Chapter 711: Fang Qiu, Thats Who You Are!

Under his roommates' intense scrutiny, Fang Qiu answered the phone, "Hello."

Jiang Miaoyu asked, "Are you in school now?"

Fang Qiu replied, "I'm in the dormitory."

"That's great."

Jiang Miaoyu immediately became excited and said, "I want to watch the video."

Fang Qiu was shocked. "What?"

The expressions on the faces of his three roommates' faces became even more mischievous.

"What, what video?" Fang Qiu asked, pretending that he did not know what she was talking about.

Hearing what he said, the three roommates gave a thumbs-up to Fang Qiu at the same time.

He really had the guts!

"What video?"

At the other end of the phone, Jiang Miaoyu said in confusion, "The CG animation video that you made."

“Oh, that one?”

Fang Qiu straightened his back, nodded vigorously and said, “I’ll talk to you when we meet.”

As he was talking, he suddenly reached out, grabbed the USB stick on the desk and ran out.

“What the f*ck!” Zhou Xiaotian shouted.

Sun Hao shouted, “Fang Qiu, I despise you.”

Looking at Fang Qiu’s fleeing back, the three of them had contemptuous looks on their faces.

“Hehe.” After Fang Qiu left, Sun Hao suddenly laughed and pointed at Fang Qiu’s laptop.

Zhou Xiaotian and Zhu Benzhen also laughed out loud.

The three of them turned on the laptop together!

About half an hour later, Fang Qiu came back.

“You still dare to come back here?”

Zhou Xiaotian said this as soon as Fang Qiu entered the room.

“You’re a man who values his lover more than his friends. How could you abandon your brothers in order to meet a woman? You’re really a degenerate!”

Sun Hao followed closely behind.

“Fang Qiu, I don’t mean to criticize you, but you’ve gone too far this time. It’s not good that you value your girlfriend over our friendship. Besides, we’re not just friends. We’re brothers!”

Zhu Benzhen shook his head and sighed.

“Will brothers stop their brother from dating?”

Fang Qiu asked with a smile.

The three of them immediately stopped talking.

It was not that they did not want to answer, but they did not dare to.

If they said yes, what would they do if Fang Qiu decided to create some problems when they started dating in the future? With Fang Qiu’s current reputation and ability to make money, if he really decided to do something, the three of them would probably not be able to have a long-term relationship for the rest of their lives.

But if they said no, wouldn’t that be slapping themselves in the face?

Fang Qiu smiled.

It took him a long time to come up with this question on his way back.

Although they were challenged by Fang Qiu’s question, it did not stop the three of them from staring at Fang Qiu.

“Okay, let’s put this matter aside for the moment.”

Zhou Xiaotian changed the topic and said, “We are not bothered about your love life, but in terms of business, aren’t you too being a little too unscrupulous?”

“That’s right. You’re lucky that you didn’t get beaten to death by the advertisers.”

Sun Hao echoed immediately.

“The way you placed the ads is too shameless, isn’t it?”

Zhu Benzhen said this with a smile.

“Beat me up?”

Fang Qiu shook his head with a smile and said, “How is that possible? They still need to thank me. Why would they beat me up?”

“Only a ghost would believe you.”

Zhou Xiaotian sneered as he said, “The s placed are all so shitty. Why would they thank you? Are you insane?”

“You can choose either to believe it or not. It’s fine even though you don’t believe it.”

Fang Qiu’s lips curled as he said, “I helped them with the placement of ads. The publicity gained will be absolutely amazing!”

“We believe that it will be amazing.”

Zhu Benzhen rolled his eyes at Fang Qiu and said, “However, anyone who sees the will feel sorry for the advertiser.”

“Why will they feel sorry?”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "They will be earning so much money. Why do you still feel sorry for them?"

"Fang Qiu."

Sun Hao looked at Fang Qiu speechlessly and said, "I have a sudden impulse. I really want to let the advertisers see your ugly face.' It's really hateful."

Fang Qiu shrugged indifferently, indicating that he didn't care.

The next day, in order to promote the CG video, the three major video websites released a video clip of the CG animation at the same time.

With the publicity given by Weibo and other channels, it immediately attracted the attention of countless people as soon as the video clip was released.

In an instant, a large number of people converged to the three major video websites.

The netizens clicked on the video clip to have a look.

It featured a shirtless man with a muscular body. He was wearing only a pair of grey trousers and walking barefoot.

He walked all the way to the edge of a cliff.

The camera shifted.

There was a big rock jutting out of the cliff.

On this rock, there was a Taiji diagram. The man walked over to the Taiji diagram, sat down cross-legged and then slowly closed his eyes.

At this moment, the cries of birds and the sound of the wind that echoed around the surroundings quietened down. The whole world then fell silent instantly.

Then, the video was over.

This was just a simple video clip.

The entire video only lasted for ten minutes. How long would a simple clip last?

After watching the whole clip, everyone found that they didn't see the actual content but only saw the high quality of the CG animation.

However, this was enough to make everyone feel excited.

"The image quality is great!"

"Obviously, it took a huge amount of money to produce this CG animation video. I heard that the cost of CG animation is very high. Fang Qiu donated all the money he made. That is to say, he used his own money to make this video!"

"It's so life like. In the beginning, I thought I was watching a movie."

"This special effect is almost as good as that of any American movie. At first, I also thought that the protagonist was a real person. Later, I realized that it was not a real-life movie, but a CG animation."

"Wow, he's so handsome. He looks so cool."

“The man’s image might be based on a Neanderthal man. He has thick eyebrows, big eyes, short hair and is so muscular. There is also a certain aura enveloping his body, which catches one’s attention from the first glance.”

“It’s amazing. Can the national CG animation be made to such an extent now?”

There was a heated discussion on the Internet.

In the school, Zhou Xiaotian, Zhu Benzhen and Sun Hao had a big watermelon with them. They enticed Fang Qiu to come out to the freshmen’s military training ground under the scorching sun.

The four of them sat down under the shade of a tree.

While freshmen were taking part in the military training and standing in position under the command of the drill master, the four of them started to devour the watermelon.

As they ate, they grinned at the freshmen.

They were really relishing the succulent taste of the watermelon.

On the training ground, the group of freshmen were speechless.

At first, when they saw Fang Qiu, they were all very excited. But when they saw that Fang Qiu was eating his watermelon in front of them, while they were under the scorching sun, they felt rather desperate.

They thought, “Oh Fang Qiu, so that’s who you really are!”

“Haha.”

Looking at the distressed and helpless expressions of the freshmen, Zhou Xiaotian laughed and said while eating, "This idea came to me while I was having my military training last year. This is indeed taking pleasure in others' misfortune."

"Well, not bad."

Zhu Benzhen nodded in agreement, enjoying the moment. Then he said, "I am happiest when others are so envious of me."

"Cool!"

Sun Hao only said one word and then laughed out loud.

"You guys."

Fang Qiu looked at the three of them and said helplessly, "You've changed. You became so evil."

As soon as he said that, he was immediately berated by the trio.

"We are evil. What about you?"

Sun Hao questioned.

"I'm kind by nature. Why would I be evil?"

Fang Qiu chuckled.

"Is that so?"

Zhou Xiaotian leaned forward and asked, "What are you doing now?"

Fang Qiu replied, "Eating watermelon."

Zhou Xiaotian asked again, "Who are you facing?"

Fang Qiu answered again, "Freshmen."

Zhou Xiaotian asked again, "Don't you feel ashamed?"

"Why should I?"

Fang Qiu spread out his hands and said, "There's no rule in school that prohibits me from eating watermelon in the training ground, right?"

The three rolled their eyes at the same time.

Even the freshmen who were having military training on the other side rolled their eyes when they heard that, just like his three roommates.

"Since you say that you're kind by nature, then tell me, what are you doing here?"

Zhou Xiaotian continued to ask, feeling unconvinced.

"Of course, I'm here to express my empathy."

Fang Qiu raised his head naturally, his face filled with enjoyment.

However, this only made the three of them berate him even more.

The conversation between the four people was heard by the other students passing by, causing them to laugh out loud. Some of them ran to buy watermelons, ready to leave a deep and lasting impression on the freshmen performing their military training.

This time, these freshmen were going to suffer a lot.

Then, someone posted the photos of Fang Qiu and the other three roommates on the Internet. The four of them sat under the shade of the tree enjoying their watermelon. On the other side, a group of freshmen were in their respective positions under the scorching sun. They were sweating and suffering from the exposure to the hot sun!

On one side, the four were enjoying themselves. But on the other side, the freshmen were expressionless and looked rather indignant and helpless.

As soon as the photo was released, it immediately made the netizens laugh.

"Fang Qiu, that's who you are!"

"F*ck, how could you do such an inhuman thing?"

"I feel sorry for the freshmen. Not only did they suffer tremendously, but they also have to endure the temptation. They were not even drooling, which shows their restraint!"

"Watermelon, please save a piece of watermelon for me!"

"LOL. Fang Qiu is so good at it."

"Haha, why do I feel like I'm watching a comedy?"

"To tell you the truth, I've been wanting to do this for a long time, but I haven't found an opportunity. This time, I must have a good time!"

In the blink of an eye, the photos of Fang Qiu eating watermelon and watching the freshmen at their military training immediately went viral on Weibo, attracting a lot of people who were good at retouching photos. They changed the fruit that Fang Qiu ate or changed the expressions of the freshmen undergoing military training, and then added all kinds of captions for the photos.

People were having a good time retouching the photos.

All the students from the other universities followed what Fang Qiu did.

This instantly enraged all the freshmen in the country.

There was even a trending topic on Weibo—#accusing the outrageous seniors#.

There was nothing they could do.

The more they felt depressed about it, the happier people would be.

Anyway, they could not do anything to challenge those seniors while they were having their military training. Even if they could find something, they did not dare to do anything.

All the students except the freshmen were having a lot of fun.

“You should also experience the pain of the military training we encountered back then, Haha!”

Only then did everyone realize that this was actually a tradition of the military training period of universities over the years.

The freshmen were completely helpless. The netizens couldn't help but feel sad for the freshmen every year.

The whole episode about happily eating watermelon in front of the freshmen trended on Weibo for a few days.

In the blink of an eye, it was finally Monday, which was the day when the CG animation video was officially released!

Chapter 712: Everyone in the Country Follows it!

People were eagerly waiting for it and it was a hot topic on the internet for days.

Finally, it was Monday.

Almost everyone all over the country was looking forward to viewing it.

At six o'clock in the morning, some people were on the way to work, some had just gotten up, some were jogging, while some were doing their morning exercises, some had started their businesses and some were sitting in cybercafes. When they heard the notification coming from their headsets, they immediately woke up.

Various kinds of people were doing different things, but the one thing they all had in common was that everyone was holding their mobile phones and waiting for the notification from Weibo.

They all followed Fang Qiu and the three major video websites on Weibo.

Whether it was Fang Qiu or any of the three major video websites that updated anything on Weibo, they would receive the notification immediately and could click on Weibo to check it instantly.

Time ticked by.

More and more people were now awake.

It was eight o'clock in the morning.

More and more people were waiting eagerly.

“Swish, swish, swish...” In a company, numerous employees logged into Weibo. They were constantly on the lookout as they frantically refreshed their Weibo, afraid that the boss would find out that they were checking on their Weibo during work hours. However, they could not help being extremely curious about what the meridian CG animation video would be like.

The same thing happened in all walks of life.

Some people even specially applied for leave from the company so they could watch this video.

What everyone was curious about was how the CG animation video would present the meridians and what the meridians actually looked like.

They were more curious about how Fang Qiu had placed the ten s slots which were sold by him for nearly one billion.

After all, the meridian CG animation video would be a very serious video, so the contents of it must be very serious.

How could s then be placed within such a serious video?

Besides, there were s for ten totally different products.

It was not just the public, all the people in the Chinese Medicine circle paid special attention to it.

After all, this was an unprecedented grand event for Chinese Medicine practitioners.

Meridian was a huge problem that had baffled the world and Chinese Medicine for many years. It had been one of the three difficult problems that prevented Chinese Medicine from moving forward. Now, were the facts going to be completely unfolded in front of everyone in the world?

“Is everyone waiting?”

“I have been waiting since last night. Although I know that the three video websites will release the video at 10 o’clock, I just can’t calm down. When I think that the video is about to come out, I’m so excited that I can’t sleep at all.”

