Chapter 921: The Action Director Wants a Competition!

The New Year should have been a good time for everyone to have a good rest. However, Fang Qiu's parents even took him to visit their distant relatives, which upset him.

It seemed that they were going to visit all the people they knew!

After staying home for a few days to accompany his parents, Fang Qiu found an opportunity to leave.

When he was back in Jiangjing, he bought some New Year gifts from the mall and went to Xu Miaolin's home to visit him.

"Why are you back so soon?"

Seeing Fang Qiu, Xu Miaolin was very curious.

During the New Year, everyone would rest for seven or eight days and spend more time with their parents at home.

It had only been a few days. Why did Fang Qiu come back to Jiangjing?

"See? I'm coming to wish you a happy New Year."

Fang Qiu waved the New Year gifts in his hand and walked into the room with a grin.

"You're so considerate."

Xu Miaolin grinned and took the gifts from Fang Qiu's hand at once. Then he pointed to the sofa and motioned him to sit down.

"Fang Qiu is here?"

Chu Yunyun was also surprised to see him.

"Happy New Year, Ma'am!"

Fang Qiu immediately greeted her with a smile.

"You too."

Chu Yunyun nodded with satisfaction. She glanced at Xu Miaolin and said, "Stay for dinner today and have a taste of my dishes."

"Then I won't stand on ceremony," Fang Qiu answered, smiling.

Chu Yunyun ordered Xu Miaolin to prepare all kinds of ingredients and help cook.

Fang Qiu was too embarrassed to just sit there and watch, so he hurried to lend a hand.

As they prepared the ingredients, the three talked about Fang Qiu's performance at the New Year's Gala. Chu Yunyun and Xu Miaolin kept praising Fang Qiu, and Fang Qiu praised himself too. A few hours later, Fang Qiu was embarrassed by the shower of praises.

When everything was done, a sumptuous meal was presented on the table.

The three of them were sitting at the table, eating and talking.

“Fang Qiu, come on, take it.”

As soon as they started to eat, Chu Yunyun stood up, took out a big red envelope from her trouser pocket, handed it to Fang Qiu, and said, “Your teacher didn’t prepare a red envelope for you, but I did. Although there’s not much money in it, it’s a gift from me. Take it.”

“Thank you, Ma’am.”

Fang Qiu instantly accepted the red envelope with a smile.

“Shouldn’t it be a student showing his filial respect to the teacher?”

Xu Miaolin rolled his eyes.

“How shameless you are!”

Chu Yunyun rolled her eyes at Xu Miaolin and then said to Fang Qiu with a smile, “Come on, dig in before the dishes get cold. You can eat as much as you want today. I added some herbs into each dish, but you won’t be able to taste any traditional Chinese medicinal herbs. The more you eat, the better it will be for your health.”

“Okay!”

Fang Qiu nodded and continued, “Then I won’t stand on ceremony.”

After that, he began to dig in.

While they were enjoying the meal, Xu Miaolin suddenly said, “By the way, there’s something I was gonna talk to you about when you got back to school. Since you’re here today, let’s talk about it now.”

“What is it?” Fang Qiu asked curiously.

But judging from Xu Miaolin's tone of voice, it seemed to be a big deal.

"Here's the thing."

Xu Miaolin put down his chopsticks, thought for a moment, and said, "I received news that there may be a change in the medical conference."

"A change?!"

Fang Qiu was stunned.

He knew that the medical conference Xu Miaolin mentioned was a gathering in the field of traditional Chinese medicine that only highly-skilled doctors could attend!

Xu Miaolin nodded and said, "Yes. From what I heard, this medical conference may be held ahead of schedule or delayed, but of course, it may also be held on time. For now, it's hard to say!"

"What's going on?"

Fang Qiu frowned and asked further, "How come there's a sudden change?"

"Isn't this all because of your new book?"

Xu Miaolin glanced at Fang Qiu and said, "Your book will definitely be the focus of this conference, so even if you fail to become a highly-skilled doctor before the conference starts, you may be invited. But I'm not sure when the conference will start."

"I see..."

Fang Qiu pondered for a moment. Then he exhaled softly and said, "It doesn't matter if the conference starts early or on time. I'm afraid of a delay."

"You brat."

Xu Miaolin glared at Fang Qiu and said, "You fooled me the year before last. You're in good health. If you really had a problem with your health, you wouldn't be so lively."

Fang Qiu smiled awkwardly.

He didn't expect Xu Miaolin to still remember this.

"I don't know how you did it, but you seem to have a lot of secrets."

Xu Miaolin looked straight at Fang Qiu. Although he didn't ask, he obviously wanted to see through Fang Qiu.

"That's my privacy..."

Fang Qiu smiled embarrassedly.

However, his heart had sunk.

"No matter what, don't put off the conference!"

"By the way, old master, where are you now?"

Thinking of the old master, he became even more worried.

Didn't he study traditional Chinese medicine in order to participate in the medical conference and find a way to cure the old master?

Now, the sudden change in the conference made him a little flustered.

Fortunately, with Xu Miaolin as his teacher, he could be informed about the issues related to the conference as soon as possible.

After the meal, they chatted for a while.

Then Fang Qiu got up to say goodbye.

"Beep, beep, beep..."

As soon as he walked out of the community, his cell phone suddenly rang.

He took it out and had a look.

It was a call from Director Chen Xiaogang.

"Hello, Director Chen?"

Fang Qiu answered the phone.

"Fang Qiu, this is Chen Xiaogang."

From the other end of the line came Director Chen Xiaogang's hearty laughter. He said, "I heard you went home."

"I just returned to Jiangjing," Fang Qiu said.

“Look, do you have time to come to the capital?”

Director Chen Xiaogang continued, “The script has been written. Why don’t you come over and have a look?”

“It’s been finished so soon?”

Confused, Fang Qiu asked, “It’s only been a few days, isn’t it?”

“We started working on the script a long time ago. In other words, Zhao Rulong started writing it on the very night when the show ‘Run Wild&Survive’ was aired. It’s been quite a while since then.”

After saying that, Chen Xiaogang was silent for a moment before saying, “I mainly want to talk to you about the action director.”

“Martial arts guidance is related to the quality of the whole movie, and most importantly, the action director we agreed on before remains to be unconvinced. He asked us why we replaced him with someone else, and after knowing the reason, he proposed to compete with you.”

After finishing his sentence, Chen Xiaogang smiled helplessly and continued, “I have filmed for so many years, and I know it’s not easy to build a network. In the future, I might need to cooperate with him more. After all, I have contacted him in advance before. It will be difficult to explain if I abruptly stop working with him. So... what do you think?”

“Okay!”

Fang Qiu didn’t hesitate at all. He speedily nodded and said, “I’ll go to the capital in two days. I’ll be there with the action director I recommended.”

“Alright, I’ll wait for you in the capital.”

Chen Xiaogang was quick to express his satisfaction.

He was really afraid that Fang Qiu would not agree.

Since Fang Qiu had agreed, he had nothing to worry about. Everything would be decided based on their capabilities!

After hanging up the phone, Fang Qiu called He Gaoming with his true identity without delay.

“Hello, Miracle-working Doctor Fang.”

Soon, the phone was connected, and He Gaoming’s voice came from the other end of the line. He said, “Sorry, I’ve been busy taking my men to have fun recently. I don’t want to take up any work.”

“Are you sure?”

Fang Qiu was speechless. “Your men?”

But on the surface, he asked with a smile, “Are you sure you don’t want to make some extra money?”

“Extra money?”

Hearing that, He Gaoming suddenly became curious and then immediately asked, “What’s it?”

In fact, he had been thinking about making money recently.

He couldn’t just lead those guys to cultivate and do nothing.

At least he had to earn some money to make ends meet.

If he couldn't even support himself, what was the point of cultivating?

More importantly, except for him, everyone who followed him had a family and needed a normal life.

They followed John Doe, but they should be free to make money apart from focusing on cultivation.

This was a money-oriented society.

If they couldn't make money, how could they stay?

Therefore, he had been trying to make money recently.

In the beginning, the reason why he refused Fang Qiu directly was that the people following him were not qualified to be detectives. But if they could make extra money, that would be another story.

Because John Doe only told him to take these people to cultivate but didn't give him any living expenses. Nor did he say how to take these people to make money. He Gaoming knew that John Doe was busy. As John Doe's disciple, he would have to figure out this kind of thing himself.

Of course, although John Doe didn't think about it, Fang Qiu had already had this in mind.

That was why he was determined to request a position for the action director from Chen Xiaogang.

His purpose was to let He Gaoming and his men make money!

"I'm going to act in a movie."

Fang Qiu got straight to the point and said, "I need some action directors. Don't say I don't know anything about Wulin. I know you are from Wulin. You used to show off to me, so I thought of you first."

“A movie?”

He Gaoming was stunned and then thought of the news that Fang Qiu was going to act in Chen Xiaogang’s new movie on the Internet. He promptly asked, “Is it the one about Hero Yang Yizhi?”

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded at once.

“Are you kidding me?”

He Gaoming rolled his eyes and said, “Chen Xiaogang is a famous director. How could he possibly need some other action directors?”

“Tell me, are you in or out?” asked Fang Qiu as he pursed his lips.

“What’s your offer?” He Gaoming asked forthwith as he heard that it seemed to be true.

“Not low.”

Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, “At least several hundred thousand, but you have to beat another action director to get it.”

“Beat?”

When He Gaoming heard that, he suddenly chuckled and said, “So you called me because you didn’t want Chen Xiaogang’s action director?”

“What, are you scared?” asked Fang Qiu, smiling.

“Are you kidding? He’s the one who’s scared.”

He Gaoming snorted and added, “Those so-called action directors are just capable of doing something fancy. I can do that too!”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Okay. Let me remind you one more thing. You’d better get the best man you know and play it safe.”

Medical Master

Chapter 922: You Got Me a Dumbass, Didn’t You?

“No need. I am an expert!”

Hearing Fang Qiu’s reminder, He Gaoming immediately said, “I’ll do it myself. Rest assured, there won’t be any problems.”

“But...”

Fang Qiu hesitated for a moment and added, “Why do I feel that you’re unreliable?”

“Me? Unreliable?”

He Gaoming instantly got angry and said, “I’m telling you, I’m in it and I’m sure you’ll be satisfied. Just tell me the time and place!”

“Okay. Anyway, Director Chen Xiaogang has an action director. If you want to make some extra money, you have to work hard on it,” Fang Qiu said casually.

“You pack up. We’ll meet in the capital in a day,” he added.

He Gaoming nodded and replied, "Okay. I'll call you tomorrow."

After that, he hung up the phone.

After the call, Fang Qiu returned to school, spent the night in the dormitory, and then flew straight to the capital the next morning.

When he arrived in the capital, he found a random place and waited for He Gaoming and the others to arrive.

Sure enough, his cell phone rang soon.

"I'm in the capital."

When He Gaoming was put through, his voice came from the other end of the line.

"I'm at the Xiong'an Hotel. Come here directly."

Fang Qiu told He Gaoming his room number and informed the hotel that they were coming.

Because the Xiong'an Hotel was relatively close to the airport, Fang Qiu soon heard the doorbell ring.

He opened the door and stood there dumbfounded.

Originally, he thought that He Gaoming would come along with a few experts at most, but as soon as the door opened, he saw a large group of people following He Gaoming.

He Gaoming had actually taken all his men here.

"Fang Qiu?"

Seeing Fang Qiu, those who followed He Gaoming were shocked at first, but then they all rushed up in surprise and excitement, asking Fang Qiu for his autograph excitedly.

Helplessly, Fang Qiu could only quickly let everyone into the room. Then he sat down in front of the tea table and kept signing autographs for everyone.

“When are we leaving?” He Gaoming asked casually while Fang Qiu was signing autographs.

“In the afternoon,” Fang Qiu answered briefly.

After signing autographs for everyone, he treated them to a hearty meal. It was not until 40 minutes before the appointed time with Director Chen Xiaogang that he took everyone to the Yanqi Shooting Base in the capital.

The Yanqi Shooting Base was located in Songyang Town, Yanqi District. It was 45 kilometers away from the capital and 25 kilometers away from the capital airport.

When he first arrived in the capital, Fang Qiu had made an appointment with Director Chen Xiaogang to meet at the Yanqi Shooting Base.

Soon, they arrived at the base.

