

Medicine 523

"Hello, Master Sun."

"Yes." Sun Xiaolong's face was cold. He looked at Xiao Chen. His eyes were full of contempt and said, "are you the miracle doctor that Wang Lao said on the phone?"

question?

Xiao Chen smiled and nodded.

"Any miracle doctor is praised by old Wang. I'm an apprentice of Xiajia medical school."

"Apprentice?"

Sun Xiaolong looked more ugly at staff Wang and said, "is this?"

Staff Wang hurried forward and explained, "brother sun, doctor Xiao is a low-key man. He cured my father's disease."

Sun Xiaolong didn't say anything, but said faintly, "you two get on the bus first. I also invited a famous doctor in the provincial capital. We'll start when we pick him up."

Staff member Wang smiled and nodded. His car here had also been sent off the ship.

He pulled Xiao Chen into the car.

"My miracle doctor Xiao. Why do you say that? Sun Xiaolong is a big man in Dongjiang City, our battalion commander. He doesn't dare to speak loudly in front of others."

Xiao Chen doesn't think so.

Anyway, I'm a silly son-in-law of the Xia family. I see more in my daily life. He has also seen many people like sun Xiaolong.

Then another ferry came ashore.

With the stream of people pouring out of the ship.

Sun Xiaolong looked nervously at the people walking down the boat.

Soon, four or five people dressed up surrounded a middle-aged man to get off the ship.

Sun Xiaolong greeted him with a smile and said, "doctor Feng, you are here. My father is saved this time"

When staff member Wang sat in the car, he was shocked and said, "I thought it was a famous doctor. It was the one who invited him."

Xiao Chen looked at this man. He had a square face, but he was extraordinary and had a great family style.

The visitor looked at Sun Xiaolong, nodded slightly and said, "old sun and my father are world friends. Although I still have a lot of lecture plans, I pushed them. It's still old sun's body that matters."

"Thank you very much, Dr. Feng. I'll take my father to thank you first."

Sun Xiaolong personally took Dr. Feng to his car.

When Dr. Feng got on the bus, sun Xiaolong ordered his men and said, "go and tell staff Wang to let them wait for us."

"Is there anyone else?" Dr. Feng asked.

"Oh, another old friend of my father is Wang Lao of the Wang family in Binjiang city. They have a local doctor who cured him. That's why they recommended him to my father."

"Oh, it turned out to be a village doctor. What real skills do these people have? Most of them are quacks."

"Yes, yes, but my father has to invite them. However, Dr. Feng, my father's illness depends on you."

"Yes."

Doctor Feng nodded somewhat dissatisfied.

Sun Xiaolong saw it. Stared at the direction of the king's staff car and muttered, "it's really troublesome. Let them wait in the hotel first."

"Hey, why? I also want to see how these quacks cheat. I'm going to teach these charlatans a lesson."

Seeing that he said so, sun Xiaolong smiled coldly and said, "since Dr. Feng wants to teach these quacks a lesson, that's great. I'll open my eyes."

He said and got into the car.

As sun Xiaolong's car started, the convoy drove towards the sun family.

At this time.

Staff officer Wang looked at Xiao Chen and said, "this Feng Jiaren is a famous doctor in the provincial capital. He has studied abroad for many years. It is said that after returning home, he opened a clinic in the provincial capital. He has cured many difficult and miscellaneous diseases, and his reputation is close to those big doctors in North Korea."

Xiao Chen didn't seem to care.

"The doctor looked at him nervously," said the king

"Nervous about what?"

"Feng Jiaren is said to be narrow-minded. If he cured sun Lao later, I don't know how to despise you."

"A doctor focuses on curing the disease and saving people. If he can cure it, it's not better."

Staff Wang shook his head secretly.

Doctor Xiao is really good at measuring.

But Feng Jiaren's family doesn't necessarily think so.

"Be careful."

Xiao Chen didn't think much.

The motorcade here entered the sun's house.

The sun family is worthy of being a big family in Dongjiang. The motorcade drove directly into the mansion.

It's bigger than the government compound of shangbinjiang city.

Got out of the car.

Sun Xiaolong did not care about staff Wang and Xiao Chen, but led Feng Jiaren to the inner court.

Staff Wang was secretly angry, but his father entrusted him and he was not good. So he threw his sleeve and left.

I can only talk to Xiao Chen about the courtyard scenery of sun's house while walking.

The inner courtyard of sun mansion.

"Father, how did you come back?"

What came out was a beautiful looking but proud sister.

A girl in her early twenties.

"What happened to your grandpa?" Sun Xiaolong asked with a worried look on his face.

"Grandpa just passed out again."

The younger sister looked at him, smiling and nodding, and said, "Uncle Wang, you're here too."

"Mu Yao. You are becoming more and more beautiful."

Sun Xiaolong was worried about his father and hurried into the house.

Sun muyao saluted Feng Jiaren and said, "is this doctor Feng? "

Feng Jiaren nodded, but raised his head and walked slowly into the house.

"Muyao, this is our Binjiang doctor Xiao." Staff officer Wang introduced Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen smiled at sun muyao.

"Miracle doctor? So young!"

"Muyao. Although doctor Xiao is young, his medical skill is no worse than that famous doctor."

Sun muyao obviously didn't believe it, but it wasn't as obvious as her father. She just nodded to Xiao Chen and said, "please come in. My grandpa just went into a coma again."

Xiao Chen entered the house with staff Wang and sun muyao.

Sun Xiaolong and Feng Jiaren were in front of the bed.

He took a closer look at the old man on the bed.

But I already know the illness of the old sun in my heart.

He didn't say anything, just shook his head slightly.

But Feng Jiaren took out some equipment from the medicine box held by his entourage. He used them on sun one by one.

He stood up and looked at Sun Xiaolong and said, "don't worry, my old sun's body is nothing, just some symptoms of thrombosis. When I give him a bottle, he will get better after infusion."

Seeing that he said so, sun Xiaolong said, "really! Great, doctor Feng is worthy of being a famous doctor!"

Here, Feng Jiaren took out the hanging bottle for infusion and was about to give sun an injection.

"Sun Lao is not a thrombus."

"Huh?"

Feng Jiaren turned back and stared at Xiao Chen, sneered and said, "are you the miracle doctor?"

"I dare not."

"Hum, you dare to overturn my diagnosis in front of me. What dare you? You say that old sun is not a thrombus. Can you even see what old sun's disease is? Real quack mistakes people!"

Xiao Chen said faintly, "if you treat old sun's disease, I'm afraid it won't take three days, he'll die."

"Shut up, you are a miracle doctor. You dare to curse my father here. Staff Wang, please take me out."

In the face of sun Xiaolong's anger, staff Wang's face also sank slightly. He smiled awkwardly, looked at Xiao Chen next to him, and whispered, "I said doctor Xiao, do you want to have a look?"

Xiao Chen shook his head and said, "since you don't believe me, it's Xiao Chen's farewell."