“Haha, same here.”

“I haven’t slept well for two days. I specially asked for leave today. I’ll wait and see.”

“Well, although our Chinese Medicine doctors know and approve of the existence of meridians and we’ve seen them healing patients through their meridians, we really have not seen and don’t know what meridians look like.”

“Yes, I’m also very curious.”

“It’s a pity that we’re not powerful enough. If we can reach Fang Qiu’s level, we can use Insight to check our own meridians at any time.”

“No wonder Fang Qiu can rise so quickly and cure all kinds of incurable diseases. Meridian plays an important role in Chinese Medicine. As long as people can completely understand the meridians and use the Qi as he has demonstrated before, is there any disease in the world that can’t be cured?”

“From the first day I studied Chinese Medicine, I’ve been very curious about meridians. Of course, what I’m curious about is not whether meridians exist or not, but how they work. Is it the same as the blood vessels in our human body?”

“Didn’t Fang Qiu say that meridians contained Qi just like there is blood in the veins?”

“But meridians congestion is quite common in Chinese Medicine. Many drugs are used to clear meridians. Since there is both invisible and untouchable Qi in the meridians, how could the meridians become congested?”

“Silly. There are also impurities in the human body. There is a thrombus in the blood vessels. There must be something in the meridians that can cause obstruction, such as the human body’s waste, impurities, etc...”

“Why are you asking now? You’ll understand when you watch the meridian video.”

“Yes, I’d better refresh my Weibo and be the first person to watch the video!”

All the Chinese Medicine practitioners in the Chinese Medicine WeChat groups were talking about this matter.

The more they talked, the more passionate they became. They also had high expectations of the meridian video.

Meanwhile, after receiving the notice from the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, dozens of the school’s students from the fifth year were assigned to the factory where Zhao Shanin was located, for an internship.

They took a bus to the suburb of the city and walked toward the factory.

“Why don’t we walk a little slower?” On the way, a short-haired young man said.

“Why?”

A student with a serious expression immediately said, “Today is the first day of our internship. We can’t be late.”

“It’s because it’s the first day and we don’t know when we will start work, so we can slow down a bit.”

The short-haired young man chuckled and said, "Actually, the purpose of our visit to the factory today is simply to familiarize ourselves with the environment. I don't think we will immediately get to work, so it's fine to slow down a little. Besides, today is the day when Fang Qiu will release the meridian CG animation video. I'm doing this for everyone's sake. I hope we can walk a little slower. When the video is released, we can watch it with peace of mind and then go back to work, right?"

"I agree." A student immediately raised his hand in agreement.

"I agree, too." Another student raised his hand too.

"Yes, I've been waiting for this day for a long time. It's the meridian video. Have you ever seen the meridians? Who knows what the meridians are like? Even if we've been studying hard for five years, our concept about the meridians is still very vague and even strange. So we can't miss it."

The students began to speak, one after another. They felt that the most important thing right now was to see the video.

When he heard what everyone said, the serious-looking student immediately frowned and said, "Me too. I also want to watch the video. But since it is the first day of the release of the video, we can still watch it another day. I still think that we should prioritise the internship first. As for the meridian video, we can also watch it tomorrow. Besides, it will be free tomorrow."

"Don't take it so seriously."

"That's right. It's not that we are not going. We will be going a little later. If there's any work that we can't complete today, we can work harder to finish it tomorrow."

"I've completely under its spell. Because of the meridian video, I haven't slept well for several days."

"Although it feels a little awkward to say it out loud, I still want to say that Fang Qiu is not only my idol, but also everyone's idol. The creation of this meridian video is to let us watch and learn. We should make good use of our spare time to study hard. In the future, we can use the knowledge we learned to create greater value!"

The other students kept persuading him, which made the serious-looking student feel a little embarrassed. In the end, he could only smile awkwardly and go with the flow.

After all, he was also curious about the meridian video.

As time went by, all the people who knew Fang Qiu but who Fang Qiu didn't know, began to turn on their phones and computers, waiting for the official release of the meridian video. They all wanted to see what Fang Qiu had made after such a long time.

Not only were the people in the country looking forward to it.

Because of the ground shaking speech that Fang Qiu had made at the world medical conference, many foreign netizens also followed Fang Qiu.

Among them, there were many people in the world's medical community.

Although Fang Qiu had proved repeatedly that meridians existed and enabled many people to see the meridians with their own eyes, they had not seen them yet.

Therefore, when the news that Fang Qiu was going to make a meridian CG animation video was made known, these foreign netizens began to follow Fang Qiu. Unfortunately, Fang Qiu did not have a Twitter account. They could not use their network to follow Fang Qiu on Weibo. These foreigners could only keep urging the Huaxia netizens to upload the meridian video to the foreign website as soon as possible.

It could be said that these foreign netizens' curiosity about meridians was no less than that of domestic netizens.

"Why hasn't he released it yet?" In the orthopedics department of First Affiliated Hospital of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, Shen Chun was sitting in the consulting room. Looking out of the door while staring at his mobile phone, he murmured, "When the patients come later, I won't have time to watch it."

In the student department's office in school, Li Qingshi sat in front of the desk. While constantly refreshing Weibo on his laptop, he murmured, "Meridian CG? Fang Qiu, what kind of surprise will you bring for the school and Chinese Medicine this time?"

In the northeast,

Xu Miaolin, who had not returned to Jiangjing yet, looked at Holy Doctor Chu and Chu Yunyun and asked, "What time do you think this kid will release it?"

Chu Yunyun shook her head, "I don't know."

Holy Doctor Chu said, "No matter when he releases it, I want to see what this guy can do. Don't disgrace our Chinese Medicine's reputation."

"Did my student disgrace the reputation of Chinese Medicine?"

Xu Miaolin rolled his eyes at Holy Doctor Chu and said, "My father-in-law, are you old and confused?"

"What did you say?"

Holy Doctor Chu narrowed his eyes and stared at Xu Miaolin with dissatisfaction.

"I want to say that my student spent all his energy, money and time on Chinese Medicine in order to promote the development of Chinese Medicine and see its rise."

Xu Miaolin grinned and said, "He's not like us. With all these medical skills, we can only stay at home and do nothing."

As soon as he said that, Chu Yunyun immediately rolled her eyes at Xu Miaolin.

"Humph!"

Holy Doctor Chu snorted and stopped talking.

He knew Xu Miaolin was only goading him. Although he had outstanding skills, he was not as good as Fang Qiu in terms of his contribution to Chinese Medicine.

From this perspective, he was not entitled to question Fang Qiu even though he was a holy doctor.

He Gaoming, as well as all the people who had participated in the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor, were also paying attention to the release of the meridian video.

Time flew by quickly.

It was now approaching 10 o'clock.

In addition to high expectations, countless people also began to pay for membership frantically.

After all, the price of the three video websites' membership had been reduced by half.

In order to watch the meridian video as soon as it was released, people could still afford it, since the membership price was only ten yuan.

Medical Master

Chapter 713: Use the Supermarket To Plant Advertisement?

The staff of the three video websites had already started their preparations.

Because they foresaw that the membership would increase drastically today, the three video websites had made preparations well in advance. They also added a new server on their own platforms to prevent encountering any problems with the server, which might lead to a slowdown of the system, payment problems or any other unforeseen problems.

When everything was ready, the technical department of the three video websites starting computing the new membership data in the early morning.

In the morning, the number of people paying for membership increased dramatically. The number that could only be reached after one day hit the mark early in the morning today, but it was not enough to fire up the excitement of the staff of the three video websites.

By nine o'clock in the morning, there was a surge in the increase of new members. This sudden rise shocked all the technical staff of the three video websites.

In the blink of an eye, it had grown nearly a hundred times over. This kind of escalating member increase had never been experienced before!

Later, it continued to grow. And the growth rate kept increasing.

As it was getting close to the time for the official release of the video, more and more people signed up for the membership.

Looking at the increasing number of members, the executives of the three video websites were all very excited.

When they had just received the right to play the meridian CG video, a large number of people had already followed their websites and paid for their membership. At that time, they had already made a huge profit. Although they did not completely recover the money they spent back then, it was really close.

And now, what the explosive growth brought this time was almost a net profit.

Of course, the net profit was not based on money. Although they had made an enormous amount of money, the most important thing was the traffic.

Why did all three video websites launch a promotion of 50% off the membership fee?

They wanted to get the traffic!

With the help of the membership promotion, they first got people attracted to their website. Because when it came to signing up for the membership, most of the people did not want to waste it. As soon as they saw the video, they would enter the video website and gradually become the loyal audience of the website.

This was the real profit!

Looking at the increasing traffic, the staff of the three video websites were very excited.

This kind of data was much more powerful than the most popular TV series in recent years.

At this moment, no one thought that it was a loss to spend 50 million on an exclusive broadcast right.

This was only the first day.

Tomorrow, many people who did not want to pay for the membership would tune in to watch the video, so the traffic would be bigger than today.

The most important thing was that once people could watch the meridian video for free, the websites would inevitably add at least a 30-second at the beginning of the video according to the rules of the three video websites. For such a hit video, they could even directly add a 60-second or 90-second . These s were equivalent to money!

The time for people to enjoy it always passed quickly.

When the executives of the three video websites were still savoring the pleasure brought by the huge traffic, it was already 10 o'clock in the morning.

Regarding the release of the video, the executives of the three video websites had already discussed and issued instructions.

When it was ten o'clock, the three video websites released the video simultaneously.

As soon as the video was released, all the people who were waiting in front of computers and mobile phones flooded into the websites to watch it.

In the first second, the Click-through Rate was zero.

In the 30th second, the Click-through Rate was still zero.

However, in the 60th second, when the website updated automatically, the Click-through Rate of the meridian CG animation jumped from zero to millions in an instant.

It increased by over a million every minute.

This was just the number of view counts on one of the video websites.

Of course, some people could not see anything because of the slow speed of the network, they then refreshed many times, which caused the Click-through Rate to rise.

But even so, this drastically increasing Click-through Rate also shocked the technical staff of the three video websites. It also startled all the audience who were watching the video.

This was simply insane.

Although people were shocked, they still focused on the contents of the video.

“Whoosh, whoosh...” In the beginning, the sounds of the cold wind blowing could be heard.

The sky was dark.

It was in the middle of the night and the autumn night was bleak and still.

“Pitter-patter...” On a street in a city, a young man with short hair, dressed in grey trousers and a white T-shirt, walked slowly from the dark street.

The figure gradually approached from a distance.

As people took a closer look, they saw that this was the protagonist from the trailer a few days ago.

Everyone was curious.

At that time, the scene in the trailer was set on a high mountain cliff, but the scene now was a city. Would the change of the scene be too drastic?

Just when everyone was feeling confused, the protagonist who was walking over, suddenly stopped and turned to look at the side of the road.

Then the camera shifted.

The protagonist was looking at a small supermarket.

“What the f*ck. Is he going to advertise in this way?”

“The supermarket?”

“That’s a great idea. Haha. Is he going to say something and finish ten ads in one go?”

“Using a supermarket to plant an . This is so unexpected.”

The audience immediately a heated discussion about this.

As expected, while the audience were having heated discussions, the protagonist in the video strode toward the supermarket.

The camera kept on rolling.

The protagonist entered the supermarket.

He came to a shelf and picked up a can of Bull.

The supermarket owner said as he collected the money, “It’s late at night and you’re still drinking Bull. Young man, are you going to work all night?”

“Just want to keep up my energy.”

The protagonist answered and then walked out of the supermarket. He opened the can of Bull and finished it in one gulp.

All the audience who were watching were stunned when they saw that.

“Is, is this an ?”

“Damn, Bull almost dominated the whole country’s energy drinks market and spent so much money to buy a plot slot. This plot is so unexpected.”

“I don’t see any trace of the product placement at all.”

“Haha, Bull is really refreshing!”

At this moment, the protagonist threw the can away after he finished his drink. The camera zoomed in on the drink in a close up shot. Then it was kicked away by the protagonist and landed directly into the trash can across the street.

“Not bad. There’s also a close-up.”

“This plot is not awkward at all. It looks quite smooth.”

“Stop pretending.”

“I feel sorry for Bull!”

“They spent so much money to buy an , which showed their product being kicked away.”

“Although the is a little awkward, this CG animation is very good. At least he did not just throw rubbish everywhere. This was worth complimenting.”

