Chapter 1221: Murderers Behind the Scenes

“John Doe?”

When Qingshan saw Fang Qiu, his face fell.

He thought John Doe was behind these gurus who sprang a surprise attack on him. But before he could dwell on it, Fang Qiu flashed to his side. With a wave of his right hand, he blocked the palm strike from one guru.

“Fortunately, I made it in time.”

Fang Qiu heaved a sigh of relief.

Qingshan heard this.

He stared blankly at Fang Qiu and asked, “Weren’t they sent by you?”

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu stared at Qingshan in great surprise because he didn’t expect Qingshan to have such thoughts.

“Do you think I can’t kill you by myself?”

Fang Qiu asked speechlessly.

Qingshan felt embarrassed.

He thought of the palm strike from John Doe that he had suffered in the competition. If John Doe had delivered that palm attack at the beginning, his fighting capacity would have been too seriously impaired to enable him to go on fighting against John Doe.

In terms of power, John Doe was weaker than a guru, but his combat capability made him far more excellent than Qingshan, a guru!

Indeed...

John Doe alone could take his life. Why would he bother to bring a few gurus with him?

“Sorry, I misunderstood you.”

Qingshan, embarrassed to the extreme, apologized to Fang Qiu with a slightly red face.

“Let’s talk about it after dealing with them!”

Fang Qiu poised himself to meet the new vicious assault from the three gurus.

Qingshan didn’t dare to hesitate and immediately turned to combat their enemies!

“Bang, bang, bang...”

They started a fierce battle right away.

Before Fang Qiu arrived, Qingshan had been suppressed and hardly had a chance to fight back. But with Fang Qiu here, Qingshan felt much less stressed.

These enemies could no longer pin him down as much as before.

In this case...

Qingshan had been struggling in vain to break free from their converging attacks. At this time, with a deep sense of grievance, he exploded with rage and mounted a strong counter-attack.

“Do you want to take my life away? I’ll take yours first.”

Qingshan roared.

As he went all out to charge at one guru, the wooden stick in his hand instantly emitted a ray of red light. With an aura full of overwhelming energy, it smashed against the rival before him.

On the other side...

Two gurus dealt successive blows at Fang Qiu at the same time!

In the face of two gurus...

Fang Qiu didn’t seem to have a tough time with this fight. On the contrary, he coped with the situation successfully and easily, though he had just gone through a fierce battle.

In the fierce battle, he clenched his right hand into a fist.

The Divine Sword instantly took shape in his hand.

“Combat Secret!”

As soon as the sword appeared in his hand, Fang Qiu immediately displayed the ancient swordsmanship move and threw himself into an intense fight with the two gurus.

A short while after the fierce battle started...

The faces of the two gurus from Nirvana Organization darkened.

These gurus, who had been lying in ambush here, didn't know the result of the battle between John Doe and Qingshan. They didn't know John Doe had defeated Qingshan, so in their eyes, John Doe only possessed ninth-class strength and two opened meridians. To their great surprise, John Doe was fully able to cope with a guru and could match the two gurus equally in skill and strength.

This unforeseen situation made their expressions change drastically.

It was almost impossible for them to finish off John Doe.

They wouldn't have a chance unless the three of them worked together!

However...

There was Qingshan.

Over there...

One of the three gurus was stuck in the fight with Qingshan who clearly felt his opponent was greatly drawn to the battle against John Doe. The guru seemed to have an impulse to rush over.

Qingshan quickly turned around to check their battle progress.

To his great surprise, John Doe, who fought the two gurus alone, did not seem to be in a disadvantageous position but pressed forward aggressively.

What a shocking scene.

Qingshan was quite taken aback.

He had consumed too much internal Qi in the battle just now. Therefore, when facing a guru, he could only summon some energy to attack from time to time.

But John Doe had experienced the same battle as him. After such fierce competition, he could still perform so well, which was unbelievable!

“This guru wants to go there, does he?”

Qingshan saw through his opponent’s mind — the guru was eager to break away from him and join forces with the other two to besiege John Doe.

But...

How could Qingshan let such a thing happen?

“You’ll suffer losses if you don’t focus on your battle.”

Staring at his opponent, Qingshan sneered and immediately mobilized all the energy in his body to launch a full-force attack; He was like a man possessed!

The guru opposite him was taken aback and turned back in a hurry to deal with Qingshan. He no longer dared to be distracted.

Then the battle on the other side...

“Humph!”

Under the fierce attacks of two gurus, Fang Qiu snorted and moved fast to slash his sword downward.

They were about to slide into a disadvantageous position.

The two gurus from Nirvana Organization exchanged a quick, meaningful look.

Right away, they gathered all the internal Qi within them and their strength erupted with a mighty burst, as they tried to suppress John Doe.

One held a sword, and the other brandished a blade.

Each strike carried extreme savage energy Qi. They kept searching for Fang Qiu’s flaws from all kinds of tricky angles and attacked wildly.

“Sword fighting?”

Fang Qiu sneered.

Without saying a word, he waved the long sword in his hand.

“Shadowless Sword Triad!”

As soon as the two of them approached him ferociously, an extremely sharp stream of sword Qi with massive amounts of energy shot out of the sword in Fang Qiu’s hand. In the meantime, it split into three before merging into one again. Like a bee sting, it shot toward the two gurus with irresistible might.

This strike looked terrifying.

The faces of the two Nirvana Organization gurus darkened, and they lost no time in lifting their weapons to fend off the blow.

In the next moment...

“Boom!”

An earth-shattering explosion rang out.

The massive energy blew up and sounded like massive claps of thunder in the sky.

The penetrating and cutting energy Qi scattered wildly in all directions.

Even Qingshan and another guru, who were fighting fiercely, were forced to retreat.

They turned to look.

In mid-air, two figures were actually sent flying.

They were the two gurus!

This scene amazed Qingshan.

How could John Doe beat back two gurus in one fell swoop?

Notably...

John Doe pushed on. After his blow knocked the two people up into the air, he changed his position and instantly darted toward the two gurus. A bolt of lightning suddenly erupted from the sword in his hand.

“Thunderbolt-absorbing Technique!”

He let out a deep shout.

The sword in his hand was wrapped in lightning. With a wave of his arm, a gigantic lightning blade shot out rapidly.

The two gurus, who were beaten off, immediately got up to dodge.

To their great dismay...

The lightning blade was surprisingly fast. Like a bolt of lightning, it arrived before the two of them in the twinkling of an eye.

“Pow!”

There was an explosive sound.

The two Nirvana Organization gurus were heavily bombarded by the lightning blade before they could even get into a proper defensive position.

The two of them, who had just struggled to stand up, were instantly sent flying again.

Last time...

John Doe only knocked them back.

But this time, it was completely different.

Since it was too late for them to defend themselves, they were firmly hit by John Doe's sword attack. As a result, when they were struck and sent flying high into the air, they spat out a mouthful of blood.

It was an extraordinary scene of violence.

Qingshan was greatly shocked again.

Little did he think that John Doe could be so mighty. It was impossible for a non-guru to have such enormous strength. Usually, even a guru couldn't be so powerful, right?

However...

Qingshan stared openmouthed with his eyes wide open.

"Whizz!"

As soon as John Doe struck the two gurus down, he abruptly rushed toward the third guru.

Qingshan immediately understood what he was up to.

He immediately raised his wooden stick and attacked fiercely.

The guru's countenance changed instantly and he hurriedly moved back to block the attack.

Just when he took action to resist...

John Doe arrived.

Without the slightest hesitation...

Fang Qiu rushed forward and swung the long sword in his hand, releasing Shadowless Sword Triad to give the last guru a pincer attack with Qingshan. Before the two injured gurus could rise to their feet, Fang Qiu delivered a painful blow to the last Nirvana guru and sent him flying too.

“Pow!”

This one also spat out a mouthful of blood.

All three gurus were severely injured and were vomiting blood.

In particular...

John Doe alone did all of this.

The violent and bloody scene terrified Qingshan.

“He alone confronted and wounded two gurus. Then, at the interval of his battle, he knocked the third guru out.

“What kind of horrifying strength does he have?

“John Doe, is he merely a Half-step Guru?

“That’s impossible!”

Qingshan had been practicing hard in the mountains for 19 years under the guidance of an indomitable master. Even so, he had never heard of John Doe, an expert beyond compare.

This was beyond his understanding of Wulin!

Qingshan was not the only one who was shocked.

The three Nirvana gurus sent flying by John Doe were also petrified.

“John Doe?

“Is he the one who had killed several members of the Nirvana Organization?

“John Doe, he made a breakthrough and just became a Half-step Guru, didn’t he?”

They didn’t dare to think more about it.

All three gurus were flustered.

Before this, they were absolutely confident that they could slaughter Qingshan. When John Doe emerged, they were even delighted because they could wipe out both of them.

Contrary to their wishful thinking...

As the battle went on, they realized they were wrong.

Especially after being hurt by John Doe...

They finally concluded that John Doe’s combat capability was not as weak as they had imagined. Even a guru did not have the advantage to defeat John Doe!

In a panic...

The three of them gazed at each other in speechless despair and began to retreat secretly. In the end, they gathered together.

“Do you want to run away again?”

Fang Qiu sneered as he stared fixedly at the three gurus.

“Again?”

Qingshan was stunned. He turned to look at Fang Qiu and asked, “Do you know them?”

“Um.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Nirvana!”

“Who?”

When Qingshan heard this, he became serious and asked, “Are they from Nirvana Organization?”

“The three of them alone can’t represent Nirvana Organization.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “They are just minions under Seventh Venerable in Nirvana Organization.”

“I have no contact with Nirvana Organization. Why would you attack me?”

Qingshan questioned them instantly.

On his opposite side...

The three gurus turned a deaf ear to his question.

They huddled together with no intention of escaping.

“Didn’t you just come down from the mountains? You also know about the Nirvana Organization?”

Confused, Fang Qiu turned to look at Qingshan.

“I visit the Wulin online forum often.”

Qingshan nodded and said, “There is information about Nirvana Organization on the Wulin online forum. I’ve learned something about it but don’t know much.”

“As you can see,” Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and continued, “Its member pretended to be you and ambushed me. Also, one of them dressed up like me to attack you. As for their purpose, you will gradually know how frantic they are!”

With this...

Fang Qiu stepped aside, moved forward, and was about to interrogate his enemies.

But right at this moment...

“Whistle!”

A wave of ear-piercing sounds came from afar through the air.

He turned his head to have a look.

Fang Qiu immediately frowned tightly.

What appeared in his eyes were three figures soaring through the air.

Fang Qiu was quite familiar with the leader!

Medical Master

Chapter 1222: John Doe, a Guru!

“Seventh Venerable!”

When Fang Qiu saw these people coming, he was visibly shocked.

At the side, the three injured gurus grinned broadly at him.

This was the moment they had been waiting for.

Nirvana Organization’s plan would be completed soon.

Seventh Venerable, with two guru Guardians, had been searching for a chance to besiege and kill John Doe, while the three of them were sent to ambush Qingshan on the way.

Surprisingly...

John Doe came to find Qingshan.

Seventh Venerable and the others knew about the trap set here. Since they didn’t see John Doe, Seventh Venerable and his two companions approached this place. Thus, even though John Doe seriously wounded them, they didn’t intend to run away. Instead, they waited at the site for Seventh Venerable to come with their men.

Now...

Everyone had gathered here!

“Three more gurus!”

Seeing the three gurus flying over, Qingshan was greatly startled.

He murmured to himself, “Is a guru so worthless now? I thought I could at least achieve something big in Wulin after coming down the mountain as a guru, but I was defeated by John Doe as soon as I came out. Now I’ll have to deal with six gurus, all eager to kill me. What the hell is going on?”

At this very moment...

Qingshan regretted coming out of his seclusion in the mountains.

If he had stayed there and gone on cultivating, there wouldn’t have been so many problems!

Anyway...

It was too late to regret it now.

He could only tough it out.

“Just go all out to fight my way through.”

Fang Qiu took a deep breath and said, “Before I took action, I’ve already called for help. They must already be on their way here. If I can hold on for a while, everything will be over for you.”

