Chapter 861: The First to Be Humiliated!

“Great!” The martial arts practitioners of Huaxia felt exhilarated when they saw this.

Every one from the Southeast Region were astounded.

How was that possible?

This young man from Southern Yue was not an ordinary person, but the top expert of the younger generation in the Southeast Region!

However, he was knocked back by a single blow.

They couldn’t believe what they were seeing.

Fang Qiu looked at the man indifferently.

He was fully aware that the opponent’s strength was not weak, for he was an eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians.

However, Fang Qiu had once defeated someone at the peak of the ninth class with one opened meridian.

How dare an eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians challenge him? He was simply risking his life!

“You’re indeed extraordinary since you could defeat Yun Yangzi.”

The young man from Southern Yue cast a surprised glance at Fang Qiu.

He knew that John Doe would be exceptional, but he did not expect him to be so strong.

But it didn't matter. He didn't lose yet.

He hadn't exerted his full strength!

Hence, he sneered and said, "It was just a test. The real battle is coming!"

A gust of powerful Qi power erupted from his body, causing the people around him to retreat hastily.

The people of Southern Yue were excited.

Their top expert had finally unleashed his full strength! "Huaxia people, wait and see!"

"Take another blow from me!" The young man roared.

With the surge of Qi power, the young man from Southern Yue shifted his body. He pounced toward Fang Qiu from above as if he had turned into a fierce tiger!

"Swish!" The sound of the punch was like a sharp arrow breaking through the air. With extremely penetrating energy Qi, it fiercely smashed its way toward Fang Qiu's face.

Countless people had been defeated by his move.

This move was the most powerful, with its Qi power, acuteness, and speed!

Facing the opponent's attack, Fang Qiu stood still. He looked at this violent move expressionlessly and struck with his right fist again.

"Bang!" At the next moment, another loud sound was heard!

Appalling energy exploded at the place where their fists collided. Like a gust of wind, it spread in all directions, blowing away the sand and stones on the ground and sent chills of fear down the peoples' backs.

This time, not only the Huaxia side but also the martial arts practitioners of the Southeast Region, who were originally full of confidence, widened their eyes and stared at them to see who would win!

The latter couldn't believe that the top expert in the younger generation of Southern Yue would lose!

They firmly believed that the source of their pride would win!

But then, a huge force poured continuously out of Fang Qiu's fist.

"What?!" The young man was stunned. In the beginning, he assumed that John Doe would be exhausted after this punch, but he didn't expect that he still had such great strength left.

It was too late for him to block it.

"Dong! Dong! Dong! Dong!" He took four steps back and felt a sharp pain in his chest!

The faces of the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region changed in an instant, and were filled with disbelief.

"What? How is that possible?"

"How could he lose again? No one could take this blow from him before!"

“No, no, no, it must be fake. How could the No.1 expert in our Southern Yue lose to a Huaxia man?”

The martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region looked at the scene in front of them in disbelief.

But what just took place was real!

“What’s your name?” The young man from Southern Yue suppressed the surging Qi and blood in his chest and stared at Fang Qiu with a grim look. He felt humiliated at being defeated in public.

Ever since he started practicing martial arts, he had never lost a single battle!

He was the number one genius in the Southern Yue in thousands of years!

But today, he was beaten so badly that he actually staggered backward twice in a row from blows by a Huaxia man!

“John Doe!” Fang Qiu answered nonchalantly.

“My name is Ruan Changhong!” The top young man from Southern Yue took a deep breath and said to Fang Qiu, “I won’t deny that you are indeed very powerful, but it’s far from enough to defeat me.”

After that, he gritted his teeth and smiled.

He had not lost yet!

“Boom!” Overwhelming Qi power erupted from his body.

With the burst of his Qi power, Ruan Changhong seemed to have completely changed into another person. His whole body was filled with intense power like a sharp blade that had been drawn from its sheath.

“John Doe, meet your death!”

Feeling the Qi power bursting out of Ruan Changhong and seeing that he was going all out, all the people from the Southeast Region regained their confidence.

All of them appeared vicious.

That was what they had expected to see. He didn’t show his full strength before.

They thought to themselves, “This time, he exerted all his strength. The No.1 in Huaxia, go to hell!”

The Huaxia martial arts practitioners were also intimidated by Ruan Changhong’s sudden outburst.

This was the first time they had seen Ruan Changhong exerting all his power. This Qi power was too terrifying.

After all, the martial arts practitioners here were not experts.

Fang Qiu looked at Ruan Changhong, who had exercised all his strength, and smiled blandly.

Sure enough, he did live up to his reputation.

He was indeed competent. If they were to compete, Ruan Changhong’s strength should be inferior to Diwu Qian who ranked second on the Wulin Genius List and was on par with Mu Rufeng, who ranked third on the list.

However, it was not enough!

“Humph!” Seeing the contemptuous look on Fang Qiu’s face, Ruan Changhong was irritated, as he exploded in anger.

He thought to himself, “Those who looked down on me previously are all dead!”

“Take another strike from me!” Ruan Changhong threw the paper fan in his hand into the air. He gritted his teeth in anger and instantly gathered all his strength in his right fist. Then he shifted and charged toward Fang Qiu like a mad bull with incredibly strong momentum.

A blast of incomparably powerful force enveloped his entire body. His Qi power was acute!

However, Fang Qiu still calmly watched his violent attack, raising his right fist again.

“Bang!” Another explosion sounded.

The two fists collided.

Feeling another gust of monstrous force bursting from John Doe’s fist, Ruan Changhong sneered.

He believed that the same move wouldn’t work on him the second time!

In an instant, a gust of stronger force surged from his fist and directly struck John Doe.

However, he didn’t stop but continued striking him with continuous force.

Fang Qiu glanced at Ruan Changhong in surprise and then sneered contemptuously.

A gust of tsunami-like force erupted from his fist and rushed toward Ruan Changhong.

Ruan Changhong's powerful waves of internal Qi were suppressed in an instant!

His expression changed dramatically.

"What? How could it be so powerful!" he thought.

But before he could react, a stronger wave of energy Qi struck him again.

He could no longer support his body.

"Thud... Thud... Thud..."

He kept retreating and took five steps back this time!

When he took the first punch, he staggered back three steps!

The second punch, four steps!

When it came to the third punch, Ruan Changhong, who had unleashed all his strength, was forced back by five steps from John Doe's punch!

All the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region were stunned.

That was Ruan Changhong, the No.1 among the younger generation in the Southeast Region!

He had gone all out but his opponent had struck him back forcefully.

This time, he took more steps back than before!

“How is this possible?”

All the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region looked at Fang Qiu in a different light now.

Before this, they didn't know this person at all. But after today, this person's name would be deeply engraved in their minds and he would become a man they would not dare to provoke at all, for he was far too strong and intimidating!

All the Huaxia people got carried away.

The top expert from the Southeast Region launched his attacks three times in a row, but he was relentlessly beaten back by John Doe, who did not move in the slightest.

No wonder John Doe was the best among the younger generation in Wulin!

“Hmph!

“Did you see that?

“John Doe took mercy on you and even let you make three moves first, but each of your moves was worse than the last. Shame on you!”

“Is that the No.1 in the Southeast Region?”

Looking at Ruan Changhong, who was angry and covering his chest with his hands, Fang Qiu shook his head and said coldly, “You are too weak. With such little strength, you still dare to bully our people. How dare you?”

“That's right! How dare you?”

All of a sudden, the Huaxia people started to accuse him.

“Do you know how powerful Huaxia is now?”

“Let’s fight again. Aren’t you quite cocky? Let’s have another fight.”

“The No.1 in the Southeast Region is nothing!”

The people from the Southeast Region were livid.

Their top expert had been suppressed. Now the tables were turned. It was their turn to feel sullen.

“Now that you’re done, it’s my turn!” Fang Qiu stretched his wrists and then charged straight at Ruan Changhong without hesitation. His moves were blindingly fast, and he kept attacking fiercely.

Facing Fang Qiu’s violent attacks, Ruan Changhong changed his expression drastically.

Although he could barely block John Doe’s attacks, he was unable to fight back. He was even more amazed by John Doe’s overwhelming strength.

This kind of power absolutely surpassed his.

If John Doe intended to kill him, he might not be able to leave this place today!

He eventually witnessed the power of the top young man in Huaxia.

“Phew...” Not far away, on the coast, He Gaoming finally swam to the shore with the eight people.

The group of people gasped for breath. They looked toward the distant island where a great battle was taking place.

“That man seems to be Senior John Doe.

“Senior John Doe’s opponent seems to be quite powerful.

“Can he handle it?”

Liang Fen, the leader of the eight, pointed at Fang Qiu while speaking.

The other seven people also nodded with worried looks on their faces.

“Yes, it’s my master.” He Gaoming glanced at the battlefield and then said with a smile, “It’s okay. My master has never lost a single fight. I don’t even know how powerful he is now. I believe that he can even defeat a guru!”

When they heard this, the eight people were speechless.

They thought to themselves, “Isn’t that a bit of an exaggeration? Do you know how powerful a guru is?”

“Bang!” At this very moment, a thunderous kick could be heard from the battlefield.

Fang Qiu, who was in a fierce battle, somehow kicked Ruan Changhong’s buttocks hard. The huge force sent him flying dozens of meters away instantly and he fell directly into the sea.

“Puff...” The moment he fell into the sea, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

“Ah! Fu*k you!!”

Ruan Changhong was livid. The moment he fell into the sea, he immediately rushed toward Fang Qiu like a mad lion.

He couldn't admit defeat!

He was the top expert in the Southeast Region! He was an eighth-class super expert with three opened meridians! He was the hope of everyone in the Southeast Region!

In front of so many martial artists from the Southeast Region, he had been defeated by a Huaxia man time and again. This was the ultimate humiliation for him!

He couldn't afford to lose!

If he lost, his reputation would be completely ruined!

He could already imagine how many people would secretly mock him when he returned home!

He was full of anger.

He darted toward Fang Qiu again and dealt a furious blow.

"Bang!" Fang Qiu waved his right hand and threw a fierce and direct punch, which instantly forced him to step back. Then, he jumped high into the air to pounce on him. His fists were like two huge hammers, wildly thrashing Ruan Changhong who had no chance to fight back.

Ruan Changhong's face turned red in embarrassment.

He was so depressed, for there was no room for him to fight back!

When the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region saw Ruan Changhong constantly staggering back, they knew that he could not hold on any longer.

"Let's go and kill these Huaxia people!"

Someone shouted loudly, and all the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region immediately rushed up. They tried to attack Fang Qiu as a group and make use of the opportunity to rescue Ruan Changhong from Fang Qiu's hands.

The martial arts practitioners of Huaxia could no longer resist the urge to fight. Without hesitation, they dashed forward and a huge fight broke out in an instant.

Chapter 862: Continuous Breakthroughs!

Ruan Changhong was forced to step back and was once again kicked into the sea by Fang Qiu.

The martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region hastily ran over and pulled him out from the sea.

"Aargh... John Doe!!!" Ruan Changhong's eyes were bloodshot from his anger. He looked up at the sky and roared furiously.

He was the chosen one and the glory in Southern Yue. He had never been so humiliated.

He must kill John Doe!

He said to himself, "I must kill him!!!"

However, Fang Qiu ignored him. Instead, he turned to He Gaoming, who had just come ashore, and said, "Go ahead. This is a good opportunity to cultivate. Go and fight!"

When they heard that, the eight people led by He Gaoming, howled in unison.

They had swum 10 kilometers and used up all their internal Qi. How could they fight?

Although they were a little speechless, the nine of them still rushed into the battlefield and started their own fights, according to Fang Qiu's instructions!

Seeing that John Doe ignored him, Ruan Changhong immediately shouted angrily, "John Doe, I'll fight you to the death!"

"You?" Fang Qiu turned his head, glanced at Ruan Changhong, and said disdainfully, "Wimp!"

"You, you..." Ruan Changhong was enraged. He opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood, due to his immense anger.

Fang Qiu shook his head in disdain and said with a sneer, "The top expert in Southern Yue? As expected, this small country raises narrow-minded people.

"You should see how magnanimous Yun Yangzi was after he lost. You can't compare with him at all!"

"You—" When Ruan Changhong heard this, he spat out another mouthful of blood. He was so outraged that he almost fainted!

No matter how hostile he was, Fang Qiu ignored him and turned to look at the battlefield.

Due to his appearance, Huaxia people were imbued with confidence.

The people from the Southeast Region had long been suppressed by him.

Soon, the battle was drawing to an end.

Without Ruan Changhong's help, all the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region were severely defeated. The Huaxia martial arts practitioners won.

“Let’s go!!!” Knowing that they couldn’t win, Ruan Changhong immediately roared and was ready to take everyone away.

“Wait a minute!” Fang Qiu suddenly said.

Ruan Changhong stopped, so did other people from the Southeast Region. They all looked at Fang Qiu in horror, for fear that he wouldn’t allow them to leave.

“You can go.” Fang Qiu glanced at all the people from the Southeast Region and said in a cold voice, “But before you leave, tell me who killed our Huaxia fishermen.”

Everyone could sense the murderous intent in his voice.

All the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region could not help trembling.

