Chapter 1461: Stop John Doe in Zhongdong

Putting down the document in his hand, Fang Qiu exhaled a long breath.

After such a long time, the problem regarding the mysterious dark material had finally been resolved.

Originally...

Fang Qiu had thought that the two top forces in Europa should have found a way to deal with the mysterious dark material. When he saw the information on the document given by Li Ji, stating that Europa had agreed to so many trade terms and signed so many trade contracts, Fang Qiu realized that the two top forces couldn’t do anything about the mysterious dark material.

“Next, it’s time to solve other people’s problems.”

Fang Qiu muttered to himself.

Suddenly, Fang Qiu remembered the Bloody Lion Mercenaries and those rogue cultivators, who had been to the relic of Egypt before.

Those people must also have been infected with a lot of mysterious dark materials.

The existence of those people was a threat to the whole world, so Fang Qiu had to help them get rid of the mysterious dark materials in their bodies before the viruses in their bodies completely broke out and infected them.

Fang Qiu took action as soon as he came to this realization.

With a stir of his mind, Fang Qiu quietly turned into John Doe, heading for Zhongdong.

One day later...

Fang Qiu arrived in the war zone of Zhongdong, where some armies were stationed.

In this place...

Fang Qiu had a group of old acquaintances.

From a distance, the news of Fang Qiu's arrival spread to a regular military camp.

Fang Qiu gazed at it fixedly.

On the tents in the military camp, there was a very special symbol. It was a black mamba serpent.

Fang Qiu guessed right.

This was the camp of the Black Mamba Mercenaries.

Since the last time when Zhongdong cooperated with Fang Qiu to complete the transfer and protection of the plutonium, the Black Mamba Mercenaries had been incorporated by the United Countries. They became an off-staff peacekeeping force and had been stationed in the war zone of Zhongdong, living a comfortable life.

As such...

As soon as they heard that John Doe was coming...

Will, the commander of the Black Mamba Mercenaries, who had the same name as General Will, immediately came out to welcome Fang Qiu from a distance.

“Long time no see. I’m so glad to see you again.”

Seeing Fang Qiu, Commander Will looked at Fang Qiu with admiration and said, “Since I was arranged here, I have especially inquired about your deeds and learned that you are such a powerful person.”

“How is everything going with you?”

Led by Commander Will, Fang Qiu asked as he walked into the military camp.

“Very well.”

The commander laughed out loud and said, “We are called a peacekeeping force, but actually, we are not in need of peacekeeping because there is a regular peacekeeping force in the front to do their jobs. Only when they are short of manpower, we will be asked to take action. The military subsidies and so on we get in daily life are more than enough. We are all living a comfortable life. So we are energetic for training!”

“Sounds not bad.”

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and said, “I bring you a big gift this time.”

“Really?”

When Commander Will heard that, his eyes lit up.

“The territory of Bloody Lion Mercenaries, as well as the medicines to cure ordinary people who have been infected by the mysterious dark materials.”

Fang Qiu said with a smile, “I can give you these two things, but I hope you can completely abandon your bad habits with your brothers and become a good mercenary group, helping me dispense the medicines to people in need.”

“I will.”

When the commander heard this, he was overjoyed. He said, “Please rest assured. We are now soldiers of the peacekeeping force. We only do things that benefit the people, and we will never do those dirty businesses like before.”

“Good.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Call your brothers and go to the Bloody Lion Mercenaries.”

Soon after...

Under the instructions of the commander...

All the members of Black Mamba Mercenaries rushed to the station of Bloody Lion Mercenaries. Fang Qiu was among them.

Upon their arrival...

They realized that they didn't need to fight with Bloody Lion Mercenaries at all.

The Bloody Lion Mercenaries were already in chaos because of the infection of dark materials. In the face of the arrival of Black Mamba Mercenaries, the entire Bloody Lion Mercenaries was completely routed.

Soon, Bloody Lion Mercenaries was incorporated into Black Mamba Mercenaries.

After that...

Without hesitation, the Black Mamba Mercenaries immediately began to dispense the medicines given by Fang Qiu for treating the dark material to patients across the entire Zhongdong.

The local patients, who were infected with the mysterious dark material, came to collect the medicine one after another.

After being cured with the medicine, everyone appreciated it.

As for those rogue cultivators...

Fang Qiu asked the Black Mamba Mercenaries to give the medicines to them as well.

John Doe was dispensing medicines to the patients in the war zone!

Very soon...

The major forces in Zhongdong spread the news that John Doe came to Zhongdong again and gave people medicine for free to treat patients infected by dark materials.

The news spread on the underground-force forum quickly.

Meanwhile...

In an unknown city in the world, there was a very quiet and dark room, without a trace of light.

A figure was sitting cross-legged on the floor in the middle of the room.

The doors and windows of the room were locked. However, the hair and clothes of the person seated cross-legged on the floor were floating about, which appeared to have been breezed.

The most terrifying thing was that this person's body was also floating in the air.

“What's the matter?”

Suddenly, the man floating in the air spoke.

“My Lord.”

A voice was heard from the darkness, “John Doe has appeared in Zhongdong.”

“Oh?”

In a surprise, the man suddenly stood up straight. The moment he landed on the floor, he said, “You finally show up, John Doe!”

Then he continued, “Stop him.

“No matter what method you use, stop him in Zhongdong before he returns to Huaxia.”

Lord Virtuous ordered indifferently.

“Yes, My Lord.”

A reply was heard in the darkness.

“John Doe, a person who is even more mysterious than me, I’m getting more and more curious about what kind of person you are and how capable you are!”

Lord Virtuous could not help but smile on his lips.

In Zhongdong...

After eliminating the Bloody Lion Mercenaries, Fang Qiu helped the Black Mamba Mercenaries manage the process of dispensing medicines to patients. He did not leave with satisfaction until the Black Mamba Mercenaries could handle it orderly.

For Fang Qiu...

The last infected patient of dark material had been cured, so it was unnecessary to worry about the same infected patient would appear in the future.

The tense situation in Zhongdong had greatly changed with a large number of peacekeeping forces stationed. Fang Qiu had nothing else to do here, so he was going to return to Huaxia.

He left the Black Mamba Mercenaries.

Fang Qiu went to find a car. Then he drove to a big city locally like last time and was about to return home by plane.

Along the way, Fang Qiu noticed that although this area was still a war zone, it was not as chaotic as before. Many independent small-scaled armed forces now did not dare to walk on the street with guns in their hands, let alone attack ordinary people, for they did not know when some bullets would fly over from nowhere and blow up their heads.

The situation was tense.

Many small forces had been incorporated by some third-rate or second-rate forces.

Thus...

The number of second-rate and third-rate forces in Zhongdong grew larger than before, and each of them was guarding an area firmly. They didn't have to worry about manpower at all, and there were the peacekeeping forces, so these second-rate and third-rate forces knew their places much better than before. They guarded their territories respectively, and no one took the initiative to provoke or occupy others'.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu breathed a sigh of relief. He was happy for the locals.

Very soon...

Soon, Fang Qiu came to a sentry station.

It was more peaceful than before, but this was the war zone after all. All the organizations were guarding their territories, so each sentry station was guarded by local forces. After all, these second-rate and third-rate forces had to rely on the road tolls to make a living.

Knowing this very well, Fang Qiu didn't want to break the peace obtained with great difficulty. He had already prepared the money before entering the sentry station.

In the sentry station...

Seeing more and more vehicles passing by in a queue, the armed men guarding the sentry station immediately came out and began to check the vehicles one by one.

An armed man came to Fang Qiu's car and took a glance through the window. Then he continued to check the next car.

All of this didn't seem unusual.

But...

When Fang Qiu entered the sentry station, no one came to collect the road toll from him.

Suddenly...

“Crack, crack, crack...”

Several people came out of the room of the sentry station with heavy machine guns in their hands. Without saying a word, they fired at Fang Qiu's car.

The gunfire sounded.

People in the vehicles, which were in the back queue, were so scared that they quickly retreated and ran away.

And ahead of them...

“Huh?”

In the face of this sudden encirclement and shooting, Fang Qiu changed his expression and quickly rushed out of the car.

One thing drew his attention.

The reason why these people carried machine guns and fired was not to kill him directly but to blow up his car.

“Whoosh!”

The moment he got out of the car, Fang Qiu moved at lightning speed and rushed in front of one of them.

“Boom!”

There was a loud sound of the car explosion.

Surprisingly...

Those people were not scared at all. Instead, they did not hesitate at all and turned the muzzles in the direction of Fang Qiu. Regardless of whether there were any of their people around Fang Qiu or not, they shot widely.

Before Fang Qiu could make a move, the armed man next to him was instantly riddled with holes.

This scene startled Fang Qiu.

It was the first time that he had seen such ruthless persons who showed no mercy when killing their own people.

Fang Qiu’s internal Qi surged.

While blocking the bullet, Fang Qiu moved at lightning speed again and rushed to another armed man.

The next moment...

“Bang, bang, bang...”

The others turned the muzzles again without any emotion and instantly shot their people next to Fang Qiu all over.

In such a scary situation...

Fang Qiu kept moving as fast as lightning.

He rushed to the third, fourth, and fifth people.

As a result...

Fang Qiu didn't even attack any of them, but this group of people killed each other until only one was left.

Full of doubt, Fang Qiu rushed to the last man.

Just then...

“Bang!”

A gunshot was heard.

Another man came out of the room on the side of the sentry station. He shot the last man without mercy.

Fang Qiu turned around.

At the sight of this man, he rushed over.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

“Bang!”

Another loud gunshot sounded.

The man, who came out of the room, did not hesitate to point the pistol at his head, pull the trigger, and commit suicide.

Chapter 1462: Let Them Go!

“What happened?”

Fang Qiu was dumbfounded by the scene in front of him.

Not only did these people kill each other, but they also chose to commit suicide in the end. Why?

Fang Qiu felt extremely puzzled.

Fang Qiu came to the man who committed suicide, squatted down, and searched him carefully for a while. In the end, Fang Qiu found nothing on this man.

“Toot, toot, toot...”

The sound of a phone being hung up was heard from the room next door.

An idea popped up into Fang Qiu’s mind.

Fang Qiu immediately got up and walked into the room. He observed carefully around the room and found an icon of a force similar to ancient writing.

He looked closer at it and noticed that the writing on the icon looked like ancient Chinese from Huaxia.

Fang Qiu took out his phone, took a picture, and sent it to Li Ji.

Shortly after...

Fang Qiu received a response from Li Ji.

This was a second-rate force organization called “Blessing Voice Society” in Zhongdong.

This organization happened to be residing in this small city. Usually, they just do their business and would not do anything out of line to others.

In addition...

Li Ji sent the whole map of the division of the forces in Zhongdong to Fang Qiu. Of course, he didn't ask for the reason.

Li Ji had heard about what Fang Qiu had done in Zhongdong in the identity of John Doe.

Therefore, he was not surprised when Fang Qiu asked him the question.

And over here...

“Blessing Voice Society?” Fang Qiu muttered.

Walking out of the room of the sentry station, Fang Qiu looked up at the scorching sun and frowned. He muttered to himself in confusion, "What's going on? Why did those people attack me for no reason? And, why did they commit suicide so decisively?"

The more Fang Qiu thought about it, the more confused he was.

"When the man came to check my car, he didn't show anything unusual."

Fang Qiu thought hard but he couldn't figure it out.

Fang Qiu shook his head. He swept around and saw a car parked in the garage. He walked straight in and drove on toward the big city, which was only one more sentry station away from here.

Along the way...

Fang Qiu was much more cautious.

Fang Qiu didn't find anything wrong on the way to the second sentry station.

When he arrived at the second sentry station.

Fang Qiu found no one around the sentry station, and no vehicles lined up to pass.

There seemed to be no one at the sentry station.

"That's really strange."

Fang Qiu slowed down the car.

It made sense that no cars lined up at the sentry station. After all, he had stayed at the first sentry station for a long time. The owners of the vehicles behind did not dare to drive forward at all because of the gunfight there.

However, no one was guarding at the sentry station. That was a problem.

Fang Qiu drove into the sentry station.

And meanwhile, he carefully observed the situation on both sides of the sentry station.

There were two high mountains on both sides of the sentry station. The trees in the mountains were very dense, and there were a lot of rocks.