“Fight!”

With a wave of his right hand, Qingshan activated all the remaining internal Qi in his body at one time. The fiery red energy on the wooden stick in his hand rose high in the air.

“Truly. We have searched far and wide but found him by sheer luck!”

They came closer.

John Doe was right before them.

Seventh Venerable, in black with dark eye circles, looked emaciated. His cheeks were sunken, and his hair was gray. He sneered in a ghastly manner, “Let’s see how you can escape this time!”

“Escape?”

Fang Qiu looked straight at Seventh Venerable, shook his head, and said, “I never intended to run away.”

“So, you’re playing delaying tactics?”

Seventh Venerable snorted coldly and cast a glance at the three gurus who had vomited blood after the fight with Fang Qiu, as he passed a message through his eyes. Then, he turned to look at the two gurus beside him with the same meaningful look.

Their eyes met.

Seventh Venerable and the five gurus immediately spread out in six directions and surrounded Fang Qiu and Qingshan.

“Kill!”

Without the slightest hesitation...

Right after the formation was set up, Seventh Venerable gave the order to attack.

For a moment...

The five gurus immediately joined forces and attacked them.

Fang Qiu waved his right hand.

“Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword!”

A bellow followed.

In the blink of an eye, a layer of energy surged like billows into the Divine Sword in Fang Qiu’s hand. Then, with a wave of his long sword, a stream of mighty sword Qi energy, shaped like a crescent moon, suddenly broke through the energy wave and shot straight at the three gurus before him with a devastating and horrible energy aura.

On the other side...

“Chaotic Five-element Stick!”

Qingshan’s roar sounded at the same time.

The giant shadow of his stick smouldering with energy flames suddenly cropped up between Heaven and Earth. Then he smashed it down toward the two gurus in another direction.

They took action at the same time.

Both used their strongest moves from the very beginning.

The five gurus of Nirvana Organization did not expect that at all. They immediately flashed aside to dodge and did not dare to take the blow head-on.

But right at this moment...

“Humph!”

Seventh Venerable snorted coldly. A black fog surged behind him and instantly turned into something like a cloak. He waved his arm and the cloak-like black fog immediately swirled about as it tried to block John Doe’s attack.

But the next moment...

“Boom!”

When the two bursts of energy collided, a terrifying flow of energy immediately erupted in all directions.

“Eh?”

Seventh Venerable was startled. He did not think that John Doe’s attack would be so overwhelming.

His eyebrows shot up instantly.

He looked up at the sky in the distance. Then, with a cold light flashing across his eyes, he immediately flew out and charged at Fang Qiu with compelling killing intent.

It was obvious that he had sensed something.

Here...

“Are you feeling anxious?”

Fang Qiu teased coldly.

He sensed that five guru-level auras had appeared 50 kilometers away and were rushing toward them.

The newcomers were none other than the four patriarchs and Master Numinous.

Seventh Venerable could have never imagined that they would come. Upon his arrival, he had been watching John Doe very intensely but didn’t see him asking for help.

Therefore, he didn’t make a move but let the five guru Guardians make their moves first.

But now...

Sensing the auras of the four patriarchs and Master Numinous, Seventh Venerable started to get worried.

He knew what would happen next.

With John Doe’s strength, once the four patriarchs and Master Numinous were here, they would be at a distinct disadvantage.

At that time, it would be difficult for them to escape, let alone kill John Doe and Qingshan!

“Die!”

As he dashed over, Seventh Venerable silently emitted the most deadly force with all his internal Qi gushing out.

In an instant...

The black mist-like energy rolled and rose and flooded almost half of the sky.

The sunset was a stunning spectacle over the Qinghai grassland.

But the energy instantly darkened everything, like dark clouds that had gathered in the skies.

In the air...

The smell of death hung over this place, which made people feel that danger lurked everywhere.

“Leave him to me!”

Fang Qiu took a deep breath and said to Qingshan, “Try your best to hold on. If you can’t beat them, run!”

He finished speaking.

Fang Qiu clenched his fists.

A matchless fighting desire suddenly erupted in his eyes. Facing Seventh Venerable with towering internal Qi, Fang Qiu quickly positioned himself and charged at him bravely.

But right at this moment...

Three of the other five gurus suddenly rushed up to Fang Qiu, leaving only two gurus to hold Qingshan back.

In an instant.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Something that sounded like claps of thunder rumbled in the background.

Hearing the sound, he looked over.

Over there...

Seventh Venerable stared fixedly at Fang Qiu as he raised his right hand over his head. Behind him, streaks of black lightning frantically pushed through the energy fog that looked like dark clouds that bore down and converged in his palm.

In a twinkling...

Those bolts of black lightning actually condensed into a basketball-size ball. It spun slowly above his palm. Even the air seemed to quiver along with it.

On the other side...

Fang Qiu, who had intended to rush straight toward Seventh Venerable, was stopped by the three gurus and fiercely engaged with them.

"Oh, crap."

At the sight of the ball formed by black lightning above Seventh Venerable's hand, Fang Qiu instantly appeared alarmed because he could feel its devastating energy.

Frankly speaking...

That energy ball could even blow a guru to pieces in an instant!

“I can’t hide my strength anymore!”

Fang Qiu let out a long breath and gritted his teeth.

“Die!”

In this fierce battle, an earth-shattering roar erupted from his throat.

In the next moment...

An overwhelming Qi power surged from Fang Qiu.

That stream of Qi power was unbelievably powerful.

Even to the point that...

This blast of Qi power eclipsed the dark fog unleashed by Seventh Venerable.

It was fantastic.

The three gurus fighting with John Doe were scared out of their wits.

One of them had already pounced on John Doe. Before he could react, he saw John Doe’s fist flash across and land directly on his chest.

Unexpectedly...

He was not sent flying by John Doe's punch.

He looked down.

There...

John Doe's fist, wrapped in forceful energy, had pierced through his chest.

John Doe pulled out his fist.

The guru fell backward, collapsing heavily onto the ground.

One guru was dead!

In the distance...

Seeing this scene, Qingshan was struck dumb.

"Did John Doe manage to slaughter one of the gurus amid their tight encirclement?"

"And..."

"What was the burst of Qi power just now?"

"Did John Doe make a breakthrough and become a guru right now?"

At this moment...

Qingshan's two opponents were also petrified.

In the center of the battlefield...

The other two gurus who besieged John Doe narrowed their eyes instantly. They looked at John Doe in panic as if they had seen something horrifying.

Even Seventh Venerable...

He was also astounded!

"A guru?"

Staring at Fang Qiu, Seventh Venerable opened his mouth to say, "You're a guru? Then I will not spare you at all!"

"Surround and kill him!"

Seventh Venerable repeated his order.

Over there...

The two gurus dealing with Qingshan also rushed to John Doe. It was evident that they were ready to gather all their strength to put John Doe to death here first!

Just then...

"Who will die? Watch closely!"

In a great rage, Fang Qiu glanced coldly at Seventh Venerable and got ready, revealing the power beyond the reach of gurus. When he flashed before the two gurus from Nirvana Organization, it was too late for them to defend themselves.

“Pow!”

He threw another good punch.

Another Nirvana guru crashed to the ground.

John Doe killed another enemy!

“Go to hell!”

Seventh Venerable couldn't stand it anymore. As soon as the black lightning ball above his palm completely solidated, he swung his right hand. Driven by his horrifying internal Qi, it rushed straight toward Fang Qiu with astonishing speed and appeared before him instantly.

“Great Hand of Destruction!”

Fang Qiu lost no time and waved his right hand.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth, within a radius of hundreds of meters, immediately gathered and headed straight for the black lightning ball.

This was the first time that Fang Qiu had used the Great Hand of Destruction with the power of a guru.

As a guru...

He could easily control the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a kilometer around him, so before he performed the Great Hand of Destruction, he didn't need to prepare for it at all and could directly launch the palm strike.

As he unleashed his palm attack...

In front of Fang Qiu, a giant energy palm print was instantly formed.

Then...

Under Fang Qiu's push, it dashed violently against the black lightning ball with a terrifying destructive aura.

The next second...

"Rumble..."

The two blasts of energy were entangled where the collision happened and turned into an incomparably bloodcurdling thunderstorm sweeping across the sky!

Medical Master

Chapter 1223: What's Going on?!

"Rumble, rumble, rumble..."

Above the Qinghai grassland, thunder roared across the sky.

"Whizz, whizz..."

Five figures flew over through the sky.

The whistling sounds they made as they flashed by were not as deafening as the thunderous claps in the distance.

“What violent collisions of internal Qi.”

Staring at the dark area, Master Numinous said with a dignified look, “It’s that guy surnamed Lu!”

“Is Qingshan fighting fiercely with the other party?”

Xi Fengling whispered her question.

“It’s John Doe!”

Suddenly, Diwu Mingchuan pointed forward.

Everyone gazed into the distance.

Over there...

Qingshan was standing by the battlefield.

Amid the thunderstorm, a battle raged between these four figures.

Unexpectedly, one of the figures was John Doe!

After all, the five of them were all gurus. They could see the three people fighting fiercely against John Doe were subordinates who were with Seventh Venerable in the ancient ruin.

They looked at the man behind the four figures.

There...

The man wrapped in a black fog emitted terrifying energy ripples continuously. They were shocked when they discovered that he was Seventh Venerable!

“One against four?”

Patriarch Qian stared in mute amazement.

What he saw was jaw-dropping — John Doe was fighting alone against Seventh Venerable and his three followers from Nirvana Organization.

“What the hell is going on?”

The other four also stood there, aghast at the sight.

“This brat’s aura... He is a guru!”

Suddenly, Master Numinous cried out in alarm.

Hearing his words...

One after another, the other four probed and found the aura John Doe emitted was really that of a guru!

“How is this possible?”

“Didn’t this kid just break through and become a Half-step Guru? How could he suddenly become a guru in the blink of an eye?”

“John Doe is a guru? And he is not at a disadvantage even when fighting against four opponents simultaneously!”

“The two dead bodies on the ground were gurus from Nirvana Organization.”

Everyone looked intently at them.

The two men were indeed two gurus under Seventh Venerable’s command.

But the two gurus had already turned into corpses!

That was to say...

Before they arrived, John Doe had already finished off two gurus.

The moment they realized this...

The four patriarchs and Master Numinous were stunned.

They were all gurus, so they knew very well how challenging it was to kill a guru. Under normal circumstances, as long as gurus had no intention of bringing about their destruction, others could hardly take their lives.

What was more horrifying was that each of the corpses had a large hole in the chest!

Obviously, John Doe did it.

To their astonishment, John Doe's punch could go through a guru's chest!

The more they looked at the appalling scene, the more amazed they became.

While still in a state of astonishment, they all sped up and rushed forward to see what was going on with John Doe.

The five of them approached him.

"Pop!"

Another crisp sound of something breaking could be heard.

They whirled around to see what was happening.

Under the storm of thunderclouds and lightning, John Doe quickly dodged the fierce attacks of the three gurus and delivered a punch, which went through another guru's heart!

In the distance, Seventh Venerable instantly tensed up.

He didn't expect that at all.

While he fended off a blow with one palm strike, John Doe found an opportunity to hit someone else.

"Damn it!"

There came an angry shout.

Seeing the four patriarchs and Master Numinous coming, Seventh Venerable narrowed his eyes as he simmered with rage. Disregarding the thunderclouds and dark clouds, he rushed madly at John Doe, trying to seize the last chance to slay John Doe on the spot.

But right at this moment...

“Lu, let’s see how you can escape today!”

Master Numinous’s voice sounded.

The five gurus rushed into the battlefield at full speed.

Seventh Venerable’s face darkened. He ignored them as he focused totally on John Doe.

Fang Qiu was not stupid.

He immediately flew backward and approached the four patriarchs.

After exerting the strength of a guru, he annihilated three gurus in the previous fierce battle. But this time, it was different.

Fang Qiu had consumed a large amount of internal Qi.

Moreover...

The sparkling black ball that burst forth from Seventh Venerable appeared particularly frightening. In an emergency, with his strength at the guru level, Fang Qiu instantly took in the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a kilometer around him, plus part of the Qi of Heaven and Earth in his body. Otherwise, he might not have been able to withstand his opponent’s mighty force.

