Chapter 551: Screw You!

In the football field of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. “Whew, whew...”

Under the leadership of their PE teacher, the members of the track team in the school’s physical education department were training their physical strength on the one-kilometer runway around the football field.

As the strongest member of the track team, Gao Fei was running alone ahead of the team.

At this time, he had run ten laps. Not only did he sweat all over his body, but his face was also red!

“Beep, beep, beep...”

On the grassland of the football field, a cell phone that had been buried in the stuff suddenly rang.

A short while later. “Gao Fei!”

The PE teacher waved at Gao Fei who had just reached the destination, motioning him to stop.

Seeing this, Gao Fei, who was more than 20 meters away, immediately slowed down.

He gasped and became slower. Finally, he walked to the PE teacher while wiping the sweat off his head.

“You’ve got a phone call, and you can rest for a while by the way,” the PE teacher said as he handed the cell phone to Gao Fei.

“Okay.”

Gao Fei nodded and took the phone.

He took a look and found that it was a strange number.

“Hello?” Gao Fei frowned and was about to hang up. But he paused and then decided to answer it.

“Is Gao Fei there?”

The call was connected, and a strange voice came from the other end of the phone.

“Who are you?” Gao Fei asked.

“You don’t have to know who I am.” The man on the other end of the line grinned and said. “I’m here to help you.”

“Sorry, I don’t need your help.” Gao Fei replied and was ready to hang up the phone.

The person on the other end of the line hurriedly asked, “Don’t you want revenge?”

“Revenge? Why do I want to take revenge?” Gao Fei was confused.

“As far as I know, you have been severely humiliated by Fang Qiu last year, haven’t you?”

The man on the other end of the line laughed and said, “Do you want to take revenge? As long as you agree to my simple condition...”

“Screw you!” Before the man could finish speaking, Gao Fei swore and hung up the phone.

“Revenge? What the f*ck?!” He cursed angrily.

Gao Fei walked to get his coat not far away. He was going to put his phone back and continue his training.

“Beep, beep, beep...” Before he walked any further, his phone rang again.

It was still the number which called just now.

Gao Fei’s face darkened.

“What the hell is wrong with you?” Gao Fei cursed as soon as he answered the phone.

“Mr. Gao, don’t be mad.”

A calm voice came from the other end of the phone. “As long as you are willing to do this, I can promise you any condition you want. No matter how much money you want, just name your price.”

“So what if you have money?” Gao Fei was furious. He immediately roared, “F*ck your whole family!”

After that, he hung up the phone again.

On the other end of the line, a person in the PR company was also angry.

“What the hell is wrong with him? No wonder he got humiliated by Fang Qiu like that. I’m going to lose my temper. If he dares to stand in front of me, I will beat him to death!” He cursed Gao Fei angrily.

The man snorted, then picked up his mobile phone and continued to dial.

This time, the number he dialed was no longer Gao Fei's but another number in Jiangjing. The owner of this number was Li Qingshi, the president of the student union of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine!

At this time, Li Qingshi was sitting in front of his desk, doing the simulation exercises on his computer in the office of the UJCM'S student union.

"Buzz..." Suddenly, the mobile phone on his table began to vibrate.

After he finished a multiple-choice question, Li Qingshi turned his head and glanced at the phone, only to find that it was a strange number. He immediately hung up the phone and continued to do his exercise.

"Buzz, buzz, buzz..." But as soon as he finished answering a question, his phone vibrated again.

Li Qingshi turned to look again and found that it was still the strange number he had seen just now.

Li Qingshi frowned and clicked to hang up again.

However, after he answered another question, his phone vibrated once again.

"What's going on?" Li Qingshi picked up the phone impatiently. When he was about to reject and turn off the phone, he paused slightly.

"That's strange.

"If it were a scammer, he wouldn't have called so many times in a row. Under normal circumstances, he wouldn't have called again if no one answered the phone.

"Could it be a friend who used someone else's phone to call?"

Thinking of this, Li Qingshi hesitated for a moment. Looking at his cell phone that was still vibrating rapidly, he finally answered it.

"Hello?" Li Qingshi picked up the phone.

"Excuse me, is it Li Qingshi from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine?" a man asked from the other end of the phone.

"Yes, I am. Who are you?" Li Qingshi asked.

The man replied, "It doesn't matter who I am. What matters is that I'm here to help you."

"Help me?" Li Qingshi was stunned and asked, "What can you do for me?"

The man on the other end of the line said, "I know you have started a feud with Fang Qiu at school, and you have been humiliated by him several times. As long as you are willing to do this, I can help you get revenge!"

"Oh?" Li Qingshi was taken aback. Then, he raised an eyebrow and asked, "What are you going to do?"

"It's very simple." The man smiled and said, "We can talk in detail if you want to. Of course, helping you is to help myself. As long as you cooperate well with me and do what you need to do, I will also give you some benefits. You can tell me anything you want."

"Interesting." Li Qingshi squinted and said, "Why don't we talk about it in detail?"

"It seems that Mr. Li is very interested in this matter."

The man chuckled and said, "Well, let's talk when we meet. I'll wait for you in the Mocha Cafe outside your school tomorrow morning. What do you think?"

Li Qingshi said, "Okay, see you then."

"See you then."

The next day, in the capital. "Pitter-patter..."

Early in the morning, Director Li Huawen walked into the hotel with excitement.

Li Huawen asked through the phone, "Where are you, kid?"

"I'm having breakfast in the dining area. What's the matter?" Fang Qiu answered on the other end of the line.

"Wait for me, I'll be right there." Director Li Huawen immediately went to the dining area. Soon, he saw Fang Qiu and Jiang Miaoyu who were having breakfast.

"Director Li." At the sight of Li Huawen, Fang Qiu and Jiang Miaoyu immediately stood up.

"You're so lucky, boy!" Walking to the front of Fang Qiu, Li Huawen laughed and stretched out his hand to pat Fang Qiu's shoulder.

"What?" Fang Qiu was stunned and asked, "What do you mean?"

"Great news." Li Huawen said, "A reporter of Central Television wants to interview you!"

"Central Television?"

Fang Qiu looked at Director Li Huawen with a puzzled face and said, "Aren't you from Central Television? You don't have to be so excited about my having an interview with a reporter of your station."

Director Li Huawen shook his head and said, “It’s not an ordinary reporter who is going to interview you. It’s someone from Network News Broadcast!”

Upon hearing that, both Fang Qiu and Jiang Miaoyu were dumbfounded!

“Network News Broadcast? It’s actually Network News Broadcast. Is Fang Qiu going to be on the news program? Is this real?”

“Of course!” Director Li Huawen said with extreme excitement, “You should know if you’re on the Network News Broadcast, it’ll be like a guarantee. As long as you are on the news, it means that all the dirt about you on the Internet will be proven to be fake. No one can lay a finger on you!”

At first, Director Li Huawen was going to turn to People’s Daily for help.

However, before he could get to People’s Daily, a reporter of Network News Broadcast came to him first.

Actually, Li Huawen couldn’t figure out why the Network News Broadcast would come to them at this time.

Even if it was to promote Chinese Medicine and the five thousand years of history in Huaxia, it should not be at the time when Fang Qiu’s name got blackened.

Before this, there were a lot of opportunities to interview Fang Qiu.

Why didn’t the program interview Fang Qiu when his reputation reached its peak and everyone recognized him? Why did they choose to interview him when Fang Qiu got haters everywhere?

As one of the directors of Central Television, Li Huawen had a deep understanding of the station. Under normal circumstances, it was rare for Central Television to take such a big risk to interview a person with so many skeletons in the closet.

However, it just happened anyway.

Li Huawen couldn't figure it out and didn't want to think about it. Anyway, it was a good thing that Fang Qiu's trouble could be solved.

"That's great, it's really awesome."

Jiang Miaoyu was so excited that she grabbed Fang Qiu's hand and said, "It's Network News Broadcast, one of the country's most-watched news programs."

"I know." Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

He also wondered why the Network News Broadcast would come to him at this time.

However, Fang Qiu was different from Li Huawen. Li Huawen couldn't figure it out because he was not Fang Qiu.

After pondering for a while, Fang Qiu understood.

The only ones who had connections with him and also had the power to ask the Network News Broadcast to interview him were those with Li Ji.

They had checked the identity and background of Fang Qiu a long time ago, so they were very clear that those things about Fang Qiu on the Internet were fake and Fang Qiu was innocent!

Therefore, they were willing to stand up for Fang Qiu at this time.

Perhaps they could do this in return for Fang Qiu's help in the Middle East.

Director Li Huawen reminded him, "Hurry up. Stop eating. Go wash your face and cheer yourself up. If you can, you should change into a formal suit. The reporter of the Network News Broadcast will come here soon."

"I don't think it's necessary to change my clothes," Fang Qiu said with a smile. "But I definitely need to wash my face. There's nothing wrong with the clothes I'm wearing. If I'm having an interview on the Network News Broadcast, I have to show my real self. If I wear a formal suit, it won't be me."

Jiang Miaoyu asked, "I'll wait for you here, okay?"

"Okay. Keep the food for me. We'll finish the meal after the interview."

Fang Qiu grinned and then turned his head to ask, "Where are they going to interview me?"

Li Huawen said, "The reporter will choose a more suitable spot."

"Okay. I'm going to wash my face." Fang Qiu laughed and immediately went into the bathroom. He went to the toilet, washed his face, and then mobilized his internal Qi to completely energize himself. Only then did he walk out of the bathroom, feeling refreshed.

After a while, it was nine o'clock.

The reporters of Network News Broadcast came to the hotel. As they talked to Li Huawen on the phone, they came to the entrance of the dining area.

The person who came was a female reporter in her twenties. There were two people behind her, one was carrying a camera, and the other was holding a notebook, ready to take notes.

"Nice to meet you." As the reporter saw Fang Qiu, she walked up quickly and held Fang Qiu's hands with excitement.

Chapter 552: Justice Naturally Inhabits Man's Heart!

"Nice to meet you," Fang Qiu replied with a smile.

The reporter said, "Thank you for taking the time to have this interview."

Fang Qiu replied humbly, "It's my honor."

"All right, let's start now?" the reporter asked.

Fang Qiu nodded. "All right."

The reporter then proposed, "When I came over just now, I found that the lighting in the lobby was pretty good. Why don't we go there?"

"All right." Fang Qiu nodded, reaching out his hand like a gentleman and letting the reporter go first.

Then a group of people walked to the gate of the hotel.

Li Huawen also followed up, so did Jiang Miaoyu. She completely forgot what Fang Qiu had just said, which was to leave the food there and wait for him to come back and eat.

The hotel lobby was quite wide.

The reporter chose the rest area on the right side of the gate.

Director Li Huawen and Jiang Miaoyu came to the rest area on the left side of the gate and sat down, watching the reporter of Network News Broadcast and Fang Qiu in the distance.

“Please take a seat.”

As they came to the rest area, the reporter stretched out her hand and motioned for Fang Qiu to sit on a two-seat sofa which had better lighting. Then she sat on the single-seat sofa next to Fang Qiu. A girl with a notebook in her hand sat on the opposite side to record the interview while the cameraman paced back and forth to find a suitable location.

A moment later, the cameraman stretched out his hand to signal that he was ready.

The interview began.

“Hello, Fang Qiu.”

As the recording began, the reporter said to Fang Qiu with a smile, “Chinese Medicine is inherited from the ancestors of Huaxia. Since Shennong tasted all kinds of herbs, Chinese Medicine has always been developing. Today’s Chinese Medicine industry is flourishing. As a great talent of today’s younger generation in Chinese Medicine, can you tell us your understanding of Chinese Medicine and your expectation for the future of Chinese Medicine?”

As a matter of fact, on the way to the hotel lobby, the reporter had already informed Fang Qiu of what she wanted to talk about in the interview.

This time, the Network News Broadcast was ready to broadcast a piece of news about the development of Chinese Medicine in Huaxia. Because Fang Qiu was now the most popular person in the field of Chinese Medicine, as well as the idol of the young generation, he was the right person to do this interview.

Fang Qiu also knew that the time limit of this news report was about one minute. And they gave Fang Qiu 30 seconds to finish his speech, so they needed Fang Qiu to think about what he was going to say in advance. Then he could smoothly finish what he needed to say in 30 seconds.

It was not difficult for Fang Qiu at all.

He directly started the recording without any practice.

