Chapter 371: He Would Be a Big Shot Someday!

As the invigilator called, Fang Qiu stepped forward and entered the No. 1 exam room.

From the outside, the windows of the classroom had been sealed up so tightly that the situation inside could not be seen at all. But after entering the classroom, Fang Qiu found that the room was unusually bright.

It was not about the lights.

It was because a window on the other side of the room which faced the drain wasn't covered.

An old man was sitting at the only table in the middle of the room.

Taking a closer look, Fang Qiu found that the old man had white hair and a ruddy complexion, looking hale and hearty.

"Are you Fang Qiu?"

As Fang Qiu watched the old man, he also looked back at Fang Qiu with interest.

"Yes." Fang Qiu nodded.

Just now, the invigilator outside the classroom had called his name, so it was not surprising that the old man knew his name.

"Not bad, kid." The old man nodded his head in satisfaction. "It's been a long time since a young fellow like you has risen in Chinese Medicine. And it's also been a long time since the TCM has experienced such turmoil and attention. I want to thank you for all you have done for the Chinese Medicine community. Because of you, I feel that there is hope for Chinese Medicine."

“Hopefully, there will be more like you.

“We’re are old, and young people like you have the future. And the future of Chinese Medicine depends on you.”

Hearing that, Fang Qiu saluted the old man. “Master.” An idea came to him.

If the old could say such words, it would only mean that he had practiced Chinese Medicine for many years. Whether judging from the age or the medical experience, Fang Qiu should call him “Master”.

“Hmm.” The old man smiled and nodded, satisfied with the reaction of Fang Qiu.

“Well, time is limited. Let’s cut to the chase.” With that, the old man put his hand on the table and said, “Come and help me have a look.”

Without any hesitation, Fang Qiu moved forward.

After diagnosing, Fang Qiu smiled and said, “Master, you’re in good health, but your lungs are a bit weak. You should have more rest.”

He quickly wrote down his judgments and prescriptions on the exam paper on the table.

“Well, you can leave now.” When he saw what Fang Qiu had written, the old man smiled, nodded with satisfaction, and asked him to leave.

Meanwhile, as he carefully considered Fang Qiu’s proposal, Chen Yinsheng convened a meeting with the deans of all faculties to discuss it.

Perhaps it was because the matter that Qi had been proved to be real went viral recently, the deans all agreed with Fang Qiu’s suggestion.

By doing this, they felt that not only would it be able to improve the medical standards of the students, but it would also be able to make the school become one of the most prestigious TCM schools in the country, which taught Chinese Medicine.

It would become the only school where people could practice Qi.

For those preparing to take the college entrance examination and major in Traditional Chinese Medicine, it would be a strong temptation.

There was no doubt that Fang Qiu's proposal was adopted by all the deans.

The exam continued.

At 9:50 a.m, the examination of the first round was finished.

The first group, where Fang Qiu was in, needed to go to the second examination room to continue the examination.

When it was his turn, Fang Qiu entered the examination room.

In the classroom, there was also an old gentleman.

This old man was different from the old man in the examination room No. 1. He didn't speak but directly let Fang Qiu diagnose. While Fang Qiu was diagnosing, he had been looking at him with eyes full of satisfaction and then nodding.

Another 50 minutes passed. It was 10:40 a.m.

The three groups changed the exam rooms again.

In the third examination room, an old gentleman was also sitting there.

This old gentleman was much older than those in the other two exam rooms.

Although he had long grey hair, he combed it neatly, which made him look nothing like a messy old man at all. Instead, he made people feel comfortable as they looked at him.

Fang Qiu got into the classroom and sat down in front of the table.

The old man didn't speak and then calmly extended his hand to Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu didn't hesitate and instantly felt the old man's pulse.

After feeling the pulse, he looked at the old man and said, "Master, the cold in your body is intense."

"Yes." The old man nodded and said, "In the early years, I was wrapped up in treating more patients, so I accidentally got the cold which has been in my body for many years."

"Master, if you don't mind, I can help you eliminate the cold," Fang Qiu said.

"Oh?" The old man paused for a second and then replied, "Sure."

Fang Qiu then held the old man's wrist at once.

The Internal Qi flowed from Fang Qiu's fingertips, injecting into the old man's body and starting to eliminate his cold.

"Eh?" As if sensing something, the old man was surprised and said, "This is Qi, right? It feels good."

“Many Chinese doctors know Qi and the theories, but very few can feel the existence of Qi, let alone using it to cure diseases.”

Speaking of which, the old man smiled at Fang Qiu and nodded his head. “A ragged colt may make a good horse.”

Fang Qiu smiled and continued to eliminate the cold.

After finishing eliminating the cold, he wrote down his diagnosis and prescriptions.

In the meantime, the old man, who had been staring at Fang Qiu, suddenly opened his mouth and asked, “Who is your master?”

“I don’t have a master.” Fang Qiu shook his head and added, “But I have a teacher. His name is Xu Miaolin.”

“Oh.” The old man paused and then beamed. “You both are intelligent. Give him my regards. I’m Ye Jiuling.”

“Got it.” Fang Qiu nodded and got up. He saluted the old man and left the room.

Three tests were completed.

In the afternoon, three old men gathered in one place.

This time, they personally participated in the assessment, so they were the ones to decide the ranking.

“Please write down the student who deserves the first place.” Ye Jiuling opened his mouth.

As he spoke, he also wrote down a name.

When the three of them had finished, they unfolded the paper, only to find that they all wrote down the same name—Fang Qiu.

All of them laughed as they saw the name.

“I thought Fang Qiu was a conceited person, but he turned out to be a humble kid. It’s rare to meet a young fellow who excels in his skill with good character,” the old man of exam room No. 1 said.

“Yes, this kid would be a big shot someday.” The old man of exam room No. 2 nodded.

“The best part is, the kid has a teacher. Do you know who he is?” Ye Jiuling said with a mysterious smile.

Hearing that, the other two looked at each other and shook their heads.

They really didn’t know who Fang Qiu’s teacher was.

“Xu Miaolin,” Ye Jiuling said.

Hearing that, the other two old men were stunned.

At the next moment, the three old men looked at each other and laughed at the same time.

“So it means that a marvelous young man is teaching an amazing kid,” the old man of room No. 1 said.

“The point is, this kid is even more powerful than the young man.” The old man of room No. 2 kept smiling while shaking his head.

Ye Jiuling also smiled happily.

“Aye?” At this point, the old man of room No. 1 was surprised while looking at Ye Jiuling. “Your complexion looks better.”

“I noticed that, too. What happened?” the old man of room No. 2 asked.

Ye Jiuling smiled but didn’t speak.

“Come on, tell me.” The old man of room No. 1 urged him.

“It’s nothing, really.” Ye Jiuling smiled mysteriously and said, “It’s just that the cold that has bothered me for so many years has gone.”

“Hmm?” The two old men were stunned.

“Gone?” This was a disease that might not be cured in a lifetime. And he suddenly recovered in the blink of an eye.

“Just tell us what’s going on,” the old man of room No. 1 asked eagerly.

“It’s Fang Qiu.” As they kept asking, Ye Jiuling said, “When he was taking the exam, he used Qi to help me eliminate the cold.”

“What?” The other two were shocked.

But they weren’t shocked by the Qi.

Because they knew that since the existence of Qi was proved by Fang Qiu, it was possible for one to use Qi.

But the thing that scared them the most was he only had five minutes to finish the exam.

The cold in Ye Jiuling's body had been accumulating since he was young. It had been decades since he had it. Although he was trying to cure it in recent years, the cold was too heavy to be cured.

But now, it just took five minutes.

Actually, it took less than five minutes.

Fang Qiu unexpectedly spent less than five minutes eliminating all the cold in Ye Jiuling's body.

How could they not be shocked?

"He's indeed a young talent!"

The old man of room No. 1 couldn't help but exclaim, "We got someone to count on in Chinese Medicine."

"Yeah." The old man of room No. 2 also let out a long breath and said, "Now the old men can rest now. We can just let these young people fight for Chinese Medicine."

It didn't take long before the top 10 of the Young Physician of Huaxia Competition was announced.

The First Place: Fang Qiu!

Once the list was made public, it shocked everyone.

For students from the same school and the same area, it was really unbelievable that Fang Qiu should get the first place three times. The most important thing was that in the first round, there were more than 10 people tying for first place. And Fang Qiu still won the first place among them. It was certainly not the task for ordinary people.

In the second and third rounds of the examination, Fang Qiu also won the first place, making other students lose the confidence to compete with him.

Except for Fang Qiu, Jiang Miaoyu also made it into the top 10 of the list, coming in seventh place.

Unfortunately, Zhu Benzhen and the other two roommates failed to make it into the list.

There was no other way. The people of this exam were too outstanding. In the first round, all three of them ranked over 30. If it didn't happen to test Chinese herbs, which they had been practicing lately, they might not be able to make it to the third round.

As a matter of fact, they had only practiced Chinese Medicine for less than a year, so it was pretty impressive of them to rank among the top 30.

Meanwhile, the competition's official Weibo account also announced each area's selected list as soon as the examination finished.

People checked on the list in Jiangjing.

Fang Qiu won the first place.

This result surprised lots of people, but it came with the territory.

To their surprise, Fang Qiu was able to take down so many people who were senior to him, as well as those powerful people in the folk.

And they also thought it came with the territory because they believed that Fang Qiu was capable of winning this place since he could publish the core thesis in a foreign periodical.

However, when combining these two points with the identity of Fang Qiu, who was a freshman in the university, people still found it incredible.

Medical Master

Chapter 372: Make a breakthrough!

When they were shocked, they also took a closer look at Fang Qiu's grade in the exam and found that he got the first place with full marks in the three exams.

It stunned all the people.

At the same time, the ranking of other areas also attracted many people's attention.

Soon, someone noticed that among 34 exam areas across the country, not only was Fang Qiu the only one to get the first place three times, but there was also one winner in every eight areas who got the first place three times.

The Gu family in Jiangdong city, Gu Shaoyu.

The Leng family in Jiangbei city, Leng Wenzhuo.

The Li family in Huainan city, Li Sanxiao.

The Chen family in Luoxi city, Chen Ziju.

In addition to these four people, there were another four: Luo Chen, Wang Shijie, Zheng Chao, Yang Hutao.

These eight people, like Fang Qiu, were all qualified for the Young Physician of Huaxia Competition with the first place and full marks.

For the latter four, people didn't know much about them. They could only see it from the profile that one of them came from a University of Chinese Medicine. The other three weren't students and didn't have much popularity or background in the Chinese Medicine circle.

As for the former ones, they were completely different.

They were all geniuses from the major families which practiced Chinese Medicine. Although they weren't high-profile, their names had long been spread in the Chinese Medicine community.

There were many prominent figures in Chinese Medicine commenting that these four would be the next generation of leading Chinese Medicine.

This showed how strong they were.

Their identities as sons of the four great families were quickly exposed by people, causing a sensation online. When they thought of Fang Qiu again, people believed there would be a fierce battle in the Young Physician of Huaxia Competition.

However, it was strange that except for Yang Hutao who was still in the university, people couldn't find any identifying information about the other three people.

It was a surprise to everyone.

There were only nine people in the country who got first place three times, so they must be extremely powerful. Why did such strong men have no popularity at all?

And they were too mysterious to make it possible to trace them.

With the power of the Internet today, the cyber manhunt was almost omnipotent. But it was still impossible to find their information, which made everyone more curious.

At the same time, the competition's official Weibo announced that the competition would be recorded two weeks later, which was in mid-April.

Seeing the post, many people were looking forward to it.

Of course, there were also lots of people complaining that since this primary election had finished, why did they have to wait for two weeks to start the competition? It must be at summer vacation when they played it on TV.

Fang Qiu was informed that the school leaders agreed with his proposal after careful consideration. They invited him to teach Qi on the playground at 4:00 p.m.

At the time he received the message, Fang Qiu was surprised.

He didn't expect they would make the decision so quickly.

In the meantime, all the freshmen in the school were informed to gather on the playground at 4:00 p.m.

Soon, it was 4:00 p.m.

With the teachers leading, all the freshmen came to the playground, puzzled.

"Why are we all here?"

"This isn't some kind of an event, is it?"

"That's weird. Why only the freshmen? Where are the sophomores and juniors?"

"It's a gloomy day. Maybe they want to announce something?"

"I didn't hear any news. Aren't people of the school busy with the Young Physician of Huaxia Competition recently?"

"There are so many people here. The weather is not good. What do they want us to do?"

On the playground, there were a lot of talks.

It was full of people. There were about 10,000 freshmen.

All the freshmen arrived.

Chen Yinsheng appeared, walked straight up to the platform, picked up the microphone prepared in advance, and spoke to everyone.

