Chapter 731 Rooting for Fang Qiu!

At this time, the clock hanging on the wall showed the time as 12 o'clock.

It was already dark outside.

If anyone did a careful calculation, they would find that it had been more than 16 hours.

After working for three days and three nights, plus an additional 16 hours, Fang Qiu had been continuously treating people for 88 hours. He could not go on any longer.

“Pa!”

The sudden crash startled the nurse standing at the door of the consulting room.

“Ah...” She screamed.

The nurse immediately called for help.

The whole consulting room was in chaos.

Undoubtedly, the first one to receive the news was Xu Miaolin, who had been accompanying Fang Qiu in another consulting room not far away.

“Did he pass out?”

When he heard the news, Xu Miaolin was not anxious or frowning. Instead, there was an imperceptible smile on his face.

Xu Miaolin murmured to himself, "He has finally passed the test!"

"Hiss..."

Taking a deep breath, Xu Miaolin tried hard to get up, but found that he could not. His legs seemed to have lost all their strength. He could not even support himself.

"I'm getting old." Xu Miaolin smiled wryly.

He immediately opened the drawer of the desk and took out a wooden box with silver needles. He then used the acupuncture needles and pricked himself. After resting for three minutes, he stood up and strode to Fang Qiu's consulting room, as if nothing had happened.

Everyone in the whole hospital, whether it was those who were still working or those who were off duty, heard the news that Fang Qiu was so exhausted that he passed out in the consulting room.

When they heard the news, all the doctors and nurses were stunned!

The doctor was so tired that he fainted in the consulting room?

It might happen to a surgeon who had performed a lengthy operation. It was the first time they heard that the Chinese Medicine doctor was so tired that he fainted in the consulting room.

When they thought about it carefully, Fang Qiu's workload was so heavy that no ordinary person would have been able to take it.

Fang Qiu was only eighteen years old.

An 18-year-old doctor stuck to his post for 88 hours for the sake of his patients, until he fainted.

It required great perseverance from him to be able to do that!

No one in the Chinese Medicine Hospital could reach Fang Qiu's level, not even Xu Miaolin. Although he could stay with Fang Qiu for 88 hours without sleeping, he could not work for 88 hours under such pressure.

Everyone was shocked by Fang Qiu's performance.

At this moment, when they learned that Fang Qiu had passed out, all the doctors and nurses in the hospital prayed for Fang Qiu's recovery.

They prayed that nothing would happen to Fang Qiu!

In the hospital, all the staff, including doctors and nurses were busy working because Fang Qiu fainted.

Outside the consulting room,

"What's going on?"

"Didn't he just finish seeing a patient?"

"That's right. Why are you not continuing to call the number?"

"Nurse, why did you stop calling the number?"

"Hurry up. We're still waiting in line."

The patients impatiently addressed the nurses.

"Creak."

Right at this moment, the door of the consulting room opened. A nurse who was assisting Fang Qiu, came out of the room. She glared at the noisy patients outside the door, her eyes red and shouted angrily, "What are you shouting about? In order to ensure that he treats all of you, Doctor Fang became so tired that he passed out. Stop yelling!"

All the patients waiting in line outside the door were dumbfounded when they heard that.

Looking at the young nurse who was crying in anger, they could not even utter a single word.

They felt sorry for Fang Qiu and were worried about him.

"What should we do?"

"How can Fang Qiu pass out so easily? He is a doctor himself."

"That's right. We haven't seen the doctor yet. How can he pass out?"

"We have been waiting in line for so long. I'm done."

Everyone was anxious.

But at this moment, someone suddenly said, "Is Fang Qiu looking for an excuse? Is it because he does not want to see any more patients?"

"Take a look at him!"

When the young nurse heard this, she immediately turned her head, glared at the person who said that and shouted, "Come here, come and have a look. In order to treat you, Doctor Fang Qiu has been working for 88 hours non-stop and going without sleep. Are you as tired as Doctor Fang Qiu when you are in the queue? When you are sleeping in the hospital, Doctor Fang Qiu is still seeing patients. How could you say this?"

The man who was glared at by the young nurse, snorted disdainfully and said, "It's none of my concern about the number of hours he has been working. He didn't treat me yet. If he had treated me earlier, I would have left already."

As soon as he said that, everyone's attention was immediately drawn to him, from all directions. Everyone turned their heads to look at him.

"How can you say that?"

"Yeah, Doctor Fang Qiu is such a good man."

"Doctor Fang Qiu is so tired that he passed out. What are you accusing him of here? If you are so capable, you should go and heal Doctor Fang Qiu!"

"You are so rude."

"Doctor Fang Qiu shouldn't treat a person like you."

Hearing that, everyone began to target him angrily.

When he saw that he was at a disadvantage, the man's face changed. He snorted and said, "That's fine! It's just a cold. I can still heal myself without Fang Qiu's help."

After that, he snorted furiously, took his medical record and left.

The pressure from the people around him was huge. If he continued to stay and say something, he was afraid that he would be attacked by all the people.

In this case, it was better to leave first.

Only when the people saw the man leave, did they feel relieved.

“Nurse, is Doctor Fang Qiu all right?”

“Yeah, it’s been more than 80 hours. Doctor Fang Qiu must be really tired.”

“Doctor Fang Qiu is the only person I’ve ever seen in my life who passed out due to his work. I really admire him.”

“Think about it, everyone. Doctor Fang Qiu is not short of money, so he doesn’t need to come here to treat patients at all. He’s only here because of all of us. But now he is so exhausted that he passed out.”

“Nurse, you guys have to heal Dr. Fang.”

The patients said, one after another.

Although the young nurse felt infuriated when she saw that these patients were still not leaving after learning that Fang Qiu had passed out, her anger was slightly reduced when she heard their praises and how they understood Fang Qiu’s sacrifice. She nodded to everyone and returned to the consulting room again.

The patients sincerely admired Fang Qiu’s attitude.

They also understood that Fang Qiu fainted because he was exhausted, but even so, they could not leave because they had not been treated yet. If they came back to queue, they did not know how long they would have to wait.

They had no choice but to wait for the result.

Soon, the news that Fang Qiu passed out after seeing patients continuously for 88 hours, was posted on the Internet by someone who wanted the public to know about this.

In an instant, the topic, #Fang Qiu passed out due to exhaustion after 88 hours#, went straight to the top of the Hot Search List on Weibo.

Countless people joined in the discussion on the topic.

“What? Fang Qiu passed out due to exhaustion? Is that true?”

“Oh my god, it’s horrible. I can’t believe even Fang Qiu could collapse.”

“He hasn’t slept for 88 hours.”

“Great perseverance!”

“As for this perseverance, I want to say, Fang Qiu is awesome!”

“Fang Qiu is a human being after all. Any one will be tired. No matter how much Qi he cultivates, it will still be the same.”

“He’s a good doctor, a peerless doctor!”

“Master Fang Qiu, you must wake up.”

“Don’t let anything happen to him. Master Fang Qiu will get better soon. He will!”

While many people were shocked, they prayed continuously for Fang Qiu to have a quick recovery.

In the hospital, hearing the news that Fang Qiu fainted, Director Zhang Qishun rushed to Fang Qiu’s consulting room immediately. He even got there before Xu Miaolin.

“Hurry up, give him some first aid.”

Seeing Fang Qiu lying on the ground, Zhang Qishun immediately shouted out instructions, for fear that something bad would happen.

Xu Miaolin, who wasted a few minutes because he had to treat himself with acupuncture, finally came to Fang Qiu's consulting room.

"Let me do it."

Seeing a doctor picking up Fang Qiu and putting him on the bed, Xu Miaolin said.

Everyone turned around to have a look.

Seeing Xu Miaolin, Director Zhang Qishun immediately breathed a sigh of relief.

The others were no longer so nervous.

Xu Miaolin was Fang Qiu's teacher. Xu Miaolin was undoubtedly the best person to treat Fang Qiu.

Once Xu Miaolin did it, the hospital would not be held seriously accountable even if something happened to Fang Qiu during the treatment. However, with Xu Miaolin's medical skills, nothing would happen to Fang Qiu.

As he walked into the consulting room, Xu Miaolin asked someone to push Fang Qiu's bed to an open space and he then took out the acupuncture kit from Fang Qiu's desk. He first felt Fang Qiu's pulse and confirmed Fang Qiu's condition. Then, he inserted the needles into Fang Qiu.

"He's fine."

After the acupuncture treatment, Xu Miaolin said, "He's just worn out. He hasn't eaten anything for four days and has not had a good rest. Give him some liquid nutrients and let him have a good rest. Don't let anyone disturb him."

Director Zhang Qishun was relieved when he heard that.

Then, the news that Fang Qiu was fine, except for his exhaustion, spread throughout the hospital.

The patients cheered when they got the news.

The nurses who were working in Fang Qiu's consulting room in shifts, were also crying with joy.

They all witnessed what Fang Qiu had done and what real medical ethics were. Therefore, they all sincerely admired Fang Qiu.

Therefore, they were so relieved and excited when they heard that Fang Qiu was fine.

At the same time, the doctors on night duty also heaved sighs of relief.

They greatly admired Fang Qiu.

The news soon spread on the Internet.

When the netizens learned that Fang Qiu was fine, everyone was immensely relieved.

Almost everyone praised Fang Qiu on the topic which reached the top of the Hot Search List.

The attitude Fang Qiu showed was beyond criticism this time.

No one could slander him.

If a doctor fainted while doing his job, who would dare to slander him?

“I’m rooting for Fang Qiu!”

“It’s already very good for any person to be able to last for 24 hours, let alone 88 hours. He didn’t stop and didn’t eat for three days. Fang Qiu worked so hard.”

Medical Master

Chapter 732: You Dont Have To Say It When Youre Righteous Enough!

On the Internet, there were also many people who hoped that Fang Qiu could be roused as soon as possible, even as numerous people were complimenting him.

In the Chinese Medicine circle, many senior Chinese Medicine doctors, as well as many famous Weibo influencers of Western Medicine in the whole country, also praised Fang Qiu.

This time, both doctors of Chinese Medicine and Western Medicine were full of admiration for what Fang Qiu did for the patients.

After Xu Miaolin finished treating him in the hospital, the nurse gave Fang Qiu an infusion.

However, even as the outside world was talking about Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu, who was lying on the bed, did not even feel the nurse sticking the needle into his veins.

It wasn’t because he was exhausted or because he was in a coma.

It was because Fang Qiu had entered into an incomparably mysterious realm when he passed out.

“Where is this place?”

It was as if his whole body was in a chaotic state.

All Fang Qiu could see was the fog in front of him.

It was like a dream, but it felt so real.

“Where am I?”

Fang Qiu looked around.

He still could not see anything.

But at this moment, he felt a sense of powerlessness emanating from his body.

It was as if he had been starving for seven days and seven nights and had lost all his strength.

He even felt a slight pain as if the earth was cracking.

“Why does it feel like this?”

Fang Qiu hurriedly closed his eyes and used Insight to look into his body.

It turned out that all the meridians in his body had dried up, like a river without any water flow. The pain was caused by these shriveled meridians.

At the next moment, Fang Qiu suddenly opened his eyes.

Everything in front of him had changed.

What he now saw was not the fog, but the blue sky in front of him.

He looked around and found that there were beautiful mountains, rivers, lakes and bustling cities all around.

At this moment, Fang Qiu felt like he was among the majestic mountains and rivers of the motherland.

He did not move.

However, another force erupted from his body and drastically absorbed the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

This force came from those shriveled meridians.

Propelled by such a huge force, the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the whole world rushed forcefully toward him. Fang Qiu's body was like a black hole, devouring all the Qi of Heaven and Earth that was headed for him.

With the flow of the Qi of Heaven and Earth, the shriveled meridians gradually started filling up.

But this kind of filling could not be controlled at all.

When all the meridians in his body had absorbed enough Qi of Heaven and Earth, the force did not stop, but continued its frenzied absorption.

Under these circumstances, it was easy to break Fang Qiu's meridians. Even if the meridians had been re-cultivated, what was strange was that the more Qi of Heaven and Earth poured in, the more comfortable Fang Qiu felt. He did not feel as if they were about to burst at all.

He continued to absorb it.

The amount of Qi of Heaven and Earth absorbed was much more than what originally existed in Fang Qiu's body.

