

In a meet-and-greet event, Chen Xiaogang took the opportunity and made a public announcement.

“The super web series of ‘Yang Yizhi’ has been officially set up. It is already at the preparatory stage!”

The news was released.

It immediately drew the attention of all the major media in the country.

“Web series?”

“Damn, webisodes nowadays are a bunch of crap.”

“Don’t ruin the superb movie! How about making some decent movies? Why would they want to produce web series?”

“Director Chen Xiaogang personally announced it? Does this mean that he would be the one to direct the series? If so, it sounds good.”

“It would be great if the original crew of the movie could participate in it. Unfortunately, Fang Qiu has already said he won’t enter the entertainment circle. I don’t think he will be part of it.”

“For some reason, I’m looking forward to it. I know I will likely be disappointed, but after all, it will be Director Chen Xiaogang’s work. Maybe it will set a new high standard for online plays.”

The news gave rise to a heated discussion among netizens.

More than that, it triggered an uproar in the capital market of the whole movie industry shortly after Chen Xiaogang broadcasted this message.

“Yang Yizhi” was a rising super IP.

It was almost impossible to get a share of the spoils from this IP in the movie industry, but the web series would be different.

Besides...

Compared with movies, the web series would be more widespread with a wider audience range. Not only the related investment, but even the s would be very lucrative.

Therefore, all the big shots in the movie industry were eager to have a share of the pie.

In addition to the capital tycoons who wanted to invest in these super online dramas, the ones who were most thrilled would undoubtedly be those stars who were of the right age.

Just a day ago, they were furious, for Fang Qiu, who claimed he didn't want to join the entertainment circle, unexpectedly robbed them of their chance. But just after one day, they no longer hated Fang Qiu in their hearts and even felt grateful to him.

Why?

The answer was obvious. If it hadn't been for Fang Qiu, the IP of "Yang Yixin" wouldn't have existed. If not for him, the IP would not have been so popular. After all, most of the people who watched the movie were Fang Qiu's fans. The rest were attracted by the promotion carried out in Fang Qiu's name.

If any of them had been given the role of Yang Yizhi, the movie might not have been a runaway hit.

But after Fang Qiu played the role, it made the IP immensely popular. And because he would not be entering the entertainment circle, he gave up the chance to be the leading protagonist of this hot IP. This was unquestionably something that dropped into the laps of all the stars of the right age.

Anyone who managed to get this opportunity would have a promising future!

Therefore, when those stars who were of the right age and their agencies learned that Chen Xiaogang was about to produce the super online series of "Yang Yizhi," they began to get busy, looking for connections and competing with each other. Anyway, Fang Qiu would not be playing the role, so the others had to battle it out to get picked for this hot role!

Sure enough, whoever got this role would be compared with Fang Qiu. But what these stars cared about the most was the opportunity to increase their media exposure. Whether they would gain abuse or praise, as long as they stayed hot, it was no big deal. That would be enough!

Soon, one after another, the major movie and television companies vied to contact Director Chen Xiaogang to discuss the investment, actors, etc.

However, all of this had nothing to do with Fang Qiu.

After the publicity on Monday, Fang Qiu had a night's rest. Early the following day, he flew back alone to Jiangjing with his luggage.

He realized he had not been back to school for a long time. Anyway, he had to show up. Along the way, he would have a talk with Chen Yinsheng because he wanted to know more about the obligatory medical service the college students in the countryside had to perform during the summer vacation.

The city where they did the promotion was not far from Jiangjing. After a short two-hour flight, Fang Qiu landed at Jiangjing international airport.

Fang Qiu got off the plane, took his luggage, and walked out.

But in the end...

As soon as he walked out of the passageway, Fang Qiu was dumbfounded.

Out of the blue, a large group of people broke through the police cordon around the passageway and surrounded him from all directions.

The security guards of the airport had long since been on the alert at the entrance of the arrival hall.

These people had been waiting for a long time ago. The airport noticed the unusual number of people gathered there earlier on and sent a security team over to monitor the situation.

