Chapter 1261: Harvesting, Leaving

He was dead!

Mousolini was a guru from Styx Organization in Greacie, the most powerful force in the world. He was killed just like that?

Everyone, including the Huaxia people, looked at Fang Qiu with a trace of fear in their eyes. Although their horror was not obvious, it was very real!

Many pitched battles between various forces had taken place since they entered the ancient relic. Whether it was because of hatred or the treasures in the ancient relic, each of them had fought with all their strength and they were determined to kill anyone who hindered them.

However, even after many battles, not a single person was killed.

Incredibly, no one was even seriously injured.

But a moment ago...

In front of everyone, John Doe knocked out the Egyptt guru and killed Mousolini!

What kind of devastating power did he have?

They looked over at the python's carcass that was used by those Huaxia people as a shield.

Without John Doe, could the eight gurus kill this king cobra together?

Very likely, they might not even be able to break the scales.

If John Doe hadn't been there...

The Seven-storey Tower would have fallen into the mouth of the giant snake. After taking it, the python stood a good chance of evolving into a flood dragon. At that time, everyone would become its meal!

Before this...

They didn't pay much attention to John Doe. Now after they saw John Doe slaughter Mousolini with their own eyes, they realized how capable John Doe was.

The underground force forum rated John Doe highly as an S-class expert. He was the guy who was an enormous influence on the situation in Zhongdong alone!

Somehow...

Except for Luoyun and the Huaxia people...

The gurus from the four great countries, Francis, and people from all the other forces didn't dare to take any reckless actions.

No one spoke.

They looked at Fang Qiu in silence.

Over at the side...

When Fang Qiu unclenched his right hand, the Divine Sword, which had pierced through Mousolini's chest and even the rock, quickly vanished.

"Phew, that was close."

Luoyun went to greet him.

"Well, let's have a rest first. Take out all the Spiritual Herbs you have, so we can recover quickly."

Fang Qiu said with a smile.

When Luoyun heard this...

He turned back and sat cross-legged with all his men and started their recovery process.

Over at the side...

The gurus of the four countries and Francis also retreated one after another and found a relatively safe place. After sitting down cross-legged in silence, they began to rest and heal themselves while keeping a watchful eye on the Huaxia people.

At this time...

Fang Qiu stepped aside.

He took out his satellite phone and found it still had a signal, so he immediately sent a text message to Li Ji.

"Help me locate my current location and record my following route!"

Fang Qiu swiftly sent this message.

He immediately switched the phone to silent mode.

It was the top-notch quartz in the jade mines that provided the Pharaoh Scepter with enormous energy. Fang Qiu could affirm it after the fight. Moreover, from this quartz, he felt the same kind of fluctuation of the Qi of Heaven and Earth that he sensed in the black fog.

He noticed the fluctuation before he encountered the Murica guru in the black fog. After the fierce battle with the Murica guru, Fang Qiu searched for it, but it was gone.

When he recalled this...

The energy fluctuation was actually the aura of the jade mine.

“So, could there also be a jade mine under the ground in this area?”

In a flash...

Fang Qiu had this thought in his mind.

“Ancient relics are magical. The locations of the relics chosen by the ancients must be extraordinary. Perhaps each ancient relic will be accompanied by a jade mine. But other people who have entered the relics have not found the existence of these jade mines?”

At this thought...

Fang Qiu’s heart pumped with excitement.

If so, every ancient relic, even the ones that had been plundered of all its valuables, would still be a huge wealth of resources!

Fang Qiu was almost sure that there was a jade mine under the ground and he wanted it badly.

But he didn't show it, nor was he in a hurry to search for it. As long as Li Ji could record his place and track his movements through the satellite positioning system, this jade mine would be his in the end!

Fang Qiu put away his phone.

He turned around and walked to Luoyun.

"How much have you explored in this place?"

He asked.

"Not much."

Luoyun shook his head and said, "When we arrived here, Rahman grabbed the scepter. Then everyone's attention was diverted by the scepter before we had time to search for other treasures."

"So, you haven't found any treasures in here?"

Fang Qiu asked, his eyes alight with excitement.

"Yes."

Luoyun nodded.

"Okay."

Fang Qiu grinned and immediately got up and started to look around for items.

This place was different from the palace outside.

Although there were stone walls all around, it was quite spacious. Other than some stone statues and buildings, there was also an ancient altar.

On the other side...

The others saw Fang Qiu getting up...

The gurus of the four great countries and Francis were immediately on the alert and hurriedly got up to look around for treasures as well.

Unluckily for them...

Fang Qiu was excessively fast.

He rushed to a place that looked like a cabinet, took off his coat, and stuffed all the items into it. Then, he bundled up the coat which contained stuff like jade slips and oracle bone inscriptions, and tied it to his body.

Since Fang Qiu started rummaging through the cabinet, the gurus of the four great countries and Francis instantly dashed in other directions to get all kinds of items.

Over at the side...

The Huaxia people also started to gather items with Luoyun.

Soon, when everyone was fighting for more items, Fang Qiu had already taken away all the good stuff in this area.

What he did greatly displeased the gurus of the four great countries and Francis, whose faces instantly darkened.

The five gurus glared at Fang Qiu but did not dare to lose their temper.

After all, John Doe had just killed a guru!

Besides...

John Doe was not alone as he had Luoyun's support.

The five gurus seemed to have an advantage over John Doe and Luoyun, but Luoyun could stall them and let John Doe defeat them one by one!

In particular...

In the bloody battle earlier, John Doe only came out at the last minute. He didn't consume too much energy or get injured at all.

But they were different.

They had expended a lot of energy in the battle with Rahman and had more or less suffered some external injuries.

In this way...

They were less able to attack John Doe!

On the surface, the gurus of the four countries formed an alliance, but each of them only took care of their own interests. In addition, Francis held a grudge against them.

The five of them were suspicious of each other!

No one wanted to be the one to start a fight.

As a result, although they were very dissatisfied with John Doe for taking all the valuable things, they could only watch him helplessly.

After they cleaned out this place...

No one wanted to rest and recover.

Francis turned around.

All the Egyptians had gathered around the unconscious Rahman, as they carefully tended to him. These people, who were in a state of panic, were also on their guard against the others.

“Tell us, how can we leave this damned place?”

Francis stared at those Egyptians and asked...

When the others heard what he said...

All the people turned to look at them.

Unexpectedly...

The crowd of Egyptian people also shook their heads and with scared expressions stated that they didn't know how to get out.

"You don't know?"

When they saw their reaction, the gurus from all countries couldn't help frowning deeply.

"It seems that we have to find the mechanism to get out."

Francis said.

Behind him...

Fang Qiu smiled.

It seemed that everyone had experience in the search for relics.

If Fang Qiu had not been in the Zangjiang relic, he wouldn't have known that there were mechanisms in ancient ruins.

"The Mo Group's mechanism was the character: Mo, then the mechanism in this ancient Pharaoh relic should also be something similar."

An idea flashed across his mind.

Without the slightest hesitation, Fang Qiu turned around, ready to search for it.

But just after he took two steps...

Fang Qiu immediately turned around, walked to Luoyun and the others, and said, "I need your help!"

“What?”

Luoyun was struck dumb.

“I need your united strength. Please wrap this snake with your internal Qi.”

Fang Qiu spoke up...

“Ah!”

Luoyun was startled, and so were the others.

“If my guess is correct, we will very likely be teleported out after we find the mechanism. You should know this because you must have searched around the other ruins.”

Fang Qiu smirked and said, “This snake nearly became a flood dragon, so every part of it is great. It will be a big loss if we don’t take it away.”

“Are you sure we can take the snake out like this?”

Luoyun looked a little skeptical.

“It should work.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “It’s our bad luck if we can’t get it out.”

Luoyun shook his head and smiled bitterly.

Then, he asked everyone to raise their Qi and wrap the giant snake with internal Qi.

Aside...

Fang Qiu carried the backpack filled with wonderful items and began to search thoroughly.

As expected...

Fang Qiu found a pictographic character in a corner soon after. Although he didn't understand what it meant, he had a different feeling when he saw it. He immediately reached out and touched it.

The next moment...

The scene in front of him flashed.

Everything around him disappeared in an instant.

When he looked about him, he was in a vast green prairie!

"I got out."

Fang Qiu knew he had found the right mechanism. He smiled, heaved a sigh of relief, and immediately turned to look around.

There...

The others were not far away from him.

Most importantly, the giant snake was still there!

“Good stuff.”

Fang Qiu hurriedly ran over happily and in great excitement.

Luoyun was very surprised as well.

He didn’t expect that the snake could be taken out.

On the other side...

These Egyptians, too terrified to stay any longer, carried the unconscious Rahman and ran away. No one stopped them.

The others also dispersed and walked away into the depths of the prairie, as they kept a wary eye on each other.

“This place seems quite far from where we entered the relic.”

Luoyun got up, gazed into the distance, and continued, “Let’s go together. At least it will be safer this way. Although the people of various countries have retreated, all the good things in the ruin have fallen into your hands. They will not give up that easily.”

“Okay, that’s good.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “But I have to deal with this snake first.”

As he spoke, Fang Qiu waved his right hand and gathered all the vines around him on the grassland by controlling his internal Qi. After twisting them into ropes, he tied up the giant snake and dragged it away!

Medical Master

Chapter 1262: Besieged!

Fang Qiu tied up the snake.

He was ready to carry it away.

When Luoyun saw this, he remarked,

“This snake is enormous. How will you take it back?”

Luoyun looked at the python. Fang Qiu’s height was less than its diameter. How could he bring such a big thing back to his country?

“I have my way.”

Fang Qiu smirked and said, “Let’s go.”

“Which way?”

Luoyun said.

“Let’s change our route.”

Fang Qiu thought for a moment, glanced at the black stone, and said, “Let’s go to the gate of the relic first.”

“Okay.”

Luoyun nodded in response.

Soon...

They dragged the giant snake and arrived at the big black stone.

They looked around.

Fang Qiu spotted the bodies of four Pharaoh Snakes in the field of Spiritual Herbs near the big black stone. Instantly, he rushed up and summoned his Divine Sword. He cut out the gallbladders of the four Pharaoh Snakes to be brought back to make wine.

These Pharaoh Snakes were inferior to the king cobra that almost evolved into a flood dragon, but they had fed on the Spiritual Herbs and possessed great energy when they were alive.

Wine made from the gallbladders of these snakes would be better than Heaven Dew!

Notably...

Even if they didn't use these snake gallbladders to brew wine, they could swallow them straight. The incredible energy and medicinal effects of these gallbladders were of great value.

After Fang Qiu got everything ready...

He immediately made a phone call.

They were in Africo.

After all, he had received a medal from the President of Comores!

After getting in touch with the President of Comores, Fang Qiu requested his help to contact the Kairo government because he needed them to transport something. The President of Comores readily agreed.

Then, Fang Qiu bought 20 big iron boxes online.

These boxes would be sent directly to the pharmaceutical factory six kilometers away.

When the 20 large iron boxes were delivered, Fang Qiu brought them over to the site. Then with a sword, he cut up the snake. He chopped the giant snake into 20 parts from its head to tail and used his energy to cover up the smell of blood.

After that, he placed the 20 parts separately into each iron box and locked them up!

He even injected energy into the locks as he sealed them tightly.

He finished doing all of this...

Soon, Fang Qiu moved the 20 iron boxes to the gate of the pharmaceutical factory.

Before long, the people dispatched by the Kairo government arrived. Then, Fang Qiu handed over the 20 iron boxes to them in his capacity as a doctor of traditional Chinese medicine who was sent to study the new virus in Africo.

People from the Kairo government thanked him and promised they would deliver these items safely to the capital.

When the people from the Kairo government left...

Fang Qiu immediately called He Xue.

"Hello?"

He Xue answered the call.

"I sent something back from Africo. There are 20 iron boxes, and I marked each of them. They will be put on the plane tonight. You can estimate the time and hire a truck to the capital airport to pick them up. As soon as the goods are delivered, take a photo of each box and send the photos to me."

