Chapter 1321: Another One!

There was a new post released on the official Weibo account of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company.

After that, it was quickly reposted by the various media outlets that followed this hot topic.

The netizens took a look at the latest news.

“What is going on?”

“There’s a mole?”

“So, they didn’t do it intentionally. One of their internal staff was up to no good.”

“Could it be that we have wrongly accused them?”

For a moment, netizens were a little confused and didn’t know what was going on.

“Since it’s an internal problem, go and check it out as soon as possible. Find the culprit and deal with the person seriously.”

“That’s right. We can’t blame the whole company because of a worker’s mistake.”

“Find out the truth as quickly as possible.”

“I hope this is not a public relations trick you devised to ease the crisis. You’d better not have decided to slander the Three Billion Foundation.”

Some kind-hearted people began searching for solutions to help Qiming Pharmaceutical Company.

After a while...

The official Weibo account of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company forwarded a comment that asked them to locate the traitor. It then replied, “Rest assured, everyone. We have called the police and filed an official case. Once we find the scum that incriminated the charity foundation, we will punish the person severely! Moreover, if anyone in our company caused the scandal, we will bear the responsibility. Mr. Fang Qiu promised to pay the four patients four million Huaxia coins and give ten thousand Huaxia coins to any patient who bought inferior traditional Chinese medicine. We hereby announce that our company will compensate them for all the losses!”

As this statement was posted on Weibo...

Lots of netizens saw it...

And they were even more convinced that there was a traitor who worked behind the scenes to undermine this company. Otherwise, this company wouldn’t have reacted in this manner.

How could any company that had no scruples stand up and take responsibility in the first place?

This company was like Fang Qiu’s Foundation.

There was nothing wrong with them. When the incident happened, they took the initiative to step forward and shoulder all the responsibility!

Due to this idea and Qiming Pharmaceutical Company’s fast response, everyone felt it was not in the wrong.

Somewhere else...

In Beijiang...

In the office at the cultivation base...

Fang Qiu also saw the Weibo post released by Qiming Pharmaceutical Company.

“Humph.”

When Fang Qiu saw the two posts on Weibo, he couldn't help sneering in an instant. “A fucking bunch of hypocrites. When they messed with me, they drove me up the wall. Now they imitate my way of handling this public relations crisis. Let's see who will win in the end!”

After that...

Fang Qiu took out his mobile phone.

He found He Xue's WeChat ID, clicked on it, and sent a message. “Start the second round!”

After a while...

“Alright!”

He Xue replied.

In just a few minutes...

The official Weibo account of the Three Billion Foundation released another piece of news.

It was almost the same as the Weibo post that exposed Qiming Pharmaceutical Company.

“The latest progress of the case: According to the results of the police’s investigation and sufficient evidence: Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company was found to be one of the parties involved in the case of dealing in shoddy traditional Chinese medicine. Therefore, our Foundation has decided to stop all business dealings with Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company. Meanwhile, we have officially filed a criminal charge against it in the Capital Intermediate People’s Court!”

As soon as the Weibo post was publicized...

The netizens erupted in furore.

“What the fuck, another one?”

“Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company? It’s a first-class domestic company, the same size as Qiming Pharmaceutical Company.”

“I still have some medicine from this company at home. Damn it!”

“It’s time for Fang Qiu to release the evidence, right?”

In shock...

They all went to Fang Qiu’s Weibo account and waited to see the evidence from Fang Qiu.

Sure enough...

Just after a few minutes...

A new complete chain of evidence appeared on Fang Qiu's Weibo account. Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company was proven to have slandered the Foundation. It bribed doctors working for the Foundation and instructed them to sell fake and inferior drugs.

When they saw this chain of evidence...

The netizens were taken aback, then they all felt surprised.

"This chain of evidence proved that it played the same sinister tricks as Qiming Pharmaceutical Company. What the hell is going on?"

"Even the middleman's name and bank card number are the same!"

"Holy shit. Seriously?"

"What's wrong?"

"According to Fang Qiu's evidence, it seems that Qiming Pharmaceutical Company and Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company have joined forces to frame his Foundation."

"There must be an inside story. We want it, please!"

Over at the other end...

In the WeChat group of pharmaceutical companies...

Some people immediately delivered screenshots of the new posts on the Weibo accounts of the Foundation and Fang Qiu.

In the chairman's office at Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company's office building...

A man in his forties with a crew cut and bronzed skin froze before his desk. His eyes gazed at one Weibo page on his computer, and he remained motionless. But gradually, his eyes began trembling in panic.

Just like the boss of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company...

The middle-aged man quickly picked up his phone and asked for help in the WeChat group.

After he sent his desperate message asking for help...

Over at the other end...

Mr. Luo burst into laughter. He had just exerted much effort and stabilized his company. Laughing happily, he told everyone in the group, "I knew I wouldn't be the only unlucky guy. You enjoyed watching the fun when others get into trouble. This time, you can enjoy it to the fullest. Now I'm not the only one suffering, and there will be more unfortunate companies. There will be more, beyond any doubt!"

His company was the first one to be exposed. With everyone's help, Mr. Luo adopted the best method to stabilize the situation.

However...

The other companies couldn't use the same method.

As the first one uncovered by Fang Qiu, he seemed to have obtained some benefits.

At the same time...

Everyone in the Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company was frantically trying to solve this problem. Some new comments soon got around online.

“I’ve scanned through the chains of evidence posted by Fang Qiu. If the incident was a private act on the part of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company’s employee, why would he join forces with Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company? It doesn’t make sense.”

“If the two companies had worked together, their actions would match all the evidence.”

“Why would any worker of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company slander the Foundation together with Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company? There is no logic in this. Besides, why would any internal staff of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company frame the Foundation? It was not helpful but harmful to the person. There was no need for an individual employee to do that. He or she could just wait for Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company to do the job.”

“Qiming Pharmaceutical Company is highly questionable. Think about it: an individual has no reason nor ability to attack a Foundation. Right?”

“Oh dear, but Qiming Pharmaceutical Company said there was a mole. Was this their solution to deal with the public relations crisis?”

“Qiming Pharmaceutical Company deceived us again?”

“It’s uncertain whether we were deceived, but from the chain of evidence, Qiming Pharmaceutical Company looks pretty suspicious to me!”

Soon...

Netizens began to doubt the statement released by Qiming Pharmaceutical Company.

Some netizens had even secretly begun to investigate it.

At the Beijiang cultivation base...

In Fang Qiu's office...

Zhou Xiaotian, Sun Hao, and Zhu Benzhen sat before the tea table, each with a laptop. They were busy typing on the Internet.

Their words successfully led other netizens to think from the new angle they wanted.

"Ha-ha!"

Zhou Xiaotian immediately roared with laughter. Together with Sun Hao and Zhu Benzhen, he looked up at Fang Qiu and said, "The youngest, what do you think? We are awesome, aren't we? Please call us the leader of paid Internet trolls!"

Fang Qiu smiled.

On the other side...

When Mr. Luo, president of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, saw the new situation online, he just couldn't think straight.

It hadn't been easy for him to do that public relations stunt, and he had just begun to reverse the alarming trend. But all of a sudden, all his efforts seemed to have been in vain.

He didn't dare to hesitate at all.

At once, he told the network publicity department to hire paid Internet trolls quickly.

In another place...

Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company, which had just been exposed, copied Qiming Pharmaceutical Company's way of public relations.

“Our company sincerely apologizes to everyone for all the trouble we have caused. As soon as our company received the news, we placed all the employees under strict control. Now we have joined forces with the police to carry out an investigation. We want to catch the real culprits who are out to damage the Chinese Medicine industry as quickly as possible. Any criminal behind this will be severely punished. If the rumors are true, our company is willing to offer the Three Billion Foundation double compensation and donate 50 million Huaxia coins!”

After the announcement was released...

Netizens were stunned at first.

Some didn't know whether to believe it because this public notice looked very similar to the one released by Qiming Pharmaceutical Company.

However...

Before long, the paid Internet trolls of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company joined the war of words.

Under their influence, everyone became less suspicious. Gradually, they had a slightly good impression of Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company.

“It should have been done secretly by the internal staff of the two companies. After all, big companies like them can't target a charity foundation because it may put them out of business.”

“It seems to be the case!”

“It turns out that both the two companies didn't know anything about this.”

“Such an evil member harmed the company and slandered the Foundation. This person deserves the harshest punishment!”

In the office...

“Damn it. They’re extremely shameless!”

As Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company began dealing with the public relations crisis, a large number of paid Internet trolls appeared on the Internet. Such a scene instantly irritated Zhou Xiaotian.

“These people are completely shameless about what they have done.”

Zhu Benzhen, who was usually good-tempered, was so angry that his face turned pale.

“A group of cowards! They slipped away every time we were determined to crack them down.”

Sun Hao was also pissed off.

Over there...

“You can’t make an omelet without breaking a few eggs. The bosses of the two companies have some brains. They are good at pushing away the blame!”

Fang Qiu, sitting before his desk, smiled.

“The youngest, what should we do?”

Zhou Xiaotian asked.

“Since they want to use tactics to play with us slowly, let’s continue our battle!”

Fang Qiu said with a sneer.

Over at the offices...

In the WeChat group of pharmaceutical companies...

“Mr. Li, you’re amazing! With the same trick, you smoothly eased this public relations crisis.”

“Mr. Li built and developed Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company. Undoubtedly, he is powerful.”

“What I admire most is Mr. Li’s tremendous courage. Nothing ventured, nothing gained. Indeed!”

“Now, the crisis is finally over.”

Bosses of other pharmaceutical companies spared no effort to flatter Mr. Li, Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company’s President.

“For the time being, this crisis is over. But my company’s stock price will decline when the stock market opens tomorrow. You guys used Mr. Luo and me as cannon fodder. We’ve suffered a great loss. So, let’s have a discussion. How about you give us some compensation? I think this request is fair and sensible.”

Mr. Li inserted this message among the various compliments.

His meaning was straightforward.

He wanted money!

“That’s right.”

Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company immediately emerged and added, “We bore the pressure for all of you. Although we were unwilling to do so, at least we withstood the assaults. We saved your companies. We are not demanding excessive compensation, but you should at least show your gratitude, right?”

Chapter 1322: The Third One!

At this moment...

Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company and Mr. Li of Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company were on the same side. Although they were not allies, they seemed to have reached a tacit understanding.

They could suffer some hardship, but they would be unhappy if they had to pay for it.

Since all the companies were in this battle together, why should they pay for all of them?

Soon, all the bosses of other pharmaceutical companies heard their voice messages through the WeChat group.

Everyone started sizing up the situation.

Previously, when only Qiming Pharmaceutical Company was in trouble, they could unite to dodge the compensation issue. But shirking the responsibility wouldn't be easy when Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company joined in.

And most importantly...

The two companies were not easy to deal with.

They had to give a clear reply. Otherwise, the two companies might join forces to play tricks behind their backs. They wouldn't be able to cope with so much trouble.

Apart from that...

They were in the same WeChat group, which contained all the messages they sent. Some people had deleted the previous information, but some might have saved all the contents by taking screenshots.

At the thought of this...

“Mr. Li, Mr. Luo, don’t worry. We’re all in the same boat. We can help you when you’re in trouble. Fang Qiu chose to punish you two as a warning to others. We have no choice but to accept reality. Don’t worry. When this matter is over, we will spare some medicine channels to help you recover quickly.”

“Yes, yes, yes. Money may not be helpful. The channels are the key to the development of enterprises.”

“That’s right. We can enrich the channels of Qiming and Huizhong from all aspects. This will be much more beneficial to you than money. As long as the right channels are in place, I believe it won’t be long before your companies completely recover and reach their peak.”

Over at their end...

Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company and Mr. Li of Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company saw the promises made by the bosses of other pharmaceutical companies.

In unison, they heaved a sigh of relief.

Anyway...

As long as the others made these promises, they felt greatly relieved. At the same time, the two of them took screenshots as evidence. With this, they were not afraid that the other bosses would go back on their words!

They survived the second crisis.

Peace was finally restored in the WeChat group of pharmaceutical companies.

They began another round of discussion.

“What does John Doe want to do?”

“Is this kid trying to cow everyone into submission?”

“The way I see it, this boy simply wants to warn us.”