“Roar!”

After another glance, Fang Qiu stepped on the accelerator and drove the car, trying to rush out of the sentry station. Just then...

“Rumble...”

A muffled sound of vibration was heard.

Before Fang Qiu could speed up the car, a few huge rocks rolled down from the mountains at the front and back intersections of the sentry station and blocked the front and rear roads.

The next moment...

Countless figures suddenly appeared on the mountains on both sides of the sentry station. These people were holding various thermal weapons. In addition to heavy machine guns, there were even rocket launchers, grenades, and so on.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

The moment they showed up, they shot down from above wildly. Various rockets and grenades rained down crazily.

In the car...

Fang Qiu gathered all his attention.

All of a sudden, he felt the ground shake.

“Damn!”

Fang Qiu’s heart skipped a beat. He immediately burst out a strong internal Qi from his body.

At the same time...

All of a sudden, the entire underground of the sentry station sank, and a loud explosion rose into the sky.

It was obvious...

There were bombs buried underground.

In a short moment, the entire sentry station was filled with artillery fire.

The sentry station was covered by the dense artillery fire, completely!

What terrifying artillery fire!

It lasted for entire three minutes.

The smoke rose into the sky and enveloped the entire sentry station. No one could see what happened inside. Those who still had bullets kept shooting madly into the smoke!

After a long time...

The smoke all over the sky gradually dispersed.

With the dispersal of the smoke, people on the mountains on both sides shifted their gaze to the inside of the sentry station.

What came into their sight was a big mess, charred black everywhere.

The car that Fang Qiu drove had been blown up so badly that even no shell was left.

But...

Fang Qiu scanned around.

There were no figures inside at all, nor broken limbs that everyone expected to see.

This was an incredible scene.

All the people present were stunned.

Just then...

“What are you looking for?”

A voice suddenly came to one of them's ears.

“I'm looking for someone.”

The guy responded without turning his head. Suddenly, he was stunned and immediately turned his head to look. He saw the man, who had been targeted by countless gunfire in the car, standing next to him.

The guy was freaking out at this scene.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

Without an extra word or movement, the guy pulled the trigger, bullets strafing wildly.

In a split second...

Everyone's attention was attracted.

Upon seeing Fang Qiu...

These people were shocked at first, and the next second, they fired at Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu moved and ran about wildly on the mountain. The people on the other side of the mountain fired crazily, regardless of the lives of their own people on this side.

As a result...

The bullets did not hit Fang Qiu but their people.

Fang Qiu then rushed to the opposite side.

The people on this side kept shooting at the other side. In the end, they killed all their own people over there.

On the mountain...

There was only one left.

Fang Qiu rushed forward and caught him.

Just then...

“Die!”

The man suddenly shouted and pressed a remote control, which appeared in his hand without noticing.

“Boom!”

A loud explosion sounded.

The man was blown into pieces in an instant. And Fang Qiu was shaken backward for a few steps by the sudden explosion, even though he had the protection of the internal Qi shield.

“Fuck! Are people in this organization crazy?”

Fang Qiu cursed angrily.

He couldn't understand at all what was going on with these people. To kill him, they'd rather sacrifice so many people, and what was more, they had set up such a big trap at this sentry station.

He just finished cursing.

Fang Qiu suddenly paused.

It was because something caught his attention.

On the clothes of a corpse in front of him, appeared an icon of a force that was completely different from the previous one. This icon was also very similar to the ancient writing of Huaxia.

“This is ... the Truth Society!”

The moment Fang Qiu saw the force icon, the map of the division of the forces in Zhongdong, which Li Ji had sent him, immediately came into his mind.

Near the Blessing Voice Society, there were two second-rate forces.

Besides the Truth Society, there was also a Grace Society.

Currently...

Two of the three second-rate forces actually attacked him, which made Fang Qiu even more confused. He thought, “Was there an agreement between these two groups to kill me?”

“However, there is no grudge between us. Why did they do this?”

Once again...

Not a single person was left alive.

Fang Qiu couldn't ask anything he wanted to know.

“In that case, that's it...”

An idea came to his mind.

Fang Qiu walked past the sentry station, and soon, he arrived at a small town not far away.

He observed the surroundings.

He entered the town.

At the same time, Fang Qiu found something wrong.

Unlike other towns, people in this town seemed to be particularly relaxed. They were not as vigilant as people in other towns.

After all, here was in the war zone.

How could ordinary people be so relaxed in the war zone?

As expected...

When Fang Qiu walked to the middle of the town and was about to go to rent a car, a large group of armed men suddenly ran out from all directions. Each of them held a gun. They went straight to surround Fang Qiu and shoot, without a word.

Fortunately...

There were no pedestrians on the street.

In the face of these people's strafing, Fang Qiu no longer hid his ability. He directly pushed his internal Qi and formed a shield around himself to block all the bullets.

"You all should know very well that you can't kill me."

After blocking the bullets, Fang Qiu looked at the people who surrounded him. He raised his eyebrows and asked, "Who sent for you?"

Unfortunately, no one replied to him.

Just then...

Suddenly, the crowd burst into an uproar.

There were a few armed men with daggers in their hands. They caught several ordinary people and walked in. Then, they kicked the ordinary people to kneel on the ground, and then pressed the sharp dagger against the civilian's throat, staring at Fang Qiu angrily.

"Who is going to die, you or them?"

The armed man asked.

Hearing that...

Fang Qiu frowned.

He didn't expect that these people would do such a thing.

Then he took a closer look.

The man with the dagger who threatened Fang Qiu with ordinary people's lives, had another icon of force on his chest, which was different from the other two, although it was also very similar to the ancient Chinese of Huaxia.

"The three second-rate forces nearby have all come. You really think highly of me."

Fang Qiu sneered.

He recognized it.

The icon on the man was the symbol of the third second-rate force, the Grace Society.

"Let them go."

Looking at people from the three second-rate forces, Fang Qiu said, "You can't kill me with just a few guns. Let them go, and I can go with you."

Hearing that...

The group of people narrowed their eyes and looked at each other.

"Don't worry, I won't escape."

Fang Qiu said with a sneer.

Hearing that...

The leaders of the three forces looked at each other and nodded in agreement. Two of them stepped forward and asked Fang Qiu to disperse his energy shield. Then they suddenly shot Fang Qiu in the heart, but they found that the bullet didn't even break through Fang Qiu's clothes.

Everyone was dumbfounded at this scene.

In the end...

The people of these two forces had no choice but to handcuff Fang Qiu.

“Let them go!”

Fang Qiu turned around, looked at the armed man who pressed the dagger against the neck of an ordinary person, and said, “If you don't want to die!”

Hearing this...

The man got nervous.

Then, he quickly let the ordinary person go.

“Let's go. Take me to your base camp.”

Fang Qiu said with a sneer after all the caught ordinary people left safely.

He wanted to take this opportunity to see who on earth was behind the scene.

He wondered, “Why did these three forces keep trying to kill me along the way?”

Medical Master

Chapter 1463: John Doe Is Back Again!

Soon...

Fang Qiu was taken under guard to a barren mountain area by the people from those three forces.

Here was the intersection of the three powers.

Different from other second-rate forces, at this intersection, Fang Qiu saw a spacious base. In front of the gate, Fang Qiu even saw the symbols of the three forces, the Blessing Voice Society, the Truth Society, and the Grace Society.

These three forces were in one!

When Fang Qiu was escorted to the gate of the base, he immediately figure it out.

The combined strength of the three second-rate forces was not as strong as that of a first-rate force, but it was several times stronger than that of the other second-rate forces.

These three second-rate forces were divided because they were afraid of being exterminated by the first-rate forces in Zhongdong.

After all, the top forces in Zhongdong were saturated currently. None of them wished to see another top force formed. Once the news that these three second-rate forces were into one was exposed, not only those top forces, but other second-rate forces would unite to go against them in order to protect themselves.

They entered the base.

Fang Qiu was taken directly to a square.

As soon as he entered the square, Fang Qiu sniffed a strong smell of blood, which made people feel nauseous.

Fang Qiu looked around.

He found that there was nothing in the square.

There were no houses even on all sides of the square. Only three wooden blocks were placed in the center of the square. The three wooden blocks were particularly dry. The square did not look like a place for execution.

Then, where did this smell of blood come from?

“Rise up the trial platform.”

In the crowd escorting Fang Qiu, a man shouted.

As soon as he finished shouting...

In the center of the square, the one in the middle of the three wooden blocks slowly rose from the ground like an elevator.

Fang Qiu looked up at it.

It turned out to be a big cross.

There were wrist locks and ankle locks on the cross.

In addition, the wooden cross had been stained dark red by blood, and the strong smell of blood seemed to give off from the cross.

It seemed that these three forces had killed a lot of people here.

“Handcuff him!”

As the wooden cross rose, a man dressed like a bandit suddenly came out of the distant base with a cigar in his mouth and an AK47 on his shoulder. He walked straight to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu didn’t resist.

He knew that these people who came out had nothing to do with the person behind this. If he took action now, the person behind this would not show up.

Fang Qiu had to put himself fall into a desperate situation that the opponent would believe. That was the only way to lure the person behind this to show up.

Fang Qiu knew this very well.

Under the escort of these three forces, Fang Qiu came to the trial platform and obediently let them lock his hands and feet.

“Are you the head of the three forces?”

Fang Qiu asked as he looked at the bandit carrying the AK47.

“Humph!”

The bandit snorted disdainfully and then raised his gun to shoot wildly at Fang Qiu without saying a word.

“Bang, bang, bang...”

Bullets with strong penetrating power burst out of the barrel, and like raindrops, rushed to Fang Qiu, whose hands and feet were locked.

Yet...

Fang Qiu was not nervous at all.

He mobilized his internal Qi.

His internal Qi directly condensed into an energy shield around him, blocking all the bullets.

“Do you think that you can kill me with a few bullets?”

Fang Qiu sneered.

He had no grudge against these people, but why did they want to kill him and set up such a big trap to bombard him with a bomb that was strong enough to kill a guru?

It was obvious that all of this was instigated by someone in the dark. Otherwise, these people would not have paid such a big price to kill him.

The reason why the person in the dark didn't show up was either that he didn't want to expose his identity or that he was afraid.

“Shoot him.”

Hearing Fang Qiu's sarcastic words, the bandit threw the cigar in his mouth to the ground, motioned to everyone with an unhappy face, and said, “Shoot him into a sieve!”

Upon hearing his words...

Everyone on the scene immediately shot wildly at Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu was still calm.

He continued to block the bullet with the shield of internal Qi.

Just then...

Suddenly...

“Swoosh!”

With a sharp sound breaking through the air, Fang Qiu suddenly turned his head.

Right there...

A bullet wrapped in internal Qi suddenly burst out from a hidden corner. With an extremely sharp energy Qi, it tried to break Fang Qiu's energy shield directly.

“Divine Consciousness!”

Fang Qiu widened his eyes and immediately released his Divine Consciousness to track down the bullet, but he found that there was no one at all.

It seemed that...

The man who fired ran away without looking back right after the shot.

Fang Qiu continued to expand the range of his Divine Consciousness, but still, he didn't detect any trace of energy aura. That meant that the shooter had used a method that could completely hide his aura.

Fang Qiu could do nothing at the moment.

He had to continue to wait.

Fang Qiu let these people shoot wildly. As for the bullet with internal Qi, it could not break through his shield at all. Like other bullets, it was blocked outside.

In the end...

Fang Qiu had to keep waiting until night fell.

The people of the three forces had been shooting for more than ten minutes. When they found that it was useless, they simply stopped shooting, leaving only one team to guard the square. The others all left.

“Why hasn't he showed up yet?”

Fang Qiu was confused.

In such a situation, the person hiding in the dark had not shown up yet. Fang Qiu really could not figure it out.

Just then...

Suddenly, the sound of footsteps was heard.

Fang Qiu turned to look.

Fang Qiu saw a group of people escorting a crowd of people and walking toward him.

Fang Qiu looked in that direction.

The group of people who were escorted over here were all ordinary people.

“Huh?”

Fang Qiu’s face instantly darkened at this scene.

“Ordinary people!

“Is the strong smell of blood giving off in this square from the blood of ordinary people?”

Fang Qiu suppressed his anger and continued to watch.

