Chapter 601: We Must Find Wulin!

Fang Qiu frowned and asked, "Organization? What organization?"

"Ha-ha..." Liang Sheng raised his head and laughed. His mouth was filled with blood, which gave him a crazed look.

Fang Qiu's eyes narrowed.

Stretching out his right hand, Fang Qiu grabbed Liang Sheng by the neck and said in a cold voice, "If you don't want to die, tell me right now!"

Liang Sheng was stunned for a moment, then suddenly smiled and said, "Die? It's good to die. I'll no longer feel any pain. I can wake up from my dream."

As he spoke, "Bang!"

Suddenly, there was an explosion.

Liang Sheng's heart suddenly exploded as if he had been hit by a bullet. A finger-sized hole appeared on his chest and blood instantly spurted out.

At the same time, the smile on Liang Sheng's face froze. The light in his eyes dimmed. His whole body went limp. He collapsed to the ground, losing his vitality.

Fang Qiu released his hand and was speechless as he looked at the corpse.

Liang Sheng was a rare eighth-class expert with two opened meridians in Wulin. How could he use such an evil method to enhance his strength in an instant?

Why did he choose to commit suicide when he had a chance to live?

What did he mean by his last words?

“It’s good to die?”

Fang Qiu had been planning to kill this wicked man all the time. However, before he could do it, the man killed himself, leaving some incomprehensible information before he died.

The organization could control an eighth-class Martial Superior with two opened meridians. What kind of organization was that?

Were all the people in this organization as addicted to killing as Liang Sheng?

Were all the people in this organization so evil?

Why did Liang Sheng say that this organization would convert people?

Would the converted people kill the others?

The more Fang Qiu thought about it, the more frightened he became.

He had a vague feeling that the organization Liang Sheng mentioned was an extremely evil one.

If there was really such an organization, what would the world turn into?

“It seems that I should pay more attention to it in the future.”

Fang Qiu took a deep breath.

Then, he began to examine Liang Sheng's body.

After a careful examination, Fang Qiu found that Liang Sheng did not bring anything with him. The wound in his hand was still there. Judging from the curve of his palm bones, Fang Qiu reckoned that the blood bead might have been in his palm for many years. But he did not know what the blood bead was for now.

In addition, Fang Qiu found that not only were his meridians broken, but all the veins in Liang Sheng's body had been cut. Liang Sheng seemed to have severed them himself and committed suicide in this way.

"Alas." Fang Qiu let out a sigh and stood up.

He waved his right hand.

The yellow sand on the ground immediately swallowed up Liang Sheng's body.

Nothing could be seen.

At least, Liang Sheng and the giant scorpion were dead. In future, there would be no more deaths in this large area, which was good news for Fang Qiu.

He turned around and went back.

After flying for a while, Fang Qiu came across the group of people obsessed with super-natural powers, again. At this moment, three of their cars had stalled under a high sand dune. The tires of all three cars were buried in quicksand. Although the flowing speed of the quicksand was slow, the cars would completely be buried by the yellow sand if they did not do anything about it.

“It’s over. The boards in my car have all sunk in the sand. If the wheels can’t be supported by the boards, the car can’t get out at all!”

The driver of the first car looked at his off-road vehicle in a panic-stricken manner.

The co-driver said, “Why don’t we push it again?”

...

The driver of the first car shook his head immediately and said, “No way! Just now, we almost fell into it when we tried pushing the car. This dune is like a swamp. Pushing the car will only make us fall more rapidly into it. Not only will the car be gone, but all of us will be gone too.”

Everyone present could not help but laugh wryly.

This was what this dune was like.

Therefore, they could only stand outside the sunken area and watch the car sinking, bit by bit.

Earlier, one of them got in the car to try and start the car by using wooden boards to support the wheels so that they could get the car out. However, as soon as he got in, the car dropped even more rapidly into the sand.

They were afraid that the car would sink and bring them along with it, so they could only come out quickly and jump into the safety area.

“It’s over. The car has sunk. How can we go back?”

“We’re still dozens of kilometers away from the highway. Without the GPS in the car and the phone’s signal, we can’t even find the direction. I’m afraid we’ll die of thirst before we can get out of the desert.”

“Whose mobile phone has a signal now? Make a call quickly.”

“Yes, hurry up and take a look. If there’s a signal, send our location to your friend on WeChat right away!”

Everyone panicked.

However, no matter how hard they tried, the phones still had no signal. They could not even make an emergency call, let alone there being no signal.

A deep sense of despair overwhelmed each of them.

At this very moment, “Swoosh!”

The sound of a gust of wind was heard, but no one felt the wind.

The driver of the first car immediately looked up.

On the top of the sand dune in front of him, a figure suddenly appeared. Behind this figure was the blazing sun. With the sunlight as the backdrop, this figure looked quite dignified.

“Is it the master?”

Under the scorching sun, the driver squinted and looked at the man on the sand dune. He was suddenly stunned and then immediately his sadness turned into joy. He exclaimed, “It’s the master! The master is here!”

The others turned their heads to look when they heard what he said.

As soon as they saw Fang Qiu, they immediately exclaimed.

At this moment, Fang Qiu had taken in their situation at a glance.

“Smack!” He stamped his foot.

The ground immediately shook and the yellow sand that was continuously sinking, suddenly bubbled up like boiling water.

Under these circumstances, the three cars, which had been half-buried, were ejected from the dune at an extremely fast speed.

In the end, when all the three cars were out of the pit, the quicksand in the sunken area stopped sinking. The whole area became flat.

“Wow!”

“Oh my god, it’s a miracle!”

“I’m too shocked to say anything.”

Everyone exclaimed.

“Thank you, thank you, master.”

“Thank you, master.”

“The King of Sand, you’re my idol.”

“You are the king of the desert. You are Gaara!”

After the extreme shock, everyone started thanking Fang Qiu.

However, Fang Qiu turned around directly and left quickly.

“He’s so powerful.”

“That’s right.”

“Does Wulin really exist?”

“If it’s true, I must try to study it. I must learn more about Wulin.”

“What kind of ability is that? It’s so powerful. He can move mountains and fill seas with one move. It’s invincible!”

“Yes, I remember that the sunken area was formed because there was an underground river in the desert. If you want to turn it into a normal area that allows people to walk on it, you can either block the entrance of the underground river or fill the river. The master was able to change the sunken area, which means that he can move mountains and fill up the seas?”

“When I go back today, I must look for Wulin.”

“The martial arts world of Huaxia is real. I’m so excited.”

“It turns out that the supernatural power is Huaxia martial arts.”

“We’ve finally found it. It’s a gate that leads to supernatural energy!”

Exclamations of envy and jealousy were heard from the crowd.

As they spoke, this group of people seemed unable to wait to go back and study Wulin. They got in the cars and drove away quickly.

In the distance, Fang Qiu stood behind a sand dune.

He secretly observed the cars and found that the group of people were getting closer and closer to the high road. After making sure there was no danger around and on the road, he quietly left.

He returned the same way he came.

In the blink of an eye, Fang Qiu flew all the way. There was no one around. He flew directly past the first space where the haloxylon ammondendron was and went to the second site where the haloxylon ammondendron was.

This place was obviously much smaller than the first space with haloxylon ammondendron.

There were very few haloxylon ammondendron around. The distance between each tree was also quite wide.

It looked much more desolate than the first space.

“How can Earth Treasures grow in such a place?”

Fang Qiu was confused.

The purpose of his return to this place was to find out why there were Fairy Desert Cistanche in this area.

Standing at the cultivation area of the Fairy Desert Cistanche, Fang Qiu looked around.

After looking around, he immediately found a particularly strange problem.

Because of the parasitic relationship, Desert Cistanche could be found almost anywhere in the desert where there were haloxylon ammondendrons. Although they were relatively rare, in general, the proportion of Desert Cistanche and haloxylon ammondendron trees was still one to one.

But right now, there were at least a dozen of haloxylon ammondendron trees in this forest.

But when he looked around, he found that these trees were not parasitized by Desert Cistanche.

Except for the Fairy Desert Cistanche, there were no ordinary Desert Cistanche around!

"It's strange." A thought came to Fang Qiu's mind, so he immediately flew up.

After soaring to a height of five to six meters, he looked into the distance for a long time.

It was not only in the area in front of him, but within a kilometer around him, there were no ordinary Desert Cistanche. Even if there were several haloxylon ammondendron trees in other places, there were no parasitic Desert Cistanches at all!

However, there were Desert Cistanches under the haloxylon ammondendron trees a kilometer away. There were Desert Cistanches everywhere, regardless of whether it was in large numbers or in several trees!

"That's weird."

"Why is that?"

Fang Qiu was even more confused.

If the Desert Cistanche could not grow in this area, then why would there be a Fairy Desert Cistanche here?

“Is it because of the Fairy Desert Cistanche that the Desert Cistanche can’t grow within one kilometer?”

Since Fang Qiu really could not figure it out, he could only attribute this questionable point to the Fairy Desert Cistanche. Just like the king of the forest had his own territory, the king of Desert Cistanche should also have its own territory.

Of course, Fang Qiu did not know if this explanation was right or not.

He continued searching.

“How is it that Heaven and Earth Treasures can be grown?”

Before this, Fang Qiu had never thought about this question. He always thought that Heaven and Earth Treasures were a gift given by heaven and earth and there were no rules to follow.

But in order to make the perfect medicine he wanted, he had to think about this problem carefully.

He was searching while he was thinking.

Eventually, he searched the entire area, but still could not find anything.

Medical Master

Chapter 602: The Earth Treasure’s Cause!

“Could it be that it’s underground?” Fang Qiu was suspicious. He immediately mobilized his internal Qi and began to dig down. He wanted to see if the problem occurred underground.

After digging for a long time, he found nothing.

Still, he could not find any information.

“What’s the reason?”

Fang Qiu muttered to himself, “It doesn’t exist under the ground, or in the sky, or within one kilometer around it. Could it be... farther away?”

He immediately flew up to a height of ten meters.

“Divine Consciousness!”

His Divine Consciousness, which was a combination of mental power and internal Qi, immediately spread out, covered the area within 20 kilometers instantly and then he began to search carefully.

But he still did not find anything unusual!

“Could it be that it was truly bestowed by heaven and earth? Does it grow at will?” Fang Qiu smiled wryly.

After a long time, Fang Qiu had searched both the sky and the earth and even every inch of the sandy ground within 20 kilometers, but there was still nothing, which made him very distressed.

Helplessly, Fang Qiu could only sit down at the place where the Fairy Desert Cistanche grew and then looked around. After making sure that there was nothing unusual, he simply sat cross-legged. While he was quietly recovering, he tried to calm down and think about it carefully.

Fang Qiu closed his eyes and just sat there the whole time and soon lapsed into silence.

In Korla, “Rumble, rumble...”

The three off-road vehicles stopped in front of a hotel.

Everyone got out of the cars and returned to their hotel rooms.

It was not until they returned to their rooms that they came to their senses.

Then everyone took out their mobile phones immediately. Without even taking time to connect to the Wi-Fi, they directly used data to log into WeChat and began to talk about what happened to them today in the WeChat group.

“The king of sand?”

“Gaara?”

“You’ve watched too much Naruto, haven’t you? Is there a Shuukaku in the desert?”

“Ha-ha.”

“It’s true. The master said he was a martial arts practitioner.”

“I can prove it. I also saw it at the scene. Not only did I see the master who could drive the sand, but we encountered a sandstorm too. I also saw the legendary giant scorpion in the sandstorm and someone fighting with the giant scorpion!”

“That’s right. The master is really powerful.”

At first, only two or three groups of people in the cars sent the information in the WeChat groups.

As expected, everyone thought that they were joking, so they replied in a playful manner. But when they saw their steadfast determination, everyone in the group began to ridicule them.

“This nonsense is pretty real, isn’t it?”

“How is this possible? How can there be such a powerful person? Not only can he fly, but he can also control the sand. Is he invincible?”

“That’s right. He can even use the sand to resist the sandstorm. The sand in the sandstorm was flying all over the sky. How can you stop the sandstorm?”

