Chapter 1621 The Number One Killer Is Also in the Flower Core Formation Realm?!

“How did he block it?”

In the distance, a man in white was utterly integrated with the dazzling snow on all sides. He was lying on his stomach under a pile of snow. A stone nearly covered by the snow was a cover for his sneak attack. His face suddenly changed when he saw John Doe blocking the arrows with his arm.

It was hard to believe that a bare hand could block his arrows.

In his opinion, this was simply impossible.

It was the first time for him to kill an expert at the SS level, but he could easily slay an S-plus expert with only one arrow, not to mention his arrow strikes were getting increasingly stronger.

He had sent his three most powerful arrow attacks to hit John Doe.

The first arrow could kill an S-plus expert. Then, how could John Doe intercept the third arrow with his arm?

In an instant...

The assassin couldn't help but shiver all over.

He was clear that...

He couldn't complete this mission.

He shot out three arrows in a row but failed to finish off the target. All possible means and ways had been tried.

“Swoosh.”

Without the slightest hesitation...

As an idea came to his mind, the man immediately jumped up from the snow and fled quickly into the distance.

For him...

He had received half of the reward.

With 2.5 billion dollars, he could live comfortably for a few lifetimes. As long as he could escape from John Doe today, he could find a place to hide his identity and live as a normal person again!

Here...

“Clack!”

Fang Qiu grabbed the arrow that had pierced his right arm with his left hand. Abruptly, he pulled the arrow that was stuck between two bones. Then he immediately moved his internal Qi and completely wrapped the wound with it. By doing so, he intended to stop the bleeding and nourish his injury.

“Damned.”

The moment Fang Qiu pulled out the arrow, his face became extremely gloomy, and he cursed loudly. Instantly, he leaped up and chased after the fleeing figure furiously.

Before him...

The killer, who had been flying away, looked back and saw John Doe chasing after him quickly. His face immediately changed dramatically.

He did well in lying in ambush and attacking instead of confronting the enemy head-on.

Not to mention that...

He fought with his bow and arrow. If John Doe caught up with him, he would be no match for him at all.

Here...

“Lingyin!”

Staring at the figure fleeing wildly before him, Fang Qiu bellowed, “You can’t escape!”

Before him...

The attacker narrowed his eyes, revealing a complicated expression.

They could do nothing about it.

His weapon was too easy to identify.

Fang Qiu had never seen him before. But after killing Thomas ranked second in the world, Fang Qiu secretly paid attention to the situation on the World Killer List. From many other aspects, he learned many things about Lingyin, the world’s top killer.

It was because Lingyin’s assassination methods were rather unique. He was the only killer in the world who used bows and arrows.

In this era of high technology, Lingyin made a name for himself with his bow and arrow and became the world-recognized king of killers.

He used bows and arrows because he was a Huaxianese.

Fang Qiu once thought that...

Ruan Shibei, the general in Southern Yue, had sent someone to assassinate Fang Qiu. In his mind, Lingyin rejected his invitation, so Ruan Shibei asked Thomas to do it. But this situation was like a smack in Fang Qiu's face.

He had thought Huaxia people were united and were glad to help each other. In the face of foreign and external forces, they should work in unison and stand on the same side.

But he didn't expect that...

Murica and Huaxia were competing against each other and striving for a decisive victory. So, Fang Qiu thought this Huaxianese was trustworthy. How could he assassinate him at this most critical moment?

"Why?"

Fang Qiu was furious.

"They were all Huaxianese. Why would Lingyin turn against him?"

Fang Qiu had a clear mind.

Lingyin was the best killer in the world, so he would never reveal any information even if Fang Qiu caught up with him and interrogated him. But Fang Qiu had already guessed it.

It was Murica.

It could only be Murica.

Why would Lingyin accept Murica's employment?

No matter what the answer was, Fang Qiu was filled with righteous indignation!

"Swoosh!"

Full of anger, Fang Qiu lunged forward in an instant.

In less than a minute...

Fang Qiu caught up with Lingyin.

"My mission has failed. Why must you catch up with me?"

Knowing he couldn't run away, Lingyin stopped running at a relatively flat place. He turned to stare at Fang Qiu and said, "My purpose is to kill you, but I can't. My task is completed. If you let me go, I will never reappear in the world from today on."

"Who sent you here?"

Fang Qiu asked.

"You have already known the answer, so why bother asking?"

Lingyin shook his head.

“Why would you work for them?”

Fang Qiu questioned angrily.

“You’re too young to understand it.”

Lingyin couldn’t help but smile. Shaking his head, he asked, “Why couldn’t I take the job from them?”

Fang Qiu’s face fell.

Lingyin was a Huaxianese. He didn’t expect him to say something like that.

But...

Pondering on it, he realized he had thought too highly of him. After all, Lingyin from Huaxia was not an ordinary person but a killer.

“Make your move.”

Fang Qiu said in a cold voice, “You are a Huaxianese. I’ll give you a chance to die with dignity!”

“Ridiculous.”

Lingyin shook his head with a sneer and said, “One of your arms is useless now. How could you fight with me?”

“Even with one hand, I can kill you with ease.”

Fang Qiu announced.

“Is that so?”

Lingyin took a deep breath, shook his head, and said, “I wanted to stop after this deal. Since you repeatedly force me to take action, don’t blame me!”

As he spoke...

“Boom!”

A burst of powerful energy Qi suddenly surged out of his body, spreading fast in all directions.

“Humph!”

Fang Qiu snorted and rushed straight up.

There...

Lingyin waved his right hand.

As he turned his wrist, the rosewood longbow in his hand triggered a hidden gear. It quickly rotated a few times and turned into a weapon similar to a stick.

This weapon was wrapped by close and fine bowstrings. Taking them as blades, he waved his hand and smashed them against Fang Qiu fiercely.

Fang Qiu’s hand grabbed in the air.

When he rushed and approached the man, the divine sword instantly materialized in his hand.

“Whiz!”

The sound of the sword rang out.

As Fang Qiu wielded his arm, the long sword cut down with extremely sharp energy Qi and violently collided with the weapon turned by the longbow in his hand.

“Clank!”

With a sudden vibrating sound...

Surprisingly, the divine sword in the hand of Fang Qiu was knocked back.

Crashed against the divine sword, the weapon Lingyin held remained intact. Even these close bowstrings were not cut off.

No wonder Lingyin would use this bow as a weapon...

The divine sword was knocked back, but the huge force Fang Qiu placed on the divine sword burst out and instantly sent Lingyin flying.

At this moment...

“Swoosh!”

As Lingyin was pushed back, he suddenly turned around and fled quickly into the distance without hesitation.

Without hesitating, Fang Qiu chased after him.

In an instant, he narrowed the distance between him and Lingyin.

“Don’t push me!”

Lingyin growled out a warning.

“You can’t escape!”

Fang Qiu said with a gloomy face.

When Lingyin heard it...

He abruptly turned around.

“You’re courting death!”

After a roar furious to the extreme, Lingyin aggressively let off a scary flow of Qi power much more robust than before.

From his Qi power...

Fang Qiu was surprised that Lingyin’s strength had reached the SS level!

“Flower Core Formation Realm?”

Fang Qiu’s face darkened.

Against all his expectations...

Lingyin turned out to be an expert in the Flower Core Formation Realm!

“You’ve been hiding your strength this entire time?”

Fang Qiu asked, raising his eyebrows.

“Don’t pressure me.”

Lingyin seemed to have become a changed person. His face full of anger, he stared at Fang Qiu and said, “You forced me to do this. Everyone knowing my real strength must die!”

With this...

With indomitable Qi power, he suddenly darted toward Fang Qiu. The strange weapon in his hand erupted a stream of domineering force, vehemently smashing against Fang Qiu’s right hand.

It seemed that...

He was going to rain blows on Fang Qiu’s wound!

Opposite him...

“Just right.”

Fang Qiu took a deep breath and immediately waved his sword to resist.

“Clank, clank, clank...”

The sounds of violent collisions rang out.

Fang Qiu was accustomed to using his right hand but was also very familiar with his left hand. In fact, he was very proficient in utilizing his left hand.

After all, he used his left hand often.

In the fierce collision, the two of them exchanged hundreds of moves in less than three minutes!

But...

When they collided with each other...

Fang Qiu was surprised to find that Lingyin's strength and speed had only increased to the early stage of the Flower Core Formation Realm. Seemingly, it was because he had just broken through to this state.

There...

Lingyin also noticed this.

Just as Fang Qiu had thought...

Indeed, he had just reached the Flower Core Formation Realm a year ago. In the past two years, he had not taken any job. That was why countless people waiting for him to solve problems couldn't find him.

After the successful breakthrough, he spent over a year stabilizing his strength. During this period, he was utterly cut off from the outside world.

Now, because he had stabilized his power, he reappeared in the world, ready to retire after accomplishing a big order.

But surprisingly...

He got a big order soon.

At first, he didn't want to take the job because he didn't want to attack any Huaxianese during this sensitive period. Therefore, he asked for a huge 5 billion-dollar reward from Murica. It was a prohibitive price for him, not to mention other killers in the killer circle. In his opinion, such a deal at the cost of 5 billion dollars was unacceptable for all.

To his great surprise, Murica accepted it.

More than that, they promptly agreed.

Even more surprising, they transferred 2.5 billion dollars to his bank card within 15 minutes after the call ended.

Since he had taken their money...

He had to do it. Otherwise, his reputation would be ruined entirely.

Helplessly...

He had no choice but to attack John Doe.

When he failed to shoot John Doe to death, he planned to leave. However, he didn't expect John Doe to catch up with him.

He kept the strength of the Flower Core Formation Realm to save his life at critical moments.

But...

In the collision with John Doe, he found that John Doe was no weaker than him, even if he had lost one hand. Whether in terms of strength or speed, John Doe was better than him.

The more he fought, the more flustered he became.

He didn't want to die. He had even prepared a way out: he bought a tract of land in the countryside and was building a house there.

He didn't want to die. Never would he die here!

Chapter 1622 What's Going On?!

“Aargh!!!”

With a crazy roar, Lingyin desperately burst out all the Qi power in his body, regardless of his safety. With an invincible force, he rushed toward Fang Qiu in full fury.

He was clear that...

He couldn't run away.

To survive, he had to kill John Doe at all costs.

If John Doe's right hand had not been wounded, he would never have had a chance to do that. But since his right hand was injured, he could only use one hand. This situation gave him great hope. He felt he could slaughter John Doe and leave Hemalaya Mountain alive!

Opposite him...

“Alas...”

Fang Qiu sighed softly.

Fang Qiu got ready to confront him as Lingyin, full of energy Qi, charged at him. In the meantime, he gathered and concentrated all the internal Qi into the divine sword he gripped in his left hand.

Yes, his right hand was too seriously injured to move, but his internal Qi did not decrease because of that.

At their high level, their internal Qi instead of their physical strength determined the battle's outcome!

At this thought...

“Great Hand of Destruction-Forming a Sword!”

There followed a furious roar...

The moment he brandished the divine sword, the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth immediately surged over. Led by his internal Qi, Fang Qiu ran all of it into his divine sword.

Afterward...

As Fang Qiu slashed his sword down...

The incomparably overbearing energy filled the divine sword and suddenly broke free from it. Then it condensed into a ray of dazzling sword Qi of energy before Fang Qiu.

With incomparable Qi power, it instantly sprayed out and collided fiercely with the weapon in Lingyin's hand that was transformed from a longbow.

“Boom!”

There was a loud bang.

Lingyin didn't seem to have the slightest intention of bearing the blow head-on. The moment before they bumped against each other, he immediately flew backward. By the force of the explosion, he withdrew quickly.