In the midst of everyone’s discussion, the protagonist continued to move forward in the darkness.

He walked all the way to the suburb.

Although there were no street lights, the moonlight in the sky was so bright that everything could be seen clearly.

There was a full moon in the sky.

The camera turned.

Finally, people saw the same plot as the trailer they had seen before.

It was a muddy path.

On both sides, the grass, which was about three to five inches high, had been washed clean by the rain.

There was a puddle of water on the ground.

The cold wind whistled through the air, making the grass sway back and forth.

“Pitter-patter...”

The sound of footsteps could be heard.

The protagonist in the video was walking on the mud, moving forward step by step.

He went straight to the top of the hill, which was accessible through the muddy path.

There was a cliff and at the edge of the cliff, there was a protruding rock with a Taiji diagram engraved on it. At first glance, it gave the people watching a special kind of feeling.

He walked to the Taiji diagram.

The protagonist looked up at the full moon above his head and then took off his clothes, revealing his perfectly toned muscular body.

It was midnight.

The protagonist sat in the middle of the Taiji diagram and began to cultivate just like what he did in the trailer.

At this moment, people heard a piece of melodious music.

Anyone who knew it could tell that it was the theme song that Fang Qiu sang when he participated in the Young Chinese Medicine Doctor. However, it turned into a piece of pure music played by the Chinese zither. There was nobody singing, nor were there any modern musical instruments sounds.

With this background music, the camera suddenly zoomed in on the protagonist and went straight into the body of the protagonist.

At the next moment, the protagonist's body gradually became transparent, so the audience could clearly see his blood vessels, meridians, viscera and so on, in his body.

Under these circumstances, the audience could easily see the protagonist's every movement, including the subtle moves of his nose and the quiver of his eyelids.

At the same time, they could also see every part of the protagonist's body.

The protagonist was cultivating.

Immediately, four words appeared on the video—12 standard meridians.

It was the Lung Meridian of Hand-Taiyin.

In the cultivation, two shining lines suddenly appeared in the protagonist's arms, indicating that this was the Lung Meridian of Hand-Taiyin. Meanwhile, the meridians were marked with acupuncture points—Zhong Fu, Yun Men, Tian Fu, Xia Bai, Chi Ze, Kong Zui, Lie Que, Jing Qu, Tai Yuan, Yu Jian, and Shao Shang.

The audience looked at it.

“It turns out the first meridian is here, and there are so many acupuncture points.”

“Is this the meridian?”

“It looks so complicated.”

While everyone was discussing, the light of the Lung Meridian of Hand-Taiyin gradually faded.

It was replaced by another one, which was right next to the Lung Meridian of Hand-Taiyin—Large Intestine Meridian of Hand-Yangming.

The acupuncture points were—Shang Yang, Er Jian, San Jian, He Gu, Yang Xi, Pian Li, Wen Liu, Xia Lian, Shang Lian, Shou Sanli, Qu Chi, Zhou Liao, Shou Wuli, Bi Nao, Jian Yu, Ju Gu, Tian Ding, Fu Tu, Kou Heliao, and Ying Xiang.

Then, it was the Stomach Meridian of Foot-yangming.

This meridian went through one side of his body, from the top of the right side of his head to the soles of his right foot.

It was the same on the left.

All the acupuncture points were highlighted—Cheng Qi, Si Bai, Ju Liao, Di Cang, Da Ying, Jia Che, Xia Guan, Tou Wei, Ren Ying, Shui Tu, Qi She, Que Pen, Qi Hu, Ku Fang, Wu Yi, Ying Chuang, Ru Zhong, Ru Gen, Bu Rong, Cheng Man, Liang Men, Guan Men, Tai Yi, Hua Roumen, Tian Shu, Wai Ling, Da Ju, Shui Dao, Gui Lai, Qi Chong, Pi Guan, Fu Tu, Yin Shi, Liang Qiu, Du Bi, Zu Sanli, Shang Juxu, Tiao Kou, Xia Juxu, Feng Long, Jie Xi, Chong Yang, Xian Gu, Nei Ting, and Li Dui.

Just like that, as the protagonist was cultivating, the meridians in his body lit up, one by one.

Spleen Meridian of Foot-Taiyin, Heart Meridian of Hand-Shaoyin, Small Intestine Meridian of Hand-Taiyang, Bladder Meridian of Foot-Taiyang, Kidney Meridian of Foot-Shaoyin, Pericardium Meridian of Hand-Jueying, Tri-jiao Meridian of Hand-Shaoyang, Gallbladder Meridian of Foot-Shaoyang, and Liver Meridian of Foot-Jueyin.

Each meridian was clearly marked.

Chapter 714: Feel Sorry for the Advertisers!

In the morning.

After the practice, close it!

Everyone looked at the video and found that eight minutes had passed in this ten-minute CG animation.

“It’s almost over. Why did the pop up?”

“Oh, is this the end?”

“The animation is pretty good and can be called a textbook-style of video. It’s impossible to understand it if you watch it only once.”

“Where are the other nine ads?”

Everyone became confused.

However, just when everyone was still puzzled, the video was still playing.

There was no ending tune.

In the video, when the practice of Kung Fu ended, the protagonist put on his clothes and returned to the city by the same route.

But when he returned to the city, he passed by the 24-hour open supermarket again.

Right at this moment, “Dee-dee-dee-dee...” A cell phone rang all of a sudden.

The protagonist stopped in his tracks.

He took out his phone.

On the phone, there were two eye-catching words: Hua Qiang!

“It’s coming. It’s coming.”

“There is nothing artificial about the at all. Haw-haw.”

“Hua Qiang’s mobile phone is cool!”

“Huang Qiang is truly the general title sponsor and made such an awesome .”

“Terrific. This is the first time I’ve seen such a conspicuous .”

Everyone made a lot of sarcastic comments.

This was because the characters “Huang Qiang” were so big that they took up almost all of the screen space on the protagonist’s mobile phone.

The video continued to play.

“Hello?” The protagonist answered the phone.

“Hello?” A woman’s nasally voice came from the other end of the phone. It seemed as if she had caught a cold.

“On the way back.” The protagonist answered.

“My period is coming, help me buy something.” The woman said.

“Okay,” The protagonist nodded and hung up.

Then, he turned around and walked into the 24/7 supermarket.

In the supermarket, the protagonist went straight to the feminine supplies area and took a light blue bag containing sanitary napkins, on which the words “Free feel” were printed.

The viewers looking at this scene burst out laughing.

“Oh dear! How can the be planted like this?”

“Sure enough, the period is really coming. Haha.”

“The words Free feel are really big.”

“Feeling free is rather good!”

The viewers laughed boisterously.

The way the product placement was done was truly amazing.

In fact, everyone knew that the meridian animation was over, and the rest of the time would be taken up by the s. But even so, they showed no signs of wanting to shut off the video. Instead, they watched it with great interest, waiting for the next .

After selecting the sanitary napkins, the protagonist went to the pharmaceutical area.

He took out a cold medicine named “Cure Cold” from the shelf.

Another .

“This plot is quite fluid.”

“That’s good. The leading actor has a high level of EQ, since he can tell that the leading actress has caught a cold.”

“I do admire this !”

“Cure Cold? This medicine is quite good.”

Two seconds flashed by.

After taking the cold medicine, the protagonist continued to walk to the other shelves.

When he passed by the beverage area, he took a bottle of mineral water.

The bottle of mineral water flashed by in a second.

“Bamboo Forest’s mineral water.”

“Is this also an ?”

“An lasting one second can be called an ?”

“Why didn’t I see it? Is it really Bamboo Forest mineral water? I’ll replay it and look at it again.”

The moment the viewers saw it, they all burst into laughter.

The top mineral water company in the country had spent tens of millions of yuan purchasing the , but unexpectedly, it just lasted only one second. Even the brand was hard to spot if they did not look carefully at it. It was too funny.

However, the flashed so fast that many people would replay just to check it, which made a deep impression on the people about Bamboo Forest mineral water.

The video continued.

After taking the mineral water, the protagonist kept moving forward.

At this time, the camera was at his side.

With every step he took, the viewers could clearly see a product on every shelf where he passed.

On the shelf, Northern River’s Hericium biscuits came into view first, then Treasure pure milk and Aunt Liu’s sauce.

And each product appeared for exactly one second!

All the viewers were stunned by this.

“Wow, awesome. Really awesome.”

“I can tell wholeheartedly that this is the most awesome I’ve ever seen.”

“I feel sorry for the advertisers.”

“Is this also an ?”

“Is it still considered as an if it just flashes by in the blink of an eye?”

“Haha, the product placement is not stiff at all and looks like it is a part of the plot.”

The audience laughed wildly.

These goods were all products from the top domestic enterprises.

Not to mention on the Internet, even on TV, those s would last at least 15 seconds. But now, those top enterprises fought so hard to purchase a slot for their s from Fang Qiu, and it appeared for only one second?

This way of advertising was really for advertising.

As the audience discussed heatedly,

The video continued.

After walking by three products, one after another, the protagonist walked to the supermarket counter to check out his items.

After handing the items to the cashier, he turned his head and looked out of the door, only to find an air conditioner printed with two words “Qingxin”!

“Qingxin air conditioner’s ad is also being shown.”

“Qingxin air conditioner gives you a fresher life!”

“No trace of advertising placement at all.”

“The location of this air conditioner is very good.”

“I didn’t expect that the last would appear like this. Haha.”

Everyone guffawed.

In the video, the protagonist finished paying the bill, then took out his mobile phone and made a call. He said, “I’ve bought everything and will come back right now.”

After that, he strode out of the supermarket and disappeared in the light of the morning sun.

There were clamors of comments among the viewers.

“Hua Qiang again!”

“Haha, Hua Qiang’s mobile phone is really awesome.”

“Hua Qiang’s mobile phone, the fighter jet among the mobile phones!”

The video ended.

After watching the whole video, the audience was amazed by the appearance of the meridians and the number of acupuncture points, and also laughed merrily.

The comment areas of the CG meridians on the three major video websites were crammed with various comments in just 10 minutes.

The words, like a catchphrase, appeared in the comment area under the video and last dozens of pages in a neat sequence.

“This is not a product placement at all. Fang Qiu just advertised directly for you!”

“Haha, I am going to die of laughter.”

“The funniest thing is that the scene of this is set in the supermarket. Whose idea is this? So ingenious!”

“Can I say Fang Qiu is so lazy that he dares to treat the advertisers in this way?”

When the video ended, everyone logged in to Weibo.

A few minutes later, a new topic appeared on Weibo: Feel Sorry for the Advertisers. Not long after this topic appeared, it rapidly entered Weibo’s trending topic list.

Besides this, another topic skyrocketed to the first place of the list more rapidly.

This topic was “Meridian”!

From these two topics, it was clearly seen how influential Fang Qiu’s meridian CG video was this time, as there were 2 trending topics about it just after the video had been online for less than half an hour.

If the heated discussion continued, the topics about the meridian CG video would make it to the top three on the list of Weibo's topics.

Some advertisers decided to ride along with this wave of success.

"Thank you, Mr. Fang Qiu." This post appeared simultaneously on the official Weibo of Bamboo Forest Spring, Treasure Milk, Aunt Liu's Sauce and Northern River's Hericium biscuits.

They also added the tag "Feel Sorry for the Advertisers".

When the netizens saw it, they couldn't stop laughing.

"Haha, why do their thank-yous look a little strange?"

"They don't mean it. Though they are supposedly expressing their thanks, it looks as if they want to kill Fang Qiu instead, don't they?"

"Fang Qiu specially had these s shot for you. You should thank him, haha."

"Rich people, please give me your membership numbers."

"Me too. Could any rich man give his membership number?"

Following these four enterprises, the other companies' official Weibo also posted new Weibo posts to express their gratitude to Fang Qiu and also added the tag "Feel Sorry for the Advertisers".

The Feeling Free sanitary napkins' official Weibo was the first to be packed with comments.

"This is really good."

“Compared with the other companies’ s, your company’s is the best.”

“Could it be that you’ve given Fang Qiu some advantages? Your is the best out of the ten.”

“What kind of the is that? Is there any talent who has the resource of the meridian CG video, or willing to share the member’s number? Please let me have a look.”

“Talents, give me a chance. Whoever gives me the membership number, I will follow him in the future!”