Fang Qiu saw the staff member that Director Chen Xiaogang had specially sent to welcome him.

When the staff member saw Fang Qiu walking over with a large group of people, he was totally dumbfounded.

He didn’t expect Fang Qiu to bring so many people with him.

In the end, he quickly arranged for a bus and brought everyone to the base. They arrived at the set where Director Chen Xiaogang was.

At this moment, Director Chen Xiaogang was busy surveying the set and selecting scenes.

Hearing the news of Fang Qiu's arrival, he went to welcome him right away.

However, when he saw a large group of people getting out of the bus, he was also stunned.

"What the f*ck! Is he coming for a gang fight? Why did he bring so many people here?"

Without delay, Director Chen Xiaogang went forward and pulled Fang Qiu aside when seeing him get out of the car. He whispered in Fang Qiu's ear, "What's going on? Why did you bring so many people here?"

"They are all action directors."

Fang Qiu smiled and continued, "Each of them is good at something different. Because I haven't read the script yet, I called them all over for you to select. You may choose whoever you like. Of course, if you like all of them, I have no objections!"

Hearing that, Chen Xiaogang was rendered speechless.

"Why is he so ambitious?"

Looking at Fang Qiu, Chen Xiaogang was at a loss for words. After all, he was the one who had taken the initiative to ask Fang Qiu to act in the movie. Additionally, he was not asked to pay for their travel expenses.

However, he couldn't figure out how Fang Qiu, who used to be such a reliable person, suddenly acted like this.

As Director Chen Xiaogang was lamenting inwardly, He Gaoming, who had just arrived, had begun to shout.

Glancing at the staff around, he began to ask, "Who is the action director? I heard that someone wants to compete with us. Come out!"

"I'm the action director of this movie!"

As soon as He Gaoming finished speaking, an old man, who was hale and hearty with a thin face, appeared in a Tang suit.

Looking from distance, one could tell that the old man had short gray hair. Although he looked old with many wrinkles on his face, he had bright, piercing eyes. He conveyed a sense of authority.

Behind him were several young men.

These young men all looked strong and fit. It was obvious that they were martial arts practitioners.

"You're the one who wants to compete with me?"

He Gaoming glanced at Eighth Master Li and said, "I don't bully my elders. How can I compete with you? Tell me!"

Chen Xiaogang frowned at He Gaoming.

"Why is this brat so talkative?" He complained inwardly.

As the director who took the initiative to invite Eighth Master Li, he was naturally on his side.

As far as he was concerned, Eighth Master Li was the best action director in the whole entertainment circle over the years. Otherwise, he would not have gone to invite him in person.

Today, he asked Fang Qiu to come here because he wanted him to know that Eighth Master Li was the best action director and was worthy of his respect.

With this in mind, Chen Xiaogang became even more dissatisfied when he saw He Gaoming provoking Eighth Master Li as soon as he arrived.

At a glance, he could tell that He Gaoming was immature!

He hoped that Eighth Master Li would teach this ignorant boy a lesson.

Fang Qiu stood aside, smiling and waiting to see what would happen next.

“Eighth Master, how do you want to compete?” Chen Xiaogang asked.

“Eighth Master.”

A young man behind Eighth Master Li whispered in his ear. After that, he took a tablet computer from a staff member and handed it to him.

With the tablet computer in hand, Eighth Master Li walked directly to Chen Xiaogang and Fang Qiu. He clicked on a video on the computer and showed it to them. Then he said, “Here are some of the moves I’ve sketched out for your style. Take a look first.”

After that, the video started playing.

Fang Qiu and Chen Xiaogang watched the video and found that it was like a small movie, without wires on actors. The two martial artists working for Eighth Master Li were leaping onto roofs and vaulting over walls in the movie. Their moves were natural, smooth, elegant, and wonderful.

Director Chen Xiaogang’s eyes lit up when he watched the video. It fit his setting for the movie.

“As expected, Eighth Master Li is amazing!” he exclaimed to himself.

He turned to look at Fang Qiu.

“Emm.”

Fang Qiu nodded and looked up.

Judging from the short video, these moves were indeed well designed. The video could surely impress the audience. Those who didn’t know the truth might think it was true.

Seeing that Fang Qiu and Director Chen Xiaogang were watching intently, He Gaoming speedily came forward and took several glances at the video. Then he suddenly smiled disdainfully and said, “It’s just so-so!”

Chen Xiaogang looked a little better after watching the video, but when he heard He Gaoming, his face promptly darkened. He glanced at He Gaoming with dissatisfaction and then turned to look at Fang Qiu, as if to say, “You got me a dumbass, didn’t you?”

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile and also felt that He Gaoming’s words were inappropriate. After all, Eighth Master Li was an elder, so He Gaoming had to show respect to him.

However, even though Fang Qiu had sensed Chen Xiaogang’s gaze, he could only pretend not to have seen it.

On the contrary, He Gaoming was in high spirits.

“You don’t believe me?”

Meeting Director Chen Xiaogang’s eyes, He Gaoming grinned, waved his hand, and said, “If you don’t believe me, you can choose two of my men at will. I’ll ask them to show you what a real expert from Wulin is like!”

He Gaoming's remarks stung Chen Xiaogang.

But Eighth Master Li's body trembled and his eyes lit up when he heard that!

Wulin?

Expert?

The more he practiced martial arts, the more he knew.

Of course, he knew that in this era, Wulin still existed. He had dreamed of entering Wulin all his life, but he had never been able to get in, so he admired and envied those from Wulin.

Now when he heard He Gaoming mention Wulin, his heartstrings were pulled again.

"Are these people from Wulin?" He wondered.

Hearing He Gaoming's words, Chen Xiaogang turned to look at Fang Qiu, only to find that Fang Qiu looked up at the sky at a 45-degree angle and did not want to meet his eyes at all.

Helplessly, Director Chen Xiaogang could only casually choose two people from the group that He Gaoming had brought here.

It turned out to be two of the eight people who were with Liang Fen. Their business was to practice the Combined Attack Sword Formation with He Gaoming.

The two of them were not nervous at all. They stepped forward directly, looked at each other, and smiled.

“Well, director.”

One of them asked, “Damage is inevitable. We have no problem performing here, but if we destroy something, do we have to pay for it?”

“No need.”

Chen Xiaogang pursed his lips at once, feeling speechless. He thought to himself, “What can you destroy?”

“Do you really think you’re experts in martial arts fiction?”

He did not believe that they could destroy anything here.

“That’s good.”

The two laughed and then stood in the center of the set at the same time, unsheathing their swords.

Of course, the long swords in their hands were not the ancient swords that Fang Qiu had given them. Later, He Gaoming asked Long Qiyun specifically for these swords so no one would catch the eye of others.

He Gaoming used John Doe’s connections to the extreme.

He was so thick-skinned that he would not leave unless Long Qiyun acceded to his demands.

Long Qiyun had no choice but to give him the swords.

“Clang!”

The sound of the long sword coming out of its sheath sounded like the roar of a dragon.

With everyone watching, the two of them instantly began to brandish the long swords in their hands and started a real fight.

The fight between two third-class Martial Superiors was not something fancy that ordinary people could perform. Everyone was deeply attracted by it at a glance.

“Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh.” It had its own sound effects.

There were also flashes of sword light.

The two men brandished their long swords and made beautiful shadows in the air. Their movements were swift and fierce.

At first glance, it gave people a sense of tension and excitement.

If one was stabbed, he would die on the spot!

Moreover, in the fight, the two deliberately showed off. Halfway through, they directly began to do something fancy. They flew over the set and went straight to the roof.

Chen Xiaogang’s eyes widened in shock when he saw that!

He looked at Fang Qiu in disbelief and then at He Gaoming. He was so shocked that he couldn’t utter a word.

Medical Master

Chapter 923: A One Million Contract!

“What the hell did I see???”

“Is, is this true?”

Director Chen Xiaogang was utterly dumbfounded.

He still couldn’t believe that such a scene would happen in front of him.

Who was he?

He was a famous director. He had been to all kinds of places and seen all sorts of experts, including those from famous martial arts sects. The best expert he had ever seen could at most do a quick climb over a wall five meters high. He had never seen such people who directly went straight up to the roof by stepping on the wall and fought.

This was the set.

Although the wall here was not high, the buildings all had eaves.

The two of them actually stepped on the wall to get to the roof, and when they got to the roof, they fought even harder!

This was exactly the fight in a martial arts drama!

“How much less effort will it take to make movies like this?”

“But, am I seeing this right?”

He rubbed his eyes hard and looked again.

Yes, the two men flew over the eaves and vault over the walls without wires on them?

Chen Xiaogang suddenly wanted to grab Fang Qiu who was looking at the sky at a 45-degree angle and ask him who the hell they were.

Zhao Rulong was also dumbstruck on one side!

He was the scriptwriter, and the fight in martial arts dramas he had imagined just consisted of some moves designed by Eighth Master Li. He had never seen such a real and powerful fighting scene.

This scene was beyond his wildest imagination!

Like him, everyone was stunned!

Eighth Master Li could not be more excited.

“Are they from Wulin?”

“Is this Wulin?”

“Does Wulin really exist?”

“I really saw it!”

His two young disciples stood there dumbfounded. They could only perform these moves wearing wires, but the two men actually did these stunts without using any external force!

They felt nothing but shock.

The two of them didn't receive any orders to stop, so they fought harder and harder. In the blink of an eye, they broke the roof and fell into the room.

In this situation where they couldn't stop fighting, they quickly tore down the house...

Chen Xiaogang was so shocked that he panicked at the sight of it.

"Alright, alright, stop it, stop it!"

As Chen Xiaogang was shouting, he pulled Fang Qiu's arm. "Hurry up and stop them! It won't be long before they tear up the whole scenery I've worked so hard to build!"

Noticing that Chen Xiaogang was panicking, Fang Qiu quickly said to He Gaoming, "Ask them to stop."

"Stop!"

He Gaoming shouted loudly, "Come back!"

Hearing him, the two of them stopped fighting at once.

Looking at the mess around them, they looked at each other, grinned, and quickly ran back.

"Director Chen, how is it?"

Seeing Chen Xiaogang's distressed look, He Gaoming walked up to him without delay and said proudly, "If you're not satisfied, I can show you more tricks. I'll find you whatever you want. I'm sure you'll be satisfied. What do you think?"

"No, no, no..."

Director Chen Xiaogang waved his hand repeatedly and forced a smile. "Stop tearing down the house. I cannot afford to get my scenery torn apart!"

"I haven't even started shooting yet, but I'm already losing money," he complained inwardly.

Hearing that, He Gaoming and the others burst into laughter.

Although they were not old, they were all from Wulin and were very observant. Thus, when they first arrived, they could tell that Director Chen Xiaogang did not like them. So they had been holding back their resentment.

"Didn't you think we couldn't do it?"

"We'll show you what we got!"

Seeing the distressed look on Chen Xiaogang's face, the resentment in their hearts was instantly dispelled.

Fang Qiu gave a wry smile when he saw this.

This group of people had love and hatred written all over their faces!

"Director Chen, don't worry. We won't tear down this house."

He Gaoming waved his hand at Chen Xiaogang and said, "How about this? We've come all the way to the capital to meet you. I have to get them to perform to see if you like it."

"How?"

Chen Xiaogang panicked. He feared that the scenery would be dismantled again.

"We'll perform on the set."

He Gaoming pointed to the empty field ahead and said, “Don’t worry. We won’t destroy a blade of grass or a tree here.”

“Okay, go ahead.”

Chen Xiaogang quickly nodded.

He knew very well that if the group of people recommended by Fang Qiu was as capable as the previous two men, it would be a treasure house full of endless wealth for him!

Nowadays, making a movie would cost a lot of money. The actors were unwilling to do stunts with wires on. The post-production special effects required a large sum of money too.

In addition, some of the moves could not be directly perceived through the senses at first, and he wouldn’t know whether they fitted or not until they were done.

If they didn’t fit, it would waste a lot of manpower, financial resources, and time.

If this team in front of him was really as capable as the two men, all he needed to do was shoot. There was no need for wires, special effects, and so on. Obviously, they could do whatever they were told to do directly.

This would save him a lot of time!

How much money would he save if he kept using this team to make movies?

More importantly, the fight between these people was very exciting and attractive!

If their acting skills were good, they would attract the audience’s attention as supporting roles!

