Chapter 971: Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event

On the Chaoyang Platform, a group of people gathered around, staring at a mobile phone.

A video was playing on the phone. It was the scene of the man who had fallen off the cliff just now being rescued by a figure who was as ethereal as an immortal and trod on the cloud.

The video continued until the immortal-like figure disappeared into the layers of clouds, but it was still recording.

After watching this video, all the people on the Chaoyang Platform were once again in deep shock.

It was as if what happened just now was replaying in front of them.

Unfortunately, because it was sunrise in the early morning, the video taken by the mobile phone was not very clear. In addition, the immortal-like figure had been covered with a layer of mist, so people couldn't see it clearly at all.

"Is there anyone else recording it?" Someone in the crowd asked again.

As a result, they found that only one person had recorded it. The reason why this person recorded it in advance was to prepare for shooting the beautiful scenery at sunrise. No one else had prepared for it.

"Although it's not clear, we saw it with our own eyes. Bro, quickly upload it online for everyone to see if we really met an immortal." A big-eared man proposed.

"Yeah, upload it online quickly."

“Let more people see that there are really immortals in the world.”

Everyone agreed with the suggestion.

The young man who recorded the video was also very excited. Without thinking much, he immediately logged into Weibo and uploaded the video.

For a moment, everyone on the scene followed the young man’s Weibo and reposted it. Every person who reposted it mentioned many celebrities on Weibo and attached the photos they took one by one, saying, “I was there!”

Although there were not many people on the scene, it immediately spread throughout in a small circle as soon as this video was reposted. Then it spread faster and faster. Hence the number of people who reposted it was increasing.

Soon, it became a hot topic on Weibo.

At first, everyone didn’t believe it and supposed that it was edited by a video application, but all the people who witnessed it on the scene came out on Weibo and confirmed it one after another.

People still didn’t believe it.

In the end, just when the witnesses didn’t know how to verify it, the tourist who fell off the cliff came out and explained his fall in detail, as well as his confused mental state after he was rescued.

Even the person involved came out.

On Weibo, this topic started trending again.

Almost all the people on Weibo participated in the heated discussion of this topic because this was simply a common topic.

Compared with those entertainment hypes and movies news, the vast majority of people preferred to watch similar news that could arouse their curiosity.

The matter was getting more and more serious.

Some experts and professors came out one after another to chase its clout!

“#Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event# First of all, we can be sure that this is a world of science. It is absolutely impossible for anything to exist against science. The so-called immortals are just myths and legends. Legends are not true, but we can't deny the authenticity of this video. After all, there are still many mysteries waiting for us to explore in this world. It must be the collective fantasy of tourists since this scene appeared on the Chaoyang Platform of Mount Hua!”

“#Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event# If there are immortals in this world, why do we need science and technology? Obviously, the reason why the thing happened on the Chaoyang Platform of Mount Hua is entirely due to the favorable climatic, geographical, and human conditions. Because it's at sunrise, the fog in the early morning might cause slight chronic poisoning, which made the tourists see illusions. In addition, the weather, light, and many other reasons have contributed to such an incident!”

“#Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event# The mystery of nature can't be fully interpreted by human beings. In fact, this is like a mirage. It's closely related to light, water contained in the air, and the environment at the scene. If we use scientific techniques to explain it, I believe the mystery will be solved soon.”

All kinds of experts and professors came out to interpret the matter.

A small group of people truly believed what these experts and professors said because they didn't believe deep down that there were immortals and ghosts in the world.

However, it was only a small group of people.

Most of the other people began to criticize those experts and professors.

“Experts or pseudo-experts? Professors or pseudo-professors?”

“Explain it to me then!”

“If it’s still a frame, it’s okay if you tell me that it’s a mirage, but this one moves everywhere. It flies from the sky to the ground and then flies from the ground to the sky. How come you tell me that it’s a mirage and light refraction? Why don’t you show me how it works?”

“What f*cking expert? What are you studying? Show me your identity first.”

“You experts and professors only know how to explain randomly. You can get involved in anything popular. I’m confused. Since you have such great knowledge, why don’t you make a video before others send it? Don’t you want to be popular? I’ll give you a chance. You can do it!”

“Miasma? The air on Mount Hua is the best. For hundreds of years, people go to the top of the mountain every day. Why don’t I see anyone else poisoned before? Why did they suddenly get poisoned this time?”

“A collective fantasy? Do you think that tourists from all over the country are playing house with you? A collective fantasy? Seriously? Can you have a collective fantasy with those tourists you don’t know when you go out for a trip?”

All kinds of comments of attacks filled every corner of Weibo.

Those experts and professors seemed to be especially weak among the enormous complaints. They didn’t even have a chance to refute. Some of them even closed their comment areas directly because of the scolding.

However, shortly afterward, just when everyone was discussing passionately, a piece of news caused a huge sensation.

“What the f*ck, the video is gone!”

“#Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event# Why can't I find the video?”

“It was blocked so soon?”

“What the hell? I was watching it just now. How come it disappeared in the blink of an eye?”

“Where's the video? Where's the original poster? Where is the video?”

Strangely, when everyone was discussing it heatedly, all the videos on this topic, including the original ones, the edited ones, and the ones reposted by others, all vanished.

All the videos showed that the connection had failed!

Even some of the videos stored on people's computers had failed.

The experts and professors who had been criticized immediately stood up.

“#Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event# Such a rumor should be banned. The country has its policy. Those who spread rumors should be held accountable legally!”

“After verification, #Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event# is just a rumor. I hope that all the netizens can stop spreading it.”

Soon.

On Weibo, #Mount Hua Chaoyang Platform Event# began to lose its popularity.

There were still a lot of people participating in the discussion, but the trend of the topic was decreasing. Soon, it disappeared from the trending topics. In the end, no one could even find this topic.

“Is it really a rumor?”

“No way. Even if it’s a rumor, it shouldn’t have been banned so quickly, right?”

“The trend is dropping too fast. It’s obvious that someone is pulling strings behind the scenes.”

“I remember that there was also such a situation when they shot the film ‘Yang Yizhi’ last time. At that time, it seemed that they promoted that they would let everyone see the real Wulin. However, not long after this publicity came out, it suddenly disappeared. It couldn’t be found on the Internet, which was exactly the same as this situation now!”

“These two things have nothing to do with each other, right?”

“Not necessarily. I believe that there are no immortals in this world, but I don’t believe that there are no people with kung fu in this world. Don’t those heroes in ancient times fly onto roofs and vault over walls?”

“Could it be that the person in the video on the Chaoyang Platform is not an immortal, but a Wulin master?”

“Didn’t you hear it before? Hero Yang Yi can fly. Otherwise, how would he be able to fight pirates? There’s no boat on that small island. He can’t possibly swim to fight pirates, can he?”

“So, Wulin masters can really fly.”

“What the f*ck. Now that I think about it, it’s really scary!”

“Is there really Wulin hidden in this world?”

Although the topic was gone, many people still gathered together to have a heated discussion. Meanwhile, they gradually connected this matter with Wulin. Numerous people even set up a group discussing the mystery of Wulin and began to try various ways to inquire about news of modern Wulin.

After saving the man, Fang Qiu went straight into the deep mountains and came to the place where the Heaven Treasure was.

Because no one else knew, Fang Qiu easily drove away the guardian beast when the Heaven Treasure was ripe, picked up the Heaven Treasure, and then flew back to the Beijiang cultivation base overnight.

On the way back, Fang Qiu found that what he had done on Mount Hua had caused such a huge sensation online. As for this, he could only smile wryly.

“Fortunately, I isolated myself from the outside world with my internal Qi at that time. Otherwise, if I had shown my face, it would have caused a bigger sensation.”

As he smiled wryly, Fang Qiu was quite satisfied with this trip.

It was because this was the easiest time he obtained the Heaven Treasure.

No one came to snatch it, which meant that the people of Chic Cloud Pavilion were very trustworthy. Not only did they not have any bad intentions, but they did not tell others about the Heaven Treasure.

When he arrived at the cultivation base, it was night again.

Fang Qiu used the jade box he had prepared in advance to store the Heaven Treasure that he had just picked and then placed it in a safe place. Then he ran to the foot of the snow-capped mountain and sat cross-legged to cultivate.

The next morning, after Fang Qiu finished exercising, he went straight back to the cultivation base’s office.

“Why are you back?” He Xue was stunned again when she saw Fang Qiu.

Because there were no extra offices, He Xue would work in the office as soon as Fang Qiu left. Hence, she came to the office early in the morning.

“Can’t I come back?” Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

“Boss, you can come back. But don’t give away our products again. We can’t afford it.” He Xue shook her head and sighed bitterly.

“I can’t send it even if I want to.” Fang Qiu replied with a smile and then asked, “If I remember correctly, Holy Flowers Formula will be open to preordering at 8 o’clock tonight. How’s the preparation going?”

“Everything is ready,” He Xue answered with full confidence.

Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction and said, “Okay. I’ll wait for the good news then!”

Chapter 972: Endless Ads

“Let me see how the presell is going so that I can make some preparations about it in advance.”

He Xue stood up and wanted to leave her desk to Fang Qiu and find a new place to work.

“Sit, sit.” Fang Qiu quickly raised his hand to stop He Xue and said, “This office is just a place for me to rest. You are the one who really needs it. I’ll just sit here. You can just stay there and work. Don’t let me disturb you.”

“Well, I’m impressed.” He Xue smiled and did not say anything else. She directly put down her laptop and used the computer on Fang Qiu’s desk to check some information.

As a senior executive of the company, what she needed to pay attention to was not only one aspect but every aspect, such as the heated discussion on the Internet, which was what she needed to follow.

Fang Qiu sat on the sofa.

He thought to himself, "It's true that I should get an office for everyone. I can't always let Mr. Zhao Shanlin stay in the warehouse. He even has to find a place for himself when conducting a study of cultivation. He Xue, as a senior executive of Renyi Group, doesn't even have her own office. If this news spread out, it will become a joke in the industry.

"The land of the cultivation base was quite large. If it was properly planned, we could build an office building directly.

"Most importantly, now that the group had been established, the cultivation base and other buildings were indeed a little shabby. When the time came, there would be media reporters to conduct interviews. We couldn't always lead people to Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation, could we?"

Thinking of this, Fang Qiu secretly made up his mind that he must find an opportunity to rebuild the cultivation base. At least, he had to build the company properly.

"Hey." Just as Fang Qiu was lost in his thoughts, He Xue, who was browsing Weibo in front of the desk, suddenly froze and then said with a smile, "Well. You didn't give away our product in vain. Song Yaqi actually made an ad for our product."

"What did she say?" asked Fang Qiu with a smile.

He knew that Song Yaqi would definitely help promote the product. After all, she was a big star. With such a big reputation, she would definitely not take it for free.

"See for yourself." He Xue turned the computer monitor to Fang Qiu and said, "Song Yaqi is very popular now, and her appearance and figure are also very good. Most of her fans are young people. Although our products don't need advertising, the value of her ad is absolutely higher than the product you gave her. We won't lose out!"

"Will I make a loss deal?" Fang Qiu smiled faintly.

He could clearly see that Song Yaqi did send a post on Weibo. There were a few photos attached to the post, which were well-packed boxes of Holy Flowers Formula. She also made a caption.

“I’m very excited to get the Holy Flowers Formula in advance. Now I’m full of expectations for the effect of the product. Thank you very much, Fang Qiu @Who do you think you are. Thank you for helping me get the product. Finally, as for the effects, guys, wait for my next post.”

There was no doubt that this post must have been written by the public relations management team of Song Yaqi’s agent company.

