Chapter 691: The List Showing the Young Surpassing the Old

“@Who do you think you are! Fang Qiu is making use of all the Chinese Medicine practitioners and charging for the knowledge that should have been shared. Shame on you!”

After his Weibo post directed at Fang Qiu with this question “Do you deserve it?” received a lot of attention from numerous people, the man named Xiong Yibing once again posted new accusations.

He was still targeting Fang Qiu.

However, this time, he was no longer as angry as before.

Because of the increase in the number of his fans and the criticism from the people targeted at Fang Qiu, he felt that his value had been made known to everyone. After he proved his value, he was no longer so jealous and resentful about Fang Qiu making money. Instead, he was more interested in increasing his personal popularity.

However...

However, as soon as he posted his Weibo, he angered Fang Qiu’s fans in an instant.

“You’re talking nonsense again?”

“Did Fang Qiu f*cking use you?”

“He made money by himself. What’s wrong with that?”

“The knowledge that should have been shared? Then according to what you said, shouldn’t all the schools in the country be free of charge? Shouldn’t all the books related to education be given for free? It’s really unreasonable!”

The fans’ anger came to such to an extent that some people also found a Weibo answer that Xiong Yibing made, which could be seen only if you paid. Then the person took a screenshot and left a comment below his Weibo.

“This is the payment option you’ve set up. @Don’t you feel it is a slap in the face?”

“If you have the guts, don’t make any money out of this at all. I will look down on you even if you make a penny!”

...

However, facing the counterattack of Fang Qiu’s fans, Xiong Yizhou was not bothered about it at all. Instead, he posted another thread on Weibo. “Fang Qiu, I’m still waiting for your reply. @Who do you think you are?”

Fang Qiu’s fans quickly flooded the comment area of his new post.

“You’re really a fu*king drama queen!”

“You graduated from a drama queen’s academy, didn’t you?”

“Do you think it is amusing for you to pull this whole thing off?”

“A person like you should be locked up in the mental hospital!”

Under Yao Jie’s lead, Fang Qiu left the Xiongcheng Hotel from the back door. He got in Yao Jie’s car and headed downtown.

Fang Qiu asked, "Aren't we going to Jiangnan?"

Yao Jie said, "For this business fair, the chairman especially moved from Jiangnan to Jianghang. He also has a house here. Before the fair began, he told us that we could take you to his villa in Jianghang if you wanted to see him."

"Oh." Fang Qiu nodded with understanding.

When he thought about it carefully, it was not surprising at all. After all, Yang Ningyuan was one of the top 50 richest people in the country. It was normal for him to own seven or eight villas, let alone two.

Soon, the car drove into a very famous road along the riverbank in Jianghang.

This was the gathering place of all the rich in Jianghang. There were no recreation facilities here and was one of the quietest areas in Jianghang.

This was the rich area of Jianghang.

They took a detour along the way for a while.

Yao Jie drove into the neighborhood and stopped in front of a villa built by the river.

"I've already informed the chairman. We can just go in directly."

After saying that, Yao Jie brought Fang Qiu into the villa.

"Congratulations, congratulations." As soon as they entered the door, Yang Ningyuan, who was sitting on the sofa in the living room immediately got up and greeted them with a smile, saying, "Fang Qiu, this business fair has been really successful."

"Thank you."

Then he thanked him. "Thank you for your help. If you had not lent such a good man to me, I'm afraid I would not have been able to hold this business fair myself."

"Haha." Yang Ningyuan laughingly accepted his thanks.

"Actually, I'm here for something else this time."

After Yang Ningyuan pulled him to the sofa, Fang Qiu did not bother to beat around the bush and said directly, "I may not have time to deal with these affairs. Besides, I don't know much about the following procedures, so I'm wondering if I can leave the whole negotiation to you."

Yang Ningyuan was stunned when he heard that.

"You're really bold."

After being momentarily stunned, Yang Ningyuan opened his mouth, "There is nearly one billion yuan here. Aren't you afraid that I'll take it all?"

"I believe in your financial resources. You won't be tempted by this little money."

Fang Qiu smiled slightly and continued, "Besides, I believe in you."

"It seems that I can't refuse."

Yang Ningyuan shook his head with a smile and said, "All right!"

Then, Fang Qiu took out a file bag which he received during a break in the business fair.

He took out two copies of the letter of authorization from the bag.

He signed the letter immediately.

Without hesitation, Yang Ningyuan signed his name directly.

After signing, it meant that Fang Qiu had officially authorized Yang Ningyuan to be in charge of his business matter, which was then duly validated.

Putting away the letter, Yang Ningyuan said, “If you have anything to do, just go ahead. I will definitely help you to handle this well.”

“Thank you.”

Fang Qiu thanked him, then took out a list from the file and said, “I also have something to trouble you with. I don’t have any way to deal with it, but I believe you have.”

After that, he handed the list in his hand to Yang Ningyuan.

Yang Ningyuan took it and looked at it curiously.

He was shocked after taking a glance.

He had reached this point in his life when there were only a few things in the world that could shock him, but he could not deny that Fang Qiu’s list really amazed him.

“You... what do you mean?”

With his eyes fixed on the list, Yang Ningyuan asked, with a puzzled frown.

Fang Qiu said, "I'll spend this money."

"Are you sure?" Yang Ningyuan looked at Fang Qiu in shock.

"I'm sure."

Fang Qiu nodded with certainty and said, "I can only entrust this to you. I don't have so many connections."

"Well..."

Taking a deep breath and suppressing his shock, Yang Ningyuan suddenly laughed and said, "Okay!"

"I've been doing business for so many years, but I've never seen anyone operating the way you do. With this list, I can't help but feel that the younger generation can surpass the elder generation!"

After exclaiming, Yang Ningyuan asked meaningfully, "If you do this, there should be other follow-up moves, right?"

Fang Qiu answered, "Of course, this money can't be spent in vain."

Then.

Then the two of them looked at each other and smiled.

It seemed that as powerful figures in their own industries, they were starting to admire each other.

Yang Ningyuan also completely put aside everything that had happened before and looked at Fang Qiu as his equal for the first time.

This time, he had to admire him.

Although this piece of paper looked thin, once it was taken out, anyone who saw it would be extremely shocked!

Those who wanted to see Fang Qiu in a dilemma would be shocked and would give him heartfelt praises when they saw Fang Qiu's method of breaking the deadlock.

"By the way."

When Fang Qiu was about to leave, he asked, "Do you know where the strictest commodity inspection agency is?"

"It's in Luhai."

Yang Ningyuan answered and then told Fang Qiu a name and a detailed address.

Soon, Fang Qiu left the villa.

"Brother." After Fang Qiu left, Yang Ningyu came out of a room on the second floor of the villa and asked curiously, "What's in that list?"

As he was speaking, he ran down to the first floor.

Yang Ningyuan did not answer!

Soon.

Soon, Yang Ningyu ran to the tea table in the living room on the first floor and picked up the paper to have a look.

He was instantly stunned.

Yang Ningyu asked in great shock.

“Yes.”

Yang Ningyuan nodded and said, “It’s a surprisingly wonderful move. I’m impressed, not only you!”

Speaking of this, Yang Ningyuan smiled slightly and added, “Besides, Fang Qiu came here personally to ask me for help. He is not a person who will let others suffer any loss. It seems that he wants to ask me for help, but in fact, he has given me a lot of benefits.”

“So smart.”

“He has such great wisdom at such a young age. This kid is amazing!”

Yang Ningyuan kept complimenting him.

Next to him, Yang Ningyu stopped talking.

Previously he thought that Yang Ningyuan’s comments about Fang Qiu was exaggerated, but now he was completely convinced because that piece of paper really amazed him.

Fang Qiu left the villa.

Yao Jie drove him to the city. After Fang Qiu got out of the car, Yao Jie drove back to his company in Jiangnan.

As for Fang Qiu, he went to the largest supermarket in Jianghang and bought the ten products from the ten companies that had won the advertising slots in the fair.

It included energy drinks, biscuits, milk drinks, mineral water, washing supplies, spices and even sanitary pads.

After buying all the items, Fang Qiu directly took a taxi to the high-speed railway station and bought a ticket to Luhai without any delay.

Fang Qiu would test all the things that he could eat and drink.

As for the sanitary pads and the washing supplies, he could not test them himself. He had to go to the strictest commodity inspection agency and let them do a quality check on the items.

On the high-speed train, Fang Qiu opened a bottle of mineral water first.

After taking a sip, he immediately closed his eyes and used Insight to observe the changes caused by the mineral water in his body. He wondered if it would lead to any counterattack from the internal Qi in his body.

After all, Fang Qiu was a super expert in the Guru Realm. The self-defense power in his body was much stronger than that of ordinary people. Because of his extreme strength, his internal Qi was all over his body and the internal Qi in his body was also very sensitive. Once anything harmful appeared in his body, the internal Qi in his body would definitely fight back immediately.

Of course, if there was no movement of internal Qi, it meant that it was harmless to the human body.

Ten minutes later, Fang Qiu found that the mineral water did not cause anything abnormal. He was completely fine.

He confirmed that the mineral water was harmless.

Next, Fang Qiu took out an energy drink to drink.

He continued his check after drinking.

An hour and a half had passed.

Fang Qiu ate all the biscuits, milk drinks and even the seasoning.

There was nothing wrong with these products.

“They are indeed large enterprises and groups. They have good quality control.”

Fang Qiu was very satisfied.

After testing these products, Fang Qiu directly took out his mobile phone and booked a chauffeured car when he was about to arrive at the station.

After getting off the high-speed train, Fang Qiu directly got in the chauffeured car and went straight to the strictest commodity agency in Luhai.

On the way, Fang Qiu was bored.

Therefore, he logged into Weibo to have a look. When he saw the comments on his Weibo and how the fans were so protective of him, Fang Qiu was moved and wanted to thank every fan from the bottom of his heart.

How glorious it was to know that a person who had never met him would do everything to protect him.

As for the comments from those anti-fans, Fang Qiu did not care about them at all.

He had a clear conscience. Besides, he had not made a move yet!

Chapter 692: How Does It Feel To Have A Rich Friend?

After reading the comments, Fang Qiu found that all the ten advertising companies followed him on Weibo, so Fang Qiu also followed them on Weibo.

At the same time, people on the Internet also had a heated discussion for the entire afternoon.

Especially, 848 million plus 150 million was nearly one billion, which made it the focus of the discussion. More and more people joined in the discussion.

“A billionaire at the age of 18!”

“Damn it, he’s a life winner. If I’m 18 years old, I might be hooking up with a girl somewhere in the city. Look at him! He has already gained a fortune of one billion.”

“He won’t be a sophomore until the new semester starts. If I had not seen it with my own eyes, I would not have believed that an 18-year-old sophomore could earn so much money. It’s really amazing.”

Even as everyone was having a heated discussion, they were still waiting.

Because this news appeared out of nowhere, no one could be sure whether it was true or not. They were all waiting for the media to announce which companies won the bid. Did the ten companies really give so much money to Fang Qiu? Or was it only fake news?

After all, the amount of money was enormous.

How many people in the world had a net worth of one billion?

How many were there in Huaxia?

However, just as everyone was discussing fiercely, someone suddenly found that Fang Qiu's Weibo account was online. Not only was he online, but the number of his followers had also increased.

There were exactly ten of them.

People quickly clicked on it to check.

It turned out that the ten new Weibo accounts that Fang Qiu had followed were the official Weibo accounts of 10 companies.

When they looked again, they found that the ten companies had also followed Fang Qiu.

Soon, this matter was exposed by some netizens below Fang Qiu's Weibo.

When people looked into it, they found that it was indeed true.

For a moment, netizens felt that they had discovered a great piece of news.

"The list of the ten companies are out!"

"The ten companies that bought Fang Qiu's advertising slots are now known!"

"F*ck, these ten companies are all rich. They are top-notch in their own field in the country."

"This is too awesome. These ten giant groups actually appeared together. I've never seen this in my life!"

“If these 10 companies bought it, then it’s really possible to earn 848 million!”

In the heated discussion, many netizens flooded into the official Weibo of the ten companies.

“Did your company really buy Fang Qiu’s advertising slot?”

“Congratulations on buying Fang Qiu’s advertising slot.”

“What a rich company! You actually managed to get an slot despite the competition from so many big companies. Awesome!”

“You deserve to be a top company. Only you have the courage to spend so much money to buy Fang Qiu’s advertising slots.”

“Are you still recruiting? I’m a third-class student in our dormitory. I’m definitely talented!”