The official Weibo of the other countries were also filled with comments.

All kinds of heated discussions carried on unceasingly.

Among them, what drew the most attention from the netizens was the self-reliant enterprise—Huang Qiang’s mobile phone.

However, it was different from the other companies.

The official Weibo of Hua Qiang’s mobile phone did not add the tag “Feel Sorry for the Advertisers”. Instead, it posted a very formal Weibo of appreciation and reposted the playing address of the meridian CG video on the three major video websites.

The reaction immediately aroused the ridicule of all the netizens.

“Haha, why do I feel that the post is contrary to your thoughts?”

“We don’t feel sorry for you, but for the mobile phone in the video. The words ‘Hua Qing’ are too big. In order to highlight it, the mobile phone has a really ugly design!”

“Hua Qiang’s mobile phone, the one with the big characters in the mobile phones!”

“What big character mobile phone? It’s obviously a mobile phone for the elderly. A normal mobile phone does not have such big characters. Haha.”

“Hua Qiang, don’t cry. Stand up!”

Instantly, the Internet was full of hot topics about the meridian CG video.

There were also a large number of people looking for membership numbers, causing excitement and jollification in Weibo, major Tiebas, forums and theme websites. It was as if it was the New Year in the Internet world.

At the same time, after the meridian CG video was released formally, the meridians in it were also the subject of a huge discussion.

Especially those in the Chinese medicine circle. They had always recognized the existence of meridians and used the characteristics of meridians to cure diseases and save lives, but they had never seen what meridians looked like.

And now, through the meridian CG video, they finally saw the details of meridians and thus had a deeper understanding of traditional Chinese medicine.

On the Wulin online forum. someone posted, “go and see the meridian video released by Fang Qiu. I have found that this video seems to be helpful for cultivation!”

This sentence made those who originally didn’t pay attention to Wulin watch it again!

When they saw the video, they found that this video was truly instrumental for making a breakthrough in each level of Martial Superior.

This made the Wulin people rather surprised.

So they told more and more people to watch and learn.

Medical Master

Chapter 715: Take a Teaching Video!

“Well, Fang Qiu’s meridian CG is really useful.”

“In fact, the meridians in Chinese Medicine are what Wulin people meant when they talk about meridians. Chinese Medicine is able to cure diseases by making use of the meridians, while Wulin practice Kung Fu by using meridians to strengthen the body. These two actually have a lot in common.”

“No wonder Fang Qiu can use Qi. He has such a clear understanding of the meridians in the body. It should be easy for him to learn Qigong?”

“It’s a pity that Fang Qiu is a Chinese Medicine doctor. If he practices martial arts, he will definitely make rapid progress.”

“I have to say, after seeing his meridian CG video, we Kung Fu practitioners have a better understanding of our bodies and it’s also helpful for our cultivation. It’s a pleasant surprise.”

“Fang Qiu is totally a friend of Wulin.”

On the Wulin online forum, the discussion became even more heated.

During the whole day, the entire Internet world was full of topics about “meridians” and “Feel Sorry for the Advertisers”.

Someone even bought a bottle of Bull drink, took a picture of it and posted it on the Internet. The post read, “‘Feel Sorry for the Advertisers’. Although I am not a rich man, I can still afford to give you this little support.”

Then, everyone followed suit eagerly.

They all went to buy the products from these 10 manufacturers, took photos of them and posted them on the Internet.

Some bought one, some bought two and some bought everything, including Hua Qiang's mobile phones.

Soon, there were all these unique posts on the Internet

Seeing the heated discussion brewing on the Internet, the top ten enterprises were overjoyed.

They were only eager for the ongoing discussion to get more heated, so that more people would buy their products.

For them, each product meant sales volume.

Sure enough, when it was night time, the topic was still going viral on the Internet. Considering the time and the fact that all the large supermarkets all over the country were already closed, the top ten advertisers immediately began to collate the sales data.

Soon, the data came out.

The daily growth rate of the ten major companies had increased by over 50%!

This data made the ten major companies go wild with joy!

What did a 50% increase mean?

To put it bluntly, it was definitely a terrific number!

It meant that the daily sales volume of 100,000 rose to 150,000 today. How could the top ten companies not be excited about such a tremendous increase?

The top ten enterprises were ecstatic!

However, on the contrary, the other companies carrying the same products were about to cry.

With the growth of the daily sales of the top ten companies, the other companies carrying the same products were impacted hugely by this. The daily sales of those large, middle, and small sized companies were reduced by 20%!

At this moment, these companies finally understood why the major companies still chose to spend a large sum of money competing for a advertising slot in Fang Qiu's video, even though they knew that the would only last one second and they did not know beforehand how their s would appear in the video.

Compared with such terrific effects of publicity, tens of millions of yuan was nothing.

Seeing the products of these top ten companies selling so well, those companies that failed to get advertising places had so much regrets!

It was as if they had missed a golden mountain of opportunity!

For those netizens who did not have a member's accounts or did not want to recharge as a member, they could still see some snippets of the meridian CG video on the Internet. But later, the three major video websites directly joined hands to crack down on pirated videos.

As a result, within 10 minutes, those pages with the snippets turned into 404 error messages.

No matter how hard the netizens tried, they could not find it at all.

One can just imagine how hard the three major video websites came down on piracy. After all, these video websites had spent 50 million yuan buying the broadcast rights and there was only a one day exclusive for the members to watch it.

If the three major video websites failed to seize this day, how could they increase the popularity of their websites?

There was nothing else the netizens could do.

Since they could not find any resources, they had to wait until after 12 o'clock to watch it for free.

Anyway, it was already evening, not too long before 12 o'clock.

A few hours later, at 12 o'clock, a large number of people immediately flooded into the three major video websites.

Everyone clicked crazily on the meridian CG video to check it out.

In this case, the meridian CG video, which had received 150 million view hits in a day, gained a new high record of view counts and other data in an instant.

The data soared wildly at almost double the rate.

On the Internet, the heated discussions about the topic continued to grow.

After all, only those who recharged their membership cards could attend the discussion today, while the others knew nothing about the contents of the video.

But after 12 o'clock, when people could watch the video for free, the number of people participating in the discussion doubled instantly, reaching several times over that in the daytime.

The two topics, “Meridians” and “Feel Sorry for the Advertisers”, which had been hotly discussed for a whole day, rose to new heights.

The topics led to the other hot topics on Weibo trailing far behind.

No sooner was the free video screened, than the domestic freelancers working on posting videos to foreign Internet sites began reproducing and recording the videos, translating it into foreign languages and sending it to foreign countries.

Just like Huaxia people, many foreign netizens were looking forward to this video.

Because of the different time zones, many foreign netizens could view this video at normal times.

They were all shocked.

“Amazing!”

“In the mysterious eastern world, how could they find such a magical thing?”

“Oh my god, there is such a passage in the human body, but we know nothing about it?”

“The mysterious eastern country discovered meridians thousands of years ago that could not be found even by modern technology. It’s amazing.”

In the heated discussion, the domestic and international Click-through Rates of the video soared wildly.

Frankly speaking, the meridians were a hot topic!

Under these circumstances, countless people began to ask around frantically, “How do we get the insight?”

“What’s the method to get Insight?”

“Merely watching the meridian is of no use. What we need is the method to get Insight!”

“The same request.”

“Fang Qiu, share the method of Insight.”

In the Dormitory 501 of University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.

“Look, trouble is coming.”

Seeing the heated discussion on the Internet, Sun Hao turned to look at Fang Qiu and said, “The creature like human being, finds it hard to satisfy their own desire for knowledge. You said you have 10 yuan and gave them 1, but they want to know if you really have only 10 yuan. If you had said that you have 100 yuan and gave them 10, and they would still want to know if you really had only 100 yuan.”

“Just like now, you gave them the meridian CG video and now they are starting to wonder how to use Insight.”

When he heard this, Zhou Xiaotian looked at Sun Hao in surprise and said, “The third oldest, why was I not aware before that you could come up with such wise words?”

Sun Hao proudly lifted his head. “That’s because I keep a low profile.”

“So what?” Zhao Xiaotian teased, turned to look at Fang Qiu and said, “However, his words are indeed true. Now everyone regards the youngest as a charitable person. Since the meridian CG video has been officially made public, more and more people will ask you the youngest, to release the method of Insight. At that time, will you release it or not?”

“This is indeed a problem.” Zhu Benzhenɡ also frowned and said, “And since this problem is not a small one, there is no way out. The youngest is such a generous person that he has to set an example.”

“Why are you so worried?” When he heard what the three roommates said, Fang Qiu shook his head slightly and said, “Since they want to know it, I’ll make it public.”

“Ah?” The three roommates were stunned.

They did not expect that Fang Qiu would decide to make it available to the public so easily.

In their eyes, the method of Insight was extremely precious. Otherwise, how could it be that Fang Qiu was the only one in the world who could do it, but no one else could?

“Are you really going to make it public?” Zhou Xiaotian rolled his eyes and asked hurriedly.

“Yes,” Fang Qiu nodded and continued, “Didn’t you say that it’s impossible not to make it public?”

“That’s great.” Zhou Xiaotian grinned and said, “Since you want to make it public, don’t let the fertile water flow into others’ fields. Why don’t you teach us first?”

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded and agreed without hesitation. And he said, “But before that, you have to help me record first.”

“Okay, no problem.” The three of them immediately agreed.

Wasn’t it just a recording?

It was quite easy.

When they did the recording, they could also learn from Fang Qiu. What a good thing to be able to kill two birds with one stone.

After that, Fang Qiu walked out of the dormitory, followed by the three of them. They went all the way to the grass beside the Central Lake.

“Take a good shot.” Fang Qiu said.

“Don’t worry.” Zhou Xiaotian immediately nodded and said, “My sideline is photography. It’s not a problem to record myself, let alone recording you.”

The video started.

Fang Qiu stood on the lawn and began performing a standing exercise.

In fact, what he wanted to record was the stance training he had taught the other students before.

In the video, Fang Qiu’s entire body was relaxed. He spread his legs as wide as his shoulders and dropped his arms naturally with his palms inward. He straightened himself up and kept his eyes fixed ahead.

“Begin practicing.” After standing upright, Fang Qiu spoke into the camera and began practicing.

Putting his palms facing together, he slowly lifted his arms to his shoulder level. Then, he turned his palms upward, bent his elbows, and retracted his hands and drew an arc backward, outward and forward through the opened meridian at his waist.

As he demonstrated, he said, “The standing posture must be standard. You have to grip the ground with your ten toes, but don’t use too much strength. You need to hold your stomach, lift your hips, anchor your chest, arch your back, relax your waist and hips, and lift your head slightly. Use your tongue to press against your upper gingival. Look straight ahead, lower your shoulders and elbows. Keep your upper body void and lower body firm. Breathe naturally.”

“In addition, to cultivate the stance training, there are still three don’ts and one emphasis: don’t enter the state of tranquility; don’t concentrate too much; don’t mix the concept of other practicing skills into this one. And one emphasis is that the posture must be accurate.”

“One needs to be stable when starting the practice, standing and ending the practice.”

“Each standing time should not be less than 30 minutes. You can change your posture according to the intensity of your training.”

“As long as one follows this method and continue to practice day after day, even if he is unable to use Insight, he can still achieve the purpose of maintaining his body and keeping it healthy.”

Zhou Xiaotian was taking a video for Fang Qiu.

When their classmates saw Fang Qiu from a distance, they were immediately attracted by what he was doing. In just a few minutes, a large group of people had gathered there.

Among them, many people took out their mobile phones to record, while some just stood there and watched quietly. All the people had a tacit agreement of not disturbing Fang Qiu.

Medical Master

Chapter 716: Pleading With Fang Qiu to Save Life!

The recording was soon completed.

Fang Qiu asked, “How’s the overall result?”

Zhou Xiaotian said smugly, “This is a special feature.”

Fang Qiu took the phone from Zhou Xiaotian and looked at it carefully. Then he nodded slightly and said with satisfaction, “Yes, this is what I want. It does not make people feel that it is just a show.”

“Senior, what are you recording?” At this time, several freshmen dressed in camouflage came over and asked.

Fang Qiu smiled slightly, “Just look for it on Weibo and you’ll know.”

A student said, “I remember, this is Qigong, right? I learned it from you before.”

“Qigong?”