The other people in the cars also confirmed what they said.

“We have a total of nine people in our team, three off-road vehicles and three people in each car. We just came out of the desert. It’s true.”

“If you don’t believe me, you can come to me directly.”

“I swear that all these stories are true. If it weren’t for that expert today, we would not have been able to come back.”

“Half an hour ago, our car fell into the sunken area and we could not drive it out at all. The car kept sinking and all the wooden boards used to support the tires were stuck inside. We could not move the car. Finally, it was this expert who came to rescue us. He just stamped his feet and all three cars came out of the sunken area. The area even became flat!”

“I can prove it too!”

Everyone still did not believe what they just heard.

“Damn, when did you guys learn to make up such a story together?”

“We all believe that there is a supernatural power, but it’s impossible for this supernatural power to be so powerful!”

“You guys almost turned him into a god. How is that possible?”

“Yes. If there is really such a powerful person, then our country will be invincible. How dare the people of foreign countries still provoke us?”

For a moment, all kinds of rebuttals and doubts were heard.

No one believed them anyway.

At this very moment, the driver of the first car spoke up.

“It’s true. The master controlled the sand to protect us. After resisting the sandstorm, he left us with two words. I took photos at that time.”

The driver immediately sent the photos he had taken at that time.

Everyone took a look and found that there were indeed two very huge words in the photo—Wulin!

“You can see it yourselves. It’s impossible for us to write such big words. If we had written such words, how could we not have left footprints? Besides, it’s really windy in the desert. It would have been impossible for us to write these words even if we wanted to. It would be blown away by the wind if we just wrote one stroke. How could it be written like this?”

“Yes, I was really stunned at that time. I forgot to record that big battle. Otherwise, it would definitely shock the whole country!”

Everyone who had experienced it confirmed that it was true.

Seeing the pictures and hearing this group of people talking one after another, the people in the WeChat group gradually began to believe it.

“Is there really a martial arts world?”

“The martial arts world must have existed for a long time. If it did not exist, the word would not have appeared. But I think it’s still a bit unrealistic if we connect Wulin with supernatural energy.”

“All the martial arts in Huaxia start from myths. Maybe it’s possible to cultivate supernatural powers through the use of martial arts.”

For a moment, everyone began to have a heated discussion.

“How powerful is this master you are talking about? Does he really have supernatural energy?”

“How powerful? He’s comparable with an immortal!”

“I saw that he could fly and move the mountains and fill up the seas. He’s really something.”

In the heated discussion, the group of people who had personally experienced it became even more excited. The people in the WeChat group became more and more convinced about what they said.

In the desert, Fang Qiu did not know how long he had closed his eyes.

He suddenly had a strange feeling.

Because he did not consume too much energy in the previous battle, he did not take the initiative to cultivate with his power. Instead, he simply and naturally nourished his body and let it absorb the Heaven and Earth energy to recover.

In this case, as time went by, Fang Qiu actually felt that his recovery speed was a little faster than usual.

Although it was a slight change, Fang Qiu did not ignore it.

He opened his eyes.

He stood up, moved his body, immediately flew 100 meters away and then continued to sit cross-legged.

Ten minutes later, the feeling reappeared.

He shifted his body again, continuing to sit 500 meters away from where the Fairy Desert Cistanche was growing. He still had the same feeling.

Then he moved a kilometer away.

He still felt the same thing.

The feeling disappeared when he moved 1,500 meters away.

Fang Qiu returned to a distance of 1,300 meters again, but the feeling did not appear.

He continued going back, now about 1100 meters away, but he still could not feel it.

It appeared again when he was 1,000 meters away!

“Eh?” Fang Qiu was quite amazed by the discovery.

Why did it turn out this way?

Fang Qiu knew that the recovery of the body depended on the speed of his absorption of the Heaven and Earth energy. At the same time, it depended on the strength of the surrounding Heaven and Earth energy.

He would naturally absorb them a bit faster if there was a place with a large amount of energy. If he was in a place with lesser energy, he would absorb them at a slower rate.

With the cultivating place of the Fairy Desert Cistanche as the center, the Heaven and Earth energy within a kilometer was much stronger than that in other places. Otherwise, Fang Qiu would not have that kind of feeling.

With this in mind, Fang Qiu immediately began to examine the Heaven and Earth energy around him.

Because he was standing at the edge, there were indeed different discoveries after he checked it out carefully.

With the detection of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu found that there was clearly a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth gathering in the area within a kilometer ahead of him, but it was very sparse when he walked out of this area.

“Is it because of the gathering of the Qi of Heaven and Earth here that there is an Earth Treasure?”

Fang Qiu found a whole new direction.

“If that’s the case, is it possible that if the Qi of Heaven and Earth gathers more, it would be easier to grow Heaven Treasure?”

“Is it really that simple?”

“If that’s not the case, what’s the reason?”

Fang Qiu muttered to himself.

He suddenly thought of a possibility when he was sitting cross-legged to recover his energy.

Terrain!

“Does it really have something to do with the terrain?”

Fang Qiu muttered and immediately jumped into the air to have a look.

This time, he directly flew to a height of 15 meters and looked down.

However, he still could not see it clearly.

“Just now, I used my Divine Consciousness to observe the gathering of the Qi of Heaven and Earth. Will I be able to see anything else with the Divine Consciousness now?”

Fang Qiu thought that Divine Consciousness was an invisible wave, similar to the way the ultrasound of bats worked. Since he had Divine Consciousness, could he spread it out and touch the terrain of this area like a hand?

In this way, the image of this terrain might directly appear in his mind, just like... the sublimated version of Absolute Touch!

Divine Consciousness would represent the feeling of his hand.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu decided to give it a try.

He found that it really worked.

Along with the fluctuation of his Divine Consciousness, the surrounding terrain became three-dimensional images appearing in his mind.

Under these circumstances, Fang Qiu quickly memorized the undulating state of the sand dunes within 20 kilometers.

For fear that the surrounding area of 20 kilometers was not enough, Fang Qiu ran another 20 kilometers away and continued to observe. Finally, he memorized all the terrain conditions within 40 kilometers, including the height of the dunes and what the dunes looked like there.

When Fang Qiu turned back, he was confused again.

“The sand dunes in the desert will flow. If it is caused by the terrain, the land will definitely change!”

When Fang Qiu thought of this, he immediately started the experiment.

Without hesitation, he first changed the shape of the dunes within a radius of 10 kilometers.

Then, he returned to the place where the Fairy Desert Cistanche grew and rested with his legs crossed to recover. He discovered that the recovery speed was still a bit faster than when he was a kilometer away.

“Eh?” Fang Qiu was confused again.

“How come the terrain of the sand dune has completely changed, but the result is still the same?”

Confused, Fang Qiu hurried to continue to explore the surrounding landforms.

After the inspection, he was immediately shocked!

Medical Master

Chapter 603: Earth Treasures Can Be Mass-produced?

After careful detection, Fang Qiu was shocked to find that although he had changed the landform of the sand dune, the overall structure of the desert was still the same as before.

It was just that the location of all the sand dunes had changed. If you looked at it from a different angle, the landform of the sand dunes that had been changed was still completely consistent with the previous landforms.

This feeling was like a pure Rubik's cube.

No matter how Fang Qiu twisted it, the entire land still remained the same shape and color. There was no difference at all.

"How could this be?" Fang Qiu became even more confused.

He had indeed changed the landform, but why were there still no changes?

While Fang Qiu was in doubt, he tried again.

This time, he wanted to observe carefully what exactly was going on with this desert.

"Swoosh!" With the help of his internal Qi, Fang Qiu immediately rose to a height of ten meters.

Then he looked around and finally fixed his eyes on a rather large sand dune not far away.

"Swoosh!" He waved his right hand.

A strong flow of internal Qi burst forth. Under Fang Qiu's control, the internal Qi rushed over and flattened the sand dune in an instant.

After removing the sand dune, Fang Qiu immediately closed his eyes, mobilized his Divine Consciousness and started exploring.

With the exploration of his Divine Consciousness, Fang Qiu surprisingly found that after he had flattened the first sand dune, there was a sudden gust of wind in the desert. The yellow sand constantly moved everywhere. Some of the sand dunes had disappeared while some of the flat places were inexplicably covered with other sand dunes.

This scene stunned Fang Qiu.

He had only moved one dune. Why did the other dunes move on their own?

He felt very confused.

Fang Qiu immediately returned to the place where the Fairy Desert Cistanche grew. He sat down cross-legged on the ground, closed his eyes and began to examine it carefully.

After a while, "It's still the same!"

Fang Qiu found that after the change in the sand dune this time, the recovery speed in this area was still a little faster.

He opened his eyes and continued to mobilize his Divine Consciousness to explore.

With his Divine Consciousness covering a radius of 20 kilometers, Fang Qiu explored every inch of the sandy land and found that this land was still the same as it was at the beginning. Not only the landform but also the number of sand dunes was exactly the same. Only their positions had changed.

In other words, no matter how Fang Qiu destroyed and changed the terrain in this area, the terrain here would recover automatically!

“What the hell is going on?”

Fang Qiu was shocked, but at the same time, he was even more baffled.

He had to figure it out!

With a thought in mind, Fang Qiu immediately flew out, rushed to a distance of ten kilometers away, took out the Fairy Desert Cistanche from his backpack, planted it on the sandy ground and exposed a small sprout of a haloxylon ammondendron.

Then, he channeled a layer of energy to block the Fairy Desert Cistanche completely, then he returned to the place where he had just been and compared the terrain of the area again.

Three days later, “Ha-ha...”

A burst of wild laughter suddenly came from a place where the haloxylon ammondendron forest was not too dense.

At the same time, a figure broke through the soil from the yellow sand like a rocket and soared into the sky.

The man was Fang Qiu!

At this moment, Fang Qiu was laughing as he looked at the sky.

It took him three days to finally discover the secret of this desert.

“I see!” Looking at the sand under his feet, Fang Qiu’s eyes lit up.

The restoration of terrain in this land was caused by the gathering of a large amount of the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

It should be said that it was an accidental factor that made the terrain turn into this, which caused the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth to converge from all directions, like a magnifier focusing light.

Under the forceful flow of such a large amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth, it was fortunate that the Desert Cistanche growing here was able to turn into Fairy Desert Cistanche. Then, as the lead, the Fairy Desert Cistanche continued to attract the convergence of the Qi of Heaven and Earth which always provided energy for the terrain of this area. Therefore, no matter how the wind blew, the terrain of this area would not change. It was only the locations of the dunes that would be different.

After the Fairy Desert Cistanche was picked by Fang Qiu, the gathering of the Qi of Heaven and Earth continued. Although this terrain could still absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth, the gathering of the Qi of Heaven and Earth would gradually slow down without the attraction of the Fairy Desert Cistanche.

To put it simply, if this sandy land was a water tank filled with water which could be compared to the Qi of Heaven and Earth, then the Fairy Desert Cistanche would be the arm that stirred the tank to create a vortex. Now that the Fairy Desert Cistanche was gone, the arm that was stirring the vortex suddenly stopped as well. Because of the slowing down motion, the vortex continued to rotate until it stopped slowly.

This inertia led to the continuous flow of the Qi of Heaven and Earth. In the case of sufficient energy supply, the terrain would naturally not be changed.

It was not until the Qi of Heaven and Earth weakened to the point that it could not continue to maintain the terrain of the sandy land that the landform would finally stop restoring itself.

Fang Qiu spent a total of three days.

The terrain of the desert finally came to a complete stop when it was constantly changing before.

The gathering of the Qi of Heaven and Earth had also disappeared.

“This is simply a perpetual motion machine created by nature!”

After discovering this secret, Fang Qiu was extremely excited.

“Now the terrain is completely disrupted. Even if the Fairy Desert Cistanche is replanted, the terrain may not change. But as long as the terrain is restored to the previous state, it should be able to restore the uniqueness of this area.”

Thinking of this and filled with curiosity, Fang Qiu began to try it out.