As soon as he pulled away, he controlled the energy and concentrated it on the longbow. Like this, a sharp arrow formed, darting out in an unusual direction. It bypassed the beam of brilliant sword light before him and shot out fast. From a crafty angle, it was fired straight at the heart of John Doe!

Here...

“Humph.”

Fang Qiu moved. While dodging, he infused the Qi of Heaven and Earth more rapidly.

The beam of sword light instantly shone on Lingyin, and its speed and power increased sharply.

“Huh?”

Lingyin's face darkened.

Instantly, he raised his bow with both hands to block it.

But the next moment...

“Clack!”

With a sudden vibrating sound...

The longbow grasped in his hands in front of his body was cut in half by the dazzling sword light.

The sword light pierced through his chest in a split second.

It left a very deep and smooth cut in him.

“You, I, I...”

Pointing at John Doe, Lingyin looked at the longbow broken in half in his hand. Then, he looked down at the blood streaks on his chest. With a blank face, he fell from mid-air and plunged into the thick layer of snow.

Aside...

Fang Qiu also stopped.

In fact, before he used this move, he simply wanted to pin down Lingyin for the time being.

Unexpectedly...

Lingyin was overly nervous and madly tried to fight a way out. As a result, he exposed such a huge flaw in this high-level battle.

Perhaps, it was because he had never fought against an SS-level expert. He had no idea how lethal each move an SS-level expert released could be!

Even before his death...

He didn't understand why John Doe could exert so much power in one sword strike.

“Phew...”

Fang Qiu let out a long breath.

As Lingyin fell into the snow, he didn't look at him in the first place. Instead, he quickly raised his head and glanced at these mountain peaks among the Hemalaya Mountains.

No one came down from there. Making sure of this, he breathed a soft sigh of relief.

In fact...

Fang Qiu had been worried about something.

Upon returning to Huaxia, Fang Qiu received a message from Li Ji. In addition, Steven had disclosed his approximate location on the underground-force forum. Therefore, Fang Qiu clearly knew Steven was now on Hemalaya Mountain.

And Fang Qiu was injured by a sneak attack.

Luckily, Fang Qiu was not found by Steven when fighting fiercely against Lingyin. Otherwise, if Steven made a move when Fang Qiu was hurt, Fang Qiu would be in danger.

Fortunately, Lingyin got into a panic. With this chance, Fang Qiu quickly ended the battle.

But it was a pity that...

A Huaxia expert achieving Flower Core Formation died!

But Fang Qiu thought back on it carefully...

How could Lingyin make such a choice? He chose to help Murica fight against his country. What was he thinking?

Full of doubts, Fang Qiu flew to Lingyin. When making sure that Lingyin was dead, he moved the longbow broken in half in his hand onto the snow nearby and took out his mobile phone, taking a picture of him. Then, with a wave of his hand, he turned his internal Qi into flames and burnt Lingyin's body into ashes.

After he finished doing all these things...

Fang Qiu left the place quickly while logging into the underground-force forum with his mobile phone. He directly posted the photo he had just taken onto the forum.

As soon as the photo was published...

Every user of the forum was stunned.

“What does it mean?”

“Isn't this the weapon of Lingyin, the world's top killer? How could it be broken? And it is placed on the snow. What's going on?”

“Could it be that John Doe killed the world’s top killer Lingyin?”

“It doesn’t feel right. They bore no grudges against each other. There’s no need for them to fight.”

“Wasn’t Lingyin from Huaxia? Was this an internal strife among Huaxianese?”

At this time...

Everyone began to discuss heatedly.

Before long, the photo was spread to Huaxia.

When the high-level officials of Huaxia saw this photo...

They were all dumbfounded.

They all knew this bow was Lingyin’s weapon. But why would John Doe expose such a photo? Why would Lingyin’s bow be broken?

In confusion...

These high-ranking Huaxia leaders immediately ordered to contact John Doe.

With the order, Li Ji immediately called John Doe.

On the Hemalaya Mountain...

After slaying Lingyin, Fang Qiu strenuously searched for a long time on the high mountain. Finally, he found an ice cave densely packed with icicles like stalactites in karst caves.

He checked around with his Divine Consciousness and made sure that there was nothing wrong with the cave. Only then did Fang Qiu enter it. He found a hidden place and sat down cross-legged, ready to heal.

As soon as he sat down...

“Beep, beep, beep...”

The cell phone in his pants suddenly rang.

He took it out and had a look.

It was a call from Li Ji.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu immediately answered the phone.

“What’s going on over there? What does the photo you sent mean?”

Li Ji asked directly.

“I was ambushed.”

Fang Qiu said, “Not long after I entered Hemalaya Mountain, I met the sneak attack of Lingyin, the world’s top killer. I didn’t expect him to have achieved the Flower Core Formation Realm.”

“What?”

Hearing what Fang Qiu said, Li Ji was greatly shocked and hurriedly asked, "How are you now?"

"Nothing serious."

With a nod, Fang Qiu said, "When I came across his surprise attack, I was slightly injured. Nothing else happened, but I killed Lingyin."

"Well done."

Li Ji said, "This guy should have died long ago. It could be said that he is not Huaxianese. We never recognize him as one of us either!"

"Why?"

Immediately, Fang Qiu asked, "Why would he help Murica deal with me?"

"I'll tell you about it in detail later. Would your injury be a problem?"

Li Ji asked.

"Don't worry. It'll recover soon."

Fang Qiu assured him.

"Okay, I have to report this matter as soon as possible. Contact me in the first place if anything happens."

Li Ji reminded him.

"Mm."

Fang Qiu nodded knowingly and hung up the phone.

There...

Right after the call, Li Ji dialed a number to report to the leader in charge of this matter. As the phone was connected, he told the leader all the information he got from Fang Qiu.

In the conference room somewhere...

“What happened?”

When the leader hung up the phone, the others in the conference room couldn't help asking.

“Lingyin is dead.”

The leader, questioned by others, said, “John Doe killed him!”

In the conference room...

Everyone was stunned at first, but they didn't feel too surprised. Instead, they continued to look at the leader in confusion, waiting for his explanation.

“I was surprised to learn that Lingyin was a guru of Flower Core Formation!”

Under everyone's puzzled gaze, the leader said, “According to the information from John Doe, Lingyin had broken through and became a guru of Flower Core Formation, but he had been hiding his strength. If it hadn't been for the great pressure from John Doe, he wouldn't have been willing to exert his real strength.”

“It’s good that he died.”

Another leader said without pity, “Blinded by interests, he betrayed our country and became a running dog of Murica. Since then, I had been looking forward to his early death all the time. There should be no such scum in Huaxia. Today, we finally get rid of him with John Doe’s help!”

The other high-level leaders nodded, but they were also sighing.

“If he hadn’t made a mistake back then, such a tragedy wouldn’t have happened today. He only got himself to blame because he cared too much about his interests.”

“He was such a talent. What a pity.”

“Since ancient times, no killer could get a good end. It’s already a blessing for him to be killed by a Huaxianese.”

...

Hemalaya Mountain...

In the depths of a frozen cave...

After hanging up the phone, Fang Qiu immediately examined his injury. The wound was very deep, but fortunately, it did not hurt his opened meridians. Although his bone suffered a heavy blow and was cracked, it was not a big deal. He could use his internal Qi to forcibly activate his bone’s essence, making it heal the bone in a short time.

However...

When checking the bone, Fang Qiu found that his flesh and wound nourished by his internal Qi recovered very slowly. It seemed to be a little different from ordinary injuries.

This problem should be caused by the arrow.

Fortunately, it was non-toxic.

After the examination...

Fang Qiu immediately closed his eyes to rest. He began to heal himself at ease after releasing his Divine Consciousness to guard against any danger in the surroundings.

As for these people in Huaxia...

When these higher-ups learned about Lingyin's death, they felt mixed feelings. A while later, they were in a towering rage.

This ambush was on Fang Qiu's way to join the decisive battle.

There were only two days before the battle began.

How could Lingyin assault and attack John Doe at this time?

Who the hell was behind Lingyin?

Although they already knew the answer, these higher-ups still arranged for people to investigate this matter in the first place. No matter what, they had to find evidence!

Chapter 1623 They Just Wouldn't Admit It!

Through the survey...

It didn't take long for Huaxia to find crucial evidence. The people who instigated Lingyin to do evil were none other than Muricans.

The high-level officials of Huaxia had already known that Murica did it, but they couldn't lose their temper before they found any evidence. Now that they had evidence, they must question these Muricans.

In a rage...

The high-level officials of Huaxia presented a note to Murica.

They sent a letter and made it public that Murica must give Huaxia an explanation.

“We welcome Murica to challenge Huaxia at any time, but isn't it too shameless to do such a despicable thing in such a mean way?”

Soon...

Media reporters gave massive coverage to the news that Huaxia presented a note to Murica.

As various news reports appeared...

The whole world soon paid close attention to it.

No one understood why Huaxia wanted an explanation from Murica.

What dirty things had Murica done?

The whole world was confused.

Just as everyone was following this matter...

On the underground-force forum...

A post that disclosed the inside story quietly emerged.

“The world’s top killer Lingyin launched a surprise attack against John Doe and injured him. As the world’s top assassin, Lingyin has been hiding his strength. His real strength was at the SS level. Notably, the country hiring the top killer to sneak attack John Doe has been advertising itself as the vanguard of democracy and freedom!”

Not long after this post appeared...

It went viral. Because of the large number of viewers, the post was placed on the forum’s front page. Since then, it attracted more people’s attention.

At the sight of this post...

On the underground-force forum...

Countless people began to discuss it heatedly.

“No wonder!”

“So that’s why John Doe published that photo?”

“The longbow of Lingyin, the world’s top killer, was broken. It fell into the snow and was photographed by John Doe. Finally, we knew why all of this would happen.”

“Lingyin achieved the SS level?”

“A country known as the vanguard of democracy and freedom? Isn’t it Murica?”

“Now, it seems that only Murica has been opposed to Huaxia. Besides, it was a sneak attack on Hemalaya Mountain. Lingyin must have received some inside information. Otherwise, how could he know where John Doe would appear?”

“What the fuck. How could Murica do such a thing?”

“What bare-faced cheek! They repeatedly provoked John Doe. Beyond that, even after John Doe took the challenge, they secretly found the world’s top killer to assassinate John Doe. How much Murica wanted John Doe dead?”

“It was an act of disgrace. How could this be the demeanor of a major power? It is as disgraceful as thieves and rascals.”

“Even I become furious at the news, not to mention Huaxia. How could Murica do such a thing?”

“It must give Huaxia an explanation!”

“Yes, Murica must give Huaxia an explanation!”

“I suddenly feel those Huaxianese who occupied the forum with a single message less hateful. Anyway, they are right. Murica is shameless and utter trash!”

At this time...

In the entire underground-force forum...

Everyone began to condemn Murica.

Even the people of underground forces or evildoers living in the darkness of the whole world felt Murica was shameless in doing this. This time, it lost its grand demeanor of a major power.

Of course...

While they were condemning Murica...

They didn't forget the main point of this post exposing the news: John Doe was injured!

"It seems John Doe has killed Lingyin, the world's top killer. Notably, Lingyin was at the SS level and fully prepared for the ambush. Despite the adverse condition, John Doe killed Lingyin. This is enough to prove John Doe's unparalleled strength."

"It's too bad that John Doe is still injured."

"These Muricans are excessively shameless. How could they disturb John Doe in this way?"

"John Doe is now injured. But there is only one day left before the appointed date of the battle Steven mentioned in the invitation. What should he do with the battle in one day?"

"Could John Doe survive this?"

"In any case, John Doe has become world famous. He finished off three super experts at the SS level in a row. Then, with injuries, he competed against Steven, whose personal strength was the number three in the world. The courage and unyielding integrity John Doe showed have surpassed most people worldwide."