These days, many people liked to go to the cinema to watch movies. Furthermore, he was a renowned director. In this way, he could make more money from shooting movies.

Not just...

When he thought of this, Director Chen Xiaogang's heart was filled with anticipation. He was looking forward to their performance!

"Okay."

With Director Chen Xiaogang's approval, He Gaoming shouted without hesitation, "Brothers, let's do it one by one. Show Director Chen what you are good at and let him know what you can do."

After that, under the leadership of He Gaoming, the group of people began to step out and perform one by one.

Everyone else was fascinated by their moves.

That was especially true of Chen Xiaogang.

His eyes were fixed on the performers before him. Their moves were masculine, graceful, swift, and tricky. In a word, there were all kinds of styles!

After watching everyone's performance, Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong had truly been impressed.

They stared at Fang Qiu with excitement and shock.

"Where on earth did you find all these people?" Chen Xiaogang asked inwardly.

He resisted the urge to speak up and looked at Eighth Master Li.

He wanted to see what Eighth Master Li would say.

Of course, he chose He Gaoming and his men!

“It turns out you are from Wulin. Sorry for being rude.”

Surprisingly, Eighth Master Li directly cupped his fists at He Gaoming and his men.

Chen Xiaogang was stunned by his action.

“Director Chen!”

After saluting He Gaoming and his men, Eighth Master Li immediately turned to Chen Xiaogang and said firmly, “Leave the martial arts guidance of this movie to them. There is absolutely no problem.”

Chen Xiaogang was shocked by his words.

He clearly remembered that when he just mentioned this to Eighth Master Li, the latter got angry with him at once. At that time, Eighth Master Li even said that no matter who came, he would surely defeat them.

However, to Chen Xiaogang’s surprise, Eighth Master Li was convinced in the blink of an eye.

Apart from that, he even took the initiative to put in a good word for them.

This change happened too fast, didn’t it?

As for Eighth Master Li's students, they had all been stunned aside. There was no hostility in their eyes when they looked at He Gaoming and his men. Instead, they were envious and eager to learn from them.

Astonished, Chen Xiaogang was finally able to breathe a sigh of relief.

Judging from Eighth Master Li's current behaviors, there was obviously no big problem with martial arts guidance.

Meanwhile, after putting in a good word for He Gaoming and his men, Eighth Master Li ran to He Gaoming and pulled him aside mysteriously, asking in a low voice, "Bro, can you give me some advice on how to break through to the Martial Superior Level?"

"How is it?"

Fang Qiu smiled and asked Director Chen, who had finished dealing with Eighth Master Li.

"Great!"

Like a chick pecking at rice, Chen Xiaogang nodded his head repeatedly and said, "Amazing! This team is greater than any of those large international special effects teams. They're perfect for this movie. Where did you get them?"

Fang Qiu answered, "The real Wulin."

"The real Wulin?"

Hearing that, Chen Xiaogang said, shocked, "So Wulin really exists. What an eye-opener! Now, I really believe that everything about Hero Yang Yizhi is true!"

Fang Qiu smiled.

With his effort, Director Chen Xiaogang signed an agreement with He Gaoming and his men to hire them as action directors. The total cost was one million!

He Gaoming and his men were on cloud nine after that.

While one million may seem like a lot, there were more than 30 people in this group. Each person could only get more than 30,000, but they felt contented.

After all, those from Wulin were poor!

Especially this group of people. Because they were devoted to cultivation, they had no time to make money in society. Now they finally made money.

After all this was done, Chen Xiaogang pulled Fang Qiu to the side and said, "Everything is ready now. If nothing goes wrong, we can start shooting in ten days."

"How long will it take to finish shooting?" Asked Fang Qiu.

"It should take half a year," Chen Xiaogang replied.

"Half a year?"

Fang Qiu was stunned. He didn't expect it to take so much time. He immediately shook his head and said, "I don't have that much time."

He had to become a highly-skilled doctor as soon as possible, so he didn't have that much time to make a movie.

"How much time do you have?" Chen Xiaogang asked.

A movie was an art form, but medical skills needed time to polish, so it would take a lot of time.

“One month at most,” Fang Qiu said after thinking for a while.

Chen Xiaogang frowned and did a rough calculation. Then, he nodded his head and said, “Deal.”

He thought that if Fang Qiu was good at acting, he could finish his part in a month.

Anyway, he could shoot others’ parts later.

Without delay, he pulled Fang Qiu to try his costume on.

After getting dressed and putting on makeup, Fang Qiu seemed to have changed into a completely different person. He looked particularly dashing and was in line with Chen Xiaogang’s requirements in all aspects.

Later, Chen Xiaogang had He Gaoming perform some moves for Fang Qiu to mimic.

To his surprise, Fang Qiu’s imitation was perfect!

It shocked the group of Martial Superiors that He Gaoming had brought along with him.

Chen Xiaogang was thrilled to bits. Since Fang Qiu was so quick to learn, the shooting would be faster. They wouldn’t be pressed for time.

After everything was done, Director Chen Xiaogang handed over the script to Fang Qiu. He wanted Fang Qiu to check if there was anything that he was dissatisfied with. If anything needed to be changed, there was still time to fix it.

Medical Master

Chapter 924: The Medical Conference Will Be Postponed

“What do you think about it? Is it okay?”

Chen Xiaogang and Zhao Rulong immediately asked after seeing that Fang Qiu finished reading the script.

“Well, not bad,” Fang Qiu nodded.

He was very satisfied with the plot of the script, which showed the righteousness of the young Yang Yizhi.

“When I just finished it, I’m very confident in it, but now, I think I should make some changes to it.”

Getting Fang Qiu’s recognition, Zhao Rulong smiled with satisfaction. He looked at He Gaoming and the others before saying, “This script is created based on the work of Eighth Master Li’s team. I didn’t expect that the martial arts instructor you brought over could make the action part so wonderful. Since I’ve seen this, I must go to talk with them and make some changes to the script.”

“Okay.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

He knew that the script had been almost completed, and they just needed to make some changes to the action part and how it would be shown. These changes would only improve the quality of the script, so Fang Qiu was not worried about it.

“Mr. He.”

Chen Xiaogang immediately shouted at He Gaoming after talking to Fang Qiu. Then, he beckoned He Gaoming to come over.

“What’s the matter, Director Chen?”

He Gaoming walked over, put his arm around Fang Qiu's shoulder, and asked with a smile.

"Oh, the screenwriter is looking for you."

Fang Qiu glanced at He Gaoming, pulled his hand off his shoulder, and said, "The script of the movie has been finished, and I think it's good, but your performance is so wonderful that the screenwriter wants to talk to you and see if he can improve the quality of the script."

"No problem."

He Gaoming immediately nodded and said, "This is my duty to perform my part well. Mr. Zhao, if you have any question to ask me, just say it and I'll tell you whatever I know."

"Thank you."

Zhao Rulong nodded with a smile.

"I also have something to say," Chen Xiaogang chimed in. "Although there is still some time before the start of the shooting, we need to make the best use of our time to design some wonderful martial moves. This will also make the shooting more efficient."

"Okay. We're free these days, so we'll stay here as long as you can provide food and accommodation for me and my crew," He Gaoming agreed readily.

"Of course. Shall we start now?"

Zhao Rulong took He Gaoming's hand and walked aside hurriedly. Then, they began to talk.

"Can I leave now?" Fang Qiu asked after He Gaoming and the others left.

“Yes,” Chen Xiaogang nodded and hesitated for a moment before adding quickly, “but I have one thing to discuss with you.”

“What is it?” Fang Qiu asked curiously.

“Your remuneration.”

Chen Xiaogang laughed and said, “I was planning to spend a day discussing it with you, but judging from what you said just now, you may not have that much time for me, so I decided to discuss it with you right now. I think it’s better to talk to you face to face since you don’t have an agent.”

“Okay,” Fang Qiu nodded.

“I’ve thought about it. Though you don’t have much experience in this industry, you’re as popular as an A-list star, so we’re thinking about paying you 15 million yuan as your remuneration. What do you think?” Chen Xiaogang asked with a smile.

Chen Xiaogang was telling the truth.

An A-list star would get at least 10 million yuan for playing a role in a movie. Though Fang Qiu didn’t have much experience in this industry, he was even more popular than some A-list stars. Besides, he just performed at the New Year’s Gala and his popularity was still growing. Thus, 15 million yuan was a reasonable number and even lower than what he deserved.

“I’m okay with that.”

Fang Qiu agreed without hesitation since he didn’t make a living by that.

“Good.”

Chen Xiaogang laughed and said, “I have already drafted up the contract. Would you like to take a look now?”

With that, Chen Xiaogang took out the contract he had prepared in advance.

Fang Qiu didn't bother to read it himself. He called He Xue, who had just returned to Huaxia, sent a picture of the contract to her, and asked her to have someone check out the contract.

He Xue received the contract at the cultivation base in Beijiang and read it. She was surprised to find that Fang Qiu could earn 15 million yuan from playing a role in a movie.

"Earning 15 million yuan in a month? Does he earn so much by making movies?" He Xue murmured in surprise.

She had the staff of the legal department check the contract carefully.

After making sure that there was no problem with the contract, she called Fang Qiu.

"How is it?" Fang Qiu picked up the phone and asked directly.

"I'm sure that there's nothing wrong with this contract."

Curious, He Xue added, "I'm curious about one thing. You're famous now, and the remuneration is reasonable. But why would you accept a fixed remuneration? You could have asked for a share of the final earnings of the movie, and you will earn a lot."

"Well, I don't make a living by that."

Fang Qiu smiled and said, "Besides, this is my first cooperation with Director Chen, so I'll just take it as a chance to make friends with him."

"How could you miss such a good opportunity to make fortune? You fool!" He Xue complained.

"If there's no problem with the contract, I'm hanging up," Fang Qiu replied with a smile and then hung up.

"So you have an agent team?"

After Fang Qiu hung up the phone, Chen Xiaogang asked curiously, "Why didn't you bring them with you?"

"No, it's just a friend," Fang Qiu replied.

"I see."

Chen Xiaogang nodded his head in understanding.

"The contract is fine. I'll sign it right now."

After saying that, Fang Qiu found a pen and signed his name on the contract that Chen Xiaogang had prepared beforehand.

After that, he said, "If there is nothing else, I'm leaving now. I'll come back on time in ten days."

"Okay, have a nice journey."

Chen Xiaogang waved goodbye to Fang Qiu and even specially had a staff member see Fang Qiu off.

"Beep, beep, beep..."

On the way back to the capital from Yanqi Shooting Base, Fang Qiu's cell phone in his trouser pocket suddenly rang.

The phone call was from Xu Miaolin.

Fang Qiu took out his phone and when he saw the caller ID, his heart suddenly skipped a beat. He was a little flustered and had a bad foreboding.

“Hello?”

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“Fang Qiu.”

Xu Miaolin’s voice came from the other end of the line. “I just got the news that the medical conference won’t be held in advance and it’s unlikely that it will be held on time. Possibly, it will be postponed for two years!”

“What?”

Fang Qiu’s mind went blank after he heard this. He was stunned and couldn’t control his feelings. “Why?” he asked in a tone of shock and anger.

Xu Miaolin knew why Fang Qiu would react like that. He also knew that Fang Qiu had been looking forward to the medical conference and his body condition was fine now. However, since Fang Qiu had spent so much time studying Chinese Medicine and been working hard to become a highly-skilled doctor, he must have his reasons. Besides, the symptom Xu Miaolin found from Fang Qiu could be of those who had a close relationship with him even if it was not Fang Qiu’s.

Therefore, Xu Miaolin called Fang Qiu as soon as he heard the news.

Because he knew that Fang Qiu wanted to attend the medical conference eagerly, Xu Miaolin was not angry at Fang Qiu’s reaction. Instead, he replied in a gentle tone, “It’s because of your book, Chinese Medicine in Human Body.”

“What do you mean?”

Fang Qiu was dumbfounded.

“Because of my book, the medical conference will be delayed for two years? How could this be? Why?” he wondered.

“You may not know it yourself.”

Xu Miaolin sighed softly and continued, “As I said, once your book is circulated on the market, it will inevitably cause a sensation in the whole Chinese Medicine circle. You don’t know how attractive your book is to those highly-skilled doctors!