Instead of destroying the terrain, he restored the terrain of this area to its original appearance according to his memory. Then, he sat on the growing land of the Fairy Desert Cistanche and closed his eyes to try and detect the feeling.

“As expected.”

Fang Qiu found that as the terrain reverted to what it used to be, the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth began to gather in this area again.

However, because there was no Fairy Desert Cistanche as the catalyst, the speed of gathering the Qi of Heaven and Earth was obviously slower than before.

“If there is a catalyst, the gathering speed of the Qi of Heaven and Earth will certainly be faster.”

“Let me try using myself as the catalyst first!”

With that in mind, Fang Qiu immediately used his cultivation method to absorb the Heaven and Earth energy.

The reason why the Fairy Desert Cistanche could be used as a catalyst was because it was an Earth Treasure which could naturally attract Heaven and Earth energy. As for Fang Qiu, he was a martial arts practitioner. With the help of martial arts to absorb Heaven and Earth energy, he was obviously much better than the Fairy Desert Cistanche.

Fang Qiu started to channel his power.

The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth immediately surged and gathered dramatically.

This scene frightened Fang Qiu.

After a short while, his internal Qi, which he had spent in the last three days, was completely restored.

Fang Qiu stopped hastily.

If he continued to channel his energy like this, he was afraid that he would be suffocated to death by the Heaven and Earth energy that kept pouring into his body!

“Swish.” As Fang Qiu opened his eyes and got up, he could not help laughing.

“This terrain is very similar to the legendary Spirit Gathering Array!”

Fang Qiu had only heard about the Spirit Gathering Array from the old master. The old master did not explain to him what the Spirit Gathering Array was, but literally, it meant an array that could gather Qi. This sandy area had the terrain that could gather Qi of Heaven and Earth. It really looked the same.

The most important thing was that Fang Qiu could remember every detail of the terrain of this area.

That was to say, Fang Qiu had collected a terrain that could be set up at any time. No matter where he was, as long as he set up this terrain, he could even turn the Desert Cistanche into a Fairy Desert Cistanche!

“Fairy Desert Cistanche can be mass-produced!”

“Produce the Earth Treasure?”

“Haha...”

As he murmured, Fang Qiu felt like he was in a dream.

Earth Treasure was what many people in Wulin chased after. You could not exchange it even if you had money. The only person who sold the Earth Treasure was himself.

Although he had sold a lot of Earth Treasures, Fang Qiu always thought that Earth Treasures were very precious.

Now these Earth Treasures can be mass-produced!

Although it was the Fairy Desert Cistanche, the people of the entire Wulin would be shocked if this news were to spread.

Fang Qiu, who mastered this method, could use it to create a martial arts organization with terrifying strength and could even fight against the state!

However, Fang Qiu did not want to do that.

His goal was to hurry back and develop the production skill of the Fairy Desert Cistanche. Then, he would start to make ancient prescriptions, refine medicine pills, open a company and set up a benchmark for the Chinese Medicine industry!

“I should take the Fairy Desert Cistanche back first!”

He immediately rushed to the place where he planted the Fairy Desert Cistanche.

On the way, Fang Qiu still focused on the terrain.

“Although it seems that the area of this terrain is about 10 kilometers, the real gathering place is only about one kilometer after the Qi of Heaven and Earth converges. In other words, there are nearly 1,500 acres of land. Even if the covering area of the haloxylon ammondendron is slightly larger than that of other plants, it must be enough to plant Desert Cistanche if they were using 1,500 acres of land!”

As for this terrain, the more Fang Qiu thought about it, the more satisfied he became.

“However, there is still one more problem.”

Fang Qiu suddenly thought of the Desert Cistanche.

“I have to go back quickly and see if it can be cultivated. If it can be cultivated, then it will be fine. But if it can’t be cultivated, there’s nothing I can do no matter how powerful this array is.”

He murmured to himself, “Next, I can only rely on the keeper of Yaowang Mountain.”

Soon, Fang Qiu came to the place where he planted Fairy Desert Cistanche. With a wave of his hand, he removed the energy that covered the Fairy Desert Cistanche. Then, Fang Qiu squatted down, mobilized the energy in his body and picked up the Fairy Desert Cistanche and the sapling of the haloxylon ammondendron which had grown to the height of a hand. Together with the soil, he put them in a plastic bag and placed them into his backpack.

“In order to cultivate a Desert Cistanche, I have to bring some Desert Cistanches back. I can’t give the Fairy Desert Cistanche to the keeper of Yaowang Mountain to study.”

After thinking about it, Fang Qiu immediately flew into the first haloxylon ammondendron forest and picked up the Desert Cistanche.

At first, he wanted to take some more back, but this Desert Cistanche was too big. There was already a Fairy Desert Cistanche in his backpack and he could not fit the Desert Cistanche in at all.

In the end, Fang Qiu dug out two complete Desert Cistanches and left with one in each hand.

Chapter 604: It'll Be Disgraceful If Someone Knows

One day later, Fang Qiu returned to Jiangjing.

On the way back to school, Fang Qiu could not wait to take out his mobile phone and call the keeper of Yaowang Mountain.

"Hello?" The call was quickly connected.

"Mr. Zhao."

Fang Qiu addressed him respectfully and said, "I have something important to talk to you. Can you meet me?"

Last time, when he went to his house to treat his son's wife, Fang Qiu learned that the keeper of Yaowang Mountain's surname was Zhao and his name was Zhao Shanlin.

Since then, Fang Qiu and his three roommates had addressed the keeper of Yaowang Mountain as Mr. Zhao.

"Something important?"

Hearing this, Zhao Shanlin immediately said, "Okay. Anyway, I have nothing to do now. Tell me, where do you want to meet?"

Fang Qiu said, "Let's go to Yaowang Mountain."

Zhao Shanlin said, "Okay, I'll go to the school now."

When Fang Qiu came back to the school, he first put his backpack containing Fairy Desert Cistanche back to his dormitory. Then he rushed to Yaowang Mountain with a paper bag in his hand.

He had bought this paper bag from Korla to place the two Desert Cistanches.

After all, carrying it in each hand would be too eye-catching.

He came to Yaowang Mountain and went to the place where Zhao Shanlin used to work.

After a short while, Zhao Shanlin arrived.

Along the way, his eyes fell on the herbs growing on both sides of the road. When he came to the medicine field, he saw the weeds growing in the field, so he cleared it carefully without any hesitation. He was focused on his work and had a smile on his face.

Fang Qiu smiled when he saw that and immediately went up to him and shouted, "Mr. Zhao, you're here."

"Yes."

Mr. Zhao nodded, but his attention was still deeply focused on the herbs in the field. He did not raise his head until he had completely cleared the weeds and loosened the soil a little. He looked at Fang Qiu and asked with a smile, "What's the matter? Why did you call me here in such a hurry?"

"Mr. Zhao, look at this."

Fang Qiu held up the paper bag and handed it to Mr. Zhao.

"What's that?"

Mr. Zhao took the paper bag and looked inside. He had a slightly stunned look and said, "Isn't this the Desert Cistanche? It looks alive and there is dirt on the roots. Has it been dug up recently only?"

"Yes." Fang Qiu nodded instantly.

"You asked me to come and see this Desert Cistanche?" Mr. Zhao looked at Fang Qiu with a puzzled face.

Fang Qiu said, "Mr. Zhao, I've found Gu Fang!"

Zhao Shanlin was stunned at first, then he was instantly surprised and asked, "Hmm? Did you really find it?"

"Yes." Fang Qiu nodded with certainty.

"Is there Desert Cistanche in the prescription?"

Zhao Shanlin began to understand why Fang Qiu would bring two Desert Cistanche to him.

"That's right."

Fang Qiu immediately nodded and said, "The efficacy of the Desert Cistanche is not ordinary. If we make it a key product and combine it with the ancient prescription, maybe we can make it into a renowned product and set a benchmark in the Chinese Medicine industry."

Zhao Shanlin nodded and said, "Yes. Indeed, this Desert Cistanche is good medicine."

Fang Qiu said, "Mr. Zhao, the reason why I'm in such a hurry to find you is that the biggest problem now is that we should successfully cultivate the Desert Cistanche first!"

“Can you cultivate the Desert Cistanche in Yaowang Mountain?” Fang Qiu asked him eagerly.

Mr. Zhao sighed and said, “Alas. It’s no use even if you bring the Desert Cistanche to Yaowang Mountain. We’re in the south and there’s no way to grow Desert Cistanche in the south.”

“Why?” Fang Qiu was confused.

“First of all, the temperature difference in the south is relatively small. Desert Cistanche normally grows on soft sandy land with light salinization. Generally, it grows in sandy land or semi-fixed dunes, dry and old riverbeds, lake basins, lowlands, etc. Its living environment is very poor, so there is no suitable place for it to live in the south at all.”

“The most suitable place to grow Desert Cistanche is a place with an arid climate, less rainfall, strong evaporation, long daylight and a vast temperature difference between day and night.”

“Secondly, the soil for planting Desert Cistanche must be gray-brown desert soil or brown desert soil. We don’t have that kind of soil in the south.”

“Third, the Desert Cistanche is a parasite of the haloxylon ammondendron which is a strong plant. Desert Cistanche thrives on the side root which is about 30 to 100 centimeters deep. There is no such tree in the south that can allow Desert Cistanche to be its parasite.”

“That is to say, in order to cultivate the Desert Cistanche, we should first cultivate the haloxylon ammondendron. But we can’t grow the haloxylon ammondendron in the South at all. Without the host, the Desert Cistanche can’t be cultivated.”

Fang Qiu was stunned when he heard that.

He had no idea about the stringent conditions for cultivating Desert Cistanche, such as soil, climate, etc. He was only knowledgeable about the properties of medicine, but he had never thought that it would be so difficult to cultivate Desert Cistanche.

After hearing what Zhao Shanlin said, Fang Qiu smiled awkwardly.

Fang Qiu thought about it carefully.

It was because Desert Cistanche grew in Beijiang that it had its unique medicinal properties. It was the Genuine Medicine that was often mentioned by people in the Chinese medicine industry, which referred to some wild herbs growing in the most suitable places.

The medicinal property of this kind of medicinal material was the best.

It would not work if he were to change the place to cultivate it.

Fang Qiu was embarrassed.

He had already won the championship of the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor. How could he forget about this matter? If someone knew about this, wouldn't it be so embarrassing?

Fang Qiu asked, "What should we do if we need to cultivate a large number of it?"

"Well..."

After thinking for a while, Zhao Shanlin said, "If you want to grow it in a large area, you must grow it in Beijiang. After all, what you need to do is to make it a key product and set up a benchmark in the Chinese medicine field, so you must use the Genuine Medicine. Therefore, it will be best to grow it in Beijiang. But if you want to grow seedlings, you might be able to find a place in Jiangjing to try it, but the conditions are very severe. You have to be mentally prepared that you need to spend a lot of money to cultivate it!"

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, "Well, Mr. Zhao. I'll give you ten million yuan. I'll leave the whole cultivation matter to you."

"What?" Zhao Shanlin was shocked.

In his opinion, Fang Qiu was just an ordinary college student.

How could a student have so much money?

Even though he had so much money, how could he take it out without hesitation? He did not even know if he could make it. Wouldn't the price of ten million be too high?

But when he saw the determination in Fang Qiu's eyes, he knew that Fang Qiu did not care about the price at all. He just wanted to accomplish this matter!

He was indeed a Chinese Medicine practitioner!

Mr. Zhao could not help exclaiming.

For the sake of Chinese Medicine, a real Chinese Medicine practitioner would do anything to accomplish it at all costs.

"Okay!"

Thinking of this, Zhao Shanlin nodded immediately and said, "Since you can contribute so much to traditional Chinese Medicine, how can I, an old man, stay out of it? Leave it to me. I will quit my job later and concentrate on doing this for you!"

"Thank you."

Fang Qiu immediately thanked him, took out a bank card from his trouser pocket, handed it over, and said, "There is one million in this card, which will be your pay and daily expenses."

Mr. Zhao was stunned.