Fang Qiu said.

"What are in those iron boxes?"

He Xue asked.

"Something really terrifying, something you don't want to see."

Fang Qiu shook his head and smiled as he said, "Although no one can open those boxes, I need to remind you that you should not try to open them. Everything should be done only after I come back. Once you receive them, move all the boxes to the underground warehouse and remember not to attract too much attention."

"Okay."

Hearing Fang Qiu's serious tone, He Xue didn't question too much and agreed with a nod.

He hung up the phone.

Fang Qiu, Luoyun, and the others returned to the big black stone together.

They wanted to see if the mechanism of the black stone still worked. If it did, it would mean that not all the important items in the ancient ruin had been taken out.

It was six kilometers away.

For Fang Qiu and the others, the distance was very short.

To his dismay...

When they were halfway to their destination...

Fang Qiu's expression changed slightly, and he suddenly frowned.

For some reason...

He felt as if someone was watching him. There seemed to be a pair of eyes behind the scenes!

He slowed down.

Fang Qiu looked around as he moved forward.

However, he saw no suspicious figures.

"Divine Consciousness!"

With a thought, Fang Qiu immediately released his Divine Consciousness.

As a result...

With his Divine Consciousness, he felt a familiar aura.

It belonged to the vampire.

The Murica group!

He probed their position and found that they had pressed themselves flat against the ground and hid their figures by using the uneven terrain of the grassland and flourishing weeds.

“Enemies are coming.”

In a low voice, Fang Qiu warned Luoyun and others beside him. This situation was not unexpected.

Enemies?

Everyone heard this.

They immediately became alert.

“Relax. Don’t be so nervous.”

Fang Qiu reminded them.

But then...

Their brows furrowed.

“Why was it that even Luoyun did not sense the arrival of these enemies?

“That was to say...

“Are there gurus among the group?”

Everyone was worried.

Although the giant snake had been sent away, the other treasures were still in Fang Qiu's backpack. Since these enemies dared to come at this time, it meant that they were confident of their abilities.

A world-shaking battle was about to take place!

They were secretly on the alert.

They followed Fang Qiu and landed near the big black stone.

Without saying a word, Fang Qiu went straight to the big black stone and stepped on it.

However...

Nothing happened!

This big black stone's 'rise' function seemed to have stopped. At present, it was just an ordinary black stone!

"It seems that everything in there has been cleaned out, so the gate of the ruin would never appear again."

Fang Qiu told the others and waved to Luo Yun and the others, "Let's go!"

But in fact...

Fang Qiu's words were deliberately meant for those people hiding in the dark.

He was sure that there was an underground jade mine in the ruin, so he said this to let those people abandon the idea of searching this place again. Then, it would be more convenient for him to open up the jade mine in the future.

However...

Right after he finished speaking...

Fang Qiu suddenly frowned deeply.

“Leave immediately!”

Fang Qiu’s face darkened, and he shouted to Luoyun and the others.

But before anyone could react...

“Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!”

The ear-piercing sounds of something breaking through the air suddenly came from three different directions.

They took a closer look.

The teams from Murica, Anglan, and L’hexagone arrived.

The gurus of the three countries were different from before. Each of them held a weapon in their hand. With these weapons, their Qi power appeared utterly different.

In an instant, these people from three countries surrounded them.

Fang Qiu and the others couldn't retreat even if they wanted to.

All the Huaxia people looked worried.

In the meantime...

Fang Qiu and Luoyun, who led the others, also looked grave, but they did not panic. They calmly observed the weapons in the hands of the gurus from the three countries.

"Their fighting capacity seems to have increased greatly."

Fang Qiu remarked as he looked at the gurus.

"It's because of the weapons in their hands."

Luoyun's eyes narrowed and he said, "What they are holding are all ancient weapons!"

"Ancient weapons?"

Fang Qiu was shocked.

"That's right."

Luoyun nodded and said, "See the dagger held by the Murica guru?"

Fang Qiu looked carefully.

The Murica guru was indeed holding a dagger in his hand.

The handle of the dagger seemed to be a polished animal bone. It was milky white, and even the teeth of the animal could be seen on the hilt.

The dagger looked pretty dull, but Fang Qiu felt a layer of highly aggressive Qi surging on the blade.

Luoyun explained to Fang Qiu. “In ancient times, an Indane tribe slaughtered an ancient monster at the cost of the lives of hundreds of people. Bone Blade was made from its jawbone, which was said to have absorbed the essence and blood of that monster. Anyone who held it would obtain great power. At the same time, it would keep absorbing the person’s essence and blood until he died. Therefore, no Indane gurus dared to use this weapon, which was then taken away by the Muricans.”

“Unexpectedly, this weapon turned out to be a perfect match for the descendants of the vampires. Because of their vampire blood, the descendants of the vampires can replenish the blood they needed at any time and change it into their essence and blood. Therefore, this weapon eventually fell into his hands.”

When Fang Qiu heard all of this...

He understood.

He was not curious or confused about this kind of weapon that had a tale behind it.

Because he himself had a Divine Sword.

His Divine Sword’s story was much more fantastic than the stories of these ancient weapons!

“Over there...”

Luoyun turned his head and pointed to the silver gloves on the hands of the Anglan guru. One glove was inlaid with a light red gem as big as a pigeon egg.

“It’s a pair of energy gloves that the Anglan people got when they dug their own ancient ruins. I heard that the gem on that glove is unique in the world. It’s a magical gem that can enhance one’s spiritual force. After the gloves were dug out, these Anglan people vigorously explored every inch of their land to look for the mine of this gem. It took them a few years to search the entire Anglan, but they could not find another gem like that.”

Speaking of this, Luoyun raised his eyebrows again and continued, “Until now, no one could tell what kind of stone the gem on the glove was or its origin. But with the glove, the Anglan witch without any close combat techniques became as competent as werewolves in close combat!”

“So amazing?”

Fang Qiu was secretly astonished.

The glove possessed such miraculous powers, so what would happen if he snatched it and wore it on his hands? Once the glove strengthened his spiritual force, could his Divine Consciousness cover a much wider area?

“And over there.”

Luoyun turned his head again, pointed to the L’hexagone guru, and said, “Look at the lance in his hand!”

Fang Qiu turned to look at it.

Sure enough, in the hands of the L’hexagone guru, he saw a lance made of fine silver. Such lances were commonly used by mounted soldiers in ancient Europa. It was a lance made of pure silver!

“But isn’t this guy using cards?”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

“Look at the lance’s top.”

Luoyun reminded him, “This lance was said to be a holy weapon in ancient Europa. Righteous cavalry used these lances to kill and seal demons by thrusting or striking fiercely. In addition, there is a hole in the pointed end of the lance. A lot of silver nails are hidden in it. It is as ingeniously designed as those concealed weapons from a Tang organization in Huaxia!”

Medical Master

Chapter 1263: Killing Fang Qiu!

“Of course, they all have secret weapons!”

After Fang Qiu heard the detailed introduction from Luoyun, his face became serious.

“The scepter in this relic could also be regarded as an ancient weapon, but unfortunately, you smashed it.”

Luoyun sighed softly.

“That scepter is far inferior.”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

He saw no similar jade stones on those ancient weapons in the hands of the three gurus from Murica, Anglan, and L’hexagone. Except for the Anglan guru’s glove, which was only used to enhance the cultivators’ strength, both the lance and the dagger contained mighty power.

Fang Qiu could even feel that the energy in the bone dagger was quite restless!

“I have thought of this, but I didn’t expect people from the three countries would come and face us together.”

With this...

Luoyun frowned and said to Fang Qiu, "You go first. I'll cover you!"

"Hmm?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

He turned to look at Luoyun and was sure that Luoyun was not joking.

"It's not necessary."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "It's still hard to tell who will win."

When Luoyun heard his over-confident words...

He looked at Fang Qiu in astonishment.

Luoyun was a guru from the Sword Sect, but he could only be considered a middle-level guru in the Sword Sect. Nevertheless, as a Sword Sect member, his strength was way better than that of ordinary gurus.

In the ancient relic, Luoyun was the only one who dared to stand against other gurus.

As a citizen of Huaxia...

He was proud of himself. Besides, he was indeed stronger than gurus from other countries. Yet, he was also very clear about the great strength of these people and the mighty power of those ancient weapons in their hands!

Luoyun admitted that John Doe was formidable.

But...

In his eyes, the three gurus armed with their three ancient weapons were almost invincible.

Just as John Doe had said, the Pharaoh Scepter was not good enough to be classified as an ancient weapon. However, with such a weapon, Rahman, the Egyptt guru, could fight against five people. One can just imagine what an authentic ancient weapon was capable of doing.

And there were three ancient weapons!

The only thing he could do was to delay as long as possible so that John Doe could get out safely.

To his great surprise...

John Doe chose to stay?

Despite the grim expression on his face, he appeared very confident!

“You?”

Luoyun hesitated.

“Running is not an option.”

Fang Qiu’s eyes narrowed, he shook his head and said, “You are not a match for the three of them, so you can’t buy much time for me. If we run away, they’ll have a chance to separate us and crush us one by one. Since they have come to us...”

"If you want to fight, let's fight!"

Luoyun smiled and said, "I can help you hold back two of them for a short time."

"No."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "Just block one for me!"

"No problem."

Luoyun nodded.

On the other side...

The gurus from Murica, Anglan, and L'hexagone began to close in on them.

These gurus had the same target, but they didn't make a move because they were competitors and enemies. None of them wanted to make a move first.

These gurus approached them.

"John Doe."

The Murica guru stepped forward, stared at Fang Qiu with a sneer, and said, "Leave all the things you brought out of the ruin and destroy your cultivation. Then we can spare your life!"

"Well, tell me, who do you think I should give these things to?"

Fang Qiu pointed to the coat with various treasures that he tied on his back and asked with a smile.

When the others heard what he said...

“Humph.”

The Anglan and L’hexagone gurus snorted coldly at the same time.

“Haha...”

The Murica guru burst out laughing and said, “Do you think you can fool us?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

It looked like the three parties had agreed to do this together.

“We will give you one last chance. If you want to live, do as I say. Otherwise...”

With this...

The Murica guru showed the dagger gripped tightly in his right hand. The energy in it became more agitated. It could even be seen with the naked eye that a splash of scarlet had appeared on the dagger’s sharp edge.

A strong smell of blood emanated from the dagger.

Nearby...

The L’hexagone guru also pointed his lance at Fang Qiu.

“I’ll help you stall that witch.”

Luoyun spoke up.

“Exactly what I want.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

The Anglan guru was a witch and excelled at long-range attacks, but in Fang Qiu’s opinion, she was not easy to deal with. If this witch cooperated with another guru, they could attack him from far and near. Then it would be pretty tricky to deal with them.

Therefore...

Luoyun trapping the witch would be the best strategy.

Moreover...

Among the three gurus, the witch was the easiest opponent for him to hold back. With his strength, Luoyun could get close to her. The witch who wore the ancient gloves could handle close combat, but she could barely spare time and energy to deal with Fang Qiu. In this way, Luoyun could successfully hold off one of them.

“Fight!”

After making the plan, Fang Qiu got in position and lunged toward the Murica guru before him. On the way, he clenched his right hand, and his Divine Sword was instantly formed.

Meanwhile...

Luoyun brandished his long sword and rushed toward the witch.

On the other side...

As the L'hexagone guru swung the lance in his hand, a silver nail instantly shot out from the lance top and raced toward Luoyun. In the meantime, he abruptly waved his hand and raised the lance as he rushed up and aimed at Fang Qiu's back.

"Tsk, tsk..."

The Murica guru laughed sinisterly before waving his right hand. In a split second, he turned into a blood-red shadow that reeked with a highly pungent smell of blood and darted toward Fang Qiu in a threatening manner, as he made a pincer attack against Fang Qiu with the L'hexagone guru. A trace of madness flashed across his eyes.

"Your ancient weapons and my Divine Sword, let's see which is stronger!"