"John Doe's courage deeply touches me. I want to support John Doe now. In my mind, he is a hero!"

"I don't know if John Doe can survive this and participate in the battle."

“Normally, such a critical battle should be postponed.”

“We have to postpone it.”

“These Muricans won’t agree. Their purpose in doing such despicable things is to weaken John Doe’s strength. This way, they can successfully kill John Doe in the battle!”

“Muricans are fucking cunning and shameless!”

...

Huaxia...

In Laozi Relic...

As the news spread widely on the underground-force forum, people in Huaxia soon spread the news to the Wulin online forum.

Because He Gaoming had an account at the underground-force forum, he saw the news before these masters in Wulin.

These brothers watched it with He Gaoming.

“Damn it. These foreigners are shameless. Go to hell!”

“How dare they launch a sneak attack against the oldest. Shame on them!”

“Is Murica shameless enough to do such a thing openly now?”

“These Muricans are more than shameless hypocrites. Murica is the very incarnation of evil!”

“This has nothing to do with these civilians. These high-level officials of Murica are disgusting.”

“This bunch of Muricans have done many sinister things against the oldest. How could we sit here and watch?”

“Anyway, I can’t stand it anymore. I will find the oldest and guard him against those bastards in Murica!”

The group of people were furious.

While they cursed...

Everyone got up, ready to support John Doe on Hemalaya Mountain.

As a result...

Just as they were about to set off, someone from the Sword Sect came to stop them.

“You can’t go.”

A Sword Sect guru stopped He Gaoming and the others and said, “At this critical period, you should calm down. This is not a problem that you can go there and solve. On the contrary, if you go there, you will make things more difficult for John Doe!”

“But...”

The few brothers were so angry that they didn’t know what to say.

“Forget about it.”

The Sword Sect guru said, “If you go there first, Murica will use you to intimidate and threaten John Doe. It was already tough for John Doe to handle everything alone. We know you can hardly wait to help him, but do you think John Doe will watch you die?”

“John Doe has true and natural feelings toward his friends and comrades. He will never sit by when you are in danger. Once you go there, Murica might use or detain you. At that time, John Doe would have no choice but to lose the battle to Steven and Murica. He might not even stay alive. Do you understand?”

After his detailed analyses of the situation...

All the brothers were stunned.

Indeed...

Everyone knew very well how well John Doe treated his brothers.

The scenes that John Doe helped them flashed before their eyes in turns.

That was right.

John Doe brought them back to cultivate them. He sincerely regarded them as his brothers. But what about them?

Because of them, John Doe had to deal with many more things and appear on the battlefields everywhere.

What was the original intention of these brothers?

At this moment, all the brothers remembered that their original intention was to follow John Doe and assist him in carrying through his plan.

Along the way...

They had been holding John Doe back.

They felt too shameful to be his brothers.

“Go back!”

He Gaoming gritted his teeth and said, “Go back and cultivate hard. I’ll beat anyone who dares to be careless!”

When these brothers heard that...

They silently turned around and returned to their cultivation place.

“Hand over your phones.”

He Gaoming took away everyone’s mobile phones.

“Go to cultivate!”

After gathering all their phones, He Gaoming barked out an order.

Everyone immediately sat cross-legged and closed their eyes to cultivate.

Here...

As more and more people joined in condemning Murica, these Muricans could no longer sit idly by and do nothing. Immediately, they stepped out to deny it.

“Huaxia is trying to frame us for John Doe. We have never done such a thing. John Doe has provoked lots of people and killed people from countries like Anglan, L’hexagone, Deburg, Nihon, Italyy, Rashk, and Koreea. He is an enemy of the whole world. Why do you think we are behind this?”

This time...

People on the underground-force forum were burning with rage.

“They are shameless. More than that, they are so brazen that they don’t even dare to admit what they have done. They are so unscrupulous.”

“How could you deny it? Why would the world’s top killer know he could ambush John Doe on Hemalaya Mountain? How could he know the way John Doe would take? Murica disclosed all the information to him.”

“That’s right. Only Muricans and John Doe know where the duel will take place. Who else could it be but you?”

Everyone began to criticize him.

Soon...

Murica responded again.

“Anyway, we didn’t do it. We disdain to do such despicable things. You can say whatever you want. Anyway, we have never done such a thing!”

Everyone saw the reply.

How dare Murica be so stubborn and reluctant to admit its mistakes?

At this time...

Everyone on the underground-force forum couldn’t help getting angry.

No one had expected it.

How could Murica be so shameless?

In this case...

The magnificent image of Murica in the minds of people from all over the world was severely tarnished.

In the past...

Murica had many supporters because Muricans were courageous enough to do anything. They would start a battle at will without considering the opinions of others. As long as Murica wanted to do anything, they would not care about what others thought of them and do it. They said, “Might is right.”

But now...

Obviously, Murica began to fear the rising Huaxia.

Not only was Murica afraid of Huaxia, but it also used such dirty means. After using this nasty trick, it didn't even dare to admit it. It was even more disgusting than a vulgar small country!

Many people saw this news, including users of the underground-force forum and those in small and medium-sized countries. When they saw Murica's ugly act, they all secretly criticized it.

"Isn't it the world's top major power? Since it has done such a thing, it should have the guts to admit it, right?"

"I didn't expect Murica to be such a coward. It doesn't have the courage to admit what it dared to do."

"Such indecent behavior is simply too shameful."

"Murica seems to be quite afraid of Huaxia. In terms of metahumans' strength, Murica is not comparable to Huaxia."

"It doesn't dare to admit it. Perhaps, it is because Murica doesn't know how to explain it to Huaxia, right?"

"In comparison, Huaxia is honest and generous."

"In the future, I must stay away from this world-leading country. Otherwise, it might attack us before we notice the danger!"

Chapter 1624 Gathering From All Sides

As these people despised Murica furiously...

More people paid particular attention to the super battle at Hemalaya Mountain! After all, John Doe's injury made the result even more unpredictable!

Among those who cared about this battle...

Many people hoped that John Doe could win, but many others didn't.

Those who hoped that John Doe would win were Huaxianese, supporters of Huaxia and John Doe, and those who despised Muica's despicable action. Those who didn't want John Doe to win were small countries that followed and flattered Murica. It was a pity that they couldn't even see the situation clearly.

Of course...

Many of them hated John Doe and hoped that John Doe would die in the battle on the snow mountain.

In this case...

Although Steven had not published the specific location of the decisive battle, many countries and forces sent their expert to watch it.

After all...

In any case, this battle would be the last one.

No matter what, they had to grasp the exact details of this battle. With the critical information, they could think about which side they should support.

Many countries had begun to look down on Murica from the bottom of their hearts.

But...

After all, Murica was the most powerful country in the world now. The only country that could compare with it in decades was Huaxia.

Now...

When the two superpowers were competing against each other, they had to pay attention to every detail and carefully choose the country they would support. Once they chose the wrong side, it would be difficult for them to develop in the future.

Therefore, even if they looked down on Murica, many small and medium-sized countries could only helplessly wait for the final result of the battle.

Murica...

In a very secret conference room...

“Humph.”

The group of senior officials of Murica denied they had paid Lingyin a huge sum of money to assassinate John Doe before the battle. At this time, they couldn't help sneering in this conference room.

“There is no evidence to prove that we hired Lingyin. Even if they know it, what can they do? If they can't provide evidence, they can't do anything to us!”

“This time, John Doe will die for sure!”

“The best killer in the world is barely useful, but isn't 2.5 billion dollars a little too much?”

“It's just 2.5 billion dollars. As long as John Doe can die, it's worth spending 5 or even 10 billion Murica dollars!”

“That’s right. The current situation is very unfavorable to John Doe. There is Qingyun before John Doe. It will be troublesome if John Doe wins this battle and stays alive.”

“So John Doe must die. We can’t let him live and occupy the dominant position with Qingyun. If so, Huaxia would become the world’s strongest force on the surface. At that time, many countries would turn to Huaxia. We couldn’t stop the rise of Huaxia!”

“We can’t let this happen. This is related to the future development of our country. We can’t let Huaxia be great again!”

Right now...

Somewhere in Huaxia...

A figure appeared on the horizon, floating very high in the sky and quickly flying to the west.

And wherever he passed...

In the sky tens of thousands of miles above, abnormal visions emerged one after another.

There...

The sunglow in the sky and the clouds flowing with the wind seemed to have formed a sword shadow. Under the rays of sunlight, the clouds appeared particularly eye-catching.

At a glance...

What a grand and shocking scene.

In the sky...

A plane just happened to pass by this area.

Seeing the clouds and magnificent beams of radiating sunshine, everyone on the plane couldn't help exclaiming.

...

Himalaya Mountain...

The seconds ticked by...

People from all over the world came one after another.

They didn't know the exact location. But upon arrival, the people of every country and every force went straight up the mountain without hesitation, looking for the battlefield.

Anyway, this decisive battle was not open to the public.

As long as they located Steven, they found the precise location of the battle.

At this time...

Countless people began to search for John Doe and Steven in Himalaya Mountains.

The range of Himalaya Mountains was very long and large.

But...

Many metahumans were searching around this vast area.

Steven's location was exposed in the end.

When the first person found Steven, there was no one else around. He panicked when facing Steven alone.

At once, he sent Steven's location to the underground-force forum.

When the people of the major forces got the exact location...

They rushed over one after another.

Soon...

A great many people came to Steven's place.

It was a relatively flat mountain peak at a very high altitude. It was taller than most of the other mountains. There was even a sea of clouds around it.

The temperature fell well below freezing. Even metahumans and experts felt cold.

At this time...

Steven, dressed in a white suit, was sitting on the flat place at the peak. He was on the edge near the sea of clouds, resting with his eyes closed.

He sensed that many people were coming, but he remained untouched.

Just like that, he rested with his eyes closed.

He was waiting for John Doe.

Around...

More and more people arrived.

Everyone began to discuss in a low voice.

“Isn’t this place too cold?”

“How did Steven find this place?”

“Will it be the final battle 10,000 meters above the ground?”

“Fortunately, it’s at the top of the mountain. If it were somewhere else, an avalanche would happen at the very beginning of this battle.”

“Everyone, we have to watch out. Otherwise, an avalanche might take you away.”

“He deserves to be the No. 3 super expert in the world. How could he cultivate in such a place?”

“I heard Steven has been cultivating here for a long time.”

“There’s not sufficient energy here. What’s the benefit of cultivating here?”

“It is because Steve is an ice-type remarkable talent!”

“What?”

“This is too unfair to John Doe. As an ice-type remarkable talent, Steven chose this place for the duel. John Doe is at a disadvantage here, even before the battle. How could Steven do this?”

“Yes. In this place, Steven has natural advantages. Maybe John Doe doesn’t know Steven is an ice-type remarkable talent at all!”

“It seems impossible for John Doe to escape his doom this time.”

Everyone was talking about it. They revealed the information they got to each other. Meanwhile, they kept getting information that they didn’t know from others.

However...

Just as everyone was discussing in whispers...

“Swoosh.”

The sound of something breaking through the air came fast.

Everyone looked in the direction of the sound.

There...

A dazzling streak of green light burst through the clouds and rushed straight to the top of the mountain.

With a closer look...

Everyone was surprised to see a woman.

It was a woman dressed in a red ancient Roma costume.

“It’s her?”

“The Goddess of Wisdom, Gaia!”

“She is the No. 10 expert at the SS level in the World’s Individual Strength Ranking List!”

“I heard many people from Roma Shrine died in the competition for the ruins of Huaxia. Is Gaia here to make trouble for John Doe?”

“She is awesome but is not as powerful as Ballor. Since John Doe could even kill Ballor, how could she give John Doe problems?”

“Then, is she here to watch the battle or sound out John Doe’s strength?”

Everyone whispered to each other.