He hurriedly reached out to refuse and said, "How can I do it? Since I agreed to help you, I'll just be helping you. I can't accept the money!"

"You must take the money."

Fang Qiu once again handed the card to Zhao Shanlin and said with a serious face, "Putting aside our relationship and the whole matter, I want to start a company and ask you to help me cultivate medicine, which means that I'm asking you to work for me so you have to accept the money anyway."

Fang Qiu knew although Zhao Shanlin bought a house for his son, he still needed to pay the mortgage after that. Once he resigned, his life would be very difficult, so Fang Qiu had to give him the money.

"No, I really can't accept this money."

Mr. Zhao said with a wry smile, "You helped treat my daughter-in-law before. Now I'm helping you cultivate Chinese medicine. How can I let you pay for it?"

"Mr. Zhao, this is work."

Fang Qiu continued to persuade him, "Take this money as your salary. Where can I find such a good teacher like you to help me at the price of only one million? If you don't accept the money, I will not dare ask you to cultivate the Desert Cistanche."

"You, you..." Zhao Shanlin hesitated.

He really wanted to do this.

He liked traditional Chinese medicine and he hoped that traditional Chinese medicine could make great achievements. What's more, he was the one who brought up this idea to Fang Qiu. Accomplishing this matter could be regarded as fulfilling his wish.

"Well... All right."

After hesitating for a long time, Zhao Shanlin took the bank card handed over by Fang Qiu and then said to him with a serious face, "Don't worry. Even if I have to risk my life, I will cultivate the Desert Cistanche for you!"

"I don't want you to risk your life."

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, "I believe in you, but you do need to find some helpers."

Zhao Shanlin was stunned.

Then, his eyes lit up and he burst out laughing.

One day later, Zhu Benzhen, Zhou Xiaotian and Sun Hao met reluctantly at the school gate.

They just started their holidays. The three of them had only stayed home for a few days before they were asked to come to school by Fang Qiu.

The three of them met.

They looked at each other and smiled wryly, feeling depressed.

Sun Hao asked, "Hey, what does Fang Qiu want to do? Why is he asking us to come back as soon as possible?"

Zhou Xiaotian shook his head. "I don't know."

Zhu Benzhen also shook his head and said, "I don't know either. Fang Qiu refused to tell me on the phone. He just kept saying that he has something very important to tell us."

“Me too.” Zhou Xiaotian sneered.

“Me too.”

Sun Hao gave a wry smile and glanced at the empty campus. Then he gritted his teeth and said, “Since he’s already here, let’s go and ask him. Fang Qiu is waiting for us in the dormitory anyway. I’d like to see what he wants to say. If he dares to lie to us... Humph!”

As they spoke, the three of them walked toward the dormitory building.

It turned out that Fang Qiu was not in the dormitory.

After making a phone call, the three of them rushed to Yaowang Mountain together and finally met Fang Qiu and Zhao Shanlin at Yaowang Mountain.

“Fang, why are you so anxious?”

Seeing Fang Qiu, Sun Hao went straight up, patted Fang Qiu on the shoulder and said, “I’m telling you, if you can’t give us a good explanation, this matter won’t be settled.”

Fang Qiu said directly, “I’ve found the ancient prescription.”

“Oh.” The three of them nodded.

When they were about to say something, their faces suddenly changed. Three of them asked at the same time, “What did you just say?”

Medical Master

Chapter 605: Military Aircraft Comes To Pick Him Up

“I said, I found the ancient prescription.”

Fang Qiu looked at the three of them and said with a smile, “And I also found the Desert Cistanche with a particularly good medicinal property. As long as we can successfully cultivate the Desert Cistanche, I can produce medicine and set up a company!”

Hearing that, Zhu Benzhen and the other two immediately turned around and looked at each other.

A look of surprise and excitement appeared on each of their faces.

“What are we waiting for? Let’s do it!” Sun Hao said excitedly.

“Fang Qiu, just tell us what we need to do and how to do it?”

Zhou Xiaotian also straightened up and had an indomitable look on his face.

“Good news, that’s really good news.”

Zhu Benzhen laughed and said, “That’s my bro!”

“Don’t get too excited, boys.”

Looking at the three people who were so surprised, Zhao Shanlin stepped forward and said, “You are going to assist me and find ways to cultivate the Desert Cistanche.”

“No problem.” The three of them answered in unison.

Zhao Shanlin said, “Of course, if you have any good ideas, you can just put them forward for reference. Don’t worry about the money. Fang Qiu has already decided to use 10 million as the experimental fund for cultivating the Desert Cistanche.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Zhu Benzhen and the other two were all shocked.

“10, 10 million?” Sun Hao stared at Fang Qiu in shock.

“Fang, you have 10 million?” Zhou Xiaotian said suspiciously.

“Do you really have so much money?” Zhu Benzhen was also dumbfounded.

For college students like them, even 1,000 would be a lot of money, let alone 10 million. Except for those rich second generations, ordinary college students had never seen more than 100,000 in cash, let alone 10 million!

At the thought of such a huge amount of money, the three of them could not help swallowing hard.

“What a rich man.”

Sun Hao suddenly fell to the ground, hugged Fang Qiu’s thigh and said, “Please be my sugar daddy. Take me home, please.”

“Take me, take me!”

Zhou Xiaotian held Fang Qiu’s other thigh. Obviously, he wanted to compete with Sun Hao.

“Bro, we can’t do it for nothing, can we?” Zhu Benzhen asked with a grin.

“Of course not.”

Fang Qiu shook his legs and asked Sun Hao and Zhou Xiaotian to let go. Then he said, “Well, I’ll pay for the food, clothing and transportation during this period.”

The three of them looked at each other.

“Congratulations, you’ve successfully won my heart.”

Sun Hao smirked.

“You also got me.” Zhou Xiaotian smiled.

“Of course, you got me in the end too.”

Zhu Benzhenɡ echoed the same thoughts and nodded with a smile.

Fang Qiu smiled and continued, “For your hard work, I’ll give each of you a big red envelope when the Desert Cistanche is cultivated successfully!”

However, as soon as Fang Qiu finished speaking, the three of them immediately shook their heads.

“No, no, we don’t want it.”

Sun Hao said with determination.

“Yes, definitely not.” Zhou Xiaotian also nodded intently.

“Bro, forget about the red envelope.”

Zhu Benzhenɡ thought about it and said, “Although we are short of money, it’s a bit too much to get a red envelope for helping you. You don’t need to give us money. When you set up the company, you can give us some shares. Okay?”

“Ha-ha.” Sun Hao and Zhou Xiaotian laughed at the same time.

“That’s right. We’re not stupid. We want shares.” Zhou Xiaotian said with a smile.

Fang Qiu was speechless!

After a discussion, the group decided to divide themselves into two groups.

Fang Qiu would go to Beijiag and try to get more Desert Cistanches and its seeds.

Mr. Zhao took Zhu Benzhen and the other two to look for a place suitable for the experimental cultivation.

As for the Earth Treasure—Fairy Desert Cistanche, Fang Qiu had already picked it, so it did not matter whether it was alive.

Anyway, he had mastered the terrain formation.

He had also kept the seed of the Fairy Desert Cistanche in a safe place. When the cultivation method was well-developed, he could start to try to plant the Fairy Desert Cistanche. Maybe there would be a surprise!

After making up his mind, Fang Qiu no longer hesitated.

He went straight to the dormitory, changed his clothes, put on a mask and left the school again to go to Beijiag.

On the way, he booked the latest flight ticket.

He had a meal at the airport before he boarded the plane.

A few hours later, Fang Qiu landed at the airport in Urumchi, Beijiāng.

As soon as he got off the plane, he took out his mobile phone and called Li Ji.

“Hello, Senior?” The call was connected immediately.

“I need to ask you for a favor,” Fang Qiu said directly.

“What is it?” Li Ji asked curiously.

“I want you to help me find a way to transport some Desert Cistanches. If possible, it’s better to get a plane directly. Money is not a problem.”

Fang Qiu was aware that he could not hire a transport plane on his own.

In order to cultivate the Desert Cistanche, he had to maintain its growth and in large quantities.

Under these circumstances, if he used coaches for long-distance transportation, the growth of the Desert Cistanche might be affected by the time they arrived in Jiāngjīng, so the only way was to transport them by air!

“There’s no problem with transportation.”

Li Ji nodded and asked, “Where are you now?”

Fang Qiu said, “Urumchi airport.”

“The timing is just right.”

Li Ji smiled and said, "I'm in Beijiang Base now. Wait for me at the airport. I'll pick you up."

"Okay." Fang Qiu nodded.

"Buzz, buzz, buzz..."

An ear-splitting sound from the propellers could be heard.

A military helicopter spiraled above the airport and landed slowly.

The other passengers at the airport were all stunned when they saw it.

"What the f*ck! Why is the military helicopter here?"

"The airport doesn't allow helicopters to enter at will, does it?"

"Are you blind? This is the helicopter belonging to the army. I'm sure the authorities of the airport have already been informed."

Amid the exclamations from the crowd, the helicopter landed on a green lawn that did not affect any flight routes at all.

The door of the helicopter opened.

Li Ji immediately jumped off the helicopter and trotted all the way to the VIP lounge.

Li Ji naturally knew how popular Fang Qiu was at the moment.

Besides, if someone saw this and said that Fang Qiu had a connection with the military, it would definitely cause a huge public uproar. Therefore, on the way to the airport, Li Ji contacted the airport staff in advance and asked Fang Qiu to wait in the VIP lounge.

Soon, Li Ji met Fang Qiu in the VIP lounge.

“I’ve found the plane.”

As soon as he entered, Li Ji said with a smile, “Civil aviation.”

Fang Qiu asked, “How much?”

“There’s no need to talk about money. We’re family,” Li Ji said righteously.

Fang Qiu said doubtfully, “You look so happy. Did anything good happen?”

“Some time back, the special force held a military drill.”

Li Ji said with a smile, “The two squadrons you trained won the first place in this military drill, which impressed all the military regions!”

“Those big shots were all shocked. They all came to me to ask what was going on and wondered if the two squadrons were fed with gunpowder or something else.”

Fang Qiu frowned when he heard that.

He had a bad feeling and asked, “Then, you told them about me?”

Li Ji did not attempt to hide it and said blatantly, “Of course. All the soldiers in our army are like brothers. We share bliss and misfortune alike.”

“Based on what you said...”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and said, “I’m hitting the bullseye, right?”

“But according to what you said, even if I did not contact you this time, you would have contacted me, right?”

Li Ji smiled and said, “My please. You’re a master. You should make contributions to the country, right?”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, “Yes. I’m duty-bound to contribute to our country, but how many people are there this time?”

“Not many.”

Li Ji raised his right hand, stretched out a finger and said, “More than a thousand people.”

“In fact, the main reason is that you came at the right time. I came to Beijiang because of this. Just now, after you called me, I told them about it. They were very excited.”

“Those who are in other military regions might also find some experts to instruct them. However, it is said that they will not get any good outcome. Compared to them, you are still much better!”

Speaking of this, Li Ji could not help thinking to himself, “In fact, there are not many people in the entire military region of the special forces. Basically, all the soldiers are here.”

However, he would not say it out loud.

Fang Qiu was non-committal.

To promote a martial arts practitioner, one had to exhaust all the external forces in order to successfully stimulate the internal forces. However, not everyone could make it. Only when one had sufficient foresight and insight would he achieve success.

Fang Qiu could do it, but it did not mean that other martial arts practitioners and masters of the Martial Superior Level could do it.

After all, Fang Qiu was a guru.

In this world, how many gurus were willing to help the army train the soldiers?

Li Ji urged, "Look, everyone in the army base is waiting for you. Why don't you come with me first?"

Fang Qiu suddenly thought of something.

All of a sudden, he gave a broad grin.

He thought of a good idea whereby he could kill two birds with one stone.

"Let's go." Fang Qiu stood up and put on a mask and a hat.

Led by Li Ji, he boarded the helicopter.

"Wow, the military helicopter picked him up at the airport. What kind of a big shot is he?"

