

Medical M 1251

Medical Master

Chapter 1251: Another Force

“Aren’t these fellows too stupid?”

At this moment...

Everyone from Egyptt and Huaxia had the same thought.

When these people dashed forward, didn’t they feel that there was something amiss? All the people from Huaxia and Egyptt neither spoke nor even breathed. Didn’t they notice that at all?

They were actually gasping for air. Weren’t they asking for trouble?

Over at the side...

They glanced at these people as if they were idiots.

A chill suddenly flashed in the Egyptt guru Rahman’s eyes.

It seemed that...

They wanted to get rid of these people who had been poisoned, instantly.

However, when they were about to take action, they looked at the Huaxia people for fear that they would intervene. Once these people’s toxic symptoms disappeared, they would besiege the Egypttians.

With that in mind...

Rahman stretched out his left hand and took out the long spear he had inserted into the ground. Then, he pointed at the large group of poisoned people from various countries and organizations who lay limply on the ground. After that, he made a throat-cutting gesture at Luoyun.

He motioned to Luoyun to kill these people together with him.

Luoyun understood his meaning.

He was tempted.

Like Rahman, Luoyun, a guru from Huaxia, also wanted to take this opportunity and eliminate all these people. In this way, only the two sides from Huaxia and Egypt would be left to compete for the relic.

If it was only the Egyptt group who were here with them, the Huaxia group would gain the upper hand. As long as John Doe joined in the battle, it wouldn't be difficult for them to destroy all the Egyptians here.

With that in mind...

Luoyun's desire was aroused.

This was an excellent opportunity for the Huaxia people to gain control of the relic. He did not want to waste it!

The others saw the trace of eagerness on Luoyun's face.

The gurus of the four great nations, Francis from Roma Shrine and Mousolini from Styx panicked. Their followers were even more terror-stricken.

Given their desperate condition, they couldn't even get on their feet to fight.

It was because...

They felt worse than when they were poisoned outside!

After all, unlike the open space outside, they were in a relatively confined space. Thus, they nearly breathed in all the poisonous powder scattered by the Egyptt guru, so their symptoms were more severe this time.

"How dare you!"

Before Rahman and Luoyun made their move, Lester, the Murica special envoy, immediately yelled out furiously, "Listen, we are in constant touch with our countries. If something happens to us, our countries will know you're the murderers. At that time, none of you can escape!"

"That's right."

"Those who dare attack us will have to face the wrath of the four great countries!"

"You will regret this!"

The envoys of the four great countries spoke one after another.

The gurus of the four great countries didn't make a sound and were trying their best to find a way to detoxify the poison.

On one side...

"Roma Shrine members will not die in vain!"

Subordinates of Francis also shouted out loud.

“Styx will seek justice for us, and the Sea God will slay you to avenge our deaths.”

Those under the leadership of Mousolini also shouted out loud.

Obviously...

These people were issuing threats to stop them.

They were scared that people from Egyptt and Huaxia would kill them.

At this moment...

“I have a question for you.”

Fang Qiu asked with curiosity, “How did you detoxify your bodies? How could you catch up with us in such a short period?”

After that...

Fang Qiu said to Luoyun and the others, “It’s all right. The toxin in the air has diluted. We can talk now. The remaining toxin is of no threat to us.”

The others heard this.

Then, they opened their mouths and noses and started to breathe again.

Over at the side...

When he heard Fang Qiu's words, Rahman's countenance changed.

As the one who released the poison, he didn't even know how long it would take for the poison in the air to be reduced. How did Fang Qiu have the information?

On the other side...

It was only then that these poisoned individuals who lay on the ground suddenly understood why these people who arrived ahead of them remained silent throughout. It turned out they had all sealed their mouths and noses to ward off the poison.

The few gurus regretted not having observed the situation carefully just now.

If they had been a little more meticulous, they would have noticed that something was wrong and could have avoided being poisoned!

These gurus were overcome with regret.

They had no intention of answering Fang Qiu at all.

However, their subordinates were in a panic. They saw a glimmer of hope from Fang Qiu and immediately answered.

"We don't know how."

"When we were outside, we couldn't find a way to detoxify ourselves and were surrounded and almost killed by them. But later, a sudden gust of wind blew over, which helped to detoxify our bodies."

"Yes, that was right."

“At that time, the gurus of the four great countries were not there, so they were not poisoned. If it had not been for the wind, we would have been wiped out by them!”

At this point...

Fang Qiu’s eyebrows rose.

Opposite him, Rahman also instantly frowned.

“A breeze blew over and detoxified all the poisons?”

“What was going on?”

“Could it be that someone had sprinkled the antidote?”

Fang Qiu and Rahman were quite confused.

“Then how did you pass through the maze? How did you catch up so quickly?”

Fang Qiu pursued the matter.

“In the maze, the walls along our way often peeled off. The first time we saw this, we thought it was a trap and didn’t go in there. But later on, we found that these alleys with the wall surfaces that peeled off were the right paths. Then we walked out of the maze by following these peeling walls.”

The people of the four great countries answered.

“We’ve experienced the same thing.”

These people from Roma Shrine and Styx also echoed one after another.

They had the same experience as those from the four great countries.

Thus...

The two groups stepped out of the maze at almost the same time.

When he heard their replies...

Fang Qiu's frown became deeper.

Over at the side...

The guru, Rahman, turned gloomy.

He didn't know what was going on.

But he could sense that there was someone, who seemed to be targeting him who had helped these poisoned people.

At this time...

"Whoosh..."

A gust of wind suddenly blew through the initially quiet tunnel.

After the wind blew past them...

Everyone who was on the ground no longer felt achy and limp all over.

Then...

They all rose to their feet.

The six gurus immediately opened their eyes and stood up.

All the harmful substances had been removed from their system!

This scene was quite astounding.

It came as a great surprise to all the people from Egyptt and Huaxia.

So, the poisons these people inhaled earlier could just be taken away like that?

Here...

As soon as the cool breeze came, Fang Qiu's eyebrows furrowed and he immediately spread out his Divine Consciousness.

His Divine Consciousness surged forward.

As expected, he sensed a trace of energy fluctuation in the distance.

"Whizz."

Without saying a word, Fang Qiu immediately rushed out.

However, he could not spot anyone and the hint of energy fluctuation vanished.

With his eyebrows raised questioningly...

Fang Qiu turned back.

At this moment, all the others turned to look at Fang Qiu, their eyes full of doubts.

Evidently...

Everyone felt that this matter was indeed a little strange.

Such a magical thing couldn't have occurred unless someone had been secretly helping them.

Everyone was on the alert.

They all suspected that there seemed to be another force apart from them. Otherwise, they didn't know how to explain such a thing.

"Let's go together."

Fang Qiu said, "We will proceed openly since no one knows what the people will do to us. We haven't yet found any treasure, so there's no point to have a life-and-death battle now.

When the others heard what he said...

People from each force nodded.

This was, without a doubt, the best choice for all of them.

Several gurus also nodded in succession.

Rahman and Luoyun were somewhat disappointed, but they were clear that even if they seized that opportunity, they couldn't finish off these people.

Once they started the slaughter...

The people who were secretly helping them would administer the antidote in time. Then, the slaughter would turn into a bloody battle where everyone would fight to the last gasp!

Ultimately...

With Fang Qiu's suggestion...

All the forces chose to put aside their grudges and march forward together.

At this time...

Outside the ruin...

The independent cultivators who had been driven away by Rahman and the Bloody Lion Mercenaries long ago returned.

A new group of individual cultivators had come back with them.

At first...

The Bloody Lion Mercenaries got the Holy Fruits and walked away. However, these individual cultivators who had been driven away assaulted them.

However, when the two sides fought intensely, another group of individual cultivators arrived.

The new group...

Not only did they stop the fierce battle, but they also brought good news for everyone.

They had a treasure map that could solve the mystery of the Pharaoh ruin. They even invited both sides who were in a fight to explore the ancient relic together with them.

It was a tempting offer few could turn down...

Naturally, everyone gathered together and returned to the light curtain.

New individual cultivators stepped straight forward and managed to open the relic gate.

“Follow us closely. You can go in now.”

With this...

This new group of independent practitioners brought everyone into the ancient relic. They had even said that for safety's sake, half of them would take the lead, and the other half would bring up the rear. In this way, they could protect everyone in the middle of the group.

After entering the relic ruin...

The new group of independent cultivators quickly led the others to the pyramid's entrance and passed through the maze with great speed.

The Bloody Lion Mercenaries and independent practitioners were overjoyed when they managed to cross the various barriers effortlessly.

This new group of cultivators indeed had a treasure map!

The large group moved forward happily.

Over there...

After the major forces joined forces, they moved rapidly ahead.

After walking for a long time, they finally reached the end of the passage.

An enormous stone gate appeared before them.

Rahman was the first to try it.

As a result...

He could not move it in the slightest.

This scene surprised all the other gurus.

After that...

All the gurus worked together and managed to open the stone door.

However, a black fog suddenly gushed out from within when the stone door was pushed open.

“Something is wrong.”

Fang Qiu, surrounded by the surging black fog, immediately shouted, “Everyone, hold hands with each other. There’s something wrong here.”

However...

There was no response after his warning came out.

There was only silence all around.

This made Fang Qiu frown instantly.

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu immediately released his Divine Consciousness to probe into the matter.

He instantly noticed that the Qi of Heaven and Earth here was abnormal. Under his feet, there seemed to be something like jade stones that contained a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth.

“Over there...”

When he explored the area, Fang Qiu suddenly noticed a particularly noticeable movement of the Qi of Heaven and Earth before him.

He immediately walked forward.

At this time...

Like a turbulent torrent, the black fog gushed out of the stones and poured into the passage that Fang Qiu and the others had just walked through and instantly swept over all the people from the Bloody Lion Mercenaries and those independent cultivators who had just come out of the maze.

Meanwhile...

Before the black fog appeared, the new group of individual cultivators silently retreated into the maze and vanished!

Medical Master

Chapter 1252: Things in the Black Fog

In the dense black fog, Fang Qiu vigilantly looked around and rushed to the place that abounded with the abnormal Qi of Heaven and Earth.

“It’s close.”

As he approached, Fang Qiu frowned and carefully observed the situation ahead.

Right at this moment.

“Swoosh!”

An ear-piercing sound of something penetrating the air suddenly rang out.

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu’s eyebrows shot up and he immediately leaned to one side.

Meanwhile...

Swiftly and fiercely, a pale hand with sharp nails stretched out from the black mist and tried to gouge Fang Qiu’s chest.

“Who’s there?”

Fang Qiu shouted coldly and without saying a word, he extended his right hand and struck out at this pale palm to beat it back.

Then he moved aside and rushed straight toward the direction where the palm came from as he launched his attacks!

In the black fog...

The person who hit Fang Qiu panicked because he didn’t expect such a swift reaction from Fang Qiu. He also jumped out instantly and violently grappled with Fang Qiu.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

The sounds of fierce collisions were heard.

“A guru!”

As soon as the battle started, Fang Qiu sensed that his opponent was a guru!

Notably...

The aura emitted by this person seemed a little familiar.

He frowned.

A figure immediately appeared in Fang Qiu’s mind.

Lester, the special envoy from Murica!

Of course...

Yet, with Lester's strength, he wasn't a guru. Only one guru had the same energy aura as Lester: a Murica guru who was a descendant of the Vampires!

An impulse seized him.

While fighting with his enemy frantically, Fang Qiu found a chance and grabbed his arm to pull him over.

The distance between them was instantly shortened to less than half a meter.

In this situation...

Fang Qiu vaguely saw the person in the black fog was none other than the Murica guru!

Meanwhile...

The Murica guru also saw Fang Qiu.

As soon as he saw Fang Qiu, a cruel glitter rushed into his eyes. Obviously, he wanted to kill Fang Qiu.

"Oh no!"

Fang Qiu suddenly had a brainwave.

When Fang Qiu saw the coldness in the man's eyes, his expression changed, and he immediately let go of the guru's arm.

Just as Fang Qiu loosened his grip on the opponent's arm, he caught a clear view of the eye-piercing red glow that suddenly erupted from the Murica guru's long and sharp nails!

Just like the astral energy of the sword, there was a trace of dazzling light on every fingertip.

"Die!"