Nevertheless, Gaia did not care at all what people were saying. After rushing to the top of the mountain, she found a place and stand still, ready to watch the battle.

Well...

The people around never stopped whispering.

Suddenly, another sound of something piercing through the air flashed past them.

Everyone quickly turned their heads to look.

There...

Another figure broke through the clouds and came to the top of the mountain.

“The Hunter?”

“Barfros?”

“Why is he here too?”

“Today is a gathering of outstanding talents?”

“What a surprise. Gaia the Goddess of Wisdom ranked tenth came here, and so did Barfros the Hunter ranked ninth in the individual strength ranking list.”

There...

After breaking through the sea of clouds, Barfros glanced at the peak. His eyes paused for a moment on Steven and Gaia. Then he set off with an indifferent look and went in another direction. There he settled down and waited for the battle to begin with everyone else.

As the two people arrived, everyone couldn't help sizing them up.

But...

More ear-splitting sounds came through the air before everyone could see enough of them.

This time, more than one figure appeared.

Two people showed up.

Two figures broke through the clouds from two completely different directions.

At a glance...

Not only these onlookers, but even Gaia the Goddess of Wisdom and Barfros the Hunter, who had just arrived, narrowed their eyes in shock.

The next moment...

Cries of surprise came from the crowd.

“Wolf King?”

“Wolf King from Sovieth? The No. 4 in the World’s Individual Strength Ranking List?”

Amidst shouts of surprise...

A man with a naked upper body came into sight. He had a layer of body hair on him, and his chest hair was very bushy. He looked exceptionally tall and sturdy.

He exuded an incredibly majestic Qi power as if he were the king of the world.

His overwhelming Qi power alone was enough to intimidate most people on the scene. Their faces changed in shock.

On the other side...

A figure appeared before everyone.

It was a monk.

A monk wore a bamboo hat and Hinndu clothing.

“Secular Buddha, Vicas!”

“He’s also here?”

“Is he Vicas, the Secular Buddha whose personal strength is seventh in the world?”

“Almost all the top ten figures in the World’s Individual Strength Ranking List have come, right?”

“I wonder if Qingyun will come.”

“With John Doe and Steven, this can be regarded as the gathering of the most powerful people in the world.”

The crowd couldn’t stop discussing animatedly.

Meanwhile...

Vicas the Secular Buddha and Wolf King exchanged a glance. Then, each of them found an empty place and stood there quietly, waiting for the battle to begin.

After that...

At the foot of the mountain, many more people were going up.

And even...

Led by their commander, members of the Black Mamba Mercenaries came directly from Zhongdong and brought everyone to the mountaintop.

Because John Doe had done them a favor...

In particular, it was the grace of rebirth.

Thus...

Before they came here, they had made a decision. If John Doe were defeated, they would risk their lives to take him away no matter what!

Not just these people...

And even...

The underground-force forum sent a representative over to see the final result of this battle! Notably, it had never participated in the struggles of various countries.

Chapter 1625 A 22-year-old SS Level Expert!!!

Time passed second by second.

As many experts arrived, more and more people from other forces also came.

Some weaker ones...

They all found their positions and stood behind those big shots.

After all...

The battle between John Doe and Steven could be regarded as the greatest in the world. No one dared to watch the battle on the Africon Savannah. This time, the power the two people burst out on this small mountaintop would be even more terrifying.

Lucky for them...

The arrival of many experts made everyone feel much more at ease.

Once the fierce battle began, the combat situation would be beyond their imagination. At that time, these big shots would stand out to block the explosion and the destructive force of the energy Qi. Though unintentionally, they could protect these people hiding behind them. At least those people wouldn't get killed.

Here...

Led by their commander Will, a group from the Black Mamba Mercenaries stopped at the opposite side of Steven the Devourer. This place was behind Soviett's Wolf King, the strongest among the spectators.

With a closer look...

Steven had no intention of opening his eyes.

Even though he sensed the arrival of so many experts, he remained unmoved and kept his eyes closed.

All the spectators turned to look around.

They began to observe each other.

As a result...

After looking around, they saw no Huaxianese.

This came as a surprise...

Many people began to whisper.

“No one has come. Isn’t it too strange?”

“What we see on the surface may not be true. Let me tell you: although we see no Huaxianese, they must be hiding somewhere. Huaxia can’t let John Doe die here.”

“Huaxia has had a head-on conflict with Murica for John Doe. It’s impossible for them to ignore this battle!”

As they spoke in whispers...

Everyone continued to look around, but they still didn’t see any Huaxianese.

At this moment...

It was already the third day.

These metahumans saw no difference between night and day, let alone when they were at the snow-white and dazzling peak of Hemalaya Mountain.

Therefore, no one noticed the time of the day at first.

Just when everyone was discussing in a low voice...

A wisp of golden light rose from the edge of the sea of clouds in the distance.

When the golden light appeared...

Everyone realized that...

The sun emerged!

Above the endless sea of clouds, the golden morning sun slowly rose. A few wisps of purple energy flows could be seen lingering around it.

As the morning sun appeared, boundless layers of clouds illuminated by the golden radiance looked like an exceedingly beautiful sea.

“It’s the third day.”

“John Doe hasn’t come yet?”

“Although there is no fixed time, the battle is supposed to happen today. Usually, fighters will arrive at the battlefield as soon as possible on the day they decide to join the battle. John Doe hasn’t come yet. Will he postpone the battle because of his injury?”

“No!”

“If he wants to put off the battle, John Doe will announce his decision on the underground-force forum.”

“Even if John Doe comes out to announce that the battle is postponed, Murica will take this chance to slander him and Huaxia. John Doe must know the consequence. Therefore, even if John Doe is injured, he will never take the initiative to postpone the battle.”

“Will John Doe come??”

Just as everyone was whispering to each other...

Suddenly...

A voice was heard.

“Buzz!”

Like a gust of wind...

Everyone turned to look.

There...

A figure suddenly appeared above the sea of clouds.

With a closer look...

This man was holding a sword in his left hand.

In his hand was a bronze sword from ancient Huaxia shining with great brilliancy

At this time...

In the sky, the golden morning sun shone on the back of the figure. This person was bathing in the golden sunlight in mid-air, flying as fast as a gust of the wind. His clothes fluttered.

Like a celestial being crossing the sea of clouds, he instantly arrived at the mountaintop without even moving his feet.

This place...

It happened to be where the Black Mamba Mercenaries and others were.

Seeing John Doe coming, no one from the Black Mamba Mercenaries made a sound. Instead, they tried their best to hide themselves, not wanting John Doe to find them.

The Wolf King standing right ahead leaned to one side and took the initiative to make way for John Doe.

Fang Qiu arrived at the mountain.

He stopped and looked at the opposite side.

Around...

Countless people landed their eyes on him.

At a glance...

Everyone saw John Doe let his right-hand rest casually by his side. There was a thumb-sized hole in his arm. White bones could be seen through the hole. Some blood scabs were around the hole.

“Sure enough, he’s injured.”

“Shame on Murica. It chose this place beneficial to Steven for the decisive battle and even tried to assassinate John Doe halfway. They are shameless to the extreme!”

All the onlookers on the spot stared fixedly at John Doe.

They shook their heads.

No one had expected that John Doe would accept the challenge this way.

“Can he fight like this?”

“They are bullying John Doe!”

“It seems John Doe can’t use his right hand. How can he fight?”

“With such serious injuries, John Doe is bound to lose this battle!”

“Alas...”

“He may fail and even lose his life this time.”

“It seems John Doe can’t escape Murica’s murderous attacks!”

“This time, these people in Murica must have decided to kill John Doe. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have done such despicable things.”

Just as everyone was discussing heatedly...

In the crowd...

An ordinary person dressed in ordinary clothes observed John Doe while listening to the discussion. Swiftly, he took out his mobile phone and began to turn the situation on the spot into pieces of news, uploading them to the underground-force forum.

It was the observer sent by the underground-force forum.

“The great battle is coming. Since John Doe is seriously injured and can’t use his right hand, he can only hold the sword with his left hand. He appeared on time to attend the battle, ready to fight against Steven the Devourer!”

As soon as this news was released...

Everyone on the underground-force forum was in an uproar.

“What the hell. Is John Doe really injured?”

“He’s so seriously injured that he can’t move his hand. How can he fight?”

“Should I praise the courageous John Doe or curse the shameless Murica?”

“Or, the battle should begin after John Doe recovers?”

“That’s right. They are bullying the weak. Even when these people know John Doe is injured, they never think about putting off the battle.”

“Even if they choose not to change the time, they should at least let John Doe treat his injuries first, right?”

“If this battle starts like this, I will smear Murica all my life!”

“Murica made the surprise attack against John Doe, right? If they didn’t do it, why would they fear John Doe? If they have faith in themselves, let John Doe recover from his injury first!”

Soon...

Everyone on the underground-force forum began to worry about John Doe.

Without a doubt...

In this top-level battle, they were emotionally supporting John Doe. After all, even before this battle, John Doe was at a disadvantage.

...

Hemalaya Mountain...

The battle was on the top of the mountain.

Fang Qiu looked down at his right arm.

For the past day and a half, he had been working hard to heal and repair the wound on his arm. Unfortunately, Lingyin’s longbow was unique, so the cut made by its arrow was difficult to heal.

Fang Qiu had carefully estimated the situation.

It would take at least three days to heal the injury on his arm completely.

To his dismay...

He didn't have so much time in reality.

Fang Qiu was well aware that...

Since Murica could even pay killers to ambush and assassinate him, it would never delay the battle.

Therefore...

Fang Qiu didn't mean to postpone the fight.

Anyway, he was already here.

Since they were going to fight, they would spare no effort!

He mustn't bring disgrace to Huaxia!

He was full of fighting spirit.

Fang Qiu steadied himself and looked at the middle-aged man sitting cross-legged opposite him in a white suit.

Finally...

When Fang Qiu landed his eyes on him, Steven opened his eyes and stood up. Before this, he never opened them.

His eyes were fixed on John Doe.

Seeing John Doe, he frowned slightly.

“John Doe?”

Staring at Fang Qiu, Steven asked in surprise, “How old are you?”

After this question...

All the people extremely nervous at the scene couldn't help but feel relieved. They all looked at Steven speechlessly, not knowing why he asked this question.

And over there...

“22!”

Fang Qiu answered.

Well...

To cover up his identity, he lied about his age. In fact, he was two years younger.

He hadn't even reached 20 — he would be 20 in August this year.

However...

Even though he was even younger in reality...

John Doe's answer shocked everyone present.

The age of John Doe had always been a mystery.

Nevertheless...

For these metahumans...

John Doe appeared so young, but his fighting strength was matchless. Everyone thought he must have efficient ways to retain a youthful look.

But no one had expected that...

John Doe was only 22 years old?

"How could that be?"

"Is he a genius? A 22-year-old expert at the peak of SS level? His strength is ranked fifth in the world at 22?"

"He's more than a genius but a marvelous being. Such a talent is unprecedented!"

"It's horrifying. He reached such a high level at the age of 22. Is he still human?"

"No wonder Huaxia is determined to protect him no matter what. If such a young expert at the peak of the SS level develops further, his power will be excessively terrifying."

"No wonder Murica would be devoted to suppressing and targeting John Doe. This guy's talent is terrifyingly superb."

Everyone began to talk about this in whispers.

Not just ordinary onlookers...

Many others were stunned by John Doe's young age, like Wolf King, Vicas, Barfros, and Gaia, who were ranked fourth, seventh, ninth, and tenth, respectively.

Compared to the others...

They knew better how difficult it was for a 22-year-old young man to reach this level!

This sort of talent was shockingly terrifying.

Let alone Murica...

If any of them were in Steven's place, they would try every way they could to wipe out such a talent with terrifying capabilities from the world.