“Be Quiet.” Listening to the noise on the playground, Chen Yinsheng raised his hand to signal the students to calm down.

When everyone was quiet, he said, “Students, I know you’re all wondering why you’re here. We have a big announcement to make.”

Everyone nodded as they heard that, but no one spoke. They still listened to Chen Yinsheng.

“You all know that Fang Qiu’s research about the method of Qi plus acupuncture has a very good effect on the treatment of diseases, right?” Chen Yinsheng asked.

“Yes,” the students on the playground answered.

“Good.” Chen nodded his head in satisfaction and said, “Actually, the reason why we are here today is that Fang Qiu has applied to the school about teaching students a set of methods to practice Qi.”

When that came out, everyone on the playground was surprised and then was in a state of joy.

“Really?”

“Fang Qiu is going to teach us Qi himself?”

“This is Fang Qiu’s unique method. Is he really willing to teach us?”

“I heard that Fang Qiu had planned to teach before and also made a sign-up post on the campus network. How did it get to the school leaders all of a sudden?”

“I’ve also heard that there are more than 10,000 people in the sign-up post. If he doesn’t report this to the school, will Fang Qiu dare to teach?”

“I still can’t believe that Fang Qiu is willing to teach us Qi.”

For a moment, a lot of people were extremely surprised.

After all, the real way to practice Qi was not easy to find.

Besides, they could learn it from Fang Qiu, who proved the existence of Qi by himself.

“Well, now, welcome Fang Qiu,” Chen Yinsheng shouted.

“Fang Qiu! Fang Qiu!” On the playground, everyone cheered and shouted the name of Fang Qiu.

With everyone cheering, Fang Qiu walked quickly to the stage.

“Thank you.” Taking the microphone from Chen Yinsheng, Fang Qiu bowed to Chen Yinsheng and the students on the playground. He greeted them and continued after everyone quieted down. “Since many students have come to me and asked me to teach them the method of practicing Qi, today, I’ll teach you a set of methods of practicing Qi. There are nine movements in this set of methods. And you must do every one of them properly. I hope you can observe and learn carefully.”

“Now, I’m going to show you how to do it. You can follow me.”

Fang Qiu started to demonstrate the moves.

As he demonstrated, he also explained the key points of the action.

These nine movements, which were made up by Fang Qiu himself, combined a lot of things. He made them very simple, which could make everyone feel the existence of Qi as soon as possible.

The demonstration of nine movements was soon finished.

It was easy for everyone to learn.

“Okay.” As the students had learned most of the methods, Fang Qiu said, “Later, I’ll lead you to practice one more time. As we’re practicing, I hope you can relax so as to achieve the best effect.”

Fang Qiu began to practice with the students. In order to let them feel the presence of Qi, Fang Qiu used his internal Qi to lead them as he did before.

But because there were so many people, Fang Qiu found that his internal Qi actually dried up before he finished doing all the movements. And students were just starting to feel their Qi.

It was fine if he only needed to teach 200 people. However, there were too many people here this time, even Fang Qiu couldn’t handle the pressure of leading 100,000 people to practice.

“This won’t last much longer.”

Fang Qiu was a little nervous.

This time, he did seem to go too far.

He thought since he had been leading them for a while, everyone might be able to sense the existence of Qi. It was possible that he drew back his internal Qi and made the students feel it on their own.

Fang Qiu was about to draw back his internal Qi.

“No.” At this moment, when Fang Qiu was going to do it, he actually found that his internal Qi seemed to be out of control. All the Qi inside his body started to mix up.

With the flow of internal Qi, Fang Qiu started to feel something strange.

It was like the volcano was about to erupt.

“Breaking through?” Fang Qiu’s face changed, and he felt a little worried.

When he returned home for the New Year holiday, he felt that he was going to breakthrough. After going back to school, he went through all kinds of things, but he still kept practicing every day, waiting for the day of making a breakthrough.

He didn’t see that coming.

This breakthrough should appear at this time. Fang Qiu was taken by surprise.

“No.” Although he was surprised and delightful as he was about to make a breakthrough, Fang Qiu knew that he couldn’t do it in this place.

Once he did it, everyone would know that he was the mysterious man.

When he thought about it, Fang Qiu gritted his teeth.

He immediately controlled the mixed internal Qi in his body with all his strength, forcing back the force of breakthrough.

Fortunately, because he just spent his internal Qi to lead the students to practice, he was able to run out of his internal Qi. Therefore, it didn't take him much energy to suppress the chaotic Qi inside.

He held on until they finished.

After practice, many people felt refreshed. Some single-minded, calm, relaxed people actually felt the presence of Qi. They were all surprised.

On the platform, Fang Qiu said, "Thank you."

As soon as it was done, Fang Qiu left the stage in a hurry.

"Hmm?" Seeing Fang Qiu hurriedly leave the playground, Jiang Miaoyu couldn't help but feel worried. She wondered if anything went wrong, so she hurried to catch up.

Before she could get out of the playground, she found that Fang Qiu was gone.

Suddenly, she became more worried.

After leaving the playground in a hurry, Fang Qiu hurried back to the dormitory, took out the box of plum blossom, and then immediately rushed out of the school.

"No, not yet..." That sense of breakthrough made Fang Qiu feel uncomfortable as if he had to wait in line to go to the bathroom when his stomach hurt.

For what it was worth, there was no way that Fang Qiu would breakthrough in the school.

He couldn't do it even if he were dressed like the mysterious man. Since all the freshmen were on the playground, and he was the only one who was not there, people would know that he was the mysterious man if he showed up as the mysterious man.

Therefore, he had to stay away from school.

Fang Qiu ran all the way to the woods next to Central Lake and then went further. He didn't stop until he reached an empty area on top of the mountain outside the city. Making sure that no one was there, Fang Qiu began to break through.

As soon as he let the force out, he felt as if his body had turned into a huge black hole. An extremely powerful force burst out of his chest and abdomen.

Suddenly, the wind blew fiercely and the clouds began to gather.

The gloomy sky suddenly turned dark. A strong whirlwind could be seen and gathered dark clouds together.

"Pitter-patter..." The next moment, lightning flashed and the thunder crashed in the dark sky.

Medical Master

Chapter 373: Elder Yi Is Seriously Injured

With the thunder and lightning in the sky, the animals in the forest were scattered.

Under the dark clouds, Fang Qiu didn't hesitate. He opened the box immediately and swallowed the Heaven Treasure...

"Come on!" Fang Qiu shouted in his heart.

It was time for a breakthrough and the reopening of the second meridian, Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin!

"Shoo!" As Fang Qiu let out all his strength, the energy from Heaven and Earth swept up and poured into his body quickly like the flowing river.

In the meantime, Fang Qiu bit off the plum blossom in his mouth.

The plum blossom immediately turned into a cool stream of energy, flowing down his throat and rushing toward the Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin.

The Heaven and Earth energy poured into his body.

Fang Qiu controlled the energy and forced it to crash the Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin.

In an instant, this meridian, which was as thin as a chopstick, expanded to the size of his little finger and continued to expand.

“Ah...” The pain was so intense that Fang Qiu couldn’t help screaming.

Fortunately, the energy transformed through the plum blossom came in time. It covered the whole meridian immediately and was able to reduce Fang Qiu’s pain as it continually restored the meridian which had been broken.

Just like last time, the energy of the Heaven and Earth that the meridian attracted when it broke through was madly colliding like the lava. However, the power of the plum blossom was about to confine that energy in the meridian.

As two kinds of energy were confronting each other, the Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin was expanding. Though the wall of it was getting thinner, the meridian became stronger.

“Hmm?” All of a sudden, Fang Qiu’s face changed.

He saw that the energy used to reopen the meridian was subtly becoming stronger, which even forced the plum blossom’s energy away.

As blossom’s energy was slowly forced away, the sharp pain also came again.

Suddenly, it made Fang Qiu sweat heavily.

“A little bit more!” Clenching his teeth, Fang Qiu made every effort to resist it.

It was the only energy transformed by plum blossom. Once it was moved away, it certainly couldn't return. The only way was to resist it and used this energy to restore the broken meridian after the meridian was fully reopened.

While he was enduring the pain, Fang Qiu found that the difficulty of reopening the meridian was beyond his imagination once again. Under the circumstances, the Earth Treasure wouldn't be able to meet his need to reopen the meridians.

If he wanted to reopen other meridians, he had to use Heaven Treasures. All the Earth Treasures wouldn't help at all.

And it had to rank higher than plum blossom.

The energy of plum blossom could barely support him to reopen the Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin. It would be harder for him to reopen the next meridian.

However, was it that easy to find the Heaven Treasure? He didn't even know whether there were so many of them.

“Ah!!!” All of a sudden, Fang Qiu looked up to the sky and howled.

After a long period of agony, he was finally able to make a real breakthrough and the Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin was finally fully reopened.

For others, the breakthrough was a joy.

But for Fang Qiu, every breakthrough was a battle because his breakthrough was to destroy the meridians!

The roar was so loud.

Although it couldn't compete with the whistle of the wind, thunder, and lightning of the sky, Fang Qiu actually discovered something as he looked up at the sky.

When he looked up at the sky and screamed, there was a crack in the dark clouds.

Looking at the crack, Fang Qiu was a little stunned.

"Beep beep beep..." At this point, his phone rang suddenly.

Although the sound of thunder and lightning was loud, Fang Qiu could notice his phone ringing because he switched the phone to vibration mode. Therefore, he took out his phone to have a look.

It was He Gaoming.

"Hello?" Fang Qi picked up the phone.

"Where are you?" The other side of the phone came the anxious voice of He Gaoming.

"What's wrong?" Fang Qiu asked hurriedly.

"I know you go to the University of Chinese Medicine. Do you know any good doctors, or do you have any friends or classmates who know good doctors?" He Gaoming asked anxiously.

"Are you hurt?" Fang Qiu asked.

"It's a friend of mine. He's seriously injured," He Gaoming replied.

“How bad is it? What kind of injury?” Fang Qiu asked hurriedly.

“It’s really bad!” He Gaoming said urgently, “I don’t have time to chat with you. Do you know a powerful doctor or not? I only know one doctor. It’s you. You can not tell me you don’t know any other doctors.”

Fang Qiu’s brows tightened as he heard that.

Judging from what He Gaoming said and the tone of his voice, Fang Qiu realized the seriousness of the problem.

“You have to tell me first. What happened? What kind of injury?”

Fang Qiu explained hurriedly, “Only if I know what the injury is, can I find a doctor for you.”

“It’s an incident happened in our martial arts circle.”

“In our martial arts world, there is a senior master named Elder Yi who was wounded by martial art practitioners from other provinces. It is a very serious internal injury,” He Gaoming said.

“Where are you now?” Fang Qiu asked, raising his eyebrows.

Elder Yi was seriously injured and was hit by martial arts practitioners from another province. Fang Qiu was worried as he heard that.

Elder Yi was a Grade-two Martial Superior. Since last time he got the Bingdi Lotus, it was possible that he might reach the level of Grade-three Martial Superior. How could he be seriously injured?

“We’re in a manor six kilometers outside the countryside,” He Gaoming said.

Hearing that, Fang Qiu knew at once that they were in Elder Yi’s manor.

“Wait for me, I’ll be there right away,” Fang Qiu said.

“What? Why should we wait for you? Get me a powerful doctor,” He Gaoming said.

“I am a powerful doctor.”

“I know Qigong. You know it,” Fang Qiu added.

“Don’t try to fool me. A man’s life is at stake,” He Gaoming said.

“I’m a doctor!” Fang Qiu replied in a deep voice.

“Well, we’ll wait for you then. Hurry up,” He Gaoming said.

He knew what Fang Qiu meant as he said those words, so he chose to believe him.

Hanging up the phone, Fang Qiu immediately flew out. Because he was outside the city, Fang Qiu wasn’t afraid to be seen. He crossed the mountains and forests, flying all the way to Elder Yi’s manor.

“Elder Yi has such great prestige in the martial arts circle in Jiangjing. Even if he doesn’t excel at martial arts, people from other provinces will show some respect to him when they come. Moreover, Elder Yi has many friends in the martial arts world. Who dares to lay hands on him and injure him badly?” Fang Qiu was puzzled.

He couldn’t figure out what happened.

“Is it...” Suddenly, something seemed to occur to Fang Qiu.

He dimly felt that this matter might have something to do with him.

Soon, Fang Qiu arrived at the manor.

Instead of flying straight in, he trotted and panted to the gate of the manor.

At this time, He Gaoming had been waiting at the gate of the manor.

“Go, go, go.” As He Gaoming saw Fang Qiu coming, he grabbed his arm and took him to run into the manor.

They stopped at the water garden in the middle of the manor.

Fang Qiu looked around and immediately saw many familiar practitioners. These people had varying degrees of injuries on their bodies and faces as if they just finished a fight.