However, he was shocked at what he saw next.

The two crosses for the trial on both sides of Fang Qiu rose up at the same time. Two ordinary people were forcibly tied to the crosses by the group of people who were escorting them here.

Then...

This group of people actually took out their guns and were about to kill these ordinary people!

“It’s painful for you to live. Let me help you out.”

The man with a gun said in a cold voice. He laughed and then fired.

“Bang!”

It was not the sound of a gunshot.

It was the sound of shackles breaking.

Just as the man was about to shoot, Fang Qiu couldn't bear it anymore. The internal Qi in his body burst out and instantly shattered the shackles on his hands and feet. Then he moved like a ghost and rushed to the man who held the gun in a split second. Without hesitation, Fang Qiu slapped the man and sent him flying over ten meters away. The man fell to the ground motionlessly and died.

“Nirvana!”

Turning to stare at the other people who were about to shoot, Fang Qiu glared at them and said angrily, “You damn bastards!”

Then...

Fang Qiu moved.

The divine sword was instantly condensed in his hand. Faster than a speeding bullet, Fang Qiu rushed directly to the group of armed men with guns, and his right hand holding the divine sword was waving rapidly.

One sword at a time, Fang Qiu killed the group of people on the spot in an instant.

After he did all this...

Fang Qiu directly cut off the shackles on the hands and feet of the two ordinary people. Then he rushed straight to the camp outside the square.

Fang Qiu killed every armed man he saw, without mercy.

According to what the bandit-like man said just now, Fang Qiu guessed that these three second-rate forces were most likely to have a connection with the Nirvana Organization. Except for the members of the Nirvana Organization, anyone from an organization in the world would not use such a high-sounding excuse to kill people.

Especially in a place like Zhongdong, killing was just a piece of cake. There was no need for excuses.

At this very moment...

Fang Qiu finally understood why...

People from these three organizations tried hard to kill him upon seeing him and played so many tricks along the way, even taking risks in their lives.

It turned out that...

It was related to the Nirvana Organization.

Since it had something to do with the Nirvana Organization, those people deserved to die.

In just five minutes...

Fang Qiu slaughtered the entire base, but he didn't find any metahuman. They were all ordinary bandits.

"If you don't wish to die, just take my advice to hide here for one night. Don't go out until tomorrow."

After killing all the people in the base, Fang Qiu turned back to the square and said to the ordinary people. Then he left for the independent base of one of the forces.

He was going to slaughter the next base.

Overnight...

Fang Qiu killed everyone in the three second-rate forces.

In the independent bases of these three second-rate forces, Fang Qiu rescued a lot of ordinary people.

Then he learned that...

Those ordinary people were all caught and forced to join the three forces. Those who were willing to join stayed in the three forces for observation and training, and those who were unwilling to join would be taken away in the name of "living in pain in this world".

It was obvious...

In the end, all the people who were taken away died at the intersection of these three forces.

After learning about the situation...

Fang Qiu was even angrier, and he was determined to show no mercy to the people of these three forces.

After the slaughter...

Fang Qiu left the base.

He still didn't know what the Nirvana Organization was up to and what they were planning to do in Zhongdong.

What if these three forces were really related to the Nirvana Organization?

Then it would be troublesome.

First of all...

Fang Qiu needed to find a place to hide and make himself disappear from the watch of the Nirvana Organization. Then, he would find an opportunity to figure out what the Nirvana Organization was going to do.

Thus...

After destroying the three forces, Fang Qiu went straight into the barren mountainous area under the cover of night. He hid in the depths of the mountainous area.

Early the next morning...

In the base at the intersection of the three forces, ordinary people ran out one after another. Then they all went home in a panic.

Finally, these people got home safely.

Soon...

The news that the three second-rate forces were destroyed by John Doe quickly spread throughout Zhongdong.

As the two most powerful first-rate forces in Zhongdong, the Gospel Division and the Truth Division were shocked upon receiving the news.

John Doe!

It was John Doe again.

John Doe was back again!

In the meantime...

The news that John Doe showed up again and destroyed three second-rate forces in a flash also spread on the underground-force forum.

The news shocked not only Zhongdong but also all the underground forces around the world.

Chapter 1464: Call Me Lord Virtuous

Deep in the mountains...

Fang Qiu had been lurking and secretly observing the bases of the three second-rate forces. He wanted to see who had instigated the three second-rate forces to attack him.

However, Fang Qiu didn't find anything unusual until the next morning. There was no unusual energy aura at all.

"Looks like that person won't come again."

Fang Qiu shook his head in disappointment.

He began to doubt it inwardly.

“Is it Nirvana Organization or not?”

“From the way the people from the three forces spoke, they really looked like members of the Nirvana Organization. However, if it were the Nirvana Organization, they shouldn’t have played so many tricks. Instead, they should have sent a group of gurus to besiege me face-to-face.

“Beyond that...

“Does Nirvana Organization only have three second-rate forces in Zhongdong?”

“But if it weren’t Nirvana Organization, who else could it be?”

Thinking of this...

Fang Qiu shook his head hard. He didn’t want to think about it anymore.

Fang Qiu released his Divine Consciousness and chose a route to the border of Zhongdong. Quickened his pace forward along the way, he was going to cross the border to return home.

Anyway, one of the border countries in Zhongdong was connected to Huaxia.

As Fang Qiu moved forward...

He kept an eye on the surroundings and was vigilant.

A few hours later...

Fang Qiu came to the small place connecting Zhongdong and Huaxia. This place was only the size of a worm on the map, but it happened to be connecting Beijiang of Huaxia.

Last time...

Li Ji was here to pick up Fang Qiu.

The border was surrounded by vast forest areas. As far as the eye could see, it was a dense forest in deep mountains.

Entering the forest...

Fang Qiu continued to move forward.

When he was about to reach the border...

“Uh?”

All of a sudden, Fang Qiu’s Divine Consciousness sensed something unusual.

Along the way, his Divine Consciousness didn’t feel anything unusual. Finally, it sensed a strange energy aura.

It came from the jungle near the border.

It was not one person but many people emitted the same energy aura at the same time, and all their auras were twisted into one.

Among them...

There were at least three gurus.

“Whoosh!”

Fang Qiu didn’t stop but directly rushed up.

He had been waiting for this moment for a long time. Finally, the person hiding behind the scenes showed up.

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

While Fang Qiu was rushing forward quickly...

The large group of people ahead dispersed in all directions quickly, forming a circle around Fang Qiu.

All of this was detected by Fang Qiu’s Divine Consciousness.

In a flash...

The two sides collided.

“Swoosh!”

Without any hesitation, Fang Qiu took the initiative to attack.

The moment this group of people saw Fang Qiu, they besieged him crazily.

“Pow!”

Fang Qiu sent one of them flying with a punch.

Fang Qiu moved his step, and his figure flashed quickly in the crowd. Wherever he passed, the energy Qi burst out and sent them flying one after another.

The strength of these people was not bad.

They were all about eighth-class martial arts practitioners. However, to Fang Qiu, they were no different from ordinary people.

When Fang Qiu was killing without difficulty...

“Swoosh!”

Three figures suddenly burst out from the crowd and rushed toward Fang Qiu with a domineering Qi power.

“As expected, they are incapable gurus.”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes. At the moment when the three people burst out, he sensed an unstable aura of a guru on them.

The aura of a real guru must be very stable. Only an incapable guru's aura was unstable.

Now, Fang Qiu was quite sure that...

It was the Nirvana Organization.

The moment he confirmed it, Fang Qiu no longer hesitated. He directly burst out all his strength and waved his sword to kill crazily.

But it was strange.

After the three incapable gurus showed up, they didn't rush forward to besiege Fang Qiu. Instead, they didn't seem to care about the lives of others at all. They just attacked from afar to disturb Fang Qiu.

However...

Their disturbance was of no use to Fang Qiu at all.

Soon...

All the people, who besieged to kill Fang Qiu from all directions, were killed by Fang Qiu.

Just then...

The three incapable gurus, who had been attacking and disturbing Fang Qiu from a distance, looked at each other. Then, they glanced in the direction of Huaxia behind them. Finally, they had to nerve themselves and approached to besiege Fang Qiu cautiously.

“Are you waiting for someone?”

Fang Qiu sneered.

The expressions of the three people changed. They did not reply to Fang Qiu at all. Instead, they always kept a certain distance from Fang Qiu and were on guard.

It seemed that...

They really didn't want to fight with Fang Qiu. They just tried to stop Fang Qiu from leaving.

Seeing that...

Fang Qiu immediately got the point.

No wonder there was no metahuman coming out to kill him after the three forces took him away. No wonder all the metahumans were hiding and not showing up.

It turned out that these people were just trying to stall for time.

They were afraid that Fang Qiu would notice them in advance so as to alert him.

Fang Qiu understood.

“Whoosh!”

Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness suddenly expanded to the maximum.

“The person you've been waiting for is here.”

Looking in the direction of Huaxia, Fang Qiu sensed a vast aura of energy. It was not only vast, but it was also unusually cold.

From this aura...

Fang Qiu could tell that this person was extremely powerful.

Compared to the previous Crowning Lord, it was several times stronger!

Hearing what Fang Qiu said, the three incapable gurus breathed a sigh of relief.

They were members of the Nirvana Organization.

So they had long heard of how powerful John Doe was.

Dozens of people in the organization had died at the hands of John Doe, and even Crowning Lord could not survive.

Although they worked for the Nirvana Organization, they cherished their lives and were afraid of death.

And now...

Since that person was here, everything would come to an end.

What awaited John Doe ahead was only death.

“Are you relaxed so soon?”

Suddenly, the figure of Fang Qiu appeared from behind one of them. He said, “Could it be that no one in your organization has taught you not to be distracted during a fight?”

“Whizz!”

As soon as Fang Qiu finished speaking, a sword light flashed.

An incapable guru was killed on the spot.

When the other two saw this, their faces turned pale, and they immediately turned around to escape.

But...

It was too late.

“Whoosh!”

Fang Qiu moved and chased after one of them. At the same time, he waved his right hand fiercely and threw his divine sword directly at the back of the other one.

The next moment...

The divine sword that flew out of Fang Qiu’s hand was like a sharp arrow leaving the string, directly piercing through the escaped guru’s heart.

And meanwhile...

Fang Qiu had already caught up with the guru who had run away and punched him hard.

The guru was dead on the spot.

The divine sword flew over and fell into Fang Qiu’s hand.

After killing the three incapable gurus, Fang Qiu looked ahead with a gloomy face.

“Clap, Clap, Clap...”

The applause was suddenly heard.

Right there...

A figure stepped on the canopy of the tree and came over. As he walked, he applauded Fang Qiu with a smile and said, "John Doe, ranked first in the younger generation of Wulin, you're indeed powerful.

"We have to send so many people to stop you and almost let you go back home."

It was a young man wearing a pair of old-style black cloth shoes like that in opera. He was dressed in a very elegant ancient scholar's long robes, covered with a layer of voile, which made him look like an immortal.

In addition...

He kept a few strands of long hair on both sides of his forehead. The rest of his hair was neatly combed behind his head and tied up with a wooden bun.

Taking a closer look...

This young man had an angular face, which looked nothing special. But it could be seen that there seemed to be a layer of dark purple in his eye sockets, just like a sheen of oil.

"The Nirvana Organization has so many members."

Fang Qiu snorted coldly and said, "Well, your people are everywhere across the country, right?"

"Not really."

Lord Virtuous smiled indifferently and said, "Where there are people, there is Nirvana."

Hearing that...

Fang Qiu was shocked.

And his face darkened in an instant.

Fang Qiu thought, "How dare he say such words?"

"What does he mean by Where there are people, there is Nirvana?"

"If that were the case, how powerful would the Nirvana Organization be?"

"Who are you?"

Fang Qiu asked with a frown.

"Me?"

Lord Virtuous smiled faintly and said, "People of Nirvana call me 'Lord Virtuous'."

"Are you Lord Virtuous?"

Fang Qiu was shocked.

Lord Virtuous was one of the three Lords of Nirvana.

Fang Qiu did not expect that the second-in-command of the Nirvana Organization would come to him in person.

Fang Qiu thought, "Well...

"It seemed that the Nirvana Organization was greatly affected by the fact that Crowning Lord was killed by me."