When everyone was startled...

Observers on the underground-force forum quickly uploaded the news to the forum.

Meanwhile...

When Steven heard John Doe's age...

His eyes shifted from the injury on John Doe's right hand to his face, and he said, "Today, you must die!"

Chapter 1626 The Truth!

Looking at Steven...

Everyone saw in his face his determination to kill John Doe.

He had been paying attention to John Doe's injured right hand from the beginning, but now, he completely ignored the injury on John Doe's right hand.

Apparently...

Steven understood how big a threat John Doe was to Murica and himself.

All the onlookers around also understood this point.

John Doe was only 22, but his strength had reached the SS level.

It would be terrifying to let John Doe develop like that.

"How did Huaxia cultivate such a genius weirdo?"

"At the age of 22, he already has such a strong strength. If he develops for a few more years, won't he dominate the world?"

"Could it be that Huaxia has collected all its resources to cultivate John Doe alone?"

"If John Doe continues to grow at this rate, I'm afraid it won't be long before Huaxia becomes the most powerful country in the world."

Everyone murmured in their minds.

It was because the existence of John Doe was too shocking.

In the meanwhile...

“Heh.”

Fang Qiu, who was holding a sword in his left hand, suddenly sneered when he heard what Steven said. He glanced at everyone present with a disdainful face and said in an extremely sarcastic tone, “In the end, you push the blame on Huaxia and me, don’t you?”

Hearing that...

Everyone present was stunned.

“All of you, don’t pretend to behave like an expert or a hero.”

Fang Qiu said with disdain, “All of you, which one of your countries doesn’t harbor an evil intention? Which one of you doesn’t attempt to rob our Huaxianese ancestral relic? Now you fail in snatching the ruins, and you want to kill me. Shame on you!

“Since you wanted to kill me, I had to take it, and I gave you the chance!

“Over and over again, you took your turns to combat me, and I endured it.

“You couldn’t kill me, so you provoked and challenged me to battle.

“Okay. I gave you a second chance.

“I, a manly Huaxianese, dared to accept your challenge openly. However, you damn hired killers to assassinate me halfway. You can not be more shameless!”

Speaking of this...

Fang Qiu fixed his eyes on Steven, who wore a white tuxedo and looked decent, standing opposite.

Fang Qiu continued, “I just want to ask you face-to-face.

“Don’t you have any shame?”

Hearing what Fang Qiu said...

Steven was rendered speechless.

For a moment, he didn’t know what to say.

Steven wished to deny that the killer was sent by Murica, but he knew that it was indeed done by Murica, which everyone was quite sure about.

The high-ups of Murica could shamelessly deny it.

However, in the face of so many people, Steven could not be so cheeky, no matter what.

Under such circumstances, wouldn’t denying it be making himself a fool?

So Steven didn’t refute.

Steven was silent, thinking about how to respond to John Doe.

At least...

He had to find an excuse to attack John Doe.

At the very beginning, John Doe questioned him to be speechless. In terms of dignity, Steven already lost by half. Even if he won, it would not be so glorious.

Even though Steven was anxious to kill John Doe, he had to at least gain his dignity back and let everyone take it for granted.

Otherwise...

Even if he eventually killed John Doe, he and Murica would be ridiculed and despised by the whole world.

After a long time...

Suddenly...

Steven also sneered.

“You make it sound like Huaxia is sacred and dignified.”

Steven looked at Fang Qiu and said disdainfully, “When we were in the ruins of Egyptt, didn’t Huaxia also send people to fight over it? Didn’t you attack people from other countries? Don’t you have a shame?”

“Power speaks for everything in this world.

“Moreover, what other countries fight for is not the things in Huaxia but the relics in Ahanf in Zhongdong. However, what Huaxia try to snatch is the ruins in Egyptt, which belong to Egyptt.

“Based on this point, Huaxia seems to be more despicable and shameless.”

With that...

Steven raised his head triumphantly.

“That’s because you’re ignorant.”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly, “You know nothing. Do you know the truth about the ruins of Egyptt? Do you know that the ruins of Egyptt is a conspiracy of the Nirvana Organization?”

As soon as these words were spoken...

Everyone present was shocked.

The truth of the ruins of Egyptt?

The truth about the ruins of Egyptt was all the countries forcibly fighting for it, wasn’t it?

Except for the fight over the ruins of Egyptt...

What truth could there be about the ruins of Egyptt?

For a moment...

Everyone became curious.

In addition, the Nirvana Organization also draw their attention.

Many people present had heard something about this organization from John Doe, but they had never seen the members of the so-called Nirvana Organization.

But there were some people who had seen the members of the Nirvana Organization with their own eyes.

For example...

Among the world alliance, some people, who participated in snatching the ruins of Huaxia, managed to survive and fled back to their countries.

They knew for sure that the Nirvana Organization existed.

“What is the truth?”

Steven asked with disdain.

It seemed that...

Steven didn't believe what John Doe said at all.

“The truth is...”

Fang Qiu said, “Regarding the ruins of Egyptt, it was a trap set by the Nirvana Organization, which targeted all the metahumans all over the world. There is a big conspiracy hidden in it, a conspiracy that can cause all the people in the world to die an unnatural death.

“We had been investigating the Nirvana Organization for a long time, so we noticed that something was wrong in advance. However, we didn’t have solid evidence, so we couldn’t stand out to stop. Even if we had stood out, we couldn’t have stopped your determination of going to your deaths at all.

“So, we had to rush over there and try our best to interfere with the plan of the Nirvana Organization.

“Do you think the people sent by your countries could have left Africo alive without me?”

Fang Qiu questioned loudly.

When people from various countries heard that...

Their expressions changed greatly.

“What the hell happened in the ruins of Egyptt?”

“What conspiracy did the Nirvana Organization have there? What’s their conspiracy in Egyptt, then?”

Among the crowd of onlookers, someone questioned.

“The Nirvana Organization discovered the ruins of Egyptt a long time ago. When we entered the ruins, the members of the Nirvana Organization secretly led the way for us to ensure that all of us could enter the ruins and be infected with a sort of mysterious dark material.”

At this point...

A sharp light came into Fang Qiu’s eyes, and he continued, “That is a type of mysterious dark material that can sweep through the global metahumans. It can also work and infect ordinary people. That is the new virus that Murica claimed to the public. Furthermore, the participants in the fight over the ruins of Egyptt from all the countries, including Rashk, L’hexagone, Anglan, Itali, and so on, were infected by this mysterious dark material.

“At that time...

“When the fight over the ruins of Egyptt ended, all of your countries united to besiege Huaxia. Later, two men showed up and saved you. Who are they? Why did they save you?

“They are members of the Nirvana Organization. The reason why they saved you was to let you, who had been infected with the virus, return to your countries respectively to spread the virus widely.

“Those who participated in the fight over the ruins of Egyptt, who dare to stand up and say that no one in your country has been infected with this mysterious dark material?”

When people from various countries heard that...

They all frowned.

What John Doe said was true.

The mysterious dark material, the new virus, was indeed brought back from the ruins of Egyptt. And the people who came back from there reported the same as what John Doe said. It looked like there was someone leading the way for them somehow, enabling them to pass through the maze in the ruins of Egyptt effortlessly and arrive at the core area of the ruins.

Most importantly...

After these people returned to their countries, they gradually realized the existence of the dark material and learned that they were infected. Then, with hindsight, the high-ups of their countries quickly investigated and researched it, seeking solutions.

“In the end...

“All your countries relied on the medicine that Huaxia had researched and developed for a long time in advance to eliminate those mysterious black materials and viruses. If Huaxia had not provided the medicine, you would have been dead long ago!”

Fang Qiu pointed to the group of people in front of him and said, “Once the virus is rooted in your body, you will die without the medicated treatment, regardless of whoever you are.”

Hearing these words...

Everyone present was slack-jawed.

If John Doe didn't tell them these things, most of them would never know about it at all.

Besides...

If what John Doe said was true...

Then, it was equivalent that Huaxia saved the lives of everyone around the world.

Everyone thought it back carefully.

Some time ago, Murica, which always disliked foreign medical skills, suddenly offered a large amount of bonus to invite so many descendants of traditional medicine to study new viruses or something. Why?

It turned out that...

It was because of the dark material brought out of the ruins of Egyptt.

“Where is the Nirvana Organization you mentioned? Why didn't I see it?”

Steven sneered.

“That’s because you are blind!”

Fang Qiu snorted and said, “As the global third-ranked person in terms of individual strength, don’t you have a shame to say so?”

Just then, someone among the outlooks suddenly stood out and said.

“I can prove the existence of the Nirvana Organization.

“Since the incident happened to John Doe in Zhongdong, our country has started to investigate the Nirvana Organization. After a long period of investigation, We have obtained some useful information. Even though we can’t reach the core of the Nirvana Organization, it’s no problem to prove its existence.”

“I’ve seen the members of the Nirvana Organization.”

Another person stood out and said, “When we were fighting for Laozi Relic, I saw the members of the Nirvana Organization at the entrance of the relic, and I fought with them. They were all enveloped in black robes, and they had S-class strength. But, their combat capability was not strong.”

“I’ve seen them, too,” someone echoed in the crowd.

One after another...

Many people stood out and confirmed the existence of the Nirvana Organization.

With the testimonies of so many people...

Steven was speechless again.

Steven didn't expect to cause such a big thing when he found a way out for himself. They even took the opportunity to raise Huaxia to the top of morality.

Steven felt extremely uncomfortable about it.

Except for those who had confirmed the existence of the Nirvana Organization...

The others exclaimed in a low voice successively.

“That is to say, the participants in the fight over the ruins of Egypt brought the virus out. Without the medical treatment of Huaxia, the whole world would have been in a pandemic disaster.”

“It seems that we must make a complete investigation into this Nirvana Organization when we go back.”

“They went too far by using the ruins as bait. This Nirvana Organization is too terrifying.

Chapter 1627 Get Started With the Battle

“For your lives, when Huaxia fought at the front line of resisting the Nirvana Organization, what were you doing?”

After telling the truth, Fang Qiu squinted at Steven with a sarcastic face and said, “You were racking your brains to go against Huaxia and to kill me!”

At the top of the mountain.

All the onlookers fell silent.

Sure enough...

If John Doe hadn't mentioned it, they wouldn't have known that so many things had happened.

No one had expected it.

Huaxia had silently done so much for the world, and John Doe had secretly saved their lives.

But now...

Murica kept pushing the blame on John Doe.

Was that the right way to go?

Instantly, everyone shifted their eyes to Steven.

Steven was lost for words.

He was from Murica, which had completely opposite standpoint to Huaxia. Even if Steven learned those things that John Doe and Huaxia had done for the world secretly, he and John Doe were still in opposition. He couldn't give up the battle, could he?

If he did that, it would be a blatant betrayal to Murica.

Steven absolutely could not do such a thing.

But, what else could he do?

"Don't waste time anymore."

Gazing at John Doe, Steven said, "Since you're here, let's get started with the battle!"

"Hehe."

Fang Qiu dragged his badly injured right hand and sneered without any fear on his face.

Then...

In his left hand...

He waved his long sword.

"Come on!" Fang Qiu roared.

At the same time, a peerless domineering Qi power burst out, and his fighting spirit soared to the sky!

On the peak of the snow-capped mountain above the sea of clouds.

The roar full of fighting spirit spread out.

All of a sudden, the surrounding space between heaven and earth began to fluctuate. Two waves of extremely domineering energy burst out of their bodies.

With a closer look...

What emitted out of Steven's body was an overwhelming ice-cold Qi. The moment this ice-cold Qi appeared, all the snow within a radius of five meters under his feet was frozen into ice in an instant.

The ice was completely condensed from snowflakes.

“Crack...”