Ruan Changhong gritted his teeth and was about to say something.

“Swish.” Fang Qiu suddenly moved.

He could clearly see that someone was shivering violently when he finished speaking.

It was obvious that this man was the murderer!

In a flash, Fang Qiu appeared in front of the man. He reached out his right hand and grasped the man’s neck. With a grim look, he said, “Use your life to make an apology!”

“John Doe!” Ruan Changhong shouted furiously, “Don’t push your luck!”

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted and replied, “So what if I push it?”

After that, his right hand directly twisted the murderer's neck.

"Crack!" There was a crisp sound.

The murderer was still in a panic, but his neck had been broken by Fang Qiu.

"One life in exchange for so many lives. You're lucky!"

As he spoke, Fang Qiu simply threw the murderer's body into the distance as if he was tossing rubbish away. Then the body fell onto the reefs by the sea.

Ruan Changhong exploded with anger.

However, he knew that he was no match for John Doe and he was injured now.

If he started another fight, none of them could leave the place alive.

For his own safety, it was better to leave first.

Ruan Changhong gritted his teeth and said, "Let's go!!"

A few people sped out of the crowd to carry the killer's body away. They walked to the edge of the island and were about to board the ship.

"Whoosh!" A cold light suddenly flashed in Ruan Changhong's eyes.

He picked up the paper fan that had fallen to the ground due to Fang Qiu's strike. He threw it with a swoosh. Instead of opening up, it was headed for the immature Heaven Treasure in the distance at a blindingly fast speed like an incomparably sharp embroidery needle.

He was going to destroy the Heaven Treasure!

He could leave in humiliation, but he would not leave the treasure to John Doe so easily!

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted angrily. He stamped his feet and the internal Qi in his body surged, then he threw a punch into the air.

A mass of internal Qi suddenly flew out of his hand like a bullet. With a swish, it shot out and instantly knocked down the paper fan.

“Clang! Clang!” At this moment, Ruan Changhong did not hesitate. He pulled out the long sword hanging on the waist of the man beside him and was about to throw it at the immature Heaven Treasure again. He still wanted to destroy it.

“You’re courting death!” Fang Qiu’s eyes turned cold. He stamped his foot, and a nearby shell rose into the air. He stretched his right hand, grabbed the shell, and immediately flung it out.

The shell was like an invincible sharp knife, spinning rapidly in the air and hurtling toward Ruan Changhong at lightning speed.

“Crack!” A crisp slash sounded.

As the shell passed by him, Ruan Changhong’s whole arm was directly sliced off!

“Aargh—” A heart-wrenching scream was heard.

Seeing this, the people from the Southeast Region didn’t dare to stay any longer. They didn’t even have the courage to think about revenge, for the impression John Doe gave them, was too powerful. They hurriedly escorted Ruan Changhong away.

“John Doe, I’ll definitely kill you!!!” After boarding the boat, Ruan Changhong’s loud roar, amidst the crowd, could be heard.

“Humph!” Fang Qiu sneered and said to him, “Tell your people this. Anyone who dares to set foot on the Huaxia coastline shall be killed!”

His deafening voice with its tremendous sound waves, rolled across the sea and even stirred up strong waves, which was extremely remarkable!

When the people from the Southeast Region witnessed this, they hastily started the boat and fled.

If they still stayed there, the boat would probably be overturned by the waves!

Observing the opponents escaping in a panic, all the people in Huaxia were overjoyed. They whistled and laughed at their defeat.

Then they shouted in unison.

“John Doe!”

“John Doe!”

“John Doe!”

Everyone raised their arms and cheered at the same time.

If it weren’t for John Doe’s timely appearance, they would have been the ones who were fleeing now.

If that were the case, not only could they not avenge the fishermen, but even the island that belonged to Huaxia would be occupied by others.

The presence of John Doe prevented them from being bullied by foreigners in their country.

He helped them vent their anger!

Listening to the shouts of the crowd, Fang Qiu smiled and reached out his hand to motion for everyone to stop.

“Guys, I have something to say,” Fang Qiu said.

Only then did the crowd stop cheering.

Fang Qiu looked at everyone and said, “Guys, I came here for two things. The first thing is to solve this dispute and avenge those innocent fishermen. The second thing is to get the Heaven Treasure.”

“Now, the first thing has been done. I also hope that you will not fight anymore. I want this Heaven Treasure!”

His voice was rather low, but what he said was deterring.

Fang Qiu did not beat around the bush. He only wanted the Heaven Treasure.

Everyone was stunned.

However, none of them said anything.

They also wanted the Heaven Treasure, but if it were not for John Doe, they could not even have kept the Heaven Treasure.

Therefore, they had no objection to John Doe asking for the Heaven Treasure!

Seeing that no one objected, Fang Qiu nodded.

He then came to the nine people led by He Gaoming, who were lying and panting heavily at the edge of the crowd.

“Get up and come with me.” Fang Qiu shouted at the nine people.

He didn’t care about what the other Huaxia martial arts practitioners wanted to do anymore. Now that the matter had been settled, he would let them decide what their next course of action would be.

He Gaoming swiftly rose to his feet.

The eight people led by Liang Fen immediately struggled to stand up.

Behind Fang Qiu, He Gaoming asked, “Master, this island is so small. Where are we going?”

Fang Qiu replied, “Continue to practice the moves.”

“What?” When he heard that, He Gaoming’s expression changed instantly. He asked, “No way. Again?”

Fang Qiu said, “If you want to make a breakthrough, you have to break your original limit. That’s a real breakthrough!”

Everyone wailed, but then the image of Fang Qiu coming down from the helicopter and the battle that just took place appeared in their minds.

Eager to increase their strength, they could only grit their teeth and persevere.

Under Fang Qiu’s supervision, the group of people continued to practice hard.

“Haha.” But when they were halfway through the practice, He Gaoming suddenly burst out laughing and immediately stepped out from the team. He sat cross-legged on the beach. After a while, he successfully broke through and became a fourth-class Martial Superior.

But as soon as he broke through, Liang Fen also got up excitedly from the cultivation team. Like He Gaoming, he sat cross-legged on the ground and broke through to the third class.

After Liang Fen, there was another one who broke through successfully.

The group of people made continuous breakthroughs, which shocked the other Wulin people who were observing the island from a distance!

“What the f*ck? Did they just make a breakthrough like that?”

“Although they are third-class and fourth-class Martial Superiors, isn’t it too easy for them to make such a breakthrough?”

“How did they do it?”

Before anyone could react, the fourth and fifth persons also made breakthroughs.

“Another two?”

“D*mn it, how could they break through continuously? They are like firecrackers, aren’t they? They just broke through one after another.”

More and more Wulin people gathered around them.

They were all dumbfounded by the breakthroughs of this group of people.

They clearly perceived that the strongest among them was at the peak of the third class, and the rest were at the second class. But in the blink of an eye, He Gaoming, who had been at the peak of the third class, reached the fourth class, and four second-class Martial Superiors also broke through to the third class.

It seemed extremely easy for them to break through.

“I’m coming! I’m coming!” Someone shouted in excitement. The sixth and the seventh persons also ran out, sat down, and broke through.

All the people present were stunned.

“Damn, is it really so easy to break through?”

When all the nine people led by He Gaoming broke through, the whole place fell silent. No one could imagine this, which was incredible.

It was a miracle!

No one would believe it even if they told others this.

If they hadn’t seen it with their own eyes, they would slap those who told them this in the face and say that they were dreaming!

The other Wulin people watched enviously as these people continued to cultivate.

The slowly gathering crowd of people from Wulin began to whisper.

“Are these people brought by John Doe?”

“Is it so easy to break through with John Doe?”

“That’s amazing. Just now, John Doe was watching them cultivate.”

“I’ve heard that John Doe could easily guide people to make a breakthrough, but I didn’t expect that it would be so effortless. John Doe is really incredible!”

“What do you think about asking John Doe to give us some guidance?”

As soon as someone proposed that, the whole place fell silent.

They looked at each other and could see the desire in each other’s eyes. They were extremely tempted.

But no one had the nerve to ask John Doe for that.

After a while, a girl bit her lower lip. With a trace of determination in her eyes, she moved timidly to Fang Qiu’s side.

The girl looked at Fang Qiu and asked softly, “Senior... Senior John Doe, can you give us some guidance? We also want to improve our strength.”

Fang Qiu turned to look at the girl in confusion.

The girl quickly said, “Senior, the people from the Southeast Region will definitely come again. If we can improve our strength, we can do a better job in assisting you.”

Fang Qiu looked at her and then turned around. He found that everyone was looking at him expectantly.

He pondered about it and then nodded.

“Okay.” They were all Huaxia people, and at such a critical moment, it was time for them to help each other even if he didn’t need their assistance.

When she heard Fang Qiu agreeing to her request, the girl was surprised and excited.

The eyes of the other people also lit up with joy.

It was so fortunate for them to receive instructions from the top expert among the younger generation in Wulin!

“Okay.” Fang Qiu looked at everyone and said, “Anyone who wants to improve can show me your own moves.”

When they heard that, the hundred or more Wulin people present were all stunned.

Was he going to instruct over 100 people at the same time? Could he cover all of them?

Although they had doubts in their hearts, they found a relatively flat open space and began to practice martial arts together.

Everyone was practicing.

Fang Qiu merely stood in front of them and didn’t make any moves.

“Stop!” Five minutes later, Fang Qiu suddenly asked them to stop.

Everyone stopped and looked at Fang Qiu in confusion.

They were baffled that John Doe had asked them to perform martial arts together. After all, there were so many people practicing martial arts together. Could John Doe watch each of one clearly?

Moreover, they had only practiced for five minutes. Why did he ask them to stop?

Just as everyone was feeling confused, Fang Qiu walked to the first person.

“You should be practicing the palm technique. Although it is ethereal and agile, something is missing in every move you just made, which leads to insufficient strength. If you want to change it, you must not only control your own strength but also control the strength given by your body. The power should be raised from your waist to your hand. The better body coordination can greatly improve your strength.”

After that, Fang Qiu went straight to the second person and said, “You are practicing leg techniques. You’re strong but lack flexibility...”

Just as Fang Qiu was talking to the second person, the first person had begun to specifically change and practice according to what Fang Qiu said.

With this change, he found that the power of his palm technique truly improved greatly!

“Senior John Doe, thank you.”

Seeing that Fang Qiu had finished speaking to the second person, the first person was extremely thrilled and immediately made a fist salute to express his gratitude.

Medical Master

Chapter 863: The Fighters Coming!

Seeing that Fang Qiu’s guidance truly worked, the second person also began to practice according to Fang Qiu’s instructions.

Sure enough, he found that the power of his martial arts had increased a lot.

This discovery immediately thrilled the second person and he hastily executed his fist salute.

“Thank you for your guidance, sir!”

It instantly made everyone else jealous.

“It worked!”

“Doesn’t this mean that I can also improve?!”

“Sir, give me some advice, please!”

Also, while waiting for Fang Qiu’s guidance, these people were deeply shocked.

“John Doe, you really live up to your reputation!”

“How could he perceive things that even our elders couldn’t see through?”

“Just like the legend says, Senior John Doe is truly remarkable. With only a little guidance, he can help us make so much progress!”

Beyond doubt, everyone was amazed, but they were also expectant.

While the others were in a state of shock, Fang Qiu had begun to guide the third and fourth persons.

After the guidance, their skills improved quickly. This time, everyone was more confident and more enthusiastic about Fang Qiu.

After all, it was not a big deal to help one person get promoted. But helping everyone here to get promoted meant that he was truly capable.

Under everyone's shocked and expectant gazes, Fang Qiu continued to give them instructions.

When it came to the tenth person, Fang Qiu didn't say anything. Instead, he stood in front of the man and studied him. Then he frowned and reached to tap at an acupuncture point in one of his meridians, unexpectedly.

The person who was hit suddenly trembled, and then his eyes narrowed.

He looked at Fang Qiu in disbelief.

Before everyone could understand what was going on, the man's stunned expression was instantly replaced by ecstasy.

"Haha, I made a breakthrough!" Hearing the man's laughter, everyone was stunned.

"D*mn!"

"Are you kidding me?"

"Is a simple tap enough to allow someone to make a breakthrough?"

"Thank you! Thank you! Thank you, Senior John Doe!"

After a burst of surprised laughter, the man immediately bowed seriously to Fang Qiu and said excitedly, "To tell you the truth, I have been stuck at the peak of the fourth class for a long time. I've tried my best to break through to the fifth class, but I couldn't figure out why I kept failing. I didn't expect that Senior John Doe would help me to solve it today. I have no way to repay such a big favor. If you have any requests in the future, I will definitely do my best to help you!"

"You're welcome. It's no big deal," Fang Qiu said with a smile. "You're so close, but you had a hidden disease here, so you could not make a breakthrough due to the blockage of your meridian."

“Thank you.” The man named Li Boqing bowed again to express his gratitude.

As for John Doe, it might be a small favor. However, for him, it was of vital importance because he could be stuck at this stage for the rest of his life!

How could he not be grateful?

Fang Qiu beamed and continued to the next person.

The 11th martial arts practitioner asked in great excitement, “Senior John Doe, do you think I also have a blockage?”