“Now, all the highly-skilled doctors in the country are studying your books. The medical conference is postponed to give those highly-skilled doctors enough time to study your book thoroughly. Only after they study your book thoroughly can they communicate more efficiently in the conference.”

Fang Qiu was stunned in an instant after hearing the words.

A bitter expression appeared on his face.

“I shouldn’t have written this book!”

Grinding his teeth, Fang Qiu unconsciously clenched his fists tightly and said with remorse, “How I wish it would only be postponed for half a year.”

“Don’t be too upset.”

Xu Miaolin frowned after hearing Fang Qiu’s words of remorse and said immediately, “As I said, it’s just possible; it’s not certain. A poll will be held in one month and a half to decide when to hold the conference, and by then, we’ll know if the conference will be postponed or not. Let’s wait patiently for further news.”

"Can you persuade them into holding it on time?" Fang Qiu asked through clenched teeth.

"I'll try but it'll be difficult."

Xu Miaolin shook his head and continued, "Because they're not just facing you. Though your medical skills and talent have attracted their attention, they are experienced doctors and would think differently from ordinary people. For them, they would rather postpone the conference and improve their medical skills than meet you now for discussion."

"A doctor should have a kind heart."

Xu Miaolin sighed softly and said, "You know what they would choose so as to save more people. After all, no one would break the rule in the industry."

"I see."

Fang Qiu gritted his teeth tightly, opened his mouth wide, and took a deep breath, trying to calm down. However, he couldn't help gritting his teeth again as he said, "I'll wait for further news."

"Good."

Xu Miaolin nodded and said, "Don't be upset. There is still hope as long as the thing hasn't happened. If those doctors could study your book thoroughly in one month and a half, the conference may be held on time."

"Okay, I see."

Fang Qiu nodded, closed his eyes slowly with a tired look on his face, and hung up the phone.

Medical Master

Chapter 925: Choosing Another Two Prescriptions

Fang Qiu rested with his eyes closed on the way back.

After the phone call, his feelings became complicated.

He was both worried and angry and blamed himself. But he also held onto the hope that the conference would be held on time.

For the first time, he, who was in the Guru Realm, could not control his feelings.

“What should I do now?”

“What if the conference is postponed?”

“If it’s postponed, how can I gather all those highly-skilled doctors and holy doctors to treat my master?”

“Where is he now?”

“He has been ill for so long. Is he alright now? Can he hold on? How long will he hold on?”

Fang Qiu was so worried about his master’s illness.

Curing his master’s illness had been his biggest wish and something he must do since he could remember. He had put in much effort and finally saw the hope. However, now, the hope was going to be shattered.

Two years!

Could his master hold on for another two years?

The more he thought about it, the more complicated his feelings were!

“Alas, is there nothing I can do but wait?” He wondered.

Shaking his head firmly, Fang Qiu tried hard to keep a clear mind. “It will take me a month to finish my part in the movie, and by then, the result of the poll will come out. I have signed the contract, and even if I quit now and try my best to practice, I won’t be able to become a highly-skilled doctor in such a short period.

“I can only try to improve my strength while making the film.”

Then, he thought of the last time he met with his master.

“Obtain two flowers in my dantian!

“As long as I obtain two flowers in my dantian, my master will show up.

“My master is a man of his words. He certainly will keep his promise.

“I know little about his health condition, so I can consider what to do next only after he shows up.

“If all this fails, I will bring those highly-skilled doctors and holy doctors to see my master even if I have to tie them up.”

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu immediately made up his mind.

He had to improve his strength as quickly as possible and obtain two flowers in his dantian as soon as possible!

He bought an air ticket to Beijiāng as soon as he arrived in the capital.

On the way back to the cultivation base, he called all his companions and told them to come back to the cultivation base to discuss the matter about the Snow Lotus.

The next day, all the people gathered in the office of the cultivation base.

Fang Qiu sat by his desk with a pale face.

“What’s the matter?” Seeing Fang Qiu’s pale face, Zhu Benzhen immediately asked him with concern.

“Why is your face so pale? You don’t look well. Are you ill?” He added.

“I’ve never seen you so pale before except during the competition between the eight schools. Are you poisoned again?” Zhou Xiaotian also asked worriedly.

“If you got a problem, just tell us. We’re good friends, and we’re worried about you,” Sun Hao also said in an extremely serious tone.

Hearing those words, Zhao Shanlin and He Xue also could tell that Fang Qiu didn’t look well. They all showed their concern at once.

“I’m fine.”

Fang Qiu shook his head gently and replied, “Don’t worry. I’m a doctor, so I can take good care of myself.”

Hearing this, everyone was slightly relieved.

Fang Qiu was the backbone of the group, so they must make sure that he was fine.

Despite Fang Qiu's reply, they were still worried about him as he looked really pale.

In fact, Fang Qiu was just too worried about his master, which caused him to be anxious and look pale.

"The meeting starts."

He stood up, walked to the sofa, and sat down with everyone. "We have successfully cultivated some Tianshan Snow Lotuses, and we can keep cultivating and even cultivate more Snow Lotuses according to the current model. The purpose of today's meeting is to discuss how to use them, and about that, I have two ideas," he said.

"First, we can choose to continue our cooperation with Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. I'll provide them with the formula of the medicine and sell the Snow Lotuses to them at a high price. In this way, we will just need to cultivate the lotuses and provide them with the lotuses on time. We won't be tired, but Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation will get the most of the profits.

"My second idea is, we can choose to do the business ourselves!"

As soon as he said that, everyone got a little excited.

They were going to make a fortune if they chose to do the business on their own.

"I support your second idea," He Xue said.

"Our motive for starting a company is to make money. So how can we give this great opportunity of making a lot of money to others?"

"I agree."

Zhu Benzhen nodded and said, "If we produce medicine by ourselves, we can guarantee the good quality of the medicine. I don't mean that the quality of the medicine produced by Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation is not good. I just think that we could produce better medicine."

"I agree. I also support the idea that we do the business on our own."

Sun Hao nodded in agreement. "Isn't that why we have started a company?"

"Mr. Zhao, what do you think?"

Fang Qiu looked at Zhao Shanlin.

"In terms of business, I also hope that we can do it ourselves."

Zhao Shanlin said slowly, "But I'm wondering if we will offend Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation by stopping cooperating with them. After all, their president, Yang Ningyuan, has always been nice to us."

"I'm thinking about that, too."

Fang Qiu nodded and continued, "Previously, I let them run the Desert Cistanche business alone because I wanted to gain some experience from them and lay a foundation for our own business. Now I think it's time we run our own business. But once it starts, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation and we will become competitors. How should we deal with the relationship?"

Speaking of this, Fang Qiu turned to look at He Xue.

He knew that He Xue would offer a good suggestion because she was an expert in this field, and this was also one of the reasons why Fang Qiu asked her to attend the meeting.

"How should we deal with it?"

"Well, business is business, and it's just about benefits, not friendship. Whoever has the better product will win!" He Xue shook her head calmly and spoke matter-of-factly.

“Well, you have a point but those words are not pleasing to the ear.”

Fang Qiu shook his head and frowned slightly.

It was really difficult for him to handle the relationship with Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

After all, Yang Ningyuan had helped him a lot. Although Fang Qiu had once saved Yang Ningyuan’s life, there was a super-rich man, Li Qihua, behind Yang Ningyuan.

It would be hard for Fang Qiu to deal with both Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua at the same time.

“So you’re trying to think of a win-win solution?” He Xue asked.

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“OK.”

He Xue nodded with understanding, thought for a moment, and said, “How about this? You give me the finished products that are made of Snow Lotuses and make sure that their efficacy is better than that of Desert Cistanche. Besides, I need a medical product mainly made of Desert Cistanche with better efficacy than that of the two products produced by Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. Then, you can leave the matter to me.”

“Are you sure you can handle it?”

Fang Qiu glanced at He Xue in surprise.

“Yes,” He Xue said confidently with a smile.

“Alright.” Fang Qiu nodded.

Since He Xue was recruited by him, he chose to believe her.

If she failed, he would clean up the mess for her.

“Then that’s decided. The meeting is over. I’m going to make medicine first.”

Fang Qiu made the final decision. Then he stood up, walked out of the office, and was ready to make medicine.

The others also got busy with their own affairs.

Fang Qiu took some people to collect the first batch of ripe Snow Lotuses and then went to the processing room. Among the ancient prescriptions he could remember, he chose two prescriptions with Snow Lotus as the main ingredient.

The first one was the Holy Flowers Formula.

The ingredients included Snow Lotus, peach blossom (collected on March 3rd), Fructus Tribuli (collected on July 7th), Camomile (collected on September 9th), the leaves of matrimony vine (collected in spring), the blossom of matrimony vine (collected in summer), the fruit of matrimony vine (collected in autumn), the root of matrimony vine (collected in winter), and etc.

Process Method: Dry the ingredients naturally in shade.

How to take it: mix 10 grams of the medicine with water and take it at a time, and three times a day. One can take this medicine for a long period.

Effects: It can lighten human bodies and make people move and jump freely. It also can cure all kinds of illnesses, help people retain their youthful looks, prolong people's lifespan, and make people more energetic.

When Fang Qiu first found this prescription, he was stunned.

That was because this prescription had better efficacy than Life-prolonging Earth Pill. It not only could help people retain their youthful looks but also could slow down people's aging. This effect was simply amazing.

Besides, since this prescription could help people retain their youthful looks, it could also nurse people's health well. Its efficacy was definitely much better than that of Life-prolonging Earth Pill if people took it for long.

The most important thing was that it had irresistible appeal to women.

Almost every woman wanted to look young forever.

The second prescription was Fine Jade Paste.

The ingredients included rehmannia glutinosa, ginseng, poria, white honey, and Snow Lotus.

Process Method: mash rehmannia glutinosa into a soft mass for juicing, add ginseng, poria, and white honey into the juice, put all of them into a porcelain container, and wait for three to four hours before taking it. Take two spoons of it with warm wine or water if one doesn't drink wine, two to three times a day.

Effects: Taking it for a long time can replenish one's essence, nourish one's marrow, cultivate one's nature, nourish one's body, and cure illnesses. When one became energetic and his organs were in a good state, his hair would become black again from white and his teeth that had fallen would grow again as well. Besides, it would strengthen one's body and increase one's strength.

"This prescription is better than Trillium Root-Securing Pill!"

After reading the prescription, Fang Qiu immediately realized that its efficacy would be good.

After all, Trillium Root-Securing Pill could only prevent one's hair and beard from turning white early, but Fine Jade Paste could help one's hair and beard grow again. From this, one could tell that the efficacy of Fine Jade Paste was much better than that of Trillium Root-Securing Pill

Though it was paste, one could take it together with wine, enjoying the wine and curing the illness at a time.

This was a good product for wine lovers!

"I'll choose these two prescriptions."

Fang Qiu wrote down the two prescriptions and chose them in the end.

However, something bothered him after he made the decision—the ingredients of Holy Flowers Formula must be collected at the designated time, which was a high requirement.

After thinking about it again, Fang Qiu believed that the Snow Lotus, which contained a lot of Qi of Heaven and Earth, could help the formula achieve the same effect even if the other ingredients were not collected at the designated time.

Despite that, he decided that if possible, he would collect the ingredients strictly according to the prescription.

"Where can I get peach blossom that was collected on March 3rd, Fructus Tribuli that was collected on July 7th, and Camomile that was collected on September 9th?" he wondered with a wry smile.

Then, he thought of Xu Miaolin and immediately called him.

"Hello?"

Xu Miaolin answered the phone.

“Mr. Xu, do you know where I can buy some medicinal ingredients which were collected at the designated time?”

“Why are you asking this?”

Upon hearing his words, Xu Miaolin immediately asked, “Do you want to make medicine?”

“Yes.”

Fang Qiu nodded.

“Well, you asked the right person!”

Xu Miaolin smiled proudly and said, “I’ll give you an address later. You can find what you need there.”

“Really?”

Fang Qiu was overjoyed.

“Well, that place sells all kinds of medicinal ingredients which were collected strictly according to ancient prescriptions. So you surely can find what you want there,” Xu Miaolin replied confidently.

Medical Master

Chapter 926: Expensive Medicinal Herbs!

After receiving Xu Miaolin’s text message, Fang Qiu then knew that what he referred to was a place that supplied medicinal herbs picked while people strictly followed the ancient prescriptions. It was located in a Flower and Bird Market.