The Murica guru sneered coldly and immediately used all his strength, in the hope that Fang Qiu would be killed, to remove the source of any future trouble.

However...

Fang Qiu immediately withdrew.

He was confident that he could kill this Murica guru by launching a full-out attack, but he couldn't do so. First, he didn't know what was going on with the black fog. Secondly, he couldn't expose his strength until the last moment. It would attract other gurus when he exerted all his strength to fight.

At that thought...

Fang Qiu could only take the black fog as cover and use his powerful Divine Consciousness to strike his opponent!

Here...

Just as Fang Qiu pulled back, the Murica guru immediately followed up. When he was about to give Fang Qiu a nasty blow, Fang Qiu disappeared from his sight.

Just then...

“Boom!”

A fist thrust out through the fog on his side and smashed fiercely onto his shoulder.

“Whoosh.”

The Murica guru suddenly turned around and reached out his hand to hit the fist, but he touched nothing. Immediately, he became highly alert.

Abruptly...

The horrible sound of another gust of wind came.

Fang Qiu’s fist showed up behind the Murica guru again.

However, the Murica guru was prepared this time, so Fang Qiu failed. Instead, he was ready to mount a counterattack against Fang Qiu the moment he attacked.

In the darkness, the Murica guru found that he couldn’t sense Fang Qiu’s aura; it was as if Fang Qiu had disappeared from the world.

That irritated him. No matter how much he wanted to kill Fang Qiu, his target vanished every time he delivered a blow.

The key was...

Fang Qiu knew his position clearly and could attack him by taking advantage of the black fog.

This time...

Fang Qiu barely touched him and retreated when the guru was on the verge of counterattacking.

“Fuck!”

The Murica guru cursed bitterly.

But as soon as his curses came out of his mouth...

“Whoosh.”

The sound of a gust of strong wind came, followed by Fang Qiu’s fist.

This time, he no longer aimed at the Murica guru’s back but at his face!

“Courting death!”

That made the Murica guru hopping mad. As soon as he heard the sound of something breaking swiftly through the air, he waved his claws.

“Pow!”

There was a loud bang.

Fang Qiu’s fist collided with the Murica guru’s claw.

The next moment...

Tremendous power filled with anger exploded from the Murica guru. In no time, the claw that bumped against Fang Qiu’s fist emitted bright red energy that was extremely sharp.

This sudden stream of energy was powerful enough to tear anything into pieces.

Fortunately, Fang Qiu retreated in time, but it left three bloody wounds on the back of his hand.

When he saw this, Fang Qiu also flared up.

Right before his opponent reached him, he flashed aside and immediately intensified his attack. With the help of his Divine Consciousness, he perfectly dodged his opponent's every counterattack.

In a twinkling...

The two sides exchanged dozens of blows.

But the Murica guru had no way to deal with Fang Qiu. On the contrary, Fang Qiu took advantage of the darkness and found several opportunities to attack him. Although the guru wasn't seriously injured, he suffered some minor injuries.

When he got wounded...

The Murica guru was even more furious, but he knew that he almost couldn't find a good opportunity to kill Fang Qiu in this instance. Instead, Fang Qiu could drain his energy in this way.

Once he was exhausted, it would be dangerous when he encountered gurus from other forces.

With that in mind...

The Murica guru didn't hesitate any longer and ran away.

Fang Qiu didn't chase after him.

After all, the other party was a guru. If he went after him, others would suspect his strength.

The Murica guru fled, and Fang Qiu breathed a sigh of relief. When he was about to mobilize his Divine Consciousness and continue to explore the surroundings, he suddenly found something weird about the three wounds on the back of his hand.

It felt as if something was worming its way into his body through the three wounds on the back of his hand.

This discovery made Fang Qiu very confused and curious.

Without the slightest hesitation...

He checked his internal condition.

“Nothing unusual?”

After checking himself over again, Fang Qiu found no foreign matter in his body and noticed nothing unusual.

In this situation...

Fang Qiu felt even more confused.

Keeping this strange incident in mind, Fang Qiu chose a direction and walked forward.

But...

After walking for a while.

“Thud!”

Something hit the ground heavily.

Then, something seemed to start moving in the black fog ahead. As the thing changed its position, the black fog moved along with it.

But...

The strange thing was that there was no fluctuation of Qi of Heaven and Earth on that thing.

Feeling doubtful...

Fang Qiu tried to get closer.

But after just two steps...

“Boom!”

A terrifying sound suddenly could be heard.

It felt like someone was smashing an enormous hammer at him.

Fang Qiu subconsciously took a few steps back.

Just as he withdrew...

“Bang!”

A loud explosion was heard.

There...

In the thick black fog before him, a huge statue appeared. The thing that pounded heavily at him was its fist.

Judging from the dark figure in the black fog, he estimated that the statue was at least ten meters tall. Its basketball-size fist looked exceedingly terrifying.

“A moving statue?”

When he saw the statue, Fang Qiu was stunned.

This was a stone statue carved out of stone. How could it move?

In particular...

The stone statue looked huge but was quite flexible with very strong offensive power. When its fist hit the ground, it easily made a hole. It gave off spine-chilling vibes.

“Maybe, it’s like the wooden puppets of the Mo Group in the Huaxia relic?”

Fang Qiu thought to himself, ready to take action.

Right at this moment...

He heard heavy fists moving at the same time from both sides.

“More?”

Fang Qiu’s face changed, and he quickly stepped back.

Sure enough...

Two stone sculptures loomed on each side.

These three stone statues were identical in height, size, and strength, and had the same mode of attack!

They missed their target.

As if they could see Fang Qiu’s position, the three stone statues were not hindered by the black fog and swiftly came forward to surround Fang Qiu.

Aside...

Fang Qiu used his Divine Consciousness to check around. After he was sure that no one was around, he immediately took action. Without mercy, he directly smashed all three stone statues. One of them even shattered into countless pieces.

Right after he shattered the three stone sculptures...

Fang Qiu began to start to look around thoroughly for any clues.

But after searching for a long time, he couldn’t find any jade stone that he thought could activate these statues!

“No?”

Fang Qiu was even more curious.

What could provide the stone statues with the Qi of Heaven and Earth other than the jade?

There was no hint of Qi of Heaven and Earth on the statue, but without it, they couldn't move around.

Then, how could the stone statues move without the jade which provided the Qi of Heaven and Earth?

He made a thorough sweep of these pieces again.

After making sure that nothing there had the Qi of Heaven and Earth, Fang Qiu, filled with suspicion, continued to move forward.

One minute later...

Fang Qiu met another three moving stone statues.

Just like before...

After he checked that there was no one around, Fang Qiu defeated all of them and began to search carefully.

After searching for a long time, he gained no valuable clues.

Given this circumstance...

Fang Qiu couldn't help frowning deeply.

He kept thinking about what exactly was going on.

But after he pondered about it for a long time, he still couldn't figure it out!

Helplessly...

Fang Qiu could only continue to walk forward in a daze.

On his way...

"Pa, pa, pa..."

The sounds of fierce fighting suddenly could be heard.

A glimmer came into his eyes.

Fang Qiu approached the fighting scene at once.

Three more stone statues appeared before him. The one engaged in an intense battle against them was Andrew, the commander of Bloody Lion Mercenaries!

"Why is he here?"

Fang Qiu was visibly shocked.

"Didn't Andrew say he wouldn't participate in the competition for the relic and left early? Why was he here?"

Using his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu could clearly feel that Andrew was having a hard time as he struggled to deal with the three statues. He was about to collapse.

Medical Master

Chapter 1253: What Exactly Is This?

“Look out!”

Andrew, the commander of the Bloody Lion Mercenaries, hastily handled each challenge and retreated in defeat time and again in the face of the attacks from the three stone statues. Fang Qiu, seized by an impulse, shouted and rushed forward.

“Pow!”

Fang Qiu raised his fist and slammed it directly against the fist of the giant stone statue. A terrifying energy Qi instantly rippled in all directions from the point of impact.

Aside...

Andrew was almost out of breath as he dealt with his enemies' ceaseless attacks. He used this opportunity and took a few steps back to rest and recover a little, regardless of whether the newcomer was a friend or foe.

Ahead of them...

Fang Qiu fought with all his strength and crushed all three stone statues as rapidly as before.

After this clean sweep...

Fang Qiu went over to Andrew.

Only then did Andrew get a glimpse of Fang Qiu.

“Well Known?”

Andrew was surprised the moment he recognized Fang Qiu.

“How did you get in?”

Fang Qiu asked bluntly without hesitation, “Didn’t you leave early with your men? How could you be here?”

“Some people brought us in.”

Andrew said.

“Oh?”

Fang Qiu’s eyebrows lifted and he asked, “Were there others besides your Bloody Lion Mercenaries?”

“All the individual cultivators arrived here too.”

Andrew nodded and added, “We were on our way to leave, but those individual cultivators came halfway there and ambushed us. Later, another pack of independent cultivators ran into us. After they successfully mediated for us, they told us they had a way to enter the ruin and the treasure map. They could take us with them to search for treasures, but the premise was that we should be united because we had no guru.”

“Individual cultivators?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

“How could there be another group of individual cultivators?”

“Yes.”

Andrew spoke with a nod, “The cultivators in this pack didn’t tell us their names or which countries they came from, and they didn’t look familiar. Yet, they had a treasure map. After they entered the relic, they took us into the pyramid and passed quickly through the maze. But as soon as we were out of the maze, we accidentally walked into the black fog. I felt my way forward and reached this place and did not see anyone else along the way.”

“Something’s wrong.”

When Fang Qiu heard his tale, he immediately shook his head and said, “Individual cultivators who possessed the treasure map would be only too anxious to take all the treasures for themselves. Why would they bring all of you in?”

“I had the same feeling.”

Andrew nodded in agreement and said, “But when we saw that they knew how to tackle the problems, we believed them.”

Fang Qiu’s eyebrows furrowed.

It seemed that...

This matter was anything but simple.

Fang Qiu stepped forward as he mulled over this.

“Wait.”

Andrew quickly stood up and said, “I’ll go with you. The black fog has blurred my vision, so I can’t see the surroundings. It’s too dangerous to go alone. It’s safer for us to go together.”

“Um.”

Fang Qiu nodded assent.

After that...

They walked forward together.

As they walked, they were constantly vigilant of their surroundings.

On their way...

“Clap, clap, clap...”

A burst of loud fighting could be heard

“Some people are there?”

Andrew asked at once.

“Shh!”

Fang Qiu silenced him with a gesture and whispered, “Let’s wait and see.”

Just after that...

A few words floated to them from the battlefield ahead.

Some people were talking in the Huaxia language!

“Huaxia people?”

Andrew asked in a low voice.

“Let’s go.”

When he discovered that Huaxia people were engaged in the battle ahead, Fang Qiu immediately darted forth to join them and asked in the Huaxia language, “Who attacked you?”

“Someone from Egyptt.”

A response came from the battlefield.

Fang Qiu rushed up at once.

Andrew followed at Fang Qiu’s heels.

“Rahman.”

Just after Fang Qiu entered the battlefield, he sensed that someone had launched a fierce attack on the two Huaxia people.

Fang Qiu took a closer look and saw a sharp spear piercing through the fog before him. Instantly, he knew it was the Egyptt guru.

“You?”

Andrew’s eyes instantly turned bloodshot with anger when he spotted the spear.

He had distinct memories of the tragic experience he had suffered outside: how the Egyptt guru nearly killed him. He couldn't take this lying down, but he was not strong enough to avenge himself.

But now...

His opportunity had arrived.

So what if he was a guru? Even a guru couldn't see what was taking place in the dense black fog, which was equivalent to losing sight.

And this battle was four against one. The Egyptt guru would suffer severely even if he survived.

"Get rid of him!"

Andrew roared.

"Attack together!"

Fang Qiu echoed his shout.

At this time, he could not reveal his true strength.

More and more strange things happened in this relic. There might be a big conspiracy behind the scenes. Fang Qiu knew that the people who hid behind the scenes must have been observing all the people who entered the relic. Thus, he had to keep his power under wraps when he counterattacked, especially when those behind the scenes showed up. If he exposed his full capabilities early, it would attract their attention and worsen the situation.

"It's you?"