Fang Qiu was speechless.

“Don’t worry. Take your time.” Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and told him where he needed to improve.

He continued to walk to the next person and gave instructions.

He Gaoming and the others had also completed their breakthroughs and sat cross-legged in cultivation, thoroughly strengthening their power.

All nine of them woke up.

“He Gaoming, I believe what you said earlier.”

When he saw Fang Qiu instructing the others, Liang Fen said, “I think even if a guru comes, he may be defeated by Senior John Doe!”

“Of course.” He Gaoming immediately raised his head proudly and stated, “I had a good eye back then. When my master was simply a nobody, I already stuck by him!”

Although all the eight people laughed out loud, they were extremely envious at heart.

Even if he was not an official disciple, he was exceptionally lucky to have a master like John Doe!

Not everyone had the luck to know such a master when they just started on this path.

Soon, Fang Qiu finished instructing more than 100 people.

Everyone who had received his instructions made significant progress.

Everyone was grateful to Fang Qiu.

They all cupped their hands to express their gratitude.

“Well, you can continue to practice. Maybe you can still improve,” Fang Qiu said with a smile.

Everyone laughed and proceeded to do their cultivation.

Fang Qiu watched them for a while before he walked toward the Heaven Treasure.

After getting on this island, he hadn’t had time to check this Heaven Treasure.

It was only now that he had the time to take a closer look.

“No.10 on the Heaven Treasure List—Cyan Dragon Lock!”

Ruan Changhong tried to destroy the Heaven Treasure before, so Fang Qiu clearly knew that the Heaven Treasure was growing in an open space in the center of the island.

Different from other Heaven Treasures, the growth place of the Cyan Dragon Lock was a bare sandy spot with a radius of one meter. The Cyan Dragon Lock grew in the center. Various kinds of grass grew within a radius of one meter of the spot.

However, the grass was not thick, so he could see the Cyan Dragon Lock at a glance.

Cyan Dragon Lock was shaped like a pillar carved with a dragon.

It was a slightly hard plant with a jade-like appearance. It was only the height of a thumb and looked like a small jade pillar. However, this pillar had a green vine plant like a dragon entwined around it.

It was also because of its pattern that it was named the Cyan Dragon Lock.

Right now, the entire Cyan Dragon Lock looked slightly cyan in color.

According to the Scroll of Heaven and Earth Treasures, when the Cyan Dragon Lock matured, the jade pillar would turn into a transparent golden jade, and the surrounding cyan dragon would also completely reveal an olive green color.

Now it seemed that it was still too early for the Cyan Dragon Lock to mature.

“At this rate of growth, there are four days before the Cyan Dragon Lock matures. No wonder everyone was so restrained before,” Fang Qiu murmured to himself. Then he glanced around and suddenly frowned.

Something was amiss!

“Where did its guardian beast go?

“Normally, there should be a very powerful guardian beast in the place where the Cyan Dragon Lock appears. After all, this is the Heaven Treasure which ranked 10th on the list.

“It’s impossible for the beast to be killed by someone. There is no trace of fighting, and it can’t vanish for no reason.

“Looks like I have to be careful!” Fang Qiu looked around and said to himself.

After checking the Heaven Treasure, Fang Qiu returned to the crowd of martial arts practitioners and began to sit cross-legged to recuperate.

He knew that this was a Heaven Treasure. Whether it was for revenge or for the Heaven Treasure, Ruan Changhong would not just simply let it go.

If he learned that it was the 10th Heaven Treasure, he might go even crazier.

In the next four days, Fang Qiu would feel like skating on thin ice.

He had to be in his best condition.

In the evening, the sea breeze blew gently and the moon was high in the sky.

After everyone had rested, Fang Qiu, who was sitting cross-legged and recovering, suddenly opened his eyes and looked up at the sky.

A fighter actually appeared in the sky!

Due to the high altitude, no one could hear the sound of the fighter.

“Wake up!!” Fang Qiu shouted.

On the island, all the people who had fallen asleep were instantly awakened.

They all stood up swiftly and vigilantly.

“Nothing’s happening?” Everyone turned to look at Fang Qiu, and their faces were full of doubts.

Looking at Fang Qiu, they noticed that he was looking up at the sky.

Could there be something happening in the sky?

Everyone immediately looked up at the sky.

Due to the sea breeze, there were very few clouds in the sky. The moon seemed round and huge. As martial arts practitioners, everyone had incredible eyesight.

After they looked up, they saw a wide expanse of the sky.

The sound of the plane finally reached their ears.

However, the sound was obviously not in sync with the plane, because the sound seemed to be slower.

The fighter was obviously not the standard fighter from Huaxia.

Then there was only one possibility!

It belonged to the enemy!

Everyone was startled!

“D*mn it, they actually sent out a fighter jet?”

“Aren’t they too shameless?”

“This is our sea. How dare they send a fighter to our territory?”

“This is f*cking invasion!”

Everyone started cursing.

But meanwhile, they were a little flustered.

After all, this was a fighter. If the island was set as a bombing target, wouldn’t everyone die here?

“Everyone, go down into the sea! Leave this island!” Fang Qiu said loudly.

He then looked up at the sky and whispered, “Leave this to me.”

“Go down to the sea?”

Everyone’s eyes suddenly lit up. “Right! Go down to the sea. The missile can’t hit us.”

But they couldn’t leave John Doe alone on the island!

He just gave them some instructions on how to improve their cultivation in the afternoon!

They naturally knew what John Doe meant.

They wanted to stay, resist and protect the Heaven Treasure!

“No!” One of them stood up and said, “Even if it’s a fighter, so what? We are Huaxia people, and this is our territory. Senior John Doe, we will face it with you! Even if we’ll go down to the sea, we will go down together. Senior, human power is limited. Don’t fight it all alone! I know you are doing this for the Heaven Treasure, but it doesn’t matter if you lose the Heaven Treasure. Your life is much more important!”

“Yes!”

“Let’s go down to the sea together! You’ll still have lots of chances if you are alive! Leave the Heaven Treasure here!”

Everyone tried to persuade him.

“Thank you, but this time, you can’t face it. It’s not only for the Heaven Treasure, but also for our territory. I will not allow anyone to blow it up!”

Fang Qiu shouted again, “Get into the sea, all of you!”

Protecting the territory?

Everyone was stunned. They didn’t expect that John Doe was not simply staying here for the Heaven Treasure!

They were also from Huaxia, so they couldn’t leave either!

“If you don’t leave, neither will we!”

“No, we won’t leave! Huaxia is also ours. We have a duty to protect it!”

Everyone shouted, unwilling to go down to the sea.

In fact, they were using themselves to force John Doe. They didn't want John Doe to risk his life recklessly for the Heaven Treasure.

Seeing that no one was listening to him, Fang Qiu rapidly turned to He Gaoming and the others and said, "You guys, go into the sea. Your staying here will only be a hindrance to me."

He Gaoming frowned, hesitated for a moment, and asked, "Master, can you resist it?"

"Yes!" Fang Qiu nodded with certainty.

"Okay, let's go down to the sea!" He Gaoming immediately gritted his teeth and ordered the people. He knew John Doe well. Since he said he could, he would definitely do it.

He immediately turned to the eight people beside him and said loudly, "We can't let our presence affect our master. He is confident that he can handle it. If he fails to do it because of us, the Heaven Treasure will be destroyed and the territory will also be blown up. We will not be able to face our master and will become the sinners of Huaxia. We can't afford to have this consequence. Let's go down to the sea!"

The eight of them hesitated for a moment and then decisively followed He Gaoming to the sea.

Medical Master

Chapter 864: A Shocking Arrow!

The people around were watching them.

They knew that He Gaoming's words were obviously meant for them.

They could do nothing when confronting the fighter. They wouldn't be able to help John Doe and were likely to drag him down if they stayed here.

Everyone fell silent.

“Get into the sea. The plane is coming soon!” Fang Qiu said again.

All the people gritted their teeth, executed fist salutes to Fang Qiu, and turned to jump into the sea.

Although they didn’t know how John Doe was going to fight against the fighter physically, they believed in him since he had said so!

They swam away about a kilometer away from the island and stuck their heads out to look at Fang Qiu, who stood alone on the island.

On the island, Fang Qiu merely raised his head to stare at the fighter jet.

It was easy for him to evade its attack, but he couldn’t hide for the sake of the Heaven Treasure!

It was imperative that he protect this territory, so he could not go into hiding.

They had to blow up this place over his dead body!

He did not expect that they would send a fighter!

It was obvious that they were going all out in their battle with Huaxia!

“Since you are here to invade our place, then there’s no way you can go back!” Fang Qiu stared coldly at the approaching fighter.

He was a little surprised at Ruan Changhong’s authority, that he had fighters from his country at his disposal.

It seemed that he had a powerful background!

In a military base beside a harbor in Southern Yue, a young man with a pale face and whose bandaged arm was stained with blood, asked, "Has it reached its destination?"

This man was none other than Ruan Changhong.

His eyes were imbued with hatred!

Beside Ruan Changhong, a man in a military uniform replied, "It has arrived at the designated spot. We can attack at any time."

"Humph!" Ruan Changhong snorted with anger and gritted his teeth. He said viciously, "John Doe, I want you dead!"

"Then I'll take your body and feed it to the dogs. I'll also make a movie to let the Huaxia Wulin see what will happen if you offend me!"

His sullen face suddenly became ferocious.

"Attack!!!" Ruan Changhong waved his hand and roared!

"Yes, sir!"

On the island, Fang Qiu could clearly see two guided missiles which were under the fighter in the sky, suddenly shooting out.

"It's coming!" Fang Qiu's eyes blazed menacingly, and his Qi power erupted.

His strength in the Guru Realm appeared!

“Swoosh!” In a flash, he rushed directly to a boulder that weighed about one ton on the shore. His entire body’s internal Qi surged as he lifted the boulder.

“Go!” With a shout, he channeled his internal Qi and hurled the boulder directly at the approaching guided missile!

Everyone in the sea was stunned by the scene in front of them.

There was only one question in their minds. “Is he even human?”

“Boom...” There was a huge explosion that echoed in the air above the island.

Like a magnificent firework, the boulder soared into the sky and instantly exploded into countless pieces under the impact of the collision with the guided missile. The ensuing debris scattered in all directions and rained down on the shore.

In the sky, flames erupted.

A rain of gravel fell.

The terrifying explosion caused by the missile’s collision with the boulder formed a powerful storm cloud which rolled over the island.

Fang Qiu stood where he was and looked up coldly at the fighter in the sky, simply watching the aftermath of the strong impact and the debris raining upon the ground.

With the protection of internal Qi, he was not afraid of the explosion.

Although he could bear it, his clothes couldn’t. As the gravel rained down, his clothes were shredded.

It took a while for the crowd a kilometer away to recover from the shock.

They still couldn't believe what they had just seen.

"What did I just see?"

"It's amazing! Senior John Doe fought single handedly against the guided missile."

"How is this possible? How could Senior John Doe be so powerful?"

"The impact of the guided missile is destructive. If it were an ordinary stone, the missile would even directly penetrate it and then explode, but the missile obviously exploded the moment it collided with the boulder."

"In other words, the force of that boulder completely blocked the guided missile!"

"The impact of the guided missile had to be very strong as it was coming down from the sky. The resistance from the boulder should be equally strong because it had to soar upward. In this case, it could actually block the guided missile."

Everyone was astounded by the striking power displayed by Fang Qiu!

This kind of power was totally beyond their imagination.

Not only the 100 plus Huaxia martial arts practitioners hiding in the sea, but also the pilot of the fighter in the sky jumped out of their skin!

"What? What happened? Why did it explode in the air?"

The pilot looked at the island below in shock and immediately contacted the command base.

The pilot immediately said, "Report! The guided missile was intercepted and exploded in midair! Should I relaunch?"

"Fire! Fire instantly!!" In the base, Ruan Changhong, who had lost an arm, shouted with a ferocious face.

He was also startled.

It must be John Doe who intercepted the missile.

The only one on the island who could do that was John Doe!

But how did a human being manage to do that?

This tricky question directly drove Ruan Changhong into a state of madness.

He couldn't believe it!

How could John Doe do this?

"How?"

On the island, Fang Qiu stared at the fighter in the sky.

When he received the order, the pilot did not hesitate and immediately pressed the firing button!

"Swish!" The second missile shot out with a harsh sound and darted toward the island.

Fang Qiu did the same thing.

With a loud roar, he raised another boulder and threw it at the guided missile falling from the sky.

“Bang!” Another huge explosion sounded.

In the sky, sparks flew off in all directions.

Under the onslaught of the falling gravel from the second attack, Fang Qiu’s clothes became even more tattered.

The people in the sea, who had tried their best to get a clear view this time, finally saw what happened.

They were far more amazed and exhilarated this time round!

“Great!”

“Amazing!!!”

“Awesome, John Doe!”

The people applauded and finally understood why John Doe wanted them to leave the island.

He could indeed resist it by himself, but all they could do was to stay on the island and watch. What was worse, they needed John Doe’s protection and they would definitely drag him down.

Fortunately, they had not insisted on staying on the island!

The pilot in the sky also saw distinctly what happened this time.