“As you all know, the truth of this matter was discovered long ago. Since Fang Qiu got the evidence chains of Qiming and Huizhong, he could get the evidence against other companies. Maybe he has collected the evidence chains of all our companies. But under pressure from the government, he doesn’t dare to fall out with all of us.”

“Did we push him too hard?”

“Really? But how can we survive if we don’t force him to give in? When he develops rapidly, he will monopolize the Chinese Medicine industry throughout the country. Do you want him to cause our companies to die a slow death, one by one?”

“That’s true. But what should we do now?”

“Let’s think of a way to get rid of him!”

As everybody joined in...

Bosses of these pharmaceutical companies began a lively conversation.

They were now under a great deal of pressure brought about by Fang Qiu.

They all knew they couldn't go on like this. Sooner or later, Fang Qiu would defeat them. In this condition, they were eager to find a countermeasure.

However...

Just as these bosses were in the midst of an animated discussion...

Suddenly...

One of them sent another screenshot to the WeChat group.

It was about a new post on the Foundation's Weibo account.

Another company had been exposed!

It was Heyi Pharmaceutical Company!

The screenshot was sent out.

In the WeChat group, the heated discussion about how to deal with Fang Qiu suddenly halted!

At the sight of the screenshot...

All of them...

They were all dumbfounded!

"What the hell. Why would he pick me?"

In the WeChat group, a person with the username Mr. Liu immediately cursed angrily when he saw this screenshot. He was in a great state of panic.

Not merely Mr. Liu...

This time...

Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company and Mr. Li of Hui Chinese Medicine Company had already been exposed. Except for them, all the bosses of the other pharmaceutical companies in the group panicked!

It was okay when Fang Qiu unmasked one of them.

Everyone endured his actions when he brought the two companies' dark secrets to light.

This time, he disclosed the illegal activities of the third one!

The most disturbing thing was that...

Fang Qiu's strategy was excessively insidious.

These companies had discussed it with the authorities, who agreed not to reveal their inside story. That was why they dared to attack Fang Qiu unscrupulously.

But they overlooked one important fact: no officials would reveal their secrets, but Fang Qiu could do it!

They would be scared when the police came to them and investigated them. But it was even more terrifying if Fang Qiu exposed their dirty deeds.

By prolonging the police's investigations, they could buy time and think of ways to solve the problem.

But after Fang Qiu made his move...

Netizens flew into a fury. What happened to the Qiming Pharmaceutical Company also occurred in the Heyi Pharmaceutical Company. A great many netizens swarmed into its Weibo account and brought it to a standstill. Hackers attacked its official website, and its stock price plummeted to the limit. If this situation lasted for a few days, the police would no longer need to investigate this company because it would be bankrupt. At that time, there would be no point in investigating the case.

At this critical moment...

They were still confident that Fang Qiu wouldn't dare to jeopardize the overall interests of the whole industry.

However, what Fang Qiu was doing now was more frightening to them.

By manipulating public opinion, he could expose these companies and ruin them one by one. Nowadays, bad news would bring down the stock price immediately. When such a sensational incident happened, everyone in the country would crazily berate the company. How could its stock prices not drop to their limits?

Moreover...

The most important thing was...

None of the leaders of all the companies in the WeChat group knew when Fang Qiu would carry out his plan. No one could figure out who would be next. It was also unknown if Fang Qiu would destroy them all!

All these guesses struck terror into their hearts. They were overwhelmed by uncertainty and fear of the unknown.

“What should we do? What can we do?”

“This guy is crazy. He’s going to wipe us out!”

“Who knows what he’s trying to do? Will he expose our company next?”

“It’s over. Fang Qiu is going to destroy us by using public opinion!”

For a moment...

Leaders of all the companies in the WeChat group frantically discussed this matter and urged everyone to think of a solution.

As a result...

Everyone in the WeChat group was busy arguing as they fell into a hopeless tangle.

“Stop making that terrible racket! Please help me out first. What should I do now?”

Mr. Liu of the Heyi Pharmaceutical Company sent a message, anxiously asking for help from the others.

To his great dismay...

As soon as his message appeared, it was drowned out by many messages from others. The other people in the WeChat group were still arguing and discussing. No one cared about his situation at all.

“Could you stop arguing? All of you, shut up!”

Mr. Liu shouted angrily in a voice message, “Damn. I got it. You are not worried when you’re not in trouble!”

Mr. Liu roared angrily.

At the same time, Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company and Mr. Li of Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company also stepped forward and condemned all the others.

In the end...

The others still ignored them.

This time...

The WeChat group became even more chaotic.

The three bosses in trouble rebuked the others vehemently. Some were looking for ways to deal with these problems, while others were worried about whether they would be the next target.

They made a great commotion, but no one came up with any helpful ideas!

These sober-headed businessmen lost their usual composure.

At this time...

“Everyone, stop!”

The WeChat group leader, Mr. Xiao, who led this event, stood up and tried to calm everyone down.

Unfortunately...

Everyone was in a terrible state. After all, no one knew who would be next and when Fang Qiu would uncover their secrets.

As a result, they couldn't calm down at all, and the WeChat group was still in chaos.

"Go to hell!"

Seeing that no one paid any attention to him, Mr. Liu of Heyi Pharmaceutical Company suddenly howled his displeasure and stopped checking the messages in this group.

"50 million Huaxia coins? I'll fucking donate 100 million Huaxia coins!"

No one offered him any solutions.

He could only copy the methods of the first two companies.

Here...

When netizens saw the Foundation's third post that unmasked another company, they were even more shocked. In a heated discussion, they were anxious to see if Fang Qiu published any new evidence on his Weibo account.

When one company was found guilty, the public took it lightly. Then, doubts began to surface when they faced the two companies' dark secrets. Now that the three companies were proven to have serious problems, the situation became grave.

Everyone felt there was a diabolical conspiracy behind this.

Three Chinese Medicine companies happened to target the Foundation at the same time, and their employees secretly sabotaged the Foundation. But all three companies knew nothing about all this. What a creepy coincidence.

There didn't seem much likelihood of it happening.

Netizens were full of doubts.

They flooded Fang Qiu's Weibo account as they waited for his new post.

But when they entered Fang Qiu's Weibo account, they found he didn't publish any new posts.

When the Foundation published a Weibo post to expose the previous two companies, Fang Qiu released the chain of evidence each time. Therefore, they left messages one after another.

"Let's just wait and see what will happen."

"Hurry up and release the evidence!"

"Go ahead and uncover all the secrets. I feel it is a huge conspiracy."

Over here...

More than ten minutes later...

Fang Qiu deliberately delayed for some time. When the situation heated up, he updated the chain of evidence against Heyi Pharmaceutical Company.

Without a doubt...

As soon as the chain of evidence appeared...

Netizens immediately began to imagine all kinds of conspiracies, even without the guidance of Zhu Benzhen and the others. Many people even began to wonder whether more companies had been involved. There might be a fourth company and a fifth one.

In the interim...

Without the help of others, Heyi Pharmaceutical Company could only deal with public relations crises using the previous method.

“Our company is completely unaware of this, but we are willing to bear all the consequences. In addition, our company has officially filed a case with the police. We will cooperate with the police to conduct a detailed investigation. Once the real criminals are found, we will punish them severely. If the investigation results show that the rumors are true, our company is willing to compensate Three Billion Foundation and donate 100 million Huaxia coins!”

The announcement was sent out.

When netizens saw it, they remained indifferent.

These companies adopted the same countermeasures and released three posts with similar content. No one would believe it.

More than that...

Many people even began to suspect that there was a big conspiracy behind this!

“I’ll wager a chocolate bar on this: when the crimes of the next company come to light, it will promise to donate 150 million Huaxia coins. All are welcome to place your bets!”

“I’ll wager two chocolate bars on this: there will be another company!”

“I don’t want to bet. I’m sure another company will be uncovered.”

In an instant...

Fellow netizens that followed this matter began to use all kinds of jokes to mock these companies!

Medical Master

Chapter 1323: Send Someone to Negotiate!

The reaction online...

Leaders of the major Chinese Medicine companies were all dumbfounded.

This situation had severe repercussions.

The Foundation's revelations, Fang Qiu's chain of evidence, and all kinds of conspiracies that the netizens came up with made this topic reach the top of the trending topic list on Weibo.

When they saw this, these bosses were frightened out of their wits.

In particular, these conspiracies that were heatedly discussed by netizens terrified them. After all, public opinion might turn good things into bad ones and bad things into evil deeds.

Though they were still hiding in the dark, these imaginative guesses of netizens directly signed their death warrant.

Netizens had come up with various schemes and intrigues, which even scared these bosses behind the scenes. Public opinion could exercise considerable influence over people. These bosses were afraid that others would believe these wild guesses.

There...

Fang Qiu exposed three companies: Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company, and Heyi Pharmaceutical Company. Due to the urgency of the situation, they couldn't ponder deeply over the whole matter. They started looking for scapegoats all night and did not dare to delay any longer.

More and more people joined in the online chats and vehemently condemned them. Thus, they had to cover up their lies as soon as possible. No one knew if the situation would get out of control.

Now...

The three companies could only hope that the statements they released would be effective.

On the Internet...

Countless people that followed this matter kept an eye on the home pages of the Weibo accounts of the Three Billion Foundation and Fang Qiu. They kept refreshing the pages and waited for another company to be exposed.

However...

A long time passed, but Fang Qiu and the Foundation's official Weibo accounts remained unchanged.

Perhaps, there were only these three companies.

Netizens wouldn't believe it.

Everyone felt that there would be more sensational pieces of news forthcoming.

Fang Qiu had never let the public down.

At the cultivation base...

After he unmasked three companies simultaneously, Fang Qiu decided to take a break.

Just as numerous netizens had expected, there was more news to come, but Fang Qiu was in no hurry to release them.

In fact...

He was still waiting.

He was only halfway through his plan!

At 9:30 the next morning...

The stock market opened for trading.

The stock prices of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company, and Heyi Pharmaceutical Company instantly plunged to the limit, and even their stock ratings declined.

Not merely the three companies...

Since the whole thing had been completely blown out of proportion, stock prices of all the other Chinese Medicine companies also dropped sharply. The entire industry became a land of wails and despair!

This was the consequence that those Chinese Medicine merchants feared most.

Fang Qiu's Three Billion Foundation was purely a charity foundation. The public couldn't use public opinion to attack Fang Qiu and his Foundation. After all, no one would go against a charity organization, not to mention that Fang Qiu had been helping with public welfare.

But they didn't need to.

What Chinese Medicine companies feared the most was public opinion.

The stock prices were suddenly down to their lowest limits. This dramatic change proved how dire online public opinion could be for these companies.

In an instant, the stock prices of the three companies fell to their daily maximum limits.

This result fueled the feeling of panic among the leaders of the Chinese Medicine companies.

They didn't feel at ease after the announcement. On the contrary, they became increasingly panicky, all the while fearing that they would be hit by bad luck.

Of course...

Compared to them, the bosses of the three companies already exposed by Fang Qiu were calmer.

Looking at their stock prices that dropped so rapidly, they were torn with grief!

However...

They couldn't do anything about it.

Anyway, things had come to this point, and it was almost impossible to salvage the situation. They could only accept their misfortune. Luckily, as their companies had already been exposed, they were not as nervous as the others.

When they saw that the stock prices of other companies had also fallen, the bosses of the three companies smiled smugly.

“You deserve it!”

“When we were in trouble, you watched indifferently without lending a hand and only wanted to protect yourselves.”

“We were in trouble, and so will you be too!”

They were glad when other people also faced difficulties.

At the same time, Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Mr. Li of Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company, and Mr. Liu of Heyi Pharmaceutical Company rushed to the capital.

When they arrived in the capital...

The three of them gathered in a hotel guest room.

“Hi!”

The first one to arrive was Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company. His grey hair had almost turned completely white now. When Mr. Li and Mr. Liu came up to him, he found their hair had also turned silver.

Obviously...

The three of them must have suffered greatly from this matter.

“I didn’t expect Fang Qiu to start with us.”

“Well, I found the pattern. This guy launched his attacks according to our previous Weibo posts. Mr. Luo’s Qiming Pharmaceutical Company was the first to stop cooperating with the Foundation and publicize their decision on Weibo. Then, Mr. Li’s Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company released a Weibo post. My company was the third one that published remarks against him.”