In this state, Fang Qiu did not feel anything at all when he was getting an infusion, or having the needle pulled out.

It lasted for 22 hours.

It was not until 10 o'clock in the evening of the next day that Fang Qiu finally woke up from the coma.

The moment he woke up, Fang Qiu did not open his eyes yet.

Instead, he was secretly sensing the internal condition of his body.

The 12 meridians in his body were filled to the brim.

This meant that his strength had reached the Completion of the sixth class!

When all the meridians of the sixth class were filled up, he could break through to the seventh class because this was the key to breaking through to the seventh class.

The sixth class was different from the seventh class.

Before the sixth class, all the practitioners needed to cultivate the 12 standard meridians of the human body. But after the sixth class, they had to cultivate the Eight Extraordinary Meridians!

He needed to reach the Completion of the 12 standard meridians and fill the 12 meridians with internal Qi. Only when the extra internal Qi overflowed from the 12 standard meridians could the internal Qi be used to impact the Eight Extraordinary Meridians.

Because the 12 standard meridians were not connected to the Eight Extraordinary Meridians, it was impossible to directly break through from one meridian to another, like the previous breakthrough.

This was also the reason why there were only a few experts above the sixth class in Wulin.

After checking the condition of his body, Fang Qiu woke up, feeling very satisfied.

As soon as he opened his eyes, Fang Qiu saw a familiar figure.

It was Jiang Miaoyu!

At this moment, Jiang Miaoyu was lying at the head of the bed. She seemed to be tired and was sleeping.

Fang Qiu was stunned at first when he saw her and then he laughed. He reached out and gently stroked Jiang Miaoyu's hair.

As soon as he touched her, Jiang Miaoyu immediately woke up.

"Hmm?"

Raising her head, Jiang Miaoyu looked around and found that there was no one in the consulting room except them. Then she turned to look at Fang Qiu on the hospital bed, only to find that Fang Qiu was awake and his eyes were open!

"You're awake?"

Jiang Miaoyu asked in surprise.

"Why are you here?" Fang Qiu smiled and asked her.

"I was worried about you, so I came over."

Jiang Miaoyu bit her lip and then said in a low voice, "Don't worry. I came here secretly. When I arrived, there was no one in the corridor. No one knows that I'm here."

"Silly girl."

Fang Qiu stroked Jiang Miaoyu's head and said, "Let's make our relationship public."

Jiang Miaoyu was stunned when she heard that.

She was elated, but she still shook her head.

"You're not an ordinary man. It's not good for you to make our relationship public."

Jiang Miaoyu smiled faintly and said, "Especially now. I did not understand it initially. I thought it was just an ordinary treatment. Only when my master told me did I learn that this matter was so risky and you did not even tell me about the risks."

"I'm a man."

Fang Qiu said with a smile, "I'm supposed to handle the difficult things!"

Jiang Miaoyu rolled her eyes at Fang Qiu and then continued, "My master told me there were a lot of patients who came to be treated by you this time. People from all over the country came because you have a great reputation and can cure incurable diseases. As soon as they heard the news that you were going to treat patients, people with serious illnesses will flock here, no matter how far away they are."

"Yes."

Fang Qiu nodded in confirmation.

Indeed, the patients he treated this time came from all over the country and they were all complicated cases that were very difficult to treat at the hospital.

“There were too many people. During this period of time, because of the queues, registration and other factors, there are likely to be conflicts in the hospital, which will even create big news. No matter what the motive is, once there is a conflict, there will be a scandal. In this world, what people will remember are the scandals. So once a scandal happens, it will definitely ruin what you are doing for the patients this time. At that time, no matter how great your treatments are and how good you are, there will still be people who will use this scandal to slander you, because there will be no scandals if you don't see patients.”

After that, Jiang Miaoyu stood up and went to get a glass of water for Fang Qiu.

When he heard what Jiang Miaoyu said, Fang Qiu also nodded secretly.

He had already thought of this before.

Xu Miaolin also reminded him that it was good to see patients in public in order to save them, but the more people it attracted, the more dangerous it would be. Once there was an accident, such as a stampede, any medical disturbance, or a fight between patients, many people would blame him, even if it had nothing to do with him.

“Fortunately, the hospital is doing its best to maintain order this time. Nothing happened.”

After handing the water to Fang Qiu, Jiang Miaoyu sat down again.

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “I should thank the hospital.”

“Master also said that the most dangerous incident will happen three days later.”

Speaking of this, Jiang Miaoyu frowned and continued, "Which is now. Although you have cured a lot of patients during these three days, there are also many patients who have not been treated yet after their registration. If you don't treat them, these people will definitely be angry. Those who are sick may not be in the best of moods. Once you provoke these people, they will do anything. If something really happens, all your fame and even the reputation of all Chinese Medicine practitioners will be ruined because of this."

"Although you have said in advance that you will only see patients for three days, there are still many patients that you could not treat after the three days, because there were simply too many of them during this period. In this way, if you just leave it, it will show that you don't have medical ethics and you are heartless."

"So you chose to treat patients without resting in order not to give anyone a chance to slander you. You even continued to see these patients after three days. Not until you passed out will all the patients be able to see that you are the only one who is serving them. Only in this way can you appease everyone's anger and eliminate the hidden dangers."

"In fact, Mr. Xu has been waiting without resting for the past three days because he was afraid that something bad would happen."

Fang Qiu was very touched by Xu Miaolin's concern.

"Originally, when I heard that you hardly ate anything, I wanted to bring you some food and persuade you to have a good rest, but my master stopped me. Later, my master told me that once I appear, our relationship would be exposed and everyone's focus will be on the gossip about us, so I should not show up. This treatment is a battle for you, a battle that you can't lose. After this, no one will say that you don't have medical ethics, nor will there be any more drama like kneeling for treatment at the school gate. Even if there is, it will not damage your reputation, because you have shown what kind of person you are this time. Your medical ethics will be challenged because of what might happen in the future."

"From the very beginning, you and Mr. Xu were aware of the hidden dangers when someone used the moral card when seeking treatment. And you even knew that someone would constantly use this until your reputation is ruined. This time, what you did is to eliminate any hidden dangers in the future. You know it, Mr. Xu knows it and even my master knows it."

Speaking of this, Jiang Miaoyu looked at Fang Qiu with an aggrieved face and added, "But no one told me."

“I’m just afraid that you’ll be worried.”

Fang Qiu immediately comforted her.

“I want to ask you a question.”

Jiang Miaoyu pursed her lips and asked, “Did you intentionally plan this fainting fit from the very beginning, or were you really tired?”

In Jiang Miaoyu’s view, it seemed to be part of a scheme. If her master had not informed her, she would never have known.

The reason why she asked this question was because she was afraid that Fang Qiu would become a scheming person in order to make a name for himself. Such a person was really terrifying. Just thinking about it made her shudder.

Fang Qiu smiled and calmly said, “You don’t have to say anything if you are righteous enough.”

Jiang Miaoyu sensed Fang Qiu’s honesty and smiled.

Medical Master

Chapter 733: The Arrival of Jiang Mengjie

Fang Qiu looked into Jiang Miaoyu’s eyes and smiled.

He then sat up straight and turned to look out of the window.

He never thought that he would faint, nor did he think that he could use it to resolve this problem. He just wanted to use all his strength to treat as many patients as possible. He would continue to treat them until he couldn’t do it anymore.

This was what he said to Xu Miaolin at the beginning—He would do it with a sincere heart because a sincere heart always prevails!

However, he was not done at the hospital.

“Now that you’re awake, they will know soon. I should leave now.”

Jiang Miaoyu stood up.

Fang Qiu said, “Call Yuan Bei and the others and ask them to pick you up. It’s too late now. I’ll be worried if you go back alone.”

“Okay.”

Jiang Miaoyu nodded, took out her mobile phone and was about to make a call.

But before she could make the call.

“Crack.”

Suddenly, there was the sound of the door being opened from the outside.

Fang Qiu turned his head to look.

The securely locked door opened.

A figure flashed in quickly and closed the door.

He took a closer look.

It turned out to be Jiang Mengjie.

At this moment, Jiang Mengjie was wearing a red hoodie with the hood pulled over her head and a pair of jeans. Her lips were dry and her face was not too clean. It was obvious that she had come in a hurry.

“Hmm?”

After closing the door, Jiang Mengjie turned around. To her surprise, the first person she saw was not Fang Qiu, but Jiang Miaoyu!

At this moment, Jiang Miaoyu and Jiang Mengjie looked at each other.

Both of them were stunned as if they were equally surprised by each other's presence.

However, it only lasted for a while. After a moment of surprise, the two of them smiled at each other.

“Why are you here?”

Compared with the two of them, Fang Qiu was even more surprised.

“I heard that because he treated patients non-stop, my old classmate was so tired that he passed out, so I came to visit.”

With a faint smile on her face, Jiang Mengjie walked to Fang Qiu and said, “But it seems that the online news is deceiving. Your life looks pretty comfortable.”

“Not bad, not bad.”

Fang Qiu answered awkwardly.

“Mengjie, why didn’t you tell me in advance so I could pick you up?”

Jiang Miaoyu stepped forward and said, “Fang Qiu and I are mortified that you had to come over in such a hurry. Why don’t you stay for a few more days and we’ll treat you to a meal?”

While they were talking, she brought over a stool and acting like the hostess, asked Jiang Mengjie to have a seat.

“That’s fine.”

Jiang Mengjie thought for a moment and said, “But we’d better wait for Fang Qiu to finish his work here first.”

“Yes, it’s a serious matter for the hospital.”

Jiang Miaoyu nodded.

Then, the three of them fell silent and no one knew what to say next.

The atmosphere soon became awkward.

“Well...”

Seeing that the atmosphere was really awkward, Fang Qiu suddenly broke the silence. He asked Jiang Mengjie, “It’s already so late. Do you have a place to stay?”

“Maybe I can book a hotel room for you and you can have a good rest tonight?”

“I will be busy for the next few days.”

Jiang Mengjie looked at Fang Qiu and did not answer.

“Let me handle this.”

Jiang Miaoyu looked at Jiang Mengjie and said, “I’m leaving too. Why don’t I stay with Mengjie tonight? In this way, I don’t have to call Yuan Bei and the others to pick me up. You don’t need to worry if we are together.”

“During the next few days, I’ll stay with Mengjie. You can just focus on your work. We can wait until you are done.”

Fang Qiu immediately nodded in agreement when he heard that.

“Okay.”

Jiang Mengjie looked at Fang Qiu with a smile, then turned to Jiang Miaoyu and said, “I haven’t seen you guys for a long time. We can have a nice chat.”

“Then let’s go now.”

Jiang Miaoyu stepped forward, took Jiang Mengjie’s arm and said, “I’m afraid there will be doctors and nurses, as well as patients and reporters outside. If they see us here, I don’t know what kind of news will emerge.”

“I...”

Jiang Mengjie was stunned and did not know how to reply. She kept gazing at Fang Qiu, seemingly hoping that he would say something, but Jiang Miaoyu pulled her up and walked out hurriedly.

Fang Qiu could only smile wryly.

He could clearly see Jiang Mengjie's expression.

They had not seen each other for such a long time. Jiang Mengjie obviously wanted to have a good chat with him. It had only been a short while and she was directly pulled away before she could say a few words. However, she could not refuse, which made her quite depressed.

After the two of them left, Fang Qiu deliberately waited for a while.

About five minutes later, he walked out of the room.

Outside the door, there was no one in the corridor.

It was already late at night, so there were fewer people in the hospital.

Although they were not in the inpatient building, there were still several nurses on duty here, because of Fang Qiu.

"Fang Qiu?"

As soon as Fang Qiu walked out of the room, a surprised voice suddenly sounded.

Fang Qiu turned his head.

A young nurse came round the corner of the corridor.

"You are awake?"

The young nurse looked at Fang Qiu in surprise.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile. Although he did not know the young nurse’s name, he clearly remembered that the young nurse was one of the staff who had helped him collect the medical cases and call the numbers.

“I was wondering why there were footsteps along the corridor. It turned out to be you.”

The young nurse said with a smile.

“It’s me.”

Fang Qiu nodded hurriedly and said, “I just woke up, so I’m just exercising my limbs.”

“It’s great. You’re finally awake.”