When he heard Fang Qiu and Andrew talking, Rahman, the Egyptt guru, also instantly recognized them. He immediately sneered and said, “Since you have come to me, don’t think about going back alive!”

He ended his speech...

Incomparably mighty Qi power erupted from him as he charged madly at his four enemies.

Here...

The four joined forces.

Under the cover of the black fog, everyone fought with great care. With Fang Qiu’s help in secret, they managed to dodge all attacks from Rahman and even succeeded in attacking him relentlessly.

The two Huaxia people found a chance to use their concealed weapons.

Rahman fired, and Fang Qiu was also busy — he found the right opportunity and wielded his Great Hand of Destruction. Strikes from all directions were directed swiftly at Rahman.

Rahman, a guru, successfully fended off their attacks but was too busy to attack actively.

More importantly...

Fang Qiu issued the commands in the Huaxia language, which Rahman didn’t understand. So, the four could swiftly change their positions — as they approached and retreated flexibly, which left Rahman with no chance to press forward his assault!

In this case, anger and grievance welled up in Rahman’s heart.

After holding on for five minutes, Rahman couldn’t stand it anymore and eventually snapped; he threw away the long spear in his hand. In the darkness, it dashed around and stabbed wildly in all directions.

Meanwhile, he produced an electrifying burst of speed that only a guru could process and struck out wildly.

Under these conditions...

Fang Qiu could only tell everyone to retreat instantly.

Even so, they still suffered some minor injuries. After all, the outbreak of a guru was too fierce for them to bear. They were already lucky enough to be able to withdraw safely.

The four people retreated.

Rahman searched for a long time but could not sense the four people's auras. Then he turned around and left in a rage.

Behind him...

After they retreated, Fang Qiu and the other three concealed their auras and began to heal their wounds.

The three wounds on the back of his hand made by the Murica guru had healed. But this time, Rahman's long spear left a cut on Fang Qiu's forearm. This cut healed very quickly, but during the recovery process, Fang Qiu sensed that something in the black fog crept into him through it.

This was the second time he felt this sort of sensation.

"What the hell was it?"

Fang Qiu thoroughly examined his body but found nothing unusual.

When the cut healed, Fang Qiu spotted two wisps of faint black substances in his body, to his surprise.

One had been there for some time, while the other was slowly drifting toward the first.

“What’s this?”

Fang Qiu instantly decided to check it out.

As a result, he found that the two black strands were slowly absorbing his internal Qi. Meanwhile, they were splitting apart. Although at a languid pace, the process was ongoing.

He struck upon a bright idea.

Fang Qiu immediately activated his internal Qi in an attempt to expel the two black strands, but no matter how hard he tried, they stubbornly remained where they were.

A plan occurred to him.

Fang Qiu got up immediately, stopped before a man from Huaxia, and said, “Let me check on the condition of your injuries.”

After that...

Fang Qiu grabbed the man’s hand and transferred the internal Qi into his body.

The man knew Fang Qiu was John Doe, but when his internal Qi entered his body, it immediately caused the instinctive resistance of the internal Qi in his body.

However, his internal Qi was too weak to withstand the impact caused by Fang Qiu.

Not surprisingly...

As Fang Qiu's internal Qi moved, it instantly dispersed the resistant internal Qi inside the man's body.

"How vigorous his internal Qi is."

When he sensed Fang Qiu's internal Qi, the man was secretly startled.

Here...

After transferring his internal Qi, Fang Qiu quickly noticed the same substance in this person's body, but it was no longer a thin thread in his body. Instead, it had condensed into a small ball.

Like the black traces inside Fang Qiu's body, this small ball of black substance was slowly absorbing his Qi. Its size increased gradually, albeit slowly.

When he perceived this, Fang Qiu immediately mobilized his internal Qi and tried to detoxify it for him.

But it didn't work at all!

No matter how hard Fang Qiu tried to flush it away, this tiny lump of the black matter was unaffected at all!

This bizarre situation...

Fang Qiu couldn't help frowning.

"What the hell was this?"

"Why was it so difficult to get rid of?"

“And currently, it is still so small. If it grew without hindrance, it would be hard to imagine what it will look like when it becomes bigger.

“Perhaps...Can it absorb nutrients from the human body like a parasite?”

Fang Qiu thought long and hard.

He breathed in heavily, a solemn expression on his face.

This black substance should not be something good.

“After getting out of the black fog, I must study it carefully. I can’t just ignore it!”

As he said that...

Fang Qiu stood up.

“What’s wrong?”

“Did you find something?”

The two people before him asked.

“Nothing serious.”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

It was not the right time to talk about this now. If he did, it would only make everyone panic.

“Let’s go. We should think of a way to get out of this black fog first.”

Fang Qiu called out and led the three people forward.

Along the way...

From time to time, giant stone statues appeared to attack the four of them. By working together, the group repulsed their continuous attacks. In these battles, Fang Qiu handled most of the statues, and the others barely made any mentionable contributions.

After defeating three groups of stone statues in a row, Andrew, the commander of Bloody Lion Mercenaries, viewed Fang Qiu in a new and more favorable light.

He was a ninth-class strength cultivator. On the surface, Fang Qiu had the same strength as him.

He could barely ward off blows from the three stone statues, but Fang Qiu managed to defeat three groups of stone statues on his own!

That was simply impressive!

Medical Master

Chapter 1254: Seventh in the Heaven Treasure List!

They defeated the stone statues.

The group of four moved ahead, led by Fang Qiu.

“When will we ever be able to walk out of this black fog?”

Behind Fang Qiu, there came a complaint.

“I can’t see anything, but things keep popping up. We’ll be completely worn out if we go on like this, that is if the things inside don’t beat us to death first.”

“The most terrible thing is if we can’t even find the exit now!”

The two Huaxia people became more and more flustered as they talked about their present situation.

Andrew felt the same way.

Ordinary people had been dependent on their sense of sight for years. When they had to fight in such a strange place where nothing was visible, they would inevitably feel uneasy and tense no matter how strong they were.

Anyone who had experienced long periods of tension was more likely to become agitated and angry and develop other negative emotions.

If it hadn’t been for his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu would have felt the same way as them.

“All of you relax.”

Fang Qiu spoke to appease them, “We have stayed in the fog for such a long time, but we’re fine, aren’t we? Besides, since we’ve walked for so long, we should be out soon. Don’t be too anxious!”

When the other three people heard that...

They felt slightly relieved.

The group pushed on.

As he walked, Fang Qiu released his Divine Consciousness to probe the surroundings.

Abruptly...

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu paused.

When he used his Divine Consciousness to scan the surroundings, he clearly sensed something unusual in the Qi of Heaven and Earth before them. It seemed that a natural stream of energy fluctuated and spread unceasingly.

Fang Qiu felt there could be a Heaven and Earth Treasure!

“There’s something ahead. Follow me closely.”

Fang Qiu shouted, moved aside, and quickly darted out, with the other three following close at his heels.

Fang Qiu’s Divine Consciousness could cover a vast area. This time, the unusual movement of Qi of Heaven and Earth he sensed was about 40 kilometers away. As a result, they went forward for quite a long time.

“It’s right ahead.”

After countless turns and straight roads, Fang Qiu felt that the fluctuation of Qi of Heaven and Earth was getting closer and closer, and he sped up.

Abruptly...

“Bang!”

As he leaped forward, Fang Qiu felt he had bumped into something and broken it. In his heart, he sensed something breaking through the water’s surface.

In front of him, the darkness vanished.

Instead, they entered a bright area.

“Finally, we’re out.”

Fang Qiu smiled.

Beside him...

For a few moments, the three people who followed him here didn’t know what had happened. Everything around glowed richly, and the thick black fog that enveloped them had disappeared entirely. When they saw this, their eyes opened wide in wonderment.

Subconsciously...

The four of them turned their heads around as soon as they rushed out.

“Eh?”

The moment they looked back, they were stunned.

Behind them was a very long passage. The black fog that had trapped them for a long time was nowhere to be found.

This scene was something unexpected.

The four of them were shocked.

“Strange, where was that black fog?”

“Behind us?”

Confused, one of them stepped forward, ready to return to where he had just come out from, for he wanted to see if the black fog was still there.

“Watch out!”

Fang Qiu opened his mouth to stop him, “It was not easy to come out of the fog. Don’t go back. One step backward, and you may appear somewhere else and can’t get out easily.”

The man heard this.

Hurriedly, he withdrew his foot that he had stretched out.

“Let’s go ahead and take a look.”

Fang Qiu turned his head and looked ahead.

When the scenery ahead came into view, the four couldn’t help but widen their eyes in astonishment.

Before them...

It was an enormous palace!

Unlike the previous black fog, this palace, thickly studded with legendary luminous pearls, dazzled with brilliance and appeared extremely luxurious.

Overall, this palace was a classical tower-type Egyptt palace, glorious and majestic at first sight.

They took a closer look.

There was a pool in front of the palace.

Right now...

All four of them concentrated on the pool.

The eyes of the four, including Fang Qiu's, sparkled with excitement.

It was because...

There was actually a Heaven Treasure in the pool!

Right now...

The Heaven Treasure emitted a layer of seven-colored brilliance, which looked extremely dazzling.

The central part of the Heaven Treasure was a peculiar small tree, similar to a tower with seven floors. The bottom layer was composed of four leaves, which took up an area about the size of a palm. Above this layer were also four leaves, which took up a smaller total area.

In this way, the leaves decreased from four to three when it came to the third layer. At the top, three leaves smaller than ants formed a tender peak.

“Seven-storey Tower!”

When Fang Qiu saw this Heaven Treasure, he couldn’t help exclaiming in delight.

Its name immediately appeared in his mind: Seven-storey Tower, which ranked seventh in the Heaven Treasure List!

Besides Fang Qiu...

When they saw the Seven-storey Tower, the two Huaxia people next to Fang Qiu and Andrew started breathing quickly. They could clearly sense the rich Qi of Heaven and Earth near the Seven-storey Tower. Although they didn’t know what it was, they could feel from the Qi of Heaven and Earth that this Heaven Treasure was definitely not ordinary!

Meanwhile...

“Boh, boh, boh...”

A series of sounds came.

Around Fang Qiu and the other three, those people trapped by the black fog like them popped up one after another.

Fang Qiu looked around.

He frowned, not because these people suddenly appeared to grab the treasure, but because he saw at a glance that a few people were missing.

It seemed that they had disappeared into the black fog.

When Fang Qiu turned around to observe them...

All these people's eyes were focused on the Seven-storey Tower in the pool!

They looked at the Seven-storey Tower.

Everyone's eyes lit up.

All of them flushed red with excitement and breathed heavily.

The few gurus were especially thrilled, for they were very aware of the value of this Heaven Treasure. It was of great use, even for them.

But...

In an overwhelming sense of excitement...

Everyone was very vigilant and kept an eye out for the others.

"Patter."

Suddenly, another man took the first step forward and approached the Seven-storey Tower, one step at a time.

Everyone was extremely careful.

No one dared to walk fast. The black fog made them suffer a lot. Although this place was bright, no one knew if something would appear.

Therefore, no one dared to speed up.

“Let’s go.”

As the others began to gather around the Seven-storey Tower, Fang Qiu also notified the others and stepped out.

Right now...

When the team led by Luoyun took the initiative to come up to them, the two Huaxia people who followed Fang Qiu returned to them. But Andrew followed Fang Qiu all the time.

As they walked forward...

The light of desire in everyone’s eyes became more intense.

It was obvious...

Everyone could see that the Seven-storey Tower was ripe!

Therefore, even in the face of unknown risks, no one was willing to stop.

On the way forward...

Fang Qiu carefully observed these people.

After a round of observation, he saw that these people were covered with blood. Everyone seemed to have been injured.

This situation made Fang Qiu frown secretly.

If they were all wounded, that strange black substance must have entered everyone's bodies.

"Why would everyone get hurt?"

"And we all had only minor injuries?"

"These minor injuries seemed to be there for this black matter?"

Fang Qiu thought for a while.

His frown grew deeper.

Just then...

Abruptly...

"Swoosh!"

The person who walked at the forefront suddenly leaped up and raced toward the Seven-storey Tower, ready to grab it.

Although the person was the closest to the target, he was slower than the others. In an instant, the other latecomers caught up with him before he reached the edge of the pool. At that moment, he was overtaken and kicked down.