Seeing the bustling scene, Fang Qiu was immediately stunned. He quickly turned his head and looked around, searching for any big stars among the people who were on the same flight as him.

Before he could finish scanning the crowd...

“Fang Qiu!”

“Fang Qiu! Fang Qiu!”

In the airport, his name was loudly chanted by many.

As soon as Fang Qiu heard the outburst of shouts, his face changed dramatically. He immediately turned around and looked over. There he saw a dense crowd of his fans, most of whom were holding placards with his name. The moment they spotted him, they began to scream with great excitement as if they had seen their most beloved idol.

“Go, go ahead!”

The security captain, who had been here for a long time, immediately waved his hand and barked out this order.

Several security guards rushed forward to protect Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu was utterly petrified.

A great many people swarmed in from all directions. He even saw some people running wildly toward him in the distance.

“What’s the fuck going on?”

Fang Qiu, who was in a daze, could hardly think straight. There was a sea of fans. The few security guards around him seemed very nervous, as if they were facing many formidable enemies. Fang Qiu muttered as his mind went blank, “Er, am I a popular star now? Merely by playing a role in a movie?”

Absolutely!

Fang Qiu guessed it right.

Ever since the movie was released, his loyal fans had been paying close attention to his movements. For example, whenever he planned to promote the movie in any city, they would spread the news on the Internet and in the groups organized by his fans.

In this case, through the staff of the movie and its publicity, the fans knew that Fang Qiu would only participate in the promotion for four days.

Therefore, they knew from the beginning that Fang Qiu would be taking a flight today. The only thing they were not aware of was the destination.

But in the end...

One of his fans found his flight details and rallied all the fans in the group to meet him at the airport.

That was the reason why they made such a big scene here!

“Hey, welcome back. But why did you not inform us in advance?”

The security guard next to Fang Qiu looked at him and said, “If you had told us earlier, we would have been prepared for it. We thought it was a C-list star coming. If we knew it was you, we’d never let you use this passageway!”

“Er...”

With a wry smile, Fang Qiu opened his mouth and wanted to say something.

“Forget it. Don’t talk anymore.”

The security captain hurriedly caught up with Fang Qiu and said, “The longer you stay here, the more people will be amassing to see you. We’d better get the crowd to disperse now. This gathering might have a great impact on the airport. If any flight is delayed because of it, we can’t bear the consequences!”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu responded. Then, under the protection of the security guards, he moved fast to get out of the airport and directly got into a taxi parked outside.

Unexpectedly, those fans didn’t intend to spare him at all. When they saw Fang Qiu getting into the taxi, they also got in other cars to pursue him.

Nevertheless, the crowd had dispersed.

Looking at the much less crowded airport hall, the captain of the security squad finally felt relieved.

In the taxi, Fang Qiu was still in a state of shock.

Feeling doubtful, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called Chen Xiaogang.

“Hello?”

Chen Xiaogang picked up the phone.

“Director Chen, what’s going on? I just arrived at the Jiangjing Airport. Why were there so many people here?”

Fang Qiu asked, “Did you leak the news that I would be returning to Jiangjing?”

“No!”

Director Chen Xiaogang immediately denied it and said, “But you are now a renowned celebrity. Did you think you can go out as casually as before?”

“I used to be very famous, but I have never encountered such a situation.”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

“That’s true. But you were not a star.”

Director Chen laughed and said, “Now you’ve starred in a very popular movie and gained a lot of fans. Compared with your previous fans, the music and movie fans of the stars in the entertainment circle are more fervent.”

“But I don’t want to be a star, and I am not joining the entertainment circle. What should I do now?”

Fang Qiu asked helplessly.

“In your case, you’d better go out through the special channels in the near future. It’ll be better when your popularity and that of this movie diminishes,” Chen Xiaogang said.

“If I had known this would happen, I wouldn’t have acted in this movie.”

Fang Qiu laughed a bitter laugh.

“Please don’t say that.”

Upon hearing his complaint, Chen Xiaogang was a little flustered and said hurriedly, “You promised me. Don’t forget you agreed to be a guest performer in the web series and the second movie. You can’t break your promise!”