Without hesitation, he immediately rushed to the capital.

Following the address given by Xu Miaolin, Fang Qiu arrived at a relatively old Flower and Bird Market in the suburbs of the capital.

Given that it was in the suburbs of the city, the Flower and Bird Market was not as lively as imagined. There were no noisy sounds of animals or the smell of pet feces in it.

As Fang Qiu entered the market, he found it extremely quiet and relaxing.

There were plenty of shops there. However, those were no pet stores like the popular ones nowadays. Instead, most of the stores sold flowers, plants, antiques, wood, and stones.

He walked all the way to the innermost part of the Flower and Bird Market.

Fang Qiu saw an antique building.

It was a courtyard.

There was a rockery with flowers, grass, and a clear pool in the yard.

A one-meter-high wall surrounded the courtyard. The main entrance was a round-arched gate. There was a path leading from the gate to the door of the ancient building in the yard.

“Ancient Workshop!” Walking on the path, Fang Qiu looked up and saw a plaque with gold lettering on a red background hanging on the door of the ancient building.

This was where Xu Miaolin asked him to come.

He walked into the hall of the ancient building.

Fang Qiu turned his head and swept around. He found that the furnishings in the hall of the ancient building were like regular Chinese Medicine pharmacies, but there was no strong smell of Chinese herbs. Instead, there was a faint fragrance.

As he looked towards the counter, a young man was sitting in front of the counter, reading a book intently at the moment.

Fang Qiu walked up to have a look.

The book the young man was reading was actually Chinese Medicine in Human Body.

“Hello, what do you need?” Asked the young man as he raised his head and glanced at Fang Qiu who was wearing a mask.

“I want some herbs which only grow at specific times.” Without delay, Fang Qiu took out a piece of paper from his trouser pocket and handed it to the young man.

The young man stood up.

He pressed the book with a square paperweight on the counter, then took the paper handed over by Fang Qiu. After looking at it carefully, he suddenly raised his head and said with a smile to Fang Qiu, “Is this the Holy Flowers Formula? Are you going to give it to your girlfriend?”

Fang Qiu was stunned.

He didn’t expect this young man to know the formula.

It seemed that this small place was also full of unknown talents!

“Let me remind you. This formula sounds good, but it’s actually useless.”

The young man curled his lips and kindly reminded him.

As soon as he said that, Fang Qiu was stunned again.

It was obvious that this young man had tried this formula before.

However, it was normal that he thought this formula was useless because it wouldn’t work if made from ordinary medicinal herbs.

But the young man didn’t delay any longer. As soon as he finished speaking, he immediately went to get the herbs for Fang Qiu.

“All right,” After a while, the young man took all the herbs and said, “these herbs I got were strictly followed the Holy Flowers Formula. The weight is also based on the amount you wrote. Check if the weight is right.”

“How much is it?” Fang Qiu took a glance and asked the price after confirming the weight.

Before he came here, he had already made a plan.

Because the Tianshan Snow Lotus contained the Qi of Heaven and Earth, it was possible that he could achieve the effect that the Holy Flowers Formula described even without the herbs which only grew at specific times. Therefore, Fang Qiu planned to buy the amount that one set of the drug needed first, and then buy some herbs which didn’t need to grow at certain times. He would take them back and process them at the same time, see the efficacy of the medicine, and then make a decision.

“15,000,” said the young man.

Fang Qiu was shocked when he heard that.

This price was far higher than that of ordinary herbs.

“These are herbs which only grow at specific times. There is only a certain amount every year. And they are only sold at certain times every year. This price is not expensive. Besides, the amount you need is too much,” the young man said blandly.

It seemed that he was sure that Fang Qiu would take the herbs, so he didn’t intend to put them away. Instead, they sat down directly and continued reading.

“That’s right. The herbs that took so much effort to get are worth such a price!” Fang Qiu exclaimed, paid for it, and then left.

The young man also bowed to greet him leaving.

Fang Qiu walked out of the ancient building.

“It’s too expensive. If all the drugs are produced according to this quality, the cost will be too high. Moreover, the number of herbs that grow at certain times is limited. I can’t collect too much even if I want to.”

With this in mind, he walked out of the Flower and Bird Market and went to an ordinary medicinal herbs market. He bought all kinds of ordinary flowers there and all the herbs needed for the second formula before returning to Beijiāng.

At the cultivation base in Beijiāng, as soon as he came back, Fang Qiu immediately took some snow lotuses, walked into the pharmacy, and began to process the medicine.

The first thing was the Holy Flowers Formula!

Two sets of medicine were made at the same time. One set was made from ordinary medicinal herbs and Tianshan Snow Lotus. The other set was made according to the requirements of the ancient prescription with Tianshan Snow Lotus.

If it was a normal process of producing drugs, it would take at least a few days to complete it.

But Fang Qiu had internal Qi.

With the help of his internal Qi, he finished making the two sets of drugs in a very short time.

“I hope the efficacy will be the same.”

After Fang Qiu finished making the drugs, he took them with warm water.

At the same time, he immediately closed his eyes and used Insight to observe how the drug worked in his body, carefully feeling the efficacy of the drug.

The first one was the Holy Flowers Formula which he made by strictly following the ancient prescription.

After taking it, Fang Qiu found that the effect of this prescription was exceptional, which was like what was described in the ancient prescription.

After using his internal Qi to fully process the efficacy of the first drug, Fang Qiu took the second one with warm water, which was made from ordinary herbs.

It turned out that the efficacy of the two drugs was almost the same.

“It really is the same!” This outcome surprised Fang Qiu.

“It seems that the Tianshan Snow Lotus with Qi of Heaven and Earth is really effective!”

Undoubtedly, since the two sets of drugs had the same effect, Fang Qiu didn’t have to worry about the medicinal herbs that only grew at specific times. He could directly use ordinary medicinal herbs!

After confirming the first formula, Fang Qiu immediately began to make the second drug—Fine Jade Paste!

This time, because he only needed to make one set, Fang Qiu could completely focus on one thing. He quickly made the Fine Jade Paste and then took it to observe the efficacy.

As expected, the Tianshan Snow Lotus, which contained the Qi of Heaven and Earth, indeed provided a very good foundation for the Fine Jade Paste. It made the effect of the Fine Jade Paste much better than described in the ancient prescription.

“Done.” After testing all the drugs, Fang Qiu was greatly relieved.

Just as he was about to give the two drugs to He Xue, Fang Qiu suddenly thought of what she had said before.

“I also need a formula with Desert Cistanche as the main herb!” Fang Qiu was well aware that the reason why He Xue asked for this was that she wanted to enhance her bargaining chip.

Therefore, Fang Qiu had to carefully select this formula.

Fang Qiu stayed in the pharmacy and pondered for a long time before he ultimately found a suitable formula—All Nourishing Essence Pill!

The formula was made from Schisandra, Cooked Rehmannia, Duzhong, Desert Cistanche, Chinese Yam, Achyranthes Bidentata, Alisma Plantago, Poria Coccus, Cornus, Polygala Tenuifolia, Halloysitum Rubrum, Semen Platycladi, and Gypsum Fibrosum.

It could nourish kidney essence, strengthen body resistance, and cultivate the spirit. It was suitable for people suffering from deficiency of blood essence, weak constitution, and weak kidney to take it constantly. If people practicing Kung Fu took it for a long time, they could surely replenish their internal Qi, become energetic, and improve their kung fu.

The reason why Fang Qiu chose this formula was that he had carefully considered that this formula had no side effects at all. Moreover, if drugs were made according to this formula, the efficacy would definitely be better than that of the Life-prolonging Earth Pill and Trillium Root-Securing Pill.

There was another very important point.

It was because this pill seemed to be very suitable for Wulin people. He could take the opportunity to make some for He Gaoming and the others. Maybe it could help them enhance their strength.

He started to make it as soon as he decided.

Fang Qiu immediately found the medicinal herbs and began to process the drug.

Soon, he finished processing the drug.

As before, he took it directly to have a test. As a result, he found that the efficacy of this drug was truly good, and after taking it, there was indeed a trace of internal Qi added to his body.

“According to this efficacy, this kind of drug should be effective for the martial arts practitioners below the sixth class. It’s just suitable for them.”

Fang Qiu nodded and made up his mind.

He got everything ready.

Fang Qiu took the finished products of the Holy Flowers Formula and the Fine Jade Paste and the formula of All Nourishing Essence Pill back to the office and called He Xue.

“Hello?” Soon, the call was got through.

“Everything you need is ready. I’ll wait for you in the office,” said Fang Qiu.

“Okay.” He Xue replied and then hung up.

Soon, He Xue came to the office.

“These are the two formulas we made ourselves. These are the finished products made according to the two formulas.” Without saying anything else, Fang Qiu handed the formulas directly to He Xue.

He Xue took it and had a look.

When she saw the introduction of the efficacy of the Holy Flowers Formula, she then couldn’t take her eyes off it.

“Is this efficacy real?” He Xue asked doubtfully.

“Yes.” Fang Qiu nodded with certainty.

“I have to give it a try then.” Picking up the finished product of Holy Flowers Formula, He Xue gulped down a spoonful of it and took it with a cup of warm water.

“How much should I take before it works?” He Xue asked after taking the drug.

“Three times a day. 10 grams each time. It will work in about a week,” said Fang Qiu.

He Xue cheered happily and said, “Okay. If there really such an effect like it’s written on the formula, I’m willing to come to work even if you don’t give me money.”

“Okay, then I won’t give you salary anymore,” Fang Qiu replied at once.

“Humph.” He Xue rolled her eyes at Fang Qiu speechlessly.

“This is the Desert Cistanche formula I prepared for you.”

Fang Qiu then handed over the formula of the All Nourishing Essence Pill and said, “This formula is more effective than the medicine that Hua Yuan is selling now, but it only improves a little.”

“Not bad. It’s very suitable.” Nodding her head in satisfaction, He Xue commented, “Fang Qiu, I didn’t expect you to be so thorough.”

After saying that, she directly wrapped up all the drugs and formulas.

“I’ll take these things for the relevant tests, including pesticide residues, heavy metal content, and so on. These are indispensable. Besides, I still need time to run an efficacy test of the drugs.” He Xue said as she put things away.

“How long will it take?” Asked Fang Qiu.

“Three to seven days,” He Xue answered casually and turned to leave.

Watching He Xue’s receding figure, Fang Qiu breathed a sigh of relief.

Now that the matter of the snow lotus had been completed, he only needed to wait for the result of He Xue’s tests. As long as there was no problem with the test, Fang Qiu could leave everything to them and let the company start operating officially.

Chapter 927: Is There Really Wulin?

“Beep, beep, beep...” Three days later, Fang Qiu, who was inspecting around the cultivation base, received a call from He Xue.

“Hello?” Fang Qiu answered the phone.

“The result comes out.” He Xue’s excited voice sounded from the other end of the line. “It’s just like what you said. The medicinal properties of these two drugs are shocking, and there aren’t any harmful substances in them after running the tests of professional organizations. That also means that we can start working now.”

“I’ll leave the rest to you then?” Asked Fang Qiu with a smile.

“Don’t worry and go to make the movie. When you come back, I will definitely settle everything for you,” He Xue said confidently.

“Okay,” Fang Qiu nodded with a smile and said, “if you really settle everything, I will let you take the Holy Flowers Formula for free in the future!”

“It’s a deal!” He Xue grew even more excited.

It was the Holy Flowers Formula.

The efficacy was extraordinary. She even felt that once it was sold in the market, its supply would definitely fall short of demand. At that time, she would not be able to buy it herself even if she wanted to.

As she thought about it, she knew that this benefit was no different from giving her money.

Getting Fang Qiu’s promise was equivalent to getting endless drugs of this formula in her lifetime. How could she not be ecstatic?

“The Story of Hero Yang Yizhi officially announced that the leading man of the movie is Fang Qiu. The movie will officially start shooting in recent days!”

Meanwhile, this news was suddenly released.

As soon as the news came out, it immediately attracted the attention of countless people on the Internet.

“The Story of Hero Yang Yizhi? Fang Qiu?”

“Is this the temporary movie name?”

“I didn’t expect it to be Fang Qiu! I thought they were simply having a meal together before New Year.”

“Does Fang Qiu play Hero Yang Yizhi?”

“Can he do that?”