The next moment...

Several people rushed to the pool at the same time.

Without hesitation, these people reached out to take the Seven-storey Tower in the pool.

Just as they made their moves simultaneously...

Their faces sank, and they started assaulting the people beside them, as they attempted to force them away and take the Seven-storey Tower for themselves.

Unfortunately, the others were no slouches, either.

In an instant, the few people got into a ferocious battle.

While these people were fighting fiercely, successive waves of people behind them came up. The crowd who caught up from behind ignored those engaged in the fight and threw themselves forward to take the Seven-storey Tower.

Unexpectedly...

Before they could get closer, these people who were fighting fiercely with each other instantly turned around and jointly attacked them.

No matter who it was, even the few gurus could barely touch the Seven-storey Tower.

Under these circumstances...

They had been engaged in an increasingly bitter battle. Some people fought desperately, their eyes bloodshot, to get the Seven-story Tower, but they were not strong enough to gain the upper hand. Some people rushed up with their mouths wide open, ready to gulp it down. However, without exception, they were all stopped.

The majority of them were locked in a tangled fight...

When he saw that the fierce battle wouldn't end in a short time, Fang Qiu had no choice but to quickly stop and quietly hide aside.

The competition at this time was a waste of physical strength.

It was better to stand at one side and wait for the last opportunity to fight.

In another place...

The few gurus who were stopped also stepped aside. No one made a move, and they just watched the fierce battle that took place in the center of the field. But whenever someone reached the Seven-storey Tower, they would do something to stop him.

Over there...

Fang Qiu was trying his best to hide from the few gurus and did not even step in to stop the others. He didn't seem in the least concerned that the Seven-storey Tower would be taken away by others.

After all, he was now Well Known, not John Doe!

While Fang Qiu remained under cover...

He was always on his guard.

Judging from what had happened from the beginning to the end, he deduced that this place must have been here for at least two or three thousand years if it had been a Pharaoh relic in ancient Egyptt.

In other words, this Seven-storey Tower had also been here for two to three thousand years.

It was impossible for the Seven-storey Tower to have only matured once in the past two to three thousand years. It must have matured many times as time passed. Nobody knew how many times this Seven-storey Tower had ripened through the years.

In this case...

There must have been lots of batches of Seven-storey Towers that had continuously matured in the past two to three thousand years. But where were they?

From where Fang Qiu was, he could plainly see that the pool was empty, with nothing on the ground around it.

“Then, those mature Seven-storey Towers...

“Who... ate them?”

Medical Master

Chapter 1255: A King Cobra!!!

“Clap, clap, clap...”

Sounds of the fierce fighting rang continuously in Fang Qiu’s ears.

He took a closer look.

These people around the pool with the Seven-storey Tower fought frantically and ferociously as they struck out at each other. Even though many people were injured, they would continue to rush toward the Seven-storey Tower as if they were possessed.

The longer they fought, the more exhausted the people became.

The strong desire in their hearts braced them up as they repeatedly flew at the Seven-storey Tower, regardless of their injuries. To them, as long as they could get the Seven-storey Tower and eat it, their conditions would take a favorable turn, and their strength would significantly increase.

Hope was right in front of everyone.

For this hope, they were willing to risk their lives!

A few minutes later...

A crowd of injured people pounced on the Seven-storey Tower together. The few people who still had some strength quickly stopped fighting with each other and turned to stop those people who constantly rushed over.

Unfortunately, there were too many people.

They could defend against ten but not twenty!

The time was right.

“Whiz!”

Rahman, the Egyptt guru, who had remained stationary, suddenly shot forward with an electrifying burst of speed, which left only his shadow behind. The terrifying momentum of a guru erupted from his body and sent all the people next to the pool flying back into the air. Then he reached out to grab the Seven-storey Tower in the pool!

The moment Rahman moved to get it...

“Whiz!”

With a flick of his wrist, Luoyun unsheathed his sword. Like a sharp sword, he charged forward, bringing with him a stream of peerlessly sharp Sword Qi as he flashed aside Rahman to thrust the sword at him!

Meanwhile...

The gurus from Murica, Rashk, Anglan, and L'hexagone attacked simultaneously.

It seemed that the four countries were on the same side, but their gurus would directly strike their allies without hesitation when it came to the critical moment of fighting for benefits. They all wanted to take the Seven-storey Tower for themselves!

Not only the gurus from the four countries...

It was the same for Francis and Mousolini, who had joined forces.

In a twinkling...

Eight gurus rushed to the pool at the same time and collided fiercely with each other.

Aside, those people who had been sent flying still wanted to rush forward to grab it. However, after they ventured a few steps ahead, they were sent flying again by the powerful energy Qi emitted by the eight gurus during their fight with each other!

Many people vomited blood under the impact.

The excruciating pain finally brought them to their senses.

These eight people were all gurus.

How could they snatch the Heaven Treasure from these eight gurus?

Notably...

These eight gurus were serious about this.

They were practically going all out to get the Seven-storey Tower.

Given these circumstances, they were headed for their doom if they rushed up again.

As the collisions among the eight gurus became increasingly intense, all kinds of energy Qi spread in all directions, which forced the people around to retreat repeatedly.

Instantly...

“Strange.”

Fang Qiu, who hid at the edge, had been observing his surroundings with painstaking care. Also, he had covered the entire space with his Divine Consciousness, but he didn’t notice any unusual movements.

Generally speaking...

There should be Guardian beasts around the Heaven Treasures.

Moreover, this one before them was a super Heaven Treasure which ranked seventh!

Most importantly, in the past two or three thousand years, the mature Heaven Treasures were nowhere to be found, which meant that there must be something in this space.

However, his Divine Consciousness didn’t detect anything. This was truly weird.

“Is there really nothing else?”

Fang Qiu’s eyes swept around the place thoroughly.

After making sure there was nothing particular around, he looked up at the magnificent palace.

The palace was like a castle, with three triangle towers like Egyptt pyramids on top.

Right now...

Everyone was inside the patio of the palace.

On both sides were pillars engraved with many pictographic murals. They were fatter in the middle and thinner at the end. At the top of each stone pillar was a stone basin that one could just get one's arms around it. Fang Qiu had no idea what they were used for.

Before the pond where the Seven-storey Tower grew were only four steps. Up these steps was a wide path paved with stones used to construct the pyramid. It led directly into the palace.

The palace had no gate.

Fang Qiu could see the situation inside at a glance.

Because Fang Qiu had been looking around, he didn't carefully study the palace's interior.

With this chance...

Fang Qiu looked up.

There...

Other than a few luminous pearls, there wasn't anything else in the palace. Like the outside, there were many stone pillars on both sides of the palace hall. Among those stone pillars on the right side lay a stone sculpture that looked like a coiled dragon.

Somehow...

The floor of the palace hall was thickly covered with many broken pieces of what seemed to be rocks.

“Nothing.”

Fang Qiu frowned.

He didn't detect any energy aura there — there was nothing in the palace's hall either.

At this time...

At the edge of the pool...

The eight gurus were locked in a tangled fight. Among the fierce collisions, a huge explosion was heard. Then the seven of them were instantly pushed far away by this powerful force.

There was only one person near the pool!

Fang Qiu took a closer look.

Surprisingly, that person was none other than the Murica guru, a descendant of Vampires!

Instantly...

Everyone's eyes narrowed sharply!

Fang Qiu's heart was instantly filled with anxiety. He mobilized his internal Qi and decided not to hide his strength anymore. He had to get the Seven-storey Tower first.

Over there...

The Murica guru was stunned for a moment. Then, with a look of ecstasy on his face, he reached out to seize the Seven-storey Tower.

Everyone felt a prickle of disquiet.

Right at this moment...

"ROARRR..."

Abruptly...

A deafening howl rang out.

A stream of powerful energy Qi, which was as thick as a bucket, suddenly rushed over from afar. Like a bolt of lightning, the unparalleled powerful energy Qi flashed before the Murica guru in a second. It slashed at his back, which sent him flying instantly.

This sudden scene stunned everyone present.

Fang Qiu quickly turned to look.

There...

A huge, triangular-shaped head with a wide-open mouth appeared at the palace entrance before the pool. There was a sharp horn growing above its head!

Everyone turned to look at it.

When the giant snake closed its mouth, the incomparably powerful energy Qi that had sent the Murica guru flying dissipated in an instant.

Upon closer inspection, Fang Qiu found that below its head, the snake was golden in color, the same color as the floor.

It was that stone sculpture in the palace!

Right now...

The enormous snake, with its long, statue-like body, slithered outside.

With every movement it took, cracks appeared on its statue-like body. Through those cracks, one could see that the giant snake was pulling rapidly away from its cracked skin.

By the time it stripped off the skin, the enormous snake had already wound its way out of the palace. At present, it coiled itself up on the large open space in front of the palace entrance. Slowly, it raised its head. When it abruptly hissed, the place near its head where its heart was suddenly became hollow.

Seeing this...

Many people paled with fear.

Some weaker ones freaked out completely and even wet themselves!

“A cobra, a king cobra!”

“I’m a dead man. We’re done. How could there be such an enormous cobra?”

“I don’t want to die. I want to live.”

Some people even howled in fear.

This king cobra was excessively huge.

Not to mention them...

Even Fang Qiu and the eight gurus were petrified.

But...

There was a difference between them.

The eight gurus and other people were astonished at its enormous size, but Fang Qiu was attracted by something else.

That was the king cobra’s abdomen.

Above its abdomen, Fang Qiu spotted four protruding bumps that looked like claws that hadn’t been fully formed!

“Is it still a snake?”

Fang Qiu was secretly shocked.

At this moment, he finally understood why pieces of broken stones were strewn all over the palace. He had thoroughly searched around with his Divine Consciousness but perceived no aura. Why did it only appear when the Seven-storey Tower was about to be taken away?

All of this was because it was a snake!

Judging from how the king cobra slid out of the palace, he knew it wasn't sealed in the stone sculpture. Instead, the thing that looked like a piece of carved stone was actually its snake slough!

Why couldn't his Divine Consciousness detect any aura at all? It was because this king cobra evolved by using this form of hibernation!

Snakes were cold-blooded animals. Once they entered into a hibernation phase, they would become cold without any heat. In addition, the Qi of Heaven and Earth in its body would completely be suppressed, unlike the Qi of Heaven and Earth that floated about. Thus, Fang Qiu failed to discern it in the beginning.

But...

Apparently...

This king cobra must have been evolving for a long time. It was aware when everyone came in. Yet, it didn't show up because it was waiting for the evolution to be complete.

Just now...

When the Murica guru was about to pick up the Seven-storey Tower, it had to arouse itself from its hibernation. After blasting the Murica guru into the air, it forcibly removed its snake slough and completed this evolution!

"If this Seven-storey Tower ripens once in a hundred years, this king cobra must have taken in at least dozens of them. If it had not forced the closure of the evolution and evolved for a longer period, the bulges on its abdomen would turn into more apparent claws. If it evolved again, I'm afraid it will turn into a flood dragon!"

Fang Qiu was secretly shocked.

Over there...

The king cobra was entrenched on the open ground as it raised its head high and cast an indifferent glance at the crowd. In its eyes, these people were no different from ants.

It looked down upon all of them, including these gurus!

They saw the king cobra's disdainful look.

Everyone on the scene was even more shocked. The eight gurus looked at each other and nodded secretly, ready to fight at any time.

But the king cobra...

After it glanced at everyone in a casual and disdainful manner, it fixed its eyes on the Seven-storey Tower in the pool that shone with such a colorful light.

The king cobra's tongue flicked out quickly a few times.

Its eyes glittered with greed — it wanted to eat the Seven-storey Tower!

"If it devours this Seven-storey Tower, it might instantly transform into a flood dragon!"

Fang Qiu was secretly taken aback.

Over there...

Luo Yun hurriedly warned everyone loudly. “We can’t let it eat the Seven-storey Tower; otherwise, all of us will die here!”

The other gurus also understood what he meant.

They didn’t dare to hesitate and exerted every ounce of their energy to attack it.

Over there...

“ROAARRR...”

The king cobra suddenly opened its mouth and roared at everyone. Then, it tilted its huge head forward and slithered rapidly toward the Seven-storey Tower!