Just as Fang Qiu was looking around, He Gaoming dragged him straight to the center of the ring.

Elder Yi had passed out in the center of the ring. Many people surrounded him, feeling worried.

“He Gaoming, why did you find such a little guy?”

“Yes, we asked you to find a famous doctor. Why do you bring a student here? Could you pay the price if you waste the time in saving Elder Yi?”

“He, you said you could find a doctor because you know someone. This is who you found?”

“Is this little guy reliable?”

People were asking so many questions.

It was clear that everyone was concerned about Elder Yi.

“Don’t worry. I can swear by my master’s name,” He Gaoming said, “he is absolutely reliable.”

That being said, He Gaoming was also worried, secretly praying that Fang Qiu had to be able to treat Elder Yi. Otherwise, he would be screwed.

Hearing He Gaoming’s words, Fang Qiu could not help but purse his lips.

When did I become your master?

Secretly rolling his eyes at He Gaoming, Fang Qiu squatted beside Elder Yi with all eyes on him. He began to feel his pulse and check his injury.

Fang Qiu then found that Elder Yi really got a serious internal injury.

Whoever did this, they were too cruel.

If they were more ruthless, they might be able to directly destroy Elder Yi’s martial arts power.

What kind of grudge was that?

After he examined Elder Yi’s injury, Fang Qiu immediately asked, “Are there any acupuncture tools?”

One of Elder Yi’s servants immediately replied and hurriedly went to get them.

Actually, Fang Qiu didn’t need acupuncture.

According to the current injury of Elder Yi, Fang Qiu only needed to use his internal Qi to help him restore the internal injury of his organs and meridians.

However, anyone who was below Grade-seven Martial Superior wasn't able to use internal Qi to restore the meridians.

Even those who were powerful than Grade-seven Martial Superior could only restore the broken meridians. They couldn't cure completely destroyed meridians. Moreover, only the higher Martial Superior could help the lower Martial Superior do it.

If their own meridians were destroyed, they couldn't repair it by themselves. They could only rely on others.

At this point, Elder Yi didn't only have injuries inside his body, his meridians were also seriously damaged. Although they weren't broken, they were badly damaged.

Fortunately, they could be repaired.

Therefore, in order to protect his identity, Fang Qiu asked for acupuncture tools.

If he didn't use acupuncture to save Elder Yi, then these people who didn't know him would realize Fang Qiu was more powerful than Elder Yi. When he put it in this way, those people would know that he was the mysterious man.

Soon, Elder Yi's men came running with a box of acupuncture tools.

Fang Qiu immediately started to place the needles.

He used acupuncture and moxibustion to stop the injury of his organs, controlling the internal Qi to slowly put the silver needles into Elder Yi's body. As he was twisting the needles, he secretly channeled his internal Qi to draw Elder Yi's internal Qi and restore the injured viscera and meridians.

While Fang Qiu was using the needles, people were staring at him nervously. No one dared to make a sound to disturb Fang Qiu. They only whispered to each other.

“That guy was simply shameless. I couldn’t believe he actually did this to Elder Yi.”

“Yeah. He just thought he was so competent, saying that Elder Yi took away his Bingdi Lotus with the mysterious man. Now he wanted to seek revenge. He was really shameless...”

“The most important thing is that he is a Grade-five Martial Superior. And he gathered a number of people together to fight here. They were just bullying someone weaker than them. Shame on him!”

Chapter 374: You re Looking for Me?

Though everyone discussed in low voices, Fang Qiu still heard it clearly.

“It should be him!”

Fang Qiu had an idea and a trace of coldness flashed across his eyes.

“It’s a shame that Senior John Doe isn’t here. Otherwise, how could I have let him act so recklessly just now?”

“That’s right. I really hope Senior John Doe can turn up earlier. Otherwise, it will be difficult for Elder Yi to survive the disaster.”

“What on earth is Senior John Doe going? Strictly speaking, the fifth-class Martial Superior exactly wants Senior John Doe for revenge, only he didn’t know Senior John Doe and couldn’t find Senior John Doe. Plus, Elder Yi and Senior John Doe had become his enemy long ago. Therefore, he went to get back at Elder Yi and even stole Elder Yi’s Bingdi Lotus together. He then claimed that it was his, and Elder Yi and Senior John Doe had stolen it from him first.”

“Right. The scariest part is that that guy claimed that he’d come tomorrow again. If Senior John Doe doesn’t show himself, he’ll not only swallow Bingdi Lotus down in front of Elder Yi but also remove Elder Yi’s kung fu foundation!”

The more he listened, the angrier he felt.

Back then, Elder Yi found Bingdi Lotus and invited Fang Qiu to pick it. That guy just met them on the way and failed to snatch it away. Now, he should gather people to seek revenge in broad daylight and also injured Elder Yi like this?

It was completely outrageous!

While feeling angry, Fang Qiu accelerated his treatment.

One hour later—

“Cough...”

Elder Yi had been unconscious, now, he suddenly coughed and opened his eyes.

Meanwhile, Fang Qiu drew back his needles and deeply exhaled.

“He woke up! He woke up!”

He Gaoming had been feeling nervous. The moment he saw Elder Yi woke up, he immediately jumped up and said, “What did I say? I couldn’t have gotten the wrong doctor to help.”

Everyone all felt pleasantly surprised as well.

“Thank you.”

Looking at Fang Qiu, Elder Yi managed to support his upper body up and performed a hold fist salute to Fang Qiu with gratitude.

Fang Qiu gently nodded as a gesture of acceptance.

“Phew...”

Elder Yi deeply exhaled and closed his eyes to feel the condition inside his body.

It turned out his veins had been badly damaged.

Though his viscera were not badly hurt and the damaged meridians had been largely recovered. However, that being said, he still had seriously broken meridians.

He opened his eyes again.

Elder Yi couldn't help smiling wryly.

Judging from the extent of his broken veins, his strength would not only stop increasing, but it might also fall.

“Thank you.”

Getting up with injuries, Elder Yi thanked Fang Qiu again.

He didn't especially probe Fang Qiu's strength and only deemed Fang Qiu as an ordinary guy.

Fang Qiu said, “Doctors save lives, and I'm a Chinese Medicine doctor.”

...

“Chinese Medicine deserves to be our Huaxia’s treasure. Today, if it had been a Western Medicine doctor, I might not have woken up. Marvelous Chinese Medicine, great Chinese Medicine.”

Elder Yi exclaimed and then said to everyone, “Everyone, follow me back to the attic hall.”

Finishing that, supported by his servant, he led everyone to walk deeper into the manor.

Fang Qiu also followed.

They arrived before the attic which was deep into the manor.

Elder Yi said to He Gaoming, “Xiao He, take the doctor to rest in the side hall.”

“All right.”

He Gaoming nodded immediately.

He knew Elder Yi wanted to discuss how to handle the matter with everyone.

However, Fang Qiu was only a normal doctor in their eyes. It would be best if Wulin and the normal world did not get entangled.

Led by He Gaoming, Fang Qiu entered a room of the side hall.

“Please rest here and I’ll see you a moment later.”

After the arrangement, He Gaoming immediately left.

It was at that time.

“Ring, ring, ring...”

A text message alert rang.

He dug out his phone and saw that it was a text from Jiang Miaoyu.

“Are you OK?”

Seeing the message, Fang Qiu immediately texted back. “I was seeing a patient. He’s my friend and he had an accident.”

Jiang Miaoyu replied. “I’m glad that you’re fine. Send my best wishes to your friend.”

Reading that, Fang Qiu sent a smiley face to her.

Meanwhile, in the hall, people started discussing.

Though it was two rooms away, Fang Qiu could still hear their conversation.

However, after 15 minutes, they got nowhere.

The only way was to reach the mysterious man, Senior John Doe, as soon as possible.

In their opinion, only the mysterious John Doe could solve the thing.

Otherwise, even with the entire Jiangjing Wulin circle, they could not compete with that bunch of people.

After making up their minds, everyone used all of their connections to look for the mysterious man crazily.

Until 10 a.m. the next morning, there was still not a piece of news about the mysterious man.

It made everyone extremely anxious and helpless.

All of the Jiangjing martial arts practitioners had all gathered in Elder Yi's manor.

If the mysterious man didn't show up, they could only confront that bunch of people head-on. Anyway, they would not just stand there and watch Elder Yi being hit.

It was at 10:30 a.m.

"Swoosh swoosh..."

A whoosh rang.

They saw five figures gliding from afar and directly rushing into Elder Yi's manor. They stood in the air.

...

With a closer look, they found the man in the front was none other than the middle-aged man who tried to steal Bingdi Lotus but was chased away by Fang Qiu with his strength as a top martial arts practitioner.

Other than him, among the rest four people, three of them were fifth-class Martial Superiors, and one had even already become a sixth-class Martial Superior.

They were four fifth-class Martial Superiors and a sixth-class superior.

Their strength had made all of the Jiangjing martial arts practitioners despair!

“Huh... he should wake up?”

Looking at the group of Jiangjing martial arts practitioners and Elder Yi standing on the battle arena, the leading middle-aged man arrogantly sneered. “I thought you’d kicked the bucket yesterday.”

“Haha.”

Four people beside him burst into laughter.

“Liu Dongzhu!”

Elder Yi glared at the man and said, “Even if people from other provinces and cities fear you, people from our Jiangjing don’t. You five scum, one day your karma will come around!”

After being hit yesterday, Elder Yi especially checked the five people’s identities. It turned out that he found they were notorious scum in Wulin circle, who called themselves the “Fabulous Five in the Bamboo Forest”. They were respectively called: Liu Dongzhu, Mo Qingzhu, Zhang Sizhu, Tian Zhongzhu, Wu Xinzhu.

Knowing the five people, Elder Yi especially called his friends in other provinces for help.

However, it turned out that when they heard the five scum’s names, they should all shirk and didn’t dare to interfere with this.

It made Elder Yi very helpless.

“Karma?”

Hearing Elder Yi's words, Liu Dongzhu sneered and twisted his wrist. A Bingdi Lotus immediately appeared in his palm. While appreciating the Bingdi Lotus, he said, "Are you talking about yourself?"

"Your karma is far from finishing!"

Saying that, Liu Dongzhu narrowed both his eyes and shot a trace of cold light from his eyes. Suddenly, he pursed his lips, scanning all of the martial arts practitioners in the manor. Then, he said in an extremely scornful and disdainful tone, "If my memory serves, this is the capital city. Isn't there anyone in your Jiangjing, the capital city?"

Elder Yi shouted. "Don't you dare to talk nonsense here!"

Just as he finished his shout, he couldn't help coughing heavily.

"Ha-ha."

Liu Dongzhu laughed, and while laughing, he pointed to Elder Yi with his finger and said, "Feeling bad, right? Don't worry. I'll make you feel even worse then."

"Where's the mysterious man?"

"Tell me where that pretending douchebag is and I'll spare you this time, OK?"

Hearing that, the crowd all fell silent.

If only they knew where the mysterious man was.

They believed that as long as the mysterious man struck out, the five people were bound to be defeated!

However, they couldn't have found him.

“What? Isn’t he a badass, your spiritual home, invincible? Why does he not dare to come and shrink into his shell like a tortoise?”

“Mysterious?”

“My ass!”

Liu Dongzhu angrily cursed and pointed to Elder Yi, saying, “I’ll give you one last chance before I swallow the Bingdi Lotus. Tell me where that pretentious son of a bitch is and I’ll spare you. Otherwise, when I swallow the Bingdi Lotus, you’ll beg me to kill you.”

After saying that, Liu Dongzhu carried the Bingdi Lotus with his index finger and middle finger and was about to send it into his mouth.

He was going to swallow the Bingdi Lotus at the next moment.

“Heard you’re looking for me?”

A familiar voice suddenly rang over.

Meanwhile, in the middle of the air, in front of Liu Dongzhu’s body, a black shadow suddenly flashed and its right hand acted.

“Crack!”

It was a crisp sound.

Liu Dongzhu couldn’t even react, and his two fingers were directly broken.

“Aargh!!!”

Painful screams spread.

Nevertheless, before he released all of his pain, Fang Qiu directly kicked him and sent him back flying heavily.

“Noisy!”

Fang Qiu coldly snorted and spread his right hand. In his palm, the Bingdi Lotus was giving off light energy aura.

“Take this.”

Without any unnecessary words, Fang Qiu swung his right hand and directly tossed the Bingdi Lotus to Elder Yi, adding, “I know your condition. Your meridian hasn’t been completely destroyed. They say that without destruction there can be no construction. This is also your chance. You can consume the Bingdi Lotus and directly improve your strength. Because of the broken meridian, you get the opportunity to expand the send meridian, saving you the trouble of opening up a new meridian from scratch.

“Now break through. I’ll protect you while you do it.”