Soon.

Soon, the official Weibo of the ten companies became popular.

People from the top ten companies saw this.

None of them had expected that to happen.

They did not announce the news yet, but it had already gone viral.

They did not hesitate anymore. The official Weibo accounts of the ten companies immediately admitted and made all kinds of statements. Although they were worded differently, they all expressed the same meaning, saying that they would cooperate well with Mr. Fang in the future.

As soon as the official Weibo accounts announced the news, the public relations and marketing teams of those companies immediately began to make their move. With crazy publicity from the media, not only the Weibo accounts of the major media, but also the Weibo accounts, WeChat marketing official accounts of the media and even people from the TV stations quickly reported the interviews held with the ten companies.

In addition, various other reports appeared one after another.

In these reports, the ten companies also confirmed the prices of the biddings.

Then, these ten large companies began to surpass Fang Qiu and grabbed the headlines of the major news.

Of course, it was not only the publicity and marketing, but the attention of netizens was of great use.

In addition, in the event of Fang Qiu's non-appearance, these ten companies were now the focus of the people's discussion. They only hoped that Fang Qiu would speak a bit later so that they would have enough time to achieve the best marketing effect.

In fact, Fang Qiu did not have time to come out and talk at all. At this time, he was busy testing the products.

It was not until 10 o'clock in the evening that Fang Qiu received the final test results.

The results confirmed that the products of the ten companies were completely in accordance with their product and labeling descriptions. And there were no harmful components in them.

Seeing the final test results, Fang Qiu was relieved and took out his mobile phone to call Yang Ningyuan.

"Hello?" When the phone was connected, Yang Ningyuan's voice was heard.

Fang Qiu said, "Brother Yuan, the products have all passed the test. You can sign the contract."

“You’re quite efficient.”

Yang Ningyuan answered with a smile, “Leave the rest to me.”

After that, he hung up.

He immediately called Yao Jie and asked him to take Fang Qiu’s letter of authorization to contact those companies and sign the contract tomorrow!

Fang Qiu did not take a break at all.

After getting the results, Fang Qiu directly took a chauffeured car, returned to the high-speed railway station and then rushed back to Jianghang overnight.

Once again, he came to Qicheng Animation Limited Liability Company.

Fang Qiu told the staff who were working overtime, about the ten companies and began to talk about how to insert the s in the CG animation video.

But in the end...

When the staff members learned of the ten companies, they actually burst into laughter because the products of these ten companies had nothing in common with the contents of the CG animation video.

The only thing that could be connected with them was probably the energy drinks.

“How come there is Feeling Free?”

“This... is a sanitary pad. Are you sure it’s really a CG animation about meridians?”

With the arrival of Fang Qiu, the people who were depressed while working overtime were suddenly relieved, especially after learning of the identities of the ten companies, which made everyone laugh.

They laughed so much that even Fang Qiu felt embarrassed.

“There’s nothing I can do.”

With an embarrassed and wry smile, Fang Qiu said, “They have paid for it.”

Then they began to discuss the matter merrily.

The most important thing was Fang Qiu’s personal opinion.

As soon as Fang Qiu told them his ideas, everyone burst out laughing.

“Genius!”

“This idea... Haha.”

“It’s really a genius idea!”

Then, they began to discuss the various details.

It was not until the next day when Yao Jie called Fang Qiu to confirm the signing of the contract, that the original placement design was determined for the final design.

Everything had been in an uproar for a day.

But Fang Qiu still did not respond. The media did not know where he was at all.

Despite the uproar on the Internet, Fang Qiu still did not make an appearance for a long time, which caused the anti-fans to go crazy.

“You don’t even dare to show your face?”

“Look, Fang Qiu must be hiding, waiting for this matter to fade away.”

“How dare you make money in the name of Chinese Medicine but you don’t even dare to admit it? Are you actually hiding now?”

On the other side.

In fact, Fang Qiu had been waiting for the ten companies to settle the payment. He did not care about the news on the Internet at all. He did not want to join in either. Anyway, everyone would have their opinions on the Internet. Getting involved in those debates might make things worse.

The chairman of Zhiyuan Group, Yang Ningyuan, had also left for the capital. For the piece of paper that Fang Qiu gave him, he was willing to work.

In the evening of the next day, the staff of the ten companies received the statistics of the daily sales of their products in the major supermarkets. Looking at the surge in sales, they all laughed from ear to ear.

The s had not been broadcasted yet, but it actually had an effect already. At present, the number of sales increased by 20 percent.

This 20% should not be underestimated. It took up a lot of market shares. 20% did not seem much, but in fact, it was already a very shocking figure.

The most important thing was that as time went by, the sales would inevitably get higher and higher.

The effect, which had just shown its power, made the staff from the ten companies feel that the advertising slots were really worth the money!

What made it better was that the storm caused by Fang Qiu was far from subsiding. Now almost all the major platforms were filled with all kinds of topics about Fang Qiu, including Fang Qiu's high school post-bar, his city post-bar, the county post-bar, the university post-bar and so on. All of them were occupied by all kinds of people in the network.

They were all asking, "Do you know Fang Qiu?"

Those post-bars which did not get much attention normally, suddenly became popular because of this.

And those people in the post-bar were even more confused!

Looking at the sudden appearance of other people in the post-bar, they were stunned and said, "We don't know Fang Qiu!"

Although they did not actually know Fang Qiu, they were related to Fang Qiu in some aspects. Therefore, everyone was very proud of Fang Qiu.

Thanks to Fang Qiu, the ten companies also appeared in some trending topics and received a lot of publicity.

It was more than just Weibo and post-bar.

Even Zhihu was filled with information about Fang Qiu.

A person had asked this question before, "How does it feel like to have a rich friend?"

A few days passed after it was posted.

There was a new answer to the question today, “I have a friend who studied very well in high school. He was originally a celebrity in our school. Unexpectedly, his score in the college entrance examination was quite high, but he chose to go to a medical university.”

“Originally, everyone pitied him. This score should have allowed him to enter any of the top ten universities in the country and then enable him to make a great contribution to the country. However, he chose a medical college. Everyone was very puzzled about why he made such a choice.”

“But in the end...”

“During his first year of college, he published a paper, which caused an international sensation.”

“Then, he went to a Chinese Medicine show. The show was a great success and he won first place.”

“A few days later, he healed someone of cancer on TV.”

“A few days later, he challenged six listed companies. Not only did he devastate those companies, but he also made most of the pharmaceutical companies in Huaxia become more cautious about their businesses.”

“A few days later, he found the meridians.”

“The killing part was that yesterday, he actually made nearly one billion in a day.”

“Yes, he is Fang Qiu.”

“I was his high school classmate.”

“When you asked me how I felt, I just wanted to ask why it was not one billion, but 998 million. Are you leaving 200 million to force me to death, as I have OCD?”

As soon as the answer came out, thousands of likes and comments soon accumulated.

“I feel sorry for the writer. It’s really hard to have such an obsessive disorder!”

“A deep resentment from Fang Qiu’s classmate.”

“I want Fang Qiu’s contact information and the photos of Fang Qiu in high school.”

“As far as I’m concerned, the writer can start a column. How about we call it ‘The Entanglement Between Me and Fang Qiu’?”

Seeing everyone’s enthusiasm, the writer also replied, “I want to maintain a low profile. Don’t let Fang Qiu know who I am.”

This response made everyone laugh.

Chapter 693: John Doe Shows Up Again!

“Beep, beep, beep...” In the afternoon, Fang Qiu’s phone rang.

“Hello?”

Fang Qiu answered the phone and said, “Manager Yao.”

“Good news.”

Yao Jie’s voice was at the other end of the line. He said, “The ten companies have already paid for the advertisements.”

“So fast?”

Fang Qiu was surprised and said, “Don’t they just need to pay two-thirds of the deposit first and then pay the rest after the finished product comes out?”

“That is indeed the case according to the contract, but now people are in a heated discussion on the Internet. The advertisements have already achieved half of the effect even before the CG animation video is out. Now all the ten companies think that the effect of these advertisements this time is very good, so they settled the payment directly.”

Yao Jie explained with a smile and then added, “There may be further cooperation in the future.”

Fang Qiu answered with a smile, “I see.”

Yao Jie spoke again, “Besides, Mr. Yang has arrived in the capital. The card with your money is also in his hands.”

“Okay, I got it.” Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction.

“In fact, I just wanted to tell you about it.”

Yao Jie chuckled and said, “If there’s nothing else, I’ll hang up first.”

After that, he hung up.

Putting away his phone, Fang Qiu pursed his lips and started to think. He did not have to worry about domestic affairs anymore. Yang Ningyuan would definitely help him with what he should do!

“It seems that it’s almost time.”

After pondering for a while, Fang Qiu murmured, "If I'm a few days late, I'm afraid I won't have a chance to pick the Heaven Treasure. After this trip, I can pick up the Heaven Treasure. It's almost time for the new semester to start when I get back."

"I'll go today!"

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu immediately took out his mobile phone and called home.

"Mom."

When the phone was connected, Fang Qiu said, "Are you at home?"

"Of course I'm home. Kid, the holiday is almost over. Why don't you come back? You are running around outside all the time, making your father and I feel uneasy the whole time."

Fang Qiu's mother started nagging as soon as she picked up his call.

"Nothing happened. I'm fine."

Fang Qiu answered with a smile, and then said, "Mom, have you seen the news?"

"Yes." Fang Qiu's mother nodded.

"Do you know that your son has made a lot of money?" Fang Qiu said proudly.

"Humph."

Fang Qiu's mother snorted and said, "Where's the money?"

"It's gone."

Fang Qiu immediately continued, "Your son is not greedy for money and we're not short of money, so I'm going to donate this money. Therefore, I can't leave any money for the family. Now there are too many people observing my every move. If I take this money, there will be a big problem, so I can't take it."

"Okay."

As soon as Fang Qiu finished speaking, his father's voice came on the other end of the phone. He said, "Dad supports you."

"Yes, Mom also supports you." Fang Qiu's mother added.

"I was thinking about calling dad again just now, but now it seems that I don't need to do that."

Fang Qiu said with a smile and then added, "Mom, Dad, thank you for supporting me."

"There's no need to thank us."

Fang Qiu's father said, "Let me tell you, your mother and I both love money, but we love small amounts only. It's the money that will ensure our stability and safety. That is a huge sum of money and you're too famous. It's easy to attract thieves. It would be a problem even if you bring it home. You can't show off your wealth these days."

"Yes, yes."

Fang Qiu's mother quickly added, "Son, you are still young, so you can make more money in the future. If you want to donate it, just do it."

Listening to his parents echoing each other, Fang Qiu smiled wryly.

He even said that it was easy to attract the attention of thieves.

After Fang Qiu made a phone call to his parents, he called Jiang Miaoyu.

“Did you finally think of me?”

When the call was connected, Jiang Miaoyu’s voice was heard. There was no displeasure, but a bit of surprise in her tone.

She knew that Fang Qiu was so busy that he had no time to talk to her, so she did not call Fang Qiu. Unexpectedly, Fang Qiu called her himself, which made her feel how much Fang Qiu thought of her in his heart. She felt very happy and satisfied.

Fang Qiu said, “I’m always thinking about you.”

Jiang Miaoyu asked, “Really?”

Fang Qiu said this very sincerely and then continued, “Let me ask you a question.”

Jiang Miaoyu nodded. “Okay.”

Fang Qiu asked, “Your boyfriend has become a billionaire now and you are about to become a rich woman. How do you feel now?”

“I don’t feel anything.”

Jiang Miaoyu pursed her lips and said, “You’re still you. And I’m still me.”

“Well, my girlfriend’s realm is really far-sighted.”

Fang Qiu immediately praised her and then his tone softened. He deliberately said bitterly, "Unfortunately, your boyfriend can't even be a billionaire for a day. I'm going to be a poor guy soon. I'll have to rely on you to support me in the future."

"Hmm?"

Jiang Miaoyu was stunned and asked, "What's going on?"

"What's going on? Well, you'll know if you wait a little longer."

Fang Qiu chuckled and said, "There should be news soon. Don't be surprised when you hear it."

"What's there to be surprised about?"

Jiang Miaoyu paused and said, "It's okay as long as you're fine."

"Don't worry. I'm totally fine."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "Then I won't call you during this period of time. You have to take good care of yourself."

"Okay."

Jiang Miaoyu nodded obediently and asked, "Are you busy?"

"I'm quite busy these days."

