Chapter 1771 Bunyip!

Bunyip.

It was a mysterious creature widely spread in Autransian folklore.

According to legends, these creatures lived near creeks, ponds, and swamps. They all had tusks, flippers, and a tail like a horse, haunting dark places. They were known to feed on animals, children, and women, and roar when approached.

There had been numerous sightings of the Bunyip in Autransian history.

However...

With the hunting of these creatures in ancient times, they gradually disappeared from people's sights.

When hearing this legend before, Fang Qiu also thought that the existence of Bunyip was either just a story or a vanished species.

But surprisingly...

He hadn't expected to see this legendary creature in the underground river of the Autranssy Desert. Although its appearance didn't exactly match the description in the legends, all the main features were consistent.

Swoosh!

Swimming upstream, Fang Qiu emerged from the water and leaped onto a rock at the edge of the underground river, holding the Yuan Yang Fruit and its roots in his right hand and staring at a Bunyip in front of him.

The appearance of this creature might not benefit Fang Qiu in any way, but it was a species that existed in folklore and could not be seen by ordinary persons, so Fang Qiu naturally wanted to observe it carefully.

But...

Just as Fang Qiu was observing carefully...

Swoosh!

Sudden sounds of dragging and hitting the ground came from all directions.

Fang Qiu turned around to have a look.

To his astonishment, in the pitch-black and spacious cavern, pairs of fist-sized eyes emitting faint fluorescence emerged.

With a closer look...

Actually, these eyes were densely packed and formed a beautiful constellation-like pattern in the dark cavern, giving off a captivating allure.

However, beneath the allure lay a hidden killing intent!

Although these Bunyips were ordinary creatures that had not absorbed the Qi of Heaven and Earth, they were very aggressive.

They were known to prey on humans.

Even though in darkness, Fang Qiu, with his night vision ability, could see clearly that these Bunyips had huge mouths resembling trumpets. Their thick moss-like lips parted in the center, opened to the left and right sides from the middle, and revealed two sharp tusks and two rows of razor-like teeth.

The Bunyips around were the same.

It seemed that they had set their sights on the Yuan Yang Fruit in Fang Qiu's hand!

"Woo..."

A low and suppressed growl emanated from the throats of these Bunyips.

They were just like vicious dogs.

They fixated on Fang Qiu, and their tentacle-like limbs covered in fur at the joints, supporting their body, suddenly exerted force and bounced from the ground.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

The Bunyips immediately frenziedly lunged at Fang Qiu from all directions.

Over there...

The Bunyip, which had been biting the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit from the beginning, was still standing in place, biting the roots as if trying to restrict Fang Qiu in this way.

"I thought they were rare, but now it seems that there are quite a lot!"

Fang Qiu fiercely pulled with his right hand.

The Bunyip, which was holding on tightly to the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit without moving at all, staggered and almost fell to the ground.

Just as it stood up again, ready to compete with Fang Qiu in strength, Fang Qiu swung his right hand violently, and a tremendous force burst out, directly throwing the motionless Bunyip away.

Because they were all ordinary creatures, these Bunyips posed no threat to Fang Qiu at all. Killing them didn't require any effort!

He swung the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit immediately.

In an instant, all the densely packed Bunyips in the surrounding area were cleared away.

But...

Just when Fang Qiu thought everything was over, another cluster of densely packed big eyes appeared in the pitch-black space around him.

"Still many?"

Seeing this, Fang Qiu raised an eyebrow.

Although these Bunyips did not absorb the Heaven and Earth energy and killing them didn't require any effort, it was precisely because of this that Fang Qiu could not sense their presence with his Divine Consciousness at all.

Therefore, Fang Qiu had no idea how many of these Bunyips were in this place.

"It seems that this is a nest."

Exhaling lightly, Fang Qiu quickly waved the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand, and fiercely whipped the Bunyips around him at an extremely fast speed.

The Bunyips launched wave after wave of wild attacks, without any fear even when stepping on the bodies of their companions.

“If all these Bunyips were to go out, what kind of scene would it be?”

Fang Qiu was shocked.

He hadn’t expected that in this underground cavern, there were still many of the legendary species that were believed by everyone to have disappeared in the modern era. It was truly astonishing.

Another wave of killings.

Immediately, Fang Qiu flew up, trying to see how large the nest of these Bunyips was.

Then...

After leaping into the air, he discovered that there were densely packed openings of caves all around him, and these Bunyips were all running here through the openings.

With his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu could clearly perceive that there was no water flow in the depths of those caves.

Those caves were just the nests of these Bunyips!

Most crucially...

Each of those caves had a considerable space. Now, there were densely packed Bunyips rushing out from those caves and madly pouncing on Fang Qiu.

After killing dozens of Bunyips, Fang Qiu took another look around and found that more and more Bunyips were gathering.

Instantly, he had a premonition in his heart.

Then...

He immediately spread out his Divine Consciousness.

To his astonishment, he discovered that the people who had been constantly chasing after him had already fallen into the underground river and were about to catch up!

Sensing the aura of these people, Fang Qiu looked so gloomy. He immediately rushed forward and killed a large number of Bunyips crazily at the spot where most of Bunyips gathered. Then he immediately turned back and jumped into the underground river again, quickly fleeing far away.

Because Fang Qiu had killed so many Bunyips fiercely, they all followed Fang Qiu into the underground river crazily.

In just a minute, the entire underground river was blocked.

In the underground river...

Fang Qiu swam away quickly along the current.

These ordinary Bunyips, even if they were swimming downstream, couldn't catch up with Fang Qiu at all.

Behind them...

The pursuers led by Little Saint Lord and the people from Murica, at full speed, quickly arrived at the area where the Bunyips gathered.

However...

They were all blocked by the Bunyips.

Seeing the densely packed Bunyips, Little Saint Lord at the forefront immediately attacked without showing any mercy.

Every burst of energy could completely annihilate all the Bunyips blocking their path.

The spring water was originally icy and clear in the underground river.

In a twinkling...

It was stained with blood.

The entire river was completely dyed blood red.

Just as the Little Saint Lord and the others were crazily slaughtering the Bunyips, there were still numerous Bunyips continuously jumping into the underground river from their nests, madly attacking the pursuers.

Ahead of him...

Fang Qiu was fleeing frantically.

The group of people who had come a little closer fell behind him once again due to the obstruction of the Bunyips!

With the exploration of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu clearly sensed the situation behind him, and he felt relieved slightly knowing that the Bunyips had bought him enough time.

Glancing at the Yuan Yang Fruit in his hand, Fang Qiu frowned and felt a little upset.

Fang Qiu was different from others.

His goal for obtaining this Yuan Yang Fruit was not for his own consumption, but rather for treating the old master.

If this Yuan Yang Fruit ended up in someone else's hands...

They could swallow it directly to erase the energy aura emitted by the Yuan Yang Fruit, but Fang Qiu couldn't.

He could neither eat it nor get rid of it.

How could he completely hide the energy aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit?

Fang Qiu knew very well.

If he didn't completely hide the energy aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit, those people would never stop chasing him.

So...

If he wanted to bring the Yuan Yang Fruit back to Huaxia to treat the old master, he had to first find a way to completely hide the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit!

But what could hide the aura of the Yuan Yang fruit?

Fang Qiu didn't know the answer.

He had already tried using his golden internal Qi to completely wrap the Yuan Yang Fruit, but it was difficult to suppress the energy aura emitted by the Yuan Yang Fruit.

In this case, if the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit was constantly leaked out, it would always attract those chasing after him.

This was the biggest difficulty Fang Qiu faced in trying to escape.

"It seems that I can only take it step by step."

After thinking about it for a long time, Fang Qiu still couldn't come up with a good solution.

After all...

This was the third-ranked Heaven Treasure.

Since it was an extraordinary object, it naturally had many incomprehensible characteristics.

He continued to move forward at a high speed.

While escaping, Fang Qiu carefully probed the surroundings with his Divine Consciousness.

Shortly after...

Fang Qiu sensed the presence of a cave area ahead.

The cave area was not large but empty.

Fang Qiu made it there.

He popped his head out and looked around carefully. He had thought it as another nest of the Bunyips, but he didn't see anything. The whole cave was empty.

After a brief investigation, Fang Qiu confirmed that there was nothing in this cave and no other way out. He jumped back into the underground river and continued his swift escape.

Along the way...

Fang Qiu encountered seven or eight similar underground caves.

After all, these caves were formed due to erosion by underground water over thousands of years.

"This is the ninth one."

Arriving at the ninth cave, Fang Qiu popped his head out of the water, glanced around, and was ready to continue to escape.

But just as he turned around...

Suddenly, a very subtle energy fluctuation came, causing Fang Qiu, who had been ready to leave, to instantly stop in his tracks!

Chapter 1772 A Small Mysterious Realm Appeared!

“Oh?”

An extremely subtle energy fluctuation, as if a person suddenly encountered a spider web while walking, was invisible but clearly tangible.

Swoosh!

Fang Qiu, who had just returned to the underground river, immediately popped his head out again.

Then, he moved.

With a swoosh, he directly broke through the water and flew quickly toward a corner of this space, where there was an entrance to a cave.

Over there...

It looked like a place where a river used to flow, similar to a fork in this underground river.

However, there was no water inside, and it appeared very dry.

At the deepest part...

There was a small space formed by the impact of the water flow, and outside that space, there was a water outlet similar to a drain.

Judging from the erosion marks left on the rocks by the water flow...

This place was probably formed during the overflow stage of the underground river, with the water rushing in, forming a whirlpool in the innermost area, and then flowing out from that drain-like outlet.

In this way, a cave was formed.

And just now...

The extremely subtle energy aura like a spider's thread that Fang Qiu had felt appeared in the cave!

"Gee?"

Upon entering, Fang Qiu carefully observed and immediately became puzzled.

Inside this area, there was actually nothing.

It was completely empty.

There was no trace of energy aura at all.

So, how did that energy aura appear just now?

With his mind full of doubts...

Fang Qiu began to search in this small cave

However, apart from pitch-black, smooth rock walls, there was not even a small stone in the cave, with nothing worth noting.

Fang Qiu's brows furrowed.

He reached out and began to feel the walls on all sides.

However...

While touching...

All of a sudden, Fang Qiu saw a very inconspicuous black rock, right on top of this cave, and it looked as if it had been covered with a layer of oil, emitting a shiny glow.

Clearly, this rock was different from the others.

Fang Qiu was confused.

He reached out his hand.

As soon as he stretched out his hand, he immediately found that his hand went straight into the rock.

In the meantime...

There was a sudden burst of attraction erupting from the rock, which sucked Fang Qiu in with a swoosh.

This pitch-black cave returned to calmness in an instant, as if nothing had happened.

In a blink of an eye...

Fang Qiu found himself in a completely unfamiliar place.

"Hmm?"

Fang Qiu glanced around.

He found that it was also a cave, similar to the kind of cave where ancient people lived on mountaintops.

But there was a difference.

This cave had no door.