Hearing that, Fang Qiu hung up the phone helplessly.

“Excuse me.”

After putting away his phone, Fang Qiu turned his head and looked at all the taxis chasing after him. He decided on the spur of the moment and told the driver, “There are many cars following us. Please try your best to get rid of them. Otherwise, I won’t be able to get out of the car.”

Medical Master

Chapter 1129: He Can No Longer Stay at School

“Dr. Xiao Fang, rest assured.”

The taxi driver turned around and said with a smug smile, “It’s time to show you my skills!”

Fang Qiu, greatly startled, took a look at him.

“Huh?”

“An old acquaintance!”

This man was the first driver he treated when he entered the orthopedics department of the affiliated hospital of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. After that, he brought in a continuous stream of taxi drivers for him to treat.

“Oh, it’s you!”

Fang Qiu smiled and asked, “Long time no see.”

“Yeah, it’s been a long time.”

The driver smiled and said, “My friends have been trying to get an appointment with you, but I couldn’t reach you. Although I knew you were at school, I couldn’t go there lest I disturb you. Later, when I learned that you had gone to the Chinese Medicine Hospital, my friends queued there to seek treatment. Now, every one of them has recovered well and is full of vigor again!”

While the driver chatted happily with him, he gunned his car and passed many vehicles at breakneck speed.

Fang Qiu kept a close watch on the situation for fear of meeting an accident if he drove too fast.

“How could these fellows compete with me?”

Watching the other taxis receding in the rearview mirror, the driver looked up proudly and said, “I’ve been a driver for decades. Do you think I practiced all this while for nothing?”

“Amazing, but you’d better not race against others. It’s safer to slow down a little,” said Fang Qiu.

“You’re right.”

The driver nodded in agreement and said, “Actually, I usually drive very slowly. This time, since you came up with such a unique request, I thought I might as well take this opportunity to win an exciting car race. After this, I can drive peacefully for another ten years at least, ha-ha.”

Fang Qiu also smiled.

“Dr. Xiao Fang, are you returning to school or not?” The driver asked.

“Let’s go back to school.”

Fang Qiu nodded affirmatively and said, “You don’t have to go straight back to the school. If I go back to school like this, I will create a big problem. You are familiar with the vicinity of the school, so find a secluded spot to let me off.”

“Got it.”

The driver nodded.

The driver drove to a small alley near the school’s back door, where there were lesser people.

“Well, you’ll be able to enter the school after passing through this alley,” said the driver.

“Thank you.”

Fang Qiu paid the fare and got out of the taxi.

Originally, the driver didn’t want to take his money, but Fang Qiu insisted. He then scanned the QR code and paid his fare.

“Dr. Xiao Fang, please wait a moment.”

After paying, Fang Qiu was about to leave when the driver stopped him and took out a notebook and a pen from the car. He handed them to Fang Qiu abashedly and said, "Could I please have your autograph for my daughter?"

"Sure."

Fang Qiu took it with a smile and signed his name quickly.

"Can we take a photo together?" The driver asked hopefully.

"Of course."

Fang Qiu nodded.

After taking a photo with the driver, Fang Qiu walked away quickly. He sneaked in through the alley and entered the school from the back door.

The school's back door was next to the playground.

At this time, because it was 10 o'clock in the morning, there were not many people at the playground. There were only three or four classes having physical education classes. Some students who did not have to attend any classes were sitting there, practicing English with headphones over their ears, trying hard to recite the categories and effects of medicinal herbs.

Since there were a small number of students and no outsiders, Fang Qiu instantly breathed a sigh of relief. Then he lowered his head and walked along the wall shadows, ready to return to his dormitory quietly.

On the playground, everyone was busy with their own activity, and no one paid any attention to the others.

Of course, none of them noticed Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu heaved a sigh of relief.

But...

Just as Fang Qiu secretly relaxed a little...

“Fang Qiu!”

All of a sudden, a sudden shout came from the playground.

Fang Qiu was greatly startled.