“Chinese Medicine has a history of 5,000 years. It is the collective wisdom of healing diseases, which has accumulated through the continuous trails by ancient scholars and doctors. It carries the ancient people’s experience and theoretical knowledge of fighting against diseases in ancient Huaxia. It contains Huaxia’s traditional philosophy ideas and is the treasure trove of Huaxia civilization.”

As Fang Qiu heard the reporter’s question, he answered without thinking, “Now, people have misunderstandings and ignorance about Chinese Medicine, but in fact, Chinese Medicine has a very scientific and strict treatment system. Chinese Medicine isn’t powerful enough now. Its revival needs the guidance of predecessors and our generation’s effort to inherit and promote Chinese Medicine. It still has a long way to go, but I believe that Chinese Medicine has a bright future and the inheritance of 5,000 years will never fall!”

“Okay, thank you for having this interview.”

The reporter didn’t expect that Fang Qiu would say it so smoothly, which was more perfect than her expectation.

The recording stopped.

The reporter then changed her manner. Instead of being serious and clam like she was just now, she looked like an ordinary woman. When she looked at Fang Qiu, her eyes always lit up.

She asked, “Fang Qiu, can, can I take a picture with you?”

“Of course.” Fang Qiu nodded at once.

“Thank you.” The reporter quickly stepped forward and stood next to Fang Qiu. She struck a cute pose and let the cameraman took a picture with her polaroid. When the photo came out, she took out a pen and handed it to Fang Qiu with the photo.

The reporter said, "Could you please sign an autograph for me? Thank you."

Fang Qiu didn't say anything and just took it and signed his name.

"Thank you." As she received the autographed photo, the reporter laughed excitedly.

After she thanked Fang Qiu with gratitude, she left with satisfaction.

Seeing that the interview was over, Director Li Huawen and Jiang Miaoyu rushed over.

"Kid, you nailed it this time."

Walking to Fang Qiu, Director Li Huawen directly stretched out his hand and patted Fang Qiu on the shoulder, exclaiming, "If you can show yourself in the Network News Broadcast for 30 seconds, not to mention anything else, the exposure of these 30 seconds is worth at least a few million."

Fang Qiu said, "The interview happened so fast. It was all very sudden. If I had known this earlier, I would have brought with me the sign of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor."

"Ha-ha." Director Li Huawen laughed and said, "This time there will be pictures of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor on Network News Broadcast and they will make an important introduction!"

In the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. "Beep, beep, beep..."

At nine o'clock in the morning, Li Qingshi received a call from a strange number.

"Hello." He picked up the phone.

"I'm here." A voice came from the other end of the line, saying, "In Room 113."

“Okay, I’ll be right there.” Li Qingshi nodded and hung up the phone. He reached out his hand to lift his glasses and then left the school with a sneer.

Mocha Cafe was two blocks away from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. It was neither too far nor too near.

After walking for about five minutes, Li Qingshi came to the cafe and entered the private room.

At this time, with a crew cut, a young man who was also wearing glasses and a formal suit sat in the private room.

“Nice to meet you, Mr. Li.” As he saw Li Qingshi coming in, the young man immediately stood up, pointed to the coffee on the table, and said, “I’ve already ordered the coffee for you. If you need anything, you can order at any time.”

“Good, you’re straightforward.”

The young man laughed and said, “It’s very simple. You just need to repost a post we sent on Weibo.”

“Oh?” Stunned, Li Qingshi asked, “What post?”

“I will write a post about the feud between you and Fang Qiu. Of course, I won’t directly give out the names of you and Fang Qiu. Instead, I will use the initials of your surnames as the code names. Then, someone will naturally lead these two code names to you and Fang Qiu on the Internet. Then, you just need to repost this Weibo and attach one sentence, ‘Justice naturally inhabits man’s heart, it will soon come out in the wash’. And that’s what you need to do.”

Speaking of this, the young man smirked and said, “Of course, you haven’t done anything wrong to your classmates. Your code name is just a code. If someone wants an explanation, we just need to come up with an excuse. When it’s done, I’ll give you this amount of money!”

Speaking of which, the young man stretched out his hands and held up his ten fingers.

Li Qingshi asked, "One hundred thousand?"

The young man asked with a smile, "How about that?"

"I'm curious about one thing." Li Qingshi raised his eyebrows and said, "I don't know much about the Internet. Although I have a Weibo account, I rarely use it. But I also know that there are a few people who follow me on my Weibo account, which is about three or four hundred people, most of whom are my friends and classmates. Even if I repost your article, it won't be of much use, right?"

"It's simple." The young man laughed out loud and said, "What I want is your identity as Fang Qiu's classmate. As long as you repost it, the paid Internet trolls we hired will naturally repost it, lead the discussion, and make it to the real-time topic list on Weibo. At that time, Fang Qiu's reputation will be ruined. Not only will you get your revenge, but you will also get 100,000 yuan as a reward. You may even get a lot of fans and become a celebrity on Weibo."

"Really?" Li Qingshi's eyes lit up.

The young man said, "Of course. As long as you cooperate well with me and keep our cooperation as a secret, you can get everything I say."

"All right." Li Qingshi nodded at once.

"That's settled then. When I get back, I'll immediately prepare an article. Let's use coffee as a substitute for wine. I'm looking forward to our further cooperation."

There was a clink of glasses.

A moment later, Li Qingshi left the cafe.

On the way back to the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, he wore a sneer on his face all the way.

As expected, at three o'clock in the afternoon, an article with the initials "L" and "F" as the main characters to represent Fang Qiu and Li Qingshi was published on Weibo.

In this article, it wrote about the feud between L and F.

The short article directly shaped F into an extremely arrogant and selfish person and made L become a pitiful and aggrieved person.

Obviously, "L" stood for Li Qingshi while "F" was Fang Qiu!

Everything in the article was fabricated.

As soon as the article was posted, it got the reposts of those marketing Weibo accounts immediately.

"I seem to know who they are."

"Recently, 'F' is really popular."

"I really don't understand what these young men are doing. If he had known that he would become famous now, he shouldn't have done these evil things a few years ago."

For a moment, those famous Weibo accounts reposted the post and also made some ambiguous comments.

After that, a large number of paid Internal trolls appeared.

"Who can tell me who L and F are?"

"There's no need to guess. It's so obvious."

“Who on earth are they?”

“These two are in the same university. ‘F’ is a young man who is really popular right now and also studies medicine. Of course, it’s Fang Qiu.”

“What about the president of the student union of this university, the ‘L’?”

“Someone has already confirmed it. The president of the student union of UJCM is Li Qingshi. He has had a lot of grievances with Fang Qiu in the university.”

“Fang Qiu and Li Qingshi?”

“What the f*ck. Fang Qiu is so awesome that even the student union’s president can’t beat him?”

“He is sinister and cunning!”

In the crazy comments and reposts of the marketing accounts and the paid Internet trolls, the article soon became popular.

At the same time, Li Qingshi, who was browsing through Weibo in his dormitory, just received a text message.

“The article has been posted. Repost it now.” It was the young man’s number.

As soon as he received the text message, Li Qingshi also saw the post that went viral on Weibo. He immediately clicked and reposted it. And he also wrote the sentence as requested, “The truth will soon come out in the wash!”

Although Li Qingshi missed one sentence which was “Justice naturally inhabits man’s heart”, the young man who had already returned to his company smirked as he saw Li Qingshi’s repost.

It didn't matter whether he missed the sentence now.

All he needed to do next was to hire more paid Internet trolls and continue to make a big fuss about this article!

Before that, he had to call Li Qingshi first.

Medical Master

Chapter 553: I Am a Chinese Medicine Practitioner!

"Buzz, buzz, buzz..." In the boys' dormitory of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, Li Qingshi's cell phone vibrated.

"Hello?" Li Qingshi answered the phone.

"Mr. Li, you did a good job."

The young man's voice came from the other end of the phone. "However, why did you only send one sentence when I asked you to send two sentences? It's different from what we discussed."

"There's nothing different," Li Qingshi replied.

The young man said, "Well, I'll transfer the money to your bank account later."

Li Qingshi said, "Since it has been done, I don't care about the money."

"Don't worry. I'll definitely give it to you once I said so. We'll keep in touch when the time comes."

After that, the young man hung up the phone directly.

Li Qingshi then threw the phone on the table.

He continued to stare at the computer and check the situation on Weibo.

As expected, with the rise in popularity, more and more people paid attention to this matter, which caused heated discussion on the Internet.

While everyone was speculating and discussing, someone even came forward to prove that what the article said was true.

It was not just one. They were a group.

With the affirmative tone of this group of people, everyone turned to Li Qingshi's Weibo and began to repost and leave various comments.

After ten minutes, Li Qingshi refreshed his Weibo's homepage and found that his post which only had three or four comments before now had 5,000 comments in an instant. The reposts of it reached 10,000!

"Are you all following me?" Li Qingshi laughed.

After glancing at his followers on Weibo, he found that there were more than one thousand of them.

It had only been a few minutes.

The number of his followers, which was about 30 or 40 earlier, had suddenly soared to such an extent!

It would definitely continue to grow, and it was only a matter of time before it exceeded 10,000.

“Fang Qiu, this time, you have to thank me.”

As he muttered, Li Qingshi sneered and said, “I did you a great favor!”

He then took out his mobile phone, turned on the recording app, and played one of the recordings.

Apparently, this recording was the conversation between him and the young man in the coffee shop!

“Humph!” After listening to the recording, Li Qingshi suddenly snorted and said with a sneer, “Fang Qiu is now the representative of Chinese Medicine. What you want to do is to sabotage the development of Chinese Medicine. Screw you! I am a Chinese Medicine practitioner!”

“If you have the ability, just go to beat Fang Qiu. I’ll definitely support you!”

Without further ado, Li Qingshi uploaded the recording on his phone to his Weibo.

“The truth you want is all here. I am a Chinese Medicine practitioner!”

Li Qingshi typed these words and directly posted it with the recording that had been uploaded.

As soon as it was posted, the page refreshed automatically.

When he took a closer look, he found that the number of his followers had increased to nearly one hundred thousand. And it was still increasing.

At the same time, people kept coming to Li Qingshi’s Weibo to see and leave comments.

Whether they came here to scold him or to support him, they all clicked on the recording released by Li Qingshi as soon as they saw him update his Weibo.

As they heard it, an eerie silence seemed to fall upon the whole world.

The next moment. “What the f*ck!”

“D*mn it. Anyone who did it should go to jail.”

“It’s too shameless of them to find someone to frame Fang Qiu!”

“That’s flagrantly messing with Fang Qiu!”

“Who did Fang Qiu offend? Who the f*ck did such a dirty job?”

“It turns out that it was someone who was trying to set up Fang Qiu released that dark history about Fang Qiu in the past few days.”

For a moment, all the people on the Internet burst into an uproar.

Those who supported Fang Qiu directly formed a strong army.

“Who the f*ck dared to mess with our Master Fang Qiu? If you have balls, come out and I’ll cut you alive!”

“D*mn it! I’ve always known that our master, Fang Qiu, is such a good man. Why did so much negative news of him appear all of a sudden? Now it turned out that someone deliberately tried to blacken him.”

“F*ck! How dare you trash Fang Qiu! Brothers, let’s use internet manhunt. Find that man in the recording! And I’m going to chop him alive!”

“Senior Li Qingshi, please tell me who the man in the recording is.”

“Please tell us who he is!”

Those who didn’t like Fang Qiu and had been tarnishing him all fell silent.

What else could they say now?

People who remained neutral all looked confused.

“Oh, my God. In this era, if one has money, he can even ruin a person.”

“It’s like using money to kill one’s life.”

“I don’t know how many people were killed by cyber violence. There is actually such a person in the world, exploiting money to harm others.”

There was total chaos on the Internet.

Whether it was on Weibo or post-bar, or even on major portals, people updated on Li Qingshi’s post and the recording immediately.

Some large entertainment media had even opened up a discussion area about this matter on apps of computers and mobile phones.

For a moment, all the people participated in this kind of discussion.

In the public relations company, a group of people, who were so excited and waiting for the praise of their employer, also saw the post updated by Li Qingshi.

They felt something was wrong at first sight of this post because they didn’t let Li Qingshi post anything on Weibo at all.

The most important thing was that Li Qingshi called himself a Chinese Medicine practitioner on Weibo!