The nurse said in great excitement and then added, “I’ll report it to the superior now. They will be very happy to know that you’re awake.”

After that, the nurse immediately turned around and ran quickly to the staff dormitory of the hospital.

During the past few days, Director Zhang Qishun and Xu Miaolin stayed at the hospital because Fang Qiu was in a coma.

“Fang Qiu is awake. Fang Qiu is awake.”

The nurse ran into the dormitory and shouted.

Hearing her shouts, Zhang Qishun and Xu Miaolin came out and ran to Fang Qiu's consulting room, following the young nurse.

After a while, the three of them came to the consulting room.

"Whew..."

When they saw Fang Qiu, Director Zhang Qishun and Xu Miaolin couldn't help letting out a sigh of relief.

"It's great that you're awake."

Looking at Fang Qiu, Director Zhang Qishun said, "Since you've woken up, you should have a good rest."

"No."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "There are still so many people waiting outside. I'd better continue seeing the patients."

"You've just woken up, so you can't start working now."

Director Zhang Qishun said earnestly, "You'd better have a good rest first. It's not too late to treat those patients after you've fully recovered."

"I've recovered completely."

Fang Qiu looked at the director and said, "These patients have traveled thousands of miles and some of them are seriously ill. Every minute is a torture for them if I take a rest."

"That's one way to put it, but..."

Director Zhang Qishun still tried to dissuade him from seeing the patients.

Fang Qiu said, "I've made up my mind."

"Fine."

Seeing that he could not get Fang Qiu to change his mind, Zhang Qishun could only give a wry smile and said, "With your determination and constant thoughts for the patients, you are really worthy of my admiration."

"I'm flattered."

Fang Qiu replied shyly.

Next to them, Xu Miaolin smiled, but did not say anything.

"Well. Then we'll do it."

Director Zhang Qishun found that there was nothing more for him to do here, so he immediately said, "I'll go and sort things out first. You two can have a talk."

Zhang Qishun turned around and left.

After he left, Fang Qiu looked at Xu Miaolin sincerely and said, "Mr. Xu, thank you for supporting me without taking a rest these days."

"Of course."

Xu Miaolin chuckled and said, "I'm so exhausted because I have not slept for a few days. I don't have a kid yet, so you'd better reduce this sort of incident in the future. But when I see you awake, I'm relieved. Now I can finally sleep. What's left is your business now."

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded and then sincerely bowed to Xu Miaolin.

Xu Miaolin waved his hand, turned around and left.

At this moment, he was finally at ease.

In his opinion, the incident of Fang Qiu’s fainting was a good move. What mattered most was that there were still so many people waiting for him. If he didn’t treat them, it would inevitably create some problems.

Now, Fang Qiu could continue to treat these patients and there would be no more trouble.

Besides, now that three days had passed, there would not be that many patients.

The most important thing was that the Chinese Medicine Hospital took emergency measures in time. The moment Fang Qiu fainted due to exhaustion, the hospital issued a statement that Fang Qiu would not be working after these three days. Therefore, they did not allow patients to register to see Fang Qiu.

Under these circumstances, even if anyone came, they would not be able to register to see Fang Qiu, so naturally, what took place during the past three days would not happen again.

As for the public, this was the hospital’s regulation, which had nothing to do with Fang Qiu, so they could not blame it on him. Besides, Fang Qiu had already fainted once. His sincerity toward the patients was obvious to everyone. No one could blame him.

That was to say, now that Fang Qiu had woken up, he just needed to continue to see the patients who had registered during the last three days. And then everything would be over.

As for Fang Qiu, he couldn't afford to be negligent with the last group of patients. Since he had woken up, he had to treat these patients well. Otherwise, something bad would still happen.

Soon, the news that Fang Qiu had woken up spread quickly throughout the whole hospital like a gust of wind.

The nurses on duty called the patients who had already registered and told them that Fang Qiu was now awake and could continue to see patients.

Hearing that, all the patients were very excited. They rushed over from the hotels overnight. Some patients had been hospitalized, due to their serious conditions. As soon as they heard the news, they immediately rushed to Fang Qiu's consulting room.

It was either the nurses in the hospital or a patient who posted the news that Fang Qiu had woken up, online in the first place.

Hearing this news, Fang Qiu's fans breathed a collective sigh of relief.

For his fans, nothing was more important than Fang Qiu's well-being.

When the netizens heard that Fang Qiu asked to continue seeing patients as soon as he woke up, they were deeply moved.

"This is a good doctor!"

"In my whole life, I'll only admire Billion Fang!"

Medical Master

Chapter 734: Most Importantly, Hes Only 18 This Year!

Not long after, the news that Fang Qiu finally woke up from a coma and immediately asked to see the patients the moment he woke up, spread among the netizens on Weibo, the post-bar and so on.

“I only have one word—awesome!”

“Why don’t you rest for a little longer? You’ve only just recovered. Why do you have to see patients so soon after waking up?”

“I hope this time he won’t be too exhausted again. There are not many good doctors like him in the world.”

“Everyone’s enthusiasm is sapping Fang Qiu’s energy. Once Fang Qiu’s energy runs out, will there still be a doctor who can do this for the patients?”

“Leave Fang Qiu alone. It’s already too much for him.”

On the Internet, many people who admired Fang Qiu, gradually began to sympathize with him.

Although people liked to sympathize with the weak, the patients were considered the weak. Fang Qiu, who was so tired that he fainted, was also one of the weak. Because of this, the vast number of netizens subconsciously regarded Fang Qiu in the same way as those patients. Therefore, they really began to be more solicitous about Fang Qiu.

Meanwhile, the netizens had a better impression of doctors of Chinese Medicine, because they knew that Fang Qiu was a Chinese Medicine doctor. They finally saw what a real Chinese Medicine doctor who saved everyone in the world and what real medical ethics was like!

In Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital, Fang Qiu fainted in the consulting room, woke up in the consulting room and continued to see patients in the same room.

After eating some food sent by Director Zhang Qishun, Fang Qiu went into the disinfectant room to disinfect himself and change his clothes.

When everything was ready, the patients came in, one after another.

The consultation went on in an orderly fashion.

After leaving the hospital, Jiang Miaoyu took Jiang Mengjie around Jiangjing. Whenever there were too many people, they would leave. The two of them had a lot of fun along the way. They had so much fun that they forgot about Fang Qiu for the time being.

Late that night, Fang Qiu looked at the nurse who had been on the rotating shift at the consultation desk outside the door and shouted, "Next one, please."

"Dr. Fang."

The nurse pushed the door open, looked at Fang Qiu and said with a smile, "There are no more patients."

"Hmm?"

Fang Qiu was stunned and asked, "Is that all?"

"Yes."

The nurse looked at Fang Qiu with admiration, but there was a trace of distress in her eyes as she nodded and said, "That's all."

"Whew..."

Fang Qiu sighed with relief, then stood up and stretched himself. He murmured, "It's been another three days."

It had been three days since he woke up after the coma.

In the past three days, Fang Qiu seized every minute and every second to treat the patients. Even so, it took him more than three days to see the last group of people.

After all, treating a patient was different from the registration procedure.

There were three windows for registration. One patient would be registered almost every minute. However, Fang Qiu was the only one who could see the patients. Naturally, the time needed for treatment was much longer than that for registration.

“I’ve finally finished.”

After stretching himself, Fang Qiu walked to the window and looked up at the particularly round moon in the sky.

A whole week had passed.

Apart from the day when he was in a coma, Fang Qiu saw a total of 1715 patients this time. On average, there were about 286 patients that he treated every day. He could even set a record for this.

That night, Fang Qiu stayed in the consulting room to rest.

At night, the staff of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital also released the news that Fang Qiu had finished seeing all the patients, on the official website and official Weibo that had just been registered. At the same time, they also released all the data.

“Specialist Fang Qiu’s clinic just ended. According to the statistics, in these three days, a total of 1715 patients have registered. The attending physician of the medical department of our hospital, Fang Qiu, had been continuously seeing patients for 150 hours and cured 1715 patients. During this period, he fainted one day, due to excessive fatigue. Even then, he treated 286 patients every day on average. We’re thankful for Dr. Fang Qiu’s hard work. We also want to thank the patients for supporting our hospital and Dr. Fang Qiu.”

Because it was posted in the middle of the night and it was a newly registered Weibo account, this Weibo did not immediately attract the attention of the public.

It was not until the next day that the official Weibo of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital was discovered by everyone, at six o'clock in the morning.

After reading the data posted on the official Weibo, the netizens were even more shocked. All of them gave it a like, left comments and reposted it.

Soon, Fang Qiu's fans were all attracted to this Weibo.

This post quickly became popular because of the participation of tens of millions of real fans.

It even reached the trending topic list on Weibo.

When people saw that it was news about Fang Qiu, they immediately clicked to have a look.

As time went by, Fang Qiu was soon on the top of the trending topic and also the topic list.

This was not all due to Fang Qiu's fame.

The netizens who joined in this topic were more shocked by the data released by the Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital!

This data was really terrifying.

Even the foreign netizens were shocked when they saw this data, not to mention people in the country.

"Oh, my God, how can a person not sleep for so many days and see so many patients?"

“Pay attention to the words. According to the data, it says ‘cured’, which meant that he did not only diagnose the patients, but also cured them.”

“This is unbelievable. How could this incredible speed be achieved by one person?”

“I don’t know much about the names in Huaxia, but I heard that many people’s names in Huaxia are often repeated, so I’m very confused now. Is this Fang Qiu the young doctor who spoke about traditional medicine at the World Medical Conference?”

“Yes, it’s him. He’s Fang Qiu!”

“Why are we focusing on different subjects? The thing we should pay attention to is that he fainted due to exhaustion after working tirelessly for three days, right?”

“This man is so energetic. How can he continue to see patients for three consecutive days after waking up from the coma?”

“I admire him very much. There are very few doctors who are so responsible now.”

“Top-class doctor, top-class good man!”

“This doctor is great. Why isn’t he from our country?”

While the foreign netizens were in a heated discussion, there was another debate going on in Huaxia.

Just as the domestic netizens marveled at Fang Qiu’s perseverance and medical ethics like the foreign netizens, someone spread the news that Fang Qiu would very likely be one of the top ten youths in the world this year. He might be on the list of the recent nominations.

As soon as the news came out, it made Fang Qiu’s fans very excited, although no one came out to confirm it or show any evidence to prove it.

“Master Fang must be one of the top ten youths in the world!”

“He put forward the concept of Qi and proved its existence. Then he also put forward the concept of meridians and proved its existence too. He has donated one billion dollars. One of the top ten youths in the world, who else could it be other than Master Fang Qiu?”

“It must be our Master Fang Qiu. If he doesn’t get it, I’d like to see who can be more suited for this title than him.”

In the capital city, there was a detached villa with a garden among the most luxurious villas in a certain place.

A thin, middle-aged man in a white shirt, who seemed in his forties but looked younger, was walking on a gravel path in the garden and heading toward a lawn not far away.

The man beside him was the chairman of the Zhiyuan Group, Yang Ningyuan!

“Over here.”

As he walked, the middle-aged man said, “I originally intended to make a small ball court for having fun in this area, but it was not suitable. I did not want to destroy this natural lawn, so I built a small pavilion. When I have time, I come here to have tea. It is a quiet and peaceful place.”

“Mr. Li is the only one who can enjoy this kind of blessing in the whole country.”

Yang Ningyuan flattered him.

“That’s too much.”

Mr. Li shook his head.

“I’m talking about luck.”

Yang Ningyuan shook his head and said, “The land in the capital city is not something that ordinary people are able to buy, even if they coveted it. Mr. Li is lucky, so you can enjoy it. Even if others wanted to do it, they are not that lucky.”

“That’s right.”

Mr. Li nodded with a smile and said, “I’m indeed lucky.”

As he spoke, the two walked to the center of the lawn to a small, square wooden pavilion. The pavilion was very ancient. There were no fences on all sides, but there was a palm sized sink. There was a square carpet laid in the pavilion. A tea table with a delicate tea set was placed on the carpet.

“You’ve been paying attention to it recently, haven’t you?”

After sitting down, Mr. Li asked, while making tea.

“Are you also following it, Mr. Li?” Yang Ningyuan was a little curious.

“I have to.”