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, "Although I miss you so much, there's nothing I can do about it. I still have something important to do. Let's meet at school next month when the new semester begins."

"Okay, deal."

Jiang Miaoyu nodded merrily.

After Fang Qiu finished talking to Jiang Miaoyu, he continued to look through the contact list.

When he found Xu Miaolin's phone number and was about to call him, he stopped.

Then, he logged into WeChat and found Xu Miaolin's WeChat ID.

"The money is gone."

It was just a simple sentence.

Fang Qiu still remembered.

It was Xu Miaolin who had given him the idea for this advertisement business. At that time, Xu Miaolin was still staring at him, asking for dividends.

Although he knew that Xu Miaolin would have no objections, Fang Qiu was still worried that Xu Miaolin would deliberately joke with him in a teasing tone if he called. Therefore, he simply sent a WeChat message.

However, Xu Miaolin replied instantly, "Okay!"

There was only one word.

Seeing Xu Miaolin's reply, Fang Qiu grinned.

Mr. Xu was also a man of great wisdom. He knew that he could not keep the money.

Now, Fang Qiu was still young, so he could not hold on to so much money. He now represented Chinese Medicine in the eyes of many people. No matter what happened, he could not afford to besmear his name. This was the limitation of being a role model.

For doctors of Chinese Medicine, this was sad and also stressful.

However, Fang Qiu did not intend to leave any black mark on his name.

He had enough money to spend.

There were hundreds of millions of yuan in his card. He would just leave it in his card even if he had another one billion. Since it was no use to him, he might as well not take it.

After he finished explaining everything, Fang Qiu looked at the time and directly took the high-speed train back to Jiangjing and secretly returned to the school. Then he put on a human-skin mask and transformed into Lin Yu and headed to the high-speed railway station by car.

Without any cover-up, Fang Qiu took the high-speed train directly to the capital.

Then he booked a hotel room in the capital. After having a good meal, he rested in the hotel.

The next morning, Fang Qiu went to the lounge of the airport in the capital.

He had booked the plane ticket and was now waiting to go through the security check.

Because Fang Qiu was now Lin Yu, he did not go straight to the VIP lounge like what he usually did. Instead, he sat directly in the normal lounge with his eyes closed and rested.

However, not long after Fang Qiu sat down, he was targeted by a person who was also waiting in the lounge.

This was a young man in his thirties. He was wearing a suit and had a crew cut. He looked very strong and had a faint aura that was different from that of ordinary people.

This person was a martial arts practitioner!

When he entered the lounge, Fang Qiu had already noticed him, but he did not think too much about it.

But at this moment, the young man had been secretly glancing at Fang Qiu from a distance.

“Mysterious man, John Doe?”

After watching for a while, the young man could not help getting excited.

At that time, John Doe’s photo had been exposed, which caused quite a stir on the entire Wulin online forum. At that time, everyone remembered John Doe’s appearance.

It was the same with this young man.

After looking at Fang Qiu a few more times, the young man was positive that this person was the mysterious man—John Doe.

The young man was excited.

He quickly ran into the toilet and logged into the Wulin online forum with his mobile phone.

"I saw John Doe!"

"He's in the capital airport, the international flight lounge. It seems that he is going to Norway."

The young man directly sent a post.

This post immediately created a discussion among many people.

"Going to Norway?"

"What is John Doe going to do in Norway?"

Many people did not understand.

Why did John Doe suddenly want to go abroad?

After all, the auction of Chic Cloud Pavilion was not completely publicized, so everyone was very curious about John Doe's visit to Norway.

However, those who had participated in the auction of Chic Cloud Pavilion immediately understood when they saw this news.

John Doe was going to Norway to get the Heaven Treasure!

In fact, since the auction in the Chic Cloud Pavilion, there had been people looking for and checking on John Doe. They could not get any information from the young man, so they could only keep an eye on John Doe because if there really was a Heaven Treasure, John Doe would definitely go to Norway when the Heaven Treasure was really about to ripen.

Once John Doe made his move, they could take advantage of this opportunity to follow him.

Many people were eager to have a try. Maybe they would be able to gain something once they got there.

However, after pondering about it carefully, everyone immediately gave up when they thought of John Doe's great strength.

It would be fine if they did not get caught if they followed him.

If they were caught, it would be hard to say whether they would still be able to come back alive.

"Young Master."

In the Pear Garden, a maid following a young man in white, said, "John Doe has shown up. He's in the capital airport, going to Norway."

"Norway?"

The young man stopped, hesitated for a moment and then continued to walk forward. As he walked, he said, "It seems that I have to wait for the next time. If I was not preparing for seclusion, I would have gone to meet him. What a pity."

After that.

After that, he disappeared into the pear tree forest.

Chapter 694: He Donates Money to the Government!

With all the Wulin people watching, Fang Qiu boarded the plane and flew to Norway.

Just as the plane to Norway took off, the first news on the Huaxia Internet came out!

This news was like a time bomb.

The moment it came out, it stunned everyone!

“According to a reliable source, Fang Qiu donated 100 million yuan to the Ministry of Education.”

No one knew where this news came from. Anyway, this piece of news just appeared.

Donated 100 million to the Ministry of Education?

As soon as the news came out, it caused a sensation on the Internet.

Everyone went to the official website of the Ministry of Education to have a look.

Then they saw a new notice on the official website of the Ministry of Education.

“Notice of Mr. Fang Qiu’s Donation!”

“Today, our ministry received a 100 million donation from Mr. Fang Qiu, which will be used to help children, who are unable to attend school in remote mountainous areas all over the country.”

“We hereby compliment Mr. Fang Qiu on his gesture for helping people. Also, on behalf of all the people who will benefit from this help, we extend deep gratitude to Mr. Fang Qiu.”

“Meanwhile, we also want to thank Mr. Fang Qiu for his contribution to the education of our country!”

“The total amount of donation: 100 million.”

“The Huaxia Ministry of Education.”

Next the signature, there was a bright red seal!

The announcement not only confirmed that Fang Qiu had donated 100 million yuan to the Ministry of Education, but also expressed gratitude to Fang Qiu on behalf of all the children living in remote areas of the country, who had no way to attend school.

It was confirmed.

Fang Qiu had really made a donation!

It was impossible for the Ministry of Education to issue fake news.

This time, after Fang Qiu’s fans confirmed the news, they all began to exclaim in delight.

“Haha, that’s awesome!”

“He deserves to be our Master Fang Qiu. He did a good job!”

“Those anti-fans, open your eyes wide and take a good look.”

“Who said that our master, Fang Qiu, is a stingy guy who is greedy for money and only cares about his own benefit?”

“Master Fang is really awesome. He immediately took out 100 million yuan to support the country’s education, once he received the money. Now I want to ask, who has donated more money than Fang Qiu? Who?”

“You’ve seen it, haven’t you? You’ve seen how kind Fang Qiu is. Who is worthy of this one billion, except Fang Qiu?”

This time, Fang Qiu’s anti-fans had nothing to say.

How could they slander him?

He donated one-tenth of the money in the blink of an eye!

Compared with one billion, 100 million yuan was just a small sum. But as Fang Qiu’s fans said, in addition to the national treasury providing funds, who else had donated more money than Fang Qiu, in the whole country now?

100 million directly brought Fang Qiu to the position of being one who donated the highest amount.

How could they slander a man who had donated the largest amount of money to the country?

Meanwhile, many people who figured it out were amazed by Fang Qiu’s excellent move.

However, as expected, Fang Qiu’s final solution was to donate the money. What he donated to was neither an ordinary foundation nor a welfare institution, but the Ministry of Education.

In this way, the significance of the donation was raised to the level of the country.

No one could say anything if he supported the development of education.

At least, if Fang Qiu donated 100 million yuan, Fang Qiu would be able to pass the phase where he was being fiercely slandered. Besides, he still had nearly 900 million left after he donated 100 million.

Fang Qiu did not keep all the money, which indicated that he was quite wise.

He could do whatever he wanted with the 900 million.

Xiong Yibing was also dumbfounded.

He had thought of all kinds of moves that Fang Qiu would do to solve the problem and he had also figured that Fang Qiu would choose to donate. But he didn't expect that Fang Qiu would donate a total of 100 million yuan this time, which was much more than he had expected. Moreover, Fang Qiu donated it to a place where he could not start a rumormongering campaign, so he could not actually say anything about it.

In the end, he could only post something on Weibo out of jealousy.

"The lizard breaks its tail!"

Obviously, his post meant that the reason why Fang Qiu donated was because he wanted to protect himself.

However, the moment he posted it on Weibo, Fang Qiu's fan army immediately came out in full force

"Why don't you give it a try?"

"Why do you sound so envious?"

"Let's not talk about anything else. I'm just asking you to donate one-tenth of Fang Qiu's money. How about that?"

Seeing the comments from Fang Qiu's fans, Xiong Yibing felt so depressed. He wanted to respond, but he could not utter a single word.

"Bang!" In a room located in an alley outside the Five Ring of the capital, a middle-aged man in his forties punched the alloy frame in front of him angrily. The computer table, which looked like it had been used for a long time, was almost smashed into pieces.

The man's name was Yang Qingtian.

He used to be the person in charge of the assembly line and was the first one to be fired by the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company when Fang Qiu exposed the problem of the drugs.

At this moment, he logged into his Weibo on the computer.

On Weibo, everyone was talking about Fang Qiu's donation of 100 million to the Ministry of Education.

Looking at countless compliments directed at Fang Qiu, Yang Qingtian was so furious that he was trembling all over.

"Ah!" Finally, he couldn't hold it in any longer. With a roar, he raised the keyboard, hurled it to the ground and smashed it into pieces.

"Not bad."

"Putting money and profit aside. He displays great virtue when he donated 100 million yuan to the Ministry of Education."

"Well, this kid is not only excellent in medical skills, but also has good virtue."

"He's smart. He isn't pretentious. He's restrained and has great virtue."

In the Chinese Medicine industry, all the Chinese Medicine practitioners also admired Fang Qiu's conduct.

He took out 100 million to donate, which was not something that ordinary people could do.

"Don't you think it's better for Fang Qiu to learn from me?" In the northeast, Holy Doctor Chu looked at Xu Miaolin, who had not left his house since Fang Qiu came back from the medical conference.

"Don't even think about it."

Hearing Holy Doctor Chu's words, Xu Miaolin immediately became alert and said, "I can definitely become a holy doctor. It's just a matter of time. Now I have nothing to ask for, so I'll make great progress. It's not impossible for me to surpass you. Besides, I've taught him well. As his teacher, I played a significant role in his performance now."

"What's more, maybe I can cultivate a doctor who performs miracles."

"Latest news. After announcing about the production of the meridians CG animation video and successfully attracting business bids, Fang Qiu made a donation to the Ministry of Education. The amount is for 100 million, which is unprecedented."

In the Jiang family, Mr. Jiang was sitting on the sofa watching a program about medical skills, when he heard the news on the TV.

He was slightly stunned.

Mr. Jiang looked up at the TV and suddenly laughed. He nodded and said, "Not bad."

After that, he turned off the TV and continued to look at the program showing medical skills.

On the Internet, the comments were one-sided.

It seemed that the phase where Fang Qiu was slandered seriously had passed.

On the Internet, everyone expressed their support, approval and appreciation for Fang Qiu's donation, though everyone knew that Fang Qiu still had nearly 900 million yuan in his hand.

However, in the afternoon, just when everyone thought that this was the end of the matter and that Fang Qiu would take the remaining 898 million to enjoy himself, another piece of news came out.

"Fang Qiu has donated 100 million yuan to the Ministry of Public Security!"

As soon as the news came out, the letter of acknowledgment on the official website of the Ministry of Public Security was screenshotted and posted by many media outlets, even before people could check the official website of the Ministry.

"Letter of acknowledgment to Fang Qiu."

"Dear Fang Qiu,

"We're from the Ministry of Public Security. All members of the Ministry of Public Security feel lucky to be able to get your support. Therefore, we hereby write a letter of acknowledgment to express our gratitude for Mr. Fang Qiu's contribution. Thank you."

"The donation is as follows."

"Today, Mr. Fang Qiu donated 30 million to Huaxia Police Martyrs And Heroes Foundation to support the family members of martyrs all over the country and to organize recuperation activities for the families of the police and so on. He also donated 30 million yuan to the staff of the fire department to thank the fire department for dealing with the disasters and hidden dangers for the whole country, as well as their responsibilities of showing up at any time."

"In addition, he donated 40 million to the Huaxia Ministry of Public Security for the sustainable development of the Ministry of Public Security and the awards for our heroic officers."