When they clicked on the recording and listened to it, all the employees of this public relations company turned pale in an instant.

“Manager, this, this... this has nothing to do with me.”

The young man, who was sitting in front of the computer and just finished talking with Li Qingshi on the phone, suddenly stood up and looked at the staff around him with a flustered look. “I, I didn’t know he would record it.”

A man shouted furiously, “If I knew this would happen, I shouldn’t have let you talk with him!”

The man dressed in a suit walked up to him with a furious look on his face. He pulled the button on his collar and said to the young man, “Get out of here! Get out of here right now! You’re fired!”

Upon hearing that, the young man was instantly dumbfounded.

He seemed so powerless.

Indeed, he was just a newcomer.

As a public relations worker who had just joined the company, he wasn’t as experienced as other people. The reason why the supervisor sent him to contact Li Qingshi was to train him.

However, this guy didn’t even know what he had said had been recorded. What made him furious was that he didn’t even sign a confidentiality agreement with Li Qingshi.

If there was a confidentiality agreement, the company would not be in trouble even if such a thing happened.

But now, it was too late to talk about this.

If the supervisor had known this earlier, all of this might not have happened if he had sent another experienced staff member to find Li Qingshi.

Unfortunately, this young man thought he got Li Qingshi under control as he had money in his hand. He even wanted to lower the money he needed to give Li Qingshi. He could get 100,000 from the company and give 50,000 to Li Qingshi. He even could leave 50,000 to himself.

But he didn't expect that Li Qingshi didn't want any money at all!

The supervisor shouted angrily, "Security, drag him out of here."

The security guards immediately came over and dragged the powerless young man out of the company.

However, at this time, everyone in the company looked grave. No one feared their supervisor but was afraid that the company would be ruined!

One of them asked, "Supervisor, what should we do now?"

"What should we do?" The supervisor's eyes were red. He glanced at these people in front of him and roared, "Tell me, what should I do now? The company has trained you for so many years. Did it train you to be a man to ask me what to do?"

Everyone could see that the supervisor was really anxious this time.

"I have an idea." At this time, a sophisticated public relations staff member who had been pondering for a long time suddenly stood up and said, "Our only way now is to guide the paid Internet trolls."

The supervisor looked at him and said, "Go on."

“We’re going to let the paid Internet trolls induce and tell all netizens that all of this is fake. It’s purely a plot directed and acted by Fang Qiu. The purpose is to create a weak image for himself and thus wash away his negative news!”

Everyone’s eyes lit up as they heard that.

Instead of being angry, the supervisor now put on a serious face.

“That’s right.” He said, “Let’s do it!”

But at this moment, his cell phone suddenly rang. “Beep, beep, beep...”

“Hello?” He answered the phone.

“Watch the Network News Broadcast now!” A voice came from the other end of the phone.

The supervisor was confused.

Then he immediately took the remote control to turn on the TV hanging on the wall and switched it to Channel 1 of Central Television, which was playing Network News Broadcast.

As he just switched to Channel 1, all the employees in the company immediately saw that Fang Qiu was being interviewed. And the content of the interview was about Chinese Medicine!

This time, everyone in the company was dumbfounded!

“Damn it!”

“It’s over. How could he be on Network News Broadcast? This... does this mean that even the country has supported him?”

“This is the end.”

“Yes. Appearing on Network News Broadcast means that the government gives assurance and supports him. If we continue to make trouble, it will be of no use, and it may even get us in trouble.”

“Let’s give up. This person can’t be slandered anymore.”

Everyone expressed their opinions.

“Alas...” The supervisor sighed. Just now, he was so furious. And then he saw hope because they found a solution. Now, Network News Broadcast completely made him lose all his hopes.

At this time. “Please don’t!”

A man from a Western Medicine company, who had been stayed in this public relations company and cooperated with the company to slander Fang Qiu, hurriedly opened his mouth and said, “It’s just Network News Broadcast. Why can’t we do it anymore? Although it’s a little difficult, we can offer more money. The price can be negotiated. Our boss said that as long as you can ruin Fang Qiu, you can just name the price you want!”

“It’s useless now.” The supervisor shook his head with a wry smile and said, “I also want to take the money, but we’re not able to do it anymore. Now even if we try our best to blacken Fang Qiu, no one will believe it again. It’s not that I don’t want to do it, but I can’t!”

After Network News Broadcast was on the air, many screenshots of Fang Qiu’s appearance in it were immediately posted on Weibo.

For a moment, many people who were habitually watching the Network News Broadcast called all the people to watch it right away.

Everyone saw that Fang Qiu was on the news!

Countless people rushed to look for the video of Fang Qiu on the Network News Broadcast and even went to the official website of Central Television. Finally, they found Fang Qiu's individual interview video. Although it was only one minute and Fang Qiu only showed his face for 30 seconds, it was enough to shock everyone and make people cheer for him!

Medical Master

Chapter 554: Find the Person Pulling the Strings!

What did the Network News Broadcast represent?

It meant the recognition of Central Television and the government!

Fang Qiu was on Network News Broadcast now. How could they tarnish him now?

As the news that Fang Qiu was on Network News Broadcast spread crazily on Weibo, all the supporters of Fang Qiu cheered.

This time, they finally understood why Fang Qiu was so calm in the face of the overwhelming libel and even exposed his cell phone number to the public because he didn't have any dark history at all.

They were all trying to frame Fang Qiu up by using those endless rumors.

Now even Network News Broadcast took the initiative to support Fang Qiu and gave him 30 seconds to show himself, which was to tell people all over the country that Fang Qiu was a man of great integrity and all the rumors about Fang Qiu on the Internet were fake!

This made Fang Qiu's fans ecstatic.

They cheered for Fang Qiu and Network News Broadcast!

At the same time, the trolls, who had been targeting Fang Qiu, looked at each other speechlessly when they saw the video of Fang Qiu on Network News Broadcast.

How could they tarnish him now?

Now, it was Central Television and the government that vouched for Fang Qiu's personality!

Besides, there was also evidence given by Li Qingshi who had a grudge against Fang Qiu.

It was obvious that Fang Qiu was a decent man and he was framed by others.

Who would believe it if they continued to tarnish him?

In the capital, the massive health industry summit was not over yet.

Just after the meeting, several business owners gathered together in the reception room of the hotel to enjoy tea.

"Beep beep beep..."

Among them, there was a middle-aged man with greying hair. He was Commander Zuo, who looked rather solemn. Suddenly, his cell phone rang.

He took out his mobile phone and saw a call from one of his men.

"Commander Zuo." The young man in his thirties chuckled and asked, "I think it's about time. There should be some news, right?"

A bald and fat man said, "Don't worry. The news is coming."

The others nodded with a smile.

As he heard what they said, Commander Zuo smiled and answered the phone.

“Hello?” he said calmly.

“Boss.” An urgent voice came from the other end of the phone. “Something’s wrong.”

“What’s the matter?” Commander Zuo asked without changing his expression.

“The PR company doesn’t want to do it anymore. We’ve made a perfect plan, but the people of their company haven’t done well. Not only did they ruin the plan, but the recording of their conversation was uploaded to the Internet. Now, everyone on the Internet knows that Fang Qiu has been wronged. No one believes in the rumors on the Internet anymore. And...”

Speaking of this, the person on the other end of the phone suddenly hesitated.

“What else?” Commander Zuo asked indifferently.

“Fang Qiu has been on the Network News Broadcast.” The person on the other end of the line continued, “Today, Fang Qiu appeared in the Network News Broadcast for 30 seconds. What’s more, it’s all about Chinese Medicine. In addition, the public relations company made a mistake, so they can’t tarnish Fang Qiu now.”

“Oh?” Commander Zuo was a little surprised, and then suddenly laughed and said, “It seems that this boy is quite powerful. Since things have come to this point, let’s stop for a while and lay low. You should also stop whatever you’re doing for now. Do you know what to do?”

The man on the other end of the phone answered repeatedly, “Yes, yes, I know.”

Obviously, Commander Zuo was giving consideration to the public relations company.

He was afraid that the PR company's mistake would eventually get the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company involved, so he reminded him deliberately but didn't make it specific.

"Okay." Hearing the confident response from the other end of the phone, Commander Zuo nodded with satisfaction and hung up the phone.

The young man immediately asked, "Commander Zuo, what's going on?"

"It seems that I have to ask someone to check the background of this boy. Ordinary people can't make it to the Network News Broadcast."

What Commander Zuo said made the rest in the room stun.

Network News Broadcast?

However, after a brief pause, everyone came back to normal and continued to talk and drink tea with a smile on their faces.

Commander Zuo then made a phone call.

"Check on Fang Qiu."

After the phone was connected, he only said four words and hung up the phone.

"Ha-ha." After putting down the phone, Commander Zuo raised his teacup and motioned for everyone present. Then he said with a smile, "Kids nowadays really get some strengths."

Upon hearing that, everyone began to laugh.

Disdain and nonchalance filled their smiles.

They thought Fang Qiu was just a college student studying Chinese Medicine.

They didn't care about him at all!

In the hotel room, the Network News Broadcast was just over. After watching his performance on the program, Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and then took out his mobile phone to check the reaction on the Internet.

There was no doubt that there were voices of support everywhere.

All the rumors disappeared.

In addition, most of the posts stating malicious rumors about him were deleted.

After looking over things on Weibo for a while, Fang Qiu soon saw Li Qingshi's Weibo account.

Amazingly, he saw that Li Qingshi got nearly 200,000 fans now.

This was incredible!

Of course, the most important thing was the two posts released by Li Qingshi!

He read what Li Qingshi said on Weibo and listened to the recording.

Fang Qiu was suddenly surprised.

He still remembered it very clearly.

When they were in school, Li Qingshi always went against him and had caused a lot of trouble for him several times. Moreover, Fang Qiu always fought back, which led to a very bad relationship between the two of them. In the eyes of the students, he was like Li Qingshi's worst enemy.

However, in this case, Li Qingshi actually did him such a big favor, which made Fang Qiu very surprised.

After thinking for a moment, Fang Qiu immediately called Liu Feifei, who was his class teacher, asking for Li Qingshi's cell phone number.

"I'm Fang Qiu. Thank you for your help."

He then immediately sent him a text message.

Soon, Li Qingshi replied, "I am a Chinese Medicine practitioner!"

Seeing Li Qingshi's reply, Fang Qiu immediately laughed.

He smiled happily.

This was what a Chinese Medicine doctor would do!

"Beep beep beep..." Just as Fang Qiu was about to continue browsing Weibo, his phone suddenly rang.

It was He Gaoming who called.

"Hello?" Fang Qiu picked up the phone immediately.

"Everything is done," He Gaoming said directly.

“Who is it?” Fang Qiu asked.

“A few large Western Medicine companies are pulling the strings.”

He Gaoming said, “These large Western Medicine companies have a lot of market share in the domestic pharmaceutical market. Of course, they are not only making Western Medicine but also producing Chinese patent medicine. However, the profits they have gained by selling Chinese patent medicine are far less than that of Western Medicine, so they don’t put in too much effort in the production of Chinese Medicine. Although each of them is eminent in Western Medicine, they are not qualified in the field of Chinese Medicine.”

“Oh?” Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes and said, “It seems that the reason why these people are making trouble for me is that I have developed Chinese Medicine, which has reduced their sales in Western Medicine and decreased their business.”

“You are indeed a college student, smart,” He Gaoming immediately replied and praised Fang Qiu.

He then continued, “I found that the bosses of these Western Medicine companies are gathering together to participate in a health industry summit.”

“I see.” Fang Qiu nodded.

“How are you going to retaliate?”

He Gaoming asked and then said, “If you want to affect the stocks of these companies, I can help you spread some rumors.”

Upon hearing that, Fang Qiu was speechless.

Fang Qiu then asked, “Do you think I’m rich?”

“No, you’re not.” He Gaoming immediately shook his head.

Fang Qiu then said, "I want to find someone to beat them up. Why don't you find someone for me?"

"We can't do that. It's against the law to beat someone." He Gaoming immediately tried to persuade him.

"Of course I know."

Fang Qiu curled his lips and asked, "So, why are you still talking to me?"

It was He Gaoming's turn to be speechless.

With the show of the Network News Broadcast, parents of the candidates in the college entrance examination across the country raised their hopes again when they saw Fang Qiu on the Network News Broadcast.