It seemed to be a completely independent space, and it didn't look very big, with a diameter of less than fifty meters.

In the center of the cave, there was a stalagmite about the height of a person, emitting a warm red glow.

There was nothing beyond that. The entire space was empty.

Although the glow from the stalagmite was warm, there was no trace of warmth in the space, giving off a chilling feeling.

However, this chilling feeling didn't bother Fang Qiu at all.

"It's actually a small Mysterious Realm?"

After observing the surroundings, Fang Qiu determined that the entire place was actually a small Mysterious Realm.

Feeling the abundant Qi of Heaven and Earth in this space, Fang Qiu couldn't help but smile.

Unexpectedly...

He hadn't expected to meet a small Mysterious Realm in this place.

From the overall situation of this Mysterious Realm, it seemed that it was naturally formed, completely different from artificially created ones.

“Phew...”

Fang Qiu let out a sigh of relief and murmured, “I can finally rest for a while.”

Fang Qiu didn’t dare to hesitate.

He immediately sat cross-legged to regulate his breath.

He knew that the natural Mysterious Realm was like a small space completely hidden outside the real world. In this space, everything would be completely cut off from the real world.

Therefore, after entering this small Mysterious Realm, Fang Qiu no longer needed to worry about the leakage of Spiritual Qi from the Yuan Yang Fruit. Furthermore, the long escape had consumed a lot of his internal Qi, so he could take advantage of the cover of this small Mysterious Realm to quickly adjust his own strength to its peak state.

Of course...

Fang Qiu was still somewhat nervous.

Although this small Mysterious Realm could completely isolate his aura and the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit from the outside, it was still possible for others to discover its existence.

Just like how he discovered this small Mysterious Realm, if Little Saint Lord and the others also discovered it, it would be dangerous.

However, it was not easy to discover this small Mysterious Realm. As long as the energy here was not leaked, it would absolutely not be discovered.

Therefore, Fang Qiu could only quickly absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the Mysterious Realm, reduce the storage of Qi of Heaven and Earth as much as possible, and prevent it from leaking out, hoping not to be sensed by the pursuers.

At the same time...

Little Saint Lord took the lead and frantically killed the Bunyips that were constantly jumping into the water.

But even so...

There were still many Bunyips continuously jumping into the water, attacking people from various countries and forces.

But after all, they were ordinary animals, and people from various countries and forces were all acting madly, killing all the Bunyips that had jumped into the water.

The entire underground river reeked of blood, filled with the corpses of Bunyips.

Finally...

After a long time of killing...

Little Saint Lord first rushed out of the area where the Bunyips' nest was located, followed closely by everyone else.

Perhaps due to the large number of deaths...

The remaining Bunyips in the nest no longer dared to jump into the water.

If they also jumped, they would really disappear from this world!

Then...

Everyone rushed out of the nest of the Bunyips.

However, as they followed downstream, preparing to continue to chase after John Doe, they suddenly realized that John Doe's aura had disappeared.

Completely!

Even the aura emitted by the Yuan Yang Fruit had completely disappeared.

Seeing this...

Everyone's faces darkened in an instant.

Especially Little Saint Lord and the people from Murica.

Their purpose in coming to Autranssy was to kill John Doe and obtain the Yuan Yang Fruit.

But now...

They not only failed to achieve their purpose, but also had the Yuan Yang Fruit taken away by John Doe. And now, they had completely lost John Doe's trail. This situation thoroughly angered them!

Not only did they fail to kill John Doe, but they also had their Yuan Yang Fruit taken away by John Doe?

This was simply a humiliation!

Apart from Little Saint Lord and the people from Murica...

Those ones from the other countries and forces couldn't help but become restless.

In their opinions...

As long as John Doe had not swallowed the spiritual fruit, they still had a chance to get it, so they had been desperately chasing after John Doe.

But now, they had even lost the aura of both John Doe and the spiritual fruit. The clues that could be used to track them were completely lost. How could they continue the pursuit?

“Roar!”

The desert giant lizard that was chasing from behind also seemed to have noticed that the aura of both John Doe and the spiritual fruit had disappeared. It suddenly leaped and jumped into the nest of the Bunyips, roaring furiously and scaring the Bunyips in the nest to retreat.

After the roar, the desert giant lizard leaped into the underground river and swam frantically. Whenever it encountered human beings along the way, it opened its mouth and fiercely tried to devour them out of anger!

At this time...

Human beings were equally angry.

Seeing that the desert giant lizard was attacking them crazily, they did not hold back at all and vented all their anger on the desert giant lizard.

If it weren't for the fact that the desert giant lizard had bitten off the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit, how could John Doe have taken it away?

In the water...

Due to the narrow underground river, the desert giant lizard could not fully display its power. Under the fierce attacks of human beings, it could only twist its body frantically, biting at the people around it while spitting out venom in an attempt to poison them.

Unfortunately, the pursuers were all experts.

Each of them had a layer of energy around, isolating the water from their bodies.

Under such a situation...

The attacks of the desert giant lizard were completely useless to them.

As a result...

The desert giant lizard suffered crazy attacks, but the people around it were unscathed.

It became more and more agitated and charged forward desperately.

It rushed out of the crowd and bit at Little Saint Lord at the forefront!

Little Saint Lord hadn't expected that the desert giant lizard would follow them here. Upon its pounce, Little Saint Lord did not dare to directly confront it.

After all, the sharp teeth of the desert giant lizard could even bite off the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

But...

In the narrow underground river...

It was much easier to deal with the desert giant lizard.

Little Saint Lord was extremely fast and agile in the river. After evading the attacks of the desert giant lizard again and again, Little Saint Lord came up to its back.

Little Saint Lord raised his fists.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Punches wildly landed on the back of the desert giant lizard!

The desert giant lizard was immediately slammed down to the bottom of the underground river.

After delivering a series of powerful blows, Little Saint Lord realized that the desert giant lizard's skin was thick and difficult to break and then stopped the assault.

As soon as Little Saint Lord stopped...

The desert giant lizard immediately jumped up from the river and came to a cave.

With the help of the spacious cave...

The desert giant lizard suddenly turned its head and jumped into the underground river again. It swam upstream and ran away crazily.

Although Little Saint Lord did not break its skin, his punches injured its internal organs. Moreover, it knew that it could not deal with these people in the narrow underground river. In addition, the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit had already disappeared, so it had no reason to continue the pursuit.

If it kept chasing, it might lose its life!

Seeing the giant lizard run away...

The people from various countries and forces who brushed past it all launched attacks one after another. They ruthlessly punched the giant lizard a few more times to vent their anger.

The giant lizard could only flee.

Chapter 1773

In the cave where the desert giant lizard had turned...

Little Saint Lord was sitting cross-legged on a smooth black stone.

After the desert giant lizard left, he went ashore.

Little Saint Lord first searched through this cave area, but found no trace of John Doe. Then, he sat down cross-legged on the spot and began to close the eyes and sense John Doe's aura with secret techniques.

He guessed...

John Doe must have found a place to hide. Otherwise, his aura wouldn't have disappeared so suddenly!

In this situation, he could only carefully search and investigate, trying to sense any aura of energy related to John Doe or the Yuan Yang Fruit.

He desired to determine John Doe's location.

Meanwhile...

The others also arrived in this area one after another.

Seeing Little Saint Lord here, the people of Murica nodded to the persons beside Little Saint Lord, and then guarded him together.

Upon seeing this, the people of the other forces did not dare to approach.

After all...

They had just fought against Little Saint Lord for the Yuan Yang Fruit, causing Little Saint Lord to suffer some injuries. It was impossible for them to approach him now.

Moreover, John Doe disappeared with the Yuan Yang Fruit, putting everyone on edge.

Once they provoked Little Saint Lord at this time, it would probably cause a dispute.

At this very moment...

It was the time for peace.

To avoid being attacked by the Nirvana Organization and Murica, people from various countries and forces gathered together and began to discuss.

“Where exactly did John Doe go?

“He’s definitely not here. Before encountering those beasts, I sensed that John Doe was still downstream, neither far away from nor close here. Maybe there are other passages to leave?”

Someone said.

People from various countries and forces did not hesitate and immediately jumped into the underground river, rushing downstream quickly.

Over here...

Little Saint Lord also opened his eyes.

He had better sensory perception than anyone else here.

He remembered very clearly the area where John Doe had disappeared, so he immediately sat down to sense as soon as John Doe disappeared, in order to carefully determine if there were any remnants of John Doe's aura.

However, after sensing for a long time, he didn't detect even a trace of aura.

"That's really strange."

Opening his eyes, Little Saint Lord was confused.

Along the way, he had been having his full attention on staring at John Doe's aura, except when he was attacked by the Bunyips.

But ironically, John Doe disappeared at that moment.

This left him completely puzzled.

Where exactly did John Doe go?

“Let’s go!”

Without any hesitation...

Standing up and shouting, Little Saint Lord jumped directly into the underground river, increasing his speed to the extreme, rushing towards the place where John Doe had last been.

The people from Murica followed closely behind.

Before long...

Little Saint Lord and the people from Murica caught up with the ones who had set out earlier.

As they made their way, every time they passed through a cave, they would enter and search, making sure there were no clues before resuming their journey underwater.

Then, they arrived at the eighth cave.

Everyone came to a stop.

Little Saint Lord and the people from Murica also arrived.

They had sensed that this was the last location where John Doe had stayed before disappearing.

It was a vast cave with many branching passages!

At this time...

People from various countries and major forces had already dispersed, searching throughout the cave.

Upon reaching here...

Little Saint Lord sat down cross-legged again.

He continued to carefully sense the situation within the cave.

But still, he found no trace of aura.

It was as if John Doe had never been here at all.

Helplessly...

He could only wait for the search results from the other forces.

The people from Murica also began to search throughout this cave.

In the end...

They had carefully searched through every small passage and fork, but still found no clues.

Under such a situation...

Everyone was on the verge of madness!

They had spent so many days guarding in the desert, exerting so much effort in their pursuit of the Yuan Yang Fruit, but John Doe ended up taking advantage of them!

It truly infuriated them!

Even if the Yuan Yang Fruit had fallen into the hands of someone from another force, they would not have harbored such resentment and anger. But it just happened to end up in the hands of John Doe, who had been hiding and taking advantage of them in the dark all along.

This was unacceptable to everyone.

“Damn it, I don’t believe John Doe can still fly!”

“He actually stole it!”

“He must be hiding nearby. He definitely hasn’t run far.”

“I don’t believe we can’t find him!”

With that...

No one was willing to leave.

They didn’t believe that John Doe could disappear completely in such a mysterious way.

At the back of the crowd...

Quietly following behind, Mason also found no trace of John Doe. Seeing that everyone couldn’t find any clues, Mason immediately hid at a fork in a distance, and took out his phone to send a message to the authorities.

“John Doe has disappeared. Block all the exits of the country immediately and strictly investigate all strangers. We must not let John Doe leave Autranssy!”

The message was sent.

Only then did Mason return.

At this time...

Everyone had gathered in this enormous cave, except those who had been assigned to search downstream of the underground river.