To put it simply, Song Yaqi did help promote the Holy Flowers Formula, but meanwhile, she did not praise it brainlessly. She only expressed her expectation for the effect of the Holy Flowers Formula.

In this way, even if there was something wrong with the product, and the effect was not as good as it was advertised, she could still get away safely without being affected.

The most important thing was that Song Yaqi also got Fang Qiu involved!

The name “Fang Qiu” was simply the insurance of the current Chinese Medicine industry and even the whole country.

If the product was not good, would Fang Qiu help Song Yaqi get it?

This move intangibly increased the credibility of the effect of the Holy Flowers Formula!

In the end, Song Yaqi also left the suspense. In fact, this suspense was not left for the public, but for the Renyi Group to see. Since they had given her the product, she had to show her kindness. If it truly had the effects, she could send another post on Weibo to confirm the value of the Holy Flowers Formula. This could be regarded as returning the favor to the Renyi Group.

“The PR teams of these big stars are indeed incredible. They even managed to come up with this sort of promotion post. No wonder Song Yaqi is so popular,” said He Xue with a smile.

Fang Qiu beamed and said, "This is just a warm-up. When the effect reveals, it will be the real publicity!"

He Xue curled her lips. "If it works, word of mouth will help promote it."

"There is still a celebrity effect." Fang Qiu shook his head with a wry smile.

As soon as Song Yaqi posted it on Weibo, it immediately attracted the attention of tens of millions of her fans online.

It wasn't only the fans.

Song Yaqi's Weibo attracted a lot of attention and was liked by numerous people. Each of her Weibo posts was very popular. Considering the reasons above, it was immediately recommended by Weibo and was directly recommended on the front page of Weibo as soon as Song Yaqi's post was sent.

In this way, People who were browsing Weibo all over the country at this time saw this post as soon as possible.

"What the f*ck. Holy Flowers Formula?"

"She got it so soon. Won't they start the presell tonight?"

"Can she have privileges just because she's a celebrity?"

"Did Fang Qiu help her get it?"

"Yes, Fang Qiu has a good relationship with Yang Ningyuan. Yang Ningyuan's life was saved by Fang Qiu. It won't be difficult for Fang Qiu to ask him for something."

“What the f*ck, this is pulling strings!”

“Did you buy it or get it for free?”

“I can’t believe a great singer has learned to pull strings. My little angel has changed.”

“Can you tell me in advance the price of the Holy Flowers Formula?”

“Honey, hurry up and try it to see if it works. If it truly has the effects, I will definitely scramble for it!”

“The outcome is not bad.” In the cultivation base’s office in Beijiāng, seeing that Song Yaqi’s Weibo had attracted the attention and reply of countless people, He Xue immediately became radiant. She said, “I didn’t expect that even Weibo itself has recommended her post. This is simply a great .”

“What?” Fang Qiu was stunned and hurriedly took out his mobile phone to check on Weibo.

It turned out that Song Yaqi’s post on Weibo, which publicized the Holy Flowers Formula, was actually recommended by Weibo and became a trending topic.

Now, the value of the of her post was different. It was at least double or even triple the popularity as before!

“Now I’m not depressed anymore.” He Xue looked at Fang Qiu and said, “It’s worth it even though you give our product away. I didn’t expect that we would get such a great . Speaking of which, the market price of an official recommendation on Weibo should be worth hundreds of thousands of yuan, right?”

“We’ve recouped the loss of all the products that have been given away?” asked Fang Qiu with a smile.

“Recoup? We’ve earned the money instead!”

He Xue nodded and said naturally, "That's 1,500 yuan for a box. You only gave away 14 boxes, which is 21,000 yuan. This ad is at least worth 200 boxes."

Fang Qiu grinned, "Should I send some products more then?"

"No!" He Xue immediately stopped him and said angrily, "That's enough. Now, this ad's effect is quite satisfying. Even if you give away more products and get some promotion ads of some celebrities, the value will not be as high as this one. Although we won't lose money, I still felt a little uncomfortable to give them away like this."

"You're being protective." Fang Qiu rolled his eyes at He Xue.

He Xue retorted, "So what if I am? You don't want to protect your products?"

"Uh..." Fang Qiu gave a wry smile. For a moment, he didn't know how to answer it, so he could only reply, "I do."

"That's it. You're so soft." He Xue curled her lips.

Fang Qiu sighed softly and said, "All right. But it's not over yet. There should be more."

He Xue asked, "You mean the ones sent out later?"

"Yes." Fang Qiu nodded.

He knew that Liu Qingshi and the others would definitely post it on Weibo. When he published the book last time, they also helped him promote it. This time, they could show off and also help him with the promotion. How could they miss such a great opportunity?

Just when Fang Qiu and He Xue were talking about this, Liu Qingshi updated his Weibo.

The content of his post was similar to Song Yaqi's, but it didn't appear to be so official. It could be seen at a glance that he wrote it himself.

Subsequently, Zheng Weilian, Zhang Junhe, Gu Jianguo, and Huang Huachao all posted Weibo one by one, saying that they had obtained the Holy Flowers Formula and helped promote it.

Ultimately, Ying'er also sent a post on Weibo.

Unlike others, Ying'er started taking the product as soon as she received it and took photos of the whole unboxing process, the course and methods when she took the product, the tastes, and so on. She posted all of the photos on Weibo and explained the detailed steps with a caption.

As the netizens saw the post of Ying'er, their comments showed explosive growth on Weibo.

"I'm so envious."

"Is it delicious? Does it taste good? Will it be difficult to swallow?"

"Does it smell like Chinese medicine? Can it only be taken by the mouth?"

"It seems quite exclusive. I really want to try some."

"We're still waiting for placing a preorder, while you've already taken it. I'm so envious!"

Netizens were envious and exclaimed.

Meanwhile, there were some people who didn't pay much attention to the Holy Flowers Formula, but they were focusing on Fang Qiu. After all, Fang Qiu didn't post a Weibo for a long time.

"The product Master Fang roots for must be good. Guys, you should buy more."

“Look, you can see the social circle of our Master Fang Qiu now. There are only several people around him. Let’s see who dares to say that our Master Fang is a star. How can one with such a small social circle be a star?”

Fang Qiu’s fans came out and spoke for Fang Qiu.

Because they didn’t know that the Holy Flowers Formula was produced by Fang Qiu, these fans didn’t promote the product. Instead, they had been centering on Fang Qiu and mentioning Fang Qiu in the trending topic.

Only then did He Xue remember that Fang Qiu was also an influencer with tens of millions of fans on Weibo.

“Hey, you are also an influencer and big shot on Weibo. Why don’t you advertise your own product?” He Xue questioned with disdain.

Chapter 973: Generously Repaying Fang Qiu’s Fans

“Of course, I can make an ad.” Hearing He Xue’s words, Fang Qiu immediately laughed and said, “Give me fifty boxes of Holy Flowers Formula. Then I’ll advertise for you!”

He Xue glanced at Fang Qiu and asked, “What? Are you negotiating with me as a celebrity, a Chinese Medicine practitioner, or a college student?”

“Not as the chairman of Renyi Group anyway,” Fang Qiu said with a smug smile.

“Fifty boxes, right?” He Xue’s eyes flickered as she replied, “Sure, 1500 yuan for each box, which will be 7,500 yuan in total. I’ll deduct it from your salary!”

“No way.” Fang Qiu looked at He Xue speechlessly and said, “My is much more valuable than this, okay?”

"It's up to you whether you want to do it or not." Shrugging her shoulders, He Xue felt that she couldn't care less. She added, "Anyway, it's your Weibo and your product. The money that you earn from selling them is also yours. And it has nothing to do with me."

Fang Qiu was speechless.

"All right. All right. I'll make this." With a wry smile, Fang Qiu went straight to his desk and posted a Weibo with the computer on the desk.

"Because I haven't posted anything on Weibo for a long time, I miss it so much. Today, the Holy Flowers Formula will be available for pre-order. There must be many people who can't get it tonight. In order to repay the appreciation and support of my fans, I will carry out a lucky draw. As long as you repost this Weibo, you can participate in the lucky draw. In the end, 50 people will be selected from the reposters, and each person will get a box of Holy Flowers Formula. The deadline is 7:30 tonight!"

As soon as he posted this Weibo, Fang Qiu's tens of millions of fans immediately became active.

"Master finally posted on Weibo."

"You finally came. Fortunately, I didn't give up."

"I thought you were not going to use Weibo anymore."

"This is rare. Master Fang only sent one post in such a long time, but this time he actually gives us benefits. Everyone, come on. Hurry up and repost it."

Fang Qiu's fans began to repost crazily.

"Please select me!"

"Give me one box. I'm begging you."

“God bless me with the lucky draw. I really want the Holy Flowers Formula!”

“This might be the closest connection I’ve ever had with Master Fang Qiu.”

“If I win the prize, can I have an autograph?”

“It must be me. Please let me be selected!”

Under the enthusiasm of his fans, the number of reposts on Fang Qiu’s Weibo immediately soared explosively. In the blink of an eye, the number of reposts reached tens of thousands, and it was still growing at a terrifying speed.

There was more than that.

With numerous reposts from Fang Qiu’s fans, many people who didn’t pay much attention to Fang Qiu but especially focused on the Holy Flowers Formula immediately followed Fang Qiu and began to repost it after seeing this lucky draw.

In only ten minutes, the number of reposts of Fang Qiu’s Weibo soared to 500,000.

The celebrities on Weibo were scared out of their wits when seeing this scene.

This was 500,000 reposts!

Even an A-list superstar would find it difficult to make such an achievement. After all, such a thing should be reposted from Fang Qiu’s Weibo. Many people reposted from others’ Weibo accounts, so the number of reposts was much lower than the comments. 500,000 was already a considerable number.

“What the f*ck, it’s already 500,000?”

“The number of reposts has reached 500,000. Oh my God.”

“Isn’t his influence a little intimidating?”

“It must be spread widely since it got 500,000 reposts.”

“If one repost can be seen by ten people, the number of these reposts can spread this Weibo to 5 million people. If we count the posts of Fang Qiu’s fans and those who reposted others’ Weibo, the reposts of this Weibo will exceed 100 million!”

“It’s more than 100 million. Fang Qiu has 60 million fans. With so many reposts spreading and heated discussions on Weibo topics, the spread of this Weibo will cover at least 200 million people.”

“It’s so terrifying. He’s even more powerful than an A-list superstar!”

“Is there anyone else in the country who can have this clout?”

“The number of reposts is still growing. I wonder how many reposts it will reach. This Weibo might even break the Guinness World Records!”

“He deserves to be our Master Fang. He’s awesome!”

“Keep up the good work, everyone. If every one of us reposts it, it will reach 60 million.”

“It’s impossible for everyone to repost it. Even if 60 million followers are all real, some people only watch it and won’t get involved, so they are not included. These kinds of people account for most of the followers, which should be half of the total number of the followers, or even more than half of the number. And we also need to remove those who only leave comments but won’t repost the Weibo. Most of these people have OCD. They are living for their own Weibo content. No matter how great the temptation is, they are unwilling to ruin the carefully designed content of their Weibo. They will not repost a Weibo randomly to ruin the order of their Weibo’s content. In the end, we have to exclude some followers who are too occupied with all kinds of things to notice Weibo. As we do the math like this, the number of reposts is really shocking since it can reach this level.”

“Even Song Yaqi, the popular national singer, only has about 200,000 reposts of one of her posts at most. It’s still far from reaching 500,000.”

“Other big stars’ popularity isn’t comparable to Fang Qiu’s at all.”

“If Huaxia is a democratic country, Fang Qiu can even run for the president with such clout, right?”