“Is it a kind of Qigong that can produce Qi through constant practice?”

“Are you going to publicize this method of Qigong?”

“Many people are looking for a way to practice Insight online. Does this Qigong video show one how to cultivate Insight?”

The students asked, one after another.

Fang Qiu nodded immediately, “Yes.”

As soon as he said that, the students around him suddenly cried out in surprise. Then they were filled with regret.

“I was so focused on watching him just now that I do not remember anything.”

“Yeah, I came when he was halfway through and only managed to record half of it on my phone.”

“Fang Qiu, upload it to your Weibo quickly. We happen to have time to learn it now.”

Everyone urged him, "That's right. Upload it quickly."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile and said, "I'll upload it right away."

After that, he directly logged on to Weibo with his phone and then uploaded the video he had just taken, on Weibo.

Seeing that Fang Qiu had already uploaded the video, the surrounding students cheered.

As they cheered, they went to check Fang Qiu's Weibo account, waiting to watch it.

After the video was uploaded, Fang Qiu wrote, "The video of the Insight cultivation method is taken with a Hua Qiang phone. Not only does Hua Qiang's phone take great photos, but it can record videos clearly too. Hua Qiang, thank you for sponsoring this video."

He finished typing and then sent it out.

As soon as this Weibo was posted, not only were the students surrounding Fang Qiu, but millions of people, were also attracted by it instantly.

Everyone clicked to check it.

All of a sudden, everyone laughed.

"It turns out that being the title sponsor has its own benefits."

"Recently, I can see the Hua Qiang phone everywhere I go. Haha, our domestic product is awesome!"

“The Insight cultivation method?”

“The video is finally out!”

Seeing what Fang Qiu published on his Weibo, everyone was excited.

They couldn’t wait to click on the video to watch.

After watching it once, most of the people who were free started practicing according to the method shown in the video.

Not long after, someone came back and posted his comment on Weibo.

“Damn, it’s too hard to practice. I can’t even bear to stand for 5 minutes.”

“I’m better than you. I stood there for 10 minutes!”

“Haha, I’ve been standing for 15 minutes.”

“I’ve been standing for 20 minutes. Who could do better?”

“It seems that this method is quite good. I’ve just finished carrying goods and learned to stand for 20 minutes. I feel much more relaxed and I’m not as tired as I was 20 minutes ago.”

After their practices, people began to talk about it passionately.

“I’m not showing off. I stood for 45 minutes and I seem to sense some Qi in my body.”

Right at this moment, a young man posted this comment below Fang Qiu’s Weibo.

It immediately attracted a lot of attention. The number of people who gave him the thumbs-up increased drastically. In less than half an hour, this comment rose to the top position among the hot comments.

Everyone felt so envious after seeing this comment.

“Please give me some tips.”

“Are you lying? Did you really stand there for 45 minutes and you are able to feel the Qi?”

“How did you practice? Please teach me.”

“45 minutes. Ordinary people can’t do that. What’s your occupation?”

People asked one after another.

The young man replied soon.

“I’m living in the countryside, mixing sand and ashes and moving bricks on the construction site. I’m 18 years old, the same age as Fang Qiu. I stood for 45 minutes and could feel a bit Qi. My method is to do it step by step according to what Fang Qiu taught in the video. There’s nothing else except for that.”

“An 18-year-old young man who does manual labor every day?”

“Alas, it’s so nice to be young.”

“It’s a good thing for young people to do some manual labor. When we were about 20 years old, we lived harder lives than you. Now we are old and our health condition seems to deteriorate day by day.”

“I’m so envious.”

Just as the netizens were having a heated discussion over Fang Qiu’s post on Weibo, Fang Qiu returned to the dormitory and then left school with his bag, as Zhu Benzhen and the others went to class. He found a quiet place, put on the human skin mask and changed into John Doe’s outfit. Then he went straight to the high-speed railway station and took a train to Longquan.

Fang Qiu remembered that he still owed people a lot of swords.

Not only did he have to forge some for Li Ji and the army, but he also had to make a new one for He Gaoming.

Fang Qiu rushed straight to the Long family home as soon as he arrived at Longquan.

After hearing the servant’s report, Long Qiyun, the young master of the Long family, rushed out of the house in a flash. He was ecstatic when he saw Fang Qiu.

“I’m so honored to have you here, Senior John Doe. Please forgive me for not greeting you earlier.”

His attitude was totally different from the last time. Long Qiyun was no longer aloof, but was both amiable and welcoming this time.

Fang Qiu rolled his eyes at Long Qiyun. “I didn’t tell you that I was coming.”

“I’m just being respectful.”

Long Qiyun smiled awkwardly and said, “Senior John Doe, do you know how long I’ve been waiting for you? If I had known that you were going to make the Guru Sword here the last time, I would not have charged you any money, no matter what happens. And I would not have let you leave so quietly.”

Fang Qiu asked with a smile, “So what you are saying is that if you knew that I could forge the Guru Sword at that time, you would have put me under house arrest?”

“Of course not.”

Long Qiyun hurriedly shook his head and said, “I wouldn’t dare to do that. Besides, I don’t have the ability to do that.”

Fang Qiu laughed out loud, “Haha.”

“Senior John Doe, please follow me to the living room, so we can catch up. I’ll ask my servants to prepare the best Longjing tea right away. I also want to ask you something. I hope you can give me some advice on forging swords.”

Long Qiyun couldn’t wait any longer, so he made his request known directly.

“There’s no need to drink tea.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, “I’m here to settle something and I want to borrow your place. Let’s talk after I’m done with my work. How about that?”

“Okay.”

Long Qiyun immediately nodded.

John Doe, who could forge the Guru Sword, had cast the sword in his sword-forging factory. Once this matter was made known, the reputation of his Long family would definitely rise again. At that time, the Long family’s swords would be famous all over the world!

Fang Qiu went to the underground sword-forging factory in the backyard and began to cast swords.

Fang Qiu had no intention of casting high-level swords this time.

He only needed to cast a seventh-class sword for He Gaoming this time because he temporarily borrowed He Gaoming's sixth-class sword and promised that he would give him a better one in return. As for the other swords for the army, it was more suitable to give them fifth-class swords. After all, the army needed a great number of swords.

Of course, he also needed to forge some sixth-class swords, but there were fewer of them. And there would be even fewer seventh-class swords.

When everything was ready, once again Fang Qiu started his sword-forging life round the clock.

Two days later, at the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine,

"Where is Fang Qiu?"

"Excuse me, where is Fang Qiu?"

A woman in her thirties came to the school. No one knew how she managed to enter the school. Whenever she saw anyone on the campus, she stopped them and asked. Judging from her expression and tone, the woman seemed very anxious.

However, there were too many people who came to the school to look for Fang Qiu. They used various kinds of methods, including faking illnesses or pretending to be poor and all sorts of tricks. Their purpose was to see Fang Qiu.

This kind of thing had happened several times.

In this case, in order to protect Fang Qiu, every time the students in the university met someone who asked about Fang Qiu, they would spontaneously shake their heads and say that they did not know.

The woman did not know how many people she had asked.

She became more anxious as if she had lost her self-control. Whether she saw anyone or not, she kept asking loudly and even reached out to catch people.

Many students were scared away by her.

Seeing those students intentionally walking away from her as soon as they saw her, the woman broke down. She threw herself to the ground and shouted, "I'm begging you. Please tell me where Fang Qiu is. I need to ask him to save a life. Please tell me where he is."

Her shouts and cries could be heard all over the campus.

Not far away, all the students stopped in their tracks.

They were thinking whether this woman was faking it or not. On the surface, this woman seemed to be really anxious.

These students walked toward her, one after another.

A kind-hearted student asked first, "Are you alright?"

"Where is Fang Qiu? Please tell me where Fang Qiu is."

The woman seemed as if she was about to kowtow to everyone.

"Don't."

Seeing this, the group of students quickly helped her up.

One of them said, "I can tell you Fang Qiu's dormitory number and his class."

“Fang Qiu’s dormitory is in Room 501 at the male dorms and his class is also in Class 501. But I’m not sure if you can find him. That’s all we can help.”

“Thank you. Thank you.”

The woman thanked them and asked again where the boys’ dormitory was located. Then she ran all the way to Fang Qiu’s dormitory.

But when she arrived at the dormitory, she found that there was no one in the dormitory.

Then the woman ran to the teaching building without stopping.

When she went to Class 501, she directly interrupted the class and rushed into the classroom to find Fang Qiu, but she still could not find him.

“Where is Fang Qiu? Where is he?”

Unable to find Fang Qiu, the woman collapsed in the classroom. Tears rolled down her face. With a hoarse cry, she faced the whole class and the teacher on the podium and begged, “Please tell me where Fang Qiu is. Please ask Fang Qiu to save my child.”

The teacher hurried forward to help the woman up.

Meanwhile, the whole class immediately turned to look at Zhu Benzhen and his other two roommates.

“We don’t know either.”

Zhu Benzhen frowned and said, “He didn’t tell us before he left. How about I try calling him now?”

He immediately took out his phone and made a call in the class.

As soon as he made the call, there was a notification sound from the other end.

“Sorry. The number you dialed is not available”

All the students in the class were dumbfounded when they heard that.

Tears welled up in the woman’s eyes.

“Don’t worry. I’ll keep calling him.”

Zhu Benzhen immediately comforted her.

Sun Hao also saw the seriousness of the matter and secretly called Jiang Miaoyu right away, only to find that Jiang Miaoyu did not even know where Fang Qiu had gone.

Chapter 717: Kneeling to Ask For Help!

In the class, no matter how many times Zhu Benzhen tried calling Fang Qiu, the message he received was that the subscriber was not available.

Zhou Xiaotian, Sun Hao and the teachers in the class also helped her to check with many people. No one knew where Fang Qiu had gone. It was as if he had disappeared from the school.

The whole affair continued until the afternoon.

When she really could not find Fang Qiu, the woman left the school in disappointment and despair.

All the students at the university were talking about it that night.

Who on earth was this woman? Why didn't she tell the truth if she wanted to ask Fang Qiu to save her child's life? What was her child suffering from? Was Fang Qiu the only one who could save the child?

Other than coming up with all kinds of speculations, there were no other conclusions in the discussions among the students.

Everyone thought that this incident would come to an end because they couldn't find Fang Qiu.

Early the next morning, the woman came again. This time, she did not break into the school. Instead, she had a big board which was made of cards, with her. She came to the gate of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, knelt down directly and held the big board up, while facing the school.

When people took a closer look, what was written was, "Please, Fang Qiu, save my child. I am kneeling to you!"

The security guard in the security room had just started his shift. He didn't even have time to take a sip of hot water before he was frightened by this woman's actions.

He knew that once this situation got out of hand, there would be a lot of trouble.

Without hesitation, the security guard reported this matter immediately.

However, just as the security guard was making a phone call, all the people passing by the school gate stopped and began to watch.

This was the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine where Fang Qiu's university was. More importantly, Fang Qiu had become so popular recently.

It attracted people who were in a hurry to go to work, or had woken up early in the morning to do their exercises, or were on the way to school. People of all ages came up, one after another.

“Ma’am, what’s the matter?”

An old man came forward and asked, “If you want to ask Fang Qiu to save your child’s life, you should go into the school to look for him. He won’t be able to see you kneeling here.”

“I’ve looked for him in the school.”

The woman frowned and her eyes were filled with tears. She was about to cry and said, “I have been looking for him for the whole of yesterday, but I can’t find him.”

Everyone raised their eyebrows.

“It’s indeed a bit hard to find Fang Qiu. Even media reporters can’t find him. I live near the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, but I have not seen him at all after a year.”

The old man sighed softly.

“Ma’am, what is your child suffering from? Is Fang Qiu the only one who can help?”

A young man asked.

“My child.”

As soon as her child was mentioned, the woman burst into tears. As tears rolled down her face, she said, “My child is only three years old. He was diagnosed with myeloma in the hospital and is in a serious condition. This disease is a terminal disease. It can’t be cured in the hospital at all. Even the doctor said that my child wouldn’t be able to live for long, so I came to find Fang Qiu because he could cure cancer. I want to ask him to treat my child.”

All of a sudden, everyone understood.

A hint of sadness and pity flashed across many people's faces.

A three-year-old child was actually suffering from this kind of disease.

This was so pitiful!

In the crowd, a few people recorded the scene with their phones from the beginning.