Meanwhile...

A piece of news about chasing John Doe appeared on the underground-force forum.

“John Doe got the Yuan Yang Fruit and hid in the underground river. There is no trace of him now. Everyone is searching for him!”

It was unknown who posted it.

In this situation, this person still posted the spot news on the underground-force forum.

As soon as this news came out...

It immediately caused a sensation in the entire underground-force forum.

Of course, the person who leaked this news also narrated the entire process.

After reading the whole process...

Everyone who followed this matter on the underground-force forum was shocked!

“Damn it, did Autranssy even use missiles?”

“Four missiles have been launched. The Autranssy authorities are really spending a lot of money!”

“John Doe? John Doe stole the Yuan Yang Fruit?”

“It deserves to be a top-level spiritual fruit. There is actually such a powerful guardian beast and even both John Doe and Little Saint Lord can’t cut off its roots. Isn’t it too terrifying?”

“Sure enough, John Doe is still the same. He could actually think of burrowing underground to escape and even find an underground river.”

“No way. Did John Doe really take the Yuan Yang Fruit away? All the major powers and forces around the world had so many people searching for it, and even the Nirvana Organization sent out Little Saint Lord, yet the Yuan Yang Fruit still ended up in the hands of John Doe?”

“John Doe is really cunning, hiding in the desert to steal the Yuan Yang Fruit.”

“Although he got the Yuan Yang Fruit, it’s obviously not so easy to escape from Autranssy.”

“Yes, now all the countries in the world are searching for him, including Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization, who is stronger than him. In this case, how can John Doe escape?”

“The underground river’s channel is all made of rocks, and at most there might be some caves. If John Doe tries to break through the rocks and escape, he will surely be easily found. But the fact that the experts from all over the world have searched for so long without any clues indicates that John Doe hasn’t escaped, but rather found a place to hide.”

“Faced with so many opponents, the only thing John Doe can do is hide, right?”

“This time, John Doe definitely won’t be able to escape.”

“The Yuan Yang Fruit is just temporarily in his hands. The final owner hasn’t been decided yet!”

For a moment...

On the underground-force forum, everyone began to discuss.

Although no one had expected that the Yuan Yang Fruit would actually end up in John Doe’s hands, everyone believed that even if John Doe had snatched the Yuan Yang Fruit, it would not be so easy for him to take it away.

After all, there were still so many experts searching for him.

Moreover, the Autranssy authorities would never let him escape so easily.

In Huaxia...

The top-level officials also received the news immediately.

When they heard that John Doe had robbed the Yuan Yang Fruit, they were all shocked.

Although from the beginning, the top-level officials of Huaxia hadn’t planned to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit and therefore never sent anyone over, they also knew what the Yuan Yang Fruit represented, so they also hoped that the Yuan Yang Fruit would ultimately belong to a country or force that was not hostile to Huaxia.

Much to their surprise...

John Doe had actually snatched the Yuan Yang Fruit.

It should be noted that...

This time, the people sent by the countries were all very powerful experts, and they were even forming alliances.

But John Doe was alone!

With the weakest force, he managed to snatch the much-anticipated treasure from so many people.

How could John Doe achieve such a magnificent feat?

The top-level officials of Huaxia were all stunned!

While they were stunned, they also hoped that John Doe could come back safely, hoping that nothing would happen to him.

Before long...

The top-level officials of Huaxia ordered, "Try to contact John Doe immediately. Once anyone gets in touch with him, immediately provide all means to bring him back safely!"

In the meantime...

Qingyun also received the news.

"He snatched it away?"

When he heard the news, Qingyun was also very surprised. He had been worried that John Doe would be in trouble, but he had never expected that John Doe not only didn't get into trouble but also managed to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit from so many people from different countries and forces.

This result was simply beyond his expectations!

Before long...

The news reached the army.

After receiving the order to contact John Doe immediately and learning the news from the underground-force forum, Li Ji was extremely excited.

If there was anyone who believed in John Doe the most, it would be him, but at the same time, he was also the one who doubted John Doe the most.

It was because...

He had seen with his own eyes that John Doe had been seriously injured and on the verge of death from being attacked by the Nirvana Organization!

Therefore, when he heard that Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization had also gone there, he had been worrying about Fang Qiu all along. But he had never expected that John Doe would actually snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit.

However, he also knew that John Doe was not safe, so he was still very anxious.

When the order from above came, he did not hesitate at all and immediately started trying to contact John Doe, hoping to quickly confirm his situation!

Chapter 1774 Find a Way to Hide the Aura!

Li Ji dialed the number, but there was no response, not even a signal connection note.

He frowned.

After hanging up, he dialed again.

He made more than ten calls, but there was still no response.

Since he couldn't get through to Fang Qiu at all, Li Ji hurriedly went to access satellite surveillance, attempting to locate Fang Qiu.

However, even the satellite surveillance lost contact with Fang Qiu, showing no trace of his location.

In a situation where he couldn't get in touch with Fang Qiu at all...

Li Ji was filled with worry.

Right now, he couldn't do anything except wait!

He must wait for Fang Qiu to take the initiative to contact him.

...

Under the Autranssy Desert...

After resting for a long time, Fang Qiu finally restored himself to his peak state.

Although he had been resting all this time...

But...

Fang Qiu had kept his Divine Consciousness covering this natural small Mysterious Realm. If anyone entered, he would immediately sense it.

“Fortunately, no one came in.”

Upon waking up, Fang Qiu breathed a sigh of relief.

He was really afraid that Little Saint Lord would find this place, but luckily, no one had discovered the existence of this natural Mysterious Realm.

“Now that no one has found it, I need to separate the Yuan Yang Fruit from its roots as soon as possible. Otherwise, it would be almost impossible to bring the Yuan Yang Fruit back.”

With this thought in mind...

Fang Qiu clenched his right hand, and the divine sword immediately took shape in his hand.

The sharpest thing he had was undoubtedly the divine sword.

Although he had tried it before and found that the divine sword could only leave a faint mark on the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu had no idea what else he could use to cut off the roots except for the divine sword!

He held the divine sword tightly.

Fang Qiu held the Yuan Yang Fruit in his left hand, then put it and its roots flat on the ground, and immediately swung the divine sword down.

Clang!

A crisp sound rang out.

Just like the first try, the divine sword fell onto the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit, producing a sound that was reminiscent of the collision between metals.

Taking a closer look...

He noticed that there were no marks on the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

“The material is no different from ordinary tree roots, and it even looks quite soft. How could it be so hard?”

Fang Qiu suddenly furrowed his brows and began to observe carefully.

As a result...

He discovered that the roots seemed to have absorbed a great deal of Qi of Heaven and Earth, which then had been fully converted into nutrients to aid in the growth of the roots.

Because there was an abundance of Qi of Heaven and Earth being converted into nutrients and the fruit itself did not need any Qi of Heaven and Earth, such nutrients had been finally used to strengthen the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit.

This explained why the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit spread out like a spider’s web, reaching far in the desert.

Unfortunately...

The roots of this Yuan Yang Fruit had completely absorbed the nutrients converted from the Qi of Heaven and Earth, so that there was no Qi of Heaven and Earth in the roots. In essence, they were just roots that had been refined over thousands of years.

“It’s too difficult to cut off the roots. If I were to strip the bark of these roots and make armor out of the bark, no weapon would be able to inflict any damage on me!”

Fang Qiu murmured to himself.

Indeed.

If these roots which could not be cut through by him with the divine sword, and even by Little Saint Lord with all his strength, could be used to make armor, it would surely be the top-level defense equipment in the world.

Unfortunately, these roots were too thick to be weaved together or cut through.

The idea of making armor out of the roots was simply not feasible.

Moreover...

Fang Qiu hadn’t even figured out how to remove the Yuan Yang Fruit yet!

After careful observation, Fang Qiu noticed that the thinnest part of the Yuan Yang Fruit was where the fruit was connected to the roots, just like an apple’s stem.

That might be the best place to cut.

With this thought...

Fang Qiu immediately began to try, wielding the divine sword and striking directly at that spot.

Although the spot was subtle, there was no doubt that Fang Qiu could aim accurately.

Clang!

With one strike, a crisp sound echoed.

Sure enough, the strike left a white mark on the stem, but there was only a mark, far from cutting it through.

“Previously, I used my golden internal Qi to leave a white mark on the roots. Now I can do it without using golden internal Qi. If I use golden internal Qi, can I completely cut it through?”

With this thought...

Fang Qiu immediately activated the golden internal Qi within his body and swiftly infused it into the divine sword.

With the infusion of the golden internal Qi...

A layer of golden sword energy immediately emanated from the divine sword's blade. Under Fang Qiu's control, this constantly flickering golden sword energy struck out.

Whiz!

A crisp sound rang out.

At the moment of the strike, Fang Qiu clearly saw that the golden sword energy had indeed cut in. While the cut wasn't deep, based on this situation, it wouldn't be long before the Yuan Yang Fruit and its roots were completely separated.

Whiz! Whiz! Whiz!

Fang Qiu launched one strike after another.

Each strike split apart a little bit, and then he turned the roots to the other side and struck again.

In this way...

After more than ten strikes, he finally completely separated the Yuan Yang Fruit from its roots.

“Phew...”

Taking off the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu immediately breathed a sigh of relief.

Finally, he didn’t have to drag these dozens of damn roots around anymore.

However...

Although he had taken off the Yuan Yang Fruit...

How could he hide the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit?

Looking at the Yuan Yang Fruit, which was completely red with densely packed facets, just like a ruby, Fang Qiu furrowed his eyebrows once again.

Although this small Mysterious Realm could completely hide the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu couldn’t stay hidden here forever, right?

The reason why he risked his life to snatch the Yuan Yang Fruit was that he wanted to take it back to the country to treat the old master.

If he hid here forever, wouldn’t it be as if he didn’t get it?

Therefore...

Fang Qiu must leave.

But before leaving, he must find a way to hide the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit. Only by finding a solution could Fang Qiu have a chance to bring the Yuan Yang Fruit back to Huaxia!

However, the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit was too strong. Even using golden internal Qi could not conceal it. What other method could be used?

“The Mysterious Realm can hide the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit because it claims to be a small world, independent of the real world. So, what method can be used to achieve this?”

Fang Qiu began to think.

It was absolutely impossible for him to create a portable mini Mysterious Realm. So, what if he followed the method of how a Mysterious Realm was formed?

“The formation of a Mysterious Realm is due to the mysterious jade mine...

“I’ve got it!

“Mysterious jade.”

Suddenly, Fang Qiu’s eyes lit up.

He seemed to have found a solution.

He clearly remembered that these mysterious jades contained a huge amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth, but the material of these jades was very special, which prevented the release of the Qi of Heaven and Earth contained within.

In this case, if these jades were used as containers, could they completely hide the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit?

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu immediately began to search for the mysterious jades in this small Mysterious Realm with his Divine Consciousness.

Since it was a Mysterious Realm, there must be jades.

Under the detection of his Divine Consciousness...