All the netizens on Weibo were shocked by Fang Qiu’s incredible influence.

Even some media outlets and Weibo personnel were astounded by such incredible data.

Numerous netizens began to count the various data on Weibo. In terms of the number of reposts on one Weibo post, Fang Qiu undoubtedly got first place.

They also believed that Fang Qiu must have greater potential to take first place in the ranking of other data!

Just when everyone on Weibo was discussing heatedly, Fang Qiu smiled proudly and said to He Xue after watching the comments for nearly half an hour in the office, “What do you think? does it make a difference as soon as my ad is released? The effect of this ad is incredible, isn’t it?”

“Well...” He Xue snorted and her face turned red. She was a strong woman, so she wasn’t willing to feel inferior to Fang Qiu. She couldn’t let this kid be too proud!

An idea came to her mind and she immediately said, “Is this an ? There are indeed a lot of people who reposted it, but they all want to take advantage of it. They want to get the Holy Flowers Formula without costing them a penny. It’s highly likely that these people aren’t the main customers of our products.”

Fang Qiu was stunned at once.

He was speechless.

He knew that what He Xue said was reasonable. After all, there were some people who reposted it bearing the hope of obtaining the Holy Flowers Formula without having to spend any money.

The price of the Holy Flowers Formula was quite high. Once it officially went on sale, these people would not be the main customers to buy the product.

Although that was the case, his Weibo was indeed spread widely.

Since it was an , wasn't it supposed to make more people know about it?

So many people saw this post, which meant that it was spreading widely on Weibo. This did help promote the product.

Fang Qiu was not a fool.

Of course, he could tell what He Xue was thinking. He also knew that He Xue was a strong woman, so he did not confront her directly. Instead, he pretended to be hurt and look sad. He pursed his lips and said discontentedly, "Why didn't you tell me earlier!"

"How did I know you would advertise like this?" He Xue smiled smugly before comforting him, "However, this can also be considered advertising now. Although people who see this post might not be the main buyers, the reputation of the Holy Flowers Formula has been spread far and wide. With the confirmation of a great doctor like you, there will definitely be more people trying to buy the Holy Flowers Formula. This can barely be considered as an ."

Fang Qiu was speechless.

Barely?

As people were reposting and discussing wildly, time flew.

In the blink of an eye, it was 7:30 in the evening.

On Weibo, all the people who posted Fang Qiu's Weibo were waiting for Fang Qiu's lucky draw.

Although there were many people and the number of reposts exceeded 700,000, everyone was still very energetic and enthusiastic. They all hoped that they could win the prize.

"It's 7:30."

"It's time. Where's Fang Qiu?"

"Isn't there a lucky draw?"

"50 will be selected from 700,000 people. The odds are 140,000 to one. If I can be selected, I'll buy a lottery immediately!"

"Fang Qiu, come and do the lucky draw!"

"Where is Master Fang? How do we draw lots?"

"Hey, Fang Qiu didn't run away, did he? 50 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula is not a small number. Can he really get them?"

"Haha, will Fang Qiu run away? You think too much."

"If Fang Qiu runs away, I'll buy them for you myself!" The man who supposed that Fang Qiu ran away suddenly made such a comment confidently.

As soon as this comment came out, it was immediately noticed by countless people.

Everyone commented below.

“That’s impossible. You’re bragging.”

“Can Fang Qiu do that?”

“Well, I can also say that. If Fang Qiu runs away, I’ll buy 100 boxes for you.”

“You can brag, but I can do it better than you. Haha.”

Everyone knew.

Since Fang Qiu had sent a post about the lucky draw on Weibo, it meant that he was 100 percent sure that he could get or already got 50 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula. Hence, it was impossible that he would run away.

It was also because of this that everyone dared to joke carelessly.

Just when everyone thought that it was impossible, something did happen.

Given that it was time for the lucky draw, Fang Qiu logged into his Weibo account in the office. When he was ready to do the lucky draw, he suddenly saw those comments.

He suddenly got interested and immediately reposted the Weibo of the person who said that he would pay for it if Fang Qiu ran away. Fang Qiu then commented, “Since you sincerely want to bring benefit to everyone, I’ll fulfill your wish. I’ve decided not to do the lucky draw. I’m running away!”

The moment he reposted it, it caused countless people to laugh.

Seeing that Fang Qiu reposted and commented on him, the user of that Weibo was surprised but also bitter. He could only hurriedly beg for mercy and let Fang Qiu start the lucky draw.

After making fun of the user, Fang Qiu began to do the lucky draw as scheduled.

As he used the lucky draw system of Weibo, 50 people were selected. While the list was released on Weibo, the system automatically sent a private message to the 50 lucky winners.

Those who had received the message were all overjoyed.

They expressed their gratitude to Fang Qiu, Weibo, and everything that they could thank.

Chapter 974: Sold out in a Second

When the 50 lucky winners saw their names on the winning list and received private messages on Weibo, they were all so thrilled that they made screenshots and post them.

Not only did they post them on Weibo, but they also posted the screenshots below the comment area of Fang Qiu's post where he announced the lucky draw.

As soon as they posted the screenshots, it immediately attracted countless people's envy and jealousy.

"What the f*ck. You actually got selected when the odds are 14,000 to 1. You lucky dog!"

"Why? Why not me?"

"I also want it so badly. I'm so close to you. Why did it pick you instead of me?"

"You actually get it when 50 people can be selected among 700,000. It's an incredible piece of luck."

There were a total of 50 comments with screenshots like this.

Below the comments of the 50 winners were tens of thousands of comments of people filled with envy.

As for the 50 winners, what they enjoyed the most was exactly to see the envy and jealousy of the vast majority of netizens.

The winners didn't simply sit back.

As soon as they won the prize, they sent their addresses to Fang Qiu in private messages.

Fang Qiu also began to collect the information.

Compared with 700,000 reposts, 50 people seemed to be very few. But when he truly began to count, he found that it was not easy to collect the addresses of the 50 people because countless people had sent him private messages and the content of the messages was the same—the address.

Under such circumstances, Fang Qiu had to check them one by one to make sure that all the 50 lucky winners could receive the prize before he recorded their addresses.

After working on it for over 10 minutes, Fang Qiu finally recorded the addresses of the 50 winners.

Without hesitation, Fang Qiu gave all the addresses of these 50 people to He Xue and asked her to deliver the goods to them.

He Xue did not delay either.

As soon as she received the information, she immediately sent it to the staff members and asked them to pack up the products immediately and send them to the winners as soon as possible.

When everything was done, it was 7:50 in the evening.

There were still 10 minutes before the preorder began.

Fang Qiu sat at his desk.

Looking at He Xue, who found a stool from nowhere and sat side by side with him on the desk, Fang Qiu accessed the official website of Renyi Group early. Watching the countdown of the preorder page, he asked, “Are you confident?”

“Confident?” He Xue glanced at Fang Qiu in surprise and asked, “Do I need confidence?”

Fang Qiu smiled as he heard that.

Although she said that, the confidence He Xue showed was incredibly strong.

As Fang Qiu gave it a second thought, he realized why she was so confident.

It already caused such a big sensation on Weibo. There were at least hundreds of thousands of people who wanted to purchase the Holy Flowers Formula.

It could be seen from Fang Qiu’s Weibo which received 700,000 reposts.

Besides, there were the advertising effects of Song Yaqi and other celebrities.

Everyone could tell that the volume of the preorder of the Holy Flowers Formula this time would definitely be immense!

What they expected next was to see if people could accept the price of the Holy Flowers Formula and how many products they would pre-order.

Meanwhile, as the preorder was about to be launched, the scalpers all over the country were also energetic, waiting to scramble for the product.

Compared with ordinary people, these scalpers were far more professional. Whether in terms of purchasing tools or techniques, ordinary people were not comparable to them.

Previously, these scalpers already gained great benefits from the Trillium Root-Securing Pill and Life-prolonging Earth Pill.

They saw that the Holy Flowers Formula had become so popular online and various popular stars advertised for it. Even Fang Qiu personally made an for it.

Hence, they believed that Holy Flowers Formula would definitely spark a boom after it officially started the pre-order!

The scalpers earned money through popular products.

How could they not fight to purchase Holy Flowers Formula with such immense potential?

Undoubtedly, the appearance of the Holy Flowers Formula was simply a big business, which was a blessing. They might be able to make a fortune because of this.

Not only a few of them, but most of the scalpers in the country already prepared the fine server in advance, waiting to scramble for the product.

At this time, the women who used to stay at home, put on facial masks, wash their faces, and do all kinds of skincare were now staying in front of the computers that were particularly harmful to their skin.

Just like the scalpers, these women were all staring at the countdown of the preorder page on the computer screen. They were secretly following to count the seconds.

If those scalpers were thoroughly prepared to make money, then these women went crazy for beauty.

Countless women dreamed of retaining their youthful looks and beautifying themselves.

From ancient times until now, such a miraculous thing never appeared. Now that the Holy Flowers Formula was on sale, all the women were deeply drawn to it. They could hardly resist it.

Even if some of them were sensible enough to search for the Holy Flowers Formula online, they soon got definite information from the Internet that the Holy Flowers Formula was indeed Chinese medicine, which had no side effects on the human body, and it did have the effect of retaining one's youthful look and beauty.

After finding out this information, female consumers could no longer stay sensible!

More importantly, most of them had seen the clout of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation from the Trillium Root-Securing Pill and Life-prolonging Earth Pill. Their efficacy was completely incomparable to that of other pharmaceutical companies.

In this case, since there was Desert Cistanche which was highly effective, there would also have the main ingredient of the super effective Immortal Hundred Flowers Formula, Tianshan Snow Lotus! it was very likely that the Renyi Group after the merger of the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation

Even though everything was unknown before they used the product, women's desire to get something was simply the scariest power in the world. This power could make them crazy or even made them drive men to help!

In addition to the women who were waiting in front of the computers to buy it, there were also some women who were unable to buy it because they were occupied with other important things. They made every effort to ask their boyfriends to help them buy it. They had to buy it no matter how hard they tried.

In order to increase the chance of buying the product successfully, the women who were standing in front of the computers were also dominating their men, asking them to stay in front of another computer to help them buy the product.

The same situation happened not only in a small area but also all over the country at the same time.

Fortunately, no one was counting.

If someone counted it, it would probably be marked as a national event. People's passion and enthusiasm were almost comparable to that of the renowned Double 11 Shopping Festival!

It was 7:55 p.m.

Everyone was waiting anxiously.

The pre-order page suddenly updated.

With the automatic refreshing of the page, all the people guarding in front of the computer clearly saw the updated information on the website.

The available amount of the Holy Flowers Formula's first pre-order: 50,000 packs!

There were several small separate frames containing the digits of 50,000, which were obviously used to remind everyone of the remaining amount when the preorder began.

Price: 1,500 yuan.

Below was a palm-sized countdown image.

Below the countdown image was a grey purchase button.

There was a purchase reminder on the side, saying, "There's no need to refresh the page to place a pre-order. We've used the most advanced server, and the page will be refreshed automatically every millisecond. When the preorder officially starts, the “Purchase” button will turn red, and everyone can click on it to place a pre-order.

After reading the information, people all over the country who were waiting to place a pre-order were in an uproar.

“50,000 boxes. It’s very few.”

“What the f*ck. The Trillium Root-Securing Pill and Life-prolonging Earth Pill are only sold for 1,000 yuan each. Why is the Holy Flowers Formula sold for 1,500 each? It’s so expensive.”

“It’s too expensive. The price of one pack is equivalent to half a month’s salary for me.”