"He's really awesome!"

A few hours later, the helicopter landed in the depths of a very secluded forest.

It was the base of the special forces.

As soon as he got off the craft, Fang Qiu saw a row of soldiers standing in a line in front of him. Every soldier's eyes were on him.

Some were suspicious, some were surprised and others seemed eager to pick a fight with Fang Qiu!

"Is he wearing a mask?"

"He looks very young."

"He's the one who trained those two squadrons. He doesn't look special!"

Each one of the special forces had his own thought.

The propellers gradually stopped moving.

Li Ji and Fang Qiu stood side by side. As they stepped forward, he asked Fang Qiu, "Show your skills. Do you want to fight them now?"

"I can't fight for now!"

Fang Qiu shook his head.

If he wanted to defeat one thousand people, he had to go all out and even use the strength of the Guru Realm. Otherwise, if he fought them one by one, he would be exhausted.

After all, he couldn't kill them. It wouldn't be as simple as striking several or dozens of them with just one move.

The most important thing was that once Fang Qiu used his internal Qi, he would definitely trigger something. At that time, he would be so close to reaching the sixth class and he would definitely reach the breakthrough period quickly. Then he had to find the Heaven Treasure immediately.

Now, he had no Heaven Treasure to use, so he had to try his best not to make any necessary moves.

Medical Master

Chapter 606: It's Like Earthquake!

"You know, they are all from the special forces."

Seeing that Fang Qiu had no intention of making any moves, Li Ji immediately said, "If you don't teach them a lesson, they will not show you any respect."

Although he was very familiar with Fang Qiu and had seen Fang Qiu's great strength during the numerous times he fought, Li Ji still wanted to see how powerful Fang Qiu was now and whether he could really defeat a thousand soldiers of the special forces on his own.

"I don't have to fight for this kind of thing." Fang Qiu smiled blandly.

As he spoke, he walked up to the 1,000 special forces soldiers who were lined up.

He did not speak and just gently lifted his right foot and stomped on the ground in an extremely casual way!

"Bang!" A terrifying muffled sound suddenly rang out.

The ground of the entire base shook as if an earthquake had just occurred.

Then, he looked down at his feet.

The ground, which was often trampled by soldiers and crushed by large machinery, cracked directly under Fang Qiu's casual stamp and the cracks spread out like a spider's web throughout the ground.

With Fang Qiu's right foot as the center, the cracks quickly extended in all directions like rivulets of water flowing. In the blink of an eye, the cracks reached about dozens of meters.

This scene frightened the thousand special soldiers.

They could clearly see that the cracks Fang Qiu made were so real under their feet!

They knew that it was almost impossible to turn the ground of the base into such a state with just one stomp, because this was the training base for special forces.

In order not to be discovered by the enemies' satellite, there were no modern buildings in the base. The ground was also the normal surface of the mountain.

Although this kind of ground was not extremely solid, it was often eroded by the mist in the mountains. Therefore, the ground was not dry but very damp. Even if a hammer which weighed a thousand kilograms was used to smash it, it could only smash a big hole. It was impossible to make such a crack in this kind of ground.

But Fang Qiu did it. He did not use much strength and had just casually stamped his feet to achieve the effect.

All the 1,000 special forces soldiers present were shocked!

When they heard that the mysterious man was coming to instruct and train them, they were eager to fight with him. They did not take the mysterious man seriously at all. When Fang Qiu jumped off the helicopter and they saw Fang Qiu's youthful figure, they felt more disdainful and arrogant.

But now, they did not even have the chance to show their dissatisfaction, as they were completely frightened by the scene in front of them!

“Fortunately, he did not give me the chance to go out and challenge him!”

“What the fu*k! This is insane!”

“How terrifying!”

“We had a deal that we were going to challenge him together before. Now everyone is so scared that they do not even dare to move their feet. But this mysterious man is too awesome. He casually stomped the ground into such a state. If we really try to challenge him, won’t all of us be killed by him?”

As they looked at Fang Qiu, those soldiers who were eager to have a fight earlier quickly straightened up and dispelled those thoughts in their minds.

“Ha-ha.”

Seeing this, Li Ji who had been following Fang Qiu, immediately gave him a thumbs-up and exclaimed, “Awesome!”

Fang Qiu turned around and looked at the 1,000 special soldiers in front of him.

“Thank you for your efforts to protect our country.”

Wearing a mask did not affect him at all. Fang Qiu said in a serious tone, “The country will need you more in the future. That’s why I am here to help you. I’ll train you to meet the requirements that the state needs, make you stronger and make you more capable of fighting for our country.”

“I hope none of you will fall behind!”

When Fang Qiu finished speaking, one thousand people immediately shouted, “Be loyal to the country and the people!”

Fang Qiu nodded.

Although this was inconsistent with what Fang Qiu said, it already expressed the determination of the thousand special forces soldiers.

Since they were loyal to the country, they were willing to make every effort to fight for it. They were loyal to the people, so they were willing to spend their whole life to work for it!

Nothing could be more sincere and solemn than this.

“Very good.”

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction, turned to Li Ji and said, “Let’s go.”

Led by Li Ji, they walked to a camouflaged wooden house covered in vines in the depths of the base.

As they left, the 1,000 special soldiers immediately began to talk about what had just happened.

“He’s so freaking awesome, isn’t he?”

“We’re not acting in a movie, are we? He can stamp the ground so easily like that. If he used a little more strength, he might be able to make a river.”

“It’s horrible. The strength of this new mysterious instructor is really terrifying!”

“How strong can a man be if he needs to do this? It’s a miracle!”

“Even a machine can’t do it, let alone an ordinary person. Is this mysterious instructor still human?”

“He can’t be a human. He’s a monster, a freak!”

After the group of soldiers dispersed, they immediately moved to the side, bent down and began to examine the ground carefully. They exclaimed while checking the ground.

Li Ji led Fang Qiu to the treehouse and sat down.

“With the technology of our country, we should be able to easily block all things like satellites from other countries, right?” Fang Qiu asked curiously.

“Of course.” Li Ji nodded proudly.

Fang Qiu asked, “Then why do you still keep this base such a secret?”

“There are a lot of things that you don’t know. There are not only satellites in this world that can collect intelligence. With the development of technology, there are more and more means to obtain intelligence. In the past, we rely on people to take photos, but now there are aerial photographs and so on.”

Speaking of this, Li Ji shook his head with a smile and added, “Besides, this kind of base is only the training base for special forces and not the real military camp.”

“All right.”

Fang Qiu nodded as he understood and then asked, “Where is the chief of the base?”

“Ha-ha.”

Li Ji grinned and said, “Now, the leaders of each base have some confidential things to do, so I’ll be in charge of these 1,000 special soldiers.”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

He wanted to discuss with the chief about how to train these 1,000 special forces soldiers, but he did not expect that in the end, it was Li Ji who was going to have a discussion with him.

Li Ji said, "You've seen the 1,000 soldiers. Tell me how you want to train them."

"Field training."

Fang Qiu had already thought about it. 1,000 people were a huge force. It would be a pity not to use them in the right place.

"Oh?" Li Ji was slightly stunned. He did not expect that Fang actually knew how to do field training.

"I want to take them to the Taklimakan desert to dig up some Desert Cistanches."

Fang Qiu did not conceal his plan and said it blatantly.

Li Ji immediately broke out in a cold sweat.

"Oh, man! Don't scare me!"

Looking at Fang Qiu, Li Ji said with a wry smile, "First of all, you are using the country's soldiers to carry out your private affairs. Secondly, I know about the Desert Cistanche you are referring to. It is a rare and precious Chinese medicine which is not allowed to be taken anywhere. You are not only using my men to carry out your private affairs, but also breaking the rules. Moreover, you're taking the soldiers to do something illegal."

"I'm not doing it for money."

Fang Qiu shrugged and spread his hands, saying, "I want to cultivate it. You know that the Desert Cistanche is a rare and precious Chinese herb. The reason why I'm going to pick the Desert Cistanche is that I want to grow more of it so that it will not be so rare. I'm a Chinese Medicine doctor, so I will not damage the field when I pick it."

"As for this illegal problem, I believe you can discuss it with the government."

Speaking of this, Fang Qiu continued with a smile, "Besides, field training is very helpful for the improvement of the soldiers."

Li Ji frowned and asked, "Really? Why can't you help all the soldiers to improve in a short time like what you did in Nanjiang?"

When Fang Qiu heard that, he paused, thought for a moment, and said, "There are too many of them!"

This was the reason that Fang Qiu just came up with, which was not convincing at all.

Looking at Fang Qiu, Li Ji was speechless.

"So you have not even come up with an excuse before bringing it up to me?" Li Ji asked.

"Ha-ha." Fang Qiu chuckled.

Li Ji knew that since Fang Qiu gave his condition, he would not give up, so he could only frown and thought about it carefully for a while. He then said, "Well. There should be no problem with the condition you stated."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "I still have two other requirements."

"There's more?" Li Ji froze.

“First of all, this matter must be treated as strictly confidential.”

Fang Qiu ignored Li Ji’s wry smile and said this directly.

“Okay!” Li Ji nodded at once.

“Secondly, I went to Beijiang and got an Earth Treasure known as Fairy Desert Cistanche before. Some people at the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine are studying the Desert Cistanche as well. Someone may find the connection. At that time, my identity will be exposed, so I need you to help me erase all traces in this matter!”

“No problem!” Li Ji did not even think about it and immediately nodded in agreement.

As for the military and the country, Fang Qiu was a powerful weapon kept under wraps. Therefore, even if Fang Qiu did not make this request, they would definitely keep all the information about Fang Qiu secret so that Fang Qiu’s identity as the mysterious man would not be exposed.

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction as Li Ji agreed.

When he was thinking about the situation in the Taklimakan desert, the figure of an eighth-class expert with two opened meridians who had committed suicide there, suddenly appeared in his mind.

Liang Sheng!

Fang Qiu thought of the words Liang Sheng said before he died.

An idea came to his mind. He looked at Li Ji, hesitated for a moment and then said, “I want to ask you about an organization.”

“What organization?” Li Ji asked.

"I don't know."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "Last time, when I went to Beijiang to find the Earth Treasure known as Fairy Desert Cistanche, I met a man in the Taklimakan desert. He was a martial arts master."

"His name is Liang Sheng. When I met him, he was fighting with the Giant Scorpion, a guardian beast of Fairy Desert Cistanche. After that, I took Fairy Desert Cistanche from him because this man was too bloodthirsty. After killing the Giant Scorpion, he wanted to kill me and a group of ordinary people."

Chapter 607: Sky Parachuting... Stopped?!

"When I snatched the Fairy Desert Cistanche, I let him go. Later, he chased after the group of ordinary people. Fortunately, I caught up with him quickly and stopped him. Then he chose to commit suicide when he knew that he could not escape."

"Before he killed himself, he said that no matter how powerful you were, the organization would convert you sooner or later."

"He also said that it was good to die. He would no longer feel pain. He could wake up from his dream!"

Listening to Fang Qiu's narration, Li Ji's expression gradually became serious.

Fang Qiu said, "I want to know what is the organization he was talking about."

"Well..." Li Ji immediately said with a serious face, "I seem to have heard of it, but it is confidential. People at my level know nothing about it. Of course, since you brought it up, I will help you report it to the superiors and ask for their approval."

"Okay." Fang Qiu nodded.

That night, Fang Qiu rested for a night in the temporary training base.

The next day, a thousand special soldiers got on three large transport planes. Fang Qiu also boarded the plane and went to the Taklimakan desert with these special soldiers.

On the transport plane, the soldiers were confused and also excited.

“Where are we going?”

“I heard that we’re going to carry out a mysterious field training.”

“Mysterious?”

“Taking a transport plane to field training? Where are we going?”

In the cabin, everyone was discussing about the training in low voices, feeling puzzled.

Thinking of the amazing performances of the two special forces squadrons in the military drill before, everyone was looking forward to this training.

Soon, three transport planes arrived in the sky above the Taklimakan desert.