Fang Qiu gave a snort of contempt.

"Flexibility Secret-Spiritual Wind!"

Fang Qiu brandished the long sword in his hand and walked forward. As his steps changed constantly, he suddenly appeared incredibly flexible.

His flexible movements stunned the gurus from Murica and L'hexagone.

It was not until they got close that they discovered a problem.

They couldn't even locate John Doe's figure.

Helplessly...

They exchanged glances and raised their weapons at the same time.

“Blood Storm!”

The Murica guru violently swung the dagger in his hand. Under his stimulation, a wickedly sharp surge of bloody energy Qi erupted from the dagger’s edges and shot swiftly toward Fang Qiu like an ocean wave.

Next to them...

“Holy-lancer Silver-thorn!”

Without waiting any longer, the L’hexagone guru activated the lance in his hand and aimed it at Fang Qiu. At the same time, his lance glowed with boundless silver radiance. Then, the mechanism at the top of the lance suddenly activated. Silver nails wrapped in energy as thickly dotted as raindrops immediately gushed out and blotted out the sky and the land. They resembled sparkling thorns which moved at lightning speed and hit out at Fang Qiu from all directions.

Evidently...

Unable to capture John Doe’s precise position, the two gurus could only increase their attack ranges to fight against Fang Qiu.

“Impressively wide attacking area.”

Fang Qiu, who faced their attacks from all sides, narrowed his eyes, flipped his wrist, and immediately changed his sword-attacking tactic.

“Defense Secret-Sword Lotus!”

His sword made an abrupt turn.

With his sword, Fang Qiu executed dazzling and a fast display of movements.

The Divine Sword immediately turned into innumerable shadows, which directly condensed into a Sword Lotus around Fang Qiu and enveloped him.

The next moment...

“Pa! Pa! Pa!”

The sounds of metal clashing were heard.

There...

All the densely packed silver nails were deflected by the Sword Lotus around Fang Qiu.

The crazy stream of bloody energy Qi ended up in the same way as these silver nails.

It bombarded the Sword Lotus but failed to break through its shield. After it hovered for merely half a second, it dissipated before Fang Qiu’s eyes.

“Combat Secret-Invading Fire!”

After blocking the two guru’s attacks, Fang Qiu rubbed his fingers and quickly switched his sword strategy. He moved nimbly and brandished his long sword. With an overwhelming stream of explosive Qi power, it sailed fast through the air to the Murica guru like a flaming meteor.

“Hmm?”

The Murica guru's face changed drastically. Obviously, it had never occurred to him that John Doe would shift from the defensive to the offensive. At once, he mobilized all his energy and brought his dagger up to ward off the blow.

"Pow!"

There was a crisp sound.

With a big swing, Fang Qiu's Divine Sword slashed swiftly at the Murica guru. The daunting astral energy of the sword instantly cut off a few strands of his long hair.

This time...

The Murica guru was shocked to the core.

He could clearly perceive how sharp the long sword before him was. It even faintly outshone the ancient dagger he held.

"Die!"

Suddenly, a roar was heard.

The L'hexagone guru waved the lance in his hand and flashed behind Fang Qiu. Abruptly and brutally, he intended to poke the sharp tip of the lance into the back of Fang Qiu's head.

He was going to take Fang Qiu's life!

"You want to kill me?"

Sensing the danger behind him from the L'hexagone guru, Fang Qiu suddenly turned his head, as his expression changed. Then, a guru-level aura that belonged only to him, which was much stronger than that of an ordinary guru, suddenly burst forth.

“Swoosh!”

Fang Qiu shifted slightly and avoided the horrific attack of the L'hexagone guru, who pounced on him.

After this move...

The gurus from Murica and L'hexagone who had lunged at Fang Qiu from both sides instantly bumped into each other.

“Three-point Shadowless!”

In silence, Fang Qiu exerted all his strength and slashed fiercely at them with his sword.

A loud shout sounded.

Three streaks of sword light erupted. The moment they streaked toward the two gurus, they merged into a massive beam of sword Qi.

“Boom!”

There came a loud noise.

The sword Qi crashed into their ancient weapons, and its terrifying force directly sent them flying.

As a Huaxia guru...

He should be stronger than these foreign gurus!

Not to mention that...

Fang Qiu had recultivated!

The strike landed.

Fang Qiu waved the long sword in his hand again.

“Thunderbolt-absorbing Technique!”

He launched the second move of the Divine Sword.

Suspended in midair, the Divine Sword in Fang Qiu’s hand suddenly released a layer of dazzling blue light. With a wave of Fang Qiu’s arm, the blue light instantly transformed into a bolt of lightning with a terrifying destructive aura that dashed swiftly toward the two.

At this sight...

The Murica guru and the L’hexagone guru were frightened and their expressions changed drastically.

Without hesitation, they flew aside to dodge and fled in different directions.

Right at this moment...

Fang Qiu swiftly waved his long sword and shot out two beams of sword Qi that blocked their escape routes.

They felt utterly helpless...

In a great hurry, the Murica guru and the L'hexagone guru could only exert every ounce of their energy to resist the heavy blows from Fang Qiu.

On the other side...

The battle between Luoyun and the Anglan witch became white-hot.

At the same time, the Huaxia people fought violently with the envoys of the three countries.

The prairie was initially peaceful.

In the blink of an eye, it had become a bloody battlefield!

Chapter 1264: The Combination of Great Hand of Destruction and Great Hand of Formlessness

“Boom!”

There was a sudden clap of thunder...

A huge explosion ripped across the vast grassland.

From a distance...

A bolt of lightning violently struck the two dazzling energy balls. One was silver, and the other was red. The second they collided, a cloud of terrifying energy Qi erupted in all directions and looked like the sharp spikes of a hedgehog on the alert for any danger.

Aside...

Luoyun and the Anglan witch, who were in the midst of a fierce battle felt the sudden surge of energy Qi. Their faces changed drastically, and they quickly dodged!

Some distance away...

The Huaxia people and people from the three countries were also engaged in a fierce battle, so they didn't have time to dodge before they were sent flying by the horrible energy Qi.

Fortunately, everyone was strong enough. Although the energy Qi knocked them into the air, they were not injured!

Over there...

At the center of the battlefield...

The bolt of lightning hit the Murica guru and the L'hexagone guru hard. Their faces turned red as their internal Qi and blood surged up.

They didn't expect John Doe to have such high combat effectiveness.

They were still at a disadvantage, even with two ancient weapons.

They paled with shock at the sight!

But...

They joined forces and even then were barely able to block the lightning strike and felt shocked to the core. Meanwhile, another sound rang out, which made their heart palpitate with anxiety and fear.

“Tiangang Kills Demons!”

After launching one strike, Fang Qiu didn’t stop. Instead, with a flip of his wrist, he displayed the third move with his Divine Sword.

In Fang Qiu’s mind...

They deserved little sympathy.

When they were in the black fog area of the relic, he clashed with the Murica guru, who was determined to kill him.

The L’hexagone guru didn’t play any tricks along the way. But since he took the initiative to attack Fang Qiu, how could Fang Qiu let him go?

Fang Qiu was very clear that both he and the L’hexagone guru wouldn’t let off each other.

Therefore...

This was a life-and-death battle!

“Buzz...”

Some energy Qi still lingered on the grassland. Abruptly, a howling gale swept through the plain.

The Murica guru and the L’hexagone guru were shocked!

They had seen John Doe use this move in the ruin with their own eyes. At that time, John Doe used this move to drive away the giant snake coiled around the pool.

They all knew...

It must have been challenging to even try and break the scale of that enormous snake!

Under such circumstances, John Doe managed to drive the giant snake away from the pool, which meant that even the python was afraid of this move.

How could they have the same amazing defensive powers as the huge snake?

They glanced at Fang Qiu in horror.

These people decided to flee.

However, before they could move...

“Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!”

Streams of incomparably sharp astral energy from the sword formed around them. As the wind blew fiercely across, it swirled rapidly around them.

During this process...

More and more rays of astral energy from the sword emerged between Heaven and Earth.

Soon...

“Rumble, rumble, rumble...”

An enormous tornado of astral energy from the sword that could connect Heaven and Earth formed with a thud.

As the tornado appeared, the green grassland was instantly mowed into countless tiny pieces, which were blown up sky-high into the air.

At this moment...

The two of them completely panicked.

They turned around.

There...

They saw Fang Qiu flying in the air as he stood amid the tornado of astral energy of the sword.

“Since you’re here, then stay forever.”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly with an indifferent look on his face and shouted, “Kill!”

The next moment...

The giant tornado of astral energy of the sword suddenly shrank like the pupils of one’s eye, to the extreme, and shaped a devastating stream of twisting power.

Before they could resist, they were instantly pulled into midair.

“Whizz, whizz, whizz...”

The noise of the astral energy of the sword penetrating the air continuously sounded.

They hurriedly moved their Qi to resist.

A silver and a red dot of light immediately lit up in the terrifying tornado.

After all, they were gurus.

They barely managed to block the huge impact of the astral energy of the sword.

However, the tornado of astral energy of the sword still surged strongly. Countless beams of astral energy from the sword slammed into their shields with the greatest impact.

“Pa, pa, pa...”

The sounds of the force hitting the two gurus were as dense as a crazy shower of raindrops.

They did all in their power to resist.

They still had a chance when the tornado ended.

Unfortunately...

The tornado lasted too long. After they hung on for a full three minutes, the red and silver dots of light finally shattered with a cracking sound!

The next moment...

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

Thickly dotted rays of astral energy from the sword struck them crazily.

In a twinkling...

Their clothes were reduced to tatters by the strike and left countless bloody wounds on their bodies.

Finally...

The tornado stopped!

The astral energy from the sword which had gathered all over the sky finally dissipated.

“Pow!”

The two fell heavily on the ground, one after the other.

By this time, they were nearly naked. If they hadn’t used the last bit of energy to protect their crotches, their pants would have been ripped off as well.

But...

Their trousers were now like micro shorts, but they still held their ancient weapons tightly in their hands.

“Humph.”

Fang Qiu snorted.

In the distance...

Luoyun and the Anglan guru were stunned by this scene.

The two gurus had ancient weapons, so they never imagined that John Doe would be able to thrash them so badly in the blink of an eye!

Wasn't his strength too terrifying?

In the distance...

The special envoys of the four countries and the others stared at Fang Qiu in shock.

John Doe...

He had fought side by side with them.

But the man was high above them in a second, and even their superior was about to die at his hands.

Was he really John Doe?

Lester from Murican, Isabel from Anglan, and Bernard from L'hexagone were all startled.

They couldn't believe that John Doe had become so formidable.

When Lester recalled taking the initiative to challenge John Doe, his face became a little ferocious and distorted. Back then, he had lost and could feel the large gap between himself and John Doe. But now John Doe had become a mighty figure that he could only look up to.

Unlike the people of the three countries...

The Huaxia people immediately cheered when they saw this.

At the sight of this scene...

Lester shot a withering glare at them!

“Kill! Kill them!”

Lester stood up, pointed at the Huaxia people, and ordered, “Come on, all of you! Kill them!”

Everyone heard what he said...

The people from Anglan, L’hexagone, and Murican immediately brandished their weapons and rushed madly toward the Huaxia people to regain their dignity!

Right at this moment...

“Whiz!”

An ear-piercing sound broke through the air.

What they saw...

In the distance, Fang Qiu waved his right hand. A sharp streak of sword Qi shot out from his sword and instantly made its way toward the crowd of people from the three countries.

“Boom!”

There came a loud bang.

As soon as the sword Qi landed on the ground, it exploded, killing and injuring lots of people from the three countries.

After this attack...

The number of martial arts practitioners from the three countries decreased sharply. These people, who outnumbered the Huaxia people initially, were now significantly reduced.

“You want to wipe us out?”

When the Huaxia people saw this, their fighting spirit immediately surged, and they said, “Brothers, let’s show them who will die!”

After that...