“There are so few of them. How can we get it like this?”

“May the heavens bless me! I must buy a pack!”

The men who were forcibly asked to buy the product began to complain and pray.

The women were in an uproar as well.

However, unlike men, women all thought that the amount of the pre-order was so small that it annoyed them.

“It’s very few of them. How can I buy it?”

“There are 700 to 800 million women all over the country, but you’re only selling 50,000 packs. Are you kidding me?”

“Isn’t it too little?”

“Oh my god, can’t you supply a little more? It’s too little.”

“The price is very reasonable. If it really works, 1,500 yuan is really not expensive at all. It’s not even comparable to the price of a bottle of designer perfume. But this amount is too small. I’m so frustrated.”

Obviously, the focus between men and women was completely different.

Men felt that the price was expensive, but women felt that it was reasonable, and they did not feel distressed at all. Even for them, they would not dare to use it if the product was cheap.

Five minutes passed in the blink of an eye.

It was eight o’clock.

The product was officially available for pre-order.

This time, because everything was ready, the purchase page didn’t freeze at all. The server didn’t break down either. No one needed to refresh the website.

At eight o’clock, the page refreshed automatically.

In a millisecond, countless people across the country all clicked on the mouse to scramble for the product at the same time.

After they clicked it, similar words popped up while most of the people who were full of hope were staring at the screen—The purchase failed!

They looked at the place which showed the number originally. It was 50,000 boxes a second ago, and now the number turned 0.

The purchase button turned gray again after being red for one second.

50,000 packs were all sold out in a second.

There was nothing left!

At this moment, the suppliers of computer accessories all over the country grinned from ear to ear because countless keyboards in the country were smashed and numerous mice were thrown out now.

Soon, all kinds of complaints appeared like a rising tide on Weibo.

Countless people complained that the amount was too small and that it was so competitive that they couldn't buy it at all.

While everyone was complaining and criticizing, the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group sent a data report of the pre-order!

Medical Master

Chapter 975: What if There're Scalpers?

"Thank you for participating in the first preorder of the Holy Flowers Formula. Meanwhile, we are very excited to tell you that the first batch of the Holy Flowers Formula has all been sold out in one second. You didn't read it wrong. In only one second, 50,000 boxes of the Holy Flowers Formula have been sold out. This record lets us see your support for the Holy Flowers Formula. We will also make every effort to continue to work harder. Please read the data report of this preorder in the picture!"

There was a picture attached to this post.

In the picture, there was a circle with two different colors with a text explanation on the side.

"It only took a second to finish the preorder of 50,000 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula!"

“During the preorder, 70% of the customers who have bought the Holy Flowers Formula are female.”

“Among 70% of the female consumers, the oldest is 78 years old, and the youngest is only 13 years old!”

All those who were complaining were attracted by the post and the data report.

After reading it, there were all kinds of discussions.

“What the f*ck, 70% of them are women?”

“As I expected, this thing is specially produced to earn money from women!”

“In fact, men can also use it. Women can be beautiful, and men can be handsome.”

“That’s incredible. Our Huaxia women are extremely fast!”

“From 13 years old to 78 years old, this age gap is huge, isn’t it?”

“Sure enough, caring about beauty is women’s nature!”

There was a heated discussion on Weibo. Soon, a hashtag was trending—The Preorder of the Holy Flowers Formula!

Almost all the people who followed the Holy Flowers Formula gathered to have a heated discussion about the topic, regardless of whether they managed to make a preorder or not.

Of course, most people among them complained and criticized.

After all, 99% of the people couldn't buy it.

Just as the complaints and criticism grew more and more intense, some people who could no longer resist the temptation and could no longer suppress the desires began to pop out.

"I'll offer a high price to buy it. The original price is 1,500. I'll pay 2,000 for a box. Those who want to sell it send me a direct message!"

"You think 2000 is a high price? I'll pay 3,000!"

"3,000 yuan per box. I'll buy them no matter how many you have. Sell it to me quickly if you want."

"Where're the scalpers? Come out to make money now. I'll pay 3,000 for one box."

This time, there was no need to secretly entice people. Even before scalpers came out, the netizens who couldn't resist the temptation and desire had already taken the initiative to raise the price.

At this moment, after observing for a long time, the scalpers who saw the price constantly rising and even reaching the top finally made their move.

"It's not easy for me to get one. I'll sell it for 3500 yuan!"

"Two boxes for sale. 3,500 yuan per box!"

For scalpers, 3,000 was definitely not a price they could accept, neither was 3500. Hence, they began to drive up the price.

Normally, the price of a popular concert ticket could be raised by two or three times by them, not to mention such a popular and rare product like the Holy Flowers Formula.

"I'll pay 4,000. I'll take as much as I can."

“I’ll pay 4,500 for them.”

A bid began on Weibo.

Undoubtedly, “Holy Flowers Formula” became the most popular topic now. In a short period of time, it rushed to the top ten of the trending topics. Moreover, its trending index was constantly soaring. It was about to get first place on the trending topic list rapidly.

In the cultivation base in Beijiāng, Fang Qiu and He Xue were still watching the situation of the preorder in the office at night.

Because they had already predicted this situation before the preorder began, they were not surprised by the sale of the preorder. Instead, they were intrigued by the topic on Weibo.

While browsing through the netizens’ discussion of the topic, Fang Qiu and He Xue were chatting with each other while smiling wryly.

As they were reading, Fang Qiu soon saw the scalpers driving up the price!

Fang Qiu couldn’t meddle in when normal people who wanted to buy it raised the price. After all, these people had their own needs and also had money to buy it. But when he saw the scalpers driving up the price, Fang Qiu felt that it was a bit inappropriate.

This didn’t only affect the interests of a large number of netizens but also had a bad impact on the Renyi Group.

After all, there would definitely be a lot of people coming to blame it on the company eventually. Why couldn’t the consumers buy the products but they were bought by the scalpers?

At the thought of this, Fang Qiu immediately frowned, glanced at He Xue next to him, and asked, “These scalpers are raising the price recklessly. It will have a bad influence on the consumers and our company. Should we stop them?”

“Tut-tut.” As soon as he said that, He Xue glanced at Fang Qiu disdainfully and then said, “Let me ask you. So what if they reveal their identities as scalpers?”

“They’re indeed scalpers.” Fang Qiu was stunned.

“Do you think the rules of our preorder are fair?” He Xue asked and immediately continued to question again, “Is it possible that scalpers have a higher chance of buying the product? Is their chance bigger than normal people who only get one in 140,000?”

“Uh...” Fang Qiu was stunned.

“So what if they’re scalpers? If he gets it when the odds are 140,000 to one, then it means that he earns it. He buys it with his own ability, so why should you stop him?”

Speaking of this, He Xue curled her lips and asked, “Is it just because they are scalpers? You thought that what they did is unfair to others? Have you ever thought that if we actually go to stop them, it’ll be unfair to them? Normally, the products they bought already belong to them. When they made the preorder, they had already paid for it. In this world, you pay for the things you buy. They can sell as much as they want. Even the law can’t intervene. How can you control them?”

After saying that, He Xue added. “Since you have so much time, why don’t you get a few more cultivation bases?”

Fang Qiu was speechless after he heard that.

He Xue was right.

Perhaps it was because of the name of scalper that sounded a little improper. Actually, scalpers were also human beings, and they also relied on their own hard work to scramble for the product like other consumers. It was just that their goal was different.

“Actually,” He Xue spoke again suddenly. With a smile on her face, she stared at Fang Qiu with her eyes lighting up and said, “I really have an urge now to sell all our stocks secretly. In this way, we can make a lot of money easily. We can sell one box with the price of two boxes!”

“Don’t!” Fang Qiu quickly shook his head and waved his hand to stop her.

“Alas.” Seeing Fang Qiu’s look, He Xue suddenly sighed softly and said, “You are not suitable for doing business. You can only be a doctor. You should change yourself since you’re too softhearted. The business field is like a battlefield. Either you or I will die in this field. Only when you earn money can you survive. If you keep thinking about giving benefits to others, you will end up killing yourself in the end.”

Fang Qiu shook his head repeatedly and said, “It’s not so serious. It’s already so profitable to sell it at a normal price, and we also used various marketing schemes. If we sell it secretly at a high price, it will be too unscrupulous. We can’t do that.”

Undoubtedly, as the chairman of Renyi Group, Fang Qiu was very clear about the cost of each box of Holy Flowers Formula.

The price of 1,500 yuan was higher than that of the Trillium Root-Securing Pill and Life-prolonging Earth Pill, which meant that it was more profitable.

Although he was the president of the company, he had to consider the income and profits of the shareholders. Therefore, it was absolutely impossible for him to lower the price a little even if he wanted to because it would infringe the interests of numerous people.

Fang Qiu could only give a wry smile.

When the topic surged to the top of the trending topic list on Weibo, the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group released a post in time.

“Because of the high volume of sales of the Holy Flowers Formula’s first preorder and the fact that numerous customers like it more than we expected, the management of our group discussed that we would do our best to increase the production of the Holy Flowers Formula, in preparation for the next preorder. Also, we will start a second preorder three days later. Welcome to place an order by then!”

No sooner had this post appeared than countless netizens criticized it.

“What the f*ck. Why don’t you finish the preorder all at once today? Why did we have to wait for three days?”

“F*ck, how many can they produce in three days? Obviously, they have been finished the production long ago. Are they playing the hunger marketing with us?”

“Will they still provide 50,000 boxes three days later?”

“Can you increase the quantity? 50,000 boxes are obviously not enough.”

For a moment, all kinds of complaints and requests appeared in the comment area of that post.

Although they were criticizing fiercely, people gave it a second thought. If the company took out all the stocks to launch the preorder today, there would only be 100,000 boxes. With so many people scrambling for them, they might not necessarily be able to buy them.

Now they could still place a preorder three days later. At least everyone would have expectations and a glimmer of hope in their hearts.

In this day and age, one would get more popular when it was frequently criticized by people.

The topic, “the preorder of the Holy Flowers Formula”, sparked a boom.

Under such circumstances, many people already began to prepare for the next preorder three days later.

That night, because they had negotiated with the express delivery company in advance, the goods were immediately delivered at a blindingly fast speed. 50,000 boxes of the Holy Flowers Formula were sent all over the country under the transport of the cargo trucks.

In some places closer to Beijing, the goods arrived at some people's house the next morning!

As soon as these people received the products, they hurriedly opened their packages and took photos. They posted them on their WeChat Moments and Weibo and began to show off, which immediately made countless people envy.

"Does it arrive so quickly?"

"Awesome. Give it a try quickly. Let's see if it works."

"Have you taken it? Does it taste good?"

"Is the effect really that good?"

"Come on, no matter how awesome you are, you can only be our lab rats. Take it obediently and let us see the effects first."

While other people were extremely envious, the people who received the products and sent the posts saw the comments asking them to be lab rats. They immediately replied angrily, "Even if you know how it works, you still can't get the product. Do you want me to be a lab rat? No way. I won't tell you if it works or not!"

As soon as they said that, the netizens were helpless.

They shouldn't have provoked these talents!

Soon, it was the next night.

Almost all the 50,000 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula were delivered to 50,000 consumers. Even the 50 boxes that Fang Qiu had given away also arrived.

After receiving the products, everyone began to try them, looking forward to the effect!

Chapter 976: Amazing Effects of the Holy Flowers Formula

On the rooftop of an office building in the downtown area in Luhai city, there were two big red words written in a steel frame—Beauty International.