“Prepare for the landing.”

Someone gave the order.

The 1,000 soldiers in the three cabins immediately stopped talking and became serious. They stood up one by one, ready to parachute down.

When they reached a fixed spot, the door of the plane opened.

All of them would be parachuting at a high altitude of 800 meters.

In the cabin of each plane, there was a captain in charge of the parachuting.

A thousand people quickly jumped off the plane.

In a short while, numerous “mushrooms” were floating in the air.

At first glance, it was very spectacular!

Because the height was not too high, all the soldiers landed in a short time. They quickly put away the parachutes, gathered with the main force and lined up in the desert.

All the soldiers fell in.

Two of the planes had left. The remaining one was still hovering in mid-air.

In the cabin of the last plane, a captain quickly equipped Fang Qiu with the parachute.

The captain urged, “You can go now. Everyone’s waiting for you.”

He would not be joining this training but was specially asked to prepare the parachutes for the special soldiers.

Because of this, he was not afraid of Fang Qiu at all. He wanted to see if Fang Qiu dared to parachute from the plane.

Below them, a thousand soldiers in the desert had the same feeling.

After getting into their formation, everyone stared smugly at Fang Qiu who was standing in the door and ready to parachute down.

They knew that this new mysterious drillmaster did not know how to parachute at all.

Because of the great strength shown by Fang Qiu, no one dared to take the initiative to provoke Fang Qiu. They did not even dare to laugh at him secretly. But now, they finally had a chance to laugh at Fang Qiu blatantly.

They wanted to see if Fang Qiu dared to jump.

If he parachuted, would he be able to do it well?

They wondered whether he would be careless and fall into the sand!

In the cabin, “Swoosh!”

After learning when to jump off, Fang Qiu opened the parachute and jumped down from the height of 800 meters without saying a word, with all the special soldiers watching.

“Did he really jump?”

“This is not a joke.”

“Has the mysterious drillmaster parachuted before?”

“No way! How did he dare to jump!”

“Do you know how to do it? Don’t kill yourself with this jump.”

Everyone was talking about it.

Fang Qiu, who was falling rapidly from the sky, had been doing some calculations in his mind.

“700, 600, 500, 400!”

“Open!”

When he reached the level of 400 meters, he immediately opened the parachute.

It was exactly at the 400-meters mark, without missing one meter.

This was what the captain told him before he parachuted!

In the desert, all the special soldiers were amazed when they saw Fang Qiu opening the parachute when he was at the most suitable position. They did not expect that Fang Qiu could jump so well.

Going by the height of the parachuting, the final landing posture would definitely be amazing.

Everyone smiled wryly.

In this way, they had no chance to laugh at the mysterious drillmaster.

Just when everyone looked at Fang Qiu’s landing, Fang Qiu suddenly stopped when he was about 50 meters above the ground.

He paused in mid-air.

The parachute that he had on inexplicably fell off.

The parachute fell to the ground.

But Fang Qiu was still in midair.

Seeing this scene, all the special soldiers were stunned. Their eyes widened as if they had seen something incredible and gleamed in disbelief.

Before the parachute fell to the ground, Fang Qiu slowly walked down from the 50-meter-high sky, step by step and in a leisurely manner.

“What the f*ck!”

“What, what is this?”

“Damn it, what’s that? Is it an illusion?”

“Am I blind? How could such a thing happen?”

“Oh my god, is he walking in the air?”

“Im-immortal?”

A thousand soldiers were all shocked to the extreme!

They had heard that there were some very powerful people in the world, who had such great skills that it was unbelievable, but they had always regarded it as a joke.

However, when they saw Fang Qiu creating a crack about dozens of meters in the base with just a stamp of his foot, they began to believe it.

Then, they saw Fang Qiu discarding the parachute and then stepping down from the 50-meter high sky.

He was just like the immortal in the legend.

How could anyone go against gravity and walk in midair?

Everyone was shocked as Fang Qiu landed lightly, with the demeanor of a master.

Then, he stretched out his hand and pointed in a certain direction.

“Everyone, advance.”

Fang Qiu said, as the captain leading the team ran toward him.

“Yes, sir.”

The captain did not dare to slack off and immediately ordered, “All squadrons, listen to my order. All of you, advance!”

Ten vice-captains walked out of the crowd.

The special forces consisted of ten people in a team. A squadron was made up of 100 people. A contingent was made up of 1,000 people.

These thousand people were from one contingent and ten squadrons.

“One minute, fold the parachute and then set off!”

The ten vice-captains gave the order at the same time.

The soldiers quickly bent down and put away their parachutes, ready to start their training.

Seeing that all the soldiers were ready, Fang Qiu hurriedly turned his head.

“I was being too cocky. I almost lost control.”

While murmuring to himself, Fang Qiu secretly let out a sigh of relief.

The landing speed just now was really too fast. In the beginning, because of the parachute, he did not need to mobilize his Internal Qi. When he reached the landing point, he mobilized his internal Qi and made a sudden stop, which almost caused his strength at the peak of the fifth class to break through to the sixth class.

“It’s fine, it’s fine. I managed to suppress it and did not reach that stage.”

He murmured to himself.

Fang Qiu looked up and found that all the soldiers had left.

Then, he turned his head and looked at the parachute behind him. He was suddenly stunned.

“Damn, how do I fold this parachute?”

“Why didn’t anyone help me collect it?”

“I don’t know how to do it at all!”

“At least one of them should have stayed to help me!”

Fang Qiu was very depressed and upset.

Although he wanted to shout and order a soldier to put away the parachute, he was now a drillmaster. If he could not even fold the parachute, he would be laughed at by those soldiers.

These special soldiers had been waiting to see him make a fool of himself for a long time already.

Even if he did not know how to do it, he had to do it!

He made up his mind.

Fang Qiu immediately walked to the parachute and began to fold it.

As a result, no matter how hard he tried, he could not get it right.

It took him a lot of effort to put the parachute away, then he held it in one hand and caught up with the soldiers right away.

Because of the deviation between the preset location and the landing location, they were about ten kilometers from the haloxylon ammondendron forest, where the Desert Cistanche grew.

Under the command of the captain and the ten vice-captains, a thousand special soldiers, disregarding the scorching heat of the sun, carried all the combat supplies and ran in the direction that Fang Qiu pointed in.

Thirty minutes later, they arrived at the growth area of the Desert Cistanche.

“Stop!” Fang Qiu, who had already rushed to the front of the crowd, raised his right hand.

A thousand special soldiers immediately stopped.

“That’s okay.”

Fang Qiu turned around, looked at the 1000 soldiers and said, “We’ve arrived. What you need to do in this training is to use the things you brought to survive for three days in this place!”

“In the next three days, you have another task, which is to pick Desert Cistanche. Every one of you should pick one.”

“You need to pick one out of ten!”

“That is to say, if there are ten Desert Cistanches nearby, you can pick one. You can’t pick too many and you can’t destroy the ecological environment here!”

All the soldiers were dumbfounded when they heard that.

Was this a field training?

Obviously, they were here to work for the drillmaster!

How come they flew all the way here to collect herbs as part of the field training?

“I’ll show you the way to pick Desert Cistanche. I’ll only do it once. Watch carefully.” Fang Qiu shouted.

Then, he demonstrated in front of everyone how to pick the Desert Cistanche!

Fang Qiu reminded them, “Let me give you a tip. You’d better dig it out on the last day, or it’ll be dead in three days.”

Fang Qiu then found the captain and said, "Give me a set of clothes and equipment. I want to be exactly like your soldiers."

"Aren't you a drillmaster?" The captain was puzzled.

Fang Qiu asked, "I can't train as a drillmaster?"

"I'll prepare it for you right away." The captain answered. A light gleamed in his eyes as he looked at Fang Qiu.

He had not expected that.

As a drillmaster, Fang Qiu was willing to train with everyone.

Fang Qiu indeed regarded himself as an ordinary person. The reason why he wanted equipment was because he wanted to be like the soldiers and followed the team where the captain was and secretly learn how these special soldiers survived in the extremely difficult situation of the desert, as it was hard for ordinary people to do it.

Medical Master

Chapter 608: Lop Nor's Secret!

In the blink of an eye, three days passed.

In the past three days, Fang Qiu, who had asked to be treated like one of the troops, really learned a lot from these one thousand special soldiers, including how to get water from the desert, avoid the hot sun, search for food and so on.

On the morning of the third day, everyone was already exhausted from their time spent in the desert.

The three days of training were totally inhumane.

Not only did these special soldiers have to look for water and food for themselves, but they had to be vigilant at all times, waiting for training instructions that might appear at any time.

Sometimes, as soon as they found the water, they also received training instructions. They had to train before they could even take a sip of the water. When the training was done, the water was gone, so they had to dig the sand to find the underground water again.

Although they were all special soldiers who had experienced a lot of inhuman high-impact training before, the training this time was completely beyond their imagination.

It was not easy for them to get to the third day.

Everyone looked at the time. When they were ready to return, they immediately divided ten people into a team and began to pick Desert Cistanche.

Fang Qiu was supervising them from the sideline.

After these two days of training and guidance, these special forces were actually proficient in digging out Desert Cistanche.

1,000 special soldiers were divided into 100 teams to dig 100 Desert Cistanches.

The range was within 30 kilometers.

They needed to pick one out of ten Desert Cistanches in each area.

It took them only an hour to dig out all the Desert Cistanche.

In the outermost perimeter of the digging team, a ten-person squad finished picking the Desert Cistanches and was about to leave.

“Eh?” A soldier looked hesitantly in the distance.

“What’s wrong?” The captain immediately turned to ask.

“Captain, over there.” The soldier raised his hand and pointed into the distance.

“What are you looking at? If you go any further, you’ll reach Lop Nor.”

While speaking, the captain turned his head and looked in the direction the soldier pointed.

As a result, he was also stunned by what he saw.

On a sand dune in the distance, there was a milky white Jeep with two motorcycles on it.

“What’s that?” The captain squinted and took out the binoculars from his equipment bag to check.

A soldier said, “That place seems to be a historical site.”

The other soldiers nodded in agreement.

Another soldier said, “Let’s go. Although this area is deep in the desert, it is already close to Lop Nor. There are many sites there. It is normal for people to travel and have a sightseeing tour there.”

“Wait!” Just as everyone was ready to return, the captain observing through the binoculars suddenly raised his right hand and shouted.

The ten soldiers stopped immediately and lined up.

“According to my observation, there is no one within 300 meters of that vehicle. They might be tourists, but there is also a possibility that the citizens were attacked. And it’s also possible that they are a criminal gang!”

The captain raised his eyebrows and said, “Follow me.”

Then he immediately led the team and trotted all the way to the historical site in the distance.

After careful calculation, the route was about 1.5 kilometers away.

Moreover, the jeep might have stopped there a long time ago. The reason why it hadn’t been discovered at the beginning was due to the fact that an hour ago, there was a very high sand dune in front of them. Now the sand dune had been reduced to half its size. Thus, it was exposed.

Several minutes later, the team came to a spot that was less than 20 meters away from the milky white jeep.

They observed it closely.

They found that this jeep was very clean and the condition of the entire vehicle was very good. It should have been driven here not too long ago.

“Be careful and stay alert.” The captain made a gesture and then led the team to advance.

In front of them was a historical site similar to a building. Because it had been there for a long time, it had been subject to the elements, leaving only three pillars and a wall.

Looking from the front, the first floor of this site was very low, just like the foundation.

On this foundation, three pillars supported a floor, but the rooms on the second floor were in ruins, leaving only the floor.

Perhaps due to it having been buried in yellow sand before, there was a slope that looked like a wall behind the site. This was piled up from the inside and led straight to the second floor.

At this moment, the Jeep was parked on the second floor.

The squad of ten soldiers walked around the foundation and reached the back of the site.

“Stop!” Suddenly, as soon as they walked to the back of the site, the captain of the squad immediately reached out his hand to signal them to stop. He was immediately on the alert as if he had seen something.

All the others were also on their guard.

The captain waved his hand and beckoned for the ten soldiers to come forward.