Fang Qiu was able to show himself on the Network News Broadcast, which proved that there was no problem with him.

Since there was no problem, what were they afraid of?

All of a sudden, those parents began to ask their children to apply for TCM colleges.

Those parents who had already given a strict order that their children were not allowed to apply for TCM colleges now changed their minds.

Under such circumstances, there was another round of searching for TCM colleges and the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine on the Internet again.

At the same time, the heat of the malicious rumors related to Fang Qiu gradually faded.

At night, Fang Qiu received He Gaoming's message on the hotel's computer, which was the names and information of those Western Medicine companies behind the scenes.

After carefully reading the information, Fang Qiu thought it was still early, so he left the hotel directly to find something in a nearby pharmacy. Finally, he bought some of the Chinese Medicine produced by those pharmaceutical companies.

There was Guilong Cough- and Asthma-relieving Capsule, Syrup made by Sichuan fritillary bulb and loquat, Cough-relieving Orange Pill, Bamboo Juice Ointment, and Lung-heat-clearing Pill. These were all common traditional Chinese Medicine.

Of course, Fang Qiu didn't only buy the medicine produced by Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, but also the same kind of Chinese Medicine from several other companies. He had bought them all.

He had bought a set of medicine produced by each company.

Fang Qiu then returned to the hotel with a big bag of medicine.

He began to taste it one by one.

After taking one pill, he immediately sat in meditation and mobilized his mental power to see internally.

In fact, when one's cultivation reached a certain level, one would be able to see internally, whether he was using Qigong or mental power, which allowed them to actually see the existence of meridians.

This was also the way for Fang Qiu to prove the existence of meridians.

Ordinary people and Chinese medicine doctors didn't call meridians the same as martial arts practitioners, but they all referred to the same thing.

Seeing internally could help him see meridians, which was also the reason why Fang Qiu dared to take the initiative to announce it publicly at the medical conference, but he still needed time to make improvements.

Now it seemed that he still needed time to look for a better way to prove himself.

He started to see internally.

In addition to being able to see the meridians, Fang Qiu could clearly see the changes of Qi, blood, and body function inside his body, which caused by the drugs and food he just took.

The reason why he bought all the Chinese patent medicine produced by these Western Medicine companies and took the pills was to verify the efficacy of them one by one.

First, he took the Guilong Cough- and Asthma-relieving Capsule.

After swallowing it, Fang Qiu observed carefully for a while. He immediately found that after the drug had entered his stomach, his stomach begun to churn. This was exactly what would happen if the sulfur dioxide in the medicine exceeded the limit, which would cause nausea.

Obviously, there was something wrong with the processing of this drug!

Medical Master

Chapter 555: Spilled the Beans!

Fang Qiu finished testing the first drug.

After a short break, he began to try the second medicine.

As a result, the heavy metal content in the second medicine actually exceeded the limit.

It should be known that if the heavy metal content exceeded the limit, it would cause great harm to the human body's organs, which might cause great influence on the nerves' development and functions, reproduction and growth, kidney function, cardiovascular function, and immune function. It could even cause cancer.

How could a pharmaceutical company sell drugs whose heavy metal content exceeded the standard?

His face darkened.

Fang Qiu continued to try the third kind of medicine.

After carefully testing it, he found a problem. Different from the former two drugs, the pesticide residues in the third drug actually exceeded the limit.

Because Fang Qiu could see internally and use mental power to carefully explore it, he could clearly see the components of the pesticide residues in the medicine.

The pesticide residues exceeded the limit, which also caused health problems like infertility, deformation, cancer, and so on.

After Fang Qiu tested the three drugs, his face changed.

He didn't expect that the first three drugs he tried all had problems. Was there any problem with other drugs?

A thought flashed through his mind.

Fang Qiu continued to test the rest of the drugs.

After taking all the medicine he bought, Fang Qiu was astonished to find that there was something wrong with all the medicine.

Not only was the pesticide residues, heavy metal content, and sulfur dioxide exceeded the standard, but these drugs also lacked efficacy and so on.

“Humph, what selfish businessmen!”

Fang Qiu sneered with a gloomy face and said, “Not only are they hurting people, but they also produce these harmful drugs to tarnish Chinese Medicine and Chinese herbs!

“If that’s the case, I’ll just use a deliberate act as a warning to the opponent. I’m going to overhaul the Chinese Medicine market!”

Fang Qiu was aware that once this kind of scandal was spread out, it would easily cause people to distrust Chinese Medicine, but this would definitely not ruin Chinese Medicine. A pot of milk would be ruined by a drop of poison. If the poison was found out now, it might come as a blow to Chinese Medicine at most. If it was neglected, Chinese Medicine would be destroyed bit by bit!

While he was thinking, Fang Qiu suddenly thought of what He Gaoming said. Now it seemed that He Gaoming was right. Although he had no money, he knew the scandals about those Western Medicine companies!

Using their scandals could also affect their stock prices!

“Phew...” Fang Qiu opened his mouth and let out a long breath. He spat out all the impurities and harmful things left in his body after testing the medicine.

The next day, it was six o’clock in the morning.

“Beep beep beep...” Director Li Huawen, who just left his house and was rushing to the Central Television building, suddenly received a call from Fang Qiu.

“Hello, Fang Qiu?” Seeing it was Fang Qiu’s call, Director Li Huawen immediately picked up the phone with a smile.

"It's me, Director Li." In the hotel room, Fang Qiu answered with a smile, "I have something to do. I want to ask you to do me a favor."

"Oh?" Director Li Huawen was stunned and said, "You want to ask me for help so early in the morning?"

"It's urgent," Fang Qiu answered.

"Tell me about it." Li Huawen nodded.

"Here's the thing." Fang Qiu pursed his lips and said, "I want to ask you to help me contact Capital University of Science and Technology. I have something to test in the chemical laboratory of the school. I'm not familiar with this place, so I can only ask you for help."

"What do you want to test?" Director Li Huawen asked curiously.

Fang Qiu answered, "You'll know in a few days."

Li Huawen said, "All right, I'll help you to contact them now. It shouldn't be a problem."

"Thank you." Fang Qiu expressed his gratitude.

After he hung up the phone, Director Li Huawen immediately asked someone to help him get in touch with the leaders of the Capital University of Science and Technology. As they learned his demand, the leaders of the Capital University of Science and Technology immediately agreed with Fang Qiu's request.

After all, Li Huawen was the director of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor, which was a big hit today.

Helping Li Huawen and Fang Qiu was equivalent to helping Chinese Medicine.

How could the Capital University of Science and Technology turn them down when this country was going to support Chinese Medicine with great efforts?

Soon, Li Huawen called Fang Qiu after getting permission.

Fang Qiu didn't hesitate, packed the medicine of those companies in his backpack, and rushed to Capital University of Science and Technology with Li Huawen.

In the early morning, there was no traffic congestion.

They soon arrived at the university. Under the greeting and leading of school leaders, they came all the way to the chemistry laboratory.

Li Huawen was waiting outside the lab. He didn't even know what Fang Qiu wanted to test.

One and a half hours later, Fang Qiu came out of the lab, holding a stack of test data in his hand.

Undoubtedly, after testing, he found that various harmful substances in all the Chinese Medicine produced by Western Medicine companies had exceeded the standard.

"Are you testing Chinese Medicine?" Li Huawen asked as he glanced at the data in Fang Qiu's hand.

"Yeah." Fang Qiu nodded.

"Why did you test the Chinese Medicine?" Director Li Huawen asked doubtfully.

Fang Qiu said with a grin, "You'll know soon. Just wait to see what will happen next."

"What?" Director Li Huawen was stunned. He had a vague feeling that something was wrong.

In the afternoon, taking the tickets they booked last night, Fang Qiu and Jiang Miaoyu went back to Jiangjing together.

On the way, Fang Qiu issued a post on Weibo.

“After the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor tonight, there will be big news! Please come and watch by then.”

As soon as the post was issued, it immediately attracted the attention of numerous people.

“Big news?”

“What will it be?”

“Is Fang Qiu finally going to give a public response to those malicious rumors on the Internet?”

Many people came to Fang Qiu’s Weibo and left their comments and discussions below his Weibo.

Under such circumstances, there were more and more comments and reposts on Fang Qiu’s Weibo, which soon attracted so many people’s attention.

Even those who were not interested in Fang Qiu were also tempted.

Of course, there were also a lot of fans of the popular stars in the entertainment circle, even some famous paparazzi.

In the eyes of these people, Fang Qiu now had already become one of the people in the entertainment circle.

Therefore, they speculated that Fang Qiu’s news might be related to the entertainment circle. Some even wondered if Fang Qiu’s news referred to the official announcement that he was going to enter the entertainment circle.

There are a thousand Hamlets in a thousand people's eyes. Different people had different opinions.

For a moment, all kinds of guesses appeared below Fang Qiu's post.

In such a heated discussion, people's curiosity got aroused. They were getting more and more interested in Fang Qiu's big news.

At 8:30 p.m. that night, the latest edited ninth episode of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor officially began on Channel 3 of Central Television.

As always, countless people were waiting in front of the TV and computers.

As the show started, everyone immediately concentrated on TV.

Seeing the interaction between Fang Qiu and Feng Xuexin, all the people watching the program couldn't help laughing out loud.

These two men were simply too interesting.

They were just like a quarrelsome but loving couple.

The funniest thing was that the staff of the show seemed so confident that everything was under their control.

When they saw that Fang Qiu and Feng Xuexin knew each other, their faces fell in an instant.

There was no doubt that the show's crew suffered a lot on this matter.

After that, Fang Qiu needed to deal with a patient suffering from cancer again.

With the camera focusing on him, Fang Qiu came to the patient's house and began to treat him.

Because he had already announced the treatment method to cure cancer before, the show didn't try to avoid it this time. Instead, the whole process of the treatment was publicized.

Seeing the student pleading, the villagers' descriptions of the patient's family affairs, Fang Qiu's treatment to the patient, and the patient eating a big bowl of noodles on the spot, most of the audience who were watching the show had tears in their eyes.

In daily life, they also watched variety shows a lot.

In those variety shows, they often heard a variety of painful, pitiable, and painful things, which made them shed tears.

But now, as such a thing happened in front of their eyes, it was strange that they didn't cry.

Perhaps they also saw hope in Fang Qiu as they saw something so desperate.

"Fang Qiu is really a nice person."

"It's so good."

"I hope that every patient in the world will meet a good doctor."

The viewers who were watching the live broadcast on the Internet started to comment on the screen one after another.

The show was still going on.

After treating the patient, the picture turned to Fang Qiu and Director Li Huawen who walked side by side and returned to the clinic.

Then, the camera switched.

It turned to the picture of the other nine contestants.

When everyone came to the clinic, they were touched. Then they were surprised to hear that they were going to treat patients in the clinic. It also showed some trivial things which happened when they were in the clinic. As long as there was something funny, it would be shown to the audience.

The audience sometimes burst into laughter, then felt embarrassed occasionally, also shook their heads, and sometimes sighed with emotion.

At the end of the show, the scene changed.

Back at Qimen Town, Fang Qiu and Li Huawen walked out of the clinic. When they were about to get into the cars and leave, they were blocked by hundreds of townspeople. The scene was very chaotic all the way.

The next moment, the screen changed again. The staff of the crew discussed urgently whether they should leave or not.

They hadn't reached an agreement yet.

The show was over!

As soon as the show was over, the comments on the Internet live broadcast burst out in an instant.

"What the f*ck? How could they edit the show like that?"

"The people in the show are crazy, aren't they?"

“D*mn it. Are they leaving or not?”

“I was scared to death. I thought people from Qimen Town were going to fight with the show’s crew!”

“Why did the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor also use this kind of editing? They keep us in suspense. The show is really shameless now.”

Everyone was still refuting and complaining.

On the other side, some other people who had finished watching the show began to comment and discuss with each other on Weibo.

“The crew are so funny this time. Ha-ha!”

“They actually found a place that Fang Qiu is familiar with. Now, let’s see what they are going to do this time!”

“The other contestants have already begun to see patients. If Fang Qiu moves to another place, won’t he be slower than others?”

“In fact, it’s okay if they don’t change the place. It’s the same for seeing patients. It doesn’t matter whether the patients know Fang Qiu or not.”

“Hey, I don’t think there are any rules in this round.”

“Yeah, isn’t this a competition? What are the rules?”

