

Chapter 2362 The Secret Recipe

Helen, who was at the side, noticed their conversation, and she also defended Yann.

"But, he refused when we gave him the secret recipe. He wouldn't have accepted it if it wasn't for James' insistence."

Matthew tried to make Sasha less worried by giving her a reassuring look after seeing her parents getting emotional.

Then, he began to comfort them.

"I was just making sure, James, Helen. Well, I can rest assured now if that's the case."

James' and Helen's moods improved slightly after Matthew finished speaking.

The tipsy Helen was assisted back to her room by everyone following that.

Sasha recounted what had happened from beginning to end when Matthew and she were finally free after being busy for a while.

"We initially planned to return after visiting the villa in the evening. But, Yann insisted on treating us to dinner. Dad ended up having a few extra drinks as he was unable to refuse his seeming kindness. Later on, Dad seemed like he had too much. At that moment, Yann began to mention the difficulties in business that the Cunninghams are currently facing. He even said that they are having a rough time in business now, and Old Mr. Cunningham is so worried about it that he couldn't eat and sleep properly. Unsurprisingly, Dad, who was under the influence of alcohol, immediately gave away the secret recipe of our shop when he heard that. I didn't even have a chance to stop him."

Matthew was able to put together something by combining Sasha's insight with the information from Leanna.

He figured out Yann's intentions at that instant.

It was just as he thought. Yann was trying to make James and Helen happy so that he could easily get the secret recipe for the dietary porridge.

James and Helen obviously didn't realize this. They were completely played like fools by Yann.

Apparently, they were also unaware of the huge potential of the secret recipe.

However, they would not hesitate to give it away even if Matthew was able to warn them about this earlier because of their obsessions in joining the Cunningham Family in Bainbridge.

"It's nothing. Don't worry. A big family like them shouldn't be interested in our secret recipe."

With that, Matthew brought the conversation to an end.

Now, his biggest concern was not their deception for the secret recipe or money.

What he feared the most was the idea of James returning to the Cunningham Family could be a lie.

The night passed in silence and uneventfully.

The next day, Matthew was awakened by Helen at dawn.

"Wake up already. We're moving to the villa today!"

He knew she couldn't wait any longer by the excited look on her face.

Matthew, who was still in a daze, was forcibly dragged out of bed following that.

Fortunately, there wasn't much to move other than some personal clothing.

James was also extremely excited.

He was in a suit, looking sharp and full of energy so early in the morning even though he was badly drunk yesterday.

On the other hand, Matthew and Sasha were thoroughly exhausted.

"Come closer, dear, so that I can lean on you. I'm so tired."

Sasha immediately hugged Matthew's arm closely and rested her head on his shoulder in the back seat.

Matthew heard the steady rhythm of her sleeping sound in his ear before he could say anything.

Matthew leaned his head against hers as he decided to catch some rest as well after seeing his wife asleep.

Only Sasha's parents remained enthusiastically discussing their future plans in the multi-million-dollar Bentley.

Meanwhile, Yann hurriedly returned to his family after receiving the secret recipe from James.

"I'm back, Dad."

Terrance Cunningham was staring at the financial data in front of him solemnly when Yann returned.

A box labeled "S&L's Breakfast" containing some porridge was right beside him at that instant.

Terrance didn't even lift his head when he heard noises outside the door.

"Come in."

Yann immediately took out the secret recipe when he entered the room.

"I have successfully retrieved the secret recipe as you instructed, Dad."

Terrance stopped reading as soon as Yann finished speaking.

"Is that the secret recipe for the dietary porridge?"