He quickly turned his head and saw a student jumping away from his classmates who were still doing the frog jump exercises. Then he pointed at him and shouted out loud excitedly!

His scream stopped those students in his class who were doing frog jump exercises, those from other classes, and those studying alone. One after another, all of them turned their heads and looked toward Fang Qiu.

“Fang Qiu! Fang Qiu for real!”

“Fang Qiu has returned to our school.”

“Holy shit, it’s him!”

His appearance caused an uproar among the students on the playground. They forgot all about their classes, and all of them rushed eagerly toward Fang Qiu.

Meanwhile...

The teaching building was near the playground, so the students in it could hear the cheers and shouts from the playground. Almost immediately, they turned their heads and looked anxiously outside the windows...

Fang Qiu stood out clearly at the playground.

Though they were stunned, they could only sit there and watch because they were still in class.

The loud commotion also attracted the attention of the students in other areas of the school. In the confusion, everyone asked each other what had happened.

As soon as they learned that Fang Qiu was back, they all rushed to the playground excitedly, ready to catch a glimpse of this celebrity!

Especially those who were taking the graduation photos on campus, they all rushed over at once and pulled Fang Qiu to stop him from leaving!

On the playground, Fang Qiu was about to run away, but before he could run out, the students from the ground had already rushed over and surrounded him.

Now that he couldn't get away, Fang Qiu had no choice but to make for the dormitory at his normal speed.

After a short while, crowds of students rushed over and surrounded Fang Qiu, while more people kept coming in from a distance.

"Oh, no way."

A bitter smile emerged on Fang Qiu's face.

He had to find a way to escape as soon as possible. Otherwise, he would not be able to leave!

“Dear all, I’m sorry. I’m in a hurry and have to go first.”

After apologizing to all the people around him, Fang Qiu immediately rushed into the crowd.

As soon as everyone saw it, they crowded together to stop Fang Qiu from leaving.

But Fang Qiu moved deftly among the crowd and instantly jumped out of the dense crowd and darted away. Before the crowd could react, Fang Qiu had already made his escape and was some distance away.

There were still a lot of people on the playground and it bustled with noise and excitement. The continuous flow of students who kept rushing there didn’t notice Fang Qiu leaving and let him run away.

After experiencing the fanatical pursuit of those students, Fang Qiu didn’t dare to go back to his dormitory. He could only run all the way to the third floor of the teacher’s office building and eventually arrived at the Vice President’s office.

“Thump, thump, thump...”

Fang Qiu looked around vigilantly. After making sure that there was no one around, he quickly knocked three times on the door.

“Come in.”

Chen Yinsheng’s voice came from the office.

“Vice President Chen.”

Fang Qiu pushed the door open, went in, and quickly closed the door behind him. He greeted Chen Yinsheng, who was working, then he hurried forward and sat down before Chen Yinsheng’s desk.

“Eh?”

Chen Yinsheng looked up and saw that it was Fang Qiu. He was stunned and asked in surprise, “When did you come back?”

“Just now.”

Fang Qiu answered with a wry smile.

“Have you been pursued by your fans again?”

Chen Yinsheng seemed to have seen through his awkward situation and immediately asked happily.

“I didn’t ask for any of this.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “I’m here to take shelter. By the way, I’d like to find out about the students giving free medical treatment in the countryside. People from the Three Billion Foundation have talked about this matter with all the practicing physicians in the countryside. These students didn’t encounter any unexpected or unfair treatments, right?”

“I’m worried about it.”

Chen Yinsheng nodded slightly and said, “After this plan was made known, a lot of students have signed up, but the situation in the countryside is different. Each student will go to one place. No matter how many people have signed up for this, a student can only be assigned to one small mountain village. After all, there are so many physicians, but only a few students from this school. The practice of one-on-one teaching and internship is excellent for every student, but their safety in the countryside is a big issue.”

“After all, we also have to be responsible for the safety of our students!”

Fang Qiu, hearing his concerns, nodded knowingly and said, "I was also worried about this, so I came to ask about the situation. As for the safety issues, let me organize some people to protect them."