However, he was scared out of his wits!

The moment he saw it, he almost made a mistake and caused the plane to fail!

“Did a man actually pick up a boulder and smash the missile?”

“How is this possible?”

He hurriedly reported.

“What? Say it again!” In the military base at the border of Southern Yue, Ruan Changhong’s infuriated voice rang out in the command base.

“Report! The second missile has been intercepted again.” The pilot’s stuttering voice sounded through the communication device in the command room.

“No way! He couldn’t have blocked it. It’s impossible!”

Ruan Changhong’s face looked ferocious.

“How did he do it?”

“He... He picked up a boulder and threw it directly at the missile.”

At this, the whole command room instantly fell silent.

“Brought it down with a boulder?”

No one could believe what they had heard.

How was this possible?

Ruan Changhong believed it, but the stronger John Doe was, the greater his hatred grew.

His face looked extremely fierce. He grabbed the communication device on the command platform and roared, "Is the guided missile useless? Then descend, lower your altitude and shoot him to death! Shoot him to death!"

"Yes, sir!" the pilot immediately answered.

Although he didn't want to confront the man below, the military order was unquestionable, so he had to brace himself to do it.

As he flew the fighter, he began to lower the flight altitude. He dived to an altitude of 100 meters from the ground and immediately fired at the island.

"Bang, bang, bang..." The sound of bullets rang out like hail dropping down.

"Humph!" On the island, Fang Qiu snorted coldly. A surge of internal Qi erupted and directly condensed into a layer of internal Qi shield around him, blocking all the bullets.

"As I said, anyone who is not from Huaxia and dares to step into this area will die!"

Staring at the fighter, he roared furiously, "How dare you invade our territory! Don't think about leaving since you're here!"

He shouted loudly.

His internal Qi surged.

“Great Hand of Destruction!” He shouted to himself.

All the surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth gathered into a mass. Under his control, it directly scooped up the seawater and rose into the air, forming a beautiful arc and condensing into a huge bow above Fang Qiu’s head.

It looked extremely beautiful under the moonlight!

The seawater was still flowing even as it condensed into a bow.

Under the force of the Internal Qi, the seawater did not scatter at all.

All the people in the sea stiffened in shock. Their mouths were wide open and they were completely dumbfounded.

When the giant bow was formed, Fang Qiu moved his hands and pulled in the air directly under the protection of the internal Qi shield.

The huge bow formed by water was immediately pulled to extremes. When the bowstring was drawn, a burst of powerful Qi of Heaven and Earth around it flowed over, with the seawater forming a sharp arrow on this huge bow!

The moment the bow was fully pulled, a sharp arrow was formed!

The powerful pressure directly awakened everyone in the sea.

Everyone quickly moved into the sea. They were so shocked that they almost choked on the water.

When they came to a stop, they looked up in amazement!

“It’s so powerful. I can’t even breathe from the pressure.”

“Amazing. How could a human do this?”

“Oh my. Am I dreaming?”

Everyone gazed at Fang Qiu with reverence in their eyes, because the power he showed was certainly overpowering and unbelievable. He was like an immortal!

“Poseidon! He’s Poseidon! Ah, ah...” In the cockpit of the fighter, the pilot was seriously frightened by the bow and arrow that suddenly appeared and were condensed by the enormous seawater.

He had never seen such a terrifying thing.

When he saw the arrow formed by enormous seawater coming toward him, he was so scared that his face turned ashen.

The horrifying roar was transmitted through the communication device.

“Swish!” The sharp arrow formed by the seawater immediately flew out of the bow. It moved at such a blindingly fast speed that no one could see it. As soon as it left the bowstring, it pierced through the fighter which was hundreds of meters above in an instant!

“Boom...”

A huge explosion instantly echoed between heaven and earth.

The fighter exploded and turned into a huge fireball and dropped from the sky.

At last, it fell into the sea.

Then the entire place became deathly silent.

The moonlight still looked the same, pure and bright, as if nothing had taken place.

Chapter 865: Scared to Death!

On the sea one kilometer away from the island, over 100 people were so astounded by this scene that they couldn't speak for some time.

They felt that they would never forget what had just happened, which was too shocking.

John Doe's image was deeply imprinted in their minds like an immortal.

Most of them had only heard of how powerful John Doe was, but they had never witnessed it with their own eyes. Even though they learned that Fang Qiu cut off Yun Yangzi's Heaven-slashing Sword with one palm, they still couldn't imagine how extraordinary Fang Qiu was.

But now, seeing this scene in front of them, they finally comprehended.

What was the real No.1?

They finally realized why John Doe could defeat Yun Yangzi, and why Yun Yangzi was convinced of his defeat!

It was all because of John Doe's unquestionable strength!

At this very moment, everyone deemed that he was the best among the younger generation in Huaxia Wulin. John Doe truly lived up to his reputation!

While everyone in the sea was amazed by Fang Qiu's incredible strength, He Gaoming's eyes flashed with deep worry.

This destructive move must have consumed an enormous amount of John Doe's energy.

Right now, the Heaven Treasure was here and numerous martial arts practitioners were here too. If they took advantage of this situation...

He was not overthinking. As a detective, he had seen all kinds of corruption in the human nature.

"Let's go." He immediately shouted at the eight people beside him, and then rapidly rushed to the island.

After dashing to the coast, the group of people immediately rushed over to hold Fang Qiu, who was by now, feeling a bit weak.

"Whew..." Fang Qiu gasped.

That move had truly exhausted all his internal Qi and mental power!

The Great Hand of Destruction needed a lot of spiritual energy. In addition, Fang Qiu had to use his spiritual force to control the condensed seawater, which made the consumption even greater.

The arrow not only contained the Qi of Heaven and Earth, but also his internal Qi.

Fortunately, he succeeded.

"Pitter-patter..." At this moment, hurried footsteps could be heard.

The other Huaxia martial arts practitioners also returned to the island, one after another. No one spoke. They just stood right in front of Fang Qiu, He Gaoming, and the others, as if they were on the opposite side.

He Gaoming immediately frowned when he saw this.

He looked gloomily at everyone and snorted, "Anyone who wants to fight, come at me!"

Everyone was stunned and then fell silent when they heard that.

Truth be told, the moment they saw that Fang Qiu had to be supported due to his weak state, most of them subconsciously looked at the Heaven Treasure.

That was the Cyan Dragon Lock!

A super Heaven Treasure ranked 10th on the Heaven Treasure List, which could help a seventh-class Martial Superior open two more meridians. For those below the seventh class, it would not be a problem for them to improve by one class.

It was a pity that their cell phones had no signal, so they couldn't send messages to people in Huaxia. Otherwise, it would be great for the forces behind them to send someone to fight for it!

Although Fang Qiu had guided them before, could Fang Qiu's little advice be compared to the Cyan Dragon Lock?

Obviously not!

Therefore, they all wanted to seize the Heaven Treasure, and this was the best time for them to take action.

However, when they walked toward Fang Qiu, they all stopped.

Who dared to make a move?

Who could bear to do it?

They were all aware that without Fang Qiu's help, they would have been blown into pieces by the missiles of the fighter.

They would likely be killed by the martial arts practitioners from the Southeast Region led by Ruan Changhong during the day!

In the face of such a savior and a guardian of their homeland, how could they attack him?

Just like that, the two sides began to stare at each other.

There was complete silence.

Fang Qiu had a smile on his face and did not speak.

"Hey, what are you talking about?" In the opposite crowd, a sturdy man suddenly shouted and stood out, breaking the silence. He shouted at He Gaoming, "Am I that kind of man? I admire John Doe. He gave me some advice. I'll fight whoever dares to attack John Doe to the death!"

After that, he rapidly swept over all the martial arts practitioners.

"I don't believe it. You just received a favor from John Doe in the afternoon and were saved by his warning. Now that he is weak, you're planning to attack him. Are you still humane?"

The middle-aged man, who was guided by Fang Qiu and instantly became a fifth-class Martial Superior in the afternoon, also stood up and said, "You can fight with John Doe over my dead body!"

There were several people coming out in succession because they couldn't bear to attack John Doe at this moment. Besides, he had people backing him up, so it was too late for them to do anything.

It was justifiable for John Doe to get the Cyan Dragon Lock. After all, he had earned it with his life and strength.

In the end, everyone jumped out righteously from the opposite side and stood on the same side as Fang Qiu.

"Thank you, everyone." Seeing that they were getting righteous, He Gaoming breathed a sigh of relief. It was such a close call.

If someone decided to fight them, the nine of them were definitely no match for the people here. Fortunately, everyone had a good conscience.

He immediately cupped his hands gratefully to the crowd, and then brought Fang Qiu to the high ground on the other side.

With He Gaoming's help, Fang Qiu glanced at everyone with a gratified smile.

Sure enough, no one took action.

Although the battle just now had made him lose all his internal Qi, he, Fang Qiu, was not someone who could be defeated easily.

The military base on the border of Southern Yue was silent at this time.

"Poseidon. He's Poseidon...."

"Aargh..."

“Boom!”

The shocking words of the pilot rang out in the command room. Then, a scream was heard, accompanied by a huge explosion.

The communication device was suddenly disconnected.

There was nothing left, and they couldn't hear anything else.

The recording had been played over and over again, and every time it was played, everyone became even more depressed.

They couldn't imagine how one person could fight against a fighter.

That was an actual fighter!

But it was destroyed by a man with his bare hands!

How did this happen?

“Who the hell is he?”

Not only the military officers in the command room looked gloomy, but Ruan Changhong, who had been sitting in front of the command desk, suddenly turned pale!

“No, no...

“How did he do it? How could he do it?

“He’s a man. No matter how strong he is, he’s just a human made of flesh and blood. How did he manage to do it? How could he even knock down a fighter?”

“Is he human?”

“Is he still human?”

Suddenly, Ruan Changhong was a little scared.

He had faced an unimaginably powerful enemy!

He couldn’t imagine how strong a person must be to be able to do such a terrifying act as shooting down a fighter.

What John Doe confronted was not only the fighter but also the two guided missiles and the high-speed machine guns with terrifying shooting speed and penetrating power!

Not only did he manage to resist these two kinds of powerful weapons, but he also shot down the fighter.

What kind of power was this?

Other people might not understand.

However, Ruan Changhong, who had the strength of an eighth-class Martial Superior with three opened meridians, knew it quite well.

He couldn’t do it, and no one he knew could do it!

Such a powerful person became his mortal enemy.

“What if he comes to kill me?” When he thought of this, Ruan Changhong’s body trembled slightly.

“No! No! He must die!” Ruan Changhong’s face turned ferocious again in an instant, which was extremely scary.

He and John Doe had reached the point where they would fight each other to the death. John Doe must have figured out that he was the one who had sent the fighter.

Therefore, as long as John Doe was alive, his safety could not be guaranteed!

If he wanted to live, John Doe had to die!

He was unable to kill John Doe, and even the fighter failed to kill John Doe. What should he do?

Could he use long-range guided missiles?

He immediately banished this thought. The impact was too serious, which was not something he could handle at all.

“What should I do? What should I do?” Ruan Changhong clutched his hair tightly with his remaining hand. He pondered it for a while with a ferocious and panicky look and then he suddenly raised his head.

“Right! Bounty! I can put a bounty on his head!

“Since I can’t kill him, I can post a reward and get someone else to kill him!!”

The people in the military were baffled after the shock.

Their country had lost a fighter because of this. How were they going to report this to the government?

Ruan Changhong didn't care about it at all.

He seemed to have gone crazy.

He rose to his feet and rushed out immediately.

On the island, He Gaoming helped Fang Qiu to the grass beside the Cyan Dragon Lock so that he could sit cross-legged and start his recovery.

After all, this was the place where the Cyan Dragon Lock grew.

It was the growth place of the Heaven Treasure ranked 10th. The surrounding Qi of Heaven and Earth was much stronger than it was in other places. Therefore, it was undoubtedly the best place for Fang Qiu's recuperation!

Fang Qiu started his recovery process.

He Gaoming and the other eight people surrounded Fang Qiu and guarded him.

Of course, Fang Qiu was also keeping an eye on the surroundings. He knew that there would be more intense battles in the next few days, so he had to recover as soon as possible.

However, he was not afraid at all. On the contrary, he was extremely looking forward to it.

What he needed was a battle, a breakthrough!

"What's going on?" In Huaxia, Li Ji received a report call.

“Our radar detected a fighter from Southern Yue invading our country’s territory. When our fighter was about to take off and intercept it, we found that their fighter suddenly disappeared.” The person on the other end of the line reported.

“Location?” Li Ji instantly asked. The invasion of fighters was not part of his responsibilities. Since this matter had been reported to him, there must be a reason.

“I’ve sent you the coordinates.” Li Ji looked at the computer in the military base and saw the precise coordinates.

“Hmm?” Li Ji’s eyes widened and he was amazed.

Wasn’t this the island where the Heaven Treasure grew?

Li Ji hurriedly said, “Tell me the details.”

“It’s certain that the fighter of Southern Yue did intrude into our country’s territory, but it’s also confirmed that the fighter didn’t fly back. It’s very likely that it was struck down,” the person on the other end of the line said.

“What?!” Li Ji exclaimed when he heard this.