Mr. Liu, who was in charge of Heyi Pharmaceutical Company, analyzed the situation.

“What’s the use of talking about this?”

Mr. Luo snorted coldly and said, “Now, we need to think of a solution!”

Although he was reluctant to admit his mistakes...

Mr. Luo felt quite regretful.

“I turned against the Foundation and publicized the news. Why was I so reckless and did not consider the consequences? Why had I foolishly taken the lead?”

Of course...

Mr. Li and Mr. Liu had the same thoughts.

They recalled what had happened.

They rushed ahead to fight against Fang Qiu to get more cheers from the public. Now, they certainly had to bear more severe consequences.

“Mr. Luo, you’re better at this than us. Do you have any good suggestions?”

Mr. Li asked.

“It seems no one else will help us.”

Mr. Luo’s face fell. He remembered that the others had spoken fervently, calling for unity to fight shoulder-to-shoulder against their common enemy. When he thought about this, he was on the verge of exploding with anger.

“We can only depend on ourselves.”

Looking at the other two people, Mr. Luo’s eyebrows rose and he said.

“On the way to our meeting here, I came up with an idea.”

Mr. Liu of Heyi Pharmaceutical Company said, “This matter is no longer a problem for our three companies. It has become a crisis for the Chinese Medicine industry. While everyone is in a heated discussion, we can pay some people to remove the trending topic about our three companies. After that, we can hire some paid Internet trolls to mention the names of other companies. By making use of this opportunity, we can get rid of this matter.”

“No, we can’t do that.”

Mr. Luo immediately shook his head and said, “The trending topic about us has become the center of public attention. Withdrawing it will only further provoke the public. Besides, we are not the only ones willing to spend money. Once we do that, the other companies will instantly spend a fortune and send us back to the list of trending topics! They need us to draw our enemy’s fire. To protect themselves, they are capable of doing anything!”

“That’s right.”

With a nod, Mr. Li echoed, “Even if we want to drag them down with us, it’s not the right time now. A great many people have their eyes on our three companies and joined in the heated discussion. No matter how much money we spend on spreading slanderous rumors about the other companies, they will be lost among the remarks and comments against us.”

“Then what should we do?”

Mr. Liu looked panic-stricken.

“But we can’t remain a trending topic.”

Mr. Luo gritted his teeth with determination and said, “It’s better for the doer to undo what he has done. Now we can only find another person to negotiate with Fang Qiu. We need to survive this crisis first. Only then can we take our revenge!”

“It seems to be the only way out.”

Mr. Li nodded and said, “According to my investigation, the Three Billion Foundation has some connection with the Renyi Group. A senior executive named He Xue works for the Renyi Group as the executive director. If we want to find a negotiator, we can start with He Xue. After all, given the current situation, Fang Qiu won’t agree to negotiate if we can’t find a suitable negotiator.”

“He Xue?”

Mr. Luo raised his eyebrows and asked, “Is she from the He family in the capital?”

“That’s right.”

Mr. Li immediately nodded and said, “I’m just thinking about how to use my connections. Mr. Luo, do you know anyone from the He family?”

“I’m not that familiar with the He family, but I can get in touch with them.”

Mr. Luo shook his head and said, "I have a friend who is very familiar with the He family. It's just that they might not come to our aid in our current situation. If we want to ask the He family for help, we will have to pay a high price."

"As long as we can solve this problem, it doesn't matter if we spend some money."

Mr. Li continued, "We'll get the money back from the other companies after all this is over!"

Soon...

With their money, the three bosses managed to pull a few strings. Finally, they found He Dongming from the He family in the capital.

He Dongming...

He was the first in command of his family's business and was widely known in the entire capital. All the bosses had to show him some respect, no matter how large their enterprises were.

Of course...

This was partly because He Dongming was a good and capable man. Unlike the other family members, he was very good at socializing but was not as slick as other businessmen. He was always upright and his behavior was impeccable. Thus, he was liked by many people.

Besides...

Among the elders in the He family, He Dongming treated He Xue the best, even better than her grandfather.

Because of this, the bosses of the three companies spent money to get in touch with him. They wanted to buy him over.

Sure enough...

He Dongming didn't take their money.

This incident caused a big sensation. When he heard that, he felt sorry for the three companies. Thus, he agreed to help.

Before long...

He Dongming managed to contact He Xue.

After they confirmed the time to meet, he flew to Beijiang. He Xue picked him up at the airport and took him to the cultivation base.

"Fourth Uncle, why did you suddenly want to see me?"

He Xue still felt puzzled when she picked He Dongming up.

"When you were at home last time, you had suffered a lot, but I was away. This time, I specially came to see you. Also, I want to talk to your boss about a small matter."

He Dongming was dressed formally. Looking at He Xue with a smile, he said, "I made a promise to my friend, so I had to come here."

"Don't tell me you're here to intercede with my boss on behalf of the others?"

He Xue figured it out.

"Why are you so anxious? I'm not asking you for a favor."

He Dongming laughed heartily and turned to look at the whole cultivation base. He nodded and praised, "Wonderful place! This is the largest cultivation base I've ever seen in the country. It looks very standard and advanced."

Next to him...

He Xue smiled wryly and frowned.

It was hard for her to refuse his request.

She had guessed his purpose for this visit, but she couldn't drive her uncle away, right?

Helplessly...

He Xue had no choice but to take her Fourth Uncle to the office.

Medical Master

Chapter 1324: Well Done!

"Fourth Uncle, come to my office and have a rest."

He Xue stopped before a row of three offices and said.

"The chairman's office?"

There was a sign on the door of the middle office. When he saw it, He Dongming smiled and looked into the office. There, he saw Fang Qiu working at his desk. He Dongming instantly said with a smile, "Since I'm here, I'll get down to business first. You can get back to your work."

"Er, let me take you in."

He Xue smiled wryly and hurried forward to open the door for him.

At least, she should introduce him to Fang Qiu. Her Fourth Uncle came here to see her, and she didn't want him to be driven out. That would be too embarrassing.

At the other offices...

The bosses of the other companies received the news: Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company, and Heyi Pharmaceutical Company had joined forces and found someone to negotiate with Fang Qiu.

But these people didn't ask a lot of questions, nor did they say anything. They were ready to wait quietly. Could the three companies reach an agreement with Fang Qiu? They needed a person who dared to sound Fang Qiu out. Using this chance, they could explore Fang Qiu's bottom line and purpose.

At the base...

"Knock, knock, knock..."

He Xue knocked on the door as she stood there with her Fourth Uncle. Then she pushed the door open and entered.

In the office...

"And this is?"

Fang Qiu glanced up at He Dongming and asked curiously.

"This is my Fourth Uncle. I've mentioned him to you. He has been very good to me since I was a child."

He Xue introduced him briefly.

“Oh, nice to meet you.”

Fang Qiu quickly stood up to greet him.

“You shouldn’t have. I’m also glad to see you.”

He Dongming replied with a smile.

“Well, he has something to discuss with you. I won’t disturb you.”

He Xue said.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“Hi.”

After He Xue left, He Dongming came forward, sat down before Fang Qiu’s desk, and said, “I’m He Dongming.”

“Hello, Mr. He.”

Fang Qiu nodded and asked, “Mr. He, you’ve come a long way to see me. What can I do for you?”

“Here’s the thing.”

He Dongming looked at Fang Qiu and said, "A few friends asked me to meet you. They wanted to make peace with you."

When Fang Qiu heard this...

He immediately understood what he meant.

Those Chinese Medicine companies had invited He Dongming to negotiate with him.

"You are open and aboveboard, and so am I. I came here to see you on behalf of three companies: Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company, and Heyi Pharmaceutical Company."

Looking directly at Fang Qiu, He Dongming spoke up, "I don't know if any other companies are also involved. But the considerable dispute between you all has brought serious trouble to both sides. It has had a devastating impact on these three companies. I believe you should have known about their current condition. If the battle continues, they will only end up bankrupt."

At this point...

He Dongming paused for a moment.

Then...

"Beep, beep, beep..."

Fang Qiu's cell phone suddenly rang.

It was a text message.

Fang Qiu took out his phone and found it was from He Xue.

“Business is business. To a businessman, business tactics are essential, and profit always comes first. But feelings and relationships should be handled differently. Don’t confuse the two issues.”

Fang Qiu finished reading this text message.

He chuckled and put away his phone.

“Please continue.”

Fang Qiu said after he glanced at He Dongming.

He Xue had personally brought him to his office and specially introduced him. It meant this man was important to her.

Although they were talking about business, Fang Qiu didn’t want to put He Xue in an embarrassing position.

Therefore, he showed enough respect to her uncle.

“Mm.”

He Dongming nodded and said, “Your main business is cultivation, and your secondary business is the Foundation. Now everyone in Huaxia knows your Foundation is purely for public benefit. Since you set up the Foundation to benefit the people, I believe you’re not a bad person. Deep down, you must have good intentions.”

“So, I hope you can show mercy to these three companies.”

With this...

He Dongming smiled and added, "Of course, I didn't come here empty-handed. The three companies have made a few promises to me. They will provide your Foundation with the best medicinal herbs at lower prices if you let them off. In addition, each of them will donate 200 million Huaxia coins to develop the Three Billion Foundation. Also, they are willing to cooperate with your Foundation in as many aspects as you like."

"In particular, when the three companies are recruiting employees, they will give priority to students from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine."

Fang Qiu listened to him carefully.

"Their sincerity is unquestionable."

Fang Qiu nodded understandingly and continued, "I don't know why you agreed to come here for them, but I think you may not know the whole picture."

"Eh?"

He Dongming was stunned.

"Have you ever heard of an ancient saying?"

Fang Qiu answered his question, "Those who meet with a tragic ending must be troublemakers themselves!"

"Are there any hidden facts?"

When he heard what Fang Qiu said, He Dongming's eyebrows shot up and he asked, "These three companies plotted against your Foundation because they wanted your cultivation technique. Am I right?"

"Ha-ha!"

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, "Not merely three companies. Almost all the Chinese Medicine companies on the market are involved!"

"What?"

He Dongming was stunned.

Fang Qiu opened the drawer of his desk and took out the chains of evidence from the police station in Blackhill Gate Village. He put these documents on his desk and said to He Dongming, "The results of the investigation are out. All the evidence is here!"

He Dongming took it to have a look.

Good heavens!

Sure enough, many more companies had been involved apart from these three companies. He saw that it was almost all the companies on the market.

"I don't know if you've heard the whole story. Now I will tell you the key points."

Fang Qiu took a deep breath and said. "First of all, there were four patients."

"Because they took shoddy traditional Chinese medicine, they didn't recover. Instead, their conditions worsened. When I arrived, the county hospital couldn't save them. They were all ready to be sent to the municipal hospital for further treatment. Even the critically ill notice had been issued."

"It doesn't seem to be a big deal now, but if I had gone a day later, how many of these four patients would have survived? I'm afraid they all would have died."

"These four patients were related to four families. Besides, all of them were the breadwinners in their families. The death of one worker would hurt a family for several years or even decades!"

“And all of this was caused by fake drugs.”

At this point...

Fang Qiu suppressed the anger in his heart and continued, “Why did I set up the Three Billion Foundation? It was because I accidentally went to the Leprosy Village in Nanjiang. That place was full of old and young leprosy patients. I saw how helpless those villagers were in the face of various diseases. They couldn’t even buy medicine. That day, I decided to set up the Three Billion Foundation. It would serve patients in the countryside that had poor medical conditions. I want to help the patients in the countryside and am trying my best to save more people.”

“These pharmaceutical merchants can deal with me in any aspect, but they chose the most shameless way — they targeted the Foundation and the patients in the countryside!”

“They directed and carried out this farce. They planned to cut off the supply of traditional Chinese medicine to the Foundation. In this case, the Foundation doctors couldn’t provide these patients with medicine. They did all this to force me to hand over the cultivation technique to them.”

“They failed to threaten me. However, they didn’t give up and did something even more vicious.”

When Fang Qiu mentioned this...