"Well, it will be great if you can handle this problem. Although there will unlikely be any incidents with regards to their safety, we still need to pay attention in case of any emergency."

Chen Yinsheng nodded slightly, then suddenly laughed and said, "Speaking of which, I was just about to thank you."

"Huh?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

"It's about what you did in Africo."

Chen Yinsheng said with a smile, "You helped Africo cure the malaria outbreak, which has attracted a lot of worldwide attention and has also created a great impact in the country. Because of you, both the Ministry of Public Health and the Ministry of Education have praised our school. I suppose our school will get twice as much funding than what we received before. This is a big event worth celebrating for both our university and your schoolmates."

"It's my honor to contribute to Chinese Medicine."

Fang Qiu said with a smile.

What he said was not to help the school or support his schoolmates, but to make some contributions to Chinese Medicine.

Absolutely!

In Fang Qiu's view, helping his school and the students was equal to supporting Chinese Medicine!

“Good point.”

Chen Yinsheng nodded with a smile, then rolled his eyes and said, “There is one more thing.”

“What?” asked Fang Qiu.

“You must have seen it when you came back. Your senior brothers and sisters have begun to take graduation photos at school. Graduation season is in full swing. Do you want to give another speech?”
Chen Yinsheng asked.

“Thump, thump, thump...”

Suddenly there came a rat-a-tat on the door. Before Chen Yinsheng could speak, a security staff of the school immediately pushed the door open and rushed in, saying, “Vice President, bad news. Fang Qiu’s fans are blocking the school gate. They were so brash that they broke into our school. All our security teams were sent out, and they finally stopped them at the school gate. They said that they wouldn’t leave until they saw Fang Qiu. What should we do?”

“Did they break in?”

Fang Qiu asked in astonishment.

“Yes, they did.”

The staff responded and then noticed that the man he spoke to was Fang Qiu.

“It seems that I can’t stay at school any longer. I have to go.”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and said, “Vice President, I’ll leave the rest to you.”

After that, he stood up and ran out without hesitation.

“Er, I’ll go with you to have a look.”

Chen Yinsheng smiled bitterly, then stood up and rushed to the school gate with the staff.

Medical Master

Chapter 1130: We’re Here to See the Doctor!

A large crowd soon gathered at the gate of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.

“We want to see Fang Qiu.”

“Fang Qiu is back. We know that! We’re looking for him. We need the doctor!”

“Yes! We’re here to see the doctor! If Fang Qiu doesn’t come out, we won’t leave.”

“Yes, we will stay here until we see Fang Qiu.”

A swarm of people clustered around the once quiet and peaceful school entrance.

Before they stood many security guards, standing by vigilantly.

The bunch of boisterous fans almost drove them mad.

“Fang Qiu didn’t come back. He is really not here!”

The security captain explained frankly to this large group of people, “We have been standing guard at the school entrance all the time. If Fang Qiu came back, we would definitely know, but we haven’t seen him for several months.”

“We don’t believe it.”

A fan said, “We went to pick him up at the airport this morning, and we personally witnessed his arrival into Jiangjing. In this city, he has no other place to go, so this school would be his only choice. He’s definitely in this school.”

“No. He didn’t come back.”

The security captain, with a resigned look, continued explaining earnestly, “Since the school year began, anyone who enters or exits our school must register their names. If you don’t believe me, you can go to the guard room and check it out. We have a record of everyone’s entry and exit movements for today. Truthfully, Fang Qiu did not turn up today.”

“To prevent us from seeing him, you definitely would not keep a record of his movements. We don’t believe it at all. Fang Qiu must be in the school.”

The fans wouldn’t let the matter go.

Looking at these avid fans, the security guards struggled to cope with them and felt very overwhelmed.

Just as the security guards and these fans were locked in a stalemate, the sound of hurried footsteps could be heard from a distance.

Everyone immediately turned to see who was coming.

It was the captain-in-chief in charge of all security teams and Chen Yinsheng, the Vice President of the school!

“Captain-in-chief, finally, you’ve invited Vice President Chen here.”