"Do you think you are worthy of being virtuous?"

Fang Qiu sneered and said, "A virtuous person must be kind. Are you kind? How many people in the world have died because of your Nirvana Organization? How could you tolerate so many people dying in front of you? Why did you order your subordinates to come to me to court death? And what would you say about the lost lives of innocent ordinary people who have been slaughtered by you?"

"You're wrong."

Lord Virtuous shook his head calmly and said, "Virtuous doesn't mean 'kind' but 'Divine Intervention'. The person who did Divine Intervention is virtuous. As Lord Virtuous, I should focus on helping solve people's sufferings, release their souls from purgatory, and send them to their next lives."

"Bullshit!"

Fang Qiu said angrily, "Killing is killing, Why bother to find such high-sounding excuses? Is it fun?"

"Yes, it's fun, especially while killing you."

Lord Virtuous chuckled. Then he said, "To be fair, I'll give you some time to recover and then let you die willingly."

Hearing that...

Fang Qiu's face turned gloomy.

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu seated cross-legged and began to recover his energy.

“Since you give me some time to recover, I have no reason not to do it!”

While recovering his energy, Fang Qiu was on guard against Lord Virtuous.

Lord Virtuous kept his promise. He stood where he was there and stared at John Doe with a playful look on his face.

He could tell the strength of John Doe, so Lord Virtuous was not anxious at all.

In his eyes...

John Doe’s strength was too weak to take it seriously.

Indeed, Fang Qiu had spent a lot of energy along the way, but it didn’t take long for him to fully recover.

“Phew...”

Fang Qiu let out a light sigh of relief.

He stood up and looked at Lord Virtuous.

“What a pity! Such a genius is going to die today.”

Lord Virtuous looked at Fang Qiu and shook his head gently. Then he turned his right wrist and pinched his fingers lightly. A bright and dazzling lotus immediately bloomed at his fingertips. He said to Fang Qiu, “I’ll give you another chance. As long as you’re willing to, you’ll be Crowning Lord. What do you think?”

Medical Master

Chapter 1465: Implant It into His Body!

With the blooming of the lotus at Lord Virtuous' fingertip...

A thick and deep aura slowly surged out of the body of Lord Virtuous. It was an everlasting heavy aura.

To put it this way...

The guru's aura was like a mountain, simply gave great pressure on people. In contrast, the aura emanating from Lord Virtuous' body was like a mountain, which was full of vicissitudes of life, as if it came from ancient times. It was desolate and heavy.

“One-Flower Core Formation!”

Fang Qiu was shocked inwardly.

He could clearly feel that Lord Virtuous was much stronger than him.

But...

It was not that Fang Qiu didn't have the power to fight.

“What a coincidence!”

Fang Qiu smiled faintly and replied, “I don't lack opportunities.”

“You are a talent, but you are arrogant.”

Lord Virtuous shook his head and said, “Well, I’ll do Divine Intervention to you.

Following that...

Lord Virtuous moved quickly, and the lotus on his fingertips disappeared in a flash. He rushed in front of Fang Qiu and slapped Fang Qiu on the head with his right hand.

“He is so fast.”

Fang Qiu was shocked. He suddenly raised his right hand and quickly resisted Lord Virtuous’ attack.

“Clap!”

There was a sound of collision.

When Lord Virtuous collided with Fang Qiu with an ordinary palm, an extremely powerful energy Qi suddenly burst out. With a “Bang”, it directly shook Fang Qiu to take a few steps backward.

Fang Qiu took a deep breath.

He shook his right hand, narrowed his eyes, and then activated all the internal Qi in his body to run it at full speed.

Just from one blow...

Fang Qiu knew that he was no match for Lord Virtuous.

Fang Qiu could feel a great deal of pressure from Lord Virtuous. He had never felt such pressure since he re-cultivated.

Right now...

The shadow of his Dantian was unstable, and he needed to break through and condense the flowers. So the pressure brought by Lord Virtuous was undoubtedly the best help for Fang Qiu to make a breakthrough in his cultivation.

Therefore, even if Fang Qiu couldn't win, he had no intention of retreating. On the contrary, his heart was burning with the desire to fight!

“Whoosh!”

After the blow was blocked by Fang Qiu, Lord Virtuous sneered. He moved like a ghost and instantly appeared in front of Fang Qiu.

Even Fang Qiu couldn't keep up with that speed.

“Clap!”

Another palm attack...

With a gust of desolate energy Qi, it was like a hill pressing down, directly hitting John Doe in the chest.

“Pow!”

Fang Qiu clenched his fist and burst out with tremendous force, colliding with Lord Virtuous' fist fiercely. The two violent forces collided and actually counteracted each other.

“Eh?”

Feeling the power bursting from John Doe's fist, Lord Virtuous was slightly stunned. He said, “You do have the ability to kill Crowning Lord.

“However, with this little bit of power, it is far from enough.”

With that...

Lord Virtuous became serious.

His palm wind instantly became fierce.

Lord Virtuous did not look down on John Doe because John Doe had killed Crowning Lord. Lord Virtuous could tell that John Doe's strength was still at the level of the Guru Realm. However, since John Doe could kill Crowning Lord, who was at the peak level of the Guru Realm, it proved that John Doe's fighting capacity could not be underestimated. Therefore, the two moves that Lord Virtuous just made were just a simple test.

And now...

Lord Virtuous had found out everything he needed to know.

After confirming the fighting capacity of Fang Qiu, it was time to kill him.

“Roar!”

Lord Virtuous no longer hesitated.

A huge amount of energy Qi suddenly spread out from the body of Lord Virtuous, resulting in his clothes and hair rustling.

On the palm wind, an extremely sharp energy Qi turned into strength as if it wanted to destroy everything, directly rushing toward Fang Qiu.

Meanwhile...

Feeling the energy Qi on Lord Virtuous' palm, Fang Qiu took a deep breath and retreated quickly with a serious look on his face.

“Great Hand of Destruction!”

As Fang Qiu dodged, he clenched his right hand.

In a twinkling...

The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth all rushed over.

Just When Lord Virtuous was about to attack in front of Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu suddenly struck out with his palm.

“Pow!”

Another loud sound was heard.

The moment their palms collided, an extremely violent energy gushed out of Lord Virtuous' palm like a bolt of lightning that could destroy everything, and it tried to rush into Fang Qiu's body to crush his viscera.

Fortunately...

The Qi of Heaven and Earth that Fang Qiu had attracted and converged was abundant. Through the transmission of his arm, the Qi of Heaven and Earth kept colliding with the aura bursting out of Lord Virtuous' palm and offset each other again.

“Interesting.”

Lord Virtuous smiled.

He didn't expect that his palm strike with 80% of his strength would be resolved by Fang Qiu like this.

Meanwhile...

“Whizz!”

Fang Qiu pinched the fingers of his right hand.

The divine sword instantly condensed in his palm.

He felt that the pressure from Lord Virtuous was too great. If he was always suppressed by Lord Virtuous like this, it would be difficult for him to turn the tables. Therefore, Fang Qiu had to seize the initiative.

“Three-point Shadowless Sword!”

In an instant, the divine sword was formed. Fang Qiu held the hilt with both hands and slashed at Lord Virtuous.

“Uh?”

Lord Virtuous did not expect Fang Qiu to take the initiative to fight back, so he was surprised. Then Lord Virtuous waved his right hand, and a transparent and faint dark purple energy layer immediately spread out from his palm. It directly condensed into a shield in front of him to protect him.

At the moment when the shield was formed...

Fang Qiu had already slashed down with the long sword in his hand. The three beams of extremely sharp sword Qi instantly condensed into one, with an extremely sharp Qi power, it collided fiercely with the energy shield in front of Lord Virtuous.

In the end...

When the long sword fell, the layer of energy shield, like the surface of the water, produced circles of dark purple energy ripples. After rippling a few rounds, it calmed down.

“Thunderbolt-absorbing Technique!”

After the blow, Fang Qiu waved his right hand, and a lightning sword blade shot toward Lord Virtuous, leaving no chance for him to fight back.

The huge sword blade of lightning tore through the air. Wherever it passed, muffled thunder rumbled, and once again it fell heavily on the energy shield in front of Lord Virtuous.

This time...

As the blade of the lightning sword fell, a layer of dark purple mist-shaped energy suddenly burst out from the shield. In the rapid vibration, it dissipated all the energy bursting from the blade of Fang Qiu’s sword again.

However...

The huge impact forced Lord Virtuous to take a step back.

Lord Virtuous’ face turned gloomy.

Just then...

“Space-splitting Sea-cracking Sword!”

Fang Qiu shouted again.

A huge sword Qi suddenly appeared. It cut all the previous internal Qi into two halves and bombarded heavily on the layer of the energy shield in front of Lord Virtuous.

“Boom!”

A loud explosion-like rose into the sky.

It was visible to the naked eye.

The layer of energy shield in front of Lord Virtuous hardly hold on and began to vibrate rapidly.

The impact was even more terrifying than the previous one. Through this layer of energy shield, once again impacted heavily on Lord Virtuous, causing him to take several steps backward before he could stabilize his body.

“Damn it!”

Lord Virtuous was furious.

“Boom!”

The internal Qi in his body burst out fiercely. It could be seen with the naked eye that behind Lord Virtuous, a huge lotus formed entirely of dark purple energy appeared in an instant. Every leaf of the lotus was like a sharp blade, emitting a cold light.

Quicker than words could tell...

“Great Hand of Destruction, Forming a Sword!”

Fang Qiu waved the long sword in his hand again.

The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth suddenly began to tremble wildly.

“Again?”

Lord Virtuous widened his eyes.

He didn’t expect John Doe to have another move.

And...

Obviously, this move was Even stronger than the previous ones.

As his face instantly darkened, Lord Virtuous stretched out his hands and once again condensed an energy shield in front of him, trying to resist the attack from Fang Qiu.

But the next moment...

“Bang!”

There was a loud explosion.

As soon as the sword fell, it blew up the shield in front of Lord Virtuous.

Then...

The endless Qi of Heaven and Earth burst out from the sword and rushed straight to Lord Virtuous.

“What the hell?”

Lord Virtuous raised his eyebrows and quickly leaped to dodge.

Unexpectedly...

Fang Qiu turned his right hand.

The Qi of Heaven and Earth with a huge impact immediately chased after Lord Virtuous.

“Break it!”

Realizing that he couldn’t dodge, Lord Virtuous paused, snorted, and directly punched out.

“Bang!”

The sound of collision spread out.

The sharp energy Qi collided fiercely with Lord Virtuous’ fist and impacted him wildly. Lord Virtuous had no choice but to constantly mobilize the energy in his body to confront.

In the end, it took a full 10% of his energy to completely resist the sword strike from John Doe.

“Phew...”

Lord Virtuous’ expression changed dramatically.

It was the first time Lord Virtuous was in such a difficult position. He had absolute strength but he was forced to this extent by John Doe. Even though he was not badly injured, it was already very difficult for him to deal with it.

After blocking the sword...

Lord Virtuous immediately turned to stare at Fang Qiu, but he saw that Fang Qiu didn't wave his sword.

"That's it?"

Seeing that Fang Qiu didn't move, Lord Virtuous sneered cruelly. He said, "Then go to hell!"

"Swoosh!"

After that, Lord Virtuous rushed up to Fang Qiu in an instant and burst out all his strength. He gathered almost all his internal Qi into his right hand and smashed it at Fang Qiu with a momentum of breaking through the air.

In the meanwhile...

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

He waved his right hand decisively and met the blow with his palm.

"Clap!"

The two palms collided.

An extremely clear sound of collision was heard.

The next moment...

Fang Qiu was immediately shaken backward by the huge force that burst out from Lord Virtuous' palm.

“Puff!”

Fang Qiu's mouth opened, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

“Ha-ha.”

Wiping the blood from the corner of his mouth, Fang Qiu laughed and immediately turned to escape.

“You want to run away?”

Lord Virtuous snorted and then activated his internal Qi and was about to chase after Fang Qiu.

However, when the internal Qi in his body ran...

Lord Virtuous' expression suddenly changed greatly.

He felt something extra in his body. It was a trace of mysterious dark material. As he was running his internal Qi, the trace of mysterious dark material was rapidly absorbing his internal Qi and growing wildly.

“Damn, is it that thing?”