Soon, a topic came up on Weibo—#The Rules of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor’s Ninth Episode#

While everyone was discussing, the ratings of this episode came out.

According to statistics, the average ratings of the ninth episode of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor actually reached 6.7%, and the highest ratings reached 6.9%.

Although it hadn't exceeded 7%, the ratings of this episode were incredibly high!

Medical Master

Chapter 556: Confront a Listed Company!

"The average ratings increased by 0.2%."

As he saw the ratings report, Director Li Huawen was not as happy as before. Instead, he frowned and murmured, "Only the last two episodes of the show are left. No matter what, we must exceed 8%!"

As a director, being able to host the Spring Festival Gala would be an honor for him for the rest of his life.

Li Huawen was a good man, but good people also had desires, not to mention that this desire was to host the Spring Festival Gala!

After praying silently for a while, Director Li Huawen then recalled that he had gone to the Capital University of Science and Technology to do a Chinese Medicine test with Fang Qiu this morning. When he thought of Fang Qiu's post talking about some breaking news, he suddenly became a little worried.

"This kid isn't going to make a scene, is he?"

Meanwhile, some netizens were still immersed in the discussion of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor, while others who were concerned about the news that Fang Qiu was going to tell had already rushed to his Weibo and began to crazily comment and refresh his Weibo.

"I have watched the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor. Hurry up and reveal the news!"

“It’s time. Just tell us what you know.”

“What’s the big breaking news? Are you really going to announce that you will enter the entertainment circle?”

“Master Fang Qiu, come out! I’ve been waiting for your breaking news for so long.”

In the beginning, it was a small group of people.

However, this small group of people attracted other people’s attention while leaving so many comments. Soon after, the audience who finished watching the ninth episode all went to Fang Qiu’s Weibo and urged him to reveal the news.

As the number of people was increasing, someone even came up with a topic #Fang Qiu’s breaking news#.

Undoubtedly, it didn’t take long for this topic to appear on the Hot Search List.

It was 9:50 p.m. in the Dormitory 501 of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.

“Fang Qiu, bro!” The three roommates of Fang Qiu who had watched the ninth episode of the show also took part in the topic on Weibo. They each held their mobile phones and laptops. After discussing for a while, Zhou Xiaotian couldn’t help but curiously ask Fang Qiu, who was sitting in front of the desk, “What on earth do you want to reveal?”

“You’re going to tell people the relationship between you and our campus belle Jiang Miaoyu, aren’t you?”

Sun Hao said with a smile, “It’s the ninth episode now. People only know that you and our campus belle are classmates. They don’t know you guys are dating. Take a look at how many love letters have been sent to our dorm every day. If you want to make it public, you should hurry up and make them stop fantasizing about you so that these beautiful girls can turn their attention to us.”

“Wonderful.” Zhou Xiaotian’s eyes lit up, and he said, “We’re all good buddies. We can take advantage of your fame to find a girlfriend. Is that all right?”

Zhu Benzhen said seriously, “I don’t think Fang Qiu will talk about his romance. He is going to tell breaking news. How can this be big news?”

As he spoke, the three of them all looked at Fang Qiu.

They saw a lot of medicine on Fang Qiu’s desk.

At this moment, Fang Qiu was taking photos of these drugs with his mobile phone.

Sun Hao asked, “Hey, Fang, what are you doing?”

“You’ll know in a while.” Fang Qiu looked back at the three of them with a smile and then continued to take photos.

The three of them were confused.

After a while, Fang Qiu finished taking photos and went to his bed to send a post.

As they saw that Fang Qiu was going to tell the news, his three roommates didn’t bother him anymore. Each of them took their mobile phones or laptops and started to refresh Fang Qiu’s Weibo frequently.

As expected, about ten seconds later, Fang Qiu’s Weibo was updated.

It was a picture!

In the picture, there was a kind of Chinese Medicine named “Cough-relieving Orange Pill”.

On the package of the medicine, the words “Siqi Pharmaceutical Industry” were absolutely clear.

Although it was night and it was a photo taken on the desk under the bed, the photo was incredibly clear because Fang Qiu’s mobile phone was given by Li Ji. It got a great pixel and had its own illumination function, which helped create an extremely clear photo.

“Attention, everyone, the pesticide residues of this medicine exceeds its standard! Not only will it decrease the property of the Chinese herbs, but it will also lead to health problems like infertility, abnormality, etc.”

As soon as he issued the post, there was an uproar in an instant because a lot of people were waiting for Fang Qiu to disclose the news.

But no one expected that Fang Qiu’s breaking news this time was not that he was going to enter the entertainment circle, nor to announce his love affair or say that he was going to respond to the rumors online. Instead, he was going to challenge Chinese Medicine!

For a moment, many Chinese Medicine doctors who were waiting for Fang Qiu to reveal the news, as well as supporters of Chinese Medicine, frowned.

“What is Fang Qiu doing?”

“This is Chinese Medicine. He exposed that there’s something wrong with the medicine. Isn’t it hurting Chinese Medicine?”

“Is Fang Qiu out of his mind? We just start to have faith in Chinese Medicine. How could he do such a thing? After this revelation, who dares to buy Chinese Medicine?”

“Even if there is something wrong with the medicine, you can’t say it out loud. Now the country is developing Chinese Medicine vigorously. If you do this, Chinese Medicine will be replaced again, won’t it?”

Unlike those who cared about Chinese Medicine, netizens didn't care whether Fang Qiu's breaking news was about Chinese herbs or not.

Many of them were interested in Fang Qiu.

"It looks like I didn't wait for you in vain."

"Ha-ha, Fang Qiu challenges people again. It's going to be a big show."

"Hey, it seems to be a big company this time, and Fang Qiu personally goes to the ring to have a hand-to-hand fight. It's going to be interesting."

"I've been waiting for a day. Finally, there will be a big show."

"Where are the people of the State Food and Drug Administration? Come out and check on it quickly. Fang Qiu has found out that there is something wrong with the medicine. Why can't you find it out?"

As soon as this photo was posted, it was reposted by a large number of netizens.

There was no need to wait for any brewing of the issue because there were too many people waiting for Fang Qiu's breaking news.

Everyone reposted and spread the news crazily.

There was also a heated discussion on Weibo.

"Is Fang Qiu cracking down on counterfeit medicine?"

"This is Chinese Medicine. Fang Qiu can actually do it?"

“Although that’s the case, it’s a good thing for everyone that he told people the news. Those who are taking this kind of medicine should stop and change into other drugs.”

“Oh, my God. Fang Qiu is really brutal. Is he going to destroy the Chinese Medicine that he has raised up with his own strength?”

“Siqu Pharmaceutical Company? It’s a big company.”

“It is said that this company is a giant of Western Medicine industry in Huaxia, but Fang Qiu is cracking down its Chinese Medicine. I don’t know if there is also a problem with their company’s Western Medicine.”

“The bigger the company is, the more rigorous it should be. Why is it so easy for the medicine of a large company to go wrong?”

“Fang Qiu is so bold that he dares to make trouble for Siqu Pharmaceutical Company.”

“Fang Qiu’s influence on the Internet is too powerful. Whether it’s true or not, the stock price of the Siqu Pharmaceutical Company will definitely decline next Monday.”

“He has touched a raw nerve. Siqu Pharmaceutical Company will at least lose tens of millions!”

Not only did the netizens discuss fiercely, but also all the stock investors, as well as stock analysts, informed the investors under their command to sell off the shares of Siqu Pharmaceutical Company the next day.

As the investors received the news, they were dumbfounded.

Then, they also noticed Fang Qiu’s news, so these people became anxious in an instant.

There was no doubt that as soon as this happened, the stock price of the Siqu Pharmaceutical Company was bound to fall. If this revelation was fake, maybe the stock price of this company could recover a little bit. But if it was true, the stock price would not be able to recover, and it might even fall to the bottom.

How could these people not be anxious?

They had to sell off as soon as possible, otherwise, these stocks would be completely useless.

Of course, some people firmly believed Siqi Pharmaceutical Company was a large company. No matter whether the news was true or not, it was absolutely impossible for Fang Qiu to defeat this company. What was more, such a big company must have a strong capability of dealing with the crisis. As long as their PR department proved that Fang Qiu was wrong, the stock price of the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company would rise instead.

Although the odds were heavily against them, there were still many people who blindly believed Siqi Pharmaceutical Company. They were trying to beat the odds. They bet all their possession on this, thinking that the stock price would not decline, but would rise instead!

As people on the Internet knew about Fang Qiu's news, countless people rushed to the official Weibo account of Siqi Pharmaceutical Limited Liability Company.

"You're a big company. You have made so much money in a year. Why are you so evil-hearted to make fake medicine?"

"Black-hearted medicine company, you shall rot in hell!"

"How can you make fake drugs? You bastard! You're actually killing people in disguise!"

"I've been taking your company's medicine, but I didn't expect that you made fake medicine. I'm going to sue you. You are so disgusting!"

In the building of Central Television, Li Huawen just finished reading the ratings reports of the show.

Li Huawen immediately took out his mobile phone and checked on Fang Qiu's Weibo.

As soon as he looked at Weibo, he saw people talking crazily about a topic on the Internet—#Fang Qiu Confronts Siqi Pharmaceutical Company#.

Looking at this topic, Director Li Huawen was shocked.

Now he knew what Fang Qiu tested at the Capital University of Science and Technology was the medicine of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company!

"Is this kid really going to challenge these medicine companies?"

He clicked on Fang Qiu's Weibo.

Seeing Fang Qiu's post and photos, Li Huawen was even more astonished.

He didn't expect that Fang Qiu was so straightforward that he posted the name of the medicine and the company clearly.

He said to himself, "Indeed, this kid is not easy to be dealt with. He looks so kind, but when he deals with something important, he always acts recklessly. He's not afraid of anything at all!"

In the building of Siqi Pharmaceutical Limited Liability Company which located in the capital, many clerks saw the topic on the Internet immediately. Some of them were even waiting for Fang Qiu's breaking news. They didn't expect that Fang Qiu's breaking news was actually about their company's medicine.

The supervisor of the company's network technology department also saw Fang Qiu's news.

When he first saw it, he was also startled.

He didn't even dare to think about it.

Then, he immediately called the chairman of the board.

In the presidential suite of a luxury hotel in the capital, Commander Zuo received a call from a subordinate of his company. "Hello?"

"Chairman, bad news."

A voice on the other end of the phone sounded anxious. "Something serious happened on the Internet."

"What's the rush?" Commander Zuo calmly leaned back against the sofa and said while drinking tea, "Slow down. Tell me what happened."

The subordinate said, "It's about our medicine. Fang Qiu, the Chinese Medicine doctor who has been particularly popular recently, has revealed on the Internet that there was something wrong with our drugs and that the pesticide residues of the drugs exceeded the standard!"

Chapter 557: Lawyer's Letter Is Issued!

"What?" Hearing the report, Commander Zuo froze for a short while and then said, "Do you have to come to me for such a small thing? Deal with it yourself."

After that, he hung up the phone with indifference.

It seemed that he didn't care about it at all.

The supervisor of the network technology department had no choice but to immediately call the manager of the PR marketing department so that all the employees of the PR marketing department could go back to the company to work out a solution.

Those employees of the PR marketing department were also anxious when they saw the news on the Internet.

On the way back to the company, they even directly set up a WeChat group to discuss what they should do while returning to the company.

“This is a bit tricky.”

“Yeah, it’s not a big deal if it’s someone else who revealed the news, but the one who did it is Fang Qiu. That’s a problem.”

“This thing has a great impact on the reputation of our company. It may even affect the operation of the company. I think that whether it is true or not, we must respond immediately. If we let it develop like this, there might be tremendous consequences!”

“But what if what Fang Qiu said is true?”

As soon as someone said that, everyone in the discussion group fell silent.

After a long while, the manager of the PR marketing department who set up this group said, “It can’t be true. It can only be fake. Anyway, we have to suppress it!”

As the staff saw what he said, they all understood.

As for them, it didn’t matter whether the new was true or not. Even if it was true, it must be made into a fake one. Otherwise, they could not get through this crisis.

The supervisor spoke again, “Find a way to contact Fang Qiu and talk to him.”

One of the staff replied, “Okay, I’ll go and try to contact Fang Qiu immediately.”