Mr. Li shook his head with a smile and said, “Ever since that woman knelt at the school gate, this matter has always attracted my attention. It’s hard for me not to follow it.”

“Yeah.”

Yang Ningyuan also nodded and said, “I have been following it since then.”

The two of them looked at each other and smiled at the same time.

As sophisticated leaders in the business world, they naturally saw the risks and hidden dangers in this matter, so they had been waiting to see Fang Qiu's solution.

"When Fang Qiu donated one billion last time, he really made me a little confused. I didn't expect that he could do it so wholeheartedly."

Mr. Li sighed with emotion and continued, "This time, it was also beyond my expectation."

"Yeah."

Yang Ningyuan nodded and asked, "In your opinion, what's good about Fang Qiu's moves this time?"

"It's not just him."

Mr. Li shook his head and said, "From the moment Xu Miaolin appeared, Fang Qiu wasn't the only one in charge of the whole affair. If Fang Qiu is the helmsman, then Xu Miaolin is the lighthouse that is guiding him forward."

"Indeed."

Yang Ningyuan nodded with a smile.

"Xu Miaolin is also a master."

Mr. Li exclaimed and said, "Later, Fang Qiu worked at the hospital to deal with it. He proposed to see patients one day a month and three days of the first month. These are all classic methods. This move is really amazing."

"Now, Fang Qiu has covered himself well. He is recognized by the government because of the donation of one billion and he was praised by the public because he had been seeing patients for six days in a row. He even passed out due to exhaustion. He is admired by all the doctors of Chinese Medicine in the country.”

“The right time, the right place and the right person!”

“He has everything. From now on, no matter who wants to hurt him in the future, they have to think twice.”

“The most important fact is that he’s only 18 this year!”

Medical Master

Chapter 735: Dont Do This Next Time

“An eighteen-year-old.”

Mr. Li was holding a cup of tea, and no one knew what he was thinking.

“When I was 18, I was still working for others.”

Yang Ningyuan gave a wry smile and said, “To call Fang Qiu a genius is to underestimate him. Who knows that he is so incredible? Given his current situation, he can’t be destroyed unless he takes the road to ruin!”

“Amazing.”

Mr. Li nodded and poured the tea into his throat.

Neither of them could figure out how Fang Qiu, an 18-year-old boy, could do everything so perfectly that no one could spot any flaws.

It seemed that all the problems were not difficult for him at all.

He handled two things.

The first one was recognized by the higher-ups and the public, and the second one won the approval of his colleagues and the public. He got all the recognition in the world.

That made the two big shots in the business world envious. Their achievements would be unimaginable if they were able to do what Fang Qiu had done.

However, little did they know that he had more than they had ever imagined.

He had a huge fan base!

In the medical department on the third floor of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine Hospital:

“Beep, beep, beep...”

Fang Qiu’s cell phone rang in his consulting room.

After a night’s rest, Fang Qiu, who had just changed his clothes and was about to leave, took out his mobile phone and answered, “Hello?”

“I’m in the director’s office on the third floor.”

A familiar voice came from the other end of the line.

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu didn't ask more. He nodded and walked out of the consulting room, heading for the director's office on the third floor, at the end of the corridor.

He was shocked when he arrived at the office.

He saw a stranger with a familiar figure in the office.

Seeing Fang Qiu, the man chuckled and asked, "Hey, you don't know me?"

"Of course I do."

Fang Qiu smiled faintly.

From the man's figure and tone, he could clearly tell that the stranger in front of him was Li Ji with a changed face.

"It's better to be cautious."

Li Ji nodded, walked up to him with a smile, and opened the door of the office. After glancing outside, he closed the door and said, "That person has confessed everything, and I've collected the evidence. We have both the testimony of a witness and physical evidence. You can make that public any time you want. However... once it's made public, those two pharmaceutical companies will really be in deep trouble."

Fang Qiu smiled.

It turned out that what he had asked Li Ji to do was to catch the person who had started the rumors and let him confess!

Now, the result finally came out.

“You’d better give it a second thought.”

Li Ji looked at Fang Qiu and added with a serious face, “If it’s made public, the two pharmaceutical companies won’t end up well, and the consequences will bound to be serious. It may even cause them to go bankrupt. That’s going to affect the livelihood of many workers and cause a lot of layoffs.”

Fang Qiu immediately shook his head and said, “No, that’s not going to happen. Someone will take over the two companies.”

“Huh?”

Li Ji was stunned and asked, “Take over?”

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded and continued, “That’s a good thing. I promise you that someone will definitely do that. I won’t hurt anyone, let alone cause the workers to be laid off.”

“I’m relieved then.”

Li Ji nodded. After a pause, he asked, “When can we make it public?”

Fang Qiu secretly calculated and said, “I need two days. Let’s announce it the day after tomorrow.”

“Okay.”

Li Ji nodded with understanding. Then, he walked up to Fang Qiu, stared at him with a smile, and said, “Your matter has been settled. Now it’s time to talk about mine. Where are my swords?”

Fang Qiu replied, “I hid them. I’ll give you an address later. You can go and get them yourself.”

“All right.”

Li Ji’s eyes lit up.

Fang Qiu put the suitcase containing swords in the dormitory when he just came back. Later, he gave it a second thought and found that those swords could be regarded as prohibited goods and weapons that may hurt people. If such stuff were to be found in the school dormitory, it would be a big problem.

Therefore, he deliberately found time to go back to school and transferred the swords away.

“When you take out the swords, leave the one that’s packed separately for me,” Fang Qiu added.

“Okay.”

Li Ji didn’t ask for the reason. He just nodded, ready to leave.

“Wait a sec.”

Fang Qiu suddenly stopped him.

Li Ji looked back and asked, “Is there anything else?”

Fang Qiu smiled and said, “It’s something serious! I’ve forged those swords for you. Can you just do me a favor?”

“What are you going to do?”

Fang Qiu’s words took Li Ji by surprise.

“It’s not a big deal for you.”

Fang Qiu grinned, stepped forward, and patted Li Ji on the shoulder, saying, “I need a piece of land in Beijiang, preferably desert, as large as possible, and it’d better be someplace suitable for living nearby.”

“There isn’t much good land, but deserts are plenty.”

Li Ji thought for a moment and continued, “The land that has been used for desertification control over the years can meet your requirements. Nevertheless, I can’t give you an exact answer right now. I still need to ask my superiors for instructions, but I don’t think there’s any problem with it. Wait for my good news.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

Li Ji strode away.

“All I have to do is wait quietly.”

After muttering to himself secretly, Fang Qiu walked out of the office and went back to his consulting room to pack up, ready to meet Yang Ningyuan.

The person who was going to take over the companies was him!

After packing up, Fang Qiu directly took out his mobile phone and called Yang Ningyuan.

“Hello?” The call went through quickly.

Fang Qiu asked, “Mr. Yang, are you in Jianghang?”

“Yes.”

Yang Ningyuan nodded and replied with a smile, “I just came back from the capital. What’s the matter? Is there anything I can do for you?”

Fang Qiu said, “Yes. Let’s make an appointment to meet and talk.”

“Okay.”

Yang Ningyuan nodded.

Soon, the two of them hung up the phone after setting up an appointment.

In a villa in a rich district of Jianghang:

“Jianghang really lives up to its reputation. You can’t have such good air in the capital.”

In the small courtyard of the villa, there were several wooden chairs and a wooden table in a square sunken space in the middle of a lawn. At this moment, Mr. Li, who was wearing a white shirt, was sitting at the wooden table, enjoying the scenery in the yard and the good air that he had no access to in the capital.

“Since Mr. Li likes Jianghang, why don’t you move here?” Yang Ningyuan asked, smiling.

Mr. Li shook his head and said with a laugh, “Forget it. I’m used to breathing the stale air in the capital. I just don’t feel comfortable going anywhere.”

“Haha.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed in agreement, then walked to the wooden table and sat down. He said, "The person you appreciate is coming. Can you guess the purpose of his visit?"

Mr. Li shook his head and said, "How would I know? Anyway, he won't come to you for no reason. With his way of doing things, it must be a good thing for you if he comes to you in person. Guess I have to congratulate you in advance."

"I'm also looking forward to it."

Yang Ningyuan laughed out loud and added, "Don't leave now that he's coming. When he comes, you can take a closer look at him."

"Okay."

Mr. Li nodded in agreement.

Over there, Fang Qiu took out his mobile phone and dialed Jiang Miaoyu's number after he walked out of the hospital.

"Hello?" When the phone was connected, Jiang Miaoyu's voice was heard.

"Where are you?" asked Fang Qiu.

"Do you mean 'we'?" Jiang Miaoyu asked intentionally or unintentionally.

"Yes, you and my old classmate."

Fang Qiu forced a smile.

"Oh."

Jiang Miaoyu replied, "Mengjie went back to school this morning."

"Huh?"

Fang Qiu froze for a moment, frowning slightly.

He didn't expect Jiang Mengjie not to inform him of it before she returned to school. Theoretically, she wouldn't do that.

"Did you have a good time these days?" asked Fang Qiu.

Jiang Miaoyu answered in an extremely exaggerated tone, "Sure. We nearly became sworn sisters."

"Are you that close?"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

If his memory didn't betray him, wasn't it awkward when the two women appeared at the same time?

How did they get along so well without his presence?

"Could it be that I'm the one who felt embarrassed?" he thought.

"You didn't expect us to fight, did you?"

Jiang Miaoyu curled her lips.

"Of course."

Fang Qiu smiled awkwardly and continued, "I'm going to leave Jiangjing for a few days. I especially inform you of it. Don't worry."

"Okay."

Jiang Miaoyu didn't ask more questions. "Be careful," she reminded him directly.

"Got it."

Fang Qiu nodded.

Then, he hung up the phone.

When he was about to put away his mobile phone, he paused again. After hesitating for a while, he finally dialed Jiang Mengjie's number.

"Oh, you're such a busy bee. You finally called me."

When the phone was connected, Jiang Mengjie's voice sounded.

"You know my current situation too."

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and continued, "By the way, why did you leave before I finished my work? I've just finished my work, ready to be the host and treat you to a nice meal. Why did you leave so early?"

"Next time maybe," Jiang Mengjie responded with a smile and added, "in fact, I was relieved to see that you were all right. I knew that you had a lot of things to attend to, so I didn't dare to disturb you. That's why I came to you and left without making a fuss."

“Alas.”

Fang Qiu sighed softly and said, “Don’t do this next time.”

“Do you mean that I’m not allowed to come, or I’m not allowed to leave?” Jiang Mengjie asked.

“You’re not allowed to leave like this!” Fang Qiu said word by word.

“Okay.”

Jiang Mengjie smiled.

After a moment of silence, Jiang Mengjie’s voice rang out as she said, “I’m getting out of the car. I’m hanging up. Next time... I won’t leave without saying goodbye.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Be careful.”

After hanging up the phone, he let out a faint sigh.

He was no fool and naturally knew everything. He could do nothing but pretend that he didn’t know it in this situation.

After packing his phone up, he stretched out his hand, stopped a taxi coming toward him, and then hurried straight to the factory.

He took a part of Fairy Desert Cistanche—an Earth Treasure, from the factory. After slicing it and packing some slices up, he went straight to the high-speed railway station and headed for Jianghang.

In the afternoon, Yang Ningyuan directly sent someone to take Fang Qiu to his villa.

Seeing Fang Qiu, Yang Ningyuan burst out laughing and said, "You came at the right time. I went to the capital to do some inspection for a few days. When I came back, I built a tearoom. I'll take you there to have a look."

After that, he led Fang Qiu to a recently renovated tearoom in the villa.

After sitting down in the tearoom and exchanging a few words with Fang Qiu, Yang Ningyuan asked, "You don't visit me for no reason. What's the matter with your visit this time?"

Medical Master

Chapter 736: The Bankruptcy of Two Listed Companies???

"I've got good news for you."

In response to Yang Ningyuan's question, Fang Qiu smiled and took a sip of tea. Then he asked, "What do you think of Siqu Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company?"

"Huh?"

Yang Ningyuan was at a loss. He gazed at Fang Qiu with a puzzled look and asked, "What do you mean?"

Mr. Li, who was sitting on the ground in another tearoom separated by an ancient screen next door, was also confused when he heard Fang Qiu's question.