After that, they immediately uploaded the video to WeChat Moments and Weibo.

This short video attracted great attention on the WeChat Moments. Because WeChat Moments posts could not be reposted, many people recorded the video and uploaded it to Weibo.

Not long after, Weibo was filled with this short video.

Anyone who logged onto Weibo could see this video.

The video went viral at an incredible speed and the contents of this video soon caused a stir on Weibo.

Originally, everyone was practicing the standing posture and exchanging their experiences.

They were immediately attracted by this short video as soon as they saw it.

"It's so pitiful. Has Fang Qiu come out yet?"

"Isn't Fang Qiu in school?"

"Fang Qiu is definitely not in school. Otherwise, he would have come out a long time ago. With Fang Qiu's character, he would never have let this matter go on."

“How’s the situation now? Where’s the child?”

For a moment, everyone began to be greatly concerned.

After all, it was unfair for the child to go through this.

He was only three years old.

Some people even questioned on Weibo, “God, since you don’t want him to live, why did you let him come to this world in the first place?”

Meanwhile, everyone was expecting Fang Qiu to come out as soon as possible so that he could help to save the child.

“What?” In the Vice President’s office, Chen Yinsheng also received the phone call. As soon as he heard the report, he knew that something serious had happened.

If this matter was not handled properly, it could destroy Fang Qiu.

After all, the people who came to seek medical treatment were the weak ones. And the patient was a child. In this case, no matter who came to seek medical treatment did, public opinion would be partial to them, even if they did something out of line.

To put it simply, it would be wrong if Fang Qiu didn’t save him. And he would still be blamed even if he was not here.

Chen Yinsheng did not dare to neglect this matter.

He quickly called Fang Qiu and found that his phone was powered off.

Then he called Xu Miaolin and Qi Kaiwen, only to find that no one could get in touch with Fang Qiu.

Chen Yinsheng was worried and immediately walked out of the office and trotted all the way to the outside of the school.

“Ma’am.”

He went straight to the woman kneeling in front of the school gate. He hurriedly tried to persuade her, “I’m Chen Yinsheng, Vice President of University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. I already know what happened. Please get up first.”

“No.”

The woman cried and said, “I won’t get up if I can’t see Fang Qiu.”

Chen Yinsheng frowned and said, “But Fang Qiu is not in school. You have been looking for him for the whole of yesterday. If he was in school, he would have appeared a long time ago. Since he is not in school, he would not be able to see you even if you kneel here for a day.”

“I don’t care. I won’t get up until I see Fang Qiu.”

The woman did not listen to him and was still crying. She shook Chen Yinsheng’s hand off repeatedly.

“I have Fang Qiu’s phone number.”

Helplessly, Chen Yinsheng took out his mobile phone and said, “I’ll call Fang Qiu in front of everyone now.”

After that, he immediately dialed the number.

“Sorry. The subscriber you dialed is not available.”

The phone prompt was heard.

All the surrounding onlookers frowned.

“Fang Qiu really isn’t in school.”

“Even the Vice President has come out and he could not get in touch with him. Maybe Fang Qiu really isn’t in school.”

“Where did he go if he is not in school?”

Everyone was talking about this animatedly.

“Ma’am, you also heard it. I could not get through Fang Qiu’s phone at all. We don’t even know where he went. I promise that once I find him, I’ll tell him about your matter as soon as possible. Could you please stand up first?”

Chen Yinsheng continued to persuade the woman.

“I want to see Fang Qiu. I want to see Fang Qiu!”

The woman did not listen to what Chen Yinsheng said at all. She insisted repeatedly that she wanted to see Fang Qiu.

“Fang Qiu is not in school. I can’t get through him. Could you calm down? I can take you inside the school and wait for him, okay?”

Chen Yinsheng was speechless and continued to persuade the woman.

“No, I won’t go. I won’t go anywhere if I can’t see Fang Qiu!”

The woman shook her head as if she had lost her mind. When Chen Yinsheng reached out and was about to help her get up, she fiercely shook off his hand again.

Chen Yinsheng was a little irritated.

In the beginning, he was quite sympathetic to her plight.

But in terms of this matter, he had made a lot of compromises. He was even willing to bring this woman to the school to wait for Fang Qiu. He really wanted to find Fang Qiu as soon as possible to treat the child. But this woman was not acting calmly. It was if she had lost her mind.

In Chen Yinsheng’s opinion, he was willing to do everything he could.

But in such a situation, this woman still wanted to make things difficult for him and the school. He couldn’t bear it.

However, so what if he couldn’t bear it?

With so many people around him, as the vice president of UJCM, he could not be rude to her.

The only way was to keep praying, hoping that Fang Qiu would show up as soon as possible.

“Mr. Yang.”

Seeing that he couldn’t persuade her to leave, Chen Yinsheng could only wave to the security guard in the security room at the gate and said, “Go to the school canteen to get some hot breakfast for her. Don’t let her starve.”

All the people nodded approvingly when they heard that.

Focusing on watching the whole scene, they forgot to get some food for this woman.

Meanwhile, the video of Chen Yinsheng persuading the woman was also recorded and uploaded to the Internet.

People paid more attention to this incident because of the great impact of this matter.

Outside the Fifth Ring of the capital city, there was an old room deep in an alley.

A middle-aged man in his forties was sitting in front of a computer browsing through the short video appearing constantly on Weibo.

“Fang Qiu, it’s Fang Qiu again!”

Seeing Fang Qiu’s name, the man’s expression changed. Without any warning, he suddenly slammed the alloy frame computer table in front of him.

This person was none other than Yang Qingtian.

“Not at school?”

“The new semester has started. Why isn’t he in school?”

He snorted angrily.

Yang Qingtian’s eyes suddenly lit up as if he had suddenly thought of something. Then he immediately began to leave comments in the short video reposted by those popular Weibo influencers.

“I’m a student of University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. Don’t ask me who I am. I can only tell you that Fang Qiu is hiding in the school because he can’t cure this disease at all. In order to maintain his image, Fang Qiu deliberately hid and turned off his mobile phone.”

“Now Fang Qiu is representing the image of University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine, so all the teachers and students in the university are helping him hide. They are all lying when they say he is not at the school.”

After he posted two comments, Yang Qingtian’s face became fierce. He immediately called the paid Internet trolls.

Soon, rumors about Fang Qiu hiding in the school all this time were all over the Internet.

Seeing these rumors that were slandering Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu’s fans did not back down and they began to fight back.

“Fang Qiu is not such a person!”

“Fang Qiu even dared to donate one billion. How could he not dare to treat a child?”

“That’s right. Fang Qiu is a good person. If he were here, he wouldn’t let him die without trying to save him!”

In the school, seeing all kinds of slanderous comments on the Internet, Jiang Miaoyu could not help becoming anxious.

Medical Master

Chapter 718: Im Fang Qius Teacher!

Feeling extremely anxious, Jiang Miaoyu quickly called Xu Miaolin.

“Hello?” Xu Miaolin answered the phone instantly.

“Mr. Xu, I’m Jiang Miaoyu.”

Jiang Miaoyu asked hurriedly, “I want to ask you. Were you able to contact Fang Qiu?”

“I can’t.”

Xu Miaolin shook his head and said, “I know what happened in school. I’m at Jiangjing airport now. Don’t worry. I’ll deal with it right away.”

When Chen Yinsheng called Xu Miaolin at that time, he was already aware of the seriousness of this matter, so he flew back to Jiangjing from the Northeast as soon as possible.

After all, as a teacher, he should take care of some things when his student was not around.

On the Internet, this matter was getting more and more intense. All kinds of rumors were flying everywhere.

As the rumors were spread, they were not merely saying that Fang Qiu was hiding in the school.

There were even rumors that Fang Qiu thought that he could not get any benefits because this woman had no money and no power. Therefore, he deliberately hid and did not want to come out to treat her child.

Furthermore, some even said that Fang Qiu did not have any medical ethics and refused to save people while they were dying. This was just one of these things. Many similar things had happened before.

Rumors were like an omnipotent seed, sprouting on the ground and growing into various kinds of trees and fruits.

When these rumors were swirling about fiercely on the Internet, Xu Miaolin, who had rushed back from the Northeast, finally appeared at the gate of the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine.

As soon as he got out of the car, he immediately rushed to the woman kneeling in front of the school gate.

Seeing Xu Miaolin, Chen Yinsheng who had been trying to coax the woman, breathed a sigh of relief and hurried to greet Xu Miaolin.

“Ma’am.”

When Xu Miaolin came to the woman, he said in front of all the onlookers, “Fang Qiu has something important to do and is not in Jiangjing. I can take a look at your child’s condition.”

At the scene, all the onlookers were confused when they heard that.

“Who is this guy?”

“I have not seen him before.”

“Does he know where Fang Qiu is?”

“How does he know that Fang Qiu is not in Jiangjing?”

“Who are you? Can you treat my child?”

When she heard what Chen Yinsheng said, the woman seemed to catch a glimmer of hope and questioned him immediately.

“I’m Fang Qiu’s Chinese Medicine teacher, Xu Miaolin!”

Xu Miaolin answered.

He knew if he did not reveal his identity now, he would absolutely not be able to win everyone's trust. Therefore, the only way was to expose his identity in order to alleviate the problem.

"Fang Qiu's teacher?"

The woman was stunned at first and then she hurriedly asked, "Are you really Fang Qiu's teacher?"

"Yes." Xu Miaolin nodded with certainty.

"He is indeed Fang Qiu's Chinese Medicine teacher."

Chen Yinsheng also stepped forward and confirmed this fact.

The woman asked again, "Can you cure my kid?"

"I cannot give you an actual answer if I have not seen the patient yet."

Xu Miaolin shook his head.

"Okay."

Surprisingly, the woman stood up, wiped away the tears on her face, and said, "I'll ask my husband to bring my child here right away."

After that, she took out her phone and made a call.

Not long after, a young man in his thirties arrived in a taxi and rushed to the gate, with a child in his arms. As soon as he got out of the car, the woman immediately went up to him. With tears rolling down her face, she carried the child from the man's arms and walked to Xu Miaolin.

“It’s not convenient for me to do a diagnosis here. Let’s go into school first.”

Xu Miaolin suggested.

“I’ll get someone to prepare a consultation room right away.”

Chen Yinsheng said.

The young couple finally followed Chen Yinsheng and Xu Miaolin and walked into the school together.

After they left, someone immediately posted the video on Weibo with a title—Fang Qiu’s Chinese Medicine teacher showed up. Who on earth is this person?

On Weibo, people had always been curious.

Although Fang Qiu’s medical skills were exceptional, he must have learned them from somewhere. Going by the school’s learning progress, it was impossible for him to pick up the skills so quickly. Therefore, many people assumed Fang Qiu had a master of Chinese Medicine, but they had never heard of or seen him before.

Now it immediately attracted everyone’s attention as soon as the video came out.

Finally, Fang Qiu’s master showed up!

However, who was this person? What was his identity?

When people clicked on the video to check, they knew that Fang Qiu’s master’s name was Xu Miaolin.

However, numerous netizens had never heard of this name before.

“Who is Xu Miaolin? Is he famous?”

“This man looks very young. How could he be Fang Qiu’s master of Chinese Medicine?”

“Is he a powerful figure in the Chinese Medicine industry? Who can tell us about Xu Miaolin’s background? How can he be Fang Qiu’s Chinese Medicine teacher?”

With these questions flying back and forth, someone actually came out to answer the questions.

“Xu Miaolin is a genius in the field of Chinese medicine. He is good at all subjects pertaining to Chinese Medicine, such as gynecology, pediatrics, boneset, acupuncture and herbs. He excelled at all of them. He used to be a prominent figure in Chinese Medicine. He is also known as a leading figure of Chinese Medicine, the one who was able to lead the revolution of Chinese Medicine. Unfortunately, as a young talent, he went through so many obstacles. Once, he prescribed medicine for a patient. However, because the patient did not believe in his medical skills and was unwilling to take the medicine he prescribed, he took the folk medicine prescribed by an unqualified doctor and eventually died.”

“Although this matter had nothing to do with him and happened due to the patient’s own decision, he blamed himself because he failed to make the patient believe in himself. He blamed himself for not being skilled enough and causing harm to people. From then on, he went into hiding and disappeared from the Chinese Medicine circle.”

