

Chapter 2338 The End of His Ground Force Journey

In Matthew's opinion, they were just shocked by his confrontation with the deputy dean, but even though he had finished speaking, the students still had their eyes focused on him. Dazed, surprised, puzzled, and other emotions instantly appeared on their faces.

Looking at their expressions, Matthew also looked puzzled. "What's wrong? Why are you all looking at me like that?"

But his question did not receive a positive response.

"Instructor Matthew, I didn't expect you to be so handsome."

"Have you guys noticed that Instructor Matthew looks a lot like someone?"

When one of them mentioned this, everyone immediately came to a realization.

"Holy Doctor Larson?"

Instantly, the scene was in an uproar. Matthew felt uneasy as he listened to their conversation. When he raised his hand and touched his cheek, he discovered that the mask partially covering his face had shattered. It probably broke due to the aftermath of his collision with that old man just now.

"Holy Doctor Larson, is it really you?"

Seeing that his identity had been exposed, Matthew could only nod and admit it.

"Wow, it's incredible. I actually met my idol."

"It's true. He's the real one!"

Some students couldn't help but come forward and poke Matthew with their fingers before withdrawing them excitedly. Since the situation had come to this point, Matthew decided to stop concealing his true identity.

"Alright, everyone, calm down. If there is only one Holy Doctor Larson in Cathay, then that should be me." After he admitted it himself, everyone was in an uproar again and began throwing all kinds of strange questions at him.

The questions continued until late afternoon, and everyone gradually calmed down a little under Matthew's patient explanations. However, those young women still threw a few passionate gazes at him.

Now that Matthew's true identity was exposed, all the troublemakers became more cooperative. During the following days, even the most mediocre Class 3 of the Ground Force followed Matthew's arrangements and trained vigorously every day.

Of course, the student's physical skills improved rapidly day by day.

This morning, as usual, Rylan led all the students to the classroom together. But the moment they entered the classroom, they saw only a letter on the teacher's desk inside the empty classroom with the words "Resignation Letter" prominently displayed on the envelope.

Seeing that, everyone immediately felt uneasy. Emma even pushed through the crowd and quickly opened the envelope. After a quick glance, she immediately turned around and rushed out of the classroom.

When the others picked up the letters thrown on the table, they saw that it was a list of training methods and detailed recipes for two kinds of herbal cuisine. 'Since you have all awakened your skills, my journey in the Ground Force is complete. There will be an even brighter future waiting for you in the world of martial arts. I hope we can meet at the peak someday, so keep it up!'

After Rylan finished reading, he silently put down the letter. "Instructor Matthew, he has left the Ground Force!"

The sudden and unexpected departure rendered the others at a loss, and they found it difficult to accept. At this moment, all the troublemakers inside the classroom remained silent, with only a few sobs lingering in the air.

Outside the Ground Force was a majestic mountain range, and on the mountain's peak was a young figure standing silently on a tree branch. On the empty road in the distance, a car slowly drove toward the emerging sun before disappearing into the horizon.

"Will we see each other again at the top?" Emma murmured while standing in her spot. Her mind was replaying various memories. The most prominent among them might be the figure blocking the flying pebbles for her.

In the meantime, Matthew sat in the car's back seat and then looked behind for no reason. Then, he seemed to see a figure on the top of the mountain behind him, but the car had turned the corner before he could take a closer look.