He thought to himself, “A fighter plane was brought down? There were no lethal weapons on that island! And no garrison around! It was shot down just like that. How was this possible? Was it Fang Qiu? Did Fang Qiu strike it?”

The person on the other end of the phone continued. “One more thing. According to the radar report, the fighter from Southern Yue fired two guided missiles, but they were all intercepted halfway and did not cause any harm to our territory.”

“Hiss—” Li Ji gasped.

Were the two guided missiles intercepted?

He immediately came to this conclusion.

It must be Fang Qiu!

On that island, the strongest one was Fang Qiu. Even if the others worked together, they could not resist the attack of a missile.

If someone could do it, it must be Fang Qiu.

“However, could Fang Qiu really block two missiles and even shoot down the fighter? Is, is he still a human? Is this his true capability?” The more Li Ji thought about it, the more shocked he became.

Every time, he thought he had already comprehended Fang Qiu’s real strength, Fang Qiu’s every performance would completely overthrow his guess.

What else could he say?

“Fang Qiu is incredibly powerful!”

It was true that his strength was equivalent to that of a nuclear weapon.

When Li Ji thought that a man managed to bring down a fighter by himself, he felt exhilarated. He wished that he could have been there at that time!

Meanwhile, the issuance of a bounty suddenly caused a stir among the underground forces in the world.

Medical Master

Chapter 866: A Bounty Hunting Mission With Handsome Reward!

“Top bounty hunting mission: Slay John Doe from Huaxia!”

“Reward: 300 million dollars!”

This mission appeared strikingly in the Black Market of killers, which was a forum gathering all the underground forces in the world.

No sooner had the bounty hunting mission come out than it instantly drew the attention of all the underground forces in the world, for it was a huge sum of reward!

The world’s economy was slack now. 300 million dollars was a great deal!

The killers from all over the world went wild because of this.

However, they were curious about John Doe, whom they had never heard of before. How could there be such a high reward on his head?

Countless killers began to frantically search for John Doe’s information!

Fortunately, the bounty hunting mission had already provided them with John Doe’s current coordinates, so no one was anxious to find where he was. They only intended to search for his information to see if he could be easily killed!

In Southern Yue, while Ruan Changhong was looking at the killers who had gone crazy because of his bounty, he could not help but smile viciously.

He naturally knew what the Heaven Treasure on the island was and how valuable it was.

There were still a few days left for the Cyan Dragon Lock to mature, so he was certain that John Doe would not leave the island in these days. That was why he gave away his coordinates directly.

“You’re doomed, John Doe!” Ruan Changhong’s pale face looked ferocious.

Not long after, the killers, who were highly efficient, attained John Doe’s personal information.

“John Doe, the person who has risen in Huaxia Wulin in the past year, recently defeated Yun Yangzi, who ranked first on the Wulin Genius List, and was promoted to be the top expert among the younger generation in the Huaxia martial arts world.”

When they were reading this, quite a few killers frowned.

“Huaxia people? And he’s even a martial art practitioner in Huaxia. It’s not easy to deal with people in Huaxia Wulin!”

“Since John Doe can rise rapidly in Huaxia Wulin, it means that he must have something extraordinary.”

“It seems to be a difficult task!”

After learning about John Doe’s background, they began to scan through his strength evaluation.

John Doe: A-level!

Seeing this level, most people were astounded.

John Doe was indeed not an ordinary man. He was indeed worth 300 million dollars!

In this world, there were only a few people who could be assessed as A-level by the underground killer organization.

Although there was an S level above A level, the only ones who had killed A-level targets were the world's top three killers so far.

All three of them had the experience of fighting alone with A-level targets.

Except for them, no one could slay an A-level target.

However, they were not worried. The killers were simply killing people.

Now they were not in ancient times when people could only use cold weapons in combat, but an era when hot weapons were exploited.

Killing A-level targets didn't necessarily entail strong capacity.

Sometimes, a bomb could solve numerous problems.

Although they were intimidated by John Doe's strength assessment, many people were seriously lured by 300 million dollars. They began to prepare for winning this bounty!

300 million dollars was enough for most people to live a carefree life!

Anyway, if they couldn't kill him, they could still leave. Besides, if they didn't give it a try, how could they know that they couldn't do it?

They made up their minds to do it.

Many people looked at the coordinates and sneered.

On the island, nothing happened for an entire night.

Early the next morning, the sun rose from the surface of the sea, and the whole island was bathed in golden light.

With the assistance of the Cyan Dragon Lock, Fang Qiu's strength was eventually recovered after resting for a night.

The moment he opened his eyes, he happened to see the stunning view of the sunrise at the seaside. He could not help but smile.

He looked around.

He Gaoming and the other eight people were still guarding the surroundings. To ensure Fang Qiu's safety, the nine of them didn't sleep all night. They had been cautiously watching everything around them.

Fang Qiu stood up and said to He Gaoming and the others, "I'm all right now. Thank you for watching out for me."

"Master, what are you talking about?" He Gaoming suddenly relaxed. After remaining vigilant for the whole night, he was exhausted. He said with a smile, "You're my master. Of course, I have to look out for you."

"Yes, Senior John Doe, this is what we should do." The others also nodded with a smile.

Fang Qiu nodded with a smile and said, "Thank you. You guys can take a rest first. Leave the rest to me."

"Okay." The nine people didn't hesitate. They immediately nodded and found their own places to sit down and rest.

Fang Qiu was standing next to them and waiting for the nine people to sit cross-legged with their eyes closed. Then he walked straight to the gathering place of the other Huaxia martial arts practitioners.

On a grass with few trees in the center of the island, all the Huaxia martial arts practitioners were gathered here, and everyone took care of each other. Because they had been suppressed by the people of the Southeast Region several times before, they didn't have enough sense of security if they didn't gather together.

Seeing that Fang Qiu had fully recovered, everyone looked at him in awe.

The shock caused by John Doe last night was tremendous.

Now that they thought about it, they were still overwhelmed by amazement.

"Guys." Fang Qiu looked at everyone. He felt it necessary to tell them his speculation and the danger that was yet to come.

Hence, he said solemnly, "If I guess right, the fighter launching the raid last night was sent by the top expert in Southern Yue named Ruan Changhong. Since he failed to kill me last night, there will likely be a second wave and even the third wave of his attack. He may not stop until the Heaven Treasure on the island fully matures!"

Upon hearing this, everyone nodded with a stern expression.

What John Doe said was highly probable.

It was clear that the people of the Southeast Region were aiming at the Cyan Dragon Lock.

Even when Ruan Changhong was knocked down by John Doe, he once tried to destroy the immature Cyan Dragon Lock. It could be imagined how obsessive Ruan Changhong was about the Cyan Dragon Lock and John Doe. He had even mobilized a fighter here. No one knew what he would send next time. Maybe it would be a tank, a rocket, or something like that.

Thinking about it, they found that this man was outrageous!

Fang Qiu continued, "So, I can't guarantee your safety. Besides, it's no good for you to stay here. Instead, you'll put yourself in danger. So I suggest you leave as soon as possible and don't get involved again.

"If you have strong forces and people backing you up, go back and report to the forces behind you quickly. Tell them the situation here and tell them—no one can bully Huaxia people. Whoever does it will be our shared enemy!

"Our country has been cut off for too long!"

When they heard that they should go back, many people began to hesitate.

Should they simply leave like that?

Leaving here at this time would mean that the Heaven Treasure ranking the tenth would have nothing to do with them.

But as soon as this idea came up, they couldn't help laughing at themselves. They wouldn't get a chance to obtain it even if they stayed.

Who would be able to get it since a powerful figure like John Doe was here?

Even if they have the courage to fight for it, they wouldn't be able to get it.

Of course, compared with the struggles and feelings of people from many small forces, those who had great forces and powerful backgrounds quickly understood what Fang Qiu meant.

"Thank you, Senior John Doe." One of them stood up, cupped his hands to thank Fang Qiu, and then left directly.

People of other forces also stood up and thanked him before leaving.

They knew very well that there was no point in staying here.

It was impossible for them to snatch the Heaven Treasure from John Doe. Fighting with him was of little use. On the contrary, they would disturb John Doe.

They also needed to tell the forces behind them what had happened here, especially the appearance of the 10th Heaven Treasure and John Doe's amazing arrow!

Soon, more than half of the hundred people had left.

There were only a dozen left.

Among them, there were two acquaintances.

One of them was the sturdy man who had made a righteous speech for Fang Qiu last night. Although he looked vulgar and like a rough man living in a mountain village at first glance, he was upright.

The other one was the man who made a breakthrough after Fang Qiu tapped one of his meridians before. Last night, this middle-aged man was the second to come out. Although he was not as strong as the sturdy man, he was not much different. Moreover, he looked particularly heroic, although he was nearly 40 years old.

Fang Qiu didn't seem to be familiar with the rest of the people, for they didn't leave him with a deep impression.

Noticing that these people were not leaving, Fang Qiu turned to look at them in confusion.

"Don't look at me. I'm not leaving." The sturdy man touched his head and stated firmly, "I will repay you for your kindness. You helped me make a breakthrough. I have to return the favor by staying to help you. So you don't have to worry about me. I can die, but I can't owe you a favor!"

"You've already returned it yesterday," replied Fang Qiu.

“Not enough!” the sturdy man said directly.

Fang Qiu smiled and didn’t say anything more. Then he glanced at the others questioningly again.

Everyone nodded as they looked at him.

They all firmly declared that they would stay, and they would not hinder Fang Qiu.

“Okay! Thank you all!” Learning that these people were determined to stay and help him, Fang Qiu gave them a smile.

They were all chivalrous martial arts practitioners!

Fang Qiu was moved. Since they were treating him kindly, he would naturally repay it.

“Come over here and tell me all your doubts during your cultivation. I’ll help you solve them.”

All of a sudden, the eyes of the dozen people lit up. They were all overjoyed.

Staying to help actually earned them such a benefit.

Therefore, they all gathered around and asked questions actively.

Fang Qiu also calmed down and sat in front of everyone, helping them to solve their problems one by one.

Time flew by as he was resolving people’s doubts.

He Gaoming and the others also woke up from their rest. When they saw the scene in the distance, they didn't make a sound and quietly walked over.

They also sat down cross-legged beside Fang Qiu and listened patiently. Occasionally, they would ask Fang Qiu some questions they had encountered during the cultivation.

After a whole day, everyone benefited a lot and exclaimed that they had gained a great deal of advice.

They were safe and sound for a day and a night.

"It's coming!" The next morning, when everyone woke up and wanted to continue to seek advice from Fang Qiu, he suddenly raised his eyebrows and turned to glance at the sea outside the island.

Everyone immediately became alert and turned their heads to have a look.

Far off in the distance, a ship suddenly appeared!

A cruise ship was slowly approaching the island.

From a distance, they could see some westerners on the cruise ship. It seemed that they were traveling.

Seeing the people on the island from a distance, the westerners on the cruise ship waved at them in surprise. After slowly approaching the island, they also anchored the cruise ship on the coast of the island and walked down from the ship.

In addition to the leader, there were more than a dozen sailors on the cruise ship.

They were all westerners.

“Hello, my dear friend.” The leader with blond hair and freckles came up. He reached out his hand to Fang Qiu and asked in native English, “Are you the locals on this island? Could you give us some freshwater? We’re running out of water!”

Fang Qiu suddenly smiled and asked, “Don’t you have better skills to hide your power? Aren’t you going to strike right now?”

As the man heard him, his face suddenly stiffened!

“Whoosh!” Knowing that he had been seen through, the westerner did not hesitate. He immediately raised his hand, and a poisonous needle shot out from his sleeve and was rushing toward Fang Qiu in front of him.

Medical Master

Chapter 867: Not A-level, But S-level!

“Humph!” Without delay, Fang Qiu waved his hand and directly blocked the poisonous needle.

As He Gaoming and the others saw this, they immediately dashed forward and directly beat down all the people on the ship, whether they were innocent or his accomplices.

The young assassin knocked down by Fang Qiu was escorted by He Gaoming!

“Master, what should we do now?” After taking everyone down the ship, He Gaoming asked.

Fang Qiu smiled indifferently and said, “It’s simple. Knock them out and tie them up. Then, let those who come with evil intentions see what will happen!”

“Okay.” He Gaoming laughed out loud, took everyone to fight, and knocked out the westerners. Then they directly found a hemp rope to tie up all these people.

After finishing this, He Gaoming came over and complained, "Aren't these people too weak? Who are they? Are they killers? Why did they come here rashly? What kind of killers would do that?"

"It seems that someone has cast the net wide and is going to kill me. Even some nobody came to try their luck."

Fang Qiu shook his head with a sneer and said, "There is no one else who hates me so much except Ruan Changhong, who ranks first in the martial arts world of Southern Yue."

"These people must have been hired by Ruan Changhong. But according to the current situation, it's either Ruan Changhong didn't tell the truth and made these people think that I was weak, or the reward given by Ruan Changhong was handsome enough so that these average killers wanted to have a try!"

He Gaoming nodded in agreement and said, "Yes. As a professional detective, it's very likely to be the latter."

Fang Qiu nodded and said, "I think so. The first one has arrived. Next, there should be groups of people coming relentlessly."