“It’s not a surprise that he is Fang Qiu’s master. After all, he is so good at his task. It’s normal for him to pass these skills to such a remarkable disciple like Fang Qiu.”

Everyone looked at the information.

They could not help being surprised.

“So awesome?”

“What the f*ck. He is a master like Fang Qiu?”

“It can be seen that he is as kind as Fang Qiu. Otherwise, he would not punish himself by going into hiding because of a patient’s own mistake.”

“Yeah, blaming himself for this kind of thing is enough to prove that he has great medical ethics.”

In the blink of an eye, more and more people began to praise Xu Miaolin.

They entered the school. Per Chen Yinsheng’s arrangement, Xu Miaolin, along with the young couple and child, came to a room at the Acupuncture Association.

“Put the child on the bed.”

Xu Miaolin signaled.

The woman quickly put the child on the only massage bed in the room.

Xu Miaolin looked at the young couple and said, “Before I treat the child, I have a request.”

The man asked, “What?”

The woman, however, said emotionally, “As long as we can do it and you can save our child, I will agree to any request.”

“It’s not that serious.”

Xu Miaolin shook his head and said, “I want to do a live stream for this!”

The young couple were stunned.

Next to him, Chen Yinsheng's eyes widened immediately and he stopped him, saying, "Have you thought it through?"

"I'm sure." Xu Miaolin nodded very confidently.

Meanwhile, Xu Miaolin took a deep breath. He knew that this was a battle. Others would not know of this matter's serious consequence to Fang Qiu, but he was clearly aware of it.

Although it seemed to be a small matter, it was not.

The live stream was definitely good for Fang Qiu.

"We agree."

The couple discussed the matter for a while and felt Xu Miaolin's medical skills must be very good since he dared to provide live streaming to the public while treating the child. Moreover, with people watching, it would be easy to explain if anything should happen during the treatment.

"President Chen." Xu Miaolin turned to look at Chen Yinsheng.

"All right."

Chen Yinsheng sighed softly and said, "I'll get someone to make the arrangements."

While they were doing the preparations, Xu Miaolin made a few calls.

Soon, several influencers of Chinese Medicine on Weibo sent a post: Fang Qiu's Chinese Medicine teacher will personally treat the sick child and do a live stream. Click here: ...

Under Fang Qiu's lead, Chinese Medicine gradually caught the attention of many people, so the number of people following these Chinese Medicine influencers also increased.

As soon as the news was released, it attracted a lot of people's attention instantly.

The netizens also heard about it and came to watch the live stream.

Soon, the live stream began.

In the live stream, it was the massage room of the school's Acupuncture Association.

Xu Miaolin, Chen Yinsheng, the young couple and the sick child were all in the video.

They had announced the link of the live stream in advance, so a large number of people were already waiting as soon as the live stream started.

"First of all, I want to make one thing clear to everyone."

Looking at the growing number of people in the live stream room, Xu Miaolin was not as suave as the live streamer on the Internet. When he saw himself in the video and the comments from the netizens on the bullet screen, he directly said, "Fang Qiu is not in school now. None of us can get in touch with him. It is possible that he might have been kidnapped. No one knows what happened to him. I swear in my name that it's not because Fang Qiu did not want to treat the patient, but that something might have happened to him."

In the live stream room, the netizens were watching.

Xu Miaolin was so serious and had personally offered to treat the child, so everyone started to believe what he said.

"It seems Fang Qiu really isn't in school."

"Humph, that is just a speculation."

“Even his teacher has appeared. Fang Qiu is definitely not in school. Otherwise, he will definitely show up.”

“Now that things have developed to this point, Fang Qiu is not deliberately hiding.”

Everyone started to speak out.

Although there were still a lot of people who were in doubt, most of the netizens believed it.

“Now, I’m going to treat the child.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Xu Miaolin immediately began to examine and treat the patient.

As he did the diagnosis, Xu Miaolin said, “He has external evil and direct strikes on the lesser Yin. He has a weak kidney, feels cold and a direct strike on the lesser Yin. It goes deep into his bone marrow, causing hurt to his spirit and bones and this affects the circulation of his Qi and blood.”

He murmured.

Then he stopped.

“Indeed.”

Looking at the child, Xu Miaolin nodded gravely and said, “This child does have myeloma. And it has reached the terminal stage.”

The parents of the child started crying.

In response to Xu Miaolin’s words, they nodded repeatedly to confirm what he said.

Xu Miaolin said, "I can cure this disease."

The mother of the child immediately cried out in surprise, "Really?"

"Can, can you cure it?"

The child's father was also extremely emotional.

"I'll try my best."

Xu Miaolin thought for a moment and said, "Although I can't guarantee that he will be cured, I'm quite positive. But I need half a year."

Medical Master

Chapter 719: Why Was There a Huge Difference?

"Half a year?"

When they heard what Xu Miaolin said, the young couple's expressions suddenly changed. Both of them were very disappointed. The woman bit her lower lip and said sadly, "But the doctor of the hospital said that my child can only live for three months at most. How can he stay alive for more than half a year?"

Xu Miaolin said, "I said I could save his life after treating him for half a year."

Although he sounded a little arrogant, Xu Miaolin was not afraid at all in the presence of the audience in the live stream room and the young couple. On the contrary, he said very confidently, "Even if I can't cure this disease, it's absolutely not a problem to let him live for another 20 years!"

As soon as he said that, all the audience were surprised.

“20 years?”

“The doctor in the hospital said that he could only live for three more months. Can he prolong his life for another 20 years?”

“He can live from 3 years old to 23 years old?”

“He sounded so awesome!”

“He’s indeed Fang Qiu’s Chinese Medicine teacher. He even speaks so confidently.”

Hearing what he said, the parents of the children could not help getting excited.

Twenty years for the child to live. What was important that it gave him hope that he could live in this world for 20 years.

Twenty years was neither long nor short. But during these twenty years, he might be able to find a good treatment method and be totally cured.

The young couple were extremely excited.

But the young couple did not immediately ask Xu Miaolin to save their child.

They knew that Fang Qiu had the ability to heal incurable diseases.

Maybe their child could be completely cured!

“Fang Qiu, will Fang Qiu have a solution?”

The woman stared at Xu Miaolin with hope in her eyes and said, "Fang Qiu can do it. He can definitely cure my child."

The child's father also looked expectant.

"Fang Qiu is not in school. I can't reach him either."

Xu Miaolin repeated what he had said, "Besides, are you sure Fang Qiu can cure it?"

His question immediately stunned the parents of the child.

He was right. Why were they so sure that Fang Qiu could definitely cure their child?

Even Fang Qiu's master was only confident that he could prolong his life. Would Fang Qiu really be able to cure him if he came to treat him?

It was not only the young couple, but all the audience began to ask themselves the same question.

"Why can't you reach him?"

The mother of the child suddenly knelt down and burst into tears. And she said, "I want to save my child. I want to beg Fang Qiu to save my child. What I want is not 20 years. What I want is for my child to recover and live a good life. It means nothing if he can live for 20 years. My child will still die. I'm begging you. Please ask Fang Qiu to come out."

The child's father also knelt down.

The reason why this woman came to the school to make a scene, held up a placard and knelt in front of the school gate was because she was convinced that Fang Qiu could definitely cure her child, so she did not trust him even though he was Fang Qiu's teacher.

After all, everyone in the country knew of Fang Qiu's ability.

"Get up."

Xu Miaolin helped the couple up and said with a serious face, "I've told you many times that Fang Qiu is not in school and that I could not reach him. You keep asking him to come out to treat your child, but how is he supposed to do that if he is not here and knows nothing about this. It's useless even if you keep kneeling here. And are you sure Fang Qiu can cure your child?"

"Yes."

The mother immediately said, "Fang Qiu can definitely do it."

"Yes."

The child's father echoed, "Fang Qiu can cure cancer, can't he? His medical skills are so exceptional that he can definitely cure my child."

"He is not a miracle-working doctor!"

Xu Miaolin shook his head and said, "There are also different types of cancers. Can Fang Qiu really cure your child's disease?"

"You've gone to the hospital for treatment. Even the doctor of the hospital can't cure it. Why are you so confident that Fang Qiu can definitely cure it?"

The young parents looked at each other and fell silent.

They were not sure.

Seeing that the two of them were still hesitant, Xu Miaolin took a deep breath. Then he faced the young parents and the audience in the live stream and spoke what he wanted to say.

“You’re not sure if Fang Qiu can cure the child, yet you’re kneeling at the gate of the school in front of everyone. What kind of situation do you want to put Fang Qiu in?”

“You clearly know that he is not here and no one can reach him, yet you still kneel at the school gate. Do you think this is an ancient palace soap opera? Are you here to force him to do it?”

“How many people have told you that Fang Qiu is not here, but you just don’t want to listen and keep kneeling in front of the school gate. It’s because of your action that the Internet is in an uproar and there are all kinds of rumors flying around now.”

“You are taking advantage of the kindness of others to place Fang Qiu in the hot seat!”

“Besides, the doctor who is in the hot seat is the one that you want to treat your child. Please ask yourself. Is it really appropriate for you to do this?”

There were several questions in a row.

It came gushing out of Xu Miaolin’s mouth. He was questioning them in an elder’s tone.

In the live stream room, Xu Miaolin’s words also deeply shocked many netizens.

Those netizens who calmed down thought about it carefully and found that this couple was really putting Fang Qiu in the hot seat and tried to use morality to put a noose around Fang Qiu’s neck.

“Now, there are already a lot of curses on the Internet.”

Xu Miaolin looked at the silent couple with a dignified face and said, “Fang Qiu’s reputation has been damaged. If he doesn’t show up, everyone will think that he is hiding. Even if we really can’t reach him, everyone would still say so.”

“Even if Fang Qiu learns about this and comes out, there will still be people spreading those conspiracy theories!”

“If Fang Qiu can treat your child and cure him in the end, then who can restore Fang Qiu’s damaged reputation?”

“Does Fang Qiu owe you anything? Does a capable doctor owe you anything? They treat and save people and still have to endure being slandered by you?”

As soon as he finished his speech, the young parents couldn’t help but cry in unison.

Tears welled up in their eyes.

They really did not put too much thought into this before.

They only wanted to ask Fang Qiu to save their child, no matter what it cost.

Many netizens agreed with Xu Miaolin, but after hearing about Fang Qiu, they felt that Xu Miaolin had gone too far.

After all, they just cared and loved their child. Why couldn’t they be forgiven?

“Woo...”

Looking at the parents crying, Xu Miaolin sighed again and said, “The more you cry, the more words will stab Fang Qiu in the future. It won’t stop until he dies. Fang Qiu will be killed by the word “doctor” sooner or later!”

Everyone was stunned.

“What did Xu Miaolin mean?”

“What is he talking about?”

“I can’t understand him at all.”

“Although I don’t understand what he is talking about, I seem to understand what he means about the stabbing part. Xu Miaolin probably means that the more the couple cries, the more sympathy we will have for them. After all, the weak seem to have more justified in the current society. People can’t express their sympathy in daily life. Once such a thing happens, they will be filled with sympathy and make every effort to help the weak. And they will target at Fang Qiu, who has nothing to do with this matter and accuse him outrightly!”

“Is the doctor wrong? Is the doctor right?”

“I’m done.”

Xu Miaolin took a deep breath, then looked at the young couple and asked, “Now give me an answer. Do you want me to treat your child?”

“Yes,” The couple spoke in unison.

Fang Qiu was not there. It would be useless if they still waited. Although Xu Miaolin might not be able to cure the disease completely, he was still very confident. Even if he couldn’t cure it, Xu Miaolin could prolong the child’s life. In that case, the child would be able to wait for Fang Qiu to treat him.

“Okay.”

Xu Miaolin immediately nodded and said, “I’m the attending physician of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital. I’ll report for work in the hospital in a while. You can register first.”

Everyone was dumbfounded when they heard that.

“Didn’t they say that Xu Miaolin was retired? How did he become the attending physician of the Chinese Medicine Hospital?”

“What the hell is this?”

“They’re already here. Why do they still need to register?”

All kinds of questions appeared.

At this time, someone explained in the live stream room, “Before Xu Miaolin retired, he was the attending physician of First Affiliated Hospital of University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine and the Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital. Although he retired later, the two hospitals still kept his position for him even though he retired because his medical skills are remarkable and he has made great contributions to the two hospitals.”