These Huaxia people immediately rushed to the greatly reduced group of martial arts practitioners from the three countries whose members were dead or injured.

On the other side...

The Anglan witch saw that the Murica guru and the L’hexagone guru were seriously injured.

Her expression changed. Evidently, she didn’t expect John Doe to be so daunting. At once, she moved aside with the intention of finding a chance to turn around and escape when Luoyun was distracted by the huge disturbance over there.

To her surprise...

Though Luoyun was drawn to John Doe’s battle scene, he had been on guard against this witch. As a result, he happened to see her when she tried to run away.

“Trying to run?”

With a sneer, Luoyun got in position and quickly went after her.

The Anglan witch’s face changed drastically.

She could only quickly take action to deal with Luoyun.

There...

“Hoo, hoo...”

They gasped.

When the Murica guru and the L’hexagone guru struggled to stand up from the ground, they looked at Fang Qiu in horror.

They retreated rapidly as they tried to make their escape.

“Die!”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and immediately darted toward them.

“Whiz!”

A sharp sound of something breaking through the air suddenly came.

Fang Qiu paused.

He immediately turned to look.

A long green arrow came from afar. With an ear-piercing sound, it moved through the air and instantly arrived in front of Fang Qiu.

“Francis!”

Seeing the green arrow, Fang Qiu reacted quickly and dodged to the side.

Unexpectedly...

“Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!”

More jade arrows came at him, one after another.

He took a closer look.

Among the jade arrows was a dark green figure.

Fang Qiu avoided the jade arrows nimbly.

When he was about to fight against Francis.

“Swoosh!”

Another aura appeared out of thin air behind him.

The one who came...

The Rashk guru loomed over him. He had transformed into a werewolf!

He waved his long, sharp claws and targeted the coat on Fang Qiu's back because Fang Qiu had wrapped all the treasures in it. The werewolf tried to snatch them away.

"Courting death!"

Fang Qiu was furious.

While he flashed aside to dodge...

He dashed to the ground with a swoosh and violently waved his right hand.

Instantly, his Great Hand of Destruction absorbed all the Qi of Heaven and Earth within a few kilometers and formed a huge ring of internal Qi in the blink of an eye!

When the Rashk guru and Francis were about to reach him...

"Get lost!"

Fang Qiu roared.

He slammed his right hand forward.

"Great Hand of Formlessness!"

A loud shout...

With this gesture, the huge ring of internal Qi that had just been attracted by Great Hand of Destruction suddenly exploded.

It was like an atomic bomb had gone off.

With Fang Qiu as the core, the energy ring erupted in all directions with the momentum of a tsunami.

This explosion happened all of a sudden...

All the people present were so scared that their faces turned pale.

“Rumble...”

An earsplitting sound of thunder crashed in the sky.

The Rashk guru and Francis had just approached Fang Qiu. However, like tiny boats in the sea, they couldn't hold on there, no matter how hard they tried to block it. Instantly, they were blown far away.

Not just the two of them...

Everyone around was sent flying.

Under the impact, all of them spat out blood and were seriously wounded.

This devastating move...

Not only the crowd but Fang Qiu himself was also shocked by the scene in front of him!

Medical Master

Chapter 1265: Sixth Venerable and Eighth Venerable Came to Their Rescue!

“Superb!”

Fang Qiu was also stunned because he didn’t expect the strike to be so powerful.

But in fact...

When Fang Qiu learned the art of the Great Hand of Formlessness long ago, he had already visualized its consequence.

In his opinion...

The Great Hand of Destruction concentrated on gathering power, while the Great Hand of Formlessness focused on dispersing it.

They produced two completely opposite effects. When the two powerful blows were combined, the result would be fantastic.

They were just like the positive and negative poles of a magnet, which were two aspects opposite to each other. Based on this principle, the magnetic suspension train was invented.

But...

Although Fang Qiu already had plans, he didn’t have much energy to research this.

He could only keep improving and perfecting this idea in his mind.

Until now...

In a fit of rage, Fang Qiu didn't think much and performed the move he had imagined. To his great surprise, it proved to be so imposing.

"It's a destructive bombing raid on humans!"

Sighing with emotion, Fang Qiu turned to look.

There...

Everyone was sent flying and injured!

Fang Qiu took special care of the Huaxia people, who had been under Luoyun's protection, so only a few Huaxia people were severely injured. The shockwave overwhelmingly hit all the people from the other forces: they began to vomit blood, and each force suffered heavy casualties.

Fang Qiu scanned the crowd.

With a somber face, Fang Qiu flung himself toward the army of enemies.

He was ready to finish off all of them.

Feeling the ferocious murderous intent of Fang Qiu, people from all countries panicked.

Several gurus stared at him in utter shock.

Only then did they realize that they had seriously underestimated John Doe.

His unrivaled combat capability completely exceeded their imagination. At first, he fought against two gurus with ancient weapons and seriously injured them. Then, he broke out such a horrible force when faced with a sneak attack. As the two gurus tried to make a sneak raid, it knocked them far away and badly wounded all the enemies on the scene.

There were five gurus present!

How could John Doe do this?

He was too terrifying!

“Whiz!”

The humming sound of a sword rang through the sky.

Fang Qiu brandished his sword, ready to massacre all the enemies in his sight.

Right at this moment...

“Swish! Swish!”

Two gusts of wind suddenly blew over.

Just as Fang Qiu was about to take action, two dark shadows suddenly shot over from afar. They rushed forward with long machetes and slashed at Fang Qiu!

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu immediately raised his sword to block their attacks, his eyebrows raised in surprise.

He strained his eyes to look at his attackers.

The two people wore masks and were covered from top to toe... Fang Qiu could only see their eyes!

“Pa! Pa! Pa!”

The two masked men charged forward, raised their machetes in silence, and slashed wildly at Fang Qiu. Each strike was surprisingly powerful.

“This aura again?”

During the confrontation, Fang Qiu suddenly felt a familiar aura from both of them. It seemed that he had come across this aura before.

He pondered for a while.

A picture immediately appeared in Fang Qiu’s mind.

In the ruin...

He sensed a bizarre aura in the distance when all the forces gathered in the passage, but it vanished when he dashed over.

As he recalled this, he found their auras were the same as the aura that flashed across at that time!

An idea flashed across his mind.

Fang Qiu did not hold back. Even as he observed the two, he fought fiercely with all his might.

At this time...

While John Doe was stuck here with these people...

One after another, the people from various countries got up, carried their gurus, and fled at full speed.

At this sight...

Luoyun wanted to go after them.

However, on second thought, these people had nowhere to go, and there were two masked men who targeted John Doe. If they rashly went up to intercept them, these cornered people would put up a strong counterattack. At that time, their losses might also be very great.

Not to mention that...

John Doe was caught in a fierce battle, so he had to stand by and watch. If anything happened, he could help.

Under these circumstances...

The forces from all over the world managed to flee far away.

On the battlefield...

After attacking wildly for a long time, the two masked men suddenly retreated and moved in unison. One faced Fang Qiu, and the other stopped before those Huaxia people. Each directly flung out a flour-like substance.

“Watch out!”

Fang Qiu shouted aloud...

He knew that it was poison!

Unluckily for them...

The masked men moved so fast that they couldn't react in time. Although they quickly closed their mouths and noses when they heard Fang Qiu's warning, many people suddenly fell to the ground and twitched in agony— they had been overcome by the poison.

On the other side...

After they sprayed the poison, the two masked men didn't intend to stop at all. Instead, they directly turned around and zipped away.

When he saw this, Fang Qiu couldn't chase after them.

He chose to rush to the Huaxia people and carefully tended to those poisoned people, and tried to expel their toxins with his internal Qi!

"We're lucky."

As he forced the poisons out of the first person, Fang Qiu said with a sigh of relief, "Although the powder is highly toxic, at least there is a way to detoxify it."

Soon...

After he removed all the poisonous substances from the first man's body with his internal Qi, Fang Qiu started to help the second man detoxify his body.

Just like that, more than half an hour passed.

After he detoxified the pollutants in everyone's bodies...

Fang Qiu heaved a long sigh of relief.

Although it was a pity that he missed such an excellent opportunity to permanently get rid of gurus from all countries in one go, it was not a significant loss to him because he managed to heal these Huaxia people, who were like his family members!

"Who were the two masked men just now?"

Looking in the direction where the two masked men left, Fang Qiu frowned and murmured, "Nirvana?"

"But if they had been Nirvana members, they wouldn't have bothered to save the people."

Everyone had witnessed what had happened.

The two masked men appeared here to save the people from all the countries.

Otherwise, they wouldn't have appeared before Fang Qiu was about to kill them and turned around to run away when they threw the poisonous powder after people from all the countries had escaped a certain distance away.

Evidently...

They appeared only to buy time for the worldwide forces to run for their lives.

"Nirvana is an organization targeted at converting people. In that case, it would be strange if they didn't take the opportunity to wipe out all those people. How could they save all of them?"

“Did they have any other motives in mind?”

“What was the purpose of their rescue?”

“Or they weren’t from Nirvana Organization?”

At this thought...

Fang Qiu’s brows furrowed even more tightly and his expression became more imposing.

“If they were not from Nirvana, then who were those two masked men?”

Fang Qiu was lost in thought.

Before long, he associated it with the fact that everyone had entered the ancient ruin.

It was very likely that the two masked men had led everyone into the ancient relic.

The more he thought about it...

The more things were involved!

Fang Qiu shook his head.

It seemed that he could only slowly unravel the matter of the two masked men in the future.

“Let’s go.”

Fang Qiu turned around, looked at all the Huaxia people, and said, "Since I failed to kill people from all the countries here, we are likely to encounter danger again. So, we have to take a detour."

"Um."

Luoyun nodded and asked. "You've decided?"

"Kind of."

Fang Qiu responded, "We shouldn't take our leave from Egyptt. After all, the Egyptt guru was in a coma because of us, and the treasures from the relic are here with me. These people from Egyptt will never let us leave so easily. So, we can only cross the Africon Savannah and leave from other countries!"

"Swish, swish...*

In the depths of an endless desert outside Africon Savannah, two black shadows, like ghosts in the dark night, rushed swiftly all the way into the desert and finally stopped in a sand city that had been abandoned for a hundred years.

Upon closer inspection...

They were the two masked men who had just attacked Fang Qiu.

"The plan is half complete."

One of them took off his mask to reveal a serious face and a head of gray hair.

This person...

Shockingly enough was Eighth Venerable.

“Um.”

Another person nodded in agreement and said as he took off his mask, “What’s left is to see how these martial arts practitioners will transform and those who suffered.”

Under the mask was a very wrinkled face. Though he had an aged face, he was only a middle-aged man.

This was none other than Sixth Venerable from the Nirvana Organization!

“Tsk, tsk...”

Hearing Sixth Venerable’s words, the gray-haired Eighth Venerable immediately laughed proudly and said, “They are now living a life worse than death. They are still living in purgatory in the human world. They should die earlier than later.”

“It won’t be long.”

Sixth Venerable smiled and echoed, “Let’s continue to implement the follow-up plan. Although the first half of the plan had been carried out perfectly, the next part is critically important!”

In the distance...

A group of people quickly passed through the prairie.

Fang Qiu took the Huaxia people to a city named Tobrauk, in the coastal area of Leebya, Egyptt’s neighboring country.

As soon as he got into the city...

Fang Qiu found a few taxis and quickly took everyone to the airport.

But just as they arrived at the airport...

Fang Qiu sensed several powerful auras watching him.

Luoyun noticed them as well.

After searching around...

They found that they were local eighth-class and ninth-class experts.

These people seemed to have come for the treasures in the Egyptt ruin. However, after they were blocked by Fang Qiu and the others at the airport, they merely observed them carefully. In the end, they turned around and left.

Since they were in Egyptt's neighboring country...

They had been monitoring the battle in the relic. Initially, they wanted to pluck the prize from the winner's grasp. To their dismay, they discovered two gurus in the Huaxia team!

So, how could they have the guts to seize their treasures? They had no desire to court death!