His face darkened, and he told He Dongming, “Before you came here and before I exposed these three companies, they had already found two negotiators to talk with me. The first one told me that if I didn’t give them the cultivation technique, they would unite to raise the prices of traditional Chinese medicine in the whole market. Then, those patients in the countryside could no longer afford the medicine!”

“Their evil plan would push the patients in the countryside to their deaths!”

“In this regard, I could only ask the Foundation to apply a subsidy policy. At least, we could ensure that the patients could get their medicine.”

“The second negotiator wanted to buy my cultivation technique, but I refused to sell. Even if I had to lose a great deal of money, I would never hand over my cultivation technique to these black-hearted pharmaceutical merchants.”

“Right after I refused them, they released news through the Honggang media. They said the Earthly Immortal Pill that had the Desert Cistanche as the main component produced by me might cause cancer!”

At this point...

Fang Qiu couldn't help sneering and said, “Almost all the Chinese Medicine companies are involved in this matter. Thus, they were confident that I wouldn't dare to fall out with all of them. In their minds, I wouldn't have the guts to publicize all the evidence. After all, such a scandal would have a great impact on Chinese Medicine doctors, the Chinese Medicine industry, and society. Therefore, they had nothing to fear. They raised the prices and slandered me and resorted to all kinds of threats and inducements!”

When He Dongming heard all of this...

His expression changed drastically.

Indeed...

He had no idea what was going on, so he had come blindly to the cultivation base to intercede for the three pharmaceutical companies.

After Fang Qiu explained everything in detail...

He was also angry.

He felt that he had been deceived.

“When I was cornered by them, I asked a cultivation expert for traditional Chinese medicine to investigate the current situation of the Chinese Medicine market all over the country.”

As Fang Qiu spoke, he took out the report of the Chinese Medicine market from Zhao Shanlin and placed it before He Dongming.

He Dongming picked it up and studied it.

The more he read, the more deeply furrowed his brows became.

“All the evil things were done by them. They were like mad dogs. To achieve their goals, they were ready to do everything. My Foundation has been providing medical services for many villages. If they crush it, how many more villagers will die due to their illnesses every year?”

Fang Qiu said angrily, “If we continue to indulge them, soon traditional Chinese medicine will be useless, and the Chinese Medicine industry will be doomed too!”

“As pharmaceutical merchants, don’t they know the current situation of the traditional Chinese medicine market?”

“No, they know it better than anyone else, but they have been pretending not to know and even encouraged the evil trends. Their purpose is to make money!”

“As long as these black-hearted pharmaceutical merchants conduct their medicine business in this way, the traditional Chinese medicine industry won’t get better!”

“I’m not doing this for myself. I can hold back my anger, but for traditional Chinese medicine, I can’t ignore the harsh reality!”

Fang Qiu made a powerful and rousing speech.

He Dongming had been listening to him with rapt attention.

He watched the young man before him and suddenly felt a deep reverence for him.

“I was muddleheaded.”

He Dongming stood up and said, “I’m sorry I came to plead with you before I learned the whole truth. I feel ashamed of myself.”

“It’s a blessing for the Chinese Medicine industry to have you, an ambitious and promising young man!”

“Well done!”

“Those merchants are rich but heartless. They should pay the price!”

Medical Master

Chapter 1325: Various Calls to Intercede!

“You’re kind-hearted. Now, I understand why you came down so hard upon these three companies.”

He Dongming said, “They deserve it!”

Fang Qiu nodded.

Through that speech, Fang Qiu released all the grievances and anger that had accumulated in his heart recently. He couldn’t find a suitable person to pour out his troubles to. Unexpectedly, a negotiator sent by those medicine merchants became Fang Qiu’s good listener.

“Then what’s your purpose?”

After he learned the whole story, He Dongming gazed at Fang Qiu and asked.

“I want to put traditional Chinese medicine market in order.”

Fang Qiu took a deep breath and said, “To revitalize Chinese Medicine!”

He Dongming heard what he said.

He nodded knowingly and expressed his admiration for Fang Qiu with a hold-fist salute. “Impressive! I admire you!”

After that...

He turned around with a smile and said, “My trip here was not in vain. It was nice to meet such a talent like you!”

“Goodbye.”

He Dongming said this to Fang Qiu, then laughed out loud, and exited Fang Qiu’s office.

Outside the office...

He Xue was standing at the door.

“Fourth Uncle, I understand you.”

When she saw He Dongming coming out, she approached him and led him out. As they walked, she said, “Fourth Uncle, I’m sorry.”

“Nothing serious.”

He Dongming smiled, shook his head, and said, "I came here in a hurry without first finding out the whole story. This base is a good place. Both your boss and your company are nice. Do a good job, and you will make great achievements."

"Aren't you angry?"

He Xue was stunned and asked, "You didn't fulfill your promise. When you go back, others might say you were unreliable. Aren't you afraid of that?"

"They have no right to judge me like that."

He Dongming shook his head with a smile and said, "Besides, I just promised to do them a favor. I came here to negotiate but just failed to persuade your boss. They can't blame me."

"That's good."

He Xue smiled and nodded.

"Little girl, you've found a good place. It's much better than home."

He Dongming smiled and said, "You worked in another medicine group. Suddenly, you went to sell medicine for another company. I didn't understand why, but I know the reason now. Your cultivation base is probably related to the Renyi Group. Otherwise, as a senior executive of the Renyi Group, you couldn't get an exclusive office in this base."

"You've figured it out."

He Xue smiled wryly.

"I've studied Fang Qiu but didn't know much about him. I had no idea what kind of business model he had planned. It's not until today that I know you're industrialists, not businessmen!"

Speaking of this, He Dongming turned around and his eyes swept around the whole cultivation base. He sighed with emotion, "While seeking profit, he planned the interests of the world! If he wants fame, he deserves everlasting glory!"

"You think so highly of him. If Fang Qiu heard what you said, he would be overjoyed."

He Xue said with a smile.

"Well, I'll come to see you next time."

He Dongming smiled. "I'm fully occupied with many things at home. I'm relieved to see you working in such a great place. If you return to the capital, come and see your grandfather and me."

"Okay."

He Xue nodded and saw him off.

Soon...

A few minutes after He Dongming left the Desert Cistanche cultivation base in Beijiang, Mr. Luo of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Mr. Li of Huizhong Pharmaceutical Company, and Mr. Liu of Heyi Pharmaceutical Company received the news.

The negotiation failed!

The three bosses had expected a good result. After all, He Dongming personally went to intercede with Fang Qiu for them. When their companies were in trouble, they had a lot of things to deal with. Thus, they went back to their companies after their meeting.

When they received the news...

All the three bosses were in their offices.

Their faces instantly changed as soon as they found out that the negotiation was unsuccessful.

Before this, they had finally managed to calm down a little. But now, they became nervous again.

None of them had expected this.

Fang Qiu refused to give in even when He Dongming went to talk with him.

Moreover...

What did this failure mean to them?

Fang Qiu didn't agree to let them off — he would continue to mess with them!

Fang Qiu fought back. An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth.

At this moment, the three of them finally understood the desperate feeling of being driven into a corner.

They were seized with remorse.

Fang Qiu might have let them off this time if they had not cornered him.

“Even He Dongming couldn't do it. It seems we can never reach a peaceful settlement with Fang Qiu.”

The three bosses set up a new WeChat group for themselves. In it, Mr. Luo took the lead in speaking.

“Then what should we do?”

“Alas, find a scapegoat as soon as possible. Let someone else take the blame before we do anything else.”

In the meantime...

The other Chinese Medicine companies knew the three companies had asked He Dongming to talk to Fang Qiu. At this time, all of them also learned about the result of the negotiation.

As the big shots in the business world, almost all the leaders of these pharmaceutical companies knew about He Dongming and had heard of his many deeds.

In the business circle, He Dongming was popular with a well-earned reputation.

Thus, it had never occurred to them...

Even when such a man came to his door, Fang Qiu refused to budge an inch.

Without a doubt...

Since even He Dongming failed to reach an agreement with him, no professional negotiators could make it, no matter how skillful they were.

Obviously, there was no prospect of compromise in sight!

When the leaders of these Chinese Medicine companies realized this...

The hope in their hearts was shattered.

They became even more worried.

The failure of the negotiation meant Fang Qiu would never give up until his goal was reached. Then, it was very likely that he would continue to expose the evidence.

Which company would be the next target?

All the Chinese Medicine companies began to worry.

They felt quite helpless.

But they couldn't wait passively for their end.

They knew it was almost impossible to make peace with Fang Qiu. Yet, bosses of all Chinese Medicine companies wasted no time looking for useful connections. They needed some people to plead with Fang Qiu and ask him to be lenient. Even if Fang Qiu had to uncover the hideous secrets of a company, every company hoped he wouldn't choose them.

And now...

In the office at the cultivation base...

"Beep, beep, beep..."

An hour after He Dongming left, Fang Qiu received a call from Director Li Huawen.

"Director Li, why did you suddenly call me?"

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Brat, everything you’ve done is world-shaking.”

Li Huawen’s voice came from the other end of the phone. “A friend asked me for help. His company seems to be on your list. He wanted me to ask you for a favor and let his company off.”

“Director Li, I can’t do it, no matter what.”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and said, “When I go back to the capital, I’ll treat you to a meal as an apology, okay?”

“Oh, you even turned me down.”

Li Huawen was stunned and asked, “These pharmaceutical merchants have gone too far, haven’t they?”

“Worse than murderers!”

Fang Qiu said.

“I see.”

Li Huawen nodded and said, “Remember, you owe me a meal.”

After that, he hung up.

Surprisingly...

Not long after this call ended, Fang Qiu’s phone rang again.

This time, it was a call from Director Chen Xiaogang.

“Hello, Director Chen.”

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“What have you been doing recently?”

Chen Xiaogang’s voice came over the phone.

“You must have known about it.”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a wry smile and said, “It has become a hot topic on the Internet. I have nothing to say if you say you don’t know about it. But let me make it clear in advance. Let’s skip it if you’re here for this matter.”

“But I can’t.”

Chen Xiaogang said, “I can’t refuse to help my buddy. Think about it. It’s just one company. Letting it off would be just a piece of cake.”

“Director Chen, to tell you the truth, I take this matter seriously. Director Li Huawen called me just now, but I refused his request. I hate to disappoint you, but I can’t go against my principles.”

Fang Qiu said.

“I see.”

Chen Xiaogang seemed to have sensed something from Fang Qiu’s words. He could only change the topic and say, “Then let’s not talk about this. My web series is almost ready. When do you think you will have time?”

“I’ll have to check my schedule to see if I’m available then.”

Fang Qiu replied.

“Okay, I’ll call you in advance.”

Chen Xiaogang answered and hung up.

Fang Qiu didn’t expect that.

These pharmaceutical companies could even reach the two famous directors. What a large network of contacts they had.

He sighed emotionally.

Soon, he received many more calls from those famous stars, who were Fang Qiu’s friends, including six show hosts, and even Song Yaqi, a rising screen goddess.

As a result, Fang Qiu could only apologize to them one by one. He told them the situation was much more complicated than they had imagined. He promised to make amends after the issue was resolved.

Since Fang Qiu had said this, everyone understood his stance.

But then...

Chen Yinsheng called him.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu took the call.

“Fang Qiu, a big enterprise offered to support our university. They are going to donate a large sum of money to our university. It can benefit our university in all aspects. But it’s a Chinese Medicine company...”

Chen Yinsheng said.

“Sir, you can’t make this deal with them.”

Before Chen Yinsheng could finish his words, Fang Qiu refused him.

“What’s going on? Is this issue so severe?”

Chen Yinsheng asked in surprise.

“If you want to know more about it, I’ll tell you.”

Fang Qiu said and briefly told him the key points of the whole thing.

“What?”

After that, Chen Yinsheng erupted with rage and immediately stated his stand clearly. “Bastards! How can they foolishly damage Chinese Medicine like this? And they even had the guts to ask for my support! Do whatever you want to do. I’m on your side, and the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine will also back you up!”

“Oh, thank you so much.”

Fang Qiu expressed his gratitude.

After the phone call...

Fang Qiu put his phone on the desk and decided not to answer any more calls. Instead, he sent text messages to apologize to them individually, telling them there was no room for negotiation on this issue.

He didn't know how many text messages he had sent out.

After a while, just when Fang Qiu had some time to relax, his phone rang again.