"Buzz, buzz, buzz..." As soon as he finished speaking, a huge gliding sound was heard.

Everyone followed the sound to have a look.

A parachute was falling from the sky. It was going to land on the island, but maybe because the sea wind was too strong, or because the man who was skydiving was not familiar with the control of the parachute, so he did not land on the island but fell into the sea.

"Help, help..." In the water, the man couldn't untie the parachute on his body, and he was so scared that he shouted for help. When he finally untied it, he grabbed the parachute floating by the sea with both hands and continued to call for help in a panic.

More than 20 people led by Fang Qiu stood motionless on the island, looking at the man with sarcasm as if they were saying, "Go ahead! You can see if we can be fooled!"

In the sea, after shouting for a long time, the man found that everyone on the island was sneering. He was then embarrassed.

“Since you don’t save me, I, I’ll go by myself,” he muttered under his breath.

The man immediately shook off his hands and swam swiftly to the island.

However, as soon as he reached the coast, He Gaoming took the eight people there and knocked him down with a few moves.

While grasping the man, He Gaoming poked the man’s forehead with his fingers and asked, “This is so unprofessional. Tell me, how could you possibly land on an uninhabited island in skydiving? Tell me, how are you supposed to go back? You big fool! Do you think we are also fools?”

The man who was caught lowered his head and remained silent with indignation.

He Gaoming complained helplessly, “I’m so speechless. Master, the less powerful the person is, the fancier moves he will make. What a fool! They came up to die one by one. I wonder if they will step on the beast catchers if I put some on the island!”

Hearing this, Fang Qiu smiled casually, nodded, and said, “A real expert won’t play this trick, but since so many people have come, there must be a few experts.”

He turned to look at the west in a distance and added, “Here it is!”

Everyone immediately turned to look.

What came into sight was a solid and large fishing boat.

The fishing boat moved incredibly fast, but when it was over 1,000 meters away from the island, it suddenly came to a halt.

“What, you don’t dare to come?” He Gaoming said with disdain.

“Be careful.” Fang Qiu frowned and immediately reminded him.

He Gaoming was stunned. “Hmm?”

The next moment, Fang Qiu moved and instantly pulled He Gaoming away from his previous position.

“Bang!” There was a sound of a bullet piercing through a rock.

“Find a place to hide.” After dodging the shot, Fang Qiu immediately shouted to He Gaoming and asked him to hide.

He Gaoming did as he was told.

After taking cover, He Gaoming stared into the distance with a grim look.

On the fishing boat, there was only one person, but this person was carrying a sniper rifle, lying on the deck and aiming at Fang Qiu who was a kilometer away from the island. He was firing at Fang Qiu without hesitation.

He Gaoming swore, “This killer is so shameless. He even got a sniper rifle and didn’t fucking cover himself at all. Instead, he shot directly from the sea!”

In the distance, the killer on the fishing boat didn’t give Fang Qiu any time to fight back. Moreover, his speed of shooting was getting faster. It seemed that he intended to kill Fang Qiu directly with a sniper rifle.

He Gaoming hurriedly told everyone to hide so that they wouldn’t get hurt accidentally.

The only person who could be seen on the island was Fang Qiu.

As endless bullets were flying intensely towards Fang Qiu, he kept dodging and moving. His movements were smooth and natural as if he were taking a walk. But he managed to dodge the bullets one by one.

However, his opponent was growing fiercer and fiercer, and his shooting speed was getting increasingly faster.

All the people hiding on the island were frightened.

They stared at Fang Qiu and finally realized what it meant to dance on the edge of death.

This bullet-dodging skill was simply too artistic and amazing!

“Swish!” But at this moment, a sound similar to bullets breaking through the air suddenly came from Fang Qiu’s back.

“Hmm?” As soon as he dodged a bullet, Fang Qiu’s lips curved. He moved and turned directly in the direction of the sound.

What appeared in front of him was an incomparably sharp claw!

It was a pair of boxing gloves.

The glove’s five fingers were like beast claws, and its tip was as sharp as a needle!

With an extremely fierce energy Qi and the moves of the wearer’s arm, it was like an embroidery needle that was about to pierce one’s heart, stabbing directly toward Fang Qiu’s chest!

“So this is the killing move!” In the face of this glove that had already hit in front of him fiercely, Fang Qiu sneered and then flashed away.

“What?” A cry of surprise was heard.

Behind this sharp, iron claw was a middle-aged man from the West. He had curly yellow hair, a slightly fair face with a beard, and a deep scar under his left eye, which seemed to be branded.

“He actually spotted me?” In addition to being startled, the middle-aged man was also surprised.

He didn’t expect that the interference tactic that they carefully planned didn’t work. They had killed countless people with this move.

However, his sneaky attack was detected by Fang Qiu and was blocked directly.

Moreover, judging from what Fang Qiu had said, he seemed to have known his existence for a long time.

“Damn!” This middle-aged man knew that he had encountered a tricky opponent, so he didn’t dare to hesitate in the slightest. When his strike missed, he immediately pulled back, preparing to flee into the distance.

“Trying to run away?” Fang Qiu sneered.

How could he let him go?

He moved his feet and instantly rushed toward the middle-aged man, trying to leave him on the island.

“Bang!” But then, the shooting sound of the sniper rifle rang out again.

A bullet instantly shot in front of Fang Qiu and blocked his way.

But actually, this bullet not only interrupted Fang Qiu but also hindered the middle-aged man with yellow hair opposite Fang Qiu.

“Hmm?” Unexpectedly, the middle-aged man with yellow hair was hindered by his partner. He darkened his face, snorted irritably, and then jumped directly into the sea.

“Good cooperation!” Seeing this, Fang Qiu couldn’t help but sneer.

After jumping into the sea, the middle-aged man with yellow hair didn’t dare to hesitate at all. He directly swung his arms and swam wildly toward the fishing boat in the distance at a blindingly fast speed.

“Do you think you can escape?” With a sneer, Fang Qiu moved and immediately chased after him.

He dived into the sea and trod directly on the water, just like the so-called Qing Kung which could make one float on water like walking on the flat land. His speed was much faster than that of the middle-aged man with yellow hair.

While running on the water, Fang Qiu directly mobilized his Divine Consciousness and quickly spread across the whole island. After making sure that there was no strange aura on the island except for his own people, he was completely relieved and continued to chase after them swiftly.

On the fishing boat, the man who kept attacking Fang Qiu with his sniper rifle from the beginning was simply dumbfounded when he saw Fang Qiu running wildly on the surface of the water.

“How is this possible?”

“F*ck! F*ck!!! We’ve been cheated! We’ve been fucking cheated!”

“This is the skill mastered by S-level people. This John Doe is not A-level at all! He is S-level!!!”

The sniper on the fishing boat panicked.

They also viewed the bounty hunting mission. After reading the evaluation of John Doe's strength, they decided to kill him together. A-level was already the peak for them.

If they had learned that John Doe's strength grading was S-level, they wouldn't dare to come no matter how courageous they were!

In a state of panic, the sniper was no longer in the mood to worry about his partner. He could only take the sniper and start the fishing boat to escape. He was shooting at Fang Qiu, trying to stop his pursuit.

The middle-aged man in the sea was also overawed by Fang Qiu's skill of treading on the water.

Seeing that Fang Qiu was about to catch up with him, he didn't dare to hesitate at all. He immediately dived into the sea, not coming out!

"Humph!" Fang Qiu snorted.

Anyway, no matter how good this person was at swimming, it was impossible for him to escape from the monitor of Fang Qiu's Divine Consciousness.

No matter how powerful he was, it was impracticable for him to swim 20 kilometers.

So what if he ran out?

Fang Qiu was the most powerful man here!

Leaving aside the person who dived into the sea, Fang Qiu rushed straight to the fishing boat.

However, the person on the fishing boat was too distracting. If Fang Qiu was not careful, he would be easily shot.

“I can’t let him run away!”

Medical Master

Chapter 868: The Special Soldiers Trap-digging Skill!

“Whoosh...” Noticing that the man driving the boat was about to run away, Fang Qiu instantly sped up like a gust of wind and chased after him. He rushed directly to the fishing boat, raised his fist, and thumped one side of the boat without hesitation!

“Bang!” There was a loud blast.

Fang Qiu’s punch directly broke the side of the fishing boat, causing a huge crack. With the roar of the engine, the seawater flowed in the boat.

In an instant, half of the huge fishing boat was submerged by seawater.

On the fishing boat, the sniper was shocked and hurriedly fired at Fang Qiu.

But how would Fang Qiu give him a chance to shoot?

Fang Qiu charged in front of him, slammed the sniper rifle in his hand, and broke it into two pieces.

Then, he abruptly grabbed the sniper’s neck.

Seeing this, the sniper hastily threw away the half of the rifle in his hand and directly raised his fist to block Fang Qiu’s attack.

“Whoosh!” Right at this moment, the sound of water splashing was heard.

The middle-aged man with yellow hair who had just sneaked into the water hurried out of the water and directly rushed to the deck of the boat that had been submerged. He waved the sharp claws on his right hand, fiercely attacking Fang Qiu's back.

"Humph, you still want to work together!" Fang Qiu snorted and threw a punch at the sniper with his right hand. Meanwhile, he leaned to one side and greeted the middle-aged man with his left hand.

Under the cover of internal Qi, his fists collided with the two opponents' strike with enormous force.

"Bang!" Facing Fang Qiu's right fist head-on, the sniper who lost his rifle couldn't resist Fang Qiu's great power at all. He was directly sent flying by the punch.

On the left, under Fang Qiu's punch, the middle-aged man who was wearing gloves was also sent flying. The gloves on his hands were entirely deformed by Fang Qiu's punch and almost destroyed.

He also flew back to the sea.

The two looked at each other and dived into the water at the same time, swimming rapidly toward the depths.

"Dive in?" Fang Qiu grinned.

He also dived directly into the sea.

With his internal Qi protecting his eyes, Fang Qiu could clearly see in the sea that the two had stuck to each other. They were using the sunken fishing boat wreckage to hide as if they wanted to sink to the bottom of the sea with the help of the fishing boat wreckage.

"Trying to escape?" Fang Qiu sneered.

Just as the two kept diving via the weight of the boat wreckage and swiftly approached the bottom of the sea, Fang Qiu exerted his internal Qi and rushed to them in an instant as if he didn't meet any resistance in the seawater.

Before they could react, they were maimed by Fang Qi with one strike to each in the sea!

Then he grabbed one in each hand and floated directly to the surface of the sea.

Fang Qiu's internal Qi surged and evaporated all the water stains on his clothes. Then, he was carrying the two and rushing to the island.

When they were 10 meters away from the island, the two killers were thrown directly on the beach.

"Tie them up," said Fang Qiu.

"Okay!" He Gaoming came out with a beam, looking like a king of a mountain. He waved his hand and shouted, "Bring me the hemp rope!"

All the martial arts practitioners who were hiding on the island immediately came out.

A group of people went up and tied up the men quickly, then threw them into the crowd of people who were caught after attacking Fang Qiu.

"Alas! Another two."

"We were fooled by the bounty hunting mission. I wonder which poor souls got caught this time."

As they saw the two people being thrown in, the people who had been caught earlier began to talk about it.

But when the first westerner who was caught saw the faces of the two people coming in, he was stunned.

“What?”

“They are...”

“Niro Brothers!!!”

Upon hearing this, the man who jumped into the sea after parachuting was also surprised.

“What?”

“Did you say they are Niro Brothers?”

The westerner nodded in shock and said, “I’ve seen them before. I’m sure that they are the 5th-ranked Niro Brothers on the Killer List. The one on the left is the elder brother, Duke Niro, and the other is the younger one, John Niro.”

The man who parachuted and fell into the sea was so shocked that he couldn’t utter a word.

“Even Niro Brothers have been caught. This Huaxia man named John Doe is too powerful, isn’t he?”

“They are the super killers ranked fifth on the World Killer List!”

It was conceivable that John Doe was so extraordinary since he even caught the Niro Brothers.

From the corner of their eyes, they saw the smiling devil coming towards them. They quickly shut up.

Their eyes were filled with fear as they looked at Fang Qiu!

Walking to the side of these people, Fang Qiu smiled and swept across them. Then he slowly squatted down and stated, "It seems that no one else will come today. Now I ask, and you answer!"

"Don't be perfunctory. You are now my captives, and you are also the captives who wanted to kill me before, so don't mess with me! Tell me, why did you come to kill me?"

This group of killers was already frightened by Fang Qiu's supreme strength. When they saw Fang Qiu squatting in front of them with a fake smile, they couldn't help but be flustered.

No one knew whether it was because they were too exhausted to speak or for some other reason, the Niro Brothers who had just been maimed both lowered their heads and did not say a word, looking a little painful.

"Who, who can tell me?" Looking at them, Fang Qiu's smiling face gradually turned cold.

Seeing that John Doe's smile was about to disappear, the first westerner who was caught suddenly trembled and hurriedly said, "Because someone put 300 million US dollars bounty on your head and offered the coordinates."

"This bounty hunting mission has been issued all over the world, and the killers everywhere are tempted. This is the biggest bounty hunting mission in decades. Some killers will never encounter such an opportunity in their lifetime, so..."