As soon as the local experts left, Luoyun and the others felt slightly relieved.

They got their boarding passes...

"Are you sure you won't go back with us?"

Luoyun looked at Fang Qiu in puzzlement...

“I have something to do here.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “Once you’re back safely to our home country, my task will be over. Then it’s time to deal with my own business.”

Indeed...

For Fang Qiu...

He had not yet verified whether there were any jade mines under the ruin. He could not just proceed to dig merely because of his guess. No matter what, he had to do something to confirm it.

“Alright.”

Knowing that John Doe still had his affairs to settle, Luoyun couldn’t say anything more. After he nodded in agreement, he reminded him, “You have the right to decide how to deal with those things you got in the ruin. But if there is anything that you don’t need, you can hand it over to the country. Our country needs these things badly.”

“Don’t worry. I will.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

Medical Master

Chapter 1266: Secret Worries Inside His Body!

After he saw Luoyun and the others off...

Fang Qiu turned around and returned to the vast grassland.

As for the treasures from the ancient ruin which were with him, Fang Qiu found a shop in a city, bought a large backpack, and put all the things in it.

He was going to check these things before he handed them in.

But...

It was not the time to do that...

After returning to the grassland, Fang Qiu walked around first to cover up his tracks and then rushed to the new settlement where the primitive tribe was housed.

Since the matter about the ancient relic was over, he had to inform them that they could come back.

Fang Qiu had asked the chief of the primitive tribe where they would go.

He had once said that he would take his tribe to pass through Kairo and move to live in a large mountain on the other side of Kairo, where he would find a new base.

Thus...

Fang Qiu had to walk through Kairo first.

However, because the Egyptt people clearly remembered his appearance as Well Known, Fang Qiu could only take a detour.

When he came to the mountain area where the primitive tribe lived...

It was already night.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

While Fang Qiu was walking, his cell phone suddenly rang.

He took it out and had a look.

It was not a phone call but a string of WeChat messages.

They were all from He Xue.

“They arrived so quickly?”

Fang Qiu thought of the python. Instantly, he opened it and took a look. From the photos He Xue took, there were a total of 20 iron boxes and not one was missing.

Moreover, every single one of them was exceptionally intact. There were no traces that anyone had tried to open them.

He skimmed through these pictures.

Fang Qiu also clearly saw the unique mark he left on each iron box and was sure the iron boxes had not been replaced or opened.

“Perfect.”

Fang Qiu replied with one word.

“OK.”

After He Xue sent this message, she asked some people to load the twenty iron boxes back to the cultivation base.

At this time...

“It was better to use my normal identity.”

Fang Qiu smiled.

He used his name to ask the President of Comores for help. Then, as a doctor of traditional Chinese medicine who was sent here to conduct investigations on the new virus, Fang Qiu handed over these iron boxes to the Egyptt officials.

In the eyes of the Egyptt officials, the items in these boxes were probably the key to Fang Qiu’s investigation of the new virus, so they did not dare to hesitate. As soon as they received the goods, they immediately sent them to Huaxia.

After all, Fang Qiu was the one who helped them treat malaria.

Notably...

At present, the Ebala virus, a new virus that emerged, was particularly troublesome. Perhaps only Fang Qiu could find the actual treatment.

Therefore, the Egyptt officials didn’t dare delay.

If they knew Fang Qiu was John Doe, they would probably regret the stupid things they had done!

He put away the phone.

Fang Qiu quickly flashed across the forest and released his Divine Consciousness as he ran to search for the primitive tribe.

Before long, Fang Qiu found the primitive tribe near the river.

When he came to the tribe...

His sudden appearance greatly startled the night watchman in the tribe. Then, when he recognized Well Known, he hurriedly called the chief over.

"How could you have known that we're here?"

When he saw Fang Qiu, the chief asked curiously.

"I'm here to inform you that the matter on the grassland has been settled and the people from all the countries have left. You can go back now."

Fang Qiu said.

"Really?"

Hearing this, the chief immediately grew excited.

The other clan members also clamored excitedly.

"Absolutely."

Fang Qiu nodded with certainty.

"Hurry then. Go and pack up."

The chief excitedly gave the order to his people, who started packing immediately.

“After getting all our things together, we will go home tomorrow!”

The chief waved his hand excitedly.

Seeing that everyone was so thrilled, Fang Qiu also smiled gently.

After that...

Fang Qiu found a place nearby to sit and meditate.

As soon as he closed his eyes, he immediately began checking his internal condition.

As a result...

Fang Qiu instantly spotted the black substance inside his body!

He clearly remembered something.

When he was at the relic site, the black substance in his body was just like two strands of hair. But now, the two thin threads had expanded nearly a hundred times and had become as thick as a finger.

They were still two tiny masses and grew slowly, but how long had it been?

Fang Qiu didn't pay much attention to time in the ancient ruin.

But at most, only a few days had passed.

How had the black substance increased so much in size in just a few short days?

What was going on?

Fang Qiu was shocked to the core!

The black substance hadn't shown any harmful effects for the time being, such as damage to the body, but the fact that it could grow by itself was enough to make Fang Qiu worry!

Fang Qiu knew what was going on...

It was not the time for it to show its strength.

It would be fatal if it grew big enough and exploded with power!

"How could it grow so rapidly?"

Fang Qiu frowned and began to ponder on this matter.

"Could it have something to do with those battles?"

"This strange black substance can naturally attract internal Qi to increase and all the internal Qi in my body will enter a state of rapid circulation during each battle. Could this have made it absorb internal Qi more quickly and begin to grow faster?"

With this idea in mind...

Fang Qiu immediately began to try.

He secretly activated the internal Qi and ran it quickly in his body.

To get the best test result, Fang Qiu didn't hold back and directly pushed his activated internal Qi to the maximum.

The sharp change in his internal Qi suddenly sped up the circulation of Qi and blood in his body.

Then...

As his internal Qi ran rapidly, the abnormal black substance was able to absorb more internal Qi and grew even more quickly than when he didn't accelerate his internal Qi.

Moreover, the more strength Fang Qiu put forth to stimulate his internal Qi, the faster the black substance would grow!

"The result is as expected."

Fang Qiu was unexpectedly shocked.

Right at this moment...

"Huh?"

Just as Fang Qiu stopped running his internal Qi, a trace suddenly broke away from the original black substance and came out through the skin with his sweat.

"Can it get out?"

Fang Qiu immediately opened his eyes and muttered curiously, "Does it mean I just need to sweat a lot to eliminate the black substance from my body? I can do it by doing more exercises?"

As he muttered to himself...

Fang Qiu continued to observe the trace of black substance that dripped out of his body with the sweat.

He took a closer look.

The black substance was still enveloped in his sweat.

When the sweat evaporated, it didn't disappear with the sweat. Instead, after the sweat completely evaporated, it automatically floated in midair.

"Hmm?"

Fang Qiu stared at the wisp of energy floating in midair, which was drifting toward the vicinity of the primitive tribe.

Abruptly...

"Clatter..."

A pheasant in the woods suddenly flew over his head.

However...

As soon as it came over, the wisp of black substance went straight into the pheasant's body at lightning speed as if it had some form of intelligence.

When Fang Qiu caught sight of this...

His face immediately became severe.

“Can this thing be contagious?”

Fang Qiu was shocked.

Going by the previous traces, the black substance was truly contagious. Additionally, it wasn't easy to eliminate it.

At this thought...

Fang Qiu didn't dare to waste any more time and instantly waved his hand. With his internal Qi, he controlled the pheasant and directly caught it in his hands.

Then he closed his eyes and began to observe its body.

This time...

Fang Qiu noticed a trace of the black substance in the pheasant's body. Just like when it was in the human body, it kept absorbing the internal Qi of the pheasant.

Because the internal Qi in the pheasant was very weak, it took a long time for the substance to absorb it. This way, the division and growth of the black substance slowed down a lot.

Nevertheless...

Its absorption, division, and growth processes were indeed real!

“What exactly is this thing?”

Fang Qiu was extremely puzzled.

It seemed that...

This strange black substance was like an indestructible contagious virus that could grow independently!

As a Chinese Medicine doctor...

Fang Qiu had gained a profound understanding of all kinds of viruses, but he had never seen this type of virus.

As a guru of Wulin...

Fang Qiu had come across various uncommon types of energy in Wulin, but he had never seen such a strange and horrifying thing. Could it be energy? But it seemed not. In this case, what exactly was it?

"I'll do some more experiments on it!"

In a flash...

Fang Qiu immediately controlled his internal Qi and sped up the circulation of Qi and blood in the pheasant.

In this condition...

The black substance in the pheasant began to absorb its internal Qi at once and kept growing and splitting. Soon, it grew to the size of a little finger.

Then...

Under Fang Qiu's observation...

When this wisp of black substance grew to a certain extent, another trace splintered off from the original one and escaped into the air.

At this sight...

Fang Qiu was fully aware that he couldn't let the black substance infect the people of the primitive tribe, but he didn't dare to wrap it with internal Qi for fear that it would directly absorb it.

Therefore, he could only gather the Qi of Heaven and Earth with his Great Hand of Destruction and wrap up the black substance.

However...

From this move...

Fang Qiu immediately learned that the black substance couldn't absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth directly!

After the Qi of Heaven and Earth entered humans or animals, it would go through a series of changes and finally change into the internal Qi most suitable for humans and animals.

This black substance could only assimilate internal Qi, not the pure Qi of Heaven and Earth!

Upon learning this...

Fang Qiu kept stimulating the absorption and operation of the pheasant's internal Qi.

However...

Before long...

The pheasant was directly sucked dry by the strange black substance!

What was even more appalling was that...

Although the pheasant was dead, the black substance in its body didn't dissipate!

This result...

It shocked Fang Qiu to the core.

He was in a panic after all of this had happened.

"This thing is too odd. Leaving it in my body is absolutely a hidden peril!"

Fang Qiu's brows furrowed in concentration as he began to think about the solution.

This substance would increase as soon as internal Qi was activated. Once the body could no longer bear it, it would suck the body dry. The most terrible thing was that it was contagious!

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu's heart throbbed with fear. He immediately took out his mobile phone and called Li Ji!

Medical Master

Chapter 1267: Boiling and Killing Black Matter!

In Egyptt...

It was 10:00 p.m. in Kairo.

There was a time difference between the two regions: Kairo was five hours behind Beijiing.

When Fang Qiu made the call, it was three o'clock in the morning in Beijiing.

"Beep! Beep!"

The phone rang twice and was immediately connected.

"Hello?"

Li Ji's voice came through.

"I have something urgent to report!"

Fang Qiu looked severe and his brows were tightly furrowed and he spoke in an extremely serious voice.

"What's the matter?"

Fang Qiu's words immediately made him nervous. His slightly sleepy voice immediately became serious.

"I discovered something strange that happened here. Everyone who has entered the ancient ruin might have been infected with a highly infectious substance. This substance is similar to a virus but is not a virus. Once it breaks out, there will be terrible consequences. Moreover, it is more infectious than viruses that cause infectious diseases."

Fang Qiu said solemnly, "Today, I've sent all the people from Huaxia home on the plane. And I've just discovered this highly infectious substance. Once the plane lands, you must isolate all the people on the plane, no matter what."

"An infectious substance?"

Li Ji, stunned, asked in surprise.

"It's hard for me to explain the details of this matter to you now. Anyway, you must do as I say. In addition, you must strictly monitor those who participated in the competition for the Egyptt relic. Don't let any of them enter our country. Once this strange substance spreads, the consequences will be unimaginable!"

Fang Qiu said gravely.

"I'll report it to the higher-ups right away!"

Li Ji was also shocked.

It was the first time that he had heard Fang Qiu speak to him so seriously.

"Remember, all of them!"

Fang Qiu warned repeatedly...

"Do you mean that even a guru has been infected?"

Li Ji was even more startled.

"Yes."

Fang Qiu nodded affirmatively and replied, "You must isolate them from the others first. Then wait until I return home."

