"Give me something and you can live. If you resist, you will end up like this."

"Don't listen to him. The child has a life. If there are any mistakes in this thing, none of us will want to live!"

Uncle Gong turned and ran to the deep part of the alley.

Whew!

The sound of breaking the air sounded again.

Uncle Gong's body straightened slightly and fell to the ground. A pool of bright red blood flowed from under him.

Those Chen Gongqiu's hands. He was so scared that he knelt on the ground.

"Spare your life, we, we are the attendants."

Xiao Chen went to Uncle Gong. Pick up the bag from his hand.

Without looking back, he went deep into the alley.

In the alley.

Xiao Chen looked at the leather bag in her hand.

"Little Lord, what's special about this thing? So many people want it?"

Bai Ling looked up.

"By the way, did director Zhao find Mayor Liang?"

"Well, I followed. I also wrote down Mayor Liang's home. It's just..."

"Just what?"

Bai Ling knelt down and said, "young Lord, I see the enemy of my Xiao family."

"Our enemy?"

Xiao Chen thought of his life experience. If Bai Ling hadn't appeared, he would still be a silly uncle living in the Xia family.

"Who is it?"

"Huangfu family."

"Huangfu?"

Xiao Chen frowned.

It was also the first time he had heard this surname.

"How many such enemies do we Xiao family have?"

Bai Ling looked up at Xiao Chen and said, "young master, the Xiao family has helped these families. You think, the Xiao family has been the first family in the world since the Wei and Jin Dynasties. At that time, many families were only local small forces, and they all received the favor of our Xiao family."

"Why did the Xiao family finally become the target of public criticism?"

"Isn't it ten surnamed tombs!"

Xiao Chen nodded and asked Bai Ling to get up.

He paced back and forth.

"What's the background of Huangfu's family?"

Bai Ling said, "the Huangfu family belongs to the state of Beiyuan. They have a deep foundation in Beiyuan. This time they sneak into North Korea. I think they must come for this prescription."

"Seven countries? Seven prescriptions?"

Xiao Chen murmured.

"What seven prescriptions?"

Bai Ling asked curiously.

"I was just in Deyue building. I heard Chen Gongqiu say that there are seven prescriptions like this."

"Seven?"

"Yes, so I was thinking, you just said that Huangfu's family from Beiyuan came to meet Mayor Liang. Is there really any secret behind the seven prescriptions?"

Xiao Chen said and looked at Bai Ling.

"Or... Is it possible that it has something to do with the tombs of the ten surnames?"

Bai Ling arched her hand and said, "my subordinates are stupid. This matter matters a lot. I hope you can handle it carefully."

"This is natural."

Xiao Chen nodded.

"By the way, since the Huangfu family is our enemy, what are you going to do?"

"Kill them!"

Xiao Chen quickly waved his hand.

"Bai Ling, don't always fight and kill, will you? I'm afraid of the murder in Shenwu hall now."

"But..."

Bai Ling's face was slightly embarrassed.

"My subordinates have been trained like this since childhood. If we are kind to the enemy, we are only afraid to regret ourselves."

Xiao Chen nodded.

"What you said is not unreasonable, but some things can be handled as appropriate, such as... Just now, those Chen gongqiu's men and uncle Gong, you..."

Bai Ling bowed and said, "young Lord, that uncle Gong is the housekeeper of the Chen family. I investigated this man and found that he was carrying several homicides. As for those men, they are also the capable thugs of the Chen family. Each of their hands is stained with other people's blood."

"Oh..."

Xiao Chen looked at Bai Ling.

"So it's more than worthy of death, isn't it?"

"That's right."

Xiao Chen looked at Bai Ling's firm eyes.

"OK... Well, I just want to make a suggestion. By the way, you said you were trained since childhood. Who in the Xiao family is responsible for training you?"

Bai Ling bowed down again and said, "Hui Shaozhu, our instructor is your second sister."

"My second sister?"

Xiao Chen heard for the first time that she still has family in this world.

"Where is she now?"

Xiao Chen asked nervously.

"Your Excellency is in Los Angeles now."

"In Gongdu?"

Bai Ling nodded.

"Do I have any other family in this world?"

Bai Ling shook her head.

"A few years ago, the Xiao family was exterminated by the ten surnames. Our four guards and the four hundred iron guards of the Xiao family all fell into the seven kingdoms. At that time, the Xiao family, all I knew was your second sister. She escaped from the siege of the ten surnames with her superb martial arts."

"What, are they all dead?"

Xiao Chen shook his head in some loss.

"I'm going to see my second sister."

He said, looking up at Bai Ling.

"Young Lord, it's not the time yet. I've sent someone to contact the instructor. Now the seven countries are turbulent and there are many wars. It's not the best policy to leave here."

"Well, what you said is also reasonable, but I..."

"Young Lord, I understand your mood. Don't worry. As long as the situation between the seven countries improves, we can go to Gongdu Los Angeles."

"All right."

Xiao Chen repressed the idea that he wanted to see the only relative.

Although.

Xiao Chen's memory of the Xiao family is almost zero.

In his memory.

Only from the moment he was brought back by the old Xia family.

It seems that when I was a child and Bai Ling said that the memory of the accident of the Xiao family seems to have been erased.

"Among the ten surnames, can this Huangfu family be among them?"

Xiao Chen looked at Bai Ling and asked.

"Yes, they were one of the murderers who killed my Xiao family."

"Really!"

Xiao Chen's face became gloomy.

"In that case, is there any reason why I, Xiao Chen, don't take revenge when the enemy is in front?"

"Young Lord, what do you want to do?"

Xiao Chen thought.

"Send a letter to Mayor Liang, saying I want to see him in Binjiang Shaohua mountain and tell him that I have Xia's hemostatic pill in my hand."

"Yes."

Bai Ling said and looked at Xiao Chen.

"Young master, do you want to arrange our people in Shaohua mountain? The people of Huangfu family will not sit idly by."

"OK, then arrange it. I'll catch them all."

Xiao Chen said, taking a leather bag and walking out of the alley.

When he gets back to the hospital.

Xia Guowei and Zhao Youzhen are sitting outside the medical hall.

"Xiao Chen, do I scold him a little these days? You say that director Zhao dares to offend him. I say Lao Xia, if you go on like this, your work must be lost by him!"

Xia Guowei sat aside with an angry look on his face.

Zhao Youzhen is scolding.

But Xiao Chen came in.

"Xiao Chen, get down on your knees!"

Xiao Chen was just outside and had heard what she said. She knew in her heart that director Zhao must have sued herself.

Get on your knees.

"You say, what about director Zhao?"

Xiao Chen looked at Xia yunshang on one side.

"Mom, why don't you go to Director Zhao's house and admit a mistake as my father said?"

"How can it be so simple?"

Zhao Youzhen stared at Xia yunshang.

"Director Zhao is still angry at home. Only the two of us with Xiao Chen can set up a table in Deyue building and make reparations to others in person."
