

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2340

The entire divine boat instantly fell silent.

Everyone's face was blank.

Clang! Clang!

Then, there was The Sound of Things Falling to the ground. Many people were so shocked that they couldn't even hold on to the things in their hands. After falling, they didn't notice it at all. They just widened their eyes and looked ahead in a daze.

On the side, young master Li was with Yu Shixuan, holding a mirror in their hands. They were studying the problem of makeup. When they heard the word "father", their hands trembled at the same time, and the mirror fell to the ground with a clang.

"Dad ... Dad?"

The two of them were petrified when they saw the girl in Tang Hao's arms.

When did he have a child?

The child was already so big, at least seven or eight years old!

Why had they never heard of it before?

"Dad?"

Zao huaizi was also in a daze.

He suspected that he was hallucinating!

He knew very well that elder Tang did not have a child. Why did a child appear after elder Tang had gone down for a while? Yo! This child wasn't young anymore, he was at least eight years old! She's really beautiful, a true beauty!

Creation pinched himself. After confirming that this was not an illusion, his face scrunched up like a bitter melon.

He couldn't understand where elder Tang's daughter had come from.

"Tang ... Tang kid, you're too fast!" Ling Zhanxu cried out in shock. He was also flabbergasted.

"So ... You already have a daughter, fellow cultivator Tang!"

After elder lie came back to his senses, he said this profoundly, his tone subtle.

I really didn't expect this! He even had a baby! This was way too fast! Most Dao companions might not be able to give birth to a child even after several hundred years of hard work! How old is fellow Daoist Tang? your child is already so big!

He was ridiculing in his heart.

However, fellow Daoist Tang is not an ordinary person. Perhaps he's also very powerful in that area. That's not impossible! Besides, it was just a kid, nothing much!

He was relieved very quickly. A child was nothing, it was fine as long as Li was willing.

"Cough cough!"

Tang Hao was a little embarrassed. He coughed and said, "You've misunderstood. Look at her carefully!"

"Misunderstanding? What misunderstanding? Didn't she call you father just now? I heard it very clearly." Ling Zhanxu asked, puzzled.

"Look carefully!"

Tang Hao rolled his eyes at him.

"Eh? This aura ... Something's wrong! She's not a human!" Ling Zhanxu stared at it for a while and suddenly exclaimed.

"The aura on her body is demonic, but this aura ... I've never seen it before. What kind of demonic is she?" Elder lie said.

"It's a true hou!"

Tang Hao stood up and held the little Phoenix in his arms. "She's from the Phoenix Clan!" I just hatched!"

"True Kang?"

Everyone was shocked and the way they looked at Little Phoenix was different.

True phoenixes were as powerful as true dragons. After they turned into demons, they were also the top existences of the demon race.

"It's that egg!"

Li gongzi came to a realization. This little girl hatched from the egg that he found in Nirvana sect.

However, something was still not right. Since it had just hatched, how could it have transformed? moreover, judging from its aura, it was clearly at the middle stage of the sixth tribulation. Even if it was a real phoenix, it was impossible for it to reach the sixth tribulation at birth!

This didn't make sense!

"I fed her a lot of treasures, so I raised my cultivation." Tang Hao explained.

"I see!"

Everyone came to a realization.

They all knew that Tang Hao had countless treasures on him. He even had a few immortal herbs. Raising a newborn true Kang to the middle stage of the sixth tribulation was something that others could not do, but he could do it easily.

Then, their expressions became more enthusiastic.

The word 'daddy' had already indicated this girl's status. With her bloodline, her future was limitless!

"She's calling you father, so you're my niece! My good niece, you're so cute. Come, come to uncle!" Ling Zhanxu chuckled and squeezed out a kind smile on his old face as he waved at the little Phoenix.

Little Phoenix glanced at him and ignored him. There was still some disdain in his eyes.

What uncle? he was clearly her grandfather!

Ling Zhanxu touched his nose, feeling a little embarrassed.

"What's her name?"

Li Gongzi and Yu Shijun stepped forward and looked at the little Phoenix, asking curiously.

"I call her Huang 'er!" Tang Hao said.

"Huang 'er? That's a good name!" Yushi smiled and reached out her hand to stroke Little Phoenix's head.

"Sister!" Little Phoenix called out sweetly.

Yu Shimin's heart almost melted.

"So cute! Come, this is big sister's gift for you!" Yu Shijie took out a jade bangle and placed it on Little Phoenix's hand.

The Jade bangle was snow-white and crystal clear, with a warm divine light flowing on it!

Seeing this, the seven tribulations from all four directions were greatly shocked.

This was clearly an eight-tribulation Emperor weapon!

For a seventh tribulation expert, an Emperor weapon was very precious. Many seventh tribulation experts did not have a supreme weapon, so an Emperor weapon was their most powerful treasure. Every one of them was a treasure.

However, this patriarch rain master had given him an eight-tribulation Emperor weapon. This was a big deal!

“This ... This is a little too expensive!” Tang Hao tried to decline.

An Emperor artifact was nothing to her. She had the No beginning Dao Bell, which was known as the number one Supreme treasure. Even an Emperor artifact like this was not of much use.

Moreover, she really liked this little girl, so it was worth it to give her an Emperor artifact.

“Thank you!”

Tang Hao did not decline.

“Since Senior Sister Yu has given it to me, I’ll give you one too. This pair of ice snake earrings is also an eight-tribulation Emperor weapon. Moreover, it was refined by the ancient demon Emperor. It will definitely be more powerful in your hands.”

Young master Li raised his hand, and in his palm, a pair of ice crystal earrings floated up.

The shape of the earrings was like two curved little snakes. They were made of ice crystals and were surrounded by an icy mist. They looked hazy and dreamy.

Wisps of icy air were emitted from the earring and spread in all directions.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

A thick layer of frost formed on the ground.

“The ice snake demon Emperor?” Tang Hao examined the earrings.

In Pangu, there were not many demons. In history, there were only a few demon thearchs. The old demon huang xie was the most famous, while the ice snake demon Thearch could probably be ranked in the top ten.

“Although it’s an ice-cold weapon, she can still use it as a defensive treasure.”

Li gongzi said.

“Many thanks!” “Thank you,” Tang Hao said.

“Come! Huang ‘er, sister will help you put it on!” Li gongzi stepped forward and personally put on the earrings.

The Group of Seven tribulations watched from the side with strange expressions.

Another Emperor artifact!

How were they supposed to live?

If they were to take out a slightly inferior treasure, wouldn't that be embarrassing? if they were to take out an Emperor artifact as well, they would feel a bit of pain and would be reluctant to do so.