"Okay."

Li Ji answered and hung up the phone.

That night...

Li Ji reported the matter overnight.

Soon, the message reached those top leaders.

As soon as these senior officials learned the news, they attached great importance to it. After all, even if gurus could not block the strange substance, it had to be a threat to the state.

It would be a great disaster if it spread all over the country!

Soon...

The higher-ups gave orders and asked them to follow Fang Qiu's instructions carefully.

Upon receiving orders...

Li Ji contacted the Health Bureau overnight and rushed to wait at the capital airport with a squad. Meanwhile, the Defense Department immediately began stepping up the investigation across the country. Anyone who was under suspicion had to go through a detailed survey. They would only allow those who were not martial arts practitioners and hadn't been to Africo recently, to go off.

Fortunately...

All the reports that came from the airports all over the country were good: none of the people from various countries who had participated in the fight for the Egyptt relic had entered Huaxia.

Here...

After making the phone call, Fang Qiu didn't look relieved at all. He was still frowning. Looking at the pheasant that had been sucked dry by the black substance, he took in a large gulp of air and began to think of ways to deal with the strange black matter.

After many attempts, Fang Qiu noted that even though it was a challenge to exterminate the black substance completely, it didn't mean there was no way to do it!

"Right always goes hand in hand with wrong."

"Where there's defeat, there will always be victory."

"Growth is accompanied by death."

"All that exists will wither away."

"Once it appears, it will disappear!"

A glimmer came into his eyes.

Fang Qiu set about experimenting.

"It can absorb internal Qi but can't absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth. So, will the Qi of Heaven and Earth exert any special effect on it?"

He muttered to himself...

Fang Qiu mobilized his Spiritual Force and controlled the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth to trap the trace of a black substance isolated in midair. Using the Qi of Heaven and Earth, he tried to obliterate the black matter.

However...

Although the black substance couldn't absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth, the Qi of Heaven and Earth couldn't do anything to it.

No matter what Fang Qiu did, the Qi of Heaven and Earth couldn't remove even the slightest bit of the black substance. It could only trap it inside!

"No!"

Withdrawing his Spiritual Force, Fang Qiu frowned and his face darkened.

"Neither internal Qi nor the Qi of Heaven and Earth works."

Looking at the trace of a black substance suspended in the air, Fang Qiu thought carefully and murmured, "Perhaps, I should try some ordinary methods?"

Fang Qiu was hot and bothered over this issue.

He turned around and took a look.

It turned out that almost all the people of the primitive tribe had packed up their things.

At once, he walked over and found an abandoned iron pot. Then, he got some water from the primitive tribe. With the help of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, he forcibly injected the black substance into the water and began to boil it.

“Most viruses in the world can’t survive in the heat. If Wulin methods can’t solve this problem, I can only try a few normal disinfection methods.”

Fang Qiu surrounded the water in the iron pot with the Qi of Heaven and Earth to prevent the black substance from escaping.

Soon...

The water started to boil.

In the water, the black substance didn’t dash around as Fang Qiu had expected. Instead, it floated there quietly.

Even though the water was boiling, it made no movement.

Five minutes later.

“Eh?”

Fang Qiu saw that a tiny bit of black substance had vanished.

“Yes!”

Fang Qiu was overjoyed.

After observing for another five minutes, the thread of black substance had totally disappeared.

Fang Qiu remained calm.

After the black substance disappeared, he immediately used his Internal Qi and Spiritual Force to examine the water. As a result, he found nothing in the water, and the water was not affected at all.

“Sure enough, this common method is effective.”

Fang Qiu nodded to himself.

Although he was sure of it, he still looked grave.

“Although I found a way to kill the black substance, it’s not suitable for human bodies. The temperature of the human body is only about 38 degrees. Though Egyptt isn’t at a high altitude, the temperature of the boiled water here is at least 90 degrees. That is to say, only when the black substance stays in an environment above 90 degrees for a long time will it be destroyed.”

“It should be cooked in water above 90 degrees for 10 minutes! If that is the case, a whole human can be cooked thoroughly.”

Fang Qiu smiled wryly.

This was an excellent way to eliminate this black substance, but it was not a way to help people get rid of it.

“It seems that I must first force this black substance out of my body before eliminating it.”

Fang Qiu murmured to himself.

Then...

He immediately tried to drag it out.

He had tried once but eventually discovered that this black matter was pretty stubborn. No matter how much he tried, it didn't change in the slightest. He found it very difficult to expel it from his body.

"The black substance has been absorbing internal Qi all the time, and when it is contagious, it will choose those with internal Qi first."

"So, only by dispersing most of the internal Qi can I get it out of my body?"

At this thought...

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu tried to isolate it from his internal Qi to see if the black substance could be removed.

If it was not allowed to absorb internal Qi, would it starve to death?

However...

It took him 15 minutes.

Fang Qiu concluded that even if there were no internal Qi, the black substance wouldn't leave the body. It would still stay as deeply entrenched in his body as before.

Notably...

Even when it could no longer absorb internal Qi, the black substance would remain the same, although its growth speed slowed down. Nevertheless, it wouldn't gradually shrink or disperse because of the lack of internal Qi.

"No."

Fang Qiu shook his head.

Evidently...

He couldn't starve this black substance to death.

It was an intractable problem...

Fang Qiu couldn't help frowning again.

"How do I get this thing out of my body?"

He began to ponder over it.

A moment later...

"The Qi of Heaven and Earth."

Suddenly, Fang Qiu's eyes lit up.

He thought of something.

The black substance could absorb internal Qi but not the Qi of Heaven and Earth. In addition, he could lock it with the Qi of Heaven and Earth, send it to the water, and cook it. All of this meant that the Qi of Heaven and Earth could do something to the black substance — it could pull out the black matter instead of killing it!

"That's right."

His eyes sparkled and he murmured, "I can lead the Qi of Heaven and Earth into my body. Then, instead of turning it into my internal Qi, I can control the Qi of Heaven and Earth with my Spiritual Force to pull out this black substance. Won't that be a perfect solution?"

He couldn't wait to put his idea into practice.

Fang Qiu immediately began to try.

As a result...

Sure enough, it worked.

Although it was not so easy, Fang Qiu finally did it.

At first, he wrapped the ball of black matter in his body with the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Then, he forcibly dragged it out of his body all at once.

"I've finally found a way."

Before him, the black substance floating in the air was enveloped by the Qi of Heaven and Earth he gathered. Once again, Fang Qiu thoroughly checked himself all over. After making sure that there was no more black substance left in his body, he let out a long sigh of relief.

"But..."

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said with a frown, "This method can't be applied indiscriminately."

"Because of my strong Spiritual Force, I can draw the Qi of Heaven and Earth and let it do what I want it to do without absorbing or converting it."

"But the others can't do this."

Fang Qiu shook his head.

He might help others expel the black substance, but he didn't know it for sure before he tried it.

After he thought for a while...

Fang Qiu took the black substance that had stayed in his body and boiled it until only a trace as thin as a strand of hair was left. Then he put this little bit of black thing back into his body.

In his opinion...

He still needed to find a more suitable solution, so he'd better keep a bit of the black substance in his body to make an observation.

In Huaxia...

At the capital airport...

At dawn the following day, the plane that Luoyun and others took landed at the airport.

However...

Just as they walked out of the passenger terminal...

Everyone saw a group of people in biochemical protective suits standing guard at the gate.

Luoyun and the others immediately frowned in puzzlement when they saw this.

Before Luoyun could ask...

A man in a biological protective suit handed him a Bluetooth earphone, from which came a familiar voice.

“According to John Doe’s information, you all could very likely be infected by a tenacious virus. So, all of you will be kept in quarantine for some time!”

Medical Master

Chapter 1268: Confirming the Jade Mine!

“Virus?”

Luoyun was slightly stunned when he heard the voice coming from the headset. Then he turned his head and looked around with a puzzled look, only to find that everyone around him was at a loss and had no idea what was going on.

In particular, the people who followed him were even more confused.

They had no idea what had happened.

Luoyun had wanted to ask more questions. However, the line in the earphone went dead.

Meanwhile...

With no other options...

Luoyun could only return the earphone to the man in biochemical protective clothes who stood before him. Then, he led his group to follow the man as they obediently accepted the quarantine orders.

Luoyun turned around and took a look.

He saw that not only them but all the people on their flight were also taken away.

This unusual scene...

It made Luoyun even more puzzled.

He didn't notice any other strange incidents that happened during the last few days. Besides, how could there be any virus in their bodies?

But...

Since it was an order from above, he could only choose to obey.

In Africo...

Early the following day...

In the woods outside Kairo...

At daybreak, the people of the primitive tribe got up and prepared to leave.

"Chief."

Fang Qiu, sitting cross-legged, also woke up from his meditation.

After a night of careful observation of the black matter, he still hadn't found any valuable clues.

But...

Fang Qiu also thought about it a lot.

For example...

They got this black substance from the Pharaoh relic. The area with the black fog appeared to be very strange and unique and this was when this peculiar substance invaded their bodies. Fang Qiu was pretty sure about that.

Other than those who had entered the ancient ruin, only the primitive tribe had some connection to this Pharaoh relic.

After all...

The map from the chief did help Fang Qiu overcome a lot of problems during his treasure-hunting trip. In particular, with this map, the Huaxia team suffered few casualties when they passed through the maze.

"Mr. Well Known."

Hearing Fang Qiu's call, the chief of the primitive tribe came over right away. He looked at Fang Qiu curiously and asked, "What can I do for you?"

"I want to ask you something."

Fang Qiu nodded gently and asked, "Have you heard of the Pharaoh's curse?"

"The Pharaoh's curse?"

The chief was slightly taken aback. After thinking for a moment, he shook his head and said, "I have never heard of it. In my entire life, the parchment handed down through successive generations in my tribe is the only thing I've learned about the Pharaoh. Except for that scroll, I've never heard of any more things related to the Pharaoh."

"Pharaohs indeed have existed in the history of our country. However, for us living in modern times, Pharaohs are nothing but a myth. Just like you, ordinary people in our country are also very unfamiliar with Pharaohs, let alone the curse of the Pharaoh."

When Fang Qiu heard what he said...

He nodded with understanding.

Indeed...

There was nothing wrong with the chief's words.

Ordinary people in Huaxia didn't know about the legends of Wulin. Just like them, common people from various countries were also unfamiliar with the legends of their countries. Even if they had heard them countless times, they would have no impression of these things in the legends because ordinary people had no way to look into them.

Only a few might acquire some knowledge, but it was largely hearsay.

"It seems I can only rely on myself."

Fang Qiu sighed inwardly.

"Why did you ask this question?"

The chief looked at Fang Qiu from head to toe with a puzzled face and asked, "Does the Pharaoh's curse exist for real?"

"Nothing serious."

Fang Qiu smiled, shook his head, and said, "I'm just curious about it, so I asked."

"That's right. We're now living in the modern world."

The chief nodded understandingly and said, "Pharaohs have been dead for hundreds or thousands of years. How could there be any curses? Haha."

After that...

The clan members finished packing.

"Will you go through Kairo?"

Fang Qiu asked.

"No."

The chief shook his head and said, "Although we have been working hard to adapt to modern lives, it's still too early. When we pass through the city, many people will be very wary of us. It would not do my people any good. We plan to go along the river and go back the way we came here."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "I'll go with you."

The chief expressed his gratitude to him.

He knew Fang Qiu was going along so he could protect them.

Otherwise, Fang Qiu wouldn't have asked this question and he needn't come personally from such a far distance. He merely needed to send someone to inform them.

Fang Qiu wouldn't go with them if they chose to go across the city. After all, as long as they entered the city, they would be protected by the government.

They started the journey.

Fang Qiu followed them as the primitive tribe set off.

They kept walking along the flow of the river.

Everyone walked for an entire day.

The primitive tribe bypassed Kairo and returned to their original place.

Right now...

Their original living place looked deserted. Not a single person was there.

Back at their home...

The chief thanked Fang Qiu.