Fang Qiu quickly discovered the possible location of the mysterious jades, right in the center of the Mysterious Realm, around the stalagmite which was about the height of a person and emitting a warm glow.

He came to the stalagmite.

Fang Qiu squatted down and put two fingers of his right hand together, and a layer of sword light immediately emanated from his fingertips.

The sword light gently swept across the ground.

After he cut open the rock on the ground, a patch of white mysterious jades appeared underneath.

"I hope it works."

Fang Qiu silently prayed.

Then...

He immediately dug out a piece of white mysterious jade with the sword light.

Fang Qiu didn't dare to dig much more.

Because this Mysterious Realm was too small, the amount of mysterious jades stored here must not be much. If he dug too much and the Mysterious Realm thus collapsed, it would be disastrous.

After digging out the jade...

Fang Qiu immediately began to do crafts carefully.

First, he cut the jade into two halves, and then carved a groove on each half, just enough to hold the Yuan Yang Fruit.

After the carving...

Fang Qiu placed the fruit inside and closed the two halves of the jade.

Then...

Sure enough, he found that the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit was really hidden.

Fang Qiu was overjoyed.

Then he immediately came to the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit, and found a crack in the bark, near the end, where the roots had been bitten off by the desert giant lizard. He used his divine sword to cut along the crack.

It took him a long time to finally cut off a small piece of bark!

He tightly bound the two pieces of jade with the bark.

Then he carefully sensed it again.

Sure enough...

The aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit had been completely hidden by the mysterious jade, and even the energy aura contained in the mysterious jade had been hidden by itself.

It looked like an ordinary white jade!

After all of this was done...

Fang Qiu finally felt relieved.

"I wonder what's going on outside."

He muttered to himself and prepared to go out and see what was happening outside.

However...

In order to ensure the safety of the Yuan Yang Fruit, Fang Qiu buried it on the spot. Then he stood up and reached out his hand to the shining stalagmite in front of him.

The moment he touched the stalagmite, he immediately completely suppressed his aura.

The next moment...

Fang Qiu's hand directly passed through the stalagmite.

Then, a light flashed before his eyes.

Under the attraction, Fang Qiu instantly returned to the edge of the underground river.

At this time...

There was no one around.

While hiding his aura, Fang Qiu immediately spread out his Divine Consciousness to investigate the surroundings.

As a result...

There was a lot of aura of energy around, searching in various caves nearby.

It seemed that no one had left yet.

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu immediately reached into the rock above his head.

Just as his fingers touched the black oily rock above his head, he was immediately sucked into the small Mysterious Realm once again.

As soon as Fang Qiu returned to the small Mysterious Realm, the sound of splashing water rang out!

Chapter 1775 The Mysterious Realm Was Exposed!

Swoosh!

The sound of splashing water was heard.

A figure shot up from the underground river and arrived at the relatively small cave area.

Upon closer inspection...

It was Little Saint Lord of the Nirvana Organization!

Upon arriving at this cave area, Little Saint Lord checked the surroundings, but found no clues. He then leaped back into the underground river.

Within the Mysterious Realm...

Buzz!

As soon as Fang Qiu entered the Mysterious Realm, the phone in his trouser pocket vibrated.

Presumably, his mobile phone had just regained signal upon his leaving and received a message.

He took out his phone and checked.

It was a text message from Li Ji.

“Contact me. The top-level officials ordered us to do everything we can to take you back to the country. You must ensure your safety. Don’t take risks!”

Upon reading this message...

Fang Qiu couldn’t help but wryly smile.

He did want to contact the people in the country and return as soon as possible to take the Yuan Yang Fruit to the old master. However, even if someone were to take him back, he still had to find a way out of there first.

Upon careful inspection, he found that his phone had no signal at all within the small Mysterious Realm, making it impossible to reply.

Without any other choice...

Fang Qiu could only put away his mobile phone, dig out the Yuan Yang Fruit, and carry it with him.

Then he began to observe and study this small Mysterious Realm.

He wondered if there was any way out of there.

Fang Qiu securely put away the Yuan Yang Fruit.

Then, he began to explore the small Mysterious Realm.

Outside...

Little Saint Lord searched through all the nearby caves and eventually returned to the largest one, namely the eighth cave, and began to think carefully.

“Impossible! Absolutely impossible!

“Just now, when we killed those beasts, it didn’t take much time at all. Even if John Doe increased his speed to the extreme, he couldn’t have disappeared without a trace in such a short time!

“But where is he?”

Thinking of this, Little Saint Lord immediately closed his eyes.

Carefully recalling the various caves he had searched just now, he wondered if there was anything suspicious.

“I’ve got it!

“The Yuan Yang Fruit!”

Something occurred to Little Saint Lord.

“Although John Doe has a way to hide his aura, he absolutely can’t hide the aura emitted by the Yuan Yang Fruit. And now, even the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit has disappeared.

“John Doe could never have found a way to hide the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit in such a short time unless he swallowed it!”

Thinking of this, Little Saint Lord tensed up.

He was also afraid that John Doe would really swallow the Yuan Yang Fruit, because he also knew very well that John Doe was very strong and would soon break through to the level of Two-Flower Core Formation. Once John Doe really swallowed the Yuan Yang Fruit, his two goals of this journey would completely fall through!

Once John Doe swallowed the Yuan Yang Fruit, there was a very high chance that he would break through to the level of Two-Flower Core Formation, and then it wouldn't be so easy for him to kill John Doe.

"No."

Suddenly, Little Saint Lord vigorously shook his head and said, "He has many opportunities to directly swallow the Yuan Yang Fruit, but he didn't swallow it. Instead, he was even constantly running away, dragging the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit without any reluctance. This shows that he doesn't want to eat the Yuan Yang Fruit at all. His purpose is to take it back!"

Judging from the behaviors of John Doe along the way, this was indeed the case.

If John Doe just wanted to get the Yuan Yang Fruit for himself, he would have swallowed it long ago and fled.

"First, he didn't eat the Yuan Yang Fruit, and the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit disappeared so completely when he could not have found a way to conceal the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit. Then, his aura also disappeared so completely!

"Could it be..."

Thinking of this, Little Saint Lord suddenly changed his face and said, "A Mysterious Realm?

"The only possible explanation for his aura to vanish completely, along with the aura of the Yuan Yang Fruit, is the existence of a Mysterious Realm!

"Could it be that there is a Mysterious Realm nearby?"

Little Saint Lord knew that based on the current situation, there was almost no second possible explanation except for the Mysterious Realm!

“The final place where John Doe had stayed before he disappeared was here, and there are still three cave areas below.

“Judging from the time it took us to deal with those beasts, John Doe could only have reached the third cave area below at most with his speed.

“Even if it is a Mysterious Realm, it would still take some time to find a way to enter it. So I can rule out the third cave area. John Doe couldn’t enter the Mysterious Realm directly as soon as he arrived in the third cave area, because he didn’t have time to look for access to the Mysterious Realm in the third cave area.

“In other words, the place where he disappeared could only be the area between here and the second cave area below.

“If there is really a Mysterious Realm, it must be within this area.”

With this thought...

Little Saint Lord immediately began to search.

First of all, it was this huge cave area where he was staying.

Although he had already searched once before, this time Little Saint Lord was even more meticulous. He would personally touch anything that seemed suspicious.

Whether it was a small pebble, a crack on a large rock, or a rock wall that appeared obviously different from its surroundings. he would carefully feel it.

After more than ten minutes...

He finally finished searching this cave area and confirmed that there was no Mysterious Realm within this area. Only then did Little Saint Lord jump back into the underground river and continue searching in the channel.

While searching, he headed towards the next cave area.

And the next cave area happened to be where Fang Qiu and the small Mysterious Realm were located.

Quickly searching through the section of an underground river, Little Saint Lord arrived at the exact cave area. He carefully observed and searched, step by step, getting closer to the location of the small Mysterious Realm where Fang Qiu was staying.

In the small Mysterious Realm...

Fang Qiu walked around inside and checked carefully, but found nothing.

As Fang Qiu knew...

He definitely couldn't step out of the Mysterious Realm now.

In that case, the only way to escape was to rely on this small Mysterious Realm.

"Divine Consciousness!"

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu immediately extended his Divine Consciousness.

He wanted to see how far his Divine Consciousness could extend in this small Mysterious Realm.

To his surprise...

His Divine Consciousness directly penetrated the Mysterious Realm, clearly sensing the surrounding mountains.

This situation surprised Fang Qiu a lot.

In the past, the Mysterious Realms he had encountered could tolerate unlimited extensions of his Divine Consciousness, and he could not extend his Divine Consciousness outside those Mysterious Realms. However, due to the small size of this Mysterious Realm and the large coverage of Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness, it easily penetrated through this Mysterious Realm.

"The impact of the water flow in this place used to be so strong. That is to say, the water here used to be very turbulent. In this case, will there be any other underground rivers nearby?"

Fang Qiu wondered.

He began to explore carefully.

Then...

Fang Qiu really found it.

"Over there..."

With the help of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu clearly felt that a stream of water-type energy was slowly flowing. Although the energy was much weaker than the underground river outside, Fang Qiu was sure that it was also an underground river!

In the right direction, Fang Qiu immediately walked over.

“Fifty meters away.

“It seems that I have to dig my way out from here.”

With this in mind...

Fang Qiu immediately summoned the divine sword and started digging rapidly.

The distance of fifty meters was neither long nor short.

In order not to be discovered by the people outside, Fang Qiu moved quietly and fast.

Five minutes later.

He finally dug into the underground river.

Although the water flow was not strong, the underground river was quite spacious.

He entered the underground river.

Fang Qiu didn't hesitate at all and immediately flew out quickly along the surface of the water.

This time, Fang Qiu didn't fly downstream.

Instead, he went upstream. Anyway, the water flow was not strong and did not affect him at all.

During the flight for an unknown period of time, he made several turns and loops.

After a long time...

Fang Qiu finally saw a glimmer of light ahead.

He accelerated and rushed up.

When he reached the light spot, Fang Qiu was surprised to see that it was a marshland.

At the entrance of the underground river...

It was a sunken area in the marshland, just enough for one person to pass through.

Swoosh!

He flew out of it.

Fang Qiu glanced around.

It was a wetland with marshes all over and tall trees that thrived specifically in wetlands. The ground was covered with shallow water.

"I finally made it out."

Grinning, Fang Qiu immediately flew away.

Underground.

"Hmm?"

After searching for a while, Little Saint Lord found the entrance to the small Mysterious Realm. After careful investigation and search, he finally found a shiny rock wall at the entrance, which was different from other rocks.

With doubts in his heart, he reached out to touch the rock.

Swoosh!

The scenery before him changed.

Little Saint Lord was instantly sucked into the small Mysterious Realm.

He looked around.

Little Saint Lord raised his eyebrows as he saw the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit, which were dozens of meters long.

Upon seeing the roots...

Little Saint Lord instantly looked gloomy.

He knew that...

John Doe had separated the Yuan Yang Fruit from its roots.