The moment the news came out, it spread all over the Internet.

Everyone on the Internet was stunned by the news.

No one dared to believe it.

In the eyes of everyone, it was enough for Fang Qiu to donate 100 million to the Ministry of Education. They thought that Fang Qiu would take the rest of the money and live a good life as a rich man, but they did not expect that he would donate another 100 million so soon.

Moreover, it was still donated to a government department of the country. This time, it was the Ministry of Public Security!

“What’s going on?”

Everyone was confused.

Although they saw the screenshot, there were still many people who could not believe it. They all went to the official website of the Ministry of Public Security to take a look.

Sure enough, they saw a letter of acknowledgement from the Ministry of Public Security.

Besides, the Ministry of Public Security even gave Fang Qiu an award in the letter!

This time, Fang Qiu’s fans were extremely jubilant.

Even they did not expect Fang Qiu to be so generous, apart from everyone else.

“Now, you’ve all opened your eyes wide and seen it clearly, haven’t you?”

“Do you see it? I’m asking if you saw that. This is my idol, the most selfless master, Fang Qiu. This is a Chinese Medicine doctor.”

“100 million? It’s not a big deal. It’s normal to donate 200 million!”

“Sit down, please! It’s just normal behavior!”

“It’s just 200 million yuan. Our master Fang Qiu is not the stingy person that those anti-fans call him.”

When they saw and confirmed the news, Fang Qiu’s anti-fans had nothing to say.

They could not slander him when he made his donation earlier. Now he actually donated another 100 million.

How could they slander him?

In the blink of an eye, those who followed the trend on the Internet to slander Fang Qiu changed their minds, one after another. They all decided not to be his anti-fans any longer. A minority of them even became his real fans.

First, it was the Ministry of Education.

Then came the Ministry of Public Security.

Fang Qiu’s donation was reasonable. They could not find anything wrong with it. Moreover, he was generous. He took out 100 million yuan first and another 100 million yuan later.

How could they say anything about his character? They could only be his fans!

On the other side.

Xiong Yibing no longer updated his Weibo.

He did not even dare to look at Weibo. It was so devastating to be slapped in the face.

At the same time.

Meanwhile, those who understood Fang Qiu's moves were also stunned.

They did not expect that either.

Fang Qiu would make such a move.

What did Fang Qiu want to do?

They could not understand it!

Did he really just want to donate the money?

If that was the case, didn't he just fall into the trap of someone with evil intentions?

Medical Master

Chapter 695 The Ministry of Environmental Protection, Red Cross and the National Women's Federation

Why did Fang Qiu do that?

No one could figure it out.

But on the other side.

Even if they did not understand, the top ten advertisers were extremely happy.

Because for them, the more Fang Qiu stirred things up, the more attention they would receive.

At the outset.

The top ten advertisers had assumed that the sudden news about Fang Qiu's donations would steal their thunder. But unexpectedly, when the news about the donations came out, their popularity did not decrease, but on the contrary, increased tremendously. See, it had only been a day and the daily sales rose again.

With such an advertisement popularizing vividly, the top ten companies were going wild with joy.

Now.

The other large companies, which had held back and did not dare to spend a large amount of money to compete for the advertisement slots, were full of regret.

If they had known that the effect caused by Fang Qiu would be so tremendous, they would have grabbed an advertising slot at any cost. After all, compared with the advertisement effect, the cost was considered minimal.

Unfortunately, it was too late for regrets. Such a chance only came once and never returned once it was gone.

What mattered most was...

The CG Animation video that Fang Qiu intended to make as a leading product had not come out yet, but helped the top ten companies to attract so much attention. What then would the attention would be when the CG Animation video was released ?

Unimaginable!

Seeing the increasing daily sales of the top ten companies, those domestic famous large-scale enterprises and groups felt nothing but regret

On this side.

After more than a ten hour flight with a transfer half way, Fang Qiu finally landed at Oslo airport at one p.m., Norway time, eight o'clock p.m. of Beijing time and then got off the plane.

“Woo...”

The instant Fang Qiu deplaned, he could feel the spring air.

So he took a deep a breath at that moment.

He walked out of the airport.

On the way.

Although he heard some people communicating in English, most of them spoke in Norwegian, the local language, which Fang Qiu did not understand at all.

“It seems that I have to find a tour guide.”

No sooner said than done.

Fang Qiu went straight to a place at the airport for the purpose of contacting a travel agency. After registering, he said that he needed a travel agency that catered for tourists from Huaxia.

He waited at the airport for a while.

“Excuse me, are you Mr. Lin, Lin Yu?”

A Huaxia man came up.

“Yes, I’m Lin Yu.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“I am Zhang Guoqiang, from the Youth Travel Agency in Norway.”

The man said.

“Nice to meet you.”

Fang Qiu nodded and took a closer look at the man and he found that the person was a mix-blooded handsome man with slightly grey yellow hair, but had the yellow skin and black eyes unique to Huaxia people.

“I’m a mixed-blood.”

Seeing Fang Qiu sizing him up, Zhang Guoqiang said smilingly, “My father is from Huaxia and my mother is a Norwegian. I’ve been learning the language of the two countries since I was a child.”

“You’re great.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

“Thank you.” ...

With a smile, Zhang Guoqiang thanked him and said, "Are you here for a tour? Do you need a guide interpreter for you alone or a group tour?"

"I need a guide interpreter."

Fang Qiu did not hesitate and said directly, "I'm going to Geirangerfjorden. It's better to set off as soon as possible."

"It seems that you are ready."

Zhang Guoqiang nodded and said, "If you don't mind, I can be your guide."

"That's what I'm looking forward to."

Fang Qiu answered with a nod.

"Geirangerfjorden is the most beautiful and mysterious place in Norway. You made a lot of preparations before coming here, didn't you?"

Zhang Guoqiang asked.

"I just read some information online."

Fang Qiu nodded. Fang Qiu nodded.

Geirangerfjorden was located 16 miles in the southwestern shore of Norway with over 1,500-meter-high mountains towering along the sides and numerous waterfalls cascading along the rock walls of the bridge. Geirangerfjorden started from the Geiranger village and there is only a path of 1,000 meters, which descends into the hills. A large number of tourists would come here for their vacation in summer.

Because of the large number of tourists, the Geiranger village had gradually become business-oriented, with many hotels and restaurants.

“Do you have any luggage?”

Zhang Guoqiang asked.

“No.”

Fang Qiu replied.

“It will be great. We can set off for Geirangerfjorden now.”

He said.

Zhang Guoqiang immediately brought Fang Qiu out of the airport, got in his car and then drove straight to Geirangerfjorden.

It was a 2 hour drive.

It was already 5 o'clock in the afternoon by the time they arrived there.

With Zhang Guoqiang

Fang Qiu did not need to say anything and checked in soon at the hotel.

At the hotel room.

Sitting cross-legged in the living room, Fang Qiu directly released his Divine Consciousness, which instantly covered the whole Geirangerfjorden.

Since Fang Qiu made a breakthrough in his Divine Consciousness the last time, he was able to scan any place within 20 kilometers, equal to 40 kilometers in diameter. Therefore, when his Divine Consciousness was triggered, he could sense any movement within the whole Geirangerfjorden.

“I got it.”

The method of Divine Consciousness was originally created to find Heaven and Earth Treasure.

Therefore, the moment the Divine Consciousness was released, he could feel a special aura. It was Heaven Treasure!

Of course.

The reason why Fang Qiu rushed to Geirangerfjorden the second he arrived in Norway was that from the treasure map in the middle layer of the goat-skin scroll, he saw the Heaven Treasure was located in Geirangerfjorden.

But he could not get any details about the location, so he detected it simply by using his Divine Consciousness.

“Thud... Thud... Thud...”

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

“Who is it?”

Fang Qiu asked.

“Mr. Lin, it’s me.”

Zhang Guoqiang's voice came from outside the door and he said, "It's five o'clock in the afternoon. Do you have any plans?"

"Let's talk about it later."

Fang Qiu thought and said, "For dinner, just have it sent to my room. After more than a 10-hour flight, I need to take a good rest and adjust to the time difference."

"Okay, then I won't disturb your rest. Feel free to call me if you need me."

Zhang Guoqiang said and left.

A moment later.

The hotel staff sent him several foods that was delicacies of Norway: reindeer meat, dried ham, soda fish and a soup.

Although Fang Qiu could not get accustomed to the meal without rice, the dishes tasted good, so he managed to eat well.

After dinner. ...

He walked for a while and then took a shower.

Then he sat cross-legged to rest.

Fang Qiu did not take action until the evening when it was getting dark and most of the people in the hotel were asleep. He opened the window and flashed out. Under the guidance of his Divine Consciousness, he quickly arrived on the top of a snow-capped mountain in the middle of Geirangerfjorden.

The Heaven Treasure was right there.

On the top of the snow-capped mountain.

As soon as Fang Qiu landed there.

He saw some sparkling lights flickering in the white snow ahead.

“Tianling Crystal!”

The top of the snowy mountain was not flat. Because of the high altitude, the peak was rather sharp. But right on the peak was a small cave.

In the fist-sized cave was a diamond-shaped object that was as transparent as ice, which was growing on a plant that was equally transparent, half flower and half grass.

“It seems that I have to wait two more days before it matures.”

Taking a careful look at it and scanning the area around, Fang Qiu made sure that there was nothing wrong with the surroundings and then he returned to the hotel quickly and continued to wait, feeling reassured.

The next day, he began to relax and enjoyed the views there.

It had been a long time since he had been so relaxed and found a moment of leisure in his busy life.

However domestically, the network world had not shown any signs of stopping yet.

The next morning.

A piece of news suddenly appeared on Weibo, where calm had just descended recently.

“The definite news! Fang Qiu has donated 100 million yuan to the Ministry of Environmental Protection!”

When the news came out.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

How could there be more news of this kind?

Was it that easy to earn money?

In the blink of an eye, he donated 300 million?

First to the Ministry of Education, then to the Ministry of Public Security and now to the Ministry of Environmental Protection?

“See, see, what is a guru?”

“300 million is nothing to Guru Fang.”

“A donation of 300 million yuan. Is there anyone in the country who can donate as much as Fang Qiu?”

“Where are the trolls? Come out and see in which areas our Fang Qiu is not deserving of praise.”

“He is making contributions to our country’s environment!”

“Guru Fang Qi, I love you so much.”

Fang Qiu's fans were all jubilant.

A few days ago, they were overwhelmed by the anti-fans and had been busy explaining on behalf of Fang Qiu. Now, after the news about Fang Qiu's donation was released one after another, all of them felt relieved. The pressures and grievances in their hearts disappeared and were replaced by righteous prestige!

On the other side.

The others were all astonished.

"Is he continuing to donate?"

"What the hell is Fang Qiu doing?"

This time.

Whether it were the anti-fans or the sensible people behind the scenes who were paying attention to this matter, they were completely confused.

Now, they really couldn't understand what Fang Qiu was doing.

Did Fang Qiu donate money truly for the sake of donating?

However.

Just when everyone was baffled

Another news came in the afternoon.

“According to reliable news, after donating to the Ministry of Environmental Protection, Fang Qiu donated another 100 million yuan to the Red Cross and at the same time, donated 100 million yuan to the Women’s Federation!”

This time.

Even Fang Qiu’s fans were completely bewildered.

Red Cross?

It was known to all that the Red Cross had a poor reputation on the Internet these days. How could Fang Qiu make a donation to it?

And more.

Why did he donate to the National Women’s Federation?

Why did he even donate to the Women’s Federation? Was there any deep intention in this move?

Everyone became more and more puzzled.

However, after hearing the news, Fang Qiu’s female fans went wild with joy.

“See, Fang Qiu is indeed our women’s dream lover.”

“What dream lover? He is a perfect lover.”

“Fang Qiu is so kind that he even cares for women. It’s amazing!”

Under the women's comments.

The others did not dare to remark at will. After all, no one could afford to offend the Women's Federation, because any careless comment would create huge trouble.

As for those arrogant anti-fans, they disappeared from the Internet and did not dare to show up any more.

At the same time.

The netizens were also surprised by Fang Qiu's generosity!

"In two days, he has donated 500 million yuan. That's terrific!"

"Those rumors before are too unreliable. How could someone who earned one billion and donated 500 million be the kind of person in those rumors? Those rumors obviously misunderstood Fang Qiu."

Perhaps because Fang Qiu donated too much, more and more people began to pay attention to this matter. Those who did not follow the news about Chinese Medicine, Fang Qiu, or even the meridians, joined in, one after another, of course, including the people from the business circles.