"So, you want to kill my master with such little strength?" He Gaoming said with disdain.

Hearing this, the killers felt embarrassed.

Their strength was indeed inferior to John Doe.

How could a killer be captured as soon as he arrived? They didn't even touch the clothes of their target. Could they be considered killers with such performances?

What a shame!

“300 million dollars. Tsk, tsk. That’s 2 billion Huaxia money. What a large sum of money!” He Gaoming was surprised.

“Why am I only worth this little money? The price is a bit low,” said Fang Qiu, stroking his chin.

“Boss, this is 300 million US dollars. US dollars! You called that low?” He Gaoming opened his eyes wide, feeling speechless.

Fang Qiu glanced at He Gaoming.

After all, he owned assets worth billions!

His strength had been looked down upon. Now they even degraded his value.

“Tut-tut. Why did my image seem so inferior?”

“All right,” Fang Qiu glanced at these killers, stood up, and declared, “Since that’s the case, it’ll be interesting. He Gaoming, go and gather everyone for me. As long as they dare to come, I will make sure that none of them can go back!”

“Okay.” He Gaoming immediately replied excitedly, and then went to gather helpers.

Fang Qiu glanced at this group of people and also turned to leave.

Under He Gaoming’s call, all the Huaxia people on the island gathered in the grass.

“I asked everyone to come here because I have something to tell you.” Fang Qiu looked at everyone and told them the information he had received. Then, he continued, “There is only a small part of killers who appeared today. The reason why so many killers showed up is that someone offered 300 million dollars to take my life. Now all the killers in the world are taking action, which means that there will be more killers coming next.”

“I told you this because I wanted to warn you. It’s not too late to leave now, because you don’t know what will happen tomorrow!”

Hearing this, everyone looked at each other.

The sturdy man said, “Whoever wants to leave will leave. Anyway, I won’t.”

The others also shook their heads.

“Okay.” Seeing the resolute look on everyone’s faces, Fang Qiu could only salute them with cupped fists and said, “Thank you, everyone. Since you are willing to stay and help me, I, John Doe, will definitely return the favor in the future!”

After that, he chuckled and said, “Since everyone chose to stay, then I will teach you the special forces’ Trap-digging Skill. Let’s trick those people together!”

“Trap-digging Skill?”

“The special forces’ Trap-digging Skill?”

“What the hell is that?”

Looking at everyone’s confused look, Fang Qiu explained with a smile. “You’ll know when you see me dig one.”

As everyone was confused, Fang Qiu directly dug a big pit about two meters deep under his feet. Then he moved and picked up some big banana tree leaves from the nearby jungle. He laid two layers of leaves in the pit and clung some to the surrounding area to make a container shape.

Then he rushed straight into the sea. After a while, he caught two poisonous sea snakes with black and white striped patterns and threw them into the pit. Then, he got some seawater and poured it into the pit.

After doing all this, Fang Qiu found several sticks and put them over the pit. Then he placed some coconut fibers on the pit and covered the pit with sand again.

Everything was done.

There was no change in the sand in front of Fang Qiu as if it had never been moved.

Everyone couldn't help but twitch their lips. If someone accidentally stepped on the trap, he or she would definitely shock the snakes and be poisoned after being bitten.

"Isn't it too shameless if we do this? But we love it. Haha!"

Then everyone looked at Fang Qiu differently.

"You can also do this?"

"But this doesn't match your image as an expert."

As expected, experts couldn't be judged by moral standards.

They must be careful in the face of experts. Maybe one day those experts would not only crash them with their martial arts skills but also tricked them with various kinds of trap-setting skills.

Then they would be defeated tragically!

After observing the trap carefully, they soon found that it was an essential skill for martial artists!

They must learn it!

Under everyone's expectation, Fang Qiu didn't hold back anything. He taught them how to dig traps, make traps, and use the material on the spot.

When those people come here and see an isolated island, they won't check too much, so the traps we dig should be very effective. After finishing teaching them, Fang Qiu said to everyone, "Let's gather in one place. It's best to be on the back of this island. We only need to set traps on the routes that they may take on the island."

He Gaoming raised his hand excitedly and said, "Okay! I'll trick those motherfuckers to death!"

Everyone laughed and immediately started to set traps.

Some of them imitated Fang Qiu to catch sea snakes and find sea urchins, while others used the material on the island to get the wooden needles and other things so that they could put them in the trap.

Everything was done.

Under the guidance of Fang Qiu, they came to the back of the island that Fang Qiu had discovered in advance to hide.

Medical Master

Chapter 869: Cyan Dragon Lock Is Mature!

The sky gradually darkened, and the bright moon shone brightly in the sky with stars twinkling.

When it was midnight, Fang Qiu and the others had already sat cross-legged and began to have a rest.

In the darkness, several figures came to the island in various ways from different directions.

“Aargh!” As they were walking, a blood-curdling scream rang out.

The scream awakened Fang Qiu and the others who were sitting cross-legged and resting.

“Aargh!” While they had merely opened their eyes, another scream sounded.

“Aargh, my ass, my ass hurts!” Shrieks of agony could be constantly heard.

Hiding at the back of the island, Fang Qiu and the others could not help but hold back their laughter as they heard those miserable screams.

“Snake, there’s a snake...”

“Aargh!!!”

The island at night seemed to have converted into hell. Numerous people coming to the island had been seriously startled and injured, causing those who had yet to land on the island to hesitate whether they should proceed.

On this night, all kinds of languages could be heard from the island as if people were having a Union Nations’ conference.

Nevertheless, they sounded a bit miserable.

Early the next morning, as the sun rose, Fang Qiu came out with the others to stroll around the island. As expected, they found many injured people.

This group of killers felt depressed. They did want to leave.

However, they had no way of leaving. How far could they go in the vast sea since they were covered with wounds?

They had no choice but to wait painfully until the morning and surrender.

He Gaoming took all the Huaxia martial arts practitioners on the island to tie up the injured killers, maimed them, and then placed them together with the killers who came before.

As these killers met each other, they felt extremely embarrassed.

No one spoke.

Fang Qiu walked to the place where the Cyan Dragon Lock grew and took a closer look. He found that the jade pillar in the Cyan Dragon Lock had begun to show a transparent color, and the vines of the pillar had also turned green.

“One more day.” Fang Qiu calculated and found that there was still one day left, and the Cyan Dragon Lock would mature at today’s midnight.

After checking the Cyan Dragon Lock, Fang Qiu came to the killers, took a glance at them, and declared, “I won’t kill you. Go and sit on the beach, all of you. Of course, you can swim back. I won’t stop you, as long as you have the strength to swim back!”

“If we could swim back, we would have gone long ago!” The killers thought to themselves and could only stand up.

Driven by He Gaoming and the others, they came to the beach and sat there awkwardly.

Fang Qiu looked at these killers from a distance, then smiled and whispered a few words to He Gaoming.

He Gaoming suddenly burst out laughing.

“Boss, you’re giving them a serious blow! I like it!” After that, he went to ask people to move the stones.

Soon, an English word was presented on the beach—killer!

Fang Qiu was meant to tell the people who intended to come to the island that they were all killers!

However, these killers were even more ashamed.

What a humiliation.

However, it was not terrible to be disgraced. What was worse was that they failed to determine whether they could live or not.

Admittedly, Fang Qiu’s method was quite effective.

After seeing this scene, many ships which were ready to come onto the island immediately turned around and left without delay.

So many killers had lost, and some of the killers’ characteristics were quite familiar.

“Since they’ve all been defeated. Why should we bother to attack?”

“Run!”

It seemed that this island was not a place for trying one’s luck.

The man named John Doe was not someone they could attempt to defeat.

It was good to win the bounty, but if they went to the island and were forced to sit on the beach after being caught, they would both lose the money and their lives!

Observing that many ships were scared away, Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and began to adjust his breathing.

Tonight, the Heaven Treasure would be mature.

But in the past few days, no matter how enormous the movement on the island was, the guardian beast of the Heaven Treasure had not shown up. This made him have a bad intuition that something terrible would happen.

Meanwhile, those who returned to Huaxia finally brought back the news. They all told what had happened on the island to their forces.

All the forces were astounded!

The Heaven Treasure ranked tenth had unexpectedly shown up in the world.

This was something that no one had expected. They all thought it was only a Heaven Treasure, but they didn't expect it to rank tenth!

If they had known, they would have gone there a long time ago.

Leaders of forces deeply regretted it. Why did they only send people with inadequate powers back then?

They considered it only a cultivation experience at most, but they didn't assume that there would be such a valuable treasure!

Unfortunately, it was too late to say anything now. It was too late to go to the island. It seemed that John Doe would acquire it at last.

Although they were unwilling to give up, it was better for John Doe to get it than to leave it for the people of the Southeast Region!

The actions of those Wulin people in the Southeast Region directly made all the major Wulin forces indignant.

“Damn it! They killed the people of our country. Do they think that there are no powerful people in our country?”

“That’s outrageous. How dare these monkeys from the Southeast Region challenge our country?”

“It seems that our Huaxia martial artist hasn’t taken action for a long time, which led to the bullying of those monkeys in the Southeast Region!”

Everyone was prepared to find an opportunity to teach the people of the Southeast Region a lesson.

After feeling indignant, everyone’s attention was drawn to the arrow shot by Fang Qiu on the island!

Hearing the narration of the people from different forces, everyone was so stunned that they couldn’t believe it was true.

“No way! Is he so powerful?”

“Is John Doe so strong that he could strike down a fighter with one shot?”

“How is this possible? If he really did this, is John Doe still a human?”

In the Pear Garden, Yun Yangzi received the news in the first place.

“The Heaven Treasure ranked tenth? Draw the seawater to cast a bow and destroy a fighter plane with one shot?” Yun Yangzi sighed in shock and said, “Did you still hold back when we were fighting before?”

“John Doe, it seems that I can’t see through you anymore. You’ve truly got great luck.”

...

“The Heaven Treasure ranked tenth? A fighter?” In the manor of the Diwu family in Nanjiang, Diwu Qian and Diwu Mingchuan sat in the hall. Hearing the news reported by their subordinates, Diwu Qian’s face instantly showed a look of surprise. She said, “Although Wulin still exists, this Wulin is different from that in ancient times. Because people used cold weapons in ancient times, everyone thinks that ancient Wulin was very powerful. But now people use hot weapons. In the face of hot weapons, even the strongest martial artist couldn’t resist it. But John Doe could actually shoot a fighter.”

“Father, is John Doe really so powerful?” The more she thought about it, the more intimidated she felt. Diwu Qian asked Diwu Mingchuan next to her.

“Qian’er, the world is so big!” Diwu Mingchuan sighed with emotion.

Diwu Qian was amazed.

She did not expect that her father would give such a compliment to John Doe!

Since she was born, she had never heard her father comment on others in this way, not even Yun Yangzi.

Was John Doe truly so remarkable?

“What John Doe asked people to tell us was right.” While Diwu Qian was being shocked, Diwu Mingchuan took a sip of hot tea, stood up, and said, “Huaxia Wulin has been cut off for a long time, and everyone has forgotten us. It’s time to take action.”

“As for the Heaven Treasure ranked 10th, I didn’t expect it to show up in the world and that John Doe would get it. It’s all about the right time and luck.”

...

Wulin was in an uproar, but the South Sea was quiet.

Maybe it was a brief moment of peace.

Night fell.

On the island, it was almost midnight.

Fang Qiu, who had been adjusting his breathing, suddenly opened his eyes.

He looked up at the moon.

Fang Qiu saw that the moon in the sky was particularly round and bright, but when he took a closer look, he could see a faint green ring around the moon, which was flashing like a power grid.

Looking around the island, even in the dark, Fang Qiu could faintly see that there were short green threads of light lingering in the air as if they were dust floating in the air.

Fang Qiu thought to himself, “Could it cause such a strange phenomenon?”

He immediately walked to the Cyan Dragon Lock and quietly waited for it to mature.

But as time went by, he spotted that the green threads of energy between Heaven and Earth were gathering toward the Cyan Dragon Lock little by little.

Every time this kind of special energy seeped into the Cyan Dragon Lock, the color of the Lock would become deeper. With the growth of the Lock, a layer of light green mist gradually pervaded the air.

The mist covered within a meter of the Cyan Dragon Lock's growth area.

Every time the energy of the green threads approached, it would be absorbed by the light green mist.

As time flew by, there were fewer and fewer green threads around, and the Cyan Dragon Lock was getting closer to maturity.

"Swish!" When the last green thread was absorbed by the green mist, a sound suddenly rang out.

The light green mist that shrouded the Cyan Dragon Lock instantly retracted!

All the mist and energy were sucked into the Cyan Dragon Lock.

As the mist dissipated, a dazzling green light burst out and then vanished in a flash!

Now the Cyan Dragon Lock was fully mature.

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu reached out to pick it.

"Whoosh..." But at this moment, an air-breaking sound came. A black figure leaped, rushed directly to the side of the Cyan Dragon Lock before Fang Qiu, and was about to seize it.

As Fang Qiu saw this, he stopped and looked at it, waiting.

He was waiting for the guardian beast to take action.