Given this reality...

Fang Qiu knew perfectly well that if he went on consuming his power like this, the other party would find a chance to attack. Since his helpers had arrived, he didn't need to go all out.

There was no doubt about it.

When Fang Qiu retreated toward the four patriarchs, Seventh Venerable's face grew darker.

"Go and deal with his subordinates. Leave this guy surnamed Lu to me!"

After calling out his arrangements, Master Numinous rushed before the others to attack Seventh Venerable.

Here...

The four patriarchs didn't hesitate.

They immediately surrounded the two gurus who closely pursued John Doe.

In the next moment...

A bunch of top fighters was locked in fierce combat!

Undoubtedly...

Once the battle started, John Doe's side showed overwhelming superiority.

In the case of five against one, John Doe wiped out three. How could the remaining two people make any difference?

The group oppressed John Doe and Qingshan. However, with the arrival of the four patriarchs, this group was outnumbered by the enemy. In the crazy siege, one of them had no time to react, and Fang Qiu's strike immediately pierced through his chest.

On the other side...

The last person turned around and tried to run for his life.

As a result, a whip lashed against him and directly wrapped around his ankles. When he was pulled back, the four patriarchs pounced on him at the same time, each contributing a strike.

When he was bombarded by four blows, the man hadn't yet decided how to defend himself. His eyes rolled back, and he lost his life!

So far...

Of the six gurus, five were eliminated.

The only one left was Seventh Venerable, who was in a battle with Master Numinous!

At this moment...

Seventh Venerable's face suddenly clouded over with a dark expression.

Originally...

He was ready to take some people to complete the plan in Africo. Everything had been arranged, but Qingshan abruptly appeared in Wulin. After that, he postponed the Africo plan for a while because he wanted to mess Wulin up by using this unforeseen incident.

Against all his expectations...

In the end, he had to face such a nasty outcome.

His men were all dead.

Even he was completely surrounded and escape was impossible.

“Attack together and kill him!”

Seeing that Seventh Venerable was the only one left, Diwu Mingchuan shouted and charged headlong toward him with everyone else. Even Qingshan, who had been recovering nearby, also rushed up to fight.

“You want to kill me?”

Seventh Venerable roared furiously when he saw himself surrounded by seven of them. An enormous amount of energy suddenly erupted from him.

“Does he still have internal Qi?”

All of them were surprised.

His previous move required a large amount of internal Qi.

Everyone was surprised that Seventh Venerable could exert such vigorous Qi power even after that formidable move.

The stream of Qi power surged up...

A terrifying wave of internal Qi exploded from Seventh Venerable, which forced his seven enemies who were tightening the net around him to take a step back.

When Seventh Venerable made them back off...

Once again, he produced an electrifying burst of speed and charged toward Fang Qiu.

In the past, Seventh Venerable had held John Doe in contempt.

Even though he had heard many times that John Doe killed members of the organization, Seventh Venerable didn't take him seriously at all. One reason was that those who had died at John Doe's hands were all below the level of a guru. To put it bluntly, they were just subordinates in Nirvana Organization.

For another reason, he was a guru, but John Doe wasn't.

Therefore, he looked down on John Doe.

But today, when he saw John Doe's tremendous power erupting and how he slaughtered four gurus in a row, he finally awoke to the fact.

"This young man in Huaxia Wulin was not as simple as he appeared.

"He was an overwhelming expert who had fathomless power.

"Even as a Venerable, he couldn't slay a guru with such ease. But John Doe butchered the gurus at will as if they were straw dogs!

"His strength was terrifying!

"For the sake of Nirvana...

“Even if he had to die, he must drag John Doe down with him.”

With this in mind, Seventh Venerable raced toward John Doe.

But right at this moment...

“Great Hand of Destruction!”

Fang Qiu seemed to have expected this. Before the storm of thunderclouds ceased, he raised his right hand, gathered the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a kilometer before him, and slammed his palm toward Seventh Venerable who was dashing toward him.

There...

“Golden Light Spell!”

Master Numinous let out a rock-splitting shout. Like a calm elder monk without worldly worries, he put his palms together devoutly and unleashed his palm attack with a jerk.

A minimal golden character, ‘Wan’ immediately erupted from his palm, which shot up to Seventh Venerable like a bullet.

On the other side...

The four patriarchs made their moves at the same time.

Qingshan brandished his long stick and solidified a stick shadow, which smashed down immediately.

Seeing this...

Seventh Venerable gritted his teeth as he found himself under attack from all sides. If he dodged his enemy from one side, he would get hit by his enemies from other directions. So, he could only meet the challenge head-on.

“Boom!”

The black fog around him suddenly turned into black flames, which engulfed him. At the same time, a powerful aura emerged and crashed against John Doe’s Great Hand of Destruction.

“Pow!”

There was a crisp sound.

Unexpectedly, Seventh Venerable shattered the Great Hand of Destruction.

Fang Qiu was not surprised.

After all, this time around, his Great Hand of Destruction didn’t have much power.

He had absorbed the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a thousand meters once. This time, the Qi of Heaven and Earth had only flowed back a little. Therefore, the Great Hand of Destruction that he accumulated at this moment wasn’t in its most potent state. In contrast, Seventh Venerable ran at him with all his might.

Unexpectedly...

When Seventh Venerable blocked the Great Hand of Destruction, Fang Qiu’s right hand moved again.

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

With a bellow, Fang Qiu waved his hand to deliver another blow.

But right at this moment...

“Hide!”

Seven Venerables, who had found an opening in their attacks from all directions, immediately turned into a cloud of black mist and fled quickly into the distance.

He wanted to fight to the death and drag John Doe down with him.

However, he didn’t expect that he would be able to block John Doe’s attack with such ease. Since he had a way out, why should he continue risking his life?

Seventh Venerable fled all of a sudden, which surprised everyone.

“Trying to escape?”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly, got ready, and immediately chased after him at full speed.

Here...

Master Numinous, the four patriarchs, and Qingshan also followed him in close pursuit.

However, John Doe’s speed far exceeded theirs, and everyone was stunned again!

Chapter 1224: All Going Mad

“What on earth is going on with this brat?”

“Is this guy already a guru but had been hiding his strength? Or did he break through in the battle just now?”

“He’s such a marvel now. How could there be such a talented guy in Wulin?”

The six of them were all thinking to themselves.

John Doe hadn’t been that prominent in the past.

But today, everyone was shocked by his extraordinary performance in the battle with Qingshan and when he killed the four gurus. No one had ever seen John Doe fight in this way before.

John Doe seemed to be a completely different person!

At the very front...

Since he had exposed his strength as a guru, Fang Qiu didn’t want to hide it anymore.

He had seen Nirvana Organization as the greatest challenge that he would have to face. Finally, he found an opportunity and killed four Nirvana gurus. Now, there came a chance to kill Seventh Venerable.

He could never let such a good chance go.

After the fierce battle just now...

Fang Qiu could see that Seventh Venerable was just an ordinary guru. But since he had been a guru for a long time, his strength was much stronger than that of ordinary gurus.

In addition, when Seventh Venerable fought with him, he consumed a lot of internal Qi. Besides, he used much more internal Qi when the seven gurus besieged him and when he applied his secret method of escaping.

At least half of his internal Qi had dissipated.

In this case, as long as he could catch up with him, Fang Qiu was at least sixty percent sure he could kill him on the spot!

Moreover...

He hadn't yet used his Great Hand of Formlessness, a skill that was specifically designed to subdue gurus.

If he had used the Great Hand of Formlessness at the previous battlefield, its power would have been significantly reduced because most of the Qi of Heaven and Earth around that place had been consumed.

Unexpectedly...

It would be a different story if he did it in another place.

"Whistle!"

Seventh Venerable flew frantically away.

He flew at a speed of two hundred kilometers per hour.

Fang Qiu, who was chasing after him, was not any slower than him. On the contrary, he was faster.

Soon...

The two men, with terrifying speed, left the six people far behind them.

“Courting death!”

Ahead of John Doe, Seventh Venerable, who had been focused on escaping, looked back and found to his surprise that John Doe was right behind him. It seemed that John Doe was not any slower than him. Looking further back, he saw that the four patriarchs and Master Numinous had been left far behind. Instantly, he felt a chill in his heart and was ready to find an opportunity to kill John Doe.

If John Doe was alone, he was sure he could slay him directly!

However...

As a precautionary measure, he had flown farther away. At least, he had to ensure that the people behind couldn't catch up with them when he slaughtered John Doe.

Here...

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

Fang Qiu paid no attention to Seventh Venerable. Regardless of what his opponent was up to, Fang Qiu activated his internal Qi and began to run the Great Hand of Formlessness while in hot pursuit.

“If I gather all the boiling internal Qi along the way and use up all the internal Qi in one palm blow, what will it look like?”

Fang Qiu hit upon the idea.

Fang Qiu executed the Great Hand of Destruction with his left hand, drawing over and seizing all the Qi of Heaven and Earth around him wherever he passed. Then, with his right hand, he formed the Great Hand of Formlessness, ready to launch an attack at any time.

In this situation...

In less than five minutes, Fang Qiu sensed that he had already gathered a giant ball of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, which was constantly growing like an inflated balloon.

Before him...

During his frantic escape, Seventh Venerable was busy planning how to slay John Doe as quickly as possible, so he didn't notice the change in the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

In the blink of an eye, another ten minutes passed.

Even Fang Qiu, who was chasing after him, was frightened by the volume of Qi of Heaven and Earth that he had gathered.

He didn't expect that at all.

In a moment of impulse, he attracted so much Qi of Heaven and Earth which surged with mighty power, much like a tsunami.

There was so much that even Fang Qiu himself was a little scared.

What would happen if such a tremendous amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth struck a single person?

As Fang Qiu felt more and more of the Qi of Heaven and Earth gathering about him, his heart began racing.

Up ahead of him...

“Tsk, tsk!”

Seventh Venerable, who had been running away, suddenly turned around and laughed wickedly. With great force, he rushed toward Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu saw him coming.

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

Fang Qiu slammed his right hand forward, and a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth behind him suddenly churned like boiling water.

In the next moment...

“Pa!”

With a crisp sound, Fang Qiu’s palm collided with Seventh Venerable’s fist, which had made a fast and vigorous dash over.

In a split second...

A massive burst of energy Qi erupted from Seventh Venerable, which crashed toward Fang Qiu.

But just as the stream of energy shot out...

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu’s eyes widened.

Traces of blood suddenly covered his eyes.

Over there...

As he waved his palm, the incomparably vast Qi of Heaven and Earth that he had been dragging behind him poured wildly into his body.

There was an immense volume of Qi of Heaven and Earth.

If the amount absorbed by Fang Qiu in the jade mine was compared to an ordinary river, then the Qi of Heaven and Earth gushing into his body this time was like a violent mountain torrent!

As a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth kept running through his meridians, they were instantly filled to the point of bursting.

“Boom!”

The energy finally rushed to the center of his right palm and erupted with a bang as the palm was used as a great outlet.

Seventh Venerable had consumed a large amount of internal Qi previously.

This sudden burst of violent and vast energy instantly scattered all the internal Qi released by him.

Then...

The internal Qi violently gushed into Seventh Venerable's body through his fist.

Sure enough...

The vast Qi of Heaven and Earth gathered by Fang Qiu had not been exhausted yet. It poured crazily into Fang Qiu's body and gushed out of his palm to hit Seventh Venerable.

This situation lasted for a whole minute!

One minute later...

"Boom!"

When the last trace of the Qi of Heaven and Earth poured in, Seventh Venerable, whose eyes popped with terror, opened his mouth. But before he could even scream in pain, he was sent flying far away.

Here...

"Phew, phew..."

Fang Qiu opened his mouth and gasped.

The situation just now was too awful to contemplate. Thanks to his recultivation, Fang Qiu's meridians were enlarged several times over. Otherwise, the Qi of Heaven and Earth which passed through him would have caused his body to explode!

He took a closer look at the area ahead.

"Puff!"