Medical Master

Chapter 1256: He’s John Doe!

“Rustle...”

The king cobra’s massive body rubbed against the ground as it darted swiftly toward the Seven-storey Tower in the pool. Within seconds it arrived at the pool.

It opened its mouth and immediately leaned forward to swallow the Seven-storey Tower.

Abruptly...

“Kill!”

An earth-shattering scream suddenly rang out. A beam of golden light shot out and flashed through the air with an ear-piercing sound. Like a sharp arrow that could penetrate everything, it instantly rushed toward the head of the giant king cobra and brutally aimed for its eyes.

They took a closer look.

That golden light was the spear from the Egyptt guru!

The golden light reached it quickly.

The king cobra, sensing the threat, abruptly withdrew its mouth which was close to the Seven-storey Tower. Once again, it raised its head high.

“Sizzle!”

The sound of metal colliding could be heard.

Under everyone’s gazes, the long golden spear wrapped up in energy forcefully hit the scales on the corner of the king cobra’s mouth. As a result, a burst of sparks appeared, and the long golden spear was directly knocked away. When they looked back at the scales of the king cobra, there was not even a scratch on them!

This scene shocked them to the core.

This was not the end.

The moment the golden spear was sent flying, the other seven gurus took action in unison.

Luoyun sent forth the sharp Sword Qi. As Mousolini fired, his rifle shot out bullets enveloped in energy with mighty penetrating power. The Murica guru swung a blood ball with a powerful aura. A virid longbow emerged out of the void above Francis’s hands, and he immediately let fly a long pointed arrow that was vivid green all over. In the hands of the Anglan guru was a sharp pink chain. With a wave of his hand, the L'hexagone guru launched two cards wrapped in a black aura and a figure.

The Rashk guru transformed into a werewolf in an instant. He was so fast that he could catch up with the weapons launched by the six gurus and rushed up to attack the king cobra together with them. He unsheathed his long sharp claws and scratched the giant king cobra.

“Pa...”

All of the attacks landed on the same point.

There was a mighty bang.

Immediately, the enormous body of the king cobra was pushed back and wobbled several times before it stood upright again.

“Roar!”

The king cobra was furious and roared wildly at everyone.

It whipped its thick tail violently, which sent the Rashk guru, who had rushed up to it after transforming into a werewolf, flying. With a loud crash, he was slammed into the rock wall and made a big hole in the fairly rigid rock wall!

But it was not over.

After it sent the werewolf flying, the king cobra turned its head and suddenly darted at the Rashk guru, who had just been smashed into the rock wall by it. Like when it first appeared, it shot a stream of energy Qi as thick as a bucket out of its mouth, which hit the Rashk guru instantly.

This scene frightened everyone.

How could the fierce attacks of the eight gurus not affect the giant snake?

Their attacks merely shook the snake a few times and didn't even break its scales!

How could they win the battle?

"ROAR!"

A growl came.

After it sent the Rashk guru flying, the king cobra immediately turned its head and whipped out its tail. Its exceedingly long body immediately swept toward the seven gurus.

Instantly...

Many people had already fled in panic as they tried to leave this damned place.

In the crowd...

Fang Qiu had been observing the lower abdomen of the king cobra.

"A serpent that will soon transform into a flood dragon will be a real challenge."

Seeing that the attacks of the eight gurus were futile, Fang Qiu couldn't help sighing in his heart. Then he narrowed his eyes and murmured, "I was right. You must have forcibly interrupted your evolution. Otherwise, you would have already eaten the ripened Seven-storey Tower. When you were evolving, you sensed that someone was about to snatch the Seven-storey Tower, so you took the initiative to stop the evolution procedure."

“Animals are like humans. Once they forcibly stop the cultivation at the critical moment, they will inevitably suffer a backlash, let alone this king cobra which was already on the path to becoming a flood dragon.”

“There must be a flaw.”

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu excitedly shifted his eyes to the giant snake’s lower abdomen near its tail.

He knew that the snake slough was the entire layer of skin that came off its body and the key part was at the snake’s tail. Its evolution would be complete only when all the skin, including the skin on its tail, fell off naturally.

If the evolution had been forcibly interrupted, the snake tail that hadn’t yet been fully transformed would suffer from injuries!

Under these circumstances...

The snake’s tail must be its weak point.

“Hmm?”

Sure enough...

Fang Qiu observed the snake for a while. When the giant snake swept its tail across the seven gurus, he saw a transparent scale that was located about four or five meters away from its lower abdomen to its tail.

The snake scale had not transformed fully yet.

In other words, that snake scale must be the weakest and softest part of its body!

With that in mind...

Fang Qiu no longer hesitated.

“Swoosh!”

With a slight shift, he directly rushed toward the giant snake attacking the eight gurus. As he leaped into the air, he clenched his right hand and formed his Divine Sword instantly.

He looked over.

The eight gurus were so busy dodging the attack that they didn’t notice Fang Qiu at all.

Instead, on the other side...

When the four special envoys from the four great countries saw the Divine Sword taking form in Fang Qiu’s hand, their eyes widened in shock.

“John Doe?”

“He is John Doe!”

Hearing the shout, the people around immediately turned to look at Fang Qiu.

In midair...

“Three-point Shadowless Sword!”

Fang Qiu slashed at the transparent scale below its lower abdomen when the giant snake swept its tail out.

Because this attack was a complete surprise, the serpent didn't have time to avoid it and was cut by the Sword Qi which erupted from Fang Qiu's Divine Sword.

"Pfft!"

As the Sword Qi slashed at the snake scale, it instantly shattered.

"Roar!"

The moment the scale broke, the king cobra swiftly turned its head and pounced on Fang Qiu in anger, its mouth wide open.

It moved extremely fast.

Fang Qiu diverted its attention, so the eight gurus could finally escape from the king cobra's attack range.

They turned around.

To their astonishment, Fang Qiu had smashed the snake scale.

This scene shocked the seven gurus, except for Luoyun. No one had expected that Well Known was John Doe from Huaxia!

Instantly...

“Whoosh.”

After Fang Qiu cracked its scale, the giant snake coiled its body and wrapped itself around the pool with the Seven-storey Tower, and hid its broken scale.

When Fang Qiu saw it doing that...

He narrowed his eyes and said, “If you don’t want to die, throw in your whole might to fight it to death after I break its defense!”

With this...

Fang Qiu flew up in the air, surrounded by vibrant energy Qi, and looked like an omnipotent god of war!

The eight gurus heard that.

Without hesitation, Luoyun was the first to rush behind Fang Qiu, ready to support him at any time. Meanwhile, he could prevent others from secretly assaulting Fang Qiu.

The remaining seven gurus looked at each other and got into position instantly.

In the air...

“That scale was a soft spot. But since I could penetrate it with the Three-point Shadowless Sword, I may break the other scales. If one sword strike fails, I can do it twice!”

Fang Qiu made up his mind.

He knew that the king cobra would never expose its flaws, and the only chance was to attack it head-on.

Notably...

The king cobra wrapped itself around the pool to use its body as a line of defense. After it surrounded the pool and the Seven-storey Tower, its solid outer scales could block all the attacks and create a chance for it to swallow the Seven-storey Tower!

But would Fang Qiu let it do this?

Of course not!

Although Fang Qiu wanted to see a flood dragon with his own eyes, he knew that once the giant king cobra evolved into a flood dragon, everyone here would die, including himself.

So he couldn't wait!

"Three-point Shadowless Sword!"

Locking his eyes on a scale under which was the king cobra's heart, Fang Qiu launched another fierce attack without hesitation and slashed down hard.

As a result...

The king cobra ignored him and lowered its head, ready to swallow the Heaven Treasure.

His Sword Qi dropped downward.

"Boom!"

A loud bang rang out as the Sword Qi violently struck the scale. However, it did not cause any reaction.

Fang Qiu was anxious.

“Thunderbolt-absorbing Technique!”

With a wave of his long sword, a dazzling lightning bolt appeared. As Fang Qiu gathered the violent internal Qi in his body and wielded his Divine Sword, a huge bolt of astral energy erupted from his sword. At breakneck speed, it bombarded the same scale which protected the serpent’s heart.

After this stinging blow...

The king cobra’s huge body shook wildly.

The king cobra, about to bite the Seven-storey Tower, was pushed aside and missed its target.

However, it didn’t hesitate and lost no time in aiming for the Seven-storey Tower again.

“Damn it!”

“Tiangang Kills Demons!”

Fang Qiu bellowed angrily, knowing that he couldn’t delay any longer. He had to, first of all, stop the giant snake from swallowing the Heaven Treasure.

His bellow sounded.

A layer of terrifying and sharp astral energy from the sword burst out within a hundred meters.

“Boom!”

The endless astral energy of the sword whirled and formed a huge tornado. This extremely sharp astral energy of the Sword Qi then beat brutally against the serpent's body. At the same time, the tremendous rotating force made the serpent's body twist continuously.

As the appalling astral energy of the sword pulled violently against the giant snake, its body loosened a little.

"Roar!"

Once again, the king cobra failed to eat the Seven-storey Tower. In a rage, it raised its head and roared at Fang Qiu, who released a tornado of astral energy from the sword.

Just then...

"Great Hand of Destruction!"

Fang Qiu waved his left hand. In an instant, he gathered all the astral energy of the sword around him and slammed his palm strike toward the scale covering its heart.

This blow, which was as equivalent to thousands of sword attacks, hit that scale with a mighty thump.

The next moment...

"Crack!"

A crisp sound was heard.

Shockingly, a crack appeared on the scale.

Instantly...

“Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword!”

Fang Qiu held up the Divine Sword in his hand again, mustered all his internal Qi, and slashed at the scale.

At this very moment...

Everyone’s eyes widened as they stared at Fang Qiu in shock.

There...

Instantly, a beam of half-moon-shaped Sword Qi filled with a destructive aura flew out of the blade and slammed heavily into the cracked scale.

“Boom!”

It sounded like a loud explosion of fireworks.

Under the incredulous gazes of the eight gurus and before everyone’s shocked eyes, the half-moon-shaped Sword Qi cut into the giant snake, which brought up a tidal wave of blood that splattered into the air!

Medical Master

Chapter 1257: Fighting for the Heaven Treasure!

As soon as the scale was shattered, a jet of blood fiercely gushed out of the cut near its heart.

“Attack!”

Fang Qiu yelled abruptly.

Over at the side...

The eight gurus, who had been standing by immediately took action.

They exerted all their strength and madly bombarded the broken scale near the king cobra's heart.

The next moment...

"GRRRR..."

They all joined forces to strike the king cobra that was coiled around the pool. Immediately, it opened its mouth and roared wildly.

Its eyes were bright scarlet with frenzied rage!

"Don't stop. Keep on fighting!"

"Fight together!"

Fang Qiu shouted frantically as he brandished his sword to attract the king cobra's attention.

When they heard his shouts...

Besides the eight gurus, even those who hid and shivered in fear came out and started to attack the king cobra.

Because they were not strong enough, their sense of crisis was much higher than the eight gurus. Once they failed to kill the giant snake, they would die. The prospect of imminent death intimidated them greatly.

They didn't dare to hesitate in the slightest. Right after Fang Qiu shouted out loud, they went all out and charged at the giant snake.

Meanwhile...

Fang Qiu flashed aside to attract the king cobra's attention and quickly approached it.

"This fellow should be out of energy. Otherwise, it would have gone mad long ago!"

The furious python roared as it pounced and bit frantically. Seeing this, Fang Qiu suddenly had a brain wave and rushed toward the two unformed claws on its upper body.

In the meantime...

The king cobra's attention was concentrated on Fang Qiu because it knew only Fang Qiu could truly harm it!

Therefore, it made a series of lunges at Fang Qiu.

Though the king cobra's attacks were incredibly swift, Fang Qiu was faster!

In the blink of an eye, he rushed past the giant snake's mouth.

On the other side...

The eight gurus led the others to launch attacks centered around its heart.

Before long, they blew a hole in its body which did not have a scale to protect it!

Under their continuous and crazy attacks, cracks gradually spread on the scales around the hole. Its skin was about to split open soon.

The huge snake could no longer endure the pain inflicted by them, so it uncoiled its body that had been wrapped around the pool. Then, its long, thick body twisted violently as it swept and swung itself around continuously. It brutally sent those who did not have time to escape flying far away.