It was too cold, so the ice condensed by those snowflakes rapidly cracked not long after it was frozen. Like a spider web, it quickly spread out in all directions with Steven’s feet as the center.

“It’s so cold.”

“Steven is worthy of the title of the Devourer. His ice-cold Qi can devour everything in the world.”

“This power is truly too frightening.”

“I feel like I’m going to freeze all over.”

Some people’s discussion was heard from the surroundings.

There...

“Heh.”

Fang Qiu smiled again.

“At first, I was very curious why a third-ranked person in terms of individual strength in the world would challenge me to battle in this extremely cold place. It turns out that you are an ice-attribute remarkable talent”

As soon as Fang Qiu finished speaking...

Steven’s face became gloomy.

The way everyone around looked at Steven changed.

Whoever knew about Steven had thought of this earlier. However, when such a thing came out of John Doe's mouth, it was completely another thing.

"Murica! Steven!"

When Fang Qiu realized that Steven even played tricks at the appointed battle location, he couldn't help getting furious. Fang Qiu said through his teeth with ghastly killing intent in his voice, "Even though you are ranked third in terms of individual strength in the world, and you are backed by the top-class major powers, I, John Doe, am not afraid of you today!"

As soon as he finished roaring...

Fang Qiu held the long sword in his left hand and immediately rose into the air.

He rose to a height of 2,000 or 3,000 meters above the peak of the mountain.

It was very obvious...

The small area on the top of the mountain was not enough for the battle at all.

Following that...

"Whoosh."

A gust of ice-cold airflow swept over, like a tornado, instantly lifting Steven to the same height as John Doe.

Right now...

If it was calculated according to the altitude, both Steven and John Doe were already 10,000 meters above the ground.

As Steven rose into the high air, he waved his right hand.

Over a dozen Ice Blades immediately took shape around him. Then, with waves of his arm, the energy Qi shot toward John Doe fiercely under the sunlight.

Seeing that...

Fang Qiu sneered.

With a wave of his left hand and a twist of his wrist, the peerless sharp sword Qi suddenly burst out of his body. With extremely sharp power, it directly hit the Ice Blades shot by Steven.

“Swoosh!”

A sound like wind-blown sand was heard.

In the middle of the rustling...

The dozen Ice Blades collided with the sword Qi. In a split second, they were cut into sands of ice all over the sky.

The next moment...

“Swoosh!”

The sands of ice all over the sky condensed into more than a dozen Ice Blades again, sweeping toward Fang Qiu fiercely.

Fang Qiu ran his internal Qi.

A stream of internal Qi surged out of his body and instantly condensed into an energy shield around him, completely blocking the Ice Blade. With a violent shake, it directly burned up all the sands of ice formed by the broken Ice Blades.

On the other side...

The sword Qi that burst out from Fang Qiu fiercely rushed in front of Steven, but it was blocked by a layer of ice curtain around Steven.

At a glance...

Steven and Fang Qiu were on par with each other.

“With just this bit of ability, how did you kill Rowan?”

Steven resisted John Doe’s sword Qi, which did not cause any harm to him. He sneered and asked with disdain.

“With this little ability, how did you rank third in the world?”

Fang Qiu refuted in the same way in a more contemptuous tone.

“Humph!”

Steven snorted coldly with his eyes widened.

When he stared at Fang Qiu firmly, there seemed to be a cold light in his eyes that was about to burst out.

With a closer look...

Steven clenched his fists in an instant.

A layer of scale-like ice crystals quickly appeared and fully covered his fists and arms. A gloomy killing intent suddenly spread out in all directions like a gust of wind.

Below them...

All the people on the top of the snow mountain couldn't help but shiver when they felt this killing intent.

It was too cold.

It was an aura that was both unbearably cold and full of fear.

Steven the Devourer got furious!

"Go to hell now!"

Steven's roar sounded.

Steven raised his right hand. Under the sunlight, the scale-like ice crystals on his right arm reflected an extremely dazzling light.

Suddenly...

The dazzling light emitted above the ice crystals turned into substance, and then suddenly transformed into an unbearable ice-cold Qi, rushing up to the sky.

In an instant, it turned into ice cones all over the sky.

The space between heaven and earth was swarming with dense ice cones, which were like locusts that caused the locust plague, endless.

The next moment...

“Buzz.”

A gust of icy wind whistled over.

In the dense ice cones, streams of ice-cold Qi surged out, like iron chains, all the ice cones were connected by these cold Qi and were under the control of Steven alone.

At this time...

Steven stretched out his right hand and spread his palm. With a random movement, the extremely sharp ice cones around him started fluctuating constantly, ready to shoot out at any moment.

It seemed that the dense ice cones in all directions were like Steven’s palms.

“Go to hell!”

Full of anger, Steven roared and suddenly pinched the palm that had been stretched out.

The ice cones floating in all directions immediately turned their tips, pointing to Fang Qiu.

Afterward...

“Swoosh...”

The ice cones all over the sky, like armor-piercing missiles, rushed toward Fang Qiu with the sound of cracks from all directions, trying to shred Fang Qiu’s heart.

However...

Fang Qiu remained calm as usual.

He waved his left hand.

“Whoosh.”

The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth suddenly swept over and turned into a huge energy palm right before him.

“Break it!”

As Fang Qiu shouted, the huge energy palm immediately swept out as Fang Qiu waved it.

“Crack, crack, crack...”

Wherever the palm passed, the dense ice cones were immediately smashed into sands of ice all over the sky.

Then Fang Qiu twisted his wrist.

The huge energy palm circled around Fang Qiu once and smashed all the ice cones into pieces ruthlessly. Then it fiercely aimed at Steven and smashed out with a bang.

“Great Hand of Destruction!”

The moment he smashed out his palm, Fang Qiu roared.

The next moment.

The huge energy palm suddenly contracted.

When it reached the front of Steven, it had shrunk to the size of an ordinary palm.

At this very moment...

Steven, who was about to control the sands of ice to condense into ice cones again and continue to attack Fang Qiu, suddenly felt the horrible destructive energy aura from the ordinary palm-sized energy palm. His expression changed, and he immediately gave up the idea of continuing to attack Fang Qiu.

Instead, he waved his hands.

The sands of ice all over the sky immediately shrank over from all directions and quickly condensed into a very thick circular ice shield before him.

“Boom!”

The moment the ice shield was formed, the energy palm hit it hard, bursting out an ear-piercing sound of an explosion.

The collision of the two energies caused a very violent explosion.

And the two energies neutralized each other and dissipated in all directions.

In the sky...

In an instant, the dissipated energies fell like a rain of light.

“If you think that an attack of this level can hurt me, you really look down upon the killer hired by the Murica government.”

Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

Below them...

Hearing that, all the onlookers were stunned at first, and then they burst out laughing.

No one had expected it.

In such a fierce battle, John Doe could say such words to tease Steven. It sounded not a big deal, but to Steven, these words were so ear-piecing that he was angered to half death.

High in the air...

As expected, Steven’s face darkened in an instant.

After all, he was indeed trying to use that move to kill John Doe just now.

Although the attack power of this move was not strong, it had a large enough range and could launch attacks without limit. Even if he could escape once, he would definitely not be able to escape a second time.

However, Steven did not expect that John Doe could overcome that move and caught him off guard.

Chapter 1628 What Have You Done?!

Steven's expression turned grim.

As he stared at Fang Qiu, the fierce killing intent in his eyes surged again.

"Whoosh..."

Steven didn't move. However, with the killing intent coming out of his body, there was a gust of wind whistling around him.

And below his feet, on the top of the snow mountain that was 2,000 or 3,000 meters away from him, the snowflakes, which had almost turned into ice in the extremely cold state, suddenly began to rise at that moment.

There was no movement at all.

All of the snowflakes were in their original positions, slowly rising up into the air.

In the blink of an eye...

They were divided into dozens of floors, rising straight to the sky around Steven and completely connecting the snow mountain with the high air around him.

Following that...

Steven suddenly pushed John Doe with his hands.

Swoosh! Swoosh...

All of a sudden, a cold wind burst up.

Being pushed by Steven, layers of ice crystals immediately condensed together as fiercely as a giant beast coming out of the sea. It turned into a giant wolf with a strong Qi power, howling and pouncing toward Fang Qiu. The terrifying Qi power frightened everyone on the top of the mountain.

Fang Qiu pinched the fingers of his left hand.

In a split second, the bronze divine sword took shape in his hand.

Then, a trace of golden light shone on the blade of the divine sword. Under the light of the morning sun, which had completely risen above the sea of clouds, burst out a touch of dazzling golden light.

“Rise!”

Fang Qiu let out a deep shout.

In the face of the giant wolf transformed by ice and snow, Fang Qiu felt the peerless strong Qi power brought by the giant wolf. Fang Qiu stood against the wind, and a strong energy aura burst out from the divine sword held in his left hand.

“Pitter-patter...”

The sound of an electric current was heard.

Streaks of lightning suddenly appeared on the divine sword. These thunderbolts, like spider webs, instantly darted out with Fang Qiu's body as the center and covered a radius of 100 meters.

As the strong lightning spread out, it kept tearing, emitting a devastating energy aura.

Upon the appearance of these thunderbolts...

Everyone on the top of the mountain was startled.

They wondered, "Can John Doe control thunder and lightning?"

While everyone was in shock...

Fang Qiu raised his left hand with the sword high and then suddenly activated it. The divine sword immediately burst out a huge attraction to devour the thunderbolts pouncing around him.

After devouring the thunderbolts...

The blade of the divine sword immediately burst out a dazzling blue light.

"Rumble, rumble, rumble..."

Muffled thunder rumbled.

"Slash!"

Fang Qiu waved his left hand, and a fierce look instantly appeared in his eyes.

He held the divine sword.

In the dazzling blue lightning and a burst of muffled thunder, the divine sword slashed out into the void with a devastating energy aura in an instant.

As the sword slashed down...

The light of the thunder on the divine sword condensed into a half-moon-shaped sword Qi in the void, intertwined in the lights of thunder.

Bang!

In an instant, the sword Qi shot out. In the blink of an eye, it collided fiercely with the giant wolf transformed from ice and snow.

Wolf howled, and the sword buzzed.

When the two energies collided fiercely, there was no imagined explosion in the air. Instead, a burst of dazzling light appeared.

In the strong dazzling light, everyone could vaguely see that the sword Qi wrapped in thunderbolts cut the giant wolf transformed from ice and snow into halves.

But...

The explosive force generated by the cut-off giant wolf instantly quaked the dazzling sword Qi to become illusory.

As the strong dazzling silver light flashed, the two energies in the air completely collided and dissipated.

Below them, on the top of the snow mountain...

Everyone held their breath in concentration.

They were all staring fixedly at the battle above.

No one had expected that such terrifying pressure would burst out in the battle between John Doe and Steven. Even from 2,000 or 3,000 meters away, they could feel the heavy pressure on them.

In particular, when the fluctuation of the energy Qi caused by the collision between John Doe and Steven passed through everyone's body, they were shaken to retreat, unable to stand steadily at all.

After all...

That was the remaining energy Qi after the two energies collided and dissipated.

Even the remaining energy Qi had such horrible power, it could be imagined how terrifying their strengths were.

"I'm curious how long you can resist me!"

When Steven's attack was blocked by John Doe again, Steven's face became more and more gloomy.

Steven thought, "I am ranked third in the world, but I can't even defeat a young man, who has just advanced to the SS level, with an arm crippled. What a shame for me!"

At the same time...

"I can't waste any more time with him."

When Fang Qiu noticed that Steven's gaze fell on his injured right hand, his face turned gloomy. He thought, "Taking advantage of the right time and location, he can constantly absorb the ice-attribute energy between heaven and earth and use the ice and snow energy on the snow mountain to consume my energy!”