He turned to look.

On a wall of the small Mysterious Realm, there was actually a hole that had been dug out!

“Damn it!”

After a vile curse...

Little Saint Lord immediately rushed into the hole and quickly arrived in the underground river fifty meters away.

There was actually such a wide underground river here.

Little Saint Lord was suddenly furious!

He couldn't sense any aura of energy at all, not only from John Doe and the Yuan Yang Fruit, but even the remnants of their presence.

As a result, he couldn't tell which direction John Doe had escaped from at all.

At this time...

The two members of the Nirvana Organization and all the people from Murica behind also entered this small Mysterious Realm. Other forces spread the news as soon as they saw it.

Everyone gathered around and entered the small Mysterious Realm.

When they first entered the Mysterious Realm, everyone couldn't help but sigh at how amazing it was. It was astonishing to find such a hidden Mysterious Realm in such a place.

However...

When they saw the roots of the Yuan Yang Fruit, which were dozens of meters long, everyone's face darkened!

Chapter 1776 John Doe's Stunning Luck

"John Doe got away?"

The people of various forces had followed the Muricans and members of Nirvana into the small Mysterious Realm. When they saw the root of the Yuan Yang Fruit on the ground and the hole next to it, their faces darkened in an instant.

No one had expected John Doe to be able to find such a Mysterious Realm during his escape.

Moreover, he made a tunnel by digging into the Mysterious Realm and escaped without anyone knowing it.

How did John Doe make it?

All the people at the scene were experts. Even people as strong as them had to search for a long time before they could find this small Mysterious Realm.

How could John Doe have time to search carefully when he was being chased crazily?

Since he didn't have time, how did he discover the entire small Mysterious Realm?

The Little Saint Lord, who was much stronger than him, had searched for so long. How did John Doe manage to find it in an instant and run straight in?

No one could figure it out.

In the end, everyone could only shake their heads and sigh with emotion, feeling that John Doe was really lucky.

At the same time, they all quickly flew into the tunnel and continued to chase after John Doe.

Behind them, Mason, the Autransian SS-level expert, who had been hiding at the back, immediately followed everyone when he saw them enter the Mysterious Realm.

As soon as he entered the Mysterious Realm, he was stunned.

Without any hesitation, he immediately took out his mobile phone and checked it. He found that the signal was very weak.

Only when he approached the tunnel dug by John Doe would the signal be slightly better.

After confirming that there was a signal, Mason immediately sent the current coordinates to the Autransian officials and added, "Get ready to send someone to protect this place immediately. It's very important. Even if we don't get the Yuan Yang Fruit, it's a small gain for us to keep this place safe!"

After sending the message, Mason put away his mobile phone. He thought about a saying in Huaxia, "Wherever there are Heaven Treasures, there is John Doe!"

"The luck of John Doe is really not just a legend!"

With a sigh, Mason immediately followed the tunnel that John Doe had dug and chased after him quickly.

After rushing out of the swamp area, Fang Qiu changed his direction and continued to move quickly.

After running for more than a hundred kilometers, he stopped in a high mountain jungle.

After confirming that there was no aura of energy within the range of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu felt a little relieved. He quickly took out his mobile phone from his trouser pocket and called Li Ji.

After a while-

“Hello?”

When the call was connected, Li Ji asked nervously, “How are things going over there?”

“Everything’s going well.”

Fang Qiu replied, “I just got rid of those people going after me.”

“That’s great.”

Hearing what Fang Qiu said, Li Ji suddenly felt much more relieved and asked, “Where are you now? I’ll arrange for our men to pick you up immediately.”

Fang Qiu said, “I don’t know what this place is for the time being. You can directly check the coordinates and then send me a message.”

“Alright, take a rest for now. I’ll make the arrangements right away!”

Li Ji answered and then hung up the phone.

After putting away his phone, Fang Qiu first looked around to make sure that there was no one around. Then, he sat down cross-legged and adjusted his aura to recover.

Of course, his Divine Consciousness still covered an area of 80 kilometers around.

Once there was any unusual energy aura, Fang Qiu could immediately detect it.

Although he had run more than 100 kilometers away, Fang Qiu was very clear that those people had gone crazy. They would never give up. They must be looking for him everywhere.

Once he was accidentally discovered, it would be difficult to get rid of them again.

Therefore, Fang Qiu was very vigilant. He didn't leave any trace that might get him discovered.

Three minutes later-

Beep!

His phone rang.

He took out his phone and found that it was a message from Li Ji.

Fang Qiu didn't hesitate and immediately clicked on the message to check.

In the message was a map.

The red dot, which represented his location, was marked in a place called Tanami. On the map, there were a lot of water sources around this place and many ambers of various sizes.

Moreover, he had arrived at the territory north of Autransy.

The other blue dot was marked in a small town called Waters 700 kilometers away.

In addition to this encrypted map, there was also a line of text in the message. "I will monitor your position in real time. When you arrive at the designated place, I will have our liaison go to you."

After reading the message, Fang Qiu immediately clicked on the map on his phone. After confirming the direction of the Waters Town, he moved and immediately rushed over quickly.

For ordinary people, to cross 700 kilometers, taking a bus might take nearly ten hours, but it was not far for Fang Qiu.

Besides, this place was located in the inland area of Autranssy. There were very few people or big cities here. It was even difficult to meet a town along the way.

Therefore, Fang Qiu didn't need to worry at all. He directly activated all the internal Qi in his body and rushed all the way to Waters Town at his fastest speed.

Of course, while moving at a high speed, Fang Qiu was not only very vigilant to observe the situation within 80 kilometers with his Divine Consciousness but also to smooth out the turbulent Qi of Heaven and Earth in the air on his way.

Two and a half hours later, Fang Qiu finally arrived at Waters Town.

By this time, night had fallen.

Fang Qiu didn't know how long he had been fleeing underground. Anyway, it was already dusk when he came out of the underground river.

He entered the town.

Under the cover of the night, Fang Qiu quickly came to a clothing store, changed his clothes, and then walked to a cafe in the center of the town, where the candlelight was warm. He sat down to eat.

It had been many days since he last ate.

Just as the food Fang Qiu ordered was served on the table, a woman dressed like an Anglanish came over and asked with a smile, "Excuse me, may I sit here?" Before Fang Qiu could reply, she sat down directly opposite him.

Fang Qiu didn't say anything and just focused on eating.

Just then-

“This is yours.”

The woman handed over a backpack with a smile.

Fang Qiu looked up and saw that her skin was very fair, but she was not an Autransssian. She was from Huaxia.

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu took the backpack, put it aside, and continued to eat.

After a while, the food ordered by the woman was also served.

“I’ve already booked the ticket you need. Shall we board the ship after we finish eating?” the woman said to Fang Qiu with a smile like an old friend as she ate.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded matter-of-factly.

The woman continued, “How about you pay the bill for this meal?”

“No problem.”

Fang Qiu nodded once more.

After they finished eating, Fang Qiu took the initiative to pay the bill.

“Let’s go.”

The woman stood up, looked at the backpack beside Fang Qiu, and reminded him of it.

Fang Qiu picked up the backpack, carried it on his back, and then stepped out of the cafe.

After walking out of the cafe with Fang Qiu, the woman directly stepped forward, naturally reached out to hold his arm, and said, “I’ll show you around.”

As she spoke, she directly pulled Fang Qiu out quickly.

Fang Qiu didn’t resist.

He knew that the woman in front of him should be the liaison mentioned by Li Ji.

Almost all the Autransians were people with light skin, and there was also very strong discrimination here. In this case, it would not be wise for the Huaxianese to have a male liaison in Autranssy. Therefore, they sent over a female agent, who was not like the agent on TV at all. Instead, she appeared very beautiful and attractive.

Under the guidance of the beautiful agent, Fang Qiu soon arrived at a private house and was directly pulled into a room.

“It’s ten o’clock in the evening. We still have two hours. It will take us an hour and a half to get there. You have half an hour. Use the things in your backpack to turn into another person. During this period, I will be on guard.”

After entering the room, this particularly beautiful woman immediately did her job.

Fang Qiu didn’t speak.

Instead, he went straight to the bathroom of the private house, opened his backpack, and took out some camouflage items. There was a human skin mask made of the same material as the one he wore on his face in the relic.

After putting on the mask quickly, Fang Qiu instantly turned into an Autranssonian man with light skin.

After that, he put a beard on himself with a disguise and even shaved his long hair into a crew cut. Then, he changed into a suit that was not in line with his style.

After doing all this, Fang Qiu came out of the bathroom.

As soon as he came out, he found that the woman who had been dressed like an Anglanish just now had also changed into another outfit. Her dress quite matched his.

“Not bad. You look very handsome.”

The woman looked at Fang Qiu and praised him with a smile.

Fang Qiu asked, “What’s your code name?”

The woman replied with a smile, “The Autranssians call me Louise.”

Fang Qiu nodded and asked, “Okay. Louise, shall we go now?”

“Of course.”

Louise nodded and took the initiative to come forward. She took the arm of Fang Qiu and went out. With a smile on her face, she said in a very serious tone, “We are going to the Southwest Island now, which is 120 kilometers away, and it will take 90 minutes to drive there. The car is ready. It’s the one in front.”

While speaking, Louise stuffed a car key into Fang Qiu's hand.

"Okay."

Fang Qiu took the car key and pressed the unlock button. After hearing the beep, he immediately stepped forward, opened the door, and got in.

"A gentleman should never forget to open the door for a lady."

Louise sat in the passenger seat and looked at Fang Qiu helplessly.

Fang Qiu was stunned.

With a wry smile, he quickly started the car.

Louise reminded him, "I've already set up the navigation system for you."

As soon as she finished speaking, the navigation system in the car beeped.

Following the navigation, Fang Qiu quickly drove out of Waters Town.

"The place I'm taking you to has no big cities around. There's only one national park. But because it belongs to the islands, it has been strictly guarded by the Autranssy authorities, and it's also the only port where we can slip across the borders!"

Chapter 1777 Ready to Cross the Border

As Fang Qiu knew, Autranssy had very strict control over people trafficking.

This was because Autranssy was famous for its coastal cities. Almost all the big cities were located by the sea. There were almost no big cities on the inland of Autranssy.

It was also because of this that Autranssy was very strict with the management of the seaside, and no people trafficking was allowed at all.

In this case, it was very difficult to find a place where one could slip across the borders.

Because the time was arranged, Fang Qiu drove the car at a speed of more than 80 kilometers per hour along the way. In the end, it only took him an hour to reach Southwest Island 120 kilometers away.

After he parked the car in a parking lot, Louise took Fang Qiu directly to a well-hidden port.

Although Southwest Island was an island, in fact, there were only a few rivers between the island and the inland. There were harbors around the island. Except for a regular harbor, the rest were all for people trafficking.

There were quite a few people on this island who engaged in that business.

After arriving at the port, Fang Qiu observed carefully.

He found that it should be a cargo dock.

At this time, a big ship used for fishing was parked in the darkness in the distance, which was very difficult for ordinary people to see.