As he crumpled to the ground, Seventh Venerable struggled to raise his upper body but couldn't move his hands at all. He raised his neck a little and couldn't help but spit out a mouthful of blood. Then, his head dropped to the ground.

"Huff, huff, huff..."

At this moment, he panted heavily.

Fang Qiu looked over.

Seventh Venerable seemed to have completely lost his ability to fight.

Fang Qiu stepped forward quickly.

Seventh Venerable lay on the ground and stared at him with a bizarre and horrified look as if he wanted to know how this could have happened.

Fang Qiu squatted down.

After a brief examination, Fang Qiu found that with the Great Hand of Formlessness, the terrifying Qi of Heaven and Earth had directly dispersed all the internal Qi in Seventh Venerable!

Not just his internal Qi...

Under the impact of the appalling force of the Qi of Heaven and Earth...

All Seventh Venerable's internal organs bled profusely, and even his Dantian was shattered.

In this case...

Seventh Venerable was about to die!

"Whoosh!"

Fang Qiu waved his right hand, and a ray of sword light flashed on Fang Qiu's fingertip. With it, he directly pierced Seventh Venerable's heart and ended his life!

"That was a daunting experience."

After making sure that Seventh Venerable was dead, Fang Qiu let out a long breath. When he recalled the strike, his heart couldn't help thumping again.

"Powerful to the extreme. It's just that the burden was too heavy, and the requirements were unusually high."

Fang Qiu exclaimed with emotion.

Indeed...

In a normal battle, he wouldn't have to run such a long distance and absorb so much Qi of Heaven and Earth.

Therefore, although this move was powerful, it was not practical!

He sighed.

Fang Qiu quickly reached out and searched Seventh Venerable. When he found nothing, he immediately moved aside and left.

Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness...

He discovered that the four patriarchs and Master Numinous would soon arrive.

Fang Qiu knew what they wanted to know, but he couldn't answer them, so he chose to leave first. Though he wanted to ask Qingshan about his master, he could only do it some other day.

Five minutes later...

“Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh...”

Six figures quickly zipped over and stopped before Seventh Venerable.

His dead body came into view.

All six of them breathed a sigh of relief and looked at each other. Their faces changed again before they turned to look for John Doe silently.

However, after searching for a long time, they could not find any trace of him.

Once again, their eyes returned to the dead Seventh Venerable.

“What happened to him?”

Elder Zhan freaked out and asked with a deep frown, “What was going on with this boy? How did he suddenly become a guru? How the hell could he suddenly kill four... no, five gurus?”

Not merely Elder Zhan...

Diwu Mingchuan, Xi Fengling, Patriarch Qian, and Master Numinous were all driven mad with curiosity.

Especially Master Numinous...

“He slayed Seventh Venerable in such a short space of time?”

Master Numinous's heart thudded. He took a deep breath and asked in confusion, "Even if the five of us worked together, we couldn't kill him in such a short time. How did he do it?"

"This boy is pretty scary. He possesses unsurpassed combat capability and guru-level strength. What the hell is going on?"

Patriarch Qian asked, "Is he still the John Doe we know?"

The more the five of them thought about it, the more they felt something was wrong. But they couldn't find a reasonable explanation. John Doe was much stronger than them but had been hiding his real strength under their eyes. At the thought of that, they went nuts.

In public, they had been the top five experts in Wulin today, but a junior deceived them. In the end, they found that even though they stood at the top of Wulin, they were much inferior to this youth.

How could they not feel shocked?

How could they not be driven mad?

Chapter 1225: This Kid Is Most Likely a Guru!

There were four patriarchs and the chief of Pear Garden.

Five top-notch figures in Wulin stood before the corpse of Seventh Venerable from the Nirvana Organization and all of them had complex looks on their faces.

It was Seventh Venerable.

He was a powerful existence who ranked seventh among the top ten experts of the Nirvana Organization!

“How long, how long did it take John Doe to kill Seventh Venerable?”

Patriarch Qian asked.

“No more than five minutes!”

Xi Fengling frowned and said with a wry smile, “We followed him to catch up with Seventh Venerable. We are gurus, so he and Seventh Venerable couldn’t be much faster than us, though we couldn’t move as swiftly as them. According to the speed difference between him and us, he had fought with Seventh Venerable for five minutes at most!”

“Impossible.”

Master Numinous immediately shook his head and said, “There’s no real possibility of him having such combat capabilities. Finishing off Seventh Venerable in five minutes is impossible. Besides, we didn’t hurt Seventh Venerable at all. From beginning to end, he had been targeting John Doe. That is, John Doe slaughtered him single-handedly. How could John Doe be so potent?”

Hearing his words...

The others thought about it carefully and were all shocked.

“With Seventh Venerable’s strength, he wouldn’t get killed in five minutes even if he was besieged by five gurus.

“How did John Doe do it?”

The more they thought about it, the more agitated they became.

They increasingly believed that John Doe’s combat capability had far exceeded what they had imagined and even their combat capabilities. In this case, the five top Wulin masters suddenly felt ashamed.

They had an unduly high opinion of themselves before the Wulin people and put on airs before John Doe. However, the combat capability John Doe showed was so much more impressive than theirs.

“Damn it.

“How could we face John Doe in the future?”

The five of them frantically looked at each other and couldn’t help smiling bitterly.

Just then...

“Whizz, whizz...”

A sharp piercing sound could be heard.

Hearing that, everyone immediately turned to look.

There...

Qingshan finally caught up with them. Because he had experienced continuous fierce battles, Qingshan didn’t have enough internal Qi to speed up.

However, upon arrival, he saw the four patriarchs and Master Numinous standing before the dead Seventh Venerable in bewilderment.

“What, what happened?”

Qingshan gaped in astonishment at the scene.

“Brat.”

Elder Zhan stepped forward, forcefully grabbed Qingshan’s shoulder, and asked, “Tell us honestly, what’s going on with John Doe?”

“What do you mean?”

Qingshan asked in confusion.

“When he fought with you, he broke through and just became a Half-step Guru. But how could he suddenly turn into a mighty guru?”

Diwu Mingchuan also asked in a hurry.

“I, I don’t know either.”

Qingshan answered, feeling completely at a loss.

Hearing this...

The four patriarchs and Master Numinous were even more frantic.

“Did we make a mistake?”

“Is John Doe a guru or not?”

“How could we make a mistake? He even killed Seventh Venerable!”

“What the hell? What on earth has happened to John Doe?”

Each of the five gurus gazed at each other helplessly.

They felt depressed, speechless, and confused!

In the meantime...

In their hearts, John Doe had become more mysterious.

It seemed that this boy had never behaved normally. He had always been enigmatic, so it was difficult for others to sound him out.

Now he had accomplished a magnificent feat again! It was so humiliating! How could he be good at hiding his strength?

“Then, what happened to these people? Why were you fighting with them?”

Master Numinous continued to ask Qingshan.

“They ambushed me.”

Qingshan said, “At first, three gurus sprang a surprise attack on me. Later, John Doe came to my aid and severely injured the three gurus. After that, three more gurus came. I heard from John Doe that they were all from Nirvana Organization. These people pretended to be John Doe and attacked me. It was also their people who dressed up like me to beat up John Doe.”

With this...

The five of them immediately understood.

“Nirvana Organization was the real culprit behind this incident.

“By doing so, Nirvana Organization seemingly intended to stir up trouble in Wulin!”

After realizing this...

The heads of the four great families and Master Numinous glanced at Seventh Venerable’s body, shook their heads, and dispersed, each feeling extremely depressed.

On the Wulin online forum...

“The Great Battle Is Over, and John Doe Won!”

“He Created a Legend Again. John Doe Defeated Qingshan!”

“Shocked! John Doe Triumphed over a Guru!”

Just after the battle between John Doe and Qingshan, various posts appeared on the forum, like bamboo shoots after the rain.

In the beginning...

There were all kinds of livestream posts on the forum. But because of the strong forces of the two fighting parties, the Qi of Heaven and Earth and the energy Qi from them were overly mighty. Those ready to do the livestream on the spot had to give up and change to do the livestream by text. However, while making the text livestream, they abruptly stopped updating messages because the battle at the site was too fierce and splendid to the extreme!

Just as everyone was waiting anxiously, all kinds of posts emerged, which made countless people on the forum go wild!

“What the fuck? Seriously?”

“What? Did John Doe win?”

“How was that possible? Qingshan is a real guru. How could he lose to John Doe?”

“How could Qingshan lose? That’s impossible!”

“But the Master Qingshan you admire was defeated. He admitted his defeat to John Doe in front of all the Wulin people on the scene.”

“Where are those people who looked down on John Doe? Where the hell are they now? Come out and let me see if you have already died of embarrassment!”

“Listen, no matter who your idol is, John Doe is definitely a legend in Wulin who has never lost!”

“Right! Great Master John Doe is so awesome!”

For a time...

All of Qingshan’s supporters disappeared.

Finally, those who initially did not have the courage to speak up for John Doe stood up and argued proudly with full assurance at this time. They had been in a rage after being scorned and ridiculed, but their anger completely dissipated at this moment.

All of this was because of John Doe!

Sure enough.

In addition to the supporters on both sides, there were also many who remained neutral in the dispute on the Wulin online forum.

“He actually lost?”

“John Doe is absolutely amazing. He even vanquished a guru!”

“What a pity! After so many years, a young guru finally appeared in Wulin, but he was defeated soon after his first appearance.”

In addition to all sorts of discussions on the forum...

In Wulin...

A very special piece of news spread widely among the high-level forces.

“John Doe is very likely a guru!”

“Otherwise, it would have been impossible for him to defeat a guru.”

No one knew where this news came from.

Perhaps, the source was nothing but a rumor. But because John Doe defeated Qingshan, this rumor seemed credible to many.

Especially for the top forces in Wulin...

Without the strength of a guru, no one could defeat another guru.

They all knew how powerful a guru was!

Therefore...

Everyone wondered if they should believe this news.

Soon...

All the major forces also heard the news.

“John Doe was originally a guru, but he had been pretending to be weak all the time?”

“No way. John Doe didn’t show the strength of a guru in every battle.”

“John Doe was just a martial arts practitioner when he showed up, wasn’t he? Was he actually a guru at that time?”

“I don’t think so. I would rather believe that he has the combat capability of a guru than that he is a guru!”

Whether John Doe was a guru quickly gave rise to a heated discussion.

No one knew the accuracy of the news.

And there was no way to inquire about it further.

Everyone was extremely curious and confused about what the hell had happened.

In Nanjiang...

Diwu Qian, who had just gotten off the plane, also heard the rumor that John Doe was a guru and immediately rushed back to the manor.

“Dad.”

Walking into the manor hall, Diwu Qian saw Diwu Mingchuan sitting on the host’s seat, looking a little absent-minded and confused. She hurriedly asked, “I heard the rumor in Jianghu that said that John Doe is a guru. Is it true?”

“You’re back?”

Diwu Mingchuan, finally came back to his senses and was stunned. Then he shook his head with a wry smile and said, “Well, you know, that guy might be a guru!”

“Huh?”

Diwu Qian was startled.

“It’s very likely, highly possible, that it’s true.”

Diwu Mingchuan kept shaking his head and said, “I can’t see through this boy now. I don’t know what this freak’s background is. This is driving me crazy.”

“Hmm?”

Diwu Qian was stunned and asked, “I heard that you seemed to have gone somewhere together. Did anything happen?”

“Um.”

Diwu Mingchuan nodded and said, " After the battle between John Doe and Qingshan, we were on our way back and planned to rest at the capital. However, we received John Doe's message halfway. Knowing that Nirvana Organization besieged them, we rushed over immediately. Guess what happened?"

"What?"

Diwu Qian was confused.

"This kid had already killed two gurus before we arrived."

The more scenes Diwu Mingchuan recalled, the more emotional he became. He continued, "According to Qingshan, this kid had injured three gurus before he wiped out the two gurus. When we arrived, we saw with our own eyes that this kid killed two gurus in a row and finally slaughtered Nirvana Organization's Seventh Venerable alone!"

As Diwu Qian heard the story...

She stared at her father in astonishment.

"John Doe killed four gurus?"