“When you contact him, you can offer him some money. The more he asks for, the better. We can afford it. But you must remember, leave the record of the transfer of the money, recording, or chat history. As long as you keep the evidence, we can sue him for blackmail!”

As they saw this, everyone was intimidated.

This move was really cruel!

They then thought to themselves, “Since it was Fang Qiu that came to us, he couldn’t blame us for being cruel.”

“And, contact the lawyer immediately and ask him to issue a lawyer’s letter immediately. He should do it as quickly as possible.

“At the same time, contact an Internet marketing company and hire paid Internet trolls!”

As a result, before this group of people arrived at the company, they had already worked out a plan and had begun to carry it out.

Admittedly, this was a big company. People could execute a plan as soon as possible.

The plan had just come out. The employees of the PR marketing department were immediately divided into three teams. One tried to contact Fang Qiu, another reached lawyers, the last one was looking for an Internet marketing company.

Only 20 minutes had passed before Fang Qiu divulged the news.

The official Weibo account of the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company issued a lawyer’s letter.

“Lawyer’s Statement:

“In order to clarify the basic fact and defend the rights and interests of the company, Captial Chengke Law Firm accepted the commission of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and appointed Zhang Shijun, the senior partner, as the lawyer. As for the rumor against Siqi Pharmaceutical Company appeared on Weibo, we hereby make the following statement:

“1 Through confirmation, a Weibo user ‘Who do you think you are’ posted on Weibo tonight to target at Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, claiming that the pesticide residues of the drug had exceeded the limit. It is fake news. Siqi Pharmaceutical Company is a medical enterprise with a great conscience, which is committed to the benefit of people and the health of the patients. The above statement is just a rumor that comes out of nothing and distorts the fact.

“2 The above rumor fabricated the basic fact recklessly, started the rumor, misled the public, and seriously damaged the reputation and image of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company. The operation and user of the Weibo account spreading the rumor have already infringed the reputation of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, which has been suspected of violating the criminal law.

“3 As we issue this statement, we urge the user of this Weibo account to immediately delete all the contents related to the rumor and guarantee that no other fake information or rumors like this will be released. Otherwise, according to the authorization of the client, the lawyer of this case will file a suit against this user and related people or report to the executive and the judiciary, or make private prosecution so as to defend the basic fact and maintain the legal rights of the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company.

“The Siqi Pharmaceutical Company also hope all the media and the public could fully comprehend and respect facts and the national law so as to report and spread the truth.

“We hereby certify the fact to stop the rumor!”

A lawyer’s letter was issued.

The paid Internet trolls, as well as all kinds of marketing accounts on the Internet, immediately made remarks as soon as the letter was posted.

“Siqi Pharmaceutical Industry is one of the top-notch pharmaceutical companies in the country. How could they possibly do that?”

“Fang Qiu must be dying to be famous. How dare he frame Siqi Pharmaceutical Company?”

“I always thought that Fang Qiu was a good man, but I didn’t expect that he not only spread Qigong but also rumors. It’s really disappointing that he framed a pharmaceutical company with a clear conscience.”

“I’ve always been taking the medicine of the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, and the drugs they produced are very effective. Every time I get sick, I’ll soon get better as long as I take their medicine.”

“Me too. The medicine of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company is really effective. As a doctor of Chinese Medicine, how could Fang Qiu frame such a good pharmaceutical company with a clear conscience?”

At the same time. “Fang Qiu has been on the phone. We can’t get through at all.”

The staff member who tried to contact Fang Qiu smiled wryly as he sent messages in the WeChat discussion group.

Obviously, what he dialed was the number that Fang Qiu had left on Weibo.

He made more than a dozen phone calls in a row.

He was so helpless right now.

It was like kicking a rock to his own feet. They didn’t expect that such a day would come when they forced Fang Qiu to tell the public his phone number.

Now they reaped what they sowed.

At this crucial moment, they couldn’t get in touch with Fang Qiu at all.

What should they do?

“Don’t give in. Just keep trying!” The supervisor sent a message.

Helplessly, the staff member could only continue to call Fang Qiu.

At the same time, all the people in the PR marketing department were looking forward to what might happen next. They hoped that netizens could be guided by the paid Internet trolls. At least, it should be able to ruin the whole thing on the Internet!

They had to admit that paid Internet trolls were very powerful.

Under the impact of the paid Internet trolls, public opinion was beginning to shift.

On the internet, many people began to watch the whole incident.

“It’s indeed a big company with quick reactions. Only more than 20 minutes have passed, yet they have already issued the lawyer’s letter.”

“What impressed me was that they just sent the lawyer’s letter without any further explanation. It’s clear that they are going to fight with Fang Qiu to the end!”

“Will Fang Qiu be able to handle it?”

“Actually, Fang Qiu only posted photos of the drugs, and there is no clear evidence. I think there is a great chance that he is telling fake news.”

In Dormitory 501 of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, the three roommates of Fang Qiu, who had been watching Fang Qiu’s Weibo, were also shocked by Fang Qiu’s challenge to Siqi Pharmaceutical Company. Especially when they saw the lawyer’s letter from Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, they couldn’t help but worry.

“Hey, bro, Siqi Pharmaceutical Company has issued a lawyer’s letter. If you don’t handle it well, you will be legally responsible for this. Aren’t you afraid?” Zhu Benzhen asked with concern.

“Ha-ha.” Fang Qiu replied with a grin, “Don’t worry. I only posted it when I’m fully prepared.”

After that, Fang Qiu turned around and took out a stack of examining reports from his backpack next to the pillow. Then he searched carefully and took out one of them. After that, he began to take pictures with his mobile phone.

“What is this?” Because Zhu Benzhen’s bed was on the opposite side of Fang Qiu’s, he immediately came over.

Zhou Xiaotian and Sun Hao also surrounded him with curiosity.

They both stepped on the ladder of Fang Qiu’s bed with one foot and raised their heads to look at the report in Fang Qiu’s hand.

“What is this?” Zhu Benzhen asked.

“It’s the examining report of the medicine. I went to the laboratory of the Capital University of Science and Technology to do the test,” Fang Qiu answered with a smile.

“Oh, I see...” Hearing that, the three of them immediately looked at Fang Qiu in surprise and gave him a thumbs-up in unison.

“You’re so good at confronting people!”

Zhou Xiaotian exclaimed, “You’re fantasizing about fighting against the world. You’re not even done with your first year. You’ve already been upgraded from fighting a student to a listed company. When you’re a sophomore, are you going to challenge a multinational group?”

“You’re so awesome!” Sun Hao also echoed.

“Really awesome.” Zhu Benzhenɡ laughed out loud.

“Let’s talk about it in the future,” Fang Qiu answered proudly with his head high. Then he hurriedly logged into his Weibo account and uploaded the photo he had taken to the Weibo. At the same time, he also noted the standard of pesticide residues set by the country.

As everyone took a look, they found that there was a sharp contrast between the pesticide residues in the medicine and that of the national standard.

After people saw the report, there was an uproar on Weibo!

No one expected that after the Siqi Company sent a lawyer’s letter, Fang Qiu didn’t flinch at all. Instead, he directly released this report in an instant!

Moreover, he was reacting so fast.

“Damn, he’s so fast.”

“This reaction is absolutely incredible.”

“From my point of view, Fang Qiu is deliberately waiting for the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company to respond. Now that the company tried to deny it, Fang Qiu just showed the report instantly. This is a head-on blow to the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company!”

“What the f*ck! This response is absolutely amazing. Just like a slap on the face!”

“Impressive. He’s indeed a master.”

“Ha-ha, what a great slap on the face.”

“It’s a test conducted by the chemical laboratory of Capital University of Science and Technology? Brilliant.”

“Siqu Pharmaceutical Company can’t get away from this now. Do they dare to question the Capital University of Science and Technology?”

The netizens flew into a rage again.

“Damn it, when he said that the pesticide residues in the medicine exceeded the limit, you should just admit it. Maybe we would give you a chance if you had a better attitude. But you decided to issue a lawyer’s letter. Now you got refuted, didn’t you?”

“If Fang Qiu dares to challenge you, he’s not worried about your denial. What’s more, in front of so many people, if Fang Qiu didn’t have some proofs in hand, how could he fight you?”

“Sending a lawyer’s letter? If you have the guts, you should just go to get Fang Qiu!”

“The evidence has been released. What are you pretending here?”

“F*ck, from now on, I’m going to boycott goods from Siqu Pharmaceutical Company!”

For a moment, countless netizens rushed to the official Weibo account of Siqu Pharmaceutical Company and criticized them crazily.

People of the PR department of the company were completely dumbfounded!

Medical Master

Chapter 558: The Second Listed Company!

In the capital, people were still working on the fourth floor of the office building of the Siqu Pharmaceutical Limited Liability Company, where the PR marketing department located.

All the lights of several nearby buildings had been turned off. It was pitch-dark. Only the lights here were on again after it remained dark for a few hours.

At this time, all the staff in the PR marketing department had rushed back to the company.

Seeing the report on Fang Qiu's Weibo, all the staff of the department were completely dumbfounded!

"Beep, beep, beep..." All of a sudden, a cell phone rang.

One of the staff took out his phone to take a look.

It was the network marketing company!

The person holding the phone was exactly the employee who was assigned to contact the network marketing company.

The supervisor asked, "Who is it?"

The staff member replied, "It's from the network marketing company."

Upon hearing that, the supervisor walked up directly with an unpleasant look on his face, took the phone, and put him on speaker while picking up the call.

"Hello?" The supervisor opened his mouth.

"Our cooperation is temporarily canceled."

A decisive voice was heard on the other end of the phone. "We can't meet your company's requirements. Now the boy has released the evidence. If we continue to mobilize public opinion, we will definitely be seen through sooner or later. Moreover, our company has worked so hard to operate these marketing accounts. It will be easy for us to fall and be scolded by the netizens. Therefore, unless you have evidence, our cooperation will end here!”

Because he was on speaker, everyone in the PR department heard what he said.

For a moment, everyone present was anxious.

The supervisor was so worried that his forehead was covered with sweat.

It was only then that they finally understood the saying—It never rains, but it pours.

Not only were they refuted by Fang Qiu on Weibo, but they were also abandoned by the network marketing company. What should they do?

“Well, can you wait for a while?”

The supervisor looked pale and said, “We need some time to discuss!”

“All right,” the man answered and hung up the phone directly.

Immediately, a group of people gathered together for a meeting.

“What should we do now?”

The supervisor looked at the staff and said, “We’re now at stake. Although we’ve sent a lawyer’s letter, we didn’t expect that Fang Qiu had a backup plan. The test report in his hand now is the last straw to overwhelm our company. We must hold in there no matter what happens. We must not fall down!”

One of the staff members said, "I think we can question the authenticity of the test report in Fang Qiu's hand. First, we need to distract people, and then we should make the same test report to try our best to save the situation!"

"No way." As soon as someone suggested that, another person refuted it directly. "The test report released by Fang Qiu was made by the chemical laboratory of Capital University of Science and Technology. Once we question the authenticity of the test report, it is tantamount to questioning the professionalism of Capital University of Science and Technology. It is not good for our company to do that!"

"That's right." The supervisor immediately nodded in agreement and said, "Once we question the test report, Capital University of Science and Technology will inevitably stand out and confront us. This will undoubtedly increase the help of Fang Qiu and set up more enemies for us. This method is not feasible. Even if we want to question the authenticity of the test report, we must avoid the Capital University of Science and Technology. We can't afford to offend them!"

"We don't seem to have any option now."

"This is a dead end!"

These people were trying to work out a solution.

Ten minutes later. "To solve the crisis this time, we have to release the test report immediately to confront Fang Qiu. Moreover, we must use the test report to prove that the pesticide residues of this medicine don't exceed the standard."

After discussing for a long time, they finally found a solution.

One of them asked. "Then, how are we going to avoid the Capital University of Science and Technology?"

"Don't mention it at all." The supervisor immediately said, "Don't act like you are going to confront Fang Qiu. The most important thing is that don't question the result of the Capital University of Science and Technology. We just need to show our own test result."

Everyone nodded.

Another person asked, "But what if our report shows that the pesticide residues of our medicine really exceed the standard?"

Upon hearing that, everyone was at a loss for words.

The supervisor said, "If it is really beyond the limit, then do everything possible to let it not exceed the limit!"

"Supervisor." At this time, another man frowning stood out and asked, "What if Fang Qiu buys a pack of pills at random and goes to test it again and still finds that it exceeds the limit?"