Beauty International Cosmetic Limited Liability Company was established in Luhai, Huaxia, which specialized in cosmetics, including skincare products, facial masks, Blemish Balm Cream, Color Control Cream, and so on.

In short, they involved everything that was related to women and cosmetics.

Moreover, under the corporate culture of diversity, optimism, innovation, adventure, and fashion, the products of Beauty International were not only popular in the country but also developed a large market in foreign countries.

Although it was not a top-class company in the country, Beauty International was surely a prominent company in the cosmetics industry in Huaxia.

The CEO of a cosmetics company was undoubtedly a stunning beauty.

In the president's office on the seventh floor of the building of Beauty International, a woman in a white shirt and black slacks was standing in front of the French windows, looking at the scenery in the distance with a cup of coffee in her hand.

This woman was the president of Beauty International, Yang Ruoyi.

"Ms. Yang." An employee walked into the office while calling her.

"Yeah, what's the matter?" Yang Ruoyi asked without looking back.

The employee held a box of well-packaged Holy Flowers Formula and said, "The Holy Flowers Formula you asked me to buy arrived just now. I bring it to you as soon as I receive it."

"Oh." Yang Ruoyi turned around, revealing her extremely unique appearance.

The reason why it was unique was that she was mixed-race. Although she had jet-black hair, she had blue eyes and extremely exotic facial features. She looked a bit like a person from Beijiāng in Huaxia. Her facial features were strongly marked, which was enchanting.

The casual clothes she was wearing could not hide her curvy figure at all.

At first glance, it was impossible for one to look away.

Putting down the coffee cup in her hand, Yang Ruoyi walked up with a smile and took the Holy Flowers Formula from the employee. While looking at it, she said, "Thank you. I'll ask people of the financial department to transfer the money to your account later."

"Okay." The employee nodded and turned to leave.

Yang Ruoyi then picked up the phone on the desk and dialed a number.

"Cancel all the arrangements for today." When the phone was connected, Yang Ruoyi left with the Holy Flowers Formula after saying that to the phone.

"Retain youthful looks and beautify people." When she was home, Yang Ruoyi immediately opened the package of the Holy Flowers Formula. After reading the instruction carefully, she immediately began to try it.

As the president of a cosmetics company, she was particularly interested in everything in the world that could make a woman beautiful.

Therefore, when the Holy Flowers Formula first came out, she followed it immediately. When she learned that the Holy Flowers Formula was about to be open for preorder, she specially told the company's network technology department to buy a box at any cost. They would even buy one from others even if they couldn't place a preorder on the website.

Before she tried it, she also deliberately removed her makeup. Although she only applied light makeup, her skin was inevitably damaged because of wearing make-up for a long time. There were some freckles on her face that were difficult to remove. She had done a few surgeries, but they weren't completely removed.

The reason why she was trying the medicine so carefully was that she wanted to see if the Holy Flowers Formula was truly as amazing as it was promoted.

However, after getting up the next day, Yang Ruoyi immediately found that her face was ruddier, and her skin was smoother. The skin damage caused by makeup was also reduced a lot, and even the pores were smaller.

This discovery shocked Yang Ruoyi.

"Is Holy Flowers Formula so amazing?"

Although she was shocked, Yang Ruoyi still couldn't believe it because she only tried it for the first time. She even thought it was her illusion.

In order to continue to verify the efficacy of the Holy Flowers Formula, she did not put on makeup all day.

Soon, another day passed.

When Yang Ruoyi woke up and rushed to the mirror, she found that her skin had become better, which was even better than yesterday.

This time, she was completely dumbfounded.

In her opinion, a woman's skin was the most difficult thing to repair in the world. No matter how much cosmetics she used, she could only conceal the flaws and never restore them. No matter how many facial masks she used, the effect was only minimal.

But the effect of the Holy Flowers Formula completely exceeded her expectations and knowledge!

Was there truly something in this world that could retain people's youthful looks and beautify them?

After being amazed, Yang Ruoyi didn't hesitate and immediately convened a meeting with the top management of the company!

From her point of view, the cosmetics industry was very likely to face a disaster that might destroy them!

With the Holy Flowers Formula having such amazing effects, who else would buy cosmetics?

Of course, it was not just Beauty International.

The other cosmetics companies also held meetings seriously one after another after buying the product and giving it a try, looking for solutions.

While people of various cosmetics companies were astounded, all the people who had successfully bought the Holy Flowers Formula also began to release their trial results online. Among them, many people began to make all kinds of live streaming about the trial on forums, Post Bar, Weibo, and other social media platforms, which they often used.

From the first day of their trial, these people looked different every day.

Everyone on the Internet saw the amazing and powerful effect of the Holy Flowers Formula.

The netizens could no longer sit still.

“What the f*ck, the effect is incredible?”

“Such a big pore just shrank?”

“It’s only been two days. The freckles on the blogger’s face have been reduced by one-third. Isn’t the effect too obvious?”

“It’s amazing. The skin damage has been restored. Although the scar on the face can’t be completely repaired, it will certainly not be as obvious as before if one uses the product for a long time.”

“What a miraculous effect!”

“With this effect, it’s worth 15,000 yuan, let alone 1,500 yuan!”

“Why did they sell it at such a low price? If they had sold it directly for 15,000 yuan per box, I might have had a chance to buy it.”

As netizens commented with envy and jealousy, those who had received the Holy Flowers Formula were even more excited and smug.

Most of them even began to take photos without wearing any make-up.

After all, they were all women. All the women in the world liked to look good. In the past, when they took photos, they either relied on their makeup or beauty camera apps. But after using the Holy Flowers Formula, they didn’t bother to use those apps. They all took photos of themselves without make-up, which were also shot by the original camera of the phone.

Even without makeup, they were not worried at all. On the contrary, they felt particularly proud.

As more and more people posted photos without makeup, there was even a new topic on Weibo — #makeup-free#!

Under this topic, the people who got the Holy Flowers Formula all encouraged everyone not to use their beauty cameras anymore, and not to wear makeup to hurt their skin. They wanted everyone to face their real lives bravely.

When the netizens saw the photos posted by these people, many people who hadn't seen the trial live streaming post began to question.

"Is this make-up free?"

"You don't even have a spot on your face. How can that be called makeup-free?"

"They must have retouched the photos. Their skin looks so smooth. How could they say that they are makeup-free?"

"They must have used beauty camera apps."

While people were questioning, some girls directly recorded a video. Not only did they give a slap in the face of those who doubted it, but it also strongly recommended everyone to buy the Holy Flowers Formula.

After watching the video, all the people talking about this topic on Weibo were shocked.

They were strongly enthusiastic about it, saying that they must buy the Holy Flowers Formula at any cost!

"What the f*ck, why did I tell you all the benefits? With so many people competing with me, I will have less chance to get it tonight."

"If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have said anything."

"Don't scramble for it, guys! Let me get another one!"

At this moment, the bloggers who posted the videos and photos began to regret it.

Everyone burst into laughter as soon as they saw that.

In the office of the cultivation base in Beijiang, Fang Qiu and He Xue were both paying attention to the public opinion online because tonight they would start the second preorder.

“Look, we don’t need to promote it at all. As soon as this thing comes out, it’ll have a good reputation,” He Xue said while pointing at the photos and videos on Weibo.

“Yes, I know it can,” Fang Qiu answered with a smile.

Of course, he knew the effect of the medicine produced by himself.

“Now there’s only one egg missing from our basket.” He Xue stared at Fang Qiu and said, “The land, with such a good reputation, we don’t have to worry about the sales of our products at all. But the speed of our production can’t keep up. You have to hurry up and reclaim a new cultivation base.”

“There’s no rush. Let’s wait first.” Fang Qiu thought for a moment and said, “Did you do what I asked you to do?”

“Yeah.” He Xue nodded her head. Then, as realization dawned on her, she said, “So that’s what you’re worried about.”

“Yes.” Fang Qiu nodded.

Soon, it was eight o’clock in the evening.

This time, because of the promotion of the people who buy the product last time, the number of people participating in the preorder was much higher than last time.

Countless people went wild.

The moment the preorder began, countless people across the country all clicked on the purchase button at the same time.

However, the result was also the same as the last preorder.

It only took one second.

In just one second, all the 50,000 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula were sold out.

This result caused countless people to cheer or complain.

The preorder was over.

On Weibo, #The Preorder of the Holy Flowers Formula# became a trending topic again.

On this topic, some people cried and some laughed. Of course, there was never a lack of scalpers wanting to sell the products.

Meanwhile, many cosmetics companies all over the country couldn't help but worry after seeing people's great enthusiasm for the Holy Flowers Formula.

Numerous companies held meetings all day but still couldn't figure out what to do.

Should they smear them?

They couldn't compete with Renyi Group in terms of the scale of consumers.

Although it was a newly-established group, it was not easy to deal with any of its shareholders!

Should they steal the confidential information of the company?

Who had the ability to do that? Who would dare to steal it?

Leaders of all the cosmetics companies were worried. It was not that they didn't want to live a peaceful life, but their peace was disturbed by the Renyi Group.

People of Renyi Group carried on with their work.

After the second round of the preorder ended, the data report of the second round was released on the official Weibo account of Renyi Group again. Meanwhile, they declared that the third round of the preorder would start three days later!

This news made countless netizens particularly surprised and thrilled. After knowing the effect of the Holy Flowers Formula, everyone was more looking forward to it than before!

Chapter 977: Holy Flowers Formula Is Chocolate?

When everyone was talking about it passionately online and setting the alarm to wait for the next round of the preorder, below the discussion area of the topic, some scalpers suddenly appeared.

"I'll sell Holy Flowers Formula for 1,600 per box. I can give you as much as you need!"

"I'm not lying or exaggerating. I'll only earn 100 yuan per box. The price of one box of Holy Flowers Formula is 1,600 yuan. Hurry up to buy it if you want it."

"In order to prove that I'm not a black-hearted seller, every box of the first batch of Holy Flowers Formula sells for 1,600 yuan!"

Similar messages kept appearing in the heated topic's discussion area.

As people saw it, they immediately rushed to ask.

"Blogger, how many boxes of Holy Flowers Formula do you have? Do you really have a lot?"

"Where are you? Is it really 1,600 yuan per box?"

"It's so cheap. Give me two boxes quickly."

Seeing so many people coming to ask, the scalper who sent the selling post didn't reply to the messages one by one. Instead, he deleted his last post that claimed to sell one box of Holy Flowers Formula for 1,600 yuan and sent another post. "If you need it, please add me on WeChat: XXXXXXXX."

Seeing this post, a small number of the onlookers immediately found that something was wrong, but they couldn't tell what was wrong. They only felt that it seemed like a scam, so these people didn't add the blogger on WeChat.

However, compared with this small group of people, most of the people had a strong desire to get the Holy Flowers Formula, which made them unable to calm down. Seeing that there was a way to get it, they immediately went to add the blogger on WeChat without hesitation.

Soon, these people were invited into a WeChat group called "Sale of Holy Flowers Formula Only".

"Is the group owner online?"

"Can we buy the Holy Flowers Formula here?"

"Is it really 1,600 yuan per box?"

“Renyi Group only sold 100,000 boxes in total after two rounds of the preorder. So many people are scrambling for them. Can you tell us how many boxes you have bought, group owner? Are they all authentic?”

Originally, there were only a few people in the WeChat group, but soon, the number of members increased to 500, which reached the maximum.

Everyone in the group kept asking.

All of them showed a burning desire to buy the product.

However, as everyone was asking anxiously, the group owner did not say anything.

On the contrary, some of the group members suddenly posted several pictures.

“It’s really fast. It only takes more than an hour before the goods arrived. It’s great to be in the same city as the group owner.”