The security captain immediately ran over to report, "I really can't handle this crowd. Fang Qiu did not return to our school today, but they just don't believe my words and insisted that Fang Qiu is in the school. I can't stop them."

"Okay, I got it."

Chen Yinsheng answered with a smile, "Don't let it bother you. Let me take care of the rest."

After that, he immediately went up and said to the group of Fang Qiu's fans, "Hello, everyone. I'm Chen Yinsheng, the Vice President of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine."

"Although our campus is open to the public, we have fairly standard and strict rules to adhere to. So, please don't break the rules and disturb the peace. I'm definitely not advocating that you trespass into certain restricted places without permission."

As soon as he finished speaking, the fans immediately began to protest.

"What the hell? What do you mean? We're here to look for someone. Oh, that's not right. Actually, we're here to see the doctor! We didn't break in."

"Yes, we didn't. We're here for Fang Qiu."

"We don't mind signing in. Besides, we won't barge in. Otherwise, we would be inside your campus now, not outside."

"We just want to see Fang Qiu. It will be fine if you ask him to come out. If that doesn't work, you can let us go in and look for him by ourselves. We guarantee that we won't affect your orderly campus life."

"Fang Qiu must be in your school. Please let us see him! We need him to treat our illnesses!"

The fans pleaded with him, one after another.

“Treat your illness...”

For a moment, Chen Yinsheng was struck dumb. “Your voice is like a great bell! How could you be sick?”

“Okay, okay, okay. I understand how eager you all are to see Fang Qiu. But please listen to me first.”

He raised his hand so everyone could quieten down. After everyone stopped talking, he said, “Fang Qiu is a student of our university. We all know that Fang Qiu always conducts himself well. He manages his affairs very well and I believe his fans are just like him.”

This time, his words made the fans a little embarrassed.

They suddenly realized that it seemed a little brash for them to do this. Not only did they humiliate themselves, but they also brought disgrace to Fang Qiu.

“Nevertheless, it was not my intention to put the blame on everyone for your actions today. After all, I know very well that Fang Qiu’s movie is a big hit at the cinema. It’s understandable that you are all eager to see your idol, let alone he is such a high-quality idol.”

Chen Yinsheng flexibly made use of the famous carrot and stick theory, and instantly won the fans’ trust.

These fans were at a loss about what to do next, to hold on or to give up. In the end, out of guilt, they decided to leave. However, Chen Yinsheng smiled and said, “Actually, you’re right. Fang Qiu was at school earlier.”

When everyone heard this, they immediately perked up again.

The security guards and the entrance guards looked stunned!

“Was Fang Qiu back?

“Why didn’t we see him?”

“But it was some moments ago that I saw him.”

Chen Yinsheng said with a kind smile, “He sneaked in, as he did not dare to come in through the front gate. He left some time ago. If you don’t believe me, I can let everyone into the school to look for him, but you must promise me that you won’t affect the normal routine of the school. You should not disturb any of our students who are studying. No one is allowed to make a sound in the teaching building.”

“Great.”

“We promise you.”

“Yes, we promise.”

The fans readily agreed.

“With everyone’s guarantee, I’m relieved. I believe that Fang Qiu’s fans are all gentle and well-behaved. You won’t disappoint Fang Qiu or me,” Chen Yinsheng said.

When everyone heard this, they nodded in unison.

The fans knew from his words that Fang Qiu must have likely left. Even if he didn’t leave, he would have found a place to hide. But still, they didn’t want to give up this last chance. They had to go in and search for him.

These fans belonged to Fang Qiu’s fan club, which was well-organized, so they were not an undisciplined lot. Under the leadership of a leading fan, they all went into the school to search for Fang Qiu. Everything went well because they cooperated well with Chen Yinsheng’s requests. Though there were a lot of people, they did not affect the routine of the university at all.

Soon, they finished taking a turn around the campus, but no one found Fang Qiu. They carefully asked many students, none of whom had spotted Fang Qiu.

In this case, Fang Qiu's fans then glumly left the university.