As they heard that, the staff were also worried.

This was the key point of this crisis.

As for them, it was very difficult to defend against Fang Qiu. Maybe they could think of ways to deal with Fang Qiu's disclosure, but they couldn't stand it if Fang Qiu tested the drugs again and again.

What was more, it was an era of online development.

If Fang Qiu was provoked and decided to do a live broadcast test on Weibo directly, and the pesticide residues were beyond the standard, then their company would be completely destroyed.

One of them said, "Supervisor, I think we must first confirm whether it is this batch of drugs that exceed the limit or all of them. It should not be too big of a problem if only this batch exceeds. But if each batch is beyond the standard, then..."

"That's enough." The supervisor narrowed his eyes and said, "You guys continue to contact Fang Qiu. I'll call the chairman of the board."

After that, the supervisor immediately walked out of the office area and came to the rest area's balcony. While feeling the wind, he took out his mobile phone and made a call.

In a presidential suite in a luxury hotel. "Beep, beep, beep..."

Commander Zuo, who was sitting on the sofa and looking at related information about the health summit, suddenly heard the vibration and ringtone of his mobile phone from the tea table. He glanced at it at first, then picked up his phone.

"Hello?" With a somewhat unpleasant tone, Commander Zuo picked up the phone.

"Sir, something went wrong." The voice of the PR marketing department's supervisor was heard on the other end of the phone. "When Fang Qiu publicly accused us on the Internet that the pesticide residues of our medicine exceed the standard, we immediately responded. It only took us 20 minutes to send a lawyer's letter. But after we sent out the lawyer's letter, Fang Qiu immediately posted a test report made by the chemical laboratory of Capital University of Science and Technology. The report clearly pointed out that the pesticide residues in the drug were beyond the standard set by the country.

"In order to prevent things from getting worse, I need to get your consent. And I also need the drug production safety department to test our drugs and show us the statistics of different batches of the drugs. Otherwise, it won't be easy for us to respond."

Hearing this, Commander Zuo, who was poker-faced, frowned slightly and vaguely had a bad feeling.

He was lost in thought.

It was not until then that he felt that he had been underestimating the boy named Fang Qiu.

The most important thing was that judging from the report of the PR department, Fang Qiu seemed to have been planning for this a long time ago. Was this a coincidence, or was he deliberately targeting at their company? Or was it an act of pure revenge?"

“Okay, I see.” Thinking of this, Commander Zuo responded and hung up the phone.

After Fang Qiu publicized the test result, people on the Internet waited for a long time, but there was no response from Siqi Pharmaceutical Company.

This time, everyone felt that Siqi Pharmaceutical Company had been convicted!

Even the paid Internet trolls, who had been mobilizing the public opinion in the comment area before, had completely disappeared.

Now all the comments were supporting Fang Qiu.

Almost all the netizens who were following this matter had all flooded into the official Weibo account of the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, bombarding them with all kinds of abuse.

As everyone was busy scolding this company, Fang Qiu hadn’t finished yet.

Without receiving Siqi Pharmaceutical Company’s reply, Fang Qiu knew that they must be busy dealing with the public relations crisis.

However, Fang Qiu didn’t want to rush into anything at all.

It would be so much fun if he took his time to do it slowly.

In the dormitory, seeing that Fang Qiu took out another kind of medicine to take pictures, Zhu Benzhen immediately asked in surprise, “Bro, you have tested so many drugs. Are you going to post them all?”

Fang Qiu chuckled, “If I don’t want to post them, why should I do so many tests?”

Soon, Fang Qiu’s Weibo was updated again.

Just when everyone was excited about scolding Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, Fang Qiu's Weibo instantly caught people's attention.

Another new picture appeared in Fang Qiu's new post.

In the picture, it was a drug produced by Letian Pharmaceutical Limited Liability Company.

"The heavy metal content of this medicine has exceeded the limit! Such drugs will cause great harm to human organs. They will not only have a great impact on the nerves' development and function, reproduction, growth, renal function, cardiovascular function, and immune function but may also cause cancer!"

Seeing this new post, all the netizens were suddenly stunned.

"What the f*ck!"

"Fang Qiu is not just targeting at one company, is he?"

"Unbelievable. Letian Pharmaceutical Company is also a giant of the Western Medicine industry in Huaxia. Like Siqi Pharmaceutical Company, it is also a large listed company with a market value of hundreds of millions."

"Siqi Pharmaceutical Industry has been silent for a long time, and now he wants to take down Letian Pharmaceutical Company?"

"Fang Qiu is incredible. Ordinary people dare not provoke the two major listed companies!"

"This is a big show, and it's even more exciting. Anyway, I only support Fang Qiu!"

With the outbreak of public discussion on the Internet, the people of Letian Pharmaceutical Company who were laughing at Siqi company felt very happy because of Fang Qiu's challenge to them. Now they were all stunned when they saw Fang Qiu's new post.

Why did they suddenly become the second protagonist as they were just being the onlookers?

Obviously, all the employees of the Letian Pharmaceutical Industry didn't expect that such a thing would turn out to be their own company's crisis.

For a moment, no one knew what to do.

The leaders of the company, in the first place, quickly set up a WeChat group to gather all the employees and began to discuss.

However, after discussing for a long time, they didn't manage to come up with a good solution.

After all, Siqi Pharmaceutical Company had already done what they could do. It was completely meaningless for them to do it again according to the way Siqi Pharmaceutical Company had done because it was meant to fail.

The only way was to ask for a qualitative test to determine whether there was any problem with their medicine!

Medical Master

Chapter 559: The Third Company!

Tonight, it was meant to be a sleepless night for most people.

"The Letian Pharmaceutical Company was screwed this time!"

"What the f*ck, I still have tens of thousands of shares of Letian Pharmaceutical Company in my hands."

“Where are the people of Letian Pharmaceutical Company? Hurry up and explain the rumors.”

For a moment, all the shareholders of Letian Pharmaceutical Company were panic-stricken. Some of the people who had fallen asleep were even awakened by the phone and got into a panic.

Meanwhile, the analysts of the stock group had made their comments, suggesting that shareholders should sell their stocks of Letian Pharmaceutical Company tomorrow morning as soon as possible.

Now Letian was encountering the same situation as Siqu.

That night, numerous people couldn't fall asleep. They were anxiously waiting for the opening trade at dawn, wanting to get rid of the shares of these two big companies as soon as possible.

Of course, while some people were anxiously waiting, others were still expecting the Letian Pharmaceutical Company to clarify as soon as possible so that the matter could be suppressed as soon as possible.

However, after they waited for a long time, they didn't see any reply from the Letian Pharmaceutical Company.

Half an hour after Letian Pharmaceutical Company's problem was posted on Weibo, Fang Qiu was unable to get any reply. He didn't want to wait any longer and directly posted the photos of the test result that had been taken, as well as the national standard of the heavy metal content in medicine in his Weibo.

According to the national standard and the test result, it was true that the heavy metal content of this medicine must have exceeded the limit!

What was more, this test report was still from the chemistry laboratory of Capital University of Science and Technology.

“There is indeed evidence!”

“No wonder Letian Pharmaceutical Company didn’t give any response. They must have known that Fang Qiu has the evidence and are afraid of being slapped in the face by Fang Qiu.”

“The Letian Pharmaceutical Company is just like the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company. It is also a famous large Western Medicine manufacturer in the country. I didn’t expect that there was something wrong with their medicine either.”

One minute later, just when everyone was still thinking about how Fang Qiu challenged Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Letian Pharmaceutical Company, Fang Qiu’s Weibo was updated again without anyone noticing.

This time, it was still a photo.

It was also a kind of medicine in the photo.

On the package, it was clearly written, “Taikang Pharmaceutical Limited Liability Company!”

Fang Qiu also wrote something as he posted the photo.

“The sulfur dioxide of this drug has exceeded the standard! Sulfur dioxide is one of the main pollutants of the atmosphere. Many industrial processes will produce sulfur dioxide. The sulfur dioxide is colorless and tasteless. The sulfur dioxide of this drug has exceeded the standard, which will lead to excessive consumption of sulfur dioxide. It will be easy to cause allergy, which may lead to respiratory difficulty, diarrhea, vomiting, and other symptoms. It will also cause various degrees of damage to the brain and other tissues!”

As soon as this post was released, all the people on the Internet who paid attention to Fang Qiu’s breaking news were shocked!

At first, everyone felt that Fang Qiu was having much cry and little wool. Previously, he had claimed that there was something big to disclose. But as a result, he only revealed two drugs of two companies.

Although this made everyone have something to talk about, compared with the words “big breaking news”, this kind of breaking news obviously couldn’t satisfy everyone.

However, as the third piece of breaking news appeared, everyone was stunned at once!

“Another listed company?”

“There are three listed companies in a row.”

“Oh, my God. He confronted three listed companies. He really got something.”

“It’s indeed big news. The three companies at least account for one-third of the domestic Western Medicine industry!”

“This time, I didn’t wait in vain. He confronted three big companies with his bare hands. Fang Qiu is really awesome!”

As Fang Qiu broke the news and the whole Internet began to discuss wildly, the stock analysts who couldn’t fall asleep now started working again.

This time, they no longer dared to hesitate.

They said directly, “Tomorrow morning, all the shares of the companies which mainly sell Western Medicine and also involve in Chinese Medicine producing should be sold out!”

Meanwhile, the leaders of the Taikang Pharmaceutical Limited Liability Company were all so anxious that they started to fidget.

In a luxury hotel in the capital city, people gathered in the place where the health summit was held.

It was already the break time, but now there were a lot of people in the meeting room, including Commander Zuo, the chairman of Siqi Pharmaceutical Limited Liability Company, as well as the chairmen of Letian Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company.

The chairmen of other companies also came here one by one.

No one spoke.

“Something’s wrong!”

Suddenly, the bald fat man said angrily with a gloomy face, “There must be something wrong with this boy.”

This bald fat man’s name was Ma Guoyong, and he was the chairman of the Taikang Pharmaceutical Industry.

“This kid, how did he get so much evidence?”

A young man in his thirties also looked grim.

He was Liu Tianle, the chairman of the Letian Pharmaceutical Company.

“Hmm...” Commander Zuo stroke his grey hair, closed his mouth, and let out a long breath. Then he thought of something and glanced at the chairmen who came to the meeting room. He said, “This is a plot, this is revenge!”

Upon hearing that, everyone in the meeting room was stunned!

Revenge?

Fang Qiu’s revenge?

Could it be that Fang Qiu had already known that the overwhelming rumors were spread by them?

If he didn't know, how was it possible for Fang Qiu to reveal the problems of these drugs one by one?

That was right.

Commander Zuo was right. Fang Qiu was taking revenge!

For a moment, everyone was certain.

Although they couldn't believe it, they couldn't think of any reason why Fang Qiu was so reckless and crazy that he tried to expose all of them.

Especially the chairmen of the three major companies, whose drugs had been exposed at the moment, found it hard to accept this fact from the bottom of their hearts though they all looked grim.

They would never have thought that a college student would dare to compete with the listed companies which were the giants in this industry!

It was because of this idea that they had, they had always looked down upon Fang Qiu, thinking that Fang Qiu was like an ant and that they could pinch him as much as they wanted.

But now, this ant really broke out the power that was completely beyond their imagination. He really fought against them!

The three of them all looked sullen and were lost in thought.

The other chairmen of several companies also became nervous at this moment.

Even Siqi, Letian, and Taikang had been exposed by Fang Qiu. Would Fang Qiu continue to reveal their companies?

For a moment, these chairmen called one after another to contact their production staff to do some research. They would also need to carry out a quality test for their own medicine to see what was going on.

In the eyes of these large companies, it was fine if there was something that remained in Chinese Medicine because it couldn't kill a person. Even if a person was dead, it could only be caused by taking it for a long period of time. Besides, it was very difficult to find out the truth under normal circumstances. Therefore, they didn't care much that the residues of their drugs had exceeded the standard.

But now, these problems had been exposed. That was not a trivial matter anymore, but a real big problem!

At night, it was 10:40 p.m.

At the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, it was time to turn off the lights in the dormitory. Many people should be asleep now, but no one slept tonight.

Almost all the students in the school were completely shocked by Fang Qiu's revelation.

Not to mention these students, even the teachers of the university and Vice President Chen Yinsheng were shocked by Fang Qiu's revelation this time.