“I’ve received it too.”

“Wow, it’s really the Holy Flowers Formula, which is exactly the same as the one posted by Song Yaqi.”

The photos appeared in the WeChat group one after another.

Over 400 people who had just entered the group were stunned.

At this moment, the group owner who had been silent suddenly showed up.

“I’m a decent seller. I will never cheat your hard-earned money. You can rest assured. I’ve rented hundreds of computers with great difficulty and finally got 500 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula. It isn’t too much for me to earn 100 yuan per box, right?”

As soon as he said that, people responded.

“No, not at all.”

“You’re a decent man.”

“It’s fair even if you add 500, let alone 100.”

“500 boxes. Awesome! You actually bought so many boxes. Can I buy a few more?”

In the group, all the group members exclaimed. Every one of them was thrilled, feeling that they had seen great hope in despair.

“Of course, I’m a businessman. I’ve got 500 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula. I can’t only sell one box to each of you. I’ve spent so much effort to buy it. Of course, the more I earn, the better.”

“500 boxes are sold in limited amount. If you buy one box, it’ll be 1,600 yuan. Two boxes will cost you 3,300 yuan. And three boxes will be 5,100 yuan. Each extra box will cost extra 100 yuan. Send me a direct message if you need it. I’ll arrange the delivery according to the time of your private messages making the order. First come, first serve!”

The group owner sent two messages in succession.

As people read them, they couldn’t resist the urge any longer.

They rushed to send direct messages to the group owner to make a purchase.

Undoubtedly, the 500 boxes of Holy Flowers Formula were all sold out in the blink of an eye.

The WeChat group was then disbanded.

The people who had bought the Holy Flowers Formula from the group owner also received the tracking numbers of the delivery.

The next day, they all received the product.

Sure enough, it looked exactly the same as the photos taken by those superstars.

Everyone began to try the product.

But a day later, they didn't feel any effect at all.

Two days later, they still felt nothing.

The effect was not as amazing as what was said on the Internet!

Some of them even began to question the Holy Flowers Formula, scolding online and saying that it was fake. They claimed that everything online was advertising hype and the product did not have such a good effect at all. They even posted photos of the Holy Flowers Formula they bought on Weibo.

There were many people who did the same.

It caused quite a stir on Weibo.

A person who bought the Holy Flowers Formula from the WeChat group even took the product that she bought to a specialized laboratory for testing.

After testing, she found that the Holy Flowers Formula in her hand turned out to be chocolate beans!

The woman was instantly furious the moment she got the information.

Without further consideration, she immediately logged into Weibo and posted three photos in a row. The first was the photo of her receiving the Holy Flowers Formula. The second was the photos when she tried the product, and the third one was the test results!

“Renyi Group is not a decent company at all. The so-called Holy Flowers Formula is actually chocolate beans. We are all cheated. Renyi Group is a liar. @Renyi Group, you must give our consumers an explanation!”

As soon as this post was sent, it immediately caused a lot of busybodies to repost it.

As those who also bought the Holy Flowers Formula from the WeChat group reposted it, they swore at the Holy Flowers Formula and Renyi Group!

Soon, the incident about chocolate beans attracted the attention of countless people on Weibo.

“What the f*ck, chocolate beans. Did I read that right?”

“What a huge joke!”

“This is cheating customers. It’s against the law, isn’t it?”

“Chocolate beans can be sold for so much money. Now, people can make a lot of money by selling things randomly.”

“It’s so funny. So many people are looking forward to the Holy Flowers Formula. It turns out to be chocolate beans. If I f*cking use 100 yuan to buy a box of chocolate beans to apply on my face, will I return to the look of 18 years old in a month?”

“It’s too shameless of you to cheat people with chocolate beans. What do you name yourself Renyi Group? I think you should call yourself a scam group!”

“Come out, people of the Renyi Group, give us an explanation!”

“@Renyi Group, explain this!”

On Weibo, those who didn’t buy it and didn’t even know what the Holy Flowers Formula looked like at all took the moral high ground and began to accuse furiously. They demanded the company give them an explanation!

This matter became more and more serious. Soon, it became a trending topic on Weibo—#Holy Flowers Formula is chocolate beans?#

The hashtag was trending rapidly.

Even if those who bought the authentic products explained everywhere on Weibo, it didn’t help at all because there were too many people paying attention to this matter.

There were less than 100,000 people who possessed the genuine Holy Flowers Formula. However, the number of people who were attracted by it and wanted to get it was at least tens of millions or even hundreds of millions!

How could they fight against so many people as there were only less than 100,000 of them?

With the involvement of some people who had ulterior motives and deliberately misled others, it was even more difficult for the people to reveal the truth.

People of those cosmetics companies who had been worried about how to deal with the Holy Flowers Formula soon saw this topic on Weibo.

People of all the cosmetics companies were amused.

“Chocolate beans?” In the Beauty International company in Luhai, seeing the heated topic on Weibo, Yang Ruoyi, who was sitting in her office, was stunned at first, and then suddenly laughed.

Undoubtedly, what she bought was the authentic one. She also knew that Renyi Group would never make a counterfeit with such good resources and techniques. Therefore, she did not send her Holy Flowers Formula to run a test immediately like those consumers who were frightened online. Instead, she let out a sigh of relief.

“I was just worrying about it. Things happen. Although a cat will be out of the bag and counterfeits will never threaten the authentic product, it won’t be so easy to deal with it once this matter gets out of hand. In this way, we’ll still have time to figure out how to cope with it.”

The voices demanding an explanation online grew increasingly intense.

It became so serious that nearly people all over the country knew about it, and the matter even became the headlines of the mainstream media.

But under such circumstances, the Renyi Group did not respond at all as if they had no intention of giving the public an explanation at all.

This situation undoubtedly provoked the people online.

Under the instigation and encouragement of people with ulterior motives, countless people ran to the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group with anger and began to curse them crazily.

“Liar company! You guys will die miserably!”

“Chocolate beans are sold as medicine. Shame on you!”

“You’re so shameless. You’re cheating people blatantly. This is illegal. You’re committing a crime!”

“You used chocolate beans to deceive customers. What a shameless evil company.”

They didn't only swear at the company.

Many people who had bought the product but didn't see any effect hurried to the laboratories to test the components. The results showed that it was truly chocolate beans.

Everyone was enraged!

On Weibo, more and more people began to expose the matter.

The number of people who did it reached tens of thousands!

At first, many people were unwilling to believe it, thinking that only a minority of people had bought counterfeits. But as more and more people exposed it, those people who didn't believe it began to waver because there were numerous people exposing this matter.

This incident became more and more intense.

After the whole day, most of the consumers were in a state of extreme anger. They all vented their anger on the stars who had advertised for the Holy Flowers Formula. Even Song Yaqi was unable to get away with it.

Of course, Fang Qiu was also related.

"You are a miracle-working doctor. How could you help the unscrupulous company to promote? What could you claim that you are a miracle-working doctor?"

"I didn't expect that. Master Fang Qiu, you truly let me down. You actually help this unscrupulous company to hype. Are you blind?"

"It's because of your promotion that I made every effort to buy a box of it after spending a lot of money. I didn't expect it to be a scam. Why do you help the shady company to advertise? You disappoint me!"

“Fang Qiu, the reason why I trust you so much is that you once exposed the counterfeits and helped us crack down on the problem medicine. But now you are helping the unscrupulous businessman to advertise the product. What you have done has failed me. I’m really disappointed!”

“Don’t worry. I’m fine, truly fine.” In the office of the cultivation base in Beijiang, When Fang Qiu was answering the phone, He Xue, who was sitting at the desk next to him, covered her mouth and chuckled.

Since the incident that Holy Flowers Formula is chocolate beans broke out online, Fang Qiu had been receiving phone calls continuously. Almost everyone who knew him called to show their regard for him.

Although no one knew that he was the one who created the Holy Flowers Formula, he was now a celebrity. He had advertised the Holy Flowers Formula, so this incident would also have a great impact on his reputation.

Even Jiang Miaoyu, who was far away in a foreign country, called him.

Fang Qiu could only comfort everyone and said that he was fine.

“Phew...” After receiving the calls, Fang Qiu heaved a long sigh and muttered, “No one else will call again, right?”

“Haha.” He Xue covered her mouth as she chuckled and said, “Do you have a feeling that you’ve been waiting for a long time?”

Fang Qiu nodded and said, “Yes. If something is meant to be, it will happen. They’ve had made quite a scene. We can make a move now!”

“Okay.” He Xue agreed and immediately took out her phone and dialed a number, instructing, “You can give an official reply on Weibo. Send it according to the template I gave you before. Don’t miss a single word!”

After that, she hung up the phone.

Fang Qiu also clicked on the official Weibo account of Renyi Group immediately.

After a while, Renyi Group's official Weibo finally sent a post after being criticized by the public for a whole day.

"Statement: With regard to the incident about the Holy Flowers Formula, our group will never sell counterfeit products. The Holy Flowers Formula can be on the market because it goes through strict inspection of all professional departments. It will never be something like chocolate beans that deceive customers. Please buy the Holy Flowers Formula through the official channels when you want to make a purchase. Do not conduct an offline transaction.

"As for the chocolate beans incident, we request consumers to show the purchasing record of our company's official website if you have any doubts. If you bought it from someone else, please let the seller show the purchasing record. At present, there is only one official purchasing channel of the Holy Flowers Formula. Every transaction is traceable. Each box of medicine has its own serial number, which can also be verified when you input the production number on our official website and the official website of the National Medical Products Administration.

"Second, there is a word 'Ren' at the bottom of the genuine medicine bottles produced and sold by our company. If there is no such word at the bottom of the package bottles, it can be confirmed that they are counterfeit inferior products.

"If you meet the above two requirements and your product is still chocolate beans, our company is willing to offer 10 million yuan to compensate each customer!"

A long post was sent on Weibo.

As soon as this post appeared, it immediately caused a sensation online.

"How is it?" In the office, He Xue looked at Fang Qiu with a smile and asked after reading the statement.

“Not bad.” Fang Qiu nodded with satisfaction.

“Everything is done according to your requirements. This statement is practically flawless, and this is only the first step.”

While staring at Fang Qiu, He Xue said, “You deserve to be the leader who masterminded the merger of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. You’re truly thoughtful.”

“It won’t be too late to praise me after this is over.” Fang Qiu shook his head and chuckled.

The two continued to browse Weibo.

As the statement of Renyi Group’s official Weibo was released, everyone on Weibo was astounded.

Although there were numerous people condemning the Renyi Group on the Internet, these people did not expect that Renyi Company would come out to fight it after being silent for a whole day!

“What the f*ck? Counterfeit?”

“That’s right. This product has to go through all kinds of inspections before it goes on the market. If it is really chocolate beans, how will people allow it to be sold?”

“They’re evading the responsibility, aren’t they? Whoever buys the authentic one, come out.”

“10 million for each person. How generous!”

“What the f*ck. Are they really cheated by the counterfeiters? Renyi Company won’t produce counterfeits since they dare to make such a commitment.”

“Renyi Group is a mega enterprise that can even swallow up Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation. How could it deceive customers like this?”

At this moment, all the netizens were entirely astonished by Renyi Company’s generous gesture, for they claimed to offer 10 million to compensate the consumer if one counterfeit of their product was found.

After being astonished, many people began to waver.

“Could it be that we were deceived?”

“Did we misunderstand Renyi Group?”

Soon, Song Yaqi, who had helped advertise the Holy Flowers Formula before, also posted a photo on Weibo in the first place. The photo was the medicine bottle of the Holy Flowers Formula. In the photo, there was indeed a word “Ren” at the bottom of the bottle!