"Then he hunted Nirvana Organization's Seventh Venerable to death!"

"How could that happen?"

"In my opinion, though this kid might not be a guru, he can be more powerful than a guru!"

Diwu Mingchuan gave his final comment.

In fact, he was even more astonished than Diwu Qian.

“He killed so many gurus?”

Diwu Qian was so shocked that she didn’t know what to say. She could only stare blankly at her father and asked in horror, “Then why didn’t he show the strength of a guru before?”

“I don’t know.”

Diwu Mingchuan shook his head and said, “I guess this guy must have an earthshaking secret.”

“Transmit my order!”

“Warn everyone in our clan not to start any conflict with John Doe and his subordinates!”

Chapter 1226: He Attracted Worldwide Attention!

Shu’nan City, Chuan’nan Province, Huaxia...

The Pear Garden...

Yun Yangzi had come back early to prepare for his closed-door cultivation. But before he could even begin, he heard the rumors in Wulin.

“John Doe is a guru?”

“Impossible. There’s no way he is a guru!”

“When I fought with him, I could feel that he was almost worn out in the end. He would never have felt exhausted if he had been a guru. He is definitely not a guru.”

“But, if he wasn’t a guru, how could he defeat a guru?”

Yun Yangzi walked alone in the garden filled with pear trees. The more he thought about it, the more confused he became.

He couldn’t figure it out.

“What was going on with John Doe?”

“How could he be so peerless?”

After walking for a while, Yun Yangzi came to a pavilion and stood at its entrance and seemed to be waiting for someone.

Soon after...

“Whistle!”

A piercing sound echoed through the air.

Following that, a white shadow darted into the pavilion.

He gazed at it fixedly.

It was none other than Master Numinous.

“Master.”

Yun Yangzi bowed to Master Numinous in the pavilion, gave him a hold fist salute, and stepped into it.

At this moment...

With his brows furrowed, Master Numinous seemed overwhelmed by a myriad of feelings, a little depressed, speechless, and even frantic.

“Um.”

When he heard Yun Yangzi’s greeting, Master Numinous turned round and nodded at him. Before Yun Yangzi could speak, he took the lead to ask, “You have fought with John Doe once. Did you feel he had any special aura about him? For example, you could have felt that he had been holding back his power. Did you feel sort of defeated even before the battle against him?”

“I was about to tell you about this.”

Yun Yangzi replied, “I felt no special aura from John Doe. In our last combat, I had a distinct impression that John Doe had fought to the best of his ability, and every ounce of his strength had been put into his last strike. But when I came back, I heard that John Doe is now a guru. Is it true?”

“That’s even harder to say.”

Master Numinous shook his head and said, “I’m not sure if John Doe is a guru, but I can tell you with certainty that John Doe just killed four ordinary gurus and a super expert stronger than an ordinary guru.”

“What?”

Yun Yangzi’s eyes widened, and he was struck dumb with amazement.

“I witnessed the death of two gurus!”

Master Numinous said, shaking his head, "I can't be sure whether John Doe is a guru or not. But even if he is not a guru, his combat capability is stronger than an ordinary guru's!"

"He killed five gurus in total?"

Yun Yangzi's shock increased.

He had just made his breakthrough but only became a Half-step Guru. There was still a wide gap between him and a guru!

But now...

He thought of John Doe.

The young man was nearly at the same level as him. In fact, John Doe was slightly weaker. No one had expected him to reach such a terrifying level.

Now John Doe was scarily powerful.

"The gap between us is widening."

Yun Yangzi shook his head with a wry smile and sighed.

"This kid is way too weird."

Master Numinous shook his head and said, "Normal people can't compare with him."

Hearing his remark...

Yun Yangzi smiled bitterly.

It was the first time he had heard his master comment on someone like this.

“Well, I think I’m no worse than John Doe.”

Yun Yangzi let out a long breath and said, “I admit my strength is not as good as his, but my talent may be better. After watching the battle today, I feel I’m closer to becoming a guru, so I’m eager to cultivate in seclusion. I must seize this opportunity and become an authentic guru after a breakthrough!”

Meanwhile...

In Wulin, leaders from the other three great families, the eight factions, and sixteen sects issued orders simultaneously.

“No one is allowed to have any unnecessary conflict with John Doe and his people, especially when you are not in the right! Never!”

This restraining order was issued...

In an instant, it spread rapidly among all forces.

In addition to the independent cultivators, almost all Wulin people had received the same warning: “Don’t get into a conflict with John Doe’s men unless you’re in the right!”

For a time...

John Doe became the person whom everyone focused on in Wulin.

Sure enough...

Except for these forces...

Those independent cultivators didn't seem any worse than people from forces. At the end of the battle between John Doe and Qingshan, they profoundly understood how powerful John Doe was.

Before this...

Many people had designs on the Heaven Dew business managed by He Gaoming and others. But they all held back ever since they learned John Doe had even defeated a guru.

That was a guru.

Now that even a guru became John Doe's defeated opponent, they could hardly imagine how powerful John Doe was.

The most daunting thing was...

They recalled what John Doe had done before.

An auction house with a strong background viciously robbed him of his belongings and beat up his people. As a result, he took He Gaoming directly to their auction house and smashed up their place.

Someone had provoked him.

He went straight to his force on the mountain and disabled the person.

Then, a fool, who didn't know how to assess the situation correctly, hurt his disciple. In the end, John Doe wiped out the person together with his force!

Judging from these things...

John Doe was particularly protective toward his people and favored the heavy-handed approach.

Even though Heaven Dew was valuable, it was not as important as their lives!

In addition to these major forces, the low-level people in Wulin were also crazily spreading the news that John Doe had defeated a guru. They had never come into contact with a guru, so they didn't know how powerful a guru was, and most rumors that were spread were mainly bragging. Nevertheless, all of this made the new Wulin generation understand how formidable John Doe was.

Undoubtedly, their 'free advertising' attracted a large number of fans to John Doe.

In this way...

Rumors in the upper level of Wulin said that John Doe might be a guru, and these lower practitioners wildly exaggerated John Doe's competitiveness. Their animated discussions about John Doe filled the entire Wulin.

As a superpower...

Huaxia had always been the center of attention of many other countries. Of course, Huaxia Wulin had received special attention.

Under this circumstance, some people transmitted the news carried by the Wulin online forum to the world underground-force forum.

Certainly...

The underground forces had a grading standard for the Wulin people. For example, when on the island in the sea, John Doe had been rated as A-class. After the failure of the world's third-greatest killer, John Doe's rating was upgraded to S-class. Since then, he had a fearsome reputation among countless people in the underground forces.

The news of John Doe defeating a guru spread widely and quickly on the Wulin online forum.

On the world underground-force forum...

Similar posts about this piece of breaking news soon appeared!

“John Doe in Huaxia vanquished an S-class expert!”

As soon as this news came out, it immediately caused an uproar on the world underground-force forum.

“S-class expert?”

“This is simply terrifying.”

“John Doe himself is an S-class expert, isn’t he?”

“There are only a few S-class experts worldwide, but John Doe is potent enough to crush an S-class expert?”

“It sounds horrible. At present, the only S-class expert I know is Lingyin, who ranks first on the killer list. I have never heard of the other S-class experts. John Doe defeated an S-class expert in Huaxia. Does that mean John Doe can defeat Lingyin?”

“It seems that the administrators of the underground-force forum need to reevaluate John Doe’s strength.”

“This is extremely frightening. Do you remember Thomas, who ranked second on the world’s killer list? No wonder John Doe slayed him with such ease. John Doe could even defeat an S-class super expert. What could he not do?”

On the world underground-force forum...

John Doe went viral.

Everyone was raving about John Doe.

In the meantime...

In Zhongdong...

Gospel Division and Truth Division, two first-rate forces, also received the same news.

Merely ten minutes later...

The two forces released announcements one after another.

“From today on, Gospel Division will not issue any reward for subduing John Doe!”

“From now on, Truth Division will no longer set a price on John Doe!”

They issued these two public notices.

After that, underground forces all over the world paid more attention to John Doe.

In the whole world, only a few could beat an S-class expert. Since such an influential expert had suffered defeat, guardians and A-class experts of various forces would be no match for John Doe.

Therefore...

Even those forces protected by S-class experts had to ponder whether they could afford to provoke John Doe.

As for those organizations without S-class experts, they had to be more cautious.

For them, getting on John Doe's wrong side was something that they could not afford to do!

Huaxia...

In the military base of Beijiang...

"He can't conceal his strength any longer."

Li Ji showed a bitter smile after he saw all the news on the Wulin online forum and the world underground-force forum.

In this world...

He was the first person who knew that John Doe was a guru!

It had been almost two years since he got to know John Doe.

In the past two years, John Doe had tried his best to hide his real strength as a guru, and he had been doing a great job about that. However...

His secret had now been exposed.

Nevertheless...

Li Ji was also very curious.

“Why would John Doe hide his true strength?

“Could it be that his previous breakthroughs were only used to confuse others?”

Li Ji couldn't figure it out.

But even though he knew John Doe's true identity, there was another secret about John Doe that could never be revealed!

It wouldn't have much of an impact on John Doe when his true strength was widely known, but once his true identity was exposed, there would be a big problem.

Fortunately, it hadn't slipped out.

Here...

After leaving the place where he slaughtered Seventh Venerable, Fang Qiu flew at full speed to a mountain forest 20 kilometers away and hid.

His phone kept ringing.

He opened it to take a look.

All the significant families and forces had sent messages to ask if he was a guru.

Fang Qiu didn't answer any of them.

It would be good to keep them guessing.

Although he was 20 kilometers away, Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness had been fixed on Qingshan. After the four patriarchs and Master Numinous left, Fang Qiu was not in a hurry to go out. Instead, he tailed after Qingshan by using his Divine Consciousness.

He was curious.

Would Qingshan go and meet his master? If so, that would save Fang Qiu the trouble of asking. If not, it wouldn't be too late for him to appear and ask!

During this period, Fang Qiu followed Qingshan and left Qinghai.

Then they entered an endless mountain forest!

Chapter 1227: Clues About Old Master!

"There's hope."

When Qingshan entered the deep forest, Fang Qiu was secretly delighted and quickly followed behind.

As Fang Qiu followed Qingshan's tracks, he reduced the distance between them.

Deep into the mountains...

They walked for nearly half an hour.

Eventually...

Qingshan came to the top of a high mountain.

From the surroundings, it could be seen that this tall mountain seemed very far away from where he practiced.

Unexpectedly...

At the mountain peak stood a two-story pavilion.

It was built with wooden boards. Two windows on the second floor were wide open. Through them, Qingshan saw nothing on the second floor but a few potted flowers and plants.

The door and windows of the first floor were closed.

Qingshan came to the door of the pavilion.

In low spirits, he glanced at the tightly closed door and windows of the first floor and said gloomily, "Master, I was beaten. I lost!"

Over there...

Fang Qiu had arrived in the forest and was less than a kilometer from Qingshan.

Hearing Qingshan's words, Fang Qiu immediately stopped to see if anyone in the pavilion would react.

To his great surprise...

Just after Qingshan finished talking...

A voice suddenly came from the pavilion.

"A friend coming from afar?"

“Show yourself!”

The voice sounded very kind and slightly jolly.

Qingshan was taken aback.

He quickly scanned around.

There...

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu flashed to Qingshan’s side.

“John Doe?”

When Fang Qiu showed up, Qingshan froze and his face changed dramatically.

John Doe could come here only because he must have been following him for quite some time. At least John Doe must have trailed after him before he entered the forest. Even worse, he might have started tracking when they were in the Qinghai grassland.

However...

John Doe had been stalking him for so long, but why did Qingshan not notice him?

Qingshan was stunned.

He was a guru.

So, he could sense any slight movement of the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth. John Doe had been tailing after him for so long, but how was it that he had not sensed anything?

The more Qingshan thought about it, the more shocked he became!

Just then...

“Ha-ha...”

A burst of laughter came from the pavilion. With it, the door of the pavilion’s first floor slowly opened.

Then, a figure walked out.

An elder appeared in front of Fang Qiu.