While talking, Fang Qiu coldly glanced at the four people who followed Liu Dongzhu here, coldness and contempt all over his eyes.

“Senior, they...?”

Elder Yi pointed at Liu Dongzhu and the others.

Fang Qiu sneered. “They can’t get away.”

“Arrogant!”

An angry shout rang over.

He was none other than the only sixth-class Martial Superior among the five, Mo Qingzhu!

Though having angrily snapped at Fang Qiu, Mo Qingzhu didn’t rush to strike out with the other three.

Because they could clearly felt that this mysterious man was really not someone to be trifled with.

Earlier, when he appeared out of nowhere, they couldn’t have reacted. Moreover, he could send Liu Dongzhu back flying without resistance in an instant.

From that, they could see that the mysterious man was indeed powerful.

Even Mo Qingzhu couldn’t see him through.

Therefore, the four were all on alert.

However, it was at this moment.

“Shit!”

Liu Dongzhu, who had been kicked away, ferociously rushed back. Standing in the air, he looked at Fang Qiu who had landed on the ground. His eyes seemed to be on fire.

However, on the battle arena, He Gaoming and other Jiangjing martial arts practitioners all looked excited and pleasantly surprised.

He’d come.

Senior John Doe had finally come.

Not to mention other things, simply Senior John Doe's sentence "they can't get away" had already reduced them to tears.

Elder Yi felt especially elated.

He didn't expect that he should improve when he was already injured like this.

Elder Yi said, "Senior, how about I improve after this matter is settled?"

"Right now."

Fang Qiu opened his mouth and said, "After settling the matter, I'll be gone. And I won't be able to protect you then."

"All right."

Elder Yi heard that and nodded and was about to swallow the Bingdi Lotus.

"How dare you."

In the middle of the air, Liu Dongzhu fiercely roared!

Chapter 375: What A Fast Breakthrough!

"How dare you!"

Liu Dongzhu's ferocious roar rang in the sky.

"Hmph."

Looking at Liu Dongzhu, who was in the middle of the air with a pair of red eyes out of anger, Elder Yi sneered and didn't fear him at all. Opening his mouth, he directly swallowed the Bingdi Lotus in his hand.

"You must be courting death!"

Liu Dongzhu ferociously shouted. His body moved and he immediately rushed down from the middle of the air. He heavily smashed toward Elder Yi, who had just swallowed Bingdi Lotus, sat on the ground, and was about to improve his strength.

The other four immediately rushed over seeing that.

On the arena, Fang Qiu coldly snorted. "Hmph." A gush of internal Qi poured out of his body. Immense energy instantly forced back those standing on the arena until they got off the arena.

Then, he clenched his right fist.

Toward Liu Dongzhu who was ferociously rushing over, he smashed hard.

It was at the next moment.

"Bang."

A loud crash spread.

When the two fists crashed into each other, terrifying energy exploded out. Under the break of the energy, the arena under Fang Qiu's feet should break open with numerous cracks.

Even so, Fang Qiu still didn't move his feet.

While on the other side, Liu Dongzhu's face instantly paled.

Under such a head-on confrontation situation, he clearly felt that Fang Qiu's strength should have reached a second-class Martial Superior's!

He clearly remembered that the first time he met Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu's strength was only at the peak of the martial arts practitioner.

At that time, with the strength at the peak of the martial arts practitioner, Fang Qiu had easily driven him away.

He didn't expect that before long, Fang Qiu's strength had broken through to a second-class Martial Superior's.

His breakthrough really had been too fast.

An idea came to him.

Liu Dongzhu immediately turned around to look sideways. After the four who had been sustaining themselves in the air missed their steps, they couldn't carry on and successively landed on the arena.

Liu Dongzhu ferociously shouted. "Kill him!"

He was afraid.

Because Fang Qiu's breakthrough speed was really too fast. Moreover, Fang Qiu had defeated him with the strength at the peak of the martial arts practitioner. Now, since Fang Qiu had been a second-class Martial Superior, Fang Qiu must be stronger than before. If he let Fang Qiu continue to grow, in a period, he would not be able to get back at Fang Qiu; instead, Fang Qiu would take revenge on him!

Hearing that, Mo Qingzhu and others narrowed their eyes.

“Attack!”

Without any extra words, Mo Qingzhu, who was the strongest among the five, coldly shouted and moved his body, first attacking toward Fang Qiu’s back ferociously.

“He’s just a second-class Martial Superior. Attack him together!”

Liu Dongzhu shouted out loud again.

However, it was at this moment.

“It suits me exactly.”

Fang Qiu sneered. In the right fist he used to crash into Liu Dongzhu’s fist, internal Qi swirled up. Like the terrifying wave on the sea, it broke into tremendous energy and instantly hit at Liu Dongzhu’s fist.

“What?”

Liu Dongzhu’s eyes opened wide. He didn’t even react and felt a force he found impossible to resist and that stabbed his heart surging from Fang Qiu’s fist.

The force not only impacted but also penetrated greatly. It extremely overbearingly rushed into his body.

“Poof!”

A mouthful of blood was spurted out.

Liu Dongzhu's body, also at the same time, was sent back flying.

Off the stage, the group of Jiangjing martial arts practitioners all coldly smiled.

A second-class Martial Superior?

What a joke!

The mysterious man had, on the arena, defeated some fifth-class Martial Superior with his strength at the peak of the martial arts practitioner, and that was long long ago. Since he could beat a fifth-class Martial Superior with the peak of the martial arts practitioner strength back then, now when he used a second-class Martial Superior's strength to hit you, four fifth-class and one sixth-class Martial Superiors, he was caring for your feelings, alright?

Without a doubt, though on the surface, there were cold smiles on everyone's face.

However, in fact, deep down in their hearts, everyone all felt extremely excited.

Before they knew it, the mysterious man had become their support and pride!

It was in the arena.

"What?"

Mo Qingzhu was behind Fang Qiu, ready to attack the latter. The moment he saw Liu Dongzhu was sent back flying, his face dramatically changed instantly.

From the very beginning, he thought the mysterious man not simple and the man possessed more strength than what was shown. Otherwise, the man couldn't have popped up to snatch Liu Dongzhu's Bingdi Lotus and also instantly sent Liu Dongzhu back flying.

Judging from the current situation, it was truly so.

He knew clearly of Liu Dongzhu's capability.

In terms of strength, not to mention a fifth-class Martial Superior, even a normal sixth-class Martial Superior couldn't compete with him. However, before his eyes, he saw Liu Dongzhu indeed lost because of weaker strength.

How could such overbearing strength possibly belong to a second-class Martial Superior?

"There's something wrong with this kid!"

"Let's wait and see!"

For some unknown reason, Mo Qingzhu, who had reached behind Fang Qiu, suddenly felt his heart tightened.

He intended to draw back his hand and retreated.

"Swoosh."

He had been behind the black shadow, however, now, it suddenly jerked around. While a pair of eyes full of coldness swept him, its right hand reached out.

It should act so quickly that people couldn't even see it clearly. When Mo Qingzhu was quickly retreating, it directly pinched the pulse on Mo Qingzhu's wrist.

"Since you've come, why in such a hurry to go?"

A cold voice rang from Fang Qiu's mouth, at the same time, he forcefully pulled.

Mo Qingzhu had just gotten away for a short distance, instantly, he was pulled back. He clenched his left fist and directly smashed toward the opponent's face.

Mo Qingzhu was after all a sixth-class Martial Superior, with reaction much faster than Liu Dongzhu's.

Before Fang Qiu's fist landed, he immediately raised his fist to counterattack.

"Bang."

Their fists bumped.

Fang Qiu's body didn't move an inch, but Mo Qingzhu took a few steps back from the bump.

Mo Qingzhu was astounded in his heart. "As expected!"

When their fists bumped, he should feel Fang Qiu's strength much stronger than his and even have suppressed his strength.

Below the platform, the group of Jiangjing martial arts practitioners all thrilled at what they saw.

Senior John Doe should have sent Liu Dongzhu back flying with one fist and again made Mo Qingzhu retreat with another fist.

He was truly powerful!

"How strong!"

"Senior John Doe is so badass, single-handedly defeating five without the slightest possibility of losing."

“Hmph, these five scum should dare to find trouble with Senior John Doe. Their good days are over!”

“That’s right. With Senior John Doe’s strength, he can chop them into pieces in minutes.”

The more they said, the more excited the group became.

However, it was at this moment.

“Watch out!”

Suddenly, an anxious shout came from the crowd.

Everyone turned their eyes to take a look.

They saw that after Fang Qiu successively drove away Liu Dongzhu and Mo Qingzhu, the other three should secretly turn their attacks toward Elder Yi, who was practicing to improve his strength.

When they noticed that, the three people had already respectively rushed near Elder Yi in three directions.

“Get lost!”

Standing in front of Elder Yi, Fang Qiu narrowed his both eyes. While his deep shout spread over, his body acted, directly soaring up into the sky. When his fist attacked toward one of them, both his feet fiercely kicked at another one.

Though they had both been fifth-class Martial Superiors, the two people’s strength was truly weaker than Liu Dongzhu’s. Therefore, before they could react, they violently bumped into Fang Qiu.

Heavey strength immediately flipped the two people over.

At this time, the last one had reached before Elder Yi. A fist carrying terrifying energy Qi directly smashed to Elder Yi's chest.

When he was about to succeed, Fang Qiu, who had turned over two people, twisted around his body in the middle of the air and grabbed the fist that had rushed before Elder Yi's chest as suddenly as lightning. At the time he stopped the opponent's attack, he performed a forward roll in the air.

"The first one!"

With the loud sound spread, Fang Qiu, who had turned sideways, heavily stomped on the man's back, his both feet carrying tremendous force.

"Bang!"

As if he didn't have any force to support himself, the man instantly was slapped onto the ground by Fang Qiu's stomp, heavily tripping in front of Elder Yi with his face hitting the ground.

Seeing that, the other people all anxiously shouted. "Sizhu!"

It turned out that he was Zhang Sizhu from the "Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest".

Fang Qiu coldly snorted. "Scum who ruin the Wulin. You deserve to die!"

Taking his feet off Zhang Sizhu's back, then, Fang Qiu grabbed Zhang Sizhu's neck and lifted him in the middle of the air. He coldly glanced at Mo Qingzhu and the others slowly besieging him in four respective directions.

It was at that time.

Liu Dongzhu, who had been kicked away in the beginning, had already wiped the bloodstain on the corner of his lips, staring at Fang Qiu with a ferocious face.

However, on this side, Fang Qiu completely ignored the four people.

He clenched his right fist. While bursting into internal Qi, he fiercely slapped at Zhang Sizhu's Dantian. A gush of terrifying internal Qi instantly swarmed into Zhang Sizhu's body and shattered Zhang Sizhu's Dantian. Then, it ferociously poured into Zhang Sizhu's broken meridians and ruthlessly shattered the meridians completely.

"Poof!"

Blood gushed out of Zhang Sizhu's mouth like a fountain.

"I don't like killing people. Today, I'll spare your life and remove your kung fu. I'll see how you make trouble in the future!"

While saying, Fang Qiu's right hand moved.

He directly flung the man away with tremendous force and heavily hit Liu Dongzhu who was rushing to him, stopping the man at the outside.

Then, Fang Qiu suddenly turned around and glared at the other two people.

"Who's the second?"

After he said that, maybe they saw the means Fang Qiu used to treat Zhang Sizhu, or they knew they couldn't compete with Fang Qiu, the two people, Tian Zhongzhu and Wu Xinzhu, should stop their rushing steps in fear of Fang Qiu's stare.

However, it was at this side.

“Swish!”

Mo Qingzhu didn't stop a little and instantly rushed to Fang Qiu's side. He fiercely chopped at Fang Qiu's neck with his palm.

It was just when his palm was about to fall.

Fang Qiu suddenly turned around his body and took a step. While turning to face Mo Qingzhu, he dodged Mo Qingzhu's attack from the hand. Then, he suddenly lifted his right foot, leaned his upper body backward, and focused all of his strength at the tip of his right foot, bursting into a gush of extremely fierce energy Qi. He directly kicked heavily at the lower abdomen of Mo Qingzhu, whose body was in midair.

“Hmph.”

Mo Qingzhu coldly snorted and twisted his body around in midair, directly dodging Fang Qiu's attack with an extremely quick reaction.

However, it was at the next moment.

Just when he landed his feet on the ground, Fang Qiu directly pounced on him. Internal Qi of Fang Qiu's two reopened meridians, Lung Meridian of Hand-Taiyin and Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin, all burst out.

The fist, where blue veins were bulging, along with the wave of Fang Qiu's arm, heavily pounded onto Mo Qingzhu's chest.

“Kill that old thing, and I'll drag him!”

