

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2164

“It’s finally over!”

On the peak of fortune, Tang Hao leaned against the door of his cave abode. He looked up at the night sky and heaved a long sigh of relief.

After the celebration ended and everyone was sent off, the sect was finally quiet.

The sound of women’s laughter could be heard from the cave behind him. It was sis Xiangyi and the others. The eight women were gathered together, and it was very lively. He could not even get a word in and was chased out by them.

“What should we do about this?”

Tang Hao turned around and looked inside the cave abode. He was troubled.

“Don’t tell me you’re going to marry both of them?” Tang Hao was tempted.

“But isn’t this a little bad?”

But then, he frowned and hesitated.

After all, he was born in a modern society, so he had some reservations about this. He was more afraid that sis Xiangyi would be unhappy.

“Forget it, we’ll talk about it in the future. Anyway, I’m already in the sage realm and have a long lifespan. It’s not too late to talk about it in a few years!” Tang Hao mumbled after a moment of hesitation.

The night breeze was slightly cold as it blew over slowly.

Tang Hao sat there, staring at the night sky. He was in a daze.

At this moment, his mind was extremely peaceful and calm.

He had never been so relaxed in all these years.

The safety of the women had always been his greatest concern. Now that he had found nine of them, of the remaining two, star pupil was also fine. According to the people of the cleansing clan, she had followed her master to comprehend the Dao.

There was no news of sia for the time being, but Tang Hao was not particularly worried about her. She was a cultivator, just like Tamamo.

In this way, the stone that had been weighing on his heart for a long time was finally lifted.

“They haven’t been back for more than ten years. It’s time to take them back to Huaxia. If they don’t like it here, just let them stay in Huaxia. It’s safe there!”

“I haven’t been back in a while, so it’s time to go back and take a look!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

“But not now. That old devil Xue Yin hasn’t been killed yet. Before that, my true body can’t leave Pangu. And the night patriarch and the others, they will definitely not give up and will make another move. Let’s just wait and see for a while!”

Then, Tang Hao shook his head. His expression turned serious.

Although he had advanced to the seventh tribulation and was on good terms with the Qin clan, the Shi clan and other clans, causing the power of the creation sect to increase greatly, there were still many threats. For example, there was Sir God Xue Yin, the ye clan, the Yao clan, the Yuchi clan, and the other clans that had blood feuds with him.

Of course, there was also the great void heaven!

He had crippled young master Taixu and killed a member of the great void heaven. The great void heaven would definitely not let this matter rest.

Most importantly, he was the ninth king and had the last great void seal on him. This seal was related to the divine treasures left behind by the great void God. One day, his secret would be exposed and he would be involved in the fight for the great void seal.

He had heard that all these years, the great void sect master had been hunting The Blood King in the outer region of the void. What else could it be? of course, it was for the great void seal on The Blood King’s body.

He was still unsure of The Blood King’s character and whether he was reliable. Therefore, he could not fully trust him.

If the great void sect master won, killed The Blood King, and obtained the seal, he would be the next one. The Blood King would definitely know that he was the ninth king. The split soul that appeared in the nine gates Star Domain back then should have returned to Pangu and fused with The Blood King.

That was why The Blood King had appeared and saved him back in the chaotic World Mountain.

If The Blood King won, Tang Hao felt that he would be in grave danger as well. After all, no one could resist the temptation of the treasures left behind by the great God Taixu.

Tang Hao’s expression became even more serious when he thought about that.

He raised his hand and touched the space between his eyebrows. He laughed bitterly.

To him, this mark was a blessing or a curse.

“I have to advance to the eighth tribulation before the outcome of the battle is decided!”

Tang Hao said in a deep voice.

This was his only hope!

He could only protect himself if he advanced to the eighth tribulation before the outcome of the battle was decided. Otherwise, he, a mere seventh tribulation, would only be cannon fodder in this battle between eight tribulation venerable sovereigns.

“The eighth tribulation ... Is difficult!”

Tang Hao sighed heavily and furrowed his brows.

It was extremely difficult to advance to the eighth tribulation!

Even in the ancient times, there were not many eight tribulations. Even black sky old man was only an eight tribulation expert. In Pangu today, there were even fewer eight tribulation experts. The only ones known were the Dao Lords of the 33 heavens, The Blood King, and a few others!

“If I want to break through to the eighth tribulation, I need to reach the ten thousand Blood Realm. I only have five drops of immortal blood now. How difficult is it to reach the ten thousand Blood Realm?”

Tang Hao smiled wryly.

His blood was different. It was the chaos blood, which was even more powerful than the immortal blood of no beginning. It was more difficult to cultivate than other kinds of blood. The spiritual essence and resources required were several times more than ordinary seventh tribulation. It was even more difficult to cultivate to the realm of ten thousand blood.

“Even if I swallowed that celestial medicine, it’s still far from enough!”

Tang Hao said, shaking his head.

To a seventh tribulation expert, the effects of ordinary godly medicine were no longer as good. He needed a large amount of godly medicine to improve. Even if it was an immortal medicine, it would not be able to let him reach the ten thousand Blood Realm in one step.

“Forget it, I won’t be troubled today!”

Tang Hao shook his head after a while to get rid of his worries.

He stood up and strolled down the mountain.

“Elder Tang!”

On the way, many disciples stopped and saluted him respectfully when they saw him, their expressions full of awe.

“You’re welcome!”

Tang Hao smiled at them.

“Elder Tang!”

When he arrived at the main hall, he saw Yun qingzi and the other elders.

They were still busy counting the treasures that the various races had sent over.

“Hey! There are too many treasures here, all kinds of divine medicine, 7th tribulation and 8th tribulation weapons, these clans are really going all out!”

“Just by receiving this wave of gifts, the Fortune sect’s treasure vault will be multiplied by several times!”

The group of elders chuckled, each of them grinning from ear to ear.

Tang Hao chuckled. He looked around, then left the hall and continued walking down.

He started to walk around aimlessly. Unknowingly, he had arrived in front of the gate of destinies.

He stopped in front of the ancient door and looked up with some anticipation in his eyes.

This door was related to the whereabouts of the divine boat of creation!

Once his wish was realized, he would be able to obtain the clues to the divine boat of creation. He could feel that he was not far from the realization of his wish.

“Now, the gate of fortune has expanded by countless times. There are countless Saints and hundreds of sixth tribulation cultivators. I have already advanced to the seventh tribulation. With such strength, I have far surpassed most clans. When senior Zao Huazi comes out of seclusion and advances to the seventh tribulation, the gate of fortune will be completely revived.”

“At that time, my Grand wish will also be realized!”

Tang Hao’s heart was racing.

The divine fate boat was a famous killing weapon from the ancient times. It was comparable to a fairy weapon and far surpassed the Supreme weapons he had. If he could obtain such a treasure earlier, he might have some confidence when he faced the great void sect master or The Blood King.

Tang Hao stood in front of the door for a long time before leaving. He walked around the door for a while more before returning to the cave abode.