The elder was refreshingly lean, dressed in a white robe, like a vigorous and mysterious fortune-teller in Jianghu.

Fang Qiu scrutinized him closely.

The elder’s bright eyes sparkled and he looked very lively and energetic. Even young men were not as brisk as him!

The old man was impressive.

Fang Qiu’s eyes glinted.

Upon closer inspection, he found the elder seemed covered by a layer of gray fog, which blurred his vision, so Fang Qiu couldn’t get more information from his appearance.

When he noticed that John Doe was eyeing him to take in his measure, the elder stood still at the door with a smile and looked steadily at John Doe.

His aboveboard posture seemed to tell John Doe that he was free to size him up, but he wouldn't find anything!

"Senior."

Fang Qiu gave a hold fist salute to the old man.

"Hee, hee."

The elder smirked, stepped aside, and suddenly disappeared from where he was. When he emerged, he was less than three meters from Fang Qiu.

Facing Fang Qiu, the elder silently waved his right hand and delivered a hard slap.

"Hmm?"

Fang Qiu's heart skipped a beat.

He immediately mobilized all the energy within him and dealt a hard slam.

This palm attack...

It would be a violent blow for anyone in Wulin. After the collision, a burst of terrifying energy Qi would erupt.

Surprisingly...

When his palm knocked against the elders'...

Fang Qiu felt that the internal Qi in his palm had suddenly dissipated.

Without causing a stir, it scattered inexplicably.

In the meantime...

A considerable force came through the elder's palm.

The sudden appearance of this force caught Fang Qiu a little off guard. He hurriedly mobilized more internal Qi to resist, but even so, this force made him stagger three steps back!

Opposite him...

The elder still stood his ground, but a trace of surprise crossed his amiable face!

"Young friend, you're truly amazing."

The old man chortled.

Here...

Fang Qiu was astonished.

He could certainly feel that the elder didn't intend to hurt him. This blow was to sound out his strength. Otherwise, it wouldn't have merely forced him to take three steps back.

Beside them...

Qingshan's eyes also widened and he stared at Fang Qiu in disbelief.

He didn't expect John Doe to be able to withstand a blow from his master.

It was a little scary!

"Senior, you flatter me. I'm nowhere near as powerful as you."

Fang Qiu quickly gave a hold fist salute to the elder.

"Not bad. Very modest."

The elder nodded with a satisfied smile and asked, "Who is your master?"

"That is precisely why I came here."

Fang Qiu said with a wry smile, "My master didn't tell me his name and just asked me to call him Old Master all the time. And after I left the mountain, he refused to see me. I'm here to ask you if you know him."

"Old Master?"

Hearing this, the old man threw him a faint smile and said, "Since you're here, let's talk about it inside."

As he spoke...

The old man turned and walked inside.

“Brother John Doe, please.”

Qingshan reached out and invited John Doe to go in first.

Fang Qiu didn’t hesitate.

He immediately walked toward the pavilion.

When he walked in, he found a small farmyard before the pavilion. In addition to the four fields planted with various vegetables, a small area of land was fenced to keep a few chickens.

They walked into the pavilion.

Upon receiving a signal from the elder, Fang Qiu sat on a wooden chair.

As soon as Qingshan entered, he began making tea with familiarity.

“My little friend, is there anything special about your Old Master?”

The elder didn’t hesitate and asked as soon as he sat down.

“Old Master.”

Thinking of him, Fang Qiu paused, raised his eyebrows, and said, “He has silvery hair but no beard. Also, he has a pair of bright and piercing eyes. He looks dignified and kind, about the same age as you. It’s just that my Old Master is not in good health and coughs often. Despite that, he has always kept an upright posture, and his back is never bent.”

“Oh?”

Hearing John Doe's description, the elder immediately cracked a smile.

Just then...

Qingshan came in with the tea.

His master took the teacup, gently skimmed off the floating tea leaves with the lid, and beamed, "It turns out that your master is him."

"You came to the right place. I know him!"

Fang Qiu heard the positive answer.

"Really?"

He was pleasantly surprised and hurriedly asked, "Senior, could you find my Old Master?"

"I certainly could if I want to do. It'll just be a little troublesome, at most."

The elder answered with a smile. After taking a small sip of tea, he put the teacup on the table next to the chair and continued, "However, from what you've just said, he doesn't want you to find him now, so I can't help you. You'll see him when he thinks it's time to meet you. Anyway, I don't want to create any problems.."

"Besides, that old codger has been extremely mysterious. To become his disciple is both a blessing and a curse to you. Since he doesn't wish for you to find him, you should just mind your business."

Fang Qiu frowned.

He had seen hope, but the elder's following words were a disappointment.

“Senior.”

Fang Qiu got up and bowed with a hold fist salute, saying, “Please help me find my Old Master.”

“Hmm?”

The elder was slightly taken aback and said, “I’ve made it clear, and I don’t think you have any idea about human affairs. It seems you have to find him. Why?”

“To treat him.”

Fang Qiu uttered two words.

“Hehe.”

The elder chuckled, “That’s very thoughtful of you. However... give up this idea. Even that poor old devil himself couldn’t do anything about it. What do you think you can do?”

“Nothing’s impossible.”

Fang Qiu, shook his head and said with determination.

“That’s a good way to put it.”

The elder nodded with a smile and asked, “But what can you do?”

“I know some medical skills!”

Fang Qiu spoke up.

“Really?”

The elder froze and asked with interest, “Then show me what medical skills you have.”

Fang Qiu stood up.

After thinking for a while, he walked out of the door and grabbed a chicken from its coop.

“Senior, please forgive me.”

Fang Qiu said to the elder as he grabbed the chicken.

“It doesn’t matter.”

The elder waved his hand, indicating that he didn’t care.

Here...

Seeing the old man had no objection, Fang Qiu immediately broke the chicken’s foot.

Under the suppression of his internal Qi, the chicken didn’t struggle nor fly around.

After he snapped off the chicken’s foot...

Fang Qiu first showed the injury to the old man. Then, by applying the third level of boneset skill, he gently pressed his hand on the chicken foot. When his mental power instantly penetrated the foot bones, it accelerated the growth of the bone to grow back quickly.

This move...

When he provided treatment for Li Zhengtang, a highly-skilled doctor, Fang Qiu made use of this skill. Although he hadn't used it for a long time, with the improvement of his strength and spiritual force, the effect was several times better than before.

Soon...

In the blink of an eye, the bones on the chicken's broken foot started healing quickly and it recovered before long!

Fang Qiu finished doing all of this.

He walked up to the elder and handed him the chicken.

The old man took the chicken and had a look.

When he found the chicken's foot bones had fully healed, he suddenly looked surprised.

Aside, Qingshan also appeared dumbfounded.

"Just now, the chicken's bones were broken. How could it recover in such a twinkling?"

"What the hell had happened?"

"As expected, it's impressive!"

The elder smiled and flung the chicken away. Waiting until it flew out and landed in the chicken coop, he turned around, clapped his hands, and said to Fang Qiu, "But it's a sticky business. If you're set to help him, I can show you a way."

"What's that?"

Fang Qiu asked in a great hurry.

"The third-ranked Heaven Treasure."

The old man said, "If you can find it, it will help him. He has been searching for it for decades but never found it."

"A few decades?"

Fang Qiu felt a shiver of surprise and immediately asked, "Senior, do you know how the Old Master was hurt and what kind of harm he sustained?"

"Alas..."

The elder sighed softly, shook his head, and said, "You are all juniors. It's not yet the right time for you to know about it."

Medical Master

Chapter 1228: Super Pills

"Kid."

Looking at Fang Qiu, the Elder, choked by a mixture of feelings, held back words that sprang to his lips and sighed again before he said, "Always remember your master's words and never let him down!"

“Thank you so much, Senior.”

Fang Qiu gave him a hold fist salute to express his gratitude.

He had asked about his Old Master, but the senior was unwilling to say anything more. So, Fang Qiu knew he couldn't get an answer no matter how hard he tried to pump him for more information.

Therefore, he could only thank the elder.

“Um.”

The elder responded briefly.

“I'll take my leave.”

Knowing it was useless to stay any longer, Fang Qiu could only go back after giving a hold fist salute.

He left the pavilion.

As he went down the mountain, Fang Qiu kept the elder's words firmly in mind.

The third-ranked Heaven Treasure would be helpful to the Old Master!

In the pavilion...

After watching Fang Qiu leave, Qingshan's expression was bitter and he immediately turned to the old man to complain, “It was him. I lost to him after going down the mountain.”

“Now, you believe that no matter how strong you are, there will always be someone stronger. Right?”

The elder looked at Qingshan with a smile, not blaming him. Instead, he said with a grin, "Speaking of age, he is even younger than you, but he has suffered much more than you."

In fact...

He let Qingshan go down the mountain to raise his confidence. Once Qingshan learned how powerful he became after 19 years of painstaking cultivation, he would be motivated to continue practicing diligently with a will.

However, less than a month after he left the mountain, he returned, feeling dejected after losing to John Doe!

Just now...

The elder attacked John Doe as soon as he saw him because he wanted to explore his real strength. After all, John Doe had acquired a well-earned reputation in Wulin and even defeated Qingshan.

As a result, after their palms knocked against each other, the elder knew full well that John Doe was a guru who had recultivated.

After the elder realized this...

The doubts in his heart were completely dispelled.

Qingshan was just an ordinary guru, who obviously couldn't take on a guru of recultivation, so it was natural that he lost.

"He is stronger than me because he endured more hardship. Then I have to suffer more and practice harder!"

Qingshan clenched his fists and said with unswerving determination.

“Double your cultivation intensity!”

The elder encouraged him.

“Alright!”

Qingshan immediately nodded in response.

The old man smiled and nodded with satisfaction when he heard Qingshan’s voice filled with an inflexible will.

He looked out of the pavilion, his eyes following the direction in which John Doe disappeared.

The elder could bet that John Doe must have some great secrets.

For example...

“Why would John Doe start over?”

Even though he was full of doubt, the elder didn’t investigate it further.

After cultivating for so many years, the old man got to know a lot of things. Sometimes, the more you learn, the more unpleasant you might feel.

On the other side...

Fang Qiu walked down the mountain path. Though he didn’t get the answer he wanted, he was delighted with this trip.

He still hadn't obtained any news about the Old Master or his whereabouts, but at least he got some important clues.

Moreover...

Fang Qiu had come around to the idea now.

Given his current situation, even if he found the Old Master, he might not help him. If he could lend a hand, the Old Master would not have shut him out all the time.

"The third-ranked Heaven Treasure!"

As Fang Qiu walked to the foot of the mountain, he looked at the boundless mountain forest before him and turned back to see the pavilion on the mountain. He kept the pavilion's location firmly in his mind and murmured, "I will come back with the third-ranked Heaven Treasure!"

Fang Qiu left the mountain.

He came to a small town nearby and changed into a tracksuit. After getting a mask and a hat, he rushed directly to the city's airport, bought a flight ticket to Longquan, and hurried onto the plane.

On the way to the airport, Fang Qiu had already called He Gaoming, who told him that he and the other brothers had returned to the wine factory to continue with their wine production.

Therefore, Fang Qiu went straight to the wine factory.

From Qinghai to Longquan...

He made a long-distance flight almost across half of Huaxia, a journey that took more than three hours.

Fang Qiu landed at the airport in Longquan.

It was already seven o'clock in the evening.

At this moment...

After getting off the plane, Fang Qiu immediately took a taxi to the wine factory.

When he arrived, all the employees in the winery were already off duty. He Gaoming and the others had just put away the wine they made today and were cultivating in the field outside the wine warehouse.

Fang Qiu got out of the taxi.

But he didn't enter the factory immediately. Instead, he stood outside to observe the situation inside.

Over there...

He Gaoming and the other eight men held ordinary iron swords and practised the Combined Attack Sword Formation. As for the other brothers, some were sitting cross-legged on the ground to practice, while others were fighting against each other.

It seemed that everyone was cultivating assiduously.

"Whoosh!"

After watching for a while, Fang Qiu got ready and directly vaulted over the gate.

He Gaoming and the others heard the abnormal noise.