Fang Qiu could absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth while defending and attacking.

However...

This place was unlimited for Steven.

Whatever moves he used, the energy consumption would be little, and it might not even be consumed.

In such a situation...

If it continued to consume like this, even if they fought for a year, there would be no result!

“Hiss...”

Taking a deep breath, Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

Immediately, a killing intent, which was even more domineering than before, burst out from his body. The killing intent seemed to have turned into a substance. The moment it appeared, it dispersed in all directions at once and drove away the chill of ice and snow around him in an instant.

After that...

Fang Qiu moved his left hand.

“Clap!”

He slapped his palm down from high up in the air.

“Great Hand of Nihilility!”

Then, a faint energy fluctuation immediately spread out with Fang Qiu’s palm as the center, covering a radius of ten kilometers around him.

As the energy fluctuation spread...

A domain was formed.

In a twinkling...

A feeling of control over the space surged into Fang Qiu’s heart.

This feeling calmed Fang Qiu down a lot in an instant.

“You not only bought over killers to launch a sneak attack on me, but you also were so cheeky to select such a place for the battle without my knowledge. Did you win third place in the world in such a shameless way?”

Staring at Steven, Fang Qiu cursed. Then he sneered, “However, your method of using the geographical advantage doesn’t work for Huaxianese. If you want to rely on the infinite energy provided by the snow mountain, I won’t give you the chance!”

As soon as he finished speaking...

Fang Qiu directly controlled the space around Steven to form an invisible vacuum area, separating all the Qi of Heaven and Earth from Steven.

“Energy? How could it be?”

When Steven heard what Fang Qiu said, his expression changed greatly. He realized that the extremely abundant ice and snow energy around him had vanished in an instant.

Not only that, even all the energy in the space between heaven and earth had vanished.

It seemed...

All the energies were deliberately avoiding him.

Below them...

“Really?”

“How could it be?”

“Does he isolate the Heaven and Earth energy completely?”

“Is this why Huaxia is invincible under the same conditions?”

The four super experts ranked among the top ten in the world’s individual strength ranking list lost their voices right now.

They could distinctly feel that the energy around Steven had completely disappeared, not in an ordinary way, but it formed a circle, a vacuum circle that enveloped Steven all over.

Such a power...

It had an absolute fatal blow for all metahumans around the world.

Now...

The four super experts all understood, why John Doe dared to come to battle even though he was injured, and why John Doe dared to accept the challenge after he killed six S-plus experts, as well as Bart and Ballor in succession.

It was just because of this move.

Among the top ten, Wolf King was probably the only one who wasn't afraid of this move.

At this thought...

The three super experts turned to look at Wolf King at the same time.

But they noticed that Wolf King's expression was extremely grave.

As a werewolf, he relied on his physical strength. However, the power stored in his body was limited. When it came to fierce practical combats, werewolves also needed to use the Heaven and Earth energy to fight, even though they did not use much. However, if their ability to use the Heaven and Earth energy was cut off, their combat power would be greatly reduced.

High in the air...

"Swoosh!"

Steven moved and quickly shifted his position, trying to find an area where he could absorb the ice and snow energy.

As a result...

Where he flew to, the vacuum area around him always existed.

He felt uncomfortable to the extreme about it.

“What did you do?”

Steven was furious.

“What I did is no different from what you did when you selected to battle on the snow mountain, isn’t it?”

Fang Qiu sneered.

“Damn you!”

Steven was pissed off.

He didn’t expect John Doe to make such a move at all.

Previously, Steven thought that as long as he could infinitely use the ice and snow energy on the snow mountain, he could easily kill John Doe there. But now, he not only lost the ice and snow energy, but he also lost all the Heaven and Earth energy. He lost the supply that he was supposed to have.

In this case...

His strategy of attrition did not work for John Doe at all. In the end, he would be the one dragged down by this strategy of attrition.

Therefore...

He had to end the battle as soon as possible.

At this thought...

Steven gnashed his teeth and had an extremely gloomy and depressed expression. A dense, cold glint erupted from his eyes. Then, he suddenly raised his hands.

Above his two palms...

Immediately, two extremely chill strands of cold Qi appeared. Next, his hands moved, and the two strands of cold Qi intertwined with one another.

As his hands moved and changed, an ear-piercing sound of roaring wind suddenly was heard.

With a closer look...

In front of Steven...

The two kinds of intertwining cold Qi began to expand while rotating and twisting, even without support from the ice and snow energy around.

However...

The extremely cold Qi continued to surge out of Steven's body and wildly injected into the two strands of intertwining cold Qi before him.

With the support of such a huge force of extreme cold, the two strands intertwining Qi of Heaven and Earth rapidly grew up and soared straight into the sky. They turned into an extreme cold storm that connected heaven and earth, emitting a great freezing cold pressure.

Just like an ancient fierce beast, it burst out in a series of creepy low and deep rumbling sounds.

It was visible to the naked eye.

Strand after strand of energy looked even more berserk than before. They quickly condensed in this extreme cold storm and transformed into a giant wolf, howling towards the sky.

Chapter 1629 The Final Blow!

“Rumble...”

In the extremely violent cold Qi, a burst of muffled thunder-like rumbling sounded.

With the rotation of the extremely cold Qi that connected heaven and earth, Steven took a step forward and walked straight into the hurricane-like extremely cold Qi.

Just then...

“Buzz!”

Suddenly, a violent energy fluctuation burst out from the extremely cold Qi and quickly spread out in all directions.

Wherever the energy fluctuation passed, even space itself seemed to shake.

All around...

Driven by this energy fluctuation, the sea of clouds began to surge like a tide.

The extremely cold Qi swept over.

The temperature in the space between heaven and earth suddenly dropped.

At this very moment, the vapor in the air tens of thousands of meters high condensed into dense ice crystals, which would not fall.

They were suspended in space between heaven and earth...

Below them...

On the top of the mountain...

Some people, whose strengths were not as good as a guru, shivered in the freezing cold.

"It's horrible!"

"How could he be so powerful?"

"I am sure that John Doe can't survive this blow."

"This is why Steven is called 'the Devourer'. His ice and snow can devour everything in the world, including John Doe."

When most of the onlookers saw the horrible scene above in the air, their expressions became extremely shocked. Even though they were far away, they could feel the tremendous pressure.

What the pressure brought them was fear.

"Can John Doe resist it this time?"

"What enables him to resist?"

“John Doe screwed it up. He successfully irritated Steven. He is doomed.”

Many people shook their heads.

The world-shaking battle would end up soon.

Their displayed combat strength utterly shocked everyone present, but everything was about to come to an end now.

Not to mention John Doe...

Even Wolf King, who was standing on the top of the mountain, had no confidence to resist such a horrible blow from Steven.

“Is it over?”

Gaia the Goddess of Wisdom asked herself. Then, she quietly shifted his eyes to John Doe on the other side.

“John Doe of Huaxia will become famous in the world since he can push Steven the Devourer to such an extent.”

Barfros the Hunter, shook his head slightly.

“John Doe of Huaxia is a genius. What a pity!”

Vicas the Secular Buddha, whose eyes were bright and wise, was entirely enveloped in a layer of golden energy Qi emitting from himself, keeping out all of the extremely cold Qi.

“John Doe?”

At the same time, Wolf King also turned to look at John Doe.

All the onlookers at the scene...

At this very moment...

They all shifted their eyes to John Doe.

However, this time, the admiration in their eyes had gone. Instead, they were full of pity and sympathy.

In their opinion...

This time...

John Doe had no way out.

How could John Doe withstand such a terrifying attack from Steven while his arm was already crippled?

However...

When everyone was sighing with pity for John Doe who had no way out...

They saw that...

Fang Qiu stood against the wind.

His fighting spirit did not diminish at all.

Even though his right hand couldn't move...

He raised the divine sword high above his head with his left hand. Then he injected all his internal Qi into the divine sword.

Even the golden internal Qi in his Dantian was poured into the sword completely.

Fang Qiu was aware.

This would be the final blow.

Victory or defeat would depend on this collision.

Fang Qiu couldn't use the move of Formless Destruction that killed Ballor due to his crippled right hand. However, Fang Qiu had one more move that he hadn't used.

This move was even more powerful than the Formless Destruction.

It was because...

He created this move based on the three moves of "Ren".

"Sword, rise!"

The moment Fang Qiu raised the divine sword above his head, there was only one extremely pure GeWill left in his mind, the sword!

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

The moment Fang Qiu shouted...

The space within dozens of meters around him suddenly froze.

Streaks of domineering and pure sword Qi burst out. The Sword Intent soared into the sky and enveloped a space around Fang Qiu. It looked like an extremely powerful airflow rising into the sky, impacting the space around Fang Qiu to begin to twist and blur.

The more fierce the extreme cold storm was, the stronger the Sword Intent became.

The sky, which had been fully covered by the extreme cold storm, was pushed to retreat by half instantly as the Sword Intent soaring into the sky.

Two incomparably powerful and almost insane powers were opposing one another in the sky.

“What’s up?”

“Is John Doe still capable of resisting?”

“No way! How could John Doe burst out such a powerful force?”

“What a terrifying sword Qi! It seems that I’m on a battlefield. It’s as if the whole space between heaven and earth is a battlefield.”

“This level of combat is too terrifying.”

“To my surprise, John Doe has grown so powerful!”

When the onlookers felt the Sword Intent bursting out from John Doe, their expressions changed dramatically again.

Especially the top four on the individual strength ranking list.

“What a sharp energy! There is no way to block it at all.”

Gaia the Goddess of Wisdom fixed her eyes on Fang Qiu. feeling the incomparable sharp sword Qi emanating from Fang Qiu. There was a trace of horror appeared on her face.

“I’ve never felt such terrifying Sword Intent from anyone but Qingyun. How could John Doe reach this level?”

Barfros the Hunter was also shocked.

“Huaxia and Hinndu are both ancient civilizations, and many things can not be imagined by people from other countries. Well, John Doe, at the age of 22, is worthy of this battle since he can cultivate sword Qi to such an extent.”

Vicas the Secular Buddha said with a frown. His body shone with golden light as if he was ready to block the remaining energy fluctuation.

Wolf King’s reaction was different from the other three.

Wolf King kept fixing his gaze on John Doe and frowning, without uttering a single word.

Just then...

“Howl...”

The giant wolf in the extreme cold storm suddenly started howling wildly toward the sky. Being torn by the extreme cold storm, it twisted savagely and merged into a giant monster formed by ice crystals.

“A dragon? It’s a Frost Dragon!”

Below, someone cried out in alarm.

Everyone looked up and fixed their eyes on it.

Surprisingly, they saw...

In the extreme cold storm, a giant Frost Dragon that was completely condensed from ice crystals quickly shaped up. Then, it flapped its incomparably huge wings, stretched its neck, and growled toward the sky.

In the furious growls...

The extreme cold storm that connected heaven and earth spread out with a loud bang.

The surrounding space was shaken to distort.

The next moment...

“Bang!”

There was an explosive sound.

The extreme cold storm exploded, turning into an ultimate freezing cold energy Qi, and surged out wildly in all directions like a tsunami.

With a huge impact force, it rushed toward Fang Qiu fiercely.

Following this strand of energy Qi closely...

Under the control of Steven, who had consumed too much energy, the huge frost gathered and fell from the sky, bringing the harsh sound of sonic booms.

“Crack, crack, crack...”

There was a series of sounds of sonic booms.

Every time a sonic boom sounded, a circle of energy Qi would be rippled in the sky, just like throwing a pebble on the surface of a lake.

Constantly...

From top to bottom, the energy Qi connected to a line, rushing toward Fang Qiu.

The sound of sonic booms was quite loud.

Below, the snow mountain was shaken, and beneath the clouds, the snow crashing sound continuously spread out. The whole mountain was shaking wildly under the impact of the sonic booms, and it was almost about to collapse.