“Fang Qiu isn’t an actor. Can he play this role well?”

On the Internet, people who saw this news immediately began to discuss it.

They heard some related news before.

At that time, everyone thought that it was hype. Although some people took photos of Fang Qiu having dinner with Director Chen Xiaogang, they did not think that Fang Qiu would really play a role in this movie eventually.

But now, they officially confirmed that Fang Qiu would be the leading man of the movie.

This greatly surprised everyone.

Even Fang Qiu’s fans did not believe that Fang Qiu could truly play a role in this movie. Although they hoped that Fang Qiu could do it, as others said, they also knew that Fang Qiu was not an actor. Although the person he cooperated with was the famous director—Chen Xiaogang, how could Fang Qiu, who had never learned acting before, be qualified to play such a role?

There were even some fans of Fang Qiu who didn't want him to act in this movie because reputation was of vital importance in today's entertainment industry!

Without professional acting skills, Fang Qiu would easily attract the ridicule of countless netizens if he acted in such a movie, which would damage Fang Qiu's reputation.

The most important thing was that Fang Qiu was a Chinese Medicine doctor!

But even so, after learning the news that Fang Qiu would play in the movie, his fans were also overjoyed.

Although they were worried, they also knew that Fang Qiu would never do anything he was not sure of.

That was to say, since Fang Qiu agreed to play in the movie, it meant that he was confident that he could play the role well.

Meanwhile, hearing the news, the famous actors and actresses in the entertainment circle were all speechless.

Most of them specialized in acting. Even if some stars weren't specialized in acting, they had accumulated a great deal of acting experience.

In terms of playing a role properly, they were surely better than Fang Qiu and more suitable for this role.

At first, when they heard that Fang Qiu would play in the movie, they felt that it was impossible. Considering Chen Xiaogang's meticulous character, he would never do anything reckless.

They didn't expect that he had actually decided.

“What the f*ck, is Director Chen Xiaogang crazy? Why did he sign Fang Qiu?”

“It’s Fang Qiu again. Why is it always Fang Qiu?”

“Damn, is such a good chance actually given to him again?”

“Why is everything related to Fang Qiu?”

All the famous actors were angry.

However, at the moment, another piece of breaking news appeared on the Internet!

“According to a reliable source, not only did Fang Qiu get the opportunity to play in the movie about Yang Yizhi but the action direction team of this movie was also recommended by Fang Qiu. It is said that this is one of the requirements of Fang Qiu if they want them to act in the movie. In the end, in order to sign Fang Qiu, Director Chen Xiaogang could only give in.”

As soon as this news came out, there was an uproar on the Internet.

All kinds of comments appeared one after another.

“Really? Did Fang Qiu really do that?”

“Fang Qiu is too snotty, isn’t he? Director Chen Xiaogang only let him play the role because he admires him. He hasn’t learned anything. It’s incredibly lucky for him to be able to play the leading role. How dare he force Director Chen Xiaogang to use the action direction team that he recommended?”

“What I’m curious about is that Fang Qiu actually knows action directors.”

“He is just a student. How many martial arts practitioners can he know?”

“That is right. This is simply a threat. I feel sorry for Director Chen Xiaogang!”

Seeing so many negative comments about Fang Qiu, Fang Qiu’s fans hurriedly took action and began to fight for justice for Fang Qiu.

“Just wait and see. Our Master Fang Qiu will never do anything that he is not sure of. Just wait to be slapped in the face!”

“We believe in Master Fang Qiu.”

“Director Chen Xiaogang is not someone who can be threatened just because he wants to. Besides, Master Fang Qiu is a kind-hearted person. How could he possibly threaten Director Chen Xiaogang? Since Chen Xiaogang agrees, it means that Chen Xiaogang himself agrees to do that. What does that have to do with Fang Qiu?”

Although Fang Qiu’s fans argued strongly on just grounds, they were still a little worried.

After all, there were no routines in martial arts. One had to perform well in movies, which should be in line with the role’s character. Although Fang Qiu knew Qigong, it was different from martial arts. Did Fang Qiu really know martial arts masters?

Action direction was the essence of the whole movie. Once there was a problem with that, the whole movie would be finished.

This was a mug’s game. Why did Fang Qiu do it?

In the film industry, when many action direction teams heard the news, they all began to inquire about it. Eventually, they got inside information from their peers.

“What? Is it Eighth Master Li?”

“Did the action direction team recommended by Fang Qiu replace Eighth Master Li’s team?”

“Eighth Master Li’s team was replaced?”

“Is Chen Xiaogang out of his mind?”

“Fang Qiu is such a snotty man. He has gone too far!”

“He even dared to steal Eighth Master Li’s work. We must teach Fang Qiu a good lesson. Otherwise, the action direction team he recommended will patronize us in the future.”

Soon, numerous action direction teams called Eighth Master Li one after another.

However, they learned from Eighth Master Li that he was the one who volunteered to give up to the team Fang Qiu recommended because Eighth Master Li admitted that he couldn’t compare with them since every member of the action direction team that Fang Qiu recommended was a real Wulin person.

Hearing Eighth Master Li’s words, all the action directors in the industry were shocked.

Since Eighth Master Li had said so, what else could they do? They could only plan to go to the scene in person to see if this action direction team was really as remarkable as Eighth Master Li said!

However, right at this moment, another piece of news came out from a famous gossip Weibo account.

“Shocked! According to a reliable source, to film The Story of Hero Yang Yizhi properly, Director Chen Xiaogang had invited real martial arts experts to be the action directors of this movie. He wanted to show everyone what a real Wulin is like!”

It was posted with the help of the first two pieces of breaking news.

Seeing this news, everyone was stunned.

“What do you mean?”

“The real Wulin?”

“Does Wulin really exist?”

“They said Fang Qiu was the one who recommended the team, then they said Chen Xiaogang was the one who found it. I felt dizzy now.”

“Is this hype?”

All kinds of public opinion rose on the Internet again.

More and more people felt that the spread of all the news was entirely for the sake of hyping the movie.

That was true.

There was nothing wrong with the first two revelations. However, this third one was deliberately made by a marketing company that was working with Director Chen Xiaogang. Their purpose was to hype the movie.

But the company didn’t expect that as soon as the news came out, Director Chen Xiaolian, who was ready to shoot in the movie studio base, immediately received a mysterious phone call.

“Hello?” Chen Xiaogang answered the phone.

“Hello, I’m from the National Security Division.”

A rather serious voice came from the other end of the phone. "Director Chen Xiaogang, isn't your new movie's publicity a little too much? Don't you know that there's something that you shouldn't say?"

Security Division?

Chen Xiaogang was dumbfounded.

"What, what do you mean?" Chen Xiaolian was confused.

"I'll give you ten minutes. Remove all the things related to Wulin immediately. Don't talk nonsense in the future, or you will have to bear the consequences!"

A cold snort came from the other end of the line.

As soon as he finished speaking, the phone was hung up.

Chen Xiaogang looked at the phone number with a puzzled look on his face. Then, he quickly sent someone to check it out. It turned out that it was really a number from the National Security Division.

Cold sweat broke out all over Chen Xiaogang's body and he finally came to his senses.

Why wasn't the real Wulin exposed to the public? Why didn't ordinary people know about the existence of Wulin at all?

All of this was because of the government!

At the thought of this, Chen Xiaogang was scared out of his wits. He dared not hesitate and quickly made a call to have the marketing company delete everything related to Wulin.

In less than five minutes, the netizens were surprised to find that the trending topic about Wulin actually disappeared. The news related to real Wulin was also gone. No matter how hard they searched, they could not find it.

This situation made all the netizens particularly astonished.

“What’s going on?”

“Why can’t I find it?”

“Is it true? Does Wulin really exist? Otherwise, how could it be blocked?”

“It has been deleted from the Internet so quickly. Maybe the actual Wulin really exists.”

Suddenly, there were all kinds of speculations on the Internet.

But as more and more people joined the discussion of speculation, many people suddenly began to deviate from the topic while speculating.

“My dad can break a tree with one strike of the palm!”

“My grandpa can walk five meters with one step.”

“I’m my humble self. I’m from a Wulin family!”

Soon, various kinds of jokes about Wulin were all over the Internet.

In the blink of an eye, all the people in the country became martial arts experts!

At this time, Fang Qiu had already got into the car to the Yanqi Shooting Base and set off to make a movie.

Chapter 928: Is Fang Qiu Related to John Doe?

Just as Fang Qiu was on his way to Yanqi Shooting Base, the discussion on the Internet became more and more heated. Soon, it attracted the attention of many Wulin people.

“The real Wulin?”

“Does Chen Xiaogang want to show the audience the real Wulin?”

“Are there Wulin people who act in this movie?”

“How can people in Wulin make money in this way? Aren’t they afraid of losing their lives if they become famous?”

“Isn’t there a tacit rule that people in Wulin don’t expose themselves? How dare they do such a conspicuous thing in the name of Wulin?”

Even plenty of Wulin people were confused, not to mention the ordinary people. They didn’t know why someone would act in the film as a Wulin practitioner.

Different from ordinary people, the Wulin people had their own way of inquiring about information. Therefore, as soon as they got the news, most of them began to inquire. What was going on?

As soon as they inquired, they immediately received accurate information.

“The one who participates in Chen Xiaogang’s movie is actually He Gaoming.”

“He Gaoming? He Gaoming from Jiangjing? Is he John Doe’s disciple?”

“That’s strange. Why will it be him?”

“John Doe hasn’t shown up for a long time, but his disciple makes such a commotion. With John Doe’s temper, shouldn’t he keep a low profile?”

“This movie is really interesting. Apart from famous Director Chen Xiaogang, the actors who have participated in it are not only Fang Qiu, but also John Doe’s disciple, who has attracted the attention of countless Wulin people.”

“He Gaoming, John Doe, and Fang Qiu? What’s the relationship between the three?”

“According to the news on the Internet, He Gaoming was recommended to Chen Xiaogang by Fang Qiu, which means that Chen Xiaogang did not find He Gaoming himself. Then what is the relationship between Fang Qiu and He Gaoming? Why did Fang Qiu recommend He Gaoming to Chen Xiaogang?”

All sorts of questions came out.

Some people even wondered if Fang Qiu knew John Doe.

There were so many doubts.

It was inevitable for them to ask around.

Undoubtedly, all the forces in Wulin began to investigate the relationship between Fang Qiu and He Gaoming and why he recommended He Gaoming to Chen Xiaogang.

Also, was He Gaoming really John Doe’s disciple? Why did John Doe never admit it in person?

Also, what was the relationship between Fang Qiu and John Doe?

Soon, they got the news.

“Detective?”

“He Gaoming is a detective. When Fang Qiu was a freshman, he had once hired He Gaoming. I heard that he also helped Fang Qiu donate some money to the poor mountainous area. He might have taken the initiative to tell Fang Qiu that he was Wulin people, so Fang Qiu recommended him to be an action director!”

“According to the current source, Fang Qiu should have nothing to do with John Doe.”

After confirming the information, people of major Wulin sects and forces all breathed a sigh of relief.

It was impossible if they had never suspected that Fang Qiu was John Doe because there were so many connections between Fang Qiu and John Doe.

For example, both of them suddenly emerged in Jiangjing and were at the University of Jiangjing Chinese Medicine. They were about the same age.

Thus, many people in Wulin had thought about it, but they couldn't be sure and didn't want to admit it.

If John Doe, who was already so exceptional in Wulin, was also a miracle-working doctor, it would really be hard for other people to live in Wulin.

Fortunately, after the investigation of all the major forces, it was finally confirmed that there was no connection between Fang Qiu and John Doe. The Wulin people could finally rest assured.

“You came.” At the Yanqi Shooting Base, as soon as Fang Qiu arrived, He Gaoming came up to him, threw his arm around Fang Qiu's shoulder, and said with a laugh, “You've made a name for me this time, bro.”

“Those with competence will always be able to rise,” answered Fang Qiu with a smile.

“Yes,” He Gaoming was stunned and then immediately gave Fang Qiu a thumbs-up, saying, “I like what you said, haha!”

“You seem to be very happy,” asked Fang Qiu with a beam.

He had to pretend that he knew the reason why He Gaoming was happy was that he was recommended to be an action director for this film, which attracted a lot of people’s attention. Thus, Fang Qiu acted as if he was curious.