What on earth was Fang Qiu planning?

What was his move for?

Everyone was very curious and looked forward to it, believing that the matter had not come to an end yet.

Medical Master

Chapter 696: Terrific! Really Terrific!

As expected.

The next morning. When everyone was filled with curiosity and anticipation, another newsflash appeared.

“Breaking news... after a donation of 500 million yuan, Fang Qiu donated another 100 million yuan to the National Foundation for Poverty Alleviation of the Ministry of Civil Affairs!”

Early in the morning.

Just as everyone was in high spirits, the news stirred up a public outcry instantly.

“Oh my god! Is Fang Qiu crazy?”

“He has already donated 600 million yuan. Does Fang Qiu really intend to give away all the money?”

“Think about it carefully. In fact, Fang Qiu will not be able to spend so much money in his lifetime. He has donated 600 or 700 million yuan and still has 200 or 300 million with him. That amount of money is enough to last him for a lifetime. By doing so, isn't it better for him to have both money and reputation?”

“600 million yuan. Incredible!”

“There has never been anyone who has ever made such a large donation. There will definitely be no one who is able to do so.”

The netizens were amazed and praised him wholeheartedly.

Fang Qiu's fans were even more active.

“I just found out that the happiest thing I've done in my life is to be Fang Qiu's fan.”

“When I see how the guru keeps donating money and recall how the guru was slandered before the donation, I could not help sighing with emotion that money is really a good thing. Since the guru has donated the money, who would dare to slander him now?”

“This has nothing to do with money. He is the idol in the real sense as he is unselfishly donating all this money. Fang Qiu is good!”

On the Internet.

Fang Qiu’s fans kept his flag flying high. More and more people became Fang Qiu’s fans, even many anti-fans converted to become Fang Qiu’s fans. Under such circumstances, the number of Fang Qiu’s followers on Weibo skyrocketed to nearly 30 million, more than some famous stars.

What was most rare and commendable was that Fang Qiu did not purchase any “artificial fans” from the beginning to the end, which meant that the 30 million people truly followed him. Except for some who lost interest in Weibo, some who were off-line for 10 days or more and some lurking on the Internet, there were at least nearly 20 million fans who were actively supporting Fang Qiu on the Internet.

As a result, every time Fang Qiu made a post, the number of comments, shares and likes far exceeded those of the popular stars.

Every time the big stars saw Fang Qiu’s Weibo, they were very embarrassed.

That was the scenario.

Fang Qiu’s fans were active on the Internet.

In the afternoon.

Another startling piece of news came out.

“Breaking through the limit, Fang Qiu donates 200 million to the National Food and Drug Administration!”

At the same time.

The National Food and Drug Administration confirmed the news on their official website and thanked Fang Qiu for his trust and help toward the National Food and Drug Administration.

If Fang Qiu’s previous donations shocked all the people, this time the news overawed them.

Completely overawed!

“200 million?”

“National Food and Drug Administration?”

This time.

This time, the money that Fang Qiu donated was 100 million more than before, making the total of his donation amount from 600 million to 800 million in an instant.

Before that, the netizens praised Fang Qiu, thinking that he was so smart and bold to clear his name in this way.

But now, the netizens were completely dumbfounded.

Dumbfounded!

Even if they were beaten to death, they could not believe that Fang Qiu would continue to donate.

Just in an instant.

He had already donated 800 million.

What the hell was he doing?

What the hell was going on?

The donations came successively.

Before Fang Qiu's fans could end their celebration, another greater incident occurred which gave them even more cause to celebrate.

"200 million yuan again!"

"Speechless. His donation makes me feel embarrassed."

"I remember someone who said previously that Fang Qiu did not support Chinese Medicine and the pharmaceutical companies?"

"Fang Qiu is supportive. How can guru Fang not support the pharmaceutical companies? Didn't he help the pharmaceutical companies to rectify their mistakes? And now he has donated 200 million yuan to the National Food and Drug Administration. It is 200 million yuan, which will definitely help the Administration to provide better supervision."

"Haha, well done. Don't you know how much Fang Qiu cares about you?"

On the other side.

Compared with Fang Qiu's fans' revelry and the spectators' shock, all those insiders were astonished by the news and immediately came to a conclusion as to why Fang Qiu was doing all this.

In Luhai.

On the top floor of a famous company's office building, a thin middle-aged man, dressed in a white shirt that was not tucked into his pants, sat on a sofa which had a value of hundreds of thousands of yuan. He looked like he was in his forties but had a youthful charm about him. Seeing the Weibo page on the computer on the table, he was slightly taken aback.

Then.

"Haha..."

He leaned back and laughed.

"Good idea, good measure, good thinking and good talent!"

Staring at the news on the computer that Fang Qiu had donated 200 million yuan to the National Food and Drug Administration, the middle-aged man smiled for some time, his eyes full of praise.

"Terrific, really terrific."

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that Fang Qiu's method was so wonderful.

"No one would ever have thought of this move."

"First, Fang Qiu could not take the money. If he took it, his reputation would be tarnished. Although he would not be vilified as fishing for fame and credit, at least he would descend to the state as not being as perfect as he used to be. Instead, he donated the money."

“Willing to give, great!”

Speaking of it.

The middle-aged man smiled brightly and continued to mutter, “Second, how to donate the money was also a problem.”

“One, as long as he donated, he could fall into the hands of those behind the scenes. Amidst the heated discussion of netizens, will he continue to donate the money he will earn in the future or not?”

“Two, after his donation, will the other Chinese Medicine practitioners donate as well when earning money?”

As he analyzed the situation.

The middle-aged man smiled, wagged his head as if he were an ancient scholar and said, “The story of how Zi Gong paid the redemption in order to save the person has made it clear and both situations should be avoided. But it’s not easy to avoid both. I didn’t expect that Fang Qiu could find a wonderful way out.”

“The money was donated to the government.”

“Everyone knows that if the money is donated to the government, there will be a lot of benefits in the future.”

“Other Chinese Medicine practitioners don’t have to follow the move to donate to the government, because an ordinary practitioner might not have the channel to donate even if he wants to do it and even he had the channel, the government might not accept it. Besides, if the money donated to the government was less than tens of millions, do you have the guts to donate? And a common Chinese Medicine practitioner would not have the means to donate tens of millions of yuan.”

“This is to avoid the dilemma which Zi Gong faced when he paid the redemption to save the person.”

“What’s more.”

“Fang Qiu’s move won favor from all departments of the government. This can be regarded as directly making a good impression with the money. From the Ministry of Public Health to the Women’s Federation, who will dare to make trouble for Fang Qiu in the future?”

“This move is so fantastic.”

“But the most important fact is the last move where he donated 200 million yuan to the National Food and Drug Administration!”

“First, he donated 100 million yuan to the Administration rather than to the other departments. The 100 million yuan is definitely aimed at paving the way for him in the future. Perhaps this guy might have some commercial activities in the field of medicine.”

“With the 100 million yuan donation, who will investigate him in the future?”

“30 million yuan to the Fire Department, 100 million yuan to the Ministry of Environmental Protection. For the National Food and Drug Administration? 200 million yuan!”

“Terrific!”

“It’s really terrific. Not only did he donate the money, but he also paved the road well and did not affect the profits of the other Chinese medicine practitioners. On one hand, he could clear his name of the slanderous rumors circulating on the Internet; on the other hand, he could boost his reputation with the huge sums of money he donated.”

“This is simply achieving many things at one stroke. He gained all the advantages, except for some monetary loss.”

“But, is this really a lot of money for Fang Qiu?”

He mumbled to himself.

The middle-aged man suddenly ceased talking.

He then smiled thoughtfully.

He knew.

At present, Fang Qiu was still too young. This was just the first bucket of gold that Fang Qiu had earned. With his ability, Fang Qiu would never have to worry about the second or third bucket of gold. According to Fang Qiu's ability to create heated topics, any stunt would help him to easily earn the money back in the future.

Moreover, after this time, Fang Qiu became a bigger sensation than before. So the benefits that the next stunt would bring would definitely be bigger than this time!

At that time when Fang Qiu made money, what else could the others say?

Nothing.

Since he had already donated 800 million yuan, who would dare to say anything about him? Who could say anything about him?

“Wonderful, extremely wonderful.”

After figuring out the whole thing, the middle-aged man praised him wholeheartedly and then took out his mobile phone to find the phone number with the name “Yang Ningyuan” in the contact list. He then dialed it.

“Mr. Lee?”

Yang Ningyuan’s surprised voice came from the other end of the phone.

The middle-aged man said smilingly, “Are you surprised?”

“How can I not be surprised when a business bigwig is calling me personally?”

Yang Ningyuan laughed and said, “I wonder why is Mr. Lee calling me.”

“I want to ask you a question.”

Mr. Lee asked him directly without preamble, “As far as I know, it was you who stepped in to help Fang Qiu donate money to the government. So I wonder who came up with the idea. Was it you or Fang Qiu?”

Yang Ningyuan answered and then asked, “What do you think of it? Amazing, right?”

Mr. Lee nodded and commented, “There is a genius in the Chinese Medicine circle.”

“This genius might even cause trouble in the circle.”

Yang Ningyuan said with a bitter smile.

“Yes.”

Mr. Lee nodded with a big smile and asked, “You’ve gained a lot of benefits too, haven’t you?”

“Of course.”

Yang Ningyuan did not deny it at all and said frankly, “The money was donated by me and those departments should remember my efforts and hard work for it.”

“What a talent!”

Mr. Lee nodded and said, “This boy even took your benefits into consideration.”

“That’s right. Mutual benefit.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed and said, “Mr. Lee, if there is nothing else, I’ll hang up first because I still have money here to donate.”

“Continuing to donate?”

Mr. Lee said in surprise, “He has donated 800 million yuan already.”

“Just wait and see.”

A mysterious smile appeared on Yang Ningyuan’s face and he said, “When you see the coming situation, you will know how perfect Fang Qiu’s plan is.”

“Oh?” ...

Upon hearing this, Mr. Lee immediately became curious and said, "Your words fill me with expectation. Since you can't tell me straight, then I'll just have to wait and see."

In the meantime.

Other people in the business circle also saw the news and heard the bigwigs' discussions about it and they were also impressed by Fang Qiu's amazing move.

Fang Qiu's move was a classic strategy!

Chapter 697: Weve Got a Monster in Huaxia!

In the capital, when the executives of the Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and the Taikang Pharmaceutical Company saw what Fang Qiu had done, they felt depressed instantly.

Originally, they wanted to take the opportunity to hurt Fang Qiu, so that they could take revenge for the exposure last time.

However, to their surprise, what they did just helped Fang Qiu. Not only did they give him a great opportunity to donate money to the government, but also gave him a chance to donate money to the Food and Drug Administration Dept. The most important factor was that this donation was 200 million.

If people of the Food and Drug Administration knew that they were making trouble behind the scenes, maybe they would help Fang Qiu to investigate into their activities. At that time, they would be in great trouble!

The executives of the two companies decided at the same time that they had to keep a low profile for now. They had to cover their tracks quickly. They could not afford to let it become a hazard!

The next day, another piece of startling news was announced.

“Fang Qiu wants to donate 100 million yuan to his university—University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine!”

In Luhai, when Mr. Lee heard this news, he praised and murmured, “Awesome. There should be more, right?”

In the afternoon, there was more news.

“Fang Qiu donated 50 million yuan to his birth province!”

“Fang Qiu donated 25 million yuan to his birth city!”

“Fang Qiu donated 15 million yuan to his birth county!”

“Fang Qiu donated five million yuan to his former senior high school!”

“Fang Qiu donated two million yuan to his former junior high school!”

“Fang Qiu donated one million yuan to his former primary school!”

There were six newsflashes in a row.

It kept bursting forth like a machine gun.

When the last piece of news was released, the total amount of Fang Qiu’s donation had now reached 998 billion yuan.

That was to say, Fang Qiu donated all the money he received from the auction.

He did not even keep any money for the production of the CG animation video!

All the news made Mr. Lee stunned!

“Amazing.”

President Li took a deep breath and exclaimed, “It’s amazing. From the major government departments to his hometown, he has taken care of all of them. He did not miss out anything, especially the schools and his birthplace.”

“Once this money is donated, this kid’s status will be completely stable. Anyone in his hometown will support him. Plus the money he has donated to the major government departments before, it’s no exaggeration to say that he has everything covered!”

