

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2181

In the sky above the immortal Palace, a bright light kept flashing.

It wasn't just array Masters from all over the world that had come. There were also various forces, races, and sects. Even the thirty-three heavens had been alarmed and sent people.

One of the hundred ancient Immortals, the Grand Yan immortal venerable's immortal Palace had appeared!

This news had shocked the entire Pangu continent.

The immortal Palace was suddenly filled with people. Here, the lowest was at the 6th tribulation, and there were many 7th tribulation experts. Many of them were the Masters of various clans and sect leaders.

When they arrived, the various halls in the immortal Palace had basically been destroyed, and the treasures inside had been swept clean by the first group of people.

They looked around and found nothing. Then they gathered in the center of the immortal Palace and looked at the hall that was blooming with five-colored divine light.

In this Hall, there was an intense battle going on.

Almost all the experts in Pangu's world of formations had gathered in the formation, trying to break it.

The first person to break the array would not only be able to take the core of the immortal Palace and control the entire immortal Palace, but also be famous in the array Dao world and even leave his name in the history books.

After all, it was the legendary celestial binding array!

Moreover, it was set up by the ancient formation path great expert, Grand Yan immortal venerable.

No matter who could break this formation, they would obtain Supreme glory.

This was also the reason why so many formation Dao experts had traveled thousands of miles to Pangu.

"Old weirdo cloud from the Baili clan, the three elders from sovereign Xi heaven, and the one from the nine Palace mountain ... This time, it's really a gathering of formation Dao experts!"

"Yup! The array Dao world hasn't been this lively for a long time. I wonder which expert will be the first to break the array in the end!"

Outside the hall, the cultivators discussed animatedly.

“I think they should be from Huangxi heaven. Huangxi heaven is the number one force in the array Dao. There are three of them. Three people are better than one person!”

“I think so too! However, breaking the formation requires not only strength but also luck. Old monster cloud picture, Daoist Jiu Gong, and the others have a chance too. ”

Most of the cultivators were inclined to the three old men of Emperor Xi heaven. After all, Emperor Xi heaven was too famous.

“I’ve heard that the kid is Tang Hao, divine Lord Tang! I heard that he was among the first batch of people to arrive and followed the old monster of the Ling clan. He has also obtained many benefits in the immortal Palace. ”

“That divine Lord Tang? Hahaha! He can forget about it!”

Many xiuzhe mentioned Tang Hao.

Most people just laughed and didn’t care much.

This divine Lord Tang had indeed been in the limelight recently. His strength was extraordinary. However, they were not competing in terms of strength or talent. They were competing in their attainments in the array Dao!

In terms of array Dao, how could he compare to those experts?

Old weirdo Cloud Cloud, the three elders of Emperor Xi, Daoist nine Palace ...

Which one of these people wasn’t a top-notch figure in the array path? with them around, what did that kid have to do? no matter who it was, it would never be his turn!

In this battle, this kid could be completely ignored.

After laughing, they threw the name to the back of their minds and continued to discuss the leading figures of the array Dao.

“Why hasn’t that Tang kid come out yet?”

Ling Zhanxu looked at the main hall, feeling a little anxious.

Kid Tang had been in there for four or five days, and he still hadn’t come out. Most of the people who had gone in with him had come out, and most of the remaining people were grandmasters of array Dao.

“Senior Ling, what’s the hurry? fellow cultivator Tang is quite skilled in the array Dao. It won’t be a problem for him to come out!”

A few people were gathered around him. They were Lord Qin, stone Lord, and the others.

After the news spread, they also rushed over.

The person who spoke was none other than Lord Qin.

“Yup! Fellow Daoist Tang is young and full of vigor. He won’t admit defeat when faced with such a challenge. Let him try! This is a bewildering formation, not a killing formation, so there’s no danger to his life. Once the novelty wears off, he’ll naturally come out.”

The stone Master chuckled as well, his tone relaxed.

It was just a bewildering formation, so they weren’t worried at all.

“However, it’s a bit of a pity! It’s such a great immortal Palace, we can only wait and see. The final winner will be either xihuang heaven or the Baili race.”

Lord Qin looked around and said with some regret.

“Yup! It’s such a pity!”

When the stone Master and the others heard this, they shook their heads in pity.

Like the others, they felt that the ones who would be able to break the array first would be the top masters.

“I think! Without ten days to half a month, this array can’t be broken. Let’s just continue waiting!”

“Good! Since I have nothing to do, I’ll just continue waiting. This is a rare occasion in the array Dao world, so I can’t miss it!”

They chatted and laughed in a relaxed manner as they waited.

It was the same for the others. They all understood that it would take a long time to crack such an ancient formation. Some of them landed in various palaces and sat down cross-legged, while others took out their mobile cave abodes and lived in them.

One day, two days ...

Time passed by quickly.

For half a month, there was no movement in the hall, and no one came out. However, a few array Dao experts came and entered the hall.

Everyone waited and waited, and in a flash, another half a month passed.

At this moment, people began to come out of the hall.

“Guys, look! There’s movement!”

“Someone’s coming out!”

When a ripple appeared at the entrance of the hall, all the cultivators looked over.

Plop!

Under everyone's gaze, a gray-robed old man fell out.

He sat down on the ground and stopped moving. His face was dull and lifeless. It was as if his soul had been drawn out of his body. There was no sign of life.

"Isn't that the old monster of the Ji clan?"

"What's wrong with him?"

All the cultivators were shocked.

The old man sat in place for a long time before he moved. Like a walking corpse, he stood up and staggered forward.

"Hahaha! Laughable, truly laughable!"

As he walked, he began to laugh. The louder he laughed, the crazed look on his face.

"Daoist Ji, what's wrong?"

Someone in the crowd called out to him.

However, it was as if he didn't hear anything. He just staggered forward with a crazy expression.

"Al! Another one has gone crazy!"

"I thought that with his level, he wouldn't be so bad. I didn't expect him to still be the same!"

The first group of people who arrived here all shook their heads and sighed.

They had seen many people like this who had been driven crazy by the immortal Binding array.

"It seems that the difficulty of this immortal-binding array is far beyond our imagination!"

"It's indeed worthy of being the immortal-binding formation. It's the legendary ancient formation!"

They were more and more shocked by the difficulty of this immortal-binding array.

Not long after, another person came out of the hall. He was even crazier than the old monster of the Ji clan. He cried for a moment and laughed for a moment. He looked silly and stunned everyone.

“It’s laughable that I thought I was close to the completion of the array Dao and could understand all the arrays in the world. But I couldn’t even solve one-ten-thousandth of this array. In front of this array, in front of the Grand Yan immortal venerable, I was no different from a child!”

“This array ... Is unbreakable! No one can solve it!”

Following that, more and more people came out from inside. Their expressions were somewhat abnormal. Some were laughing at themselves, while others were in a daze.

And these people were all famous figures in the array path!