Staring at the back of John Doe who was running away, Lord Virtuous gritted his teeth in anger and hurriedly stopped running his internal Qi.

Lord Virtuous knew about dark material.

The virus wouldn't stop growing until his internal Qi stopped running in his body. To completely eliminate the dark materials, Lord Virtuous had to go back to the relic to find a way.

"Damn it!"

Lord Virtuous cursed angrily.

How could he have expected that John Doe would have implanted the dark material into his body?

Medical Master

Chapter 1466: Does Anything Happen?

Lord Virtuous watched John Doe run away.

Thinking that such an opportunity was not easy to come by, Lord Virtuous made up his mind and chased after Fang Qiu immediately.

It had been a long time since Lord Virtuous received the news of Crowning Lord's death. It took Lord Virtuous a lot of effort to find John Doe's whereabouts. If he let John Doe go this time, it would not be easy to find John Doe the next time.

Moreover...

Lord Virtuous knew very well that John Doe had grown too fast over the two years. Although John Doe had not yet reached the level of One-Flower Core Formation, Lord Virtuous had witnessed that John Doe's strength had surpassed that of the Guru Realm. A shadow should have already appeared in his Dantian. If Lord Virtuous let John Doe go now, John Doe would probably become more powerful when they met the next time.

Therefore, he could not let John Doe leave alive.

“Swoosh!”

At lightning speed...

When Lord Virtuous burst out all his strength to chase after Fang Qiu, Lord Virtuous' body turned into a stream of light. Wherever he passed, there was a burst of sound that could deafen people in an instant.

Ahead of him...

Fang Qiu was fleeing with all his strength.

He knew that he couldn't beat Lord Virtuous. Even though he had implanted the mysterious dark material into Lord Virtuous' body, he was not sure whether Lord Virtuous would be affected by it or not.

After all, Nirvana Organization was the first to discover this thing. Maybe Nirvana Organization had found a solution.

At the same time as he fled...

Fang Qiu looked back.

Suddenly, he saw that Lord Virtuous was chasing after him at a speed that was almost twice as fast as his.

“Isn't this guy afraid of that substance?”

Fang Qiu got nervous.

He waved his right hand and dispersed the divine sword.

Then, he immediately performed the Great Hand of Destruction to quickly attract the Qi of Heaven and Earth wherever it passed and gathered them behind him.

Behind him...

“Humph!”

Feeling the strange movement of the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth, Lord Virtuous snorted heavily with a gloomy face. Then he waved his right hand, and all the energy in his body immediately surged into his arm and converged on his fist.

As numerous energy poured in, a layer of black-purple energy star dots appeared on his right fist, enveloping his whole fist.

With more and more energy star dots appeared...

It could be seen with the naked eye that a bolt of purple lightning began to flicker and pull between those black-purple energy star dots.

An extremely terrifying destructive aura faintly spread out from the fist.

In the meanwhile...

As the distance between them grew closer and closer, Fang Qiu soon felt the destructive aura coming from behind, and his expression immediately changed.

This aura made him feel dead.

Fang Qiu had never had such a feeling before, as if death was chasing after him.

In this case, Fang Qiu had no choice but to give it his all.

“Great Hand of Formlessness!”

He shouted in his heart.

He performed the Formlessness with his left hand and the Destruction with his right hand.

Perhaps...

Only in this way would he be able to withstand Lord Virtuous' attack.

With the moves of his hands at the same time, the speed of the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth increased exponentially.

In an instant, the Qi of Heaven and Earth gathered into a big cloud.

Just then, Lord Virtuous was about to catch up.

Fang Qiu suddenly stopped and turned his head.

“Combat!”

Fang Qiu roared.

Instantly...

The surging Qi of Heaven and Earth actually divided into two parts behind Fang Qiu. Like a huge pair of azure wings, they rushed wildly to Fang Qiu from his left and right sides.

And meanwhile...

Within 500 meters, the Qi of Heaven and Earth began to boil wildly, and the whole space began to vibrate.

In the face of such a strange situation...

Without batting an eyelid, Lord Virtuous rushed straight to Fang Qiu.

“Die!”

With a cold face, Lord Virtuous waved his right hand, which was covered with black-purple star dots and lightning, and slammed toward Fang Qiu.

“Formless Destruction!”

Fang Qiu gritted his teeth and clapped his hands.

Then he directly confronted the punch of Lord Virtuous.

What was the Formless Destruction?

It was a move that Fang Qiu came up with carefully after using the combination of the Great Hand of Formlessness and the Great Hand of Destruction to cause an explosion in Africo before.

In fact, the Great Hand of Destruction and the Great Hand of Formlessness could result in a conflict, and vice versa.

Using the same hand to perform the two moves would inevitably result in conflict. However, using two hands would naturally avoid the conflict.

When the two moves confront each other, it could produce so powerful explosive force.

Then...

Would the effect be better if they overlapped with each other?

Fang Qiu had never practiced it before, but he had carefully simulated and pondered it in his mind. Whether it was the Great Hand of Destruction or the Great Hand of Formlessness, both of them took advantage of the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Moreover, the operation of the technique of the two was very similar, so they could be easily merged together.

It was the first time to use it today.

“Buzz!”

At the moment of collision...

The energy in Fang Qiu’s left hand burst out like an explosion, directly dispersing half of the destructive energy on Lord Virtuous’ fist. In front of his right palm, an energy palm condensed a size of an ordinary palm. It collided with Lord Virtuous’ fist fiercely. Fang Qiu clenched his fist tightly.

The next moment...

“Bang!”

There was a loud thump.

The two energies collided with each other and instantly caused a huge explosion in the air. The destructive aura of the two energies entangled with each other and rushed into the sky. The strong energy Qi burst out in all directions wildly and cut off all the crowns of the trees in the dense forest area under their feet.

And meanwhile...

With this heavy blow from Lord Virtuous, Fang Qiu was sent flying again.

Even though the Great Hand of Formlessness had taken effect and the Great Hand of Destruction had collided with Lord Virtuous' punch, the power that Lord Virtuous burst out was too strong. After more than half of it had been offset, there was still a small portion of energy hitting Fang Qiu's body.

“Puff!”

As Fang Qiu was sent flying, he spat out another mouthful of blood.

Just then...

“Swoosh!”

There was an ear-piercing sound breaking through the air.

Lord Virtuous rushed to Fang Qiu again. His fist, which was covered with another layer of black-purple energy, suddenly raised and then slammed Fang Qiu in the chest heavily.

In a flash...

Fang Qiu felt like he heard the sound of something breaking in his chest.

Then, like a kite with a broken string, he flew backward for dozens of meters in an instant and fell heavily on the ground, leaving a big hole in the ground of the forest.

He couldn't help but feel a surge of blood in his throat.

Fang Qiu couldn't bear it at all. Blood spurted out of his mouth and splashed all over the ground.

Even his ears and nose began to bleed.

Only his eyes were not bleeding.

“Kaff!”

Not long after he fell to the ground, the blood in his throat choked Fang Qiu with a fierce cough, and he spat out a jelly-like blood clot.

“Just a little bit short...”

Enduring the pain, Fang Qiu stood up with all his strength.

Originally...

According to his simulation...

The energy that burst out from the Great Hand of Formlessness and the Great Hand of Destruction could be overlapped. However, when it came to actual operation, he found that the two forces were in totally different forms and almost could not merge together.

In other words...

His move of Formless Destruction had failed.

And his current miserable situation was the consequence of failure.

But there was nothing he could do.

As he knew, this was the only way to confront Lord Virtuous by merging these two moves together. All other moves could not collide with Lord Virtuous' punch at all.

If he didn't try this move, the consequences would be even worse.

"There's something missing, just a little bit missing," he thought.

Fang Qiu glanced at Lord Virtuous.

Surprisingly...

Lord Virtuous didn't chase after Fang Qiu. Instead, he quickly dispersed his internal Qi and landed on the ground. He stared at Fang Qiu from a distance with a serious look, his face pale.

"Hee..."

Fang Qiu grinned.

As he knew...

The mysterious dark material in his opponent's body must have worked.

Otherwise, Lord Virtuous would not have suppressed all the internal Qi in his body at this time.

“Whoosh.”

Turning around, Fang Qiu gritted his teeth and glared at Lord Virtuous fiercely. Then he moved his body, suppressed his strengthless body, directly burst out the internal Qi in his Dantian, and quickly fled into the distance.

“Why didn’t he die?”

When he saw Fang Qiu running away, the face of Lord Virtuous darkened. He was about to continue to chase after Fang Qiu. Just then, he paused, and he felt that the cloud of dark materials in his body had grown to the size of a fist. His face was even paler.

“You are bleeding from your nose, mouth, etc. You’ll die even if you escape.”

Lord Virtuous snorted coldly.

Lord Virtuous turned around angrily and was about to go back to the relic to clear the dark materials in his body.

He really wished to catch Fang Qiu and kill him himself.

However...

The amount of internal Qi in his body was too large. When he didn’t run his internal Qi, the mysterious dark material would grow very fast. As soon as he ran his internal Qi, the growth of the mysterious dark material would be faster. It didn’t take long for it to grow from the size of a piece of hair to the size of a fist. If he continued to chase Fang Qiu, it would be difficult to solve it when it grew to a certain limit.

Ahead him...

Fang Qiu flew all the way.

Unknowing how long he had been flying, Fang Qiu finally couldn't hold on any longer, when the aura of Lord Virtuous completely broke away from the range of his Divine Consciousness for a few minutes.

Fang Qiu was still in midair, but his consciousness suddenly broke. He blacked out and directly fell down from the high air.

In the military base of Beijiang...

“Damn it, these bastards!”

Sitting in the office, Li Ji cursed angrily.

He had just received the news.

After Murica got the prescription, they went back on their word about what they had promised before. Not only did they ignore the warning from Huaxia, but they also directly sent people to the Pacific to fight with each other for the two mines that they promised to give Huaxia in advance. They also publicly announced that they were the first ones to find the two mines and that the Mining license issued to Huaxia by the International Undersea Mining Management Bureau was illegal.

“These bastards! How could they fall out so easily? Shame on them!”

Li Ji cursed wildly.

He also received a message.

After Murica broke their promise, they even sent super talents to fight for the mines.

And now...

Things had developed to the point of tit for tat. This was no longer an ordinary combat.

“Since you want to play the game, let’s see who will be the winner!”

Li Ji cursed angrily.

He immediately took out his phone and called Fang Qiu.

Unexpectedly...

The phone was connected, but Fang Qiu didn’t answer.

Li Ji called again, but Fang Qiu still didn’t answer.

Li Ji called three times in a row, but Fang Qiu didn’t answer any.

“What’s going on?”

Li Ji felt that something was unusual. He frowned. This had never happened before. Fang Qiu always answered Li Ji’s calls immediately.

What was going on today?

“Could it be that something has happened to Fang Qiu?”

Li Ji got nervous. He quickly got up and rushed to the radar monitoring room to get the location information of Fang Qiu.

Medical Master

Chapter 1467: Wait for Him to Wake Up

In the monitoring room...

Li Ji personally operated it, and soon, he lock on the location of Fang Qiu's phone signal through the satellite.

"Eh? Why is it here?"

Seeing the location shown on the radar map, Li Ji was slightly stunned. Then he quickly clicked on the map with a puzzled look on his face and zoomed it in. Very soon, he narrowed the area where Fang Qiu's phone signal was located to within 100 meters.

It was a dense forest.

The dense forest was located at the border of Zhongdong and Huaxia.

The forest was too dense, so he couldn't see the situation in it clearly from the photos taken through the satellite.

"Something is not right!"

Seeing that the signal of Fang Qiu's phone kept flicking but did not move, Li Ji gradually darkened his face. He frowned and asked in confusion, "Did anything really happen to him?"

As Li Ji knew...

With his ability, Fang Qiu would never make silly mistakes like losing his phone. Even if he really lost it, he would get it back in a very short time.

But...

It had been a long time since he called Fang Qiu for the first time. If Fang Qiu really lost his phone, he would have returned to get it back.

In other words, Fang Qiu didn't lose his phone.

The phone was still with Fang Qiu.

Since that was the case, why didn't Fang Qiu answer the phone?

Something must have happened to Fang Qiu!

Thinking of that...