“The fame I told you about has nothing to do with the action direction,” He Gaoming smiled proudly and said, “however, it also has something to do with action direction. I’m Wulin people. You recommended me to do this job, which immediately attracted the attention of the Wulin people. Many people in Wulin began to investigate us, and some even thought you were my master. Haha.”

“What master?” Fang Qiu pretended not to understand and asked, “How can your master be so young like me? Isn’t it too aggrieved for you to be his disciple?”

Although that was what he said, Fang Qiu felt happy in his heart.

He figured out all of this a long time ago.

If people in Wulin wanted to investigate John Doe, the only clue they could find was He Gaoming. It was easy to find out about Fang Qiu from He Gaoming. At that time, it would inevitably raise more doubts and more people to investigate Fang Qiu.

Since the people of Wulin would find out the relationship between Fang Qiu and He Gaoming sooner or later, why not reveal it in advance through Fang Qiu himself?

Fang Qiu believed that Li Ji and the others would take care of everything in secret.

Taking the initiative to expose himself was also one of the reasons why he recommended He Gaoming to be an action director.

“So what if he’s young?” Hearing Fang Qiu’s words, He Gaoming reached out and patted Fang Qiu on the shoulder, saying proudly, “My master is indeed younger than me.”

“If you are a bit powerful like my master, you can do whatever you want in this world!”

Fang Qiu shook his head and chuckled as he heard that.

He pretended that he didn’t believe He Gaoming, but he smiled wryly in his heart.

Director Chen Xiaogang stepped forward and said, “Fang Qiu is here. From today on, our movie will officially begin start shooting. Everything is ready and we are just waiting for you.”

“I usually watch the news. Isn’t there an opening ceremony before the shooting?” Asked Fang Qiu.

“It’s a ceremony,” Director Chen Xiaogang laughed loudly and said, “we need to find a suitable day to have the ceremony. It is not something that we can do whenever we want. We have already found someone to find a good day. The opening ceremony is also finished three days ago.”

Fang Qiu asked, “Did the shooting start three days ago?”

“Yes,” Director Chen Xiaogang nodded his head and said, “in the past three days, we have been filming some minor scenes about the scenery and scenes of the supporting roles. We are just waiting for you to come. Then, we will make another simple opening ceremony for the media.”

“Then I’ll go and do my makeup first.” Fang Qiu smiled awkwardly and immediately walked to the dressing room.

Because Fang Qiu didn’t have an agent team, the makeup team was found by the crew of the movie.

“You can take a look at the script first. Get familiar with this plot that is about to be filmed. The most important thing is to memorize the lines, otherwise, it will take a lot of time and effort.”

Chen Xiaogang handed the script to Fang Qiu.

“Okay,” Fang Qiu nodded, took the script, and immediately opened it. He read it carefully while walking into the dressing room.

Soon, his makeup was done.

Fang Qiu almost finished reading the script.

The scene that was about to be filmed happened in the 25th year of the Zhizheng Dynasty.

The story was that after Zhu Yuanzhang killed Chen Youliang, he attacked Zhang Shicheng in October and captured Tongzhou, Xinghua, Yancheng, Taizhou, Gaoyou, Huaian, Xuzhou, Suzhou, and Zhuzhou county of Anfeng. He drove out the forces of Dongwu from the Jiangbei region.

Then, Zhu Yuanzhang, who got to rule the country, began to travel incognito and observe the people's life. On the way, he was assassinated by Zhang Shicheng's men. Later, he fled to the mountain awkwardly and saw a thatched cottage. There, he found a 16-year-old boy carrying a firewood basket on his back, Yang Yizhi.

Seeing that the pursuers had arrived and that the only living person in front of him was a teenager, Zhu Yuanzhang was in despair and thought that he would die soon. However, he did not expect that the teenager would take action...

Before this, Fang Qiu had read the whole script, so it was easy for him to get familiar with it.

Walking out of the dressing room, Fang Qiu was led by a staff member to a temporary film studio.

At the moment, Director Chen Xiaogang was having a meeting with all the actors and actresses on the scene.

As soon as Fang Qiu arrived, he immediately joined the meeting.

Fang Qiu, who was sitting at the conference table, glanced around and found that the actor playing Zhu Yuanzhang was also there.

This was a middle-aged movie star with remarkable acting skills. It was no exaggeration to say that Fang Qiu had been watching him in TV dramas since he was a child.

He was indeed an experienced actor. After dressing up like Zhu Yuanzhang, this sophisticated actor looked dignified even though he didn't make any expression.

The actor playing Zhang Shicheng, the one playing Shen Wanshan, and others playing the killers were also sitting at the conference table.

Before he sat down, Fang Qiu stood in front of the conference table and greeted the actors on the spot very respectfully. The other actors also smiled and nodded at him.

Of course, as action directors, He Gaoming and the others were also there.

"Director Chen," The actor, who played Zhu Yuanzhang, asked Chen Xiaogang, "recently, there have been rumors online that the new action direction team you find is from Wulin. Is that true?"

"Baoguo," Chen Xiaogang smiled wryly and said to Li Baoguo who played the role of Zhu Yuanzhang, "this discussion ends now. Wulin was used to be a gimmick of our publicity. I didn't expect that we were warned because of it. So, don't mention it again."

Li Baoguo shook his head and smiled.

Chen Xiaogang knew that Li Baoguo would not believe him. He understood Li Baoguo's temper. However, it was not appropriate for him to tell the truth. After all, the higher-ups spoke up.

If it weren't for the strict supervision from higher-ups, how could no one know that Wulin still existed in this wide world?

While exclaiming, Chen Xiaogang noticed that everyone was staring at him. He raised his eyebrows before revealing another piece of news. With a wry smile, he said, "I received a piece of news. Due to the matter about Wulin, the government wanted to deal with us. They've already prepared to ban us. However, for some unknown reason, something stopped them."

Fang Qiu was stunned as he heard that.

It must be because of him.

Hearing the topic of being banned, everyone was so shocked that they didn't dare to discuss this topic anymore.

No one wanted to get into trouble.

Chapter 929: The Chatty Emperor!

"Director, the media reporters are all here." As they finished the meeting, a staff member came in and said.

"Okay," Director Chen Xiaogang stood up with a smile and said, "then let's go together."

As he spoke, he stood up and led everyone out of the room.

Everyone understood that the real opening ceremony had already been held. Now, this opening ceremony was actually an invitation to ask the media to publicize. After all, it was great to have this kind of opportunity to publicize.

With the director leading the way, they arrived at an open grassland.

At this moment, a large table had been set up on the grassland. On the table was a large pig head, as well as some fruits and such.

Then, surrounded by media reporters, everyone began to light the incense sticks and pray for blessings, posing for the photos.

The reporters invited weren't negligent in the slightest.

The cameras kept shooting at Fang Qiu.

Almost at the same time, the photos of Fang Qiu dressing up as Yang Yizhi were spread to the Internet.

They were not posted by the staff on the scene, but by the reporters who were invited.

The reason why they came here as free publicity workers was that they wanted to attract attention. And among this group of people, Fang Qiu was undoubtedly the one who attracted the most attention.

Therefore, as soon as they saw Fang Qiu, they immediately took photos of Fang Qiu dressing up and posted them online.

This was the attractive point!

As for the production team, they were also happy to see the reporters do this.

This was publicity!

As expected, as soon as Fang Qiu's photos were posted on the Internet, it immediately attracted the attention of countless people especially Fang Qiu's fans.

In a flash, the topic, #Fang Qiu's photo as Yang Yizhi#, went straight to the top of the trending topic on Weibo.

“He’s so handsome!”

“Oh my god, Master Fang Qiu is so handsome that I’m drooling.”

“He’s incredible. Master Fang Qiu is really suitable for the ancient costume. He can’t be more suitable for it!”

“Well, I’m not boasting. He does have the aura of an ancient chivalrous hero, and he is also good-looking, much better than those handsome fresh meat.”

Because it was the top among the trending topics, numerous netizens also participated in the discussion.

Different from what they did before, the netizens’ opinions were surprisingly consistent with Fang Qiu’s fans this time.

“I’m not boasting. He’s really handsome!”

“Yes, he did create that kind of feeling.”

“It’s different from ordinary ancient chivalrous heroes. It’s really suitable. I’m looking forward to it!”

“This guy is so attractive.”

“He is a bit too handsome. I remember that the ancient martial arts experts all look rough. They are not like those beautiful men at all although Fang Qiu’s presence looks a bit rough.”

“I wasn’t expecting it at first, but when I saw Fang Qiu’s photo, I’m actually looking forward to it. I hope the movie won’t become a disaster. Otherwise, this look will completely be wasted.”

As the heated discussion continued, everyone was increasingly looking forward to the movie, especially Fang Qiu's look and his performance in the film, which aroused everyone's curiosity.

At Yanqi Shooting Base, the movie officially began shooting!

"Get ready. The first scene." Director Chen Xiaogang sat in the director's chair and let people on the spot get ready. After observing the preparations on the scene, he hesitated for a moment, then went straight to He Gaoming and said, "Mr. He, are you ready?"

"It's easy," He Gaoming smiled confidently and said, "all the action actors know how to do it."

Director Chen Xiaogang asked, "Okay, why don't you guys demonstrate it to our actors first?"

He Gaoming nodded, then waved his hand and shouted, "No problem. Guys, let's get to work."

After that, 18 people walked out from the crowd and acted as assassins, while the others acted as guards.

"Everyone, come here." Director Chen Xiaogang shouted and asked all the actors to come.

Everyone gathered around.

They wondered how this action director would design a scene of chasing and killing.

"I didn't expect to be an emperor in this life," He Gaoming said with a grin.

Hearing that, everyone was speechless at once.

He seemed like a silly guy.

If he considered this an opportunity to be an emperor, he could be the emperor thousands of times a day!

“All right,” Chen Xiaogang said, “the main reason I ask you to come this time is that I hope everyone can carefully watch Mr. He’s action scene. Every one of you must remember your actions. During the filming process, you need to reproduce the moves perfectly. Although these are only moves in the beginning, there are still plenty of action scenes to follow. These moves will be used later on. Consider this a preparation in advance.”

Hearing that, everyone nodded with understanding.

They were all actors and naturally understood the process. The most difficult part of a movie was the action scene.

Director Chen Xiaogang shouted, “Action.”

He Gaoming immediately got into character. He directly went to the lake and stood straight.

“With such beautiful scenery in front of me, maybe I should recite a poem.”

With that in mind, He Gaoming immediately started to think, searching for an appropriate poem.

After a long while, he actually said, “Looking at this scene, I want to recite a poem. This tree is planted by me, and this mountain is developed by me. Whoever wants to pass here needs to leave their money!”

Originally, he was an action director. All he needed to do was to demonstrate the fighting scene for the actors and correct their moves. No one expected that he would really start acting as soon as he started.

However, this was just an act. Since he had already begun, Director Chen Xiaogang had nothing else to say. He simply allowed him to continue.

However, those words that came out of his mouth stunned everyone!

F*ck!

Was this a poem?

In such a beautiful place, a man who was about to be the emperor actually say such words. He was not a bandit, okay?

Although they were speechless, no one said anything to interrupt him.

Anyway, it was not an official shooting. He could do whatever he wanted.

According to the plot, the killer arrived just as He Gaoming finished reciting the poem.

18 people rushed out and started a fight without saying anything, separating the guards and then going straight to He Gaoming.

“What the f*ck, are they fighting for real?” He Gaoming was shocked by what he saw.

As for the guards, they also exerted their real strength to fight with the 18 assassins while covering He Gaoming’s escape.

On the scene, every actor knew his position and was staring at the person playing his role. They were carefully watching the actions that they were going to do, except for the 18 assassins, because the killers would not change even though the guards around Zhu Yuanzhang would change.

After all, He Gaoming was the action director of this movie, and his people were naturally actors in this movie. Some action scenes that were important to the plot and had nothing to do with the characters needed them to perform in person. Sometimes, when the protagonist could not make the moves, they even had to be the understudies of the protagonist to complete difficult actions.

The fight made all the staff on the scene extremely excited because it was spectacular.

In the entire fight, everyone died in a magnificent manner.

Everyone was absorbed in the plot unknowingly.

They were amazed while watching the scene.

“Is, is this fake fighting?”

“Isn’t this too real?”

“Amazing. They’re doing so well. No wonder Director Chen chose them to be the action direction team.”