Seeing that everyone had returned safely, Fang Qiu was very relieved.

After a short break...

Fang Qiu waited till midnight...

He left the primitive tribe, walked into the grassland, and took out his phone to text Li Ji.

“Send me the detailed location information.”

He sent a simple text message.

Soon...

Li Ji's reply came.

He opened it and saw a 3D picture.

It recorded Fang Qiu's location and his trail while he was in the relic.

He checked the information against the map.

Soon, Fang Qiu found the location.

He walked all the way forward.

Under cover of the night, Fang Qiu quickly sneaked to the site.

Here...

It was still a vast grassland.

Moreover, it was a flourishing grassland.

The grass on the ground was knee-high.

“This spot is the deepest part of the ancient relic.”

After confirming the position, Fang Qiu began to calculate the distance.

“If it’s a relic like those in Huaxia, everything I saw in the ruin should be illusions, but the king cobra was real. Maybe there is a palace relic under this place.”

An idea flashed across his mind.

Fang Qiu immediately started digging.

It turned out that...

As soon as he dug for 15 or 16 meters, he reached a space.

With a plop, Fang Qiu fell into it and found there was indeed a space underground.

This underground space was very similar to the one in the ruin. The only difference was that all the things in the ancient ruin were complete, including passages, various murals, and statues.

But what lay before Fang Qiu...

Everything was smashed or broken, the passageways, murals, etc.

At one glance, this place seemed to have undergone a thousand years of hardship.

In the meantime...

Fang Qiu also saw a giant palace.

Like in the ancient ruin, there were also snake skins here, but they were natural snake skins, not hard shells similar to a stone pillar inside the ruin!

In particular...

The entire palace was shocked. Not a single legendary luminous pearl was in sight. It was dark everywhere. There was no corridor leading further into the palace's hall. On the contrary, this whole place, in Fang Qiu's eyes, was already the innermost part of the ancient ruin.

Not far from the pool before the palace was an altar.

It seemed that...

This was the authentic relic.

It was like those ancient relics in Huaxia — what he saw before was just an illusion!

“This is the location.”

“In other words, if the jade mine exists, it will be right below!”

Fang Qiu looked down.

Then he started digging.

He even used his Divine Sword.

“Got it!”

After digging for a while, Fang Qiu unearthed a jade piece underground. Then, as he reached deeper, he uncovered more jade pieces.

This time...

Fang Qiu was thrilled.

Right at this moment...

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu was observing the surroundings with his Divine Consciousness when suddenly he heard a commotion outside.

When he was in this critical situation, he had a brainwave.

He immediately rushed up. With a wave of his hand, he activated his internal Qi, filled all the soil he dug out back into the hole, and sealed it instantly.

Then...

He squatted down instantly.

With the help of his Divine Consciousness, he could see the coming figure.

This person looked sly and furtive.

He seemed to be checking around to see if there was anyone around.

“Could it be that he also discovered the secret?”

A sudden idea seized Fang Qiu.

He couldn't help murmuring in his heart.

It shouldn't be like this. If anyone had found the relic below, others would have started digging long ago. Why would they have waited until now?

Then, why would this person sneak around this place?

Since Fang Qiu had confirmed that there was a jade mine below, he felt he had to stay and search around for a few more days.

At the very least, he had to find out who this furtive person was.

Otherwise...

After he left, the jade mine might be totally excavated by the time he returned.

He couldn't take this risk!

Fang Qiu observed for a while.

As soon as the man left, he quietly followed up.

Afterward...

Fang Qiu walked after him for a long time.

He found that the man ran to a restricted military area in Egyptt.

Knowing that it was a restricted military area ahead, Fang Qiu didn't chase after him blindly. He just strolled around its periphery. After making sure that there was nothing unusual, he turned back.

"It looks like he was sent here by the Egyptt government because they wanted to see if anyone else was there."

"After all, treasures in their country's ancient relic have been snatched away, and their gurus have been beaten to unconsciousness. Those Egyptt officials must have been simmering with anger."

At this thought...

Fang Qiu returned to his previous location and carefully restored the terrain.

He was completely sure.

The Egyptt government didn't know about the existence of the underground relic. They wouldn't have secretly sent someone to check it if they had known it. Instead, they would have classified this place as a restricted military area and started mining.

"The Egyptt government doesn't know about the existence of the underground ruin, but they must have been paying attention to this matter since they sent people to investigate secretly. So, they will go on watching this place in the near future."

“It seems I can’t come back in the following few days.”

“I can only wait a while before returning to mine.”

Fang Qiu murmured to himself and left the place quickly.

He chose a direction.

Fang Qiu planned to return home from another city. He couldn’t leave Egyptt from Kairo or the city where Luo Yun and others took the plane. The airport there must have been monitored by Egyptian officials.

Therefore, Fang Qiu could only find another safe city to take his leave.

However, halfway there...

Fang Qiu’s cell phone suddenly rang.

Medical Master

Chapter 1269: Funny Doctor of Traditional Chinese Medicine

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Fang Qiu’s phone suddenly rang in his trouser pocket when he was on his way to another city.

It was Li Ji.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the phone right away.

“Everything here is ready.”

Li Ji’s voice came, “After careful investigation, we have confirmed that a strange black substance has indeed infected our people. Moreover, we have put all the people who have been in contact with them in quarantine. Now we are looking for a solution.”

“Um.”

Fang Qiu nodded understandingly and said: “Since you can confirm the existence of the black substance, things will be much simpler: you only need to isolate the people infected with the substance.”

“That’s right.”

With a nod, Li Ji said, “Everything is getting better, but there is one thing that is particularly troublesome.”

“What?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“Here is the thing.”

Li Ji paused and said, “When you entered the ancient ruin, the new variant of the Ebala virus became rampant throughout Africo. Strangely, the outbreak of the variant virus frequently happened in poor places. People who live deeper in the grassland are usually poorer and are more prone to death because of this virus.”

“Oh?”

Fang Qiu was astonished.

“Back then, I didn’t dare to contact you because of the fight for the relic. But now, the relic battle is over, and the situation of the infected black substance is temporarily under control. So the higher-ups asked me to contact you. They hope you can take the opportunity to find out what’s happening with the variant Ebala virus.”

He immediately said,

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded and asked, “Do they have any suspects?”

“Nirvana!”

Li Ji replied directly, “The higher-ups felt that the widespread outbreak of the variant Ebala virus in Africo seemed to be in line with Nirvana’s purpose. That was why they wanted your help and asked you to check if there was any connection between the two.”

“No problem.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

In fact, Fang Qiu had also suspected that Nirvana had something to do with this matter.

Soon...

They ended their call.

Fang Qiu immediately checked the news on the Internet with his mobile phone.

“Serious Outbreak of Variant Ebala, Africo Countries Suffered Heavy Casualties!”

“An Overwhelming Wave of the Ebala Variant, Several Villages Deep in Africo Grassland Wiped Out!”

He saw a succession of shocking headlines on the Internet, all of which made Fang Qiu feel that things were as serious as Li Ji said!

Even more...

He also found a lot of posts about him online.

Especially on Weibo.

#A New Variant of Ebala Virus #

It had become the No.1 most discussed topic on Weibo.

The No.2 most discussed topic was #Can Fang Qiu Fight the Ebala Virus#?

Fang Qiu clicked on the first topic to check.

He found that...

It was full of crazy discussions among netizens, apart from the introduction of the Ebala virus and the contrastive analyses of the Ebala virus and its new variant.

Of course...

In the eyes of those netizens...

The appearance of the Ebala virus pushed Africo people, who were in an abyss of misery, into more profound distress.

Especially, pictures that demonstrated how much they suffered incredibly aroused considerable public sympathy among those netizens.

Just because they were overwhelmed by their feelings of pity, many netizens immediately thought of Fang Qiu.

After all...

In the past two years, Fang Qiu was omnipotent in the hearts of netizens.

Fang Qiu had cured all kinds of complicated and incurable diseases.

For example, he found an effective treatment for malaria, which was a contagious disease like the Ebala virus, didn't he?

Thus...

When the first person brought up this idea...

The other netizens also spoke out one after another, hoping that Fang Qiu could help fight against the Ebala virus.

But Fang Qiu didn't say anything.

As a result, Fang Qiu's name became a hot topic alongside the Ebala virus.

After Fang Qiu scanned the posts of the first topic...

He clicked on the second topic about himself to see what was happening.

Surprisingly...

He found that in addition to a lot of sympathetic people, many appealed to him to help and even began mocking him.

"Huaxia Chinese Medicine is very powerful. Since Fang Qiu found a way to cure malaria, he could also find a way to deal with the Ebala virus. The situation in Africo is a tragedy. Fang Qiu, go and have a look."

"Yes, I have never seen such a horrible disease. Because of it, all the people in several villages have died. I heard that the death rate there is still increasing. Fang Qiu, go and have a look!"

There were a great many calls like this.

Fang Qiu nodded as he saw the mass sympathy.

It was good to be sympathetic.

Though with sympathy, they were not agitated enough to handle this themselves, which was great.

At least...

They knew they should find Fang Qiu, someone capable enough to solve the problem.

At least they didn't do things blindly!

But...

In addition to these rational people, many people started ridiculing Fang Qiu.

"Isn't Fang Qiu proficient in Chinese Medicine? But as soon as he encounters such a big incident, he is nowhere to be found. Doesn't he dare to make a sound?"

"That's right. I remember some people bragging about the invincible Chinese Medicine. Now stand out and tell me how potent Chinese Medicine can be. If it's that effective, why not use it to deal with the Ebola virus!"

"Fang Qiu, didn't you always say that Chinese Medicine is superb? Then, stand up and say something. No one will laugh at you if you can't do anything about the virus, haha."

"No bragging and no smearing. Fang Qiu is the only Chinese Medicine doctor I've ever seen who is full of sympathy, but his overflowing sympathy lies within reach of his abilities. Once he encounters something beyond his reach, he will be easily disheartened. See... He doesn't dare to show up when such a big incident happens in Africo."

Similar sarcastic remarks could be seen everywhere.

But...

Fang Qiu's fans had been arguing with them.

"Why? I'm fed up with your moral blackmail!"

"I believe that if this virus had appeared in Huaxia, Fang Qiu would have resolved it long ago. But it is in Africo. If Fang Qiu is willing to help, he has lofty medical ethics. But if he chooses not to intervene, no one can force him to do so. This is not something he must do, and no one can push him to do that!"

“Yes, does Fang Qiu need to prove his strength?”

“The biggest joke I’ve ever heard is those remarks questioning Fang Qiu’s strength in Chinese Medicine!”

Everyone was engaged in endless debates.

Seeing these arguments, Fang Qiu could only give a wry smile.

Although he never showed up there, all the people were talking about him!

He couldn’t help sighing with emotion.

Fang Qiu continued to observe.

Soon...

He noticed that a domestic Chinese Medicine company stood up and took the initiative to donate Chinese Medicine granules to Africo.

Fang Qiu learned more about it.

It turned out to be a traditional Chinese Medicine company named Renze Pharmaceutical Company.

The company directly posted a Weibo.

“Recently, a new type of Ebala virus broke out in Africo, which is highly contagious and lethal. The medical experts in our Chinese Medicine department have discussed the methods of preventing and curing Ebala hemorrhagic fever using Chinese Medicine. According to the pestilential disease theory of Chinese Medicine, the pathogenic situation of the Ebala hemorrhagic fever, and the clinical characteristics reported in the pieces of literature, the expert team listed it as a pestilence in Chinese Medicine. By widely consolidating experts' suggestions and referring to the Chinese Medicine experiences of diagnosing and treating diseases with fever and bleeding as the main symptoms, the expert team first recommends using Zihuang Tablets to deal with the Ebola virus. Zihuang Tablet is a first-class protected Chinese patent drug. The main symptoms caused by the Ebola virus are high fever and bleeding. The major functions of the Zihuang Tablets are to clear away heat and toxic materials, cool the blood, remove blood stasis, and reduce swelling and pain. Besides, Zihuang Tablets work well on all kinds of fevers of unknown causes. Therefore, when we saw Africo people suffering great pain from the virus, our company decided to donate Zihuang Tablets, a Chinese patent drug, to Africo. We hope that the plague patients in Africo can be cured as soon as possible and those Africo people can recover from their suffering in the shortest time possible!"