Seeing these people leave, these security guards finally heaved a sigh of relief.

Chen Yinsheng, still wearing a smile, looked quite relaxed as if this incident had not affected him in the least.

"Vice President, you really have the foresight to predict their actions. Fang Qiu's fans were surprisingly well behaved," the captain-in-chief praised.

"I believed in them so they kept their promise."

Chen Yinsheng said with a smile, "Besides, there won't be the next time."

"What do you mean?"

The captain-in-chief asked curiously.

"I let them enter the campus because I wanted to prove that Fang Qiu was not in our university. Most of all, I wanted them to feel the literary atmosphere here and understand the ambiance of this place. I emphasized several times that Fang Qiu's fans were well-behaved. Since they were all very orderly, they must be part of an organization and would contact each other at ordinary times."

"Today, I praised them and let them enter our university to have a look. When they go back, they will spread the news to others and will inform others that our university is an off-limit place, not somewhere they can just go in or out at will."

"In this way, even if some of them come to see Fang Qiu again in the future, they will wait for him at the school gate at most and will not barge in again."

With that, Chen Yinsheng turned around and left with a smile.

The captain-in-chief listened attentively and was utterly stunned. Gazing at Chen Yinsheng's receding figure, he muttered, "No wonder you're the Vice President. I'm just a security guard."

...

After making a swift escape from his university, Fang Qiu put on a mask and a hat, and then booked a special car to the airport. He had decided to rush back to the cultivation base in Beijiang. Only when his popularity died down a little would he consider going to other places.

Fang Qiu successfully arrived at the airport.

He didn't dare to show up at all. Right after getting the ticket, he hurriedly went to the departure lounge to wait and lost no time in getting on the plane, for fear of causing another disturbance at the airport. As soon as he boarded the plane, he began to rest with his mask still in place.

He had been under a lot of stress all this while.

After a few hours, Fang Qiu finally arrived at Beijiang Airport.

He had sent his flight information to the staff of the cultivation base in advance. Thus, after getting off the plane, Fang Qiu got into the car specially sent for him and rushed all the way to the cultivation base.

When he sat in the car, Fang Qiu breathed a long sigh of relief. After taking off his mask and hat, he felt completely relaxed.

Meanwhile, the movie "Yang Yizhi" was still very popular. On Monday and Tuesday, the widely-known sore point in the movie industry, its box office takings showed no signs of increasing. However, after that, the box office income soared at an astonishing speed.

In this case, “Yang Yizhi” had become the most unique and outstanding movie among those movies produced in the past ten years, the golden era of the movie industry in Huaxia.

Generally, in addition to some specific countries and regions, those movie markets in many foreign countries despised the Huaxia-language movie market. It was because they thought Huaxia movies were nothing to look forward to and were not worth watching. Therefore, Huaxia movies were only accepted in limited areas around the world.

In the past ten years, the Huaxia movie market had experienced very rapid growth. Almost all the foreign movie markets and foreign investment companies had noticed the great change. Previously, many Huaxia stars had been invited to perform in some foreign movies in order to increase the popularity of those foreign-language movies in Huaxia. Even so, few foreigners had been interested in Huaxia movies. But this time, “Yang Yizhi” made a difference, especially after those foreigners learned about the terrifically beneficial ripple effect caused by its explosive box office returns.

All the major movie investment companies from the foreign countries wanted to get full ownership of this movie.

In Huaxia, it was the first movie to win such an honor!

Of course, Fang Qiu didn’t know that “Yang Yizhi” had caused such a stir worldwide. At this moment, he had just gotten out of the car and returned to the cultivation base.

On the way back, Fang Qiu heard that He Xue’s independent office had been built, so he immediately went to the office after returning to the base.

It was built next to Fang Qiu’s office.

There was nothing he could do about it.

After all, they were on a cultivation base. There were no company buildings, so they could only set up independent rooms as their offices.

“This office is not bad.”

Walking into He Xue’s office, Fang Qiu said with a smile.

However, He Xue was gathering up his stuff and seemed about to leave.