With a closer look...

He was surprised to see his father calling him.

"Dad, did those pharmaceutical companies also try to buy you over?"

Fang Qiu talked to his father, smiling bitterly.

"Buy me over? What are you talking about?"

Fang Qiu's father continued, "Just now, the county leaders made a special trip to our house. When we chatted, they hinted that a company wanted to invest and build a factory in our county. However, they said the company had an unpleasant history with you. So, they hoped you could make peace with them."

Chapter 1326: No More Dealings with You!

Fang Qiu's father had been paying attention to his activities, so he was aware of his son's current situation. He didn't know why Fang Qiu had to do these things, but he believed his son must have his reasons. Therefore, he didn't call to help others persuade Fang Qiu. Actually, he just took this opportunity and called Fang Qiu to see how he was doing recently.

"I know it's a big deal. Well, I'm only a messenger. I won't interfere with your decisions. You've grown up. Whatever you do, you should have a mind of your own and shoulder responsibility for your choices."

Fang Qiu's father said with concern.

Here...

Fang Qiu was surprised.

He didn't expect these Chinese Medicine companies to go to such absurd lengths. They even found their way to his hometown.

"Dad, don't worry."

Fang Qiu said, "I'll take care of it."

"Mm."

His father nodded.

Then, they chatted casually for a while before hanging up.

After the call, Fang Qiu sneered.

"It seems they are all alarmed."

The current situation was apparent at a glance.

By making the best use of their connections, these Chinese Medicine merchants were doing everything possible to beg for mercy. If they weren't completely in such a state of panic, how could they do this?

Fang Qiu knew what was in their minds.

They were all terrified that Fang Qiu would expose them next.

A sneer flitted across his face.

Fang Qiu logged into his Weibo account and sent a new post. "The next one?"

Three words and a question mark...

When this question was sent out.

It immediately caused a sensation on Weibo.

The three words triggered a great uproar among netizens!

"What the fuck, there really is a fourth one?"

"Hurry up and tell us. We've been waiting for a long time."

"One after another... Is he going to clean up all the Chinese Medicine companies? I want the truth!"

"Seriously? A fourth one for real?"

"These businessmen are blackhearted. So many companies have united to slander a charitable foundation. These fools have way too much free time. Aren't they inviting their own destruction?"

“Awesome. This is simply the best attention-getting plot this year!”

“This is too exciting, isn’t it?”

“Stars and celebrities will be consumed with jealousy at Fang Qiu’s achievements. They can’t get on the list even with money, but Fang Qiu has singly occupied the top ten trending topics.”

“The power of the masses is truly great!”

“Hurry up and announce the fourth one. I’m looking forward to the fifth one.”

Fang Qiu’s new Weibo post caused quite a stir online, like a tossed stone setting forth a thousand ripples in water.

Frankly...

Now, all the media throughout the country focused only on one person: Fang Qiu!

Meanwhile...

All the Chinese Medicine merchants were frightened when they saw this.

“Another one to be exposed?”

“Is Fang Qiu going to bring all evildoers to light?”

“It’s already the fourth company. Which one?”

“Damn it! I’m going to kill Fang Qiu!”

In an instant...

Panic and anger filled the hearts of those Chinese Medicine merchants. Any of them could be the next one. They felt as if Fang Qiu had hung a sharp blade above their heads. No one knew when it would fall and cut off their heads.

In this case, they panicked and were furious. They even had the impulse to silence Fang Qiu forever.

But...

They did not dare to.

And they couldn’t do it.

Fang Qiu was at the cultivation base within a restricted military area. They couldn’t go there, no matter how much they wanted to!

“What are we going to do now? Say something! What on earth should we do?”

In the WeChat group of pharmaceutical companies, a boss spoke first.

“Anyone has any idea what we should do?”

“Fang Qiu, shameless scumbag! How could he do this to us?”

“This is a road to ruin. Damn!”

“Fang Qiu will ruin all of us.”

“What on earth should we do? Say something useful!”

All of them complained and cursed as they looked for a way out.

“Crap. If he doesn’t stop, all of us will be exposed.”

“Fang Qiu doesn’t dare to turn against all of us. But if he exposes us one by one like this, the public will boil with resentment. At that time, the government might not be able to hold these furious people down. Then, under tremendous pressure from the public, the government will crack down on us.”

“We can’t afford to wait!”

The more these Chinese Medicine merchants discussed this issue, the more flustered they became.

“Let’s find someone to negotiate with Fang Qiu. We admit defeat in this round. Fang Qiu can get whatever he wants. Worrying about our losses is meaningless. As long as we can get and destroy the evidence, we can give him anything he wants!”

“I agree. No one knows how many companies he will destroy. If it goes on like this, this issue will attract more and more attention from everyone. When the impact turns too enormous for us to reduce, we’ll find ourselves at a dead end!”

The discussion was over.

The leaders of these Chinese Medicine companies quickly began looking for a suitable person to communicate with Fang Qiu.

This time, it wouldn’t be a negotiation.

Therefore, there would be no negotiators.

They were going to communicate with Fang Qiu. To be exact, they would have to beg him!

Eventually...

They chose the boss of Zhong'an Pharmaceutical Company.

His name was Yao Licheng.

Yao Licheng happened to be the boss who would invest and build a factory in Linxi County, Fang Qiu's hometown.

He didn't use any connections.

Yao Licheng went straight to the gate of the Beijiang cultivation base and asked to see Fang Qiu.

This time...

Fang Qiu did not turn him away and let him in.

In the office...

Fang Qiu sat at his desk while He Xue sat on the sofa at the side.

When Yao Licheng entered the door, he nodded at He Xue with a big smile. Then, he walked toward Fang Qiu and praised, "Knowing you by your reputation is not as good as meeting you in person. Mr. Fang Qiu, you're indeed a promising young man and a business elite."

"A new, large target of envious rivals?"

Fang Qiu shook his head.

Hearing that, Yao Licheng swallowed back all the praises he was going to say next.

When He Xue heard Fang Qiu's reply...

She had to stifle her laughter.

This was the first time she had seen Fang Qiu being so mean.

He seldom made caustic remarks. Most of the time, he seemed to be the victim of jokes. He rarely talked back to those people around him.

Thus, she didn't expect him to silence their enemy as soon as he started to speak!

"May I have a seat?"

Walking to his desk, Yao Licheng pointed to the chair and asked.

"Please."

Fang Qiu nodded.

Then Yao Licheng sat down and took a deep breath. After he adjusted his tie and straightened his back, he told Fang Qiu, "You should know the purpose of my visit this time. So, I won't beat around the bush. All of us admit defeat. This time, I am here on behalf of all the others. Please give us a chance to survive."

"There are ways out for you, but why do you stick to the road to destruction?"

Fang Qiu responded with a sneer.

“We were too foolish to see the reality.”

Like a primary school student admitting his mistake, Yao Licheng lowered his head, not daring to look into Fang Qiu’s eyes. He looked sideways and said, “We shouldn’t have played those dirty tricks and got you into trouble. Now we know we’re wrong.”

After he made this apology...

Yao Licheng turned his head, looked at Fang Qiu, and continued, “In the name of Zhong’an Pharmaceutical Company, I’ve applied to invest and build a factory in your hometown, Linxi County.”

“We will also donate money to the schools you have studied at as compensation. In addition, we are also willing to contribute money to your Foundation. Each company will offer 200 million Huaxia coins. Your Foundation had cooperated with 30 companies. All the money they give will be 6 billion in total. In addition, there are other Chinese Medicine companies. All the money from them will be as much as tens of billions of Huaxia coins!”

“Moreover, we can guarantee that we will never lay a finger on you and the Foundation. We will fully cooperate with you no matter what you do for public welfare. We only hope you can accept our sincere apologies and compensation. Please give us the evidence you have and let us destroy it. Then, this matter will come to an end!”

When he heard that, Fang Qiu sneered indifferently and said distinctly, “I can’t accept it!”

“Hum?”

Yao Licheng’s face darkened, and he asked, “Then what price do you want us to pay? Just say it. We will give you whatever you want. As long as you stop pursuing this matter, we can do anything for you.”

“I don’t want any compensation.”

Fang Qiu shook his head.

“Really?”

Yao Licheng watched Fang Qiu in great surprise and asked, “Then, can you give me the evidence?”

“No.”

Fang Qiu answered indifferently.

“Could you give me an explanation? Please let us off this time. What on earth do you want us to do?”

Yao Licheng asked helplessly and bitterly.

“An explanation?”

Fang Qiu stared at Yao Licheng and said, “I want justice!”

As he spoke...

Fang Qiu took Zhao Shanlin’s research report on the Chinese Medicine market from the drawer, threw it before Yao Licheng, and said, “This is a report about the current situation of the Chinese Medicine market. Is it telling the truth?”

Yao Licheng picked it up and looked at it.

After a moment of silence, he replied, “It’s true!”

“I want you to improve the entire Chinese Medicine market!”

Fang Qiu said.

“Well, it’s impossible.”

Yao Licheng immediately shook his head and said, “It’s not that we don’t want to do it. Even if we all unite, we can’t fulfill your request. We can make changes, but our cooperators need to make money. They can’t be regulated by our specifications. Notably, the drugs of our companies can actually be rated as good products on the market.”

“From another perspective, these people can invigorate the Chinese Medicine market. After all, they rely on traditional Chinese medicine to make money and continuously develop this industry, right?”

Fang Qiu heard his explanation.

“Don’t try to fool me with your damned theory!”

Fang Qiu was so angry that he burst out laughing and felt that what he said was absurd. “Shoddy herbs will ruin Chinese Medicine. As a result, traditional Chinese medicine will no longer exist. How can fake and defective drugs activate the market? Your statement is extremely ridiculous!”

“I have nothing to say. You can leave now.”

Fang Qiu rebuked him angrily and drove him away.

“Well.”

Yao Licheng looked at Fang Qiu helplessly and said, “Then, how about you reconsider it? We’re willing to cooperate with you, but it’s really impossible for us to correct all the mistakes.”

“I don’t need to think about it again.”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly and said, "I don't intend to argue with you anymore."

"Send the guest out!"

After that, Fang Qiu directly turned around and ignored Yao Licheng.

Behind him...

"Mr. Yao, please?"

He Xue came over and motioned for Yao Licheng to leave.

"You... Will you continue to expose us?"

Yao Licheng looked at Fang Qiu unwillingly and asked.

"You'll find out soon."

Fang Qiu answered indifferently.

"I'll donate 300 million Huaxia coins! Beyond that, I'll build a factory in Linxi County! I'll make donations to your primary school, junior high school, high school, and university. Please show mercy. Don't target my company, okay?"

Yao Licheng panicked.

"Send him out."

Fang Qiu sneered.

Medical Master

Chapter 1327: A Press Conference!

Yao Licheng looked at Fang Qiu, who didn't even turn to look at him.

His face took on a ghastly expression. Urged by He Xue, he had no choice but to leave.

After she ushered him out, He Xue returned to Fang Qiu's office.

"Why not accept their compensation? This won't hinder you from achieving your eventual aim."

He Xue asked curiously.

"They should pay the money!"

Fang Qiu replied, "But I won't do anything they can hold against us. The money can be regarded as compensation, but they can say I blackmailed them. No one can tell right from wrong. I'm not just a Chinese Medicine doctor but also the Foundation's president. Taking bribes is a capital offense!"

"That's true."

He Xue nodded and said, "This group of black-hearted businessmen can do anything. If you take their compensation, I don't know what gross slanders against you they'll spread in the future."

"So, I just need to do my best."

Fang Qiu said, smiling.

“But...”

He Xue frowned and said, “The current situation is: you have forced them into a dead end and made all the Chinese Medicine merchants panic. As you can see, they have tried their best to persuade you to let them off. They have no choice but to negotiate with you.”

“Most importantly, given the current situation of the Chinese Medicine market, these Chinese Medicine companies can’t do anything to help. Dozens of companies can’t reorganize the order of the market even if they joined forces. Are you sure you want to do it?”

He Xue asked.

“I must do it.”

Fang Qiu shook his head, sighed softly, and said, “Even if I can’t achieve my goal, I have to do something. I’ll try my best to change the situation. Next, it’s my turn.”