Just as Fang Qiu was observing carefully, Louise walked to the dock and knocked on the door of a warehouse.

"You're here."

A sloppy-looking man walked out of the warehouse.

He didn't look kind at all.

Louise asked, "Can we go now?"

"You can board the ship first, but you need to wait for a while before you can leave."

With that, the burly man glanced at Fang Qiu who followed Louise over and then waved his hand, indicating for the two of them to wait at the dock.

After a short while, the burly man drove a speedboat over, picked up Fang Qiu and Louise, and quickly drove to the thick wooden ship parked in the distance.

After boarding the ship, Fang Qiu found that it was very large. It should be used to transport goods. The ship was also full of goods. Maybe it was because it was not sailing time yet, so the burly man engaged in people trafficking by the way.

Just as the burly man sent Fang Qiu and Louise to the ship and was about to go back, suddenly, a sharp alarm sounded.

Beep! Beep! Beep!

Along with the alarm, there was a red and blue light.

It was the water police.

Standing on the ship, Louise grabbed Fang Qiu and squatted down by the eaves.

At this time, a police speedboat rushed to the front of the burly man's speedboat and stopped him.

“What’s going on? What are you doing?” the water police officer asked while scanning the ship with a flashlight.

“I was worried, so I came to check the goods.”

The burly man said with a smile, “I was going to set sail tonight. Didn’t you ask us to wait for the notice? The goods on my ship have been loaded, but we haven’t received any notice yet. I’m afraid there’s something wrong with my goods, so I come to check every hour.”

“Is that so?”

The water police officer looked around and said, “Get ready to pull in to shore. Your ship can’t go out tonight. The order has been issued. You are not allowed to sail in these three days. If you want to sail, you’d better wait for three days!”

“Three days?”

The burly man was dumbfounded.

“Yes.”

The water police officer nodded and said, “Hurry up and pull in!”

After that, he drove the speedboat away.

On the ship, Louise’s face instantly became serious.

“Three days?”

As Louise heard the conversation between the water police officer and the burly man, her face instantly darkened. She said, "We agreed before that we could set off tonight. Why do we have to wait for three more days now?"

"Take it easy."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said softly, "Let's wait and see. It should be that the Autranssy authorities ordered martial law because they knew that I had escaped."

Louise said with a frown, "This is troublesome. Anything can happen in three days."

Just then-

"Did you hear that?"

The burly man said, "The ship will return to the port soon. If you want to leave, you'd better stay on the ship for three days. I promise no one will come to check."

After he finished speaking, he drove the speedboat away.

After the burly man left, a sailor on the ship came to Fang Qiu and Louise, who were squatting by the eaves on the deck. He said, "The ship is going back to the dock. Come with me."

With that, he took Fang Qiu and Louise to the cabin, passed through the piles of goods, and came to a relatively secret and narrow small room.

"We will call you every day by meal times. If there are any patrols, we will push the goods over. As long as you remain silent, no one will know that you are hiding here.

"Also, you'd better stay in the room and don't run around."

After saying those words, the sailor turned around and left.

Soon, the big ship was started.

After moving for a while, it stopped at the shore.

Soon, a group of water police officers arrived at the dock.

The water police took the burly man away.

The crew members on the ship were not surprised to see this, as if this was normal.

The same thing also happened at the docks of other islands.

That night, the leaders of all the ships on the four local islands were asked to go to the official administrative office of the Southwest Island.

Those leaders appeared to be the captains of their ships.

In fact, everyone knew that these people were the people trafficking gang heads. They tried their best to make money by people trafficking, so it was not a big deal to be asked to go to the official administrative office for investigation. They were even familiar with the staff there.

Soon, a group of local people trafficking gang heads was gathered in the administrative office by the local authorities.

“You should know why I called you here today.”

Unlike usual, the local water police officer looked at these people trafficking gang heads with a serious face and said, "Now, the higher-ups have issued martial law!"

The gang heads were all smiles and didn't take what the officer said to heart at all.

"Normally, I can turn a blind eye to you all."

The water police officer said with a cold face, "But not this time. It seems that you still don't know the seriousness of this matter.

"The higher-ups have issued a clear order. Before the investigation of the suspect is completed, anyone who dares to do people trafficking will be confiscated and forbidden to sail for the rest of their lives. They will also have to bear more than 20 years of imprisonment or even life imprisonment!"

The faces of all the gang heads present changed slightly.

People trafficking business had been severely suppressed over the years. The reason why they dared to gather in this place and do people trafficking business was that as the number of people trafficking groups decreased in recent years, the government's punishment for them slightly lightened.

But they didn't expect that the punishment would be so severe this time.

What the officer said seemed serious.

However, to them, no matter how severe the punishment was, it was not a big deal.

Therefore, these people trafficking gang heads were merely stunned for a moment before they laughed one after another, as if they were not worried at all.

"Watch carefully, all of you."

The water police officer snorted and directly asked his men to put a portrait of John Doe on the big screen in the office, saying, "This person is the criminal who is being pursued by the higher-ups. He is a major suspect. If any of you see him, as long as you report to us, we promise that we will give you a high reward of millions, tens of millions of dollars!

"Of course, in addition to this man, anyone who reports any suspicious person will also get a high reward.

"But if we find out someone is helping this suspect cross the borders, we will show no mercy!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the water police officer slammed his palm on the table, which startled all the gang heads on the scene.

At this moment, these gang heads finally understood the seriousness of the matter.

The authorities weren't carrying out a pursuit but issuing an arrest warrant.

Instantly, the gang heads on the scene couldn't help but start to panic.

Some panicked because they were afraid of being implicated, while others panicked because of the high reward.

What was their purpose in doing people trafficking?

They did it to make money.

How much did they earn by helping someone cross the border?

Once they reported the suspect, they would get millions or tens of millions.

"I'll definitely report him if I see him."

“That’s so much money. If the one I report is the suspect, I may not have to work anymore for the rest of my life.”

“I haven’t seen any Huaxianese recently.”

The people trafficking gang heads began to discuss.

Hearing the words of the others, the burly man was instantly tempted.

“Indeed, how will I get to earn millions or tens of millions of dollars?

“Once I make the right report, I won’t need to work any longer for the rest of my life.

“Besides, the authorities are going after a Huaxianese.

“Among my two clients just now, that woman seems to be a Huaxianese.

“Although the suspect is a man, isn’t there a man with that woman?

“Even if these two people are not the ones the authorities are looking for, I can still get a reward if I report them, and that will be wonderful.”

After the meeting, all the people trafficking gang heads left.

“Officer William.”

Back at the administrative office of the water police department, the burly man smiled and walked toward the water police officer who had threatened the gang heads in the conference room just now.

“Thomson?”

The water police officer called William narrowed his eyes and asked, “Why are you back?”

“I’m back to make a report.”

The man named Thomson chuckled and said, “I just received two clients who wanted to cross the borders. One of them is a Huaxianese. Although she is a woman, she also has something to do with Huaxia.”

“A Huaxianese?”

William’s eyes lit up.

“Yes. This Huaxianese woman came here to cross the border with a man. She won’t leave by herself. She will leave after settling the man down. I think there must be something wrong...”

Chapter 1778 Reported

William, the water police officer, asked in surprise, “Do you mean that a Huaxianese woman took a man on your ship to help that man cross the border?”

“Yes, that’s it!”

The burly man, Thomson, immediately nodded and said, “If I’m not mistaken, they should still be on the ship. When I get back to the dock, that woman should come to me as soon as possible. That man should stay on the ship because he hasn’t paid the commission yet.”

“Wonderful!”

William’s eyes lit up.

“That’s it!

“A Huaxianese woman is helping a man cross the border.

“Although Thomson cannot tell exactly which country the man is from, there must be something wrong with that man. If he is clean, would he need to secretly cross the border?”

Thomson asked with a smile, “This can be considered an important clue, right?”

“Of course.”

William grinned and said, “However, we can’t act rashly for the time being. If that man is really the one that the higher-ups are going after, you won’t have to do such a sneaky thing again for the rest of your life.”

“What if he’s not?”

Thomson shook his head and said, “I think I’ve reported a major suspect.”

“Don’t worry. Even if he’s not the one that the higher-ups are going after, you will still be rewarded.”

William patted Thomson on the shoulder and said, “Now, we have to think about how to take action.”

Thomson curled his lips and said, “Why don’t you just arrest him?”

“We can’t.”

William immediately shook his head and said, “The man who has the higher-ups issue the wanted order must be very cunning. We can’t act rashly and alert the enemy. We must think of a complete way to catch him.”

At this point, he said, “You just said that after you go back, that Huaxianese woman will come to you alone?”

“Yes.”

Thomson nodded and said, “We agreed to set off tonight. Before that, she will give me the deposit and pay the rest of the money after arriving at the destination. But now, we’ve been banned from sailing for three days. She must want to talk to me about the deposit and departure!”

“Well, let’s catch this Huaxianese woman first.”

William clenched his fists and said confidently, “You’ll go back first. I’ll be right there!”

After their conversation, Thomson immediately returned to the dock.

Because it was late at night, Thomson patrolled the dock and then returned to the warehouse.

Just then, a figure, led by the sailors, got off the ship, quickly came to the brightly lit warehouse, and knocked on the door.

It was none other than Louise.

Opening the warehouse door, Thomson looked at Louise and asked with a bored look on his face, “What do you want?”

Louise said, "I need to talk to you."

"Do you like to have chit-chats at night?"

Thomson chuckled and said, "Why don't we talk in here?"

"No, thanks."

Louise glanced at Thomson and said, "I need to know why you breached the contract. What happened here? You promised me that you would set off tonight. If you can do it, I hope my friend can leave tonight. But if you can't guarantee it, I will take him and leave immediately."

"Tonight?"

Thomson raised an eyebrow and immediately shook his head. "That can't be done!"

"Okay, I understand."

Louise nodded with understanding. She turned around and was about to board the ship to get Fang Qiu and leave.

Just then-

"However, it's not like there's no other way."

Thomson suddenly said, "I have a group of friends who specialize in doing this kind of thing. If you offer enough money, maybe you can set off immediately."

Louise turned around and said with a frown, "Really?"

“If you’re up for it, I can take you to talk to them. If not, I won’t stop you from leaving.”

Thomson shrugged and spread out his hands, looking indifferent.

Louise asked vigilantly, “Where are those people?”

“We’re all in this business. Where else can they be?”

Thomson pouted at a warehouse nearby and said, “They’re over there.”

Louise took a look and found that there was another warehouse aside, which was also lit up.

It looked like a place for people trafficking. However, if there was really such a group, why didn’t this guy named Thomson tell her about it until now?

Louise hesitated.

She noticed that something was wrong.

However, she thought that there was nothing wrong with everything in front of her.

“Forget it. I’ll come to you in three days.”

After that, Louise immediately turned around and prepared to board the ship.

Just then, a police car arrived all of a sudden.

When Louise saw the police car, her face changed. She wanted to speed up and return to the ship as soon as possible.