Even as he was amazed, Mr. Lee suddenly thought of what Yang Ningyuan had told him yesterday, “How perfectly he does it!”

“Yes, it’s perfect!”

All of a sudden, Mr. Lee felt that it was much more accurate to say that it was perfect.

“It seems that it’s not just in the Chinese Medicine circle.”

“But there is also a monster in Huaxia!”

Somehow, as Mr. Li sighed with emotion, he frowned at the same time. As he walked to the French window to look at the beautiful scenery of the entire Huhai, he said slowly, “You dare to give up and also know how to give up. What’s more, you should know that if you are willing to give it up, you will eventually be able to gain something.”

After a long while, Mr. Lee suddenly laughed.

“This move is going to make history.”

Turning around, Mr. Lee went straight to his desk and sat down. He took out a notebook and quickly recorded Fang Qiu’s excellent strategy of breaking the stalemate this time, because what Fang Qiu did in this game was marvelous.

At least, he had never seen anyone as courageous as Fang Qiu in the business circle of Huaxia!

On the Internet, Xiong Yibing, who had been in shock for two days in a row, was also completely dumbfounded.

“Why?”

“Why would he do that?”

“One billion! That’s nearly one billion!”

“Why did you choose to donate? Why did you donate all the money? Why did you not leave a single cent for yourself? Don’t you love money?”

At this moment, Xiong Yibing felt that he had really become a joke.

It was a complete joke.

He even blamed himself.

If he had not provoked Fang Qiu on Weibo, maybe Fang Qiu would not have donated all his money.

From this point of view, he was the one that made all this happen.

He finally experienced how those who had challenged Fang Qiu felt. The kind of feeling of being slapped in the face was deeply engraved in his heart!

Fang Qiu's fans were also incredibly proud!

"@Xiong Yibing, Fang Qiu has donated all the money!."

"Oh my god, Master Fang Qiu, you should at least keep some money for yourself."

"My idol, I'm so moved. To be honest, if I had so much money, I would not have been able to do this. I would not be able to do it even if I just need to donate half of it, one-third, or even one-tenth. Can you do that? @Xiong Yibing."

"Didn't you ask Fang Qiu to give you a reply? Now that you have got it, what do you think?"

"I'm just asking you. Does your face hurt? Don't tell me anything else. Just tell me whether your face hurts or not!"

"Didn't you ask if Fang Qiu is qualified before? Now, on behalf of Fang Qiu, I want to ask you if you are qualified to comment on such a man like Fang Qiu?"

"Do you deserve it?"

Even as they criticized Xiong Yibing fiercely, there were also a lot of people who left messages on Fang Qiu's Weibo.

"Billion Fang, I've decided to call you Billion Fang from today on!"

"Even if you become a poor man, we will still support you!"

“Awesome, Billion Fang!”

“You’ve done a good job, Billion Fang.”

“I love you, Billion Fang.”

People began to leave their comments continuously.

They indulged themselves with ecstatic comments.

As for those anti-fans, all of them disappeared without a trace at this moment; It was as if they had never existed before.

It was obvious that they were the people who worked as internet trolls.

Moreover, they all used alternative accounts to slander people.

They worked for a variety of employers and slandered various kinds of people. They lived like fish in water in the world of the Internet. They had never encountered any obstacles.

But this time, they really encountered a hard nut.

In fact, before that, when they learned that they were going to slander Fang Qiu, they were a little worried. After all, the people who slandered Fang Qiu before, did not have a good ending. But they did not believe it because they thought there was no one who could not be taken down by them.

Now, they were completely dumbfounded.

Seeing Fang Qiu donating continuously, they finally understood what a real hard nut was and what a person who couldn’t be slandered at all, was like.

As the Internet buzzwords went, Fang Qiu was that kind of person that no one could do anything to darken his reputation, except for the sun!

The most important thing was that when they were hired, they were ordered to make a big deal out of it so that Fang Qiu would donate the money out of grievance. The more he donated, the better.

But now Fang Qiu donated all the money. Technically, what they did exceeded all expectations. They should be jubilant, but now they felt that they were the ones who were really depressed.

Yes, they felt truly depressed!

It was because they were not able to slander Fang Qiu at all. How could they not feel frustrated?

In addition, those who envied Fang Qiu for making so much money could no longer be jealous when they saw that Fang Qiu had donated all the money.

There was no need to be jealous.

He donated all the money.

If one billion fell into their hands, could they donate it? Would they dare to donate it or even have the courage to do that?

They could not do it.

Therefore, they were thus convinced.

Fang Qiu did not keep any money for himself. The donation was reasonable. What were they jealous of?

A person like Fang Qiu deserved to make money!

Undoubtedly, Fang Qiu's act of donating all the money he had earned attracted a large number of people to become his fans.

In Jiangjing.

In a factory at the foot of an unknown mountain of Jiangjing,

"What! He donated all the money?"

When Zhou Xiaotian heard the news, he jumped up in shock.

"It's over. Our super daddy is gone in an instant." Sun Hao smiled bitterly.

"What does it have to do with us?"

Zhu Benzhen looked at the two of them and said, "That's the money made by Fang Qiu himself. He can spend whatever he wants. Although I'm also very distressed, I'm also very concerned about the future of our company."

"Alas."

The three of them sighed at the same time.

"It's a pity to donate all the money, but why do I feel that Fang Qiu's fame is so dazzling?"

Sun Hao said.

"I have the same feeling." Zhou Xiaotian echoed.

“Me too!” Zhu Benzheng echoed.

Hearing the discussion between the trio, Zhao Shanlin shook his head slightly. With a smile on his face, he did not express his opinion. He looked a little more energetic than usual.

“He really donated all the money.” In the Jiang family, Jiang Miaoyu smiled when she saw the news.

At least.

At least, Fang Qiu did not lie to her.

Fang Qiu did what he said.

Besides, she was not short of money, nor did she value money. On the contrary, she thought that it was a good thing for Fang Qiu to donate all the money.

“My boyfriend, I’m proud of you.” Jiang Miaoyu turned on her mobile phone and found a photo of Fang Qiu in the album. She said with a smile.

“Miaoyu’s father, how do you feel now?” In the living room, knowing that Fang Qiu had donated all the money and distributed it so well, Mrs. Jiang’s expression changed and she asked with a smile.

Mr. Jiang did not say anything.

He just looked at the reports on the Internet and his eyes were filled with appreciation.

“As expected.”

In the northeast, Xu Miaolin looked up at the sky with a sigh and said, "If you have money, it can make people stupid and also make them smart."

"He did not even keep six million for the CG animation video, which was a very smart move. It's best if he does not keep the money. Once he keeps it, he will have something that he could be caught out on!"

"Great!"

In Linxi County, Mr. Fang looked at the news with gratification and said, "It's best to donate it to the country. He can't even sleep well if he keeps it at home."

"That's right. Fang Qiu is an independent man now."

Mrs. Fang was also very gratified.

"He's indeed our good boy." Mr. Fang laughed out loud.

"Thud... Thud... Thud..."

But right at this moment, there was a sudden knock on the door.

When Fang Qiu's mother opened the door, she found that it was the county officers who came with the municipal officers to give Fang Qiu an award.

Fang Qiu's parents entertained them appropriately.

After seeing off the officers, Mrs. Fang held the award and said cheerfully, "Compared with money, this is better. It's more secure!"

At the same time, the leaders of the primary school, middle school and high school that Fang Qiu attended gave orders one after another, to ask for a banner to be made.

When the students started the new semester, the banner would be hung directly outside the school gate, so that everyone would know that Fang Qiu graduated from these schools. The person who earned one billion and donated all of it had studied in their school.

At the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, the staff had come to work.

However, because this was a university and Fang Qiu had done a lot of great things, they were used to it. Compared with the staff of Fang Qiu's primary school, junior high school, and senior high school, they were much more reserved. There were no banners or other celebratory stuff, but they prepared a lot of certificates of merit for Fang Qiu.

In Norway, Fang Qiu, who was sitting cross-legged and resting in the hotel late at night, suddenly opened his eyes.

It was time.

He thought, "Tianling Crystal, I'm coming!"

Chapter 698: Its The First Time He Had Just gotten the Heaven Treasure So Easily

Late at night, there was dead silence in the Geirangerfjorden.

Although there were many tourists, this area would still return to its normal state in the middle of the night.

"Swish."

Under the moonlight, a figure flitted across the bay.

It looked like a dragonfly skimming over the surface of the water across the bay.

This person was none other than Fang Qiu!

Along the way, he stepped on the water like a ghost and reached the middle of the bay.

“Pa!”

The internal Qi in his body surged as he trod on the water. With the help of the rebound force, his body instantly flew up and rose to a height of hundreds of meters.

Then, with a twist of his body, Fang Qiu headed straight to the top of a snow-capped mountain not far away, like a gust of wind.

At this time,

“Screech...”

An earth-shattering cry suddenly sounded, echoing across the whole bay for a long time.

“Hmm?”

Although he was still some distance away from the snow-capped mountain. Fang Qiu could clearly hear the earth-shattering cry coming from the top of the mountain.

He took a closer look but could not see anything.

“A guardian beast?”

Confused, Fang Qiu took another look and immediately saw something strange.

There seemed to be something on the top of the snow-capped mountain. There were some black spots on its snow-capped surface, which looked like stones protruding from the snow.

He moved closer and took a look.

Fang Qiu was stunned.

“Eagle?” When Fang Qiu arrived at the mountain, he finally saw the creature at the top of the mountain.

It was an incomparably huge eagle, even bigger than the divine eagle on TV. It was about two meters high and its golden eyes looked unusually scary.

Of course, Fang Qiu was not stupid.

After all, he was a college student. When he first saw this kind of animal, he already knew that it was a Snow Owl.

The Snow Owl was a large owl. Its head was round and small with an inconspicuous face. It had no ear feathers. Its irises were golden in color. Its mouth was lead gray and its claws were black in color. The Snow Owl was entirely white and some parts of its body were covered with dark spots.

Although the Snow Owl was large compared with other owls, this one in front of him was too big. It was also because it was so enormous that Fang Qiu was very surprised when he saw it.

“Screech!!!”

It seemed that it had spotted Fang Qiu for some time already. When Fang Qiu was about to approach the snow-capped mountain, the giant Snow Owl suddenly turned around and flapped its wings. It opened its mouth wide and screeched at Fang Qiu.

“Oh, you’re quite smart.” Fang Qiu smiled.

He knew that this giant Snow Owl should have been watching him for a long time already when he had just soared into the sky from the bay.

At that time, the Snow Owl let out a cry and tried to scare away Fang Qiu.

But it did not achieve the effect it wanted.

In the end, the giant Snow Owl simply used its body as a cover to block the Tianling Crystal on the top of the snowy mountain, to prevent him from getting through to it.

Unfortunately, it did not know that Fang Qiu had been there before. Even if it blocked the Tianling Crystal, Fang Qiu could still locate its whereabouts.

But now, seeing Fang Qiu approaching, the giant owl knew that it could not hide it anymore, so it simply turned around and tried to frighten Fang Qiu with its loud cries.

If it had been any other sixth-class martial arts practitioners, they would definitely turn around and run away without hesitation.

Unfortunately, this sixth-class martial arts practitioner was Fang Qiu!

In the face of the cry of the giant owl, Fang Qiu smiled slightly and walked forward slowly, without showing any signs of being nervous at all.

He knew that there were still a few minutes left before the Tianling Crystal ripened, so he had to drive the Snow Owl away within a few minutes.

“Tsssssssss”

The giant owl became anxious. Its efforts to scare Fang Qi was useless, no matter how hard it tried.

“Crash.”

As its wings flapped, the giant owl immediately jumped into the air and stared at Fang Qiu, showing its sharp claws!

“It’s a pity that I have to hurry back to Huaxia. Otherwise, I would really like to live in this mountain for a while and make friends with you.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and chuckled.

The Snow Owl could not hold it in any longer.

“Screech.”

With a loud cry, its body, which was hovering in the air, suddenly turned around and rushed toward Fang Qiu at an extremely fast speed, like a flying needle.

“Swish!”

The sound of the wind rushing by could be heard.

The moment the giant owl rushed at him, Fang Qiu vanished into thin air.

The owl suddenly came to a halt when it missed its target.

It turned around and tried to find Fang Qiu, but it discovered that Fang Qiu was not at the top of the snow-capped mountain.

“Swish.”

A falling sound was heard.

The giant owl suddenly raised its head.

Fang Qiu actually fell from the higher spot and made a posture of riding a horse, as if he wanted to catch the giant owl and use it as a mount.