“Alright.”

He Xue nodded knowingly and said, “Everyone is ready. They can be dispersed all over the country at any time.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

There...

Yao Licheng left the Beijiang cultivation base.

He immediately took out his phone and quickly sent a few messages to the WeChat group.

“I failed.”

“Fang Qiu is obstinate and will not change his mind. He is determined to eradicate us all.”

“Without the slightest hesitation, he turned down all my compensation offers. He even showed me a research report on the current market of traditional Chinese medicine. And he was insolent enough to say he would reorganize the whole market. I think this overly ambitious guy wants to drive us out. What’s worse, he might have been prepared to take over the whole traditional Chinese medicine market!”

After the few messages were sent out...

Everyone in the WeChat group was dumbfounded.

They had thought about it carefully. Their representative would apologize to Fang Qiu and compensate him with 10 billion yuan, plus all kinds of donations and construction plans.

With these enormous contributions, they should be pardoned even if they were supposed to be punished with the death penalty.

If they were abroad, they could be cleared of all charges even without having to give the money to Fang Qiu!

Unfortunately, they were in Huaxia.

No matter how much money they had, it was useless!

What they felt most helpless about was...

Fang Qiu refused to talk to them.

In reflection, the purpose of everyone uniting was to keep the traditional Chinese medicine market. Every one of them wanted to earn a place in the market. But it turned out that they helped Fang Qiu instead. They had been foolishly making efforts to push themselves out of the market!

“What should we do now?”

“We can’t sit and wait for him to destroy us, right?”

“We can only go to the government for help!”

One of them said, “In this case, we can’t expect Fang Qiu to spare us. The only solution is to find government officials. They can put pressure on Fang Qiu. I don’t believe Fang Qiu can bear the pressure from the authorities. We are all important taxpayers from all over the country. The total tax collected from us every year is amazingly high. I don’t think the government will simply ignore us.”

“This seems to be the only way out.”

“I agree with it.”

“That’s it. Everyone, hurry up and get in touch with the officials you know. The sooner, the better.”

During the conversation...

The leaders of these Chinese Medicine companies began to call their local officials, asking for help.

On the other side...

To further heat up the topic, all media outlets nationwide argued intensely over whether there was a fourth company and whether Fang Qiu would expose it. Numerous netizens were also engaged in endless debates.

On the stock market...

All stock prices in the medicine section dropped!

All share prices related to pharmaceutical companies plummeted, whether the price was for traditional Chinese medicine or Western medicine. Some prices decreased slightly, while some plunged precipitously. Anyway, all prices dropped.

This issue affected the entire pharmaceutical market and brought disaster to the innocent.

The stock prices of many companies that were criticized by the public were about to hit rock bottom.

After all, no one knew if Fang Qiu would expose any of these companies next. For the public, these companies that performed badly on ordinary days would more likely be exposed by Fang Qiu!

However...

The media were talking about it heatedly. The netizens on Weibo were also discussing it animatedly.

At this moment, the official Weibo account of the Three Billion Foundation uploaded a new post.

However...

This time, no dark secrets were uncovered. Instead, there was a notice.

"Tomorrow at four o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Fang Qiu will hold a press conference at the Shenghua Hotel in the capital. Reporters from all social circles are welcome to attend."

After the notice was released on Weibo...

Fang Qiu immediately reposted it.

It was just a few lines without any extra content.

However, such a brief notice of a press conference caused an uproar among all the media and netizens in the country.

“Holy shit! Will Fang Qiu announce it directly to the media this time?”

“It is definitely going to be a big deal. All the reporters will be there. If the next company is exposed at that time, it will be a piece of earth-shattering news.”

“Now everyone is making guesses as to which company will be the next. This is now a hot topic. Does Fang Qiu want to take this chance to promote anything? But he doesn’t seem to have anything to advertise.”

“It’s highly possible he’ll expose the next company at the conference. Anyway, we can’t miss this press conference. If Fang Qiu chooses to expose the next one on the spot, it will be a pity to miss it.”

Both the media and the netizens were thinking about ‘the next one’ when they read that Fang Qiu would hold a press conference.

As such...

As soon as this message emerged...

All the media staff in the country were busy making preparations, ready to rush to the press conference.

Media workers in the capital were the most active.

Right after Fang Qiu published the notice, they scrambled to call the Shenghua Hotel to book rooms for tomorrow. The media in other regions changed the scheduled time for all interviews. A few essential interviews for some big shots couldn't be rescheduled. But still, their interview teams were changed. In this way, each media outlet could send the best interview team to attend Fang Qiu's press conference.

In just one hour...

The Shenghua Hotel's rooms were sold out, but many media staff still called to try and book rooms.

It was rare to see such a bustling scene.

Before long...

A reporter, also a well-known influencer on Weibo, issued a post.

"I've received a ticket for the Three Billion Foundation's press conference. Everyone, wait for me to show up on the scene!"

The reporter attached a photo to the post.

A ticket for the Three Billion Foundation's press conference could be clearly seen.

Because this influencer often released some critical pieces of news, a large number of people followed him. As soon as this Weibo post was published, it immediately attracted many netizens.

"A ticket is needed?"

"That is to say, ordinary people won't be allowed to attend this press conference."

“I wonder how many media outlets Fang Qiu will invite.”

“You must go there in time. With your outstanding capabilities, you can update us on the latest news.”

“You’d better start a livestream. When the time comes, we can watch the conference together through your livestream.”

“I’ll be waiting for you tomorrow!”

The netizens reposted and replied crazily. In just half an hour, many more people followed this influencer working as a reporter.

At the sight of this...

The other media outlets also began to show photos of their admission tickets to increase their popularity!

Undoubtedly...

As the media workers fanned the fire, envious netizens flattered and followed their lead to follow the event. In addition, many questions and doubts would be dealt with at Fang Qiu’s press conference. Soon, this event became the hottest topic.

It went to the top of both the trending topic list and the hot topic list. Now people all over the country were discussing the event.

Unlike the media and countless netizens...

After seeing this news, those pharmaceutical merchants suddenly became more flustered. They all became restless and scared, as they were not sure what Fang Qiu was up to.

They feared Fang Qiu would expose all of them before the media.

If that was Fang Qiu's plan...

After he publicized these shady inside stories at the conference, it would be too late for the government to put pressure on him.

In panic...

The leaders of Chinese Medicine companies rushed to contact officials for help. Meanwhile, they sent some people to inquire about Fang Qiu's real intention of holding this press conference.

Somewhere else...

At the cultivation base...

After reposting the post about the press conference, Fang Qiu turned off his phone.

It was because he knew that...

A lot of people would call him. Thus, he switched off his phone in advance so that no one could contact him.

"Let's go."

After getting everything ready, Fang Qiu asked He Xue to go with him to the capital.

"You might be in danger tonight. Aren't you scared?"

He Xue frowned and said, "People falling into the depths of despair might lose their minds and do all kinds of terrible things. Aren't you afraid that they will secretly attack you?"

"They'd better not do that."

Fang Qiu smiled carelessly.

Murder him?

He had never feared these people. Fang Qiu was fearless even if they hired the world's top killers, not to mention those ordinary killers.

Moreover, he would be in the capital at that time!

Over there...

These Chinese Medicine merchants had asked their local authorities for help. At this time, they received the news: these officials couldn't get in touch with Fang Qiu. Meanwhile, the people they sent to inquire about the information also returned, but they got nothing.

In this case...

All the Chinese Medicine merchants tensed immediately, their hearts in their mouths. A few of them were even thinking of ways to kill Fang Qiu, but they abandoned this idea on second thought. After all, Fang Qiu would be in the capital.

If they were audacious enough to make trouble in the capital, the government would never spare them, no matter how much tax they could pay!

Helplessly...

All Chinese Medicine companies sent their people to the Shenghua Hotel in no time, hoping to see Fang Qiu before the press conference officially began.

Chapter 1328: Ten Billion, the Authentic Medicinal Material Base!

The night passed peacefully.

The situation that He Xue was worried about did not happen.

In the evening.

Soon, all the people sent by the major Chinese Medicine merchants arrived in the capital and gathered in front of the Shenghua Hotel. Because all the rooms in the hotel had been booked, these people could only find a place nearby to rest and monitor the hotel all the time and keep a lookout for Fang Qiu's whereabouts.

Because reporters from all over the country had arrived, these people did not dare to enter the hotel to seek out Fang Qiu, for fear of arousing the reporters' suspicions and exposing their purpose.

That was it.

Some of them didn't even dare to sleep. They had been monitoring the situation the whole night,

On the second day.

The group of people rushed directly to the door of the hotel and waited for Fang Qiu's arrival, just to see him.

However, it was not until 3:30 p.m. that they arrived.

There was only half an hour left before the press conference officially started, but the people sent by the pharmaceutical companies still didn't see Fang Qiu.

After they found out about the situation, all the pharmaceutical companies were so anxious that they sweated profusely. They counted the time, one by one, and their heartbeats became more intense with every second.

In the hotel conference room.

At the venue where the press conference would be held.

At this time, all the media reporters who had received invitations arrived. They all entered the conference room based on their admission tickets. Many small media, as well as some We-media, online streamers, and so on, were all stopped outside the conference room.

The entire hotel was bustling with noise and excitement.

The media reporters who entered the venue came well-prepared with their own equipment as they readied themselves for the live broadcast in half an hour.

On the Internet.

People who had paid a lot of attention to this press conference also entered the live streaming rooms of various media and waited for the live broadcast to begin.

Time passed by.

When there were about 20 minutes left before the press conference, all the pharmaceutical companies were decidedly nervous. They only had a glimmer of hope. The closer it was to the press conference, the more afraid they would be.

Five minutes had passed.

The pharmaceutical companies were by now extremely nervous.

Another five minutes passed.

When there were only ten minutes left before the press conference, all the pharmaceutical companies gave up.

Finally,

“Zzzt...”

A gentle sound of car brakes was heard.

A car stopped in front of the hotel, and Fang Qiu and He Xue got out of it.

There was no chance for the people sent by the drug dealers to get close at all. As soon as Fang Qiu got out of the car, the various We-media and online streamers, who had already gathered around, surrounded him.

Seeing this,

The people sent by the pharmaceutical companies could only watch from a distance and could do nothing.

As for the tasks assigned to them by the bosses of the companies, they could only leave them to fate!

Surrounded by a group of We-media, Fang Qiu quickly walked into the hotel. Then with the help of the hotel security guards, he went straight into the hall.

At the same time, the live broadcast on the Internet also began.

The livestreams of the various media started their broadcasting and the netizens were discussing various topics in different livestreams.

“Let’s wait and see.”

“The beer and melon seeds are ready. What breaking news will Fang Qiu reveal this time?”

“Is he going to blow up the fourth or the fifth one?”

“Of course.”

In addition to the comments in the live broadcast room, the most popular news on the Internet was the various heated discussions.

Countless people were focused on the interview.

Especially those who were related to Fang Qiu, were particularly curious to know what Fang Qiu was going to say in this press conference.

With Fang Qiu’s arrival.

First, he went to the lounge next to the conference room.

When it was time for the press conference to officially begin, the host stepped onto the stage and was the center of attention of countless reporters and live cameras in the conference room.

“Hello, everyone. I’m the host of this press conference. My name is Liu Dawei.”

First, he introduced himself to all the reporters and cameras present. When the noise in the conference room quieted down a little, the host continued to say, "Welcome to this press conference held by Mr. Fang Qiu. Now I announce that the press conference will officially start!"

As soon as he finished speaking.

All the people present applauded.

Everyone was particularly excited.

The press conference had finally begun!

At the same time.

All the bosses of the major Chinese Medicine companies across the country had tuned in to the live broadcast.

These bosses were more concerned about the contents of the live broadcast than anyone else. The moment when they heard that the press conference officially began, each of them couldn't help but be nervous.

At the scene.

In the conference room.

"Next, let's not talk too much. Let's welcome Fang Qiu, the protagonist of this press conference, to the stage!"

The host called out.

At the same time.

Fang Qiu walked out of the lounge and went straight to the center of the stage.

“Hello, everyone.”