All of them swiftly turned around.

When they saw John Doe, everyone's faces instantly lit up with surprise.

"Master."

He Gaoming called out in great excitement.

"The oldest."

"The oldest is back."

"It's the oldest."

One after another, the other brothers spoke up and gathered around him.

They stared fixedly at John Doe.

Their eyes were full of admiration!

They still found it hard to believe the oldest had defeated a guru!

That was to say...

John Doe, the oldest, was more formidable than a guru.

Especially at noon today, led by He Gaoming, they logged onto the Wulin online forum and witnessed various compliments addressed to John Doe given by masters in Wulin. Also, they felt enormous pride when they saw warnings and orders published by large and small Wulin forces that no one was allowed to get into any conflict with John Doe.

They thought back on what had happened.

Before the fierce battle between John Doe and Qingshan, these brothers had seen numerous cutting remarks targeted at John Doe on the forum. At that time, when they sprang to John Doe's defence, they were despised and ridiculed by a great many netizens and seethed with rage.

Everything was now over.

When John Doe defeated Qingshan, the whole Wulin applauded him to the skies.

In their eyes...

John Doe deserved their utmost respect, which manifested his legendary status in Wulin!

"Master, don't you think it's time to give us some tips?"

He Gaoming chuckled and said, "Look how quickly you have improved your strength. We're also eager to upgrade our strength so we will no longer be a burden to you."

"You are anxious to progress, aren't you?"

Fang Qiu rolled his eyes at He Gaoming and advised him earnestly and with good intentions. "You cannot rush to enhance your strength. You should proceed in an orderly way and do it step by step."

He Gaoming heard that.

He couldn't help smiling wryly.

"Look at the others. They've spent several years or even decades reaching your current cultivation level. Why are you so worried if these people are not in a hurry?"

Fang Qiu shook his head and emphasized, "Build a solid foundation, then it'll be easy for you to promote your strength."

"But..."

He Gaoming grumbled as his mouth twitched, "We've steadied ourselves. However, we can't significantly progress even if we continue practicing."

"As martial arts practitioners, you shouldn't merely focus on your strength and realm."

Fang Qiu shook his head and added patiently, "If you're only equipped with strength but lack counterattack methods, you'll suffer losses when you confront rivals who are on the same level as you."

Everyone heard that.

They all nodded.

Each of them had learned some fighting techniques.

However, those were just commonly seen techniques. Thus, they felt frustrated when their enemies who had the same strength delivered various skills but they could only use some clumsy moves.

"Today, I'll teach you some techniques to fight against enemies."

Seeing everyone nod affirmatively, Fang Qiu revealed his plan.

He stopped there.

The eyes of his brothers immediately lit up.

No one had expected that.

This time, John Doe came here to pass on his cultivation techniques.

That was fantastic.

He Gaoming, who was initially a little upset, was immensely excited and spoke up, "You finally decided to teach us your awesome techniques that could crush opponents at a higher level?"

He spoke without reservation.

Hearing that, Fang Qiu was stunned and immediately smiled wryly.

Then Fang Qiu glanced around.

Almost all the brothers were staring at him with the same expectant look. Obviously, they felt the same way as He Gaoming.

Fang Qiu laughed helplessly in his heart.

He didn't have the heart to disappoint them. After pondering for a while, he said, "Something like that."

With this...

Everyone cheered at once.

"I have four techniques here."

Fang Qiu looked at them and said, “These are Swordsmanship, Fist Technique, Palm Technique, and Saber Technique. Learning too much is useless as it might hinder your cultivation and distract your attention. So, you should choose one that suits you best. I’ll teach you respectively.”

He finished his speech.

More than 30 people were immediately divided into four groups.

The first team, led by He Gaoming and the other eight brothers, would cultivate Swordsmanship. This team was the largest, with as many as 15 people.

The second largest team, including about ten members, would learn Saber Technique.

The number of people who would study Fist Technique and Palm Technique wasn’t small.

Since fists and palms were closely associated, Fang Qiu taught them both the Fist Technique and Palm Technique.

All the four ancient cultivation techniques Fang Qiu had gained from the little puppet were passed down.

After learning these techniques...

The more than 30 brothers were thrilled as if a precious jewel had fallen into their hands.

The 15 brothers in the Swordsmanship team were excessively exalted when John Doe showed them ancient Swordsmanship because they had seen John Doe use it in the battle against Qingshan.

With these brand-new techniques...

Everyone felt much more energetic when they were cultivating.

Fang Qiu finished his mentoring.

He looked at his brothers, who were practicing attentively. After thinking for a while, he said, "Come on, everyone. If nothing unexpected comes up, I will give you some medicinal pills to help you practice Kung Fu."

All the brothers heard that.

They became even more exhilarated.

"As expected, the oldest indeed has some necessary pills to help defeat higher-grade rivals."

"The oldest is so awesome."

"No wonder the oldest is invincible. With such powerful cultivation techniques and pills for defeating greater opponents, how could he not be ever-victorious?"

Everyone was so excited that they couldn't help discussing animatedly.

Hearing their words, Fang Qiu was speechless to find that these guys had imagined so many things since he defeated a guru, but he couldn't come up with a reasonable explanation.

Helplessly, he could only watch them cheer on with their fantasies and kept telling himself not to deny them this harmless pleasure.

Frankly...

With the jade stones, he would grow three kinds of magic herbs in a small area and develop super pills suitable for martial arts practitioners. That was all.

He did not expect these guys to interpret it in such a fantastic way.

Since they liked it and Fang Qiu couldn't clarify everything, he could only let them think in whatever way they liked.

Medical Master

Chapter 1229: Nirvana Organization's Plan in Africo!

After teaching them the techniques and watching them practice once, Fang Qiu turned around and left.

Outside the wine factory...

Fang Qiu phoned Li Ji immediately.

"Hello?"

Li Ji answered the phone quickly, his voice coming from the other end of the line.

"It's me."

Fang Qiu responded and continued, "I have something to tell you."

"Go ahead."

Li Ji nodded in response.

"I'm going to cancel the top leaders' wine orders."

Then, before Li Ji could ask, Fang Qiu explained, "I've thought it over. Drinking, after all, is not suitable for the army. Recently, I've been studying a kind of super pill that can assist in one's cultivation. When I succeed, I'll supply some to the country."

"Of course, before I develop the super pills, Heaven Dew will still be delivered to you as scheduled."

On the other end of the line...

Li Ji paused for a while and said with a wry smile, "Oh, you'll offend many people this time. It's not easy for our people in the army to drink legally, but you're going to take that pleasure away from them just after a few days?"

"Er... Or, let's forget about the pills then?"

Fang Qiu asked in embarrassment.

"Don't."

Li Ji hurriedly said, "Since they are called super pills, they must be good stuff. I believe the brothers in the army will understand your painstaking efforts to help them improve. Don't worry about anything else. Just focus on developing your super pills. Before these pills come out, I'll let everyone know in advance so they can cherish the last wonderful moments to savor the wine in the army."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly.

"Thank you."

Li Ji continued gratefully, "Your super pills will greatly improve the strength of martial arts practitioners in our army. Let me thank you personally and also on behalf of our comrades and our country."

“It’s my pleasure.”

Fang Qiu beamed and nodded.

“By the way, there is another thing.”

After thanking him, he immediately turned to Fang Qiu and said, “The news that you defeated a guru has spread all over Wulin and abroad.”

“From the current situation, the other countries are not perturbed about it. On the world underground-force forum, most forces have announced that they would avoid conflicts with you. But your resounding victory over a guru must have attracted the attention of some big shots. In addition, you have made a name for yourself in the world. I’m afraid that those topnotch experts living undercover worldwide and some national forces may have targeted you.”

“Also, the higher-ups specifically told me to remind you: be more careful when you go abroad in the future.”

With this...

Fang Qiu was a little surprised.

To his great surprise, not long after the battle, the news had been spread abroad. The news traveled much faster than he had thought.

“Alright, I understand.”

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and hung up the phone.

He arrived at the airport in Longquan.

Fang Qiu bought a ticket to Beijiang and returned to the cultivation base.

This trip...

It took him only three hours.

Fang Qiu arrived at the cultivation base early in the morning.

Upon his return...

Fang Qiu found that the construction of the new base was almost finished. Even his and He Xue's offices had been demolished and moved to the new building complex.

The newly-built cultivation base was four times larger than before and looked exceptionally spacious.

After the completion of the construction work, there were still many things to do.

Thus, He Xue stayed up till the small hours of the day and was busy directing the relocation work of the new base.

"It is indeed much more spacious."

He arrived at the new base and saw He Xue giving instructions to others on the setup of the place, Fang Qiu immediately walked up to her and said, "Thank you for your hard work."

"Why did you come back so late?"

Fang Qiu's appearance startled He Xue.

"I hurried back by the last flight yesterday."

Fang Qiu flashed a smile and asked, "Oh, one more thing, what about the underground warehouse and my jade stones?"

"All done."

He Xue pointed in the direction of the warehouse. "Let me take you there."

Afterward...

She muttered that Fang Qiu might not find the way if he did not come back soon and then led Fang Qiu to the innermost wall of a very neat and wide warehouse.

Then she stretched out her hand and pushed.

The wall moved backward by over one meter, which revealed an underground entrance more than one meter wide. It was sealed by a stone slab that resembled a floor tile, and there seemed to be some mechanism that had been installed. When He Xue pressed the slab, it immediately opened and revealed a flight of stairs that led deep underground.

"Here it is."

He Xue said, pointing to the underground warehouse.

"So awesome?"

Fang Qiu was stunned by the setup He Xue had put together.

Initially, he just wanted an ordinary underground warehouse to store some precious items, but he never expected He Xue to construct such an impressive underground warehouse.

“So, the previous underground warehouse hasn’t been demolished. Right?”

Suddenly, Fang Qiu hurriedly asked, thinking of the little puppet.

“Not yet. We’re waiting for you to come back.”

He Xue said, “Your items are still in the underground warehouse. No one dared to touch any of them, so we just left them there and didn’t dismantle the warehouse yet. We’re waiting for you to come back and decide how to deal with it.”

“Well.”

After thinking for a while, Fang Qiu said, “I’ll go there tonight and transfer everything over. Tomorrow, you can ask others to begin the construction. The warehouse occupies a large area, so we should make full use of it.

“Okay.”

He Xue nodded and replied, “There is still a lot of equipment being transported, so I’ll have to get to check on them. Call me if you need anything.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

After He Xue left, he walked into the underground warehouse.

“Damn, it’s so big!”

Fang Qiu was shocked by the size of the warehouse.

At this moment...

In the innermost corner of the warehouse was a row of three-story wooden shelves. All the jade pieces he brought back from Zangjiang were neatly placed on the three-story wooden racks.

With a sweep of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu knew that all the jade pieces were intact, and not a single piece was missing.

The important thing was...

These jade stones occupied a large pit outside.

But it only took up one-tenth of the space of this warehouse.

In amazement...

Fang Qiu quickly picked up some jade stones, walked out of the underground warehouse, and went to the old base. From the previous storage place, he took out the small puppet and the fist-sized piece of pure jade stored in a wooden box. After he brought them to the new underground warehouse, Fang Qiu went to the new office area with the scattered jade pieces he had just brought and looked for his office.

Soon...

He found his office at the edge of a cultivation area.

"Not bad. Nice."

Fang Qiu looked around. Beside his office were He Xue's office and Zhao Shanlin's office.

The three offices were arranged in a line. A small area before them had been made into a small garden. But it was not included in the cultivation area because it was too small.

There was a flat road outside the small garden, and on the other side of the road was a vast and brand-new cultivation area.

“Perfect.”

After a brief observation, Fang Qiu felt delighted. Then he scanned around and spotted a small independent place across the road. An idea struck him. Instantly, he walked over and marked off this small plot of land. Then he took out the bits and pieces of jade he brought over, arranged them in different locations according to the terrain, and covered them with soil. By doing all of this, he built up a small terrain. Then, he got some Desert Cistanche seedlings and planted them there with the hope of nurturing them.

He completed the setup at this site.