However...

As it swished its tail...

The Rashk guru, whom the king cobra had severely beaten up, turned into a werewolf again. As its tail swept over, he jumped on it and clung to it by hooking his sharp claws into the slits between its scales. Then he found an opportunity and thrust at the lower abdomen of the giant snake and aimed at the transparent scale which had been broken by Fang Qiu initially. He launched an all-out effort and crazily ripped out the flesh under that scale like a pangolin with sharp claws.

“GRRR...”

The giant snake lashed about and rapidly slid out. As it roared, it pounced on the people around it with its mouth wide open. Then it wrapped itself around the walls and stone pillars in an attempt to climb up as it tried to escape the attack range of the crowd.

In this condition...

High in the air, the serpent exerted a destructive force and shook off the Rashk guru, who had pierced his sharp claws into its flesh. He hit the ground heavily.

The large snake seemed to be set on its escape.

Everyone paused momentarily.

“Keep on striking it. John Doe is still up there!”

Luoyun shouted.

Everyone took a look.

Sure enough...

Fang Qiu was lying prone on the upper abdomen of the giant snake, as he crawled toward its pair of claws that had not fully evolved yet.

“Whiz!”

The sound of a sword rang out. Luoyun slashed down and released a ray of sword Qi.

After that...

All the people followed up with frenzied attacks.

They all aimed at the python’s heart.

At this time...

The giant serpent had already climbed to the very top of the resplendent and magnificent palace that surrounded the three towers.

“Purr...”

As he lay on the python’s belly, Fang Qiu distinctly heard a strange sound coming from within as if there was something surging inside.

“Look out!”

Fang Qiu was greatly alarmed and gave a loud yell.

His shout was heard.

“ROARRR...”

The furious giant snake suddenly straightened its upper body. As it opened its mouth, it spat out a thick stream of energy Qi. Filled with destructive and horrible energy Qi, it rushed down crazily from above.

When its head turned around, the powerful energy Qi that shot out of its mouth swept fast across this place like a beam of laser light.

“Rumble, rumble, rumble...”

“Crack!”

In a twinkling...

All the buildings before the palace collapsed from the impact, and created a huge mess!

Everyone dodged frantically.

But even with Fang Qiu's warning, many people were still sent flying by the energy Qi spat out by the giant snake. They were all seriously injured, though still alive!

Under the crazy counterattack of the giant snake, the eight gurus swiftly rose into the air and kept dodging.

Right at this moment...

Fang Qiu, who was lying on the python's upper abdomen, finally found a good chance and quickly dashed toward its two premature claws.

"Whiz!"

He brandished the Divine Sword in his hand.

A beam of shining Sword light flashed across and cut off the two half-grown claws.

This sword strike made two bloody gashes on the giant snake's abdomen.

When Fang Qiu cut open the snake's abdomen...

He thrust his long sword forcefully into the wound. Right after he gathered his internal Qi and injected it all into his Divine Sword, a wave of astral energy erupted from the sword. It twisted and ground the python's flesh into tiny pieces like a meat grinder!

"GRRR! GRRR!"

The excruciating pain stopped the giant snake from continuing its assault on the others and stimulated it to slither about wildly again, in an attempt to get rid of Fang Qiu.

Right then...

All the eight gurus rushed up and attacked the python by continuously hitting the two bloody cuts on its abdomen made by Fang Qiu.

This time, no one held back.

They clung tightly to the python and tore pieces of its flesh from the two wounds that dripped with blood.

Finally, half an hour later...

Under the joint attack of all the people, the part of the body around the heart on its upper abdomen was completely ripped off.

“Boom!”

Ultimately...

The huge snake became exhausted and could no longer struggle. Its massive body fell from the palace top and landed heavily before the pool with the Seven-storey Tower in front of the palace entrance. Its pair of huge eyes stared fixedly at the Seven-storey Tower, which flickered with seven-colored brilliance in the pool. Gradually, the red glow in its eyes faded.

It stopped breathing.

The king cobra had been so close to evolving into a flood dragon, but it was slaughtered in its nest that it had guarded for thousands of years!

Eventually, they slew the python...

Everyone present, including the eight gurus, breathed a long sigh of relief.

The whole battle lasted for nearly an hour!

After the giant snake died, everyone was exhausted.

Many people who had fought fiercely for their lives were seriously injured and could only sit aside to heal themselves. Those who managed to escape unscathed could only lie feebly on the ground to rest.

Behind him...

The eight gurus were still on the snake.

Everyone was secretly relieved and was about to take a break.

“Swoosh!”

A figure suddenly shot out from the dead python and zipped toward the Seven-storey Tower in the pool.

They gazed at it intently.

To their surprise, the figure was the Anglan guru dressed in tight leather clothes and he held a pink energy chain in his hand!

At the sight of this...

The other gurus no longer hesitated.

“Swoosh!” All of them rushed over.

Among all the gurus, the Murica guru, a vampire descendant, was the fastest, but it was too late for him to stop the Anglan guru, who was very close to the treasure.

With his face filled with excitement and surprise, the Anglan guru reached out his hand to take the Seven-storey Tower before him.

“Whiz!”

An ear-piercing sound suddenly rang out.

There...

With extremely destructive energy Qi, several cards wrapped in black energy abruptly appeared before the Anglan guru and forced him to step away from the Seven-storey Tower.

Meanwhile...

One after another, the others also reached the site and continued their frantic battle for the treasure in an instant.

Fang Qiu was behind them.

He watched as they exerted all their strength to grab the Seven-storey Tower.

Fang Qiu’s eyebrows shot up and he sneered, “It seems that everyone has been hiding their strength.”

“You all concealed your real strength, so did I.”

A glimmer came into his eyes.

Fang Qiu gathered all his internal Qi and instantly accelerated to the extreme.

In the blink of an eye...

Fang Qiu arrived at the pool.

His appearance stunned the eight gurus.

They were so fully engaged in the treasure competition that they almost forgot about John Doe!

Fang Qiu rushed to the pool.

The seven gurus immediately turned to attack Fang Qiu together.

“Whiz!”

Luoyun intended to wave his long sword to fend off the attacks from the seven gurus, but before he could act, these attacks had reached Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu saw this.

“Humph!”

He snorted coldly. While sprinting toward the treasure, he forcibly changed his track and avoided their strikes in an instant. Then he grabbed the Seven-storey Tower’s root, gently pulled it out, and seized it!

“Stop!”

As soon as Fang Qiu took the Seven-storey Tower, he immediately stepped back and shouted at everyone, “Or I’ll eat it!”

All the others heard what he said...

Everyone suddenly paused.

They all stopped.

“How dare you!”

“If you dare eat it, we will kill you at once.”

“Hand over the Holy Fruit, or you’ll die without a burial place!”

“This is not what you can take. If you do not wish to die, hand it over immediately.”

Everyone became highly agitated and began to threaten Fang Qiu.

“John Doe! The Holy Fruit in your hands is the ancestral heritage of Egyptt. Give it back to me right now.”

Rahman, the Egyptt guru, roared and stretched his hands toward Fang Qiu.

However...

When the others heard what he said...

They sneered at him with contempt.

Over at the side...

Fang Qiu gripped the Seven-storey Tower and looked perfectly calm.

“John Doe, I can offer a high price, 500 million or even one billion Murica dollars. Better still, I can guarantee your safety and make the Wulin in Huaxia the best ally with Styx!”

Mousolini spoke up.

Upon hearing his offer, others also tried to tempt Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu heard their various offers.

He shook his head, scanned the few people around him, and said, “If I sell it to one of you, can you take it out alive?”

They heard his question...

Everyone fell silent!

Medical Master

Chapter 1258: If We Can't Get It, No One Can

Fang Qiu's words stunned the eight gurus from different countries and forces instantly.

They were all very clear about this fact.

Everyone else would surely ambush or attack whoever obtained the Seven-storey Tower, which meant this person would have little or no chance to get out alive. He might be killed before he was even aware of the danger.

By the look of things...

John Doe undoubtedly had the greatest competitive advantage.

For one thing, John Doe was the strongest among them. His peerless strength was clearly evident when he attacked the king cobra.

For another, the Huaxia people were known for their unity. In addition to John Doe's great power, he had the help of Luoyun, a Huaxia guru.

To put it bluntly...

Now, including John Doe, there were a total of nine gurus. The only ones who had total trust in each other were John Doe and Luoyun.

There was no mutual trust between the others, whether gurus from the four great countries or Francis and Mousolini.

Thus...

They knew they would have no chance to get out alive after getting the Holy Fruit, yet they were reluctant to let John Doe keep it!

But now, the Holy Fruit had already fallen into John Doe's hands. Besides, for each of them, it was a troublesome treasure to have.

Even though they were unwilling to let John Doe hold on to the Holy Fruit, they didn't dare to take it themselves.

The seven gurus hesitated.

Here...

Luoyun furtively stood some distance from Fang Qiu. He was not too close to Fang Qiu, but he could attack immediately should Fang Qiu be besieged.

At a glance, he readied himself into the best position to support Fang Qiu.

When the seven gurus caught sight of this...

They couldn't help frowning, their expressions solemn.

"What should we do?"

Looking at each other, the seven gurus fell silent.

After a long time...

"I have a proposal."

Suddenly, the Murica guru stood up and said, "Obviously, this palace is not the center of the ancient ruin. I just found another passage in the palace."

When the others heard this...

They turned to look.

Sure enough, there was a passageway that led deeper into the palace.

In the crowd...

The Egyptt guru narrowed his eyes, and his expression changed slightly.

“Then what?”

With his eyes on the Seven-storey Tower in Fang Qiu’s hands, Mousolini responded to the Murica guru.

“It’s very simple.”

The Murica guru smiled faintly and said, “Since we’re already here, no matter how dangerous it is inside, we’ll still go to the end. In that case, why don’t the nine of us go and explore inside together? John Doe can stay in the middle while the others surround him. Then, he can’t run away even if he wants to, and we can monitor each other. As for who will get the Holy Fruit eventually, it depends on what kind of opponents we’ll meet in the following exploration!”

Everyone heard his suggestion.

They all nodded in agreement.

At present, it seemed to be the only way.

After all, they hadn’t finished exploring the ancient relic. It would be a waste of time if they went on fighting for the Seven-storey Tower here. Moreover, no one knew if anyone had sneaked into the depths of the ruin during the fierce battle. If some people had gone ahead, these people could have taken the treasures which were hidden there.

That was something that the few gurus did not want to see, so the method proposed by the Murica guru was undoubtedly the best option.

By following his advice, they could keep an eye on the Seven-storey Tower at all times and continue exploring the relic.

There were no objections to his idea.

Luoyun immediately walked forward and stopped at the best spot to guard against the others and protect Fang Qiu.

The other gurus lost no time in surrounding Fang Qiu.

“Okay.”

Seeing that they were all in agreement, Fang Qiu nodded and said with a nod, “Okay, we’ll do as you say!”

After that...

He turned around and stepped into the palace.

The other eight gurus were grouped around him.

Soon...

They went into the palace.

When they stepped on the snake slough of the king cobra, the seven gurus around Fang Qiu exchanged glances and abruptly made a move.

In unison, they pounced on Fang Qiu.

Their sudden strikes caught Luoyun off guard.

He hit on an idea in his desperation.

He instantly waved his sword to help block the attacks!

Nearby, Fang Qiu seemed to have already anticipated the seven gurus' intention. Just when he came under attack from all sides, he suddenly stood on tiptoe and rose into the air!

In reality...

All the seven gurus were anxious to obtain the Seven-storey Tower. How could they be willing to let Fang Qiu hold it? In addition, it was audacious of Fang Qiu to threaten them with the Seven-storey Tower at the beginning, which greatly upset them.

No one could threaten a guru!

The seven gurus simmered with extreme anger. Since they couldn't get the Seven-storey Tower, John Doe couldn't get it either!

At the worst...

They went their separate ways. Any one of them who got it could swallow it. If not, they would just destroy it!

The Murica guru proposed to go deeper into the relic because he planned to take this chance to besiege Fang Qiu.

They didn't choose to do it outside because it was a wide open space outside. But once they entered the palace, there was only the palace entrance and the entryway to the depths of the relic ruin. As long as they blocked these two exits, John Doe couldn't escape even if he grew a pair of wings.