Fang Qiu held the microphone and nodded to all the media present. Then he said, “Today, the reason why I am holding this press conference is that I have something to announce to you. But before I officially announce it, I want to take this opportunity to tell you about the sale of fake Chinese Medicine by the doctors of our Foundation.”

As soon as he said that.

All the people present fell silent instantly.

Everyone’s eyes were focused on Fang Qiu as they waited for him to continue and whether he would take this opportunity to reveal the news.

Hearing this, those Chinese Medicine merchants who were watching the live streaming immediately became nervous and almost couldn’t sit still.

On the stage.

“The whole incident caused four patients to be critically ill and dozens of sets of fake and inferior ones were discovered. Fortunately, although this incident happened suddenly, it was not kept under wraps but was exposed. In addition, I want to thank the photographer who released the video. If it weren’t for him, it might have caused more terrible consequences that we couldn’t bear.”

Speaking of this, Fang Qiu looked toward a camera and bowed to express his gratitude. “Thank you for nipping this crisis in its budding stage.

After expressing his gratitude.

Fang Qiu turned his head, continued to face all the media, and said, "In addition, I'd like to report that the Three Billion Foundation has tried its best to smooth over the impact of the whole incident. The four critically ill patients have been completely cured, and the compensation for the related parties has been paid.

Upon hearing that.

All the people present immediately applauded.

On the Internet.

"Sure enough, he did what he said he would!"

"That's right."

"Beautiful job!"

"If it's not your responsibility, why do you have to pay for it in the end?"

"Master Fang Qiu is really doing charity work, which is different from other people."

"In this era, there are not many people who can keep their word, especially when their interests are at stake."

At the same time, the netizens also spontaneously applauded Fang Qiu.

"As for the cause of this incident, I believe you have also learned that Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Huiming Traditional Chinese Medicine Company, and Yiyi Pharmaceutical Company are all related to this matter. As our Foundation said on Weibo, we have already sued these three traditional Chinese medicine companies and we do not believe the statements released by these three companies. We don't think these are the actions of individuals from their companies."

Fang Qiu said.

In the end.

As soon as he said that.

All the leaders of the Chinese Medicine companies who were involved in this matter looked extremely gloomy in an instant. Fang Qiu's words were intended to nail the three companies!

The faces of the bosses of the three companies changed drastically when they heard this!

Oh no.

Fang Qiu was obviously picking on them.

If he didn't believe it, the netizens wouldn't believe it either. The conspiracy theories on the Internet would inevitably get bigger and bigger.

They were done for!

On the other side.

When the netizens heard this, they burst into an uproar.

"What the f*ck, Fang Qiu really dared to challenge them."

"Are they going to beat the three companies to death?"

“Oh my God, Fang Qiu has the chain of evidence in his hand, and he said that in front of the media reporters. Isn’t it obvious? The statements issued by the three companies are all about public relations. The three companies were the ones who did it, not any individual staff.”

At the scene.

The reporters were all excited.

That was the point of the explosion.

This was the reason why they came to this press conference.

As soon as he got on the stage, he started his bombardment.

Just based on this, the hustle and bustle of the day was worth it!

“Of course, the purpose of this press conference is not for that.”

Just as everyone’s interest was aroused, Fang Qiu changed the subject and said, “Now, let’s get down to business!”

Although the topic changed a little too fast.

But what would be treated as a business by Fang Qiu was definitely worth everyone’s expectation.

Both the reporters on the scene and the netizens who were watching the live broadcast began to look forward to the result.

But on the other side.

The leaders of the Chinese Medicine industry were even more nervous.

“In addition, I want to announce to the people all over the country through the media that in the next five years, our Three Billion Foundation will cooperate with Renyi Group to take out 10 billion yuan to set up the national medicinal herb cultivation base and support the pharmaceutical merchants who are determined to pursue authentic medicinal herbs. We will double the price of all Chinese medicinal herbs in the shortest time and reduce the price tenfold in three years!”

Fang Qiu’s voice spread out.

Everyone in the conference room was stunned.

In front of the livestream screen, all the netizens who were watching the livestream were shocked!

That’s right.

This was Fang Qiu’s real killing move.

He didn’t flip the table. From the beginning, he didn’t want to flip the table. The reason why he didn’t do it was that he wanted this table!

Moreover...

He wanted to get rid of all the black-hearted businessmen.

Even if they couldn’t completely clean it up, they would definitely be strict with themselves and make authentic Chinese medicine that was really good for Chinese Medicine and the patients!

“10 billion?”

“You want to make authentic Chinese Medicine?”

“Is he going to replace the whole country’s Chinese Medicine market?”

“What a bold move!”

All the reporters at the scene were deeply shocked by Fang Qiu’s words.

They did not expect this at all.

The theme of Fang Qiu’s press conference was actually this.

In comparison.

The announcement of this news was no worse than the revelation they had expected!

At the same time.

At the same time, all the people in the Chinese Medicine industry who were watching the live streaming were also shocked.

As practitioners of Traditional Chinese Medicine, they knew the situation of the Chinese Medicine market better than anyone else, and also knew the importance of Chinese Medicine.

In history, many people wanted to restore the Chinese Medicine market to its normal state, but they all failed, which led to the step-by-step decline of Chinese Medicine to this extent.

Everyone had always been looking forward to the day when someone could help to solve the problem of Chinese Medicine.

They had waited for so long.

Now, someone was finally going to work on the traditional Chinese medicine market!

Medical Master

Chapter 1329: Double in a Month!

For Chinese Medicine and its Traditional Chinese Medicine industry, Fang Qiu's words were no less than a thunderclap that shocked everyone.

All the people in the Chinese Medicine industry were extremely excited and gratified.

After so many years.

Would Chinese Medicine, which had been dragged down by the Chinese Medicine market, would finally be able to usher new changes?

In fact,

Not only Chinese Medicine doctors and Chinese Medicine merchants but also people all over the country knew that Chinese Medicine was good. Western Medicine doctors abroad could not compare with it at all. It was the best medical skill in the world that their ancestors had practiced for more than 5,000 years. The reason why such a good Chinese Medicine became like this was that it was fake!

The counterfeit traditional Chinese medicine was the most challenging point. No matter how good one's medical skills were, the fake traditional Chinese medicine would not be able to cure the disease in the end!

This was the reason why people gradually didn't dare to believe in Chinese Medicine, not because their medical skills were not good, but because the medicine was inferior!

Many Chinese Medicine doctors knew this.

They also wanted to reorganize and change the entire Chinese Medicine market, and ensure all the medicines in the country would be authentic medicinal herbs, but they didn't have the ability and the capital.

In order to do this kind of thing, it took too much investment in all kinds of resources. Not to mention ordinary Chinese Medicine doctors, even a holy doctor could not afford to invest!

When they saw that Fang Qiu had set up a Foundation and was focused on improving the medical conditions in the countryside, everyone placed all their hopes on Fang Qiu. They hoped that one day, Fang Qiu would be able to come out and help them to reorganize the Chinese medicine market.

And now...

Fang Qiu did stand up and do that.

Some old doctors of Chinese Medicine couldn't help but tear up when they saw this scene and heard Fang Qiu's words in the live video.

"Chinese Medicine can be saved, Chinese Medicine can finally be saved!"

"Fang Qiu, you are my lifelong idol."

"You are the first person to dare to do this. I admire you, Fang Qiu."

University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.

In the Vice President's office.

"Good."

In order to watch the live broadcast of Fang Qiu's press conference, Chen Yinsheng set aside all his work. When he saw Fang Qiu's performance at the press conference and heard what Fang Qiu said about changing the Chinese Medicine market, Chen Yinsheng was so excited that he immediately applauded Fang Qiu and said with satisfaction and relief, "Good student of the university and a good doctor of the Chinese Medicine industry. Well done!"

Chen Yinsheng was very excited.

As a Chinese Medicine practitioner, he had great expectations for the development of Chinese Medicine. Otherwise, he wouldn't have come to the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine as the Vice President, and devoted himself to the development of Chinese Medicine, to attract more outstanding students to study Chinese Medicine.

There was no doubt.

Fang Qiu was the best student he had ever recruited.

What Fang Qiu did was not only to solve the problem of Chinese Medicine but would also help the revival of Chinese Medicine and all the universities in the country at the same time.

Once the market of traditional Chinese medicine was reorganized and traditional Chinese medicine revived, it would inevitably become a popular trend for future college students to apply for a position at the University of Chinese Medicine.

The more people took the test, the better the development of Chinese Medicine would be.

The future was bright!

On the other side.

"Good boy!"

Xu Miaolin sat at home and watched the live broadcast. He couldn't help but feel excited. Staring at Fang Qiu's figure on the TV, he smiled with satisfaction and said proudly, "I've accepted a good student. I've really taken on a good student!"

Although Fang Qiu had asked him before about the factors that hindered the development of Chinese Medicine and he also hoped that Fang Qiu would be able to solve these problems by himself one day, he didn't expect that this day would come so soon.

In the process of reorganizing the Chinese Medicine market and saving Chinese Medicine, the figures that represented money that Fang Qiu mentioned were no longer so important.

Everyone's focus was on the reorganization of things, not money!

Compared to the Chinese Medicine industry.

After they heard Fang Qiu's words, the leaders of all the major Chinese Medicine companies in the country were all stunned in an instant.

In the end, what they were afraid of was coming.

None of them had expected that Fang Qiu's purpose was actually this!

At this moment.

All the Chinese Medicine executives felt suffocated. They all had a feeling in their hearts that Fang Qiu was like a wolf!

They were the ones who lured the wolf!

At first.

They were just worried that Fang Qiu would come, so they tried their best to stop him from coming.

In the end.

They had really attracted Fang Qiu!

Now that they thought about it.

What they did to try and stop Fang Qiu before merely led to giving themselves away, which made people want to laugh!

“Of course.”

Fang Qiu’s arrival was not the worst thing for them. After all, even if Fang Qiu came, they could still find a little crack to live in.

But the worst was coming!

The dropping in prices!

Hearing Fang Qiu’s announcement, the pharmaceutical companies wanted to die.

What era was it now? The people were not stupid. Who would buy expensive medicine recklessly?

Although the economic status in the big city was much better now, and many people thought that expensive things were good, first of all, expensive things must be well known.

In the entire Chinese Medicine industry, what was the most renowned thing in the Chinese Medicine industry?

Undoubtedly, it was Renyi Group!

With the cooperation of Fang Qiu and the Renyi Group, the price of the medicine would be reduced by half and even tenfold. Who else would buy the Chinese Medicine produced by other companies?

Not only those pharmaceutical merchants who wanted to harm Fang Qiu but also those executives of the company.

With Fang Qiu's announcement, all the Chinese herbal medicine merchants in the country wailed in despair.

No one dared to doubt the strength of the Renyi Group and Fang Qiu!

"10 billion?"

He might not be able to hold on for long.

But as soon as the reform began, all the people who needed Chinese Medicine would start to spend on Renyi Group and Fang Qiu. 10 billion would become 20 billion, and 20 billion would become 40 billion. In this way, the Chinese Medicine market would be very likely to be reorganized by Fang Qiu!

And as the reorganization began, the prices of the entire Chinese herbal medicine market would inevitably decline.

At that time, it would not be easy for traditional Chinese medicine merchants like them to live a good life.

On the Internet.

The netizens were also taken aback.

“Wow, 10 billion?”

“He set up a foundation to help so many people, but he only offered three billion. This time, he actually directly raised it to ten billion. He is going to change his name to Fang Shiyi!”

“My God, how much is that?”

“This is the public welfare that can really be implemented for every citizen. I admire Fang Qiu!”

“I hope Fang Qiu can succeed. As long as he does it, I will absolutely support him. I will buy all the medicine from him, for no other reason than to enable everyone in the world to be able to afford the best Chinese Medicine!”

“To save a life is better than building a seven-story pagoda. If Fang Qiu can really control all the Chinese Medicine on the market and reduce the prices by half, how many lives will he save?”

“I am a lifetime fan of Fang Qiu. If anyone dares to slander him again, I will be the first one to be unconvinced!”

At the same time, even as they were shocked.

On the Internet, the netizens admired Fang Qiu even more.

This was the most capable and daring person they had ever seen in the world!

There was no need for Fang Qiu to describe it at all. Everyone who heard Fang Qiu’s plan could imagine the future. The world would be full of good medicine, and everyone in the world could afford them.