Li Ji couldn't stay calm. He immediately turned off the satellite signal monitor of Fang Qiu and shouted to an operator in the monitoring room, "Send out a rescue helicopter right now. I'll drive it myself!"

In the monitoring room, the operator immediately sent out the order.

Li Ji hurried out.

Very soon...

The rescue helicopter set off.

Li Ji was driving the helicopter, and he also brought a team of military doctors.

They rushed to the location where the signal was sent on Fang Qiu's phone.

Flying at full speed...

After more than an hour, Li Ji and the others finally arrived at the border. After finding a place to stop the helicopter, Li Ji immediately ran to the location of the phone signal.

A team of military doctors followed him closely.

Ten minutes later...

According to the surveillance information on Fang Qiu's phone, Li Ji finally arrived at the location of Fang Qiu's phone signal. He turned his head and looked around, only to find that there was no one around.

Li Ji was puzzled.

"Up there."

A military doctor pointed to the crown of a big tree above Li Ji.

Li Ji quickly looked up.

And he saw...

A figure was stuck between two thick branches. Fang Qiu was hanging upside down on the tree. If it weren't for the flourishing trees in this area, Fang Qiu would have fallen down with his head hitting the ground.

Li Ji looked in that direction.

Fang Qiu's face was covered with a layer of blood, but not much or dripped.

“Prepare for first aid!”

Seeing Fang Qiu's face, Li Ji changed his expression and shouted. Like a monkey, Li Ji immediately held the tree and climbed up quickly. With a worried look on his face, he climbed up to the crown of the tree and leaned carefully against it. He grabbed Fang Qiu by the arm, helped Fang Qiu up, and carried Fang Qiu on his back. Then Li Ji jumped down directly from the crown of the tree.

On the ground...

The military medical team had prepared stretchers, first aid medicine, disinfectant, and even surgical tools. They were ready to do surgery on Fang Qiu at any time.

Li Ji panicked.

He had known Fang Qiu for over two years, during which, he had never seen Fang Qiu suffer a loss from anyone. Fang Qiu was a guru.

And he was a guru going through re-cultivation.

Who could beat him to such a miserable state in this world?

Li Ji even felt that Fang Qiu's breathing was subtle. When Fang Qiu was put on the stretcher, Li Ji felt that Fang Qiu's chest was soft.

The military doctors quickly washed the blood on Fang Qiu with disinfectant, trying to find the wounds.

“There are no visible injuries on the surface of his body.”

After the cleaning, the military doctor immediately said.

“Bones. Check his bones!”

Li Ji pointed at Fang Qiu’s chest and said anxiously.

The military doctor quickly untied Fang Qiu’s shirt.

Then, he saw that Fang Qiu’s chest had caved in.

The military doctor touched it with his hand.

“Well, um...”

The military doctor was dumbfounded and said in disbelief, “His bones are all broken!”

The others shook their heads successively as well.

“What do you mean?”

Li Ji gritted his teeth and asked.

“It takes a great impact to break all the bones. If the bones are all broken, it means that the viscera must have been severely damaged. Even his bones have pierced into his viscera. There is no cure for such a condition.”

The military doctor shook his head and sighed, saying, “Judging from his injury, he has been injured for over two hours. It’s very good that he can hold on until now. Even Fang Qiu can’t save him.”

Hearing that...

Li Ji trembled all over.

“No!”

Just as despair was brewing in his heart, Li Ji suddenly shook his head and said with tears in his eyes, “Bring him back to the base.”

After a while...

Back on the helicopter, Li Ji took a few deep breaths to calm himself down a little. Then he drove the helicopter back to the military base quickly.

An hour later...

The helicopter landed steadily.

Li Ji jumped down from the cockpit and immediately rushed to the back cabin. Then he trotted with the medical team and quickly sent Fang Qiu to a ward in the army.

“How is he?”

As soon as Fang Qiu was put on the bed, Li Ji hurriedly asked.

“He has amazing vitality! It’s been over three hours, but he is still alive.”

The captain of the medical team exclaimed, “I’m not sure if he can survive. I can only say that if we send him to the hospital for surgery right now, there should still be a chance!”

Right then...

“Crack.”

All of a sudden, there was a slight sound.

Except for Li Ji, who was a martial arts practitioner, no one else in the ward heard it.

Li Ji looked in the direction of the sound.

And he saw...

Somewhere on Fang Qiu’s chest suddenly beat. The collapsed bones seemed to have returned to their original positions. Although it was only a little bit, Li Ji could see it clearly.

“Okay. Go back to your work. Leave here to me.”

Li Ji waved his hand and said.

“What about him?”

The captain of the medical team asked.

“He’ll get better.”

Li Ji stared at Fang Qiu and said, “I’ll stay here and wait for him to come around!”

The members of the medical team didn’t know what to say when they saw Li Ji’s red-rimmed eyes. They shook their heads and sighed.

“Call us at any time if you need.”

After saying that...

All the members of the medical team turned around and left.

Li Ji locked the door of the ward.

He sat down by the bed and looked at Fang Qiu with concern.

“Fang Qiu was a guru!”

On the way back, Li Ji had thought it through. Fang Qiu’s injury was too severe to be cured. However, a guru was different from ordinary people. Li Ji knew that when all the martial arts practitioner faced their enemies, they would subconsciously use their own energy to protect their viscera first, and then their bones and flesh.

With Fang Qiu’s strong strength, it must be a person, who had terrifyingly powerful strength, beating Fang Qiu like this. In that situation, if Fang Qiu had been killed, he would have absolutely not kept a faint breath. Since he kept this breath, it meant that at least Fang Qiu had kept his opened meridians of the heart.

In addition, Fang Qiu was a doctor himself.

Li Ji firmly believed that Fang Qiu would get better.

Somewhere on the Pacific...

On a huge checker-shaped drilling platform where the sea waves surged and sea wind roared, a man stood facing the wind. Ignoring the platform shaking constantly with the surging waves, he just stood there steadily.

Upon a closer look...

It was General Will, the general of the Murica secret military base.

Right now...

The direction of General Will faced was exactly Huaxia. The look on his face was like the waves in the ocean, full of rage.

In Murica, the Presidential Palace decided to punish him for what had happened before, but the punishment had not been issued yet. Although he had not been dismissed, the Presidential Palace issued the punishment a few days after he returned to the military base and was reinstated to the official.

As punishment, he was assigned here to guard these two mines.

That was because...

The whole thing was caused by him.

If General Will hadn't taken Fang Qiu to Murica, Fang Qiu wouldn't have taken advantage of everything in Murica or played tricks to set Murica up hard.

Without those things...

Huaxia would not threaten Murica with the matter of prescription, and the matter of these two mines would not occur either.

But now, things had turned out like this.

Since Murica was determined to fight with Huaxia these two mines, it was conceivable that Huaxia would never give in to these two mines, and so would Murica.

Next...

There would definitely be a big fight coming.

Under such circumstances...

Naturally, Murica would choose to send General Will over, and General Will was also willing to accept such punishment. He knew that he had screwed up the previous matter, and next, he needed an opportunity to redeem himself.

And these two mines were a good opportunity for him to make amends.

If he could successfully take over these two mines...

Then...

Everything that had happened before would be completely wiped off, and he might even obtain greater power.

Therefore...

This time, he must protect these two mines well, no matter what.

“It’s all because of you, Fang Qiu!”

Facing the direction of Huaxia, General Will gritted his teeth in anger and shouted, "This time, no matter who is from Huaxia, don't even think about taking a cent from my hand.

"Whoever is against me will have to die!"

With that, General Will immediately put on a cruel look.

...

In Huaxia...

In a ward of the military base.

"Crack..."

There was another light sound.

Once again, Li Ji saw a small part of Fang Qiu's chest bulging up. Fang Qiu was stunned.

This was the fifth time.

Fang Qiu's breath was still very weak, but if such a situation continued, Li Ji believed that Fang Qiu would recover little by little.

At the same time...

In the consciousness space of the comatose Fang Qiu...

"Here again?"

All of a sudden, Fang Qiu opened his eyes in the darkness. The first thing he saw was a dark sky with very thick clouds.

Taking a closer look, he found that the environment was the same as that of the last time he broke through in cultivation on the island.

But...

When Fang Qiu turned his head to look around, he found the surroundings very dilapidated. It looked like a war zone that had just experienced fierce combat. It was charred, and smoke rose.

Medical Master

Chapter 1468: A Blessing in Disguise

“Where is this place?”

Fang Qiu was puzzled.

There was no such place in his impression.

Moreover...

In the surrounding scorched war zone, there were many huge shelves, which looked like the structure of a skyscraper, broken everywhere.

“Never mind.”

Fang Qiu had no idea where he was, but his mind was still clear. He knew that he was severely injured and couldn't delay.

“Let me recover my internal Qi first.”

An idea popped up into Fang Qiu’s mind.

Fang Qiu immediately sat on the ground.

Just then...

“Buzz!”

All of a sudden, there was a loud sound in the dark sky.

It was different from the last time.

No golden beam of light appeared.

However, there were streams of golden energy in the sky. From the thick clouds in the sky, streams of golden energy shot from all directions like arrows, rushing into Fang Qiu’s body.

Following the appearance of these golden energies, the sky, which was densely covered with dark clouds, seemed to have become a little brighter.

When the golden energy entered his body...

Fang Qiu had the feeling that his internal Qi started to beat.

It was just like a lit flame.

The more golden energy there was, the stronger the feeling of the flame beating in Fang Qiu's body became.

Unknowing how long it had been...

"Buzz!"

Suddenly...

The feeling of the flame jumping disappeared, replaced by a gust of wind whistling.

Fang Qiu knew that...

His internal Qi began to run.

With the internal Qi running, a trace of golden light suddenly burst through the dark clouds in the sky, and a golden beam of light suddenly shone down from the sky, enveloping Fang Qiu.

The thick golden energy surged wildly into Fang Qiu's body.

He was immersed in cultivation.

Fang Qiu didn't notice at all that when the golden beam of light shone down, gusts of wild wind blew in the space where he was.

The howling wind seemed to be sweeping the charred black battlefield.

With the blowing of the wind...

The scorched ground around began to slowly return to life.

As the violent wind howled, the shattered shelves everywhere were pieced together, and the charred color faded away.

And meanwhile...

At the foot of Fang Qiu...

The shadow of the lotus flower appeared again. As the golden energy continued to pour in, the lotus flower began to materialize.

The shadow became more and more obvious.

And all around, as if having experienced a thousand years, everything returned to life. Those reassembled shelves, like a skeleton, wrapped around Fang Qiu.

If Fang Qiu opened his eyes at this time, he could definitely tell that this place was exactly in his body.

The scorched and scattered shelves on the ground were the broken bones in his body beat by Lord Virtuous.

In the outside world...

“Crack...”

“Crack, crack, crack...”

Li Ji, who had been guarding Fang Qiu by the bed, noticed that the interval between the cracking sounds coming from Fang Qiu's body was quicker than before. The part of his chest that had caved in also began to recover one by one.

Seeing this...

Li Ji couldn't help getting excited. He quickly stood up, rushed to Fang Qiu, and looked at Fang Qiu carefully.

“Boom!”

Outside the ward, a muffled thunder sounded in the air.

Li Ji hurriedly looked out of the window.

There he saw...

The originally sunny sky suddenly was filled with dark clouds in an instant. Upon closer inspection, there were actually densely packed lightning snakes swimming in the dark clouds. Occasionally, they would make a “boom” sound.

Just as Li Ji was wondering...

All of a sudden, a wave of invincible force swept over.

It was the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

An incomparably thick and strong Qi of Heaven and Earth, from all directions, directly penetrated the walls and poured into the ward, quickly infusing into Fang Qiu.

With the Qi of Heaven and Earth poured in...

In less than one minute, Fang Qiu's sunken chest was completely healed as if he had not been injured.

Li Ji's heart skipped a beat.

He quickly unlocked the door and walked out of the ward. He ordered, "Inform everyone not to panic whatever happens. It will be over in a while."

Then...

He stood guard outside the door.

When Li Ji looked at Fang Qiu in the ward through the window, his eyes were full of horror.

This sort of unusual sign of nature was too terrifying!

Li Ji didn't expect that Fang Qiu, who was almost half-dead, could cause such a strange sign of nature.