Everyone was amazed.

No one expected that.

It was remarkable that this action direction team, which participated in shooting a movie for the first time, could perform so perfectly.

Some actors who didn’t participate in this action scene were also shocked by this scene in front of them.

“Director Chen, did they rehearse before?” Someone asked in surprise.

“No rehearsal. There is no rehearsal at all. This is the first time!” Director Chen Xiaogang couldn’t help but get exhilarated.

With his experience as a director for so many years, he knew clearly that if this scene appeared on the big screen of the cinema, it would definitely be spectacular and would become a point that surprised the audience.

The only problem was that He Gaoming's acting was truly a bit dramatic.

This man was chirping nonstop while running away, which seemed like a chatterbox. He didn't look like an emperor at all!

Soon, during the chasing and fighting scene which could make the audience feel spectacular and people who participated in the movie feel great awe for it, He Gaoming, under the protection of the guards, finally ran to a wooden board which represented Yang Yizhi's thatched cottage on the mountain.

Just as He Gaoming ran here, Li Boqing, who had replaced Fang Qiu, came out with a chopper in his hand. He rescued He Gaoming for Fang Qiu and fought with the 18 people.

An incomparably wonderful action scene immediately began.

All the people present were attracted by the battle, including the director.

It was simply too spectacular!

A fierce battle came to an end.

Li Boqing killed 18 people with his chopper!

The performance was over.

"Clap, clap, clap..." All the people present applauded one after another.

The fighting of this scene was extraordinary!

These action actors were remarkable.

Seeing everyone applauding, He Gaoming came over with a smug smile and said to Chen Xiaogang, "Director Chen, how is it? I played well, didn't I?"

Chen Xiaogang ignored him.

It wasn't that he didn't hear him, but that he didn't want to talk to him at all.

Not only did he ignore him, but he also complained in his heart. "How dare you ask me since your acting is the worst?"

When he looked at the other action actors, Chen Xiaogang's eyes lit up.

He was aware that he had found treasures this time.

This action direction team was incredible!

Wulin truly existed in this world!

He could tell that these people weren't pretending to fight.

"I've decided." Chen Xiaogang had pondered for a moment before he said, "Except for the leading role, the guards and assassins will not be changed. We'll let those action experts play. Just play as they did just now."

Everyone nodded in agreement.

"Get ready."

Li Baoguo who played Zhu Yuanzhang and Fang Qiu playing Yang Yizhi also came to the scene. They went to a place to make preparations. Then, Chen Xiaogang immediately asked the filming team to start setting the shooting track, ready to film it with one shot.

After all, the fight of this group of people was too continuous. If they shot one scene after another, it would exhaust them to death.

The most important thing was that Chen Xiaogang believed that Li Baoguo's acting skills could absolutely help them film it with one shot.

As for Fang Qiu, his part only appeared at the end of this scene anyway. Even if he couldn't make it with one shot, it wouldn't be a problem to do his retakes later.

During the shooting, He Gaoming, as an action director, also shouldered great responsibility and prepared to instruct these actors how they should make the moves!

However, when he heard that his own people were going to fight in person, he immediately gave up the idea. With his own people acting, he didn't need to instruct at all.

Chapter 930: A Long Take!

Action!

Guards and assassins changed their clothes and acted out the whole hunting plot fantastically according to the previous demonstration.

In addition, Li Baoguo's wonderful acting had amazed all the staff. Director Chen Xiaogang was even completely shocked!

Who was he?

He was a famous and top-notch director in Huaxia.

When he made preparations for a movie, he had to ensure that everything was ready before the official filming. He had prepared two shooting tracks on the ground and one robot arm, so he could clearly see the acting from three different cameras in the process.

A long take!

Without any pause, the three different shots on three monitors were all very perfect.

But this put Chen Xiaogang in a dilemma.

Because the scenes shot by the three cameras were particularly perfect, no matter which one he chose, it was impeccable. However, the point was that Chen Xiaogang cherished all of them. How could he be willing to lose such good scenes?

The only way was to choose the most perfect parts of these three scenes, edit them together and make the whole hunting scene more impeccable!

On the other side, the assistant director, Zhao Rulong, and a large group of staff in the director team were all shocked.

“Let’s watch it again. Slow down. Let’s watch it again!” Shouted Zhao Rulong.

The assistant director quickly played it backwards and then watched the scene with a 0.5 playing speed. After watching the whole scene, everyone found that this hunting scene was really flawless. Everyone’s performance could be said to be perfect. The guards and assassins fought fiercely, and their moves were excellent. Eye-catching!

Li Baoguo, who played Zhu Yuanzhang, amazed everyone there by his acting.

No wonder he was an experienced senior actor, which was really different from common actors!

The shooting was still going on.

On the spot, it was really silent. Everyone held their breaths as they waited.

Having seen the amazing acting just now, all the staff on the spot applauded for these actors and martial arts actors quietly in their hearts, because this group of people acted really well!

Chen Xiaogang, who was still staring at the monitor, thought to himself, "If every shooting could go smoothly like this, we might be able to finish filming in one month's time."

Following the shooting team, it could be seen from the monitor that Zhu Yuanzhang was being hunted all the way to a high mountain.

Running halfway, Zhu Yuanzhang gasped for breath and looked to the mountainside.

The camera followed his eyesight, and a straw hut appeared on the screen.

Yang Yizhi, played by Fang Qiu, was carrying a pack basket full of firewood and holding a firewood chopper, walking down from the mountain.

Seeing Zhu Yuanzhang, Fang Qiu first paused for a while and then quickly found a tree and hid behind it.

But Zhu Yuanzhang had already seen him.

At this deserted mountain, he saw his guards died one by one in front of him with his own eyes. He originally thought that he had encountered a master living in seclusion when he saw the straw hut. But the moment he saw Fang Qiu, his face darkened. It seemed that he had lost his hope completely.

On the other side, the camera began to focus on Fang Qiu.

Sitting in front of the monitor, Director Chen Xiaogang clenched his fists nervously. His heart pounded quickly.

He was afraid that Fang Qiu would make mistakes.

After all, Fang Qiu was not a professional actor. If he wanted to play the protagonist of a movie, he had to have outstanding acting and acted out all the emotions of this person.

Besides acting, Chen Xiaogang's biggest fear was that Fang Qiu would make mistakes.

Because except for acting, Fang Qiu also needed to remember all the lines, actions, positions, to follow cameras, and so on.

All these points were very difficult for a newcomer in the film industry.

In the camera, Fang Qiu started talking, "Who are you?"

Zhu Yuanzhang, who got injured and had a strange expression, fled all the way here. Seeing him, Yang Yizhi, played by Fang Qiu, first hid to see what was going on, then came out and raised the question with a very proper look and tone.

Having seen Fang Qiu's look and heard his tone, Director Chen Xiaogang breathed a sigh of relief!

There should be no problem with Fang Qiu's acting.

"I am a businessman," Zhu Yuanzhang said to Fang Qiu nervously, "someone wants to kill me. They're catching up with me. The guards I hired were all killed."

Fang Qiu stepped out.

He frowned and walked to the straw hut and took off the pack basket which was full of firewood. After that, he turned around, took a look at Zhu Yuanzhang and then looked into the distance.

The camera changed to another scene: a group of men in black killed the last guard, and then rushed all the way to the mountainside carrying a strong smell of blood.

“Go inside. I’ll help you.” Fang Qiu said to Zhu Yuanzhang.

Zhu Yuanzhang had mixed feelings.

But in order to live, he had to put this young man in front of a group of cruel assassins.

In the end, he went inside the hut.

Fang Qiu closed the door. Then, he held the firewood chopper in his hand, turned to look at the group of men in black running over here. His eyes, which seemed ignorant and innocent, suddenly became sharp. He looked extremely nervous and excited, and even his hands began to tremble unconsciously.

At this moment, Director Chen Xiaogang quickly stood up and shouted “Cut!” Using a loudspeaker.

The first scene, a long take, was completely finished.

Applause.

Looking at the actors, Director Chen Xiaogang was very excited, and led off the applause.

Not only him, but also everyone at the scene felt that all the actors had acted really well. Even Fang Qiu’s acting was not bad at all. He had already passed the cut-off score.

One should know that acting was not the same as one's usual expressions and reactions in daily life. It needed to be exaggerated to a certain extent. But because movies were filmed for people to watch, it couldn't be too exaggerated. This needed actors to act by heart and by eyes.

Obviously, Director Chen Xiaogang did not expect that Fang Qiu could pass the cutting-off score in his first performance.

This kind of capability was really something!

The other staff and actors also clapped their hands.

Today they really broadened their horizons.

In the past, the films were shot scene by scene. A short scene within one minute could be shot repeatedly, like three times, five times or even more than ten times.

But today, the filming was simply too smooth.

After all, in the plan of these professional film crew, it should have taken several days to finish the first scene of today.

But now, it was completed in only one take.

Filming at this speed, how long would it take to finish a movie?

After the first scene was finished, all the actors gathered around the director. Chen Xiaogang played the scene shot just now on the monitor and watched it together with the actors and other staff again and again.

He hadn't found any flaws after watching repeatedly.

“Wonderful.”

The more Chen Xiaogang watched, the more excited and surprised he became. He applauded, “Good acting! Good martial arts!”

Everyone laughed happily.

Li Baoguo, who played Zhu Yuanzhang, also smiled with satisfaction.

He didn’t expect that the first scene would come out so well.

Fifteen minutes later, when the actors had rested enough and their makeup was done, Director Chen Xiaogang picked up the loudspeaker and shouted, “Everyone, get ready for the second scene!”

Scene Two: Young Yang Yizhi fought eighteen assassins and Zhu Yuanzhang took the opportunity to escape!

The plot of the second scene was written very clearly on the clapperboard so that everyone could understand it easily.

This time, the main setting moved to the straw hut which was at the mountainside.

The director team and all the instruments were moved here within fifteen minutes.

This scene was mainly about Fang Qiu, so everyone paid special attention, including those who didn’t need to act in this scene. They all gathered here and prepared to take a good look at Fang Qiu’s performance and to see whether he could be the eligible protagonist or not.

At the scene, under He Gaoming’s instruction, Li Boqing came to Fang Qiu, analyzed all the moves of Yang Yizhi’s fight with eighteen assassins one by one for him. He also told Fang Qiu about what points he should pay attention to and to what extent he should achieve when doing these moves thoroughly.

Fang Qiu also remembered quickly.

“Get ready,” shouted Chen Xiaogang, telling everyone to be prepared.

Then he walked to Fang Qiu, said to him, “This scene is not easy.”

Looking at Fang Qiu, Director Chen Xiaogang said, “There are some flying scenes. Although these stuntmen don’t need wires, you are different from them and you must use wires. How about we try shooting a short part first?”

Because this was a fierce and long fight, Chen Xiaogang was afraid that Fang Qiu would not remember all these moves.

“It’s okay. We don’t have to,” Fang Qiu shook his head confidently, then pointed at his head and said, “I’ve remembered all the moves. I am smart!”

What he just said made everyone roast him immediately.

“So you are a straight-A student, what’s the big deal?” He Gaoming toasted him with a smile. Everyone else started to laugh too.

“Then, okay!” Chen Xiaogang took a deep breath and said, “Shall we get started directly?”

“Sure.” Fang Qiu nodded.

Then hearing the director’s request, all the people were in their places immediately.

The scene was back to the end of the first scene.

The action of the second scene officially began.

Everyone's eyes had been fixed on Fang Qiu.

It turned out that Fang Qiu did very well in this one take. There was no flaw in his cooperation with wires, the emotions in his eyes, or the fierce actions, and so on. An ordinary firewood chopper was acted properly in his hand. Whether in close shot or in long shot, every scene was perfect!

Soon, the second scene was finished.

After the director shouted "Cut", everyone applauded to show their recognition of Fang Qiu.

In front of the monitor, the heavy burden on Chen Xiaogang's heart was finally eased a little.

In this scene, Fang Qiu's acting did pass. The most important thing was that Fang Qiu didn't have a stunt double in this scene. Just like the previous scene, this was a long take. This was quite rare and professional.

However, the next scene was different. Although there were not so many actions in the next scene, this had a specially higher demand in acting. Especially when facing an experienced senior actor, Fang Qiu, as a newcomer, would be suppressed easily.