What Fang Qiu said was clearly something he and Yang Ningyuan had not expected.

Nevertheless, it was also because of this unexpected topic that both of them became more confused and curious about Fang Qiu's visit this time.

Over there, Fang Qiu put down the teacup and asked with a smile, "I mean, what do you think of taking over the two companies?"

Yang Ningyuan and Mr. Li were shocked at the same time the moment they heard what he said.

Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company were the top pharmaceutical companies in the country. They could be ranked among the top 10 pharmaceutical companies. How could such pharmaceutical companies be taken over so easily?

Moreover, pharmaceutical companies were something that millions of people wanted to own stocks in these days, but they were not short of money at all. No matter how much money you had, it was almost impossible to own such stocks!

Before Fang Qiu asked this question, Yang Ningyuan had never thought that he could be associated with pharmaceutical companies.

Now, since Fang Qiu had mentioned it, he thought it was quite interesting.

"Are you kidding me?" Yang Ningyuan replied in surprise.

"I'm not kidding."

Fang Qiu shook his head and said, "These two companies are about to go bankrupt!"

"What?"

Yang Ningyuan was astounded!

Mr. Li, who was behind the screen, was also startled by the news.

Two of the top 10 pharmaceutical companies in the country were going to go bankrupt so easily?

How was that possible?

However, unlike Yang Ningyuan, Mr. Li immediately recalled that these two companies seemed to have been exposed by Fang Qiu for problems with their drugs before when Fang Qiu mentioned these two companies.

Then, what did Fang Qiu mean by saying that the two companies were going to go bankrupt?

Yang Ningyuan asked in surprise, "What's going on? As far as I know, Siqi and Taikang are among the top 10 pharmaceutical companies in the country. These two companies are flush with cash, have almost no loans, and maintain a high degree of liquidity. How could they possibly go bankrupt?"

"You'll know the specific situation soon."

Fang Qiu didn't make it clear. He just asked, "If Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company are on the verge of bankruptcy, are you willing to buy these two companies?"

From the beginning, Fang Qiu indeed had considered Yang Ningyuan as the person who would take over the two companies. On the one hand, it was because Yang Ningyuan was a businessman. On the other hand, it was because Yang Ningyuan had the financial resources.

The reason why he went to find Yang Ningyuan was that on the one hand, he had to fight back because these two companies had framed him. The result of his counterattack would be the bankruptcy of the two companies.

If these two companies really went bankrupt, their employees would be deprived of their source of livelihood. In order not to affect these employees, Fang Qiu had to find someone to take over the two companies, not only because Yang Ningyuan had the financial resources and strength to do that, but also because Fang Qiu needed a business partner.

On the other hand, Desert Cistanche's cultivation had proved to be successful at present, and Fang Qiu's next step was to set up a company. Nonetheless, if he rashly set up a company, he would inevitably be suppressed by the business world.

That was because people in the business world knew how much impact Fang Qiu's establishment of his own company would have on the business world. They, especially the pharmaceutical businessmen in the business circle, would never allow him to steal their market shares so easily.

Even if no one suppressed him, Fang Qiu knew nothing about running a business at all at present. Even though the company was established, it would surely grow slowly since he had no managerial experience.

Therefore, before setting up a company, Fang Qiu needed a reliable partner and guide, and Yang Ningyuan was undoubtedly a good candidate.

Not only did he have a good personal relationship with Fang Qiu, but he was also a famous business tycoon.

In every way, he was the best candidate.

To Fang Qiu's surprise, Yang Ningyuan was shocked as he heard him.

He didn't know where Fang Qiu got the news that Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company were going to go bankrupt. Logically speaking, Fang Qiu could not have known such news in advance. Even if this matter really happened, it would inevitably spread in the business circle first. However, nothing was happening in the business circle these days.

There was no problem with the current state of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company.

In this case, why was Fang Qiu so sure that these two pharmaceutical companies would go bankrupt?

The only possibility was that Fang Qiu was the man behind the scenes!

"Is it Fang Qiu who wants to bankrupt these two listed companies?"

The more Yang Ningyuan thought about it, the more shocked he felt!

Over there, Mr. Li was shocked as well.

He reacted quicker than Yang Ningyuan did because he had thought that these two companies held a grudge against Fang Qiu a long time ago, so he was somewhat mentally prepared.

Nevertheless, when Fang Qiu was sure that the two companies would undoubtedly go bankrupt in the way he asked, Mr. Li was dumbfounded.

He and Yang Ningyuan had thought about 10,000 reasons for Fang Qiu's coming, but they had never expected that he would come here to talk about the survival of two listed companies.

These two companies were listed and were among the top 10 pharmaceutical companies in the country!

"I don't know why you are so sure that these two companies will go bankrupt. Even if Siqi and Taikang do go bankrupt, I can't take them over."

Yang Ningyuan suppressed the shock inside him, frowned, and continued with a serious face, "Different trades, worlds apart. Medicine is indeed profitable, but I know nothing about it. Even if I buy them and succeed, these two companies can only continue to depreciate. I'm not in such a losing business."

Hearing that, Fang Qiu smiled.

He knew it was time to sweeten the pot.

If he didn't give them some profits, how could these businessmen feel free to do whatever they wanted when he was dealing with them?

"Help me boil a pot of clear water and get a few clean cups."

Fang Qiu opened his mouth.

“What are you going to do?”

Yang Ningyuan was stunned at first, but then he nodded to the steward outside the tearoom and motioned him to do as Fang Qiu told him.

Sometime later, the steward came over with a tray.

On the tray were six clean cups and a pot of freshly boiled water.

After the steward put the water and cups on the table, Fang Qiu fished out a small wooden box from his pocket, opened it, and took out two slices of Fairy Desert Cistanche. He put one in each clean cup and soaked them in the boiled water.

“What’s that?” Yang Ningyuan asked in confusion.

“Desert Cistanche.”

Fang Qiu smiled slightly and explained, “It’s one of the nine magic herbs of the Taoist school. It helps enrich yang without bringing about dryness-heat and tonify yin without being excessive. Yet this one in my hand is not ordinary.”

“Oh?”

Yang Ningyuan was curious.

Neither did he have much research on medicine, nor did he know what the nine magic herbs of Taoist school were. He only knew that Desert Cistanche was a kind of medicine that could nourish kidneys. Although he was not familiar with herbs, he knew very well that Fang Qiu was a top-notch Chinese Medicine practitioner. Since Fang Qiu took out this stuff, it meant that it was extraordinary.

It was only when Yang Ningyuan thought of this that his interest was piqued a little.

If it were in normal times, he would have asked someone to shut up if he or she told him anything about medicinal herbs or something like that.

It took him a lot of effort to wait for the water to cool down, and then he raised his cup and took a big sip with expectation.

After that, he felt refreshed and energetic in an instant.

“How is it?” Fang Qiu asked with a smile.

“Hey, you didn’t give me a stimulant, did you?”

Yang Ningyuan stared at the slice of Desert Cistanche in the cup in surprise.

“Of course I didn’t.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and added, “I’m a Chinese Medicine doctor. I only use Chinese herbal medicine. Both the cup and the water are yours. What’s inside the cup is indeed Desert Cistanche. If you don’t believe me, you can take it to have a check!”

Yang Ningyuan immediately opened his mouth and said, “Of course, I do. But isn’t this stuff too refreshing?”

Fang Qiu smiled faintly and said, “That’s just a superficial feeling. The real effect must be beyond your expectation.”

“Then I’ll take a few more sips.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed out loud and drank a big mouthful of water.

“The reason why I took it out is that I have successfully cultivated Desert Cistanche, and mass-production is available.”

Fang Qiu opened his mouth and continued, “The effect of the mass-produced Desert Cistanche is about one-tenth of that of this one. Meanwhile, I can also provide an exclusive prescription, which can guarantee excellent health preservation and effect in a very short time. Now, I wonder if you’re interested in taking over the two companies, Siqi and Taikang?”

Fang Qiu smiled.

Over there, Mr. Li could no longer suppress the curiosity inside him. He stood up, pulled the screen open, and walked over.

Fang Qiu was not surprised at Mr. Li’s appearance at all. He had already known that someone was next door, so he deliberately prepared two cups of Desert Cistanche Water.

“May I have a try?”

Walking into the tearoom, Mr. Li directly faced Fang Qiu.

“Please.”

Fang Qiu was not surprised at all. He directly pushed the cup of warm Desert Cistanche Water in front of him to Mr. Li.

Mr. Li couldn’t wait to raise the cup and take a big sip.

He frowned as the water entered his mouth.

Then, he slowly swallowed it.

“Amazing.”

After drinking it, Mr. Li took a long breath. He felt much more comfortable and relaxed. The blockage of the blood in his body, caused by sitting in the next room and not daring to move, was instantly eliminated.

“It’s genuinely wonderful.”

Feeling the changes in his body and the great improvement of his spirit, Mr. Li couldn’t help but sigh with emotion.

After that, he exchanged a glance with Yang Ningyuan, and the two laughed at the same time.

“This is Mr. Li.”

Yang Ningyuan quickly introduced him to Fang Qiu and said, “Mr. Li is the top business tycoon in Huaxia. It’s rare for him to come to my place. He heard that you were coming, so he listened to our conversations next door. You don’t mind, do you?”

“I believe in you.”

Fang Qiu pointed to the cup in front of Mr. Li with a smile.

The two of them instantly understood.

“Hello, my name is Li Qihua.”

Mr. Li stretched out his hand to Fang Qiu.

“Nice to meet you.”

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

“Well, now that Mr. Li has come out, shall we get on with business?”

As Fang Qiu spoke, Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua looked at each other again, and they saw interest in each other’s eyes.

“Can the effect of the medicine you mentioned be truly about one-tenth of that of this one, and it can be mass-produced?” Yang Ningyuan asked.

Medical Master

Chapter 737: Im a Sunny Young Man!

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Yes. You can check it out if you need to.”

He was pretty confident about the mass production of Desert Cistanche.

Mr. Zhao—Zhao Shanlin had successfully cultivated it, and he should soon get the land he asked Li Ji for. In addition, he knew where Fairy Desert Cistanche grew. Hence, there was absolutely no problem with the mass production of Desert Cistanche.

“Exclusive?” Yang Ningyuan asked again.

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Yes. I’ll provide you with an exclusive prescription and Desert Cistanche, but I don’t offer the cultivation technique!”

When Li Qihua, who was sitting beside them, heard that, he suddenly opened his mouth and asked, "Do you have any other prescriptions?"

Fang Qiu said with a laugh, "Of course. I won't use the prescription I offer. I'll use Desert Cistanche on my other prescriptions."

"Three prescriptions."

Yang Ningyuan came straight to the point and said directly, "Give me three exclusive prescriptions, and I'll take over the two companies."

"Two."

Fang Qiu raised his eyebrows and said, "Two companies, two exclusive prescriptions. That will be fair."

Hearing his words, Yang Ningyuan thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Okay."

In fact, prescriptions meant nothing to Fang Qiu. Anyway, he had a lot of prescriptions, and they were all in his mind. No one else could have them.

Yang Ningyuan opened his mouth and said, "That's settled then. I'll check it out with you after I take over the two companies."

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and said, "All right. I'm leaving then."

After that, he nodded at Li Qihua, turned around, and left.

After Fang Qiu left, Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua looked at each other. As they smiled, they both saw the surprise in each other's eyes.

“Desert Cistanche...”

Li Qihua took the Desert Cistanche Water in front of him and drank it up in one gulp. Then he smacked his lips, recollecting the pleasant flavor of it for a while, and said with a sigh, “What a generous gift it is! If it’s really that good, you’ll own two companies this time.

“The pie has been drawn, and it’s quite big.

“The two prescriptions are worth at least 10 billion in the market.”

After that, Li Qihua paused, refilled his cup with boiled water, and then said, “However, I’m very curious about how he’s going to bankrupt the two companies!”

Yang Ningyuan nodded in agreement and said, “Yes, me too.

“In this case, I can only wait and see. He came to me to confirm my intentions. Now he’s confirmed my intentions, but there’s nothing I have to do. If the two companies don’t collapse, then it’s all for nothing.

“Even if the two companies do collapse, it’s still in vain if his prescriptions don’t work well.”