Mo Qingzhu didn't seem to notice Fang Qiu had gone all out. Instead, he shouted at the other three people and clenched his fist, waving it at Fang Qiu.

Meanwhile, Liu Dongzhu looked at Zhang Sizhu, who was slammed in front of him, and resentfully spit. Not caring if Zhang Sizhu was still alive, he immediately gathered with Tian Zhongzhu and Wu Xinzhu and rushed to Elder Yi with all of their strength.

On the way, Liu Dongzhu gritted his teeth with a ferocious face. He drew out an extremely sharp spiked club behind his waist. When he waved it with his hand, the spikes shining with a cold light directly rushed to Elder Yi's neck!

Chapter 376: Remove All Of Them

"Whoosh..."

The swoosh of the air that rang successively from the front and back made Fang Qiu's heart tighten.

In front of him, Mo Qingzhu was entangling him, while at the back, the three people, Liu Dongzhu, Tian Zhongzhu, and Wu Xinzhu, are threatening Elder Yi's life.

No matter in which direction he saw, it was just like a dead end.

Off the arena, the Jiangjing martial arts practitioners couldn't help shouting. They all wanted to rush onto the arena to save Elder Yi, but it was too late now; Liu Dongzhu had reached in front of Elder Yi.

Furthermore, on his both sides, there were Tian Zhongzhu and Wu Xinzhu.

Perhaps before they rushed onto the arena, the spiked clubs shining with a cold light in Liu Dongzhu's hand had already stabbed into Elder Yi's neck.

At that moment, nearly all of the Jiangjing martial arts practitioners held their breath out of nervousness.

It was at the arena.

“Swish!”

Like the wind, Mo Qingzhu’s two fists carried overwhelming energy Qi and rushed before Fang Qiu, bursting into all of their power. With a terrifying speed, he waved his fists at Fang Qiu’s head and chest, ferociously dashing over.

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

Feet still and standing behind Elder Yi, while he blocked Mo Qingzhu, he spread his palm.

“Great Hand of Destruction!”

He secretly shouted in his heart.

Fang Qiu charged his right hand forward and slapped in the air.

Then, he instantly turned around, completely ignoring Mo Qingzhu. His right hand immediately curved like a dragon claw and, like a tool to buckle the water tube, reached before Elder Yi, tightly clutching the arm that had already dashed in Elder Yi’s front.

Before his eyes, with one centimeter further, the spiked club in Liu Dongzhu’s hand was going to prick into Elder Yi’s throat.

“Aargh... go to hell!”

The moment his wrist got shackled by Fang Qiu, Liu Dongzhu instantly shouted, bursting into the power all over his body at one time. He tried to forcefully stab Elder Yi to death under Fang Qiu’s stopping.

“You deserve to die!”

Fang Qiu coldly snorted.

Though he could easily stop a fifth-class Martial Superior when they had gone all out, he needed a short distance to offset the hit. However, now, he'd got nowhere to retreat.

The only way was to change the direction of Liu Dongzhu's attack.

Without the slightest hesitation, just as Liu Dongzhu burst into all of his strength, Fang Qiu suddenly pulled.

He instantly pulled his right hand onto Elder Yi's right shoulder.

The attack missed its target!

Liu Dongzhu opened his eyes wide and looked ferocious.

He extremely angrily glared at Fang Qiu and then looked up at Mo Qingzhu.

However, he saw Mo Qingzhu, who had not reached his target, was already sent back flying now. In the air, blood that squirted out of Mo Qingzhu's mouth spilled.

Liu Dongzhu was stunned by the scene.

Mo Qingzhu was a genuine sixth-class Martial Superior!

How was he sent back flying for no reason like this?

Moreover, he spat blood from the hit?

Liu Dongzhu was dumbfounded!

How, was that possible?

No one had attacked him at all!

Off the stage, the crowd of Jiangjing martial arts practitioners were all extremely shocked as well.

They saw it.

Senior John Doe just slapped in the air like that, and before he could change his face, Mo Qingzhu's entire body was directly sent back flying as if he had taken a heavy blow, heavily falling at the edge of the arena.

What kind of kung fu was this?

It should reach such a terrifying and weird effect!

This was too strong, right?

It was at that time.

"Clap clap!"

On the arena, two successive booms rang over.

They saw when Tian Zhongzhu and Wu Xinzhu, who had snuck up on Elder Yi with Liu Dongzhu, dashed beside Elder Yi, Fang Qiu should fling Liu Dongzhu in his firmly-clasped hand and directly knock the two people back flying.

“Guilty of the worst crimes and bullying others with your strength. You Wulin scum!”

After knocking the two people back flying, Fang Qiu took the force to slam Liu Dongzhu on the ground. Then, he clenched his right fist and heavily smashed at Liu Dongzhu’s lower abdomen as suddenly as lightning.

...

Fang Qiu rose and heavily kicked at his waist. The huge force immediately kicked him back flying and the man bumped into Zhang Sizhu, who had already been useless.

“The third one!”

Having gotten rid of Liu Dongzhu, Fang Qiu dashed and instantly rushed beside Tian Zhongzhu and Wu Xinzhu, who had been knocked back flying.

The two people immediately got up to resist.

However, the moment they got up, Fang Qiu swept their feet on the ground with his leg. When the two hurriedly tried to dodge it, Fang Qiu’s both hands curved into dragon claws and directly hit the two’s throats.

He instantly clutched the two’s necks.

Then, he lifted his right foot and heavily knocked Wu Xinzhu’s lower abdomen with his knee. Combined with the internal Qi, the tremendous force directly shattered Wu Xinzhu’s Dantian.

“The fourth one!”

Clenching his right fist, under Tian Zhongzhu’s startled and fearful eyes, Fang Qiu directly smashed onto Tian Zhongzhu’s Dantian.

“Poof...”

A mouthful of blood was spurted out.

Tian Zhongzhu’s entire body was tightened and fell to the ground while he was twitching.

The crowd then looked at the other three people.

They were all just like him.

In the blink of an eye, the kung fu foundations of the four people including Liu Dongzhu had all been removed.

Below the stage, the Jiangjing martial arts practitioners were very excited.

Finally, the evil Liu Dongzhu who had tried to kill Elder Yi finally reaped what he sowed.

However, the battle was not over yet.

“Aargh...”

At the edge of the arena, Mo Qingzhu wiped the blood at the corner of his lips, roared, and stood up.

“You’re the last one.”

Turning his body around to face Mo Qingzhu, Fang Qiu said in a grim and cold voice.

For him, even though he had just broken through and Mo Qingzhu had been a rarely perfect practice opponent, he wouldn’t make any progress. Furthermore, Fang Qiu wasn’t in the mood to practice with this kind of evildoer at all. His only thought was to finish Mo Qingzhu!

“Who the hell are you?”

Glancing at the four people who had flopped onto the arena and lost the strength to battle anymore, Mo Qingzhu asked with a startled face, “Norma people can’t be this strong. You’re not a second-class Martial Superior at all. Who the hell are you?”

“I, have no name!”

While saying that, Fang Qiu’s body dashed and instantly reached in front of Mo Qingzhu.

Before that, Mo Qingzhu had already gotten injured.

One must know that, though Fang Qiu only used guru-level strength at the very beginning when he snatched the Bingdi Lotus, Mo Qingzhu still couldn’t take the hit even if it was only a second-class Martial Superior’s Great Hand of Destruction.

Moreover, at the moment he used the Great Hand of Destruction, Fang Qiu almost broke into all of the internal Qi of the two reopened meridians. Therefore, he not only didn’t need to draw the energy between heaven and earth but could also sustain the Great Hand of Destruction at the size of a regular palm.

When it was such an overbearing hit, if a man took it off guard and even under a sudden situation, he couldn’t have handled it even if he was a sixth-class Martial Superior.

He wasn’t seriously injured inside his body.

Before Fang Qiu rushed to him, Mo Qingzhu didn’t hesitate to immediately turn around and run, trying to escape.

“You can’t escape.”

Fang Qiu directly exerted the Guru Realm strength and chased after him in an instant. His entire body floated in midair, stopping Mo Qingzhu who was advancing with the lightness skill.

Seeing Fang Qiu flying in the air, Mo Qingzhu instantly changed his face dramatically and pointed at Fang Qiu, shouting. "You're..."

Unfortunately, before he said the word guru, he was heavily smashed in the chest by Fang Qiu. He directly thumped onto the arena from midair.

The already cracked arena shook with scattering yellow dust.

"Swish."

Fang Qiu closely caught up with him, leaving not a second for Mo Qingzhu to react. Fang Qiu directly smashed Mo Qingzhu's Dantian. While shattering Mo Qingzhu's Dantian, the terrifying internal Qi swarmed into Mo Qingzhu's body, swept around, and destroyed all of Mo Qingzhu's meridians.

His kung fu had totally been destroyed!

"Poof..."

With the spurt of a mouthful of blood, the curtain finally came down on the battle.

It was off the arena.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Looking at the five people whose kung fu had been removed on the platform and then Fang Qiu, everyone stood transfixed on the spot, not able to say a single word.

They were the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest.

They had been infamous in Wulin. The five big scum, four fifth-class Martial Superiors and a sixth-class Martial Superiors, just fell down like that!

Without a doubt, everyone all understood.

From today, the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest would never appear in Jianghu.

Though not dead, now, they were just five simple common people, the kind who should never dream about practicing kung fu for their entire lives anymore.

“Awe-awesome.”

“Five people, all of them destroyed?”

“Even the sixth-class Martial Superior too...”

“Hiss... how strong is Senior John Doe really?”

Off the arena, many people gasped from the shock.

Because Fang Qiu’s performance was really too scary.

Although, a few months ago, they had witnessed Fang Qiu’s defeating a fifth-class Martial Superior with the strength at the peak of the martial arts practitioner, what they saw today stunned them even more.

It was in the arena.

“Er...”

Elder Yi, who had been sitting still to improve his strength, suddenly shivered his body, his face blushing all over.

He didn't seem to be able to carry on anymore.

With a closer look, they saw Elder Yi already chewing the Bingdi Lotus in his mouth.

Obviously, he'd met trouble.

Slightly frowning, Fang Qiu walked up and gently pressed his right hand on Elder Yi's back.

The Absolute Touch!

The condition inside Elder Yi's body immediately visualized itself in front of Fang Qiu's eyes.

At this time, Elder Yi had already been breaking through for a while.

However, though the realm had reached a third-class Martial Superior's, the third meridians inside his body still couldn't be expanded because of too many impurities.

After all, he was of old age.

The longer a man lived, the more impurities he would have inside his body, and so was the meridian.

It was exactly because of this, Elder Yi had always thought he couldn't break through and didn't dare to reopen meridians either.

Now, with Elder Yi's current situation, not to mention completely expand the third meridian, he might suffer a countercharge himself and had a Qi deviation with a meridian that hadn't been expanded.

Of course, Fang Qiu would not watch Elder Yi have a Qi deviation.

"Expand."

Moving the internal Qi, Fang Qiu directly infused a gush of internal Qi inside Elder Yi's body, leading and controlling Elder Yi's own internal Qi to quickly rush into the meridian. It -ed all of the barriers in the meridian in an unstoppable way.

It was after a moment.

"Rumble..."

An overwhelming energy Qi surged up from Elder Yi's body and poured in all directions.

Even the flying dust and gravel on the arena were blown upward.

He broke through.

Off the stage, the Jiangjing martial arts practitioners collected themselves from the shock and all felt elated.

However, on the arena, Fang Qiu still didn't stop, and Elder Yi didn't open his eyes either. The two were still carrying on.

After completely expanding the third meridian, Fang Qiu controlled his internal Qi and led Elder Yi's to directly rush to the fourth meridian.

He expanded the fourth meridian lightning-fast.

Until now did Fang Qiu stop.

He knew a third-class Martial Superior could open four meridians. Since he had reached out to help, he decided to help to the end, to help Elder Yi open the fourth meridian as well. It could help Elder Yi secure his power as a third-class Martial Superior.

“Thank senior.”

Opening his eyes, Elder Yi immediately rose and performed a hold fist salute to Fang Qiu to thank him with a glowing face.

“The thing started because of me. Today, I finally finished it.”

Fang Qiu nodded to accept Elder Yi’s thanks. Then, when he was about to stride to leave, he again glanced at the five senseless people lying on the arena and said, “These five people’s kung fu has been removed by me. As for how to handle them, I’ll leave it to you.”

Chapter 377: It’s Forbidden! No More Investigation!

Suddenly, below the arena, He Gaoming shouted loudly and rushed onto the arena. He directly pounced on Fang Qiu’s thigh and was about to grab it. “Master!”

“Swoosh.”

Fang Qiu moved his feet and immediately flashed to the other side.

Missing his target, He Gaoming directly pounced on the gravel-and-dust-covered arena and hit his face on the stage. When he raised his head, there was dust all over his face.