Even though all the lights had been turned off in the dormitory building, the students were still paying attention to Fang Qiu's Weibo, using their phones and computers to keep refreshing.

Also, in the Central Television building in the capital, Li Huawen, who should have gone home earlier, still stayed in the office. He knew that he couldn't fall asleep even though he went back, because Fang Qiu's revelation this time was too astonishing.

Because it was he who had helped Fang Qiu to contact people of the Capital University of Science and Technology, and he also accompanied Fang Qiu to do the tests, he clearly knew that the three companies were not the only ones whose drugs had been tested by Fang Qiu.

Apart from these three companies, there were also quite a few.

“Is this kid going to reveal all the test results of those companies?”

As Li Huawen was shocked, he also frowned and tried hard to figure out why Fang Qiu did this.

As a man in the entertainment circle, he was a big shot working as a director.

Director Li Huawen knew how things worked in the circle, so when he saw Fang Qiu’s unusual performance, he immediately connected the revelation with Fang Qiu’s rumors that had appeared suddenly on the Internet earlier.

After pondering for a while, he immediately figured it out.

“No wonder this kid was in the mood to buy drugs for tests. It looks like the big companies that control Western Medicine are very likely to be the masterminds behind Fang Qiu’s rumors. Otherwise, with Fang Qiu’s way of doing things, he wouldn’t be so crazy before he was provoked. At most, he would just give a reminder to a few big companies.”

Although Li Huawen associated it with the development of the whole matter, he still couldn’t believe that Fang Qiu was so resolute this time, leaving no room for discussion.

“Awesome!” Seeing Fang Qiu making such a big scene on Weibo, He Gaoming couldn’t help getting excited. After all, it was he who had helped Fang Qiu find out the information of these companies, so he naturally thought that he had something to do with this matter.

The most important thing was that Fang Qiu was fighting against all of them alone, and these were all large companies, which was incredible.

It was not just these acquaintances.

In the Chinese Medicine industry, all those who knew or didn't know Fang Qiu were paying attention to this matter.

After all, as for the Chinese Medicine industry, it could be seen as a wave, which would engulf the whole Chinese Medicine industry!

The employees of various medicine production companies in the country all received calls for working overtime that very night.

In a short period of time, the city buildings, which had been darkened with the dim light of the night, were lit up floor by floor.

The leaders of these companies were very flustered. They were busy performing qualitative tests on their drugs and also waiting to see if Fang Qiu would continue to expose more companies and whether they would be one of them.

As expected, it was 10:50 p.m.

Ten minutes after the lights of the dormitory buildings were turned off, Fang Qiu revealed the news again!

The photo was taken before the lights went out.

This time, it was still a large Western Medicine company. Like the previous three companies, this company was also listed and a giant in the pharmaceutical industry!

In Dormitory 501, deeply attracted by Fang Qiu's revelation, Zhu Benzhen, Zhou Xiaotian, and Sun Hao, who even climbed to Fang Qiu's bed and sat around him, watched Fang Qiu reveal the fourth one. They couldn't help but give a thumbs-up to Fang Qiu at the same time and said in unison, "You're so awesome!"

Chapter 560: Expose Six Companies in a Row!

Faced with the compliment from his three roommates, Fang Qiu shook his head and smiled.

On the Internet, the netizens' discussions became more and more intense.

"Looks like I won't be able to sleep tonight."

"Fang Qiu is really so good at this. He is exactly the quality inspector in Chinese Medicine!"

"Let's remember this historic night. Fang Qiu, the first quality inspector in the Huaxia medicine circle, is appointed tonight!"

"Why is there no response from these companies? Except Siqi Pharmaceutical Company giving response at the beginning, other companies haven't made any move at all."

"Isn't it clear? Fang Qiu's revelation is all true. The other companies have no way to deal with it now."

"Ha-ha, these unconscionable pharmaceutical companies should know the cost. If they dare to harm people, they must be willing to bear the consequences. Anyway, from now on, I will never buy the drugs of these pharmaceutical companies!"

"I'm going to tell my relatives and friends about the news so that they won't buy medicine produced by these companies in the future!"

With the development of public opinion, the companies that were exposed by Fang Qiu were quickly boycotted by all the people on the Internet!

All the leaders or presidents of those major Western Medicine companies, who were attending the health summit, gathered together in the reception hall of a luxury hotel.

After tomorrow's meeting, these people could go back to their own companies.

But now, it was obvious that they couldn't wait any longer.

In the reception hall, the atmosphere was very solemn.

Everyone frowned. The company's presidents who were confronted by Fang Qiu were racking their brains, wondering what to do. While those companies' presidents who had not been confronted were all flustered and worried, for fear that Fang Qiu would expose their companies.

If that happened, they would be in big trouble!

At this moment, all the people present were thinking about something.

"It seems that we've provoked a powerful guy this time!"

From the time they decided to slander Fang Qiu, they had never taken Fang Qiu seriously.

It was their conceit that led to this situation.

The most important thing was that they had messed with the wrong person.

An ordinary college student would be speechless when he came across all the libel on the Internet. He would be anxious to explain and was helpless and desperate. He would not have a clue what to do at all.

But Fang Qiu was different.

In addition to his status as an ordinary college student, he also had an even more important identity, which was the martial arts guru in the martial arts circle!

In Wulin, Fang Qiu was the person on the top.

He was the man almost everyone in the martial arts world looked up to.

A guru naturally had the pride of being a guru!

Fang Qiu's pride had already been integrated into his flesh and blood, so even if he faced these large listed companies as an ordinary college student, he was not afraid at all.

One of them said, "The revelation won't matter so much, at most he can just make a stir in the next few days. The most important thing is that tomorrow's stock price will definitely fall after what happened today!"

As soon as he said that, the leaders of the major companies present suddenly had a headache.

The stock price was a symbol of the company's value. If the stock price fell, it would not only affect the company's value but also greatly reduce the operation and transfer funds of the company.

The social status of these leaders who were sitting here would also be affected, which was what they were really worried about.

In the reception hall, Commander Zuo glanced at Liu Tianle of Letian Pharmaceutical Company and Ma Guoyong of Taikang Pharmaceutical Company. Then he turned to look at the chairman of the fourth company, whose medicine had just been exposed by Fang Qiu, and then looked at the fifth one.

Commander Zuo said, "It seems that it's not your turn yet."

Upon hearing that, the president of the fifth company suddenly changed his expression and said in a dignified tone while frowning helplessly, "He just came to us."

Meanwhile, Fang Qiu's Weibo was indeed updated.

This time, it was the fifth large listed company.

In the reception room, the atmosphere was even tenser. Everyone looked at the president of the sixth company.

However, the president didn't even have the courage to look at others. He was raising his eyebrows and secretly praying that Fang Qiu wouldn't come to him.

But half an hour later, Fang Qiu issued two posts in a row.

The first post was about the test result of the fifth company's drugs.

Surprisingly, the second post was about another medicine's problem.

And as expected, this medicine was produced by the sixth large listed company.

Fang Qiu exposed six companies in a row!

This kind of terrifying revelation had never appeared before. Even on the World Consumer Rights Day, people didn't see so many large listed enterprises be exposed at one time.

But Fang Qiu just did it anyway. Moreover, he even made those large listed enterprises unable to refute.

With Fang Qiu's revelation, not only were the people of the six companies worried, but all the people in the stock groups also went crazy in the country.

"What the f*ck! Fortunately, I didn't buy the shares of these companies."

“I’m so lucky. I was going to collect some money to invest in Siqi before, but before the money came out, such a big thing happened. It really saves me from a disaster.”

“Who told me that the pharmaceutical company’s shares are the most stable and easiest to make money? I’m about to lose all my money!”

“I’m done! It’s my hard-earned money in the past decades!”

“Sell it, everybody, sell it immediately. Sell as much as you can as soon as the opening trade begins. Don’t have the mentality of being lucky. If you sell it now, you can still get some of your money back. If you don’t do it fast, you will lose everything!”

Shareholders were talking crazily in the Wechat groups. Some felt lucky, the others were complaining. Still, others even said that they were going to attempt suicide cause they would lose all their money. Everyone tried to persuade them.

At this time, the stock analysts in the groups also came out.

“This accident has come too suddenly. For the next period of time, this fluctuation of stock will continue. So I’m warning you, don’t touch your stocks now. Whoever touches it will lose everything.”

Upon hearing that, the discussion among the crowd grew even more heated.

“There’s no fluctuation here. It’s simply an earthquake!”

“Fang Qiu is too awesome. After what he has done, the share price of the six companies will disastrously decline.”

“Just listen to the analysts. In this period, don’t touch your stocks again.”

On the Internet, countless people were discussing fiercely.

After Fang Qiu confronted three of the companies, everyone felt that it was worth the wait. This was indeed breaking news.

When Fang Qiu exposed the fourth and fifth listed companies, all the netizens were shocked and marveled at Fang Qiu's action.

Seeing Fang Qiu reveal that there was a problem with the medicine of the sixth listed company, netizens almost knelt down.

Fang Qiu revealed six listed companies in a row.

The strength of these six large enterprises were all at the top of the country. And these enterprises paid the country taxes every year, which was a huge sum of money.

Only Fang Qiu dared to confront them so openly.

Even some people of government departments would only give warnings first when they found the problems of the drugs of the six companies. If the warning didn't work, they would crack down one or two of these companies as a warning to others.

In this way, the impact on society was the least.

Therefore, it was impossible for the six enterprises to be exposed at the same time.

But now, Fang Qiu really did it.

He was incredibly brave and bold.

If he wasn't careful, he might be avenged. To put it bluntly, he didn't even know how he would die at the end of the day.

After all, Fang Qiu was just a freshman. But the market value of these six companies was worth tens of billions. With Fang Qiu's revelation, the market value of these companies would lose at least several billion.

Once the six companies were enraged, Fang Qiu's life would be put at risk. People now lived in the age while money was everything, so there would be lots of people willing to do anything for money.

For a moment, many netizens began to worry about Fang Qiu.

Meanwhile, everyone was also waiting to see if Fang Qiu would continue to expose.

However, after waiting for more than ten minutes, Fang Qiu didn't update his Weibo anymore.

It seemed that he wouldn't post anything else tonight.

However, it did make sense.

There had been so much breaking news this night. If he kept doing this, maybe someone would come to his door before he finished telling the breaking news.

Many netizens also exclaimed below Fang Qiu's Weibo.

"It's true. This is the first time that I've seen Fang Qiu being so active on Weibo since I followed him."

"Ha-ha, it's normal that Mr. Fang Qiu hasn't updated his Weibo for a few months."

"I used to read his posts one by one. Tonight, I have read enough at one time. He not only issued so many posts but also revealed such big news. It's really exciting!"

“Look carefully, everyone. Master Fang Qiu has joined Weibo for such a long time. There are only a few posts on his Weibo. If we exclude all the posts this evening, you will know how difficult it is to wait for Fang Qiu to post something.”

“Even so, I still like Fang Qiu and support him!”

“I support Master Fang Qiu!”

“Good job, Master! You can do it!”

“Fang Qiu, we’ve always got your back!”

“Does Fang Qiu even need us? He’s his own back-up. Can’t you see that? No one can get away with it if they dare to mess with Fang Qiu.”

“That’s right. But it seems that none of the six companies have ever messed with Fang Qiu!”

“How do you know that they have never offended Fang Qiu? Master Fang Qiu is not the kind of person who likes causing trouble.”

“I hope it can be dawn right now. I want to take a good look at these big companies and see what they look like tomorrow.”

“Of course these companies are going to suffer tomorrow!”

The chairmen of the six listed companies led by Commander Zuo had also been following Fang Qiu’s Weibo.

However, after waiting for an hour, Fang Qiu didn’t post anything.

Commander Zuo said, “It seems that this kid doesn’t have anything to expose now.”

Hearing this, all the presidents of the other companies, except for the six companies, breathed a long sigh of relief. Fortunately, he stopped. If things kept going on like this, they were definitely going to suffer.

However, after Fang Qiu's actions, the presidents of these big companies also made a decision that they must start to supervise the quality of medicine and make preparations in advance tomorrow. Otherwise, they would get into trouble next time.

"Just the six of us?" Chairman of Taikang Pharmaceutical Company, Ma Guoyong, gritted his teeth and narrowed his eyes. His face darkened.
