

Medicine 527

"Long Shao, this is the man I just told you on the phone."

Uncle Chen pointed to Xiao Chen around him.

The man in the high back chair slowly opened his slightly closed eyes, which were cold eyes without a trace of temperature.

At his glance, normal people will involuntarily fight a cold war.

"Ha ha..."

The man raised his mouth slightly and squeezed out a low voice full of contempt.

"Xiao Chen, the silly son-in-law of the Xia family."

Xiao Chen frowned slightly. Unexpectedly, her identity was known by others so soon.

"That's right."

"Redundant son-in-law. What qualifications do you have to talk to me? Even if Xia Guohao stands in front of me, he will call me long Shao."

"He's him. I'm me."

"Good!"

The man stood up from his chair. He supported his hands on the table and turned his eyes to Xiao Chen.

"It seems that you are really as they say, doctor. I'm curious. How divine are you?"

He said, pointing to himself. "Come on, show me what's wrong with me?"

In fact, Xiao Chen had just entered the house and saw the man. He already saw that although the man was about the same age as himself, he was terminally ill.

As for the cause, Xiao Chen actually understood that it was nothing more than excessive debauchery.

"Really want me to say."

The man sneered and said, "say."

"You're sick."

The men's men stood up one after another.

"What the fuck are you talking about?"

"Believe it or not, I'll kill you now!"

The man glanced at these people.

"Continue."

"Do you feel weak in your waist these days? Your knees are sore and soft?"

"Huh?"

The man was stunned.

"You go on."

Xiao Chen said faintly, "look at your white face. I'm afraid your kidney water has dried up. But you must have taken a lot of tonics. I just came here and saw that many people here are eating drugs. You should also be contaminated with these things. With these things, you will naturally hang your body. I don't know if you really fall ill, but if you go on like this, I'm afraid your problem will become more and more serious."

When the man heard this, his eyes were startled.

"Say!"

Xiao Chen sighed and said, "I'm afraid you can't stand here in less than three months if you don't treat again."

"Not here? Where?"

"Where are you going? Hahaha, do I have to say it clearly?"

"What are you talking about?"

There was a big man on one side. Five big and three thick, with tendons and flesh all over his body, I saw that he had a short knife in his hand.

"Old eight!"

The man stared at him.

The man called Lao Ba could only stare at Xiao Chen and say, "pay attention to me."

Xiao Chen didn't look at him.

"I said you didn't believe it?"

The man came out from behind the table. He walked slowly to Xiao Chen. Suddenly, he grabbed Xiao Chen and said, "you, can you cure my disease?"

His actions. Surprised everyone around.

Xiao Chen nodded.

"Well, you treat me. I'll be rewarded if you cure me!"

Xiao Chen shook his head at this time.

"Do you disagree?"

"Xiao Chen, what do you mean? My family's long Shao asked you to see a doctor for him. That's worth seeing you. Don't be shameless."

"I won't treat you for two reasons."

The man was stunned.

"Why? Why?"

"Yes, hurry up. If you're wrong, I'll be the first to spare you!"

"Yes, say it!"

Xiao Chen didn't seem to take the threat of these people seriously at all, but said faintly, "I won't treat it because you need a single medicine for this disease, which is very expensive. I'm afraid you can't afford so much money."

"Cut, do you know that the dragon family is the richest man in Dongjiang?"

"Don't you look down on long Shao, let alone medicine. Even long Xinfeng can afford it."

The man also nodded and said, "money is not a problem."

Xiao Chen then said, "another reason is that if your disease is cured, you should listen to my arrangement. You can't go in and out of such places or touch women again."

"What?!"

This time, even this man was stunned.

"You said you wouldn't let me touch women? Are you playing with me?"

Xiao Chen stretched out his finger and pointed to the man's ribs and said, "are you Qimen acupoint now? There are bursts of pain from time to time, especially at Zishi, the two acupoints seem to be pressed by someone with his hand?"

"How did you know that?!"

The man opened his mouth in surprise.

"It seems that I'm afraid I can't arrive in the three months I said."

"What?"

The man was so frightened that he shook his body when he heard Xiao Chen's words.

Uncle Chen hurried forward and helped him.

"Long Shao, are you okay?"

The man waved his hand.

His eyes lost the cold feeling just now, and he seemed to have not slept for a long time.

"Where is the medicine you said?"

"The medicine is on me, but woman, you may quit?"

The man waved his hand. Way: "life is gone, woman is a fart!"

Xiao Chen smiled in her heart.

In fact, what he just said, only three of them are true.

He made up the seventh floor himself.

Although the man's kidney water is exhausted, he is not enough to live for only a few months.

The reason why he said this is to get himself out of danger.

Think about it, too.

"OK." Xiao Chen said and took out a small cloth bag from his pocket. In fact, it was just a Zhengqi pill used to dispel summer heat.

Eat this. It's nothing. It'll make people have diarrhea at most.

"Is this the medicine you said?"

Xiao Chen nodded.

Chen Bozheng is going to come forward and bring it.

Xiao Chen took the pills.

"You!?"

"I said, this medicine is very expensive."

"Expensive, how much, you say."

Xiao Chen stretched out a finger.

"A hundred silver dollars?"

He shook his head.

"Is it a thousand?"

Xiao Chen shook his head again.

"Can't it be ten thousand?"

Chen Bo said, "it's just a piece of silver. What's your price?"

Xiao Chen shook his head again.

"What!?"

The long Shao also looked shocked.

"100000?"

Xiao Chen nodded.

"Why, does long Shao think it's expensive?"

The Dragon bit his teeth and said, "it's not expensive."

He looked at Uncle Chen.

The old man had to turn around and walk out of the house.

a moment.

He has a bank pass.

"Here, here are 100000 silver dollars."

Xiao Chen looked and saw the name of North Korea Tianbao bank on it.

He took a one hundred thousand silver dollar pass into his arms.

"Long Shao, take this pill from Gengxin's rootless water for two days."

"Ah? You said Geng Xin two days, but only two days a month. What if you can't wait?"

"Don't worry, it will be gengzi day in three days. It's guaranteed to rain. At that time, you just need to use a silver basin to catch the rain."

"Are you sure?"

Xiao Chen nodded.

"If it doesn't rain, I'll go to Binjiang and smash your Xia family medical school!"

"Of course."

Right now.

There was a bang of gunfire.

Everyone in the room was stunned.

"Who's shooting in my field!"

Long Shao looked at Uncle Chen.

"I'll go and have a look..." Chen Bo said and walked to the door. He had just opened the door. He saw a pistol extending through the crack of the door and directly against his forehead.