His look caused the crowd off the stage to burst into laughter.

Fang Qiu was also helpless.

Why was this guy so shameless?

“He’s been a grown-up and he still wants to grab other people’s thighs to beg? Get lost!”

“Master, don’t leave so quickly.”

Wiping the dust on his face, He Gaoming tittered and said to Fang Qiu, “Once you leave, I won’t know how to contact you. What if things like this happen again later?”

Hearing this, all the present martial arts practitioners including Elder Yi successively nodded.

Right, Senior John Doe now was nearly the insurance of Jiangjing Wulin circle.

This time, the bad guys had been the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest, but who would they be the next time?

Moreover, with Senior John Doe’s increasing reputation, experts from other provinces who wanted to challenge would grow. It would be OK if they met ordinary ones. If they met some evil people and if they attacked others once they couldn’t see Senior John Doe, it would be really troublesome.

Elder Yi opened his mouth and said, “Do you think you can leave your contact information so we can inform you the next time when we meet something necessary?”

“That’s right, senior.”

“Senior, please leave your contact information.”

Everyone all echoed.

Hearing everyone’s words, Fang Qiu slightly thought about it and found it really necessary.

He was in school and couldn’t easily receive news of Wulin. This time, but for He Gaoming’s phone call, he couldn’t have known that something like this would happen. If He Gaoming did not call, the thing this time would definitely caused serious consequences.

With this in mind, Fang Qiu really thought it necessary to leave them his contact information.

He opened his mouth and said, “If you have something, find me at the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.”

Fang Qiu bounced on the tips of his feet. His entire body immediately soared up and quickly vanished in front of everyone’s eyes.

Once Fang Qiu left, the crowd was stunned. “The University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine?”

Hearing the school name, they immediately remembered the mysterious man from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine who was hyped up on the Internet.

Then, they thought about it.

Wasn’t that mysterious man a student?

Moreover, it was highly possible that he was a freshman.

Thinking about that, everyone present was shocked!

Elder Yi was also so stunned that he could not say a word in a long while.

A student should be strong to such an extent, and even the old guy himself could not compare.

He felt bitter in his heart.

Compared to the mysterious man, he really had wasted his life.

Off the arena, everyone looked at each other in blank dismay.

Though they had guessed it, they still weren't willing to believe Senior John Doe to be the mysterious man from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. Now, hearing Senior John Doe admit it in person, they really couldn't immediately react.

Wasn't the gap too huge between Senior John Doe's age and strength?

Just when everyone was shocked, on the arena, He Gaoming had an idea and tittered.

The University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine?

Wasn't it the school my brother studied in?

With this clue, couldn't I find it?

"In kung fu, I'm worse than my master, but in the investigation... hey hey, this time I'll thoroughly investigate my master's real identity."

As expected, after He Gaoming left the manor, he immediately called and asked those sources and helpers who had been collaborating with him to go to the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine at once. No matter in what way, he must find who the mysterious man really was!

After making the call, He Gaoming whistled with an excited and expectant face, walking into a pool room which was only one block away from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. He waited for the result while playing pool.

Just when He Gaoming was merrily whistling to himself, a voice suddenly spread over. "Finding playing alone interesting?"

Hearing that, He Gaoming turned around to have a look.

In his view, he saw a youth who wore a loose top in loud colors, low-crotch pants, a baseball cap, and a silver chain the size of a pinkie around the neck.

The youth rolled his sleeves up high, revealing the tattoos on his right arm. He looked just like a punk.

"Because I'm waiting for you."

He Gaoming laughed and asked, "Why do you come so late?"

The youth asked, "Play pool first, shall we?"

He Gaoming nodded. "Sure."

In the past, He Gaoming used to be a punk too. He liked hanging out in pool rooms and arcades. Later, when he learned kung fu, he gradually changed himself to be a man of integrity. Nevertheless, his changed personality did not change his hobby, with the pool still being one of his favorite sports.

Because of that, He Gaoming would show up in pool rooms to play pool from time to time.

And he had known this punk a few months ago when he played pool.

“Bang.”

He Gaoming pushed the cue and the huge force scattered the balls the youth had just arranged.

The youth asked, “You’re feeling quite in the zone, aren’t you?”

“Haha.”

He Gaoming laughed loudly and successively hit two balls into the pockets, saying, “Not bad. Judging from my play, you’re going to lose today.”

The youth replied with a smile. “Not necessarily.”

Just after that, He Gaoming pushed his cue in a wrong angle, missing his target.

The youth took his turn.

“Bang bang bang...”

Without a single word, once the youth took his turn, he successively pushed his cue and hit all of his balls into the pockets.

Instantly, there were only He Gaoming’s balls and the eighth ball left on the table.

Looking at the position of the black No. 8 ball, the youth leaned on the table and set his posture.

While aiming, he said in a calm voice. “Stop the investigation.”

Hearing that, He Gaoming was stunned.

“Stop the investigation?”

“What does that mean?”

“Bang!”

The sound of hitting balls spread.

The youth straightforwardly and directly hit the black No. 8 ball into a pocket.

Then, he put down the cue.

Looking at He Gaoming, he gently smiled and reached out to pat He Gaoming’s shoulder, saying,
“Conduct yourself well.”

After saying that, the youth left.

Looking at the back of the youth who was leaving, He Gaoming was stunned.

The youth had not known he was a detective.

Moreover, recently, he had not taken any case or investigated anything.

Only today, when he had the chance, he asked people to check the mysterious man's background. However, when he just got to it, someone, and even someone familiar, came to warn him?

What was going on?

Being a detective, He Gaoming had always been cautious. He would investigate everyone who approached him.

He even also investigated Fang Qiu.

It turned out that Fang Qiu just came from a working-class family with nothing special. That was why he kept in contact with Fang Qiu. Moreover, he also found that the reason why Fang Qiu had so much money was he bought several medical materials. All of these made perfect sense.

However, the youth before his eyes was different.

During so many years, he had investigated many people, and the only one who he found nothing about was the youth.

The most crucial part was, to investigate the youth, he had met something forbidden.

Something national!

Anything related to the nation was forbidden to private detectives. Therefore, when he found the youth related to the nation in his investigation, he immediately stopped the investigation without hesitation.

He thought about one possibility.

The nation's mysterious department!

The youth was very likely to come from it.

Therefore, though not knowing the youth's exact background, He Gaoming would like to get in contact with him. He thought that one day, he would show his skills in front of the youth and then he would be put into an important position by the nation as well.

However, it turned out that day had never come.

Remembering what the youth said, He Gaoming felt his heart shake.

He didn't expect that the mysterious man should also be related to the nation, and he should have such a powerful background.

As long as it was about the nation, it was forbidden!

With that in mind, He Gaoming immediately took out his phone and called his helpers and friends.

"It's forbidden, no more investigation!"

Meanwhile, after returning to school, under the school's arrangement, the sophomores gathered on the sports ground, and Fang Qiu continued to teach them how to practice Qi.

They went all the way to 5 pm.

After teaching, he was about to leave the sports ground.

"Jingling..."

A familiar ringtone rang.

"Hmm?"

Hearing the ringtone, Fang Qiu immediately frowned.

The ringtone was the one he had specially set for the old commander.

He thought. "Did something happen?"

Fang Qiu immediately left the sports ground and secretly went to the place where he hid the mysterious man's clothes. After changing the clothes, he quickly arrived at Yaowang Mountain.

It turned out that he did not meet the old commander on Yaowang Mountain, instead, he met the military officer he had seen previously, Li Ji.

"Senior."

Seeing Fang Qiu, Li Ji immediately walked forward and performed a hold fist salute, saying, "Greetings to senior. From today, I'll meet you alone."

Fang Qiu nodded. "All right."

He knew that the old commander, after all, was a big shot. He could not always stay at Jiangjing and meet Fang Qiu personally every time.

"This time, I called senior over because of this."

While saying, Li Ji took out a cell phone from his bag. When he handed it to Fang Qiu, he said, "Senior, this is a specially-made cell phone. No matter how you try with those methods and techniques, it can't be located. And you don't need to worry about its leaking information."

"Oh?"

Fang Qiu took the phone, while exclaiming in the heart that the nation's technology was actually very powerful.

Li Ji continued to add, "And, you can also set your current phone number as this phone's. In theory, this phone can be reached through 99 numbers. Dial any one of the 99 numbers, and you can reach it. You don't need to worry about its number being exposed at all."

"Alright, I'll take it."

Fang Qiu nodded and put it away.

He knew, in his current scope of activities, if the nation wanted to check anything on him, it could. Since the nation did not, then he naturally should care for the nation's feelings by, for example, accepting the phone.

It looked like an advanced cell phone.

In fact, it could be counted as a monitor.

Though he did not really like the feeling of being watched, it was, after all, the nation.

"One more thing."

Li Ji suddenly frowned and said, "We received intelligence that said the organization that had tried to assassinate the old commander before might strike in retaliation. Of course, the old commander is in the army, and they can't do anything to him. But, when they can't hurt the old commander, they might sabotage other places of the nation. In the end, they might even strike at the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. During this time, senior must be careful."

Chapter 378: Seems to Have Found the Heaven Treasure!

“They come from an organization that is trying to block the rise of Huaxia. It’s actually controlled by a foreign fund and it’s called HNS, and the full name is Neverrise, Huaxia,” Li Ji replied.

“Huaxia, never rise?”

Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

A fit of vague anger rose within him.

Huaxia was never afraid of any enemy or obstacle.

But the name of the organization was so blatant. This was a provocation.

Being Chinese, Fang Qiu was not happy with the name!

“Any specific information so far?”

Fang Qiu puckered his lips and asked, “When will they come, and how many people?”

“All right.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

He knew that the organization must be confident enough to use such a blatant name.

If the movement of this organization could be easily investigated, it would have been eliminated, let alone destroyed and stopped Huaxia.

That was why Fang Qiu's heart tightened.

Fang Qiu had to be on his guard when he knew that his enemy was going to retaliate, but he didn't know anything about the enemy's actions.

...

In the evening, the List of Martial Superiors on the Wulin online forum was updated again.

This update surprised everyone.

It was because in the update, the mysterious man who had been getting everybody's attention all the time actually jumped from No. 3,123 to No. 989 with astonishing speed.

This person went straight up to over 2,000 places.

Such a long span of promotion was unprecedented in the List of Martial Superiors.

You know, an ordinary martial arts practitioner had to train for several years before he or she got the opportunity to break through to be a Martial Superior and get on the List of Martial Superiors.

After appearing on the list, even if the martial arts practitioner worked hard every day and had great talent, it was good enough for him to improve to three or five places a month.

After all, he or she was not the only person to practice and improve the strength. Others in the list also practiced daily.

In this case, it was quite good for those talented martial arts practitioners to be in the top 1,000 of the List of Martial Superiors within a few years.

But how long had the mysterious man been on the list?

Besides, this man was the only one at the peak of the martial arts practitioner who entered the List of Martial Superiors and was ranked No. 3,123. Now only a few months had passed. This person directly rushed to the top of 1,000, a place where others had to spend a few years to reach.

How was that possible?

For a moment, everyone began to check the introduction to the mysterious man on the list.

The mysterious man.

Strength: A second-class Martial Superior.

Record: He defeated the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest on his own!

Everyone was shocked to see this introduction.

“What the hell is this?”

“Is it crazy? Did the people who updated the list get it wrong?”

“How is that possible? A second-class Martial Superior could defeat the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest?”

“Of the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest, four are fifth-class Martial Superiors and one is sixth-class Martial Superior!”

“That’s not real! No matter how strong the mysterious man was, he couldn’t reach such an amazing level! He fought against the five by himself, and all the five were stronger than him. But in the end, he won? This is ridiculous!”

“Yes. The fifth-class Martial Superior is an expert who has opened 10 meridians; the sixth-class Martial Superior is an expert who has opened 12 meridians. How could they not win a battle with a second-class Martial Superior who had only opened two meridians?”

“Yes. And the five of them fought against one person!”

No one dared to believe it.

Everyone thought there was a mistake.

A lot of people began to look up the rankings of the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest.

As long as the person on the list had experienced a major battle that had influenced the ranking of the list, it was bound to be recorded on the list. Everyone wanted to see whether the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest were really defeated by the mysterious man who was only a second-class Martial Superior.

However, they looked it up for a long time, but no one found the rankings of the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest.

“It’s strange. How did the rankings of the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest all disappear?”

“I remember that Mo Qingzhu was ranked 1,034, and Liu Dongzhu and the other three were ranked between 1,800 and 2,000. Why are all five gone?”

“Don’t look it up anymore. There must have been a mistake with the updated list, which caused the mysterious man’s ranking to rise inexplicably.”