“I see.”

“Xu Miaolin is really exceptional since he can be the attending physician at the two class-A municipal hospitals at the same time.”

“But, what does this have to do with the couple and the child? The couple brought the child to the school to find him. Why did he have to ask them to register?”

The couple were also stunned.

“Register?”

The woman asked with a puzzled look.

“Yes.”

Xu Miaolin nodded with certainty and said, “You should go to the Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital to register. I’m a hospital doctor. I can’t accept private work. The hospital has its own process and charging standards.”

“Let’s go. I’ll take you there.”

All of a sudden, everyone understood as soon as they heard that.

Xu Miaolin wanted to charge them!

The netizens were instantly furious when they thought of this.

However, after putting themselves in his shoes, they understood that Xu Miaolin was indeed a doctor at the hospital and it was very reasonable for the hospital to charge them.

However, why did they still feel uncomfortable and angry?

In the netizens’ opinion, he should save people for free when dealing with such a tragic matter and then end the whole incident happily. The person who saved people should make selfless contributions using his own strength. How could he charge them?

The couple did not know what to do at the moment, so they could only look at the phone that was doing the live stream.

Xu Miaolin also walked to the phone.

“You still want to charge them?”

“Evil-hearted doctor!”

“Don’t you have any sympathy?”

Seeing people leaving such comments on the bullet screen, Xu Miaolin smiled.

Then he said with a disappointed expression, “If this happened in the hospital and I could save their child, they would be very grateful to me. You would also praise me for having exceptional skills.”

“But since I’m saving people anyway, why should I be cursed for not doing it at the hospital? Why is the contrast between the two so big? Let’s think about it.”

After that, he directly reached out and turned off the live stream.

Medical Master

Chapter 720: The Teacher Takes the Blame on the Students Behalf!

As soon as Xu Miaolin finished speaking, the screen in the broadcast room went black all of a sudden.

As a result, all those who were watching the live broadcast were taken aback.

Xu Miaolin’s speech indeed touched everyone, leaving them lost in a myriad of thoughts.

Even if that was the case, there was still an endless stream of haters who continued to scold him by leaving vicious comments on the screen.

Of course, quite a lot of people had thought it through and felt that Xu Miaolin was right and was stereotyped by them. The real blame went to the spectators. What Xu Miaolin had done was reasonable and legal. Was it justified for everyone to lay the blame on him just because they felt that he shouldn’t charge the patient for the medical treatment?

If that was justified, why didn’t anyone go to the hospital to accuse those doctors of charging the fee?

Was it just because the patient didn't receive the medical treatment in the hospital?

Hospitals were large enterprises that were recognized by the state, possessed an enormous amount of investment, and were the first options of many patients. Were those the reasons why everyone dared not bully or criticize them?

What if Xu Miaolin were a country doctor?

Would those who didn't dare to blame those big hospitals and felt that it was reasonable and legal for them to charge the patients for the treatments think what Xu Miaolin had done was reasonable and legal instead of laying the blame on him?

Obviously, they wouldn't!

Was it something wrong to charge the patients?

That was something truly worth thinking about!

Soon, Xu Miaolin's words caused a heated discussion on the Internet.

"As a doctor, he doesn't have any medical ethics at all. Since he has nothing but money in his mind, he'd better go back home raising pigs instead of being a doctor!"

"I couldn't agree more. The family went to his place to beg him, yet he demanded them to register in the hospital first. How heartless a person he is!"

"Offering medical treatments is a piece of cake for you doctors. Why did you have to charge them? Couldn't you help them?"

There were neutral ones, too.

"I'd like to say something. The reason why Xu Miaolin asked the couple to register in the hospital is that he intended to avoid risks. Because as long as the patient pays for the hospital admission, he can sign agreements with the hospital. If something goes wrong, it also helps determine whether compensation should be paid."

"It's a law-based society, so healing and saving lives should also be done according to the law. If anything bad happens during the secret treatment, who's going to take the responsibility? Xu Miaolin? Why should you hold someone responsible for doing you a favor? The couple? Wouldn't they be even more pathetic if they have to take the responsibility at the end? Therefore, going to the hospital is the best choice."

"Medical treatment should be done in a reasonable way. Besides, the hospital does possess more equipment, which is more beneficial for treating the child. Xu Miaolin couldn't treat the child with his bare hands, could he?"

Of course, there were also some who agreed.

"You guys are unbelievably ridiculous. Why can't Xu Miaolin charge the patient as the hospital does? He doesn't owe anyone anything! Does he spend most of his life studying Chinese Medicine just for providing free medical treatments? You guys have spent 20 or 30 years studying, would you mind sharing your knowledge with us and telling your boss that you don't want to be paid? Do you dare to do that?"

"If doctors don't charge the patients, what do they rely on to make a living? Are you guys willing to die of illness when no doctors are available?"

"This group of people is overly sensitive. Why do they blame Xu Miaolin for taking the patient to the hospital and charging him here instead of doing something practical? Let's say, how about donating some money to cure the child? What's the use of paying lip service alone? They know nothing but scold Xu Miaolin for charging the patient. Why don't they scold themselves for not donating?"

"Now in this world, the weak ones assume that they are reasonable. In fact, it's the compassion for the weak that masks the exploitation imposed upon the strong."

"I'm here to ask a question. If the couple were millionaires, would you still denounce Xu Miaolin?"

“Yeah. Apart from the fact that the patient should be charged, everyone has to pay for even a bottle of water. Why should he charge nothing and spend half a year trying to save the patient?”

“You guys assume that the couple is impoverished. Actually, no one knows the details. Maybe the couple owns several apartments in first-tier cities? It’s because you guys regard the couple as poverty-stricken ones that you keep attacking Xu Miaolin.”

“You take it for granted that you are on the righteous side, but in fact, you are taking your mistakes to attack those who are really right. What you are doing is wrong!”

“Xu Miaolin’s approach may make him seem too hard-hearted, but it’s indeed the most reasonable!”

Xu Miaolin had gone home in the evening.

The child was hospitalized in the city hospital, accompanied by the couple.

Xu Miaolin leaned against the sofa in the living room of his apartment and couldn’t help laughing as he glanced over the comments on the Internet with his mobile phone.

“I’m wondering why you are still in the mood to laugh.”

Chu Yunyun, who had just returned home, rolled her eyes at Xu Miaolin and said, “Now people on the Internet are scolding you, and many of them are persuading Fang Qiu to stay away from you. How could you still laugh heartily? You are so careless.”

“It doesn’t matter whether they’re cursing or praising me. It’s a comfort to me that no one is talking about Fang Qiu now. I’m so pleased to have brought the boy out of the vortex,” Xu Miaolin said, smiling.

“How blessed Fang Qiu is to have you as his teacher.”

Chu Yunyun shook her head and said with emotion, "He had someone to take the blame on behalf of him in such an incident."

"What are you talking about?"

Xu Miaolin said righteously, "I'm his teacher. If I didn't stand out at this critical moment, who would stand out for him? If it were you who encountered such an incident, I would definitely be the first one to stand out to shield you from attacks and ensure your safety!"

"Really?"

A rare blush appeared on Chu Yunyun's face.

"Trust me."

Xu Miaolin stepped forward, hugged Chu Yunyun, and kissed her without shame.

Soon, those mainstream top masters in the field of Chinese Medicine learned that Fang Qiu's teacher was Xu Miaolin through this live broadcast.

"That's it. I was wondering why a gifted boy named Fang Qiu suddenly showed up in the Chinese Medicine field. It turned out that his teacher is Xu Miaolin, a capable person. It's not surprising then."

"They're genuinely a perfect match. How lucky Xu Miaolin is to find such a talented boy. Why didn't I meet Fang Qiu when I was looking for an apprentice?"

"Alas! Xu Miaolin, how did you manage to take this peerless genius as your disciple?"

"Xu's quite bold and frank this time."

“Well said. Don’t turn this world into a place where people cannot do their job well. Chinese Medicine is all about moral character, but now people are using moral character to strangle Chinese Medicine. How hateful it is!”

It was apparent that Xu Miaolin’s speech got more praises than attacks from the public in private.

No one could contact Fang Qiu three days in a row.

Everyone got anxious in such a situation.

Where did Fang Qiu go?

The school even called Fang Qiu’s parents and relatives, but none of them had a clue to his whereabouts. The school almost called the police.

Thus, the school decided to wait for another day.

If Fang Qiu didn’t show up by then, they would immediately call the police.

The University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine even posted the news online, which again proved Fang Qiu’s absence from school.

Fang Qiu’s fans behaved like cats on a hot tin roof at the sight of this message.

“Master Fang couldn’t have been kidnapped, could he?”

“Fang Qiu’s too capable. Besides, he’s just made some remarks and brought up the theory about meridians in the international community, shocking the whole world. Maybe those foreigners with evil minds will harbor evil intentions and kidnap Fang Qiu, forcing him to tell everything he knows about Chinese Medicine.”

“The development of medicine is both a huge problem and a cake for every medical worker in the world. Qi and meridians proposed by Fang Qiu are absolutely the mainstream of future medicine. It’s hard to say whether other countries will harbor evil intentions or not because of that. Hey, everybody, please hurry to check if there are any other Chinese Medicine practitioner disappearing all over the country. If that’s the case, it’s quite a big deal.”

The netizens from all over the country got involved in the blink of an eye.

However, according to the data they collated, fewer than 100 people had recently disappeared. Furthermore, except for Fang Qiu, none of them had anything to do with Chinese Medicine.

Fang Qiu’s whereabouts were getting more and more confusing.

In Longquan, Fang Qiu finally finished his closed-door training after putting his heart and soul into forging swords for four days in a row.

This time, his sword-forging speed was much faster than before because of his familiarity with the sword-forging process. In the past four days, he had forged 30 fifth-class swords, 10 sixth-class swords, and six seventh-class swords. One of them was for He Gaoming.

After finishing forging all the swords, Fang Qiu fished out his mobile phone, ready to call Li Ji, only to find that he had immersed himself in forging swords over the past days and had no idea that his mobile phone had gone dead.

In Long’s residence, Long Qiyun came to watch Fang Qiu forge swords every day over the past four days. Of course, he did so in secret because Fang Qiu didn’t allow him to disturb him at all.

Although Long Qiyun saw the news on the Internet, he had no idea that the mysterious man named John Doe was Fang Qiu. Apart from that, Fang Qiu didn’t allow him to approach him, so he never got a chance to talk about it.

With swords in his arms, Fang Qiu walked out of the underground sword-forging plant.

“Senior John Doe.”

The moment Fang Qiu appeared, Long Qiyun walked up to him.

“Young Master Long.”

Fang Qiu cracked a smile and said, “Please give me a bag to hold my swords and help me charge my phone.”

“Okay, come with me.”

Long Qiyun hurried forward, aiming to help Fang Qiu hold his swords, but he was rejected. He could only take Fang Qiu to the living room of Long’s residence.

Fang Qiu gave Long Qiyun some advice when the latter was preparing the bag.

Soon, Long Qiyun found him a phone charger.

Fang Qiu turned on the phone after charging it. While Long Qiyun went to make tea in person, he seized the chance and immediately called Li Ji.

“Hello?”

The phone was instantly connected.

“I’ve forged the swords you want.”

Before Li Ji could speak, Fang Qiu took the lead to open his mouth and said, “Do you want me to send them to you, or do you want to take them by yourself?”

“That’s great.”

Li Ji responded in surprise, “I won’t bother you to send them to me. I’ll go to Jiangjing personally to get them. Something happened at the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine recently. Everyone has been looking for you. I didn’t expect you to be forging swords. Now that you’ve finished forging them, go back as soon as you can.”

“Hmm?”

Amazed, Fang Qiu replied, “Then I’ll wait for you in Jiangjing.”

After that, he hung up the phone directly.

“Beep, beep, beep...”

However, right after that, a succession of text message notices popped up.

Fang Qiu took a look.

There were at least a hundred text messages. He foresaw the seriousness of the matter at once and immediately booked a ticket online with his mobile phone, ready to return to Jiangjing as soon as possible.

He directly left with all the swords in his arms before Long Qiyun could make him the tea.

On the way back to Jiangjing, he bought a suitcase and put all the swords in it.

After getting on the high-speed train with the special ID card named Lin Yu, he called Zhu Benzhen right away.
