

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1135

Ol' Zhao Six's eyes widened in shock. Although he had never seen an ultimate level Artifact, he could tell from its aura.

"This... this cannot be allowed!"

He hastily reached out to stop Tang Hao.

This was an unassuming magical artifact! It was too precious!

"It's fine! It's just a artifact. It's nothing!" Tang Hao laughed and insisted.

A mere artifact?

The faces of the elders twitched, and they felt very hurt.

This was not an ordinary artifact, but a superior artifact! But to this senior, it was merely a artifact?

His tone was casual, as if it was not a ultimate level artifact but a cabbage.

"An expert is indeed an expert. This realm is really high!"

The group of elders gasped in amazement, feeling that they had broadened their horizons today.

Ol' Zhao Six was also speechless, shocked by Tang Hao's tone.

However, when he thought about Brother Tang's strength, he felt relieved. He had heard that Brother Tang possessed a mountain of treasures and many supreme treasures. A mere supreme artifact was nothing.

"These... are still too valuable. Moreover, it's not safe!"

After hesitating for a while, Ol' Six continued.

However, he had his concerns. In Brother Tang's eyes, this was nothing. However, in the eyes of others, this was something that could drive them crazy.

"It's fine!"

Tang Hao smiled faintly. He took out a few jade talismans and handed over a string of bone chains. "These are all small trinkets that I refined. These bone chains can protect you and no one below Path Seeking can break them. Inside these jade talismans is one of my soul thoughts."

Hiss!

When the group of elders heard this, they all sucked in a cold breath.

No one below Path Seeking could break it?

Heavens!

Could this person be a perfected Path Seeking expert?

Their eyes widened in shock.

“How could this be...”

The Third Elder knelt on the ground, his expression lifeless and ashen.

He felt that everything was a little absurd. This person surnamed Feng actually knew a perfected Path Seeking expert? What kind of joke was this!

“This... Alright!”

Ol’ Zhao Six nodded and said to the little girl, “Yun’er, say thank you!”

“Oh!”

The girl answered obediently. She thanked him and accepted the item.

At this moment, a group of people rushed over from the mountain path.

The person in the lead was an old man in a black robe. He was furious and had an unfriendly expression.

“Which demon dares to cause trouble in my Blackwater Sect!”

Arriving at the front of the courtyard, the old man glared angrily and shouted loudly. His gaze turned and landed on Tang Hao. “It’s you? Hmph! You’ve got guts! Looks like you’ve never heard of me, Master Luoshui!”

He shouted loudly, looking very impressive.

“Sect... Sect Master!”

Someone among the elders called out weakly.

“What?”

Master Luoshui turned around and shouted. When he saw that these people were either kneeling or lying limply on the ground, he was instantly infuriated and berated. “Why aren’t you standing up? Where are your manners!?”

“Isn’t it just a Nascent Soul? Now that I’m here, do you guys still need to be afraid!?”

The group still did not dare move.

“Sect... Sect Master, he...” That person raised his trembling hand and pointed at Tang Hao.

“What’s wrong with him!?”

Master Luoshui was startled, feeling that this group of people’s reactions were a little strange.

At that moment, he focused his gaze and his entire body shook.

This person’s aura was obscure, and even he could not see his cultivation level clearly. He swept his gaze again, and when he saw the small flying sword in the girl’s hand, his eyes suddenly widened.

Heavens! That... Could that be a ultimate level artifact?

He looked at the girl and then at the man. He looked back and forth many times. Gradually, his body started to tremble, and his legs started to shake.

“Se... Senior!”

With a plop, he knelt down and shouted with a trembling voice.

He was not stupid, so he could tell that this guy was an old monster!

Other than the old monster, who else could take out a ultimate level artifact!

Tang Hao glanced at him coldly and said, “Today, I’m here to look for an old friend, but I ran into some unpleasant things... You should understand what to do, right?”

Master Luoshui was shocked. Old friend? Could it be this Feng Liu?

D*mn!

He slapped his thigh in regret.

“I understand! Please rest assured, Senior!” He hurriedly nodded.

After standing up, a vicious expression appeared on his face. He walked towards the green-clothed man and pointed out, crippling his cultivation. He then shouted, “Men, drag him away and lock him up!”

Then, he arrived before the Third Elder. Without any hesitation, he slapped out, crippling his cultivation, having someone drag him down.

He did not spare the other elders either, crippling them one by one.

“Senior, are you satisfied?”

After finishing, he came up to Tang Hao, bowed, and said respectfully.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao said lightly. Then, he looked at Ol' Zhao Six. “Sixth Brother, are you planning to go back with me or stay here?”

“This...”

Ol' Six hesitated.

Master Luoshui immediately panicked and went up to say, “Hey! Elder Feng! You must not leave! This is your home! The disciples will miss you!”

“Do you think the treatment is bad? It's fine. I'll promote you to Third Elder immediately. This disciple of yours will become a true disciple immediately. What do you think?”

He held Ol' Six's hand passionately like a family member.

From time to time, he would glance at Tang Hao and sigh in his heart: This is a thigh we can't let go of!

Ol' Zhao Six thought for a long time before saying apologetically to Tang Hao, “I think I'll stay! I'm afraid I'll drag you down if I go with you!”

“Besides, I also want to teach this girl well and give her a more stable environment.”

As he spoke, he looked at the little girl.

Tang Hao was silent for a moment, but he was somewhat disappointed.

“Alright!”

After a moment, he nodded.

“Come, come, come, go in! Senior, please sit for a while and catch up before you leave!” Master Luoshui enthusiastically called out.

The group entered the courtyard.

Tang Hao stayed for half a day, drinking with Ol' Six and chatting about the past.

Before leaving, Tang Hao left behind quite a few things to ensure that this pair of master and disciple could live a carefree life.

After leaving the Blackwater Sect, Tang Hao was somewhat disappointed.

Ol' Zhao Six was not only his first friend, but he was also his closest friend. It was truly regretful for him to part with him just like that.

“Let’s go!”

After sighing for a long time, Tang Hao continued on his way.

He crossed this mountain range and entered the central region.

“Ah! Oh right, the invitation!”

Suddenly, Tang Hao remembered that invitation from Primeval Mountain. He took it out to take a look. He still had time.

“Why don’t we go take a look!”

In any case, he had nothing to do now, so he just wandered around. Tang Hao prepared to join in the fun and take a look at Primeval Mountain’s entrance.