Unexpectedly, the police car stopped in front of her and blocked her way.

Left with no choice, Louise could only stop in her tracks and calmly prepare to deal with anything that might happen.

“Who are you?”

William alighted from the police car and walked straight to Louise’s side. “Why are you walking around the dock so late at night?”

Louise replied indifferently, “I’m a tourist here. I’m here for some fresh air tonight. Is there a problem with that?”

“Show me your ID card.”

William reached out for her ID card.

Louise did not panic at all. She took out her ID card from her carry-on bag, handed it to William, and said, “I’m a legal citizen of Autranssy!”

“But you are not an Autranssian, so I need you to cooperate with me to make a statement.”

William smiled and waved to his men, saying, “Take her away.”

When Louise heard that, her face immediately darkened.

Although she really wanted to get rid of these people, she didn’t have a suitable excuse. Moreover, their request was completely reasonable, so she couldn’t refuse them at all.

Helplessly, Louise had no choice but to get into the police car and leave.

The police car soon returned to the Southwest Island Police Department and the officers took Louise directly to the interrogation room.

“Tell me!”

After closing the door of the interrogation room, William immediately asked, “What’s your status in Huaxia, and who is the one you’re helping cross the border?”

As soon as he said that, Louise, who had thought that she would be able to leave as long as she casually took a statement, felt her heart skip a beat, but there was no change in the expression on her face.

“Huaxia?”

Louise was stunned and said, “Yes, I used to be a Huaxianese, but now I am a legal citizen of Autranssy. Is there any problem?”

“Of course, there’s a problem.”

William sneered and said, “We’ve already begun to investigate you. From the moment you were born until now, we’ll investigate everything about you thoroughly. You’d better tell us everything you know, or you’ll never be able to get out of prison!”

“Of course, you can investigate me.”

Louise did not panic at all. Instead, she said indifferently, “However, there is a time limit for me to be detained. Once the time limit is exceeded, I will immediately sue you. I hope that you can really put the blame on me before I start suing you!”

William’s face immediately turned grim.

He didn't expect this Huaxianese woman to be so difficult to deal with. "She's definitely well-trained!

"It seems that it will be impossible to get anything out of her."

"I hope you can hold on!"

After saying that, William turned and left.

"Keep an eye on her the whole time. Record everything, even the smallest details. Don't let her go."

After instructing his men, William immediately began to organize them to arrest Fang Qiu who was still on the ship.

The investigation of Louise he had mentioned did not exist at all.

In his opinion, he would surely catch the stowaway on the ship without any accidents.

Therefore, there was no need for him to investigate Louise at all. All he needed to do was to catch the stowaway on the ship, and the truth would be revealed.

"By then, this Huaxianese woman will definitely be doomed."

In the interrogation room, Louise sat at the interrogation table with no expression on her face. She seemed to be in a complete daze. But in fact, she was thinking fast.

She didn't expect that she would be noticed by the Autranssy authorities as soon as she brought John Doe to the dock.

However, she was not worried.

It was impossible for her identity to be exposed because her profile was so clean that the authorities wouldn't get to find anything suspicious about it at all.

As for John Doe, she didn't have to worry about him at all.

John Doe was ranked third in the world. How could these nonentities him?

She believed that John Doe would come to take her away soon.

However, at the thought of this, she felt very embarrassed.

Initially, she was asked to assist John Doe. But now she got him in trouble.

...

"There's no time to lose. Let's act now."

After making the necessary arrangements, William immediately brought his men to the dock at one o'clock in the morning.

Although they had received the wanted warrant from their superiors, they had no idea who was wanted at all.

Furthermore, they had no idea what sort of figure they would have to deal with.

Since they didn't know, they wanted to take the opportunity to make a great contribution.

William could not wait to see that happen.

The men he gathered rushed to the dock overnight. Because they were afraid of alerting the enemy, they didn't even drive the car. They all walked over.

At this moment, Fang Qiu was still hiding in the narrow room in the cabin.

"It's been so long. Why isn't she back yet?"

It had been almost an hour since Louise went out.

Because there was no movement around, Fang Qiu didn't go out to check.

However, as time went by, he felt that something was wrong.

"Louise just went out to negotiate with the gang head. Why did it take her so long?"

"Could it be that something has gone wrong?"

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

He stood up, gently opened the door, and was ready to go out to see what was going on.

Just then, suddenly, the sound of footsteps could be heard.

Because the ship was made of wood and most of the template was empty, there would be some special sounds when there were people walking. Even if they tried their best to hide the sound, it was difficult to hide it.

Chapter 1779 Get Louise Out

"Sure enough, something's wrong."

Hearing the soft footsteps coming from outside, Fang Qiu immediately frowned.

Something must have happened to Louise.

However, Fang Qiu was not too worried about the current situation because he didn't feel any energy aura at all.

That was to say, the ones outside were ordinary people and posed no threat to him at all.

Fang Qiu murmured to himself, "It's either the people trafficking gangs are fighting each other, or it's the water police."

Those were the only two possibilities since those people were on the dock.

If it had something to do with the metahumans, the Divine Consciousness that Fang Qiu released would inevitably sense it in the first place.

When Fang Qiu was in deep thought, someone came in.

A group of water police officers tiptoed into the warehouse. Under the guidance of Thomson, they walked toward Fang Qiu.

Because it was dark, these people didn't notice that Fang Qiu had come out of the room.

"Water police?"

"I didn't expect the Autranssy authorities to be so fast!"

Seeing these water police officers, Fang Qiu immediately knew what kind of situation Louise was in outside.

“No wonder it’s so quiet.

“It turns out that the authorities are taking action.”

Swoosh!

After making a slight move, Fang Qiu quietly disappeared from where he was and disappeared into the dark warehouse. He directly attacked the group of water police officers who walked into the warehouse and knocked them down one by one.

Of course, Fang Qiu didn’t kill these people. He just knocked them out because killing them would not be necessary.

At the entrance of the warehouse, Thomson had been guarding the door and observing the situation inside.

Although he was holding an electric flashlight in his hand, it was difficult for him to see the situation inside clearly, so he could only wait.

However, after waiting for a long time, he did not hear anything.

“What’s going on? Haven’t you found him yet?”

Unable to wait any longer, Thomson immediately walked into the warehouse with his flashlight. He wanted to see what was going on inside.

Unexpectedly, after walking for a long time, he still didn’t hear anything.

With doubts in his heart, Thomson soon came to the door of the room where Fang Qiu stayed and saw that the door was open.

“What are you doing? Have you caught him?”

With that, Thomson stepped into the room.

The next moment, his eyes were wide open.

He saw that there was actually a large group of people in this room.

They were all water police officers who had just walked in. William was lying at the top of those people.

At a glance, Thomson found that the group of people all stopped moving. It was as if they were dead.

He was terrified and had no idea what happened.

The water police officers, who were thrilled to arrest the suspect just now, didn't move at this moment.

“What the hell is going on?”

Just as Thomson was panicking, a gust of cold wind suddenly blew past behind him.

Thomson hurriedly turned around to look.

As soon as he turned his head, he froze on the spot.

A figure silently appeared behind him and was standing right in front of him.

“If he wants to kill me, I’ll die!”

At this moment, Thomson felt like his heart was in his mouth. He wore a very sad expression on his face as if he was about to cry.

He knew he was wrong.

He had messed with someone he couldn’t afford to offend at all.

Looking at Thomson, who was frightened out of his wits, Fang Qiu reached out to grab him by the neck and asked, “If you don’t want to die, tell me what’s going on. Where is my friend?”

“I... I...”

Thomson stammered so hard that he couldn’t finish his sentence.

Fang Qiu tightened his grip.

“I’ll tell you. I’ll tell you!”

When he was almost out of breath, Thomson struggled desperately to beg for mercy.

Then, he didn’t dare to hide anything and told Fang Qiu everything he knew.

After he finished speaking, Fang Qiu’s face darkened.

He suddenly exerted more force on his right hand, which was holding the man’s neck.

Clack!

A crisp sound rang out.

He snapped the man's neck.

"Such a person deserves to die!"

After killing Thomson, Fang Qiu casually threw the body aside and grabbed William, who was at the top of the crowd. From Thomson's narration, Fang Qiu learned that William was a water police officer, who was the only one who knew where Louise was detained.

Therefore, Fang Qiu could only grab William's foot and drag him out of the warehouse. Then, he moved and dragged William directly to the dock. He grabbed his foot with one hand and put William into the cold seawater to drown him a few times.

Under the stimulation of the cold seawater, William quickly woke up from his coma.

"Aargh..."

As soon as William woke up, he choked on a few mouthfuls of ice-cold seawater. He immediately shook his head and mumbled a few times before struggling to shout out.

Hearing the shout, Fang Qiu pulled him out of the sea and threw him to the ground.

William looked at Fang Qiu in panic and asked, "Who, who are you?"

"I'm the one you want to catch."

Fang Qiu sneered and said, "I know all your plans. Now I'll give you a chance. Take me to my friend, or I'll throw you into the sea and drown you!"

As soon as he said that, William's expression changed drastically.

Led by William, Fang Qiu soon arrived at the police department on Southwest Island.

Originally, William wanted to use the power of the police department to arrest Fang Qiu, but when he was ready to struggle and shout, he found that he couldn't do anything. It was even difficult for him to open his mouth.

Next to him, Fang Qiu kept looking at him indifferently, so he didn't dare to cry for help.

Eventually, under being pressured by Fang Qiu, William could only take him all the way to the interrogation room.

Clack!

The door opened.

Louise, who had been in a daze in the room without doing anything, immediately came to her senses when she heard the sound of the door opening.

The moment she saw Fang Qiu and William coming in, she immediately stood up with a smile.

Louise looked at William, who looked terribly bitter, and asked with a smile, "Can I leave now?"

William could only nod his head while being pressured by Fang Qiu.

Then, led by William, Fang Qiu and Louise walked out of the police department and returned to the dock.

In the warehouse of the people trafficking group, Fang Qiu knocked William out directly and then left quickly with Louise.

Early the next morning, William finally woke up from his coma after he had been unconscious for roughly five hours.

As soon as he woke up, he didn't dare to hesitate and immediately reported what happened to the higher-ups.

The higher-ups of the Autranssy authorities soon received the news that John Doe actually appeared on the Southwest Island and was ready to cross the border.

All the higher-ups of Autranssy couldn't help being exasperated.

Fortunately, they had issued a ban on sailing.

Otherwise, John Doe would really have got away.

There was no doubt that the one who was capable to knock out so many water police officers silently must be a metahuman.

Moreover, it was related to the Huaxianese. So even if the man didn't look like John Doe, he must be John Doe in disguise.

After learning this, the Autranssy authorities instantly flapped out and immediately issued an order. "No matter where you are, if you find anyone suspicious, report it to us immediately. No one is allowed to act on his own!"

Soon, the news reached the ears of people from other countries and forces.

These countries and forces all had spies in Autranssy.

Therefore, when the Autranssy authorities found out about what happened, the news quickly spread out.