Many people couldn't even stand steadily.

Everyone was in a panic.

If this giant Frost Dragon fell from the sky, almost everything that got in its way would be completely destroyed in an instant from its terrifying momentum.

However...

When everyone was utterly shocked by the momentum of the Frost Dragon...

Suddenly...

A wisp of extremely dazzling golden light lit up.

Everyone turned to look at it.

A magnificent scene came into their sight.

In rushing up Sword Intent, the long sword in Fang Qiu's hand burst out a layer of golden light unexpectedly. It was like, after the golden light of the morning sun gradually dispersed, the long sword in Fang Qiu's hand became a new scorching sun shining on the vast sky.

In the direction that the long sword pointed to...

The golden light rapidly expanded against the wind and instantly transformed into a stream of golden full-moon sword Qi.

"Sword Shattering the Universe!"

Fang Qiu shouted word by word in a deep voice.

As soon as he finished speaking...

The golden sword Qi, resembling a scorching sun, burst out from the sword with a loud bang.

Under innumerable horrified gazes, the scorching sun-like sword Qi shot out in a split second to the giant Frost Dragon and collided with it finally.

In an instant...

The world was quiet.

It was as if everything between heaven and earth had come to a complete standstill at this very moment.

After that...

Dazzling and glaring energy lights suddenly erupted from the spot where the two energies collided.

Half of it was in icy blue, while the other half was in golden color.

The two strands of energy collided with each other and kept expanding, like a huge meteor fireball, during which they burst out dazzling and unimaginable violent explosions.

With a closer look...

It could be seen that on the side of the icy blue energy, the giant Frost Dragon was desperately resisting that round of the golden sword Qi.

However...

The terrifying impact and speed of the golden sword Qi, which looked like a full moon, suddenly increased a lot under the resistance of the Frost Dragon.

And as it was sped up...

The golden light...

It suddenly became active and rushed out of that round of sword Qi like crazy.

The golden light expanded wildly.

On Steven's side...

The Frost Dragon shuddered abruptly.

Then...

Under everyone's horrified gaze, the golden sword Qi, which was like a black hole, completely devoured the Frost Dragon, starting from its head.

In the blink of an eye...

The clusters of energy that were confronting each other all turned into golden.

Then...

At a speed invisible to the naked eye, it rushed to Steven, whose face was pale and whose energy had been consumed excessively, and devoured him in whole instantly.

The next moment...

"Boom!"

The golden scorching sun exploded with a loud sound.

With the explosion spot as the center, a super powerful impact wave rushed out fiercely in all directions, causing the sky and the earth to shake. Even the sea of clouds was blasted out into a huge hole.

Chapter 1630 Steven Dies, and John Doe Wins

In the sky...

A deafening rumble echoed out for a long time.

The terrifying energy Qi was rippling in the air wave after wave.

After a long time...

It gradually dissipated.

Everyone took a closer look.

High in the air, John Doe had retreated far away. His face was slightly pale, and the injury on his right hand became worse. Blood was gushing out of the torn wound.

They looked to the other side.

Steven, who was in the center of the explosion, was standing there.

But...

All the clothes on him were burned up in the explosion. He was covered with a layer of ice armor, but the ice armor had fallen to pieces. At a glance, wounds were all over him from head to toe, and there was not even a piece of hair on his head. Except for the place where the ice armor was left, the rest of his skin was burned black.

"Phew, phew..."

Strong and heavy gasps kept coming out of Steven's mouth. Even though he had survived the big explosion just now, he had used up all the energy he could. Although he could hold on in the air, he was tottering and about to fall powerlessly.

"You are the loser."

Fang Qiu stared at Steven and said.

"Come over."

Steven feebly waved at John Doe and said, "I'm not dead yet, so I am not losing."

Fang Qiu looked pale.

But there was a lot of energy that remained in his body, so he was not afraid of Steven at all. He moved and flew toward Steven.

"Do you think you can kill me?"

Seeing John Doe flying over, Steven suddenly burst into laughter. While laughing, he supported his body, which was almost broken up, and stepped forward again toward Fang Qiu.

When Steven walked to the place about ten meters away from Fang Qiu...

"If you want to kill me, you'll have to die with me!"

Suddenly, Steven shouted furiously.

A madness instantly surged in Steven's eyes. An inexplicable extremely cold energy suddenly and violently surged out.

"Huh?"

Fang Qiu's expression changed. As he ran the internal Qi, his figure flashed out like a ghost and instantly rushed to the front of Steven. The moment the divine sword in his hand condensed, he stabbed toward Steven's chest without hesitation.

Seeing this scene...

A roar was heard from the top of the snow mountain.

"No!"

Following that, a domineering energy aura rose into the sky. In the crowd on the top of the mountain, a Murican man flew up and was about to attack John Doe.

Just then...

"Buzz!"

A vibrating sound suddenly was heard from another cloud high in the air.

Everyone looked up.

Then...

They saw a ray of sunglow suddenly appear in the cloud, which was about 1,000 meters higher than the location of John Doe.

With a closer look...

It was a colorful sword shadow.

The moment this sword shadow appeared, it locked onto the Murican man on the top of the mountain, who burst out a powerful Qi power and was about to attack John Doe.

The Murican man's figure had just flown up into the air when he was pointed at by the colorful sword shadow. Instantly, he was stunned in mid-air. Then he slowly retreated to the top of the mountain and did not dare to move.

At the same time...

Ten thousand meters in the air...

"Whiz!"

With the sound of a sword, the long sword in Fang Qiu's hand pierced Steven's heart unceremoniously before the inexplicably dangerous energy in Steven's body broke out.

Steven had a crazy look on his face. The moment the long sword pierced into his chest, his body suddenly stiffened. Then, Steven lowered his head with great effort and looked at Fang Qiu's long sword that cut through his chest. The craziness in his eyes, which had not been fully revealed, solidified forever.

His hands dropped down.

While the divine sword naturally separated and dissipated, Steven's body fell vertically from a height of 10,000 meters.

Everyone saw this scene with their own eyes.

Below the clouds...

At the top of the snow mountain...

Everyone was utterly shocked.

Their eyes were fixed on John Doe, who was only 22 years old and had a crippled hand.

Led by Commander Will, everyone from the Black Mamba Mercenaries heaved a long sigh of relief and laughed.

People from Murica were hiding in the crowd.

They looked ashen. They could do nothing but watch Scott's body fall from high in the sky. They didn't even dare to collect Steven's body.

It was because John Doe was back.

When Steven's body fell on the top of the mountain, Fang Qiu dragged his exhausted body and went back to the peak of the snow mountain.

Then...

He waved his right hand in front of everyone.

A flame transformed by the Qi of Heaven and Earth immediately appeared around Steven's body, burning it to ashes in an instant.

“Pass my message to the high-ups of Murica, that I will never leave these people’s bodies for you to do genetic and artificial metahuman research.”

Fang Qiu said coldly to the Murican in the crowd.

Hearing that...

Everyone present recovered from their shock.

Did John Doe win?

Did John Doe actually kill Steven the Devourer?

Steven the Devourer transformed into a Frost Dragon with all his energy, but the Frost Dragon was devoured n whole by John Doe’s golden scorching sun!

Steven, who was famous as the Devourer, was devoured by a 22-year-old young man in the end and lost his life.

Steven the Devourer, who ranked third in terms of individual strength in the world, was killed by John Doe with only one hand!

Until Steven’s body turned into ashes and dissipated, everyone shifted their eyes back to John Doe.

At this moment...

The way everyone looked at Fang Qiu changed.

Before this, no one had expected that John Doe could kill Steven.

They still remembered that not long ago...

None of them were optimistic about John Doe. Thought that John Doe would be doomed today. But now, the ending was completely beyond their expectations.

They were all speechless in shock.

Everyone present was aware.

Now that the battle was over, no one could stop John Doe from rising. He would definitely rapidly develop and get successful without a doubt.

Except for Murica...

Many people from other countries were silent.

The ending of this battle was indeed beyond their expectations. Next, they had to reconsider carefully how their respective countries would treat Huaxia and Murica.

As for some countries that had always supported Huaxia, they smiled very happily, feeling proud of John Doe.

As for those countries that had been Murica's followers and were hostile to Huaxia, they began to panic and worry about their future.

They wondered why did John Doe have such powerful strength.

In addition...

There was an energy sword shadow representing Huaxia high in the air over 11,000 meters above the ground.

Nowadays, the metahuman forces of Huaxia absolutely took first place in the world.

With such terrifying strength...

The development of Huaxia would inevitably be more rapid, especially when Murica had suffered such a great loss.

It was not just John Doe.

Huaxia was about to rise, too.

And the rise of Huaxia was because of the man in front of them, who was only 22 but had ruthlessly devoured Steven the Devourer.

In four directions...

Gaia the Goddess of Wisdom, who came from the Roma Shrine of Itali, looked at John Doe in shock. She never thought that John Doe could kill Steven.

But she had to admit it since she had witnessed the fact.

Barfros the Hunter, who came from Greacie, had a complex expression.

Vicas the Secular Buddha, who came from Hinndu, looked at John Doe with a smile. His eyes revealed the intention of making a friend with John Doe. Among the four super experts present, only Vicas, representing Hinndu, had no feud with Huaxia or John Doe.

“From today on, you are ranked third.”

Wolf King looked at John Doe and said.

The other three nodded in echo.

Apparently...

The four super experts all recognized the strength of John Doe.

However, John Doe had already killed Steven. Even if they did not recognize him, John Doe's name would still be put in third place on the world's individual strength ranking list on the underground-force forum.

Then...

Fang Qiu glanced at everyone around him.

"That's it for this matter."

In the end, Fang Qiu fixed his eyes on the Murican man who attempted to attack him just now and said, "From today on, if anyone tries to kill me again, don't blame me for being ruthless. Since you have the strength to scheme against me, you'd better save your strength to deal with the Nirvana Organization."

With that...

Fang Qiu turned his head.

Facing high in the air at an altitude of 11,000 meters...

Fang Qiu made a hold fist salute and bowed to the place where the colorful sword shadow was.

As he knew...

The person hiding above must be a Huaxianese. Fang Qiu didn't know who it was, but he wanted to show his respect since that person helped him.

After that...

Fang Qiu stepped forward and jumped down from the top of the mountain. Then he walked down the snow mountain step by step, leaving this place.

On the top of the mountain...

Everyone looked at the back of John Doe. Except for the members of the Black Mamba Mercenaries, others all had complex expressions.

Originally...

Many of them came here to add fuel to the fire.

Except for Hinndu, many cultivators of other countries died at John Doe's hands. In addition to Murica, these countries had concerns that the rise of John Doe would pose a great threat to them, especially when they heard that John Doe was only 22 years old, so they decided to kill him.

However...

The person was guarding in the high air.

When John Doe left, the colorful sword shadow high in the air was taken back, but these people knew that it would cut through their chests in an instant once they took action against John Doe.

Therefore, they had to watch John Doe leave.

Before long...

The news of the end of the battle spread to all countries.

Hearing the news that John Doe had killed Steven the Devourer, all the countries were in an uproar.

Those countries that had signed trade clauses with Huaxia immediately issued an order to implement them. Some countries, which prepared to stop the development of Huaxia with Murica in secret, stopped all their plans at once.

Some countries immediately notified the media across the country not to post any news to discredit Huaxia anymore. All reports about Huaxia must be positive.

There were also many countries that immediately ordered to treat the overseas Huaxianese well. And meanwhile, they began to prepare various welfare benefits for the overseas Huaxianese.

Beyond doubt...

As all the countries that got the news know, John Doe had risen, and Huaxia, which had two super experts, John Doe and Qingyun, would be unstoppable to stand at the top of the world!