All of them went forward and had a look.

At the back of this site, there was a half-meter-wide hole near the wall.

Next to the entrance of the cave, there was a red willow branch, a reed pole and a lid made of the populus euphratica which was as wide as a bowl!

“Could this be a tomb?” A soldier whispered.

“Hush!” The captain immediately signaled them to keep quiet.

At this moment, “Knock, knock, knock...”

The sound of footsteps could be heard coming from the hole.

The captain's face changed. He immediately motioned for everyone to find a place to hide and prepare for an ambush.

After a while, a man poked his head out of the hole, looked around like a mole, climbed out and reached in to pull another person out.

"Don't move!" At this moment, the captain immediately rushed out with his men.

Ten people directly surrounded the man from all directions.

The man standing at the entrance of the cave was immediately dumbfounded!

"Grave robbing?" The captain's face was gloomy.

He had heard that this area was close to Lop Nor. Due to a large number of historical sites, tomb raiders would come to this place. However, he did not expect to actually run into them.

The tomb raiders were also dumbfounded!

"What the f*ck! How come we ran into the regular troops?"

While they were still in shock, two more people crawled out of the cave. In addition to some tools used to raid tombs tied to their waists, each of them had a gun in their hand.

They saw that the situation was not in their favor, but they could not escape.

The three of them looked at each other gloomily and nodded slightly, ready to fight back and run away.

As soon as they made a move, they were directly knocked down by the special forces in a short time.

Even though these special soldiers had been worn out from the tasks from the three days, the tomb raiders were still no match for them.

“Sir, sir!”

After subduing the tomb raiders, the captain ran aside and quickly took out the walkie-talkie to report the location and situation to his superiors.

After a short while, more and more people gathered at the place.

Looking at the growing special forces, the three tomb raiders were suddenly frightened!

“Damn it, how can we be so unlucky?”

“F*ck, what the hell is going on? Why are there so many people here?”

“What the f*ck is this? The whole squadron is here?”

The three tomb raiders were devastated.

In the distance, the team led by their captain soon received the report. Fang Qiu was also in the team.

Led by the captain, everyone immediately rushed over to deal with it.

Soon, they came to the historical site.

“Take them away.”

Seeing the three tomb raiders, the captain frowned and said with a serious face, “Leave it to the officials!”

“Bang, bang, bang...” At this moment, loud sounds of running footsteps could be heard.

Everyone was stunned and turned around, one after another.

However, just as they turned around, they saw a huge black shadow suddenly dropping from the sky and rushing toward a soldier.

“Hmm?” The soldiers were shocked.

“Something’s not quite right.” Seeing this, Fang Qiu immediately rushed up and shielded the soldier. At the same time, he lifted his right foot and kicked hard at the huge shadow. A huge force erupted in an instant and sent the huge figure flying away.

The black shadow turned out to be a giant lizard!

“Everyone, retreat!”

Looking at the giant lizard that had been knocked down, Fang Qiu’s face changed. He immediately shouted with a frown.

All the people quickly retreated and moved behind Fang Qiu.

“Bang, bang, bang...” At this very moment, another loud thudding sound of footsteps could be heard.

Fang Qiu looked up.

At the place where the first giant lizard had rushed out, there were actually more than a dozen giant lizards that quickly climbed over the sand dune and rushed toward them.

They looked carefully and found that the giant lizard was four or five meters long, which was twice the size of a normal giant lizard!

Seeing so many giant lizards, the three tomb raiders cried out in horror.

While all the special soldiers were shocked, all of them calmed down and raised their guns to aim at the giant lizards.

Among the crowd, the captain's expression changed. When he was about to order the soldiers to fire and retreat, Fang Qiu took a step back. He waved his hand and had a serious look on his face. His internal Qi broke out, gathering the yellow sand under his feet, which quickly formed into a thick sand wall around them. The wall encircled everyone and blocked out the dozen or more giant lizards.

"It's strange."

Protecting the crowd, Fang Qiu frowned and murmured in a low voice, "How can there be such a giant lizard? Is it a guardian beast?"

With a thought in mind, he spread out his Divine Consciousness, sweeping around, but did not find any Heaven or Earth Treasures.

Still in doubt, Fang Qiu turned his head and saw the captain's strange expression. He immediately asked, "What's going on? How can there be such a big lizard in the desert?"

"Well..." The captain hesitated for a moment and said with a frown, "That direction is Lop Nor. It is said that Lop Nor is a very mysterious place, equivalent to the Zone 51 of Huaxia."

"It seems that in the late 70s in the last century, people found a very large underground cave here, which housed thousands of giant carnivorous lizards. Then people made a shaft there and conducted a world-shaking nuclear explosion experiment. In fact, the purpose was to eliminate these lizards."

At this point, the captain cast another deep look at the giant figure and continued with a cold and serious expression on his face, "It seems that the rumor is true. I did not expect that these giant lizards were still alive!"

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile when he heard that.

Only a few giant carnivorous lizards were left after the explosion. After so many years, there were not only more than a dozen of them, but hundreds of them.

It seemed that Fang Qiu had to make a breakthrough today, no matter what.

However, even though there were many giant lizards, there were also more special forces warriors present.

If he were to make a move himself, it would probably be difficult for him to protect all these warriors.

These special troops were cultivated by the country through hard work. To lose any of them would be an immeasurable loss for the country.

In the case of protecting them, how could he deal with the giant lizards?

The only way was to improve their strength!

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu took a deep breath and said to the special soldiers, "The real training begins. From now on, each squadron should attack me with all your might, one after another!"

Medical Master

Chapter 609: Make All Of Them Break Through to Martial Practitioner Realm!

A soldier's duty was to carry out any orders issued!

Fang Qiu's words were an order issued to the thousand special soldiers!

Although they did not know why Fang Qiu did this, they were determined to become stronger and more useful when they saw that Fang Qiu was using only sand to protect all of them totally!

Therefore, they did not have any doubts.

Led by the ten vice-captains, everyone began to train according to Fang Qiu's instructions.

They completely forgot about the giant lizards on the other side of the sand wall.

Time ticked by.

All the soldiers tried to launch wave upon wave of attacks on Fang Qiu, but they could not even touch the hem of his clothes.

During this hour, the occasional thudding of feet and the roars of the giant lizards came from the sand wall, but no one paid any attention to them because they had spent all their energy on the training.

As for the three tomb raiders, they had been knocked out by the special forces some time ago, so they did not know what was happening at all.

An hour later, Fang Qiu looked at the 1,000 soldiers in front of him, who had almost been stretched to their limit, opening their mouths wide and gasping in pain.

Fang Qiu smiled.

This was the effect he wanted!

However, the training was not over yet!

“Attack!” The captain’s order sounded again.

In the front row, the special forces soldiers, who were so exhausted that they could not even stand straight, rushed wildly toward Fang Qiu again and waved their fists.

The continuous crazy attacks not only consumed their strength but also their consciousness. At this moment, they had forgotten why they were going to attack Fang Qiu. But they did not know what the reason was in the first place. Now their actions of attacking Fang Qiu were like that of a machine.

Fang Qiu defended the sand wall while forcing the first squadron to retreat.

Less than a minute later, a squadron of a hundred people fell to the ground, totally worn out.

“Is that all you’ve got?”

“Stand up and continue to fight!” Fang Qiu shouted.

The 100 special soldiers roared and propped up their bodies even though they were in great pain.

They did not retreat to wait for the next round.

Instead, with the help of the power brought on by the roars, they struck out fiercely at Fang Qiu again.

After a while, “Hmm?”

The soldiers, who were exhausted and could barely stand up initially, suddenly stood firm after several continuous crazy attacks and being beaten back by Fang Qiu.

There seemed to be a fountain of continuous spurts of energy in their bodies, which had no power at all.

The sense of powerlessness disappeared!

Clenching their fists, they felt like they were reborn!

“I, I made a breakthrough.”

The first person to break through was surprised and shouted excitedly.

“I made a breakthrough.”

For a time the soldiers broke through one after another, in the squadron of 100 people.

The soldiers of the other nine squadrons who were so tired that they did not even want to move their eyes, heard the elated roars. When they heard the surprised shouts filled with confidence, they all looked up and saw that their comrades-in-arms who were training together were jumping around in excitement. They stared blankly at them.

Meanwhile, the desire to make a breakthrough was intensified in an instant.

Fang Qiu shouted, “You can leave now. Let’s continue on with the next team!”

The second squadron immediately rushed up.

Soon, they made a breakthrough.

Then, he would go on to the next squadron!

When the third squadron attacked, the soldiers of the third squadron also began to break through, Fang Qiu, who had to protect the sand wall and resist the attacks of the soldiers at the same time, suddenly trembled.

"I made a breakthrough!"

"I've also broken through."

The shouts of surprise were heard from the third squadron of soldiers.

Listening to the shouts of surprise and joy, Fang Qiu could not help but smile wryly.

"I've also broken through." He sighed helplessly to himself.

Fang Qiu secretly breathed a sigh of relief, raised his head and shouted with determination, "Again!"

From this moment on, not only did he have to protect the sand wall and train the soldiers, but he also had to use part of his attention to control the agitation of the internal Qi caused by the breakthrough just now!

Fang Qiu had experienced this kind of situation once before.

However, last time, before he really broke through, his internal Qi was already extremely restless. But now, he had already broken through, which made the internal Qi's restlessness become even stronger than the last time.

"Five days."

Suppressing the restless internal Qi, Fang Qiu secretly estimated, "There are at most five days left. In these five days, I must find the Heaven Treasure, no matter what!"

The reason why the internal Qi in Fang Qiu's body was agitated was because after the breakthrough, not only would it attract the Heaven and Earth energy around him, but also a wave of energy would be produced in his body. This energy came from the meridians of his limbs and bones. At the same time, the energy would quickly gather together and rush to the next meridian that had not been fully reopened yet.

The reason why Fang Qiu wanted to practice all over again was because he wanted to reopen the meridians.

The breakthrough was the best opportunity to reopen and expand his meridians!

At this moment, what Fang Qiu was suppressing was the internal Qi that was ready to rush to the next meridian. He blocked it from all the meridians which had been reopened now.

Without the Heaven Treasure, Fang Qiu could not let this energy enter the next meridian easily. Although this energy could easily reopen the meridian without the help of the Heaven Treasure, the meridian would not be reopened but instead would burst!

The most important thing was that according to his estimation last time, if he wanted to reopen the meridian with the help of the breakthrough this time, the Heaven Treasure needed to be ranked at least 24 or higher!

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu felt even more distressed.

There was no other way.

The training had to go on.

He shouted, "Again!"

Fang Qiu did three things at one time, constantly defending the sand wall, training the soldiers and suppressing his internal Qi.

His hard work paid off.

Under Fang Qiu's training, these special forces soldiers broke through, one team after another.

An hour later, all 1,000 soldiers were promoted to martial arts practitioners!

The tiredness they felt before had been swept away. Everyone seemed to be in high spirits.

"Assemble!" When the last person broke through, Fang Qiu shouted.

1,000 people immediately formed a square formation and gathered in front of Fang Qiu.

Fang Qiu asked loudly, "Can you feel the new power that belongs to you?"

"Yes sir!" 1,000 people answered in unison.

"Very well. The training this time was not in vain and no one was left behind."

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and then continued, "Next, I'll remove the sand wall and prepare for a new battle. These giant lizards are not easy to deal with. Even if you make a breakthrough, you still can't fight them with your strength alone. In order to avoid being injured, all of you will be divided into ten teams. Once you encounter the giant lizards, you will have to fight as a team of 100 people against the lizard. Do you understand?"

1,000 people shouted at the same time, "Understood!"

"Okay." Fang Qiu turned around, took a deep breath and waved his right hand.

In front of him, the sand wall that had been holding off the giant lizards suddenly fell like the water flow in a waterfall.

“Bang, bang, bang...” At the same time, the sounds of countless giant lizards striding forward could be heard.

The sand wall had just dispersed.

Two giant lizards immediately headed for Fang Qiu and opened their mouths wide to bite him.