“Maintain and update immediately. It’s been 10 years. How could they make such a stupid mistake?”

People were asking for a new update.

As a result, the forum administrator made no response.

Half an hour later, just as everyone was making a terrible scene, a post suddenly appeared.

“My god! The Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest are unexpectedly here!”

Seeing this post, everyone on the forum rushed in.

Those people took a closer look and saw a screenshot in the post. This screenshot was the “Passing List” that no one paid attention to all year round on the forum!

The Passing List!

It was a special list to record why people who once had a great reputation in Wulin quit Wulin.

It was actually not a list.

It was just a list of records, without ranking or sequence.

And at this point, the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest were at the last place of the list.

“What the hell is this?”

“The Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest unexpectedly quit Wulin?”

“What?”

Seeing this screenshot, everyone was very curious and went to browse the Passing List.

As a result, they did see the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest.

The Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest: Mo Qingzhu (the sixth-class), Liu Dongzhu (the fifth-class), Zhang Sizhu (the fifth-class), Tian Zhongzhu (the fifth-class), Wu Xinzhu (the fifth-class).

The five people did evil, bullied others, and were the scum in Wulin.

They quit Wulin in Jiangjing.

The five of them fought against the up-and-coming mysterious man in Wulin and failed. In the end, the mysterious man abolished their cultivation, broke their Dantians, destroyed their meridians, and cut off their ways of martial arts!

Although there were only a few simple descriptive words, everyone was shocked to read them!

It was a complete and utter shock!

The Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest were ruined by the mysterious man unexpectedly!

At the moment, everyone did not know whether to cry or laugh and had extremely mixed feelings.

They all knew that now that the Passing List had recorded this matter, it was true that the mysterious man alone defeated five people.

Still, it was not acceptable.

How could a second-class Martial Superior be so powerful?

The Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest were scum.

For the failure of the five, they were all happy at the bottom of their hearts, feeling that the mysterious man punished the wicked.

But, what about this mysterious man who showed up suddenly?

How could there be such a formidable second-class Martial Superior in the world?

Even the Fabulous Five of the Bamboo Forest were no match for him. Then the vast majority of people on the List of Martial Superiors were inferior to him, a second-class Martial Superior?

The result was unacceptable to all.

Just when everyone's attention was attracted by this matter, the news which made everyone excited suddenly appeared on the forum.

"There seems to be a Heaven Treasure in the Western Wetland in Jiangnan Region!"

As soon as this post appeared, apart from others, the "Heaven Treasure" in the title immediately attracted everyone's attention!

Instead of thinking about the strength of the mysterious man, everyone rushed into this post.

In just a few minutes, the post reached the hottest position in the forum.

There was nothing useful in the post.

There was only one sentence, which was exactly the same as the title.

Seeing the content of the post, everyone could not help but have doubts. But because the temptation of the Heaven Treasure was too great, they did not leave but raised questions.

“Is this true or false?”

“Is there any Heaven Treasure?”

“It can’t be a lie, can it?”

“If someone really found a Heaven Treasure, would he or she be so proud to tell the world about it?”

“Where’s the post starter? Come out and explain. Is the news true or not?”

Countless people asked the truth.

Soon, the popularity of the post was completely extraordinary.

It seemed that because this post received too much attention, the post starter appeared and replied in the public expectation.

There were no words in the reply.

There were only a few pictures.

The first was a picture of the environment around an island in a wetland. There was a great whirlpool, and a great shadow was beneath the ground.

The second picture showed the whirlpool and the disappearance of the underground shadow.

There was no doubt that these two pictures were taken by many photoshop experts to check once they were posted.

It turned out that the two pictures had not really been modified. They were all real!

For a moment, everyone was startled.

“What a big whirlpool and shadow! Did anyone really discover the Heaven Treasure? Is this shadow the guardian beast of the Heaven Treasure?”

“It seems true!”

“It’s a real Heaven Treasure!”

“I didn’t expect that the Heaven Treasure could grow out of that place.”

That was when everyone went crazy.

They all wanted to find the treasure.

After all, that was a Heaven Treasure!

Even if that was not a Heaven Treasure, that was at least a top-grade Earth Treasure.

The attraction to martial arts practitioners was simply too great. They couldn’t resist that temptation at all!

After reading the post, many people packed up overnight, heading for Jiangnan, ready to try their luck.

It would be nice to get the Heaven Treasure. Even if they couldn’t get it, they could treat it as a trip.

...

In the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, after Li Ji left, Fang Qiu thought about it and felt that it seemed a little inappropriate for martial arts practitioners to come to his school to him from Jiangjing. Wasn't it clear to tell the world that the mysterious man was in the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine?

What if a challenger from another province came straight to his school?

With that in mind, Fang Qiu just set a mysterious man's number on the phone that Li Ji gave him and left school. In a hurry, he soon arrived at He Gaoming's detective agency.

He Gaoming was sitting in the detective agency, smoking a cigar and packing excitedly.

"Whoosh!"

Fang Qiu swooped in and stopped at He Gaoming's desk.

"I won't be working recently. If you need help, come back next month."

He Gaoming didn't stop. He was still picking up his things in thrill and excitement.

Fang Qiu was stunned.

Why was this guy who loved money refused to make money now?

Confused, Fang Qiu took a pen from the desk, wrote down a cell phone number, and then gave it to He Gaoming, saying, "Here's my phone number. Call this number if you need later."

As soon as these words were spoken, He Gaoming turned around abruptly and looked at Fang Qiu, who had turned into the mysterious man!

Then, a big cry of surprise sounded.

“Master!”

He Gaoming jumped up with a look of surprise and tried to hug Fang Qiu, but Fang Qiu stretched out his right hand and pressed it directly onto his face, putting him a meter away.

Medical Master

Chapter 379: Fish in Troubled Waters?

“What are you going to do?” Fang Qiu asked.

“I’m going to find the Heaven Treasure!”

He Gaoming grinned, turned around, and continued to pack his things while explaining, “It is reported on the Wulin online forum that a Heaven Treasure may in the Western Wetland in Jiangnan. The post starter also posted two photos. There seems to be a huge monster under that wetland. Now a lot of people are going there, ready to compete for the Heaven Treasure. Although my strength is insufficient, I am at least a member of Wulin. I’m sure I’ll try my luck on such a good thing.”

“The Wulin online forum?”

Fang Qiu’s heart leaped, and he immediately asked, “What’s the address of the Wulin online forum? Can I log in?”

“No.”

He Gaoming shook his head at once and said, “Even if I gave you the address, you wouldn’t be able to log in, because the Wulin online forum is locked. You need a martial arts practitioner’s vouch to log in. If there is no vouch, you can only see the outermost interface, which is a very ordinary forum. Only the members can enter the real Wulin online forum after they log in.”

“All right, you vouch for me,” Fang Qiu said.

He Gaoming, of course, dared not to refuse.

He immediately took out his mobile phone. As Fang Qiu registered the account of the Wulin online, he vouched for Fang Qiu. Then Fang Qiu got the qualification to enter the Wulin online forum.

When all this was done, Fang Qiu said, “Keep the phone number. Then you can use your cell phone to contact me. Tell the others not to come to school for me.”

After that, Fang Qiu turned and walked away.

“You really give me the number?”

As Fang Qiu disappeared, He Gaoming pursed his lips and mumbled, “A big background is everything. You gave me your cell phone number. Are you not afraid of my positioning you?”

Then he looked at the number carefully before he recorded it on his phone with a completely ordinary name and burned the note with the number on it.

It was safe to burn the mysterious man’s cell phone number.

If the number were leaked, he wouldn’t be able to explain it to the mysterious man.

Leaving the detective agency, Fang Qiu returned to his school quickly, changed into his usual clothes, and then left for an Internet cafe that was not too far away. Walking into a single room, he directly logged in the Wulin online forum.

At first glance, he saw the post about the Heaven Treasure.

He clicked in and read it carefully.

“Is there any real Heaven Treasure?”

As he looked at the two pictures in the post, Fang Qiu’s heart leaped.

If there was really a Heaven Treasure, he would definitely get it.

The last time he broke through, even the plum blossom almost didn’t work.

The next breakthrough was bound to be harder. And he was only a second-class Martial Superior. To break through again and re-open the meridians to the Guru Realm, he needed a great deal of Heaven Treasures.

But the Heaven Treasure was so hard to come by.

So Fang Qiu couldn’t miss a chance to get it.

He had to get it for the old master!

After browsing the Wulin online forum, Fang Qiu immediately returned to school and went to the library.

“There you are.”

Xu Miaolin smiled when he saw Fang Qiu.

“Mr. Xu.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Actually, I'm here to ask for leave."

Xu Miaolin paused.

Today was his appointment with Fang Qiu to learn the method of moxibustion. Fang Qiu was here, but he asked for leave before starting to learn.

"You have something important to do?" Xu Miaolin asked.

"Yeah."

Fang Qiu nodded.

"Well, in fact, moxibustion method is relatively simple."

Xu Miaolin nodded and took out a book about moxibustion from his desk drawer. As he handed the book to Fang Qiu, he said, "Take some time to read this book carefully. Through the acupuncture points and methods used in each case, you can summarize why and how to use moxibustion."

"Ok, thank you, Sir."

Fang Qiu nodded in gratitude.

He knew it meant that Xu Miaolin had granted his leave.

Actually, for Xu Miaolin, it would only take him half a day to teach Fang Qiu the moxibustion method, because it was actually easier than acupuncture. Now that Fang Qiu was proficient in acupuncture, he would definitely learn the moxibustion method very quickly.

In this case, self-learning might be better for him, which would make him understand it more deeply.

That afternoon should be the turn of juniors to learn to practice Qi. As a result, Chen Yinsheng called the junior and senior students, together with the postgraduate students and doctoral students, to come. Thus Fang Qiu could teach them all at the same time.

It was the same movements.

After teaching them, Fang Qiu left quietly.

In the whole school, except for Jiang Miaoyu, Zhu Benzhen, and Xu Miaolin, no one else knew that Fang Qiu was gone. Of course, they knew Fang Qiu was gone, but none of them knew what he was going to do.

Fang Qiu wore a tracksuit, carried a bag, and came to the surrounding area of the Western Wetland in Jiangnan.

On the way to the wetland, Fang Qiu kept thinking that the news would be more complicated.

After all, that was a Heaven Treasure!

Seeing a Heaven Treasure, which one in Wulin did not want to take it as his or her own?

Who would be foolish enough to reveal the Heaven Treasure that he or she had the chance to keep to himself or herself?

Since it was certain that the guardian beast did exist, there was a good chance that the person who announced the Heaven Treasure's information had his or her own reasons.

The only reason the person was willing to make the news of the Heaven Treasure public was probably that he could not defeat the guardian beast, and that the Heaven Treasure was about to ripe. The person had no time to hire an expert, so he or she could only expose the news to bring some people in Wulin over. The person was trying to fish in troubled waters, getting profit from it.

He was, after all, the first to discover it. Before others arrived, he could take the lead, prepared some plans, and even hid the Heaven Treasure. He could use the guardian beast to attract everyone's attention, and then quietly pick it himself.

Fang Qiu got it right.

At this time, a young man was in a corner of the Western Wetland, holding a telescope to observe all around.

The total area of the Western Wetland was about 11.5 square kilometers, of which the total length of the river was more than 100 kilometers, and about 70 percent of the area was harbors, ponds, lakes, marshes, and other waters. And there were waterways like lanes, streams like nets, dense fish ponds, and islands.

In short, the terrain of this wetland was like a rural farm field.

It was just that the "farm field" here consisted of ponds, lakes, and marshes of different sizes, and that the "ridge" of the "field" here was roads and even small islands with a high greening rate.

At the moment, the young man was standing on one of the islands.

Glancing around, he found that the lakes and ponds ahead of him looked like cobwebs and beehives.

"Why are so many people here?"

The young man raised his eyebrows, and his face darkened a little.

Actually, he came here for a tour.

Unexpectedly, he smelled an extraordinary fragrance when he came here.

Following the extraordinary fragrance, he found the Heaven Treasure, but the Heaven Treasure was not ripe. He wanted to stand by the Heaven Treasure and pick it when it was ripe. Unexpectedly, less than half an hour later, he met the guardian beast.

He was not strong enough to defeat the guardian beast.

Considering that the Heaven Treasure was about to ripe, he had no choice but to spread the news of the discovery of the Heaven Treasure in an attempt to attract people here.

While spreading the news, he even said there seemed to be a Heaven Treasure.

He didn't say that it was confirmed.

What was more, he did not say what kind of Heaven Treasure it was and what the guardian beast was.

He kept these key information to himself.

It was because he was more likely to fish in troubled waters if only he knew the key information.

In addition, he belonged to a sect that was good at the lightness skill. Compared with other martial arts practitioners, he was much more dexterous.