“Screech!”

With a screech, the Snow Owl flapped its wings and immediately rushed toward Fang Qiu who was falling from the sky. Its sharp beak, which was almost covered by all its fur, was totally exposed by the strength of the airflow and looked like a sharp hook.

If Fang Qiu was pecked, one of his legs would be broken, given his small figure!

“Good boy.”

Looking at the giant owl rushing toward him again, Fang Qiu praised, “It’s really worthy of being a natural warrior!”

Although he said so, his moves were merciless.

The moment the giant owl charged in front of him, Fang Qiu suddenly thrust his right hand out and directly hit the head of the giant owl.

Fang Qiu did not use much strength in this slap.

He was afraid that he would accidentally kill the Snow Owl.

After all, this owl was a very clever creature. Since it could grow to such an extent, it was very likely that it would have spiritual intelligence in the future. It was better not to kill this kind of wondrous creature.

After slapping the owl's head to the side, Fang Qiu took the opportunity to turn around and directly sat down on the owl's body. He really regarded the owl as his mount.

“Clang, clang, clang...”

How could the giant owl bear this kind of humiliation when it was being mounted by Fang Qiu? It immediately struggled madly and flew up to the sky with Fang Qiu.

“Stop fooling around.”

Fang Qiu slapped the Snow Owl's head and said angrily, “Don't disturb my view of the scenery.”

“Clang, clang, clang...”

The giant owl continued to struggle and screech.

“Pa!”

With a wave of his hand, Fang Qiu gave the giant owl another merciless slap on its head.

He repeated this again and again.

After a few slaps, the giant owl became dizzy and dropped from the sky.

Fang Qiu quickly dismounted from the owl's back when he saw that and rushed to the top of the snow-capped mountain.

But just as Fang Qiu was about to leave, the dazed giant owl suddenly flew up into the sky and stared at Fang Qiu from a distance. It was so furious that it screeched out loud, but it did not dare to approach Fang Qiu.

“Hehe.”

Fang Qiu's interest was aroused. He shifted and was about to chase after it.

As soon as he moved, the giant owl appeared to be overly nervous and it flew into the distance with a whoosh.

When the giant owl turned its head, it happened to see that the Tianling Crystal was ripe and Fang Qiu was about to pick it.

Helplessly, it could only let out a long cry and quickly flew away.

It was afraid that Fang Qiu would catch up with it and hit it on the head again.

After driving the giant owl away, Fang Qiu immediately felt the Heaven and Earth energy around him suddenly began to surge wildly. He turned his head to have a look.

In front of him, in the fist-sized cave, the transparent plant had begun to slowly liquefy. The rhomboid Tianling Crystal hanging on the top of the plant, like a piece of glass craftwork, was emitting a very unique light, which looked like a black hole.

The Tianling Crystal was only the size of a thumb and was shaped like a rhombus. There was a small circle that seemed to be white but was actually black in color. It emitted a special light, which made people feel that it was like a small black hole at first glance.

“Tianling Crystal, it’s made of crystal fruit. It only grows for one hour. Even the fruit will be liquefied in an hour.”

He squatted.

As Fang Qiu reached out to pick up the Tianling Crystal, he said with emotion, “It’s also because of its special characteristics that it has a special power that other Heaven Treasures don’t have—toughness!”

Because it was shaped like ice, there was a function of the Tianling Crystal. After a person ate it, the energy it had would turn into a very special ice attribute.

This kind of ice attribute was not the ordinary kind that would be shattered when it fell to the ground.

It was the kind of ice that was so cold that anyone who touched it would be attached to it!

This kind of attribute was toughness!

This attribute was of little use to ordinary martial arts practitioners.

Therefore, the Tianling Crystal was not very well known in the martial arts world.

However, for Fang Qiu, the Tianling Crystal was a good thing that could only be found by chance because the Tianling Crystal could not only protect and repair the meridians, but it could also strengthen them and make them tougher!

From this perspective, the Tianling Crystal existed simply for those who recultivated their meridians!

Fang Qiu carefully picked the Tianling Crystal. After losing the Tianling Crystal, the magical transparent plant instantly dissolved, like a puddle of water, which then seeped into the earth and disappeared.

Using a small jade bottle that he had prepared in advance to store the Tianling Crystal, Fang Qiu breathed a sigh of relief and stood up.

“Whew...”

Looking at the jade bottle in his hand, Fang Qiu put it into his trouser pocket. Then he thought of the giant owl that had been driven away by him just now. He immediately smiled and sighed with emotion. “I wanted to say it was not easy, but I did not expect to get the Heaven Treasure so easily. It’s really the first time I’ve encountered such a good thing.”

However, as soon as he finished speaking,

“Whoosh!”

Suddenly, a sound like a gust of wind could be heard.

He looked in the direction of the sound.

He saw a masked man, who was not too far away from him, flying over quickly and who instantly blocked Fang Qiu’s way.

“John Doe.”

As soon as the masked man landed on the ground, he shouted in standard Mandarin, “I have been waiting for you here for a long time. Although I don’t know if you have noticed my existence, you should know that I mean no harm to you since I am not robbing you of your Tianling Crystal.”

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu looked at the masked man from head to toe carefully and then said, "I think you won't be able to take it even if you try."

The masked man narrowed his eyes.

There was a hint of disdain in his eyes.

Fang Qiu asked, "However, I am quite curious. How did you know that the Heaven Treasure was here?"

"If I want to know, I will naturally know."

The masked man leaned over, glanced at Fang Qiu and said, "Let me ask you, don't you think that many people in this world are living in pain?"

Medical Master

Chapter 699 People from the Nirvana Organization Come To Him!

"The greater the ability you have, the greater the responsibility you will take on. You have such a great ability; don't you want to change it? Don't you want to be merciful and save people in the world?" The masked man asked as he stared at Fang Qiu righteously.

Fang Qiu smiled, "Guess if I want to or not?"

There was no need to say anything more.

With just one sentence, Fang Qiu had already confirmed the identity of the man.

Just like the person in the desert who wanted to snatch the Fairy Desert Cistanche from him, he was also a member of the mysterious Nirvana Organization.

Calling this organization a cult made it sound good.

“It doesn’t matter if you want to do it or not.”

The masked man looked at Fang Qiu and said, “Since you have the ability, you should use it in the right place!”

“You’re right.” Fang Qiu smiled again.

The members of the Nirvana Organization truly knew how to make a big deal out of it.

In addition to different purposes and methods, Fang Qiu felt that this Nirvana Organization actually had a trace of being a pyramid scheme organization.

Seeing that Fang Qiu’s tone had softened, the masked man grasped the opportunity and immediately said, “Our Nirvana Organization has already transcended the rules of the world. For the sake of all the people in the world, everyone in our organization is willing to use all our strength to convert the world.”

“You have the ability and awareness, so I’m here on behalf of our organization to invite you to join us.”

Fang Qiu was stunned when he heard that.

Last time, one of their members wanted to kill him when they met. But this one directly invited him to join them even though it was the first time they met.

Originally, Fang Qiu was ready to reject him.

However, after a brief pause, he immediately realized that this organization was too mysterious. There was no way he could find its members, headquarters and all sorts of important information and documents.

If he agreed, it would mean that he could take this opportunity to sneak in.

At that time, he would definitely be able to obtain more information about the Nirvana Organization!

With that thought in mind, Fang Qiu immediately asked, "Since your organization is so powerful, there must be some conditions for me to join it, right?"

"That's right."

The masked man laughed and said, "Nirvana Organization is responsible for converting the people of the world. If you want to join our organization, you need to convert a person by relieving him of his pain."

Fang Qiu asked, "For example?"

"Such as a beggar."

The masked man started talking without hesitation, "These beggars are suffering as living beings in the world. It's better for them to die directly and start over in the next life. He can't achieve anything in this world. It's better to help him start his next life as soon as possible!"

Fang Qiu understood as soon he heard that.

It was indeed like this.

It was obvious that he wanted Fang Qiu to kill people.

In other words, one must kill a person in order to join the Nirvana Organization.

People from this kind of organization were simply insane.

At this moment, Fang Qiu thought of the number of members in the Nirvana Organization. Although there were no specific data, there must be a lot of people since it could develop until now. A person entering the organization represented a person's death. That was to say, if there were numerous members in it, there were also many or even more people in the world who died because of them.

To them, a person's life was as worthless as grass.

This was the modern era, the era of science and technology, not the ancient times!

Fang Qiu immediately gave up the idea of sneaking into it.

"What if I won't go?"

Looking at the masked man, Fang Qiu asked with a solemn look.

"What do you think?" The masked man narrowed his eyes in an instant and stared at Fang Qiu coldly, as if he was going to convert Fang Qiu if things didn't work out.

"Let me ask in a different way."

Fang Qiu sneered and asked, "Since I have to convert one person in order to join the organization, then I can choose to convert you. Is that okay?"

"Alas!"

The masked man shook his head with a sigh and said, "It seems that you still don't understand. Since that's the case, there's no point in inviting you to join us. It'll be better to convert you. I hope you can live a better life in the next life."

After that,

“Swish.”

Without any warning, the masked man flashed and rushed toward Fang Qiu. He thrust his hands out. With a flash of cold light in his hands, two incomparably sharp black iron daggers appeared.

The daggers sliced through the air.

With an ear-piercing whistle, he charged directly in front of Fang Qiu in less than a second, with the support of the strong internal Qi.

He slashed at Fang Qiu’s neck without hesitation, trying to cut off Fang Qiu’s head directly.

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted.

He had not attacked yet, but the man already took the initiative.

He thought, “This brain-washed fool must have been enraged by my words, right?”

At the same time, he snorted coldly.

All the energy in Fang Qiu’s body erupted.

Even if he was furious, Fang Qiu did not directly use the power at the guru level. He only used all the energy in the reopened meridians.

His internal Qi erupted in an instant and enveloped his hands.

Facing the masked man in front of him, Fang Qiu did not hesitate. He waved his hand and threw a punch toward his face.

He did not want to reason with such a person!

“Hmm?”

In the blink of an eye, the masked man’s pupils suddenly contracted.

He found that when he was in front of Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu did not have time to react. But before he could go further, Fang Qiu’s fist came toward him.

The speed of his reaction and attack was so fast that he could not believe it.

He was an eighth-class Martial Superior with three meridians, while Fang Qiu was only a sixth-class Martial Superior!

How could this happen?

He was amazed.

Knowing that he could not dodge, the masked man could only wave his hands quickly and change his attack. He turned the dagger in his hand toward Fang Qiu’s fist, trying to force Fang Qiu back.

But Fang Qiu was not afraid at all.

A punch came.

With incredible force, he slammed into the masked man’s dagger, which was held upside down in his hands.

At the next moment, “Crack!”

A crash was heard.

The two daggers in his hands instantly shattered under the air pressure caused by Fang Qiu’s powerful fist moves and the horrible internal Qi clashing inside him!

Fang Qiu’s fist hit the man’s right arm hard.

It was like a hammer hitting a sponge.

This punch directly smashed the man’s arm to one side and then smashed his face without slowing down.

“Pa!”

A clear sound was heard.

As soon as the punch fell, the man’s face was instantly distorted.

It was not that his expression was distorted, but that his face was distorted.

He looked as if his nose was crooked and his eyes were squinting!

So what if he was an eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians?

Hit by this punch,

The masked man who rushed forward was directly knocked down and his head hit the ground hard in front of Fang Qiu.

Fortunately, the snow on the ground was very thick, which helped to cushion his fall.

Otherwise, even if he did not die, he would probably have a concussion!

“You...”

As soon as he landed on the ground, the masked man suddenly pulled his head out of the snow and roared with his mouth wide open.

But before he could finish his words,

“Pa!”

Fang Qiu punched him hard in the face again. His head crashed into the snow again.

“When did it become so easy to deal with an eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians?”

Looking at the masked man’s upper body buried in the snow in front of him, Fang Qiu was stunned.

Although he had fought with an eighth-class master before he successfully broke through to the sixth-class and he had also defeated an eighth-class Martial Superior with two meridians, an eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians should be much stronger than that.

“Why was it so easy to fight?”

Fang Qiu was thinking about it carefully. When Fang Qiu went to challenge Chen Yunzhu, who ranked 8th on the Wulin Genius List, he also used three moves.

Although at that time, Fang Qiu did not use all his strength and the opponent also took action when he was prepared, the eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians in front of him should not have been so easily defeated without him even making one move.

