

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1622

This person was Chu Fei, the demon of the great Chu divine dynasty's alchemy Dao.

He was the first to start refining, and it took him a full nine days before the pill was ready.

He clapped his hands together and formed a seal, quickly changing his hand seals. The pill cauldron trembled more and more violently, and suddenly, with a bang, the lid flew up. A beam of light shot into the sky from within, straight into the clouds.

The roars of dragons and tigers could be heard from the light.

His figure leaped and suddenly soared into the sky. His pair of eyes turned purple and emitted a monstrous lightning.

BOOM! BOOM!

In the sky, the clouds started to move. Dark clouds gathered and lightning flashed.

"It's the great Chu divine dynasty's Nine Heavens heavenly lightning pill refining technique!"

Everyone cried out in alarm, revealing a look of shock.

As one of the five great divine dynasties, the great Chu divine dynasty's Foundation was naturally extremely deep. In terms of alchemy, it did not lose out to those top alchemy forces. The nine Heavens lightning pill refining technique was its Supreme alchemy technique.

Many alchemists knew how to temper their pills with heavenly lightning, but the nine Heavens heavenly lightning was even more powerful.

The lightning gradually filled the entire sky and began to fall.

OWW!

Roar!

Accompanied by the roars of dragons and tigers, the ray of light shuttled through the lightning.

Bolts of purple lightning fell from the nine Heavens, continuously tempering this beam of light, making it purer and more flawless.

There was also a trace of heavenly lightning energy on it.

Everyone raised their heads and looked at this scene in shock.

The refining process only ended after a few hours. Chu Fei stood in the air and waved his hand. The beam of light flew back and turned into a Dragon and a Tiger. They intertwined and swooped down with a terrifying momentum.

When the dragon and the tiger landed, they fused together and turned into a pure, flawless, and crystal-clear pill that fell into his palm.

The surface of the elixir bloomed with a bright divine light, and a strong fragrance permeated the air.

“One Dragon-tiger golden pill, please have a taste!”

He held the pill in his hand and shouted at the high platform, his expression somewhat proud.

The crowd around them finally came to their senses and exclaimed in admiration.

“It’s too dazzling!”

“He can be considered to have unleashed 100% of the power of this Nine Heavens heavenly lightning pill tempering technique. He’s really going to be feared in the future!”

The elders of the pill Hall were also full of praise.

Immediately, an elder stepped forward and received the pill. He placed it in a Jade box and presented it to the stage.

The group of elders carefully appraised it and spoke one after another.

“This pill has no impurities at all. It’s an extremely flawless pill. Furthermore, when he was refining the pill, he also used a spiritual pill technique to increase the quality of the pill. I’ll give you 10 points!”

“This pill is good, but it’s not perfect! I’ll give you nine points!”

A total of nine elders and a Hall Master had given their marks. The total score was 93 points.

” 93 points, not bad. It’s just that it’s still a little difficult to get first place!”

“Indeed. There’s also the little Alchemy Saint and Marquis Wutian!”

The crowd discussed in low voices.

Chu Fei was quite satisfied. He knew that it would be difficult to get first place. It was already quite good to get 93 points.

He landed and sat cross-legged on the alchemy platform.

Before long, there were quite a few people who produced pills.

Clang clang clang!

The pill cauldrons trembled and beams of light shot into the sky. The roars of dragons and tigers shook the heavens and earth.

They used all kinds of secret techniques, such as pill-tempering and spirit pill-refining techniques, which dazzled everyone.

In the sky, the clouds changed color, and spiritual Qi surged wildly.

For a moment, everyone did not know which one to look at.

Not long after, the pills were taken out of the furnace and presented on the high stage for the elders to evaluate and grade.

Most of them were in their 80s, and very few of them were above 90.

Not long after, the little Alchemy Saint and Marquis Wutian also started to make their pills.

BOOM!

The Divine Nine yang cauldron in front of the young alchemy Saint trembled. A beam of golden light shot into the sky, straight into the clouds. It crazily absorbed spiritual Qi, causing the color of heaven and earth to change.

A moment later, the golden light returned to the cauldron and continued to burn.

However, not long after, it turned into a golden light and soared into the sky, crazily absorbing spiritual energy.

“It’s the nine transformations golden pill technique! This is the second rotation!”

Everyone’s eyes gathered on the little Alchemy Saint, their faces full of surprise.

The nine transformation golden core technique was well-known in the world of alchemy. It was one of the most Supreme alchemy techniques and also a secret of the nine transformation golden core technique.

The cauldron of mountain and river in front of Marquis Wutian also shook.

He opened his eyes, grabbed the pill cauldron in front of him, and rushed into the sky.

He held the pill cauldron in his hand and stood high in the sky. On the pill cauldron, the patterns of mountains, rivers, sun, moon, insects, fish, birds, and beasts all lit up and bloomed with a dazzling brilliance that illuminated the entire heaven and earth.

From all directions, from the mountains, rivers, lakes, birds, and beasts, traces of light flew out and gathered, entering the cauldron and finally into the pill.

“Heavens! What kind of alchemy technique is this?”

Everyone looked up at the sky, and when they saw this scene, they all revealed shocked expressions.

They had never seen such a magical pill refining technique!

“This is a secret art created by the ancient pill Saint, Daoist pill demon. It can absorb the life force of all living things in the world and fuse it into the pill. It’s indeed an incredible pill art.” The palace Master praised.

Just as the two of them were using their secret techniques to refine the pill, guru yunguang also made his move. He held the pill cauldron in his hand and soared into the sky.

In the sky, the wind and clouds changed again. Beams of bright Starlight shone down from the nine Heavens and gathered into a Silver River, pouring into the pill cauldron.

“That’s the pill wave sect’s Secret technique, the star pill accumulation technique!”

Someone exclaimed.

Then, the old monsters produced pills one after another. All kinds of dazzling pill techniques made everyone fascinated.

Soon, pills were produced and presented on the high stage.

“Master yunguang, 97!”

“Dongfang mu, 97!”

This Dongfang mu was the little Alchemy Saint.

“Master immortal Wu Tian, 98!”

After a careful evaluation, the alchemy Hall elders gave their results.

When Marquis Wutian’s results were announced, the other alchemists’ faces darkened.

“Damn it, just one point short!”

The little pill Saint clenched his fists, vexed and unwilling.

” 98 points! He’s definitely first!”

“I didn’t expect that the first place would still fall to venerable Wu Tian.”

The crowd was boiling with excitement.

“Hahaha!”

Marquis Wutian burst into laughter.

He had finally won first place!

Even if he didn't get first place in the first three rounds, so what? the final first place would still be his. The title of number one in the starry sky and that godly medicine would all be his.

He laughed for a while before glancing at the minor alchemy Saint and the others. His eyes were provocative and contemptuous, making their expressions even uglier.

After another day, the last person also finished refining and was presented on the high platform, scoring points.

"It's finally over!"

The crowd cheered. Many people rushed out of the audience seats and rushed to Marquis Wutian's side to congratulate and flatter him.