That was why he was so confident that he could obtain the Heaven Treasure through the help of others.

But to his surprise, as soon as the news was released, so many people came.

Now, at a glance through his telescope, he could see a dozen people scattered about, looking for something. Besides, the number was growing.

If it went on like this, how could he fish in troubled waters?

He could not help regretting it. There came too many people.

Once there were too many people, it was impossible to know who would be the one to benefit.

Meanwhile, Fang Qiu, who had just arrived in Jiangnan, took a walk outside the Western Wetland before he got a room and stayed in the city six kilometers away from the Western Wetland.

Later, Fang Qiu searched the computer in his room for the map of the Western Wetland and studied it carefully.

It wasn't until the evening that Fang Qiu left the hotel in the mysterious man's costume and headed straight into the Western Wetland.

At this time, a lot of martial arts practitioners had gathered at the Western Wetland.

"Even martial arts practitioners are here?"

Although there were not many martial arts practitioners in his sight, Fang Qiu could sense the breath of many martial arts practitioners and Martial Superiors.

He didn't expect so many martial arts practitioners to come.

Obviously, it was impossible for the people below the Martial Superior Level to beat the guardian beast, and it was almost impossible for the martial arts practitioner to get benefit from the battle for the Heaven Treasure.

But even in this case, there were still so many martial arts practitioners. It was conceivable how big the lure of this Heaven Treasure was for martial arts practitioners.

“There is no fixed growth preference for the Heaven Treasure. It all depends on nature.”

“But this Western Wetland is so big. Where will it grow?”

Looking for it in the Western Wetland of an area of 11.5 square kilometers was no joke.

Despite the pictures of the supposed guardian beast, this place was a wetland, and most of its part looked the same. Therefore, people couldn't find the location of the Heaven Treasure by pictures.

Standing on an island near the river, Fang Qiu overlooked.

He saw at once that many people were also standing at the height of different spots, looking about.

Martial arts practitioners looked for things almost at night, because at night, the energy around the Heaven Treasure and Earth Treasure would be thicker. Those who could see the energy of heaven and earth could naturally find the Heaven Treasure and Earth Treasure by the light of the energy of heaven and earth at night.

At the same time, because of the practice of kung fu and internal Qi, almost every martial arts practitioners had the ability of night vision. Needless to say, the stronger a person was, the more clearly he or she saw.

Looking for a long time, those people still did not find a clue.

Just then, a strange smell came.

“Sniff...”

The crowd sniffed.

As soon as they smelled the strange fragrance, all the martial arts practitioners in the Western Wetland suddenly jerked and got excited.

Fang Qiu smelled the strange fragrance, too.

“That’s it?”

The fragrance immediately reminded Fang Qiu of the description of a Heaven Treasure which was ranked 28th on the Heaven Treasure List in the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures.

That Heaven Treasure had this unique fragrance.

Medical Master

Chapter 380: The White-dressed Man of Nearly Forty

“The Rouge Fruit!”

Fang Qiu felt a surge of excitement.

The Rouge Fruit ranked 28th on the Heaven Treasure List!

It was the shape of round fruit, the color of rouge, the size of a thumb; its texture was like cotton; its leaf and its stem all had silver lines. No one but the Martial Superior could pick it up. Its fragrance was as thick as that of gold-silver laurel and tuberose; when it was ripe, it smelled heavier!

This was the description of the Rouge Fruit in the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures.

And that was the kind of scary smell Fang Qiu smelled right now.

Although the fragrance seemed very faint, when it came in slight gusts, it smelled too strong.

“It’s going to ripen.”

Fang Qiu’s heart leaped.

He was ready to fly off in search.

Just then, however, a loud cry came.

“Going by ship to search for the Heaven Treasure and Earth Treasure can save energy. 500 yuan per person. Leave as soon as the seats are taken. There aren’t many seats.”

Fang Qiu stared and saw a man in a bamboo hat, paddling a boat in the river ahead.

It was an ordinary wooden boat, which looked a little old.

“500 per person? This is too expensive!”

“Yes, 500 yuan is enough to buy your boat.”

“What a black-hearted businessman!”

Everyone complained and swore.

However, hearing their abuse, the businessman replied carelessly, “This is a small business. No waiting after the set time!”

“The voice?”

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows.

He recognized He Gaoming’s voice.

On closer observation, he saw that the boatman was the same size as He Gaoming.

He burst into laughter quietly.

This guy was not looking for the Heaven Treasure. He was here to make money!

“Stop. I want to get on board!” a man shouted all of a sudden.

“500.”

Upon hearing that someone wanted to get on board, He Gaoming, without hesitation, took off his hat and held out his hand to the man with a smile on his face.

“Damn it, it’s too expensive! How about 100 yuan?”

The man began to bargain.

“Not one yuan less.”

He Gaoming curled his lips and rowed on.

Seeing that He Gaoming was about to leave, the man immediately called out, “Fine, 500. You stop.”

Then with a wave of his right hand, the man threw 500 yuan to He Gaoming.

He Gaoming grinned when he received the money.

"I'm afraid someone will rob the boat, so just jump in the boat yourself," He Gaoming said, glancing at the crowd by the river.

Hearing that, the crowd paused.

In fact, every one of them was looking forward to someone taking the boat. As long as someone did it first, they had a reason to do it.

As a result, He Gaoming had not only read their minds but also spoken it directly.

"Swoosh!"

The man who had paid jumped into the boat.

"Be seated. If someone wants to rob the boat or force me to do something, don't feel that it's a loss to spend 500 yuan. You can just sit and watch," He Gaoming said with a laugh.

The crowd was stunned once again.

Wow, the boatman had a good brain.

In the boat, the face of the Martial Superior who had just paid changed. He felt as if he were on a pirate ship. He not only paid the money but also became the boatman's goon. What a shameless man!

Although he felt very unhappy, this Martial Superior did not know how to refute. After all, he was already on the boat and couldn't get the money back.

Instead of wasting his energy, he'd better help the boatman find enough passengers and hurry to find the Heaven Treasure.

At the same time, all the people on the bank of the river laughed bitterly.

Robbing the boat?

That was obviously out of the question.

How could they rob the boat when the boatman had already seen through their minds?

Furthermore, there was now a Martial Superior in the boat. If they fought for the boat, the man and the boatman would also make moves.

For a time, everyone gave up the idea of taking the boat.

Some even started paying to get on board. As long as there were a certain number of people in the boat, others absolutely dared not to rob the boat even if they had the idea.

What was more, the Heaven Treasure was already ripe.

Then, in the scramble for it, there must be an uphill battle among them.

This was a bad time to waste energy.

"Bud, can't you come down a little?" one person asked.

"If you don't make it cheaper, I'll take someone else's boat," he added.

He Gaoming suddenly laughed and said, "I've contracted for all the boats here. It doesn't matter whose boat you're in. The price is the same. There's absolutely no cheaper ticket."

Indeed, He Gaoming came here to try his luck.

However, when he arrived in the Western Wetland and saw so many strong Martial Superiors, he knew that his odds of finding the treasure were slim.

But now that he was here, he could not watch and do nothing.

As a result, this guy directly contracted all the boats in the Western Wetland, at the price of 500 yuan per boat, and also hired a group of martial arts practitioners who absolutely had no hope of competing for the Heaven Treasure to be the boatmen. He made a deal with the boatmen to pay them according to the number of passengers—100 yuan for each passenger. So, the more passengers a boat took, the more money the boatman earned.

"Besides, forget about these boats. To tell you the truth, all the martial arts practitioners in these boats were found by me. If I give the order, they'll destroy the boat in an instant, and none of you will get on board," He Gaoming stated with a smirk.

His words left everyone speechless.

Damn!

"You're really something!"

Even Fang Qiu was speechless.

This guy really had some economic sense.

Knowing that he had no chances of taking the Heaven Treasure, he went into business.

Helplessly, people along the river bank had to pay to go aboard.

After all, no one knew exactly where the Heaven Treasure grew. The use of lightness skill to look for it would no doubt consume a lot of internal Qi. It was too much for them. So it was a better choice for them to get on a boat.

Fang Qiu swooped in when he saw someone trying to get on the boat.

Since everyone gave in, He Gaoming brought the boat to shore so that everyone could get on board.

As a result, Fang Qiu flew in and was instantly recognized by He Gaoming.

Just as He Gaoming was about to call Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu approached him and gave him a wink.

He Gaoming got the message right away and acted like he didn't know Fang Qiu.

"Pay before you board, 500 yuan."

He Gaoming just reached out and asked Fang Qiu for money.

"Are you serious?" Fang Qiu whispered.

"At least act it with sincerity," He Gaoming answered in a low voice.

Fang Qiu paid right away.

Fortunately, when he came to the Western Wetland, he prepared some cash, or he really could not get on the boat.

He Gaoming took the money, pocketed it quickly, and then ignored Fang Qiu.

“Bastard, you can give me the money back on the sly,” Fang Qiu swore in his heart and sat down helplessly on the boat.

Soon the seats were all taken, and the boat began to sail.

“Those who did not board the boat wait for the next one. There are a dozen more boats behind. I’ll have them all over at once.”

He Gaoming called to the men who had missed the boat and set off.

The boat went straight down the river. Passengers smelt the strange fragrance in the air.

Fang Qiu kept looking at He Gaoming all the way.

He Gaoming didn’t even look at him, pretending not to see him.

It seemed that he was really going to take 500 yuan from his cheap master!

It was a huge wrench for Fang Qiu.

That was 500 yuan!

“Man, wait and see!”

As the boat moved forward, the strange fragrance in the air became thicker and thicker.

This situation made everyone on board nervous.

They knew that the stronger the smell was, the closer they were to the Heaven Treasure!

As they waited with bated breath, looking around for signs of the Heaven Treasure, suddenly a low sound of water came from the side of the lake.

“Splash...”

Everyone turned their eyes to take a look.

They saw a man in antique white clothes, who looked very ethereal and gave a feeling of celestial menace. He was crossing the water with a log under his feet.

Behind the man in white stood four beautiful women.

When they saw him, the people on the boat cried out in surprise.

“The White-dressed Man!”

Fang Qiu also turned to look.

He saw an extremely handsome middle-aged man in his thirties in white clothes who wore an antique bun.

Before anyone noticed, Fang Qiu walked over to He Gaoming and asked in a low voice, “Who is this man?”

“A Martial Superior at the peak of sixth-class, who will soon break through to the seventh-class. He ranks 990 in the List of Martial Superiors, one place lower than you, master.”

Speaking of this, He Gaoming glanced at Fang Qiu and said, "The man became famous as a teenager and always wore white clothes. He is nearly forty and still thinks of himself as an elegant young man. That's why people call him White-dressed Man. Bah, he's just acting young!"

Fang Qiu nodded.

His dark blue, near-black tracksuit and black mask looked in stark contrast to the outfit of the White-dressed Man.

But judging by what He Gaoming said, the White-dressed Man was a narcissist.

Fang Qiu was certainly not that kind of person.

"Everybody."

Looking at the crowd on board, the White-dressed Man smiled and said, "I need the Heaven Treasure badly, so I hope you give it up. Don't make a trip in vain but get injuries all over."

Hearing this, the people on board frowned at once.

"Since no one speaks, I'll assume you've agreed. Thank you, everybody," continued the White-dressed Man.

Then he even bowed to the crowd on board.

At this time, a big man in the boat gave a discontented roar, "How can one word of yours make us give up? The Heaven Treasure comes to those who have the strength to get it. You need it badly, and so do we."

However, as soon as these words were spoken, the White-dressed Man, with his feet on the log, gave the man a slap through the air.

“Bang!”

There was a ringing sound.

Before the big man reacted, he opened his mouth and squirted a large mouthful of blood. He was instantly blown away and thrown into the water under the boat.

The sight filled everyone with fear.

What a cruel man!

“Ha-ha.”

The White-dressed Man chuckled and continued to scan the crowd on board. “I made that very clear,” he said, “don’t make a trip in vain and get injuries all over. Is there anyone who does not agree to compromise?”

No one in the boat answered.

It was not that they did not want to fight, but that they were no match for the White-dressed Man. If they resisted, they would definitely be wounded by the White-dressed Man.

“No one seems to disagree.”

After a moment’s waiting, the White-dressed Man nodded approvingly. Then with a nonchalant wave of his hand, he put on a lofty pose and said, “In that case, off you go.”

He Gaoming on board did not move.

How could he, a captain, retreat so easily? Besides, the mysterious man was still with him. How could he be afraid?

The White-dressed Man shook his head when he saw that the boat was not backing up.

“I want you to... leave!” he yelled.

The last word seemed to carry a thousand pounds.

The moment the words were spoken, many people covered their chests and stepped back because of the impact.

Meanwhile, Fang Qiu waved and shielded He Gaoming.