Then, as Liu Qingshi took the lead, the six MCs also took photos one after another, showing their support for the Holy Flowers Formula and Renyi Group.

The internet trolls who had been looking for trouble and cursing on these celebrities’ Weibo immediately fell silent.

“Where are those trolls?”

“Where are those brain-dead guys who accused Yaqi of helping crooked businessmen advertise?”

“How would Liu Qingshi advertise for an inferior product?”

“Master Fang finally clears his name.”

“It turns out to be counterfeit products. Those who slander Fang Qiu, do you feel ashamed when you hear this?”

Fans of those celebrities all stood out to support their idols and eventually drove away those trolls.

Since the incident about the chocolate beans started, these fans of the stars were particularly nervous, for fear that their idols would get involved in this mess.

Fortunately, when everyone was most worried, the whole thing was finally reversed dramatically!

Soon, the people whose idols had been cursed by the haters and trolls were all filled with anger. They went to find the people who had exposed the news in the beginning.

In addition, many people who rooted for the Holy Flowers Formula and Fang Qiu also found those people exposing the news.

“Renyi Company has made a statement. Have you read it?”

“You bought counterfeit products, didn’t you?”

“Go on, keep exposing it. If you buy the authentic products, you can go to Renyi Company to collect 10 million and become a billionaire right away.”

“Take a photo of the bottom of the bottle quickly and provide the purchasing record of the official website!”

“Bro, you are going to be a billionaire. Show us the evidence quickly.”

“You are so stupid that you are cheated. How could you blame it on the Renyi Company?”

Countless people rushed to leave comments.

They asked those who revealed the news to check carefully to see if what they bought was genuine or not.

Seeing Renyi Company's statement and the strong requests of the netizens, these people who exposed the counterfeits were a little flustered. It was true that they didn't purchase the product from the official channel but from WeChat.

Although they were a little flustered, they still had a glimmer of hope in their hearts.

However, as the netizens were urging, they opened the medicine bottles and emptied everything inside. Then they took a closer look and found that there was no word on the bottom of the bottles, let alone the word "Ren"!

This scene stunned those who revealed the news.

Was it truly counterfeit?

Were they deceived?

With the last hope, these people opened their WeChat to find the seller.

They couldn't find the seller in the contacts.

Even if some of them had recorded the seller's WeChat number in advance, they found that they couldn't add him at all when they tried. Obviously, the seller blocked them.

Such a situation finally brought these people back to their senses.

They were deceived!

Now they thought about it carefully, they wondered why they were so stupid that they actually believed it was authentic when they bought counterfeits at that time? How could they buy the authentic one with only 1,600 yuan?

They were filled with anger.

Knowing that they had been deceived, these people remained silent and did not admit it. After all, it was truly difficult to say it out loud.

Could they admit in front of so many people that they had been deceived and that they were the ones to cause trouble? Could they admit that they had made a mistake?

How was this possible?

After all, no one could bear to be shamed in public.

They fell silent.

But the netizens wouldn't accept it.

Most of the netizens were frantically commenting and urging the people exposing the counterfeits to give them an explanation.

In the end, only one person stood out.

"I'm wrong. I'm sorry. At that time, I bought the counterfeit from the scalper on impulse. It's my fault. I shouldn't blame it on Renyi Company and slander the Holy Flowers Formula. At first, I didn't check if it was me who did it wrong. I admitted that I was cheated, but when I went to find the scalper, I found that I had been blocked by him. All the people who were cheated were the same as me, right?"

As soon as this post came out, it immediately spread on Weibo.

Everyone also knew that the reason why it caused such a big scene online was that someone was selling counterfeit products!

People who got to know the truth felt that it was fine.

But those scalpers who didn't sell counterfeits were all furious.

"What the f*ck! Which son of a bi*ch did it? Isn't he trying to ruin our business?"

"If I find out who did that, I'll beat him to death!"

"After he f*cking did this, who would believe us?"

"Damn it, we haven't sold our products yet. I plan to triple the price. How am I supposed to sell it now?"

"Who the f*ck dares to buy it from us in the future even though we tried so hard to make the preorder?"

"Even the scalpers are selling counterfeit products. Those fake scalpers should go to hell!"

"It's about time for the second step," In the office of the cultivation base in Beijiang, Fang Qiu said to He Xue.

"Yes." He Xue nodded in understanding.

Then, she made a phone call and said, "Send the second post on Weibo."

The official Weibo account of the Renyi Group then released another post.

“Due to the terrible influence of the chocolate beans incident, the senior management of our company has decided that all the consumers who bought counterfeits can provide us with relevant evidence and information. Our company will cooperate with the consumers to report to the police and make every effort to redeem their losses. We believe that the police department will also strictly investigate the matter and crack down on the counterfeiters! In addition, on humanitarian grounds, our company will provide every customer who bought the counterfeits with a bottle of the authentic sample. Please inform others of this information.”

This move of the Renyi Group shocked everyone in an instant!

Public opinion was also instantly reversed because of the appearance of this post!

Medical Master

Chapter 979: Arrest Overnight!

“Crack down on the counterfeits? And even send gifts?”

“What the f*ck, is Renyi Company going to return good for evil?”

“Not only do they have to help call the police to crack down on scalpers, but they also want to send a bottle of authentic product to the customers who have been cheated?”

“Renyi means humanity and righteousness in our culture. Renyi Company indeed lives up to its name.”

“The company really lives up to its name. I’ll remember Renyi Company.”

“No wonder even Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation is willing to be merged. Renyi Company’s conducts are unexpected. It’s simply a generous enterprise.”

“Awesome. I knew Renyi Company is capable.”

“They want to send one bottle for each person. The number of people who were cheated should be at least tens of thousands. Wouldn’t it be a big loss for them if they compensate each person with one bottle?”

“This is a real good company. They don’t argue or complain after being misunderstood or scolded by the consumers. Instead, they are willing to help the consumers crack down on the counterfeiters. Once such a big company makes a move, it will definitely do it the hard way. Those fake scalpers are doomed.”

“They are returning good for evil. Do you guys have the nerve to ask them for the authentic product?”

With the release of Renyi Group’s second post after the chocolate beans incident, everyone online was astounded by Renyi Group’s generosity.

This was no longer a simple gesture. What it displayed was not only returning good for evil. It was more about kindness, integrity, harmony, and strong confidence.

This was a group that everyone should look up to!

The public opinion online was reversed in an instant.

Originally, people were rebuking Renyi Company everywhere on Weibo. With #Holy Flowers Formula is chocolate beans# as the main topic, a lot of topics were derived from it, such as #Renyi Company is a liar#, #Fake Renyi Group#, #The rise of chocolate beans#, and so on.

These topics were trending, and almost every person involved in this topic cursed at Renyi Company!

But now, with two simple posts of the company, one statement and one solution, they reversed the whole thing completely in an instant.

In the blink of an eye, all kinds of topics against the Renyi Group soon lost popularity, which was no longer trending. Moreover, because everyone took the initiative to delete their comments on those topics, those topics disappeared directly.

They were replaced by topics like #The Renyi Group is awesome#, #Fake scalpers#, #Counterfeits of Holy Flowers Formula#, #Real Holy Flowers Formula or Counterfeits#, and so on.

There was no doubt that almost everyone's comments on these topics were completely different from before. They swore at Renyi Group in the beginning. Now as the situation was reversed, everyone changed their minds and complimented Renyi Group.

The victims who were extremely angry and determined to get the Renyi Group into trouble earlier also stood out and began to speak up for the Renyi Group when they were too embarrassed to admit that they had been scammed.

As people saw that, they didn't bother those victims again. Although they didn't admit it, what they did showed that they had taken a stand on this matter. There was no need to force them anymore.

Of course, in addition to expressing that they took a stand, these victims also vented all their anger on the scalpers. They collected all the information about the scammers and used their Weibo to send private messages to the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group. Most of them did not mention the bottle of authentic product. The small group of people who mentioned it said that they were willing to pay for it instead of taking it for free.

After all, they felt that they were the ones who caused this problem.

They were the ones who did wrong and accidentally caused trouble for others. No matter how thick-skinned they were, they would still feel ashamed if they still dared to take the product for free.

After this incident, these people learned a lesson. If they wanted the authentic Holy Flowers Formula, they would only dare to buy it through official channels.

"It seems that the effect is very good." In the office of Beijiang, seeing people's reactions on the Internet, Fang Qiu immediately smiled.

He Xue also smiled. "Of course. Is our Renyi Group so easily slandered? I have to admit that your plan is so perfect. Now, we just need to make the final move."

“Yes.” Fang Qiu nodded and said, “The last step depends on the person you choose for our company.”

“Don’t worry.” Hearing this, He Xue immediately smiled proudly and said, “The people I chose for the company’s network technology department are definitely no worse than ordinary hackers. Although they won’t be the best, their strength is definitely top-notch. Soon, the evidence you need will be presented to you.”

As expected, He Xue’s phone suddenly rang while the two were talking.

“It’s coming.” He Xue looked at the phone number displayed on her phone before she picked it up with a smile.

After a while, she hung up the phone.

“The evidence you need has been sent to me.” As He Xue spoke, she logged into her e-mail with her laptop and said, “I’ll forward it to you right now.”

“Okay.” Fang Qiu nodded.

Soon, Fang Qiu received an email with attachments in it.

He downloaded the attachments to have a look.

It accumulated all the evidence sent through private messages by tens of thousands of customers who were deceived. In addition to the evidence, the staff of the company’s network technology department actually found some evidence on the Internet according to the information given by these customers, such as the login address of the Weibo account that had been deleted, the IP address of the user of the WeChat account, and so on. They even found out the personal information of the user of the Weibo and WeChat account.

Seeing this, Fang Qiu was dumbfounded.

“How is it? Do you still dare to question me again?” He Xue asked proudly.

“Incredible, you’re incredible!”

Fang Qiu immediately gave her a thumbs-up.

After their company was integrated and became a group, Fang Qiu handed over everything in the company to He Xue, including hiring the talents of various departments of the company.

In order not to let the staff of Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation infiltrate the inner core of Renyi Company, He Xue personally found many talents for various departments to establish the actual Renyi Company.

A group was a limited liability company that had an independent legal entity. The establishment of a group represented the merger of more than two companies. After merging, the two companies still existed independently. However, the parent company would dominate the group. The other companies were called subsidiaries.

The parent company of Renyi Group was Renyi Company, and its subsidiary company was Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation.

Although the two companies had merged, they were still independent. However, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was in the charge of Renyi Company. What Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Company needed to do was continue to operate as before, while Renyi Company was in charge of the group’s orientation, operation strategy, and so on.

Under such circumstances, although Renyi Company had been established for a long time, there were only core members and no other employees in the company.

Obviously, it was unrealistic for them to have such a parent company. Yang Ningyuan mentioned once if he should transfer some executives from the Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation to Renyi Company first, but He Xue turned him down.

Fortunately, He Xue was extraordinarily capable.

She was so competent that even Yang Ningyuan was marveled by her power.

In a short period of time, she found a large group of talents and filled up this company which lacked so many employees.

Given that Fang Qiu had been busy with other things, he never inquired about it in detail although he had heard some messages. Therefore, when he saw that the people He Xue hired were so powerful, he was shocked at once.

“Awesome, I’d like to see the employees you recruited for me,” Fang Qiu exclaimed.

“There’s no need to rush,” He Xue smiled. “There’s still plenty of time. Let’s deal with the matter at hand first.”

“That’s right.” Fang Qiu nodded naturally and said, “Since they’ve joined my company, they are my people. It won’t be too late to meet them later.”