Speaking of that, Yang Ningyuan suddenly smiled, turned to look at Li Qihua, and said, “Nonetheless, I think there’s a good chance. Would you like to join me?”

“I’d like to.” Li Qihua immediately nodded and asked after thinking for a while, “But what good can it do Fang Qiu?”

“I’m also curious about that.”

Yang Ningyuan nodded in agreement.

While they were talking, both of them began to think about it.

...

Over there, after leaving Yang Ningyuan's villa, Fang Qiu didn't ask him to send someone to see him off. Instead, he left on his own.

After walking for dozens of meters, he looked back at the gate of Yang Ningyuan's villa with a faint smile on his face.

How could he do anything that would not benefit him?

This matter would do him a great deal of good.

First, he had Yang Ningyuan as the guide; second, he had made Yang Ningyuan his business partner; third, he could use the other party to build a reputation for Desert Cistanche and let everyone know its benefits.

In fact, to put it simply, Fang Qiu regarded Yang Ningyuan as a giant, while he himself was the one standing on the shoulders of the giant. Once Yang Ningyuan took over the two companies—Siqi and Taikang, in order to make profits, he had to produce medicine. If the medicine was effective enough, it would surely cost him a fortune on advertising.

Once the advertising was a success, everyone would recognize the efficacy of Desert Cistanche. By then, there would be no need for Fang Qiu to make an advertisement himself. As long as he guaranteed the production rate, he would be able to quickly promote the related products of Desert Cistanche and achieve the goal of making money fast.

In this world, one must sacrifice something before gaining anything.

By then, would Fang Qiu's relative products of Desert Cistanche affect the interests of Yang Ningyuan's two prescriptions?

Yes.

Of course, they would!

They might even squeeze Yang Ningyuan's two prescriptions out of the market altogether.

Under these circumstances, would the two turn against each other?

No.

Of course not!

Because by that time, Yang Ningyuan must have made enough money. As for the two companies he took over, he could simply transfer them out. His main business, after all, was not about pharmaceuticals.

Of course, at that time, it was very likely that the person who took over the two companies would be Fang Qiu.

If everything went according to his plan, he would make money for Yang Ningyuan, while the latter would help him do a series of work such as marketing, drug promotion, and so on, and advertise Desert Cistanche to prevent him from taking a wrong path in the future.

In this way, it could be said that the two of them were mutually beneficial!

As for why didn't Fang Qiu take over them directly now?

First of all, it was because he didn't have money.

How many people were supported by the two pharmaceutical companies?

Although Fang Qiu still had plenty of money, it was not enough to pay them, let alone to maintain the day-to-day operations and expenses of the two companies.

Secondly, he didn't have time.

If he took over these two companies, he would unquestionably have to manage them. Now he had to study medicine while constantly working hard to improve his strength. Moreover, he had to go to the hospital one day a month to see patients.

Coupled with other things, how could he have time to stay in the office?

The third and most crucial point was that he wasn't capable of managing a listed company yet. He didn't know how a company worked. Even if he took them over, he wouldn't know how he was supposed to run a business.

The fourth point was that if he destroyed these two companies and then bought them by himself, many people would label him as vindictive. That way, he would get a bad reputation.

As a result, he had no choice but to have Yang Ningyuan take the blame.

Of course, it was not so much as dirt but as a treasure bowl.

First of all, Yang Ningyuan's purchase of the two companies that had framed his benefactor would surely win him the approval of a vast number of netizens who would consider him kindhearted and righteous. This way, his reputation would be bound to rise again. Furthermore, he would make a fortune later. In any case, it was not dirt but a treasure bowl!

"Whew..."

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu let out a long breath, feeling the oncoming breeze and enjoying the light coming down from the sky. He seemed to have noticed something, so he couldn't help rubbing his forehead and murmuring, "Alas, when did I become so scheming?"

“I’m a sunny young man.

“But the society has forced me to do it.”

Fang Qiu was undoubtedly brazen-faced.

He shook his head and strode away.

...

It didn’t take long for Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua to wait.

Early the next morning, the official Weibo account of the Capital Public Security Bureau—Peaceful Capital, released the news. “According to the report from some citizen in the capital, our bureau has officially started to arrest the Internet rumor-monger, Mr. Yang, and has launched a formal investigation into his spreading rumors on the Internet!”

The rumors seemed to be aimed at some international and national hot issues and even diplomatic matters, yet this Mr. Yang was so bold that he spread such rumors.

In the eyes of netizens, he was digging his own grave.

Nevertheless, the news received little attention and few comments in the beginning.

After all, this was an age when government news was followed by far fewer people than entertainment news.

Nonetheless, it wasn’t long before several media outlets, which got leads, published articles in succession.

“According to the news, this “Mr. Yang” confessed to having paid some Internet trolls to slander Fang Qiu twice. The first time was when Fang Qiu was attracting investment to make a CG animation video by selling spots for advertisements. The second time was when a patient’s family came to Fang Qiu’s door and knelt to beg him for treatment. This “Mr. Yang” was the former employee of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company. He was fired because Fang Qiu once revealed that there was something wrong with the company. Hence, it’s very likely that he held a grudge against Fang Qiu, so he took revenge on him on the Internet!

“In addition, reliable sources say “Mr. Yang” received two remittances, which were used to slander Fang Qiu, on both occasions when he smeared Fang Qiu. According to the information we’ve collected from relevant personnel, these two remittances are very likely to have come from Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company, both of which have had drug problems exposed by Fang Qiu!”

As soon as the news spread, the whole Internet was in an uproar.

“What the f*ck. No wonder there were so many paid Internet trolls who smeared Fang Qiu no matter what he did back then. It turned out that someone paid Internet trolls to slander Fang Qiu.”

“There’s no need to think about it. The masterminds must be those two famous pharmaceutical companies. Otherwise, who else would have so much money to defame Fang Qiu?”

“I wondered why so many people kept saying bad things about Fang Qiu online. It turned out that somebody had been playing tricks behind the scenes!”

“These two companies are too disgusting. How could they take revenge on Fang Qiu after he exposed their drug problems? They’re so hateful.”

The netizens all flared up in no time.

In particular, Fang Qiu’s fans all went to the Weibo account named “Peaceful Capital” to leave messages.

“Dear police, those who spread rumors and harmed others must be thoroughly investigated.”

“Yes, we can’t let such people off the hook. They’re too hateful.”

...

The senior leaders of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company, who had received the news, were in a panic.

When the debate on the Internet was getting hotter and hotter, the two companies hurried to clear up the rumors on Weibo as soon as possible and issue lawyer’s letters, asking all media outlets to withdraw the relevant articles.

It seemed that the two companies were rather angry about this, and they would sue the media any time soon.

To everyone’s surprise, these media outlets didn’t show any fear at all. On the contrary, they kept exposing news one after another and even revealed the transfer records.

Although the transfers were not done directly in the name of the two companies, given the transfer records released by these media outlets, one could figure out that the two companies were the wire-pullers after checking those bank accounts by inference.

That was irrefutable proof!

The appearance of the transfer records outraged the netizens.

“Damn it, it turned out that you harbored evil intentions when you thanked Fang Qiu for his guidance and wanted to invite him to take up some post. Fortunately, he didn’t go. Otherwise, no one knew what you would do to him!”

“You’re so shameless that you even spoke evil of Fang Qiu!”

“Boycott, strong boycott!”

Chapter 738: A Second Thought Incurred Profound Fear

After Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company were exposed, every netizen rained curses on them on the Internet. Even though the two companies tried giving immediate explanations and even issued letters from their lawyers on Weibo, the media and netizens still did not buy it.

The opinions of the public, much like a deflated balloon that had been reinflated, were expanding at an extremely fast pace.

Due to this, the stock prices of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company hit the limit down threshold that afternoon!

Many medical agencies and large supermarkets took the drugs from these two companies off from their shelves and returned them to the original factory.

These bombshells, which dropped one after the other, stunned Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua, who had been waiting to see how Fang Qiu would bring down these two listed companies.

In Yang Ningyuan's home in Jianghang:

Hearing the reports about the messages on the Internet from the steward, Yang Ningyuan looked at Li Qihua in horror and asked, "Fang Qiu doesn't have that much power, does he?"

Li Qihua inhaled deeply in shock and said, "There must be someone behind these events! Otherwise, he would not have made such a big move and even released such a tight chain of evidence."

Yang Ningyuan heaved a long sigh of relief and said, "It seems that we have seriously underestimated him."

“Yeah.”

Li Qihua nodded, with a serious expression on his face, and said, “In fact, what matters is not what we see on the surface.”

“Then what do you think matters?”

Yang Ningyuan raised his eyebrows and said, “I think the reason why Fang Qiu is so sure that Siqi and Taikang will be bankrupt is because he has all the evidence and has handed it to the media, so that these media outlets can make it public at the right time. That’s why it has such a terrible effect now.”

“When do you think is the right time?” Li Qihua asked.

“Hmm?”

Yang Ningyuan’s expression changed and he could not suppress the shock in his eyes. At the same time, he gaped as he said, “Do you mean that the timing was chosen by Fang Qiu himself? He came to me a day earlier because he knew that today, the Capital Public Security Bureau would announce the arrest of ‘Mr. Yang’.”

“That’s what I mean.”

Li Qihua nodded with certainty and added, “That’s just one point.

“Judging from the whole thing, it’s clear that Fang Qiu knew exactly when this matter would occur, so he came to negotiate with you in advance. His purpose was simply to get you to take over these two companies, but I don’t quite understand why he wanted you to do that.

“Besides, don’t you think this whole thing had been divided into several segments and each step was intended to be a ticking time bomb that would destroy Siqi and Taikang?”

When he heard Li Qihua's question, Yang Ningyuan immediately frowned, nodded gently, and began to mull over the incident.

"Fang Qiu first came to you. After you decided to take over the two companies, the next day there came the news that 'Mr. Yang' had been arrested and then the media outlets began to expose relevant issues. The key point must be the media. We all know that it's not just one media outlet, nor is it a small media outlet that has exposed the dirty secrets of these two companies.

"Let's take a closer look. The information obtained by these media outlets is different and almost every media outlet has announced some kind of corruption taking place. That would mean that they received the evidence in advance. After the whole incident, those media outlets exposed those dirty secrets, one by one.

"I think it's like a bunch of firecrackers. If the first one does not explode, the second one will not explode. But if the first one explodes, then all the crackers will follow suit!"

Yang Ningyuan nodded.

Indeed, that was what had happened.

"There's more."

Li Qihua pursed his lips and said, "Don't forget what kind of pharmaceutical companies Siqi and Taikang are. Since they can make and sell medicine, it means that they have a good relationship with the higher-ups. Don't forget they had been exposed by Fang Qiu before for drug quality issues. The fact that these two companies were able to get their drugs on the market even though they had quality problems shows that they have quite a high level of 'pull' with the authorities.

"However, in the face of these continuous bombshells, these two companies are now extremely powerless. With their connections and financial resources, it should be a piece of cake to silence the media. Nevertheless, they failed this time. Not only did the media disrespect them, but they could not even be bought."

When Yang Ningyuan heard this, his eyes widened and he was a little astonished.

“Whether it’s a coincidence or a scheme, the fact that the Capital Public Security Bureau chose today to expose the arrest of “Mr. Yang”, must have something to do with Fang Qiu,” Li Qihua said.

“Hiss...”

Yang Ningyuan took a deep breath and secretly admired Li Qihua. Meanwhile, he was also startled by Li Qihua’s analysis.

“It seems that Fang Qiu is not merely a sophomore with a good reputation and excellent medical skills.”

Exhaling deeply, Yang Ningyuan said with a bitter smile, “It seems that we’ll have to regard him as our peer in the future.”

The situation was far from over.

The next day, as soon as the stock market opened, the stock prices of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company hit the limit down threshold again in just five minutes!

In this situation, all the shareholders could not help cursing in anger.

They wanted to sell the stocks, but they could not!

In the capital, the police station where the rumor monger “Mr. Yang” was detained, was packed with reporters.

As soon as the director of the Public Security Bureau showed up, some reporter immediately walked forward and asked, “Director Zhang, is it because of Fang Qiu that you have arrested the rumor-monger?”

“Of course not.”