Unluckily for them...

Fang Qiu had figured out something from their eye contact with each other earlier.

Not surprisingly...

The moment the seven gurus moved...

“Swoosh!”

Without saying a word, Fang Qiu leaped into the air, flashed abruptly, and rushed out of the palace before the seven people could even block the two exits.

Then, he darted to the passage he came from.

In the palace.

The Egyptt guru willingly chose to guard the passage which led into the depths. Even if he saw John Doe fleeing, he had no intention of chasing after him. Instead, he continued to rush toward the passage.

On the other side...

As soon as Fang Qiu ran, everyone went after him.

But when gurus from the four great countries reached the palace gate, they stopped abruptly.

They turned around.

There...

The Egyptt guru was there to guard the passage. As soon as he reached there, he went all out and rushed in crazily — this scene left the gurus of the four great countries totally flabbergasted.

Francis also noticed something strange!

“What is he doing?”

The Murica guru asked suspiciously.

“All the Egypttians have gone in.”

The Anglan guru said, “I just saw a group of people who dashed in secretly to the depths of the relic before Rahman. They seemed to be a group of Egypttians!”

When everyone heard that...

They all hesitated at once.

They looked around.

On one side was the Seven-storey Tower, a top-class Holy Fruit. On the other side, there were unknown treasures in the depths of the ruin.

“These Egypttians must have explored the relic.”

“Even if this relic is opened for the first time, they must have some information about the interior of the relic from the ancient records. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have given up the Holy Fruit so easily and entered the relic.”

The others heard it...

They were stunned.

Indeed...

They all were gurus and had explored other relics in which they had seen Holy Fruits.

After all, every relic was a magical place. Only a few contained Holy Fruits, so these gurus were not very surprised when they saw a Holy Fruit here.

Thus...

Everyone knew that the Holy Fruit didn't belong to the ruin.

Thinking of this...

Everyone immediately understood.

In the ruin, the Holy Fruit was not the most important thing. What was left behind from ancient times was the most valuable.

With that in mind...

"Go after him!"

The Murica guru gritted his teeth and gave up the Seven-storey Tower. Instantly, he hurried deeper into the ancient relic to chase after the others, closely followed by gurus from the other three countries.

Francis had been waiting aside. After pondering for some time, he quietly set off in pursuit.

There was enmity between him and gurus from the four countries.

Mousolini had gone after John Doe, and he didn't want to waste any more time on the Holy Fruit, so he could only move back a little and hide at the back and followed up quietly.

After all, he feared that the gurus of the four countries would surround and kill him on the way.

There...

Luoyun, a Huaxia guru, also stopped.

It was because he found that the number of people who chased after Fang Qiu had suddenly decreased.

In the end, only one person was after Fang Qiu. It was Mousolini, a guru from Styx in Greacie.

He turned around to look at the others.

They all rushed into the depths of the ruin.

Without the slightest hesitation, he turned around.

"Go inside!"

He ordered.

Luoyun turned around and glanced at Fang Qiu, who was being chased by Mousolini, and muttered, "I'm sorry. I have to consider the national interest and do everything for the good of the country!"

He believed in Fang Qiu.

It was not difficult for John Doe to deal with Mousolini. After all, he had the strength to kill a guru, and there was only Mousolini. So, Fang Qiu could handle the situation.

Moreover...

Since John Doe got the Seven-storey Tower, he could guard it. Therefore, in terms of the Seven-storey Tower, Luoyun could rest assured. He wouldn't have to worry about it being taken by other forces. After all, it was in the hands of John Doe, who was on their side.

However, the treasures that were stored deep in the ruin were different.

Those treasures, better than the Seven-storey Tower, were mighty weapons for competitions between countries, which were resources that could significantly improve national strength.

As a Sword Sect member, he had to put the state interest ahead of anything else!

"John Doe, I wish you good luck."

Luoyun said in his heart and immediately led everyone else to chase after the others into the depths of the ruin.

Here...

Fang Qiu turned back.

The area in the black fog that he had entered was gone. He found he could directly return to the passageway connected to the maze.

After flying for a few minutes, Fang Qiu realized no one else had caught up with him.

Behind him was only the Greacie guru with a gun in his hand: Mousolini!

A plan occurred to him.

Fang Qiu stopped and abruptly looked back.

“Hmm?”

Mousolini paused, stared at Fang Qiu with a sneer, and asked, “Why are you not running?”

“Do I need to run when you’re the only one after me?”

Fang Qiu also smiled.

“Haha.”

Mousolini burst out laughing before his expression became serious and he said, “One of my hunters died in Huaxia for a relic. Today, I’ll kill you to avenge his death!”

When he heard his heroic remark...

Fang Qiu squinted at him.

Then, he made his move as he did not want to waste any time on idle chatter. Swiftly, he clenched his right hand, formed the Divine Sword, and stabbed Mousolini in his chest with it.

“Humph.”

Mousolini, pale with fear, immediately withdrew.

He retreated to the open space before the palace in an instant.

“Kill!”

As soon as Mousolini stepped back, a glint flashed in his eyes, and he suddenly thundered.

After that...

Intersecting beams of red light immediately appeared before Fang Qiu!

Medical Master

Chapter 1259: Fang Qiu Carrying the Python and Running

“Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!”

The ear-piercing sounds of objects penetrating through the air came from all directions.

He looked around.

All around him were numerous rays of red light. They all came through the spaces between those broken stones that covered the ground.

Like a spider web, these crisscrossed light rays directly enveloped Fang Qiu.

“A formation?”

Fang Qiu frowned.

When he was surrounded by these red beams, he felt a sense of danger coming from all directions, as if countless eyes were fixed on him.

“Haha.”

Outside the web of red lights, Mousolini stared at Fang Qiu and said with a laugh, “Next, I’ll shoot your head repeatedly and I’ll feed one bullet after another into your brain!”

As he said these cruel words...

Fang Qiu’s eyes narrowed.

All of a sudden, he violently swung his right hand that gripped the Divine Sword. After that, a strand of terrifying sword Qi burst forth from the sword and bombarded the bright red rays of light.

The next moment...

To his surprise, when the blast of Sword Qi from the Divine Sword hit the rays of red light, it rebounded like elastic bands. As soon as the Sword Qi was used up, the red beams instantly returned to their original state.

This scene shocked Fang Qiu.

“What kind of formation is this?”

He asked in great surprise.

“Dragon-trapping Formation!”

Mousolini stared at Fang Qiu with a sneer and said, “This is a formation endowed to me by the Sea God. You can’t break it with your strength. I advise you to hand over the Holy Fruit obediently, and I can let you die a quick death. Otherwise, I’ll shoot every part of your body and let you suffer a slow and painful death!”

“Dragon-trapping Formation?”

Fang Qiu seemed to have only heard the formation’s name but not his threat. He nodded and said, “It sounds like the name of a Huaxia formation, but there is no similar formation in Huaxia. After all, this kind of formation is too low-end.”

When Mousolini heard this, his face darkened instantly.

John Doe ignored his threat and said that the Sea God’s formation was a low-end type. How could he stand such a scoffing remark?

Standing across from him...

Fang Qiu looked around at the formation and kept shaking his head.

There was no similar formation in Huaxia because Huaxia formations were far superior to those from foreign countries. This so-called Dragon-trapping Formation, for example, was an ordinary formation that could trap people inside by gathering all the energy. To put it bluntly, it was like a bamboo cage that could keep people inside.

In contrast, Huaxia formations could activate the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Then, without wasting any internal Qi, Huaxia people could stir up the Qi of Heaven and Earth to make the formation run independently.

Without any doubt...

The power from people was limited, but the Qi of Heaven and Earth was infinite.

When it came to understanding the application of formations, Huaxia people were far more brilliant than foreigners.

This was why Fang Qiu was not in a hurry.

As soon as he used his Divine Consciousness, he sensed that the formation was set by Mousolini's subordinates. When the king cobra was on a rampage, his followers took this opportunity and hid in the gaps between the stones. Since then, they had been waiting for this moment to attack.

However, it was a pity that all of Mousolini's men with ninth-class strength were not strong, and none of them was a guru.

In this condition...

Although there were many people, their energy was limited.

Evidently, Fang Qiu's sword strike just now consumed part of the energy of this formation. It was very easy to break this formation. As long as he plied violence with violence and exerted enough powerful energy, he could consume the power that supported this formation. Once the energy became insufficient, the formation would naturally collapse!

"You're courting death!"

Seeing Fang Qiu's careless look, Mousolini was so furious that he barked, "Tie him up!"

His voice faded...

The red rays of light around Fang Qiu suddenly tightened.

Like real ropes, they suddenly shrank and Fang Qiu was trussed up tightly!

"Hmm?"

When the web made of red light wrapped around him, Fang Qiu felt an overwhelming sense of oppression, which nearly rendered him immobile.

Over at the side...

With a cold expression, Mousolini raised the hunting gun in his hand and aimed at Fang Qiu's chest.

"Hand over the Holy Fruit!"

Mousolini threatened him.

"You've tied me up. Can't you come and grab it by yourself?"

Fang Qiu glanced at him in disdain as if he were looking at an idiot.

When Mousolini saw this...

His face changed, and he did not hesitate to pull the trigger!

"Boom!"

There was a sudden sound.

A bullet wrapped in violent internal Qi shot out from the hunting gun in his hand, which made a loud noise. With a burst of mighty penetrating power, it flew straight toward Fang Qiu's chest.

Right at this moment...

"Boom!"

All of a sudden, there was a burst of Qi explosion.

An unparalleled energy aura erupted from Fang Qiu's body.

It was the formidable aura of a guru.

It was even more potent than Mousolini's aura!

With the eruption of this aura, the red light which constrained Fang Qiu almost melted in the air in an instant. In the meantime, a very thick energy wall instantly formed in front of Fang Qiu.

"Pa!"

The bullet smashed into the energy wall and instantly dispersed half of the internal Qi that made up the energy wall. However, it failed to pierce the wall.

"What?"

As John Doe broke his formation in a second, Mousolini's face changed dramatically.

At this time...

"Three-point Shadowless!"

After breaking the formation, Fang Qiu vigorously brought down the long sword in his hand.

A ray of Sword Qi shot out rapidly.

It smashed those stones scattered on the ground into powder in a jiffy.

The people who hid among the crushed stones were sent flying by Fang Qiu's sword strike. One by one, they fell heavily to the ground and spat out blood. Although they did not die, they suffered serious internal injuries!

"You, how did you know?"

Mousolini pointed to Fang Qiu with a surprised and bewildered expression on his face.

"You Westerners are far too backward when it comes to formations."

Fang Qiu shook his head and sneered. "It is wishful thinking on your part to try and trap me in this rubbish formation!"

With this...

Fang Qiu brandished his sword at Mousolini.

Last time, he had observed the fight between Diwu Mingchuan and a guru who held a hunting gun, so he was familiar with people who used guns and learned about their tricks. He knew that they would never allow their enemies to get close to them because they were always weak in close combat!

Sure enough...

Fang Qiu had just made his move.

At once, Mousolini backed away at full speed. As he retreated, he pulled frantically at the trigger and kept shooting at Fang Qiu!

Bad unluckily for him...

Fang Qiu was exceedingly fast.

“Swoosh!”

There was a sound of wind rushing by his ears.

Before Mousolini could completely withdraw, Fang Qiu had already rushed in front of him.

“Thunderbolt-absorbing Technique!”

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu directly displayed the second style of the Divine Sword and slammed it into Mousolini’s chest.

Mousolini had always been weak when it came to close combat. At this moment, his eyes narrowed.

He didn’t even dare to think about it.

Instinctively, he raised his gun with both hands to ward off the blow!

The next moment...

“Boom...”

A muffled thunderclap sounded.

Mousolini successfully blocked the lightning strike with his gun. However, the disastrous Sword Qi from the Divine Sword bombarded him heavily.

“Pfft...”

Under the impact of that terrifying sword Qi which was filled with energy, Mousolini was violently knocked back. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

As he was sent flying into the air...

“Pa!”

He fired a shot at Fang Qiu’s head. Then, without enough time to think about it, he turned around with the help of the powerful impact and fled crazily into the depths of the ruin.

“Running away?”