On the surface...

This Weibo post adopted a positive outlook, which was particularly admirable.

In fact...

That was also the people's first impression of it.

As soon as this post was released on Weibo, it received the support and encouragement of many netizens.

But after that...

When a chief editor of Chinese Medicine saw this message, he directly reposted it and teased, "In one word, funny!"

This time...

It immediately attracted the attention of netizens.

Everyone took a look.

They soon discovered many questionable points in the post.

“Zihuang Tablets? If it really works, patients and others will flock over to buy it. Did you have to take the initiative to donate it?”

“Is the company making use of this chance to advertise its products?”

“If a tablet can defeat the Ebola virus, how could this virus spread so prevalently in that area?”

“That’s right. All eyes worldwide are on this virus. Can you kill it with this Chinese patent medicine?”

“They are trying to imitate the Renyi Group!”

“Even its name is similar to Renyi Group! Renze Company? This is damn amusing.”

“Since you have already donated your medicine, how about telling us where you sent your tablets to? Let’s skip your and focus on the curative effect, okay?”

“Doctors always have benevolent hearts and save lives with their skills. It’s way out of line to advertise your products in the name of traditional Chinese medicine!”

“To put it bluntly, I have never heard of Renze Company. Even the Renyi Group does not dare to stand out and make such a huge promise. A counterfeit company is taking advantage of this hot topic and donating medicine to publicize its products. How dare you? You overestimate yourself!”

Soon...

While those netizens let out various snubs...

The prescription of the Zihuang Tablets from the Renze Pharmaceutical Company was exposed.

“Honeysuckle, cape jasmine, coptis, Kuh-Seng, unprocessed rehmannia root, wrinkled giant hyssop, and plaster stone.”

This prescription.

Fang Qiu shook his head when he saw this.

“Alas.”

With a low sigh, Fang Qiu logged out of Weibo, switched to the map on his mobile phone, and searched carefully for the surrounding maps and the locations of various tribes and villages.

It was a new type of virus.

Naturally, it was different from those in the past.

Thus...

Fang Qiu decided to visit a tribe or village to see what damage the virus could cause.

Before long...

Fang Qiu found a small tribe that was not far away from him.

Many people in this tribe had already been infected with the Ebala virus, which had been in the news about Africo.

As soon as Fang Qiu located the tribe, he rushed over at full speed.

Medical Master

Chapter 1270: Some People Began Mining!

The Hippo tribe was traditional in Africo, just like those traditional villages in Huaxia.

The tribe was located in the depths of the Africon Savannah and was next to the river. Like members of other tribes, people in this tribe rarely had contact with outsiders, but they were very enthusiastic every time they met outsiders.

But...

When Fang Qiu arrived...

The Hippo tribe had lost their enthusiasm, unlike in the past.

The whole tribe was very quiet, which gave him the spooks.

After traveling fast for more than an hour, Fang Qiu reached the site where this tribe was located. Because there was no one around, Fang Qiu went straight in and checked the village, house by house.

As a result...

This tribe had been infected with a new kind of Ebala virus, just as the news had said. It was not just a few of them, but everyone in the tribe was infected.

Under the virus attack, everyone in the tribe was lying in their rooms. From old to young, they all had a high fever and didn't even have the strength to get up.

It looked like...

All the people in this tribe were waiting for death!

It was not that they did not want to get up, but after having been on the brink of death for a long time, they had nearly exerted all their strength.

However, the variant of the Ebala virus in their bodies was still frantically and mercilessly draining the vitality out of them!

After examining the whole tribe's situation, Fang Qiu gained some understanding of this new type of Ebala virus.

He was deeply concerned about the situation...

He then hurriedly left the tribe to look for herbs around.

Of course...

Because of the different geographical features, no herbs growing in Huaxia could be found on this grassland, but many herbs had the same effect.

After all, he had already found herbs with the same effect when he treated malaria.

"I can only use the counter-toxin prescription to buy these people more time."

Fang Qiu decided in his heart.

It was obvious...

There would be no cure for the new variant of the Ebala virus for the time being. However, the people in the Hippo tribe had been infected with the new virus for a long time. In this case, Fang Qiu could only use the counter-toxin prescription to help them stay alive for the moment. Maybe they could survive after a cure was found.

“Honeysuckle, cape jasmine, coptis, Kuh-Seng, unprocessed rehmannia root, wrinkled giant hyssop, and plaster stone.”

Exactly!

The counter-toxin prescription was the Chinese patent medicine prescription from the Renze Company, which announced their donation on Weibo. Fang Qiu knew that the prescription was effective. It couldn't remove the virus, but it could repair the damage caused by the Ebala virus.

The Ebala virus was, figuratively speaking, boiling water. Then the effect brought by the counter-toxin prescription was like ice water!

However, there was no way to put this ice water directly into the boiling water to cool it down. Instead, it could only be applied to the skin burnt by boiling water to ease the pain.

This was also why Fang Qiu couldn't help shaking his head when he saw the news that Renze Company chose to donate the medicine.

Simply put, their tablets were treating symptoms and not the root cause!

However, this medicine could play a significant role under certain circumstances. For instance, Fang Qiu could use it to deal with the problem he was facing.

He left the tribe.

Fang Qiu did not hesitate and immediately began to look around, searching for herbs with the same effect.

Although Renze Company promised they would donate, their medicine had not been delivered yet. Even if their medicine reached this place, it might not be handed out. Anyway, their medicine could not be delivered in time for this tribe.

Therefore, Fang Qiu could only look for substitutes.

Luckily...

There were numerous types of herbs in the Africon Savannah.

After all, he had a knowledge background of Chinese Medicine and inner sight. As long as he found a similar herb, he would try it by observing and eating it.

He searched for more than an hour.

Soon, Fang Qiu finally collected all the herbs he needed.

He returned to the Hippo tribe with enough medicine.

Fang Qiu stir-fried the herbs before decocting them.

In the end, he got the medicinal potion.

Fang Qiu fed the potion to the tribe members, one by one, and began to observe them.

As a result...

These people in the tribe gained some strength and could talk to him. However, this medicinal potion couldn't eradicate the variant of the Ebala virus in these patients and could only lessen their pain.

After he finished giving them the medicine...

Fang Qiu went to the room of the chief of the Hippo tribe.

“Are my clansmen still alive?”

As soon as he entered...

An old man lying on the bed asked weakly.

“They are all alive.”

Fang Qiu nodded and promised, “I will try my best to keep them alive, as well as you.”

“Thank you, my benefactor.”

The elder thanked him.

“Let me examine you.”

Fang Qiu walked to the bed and began to examine the old man. After confirming his poor physical condition, he tried to save him by using his internal Qi.

Strangely...

Even the internal Qi had no effect on the new kind of Ebola virus that people were infected with.

This situation surprised Fang Qiu.

He had never expected this to happen.

In the past, no matter what kind of disease he encountered, he could cure it as long as he used his internal Qi. However, his internal Qi couldn't do anything to this new virus, which was a little unexpected to him.

“Like that black substance, this virus is immune to internal Qi!”

Fang Qiu frowned.

He sat in front of the bed and thought for a long time.

“It seems that I can only change the prescription.”

Fang Qiu muttered to himself...

If he wanted to wipe out this virus, he could only deal with the disease, not the symptoms. Moreover, the focus of the treatment shouldn't be on repairing human bodies: it must be concentrated on killing the virus.

An idea flashed across his mind.

Fang Qiu changed to another prescription.

Then, he left the tribe and went to the grassland to pick more herbs again.

This time...

With this changed prescription, Fang Qiu walked to a place that was further than where he had gone before. There were a few medicinal herbs that were pretty hard to get.

Ultimately...

Fang Qiu came to the depths of the grassland.

He searched until the evening but still couldn't find the right herbs.

Fang Qiu had wanted to continue searching when a tribe came into his view.

People in this tribe were quite lively. It didn't look like they had been infected with the virus.

At this sight...

Fang Qiu intended to find lodgings there.

In passing, he wanted to ask the people in the tribe if they knew where to find the herbs with certain properties he was looking for.

However...

When he was about to ask...

Suddenly, there came a flurry of hurried footsteps.

Hearing that, Fang Qiu immediately looked over.

There...

On the grassland, two black shadows suddenly appeared near the tribe.

The two figures seemed to have come from nowhere and sneakily approached the tribe. Then they took out a transparent glass container that looked like a lampshade.

He took a closer look.

There were actually a dozen or so mosquitoes in the glass container.

Under Fang Qiu's gaze...

The two men secretly opened the container that looked like a lampshade and released all the mosquitoes into the tribe.

At this sight...

Fang Qiu immediately frowned.

He didn't act rashly and alert them.

Instead, Fang Qiu directly released his Divine Consciousness and carefully observed the position of each mosquito flying out of the glass container.

When the two men left...

Fang Qiu immediately ground all the mosquitoes into powder with his internal Qi before they could enter each room!

After he did all this...

Then, Fang Qiu secretly followed the two men.

They covered a long distance.

He noticed that...

The two visited many tribes along the way and secretly dropped some mosquitoes when they passed each tribe.

Their act appeared more and more suspicious in Fang Qiu's eyes.

And every time he passed a tribe, Fang Qiu would squash all the mosquitoes!

In the end...

It was over three o'clock in the morning.

After releasing the mosquitoes in the last glass container, the two figures clapped their hands and left quickly.

Fang Qiu killed the last batch of mosquitoes.

Right away, he caught up with the two and followed at a discreet distance.

In less than a few minutes...

To his great surprise, the two men led him to the place where the jade mine was.

They took another passageway.

It was an excavated tunnel that led right to an underground ruin!

Fang Qiu hid in the dark.

Quietly, he got a little closer to them.

“How did they know about the ancient ruin? Do they work for the Egyptt government?”

Fang Qiu was shocked.

He had never expected that the relic hidden 15 meters underground had already been discovered by someone else.

He quietly went underground.

Fang Qiu found a rock that could shield him completely. Then, he used his Divine Consciousness to check and observe. The result of the survey surprised him even more!

They were mining.

They were mining the jade mine!

What was going on?

Fang Qiu was shocked to the marrow.

How could anyone discover this jade mine?

If the ancient relic were discovered, Fang Qiu wouldn't feel surprised. After all, this place would be found out as long as it existed there, just like fire cannot be wrapped up in paper.

But...

How could this jade mine also come to light?

The jade mine was hidden deep under the ancient ruin!

Most importantly...

Even if some people found the jade mine, they wouldn't know its value and would only take the jade as ordinary stones.

That was to say...

Only those who knew the effect of the jade would explore and mine in this place.

So, how did these people know about the benefits of this jade?

He hit upon an idea.

Instantly, Fang Qiu scrupulously observed everyone on the scene and soon found a leader.

It was a young man.

He looked like a supervisor. While pacing back and forth inside, he kept looking around and constantly urged the miners to speed up, not to slack off.

He was someone with a higher status here.

Fang Qiu stared at him for more than ten minutes.

Suddenly, the young man left the ruin, and he followed him quietly.

Soon...

Fang Qiu saw the young man entering a solitary room not far away on the grassland.

Through the window...

Fang Qiu saw a person sitting in the room.

After careful observation, Fang Qiu recognized the person in the room; he seemed to be one of the two people who had helped the gurus from various countries escape.

Whether it was in terms of figure or aura, he looked rather like that person.

Under these circumstances...

An idea came to Fang Qiu's mind. He completely covered his aura, lowered his body, and quietly moved forward for a distance. Then, he began to eavesdrop on their talk with the greatest care.

Inside the room...

"All done?"

As soon as the young man arrived, the person who had stayed in the room asked.