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted coldly.

Without holding back, he directly unleashed his strongest battle strength, which was the Guru Realm!

As the two giant lizards pounced in front of him, Fang Qiu’s right palm moved forward. His internal Qi burst forth. With his palm as the center, the internal Qi instantly condensed into a transparent energy wall in front of him.

“Smack!” Two giant lizards slammed heavily against the energy wall.

It seemed that they could bite Fang Qiu as long as they opened their mouths, but no matter how much they tried, they could not touch Fang Qiu at all.

“Kill!” Fang Qiu withdrew his palm slightly and then hit out again, dashing directly on the energy wall in front of him.

“Boom!” The strike not only broke the energy wall into pieces but also flung the two giant lizards away and made them hit the sand dune not far away.

At the next moment, dozens of huge heads suddenly appeared behind the sand dune.

They were all giant lizards!

Fang Qiu was stunned as he took a look.

He found that the giant lizards that he saw three days ago, which were five or six meters long, seemed to be the small ones. The two lizards that he had flung away were only five or six meters long. However, those lizards that popped out behind the sand dune had reached the length of eight or nine meters or even ten meters!

At this moment, it was not only Fang Qiu, but all the soldiers were also shocked.

“Be careful. Remember the tactics!”

Fang Qiu took a deep breath, turned around and said to the 1,000 special forces soldiers. Then he moved and directly rushed into the group of giant lizards. He flew up into the air and waved his fists.

One punch at a time. The giant lizards were all killed!

But more and more giant lizards kept appearing. No one knew where they came from, but soon there were a large number of them.

There were so many giant carnivorous lizards. Even if they were not guardian beasts and it was easy to kill them, it would take some time to kill all of them!

Fang Qiu could only keep accelerating his speed of killing.

On the other side, none of the special soldiers dared to move recklessly. Each and every one of them held the posture of guarding and defending.

However, when Fang Qiu rushed to the center of the crowd of giant lizards, the two giant lizards which could not attack Fang Qiu dashed wildly all the way toward the 1,000 special forces soldiers.

Hundreds of bullets came flying at the two giant lizards.

However, when the bullets hit the giant lizards, they left only little dents, but did not hurt them at all. The bullets even bounced off the hides of the giant lizards.

The soldiers were all astonished when they saw that.

Under the command of the captain, they were immediately divided into ten squadrons. The first squadron and the second squadron surrounded the two giant lizards. The other eight squadrons formed a shield around them to prevent other giant lizards from rushing over again.

Although they were surrounded, their bullets were useless. The attacks from these special soldiers did not cause any damage to the giant lizards!

The soldiers grew anxious.

Right at this moment, Fang Qiu, who caused a bloodshed among the lizards, smashed the two giant lizards to death. Then, he turned to the special forces and shouted, "Attack their throats and eyes!"

Chapter 610: Three Thousand Meters Deep Pit!

"Team One, fire!"

After hearing Fang Qiu's shout, the two squadrons encircling the two giant lizards lined up at the same time and aimed their guns at the eyes of the giant lizards.

"Pa, Pa, Pa..."

They fired without any hesitation.

As the soldiers of the other nine teams holding military arms were on the alert for any attacks from the giant lizards, the members of the two teams fired.

Because of its huge size, the eyes of the giant lizards were also very big.

The people present were all special forces.

As special soldiers, shooting accurately was the most basic skill that they needed to master.

Undoubtedly, even though the giant lizards were constantly moving, they could not dodge the bullets. In the blink of an eye, the eyes of the two giant lizards were hit.

“Roar, roar...” When their eyeballs burst, the two giant lizards went crazy.

They opened their mouths wide and roared toward the sky. Meanwhile, their movements became even faster and stronger than before.

The soldiers around them immediately retreated in shock.

“Retreat, retreat!” The vice-captain shouted.

Upon hearing this, the soldiers hurriedly retreated.

They ran rapidly. Fortunately, they made a breakthrough after Fang Qiu’s training. Otherwise, they really could not run so fast.

As the soldiers retreated, two angry giant lizards roared wildly on the spot. They kept turning around and swishing their tails, trying to strike out at everything that came near them.

As they roared furiously and struck out violently, the two giant lizards actually collided with each other. They hit each other with their tails and then bit each other. Their fight looked extremely cruel and bloody!

The soldiers had retreated to a safe place. Everyone raised their guns and aimed at the throats of the two giant lizards. However, the two giant lizards were crouching on the ground, making it impossible for the soldiers to hit their throats.

But when the two giant lizards became entangled and bit each other, their throats were finally exposed.

“Fire!” The captain ordered.

“Pa, Pa, Pa...”

Countless gunshots rang out at the same time.

Bullets rained down on the throats of the two giant lizards.

In the blink of an eye, huge holes appeared on the throats of the two giant lizards and blood gushed out immediately.

“Roar, roar...” The two giant lizards were furious. They growled and gradually stopped moving.

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

“They’re dead!”

“What the f*ck, what kind of monster is this?”

“Fortunately, we have a mysterious drillmaster with us, or we will all die here today!”

“What nonsense are you talking about? If it weren’t for the mysterious drillmaster, would we have come to this desert? If we were not here, it would be these three tomb raiders who would be killed!”

“These monsters are too scary. Although Lop Nor is out at the front, there are often people coming over here for sightseeing, photo taking and so on. If the mysterious drillmaster had not brought us here, we would not have known that there were such monsters in the desert. Maybe these monsters have already eaten a lot of people.”

The soldiers began a heated discussion on this topic.

On the other side, there were carcasses everywhere.

As they looked around, they could see that the yellow sand was soaked in blood. The sandy ground was densely covered with the carcasses of the giant lizards.

All these giant lizards were killed by punches. Some of them had their heads smashed and some of them had their bodies shattered.

When they looked up, Fang Qiu, who had gone all out, was floating more than a meter in the air, above the carcasses.

At this moment, the eyes of all the thousand soldiers changed when they looked at Fang Qiu.

There was shock, admiration and worship in their eyes!

It took the members from the two squadrons such a long time to kill the two giant lizards. And they did it with the help of Fang Qiu’s instructions. However, while they were killing the two giant lizards, Fang Qiu had already killed hundreds of thousands of them.

How could they not be shocked? How could they not admire him?

In mid-air, Fang Qiu looked around. After making sure that there were no more living lizards, he moved and flew directly to the front of the 1,000 soldiers.

As soon as he landed, Fang Qiu shouted, “All of you, leave right away. Don’t let anyone enter Lop Nor!”

The soldiers immediately lined up.

“Master, what about you?” The captain ran up to him and asked.

Fang Qiu turned around, narrowed his eyes and stared at Lop Nor. He took a deep breath and said, “I want to go in and take a look. If I don’t come out in three days, tell Li Ji that no one should come here unless he is a guru!”

Although there were only five days left for him to find the Heaven Treasure, Fang Qiu knew that this place was a disaster area. All the giant carnivorous lizards here had to be wiped out. Otherwise, if the lizards ran out, it would inevitably cause great harm to the tourist attractions around the Taklimakan desert. Once they ran out of the desert and entered the city, it would be even more dangerous.

“No way!” When he heard what Fang Qiu said, the captain immediately shook his head and said, “We’re comrades-in-arms. I’ll never give up on my comrade. There must be a lot of giant lizards in Lop Nor. Even if you’re powerful, you’ll be in great danger if you go in alone. If you insist on staying, I’ll go with you!”

“You’re not giving up on me.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “We all have jobs to do. You are responsible for reporting the news secretly. I’ll be checking out the situation. Besides, with your strength, you can’t help even if you stay. Instead, you may be in great danger. If you can, please take back the Desert Cistanche for me. Li Ji knows what to do.”

“But...” The captain was a little hesitant.

After all, during these three days, Fang Qiu had been training in his team. In addition, they had just killed so many giant lizards together and experienced life and death together. In their eyes, Fang Qiu had become their comrade-in-arms, so they were all worried about Fang Qiu.

“There is no ‘but’.”

Fang Qiu said in a low voice, "Carry out the order!"

"Yes, sir!" The captain gritted his teeth and stood upright to salute him.

"All of you, evacuate!" The captain ordered.

All the soldiers lined up and turned to leave.

Fang Qiu stood where he was.

He watched the special forces warriors depart.

Only after all the soldiers left did he resolutely turn around and walk toward Lop Nor!

When Fang Qiu walked into Lop Nor, all the special soldiers stopped, turned around and silently saluted sincerely in the direction of Lop Nor.

Although they were amazed by Fang Qiu's strength, they also knew that he would definitely be in great danger once he got into Lop Nor. Fang Qiu might never be able to come back this time.

Otherwise, he would not have said such things to the captain.

As soldiers, they knew how Fang Qiu felt.

He did it for the country. Even if he knew that he needed to risk his life in the most dangerous place, he would never back down!

...

Entering Lop Nor, Fang Qiu directly flew up to a height of about five meters. While suppressing the surging internal Qi in his body, he flew slowly to check the situation on the ground.

...

However, before Fang Qiu could fly up to about five kilometers, he found a big pit!

It was a huge round hole that had been created by a bomb blast.

"This is it?" Fang Qiu thought.

Earlier, the captain said that a nuclear explosion experiment had been carried out in Lop Nor. The experiment site was located in the underground cave of these giant carnivorous lizards.

It was the only trace of an explosion within a radius of ten kilometers.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu descended slowly and carefully checked the huge round hole under his feet.

As soon as he dropped to about three meters above the ground, Fang Qiu immediately stopped and stared at the bottom of the round pit, which was a hole that could be entered from the side!

At the edge of the big hole, although it had eroded badly, he could still see the shape of the stalactites.

There must be a wide underground cave within this small hole.

"It's really here." Fang Qiu immediately descended.

He did not know until he descended.

The depth of this huge round pit was actually over a hundred meters.

He could imagine how powerful the nuclear explosion was!

Soon, Fang Qiu landed in mid-air, which was about seven or eight meters away from the hole at the bottom.

...

“Pitter-patter...” At this moment, the sounds of scampering of feet could be heard from the cave.

“Hmm?” Fang Qiu frowned.

...

At the next moment, three or four giant lizards rushed out of the cave at lightning speed.

“Great Hand of Destruction!” Without any hesitation, Fang Qiu raised his right hand and gave them a fierce smack.

In an instant, these gigantic lizards were turned into meat pies!

“Sure enough, it’s here.” Secretly muttering to himself, Fang Qiu swiftly got into the cave.

After entering the cave, Fang Qiu found that although the cave looked small, it was very wide inside.

The strangest thing was that the cave was not horizontal, but vertical!

It was like a huge abyss. As soon as Fang Qiu entered, he began to fall.

It was pitch-black inside. If it were an ordinary person entering it, he would not be able to see anything.

Fortunately, Fang Qiu was a super expert in the Guru Realm. He could see everything in the cave clearly with his night vision.

As Fang Qiu was falling, he kept observing the situation on all sides.

He found that there were cliffs all around. This place was like a vertical pit with a diameter of about 20 meters. There were some sticky liquids on the surrounding cliffs, which looked a little disgusting.

He looked down again.

“Buzz...” A gust of cold wind suddenly blew across from the endless darkness below and it had a distinctive fishy smell.

At this moment, “Pitter-patter...”

The sound of the giant lizards’ feet pattering on the ground could be heard.

On the sides of the cliffs below, there were more than a dozen giant lizards. These lizards moved fast in the dark and kept dashing about madly. For them, the vertical cliff walls were like flat ground, which did not hinder their movements at all.

“Kill!” Fang Qiu immediately took action. As he fell rapidly, he kept waving his hands. By using the Great Hand of Destruction, he directly killed all the giant lizards that were climbing up, one after another!

After a while, the speed of Fang Qiu’s rapidly falling body began to slow down.

“Three thousand meters!”

Along the way, the cave was close to 3,000 meters deep, which surprised Fang Qiu very much. He did not expect that the underground cave was so deep. After all, even if it was a nuclear explosion, it could only blow out a round pit of about 100 meters in depth.