Hearing the reporter's question, Director Zhang shook his head with a smile and said, "We did not make a criminal arrest against 'Mr. Yang' because of Fang Qiu. I've also seen some news about Fang Qiu being defamed by the paid Internet trolls hired by 'Mr. Yang'. But Fang Qiu's case is a private matter and he himself did not report it to the police, so we can't help him to investigate it, let alone help him to have 'Mr. Yang' arrested. Criminal detention applies only to offenders caught in flagrante delicto or serious suspects, or offenders under statutory emergency circumstances. Therefore, it has nothing to do with Fang Qiu. It was just a lucky break for him at most."

The reporters were all excited to see the director break with his usual reticence and be more receptive to their queries. Their questions started coming, thick and fast.

To their surprise, the director was unusually cooperative and he spoke unreservedly and his attitude was fantastic.

When the netizens saw the interviews on the Internet, everyone praised him wholeheartedly.

...

In a VIP meeting room of a hotel:

"Commander Zuo."

A young man in his thirties looked at Commander Zuo, who was sitting beside him with a serious expression on his face. He frowned and asked soberly, "What, what should we do?"

Commander Zuo snorted, glanced at the young man, and asked, "Why are you so anxious? You did not seem to care about your father's legacy, gained by hard toil, before, did you?"

The young man was He Yilu. Although he looked young, he was the chairman of Taikang Pharmaceutical Company.

Taikang Pharmaceutical Company had been built by his father, He Chunhui. Five years ago, He Chunhui died of an illness. His mother died of a broken heart two years later. He was the only son, so he took over Taikang Pharmaceutical Company. Since there were many founding members in the company helping him to manage it, the business was not affected and the company continued to thrive.

Those founding members only knew that He Yilu was a prodigal, but they did not expect him to fork out so much money to smear Fang Qiu's reputation.

The company was doomed this time.

"Hehe..."

Beside them, a bald, fat man said while sipping his tea, "Why did you bother starting these rumors? What's the use of revealing things about Fang Qiu?"

Commander Zuo's face was cold. He said, "I knew I couldn't trust that man. I should have sent him abroad when I found something wrong!"

He Yilu hurriedly asked, "Is it too late? Bail him out and send him away!"

Commander Zuo shook his head and said, "It's too late. There's no way we can get him out, especially now that the situation has become so serious."

"Then what should we do?"

He Yilu was anxious.

"Yeah."

The fat man also frowned and asked, "So, what are you going to do next? Currently, the public opinion is not favorable for either of your companies."

Commander Zuo thought for a moment and said, "Now we can only resort to using a public relations company. No matter how much it costs, we must find the best public relations company in the country and even in the world and see how we can deal with this crisis."

...

In a factory at the foot of an unknown mountain in Jiangjing:

"Beep, beep, beep..."

Fang Qiu, who had just returned, suddenly received a call from Li Ji.

"Hello?"

Fang Qiu answered.

Li Ji's voice came from the other end of the line. He said, "Good news. Not only has your request been granted, but the land has also been selected for you."

"Thank you."

Fang Qiu thanked him.

"Why don't you find a time to come and have a look?" Li Ji asked.

"I'll bring some people over right away and call you when we get there," Fang Qiu replied.

"Okay, I'll wait for you."

Li Ji nodded and hung up.

After putting his phone away, Fang Qiu shouted to everyone in the factory, "Everybody, pack up. Follow me to Beijiang to have a look at the land."

Hearing that, Mr. Zhao's eyes lit up.

Zhu Benzhen and the other two were also delighted.

"I've been wanting to go to the desert for a long time and I've always dreamed of biking to the desert after graduating from college. Now, this rare opportunity is knocking at my door."

Sun Hao was thrilled.

Zhou Xiaotian and Zhu Benzhen were on cloud nine.

The fifth-grade interns were equally delighted.

This was the first field trip in their lives. It was not easy for them to get such a good opportunity during their internship.

While everyone was packing up, Fang Qiu used his mobile phone to buy plane tickets on the Internet after calculating the number of people.

Soon, the group of people flew straight to Beijiang.

After the plane landed in Beijiang in the afternoon, Fang Qiu called Li Ji immediately.

After learning that Fang Qiu had a group of people with him, Li Ji managed to get a minibus and drove over to pick Fang Qiu and the others.

When they met, Li Ji was wearing a mask.

The group of people got on the bus.

Li Ji drove to the edge of the desert. There was a piece of land that had been used for sand prevention and some haloxylon ammondendron trees were planted on the grounds.

After walking around the field, Li Ji asked, "How is it?"

Fang Qiu turned to ask Zhao Shanlin, "Mr. Zhao, what do you think?"

Zhao Shanlin nodded with satisfaction and answered, "Not bad. This piece of land suits us very well."

Medical Master

Chapter 739: Incredible!

"All the land here similar to this, right? We will not take it if it is not."

Zhao Shanlin said with a smile, "Desert Cistanche will not be authentic if it does not grow in this kind of field."

"Okay."

Fang Qiu nodded in agreement and said, "Since Mr. Zhao is satisfied with this, I'll take this one."

"The land here is really different from other places. Although it doesn't look good on the surface, every piece of land is a treasure."

Li Ji answered with a smile and then said, "I also found some workers for you. All the construction materials have been prepared. Once you give the order, the construction will begin immediately."

"Really?"

Fang Qiu looked at Li Ji in surprise and asked, "How much is it? I'll pay you."

"Let's talk over there."

Li Ji turned, indicating that they should go to the other side.

Fang Qiu left the others to continue their walk around the place, while he went to a small mound about eight meters away with Li Ji.

"The higher-ups said that these expenses would be covered by your swords."

Li Ji chuckled.

"Then I'll suffer a loss."

Hearing that, Fang Qiu's lips instantly curled.

"No, it's not a loss."

Li Ji shook his head repeatedly and said, "We are making contributions to the country. How can this kind of thing be counted as a loss?"

"You're right."

Fang Qiu nodded, pointed at the land and said, "When I think about it, the country didn't treat me too badly!"

"That's the right way to put it."

Li Ji said with a smile, "Even the construction team and materials have been prepared for you. How could our country treat its people so shabbily?"

They chatted for a while. Li Ji brought Fang Qiu to walk around the field and then left.

After seeing Li Ji off, Fang Qiu began to shape the terrain within a radius of ten kilometers, by himself.

He did a rough calculation and found that the area of this land was indeed very large. He did not expect that the country would provide such a huge piece of land for him.

Although it did not actually reach a radius of ten kilometers, it was sufficient to build a factory and a cultivation area.

Fang Qiu also knew that the reason why the country agreed to his request so readily and gave him such a large piece of land was because it was the reward for the swords he contributed to the army. Moreover, it was because the sand-control project was too difficult to complete. It took a large amount of time and money. Almost no one wanted this kind of land. Since Fang Qiu wanted it, they could just give it to him. Meanwhile, they could also ask Fang Qiu to control the sand through afforestation. Wasn't that killing two birds with one stone?

With his land as the center, Fang Qiu began to create the terrain.

At the same time, as arranged by Zhao Shanlin, the construction team hired by Li Ji, officially began their construction work.

It took him three days before he finally finished his work.

Three days later, in the factory that had been constructed,

“How is it?”

Walking inside the newly-built factory, Fang Qiu asked Zhao Shanlin, who was next to him.

“Almost done.”

Zhao Shanlin nodded and said, “I made a call yesterday. The seedlings we have cultivated over there should be delivered soon. When the seedlings arrive, we can officially start transplanting and nurturing them.”

Zhou Xiaotian asked, “What about the land outside?”

“What about it?”

Zhao Shanlin was stunned at first and then said, “Since we chose to grow it here, it must be cultivated outdoors like the wild Desert Cistanche. Since you have arrived at the origin of Desert Cistanche, do you still want to build some greenhouses?”

As soon as he finished speaking, Zhou Xiaotian suddenly felt extremely embarrassed.

Zhu Benzhen and Sun Hao both turned their heads away and snickered.

“No.”

Zhou Xiaotian shook his head and waved his hand, saying, “Of course I know it needs to be cultivated outdoors. I mean, the land outside is not flat. Do we need to raze the land? And even if you want to plant trees, you have to dig a pit first. Why don’t we dig the pits first before the seedlings arrive?”

“No.”

Fang Qiu immediately shook his head and said, "This is a desert. You can't just change the terrain here. If you can easily change it, the desert would have disappeared long ago. Even if you dig the pits now, in half an hour, the holes will be filled with yellow sand when the wind blows. At that time, you will need to dig again."

"This..."

Zhou Xiaotian smiled awkwardly and said, "It's my first time in the desert, don't blame me."

Just as Zhao Shanlin estimated, it did not take long for the seedlings to arrive.

As soon as the seedlings arrived, all the people, including workers, interns, Fang Qiu, the other three roommates and Zhao Shanlin, immediately began the cultivation.

Under Zhao Shanlin's guidance, everyone did a good job.

Although there were not that many seedlings, they still planted a lot.

After all the seeds were planted, everyone stood up and looked at the outcome of their labor. They were all smiling, with sweat on their faces.

In the evening, Fang Qiu specially bought some food and drinks to entertain everyone.

When it was late at night, everyone went to sleep.

Fang Qiu walked out of the factory.

He walked to the middle of the land where they planted the Desert Cistanche's seedlings and found the best-looking Desert Cistanche that he had deliberately chosen to plant here at noon.

Then he sat down next to it.

Facing the Desert Cistanche, he took a deep breath and began to mobilize his internal Qi and mental powers.

He started to mobilize the Qi of Heaven and Earth, using himself as the center.

Although he had already shaped the terrain three days ago, it was of no use without the Qi of Heaven and Earth as the medium.

However, what Fang Qiu needed to do now was to forcibly pour Internal Qi into the ordinary Desert Cistanche he chose and make it the medium to attract the Qi of Heaven and Earth so that it could in turn, attract the Qi of Heaven and Earth from all directions to cultivate all the Desert Cistanche in this area.

“Great Hand of Destruction!”

While driving the internal Qi to run quickly in his body, Fang Qiu shouted to himself.

The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth immediately began to surge wildly.

“Disperse!”

When the Qi of Heaven and Earth gathered above his head, Fang Qiu immediately dispersed the Great Hand of Destruction, directly driving his mental powers to collect all the surging Qi of Heaven and Earth and then forcefully pouring it into the Desert Cistanche in front of him.

“Whoosh.”

As soon as the energy entered the plant, it began to tremble violently.

Fang Qiu could feel it.

After a large amount of energy was poured in, it did not stay completely in the Desert Cistanche's body. Instead, it directly went through and seeped into the ground from the roots of the plant, spreading out in all directions like a spider web.

"Buzz..."

When the Qi of Heaven and Earth completely merged with the terrain and formed a perfect cycle, a gust of wind blew.

Fang Qiu also stood up and opened his eyes.

Sitting there quietly and simply circulating the Internal Qi in his body, he could clearly sense the familiar feeling.

When he was absorbing the Qi of Heaven and Earth in the center of the terrain, the process was faster than when he did in the outside world.

The terrain was complete!

Fang Qiu quickly got up and walked to the side.

After all, the terrain here had just been formed. His task would have been in vain if he carelessly practiced here and took over the medium of this terrain from the Desert Cistanche.

He retreated to the side.

Fang Qiu looked at the Desert Cistanche, which looked more eye-catching than it did at noon and then nodded.

From today on, this Desert Cistanche was the eye of the formation here.

It could be like the original Fairy Desert Cistanche from the terrain before, constantly driving the terrain to absorb its essence. Then, it could use itself as a medium to absorb the Qi of Heaven and Earth into the terrain and finally form the terrain of heaven and earth.

Now that the terrain had just been formed, the Qi of Heaven and Earth was not sufficient.

He believed that as long as he let it absorb for a while, this area would definitely become increasingly better when the Qi of Heaven and Earth was sufficient.

Only when he was done with the terrain did Fang Qiu turn his head with satisfaction and look toward the east.

Unexpectedly, he found that it was dawn and the morning sun had already risen. There was a faint trace of purple Qi between heaven and earth.

“Although I did not consume a lot of energy just now, I absorbed a lot of it.”

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu closed his eyes and used Insight.

He found that not only were the 12 standard meridians filled with Internal Qi after his re-cultivation, but he could also see some Internal Qi flickering against the exine of his meridians like a flame. Obviously, the internal Qi was overflowing.