When people from various forces heard it, their faces were extremely gloomy.

No one had expected that John Doe would actually go to the Southwest Island and almost secretly cross the border successfully.

If John Doe really succeeded, wouldn't their efforts be in vain?

Instantly, people of various forces became nervous.

They were all afraid that John Doe would succeed in crossing the border and leaving with the Yuan Yang Fruit.

However, they also knew very well that since the Autranssy authorities had found John Doe's whereabouts, they would never let John Doe have a chance to cross the border successfully. After all, he was in their territory. If the Autranssy authorities took action, John Doe would definitely not be able to escape easily.

The purpose why the Autranssy authorities deliberately released the news was very clear.

In fact, they just wanted to leak John Doe's whereabouts so that the people of other countries could help put some pressure on John Doe, which would make him less arrogant.

However, the people of the various forces couldn't do anything to John Doe now. The only thing they could do was wait for the news.

After all, according to the intelligence, five hours had passed since John Doe appeared and his whereabouts were leaked.

Five hours was enough for John Doe to run from east to west.

Even if everyone chased after John Doe, it was still impossible to find him.

In the meantime, the news also spread to the underground-force forum.

“John Doe shockingly escaped from the pursuit and appeared in the coastal area of Autranssy. He almost succeeded in crossing the border, but he was stopped by the Autranssy authorities!”

As the news spread, everyone on the underground-force forum was shocked.

“Holy shit. Did John Doe really escape?”

“John Doe is truly worthy of his reputation to be able to escape from so many experts.”

“It’s really close. If he had succeeded in crossing the border, nothing would have happened. But since John Doe has been stopped by the Autranssy authorities, I guess it will not be so easy for him to get away again.”

“Next, the Autranssy authorities will definitely block all the exits. John Doe has lost his only chance to cross the border now.”

“Although John Doe has escaped from the pursuit of the major forces from various countries, it will definitely be more difficult for him to escape than before. I don’t know where he will go.”

“It’s obvious that the Huaxia authorities have taken action. Otherwise, John Doe wouldn’t have been ready to cross the border in such a short time!”

“Now, let’s see what John Doe will do!”

...

Fang Qiu left Southwest Island with Louise and came to another island nearby, Vandelin Island.

It was only about 50 kilometers away from the Southwest Island. This island was bigger and more crowded than the Southwest Island.

After arriving on the island, Fang Qiu took Louise straight into a clothing store, and the two changed their outfits.

Chapter 1780 John Doe Got Away

The two not only changed their clothes.

Fang Qiu took Louise to redo her hair and even made a brand new human skin mask for Louise with disguising tools.

Just like that, the two of them looked like locals on Vandelin Island.

Following behind Fang Qiu all the way, Louise couldn't help but smile wryly.

She was an agent sent to help John Doe leave Autranssy. Unexpectedly, not only did she fail to complete the task, but she also became a burden to John Doe.

This made her feel very helpless.

However, there was nothing she could do about it.

After all, what they were going to deal with was not ordinary people but enemies of John Doe, the forces of the entire Autranssy.

"What are you going to do next?"

After disguising themselves, Fang Qiu took Louise to the coast of Vandelin Island. They sat down in a cafe by the sea and discussed while eating.

Fang Qiu said, "I need you to do something for me."

Louise answered, "No problem. Just tell me what you need me to do. I'll do my best."

"It's not a big deal. I just need you to run some errands."

Fang Qiu took a sip of coffee with a smile and said, "I need compressed air bottles for diving. The more the better. In order not to arouse suspicion, you can't buy too many in the same place. You need to go to a few more places."

"Compressed air bottles?"

Louise was stunned.

Although she didn't understand what John Doe was up to, she didn't take the initiative to ask. She knew that John Doe must have his own reasons for doing this. She just needed to do as he asked.

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, "You can also expose your whereabouts appropriately."

"Expose my whereabouts?"

Louise was completely confused now.

"Aren't we on the run?"

"Why should we deliberately expose our whereabouts?"

Louise still did not ask out of her professionalism as an agent.

Seeing that Louise was about to get up and leave, Fang Qiu quickly added, “You haven’t rested all night. If you don’t eat enough, you won’t have the strength to work.”

Louise smiled faintly.

While chatting during the meal, Fang Qiu said, “By the way, I think you should contact someone who can arrange for you to return to the country as soon as possible. Your identity has been exposed, and you can’t stay in Autranssy for a long time. It’s better for you to leave as soon as possible.”

“Yeah.”

Louise nodded and said, “Although my background is very clean, the Autranssy authorities will definitely not let me go after this incident. Even if they can’t supervise me for a reasonable reason, they will definitely put me on the danger list. Then, it will be meaningless for me to stay in Autranssy.

“Come to think about it, it’s indeed time for me to return home.”

At this point, Louise sighed softly and then took out her mobile phone. While editing a short message, she smiled bitterly and said, “Unfortunately, I failed to complete my last mission well.”

“You’ve done well enough.”

Fang Qiu comforted her with a smile.

Thirty minutes later.

After Louise finished eating, she left alone. She also went to the nearby North Island, West Island, and several other unknown islands. Finally, she returned to Southwest Island.

Even if she met the water police, she was not afraid at all.

It took Louise nearly two hours to buy the compressed air bottles that Fang Qiu needed.

According to the requirements of Fang Qiu, Louise bought Fang Qiu a lot of compressed air bottles and placed them on a speedboat. When she was about to move them ashore, Fang Qiu came over.

“Don’t bother. Our destination is not here,” Fang Qiu said with a smile. Then, he took the initiative to jump onto the speedboat. He took the driver’s seat and drove the speedboat at high speed.

Louise couldn’t help but ask, “Where are we going?”

Fang Qiu responded with a smile, “To Southwest Island!”

Because the distance between the two places was not far, when the speedboat was at full speed, Fang Qiu and Louise soon arrived at the dock where the accident happened last night.

“Has the one you contacted arrived?” asked Fang Qiu.

“He should be here.”

Louise nodded in response.

“Ask him to come to the regular port of Southwest Island.”

At the dock, Fang Qiu put the compressed air bottles aside, took Louise ashore, and then immediately sent her to the regular port of Southwest Island.

After they waited for five minutes, a ship came to the port, and a Huaxianese got off it.

Because they had changed their appearances, the man could not recognize them at all. Fang Qiu and Louise immediately went up to him.

Walking to that man, Fang Qiu asked directly in Huaxianese, "Sailing is banned in these three days. Can we leave today?"

"Rest assured."

Hearing Fang Qiu speak in Huaxianese, the man immediately said, "We have documents to enter the port, but there is also a time limit. Her documents have been prepared. As long as she resumes her original form, she can board the ship with me. The substitute is a stowaway, who has already disembarked. Although it is a no-sailing period here, even if the authorities search our ship, they absolutely dare not hurt us because they have no evidence, and they have no excuse to arrest Huaxianese citizens.

"When the sailing ban is over, we can go to the sea directly!"

"Great."

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and said, "Take her to the ship immediately. Don't worry about me."

"If you need it, I can try to take you away with us."

After saying that, the man immediately added, "Although customs is very strict in checking, it's not like there's nothing we can do about it."

"That will be too risky."

Fang Qiu said, "If I get on the ship, you can't leave, so take her away quickly."

After that, Fang Qiu turned around and left directly.

Louise and the man were very helpless.

But Louise knew that if she continued to stay, she would still only become a burden to John Doe, so she had no choice but to do as John Doe asked.

After finding a secluded place on the island and changing back to her original appearance, Louise got on the ship under the guidance of the contact person.

On the other side, Fang Qiu returned to the dock alone.

Because of the incident last night, the dock had been locked down, but there were no police officers guarding it. Therefore, Fang Qiu smoothly came to the dock and then quickly dived into the water with the compressed air bottles that he asked Louise to buy.

In fact, with Fang Qiu's strength, he didn't need those compressed air bottles to dive.

However, in order to preserve his strength, Fang Qiu did not intend to use his internal Qi. Instead, he directly used the bottles.

The reason why Fang Qiu urged Louise to leave was that he knew very well that his goal was too hard to achieve. If he took Louise with him, it would be difficult for him to leave. Therefore, Fang Qiu was going to use himself as bait to ensure that Louise could leave safely.

That was why he chose to swagger to the dock where the incident had taken place yesterday.

After entering the water with the oxygen bottles, Fang Qiu soon came to the bottom of a big ship that was going to sail to Huaxia.

Because the surrounding seawater was very shallow and clear, the trajectory of Fang Qiu in the sea was all recorded by the monitors on the docks on Southwest Island.

However, no one noticed anything unusual that day.

The next day.

When the three-day ban on sailing expired, the ships of every island began to set sail under strict customs.

After a thorough inspection by the customs, the ship that Fang Qiu sneaked into also set off as soon as possible and soon left the high seas.

The Autranssy authorities originally wanted to extend the time limit of the ban, but because of the dissatisfaction from the transport businessmen all over the country, as well as the complaints from the tourists being banned from going out, the Autranssy authorities were under a lot of pressure.

They had no choice but to cancel the sailing ban and increase regulations on customs and surveillance.

Under the strict control of the customs, strict screening and monitoring orders were issued from all over the country. At the port of various seaside cities in Autranssy, officers were immediately sent to get all the surveillance videos of the past three days.

Soon, someone found John Doe and Louise on Southwest Island's monitoring screen.

Although the two of them had completely changed their appearances, judging from their height, size, and various movements, they were soon targeted.

By further investigation, the surveillance video of the two entering the clothing store on Vandelin Island was also found. With the surveillance video, it was confirmed that the two were John Doe and Louise.

No one expected John Doe, who wanted to cross the border but was intercepted, to dare to return to the dock of Southwest Island.

He was truly bold.

As a water police officer on Southwest Island, William was furious when he saw the surveillance video. But after being knocked out twice by John Doe in a row previously, he didn't dare to act on his own at all. He could only report John Doe's whereabouts at the first possible moment.

"John Doe is still on Southwest Island, and he has dived into the water and followed a cargo ship to Huaxia. It has already set sail, and the serial number of the cargo ship is..."

It was reported along with the surveillance video.

The news soon reached the top management of the Autranssy authorities.

When the Autranssy authorities saw the news, they were instantly enraged.

They felt that they seemed to have been fooled by John Doe again.

John Doe was on Southwest Island, but they didn't send anyone to investigate. Once again, John Doe got away and went straight to the sea.

This made all the higher-ups of the Autranssy authorities furious and feel that they had been disgraced.

"Contact the cargo ship immediately. Ask the ones on it to stop where they are and accept inspection."

The higher-ups gave the order.

At the same time, the water police officers on Southwest Island, North Island, Vandelin Island, and the other islands received orders from their superiors to quickly set off and chase after the cargo ship.

It was not just the water police who were taking action.

With definite evidence, the Autranssy authorities directly dispatched a military helicopter from a local military base and also sent some metahuman experts to intercept John Doe no matter what.

On the other side, the Muricans also received the news at the first possible moment through their spies planted in Autranssy.
