Chapter 956 Take A Shower

“Sure!” Arissa stroked her son’s head. Tim’s face went bright red, but it was dark, so it wasn’t discernible. “You’re too thin, Sweetheart. Eat more meat in the future.”

Although he had gained some weight recently, Arissa still felt that he was too thin. “Exactly, Tim. You’re too thin. You’ve got to eat more,” Gavin said in distress, staring at his brother unblinkingly.

“I will!” The children enjoyed themselves greatly that day. Having eaten, they huddled together in their seats and looked at the photos on their phones.

“Shall we send them to Great-grandaunt?” Jasper suggested. “Not now. She must be asleep. We’ll wake her,” Oliver cautioned.

“Yeah, Great-grandaunt sleeps very early. She would always be in bed by eight or nine o’clock,” Tim said.

Arissa patted the children on their heads, her lips curved in a graceful arc.

“We’ll go over to Grandaut’s place tomorrow morning to share our experience with her.”

“Okay!”

All five boys were all excited and in high spirits.

“Don’t sleep,” Arissa reminded.

The boys shook their heads. “We won’t sleep, Mommy!”

Hugging them, Arissa kissed them on the cheeks.