Fang Qiu smiled when he saw this.

He did not expect that he could get such an unexpected gain after spending a whole night on this terrain.

If the internal Qi of the 12 standard meridians overflowed, the Eight Extraordinary Meridians would emerge soon.

At the moment, the internal Qi from the 12 standard meridians had begun to overflow, but it was not enough. It was not enough for the Eight Extraordinary Meridians to develop further with these Internal Qi.

However, the barrier was broken finally. Once it was broken, the following cultivation would be much simpler and more and more Internal Qi would flow out. Breaking through to the seventh class was just around the corner!

Just as Fang Qiu was standing alone on the ground and feeling the situation inside his body,

“Pitter-patter...”

The sound of footsteps could be heard.

He turned his head to have a look.

He saw that Zhao Shanlin was walking out of the factory.

When he came out and saw Fang Qiu, he was stunned and said, “You’re up so early.”

“You too.”

Fang Qiu replied with a smile.

“I’m old. I can’t sleep for too long.”

Zhao Shanlin chuckled and added, “Besides, I’m worried about the Desert Cistanche I just planted, so I got up early to see how it was doing after one night.”

As he spoke, Zhao Shanlin began to observe the plants.

“It’s incredible. How could it grow so well?”

After observing for a while, Zhao Shanlin said in surprise, “I was worried that it would take some time for it to get used to the terrain. I did not expect that it has already started to take root.”

Beside him, seeing Zhao Shanlin so surprised, Fang Qiu just smiled slightly.

He would not tell him that this was the effect of the Qi of Heaven and Earth.

“Mr. Zhao.”

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and asked, “How’s the production speed in Jiangjing? The first batch has been planted here. I’m worried that if it takes too long, there will be a gap. And it won’t be easy for you to manage all of them.”

“Don’t worry.”

Zhao Shanlin smiled and said, “The speed of raising the seedlings is very fast and now there are plenty of people. It will take about 20 days to fill up this land.”

“That’s good.”

Fang Qiu nodded with understanding.

After answering Fang Qiu’s question, Zhao Shanlin continued to check the field.

As for Fang Qiu, he took out his phone and called Yang Ningyuan.

“Beep beep...”

The phone rang several times before it was connected.

“Hello?”

Yang Ningyuan smiled wryly at the other end of the phone. He said, “You should check the time before calling me. It’s only half past five.”

“Uh...”

Fang Qiu smiled awkwardly and said, “I thought that bosses always wake up early.”

“Tell me, what’s the matter?”

Yang Ningyuan asked.

“The Desert Cistanche cultivation base has been completed in Beijiang. You can come over to inspect it.”

Medical Master

Chapter 740: Doctor, I Want to Return the Medicine!

“It’s a good thing.”

Yang Ningyuan replied, paused for a moment and then said, “By the way, I have something to tell you. Someone came to me to ask for help, saying that they want you to say a few words on their behalf.”

“Hmm?”

Fang Qiu was stunned and asked, "Those two pharmaceutical companies?"

"Yes." Yang Ningyuan nodded.

"What's wrong?" Fang Qiu asked doubtfully.

"Isn't that obvious?"

Yang Ningyuan let out a sigh and explained, "During these three days, the public reaction has become more and more heated. The stock prices of Siqi and Taikang have been plunging constantly. It seems that the market is about to be suspended. This situation forced Commander Zuo of Siqi and He Yilu of Taikang to use all kinds of methods. They even hired foreign public relations companies here, but they were of no use and the situation continued to worsen."

"Now they have no way out and they somehow managed to find me. They want me to ask you to come out and say something."

Fang Qiu understood when he heard that.

The Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and the Taikang Pharmaceutical Company were admitting defeat.

"Are you trying to convince me?"

After figuring it out, Fang Qiu asked curiously.

"I did not agree."

Yang Ningyuan quickly shook his head as he said, "If I agree to do it, I will still need to merge these two companies later, which will be a bit inhuman. Considering this, I directly rejected them when they came to me. Anyway, I don't think you will agree to help them."

“You’re welcome to come over and inspect the land. I’ll send you the address.”

Fang Qiu replied.

“Haha.”

Yang Ningyuan laughed and said, “All right, all right, now I can’t go back to sleep because of you. I’ll book a ticket right away. Is that okay?”

After that, he hung up.

Although Fang Qiu had been creating the terrain the whole night, it could be regarded as a kind of cultivation and recovery period for him. Therefore, he was still in high spirits after one night and did not need to rest at all.

Walking out of the planting field, he came to the factory and found a bench to sit on.

Only then did Fang Qiu use his mobile phone to surf the Internet and check the situation of the past three days.

After searching online, he found that during these three days, the netizens’ attacks on Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company were very ferocious, because there was actual evidence such as transaction records.

The lawyers’ letters posted before on the official Weibo accounts of Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company had been secretly deleted.

There was no doubt that this action had become a focus point which the netizens targeted fiercely.

“If you’re really innocent, don’t delete it!”

“Sue them? Didn’t you say that you were going to sue them? Sue them if you can! Can you do that now?”

“What is a lawyer’s letter? Everyone knows about it now. You think that issuing a notice will not attract enough attention, so you find a lawyer to issue a letter, right? Let me tell you, even if you find a lawyer, the notice can only be a notice. If you are so tough, don’t delete it. Keep it!”

“Where is your dignity? How could such a big company be so shameless?”

“Do you know what the real defeat is? It’s to use actual evidence to reduce you to the point where you can never rise again!”

“Even the transaction records have been exposed. How are you going to defend yourself? Can you still sue others for slandering you?”

“I did not expect such a big company to go against an 18-year-old college student and it’s both companies. It’s so inhuman. Bastards!”

“You should shut down right now. This kind of company can only bring harm to people!”

“An evil company is more horrible than the problem of drugs!”

The netizens’ comments undoubtedly occupied the comment areas of the official Weibo of both pharmaceutical companies.

Looking at the increasing insulting comments every minute and second, the people from the two pharmaceutical companies finally could not bear it any longer. They directly closed the comment areas on their Weibo.

The netizens became even more worked up when they saw it.

At first, the netizens were furious. Before the comment areas were closed, the official Weibo of these two companies could be used to vent their anger.

But now, as soon as the comment areas were closed, the netizens suddenly had no way to vent their anger. Their anger intensified.

In this case, many netizens even organized a mass reprimanding of the companies. They directed a large number of people to the official websites of the two companies and began their rantings in the comment areas.

Some of them even called the customer service lines of the companies, using various methods to contact these service lines and ranted at them.

People in the country began to boycott all the drugs made by the two pharmaceutical companies.

When the conflict did not die down, the two companies not only directly cut off all the phone numbers and contact information of their customer service, but they also shut down the comment areas on their official websites. Then, without paying any heed to the netizens, they deleted the insulting remarks in the comment areas, one by one.

The people of the Network Technology Department of the two companies seemed to be trying to fight back against the angry netizens. However, they did not expect that their actions would create more problems.

“They deleted the comments in front of everyone?”

“How dare they be so cocky?”

What they did directly angered one hacker hidden among the netizens.

Not long after, the official websites of the two companies were hacked by the hacker. A few words highlighted in red were left on their official websites—Evil pharmaceutical company, shame on you!

Although the people did not know which hacker did it, they really appreciated it when they saw this.

The two companies were so angry that they wanted to sue the hacker.

However, they could not find the identity of the hacker, while the netizens scrambled to admit that they had committed the act!

“It’s me. I did it. You can sue me!”

“I am the one who did it. I am the one who hacked your official website. Come and sue me.”

“I’m the hacker. Sue me! Sue me! Sue me!”

In the face of such a situation, the people from the two companies admitted defeat totally.

They had never expected that they would end up in such a dilemma in just three days.

Only then did the chairmen of the two companies think of Fang Qiu.

However, after going through so much tribulation, they finally found a person who might be able to reach Fang Qiu, but they were rejected by him.

Helplessly, Commander Zuo and He Yilu could only continue to discuss and find other ways to solve this problem.

But no matter how they thought about it, they could not come up with any solutions. Even when they were at a loss about what to do, the distributors from all over the country sent them the drug return requests.

Could they accept these returns at this time?

It was obvious that they could not!

Once these distributors returned the goods, other distributors would definitely send their return requests, one after another. At that time, if the goods could not be sold off, the stock price would continue to decline and everything would be over.

The two pharmaceutical companies had no choice but to increase their rebates at the same time in order to retain the distributors and the hospitals all over the country.

No matter what hospital it was in the whole country, the rebate would be extremely high as long as the doctor prescribed their medicine to the patient!

However, affected by online public opinion, the same scenario occurred in hospitals all over the country.

“Doctor, I want to return the medicine.”

In a specialist consulting room of a third-grade class-A hospital in a city, when a doctor was making a diagnosis for a patient, a young man rushed into the room with a bottle of medicine and said to the doctor, “Why are you giving me the drugs produced by Siqi and Taikang Pharmaceutical? I don’t want the drugs from these two black-hearted companies. They have been exposed last time. There is something wrong with their drugs. Please help me return them.”

“No, the medicine has been prescribed. I can’t return it.”

The doctor was stunned for a moment and said, “You did not tell me that you do not want the medicine from these two companies in the beginning. I gave you the drug list. You’ve been prescribed this medicine. There are records in the hospital. It’s very troublesome to return the medicine. And there is no precedent of returning drugs in the hospital.”

“Anyway, I won’t take the drugs produced by these two companies. The pesticide residues and heavy metal contents in these drugs exceed the standard. What should I do if I fail to heal and even get sicker after taking this medicine? Even if my illness is cured, it will cause me to have other diseases. I don’t think it’s worth it.”

The patient sneered and said, "I don't care. You either help me return the medicine or exchange it for medicine from other companies. Anyway, I don't want the medicine from Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical Company."

"You're making things difficult for me, aren't you?"

The doctor gave a wry smile.

"I don't care."

The patient said firmly, "I won't take the medicine from these two companies!"

"But the medicine I prescribed for you is really more effective."

The doctor thought for a moment and said, "Of course, you can also get medicine from other companies, but the other drugs will be cheaper because they are not as effective as this medicine. If you need it, I can help you change it, but the price difference between the two drugs can't be compensated."

"What price difference? I don't want it. Just help me change it now."

The patient did not hesitate at all and said angrily, "The two big pharmaceutical companies worked together to bully a college student. What good medicine can they produce with that sort of attitude? Look at Fang Qiu. How many people has he saved and how much money has he donated? Not to mention the 100 million he donated at the beginning, he donated one billion again. Moreover, he treated patients in the hospital. He worked so hard that he even fainted. Such a good and kind person had his reputation smeared by them. These two pharmaceutical companies are crazy. Even if there is no other medicine, I will not take their medicine."

The more he spoke, the angrier he became.

The doctor had no choice but to change the medicine for him quickly.

The patient did not leave until his medicine was changed.

“Doctor, can you give me some medicine from another big company? I don’t want the medicine from Siqi and Taikang Pharmaceutical.”

The other patients who had been diagnosed, said.

“Doctor, don’t prescribe me the medicine from Siqi and Taikang Pharmaceutical. I don’t want it.”

“I don’t want the medicine from Siqi and Taikang Pharmaceutical either.”

Every time a patient came in, they would say this in advance.

Hearing the same sentence repeatedly, the doctor felt helpless.

The same thing was happening in hospitals all over the country.

Although the distributors all over the country got the guarantee of high rebates from Siqi Pharmaceutical Company and Taikang Pharmaceutical company, they found that they were of no use after one day, because no one used their medicine at all. There was not even a single person who bought them. What good were the high rebates?

Therefore, the distributors no longer hesitated and determinedly returned the goods to the companies.

As a result, the two pharmaceutical companies were in a miserable situation and even their production factories come to a standstill.

Staff from the two companies were in a state of panic. Rumors spread everywhere, saying that the companies were going to shut down.

The two companies immediately held a board meeting.

“What should we do? Who can tell me? What else can we do now?”

In the meeting, Commander Zuo, who was always calm, became anxious.

“Chairman, why don’t we... suspend the trading?”

“That’s the only thing we can do now. Otherwise, we’ll suffer even more losses!”

In the end, the two companies agreed to make this decision.

They decided to request suspension beginning next Monday!