The most terrifying thing was that the Qi of Heaven and Earth, which was wildly poured into Fang Qiu's body, was like the water rushing out of the dam when the gate was opened. Only an overmatch like Fang Qiu could withstand the impact of such Qi of Heaven and Earth. If it happened to Li Ji, Li Ji was afraid that only 10% of the Qi of heaven and earth could cause him to die.

Li Ji was utterly shocked.

But he was very delighted inwardly.

The strange natural sign in front of him at least showed that Fang Qiu had begun to recover. Fang Qiu would not die.

Just then...

“Buzz, buzz...”

A terrifying gust of wind whistled over.

Together with the dark clouds in the sky, it brought a burst of lightning and thunder.

Everyone in the military base was frightened.

They knew there were wind and thunder in the desert. But now, there were wind and lightning but no rain, which made them confused.

And most importantly...

The soldiers in the base had never seen such terrifying wind or thunder. It was like a power grid covering the entire sky above the base.

They all shuddered at the sight of it.

Li Ji was also a little scared.

He hurriedly opened the door and ran back to Fang Qiu's ward to hide.

In a room, he could at least avoid being struck in the head when the lightning strikes occurred.

...

Gale and thunderclouds lasted for over half an hour before slowly dispersed.

After all the unusual signs between heaven and earth disappeared completely, Fang Qiu finally opened his eyes.

“You’re awake?”

As soon as Fang Qiu woke up, Li Ji immediately walked over.

“You brought me back?”

Seeing Li Ji, Fang Qiu was slightly stunned. Then he quickly straightened up, turned his head, and looked around. When he found that he was in the military base, he was relieved and asked.

“Yeah.”

Li Ji nodded and said, “I called you a lot of times, but you didn’t answer. I checked your location through satellite and found that you hadn’t moved for a long time, so I hurried to look for you. Fortunately, you are right there at the border of Beijiang.

“After finding you, the doctor said that all your ribs were broken, and he didn’t think you could be saved.

“Then, I’ve been waiting here all this time.”

Hearing that...

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly, then shook his head, and said with a smile, “It’s a blessing in disguise for me.”

Fang Qiu felt the abundant internal Qi in his body.

And he breathed a sigh of relief.

Fang Qiu had thought that after this severe injury, there would be some internal injuries that were difficult to heal on him. Unexpectedly, there were no internal injuries at all, and he recovered very well.

The lotus shadow in Fang Qiu's Dantian had not formed solid, and it was still in a state of shadow, but it had been strengthened a lot.

His strength had also improved a little.

In general...

Fang Qiu was very glad about this situation.

"A blessing in disguise?"

Li Ji was stunned and then asked in surprise, "Is there anyone who can hurt you so badly in this world?"

"Of course, there is."

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile. He said, "There are many people in the world who are stronger than me. They are just used to keeping a low profile, and they don't want to show up."

"Really?"

Hearing this, Li Ji hurriedly asked, "Who did this to you? Is it your enemy?"

"It's Nirvana!"

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

“Huh?”

Hearing the word “Nirvana”, Li Ji instantly darkened his face.

“It’s Lord Virtuous of the Nirvana Organization.”

Fang Qiu said, “Originally, after solving the problem of infection of mysterious substances in several major countries, I went to Zhongdong to dispense medicines to those who had been infected before and after. When I finished all this and was going to go back, I was suddenly ambushed by three second-rate forces on the way, and among them, there was not even a metahuman.

“I tried to find out who instigated them to do that, but the person behind was very vigilant. He didn’t show up at all.

“In the end, I chose to return home from the border, but I was besieged by the Nirvana Organization.

“It wasn’t until then that I found out that Nirvana Organization was the one behind all this.

“Later, I killed all those who besieged me. Then Lord Virtuous of the Nirvana Organization arrived. That person’s strength is at a level higher than mine. I was no match for him.

“Eventually, I implanted the mysterious dark material into his body and restricted his pursuit, allowing me to luckily escape.

“Back then, he should have thought that I would be dead for sure!”

Speaking of this...

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes, and a cold light appeared in his eyes.

He knew that...

Fang Qiu was no match for Lord Virtuous currently, but the next time they met, he would not be in such a sorry state.

If they fought again, it was hard to tell who would die.

“So that’s how it was.”

After hearing the whole story, Li Ji nodded knowingly and said, “That makes sense. Crowning Lord, one of the three lords of Nirvana, was killed by you. So you sort of forced Lord Virtuous to show up. No wonder Lord Virtuous has a strong killing intent toward you. You have to be more careful in the future. If you can’t defeat him, don’t fight him head-on. Remember, you have us and the Sword Sect to back you up.”

“He couldn’t kill me this time, and he won’t get a second chance.”

Fang Qiu snorted, then he looked at Li Ji and asked, “What did you call me for?”

“Phew...” Li Ji let out a long breath.

He shook his head and said, “Murica broke their promise!”

“What’s the matter?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

“After we gave them the prescription, they went back on their word. They denied all the conditions they had agreed to before. They also sent people to the ocean to occupy the two underwater mines that they promised us to mine.”

The more Li Ji spoke, the gloomier his face became.

“I’ll go!”

Fang Qiu immediately understood that the most important thing now was to fight for the two underwater mineral resources.

“I was going to trouble you to go there before.”

Li Ji smiled and said, “But you’ve just recovered from your severe injury. Don’t worry about it. I’ll report it to the higher-ups and find a new way to solve it. You should rest for a few more days.”

“No need for that.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “I’ve fully recovered. I don’t need to rest. Leave this matter to me. With my reputation among the underground forces. I can deter them if I go there.”

Medical Master

Chapter 1469: Meeting the Blue Whale Again

“Can you really do it?”

Hearing what Fang Qiu said, Li Ji raised his eyebrows slightly and asked with concern.

“Don’t worry. I am fine.”

Fang Qiu comforted Li Ji with a smile.

“Then, alright.”

Li Ji nodded.

Li Ji witnessed the strange phenomenon caused by Fang Qiu when Fang Qiu was recovering, and now, he could obviously feel that Fang Qiu was in good condition. If Fang Qiu needed to rest, Li Ji would definitely not let Fang Qiu go there. Since Fang Qiu so positively asked to go, Li Ji didn't need to continue to stop Fang Qiu. Otherwise, Li Ji would look a little pretentious.

“Let's set off now.”

Fang Qiu got out of bed and said, “To solve such a problem, the sooner, the better. It can't be delayed.”

“I'll arrange it right away.”

Li Ji nodded and said, “You can take a shower and have a rest now. By the way, please change into clean clothes. Since you're representing Huaxia, you can't go there dressed in shabby clothes, right?”

Fang Qiu looked down.

Well, his clothes were really tattered.

It seemed that...

His clothes had been broken by Lord Virtuous, and later, they were cut open by the military medical team when they checked his injuries. Fang Qiu was a little embarrassed about his bare chest and back.

“No worries. I'll ask someone to bring you to the bathroom. You can take a shower and change your clothes there.”

Li Ji said with a smile. Then he walked out of the ward.

After a short while...

A soldier pushed the door open and came in with a set of clothes that were exactly the same as those on Fang Qiu. The soldier handed the clothes to Fang Qiu and led the way for Fang Qiu to take a shower.

And meanwhile...

Li Ji was busy arranging the following trip to the Pacific for Fang Qiu.

After taking a shower...

Fang Qiu changed into clean clothes.

As soon as Fang Qiu went out, he bumped into the members of the medical team.

“Eh?”

Seeing Fang Qiu, the members of the medical team were all stunned. They hardly believe what they saw.

“You... Aren’t you about to die?”

One of them asked.

Fang Qiu responded with a smile and then stepped away.

The group of medical soldiers stood in place, staring blankly at the back of Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu came to Li Ji's office.

Fang Qiu had just taken a seat, and Li Ji came in.

"Is everything ready?"

Fang Qiu asked.

"Everything is ready."

Li Ji nodded and said, "We can set off at any time. In addition, I've prepared some things for you. It's time to change the mask on your face. The scientific research headquarters has developed some new technology and made a new human skin mask for you. It should be better in terms of effect."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Let's go."

"Well, this is a competition between metahumans, but on the surface, this matter has completely risen to the height of competition between countries, so you are not alone this time."

While walking, Li Ji said, "When there is a conflict on the national level, the army will definitely go together, but not now. You will go to one of the islands in the Qiong Island sea area first. You will be alone all the way. After arriving on that island, you will have no other means to go out. You'll have to wait for the military helicopter to go out to sea together!"

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded. He could understand why.

In today's world...

The strength of a country was reflected in the eyes of the people was the military power. Huaxia had always held the mentality that harmony was the most important thing, but it did not mean that Huaxia had no standpoint.

On this matter, since Murica went back on their word shamelessly, Huaxia would be opposing them tit for tat, of course.

Soon...

Fang Qiu got on a helicopter led by Li Ji.

There was no one in the cabin.

Only some items prepared by Li Ji were placed on the stool, including the brand-new human skin mask.

The cabin door was closed.

After the helicopter took off, Fang Qiu tore off the human skin mask on his face and put on the new one.

It felt more or less the same.

The appearance changed slightly, which was in line with the changes in human growth.

Most importantly...

This human skin mask was very thin. When it was worn on the face, it was like wearing nothing. There was no difference with his skin at all!

The internal Qi in his palm turned into flames.

In an instant, the old human skin mask was burned to ashes.

After Fang Qiu did all this...

He took some of the little things that Li Ji gave him with him. Anyway, there were many various pockets in the clothes and pants produced by the special forces.

It couldn't be more suitable to store these little things. The most important thing was that after these little things were put away, Fang Qiu didn't need to take them out even if he took off the clothes and pants, unless he needed to. And these little things wouldn't affect the movements of the human body at all.

After everything was done...

Fang Qiu closed his eyes to rest.

A few hours later, the helicopter landed.

The cabin door opened.

There was no one outside.

Fang Qiu opened his eyes, got up, and got off the plane.

Then...

The helicopter left.

Fang Qiu looked around and found that this was a very large island and his position happened to be the highest on the island.

This place seemed to have been renovated on purpose. It looked like a natural helipad.

Fang Qiu was at a high place.

So he could clearly look around the whole island.

Just like ordinary islands, there were white beaches and lush plants on this island. Other than that, there was nothing else.

Not even an animal could be seen, let alone a human being.

Fang Qiu remembered what Li Ji had said.

Fang Qiu smacked his lips in boredom.

“Well, I have to wait.”

Fang Qiu walked to the edge of the helipad and sat down. Then he took out his phone and browsed the news.

When he looked at it...

He couldn't help laughing at once.

Although Murica fell out with Huaxia, several other countries also agreed to its terms. It was likely that those countries did not have the courage to fall out with Huaxia as Murica did.

Fang Qiu was curious if those countries had begun to introduce Chinese Medicine into their markets. That was why he browsed the news.

As such...

As soon as he click it, Fang Qiu saw a piece of hot news.

It read: "Chinese Medicine has become popular in domestic. With Fang Qiu's presentation on live stream, the status of Huaxia Chinese Medicine in the world has gradually improved. And meanwhile, it has stimulated many Chinese Medicine practitioners in domestic to imitate Fang Qiu and show their desire to promote Chinese Medicine! Since multiple countries announced the development plan to support Chinese Medicine, many Huaxia Chinese Medicine practitioners have actively participated in the 100 places given by each country, showing their eagerness to develop Chinese Medicine!"

Seeing this news, Fang Qiu could not be happier and more satisfied.

He was happy about...

Chinese Medicine began to develop in a good direction.

He was satisfied that the domestic Chinese Medicine practitioners loved Chinese Medicine and were willing to make efforts for the development of Chinese Medicine.

This was what a real Chinese Medicine practitioner needed to do.

Fang Qiu believed.

According to the current situation, Chinese Medicine would get better and better, and it would be recognized by the whole world. It would definitely become a treatment method that all patients had faith in.

Then he looked at the next news.

It was also a report on Chinese Medicine.

In addition to the recognition of Chinese Medicine by foreign countries, there were many stories about Fang Qiu's contribution to Chinese Medicine, as well as the various legends of the predecessors of Chinese Medicine, and so on.

In the past, everyone thought that these articles were boring, but now they were actually being sought after by millions of people. There were at least hundreds of comments on every piece of news.