Fang Qiu was slightly taken aback.

He hadn’t expected Mousolini to make such a swift exit.

He immediately moved and ran after him.

Fang Qiu chased him all the way to the palace entrance.

At the sight of the massive king cobra’s carcass, Fang Qiu immediately stopped.

“It was a king cobra that was about to evolve into a flood dragon. It’s dead, but even its dead body could be a rare treasure.”

A plan occurred to him.

Fang Qiu immediately went over to the king cobra's head, reached out for its lower jaw, and raised its huge head high. Then, like a performer mimicking a lion's movements in a lion costume, he held the snake head above him and rushed all the way into the palace to chase Mousolini, who had made such a swift exit.

However...

As soon as Fang Qiu entered the passage, he felt an extremely horrible energy Qi coming from a distance.

"Are they fighting?"

Fang Qiu wondered in his heart.

Thinking of this, he mustered his internal Qi and rushed forward at top speed.

Of course, he wasn't anxious to join in the battle. However, he was worried that others might jointly attack Luoyun and his people. Therefore, he had to speed up to have a look.

In particular...

For the sake of fighting over treasures in the depths of the ancient ruin, these people were even willing to let go of the Seven-storey Tower.

Obviously, the things inside must be more valuable than the Seven-storey Tower.

Fang Qiu was also curious about it.

What could make them give up the Seven-storey Tower?

He dashed swiftly inside.

The strange thing was that even after such a prolonged chase, Fang Qiu still didn't see Mousolini.

Logically speaking, the heavily injured Mousolini shouldn't have been able to flee so quickly. How could he have disappeared in the blink of an eye?

With these doubts in his mind, Fang Qiu soon came to the place where the energy Qi had erupted from.

It was still far away.

Soon, Fang Qiu saw that a force was surrounded by all the other forces as if it was under siege!

He took a closer look.

The one being besieged was none other than the Egyptt guru, Rahman!

Right now...

Rahman held a one-meter-long scepter. Its head was the sculpture of a golden king cobra!

The statue of the king cobra with its mouth wide open was made of gold. Except for its head, the rest of the scepter was jet-black.

"Pharaoh Scepter?"

Fang Qiu was astonished.

"I advise you to put down all the treasures you've robbed, or none of you can get out alive!"

Rahman held up the scepter and said in a stern voice.

At this time...

Fang Qiu happened to get close to them.

This scene left him dumbfounded.

And the others also got a really nasty shock when they saw Fang Qiu carrying the dead king cobra on his shoulder.

“This guy wants everything, didn’t he?”

Medical Master

Chapter 1260: Pharaoh Scepter!

“Hand over the treasures you robbed!”

When John Doe arrived, Rahman, the Egyptt guru, became green with envy.

Now that he had the Pharaoh Scepter, he only needed the Holy Fruit in John Doe’s hand!

What about those treasures snatched by the others?

Most of them were insignificant antiques.

Thus...

When John Doe rushed up with the carcass of the king cobra, Rahman directly turned around and waved the scepter fiercely at John Doe. Suddenly, a swarm of extremely fine and sharp energy Qi, like embroidery needles, shot out from the mouth of the cobra king mounted on the head of the scepter!

They flew toward Fang Qiu's chest with unbelievably strong penetrating power.

"Oh, dear!"

Fang Qiu's heart skipped a beat, for he felt a sense of crisis brought by this blast of refined energy Qi!

"Whoosh."

With a violent wave of his hand, Fang Qiu pressed down on the carcass of the king cobra's head to block the surprise attack.

"Pa!"

A crisp sound was heard.

There...

Surprisingly, this fine stream of energy Qi effortlessly penetrated the hard scales on the king cobra's carcass.

Fortunately, Fang Qiu was hiding behind the snake.

The energy Qi penetrated the scales and finally dispersed into the flesh and bones of the giant snake and failed to go through its head.

Even so...

This scene shocked everyone present to the core.

That was the scales of the king cobra.

To break one scale, eight gurus had to combine their strengths and exerted a lot of effort!

But how could Rahman easily pierce the scales with just a scepter?

For a time...

Everyone looked at Rahman with a trace of vigilance, and their killing desire became even stronger!

This scepter...

It was absolutely worth much more than the Seven-storey Tower!

It could fire energy Qi at an astonishing speed, which was mighty enough to penetrate the king cobra's scales. With this object as a weapon, killing a guru might no longer be a challenge!

"What a sharp burst of energy Qi."

Fang Qiu poked his head from behind the giant snake and looked at Rahman solemnly.

"Hand over the Holy Fruit, otherwise don't blame me for being merciless!"

Rahman said to Fang Qiu with a sneer.

"Your scepter is indeed powerful."

Fang Qiu shrugged and said, “However, my shield is not small. Why don’t you smash my large shield before you threaten me with your weapon?”

When he heard this suggestion...

Rahman’s face darkened.

He knew the giant shield that John Doe referred to was the king cobra.

He flared up instantly.

It had never occurred to anyone that John Doe would carry the carcass of the king cobra with him. If it hadn’t been for its huge dead body, John Doe would never have had the guts to challenge him!

Just then...

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh.”

Immediately, the gurus from the four great countries, Luoyun and Francis flew back and came to Fang Qiu’s side, as they tried to block Rahman’s attack with the snake carcass.

However...

“Boom!”

Before they arrived, an overwhelming stream of Qi erupted from Fang Qiu, instantly knocking a few people back — Fang Qiu only allowed Luoyun and all the Huaxia people to come over.

“What?”

After pushing back the gurus of the four countries and Francis, Fang Qiu snorted coldly and said, "You're afraid of his spear, so you want to seize my shield? He can break the scales of this snake, and so can I!"

The gurus of the four countries and Francis were startled.

Only then did they remember...

When they slaughtered this giant snake, it was John Doe who broke its scale first!

Rahman had to rely on the scepter to gain power, while John Doe depended merely on his own strength. Rahman was not a patch on John Doe.

They couldn't afford to provoke Rahman, but Fang Qiu appeared even more dangerous!

For a period of time...

The gurus of the four great countries and Francis could only hurriedly retreat, their faces livid as they stared carefully at Rahman for fear that he would strike them at any time.

"That's right."

When the gurus stepped away, Fang Qiu smirked proudly and said, "It's not good for us to remain in this stalemate. Rahman is from Egyptt, and we're in an Egyptt relic. More importantly, he has the Pharaoh Scepter. An Egyptt guru who has obtained great power won't let you leave this relic so easily."

Over at the side...

The gurus of the four great countries and Francis looked increasingly gloomy.

They knew very well what Fang Qiu meant. Even if they handed over everything they got, Rahman would not let them leave the place alive.

At present, they shouldn't focus on seizing treasures but on how to stay alive!

To survive...

They had to defeat Rahman!

Behind Fang Qiu...

With the giant snake's body as a shield, everyone in the Huaxia team breathed a sigh of relief. Luoyun came to Fang Qiu with a broad smile and said, "Brother John Doe, you directed a good show!"

"Thanks. You flatter me."

Fang Qiu grinned.

"But where did you get the idea to bring this snake that nearly turned into a flood dragon?"

Luoyun asked.

"No part goes to waste for this python."

Fang Qiu wet his lips and spoke again, "But, let's talk about it later. We should enjoy this wonderful play first!"

Over there...

Driven by the anxious feeling of the impending crisis...

The gurus of the four great countries and Francis had to join forces to besiege Rahman.

This time...

None of them dared to hold back any longer. They all exerted every ounce of their energy to fiercely attack Rahman from various tricky angles while constantly dodging his blows.

Although the scepter was mighty and fast, they managed to avoid its strikes while they launched an all-out effort.

After all, they were all gurus.

Here...

Fang Qiu and Luoyun hid behind the giant snake as they carefully observed their battle.

They paid attention to the same thing.

It was the scepter in Rahman's hands!

An ordinary scepter could never unleash such fierce energy Qi!

Therefore...

There must be something special about this scepter.

Fang Qiu stared intently at the scepter for a moment.

Abruptly...

His eyes lit up.

Every time Rahman delivered an attack with the scepter, a circle of white light would appear around his hand which gripped the upper half of the scepter.

“That light, that aura of energy...seems a bit familiar.”

He observed it attentively.

Fang Qiu finally found the secret of the scepter.

The part that Rahman held in his hand seemed to be the one that provided energy to the scepter, and the aura of that object was the same as that of the jade mine!

With that in mind...

Fang Qiu couldn't help becoming very tense.

At this time...

“Should we go ahead?”

Luoyun's voice suddenly came.

Fang Qiu looked up.

There...

When the five gurus hurled themselves at him, Rahman was in a disadvantageous position. Yet, with the scepter, he posed a violent threat to the five. After exchanging a dozen moves in a short time, both sides suffered some minor injuries.

After all, he alone was fighting against five gurus.

Even with the Pharaoh Scepter in his hand, Rahman could not escape the dreadful fate of being suppressed.

“What a pity. Their fight would have been more splendid if that scepter could work without having to be recharged.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and sighed.

“If the scepter doesn’t need to replenish its power, it will be invincible, right?”

Luoyun smiled.

“That’s true.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Let’s go. They are all wounded. Next is our show time.”

After that...

He exchanged a glance with Luoyun.

They flew up together.

The two of them rushed at Rahman at the same time. It seemed that they wanted to join forces with the other five gurus to deal with him. However, just as they approached Rahman, Luoyun suddenly turned around and wielded his long sword to slow down the attacking pace of the gurus from the four great countries and Francis.

Over at the other side...

Fang Qiu executed his best efforts and instantly rushed up to Rahman. After being suppressed for a long time, he was too preoccupied to react in time when Fang Qiu abruptly banged his fist on his hand that gripped the scepter.

“Boom!”

A stream of terrifying energy Qi burst forth that instantly sent Rahman flying.

Meanwhile...

A layer of white ash rose from the place where Rahman had gripped.

“Sure enough...”

Fang Qiu was pleasantly surprised in his heart.

The moment his punch landed, he was certain that what was embedded inside the Pharaoh Scepter was none other than the mysterious jade stone!

He had guessed as much.

That was why Fang Qiu exerted all his strength and smashed the mysterious jade into powder with one blow. After all, he didn't want the others to see this kind of jade!

Luoyun saw Fang Qiu blow Rahman up into the air.

At once, he flashed over and stood back to back with Fang Qiu.

“Seize the scepter!”

Luoyun reminded him.

“No need.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “The scepter is useless now.”

His voice faded.

After being knocked away by a punch, Rahman quickly stood up and glanced around with a pained expression. He held the scepter and yelled in a sad and shrill voice, “You and your family members will all be cursed by the Pharaoh and die a violent death sooner or later.”

“Crack!”

When he was done speaking...

In a flash, many cracks spread around the scepter that was raised high above his head and covered it like a spider web. Then, it broke into pieces and dropped to the ground.

Meanwhile...

Rahman closed his eyes and fell back powerlessly. He fell heavily on the ground and fainted!

Just then...

“Whiz!”

Suddenly, an ear-piercing sound broke out.

From the site where Rahman had collapsed to the ground, a bullet wrapped in a bout of extremely compressed energy exploded from the ground and instantly reached Fang Qiu, and headed for the place between Fang Qiu’s eyebrows.

“Watch out!”

Luoyun shouted.

There...

An energy shield suddenly appeared in front of Fang Qiu. Although it was too thin to block the bullet, it bought a tenth of a second for Fang Qiu.

Within such a short time, Fang Qiu tilted his head and narrowly dodged the bullet.

“Pa, pa, pa...”

Three shots rang out in a row.

But...

Obviously, the bullets that were fired later were not as powerful as the first one. When Fang Qiu waved his right hand to slash these bullets, he quickly formed a long sword in his hand. The moment it took shape, a burst of extremely vigorous sword Qi exploded from the sharp blade that instantly reduced the three bullets into powder!

As soon as he finished slashing the three bullets, Fang Qiu moved.

He zipped over to the back of a dark rock near Rahman, who had fallen to the ground.

“Whiz!”

There was a crisp sound.

The Divine Sword pierced through the chest of Mousolini, who had been hiding behind the rock, and nailed him up on the rock. It even ran through the gun Mousolini held horizontally with his hands to fend off the long sword!

This scene was quite astounding.

All the people present shivered in fear!