He wouldn't believe that there were no guardian beasts here!

Sure enough, just as the black figure was about to touch the Cyan Dragon Lock, a water-formed arrow suddenly shot out from the sea. Like an invincible sharp arrow, it rushed directly to the black figure.

The figure was about to seize the Cyan Dragon Lock.

However, the moment he grabbed it, he would definitely be hit by the water-formed arrow.

In this case, the look of the black figure changed, and he hastily dodged. Because he could feel that once he was hit by the arrow, he would inevitably be injured. By then, he would completely lose the chance to scramble for the Cyan Dragon Lock!

Fang Qiu turned to look at the sea.

A huge whirlpool suddenly appeared on the surface of the sea where the water-formed arrow shot out.

Then, a huge turtle shell slowly emerged from the bottom of the vortex.

It was a big sea turtle!

In fact, it was an incredibly giant sea turtle!

Seeing the giant sea turtle, Fang Qiu smiled.

“The guardian beast indeed turned up.”

He immediately turned his head to look at the black figure, only to find that it was actually one of the killers on the island and he was from a nearby country.

It seemed that the killer had recognized the Cyan Dragon Lock since he reached the island. That was why he had not taken action since last night. His purpose was to find an opportunity to seize the Cyan Dragon Lock!

Just as Fang Qiu was observing, the killer moved his feet and flashed out again. He darted straight to the Cyan Dragon Lock, trying to grab it again.

“Swish!” Just as he approached the Lock, another water-formed arrow shot out from the sea.

“Humph.” The killer was furious.

He was aware that if he dodged it, he would no longer have a better chance. Therefore, he made up his mind and went straight to the arrow. He intended to resist the arrow head-on. Then he would run away instantly after picking the Cyan Dragon Lock.

“Bang!” Then, the water-formed arrow struck the killer with great force, and the huge impact forced him to stagger three steps back.

The giant sea turtle was gathering its strength to launch the next water-formed arrow.

“Now.” Fang Qiu shouted to himself and made his move.

He charged directly to the Cyan Dragon Lock at an incomparably fast speed. His right hand swept as if the autumn wind blew fallen leaves. At the same time, he directly grabbed the Cyan Dragon Lock.

Medical Master

Chapter 870: A Giant Sea turtle with an Amazing Defense Ability!

The sea turtle immediately flew into a rage when seeing this, and so did the killer.

“Whoosh! Whoosh!” Several water-formed arrows shot out of the sea, aiming at Fang Qiu.

Without hesitation, the killer directly pulled out the dagger at his waist, which was shining with cold light, and swung it toward Fang Qiu fiercely.

“Hmm?” As soon as he obtained the Cyan Dragon Lock, Fang Qiu came to a halt. As the sea turtle and the killer both launched an attack, his Divine Consciousness detected that He Gaoming and others were coming. He didn’t dare to hesitate and immediately shouted, “No one is coming over. You can’t involve in this battle!”

He could sense that this killer was exceptionally powerful.

At least, he was stronger than Ruan Changhong!

Detecting carefully, Fang Qiu found that his strength was extremely close to the ninth class, which was not inferior to Diwu Qian at all!

Moreover, this guy must have learned some skills from treasure books to hide his strength, so Fang Qiu hadn’t discovered him. If he hadn’t been attacked by the sea turtle and released his internal Qi to resist it, Fang Qiu would still have been kept in the dark.

Apart from this killer, there was also a giant sea turtle.

Fang Qiu could feel that the sea turtle was even more powerful than the killer.

However, its superiority didn’t show in its attack power, but its defensive ability.

After all, the turtle shell was incredibly hard.

“All right. I’ll take the Cyan Dragon Lock and your life together!”

Unexpectedly, this killer could speak the Huaxia language, and he could even speak very fluently.

As he spoke, the dagger in his hand suddenly burst out a dazzling cold light as if it were going to engulf people. With a terrifying destructive aura, he was about to stab Fang Qiu fiercely.

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted.

A killer whose strength had reached the ninth class was hiding around Fang Qiu, but he did not discover his strength at all. He was too careless. It seemed that he wanted to disguise himself as the weak to defeat the strong.

In fact, Fang Qiu had found this person a long while ago. Since this killer didn’t make a move after concealing himself, it meant that he might have found the Heaven Treasure, so Fang Qiu decided to use him to attract the guardian beast.

But he assumed that the strength of this killer might be eighth-class. He didn’t expect it to be close to the ninth class.

“Disguise yourself as the weak to defeat me? Let’s see if I’ll give you a chance!” Fang Qiu directly burst out all his strength and ducked the killer’s sudden attack at an extremely fast speed. Then, he clenched his right hand into a fist and punched fiercely at the killer.

Fang Qiu managed to strike him.

“Bang!” The sound of this punch echoed!

As the loud blast spread, the killer was instantly knocked back by Fang Qiu’s fist.

“Pitter-patter...” Right at this moment, the sound of earth thumping rang out.

The giant sea turtle actually climbed up from the sea. Its triangular mouth was wide open, revealing a row of teeth. It swung its legs and pounced on Fang Qiu, trying to bite him.

Even a shark would be bitten into pieces by this sea turtle, let alone a human being!

“Let’s see how you can hurt me!” Fang Qiu moved and jumped up high, which caused the sea turtle to leap. Then he turned, went straight over the sea turtle’s head, and trod on its back.

“What’s the use of having a giant body?”

When confronting a sea turtle, it could do nothing to you once you stood on its back.

However, it didn’t mean that it was completely useless since it had grown so big.

As the sea turtle realized that Fang Qiu was aiming at its weakness, a water-formed arrow shot out of its wide-open mouth. With a gust of terrifying energy Qi, it directly rushed toward Fang Qiu.

“Hmm?” Fang Qiu’s heart skipped a beat. He found that the arrow shooting from the giant sea turtle’s mouth was obviously different from before. The impact was several times stronger than the previous water-formed arrow!

If it struck him, he would probably look very awkward.

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu immediately ducked.

As Fang Qiu and the sea turtle fighting fiercely, the killer’s breathing suddenly weakened, and he suddenly disappeared into the darkness!

“Hmm?” Although he was fighting with the sea turtle, Fang Qiu had been paying attention to every move of the killer. When he noticed that the killer suddenly disappeared in the dark, he immediately released his Divine Consciousness and completely covered the whole island.

As soon as he detected through his Divine Consciousness, he found that the killer did not leave at all!

Instead, he hid behind a rock in the distance, trying to let Fang Qiu fight with the sea turtle with all his strength, so that he could benefit from it without doing anything!

“Humph!” Fang Qiu snorted and simply ignored him.

Anyway, this killer could not escape from the surveillance of his Divine Consciousness.

He was fully aware that the most powerful skill of the Cyan Dragon Lock’s guardian beast, which was the giant sea turtle in front of him, wasn’t its destructive power but its defensive ability.

As for Fang Qiu, this sea turtle could indeed trap him, but it was almost impossible for it to hurt him. The only person who could hurt him was the killer in the dark, who had reached the ninth class.

Therefore, Fang Qiu paid special attention to him.

However, under the surveillance of his Divine Consciousness, the killer hiding behind the rock did not move. It seemed that he did not intend to launch a sneak attack. Was he looking for an opportunity to launch one?

While keeping an eye on him, Fang Qiu was still fighting with the giant sea turtle.

After striking for a while, Fang Qiu found that the defensive ability of this sea turtle was amazing. It was arduous for him to break its defense, which made him rather depressed.

There was no doubt that the sea was the territory of this sea turtle.

This turtle shell was also a natural protective armor.

As a guardian beast, it was robbed of the Cyan Dragon Lock by Fang Qiu. The sea turtle would definitely not let go of Fang Qiu. Therefore, in the case that Fang Qiu couldn't hurt it, it would definitely keep watching Fang Qiu. No matter where Fang Qiu went, it would keep chasing him.

Under the circumstances, there was no doubt that this sea turtle would relentlessly hinder Fang Qiu.

This would be what the killer hiding in the dark wanted to see most.

He would eventually win by playing both ends against the middle!

"Humph!" He slammed on the turtle shell but it caused no harm to the turtle. Fang Qiu couldn't help but snort and said, "The turtle shell is quite hard. I'd like to see if the flesh in your shell is hard or not!"

This giant sea turtle must have lived for hundreds of years. Its shell was probably firmer than ordinary steel. Even a cannonball might not be able to break it, not to mention human beings.

In this case, the only way Fang Qiu could think of to hurt the sea turtle was to directly channel his internal Qi into the sea turtle's body, which would cross the extremely hard shell and directly hurt its body inside the shell.

He looked at the giant sea turtle under him. It opened its mouth wide while constantly retreating, revealing its teeth and trying to bite him.

Fang Qiu moved and quickly ducked to the other side.

Inside his body, his internal Qi burst out. Meanwhile, his mental power surged.

Two forces wrapped around his body and gathered on his palm.

With the help of his mental power, Fang Qiu could easily transfer all his internal Qi inside the sea turtle's body while he attacked it. Then, he would directly control the internal Qi with his mental power, causing a violent collision in the sea turtle's body so that he could beat it off!

The sea turtle seemed to have noticed that something was wrong. Its wide-open mouth that was about to bite Fang Qiu abruptly stopped. Then several water-formed arrows shot out from its throat. A rain of arrows rushed toward Fang Qiu intensely.

“Hmm?” Fang Qiu was amazed.

He didn’t expect the sea turtle to be so perceptive.

Any guardian beast couldn’t be underestimated!

“Turtle, you obviously looked down on me. Do you think that these water-formed arrows can stop me? Absolutely not!”

“Whoosh!” In the face of numerous water-formed arrows flying over, Fang Qiu moved his body, ready to attack directly while eluding.

“Bang!” But at this moment, a loud gunshot of a sniper rifle rang out.

Almost at the same time as the gunshot sounded, Fang Qiu, who was still in midair, twisted his body without hesitation. A bullet flew past his head.

This bullet was aimed at his eyes!

Fortunately, Fang Qiu’s Divine Consciousness had been covering the entire island, so he completely mastered the flight route of the bullet the moment it left the gun.

He did not give the killer any chance to launch a sneak attack. He even dodged the bullets in advance without facing it at all.

In the dark, the killer hiding behind the big rock obviously did not intend to stop.

“Bang!” After the first shot was ducked by Fang Qiu, the second shot came afterward!

“What?” As he fired, Fang Qiu suddenly frowned because he found that the second shot was not aimed at him.

Instead, it was aimed at the giant sea turtle that was entangled with him!

Compared with Fang Qiu, the sea turtle’s reaction was obviously much slower.

The target of the second bullet was also the eyes of the sea turtle. Because it had just shot the water-formed arrows, the sea turtle had no time to block. It didn’t even have time to retract its head into the shell, so it could only turn its head and dodge.

Finally, at the moment when the sea turtle turned its head to dodge, the bullet hit the sea turtle hard on the neck.

“Pa!” There was an explosion.

When the bullet hit the sea turtle’s neck, it straightly stuck into the flesh and then exploded!

“You’ve spent a large sum of money!” Fang Qiu narrowed his eyes.

He could tell that the two bullets coming from the darkness were highly explosive bullets.

When this kind of bullet hit an object, it would explode and produce another propelling force, thus penetrating the target’s armor.

Under normal circumstances, only large-caliber heavy sniper rifles could use this kind of bullets, and the killer used the most powerful one, the Barrett M95, which was called an S-class sniper rifle!

Fang Qiu didn't expect that this killer even brought a Barrett to kill him.

This was a ninth-class super expert.

He was so powerful, but he still brought such a powerful firearm with him. It was obvious that this man was determined to kill him!

"Swoosh, swoosh..." The sea turtle opened its mouth, but it couldn't make a sound. It merely waved its four palm-like feet madly, turned its body wildly, and kept shooting water-formed arrows at Fang Qiu.

The sea turtle went wild. The speed, strength, and even the density of the arrows were much stronger than before!

The sea turtle had no idea who hurt it, so it could only vent all its anger on Fang Qiu and kept chasing and beating him fiercely!

The killer was trying to use the turtle to kill Fang Qiu.

"Humph!" Fang Qiu saw that the killer hiding in the dark was so vicious. How could he let him succeed?

He merely wanted the Heaven Treasure.

"Since you won't come out, then I'll eat the Heaven Treasure and see if you will come out now!"

"Still hiding?" After avoiding the attack of the sea turtle, Fang Qiu quickly took out the Cyan Dragon Lock and said while trying to put it into his mouth, "Let me see how you will fight for it after I eat it!"

He pretended to eat in an instant.

He knew that this killer was a ninth-class expert. As for such an expert, 300 million dollars was not a big deal at all. What he wanted was the Heaven Treasure in Fang Qiu's hands, Cyan Dragon Lock ranked 10th on the Heaven Treasure List!

Otherwise, he could not have endured for so long for the sake of the Cyan Dragon Lock.

Sure enough, seeing that John Doe intended to eat the Heaven Treasure in the battle with the sea turtle, the killer hiding in the dark couldn't resist it anymore. He immediately fired at Fang Qiu with his rifle, and then a cold light flashed in his hand. He flashed in the darkness and instantly charged to Fang Qiu at lightning speed.