Without delay, Fang Qiu immediately rushed to the Snow Lotus base at the foot of the snow-capped mountain to do the same thing. Right after planting the Snow Lotuses, he hurried away to deal with the Dendrobe in Nanjiang.

In Huaxia...

Outside the borderline, in a cave hidden halfway up a snow-capped mountain.

“Pa!”

A furious slap sounded.

Electric lamps brightly illuminated the cave.

It was a vast space that resembled the ruins of a military base.

Inside the cave...

Apart from some abandoned military supplies, there were a few olive-colored tables and chairs.

At this moment...

An old man and a middle-aged man were sitting at a table.

Upon closer examination...

The man in a white robe had a great mane of white hair, which made him appear particularly solemn.

The other was in a dark red robe and had some wrinkles on his face and looked rather aged.

"Is our Seventh Brother really dead?"

The middle-aged man in the red robe asked, his eyes narrowed.

"Yes."

The middle-aged man in a white robe nodded and said, "This is the reliable news that our organization has received. All the five gurus who participated in Seventh Venerable's operation were killed. We have lost seven gurus in total, plus the one who died in Zangjiang and Seventh Venerable. Leaders of our organization were in a towering rage, so they sent me to contact you."

"Seventh Venerable was just too careless."

With a smile, the red-robed elder said. Looking toward the middle-aged man in the white robe, he added, "Don't you think so, Eighth Venerable?"

“Sixth Venerable, you’re right.”

Eighth Venerable nodded and immediately reprimanded in a cold-blooded manner, “This time, Seventh Venerable attacked without authorization and caused a great loss to our organization!”

“He’s dead.”

Sixth Venerable shook his head. His smiling face suddenly froze, and a cold light flashed in his eyes as he said, “This time, we lost heavily. But anyway, John Doe has been making remarkable progress by leaps and bounds, so we can never let him become any stronger!”

“In particular, we can’t mess up our original intention because of John Doe.”

“The higher-ups sent you here to replace Seventh Venerable and cooperate with me to accomplish the Africo plan.”

“Now, let’s start the plan!”

With this...

Sixth Venerable stood up and roared with vicious laughter. Then he waved his hand toward a few subordinates dressed in neat fighting uniforms who stood four to five meters away.

Early the following day...

Fang Qiu had booked a four o’clock flight in the morning. When he arrived in Nanjiang and finished everything, it was six in the morning.

“Beep!”

As soon as Fang Qiu sat in the office, his cell phone rang.

He was familiar with this sound — it was the WeChat newsfeed on his phone.

Fang Qiu casually picked the phone up to check it.

The headline immediately attracted Fang Qiu's attention: "Highly Contagious Ebala Virus Identified in Africo is Spreading Fast!"

Medical Master

Chapter 1230: An Enormous Number of Holy Fruits Appeared!

"Ebala virus?"

When he saw this news, Fang Qiu immediately frowned, clicked on it to have a look, and murmured, "Africo is indeed unfortunate. We've just managed to bring the malaria epidemic under control, but now a new virus has emerged."

"However, this situation should be related to the inferior environment over there."

When he thought of the environment, Fang Qiu couldn't help shaking his head.

He had been to Africo, so he had some idea of its environment. However, this little bit of knowledge was far from enough.

Fang Qiu still remembered something clearly.

Back then, he had seen on the Internet that due to the high temperatures in many regions of Africo and its unclean environment, they were infested with flies.

Many people who couldn't afford to eat would use dustpans to swat those flies every day. After killing them, they would knead the dead flies together and make them into fly burgers.

Thus it could be seen...

How awful the living conditions were in Africo.

In any dirty environment with high temperatures, viruses would grow fast and become highly contagious. So, it was no surprise to learn that various kinds of viruses had appeared.

Unexpectedly...

When he read the news, Fang Qiu felt a sudden rush of panic when he thought of Jiang Miaoyu.

As mentioned in the news, the virus was highly infectious.

It wouldn't be long before it spread all over Africo. By then, it would be dangerous for Jiang Miaoyu.

"Comores is an island country. Since the place where the Ebala virus was discovered is not there, the virus won't spread to Comores in such a short period of time."

"What's more, Miaoyu is in the medical assistance base. They should have received news about the Ebala virus. As a medical assistance agency, they would be fully prepared."

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu was slightly relieved.

"According to her schedule, she will finish her one-year medical mission in half a month."

Fang Qiu calculated to himself her probable time of coming back from abroad.

Just then...

“Beep, beep, beep...”

His phone suddenly rang.

Fang Qiu looked at the caller ID and found it was Jiang Miaoyu!

“Speak of the devil — here is she now!”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a chuckle, quickly picked up the phone, and said before Jiang Miaoyu could say anything, he spoke, “I was thinking about you, then you called.”

“Really?”

Jiang Miaoyu didn’t believe it.

“Don’t you believe me? It’s true!”

Fang Qiu said with certainty, “It should be late afternoon in your place. It’s half past six in the morning here. I just received a push notification saying the very contagious Ebala virus appeared in Africo. When I saw it, I thought of you and was worried about your safety. When I figured out you should finish your mission in half a month and return home, you happened to call me. What a coincidence, don’t you think so?”

“Indeed.”

Jiang Miaoyu smiled wryly and said, “I called to tell you about the medical assistance program.”

“Is there a problem?”

Fang Qiu asked in puzzlement.

“No.”

Jiang Miaoyu paused and said, “My medical mission has been extended.”

“Huh?”

Fang Qiu was quite taken aback.

“Here’s the thing.”

Jiang Miaoyu paused for a moment before saying, “I’ve considered this carefully. I want to train some local doctors. You know how poor the conditions here are. It’ll be of great help if I pass on some simple medical knowledge to them, and I’ll select some people to study in our school. To accomplish my plans, I’ll have to stay here for another two months. ”

“But the environment over there is appalling. After the malaria outbreak, now the Ebola virus emerged. This virus is highly infectious. If you don’t come back, I’m afraid...”

Fang Qiu was worried.

Jiang Miaoyu interrupted, “We are all doctors here. The local medical conditions are not good, but we have a medical assistance team. The material resources needed will be delivered to us as soon as possible. We’ll take precautions even if the virus appears in Comoros, not to mention that the Ebola virus might not even spread here. I’ll be fine.”

“That’s true.”

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said with a sigh, "Well, you're introducing Chinese Medicine to foreign countries. By imparting this medical knowledge to them, you can help them prevent some diseases that may break out in the future. Doctors of Chinese Medicine are always willing to treat the common people. You're a good doctor, but you can't ignore your own safety when protecting others. Take good care of yourself. Don't be careless, understand?"

"Understood."

Hearing Fang Qiu's thoughtful words, Jiang Miaoyu responded happily, "Don't worry. I will look after your girlfriend. I will never let her suffer."

"Now that you've promised me, you will be held responsible if anything happens to my girlfriend."

Fang Qiu replied merrily.

They chatted for a very long time.

Jiang Miaoyu ended the call.

However...

Just after they ended the call and Fang Qiu was about to go out for breakfast, his phone suddenly rang again.

This time, it was Li Ji.

"Hello?"

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“I have important news.”

Li Ji’s solemn voice came from the phone. “I’ve just received news from a reliable source that said many Earth Treasures seemingly appeared in a place close to Africon Savannah in the south of Egyptt!”

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu heard this and cocked his eyebrows in surprise.

“Do you want to go and have a look?”

Li Ji asked.

“Impossible.”

Fang Qiu immediately shook his head and said, “How could there be lots of Earth Treasure in that place? I have seen relevant information about malaria from Africo’s ancient books and have gone to the south of Egyptt bordering Africon Savannah. I only saw one Earth Treasure, though I had walked through that area. So, there can’t be any other Earth Treasures. This news may not be true?”

“Oh, you’ve been there?”

Hearing Fang Qiu’s words, Li Ji immediately frowned, paused for a moment, and said, “I’ll go and confirm the accuracy of this news.”

After that, he hung up the phone.

On the other side...

Fang Qiu suddenly had a bad feeling.

“The Ebala virus just appeared, and now numerous Earth Treasures have shown up?”

His eyebrows furrowed and Fang Qiu felt something bad would likely happen in Africo.

Here...

On the world underground-force forum...

“A large number of Holy Fruits emerged in Africo!”

The appearance of a post attracted the attention of countless people.

Fang Qiu clicked on it.

Except for a photo, there was nothing else in the post.

He took a closer look at the photo.

The picture was taken near Egyptt. At a glance, many objects that resembled the Holy Fruits seemed to have cropped up everywhere.

This photo gave rise to an intense discussion on the world underground-force forum.

In the face of the temptation of so many Holy Fruits...

All the major forces in the world immediately sent their people to snatch as many as possible.

At the same time...

Egyptt's metahumans also headed there immediately.

Not long after...

Egyptt released a statement.

They denied the news that a lot of Holy Fruits had appeared there and indicated that they did not welcome any force that came with the intention to rob.

Sure enough...

No country and force, large or small, believed Egyptt's statement, so they did not summon back those people they had sent out.

All the forces didn't take drastic measures but waited for the investigation results from their people. Once they confirmed that the news was true, they would make their move right away.

Here...

Fang Qiu had breakfast with employees of the Dendrobe cultivation base.

Right after breakfast...

He Xue called.

"Hello?"

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Boss, your beautiful old classmate, Jiang Mengjie, is here. What sort of job have you assigned to her?”

He Xue asked.

“Wait for me. I’ll go back to Beijiang now.”

Fang Qiu responded, hung up the phone, and immediately booked an air ticket back to Beijiang.

When he was in Beijiang...

It was ten o’clock in the morning.

They arrived at the newly built work area of the cultivation base.

Fang Qiu saw Jiang Mengjie from afar. When he approached, he saw that the Tianshan Rat Hare was in her arms.

This scene surprised Fang Qiu a little.

Unexpectedly...

This little creature remained so quietly in her arms.

“You’re back?”

Seeing Fang Qiu, Jiang Mengjie smiled sweetly and asked, “Sister He Xue has shown me around. I’ve also learned about the foundation.”

“Tell me, what sort of duties have you arranged for me?”

With this...

Fang Qiu shook his head and smiled, saying, "Well, at present, all the physicians we recruited have gone to the countryside, but practicing medicine in the countryside is risky and there could be some potential problems. To avoid as many problems as possible, I want to set up a system where they can input all the information, including the diagnoses and prescriptions they made. Then the foundation will examine the information in the system. Once any doctor was found to have prescribed the wrong medicine, their mistakes should be corrected through the foundation's intervention. Thus, only experts with a thorough understanding of Chinese Medicine are qualified for the work.. "

"What do you think of this position?"

Fang Qiu asked.

"Good."

Jiang Mengjie, seemingly taking it for granted, nodded and asked, "Will I be the only one responsible for such an important mission? Aren't you afraid it will wear me out?"

"You certainly will not be the only one."

Fang Qiu shook his head and continued, "So, I need you to recruit as many employees as you think is appropriate. But every one of them should be competent and well-trained!"

"No problem."

Jiang Mengjie nodded in agreement at once.

"Beep, beep, beep..."

Suddenly, Fang Qiu's cell phone rang again.

“I need to take this phone call.”

After excusing himself, Fang Qiu immediately took out his mobile phone, strode aside, and looked at it. When he found it was from Li Ji, he immediately picked it up.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu spoke up.

Li Ji’s voice spoke, “There are indeed a large number of objects that resemble Earth Treasures that came up in the south of Egyptt. It is uncertain if they are Earth Treasures, but even if those things are not as precious as Earth Treasures, they’re valuable enough. You should log onto the underground forum to take a look.”

After hanging up the phone...

Fang Qiu immediately entered the world underground-force forum to check the information.

As soon as he was on the forum, he found others had been discussing this matter avidly.

Fang Qiu carefully looked around.

He learned some forces had discovered Holy Fruits in a large tract of grassland where Egyptt and some other countries met. This area was not under anybody’s jurisdiction.

The news showed up.

All the people who paid attention to it were thrilled.

Many people even began to denounce Egyptt for lying.

Meanwhile...

All the forces started dispatching people there.

After all, this was an excellent opportunity to improve their strength!