The discussion about Chinese Medicine on Weibo had been growing increasingly heated.

The whole Chinese Medicine industry was very lively.

After some time...

Seeing the answer he wanted, Fang Qiu put away his phone happily.

He turned to look up at the sky in all directions, looking for the military plane, but he didn't see anything. It seemed that the military plane hadn't arrived yet.

Shaking his head, Fang Qiu looked around again.

Unexpectedly...

When he looked afar...

“Eh?”

Fang Qiu saw a huge shadow in the distant sea.

Just as Fang Qiu looked over...

All of a sudden, a train-like whistle was heard.

At the same time as the sound came, a thick column of water rushed up high from the head of the huge black shadow.

“Brother Blue Whale?”

Fang Qiu grinned.

He recognized the sound.

It was the blue whale. Back then, when he fought Southern Yue, it carried him across the sea and waited for him to return victoriously.

“I didn’t expect to meet an old friend of mine here.”

Fang Qiu smiled knowingly.

Then, he immediately flew out and rushed toward the position where the blue whale was.

Over there...

The blue whale seemed to have noticed Fang Qiu, too.

It immediately let out another earth-shattering whistle, jumped out of the water, and leaped happily.

When the sea surface calmed down a little bit, Fang Qiu arrived.

“Hi Bro, long time no see.”

Fang Qiu stood on the back of the blue whale while laughing. He reached out to pat it, and then said, “Since we’ve met, let’s go side by side again.”

Then...

He stretched out his hand and pointed in the direction of the two underwater mineral resources.

The blue whale immediately swam and headed in the direction that Fang Qiu pointed.

“Bro, since we’re so fated, I’ll do you a favor.”

Fang Qiu patted the big whale and then sat cross-legged on its back. With a wave of his hands, he immediately began to mobilize the Qi of Heaven and Earth under the water and attracted a large group of fish to the blue whale.

The blue whale began to eat fish unceremoniously.

At the same time...

Fang Qiu controlled his internal Qi to pour into the blue whale’s body, constantly helping it wash away all the impurities in its body, even expelling most of the impurities out of its body.

With the help of Fang Qiu, the blue whale swam faster and faster. It felt his body became more and more flexible.

With such feeling...

The blue whale couldn't help but cheer. It kept spraying water to celebrate.

And Fang Qiu continued helping it.

After all, the blue whale was the largest creature in the world. Fang Qiu was not even as big as one of its eyes, so it was not easy to remove all the impurities from its body.

Fortunately...

Fang Qiu could guide the technique to assist him to recover while helping the whale.

And...

This lasted for a few days.

Even Fang Qiu himself didn't know how many days he had been swimming in the sea. Li Ji should have checked Fang Qiu's position and known that Fang Qiu had been approaching the two underwater mines, so he didn't call Fang Qiu.

A few days later...

In the distance, Fang Qiu finally saw a checker-shaped building on the sea.

Medical Master

Chapter 1470: Are You the Primitive Man?

In the Pacific...

It was a sunny day. The surface of the sea was calm, and no strong wind blowing.

The checker-shaped drilling platform looked huge, but compared with the sea, it was tiny. Many people were walking back and forth on it. It seemed that they had started the construction.

The whole platform seemed to have been connected to the bottom of the sea and stabilized. It was no longer swaying with the waves as before.

The distance between the platform and the sea surface was over three meters.

“Uh-huh.”

On the platform, General Will couldn't help but hum proudly when he saw that his men were already preparing to collect the mineral products from the bottom of the sea. He then took out a flat silver wine pot from his pocket, opened the lid, and took a big gulp.

“Huaxia just has a group of cowards!

“Strongly condemn and warn?

“Haha, come and beat me if you have the guts. I'm right here waiting for you!”

After that, he took another big gulp of wine.

In fact, General Will hoped that Huaxia would send for someone over. In that case, he would have a chance to make contributions.

If Huaxia didn't, he could not contribute as great as he imagined if he only finished mining the two mines just like that.

At this time, he needed some difficulties, something that could make the Presidential Palace think that what he was doing was extremely difficult.

However, it's been so many days, but Huaxia had not sent anyone here. He was very unhappy. Almost every day, he was looking forward to seeing someone from Huaxia and then confronted Huaxianese head-on.

However...

Huaxianese just didn't come.

General Will hated it. He hated that he could not speak directly to Huaxia in the sea. Otherwise, he would humiliate Huaxia hard!

After drinking the wine...

General Will looked around and found that there were no planes in the sky. He swore at Huaxia inwardly. Then he turned around and was about to return to his room to rest.

When he turned his head...

Suddenly, a shadow appeared out of the corner of his eye.

"Uh?"

General Will was a little confused when he saw the shadow. He immediately turned to look.

Then...

He found a figure on the sea surface in the distance.

That was right.

It was a man, who was standing on the back of the huge black shadow.

General Will stared at them intently.

The huge black shadow under the man's feet was a huge blue whale.

General Will was immediately stunned at this scene.

He thought, "Is the man driving the blue whale in this direction?"

"The blue whale is the most powerful creature in the world. How could it be controlled so easily by a man?"

"How did this man make it?"

"Who is he?"

"Why does he come here?"

"Is he ... from Huaxia?"

General Will raised his eyebrows and made a rough judgment. He immediately realized that the blue whale and the figure appeared in the direction of Huaxia.

“If you’re not from Huaxia, I must recruit you, such a talent. If you are... I’ll blast you into pieces, along with the whale!”

General Will murmured and then sneered.

As a general, he had seen everything. There were many more shocking scenes in the world of metahumans, so he didn’t panic at all. Instead, he stood where he was and waited.

In the sea...

“Brother Blue Whale, here we are.”

Seeing the equipment of the drilling platform in front of him, Fang Qiu reached out and patted the blue whale on the back. Then he stood up and narrowed his eyes slightly.

It was very far away.

However, Fang Qiu recognized the person standing on the drilling platform.

“It is him again?”

When Fang Qiu saw General Will, he couldn’t help sneering.

“Last time, this guy jumped into the river and escaped from the Amazing Jungle. This time, let me see how he can escape!

“Jumping into the sea?”

The blue whale sped up.

When it was 100 meters away from the mining platform, Fang Qiu squatted down, patted the blue whale on the back, and said, "Brother Blue Whale, leave me here. You can go now. It's very dangerous here. I'll come to you after I solve the problem."

Then...

He tiptoed, leaped, and rushed toward the drilling platform quickly.

At the same time.

"Swoosh!"

The blue whale spurted out a huge water column and made a sound like a train steam whistle. It sounded like it was responding to Fang Qiu. After the water column fell, it turned around and swam quickly toward the distance. Soon, the blue whale disappeared on the sea level.

Back here...

On the drilling platform.

Seeing the man flying over, General Will frowned. He immediately took out a tube of scarlet potion from his trouser pocket and poured it into his mouth.

"Crackle, crackle, crackle..."

As the potion entered his mouth, the muscles on General Will's upper body suddenly began to bulge violently, cracking his whole shirt, and revealing his solid Murican Hercules-like muscles.

"Are you Huaxianese?"

When Fang Qiu landed on the drilling platform, General Will immediately questioned him in a cold voice.

“Isn’t it obvious?”

Fang Qiu replied with a sneer.

“Did Huaxia only send for you here?”

As he asked the question, General Will glanced warily at the sea behind Fang Qiu as well as the sky. After making sure that there was no one else, he sneered disdainfully and said, “What makes you think you can snatch it from me?”

Fang Qiu shrugged indifferently and said, “I’m here to get back what belongs to Huaxia.”

With that...

Fang Qiu moved.

With a whoosh, he rushed straight to General Will like a gust of gale. He waved his right hand and threw a fierce punch at General Will in the chest.

“Courting death!”

General Will snorted and swung his fist to meet the punch.

“Bang!”

There was a loud sound.

The next moment, the strong muscles of General Will suddenly emitted an explosive force and collided with Fang Qiu's fiercely.

But the next moment...

His strong muscles began to tremble, and his whole body was shaken by the huge force bursting from Fang Qiu's fist, and kept stepping backward.

Immediately, General Will became furious.

He didn't expect the man in front of him to be so powerful.

Moreover, he felt a familiar aura from this man.

It seemed like...

He had seen this man somewhere before.

However...

Before General Will could recall anything, Fang Qiu attacked him again and threw another punch at General Will's head.

In a panic...

General Will quickly raised his hands and crossed them in front of his head to block the punch from Fang Qiu.

Although General Will blocked it, his whole body was sent flying by Fang Qiu's punch and smashed heavily on the steel-framed structure on the platform.

“Is it you?”

General Will couldn't feel the pain after taking the potion, so the moment his body fell to the ground, he immediately stood up. He stared at Fang Qiu in shock, and said, “You are the primitive man in the tribe of Southern Murica!”

General Will panicked.

In an instant, a lot of thoughts came to his mind.

From the energy aura bursting from Fang Qiu, General Will was quite sure that the man in front of him was that guy!

However...

The man in front of him was a Huaxianese.

The data of the biological research technology in the secret military base had been taken away by that guy. Could it be this man who had taken away the data? That was to say, the data was taken away by Huaxia!

Thinking of this, General Will was suddenly scared.

He knew that he was not a match for this man, even if he took two tubes of potion, not to mention he just took one tube of potion.

And most importantly...

This man's aura was even stronger than it had been in the primeval jungle of the Amazing Basin.

How was he supposed to fight?

No!

In a rage, Will quickly shook his head. While staring at Fang Qiu, he said to himself, “Run, I have to run. I have to tell everyone this information, and let the Presidential Palace know that all this was done by Huaxia. It’s Huaxia’s scheme. Our confidential information has been taken away by Huaxia!”

“Who the hell are you?”

General Will asked angrily.

“Don’t you know?”

Fang Qiu sneered and rushed toward General Will again.

Seeing that...

General Will didn’t dare to make a move at all.

The combat had just begun, and this man had obviously not used all his strength. If this man had, General Will would have been dead earlier, so he had no choice but to run away.

“Whoosh.”

General Will turned around quickly.

Without hesitation, General Will jumped into the sea directly from the drilling platform.

“Where to escape?”

Fang Qiu immediately chased after General Will.

Fang Qiu's strong internal Qi pushed away the seawater in all directions.

Unexpectedly...

As soon as Fang Qiu entered the sea...

He saw that General Will had just rushed into a jumbo.

It was a slender, missile-like object.

"A submarine?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

As if to cater to General Will, the submarine quickly rose from the bottom of the sea. After General Will entered it, it immediately began to dive rapidly.

It was out of Fang Qiu's expectations.

The Murican army even sent a submarine over. No wonder General Will chose to jump into the sea to escape. It turned out that he had everything prepared.

Just then...

"Whoosh."

A muffled sound of breaking through water was suddenly heard.

Right there...

The moment General Will entered the submarine and Fang Qiu entered the sea, a torpedo suddenly shot out from the submarine and rushed toward Fang Qiu at a very fast speed.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu dodged right away.

The power of the Murica torpedo could not be underestimated, especially when there was no protection at all.

Fang Qiu still remembered it.

He had come into contact with the information about torpedoes in the military base. According to records, Murica had developed a rocket-borne torpedo decades ago. This type of torpedo was powerful and had the functions of automatic search and tracking. It was even equipped with a miniature computer and a navigation device.

In other words...

This torpedo could chase.

Unsurprisingly...

When Fang Qiu dodged, the torpedo made a turn and quickly caught up with him. It was so fast that it could even reach a speed of nearly 100 kilometers per hour.

However...

This speed was not difficult for Fang Qiu to deal with.

After all, Fang Qiu was a guru who had condensed a flower shadow in his Dantian. His speed in the water could reach the speed of 100 kilometers per hour or even higher.

Faced with the pursuit of the torpedo...

Fang Qiu directly chased after the submarine without hesitation, trying to lead the torpedo to the submarine.

Just then...

“Whoosh.”

Another sound of breaking through water was heard.

A shock wave came through the water flow. The other torpedo burst out from the submarine, aimed at Fang Qiu, and rushed over from another direction, trying to stop Fang Qiu from escaping.

It was a pity.

Fang Qiu was so flexible that he rushed out from another direction, leaving the two torpedoes behind. Then he continued to rush toward the submarine.