Actually, it was this masked man who had underestimated Fang Qiu.

From the very beginning, he had never regarded Fang Qiu as an opponent.

Therefore, when Fang Qiu fought back, his mind went blank so he could not take any precautions. He could only let Fang Qiu's fist hit his face.

But he did not expect that the power of this punch was so great that he was stunned in an instant.

Then another punch hit him in the same position.

The masked man felt so helpless and had a feeling that his face had been disfigured.

Although he was not dead or seriously injured, he was too ashamed to raise his head again.

The most important thing was that he finally came to his senses. The reason why he did not stand up and raise his head was because he wanted to use the ice-cold snow to calm down after he was stunned by Fang Qiu's strikes.

But would Fang Qiu give him this opportunity?

It was obvious that he would not!

“Why are you pretending to be dead?”

Seeing that the man no longer stood up, Fang Qiu stepped on his belly directly.

As soon as he stepped on him, the masked man was trampled on so hard that his vision blurred and he almost could not breathe because his head was buried in the snow and he was not prepared at all.

With a swoosh, he straightened his upper body again instantly.

As soon as he opened his eyes, the powerful punch came again.

“Bang!”

Fang Qiu punched him and knocked him down again. Then, he sat on the man’s lower abdomen without hesitation. He grabbed his collar and pulled him up from the snow. At the same time, he asked, “Tell me, where is your organization’s headquarters? How many people are there in your organization? How can you identify your members?”

He asked three questions in a row.

“Haha...” The masked man suddenly laughed and looked at Fang Qiu. He laughed out loud as if he was looking at an idiot.

Feeling rather furious, Fang Qiu grabbed his neck and said, “Say it, or die!”

“Convert me.”

The masked man looked at Fang Qiu. In his eyes, there was a feeling that he wanted to die, which was something ordinary people could not imagine. He said, “Hurry up and convert me. This world is full of pain. I don’t deserve to live in this world. I’m going to achieve more in the next life. I’m going to achieve more in the next life!”

“Crack!”

Fang Qiu crushed his neck.

This person had gone crazy.

Even if he continued to ask, he could not get anything out of him, so Fang Qiu did not hesitate to kill him on the spot!

In Fang Qiu's view, every time one of the members of the Nirvana Organization was gone, there was a chance that he could save more people.

Therefore, he did not show mercy.

“Nirvana Organization!”

Standing up, Fang Qiu took a deep breath and then stretched out his hand. His internal Qi came out of his body and covered the body of the masked man in thick snow. Then he waved his hand, which made the heavy snow sweep from all directions and completely buried the body of the masked man.

Fang Qiu knew that the disappearance of this person must be related to John Doe.

Fortunately, he had prepared for this.

He completely cut off all the connections between Fang Qiu and John Doe.

Medical Master

Chapter 700 He Can't Stay in His Home

Fang Qiu took out his phone and dialed Li Ji's number directly.

“Hello?” Even in the middle of the night, Li Ji still answered his call very quickly.

Fang Qiu went straight to the point. “If someone has recently done a check on the identity of John Doe or even the matter of Lop Nor, it is very likely that he will be a member of the Nirvana Organization.”

“Understood.”

Li Ji immediately nodded and said, “I will pay more attention to it!”

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded and was ready to end the call.

Li Ji hurriedly said, “Wait.”

Fang Qiu asked, “What’s the matter?”

Li Ji nodded with certainty and then asked, “When are you going to make some swords for us?”

Fang Qiu was taken back when he heard that.

Then he remembered that he had promised to help the army forge a batch of weapons.

When Li Ji mentioned it, Fang Qiu remembered that he still owed He Gaoming a sword.

Fang Qiu said, “After I finish what I need to do at the moment.”

“Okay.”

Li Ji immediately nodded and said, "On behalf of my comrades-in-arms, thank you."

"I'm hanging up." Before Li Ji could actually express his gratitude, Fang Qiu disconnected the call.

He knew that the reason why Li Ji mentioned this was because he wanted to put more pressure on him, so that it was a constant reminder to him to think about casting swords for the army.

It was better not to listen to such words.

Anyway, if Fang Qiu made a promise, he would definitely do it.

Fang Qiu looked around after he hung up.

"I wonder what kind of terrain it is since the Tianling Crystal is able to grow here."

As Fang Qiu thought of this, he immediately walked to the top of the snow-capped mountain, sat down at the place where the Tianling Crystal grew and spread out his Divine Consciousness to check the surrounding terrain.

After checking for a long while, Fang Qiu opened his eyes, shook his head helplessly with a wry smile and chose to give up.

The range of this terrain was too wide.

What's more, it was surrounded by connected mountains and lakes in the bay.

It was also connected to Storfjord.

Geirangerfjorden was just a branch of Storfjord.

Most importantly, the biggest feature of the Geirangerfjorden was that the shape of the land was often changing, which made the surrounding terrain even more elusive.

He was confused about the above points.

Fang Qiu was sure that even if he were to stay for three or five months, he would not be able to explore the terrain of this place totally.

In the end, he chose to give up.

“It seems that the terrain of all the Heaven Treasures is not easy to figure out.”

With a stir of his mind.

Fang Qiu shook his head, went straight down the mountain and flew into the Geirangerfjorden.

Falling from 1,500 meters high, Fang Qiu just saw that the sky was turning bright and it was nearly dawn!

He fell into the bay.

Fang Qiu stepped on the water and felt the peace of this last moment.

Seeing that the sky was getting brighter, he looked up, let out a long howl and then disappeared from the bay.

At this moment, Fang Qiu did not reach the peak of the sixth-class Perfect Realm because he had just broken through a short time ago.

After all, it was not that easy to reach seventh class from sixth class.

Even though he had already broken through once, it would take a long time and a lot of effort to do it.

Therefore, the Tianling Crystal would not be used for the time being.

However, it was also good to keep it.

He was afraid that when he was about to make a breakthrough, he would encounter the same situation as before and he would panic.

Fang Qiu went back to the hotel.

After a short rest, he went to the airport with Zhang Guoqiang in the morning and booked tickets to return to the country.

He paid for Zhang Guoqiang.

After waiting at the airport for several more hours, Fang Qiu boarded the plane to return home.

It was not until the next morning that Fang Qiu landed in Jianghang.

As soon as Fang Qiu got off the plane, he went to a very secluded place, took off the human skin mask on his face, changed into a sports suit that he liked to wear and emerged as Fang Qiu.

The first thing he did when he reverted to his actual appearance was to call Yang Ningyuan.

He really needed to thank this rich man. After all, the donations seemed simple, but in fact, it took a lot of time. Moreover, these days, because of Yang Ningyuan's actions, everyone in the country thought that Fang Qiu must be in the country. Once again, he completely cut off the connection between Fang Qiu and John Doe.

Everyone thought that when Fang Qiu was in Huaxia and John Doe went to Norway. The two of them were not the same person at all!

“Beep beep...”

The phone rang a few times before it was connected.

“Brother Fang.” Yang Ningyuan’s laughter came from the other end of the phone.

“Brother Yuan, thank you for helping me with all my affairs. Are you back in Jianghang now? I have to come to visit you in person to express my gratitude,” Fang Qiu said with a grateful smile.

“Haha, we’re friends. You don’t need to thank me.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed and added, “Besides, I just arrived in the capital.”

“Oh, I see.” Fang Qiu smiled.

He knew that Yang Ningyuan was now a popular man in the eyes of the people from various departments of the government. He was the one who helped Fang Qiu with all the donations.

Fang Qiu said, “Then I’ll wait for you to come back. I will definitely hold a banquet to express my gratitude.”

Said Fang Qiu.

Yang Ningyuan said with a smile, “I also have to thank you. We, brothers, just thank each other.”

“Well, I won’t disturb you anymore. I’ll contact you when you come back.” After saying that, Fang Qiu hung up.

Then Fang Qiu booked a car and rushed to the Qicheng company.

He found that the production of the CG animation video was progressing very smoothly.

After he made a careful calculation, it was going to be September soon. The school term would start next Monday and the video of the meridians was about to come out next week.

“After the first week of the new semester ended, the meridians CG animation video should be ready to be launched.”

Fang Qiu was excited.

When the time came, everyone would know what the meridians looked like.

After paying a visit to the animation company, Fang Qiu took a taxi to the high-speed railway station.

He bought a high-speed train ticket back to his hometown.

He had not been home for the whole summer vacation, which would be hard to explain.

However, hardly had Fang Qiu arrived home when it caused a sensation among his neighbors. Like watching a gorilla in a zoo, they came to Fang Qiu's house to watch him. When Fang Qiu finally got home, but he found that there were continuous calls at home. They all called to ask if Fang Qiu had come back.

This made Fang Qiu feel quite helpless.

He wanted to enjoy a happy time with his family during the last week of his vacation, but they did not have time at all.

Ever since he came back, his parents had been busy answering the phone.

The high school and middle school teachers somehow knew that Fang Qiu had come back. They also called and wanted to invite Fang Qiu to visit the schools at the beginning of the semester and say a few words to the students.

After all, Fang Qiu was now everyone's idol.

Of course, these kinds of invitations were all declined by Fang Qiu.

After all, not only was high school and middle school about to start, but Fang Qiu's university term was also about to start. He still had to go back.

In order to appease the teachers from his high school and middle school, Fang Qiu could only promise that he would definitely go back to his former schools to see everyone when he had time.

In the end, the teachers could only give up with regret.

It would not have mattered if all these happened during the day.

In the evening, Fang Qiu just wanted to simply watch TV with his parents, but people kept calling until dawn.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu immediately felt that he could not stay at home anymore.

Today, they called. Tomorrow they would all come to visit. He would not be able to leave at that time.

Early the next morning, Fang Qiu pulled out his suitcase and left quietly.

On the way, he called his parents.

Then, he took the high-speed train directly to Jiangjing to find Zhao Shanlin and his roommates.

In front of a factory at the foot of the unknown mountain of Jiangjing,

“I’m back.”

It was like a replay.

The figure was still standing at the gate of the factory. The four people in the factory were busy with their own work. The only difference was that this time, the person standing at the gate of the factory had a suitcase in his hand. The first person who saw Fang Qiu was Zhou Xiaotian instead of Sun Hao.

“Fang Qiu, why do you look so awkward?”

At the first sight of Fang Qiu, Sun Hao blurted out.

Zhou Xiaotian, Zhu Benzhen and Zhao Linlin also turned their heads to look at Fang Qiu.

“You’re right.”

With a wry smile, Fang Qiu dragged his suitcase into the factory and said, “I was chased by my relatives, neighbors and people whom I know and don’t know, at home. I went back to Jiangjing and was besieged by people at the high-speed railway station. If I had not managed to escape, I would not have been able to come back.”

As soon as he said that, everyone began to laugh.

“It seems that it’s not good to be famous,” Zhu Benzhen exclaimed with a smile.

Zhou Xiaotian said, "I want to make a name for myself. Let them all come and watch me and chase after me. I'm not afraid. I'll let you guys chase after me."

Sun Hao glanced at Zhou Xiaotian with disdain and said, "You? You will scare everyone away."

Everyone burst out laughing.

Then.

Zhao Shanlin came over and asked, "Fang Qiu, you guys are about to start school. What are you going to do with the things here after school starts? I can't do it alone."

"Mr. Zhao, I've been thinking about it."

Fang Qiu pondered for a while and said, "I've thought about it. I think we can invite the fifth-year students of our university to come over. Those students who are not taking the postgraduate entrance exam are also going to have internships. We can give them an opportunity to do their internship here."

"It's a good idea to invite seniors to be interns."

Sun Hao nodded and asked, "But you also have to pay for this internship. Didn't you donate all the money? Do you still have money to pay for those seniors?"

Fang Qiu said, "That's right, but didn't I have a lot of money before this?"

Said Fang Qiu.

It was only then that Sun Hao remembered that before Fang Qiu made a huge profit of one billion from the meridians video, Fang Qiu was already a multimillionaire. He had given ten million yuan to Mr. Zhao. He estimated that Fang Qiu should still have a lot of money left.

“Alas, there’s really no way to compete with you.”

Sun Hao sighed with emotion, “Why is there such a big gap between people living under the same roof?”

Fang Qiu said with a smile, “I think you will definitely be richer than I am now.”

“That’s good.”

Sun Hao’s eyes lit up and he said, “As long as I can be as rich as you are now, I’ll have enough in this life.”

“Yes.” Zhou Xiaotian nodded firmly.

“That’s what I think too.” Zhu Benzhen laughed and agreed.