After that, Fang Qiu immediately took out his phone and called Yang Ningyuan.

“Hello?” Yang Ningyuan answered the phone.

“I’ve sent the evidence to your email. You can make the third move now,” Fang Qiu said.

“Okay,” Yang Ningyuan responded with great confidence.

After hanging up the phone, Yang Ningyuan, who had been paying attention to the counterfeit incident, immediately logged into his e-mail, downloaded the evidence sent by Fang Qiu with a USB flash drive, and then went straight to the Public Security Department.

He had been observing the situation in the capital during this period of time.

He had received a phone call from Fang Qiu the day before the counterfeit incident broke out, and he was ready for the third move.

The reason why he was asked to make the third move was that Fang Qiu had asked him to donate money to the Public Security Department before. He only needed to show his face and people would greet him when he went to Public Security Department. It wouldn't be as troublesome as others.

Half an hour after Yang Ningyuan entered the Public Security Department, the superiors of the Public Security Department soon issued an order, asking the staff to follow the clues, strictly investigate this counterfeit incident on the Internet, and crack down on the counterfeits.

Because there was sufficient evidence, the Public Security Department found a lot of useful information and took action directly.

It didn't take long before the two scalpers who made counterfeits were arrested.

Under the interrogation of the Public Security Department, the den where they made counterfeits was quickly exposed!

People of the Public Security Department took action immediately. After confirming that all the criminals were there, the police surrounded the factory making counterfeits as fast as they could, and then directly broke in, which frightened those scalpers making counterfeits.

Ultimately, the criminals were all taken away.

The next morning, the official Weibo account of the Public Security Department directly posted the photos and video of news that they destroyed the den of the counterfeiters.

After a thorough investigation, they found out that these scalpers who made counterfeits had been aiming at the drugs produced by Hua Yuan company, and they had built a factory and prepared plant and equipment in advance. Unexpectedly, they happened to meet the launch of the Holy Flowers Formula this time. Hence they immediately began to make counterfeits of Holy Flowers Formula!

The truth was finally revealed!

On the Internet, netizens who saw the news all gave the police a thumbs-up.

Meanwhile, the official Weibo account of the Renyi Group was updated again.

“In order to show our gratitude to the Public Security Department, we will donate 100 million to the Public Security Department in the name of Renyi Group!”

As people saw this post, the discussion became more heated.

“100 million? How generous they are!”

“It’s as if they are telling people that they don’t lack money.”

“Well, not bad. They learned from Fang Qiu very well!”

Seeing that there was a satisfactory result, Fang Qiu took out his phone again and called Yang Ningyuan.

“Chairman Fang.” When the phone was connected, Yang Ningyuan’s teasing tone came from the other end of the line.

“Mr. Yang, don’t make fun of me.” Fang Qiu gave a wry smile.

“Okay.” Yang Ningyuan laughed and asked, “Tell me, what do you want this time?”

Fang Qiu said, “It’s nothing. It’s just that it’s not convenient for our company to show up, so I have to ask you to help donate the money to the Public Security Department.”

“Is that all? Leave it to me.” Yang Ningyuan smiled and continued, “Our group has a big win this time. You don’t know how many people in the business circle are waiting to see us fail this time. I didn’t expect that it would be completely solved by your three simple posts on Weibo. From now on, no one will dare to make any counterfeit of our Holy Flowers Formula again.”

“Yes.” Fang Qiu nodded with a smile.

In fact, Fang Qiu had thought about the counterfeits of the medicine long before when Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation was established, but it never happened. In addition, Hua Yuan Pharmaceutical Corporation belonged to Yang Ningyuan and Li Qihua, which had nothing to do with him, so he did not mention it to anyone.

But now, it happened to his company. Of course, Fang Qiu had to take care of it thoroughly.

After all, the Huaxia people were too smart.

In this day and age, no matter how good the anti-counterfeit method was, it could not prevail over the marvelous replicating capacity of the Huaxia people. Therefore, before the Holy Flowers Formula was officially put into production, Fang Qiu had already prepared for this battle. This was also the reason why there was a word “Ren” at the bottom of the medicine bottle of the Holy Flowers Formula.

Of course, the reason why Fang Qiu did this was not purely for this battle. The most important thing was that he wanted to take this opportunity to directly eliminate the counterfeit problem as soon as it developed.

He would use the most intimidating means to make sure that no one dared to do this again!

At last, the 100 million that he donated to the Public Security Department was actually presented for those who intended to make counterfeits. With the donation this time, the relationship between the Public Security Department and Renyi Group was sure to improve.

At that time, if anyone dared to make counterfeits again, it would be equivalent to going against the Public Security Department!

In this way, who would dare to do that?

“Phew...” After the call, Fang Qiu smiled, stood up, let out a deep breath, and said, “It’s over.”

He Xue kept looking at Fang Qiu.

She carefully looked at Fang Qiu from head to toe as if she were looking at some rare species.

“What are you looking at? Is there something on my face?” Fang Qiu asked.

“I didn’t see it before.” He Xue continued to eye Fang Qiu and said, “Kid, you normally act like a fool. But you are really cunning at the critical moment.”

“Are you praising me or criticizing me?” Fang Qiu was speechless after he heard that.

The tempest gradually died down.

Although this incident had caused a great sensation on the Internet and the final reversal was particularly unexpected, one thing that no one could deny was that this counterfeit incident truly made an extremely valuable for the Holy Flowers Formula. No matter how much money people spent on s, it was impossible for an to achieve such an effect.

Most importantly, the solution Fang Qiu used in this incident also helped to make an for their company. Meanwhile, the company’s name “Renyi” which represented humanity and righteousness were deeply engraved in people’s minds.

This was their greatest reward!

At 8 o'clock in the evening, the third round of the preorder of Holy Flowers Formula began.

Like the previous two rounds, the quantity was still 50,000, and the price did not change at all. It was still sold out in one second.

If one were to calculate carefully, the product was sold out faster than the previous two times.

After all, the counterfeit incident just ended. People still focused on the Holy Flowers Formula. In addition, the customers who bought it in the last two rounds of the preorder continued to post the great effects after using the product online, which made more and more people crave the Holy Flowers Formula.

Not only women but men also got involved in placing the preorder.

Women needed a beautiful appearance while men also wanted to be handsome.

Furthermore, there were numerous boys who liked to wear make-up these days.

Renyi Company's reputation was completely established.

People of all the cosmetics companies in the country were on the verge of breaking down.

"It only lasted for three days. And I also need to exclude the first day when they did nothing and allowed people to make various comments." In Beauty International in Luhai, Yang Ruoyi was sitting at the desk, propping her forehead with her hand. She murmured with a bitter smile, "I thought that the negative impact of this incident would last at least half a month or even one month, but now it seems that I'm thinking too much. It only took them three days to solve this matter perfectly. And they also used this incident to create the Holy Flowers Formula which was impeccable. Who on earth is this mysterious company behind Renyi Group? Who has such great capacity to solve such a serious matter so easily?"

The more Yang Ruoyi thought about it, the more she found it problematic.

“Now the Renyi Group has donated 100 million to Public Security Department. It’s impossible to slander them. It seems that if we want to fight against the Holy Flowers Formula, we can only rely on ourselves. We need to hurry up to improve the effect of our products!”

At the thought of this, she said to herself, “In order to improve the effect of the product, we need to upgrade the technology first. There is no way to do this in the country for now. I have to go abroad to see if there is any advanced technology.”

Not only Beauty International, but also all the major cosmetics companies could only do this.

They were well aware that they were in an awkward situation now. It was utterly impossible for them to fight against the Holy Flowers Formula head-on. The only way was to improve their strength rapidly and try to keep as many customers as possible.

In the current situation, they would be very grateful if 50% of their consumers could be saved.

However, just as people of all the cosmetics companies in the country wanted to seek solutions abroad and were about to learn some advanced techniques to improve their strength, a beauty from another country who was living in the capital finally managed to buy a box of Holy Flowers Formula in the third round of the preorder!

Migrants accounted for the largest population in the capital.

Although there were very few foreigners among the migrants, there were still quite a lot of foreigners considering that the number of emigrants was huge.

People living in the capital city were not only from one country. There were also people from other countries and even ordinary people never heard of some of the countries.

After all, this was the situation of this era.

Huaxia people were used to having these foreigners in their country.

In the eyes of ordinary people, foreigners liked Huaxia very much. There were many things that they couldn't enjoy in their own countries or other countries, such as Huaxia's food, Huaxia's mobile payment, the environment in Huaxia, and the hospitality of Huaxia people.

In Huaxia, buying Holy Flowers Formula became a national trend. The foreigners who lived in the capital also scrambled for it in order to keep up with the trend even though they didn't know much about it.

It wasn't unusual for one or two of them to manage to buy the product.

What was rare was that the woman who got the product was a freckled foreign woman. The reason why people said she was good-looking was that she was truly beautiful after she put on makeup.

However, the freckles on her face were an obstacle that she couldn't get rid of, and it was also a problem that she couldn't solve.

Due to freckles, she was used to putting on makeup every day and did not dare to go out without wearing makeup.

After receiving the Holy Flowers Formula, she began to use it.

Of course, she didn't think that Holy Flowers Formula was as amazing as the rumors spread online. But she only tried it once. The next day, she clearly found that the freckles on her face were reduced a lot.

The next day, it was much fewer.

The pores on her face became smaller, and her skin became smoother. Even her skin damages had been repaired.

This effect astounded the foreign woman.

As she was shocked, this woman didn't even think about it. She immediately went to Facebook to share it and complimented the Holy Flowers Formula greatly!

Although she lived in the capital, she was a foreigner after all. Besides, this news had already spread on Weibo in Huaxia. Everyone knew the benefits of the Holy Flowers Formula, so the only place she could promote it was Facebook.

After she shared it and praised the Holy Flowers Formula, she was ridiculed by foreign netizens.

"Haha, are you brainwashed by Huaxia people?"

"You can remove your freckles by taking some medicine. And it can even whiten and smoothen the skin. What a joke."

"This prank is not funny at all."

"How can there be such a thing in this world? Even if there is, it can only exist in my country, not in Huaxia!"

"Are you a traitor? How dare you advertise Huaxia products on Facebook?"

"It must be some stupid ad. I won't buy it."

It seemed that the internal trolls in a foreign country were no worse than that in Huaxia.

After receiving a torrent of criticism of countless internal trolls, the woman was furious. She immediately screenshotted all the positive comments about the Holy Flowers Formula in Huaxia, translated them into foreign languages word by word, and posted them.

Seeing so many positive comments, the foreign netizens became a little curious.

Some Huaxia people who lived abroad also came out and said that there was nothing wrong with the translation.

Foreign netizens finally began to believe it.

This woman did not sit back. She directly reposted the posts of the Huaxia live streaming about the Holy Flowers Formula to foreign websites. Then, she also started a video livestream on Facebook, showing that she used the Holy Flowers Formula every day.

Under such circumstances, more and more foreigners followed her, and everyone clearly saw the changes of her skin in her livestream every day.

“What the f*ck, it turns out to be true?”

“Amazing! The effect of this thing is incredible!”

“Where can I buy it? I want to buy it too.”

“Can you help me buy it?”

“I don’t care how much it costs. Help me get one!”

Foreign netizens asked to make a purchase one after another.

Seeing these people’s comments, this woman directly replied on Facebook, “It’s impossible to buy it now because it’s limited. I make a lot of effort to buy one box in the third round of the preorder. Not everyone can buy it in Huaxia. People in other countries can’t buy it at all!”