That future was too beautiful!

At the scene.

“Wow!”

After Fang Qiu finished his announcement, the host, who was waiting at the side immediately exclaimed, then walked up and said, “I believe that everyone feels the same way as me. They are all shocked by Mr. Fang Qiu’s announcement. At the same time, they are also eagerly looking forward to and excited to see Mr. Fang Qiu carry out all this in the future.”

“Then, I won’t waste any more of your time. Let’s get to the question section immediately. If you need to ask questions, you can raise your hand.”

As he spoke.

The staff had already prepared the chairs in advance for Fang Qiu and the host to sit down.

Below the arena.

All the media reporters were particularly enthusiastic and raised their hands to ask their questions.

“The first person.”

The host chose a relatively famous media reporter and asked the staff to hand over the microphone.

“I’d like to ask you, Mr. Fang.”

The reporter took the microphone, looked at Fang Qiu on the stage, and asked, “How did you calculate the price reduction of Chinese Medicine in three years? Can it really be reduced tenfold?”

“It can!”

Fang Qiu nodded with certainty and said, "We won't be careless when it comes to lowering the price. Next, I'll register a brand. The price of traditional Chinese medicine of this brand will definitely be lower than that of the ones currently in the market. As I said just now, the price will be reduced by at least twice, and at least ten times within three years!"

As soon as he said that, all the people exclaimed!

"At least ten times?"

"How bold!"

No one had expected that Fang Qiu would focus on the word "lowest"!

This kind of boldness was not something that ordinary people could have.

After hearing that, the faces of the executives of the Chinese Medicine companies became even more gloomy.

"The second."

The reporter motioned for the other reporter to ask his question.

"Since it will be decreased by ten times in three years, can you tell me how long it will take to double it in a short time?"

The reporter asked.

"One month!"

Fang Qiu answered confidently.

As soon as he said that.

Everyone was even more shocked!

Within a month, the prices of all the Chinese Medicine herbs would be reduced by half.

If he could really do it, the public welfare would happen too quickly and happiness would come too suddenly, wouldn't it?

"As we all know, although the price of Chinese Medicine often fluctuates in the market, it has always been very low. I'm afraid it's not so easy to double the price of Chinese Medicine in a month. Do you have a specific plan in this respect?"

The reporter asked again.

"Yes."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Yes. But I can't tell you. I can only tell you that the price of Chinese herbs is too high."

In front of the live broadcast video.

The faces of all the bosses of Chinese Medicine companies turned pale.

They all thought to themselves, "Oh no!"

If Fang Qiu said that the price was really so high, all the Chinese herbal merchants would be really miserable. Who would buy their medicine then?

They were all panic-stricken.

Without hesitation, these bosses immediately began to chat in the WeChat group.

This time, they were not talking about how to protect themselves, but how to keep the Chinese Medicine market they monopolized now and how to keep the money in their hands!

Medical Master

Chapter 1330: Turmoil in the Chinese Medicine Market!

“What should we do now?” he asked.

“Fang Qiu is going to take over all our businesses?”

“We can’t let him do that. If he does, it will kill us and we won’t be able to live anymore. The other pharmaceutical companies can only rely on him to survive. We have no other way out!”

“No! No, we have to fight him!”

“Yes, this is not a political matter. This is the whole Chinese herbal medicine market. If Fang Qiu does this, our whole Chinese herbal medicine market will be finished. All the Chinese herbal medicine merchants will die. We must boycott him. Even if we can’t defeat him, we should get all the Chinese herbal medicine merchants to secretly boycott him!”

“Now, we should quickly gather all the pharmaceutical companies and inform all the people in charge of the distribution centers of Chinese Medicine and have a discussion with them. We can’t let Fang Qiu receive any Chinese Medicine herbs or at least the fewer the better. It is unavoidable. Otherwise, it will be too late.”

There was no doubt.

The issue that the Chinese Medicine merchants all over the country were most worried about really happened. Now they had no way to deal with Fang Qiu. The only thing they could do was join forces to resist him!

At the same time.

The bosses of Qiming Pharmaceutical Company, Huiming Traditional Chinese Medicine Company, and Yiyi Pharmaceutical Company also spoke in the WeChat group one after another and asked everyone to help them solve their current predicament.

Fang Qiu had scoffed at the joint statements of the three companies in public. The public backlash that followed would definitely be unbearable for them, so they were in a panic.

In the end.

The three of them didn't get any help. No one in the group paid any attention to them.

The situation was the same as before. The bosses of the three companies secretly resented each other. In desperation, they could only discuss it alone and even began to spend a lot of money looking for public relations companies to resolve the problem as soon as possible.

At the same time.

In the whole country, after seeing the live broadcast, the faces of the herbal medicine merchants in various medicinal materials distribution centers also changed greatly.

They did not dare to doubt Fang Qiu's words at all.

This guy was so rich that he never had a bottom line when it came to spending money.

This time, it was ten billion!

Moreover, the Renyi Group was also involved and these pharmaceutical companies dared not question it.

In an instant.

Looking at the pile of Chinese medicinal herbs in their shops, these pharmaceutical companies suddenly became anxious. They quickly called the pharmaceutical companies that had tried to buy medicine but felt that the prices were too high.

“Mr. Li, it’s me. Didn’t you come here last time to get Baishao and Chinese wolfberries? There’s a discount for today’s stock, so we’ll lower the price by 20%. How much do you want? I’ll send the goods to you today.”

The pharmaceutical companies were scared.

Fang Qiu’s popularity would definitely spread. If the price of Chinese Medicine on the market was doubled, they would not be able to bear it.

They could only take advantage of this time to get rid of the herbs before everyone knew about it. Although they could make money by lowering the prices to double the amount, they could still make more money. What Fang Qiu wanted to do was to make authentic herbs. Most of the herbs in their hands were defective herbs.

At that time, even if the price was doubled, no one would be willing to buy it!

“Mr. Zhang, when I wanted the goods from you two days ago, you insisted on that price. Now I really have to thank you. To tell you the truth, I am also watching Fang Qiu’s press conference now. As for the medicinal herbs, let’s talk about it later.”

“Thirty percent. I’ll lower the price by thirty percent.”

“Haha, I haven’t had a good rest for decades. I’ll have a rest for a month this time. Let’s talk about the business a month later.”

“Beep...beep...beep...”

The same scene and the same conversation were repeated all over the country.

All the herbal medicine merchants from all over the country did the same thing.

In an instant.

The whole Chinese herbal medicine market seemed to be covered with a thick layer of dark clouds, which made people feel particularly depressed, especially those small medicine merchants who did business with the distribution centers of Chinese herbal medicine. They all hated Fang Qiu to the core!

In the conference room of the Shenghua Hotel.

The interview was still ongoing.

“Next, please.”

After Fang Qiu answered the second reporter’s question, the host immediately stretched out his hand and pointed to the next person.

“Hello, Fang Qiu. What I want to ask is that we haven’t heard any movements from the Renyi Group before. Now everyone in the country and even the whole world knows that the Renyi Group is the largest company in the Chinese Medicine industry and even has a very important position in the world. What does the Renyi Group think of such a big decision like this? Do they support your idea and plan?”

The reporter asked.

“Ms. He Xue, the executive director of the Renyi Group, came with me. I think she is the perfect person to answer this question on behalf of the Renyi Group.”

Fang Qiu said with a smile.

He Xue, who had been sitting in the lounge, stepped up at this time. She went on the stage, took the microphone from the staff, sat down in the empty seat next to Fang Qiu, and said, "Our Renyi Group will fully support Fang Qiu's plan!"

As soon as she said that.

All the reporters present nodded their heads in surprise.

Although they already knew that the Renyi Group would definitely support them, when they heard He Xue say it in person, they could feel a sense of reality and feel that the day when the prices of ordinary Chinese Medicine would be reduced would really come!

"Okay, the next."

The host said.

The microphone was handed to the next reporter.

"I won't ask about the reorganizing of the Chinese Medicine market. I believe you can do it, but I can't waste this opportunity to ask this question. So I want to ask Fang Qiu, will you announce the 'next one' on your Weibo?"

As soon as he asked this question.

Everyone's eyes lit up.

That's right.

Why didn't they think of asking such a question before?

However, since someone had asked this question, they should take a good look and see how Fang Qiu would answer!

"We can't rule out this possibility."

Fang Qiu replied with a faint smile.

Upon hearing that.

All the people present, as well as the people who were watching the live broadcast, couldn't help but let their imaginations run wild.

As for the leaders of those Chinese Medicine companies, all their faces changed when they heard this. Their faces were livid and they were furious.

What did Fang Qiu mean by this?

"Are you threatening us?"

"Okay."

After Fang Qiu answered the questions, the host said, "The theme of this press conference is that Mr. Fang and the Renyi Group will jointly reorganize the Chinese Medicine market. It has nothing to do with the various topics that have appeared on the Internet in recent days, so I hope the media reporters who are going to ask questions will remember this and stop asking those questions."

After that,

Soon, the microphone was handed to the next reporter,

Unable to ask questions related to the topic on Weibo, the reporter thought for a moment and asked, "Fang Qiu, can you explain how you plan to proceed with the genuine medicinal herb base, including the problem of lowering the prices within a month? How do you plan to lower the prices?"

"Well, everyone can just wait and see what the results will be."

Fang Qiu replied, "Yes."

Next,

What the reporters asked were also about the restructuring of the Chinese Medicine market. Fang Qiu also answered them one by one. He answered all the questions that he could, and those that he could not answer would be answered in another way.

It lasted for 40 minutes,

The press conference was just over.

Once it was over...

Fang Qiu and He Xue then left in a hurry.

Although the protagonist had left, the overall excitement of the reporters on the scene did not diminish at all

Soon.

The next day, the news reports were released at the fastest speed and immediately occupied the covers and promotion positions of the major media.

Over here.

On the way to the airport, in the car.

“When I get back, I’ll ask Mr. Zhao for a map of the distribution centers of the herbs. Then, I’ll contact the relevant departments and start building the herb cultivation bases.”

Fang Qiu said.

“No problem.”

He Xue nodded, then paused for a moment and added, “But I have a question.”

“What is it?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“Medicinal herbs need a certain period of growth, and this period of growth is currently a blank for us. Although we can strictly control the quality of the medicinal herbs from the pharmaceutical companies and collect adequate good medicine, have you ever thought about what we should do if all these pharmaceutical companies unite?”

He Xue asked.

“After collecting the medicinal herbs, we can go directly to the actual pharmaceutical farms to buy them ourselves and rent the medicinal herbs processing factory to process them. If this doesn’t work, we will use other methods.”

Fang Qiu said.

“Is there any other way?”

“What is it?” He Xue asked curiously.

“Don’t forget how our other plants and dendrobe ripened so quickly, and the efficacy is so good.”

Fang Qiu said with a smile.

“Oh?” He Xue’s eyes lit up.

He knew that this was the core secret of the entire Renyi Group, which was only known to Fang Qiu. Even Zhao Shanlin, the technical director, didn’t know about it. With this, it seemed that he was really not afraid of the cooperation of those pharmaceutical companies.

“Well... there is another possibility.”

He Xue pondered for a moment and said, “What if the other pharmaceutical companies also join hands to acquire it and make the one-month price reduction you just boasted about in front of the media a joke and directly nip your plan in the bud?”

“They don’t have that much money.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “The Chinese Medicine market in the country is so big that the transaction volume in a day is as high as tens of millions or even hundreds of millions. They are all companies. Although they sound very rich, in order to maintain the operation of the company, they can’t really take out much money. Moreover, there are always people who insist on justice in the world, not to mention that I have something on them.”

“If they dare to make a move, I will continue to expose them!”

Upon hearing that.

“That’s not a problem then.”

He Xue smiled.

When they arrived at the airport...

In the blink of an eye, all kinds of news reports swept wildly like a tornado through the country.

“Shocking! Fang Qiu will cooperate with Renyi Group to reestablish the Chinese Medicine market with 10 billion!”

“Another ten billion, Fang Qiu’s next goal is the Chinese Medicine market!”

“One to be lowered by half, in three years to be lowered by ten times! Is Fang Qiu’s new goal a future or an extravagant hope?”
