

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2399

“It’s a golden treasure chest!”

“There must be a treasure inside!”

The eyes of all the venerable sovereigns lit up when they saw the golden treasure chest.

There were three aperture opening pills in the black chest just now. There must be better treasures in this higher-grade golden chest.

“Quickly open it and take a look!” They could not wait any longer.

Tang Hao took a deep breath and opened the treasure chest. A golden light burst out of the chest, and a Golden Jade slip floated in the air.

“A Jade slip?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

Could it be some powerful cultivation technique? Or was it the inheritance of some ancient Almighty?

“Quickly take a look, what’s inside the Jade slip?” All the venerable sovereigns were a little anxious.

A Jade slip that could be placed in a golden treasure chest must contain something extraordinary. It must be at least a Supreme-level inheritance, or an ancient secret method, or even an even more powerful inheritance of a true immortal!

Tang Hao reached out and grabbed the Jade slip, then sent a wisp of his divine sense into it.

“This is ...?”

The next moment, he gasped in shock.

“Little friend Tang, what’s that?”

“Is it a true immortal’s inheritance?”

All the venerable sovereigns said anxiously.

“It’s a true immortal’s inheritance. However, it’s not a cultivation technique inheritance, but an alchemy Scripture!”

A moment later, Tang Hao retracted his divine sense and heaved a long sigh of relief.

He looked at the Jade slip in his hand with a burning gaze.

To him, this Jade slip was an unparalleled treasure. Its value was immeasurable, because it was a true immortal level alchemy Scripture!

So far, he had obtained countless elixir Scriptures. However, the highest level of elixir in these elixir Scriptures was the ninth tribulation divine elixir. Above the divine elixir, there were actually immortal elixir, which was the true immortal elixir.

However, there was no description of immortal pills in any pill Scripture in the world, let alone the refining technique.

The alchemy Scripture in this Jade slip was the first immortal level alchemy Scripture he had ever obtained.

“The pill Scripture?”

“How could it be the pill Scripture?”

All the venerable sovereigns were surprised. In their eyes, an elixir Scripture was not as good as a true immortal’s cultivation technique inheritance.

A true immortal’s inheritance would contain many powerful ancient Daoist spells and secret skills that could greatly enhance their strength. An alchemy Scripture, on the other hand, would be of little use.

“Let me see!”

The Vermillion Bird path master extended his hand and took the Jade slip from Tang Hao’s hand to read it.

He, Vermillion Bird heaven, was also skilled in the Dao of alchemy, so he was quite interested in the true immortal alchemy Scripture.

After a moment, he withdrew his divine sense and sighed. “It’s indeed the immortal alchemy Scripture. This is the real alchemy Scripture. Most of the alchemy Scriptures that have been passed down in the world today are derived from these immortal alchemy Scriptures.”

Tang Hao nodded when he heard that.

Whether it was the elixir Scripture he had obtained from the great void realm or the various elixir Scriptures circulating in the Pangu world today, they were all incomplete versions. This immortal elixir Scripture was the truly complete one.

“However, it’s a pity that the current pill realm is no longer the ancient pill realm. It’s difficult to even refine a God grade pill, let alone an immortal grade pill.”

Then, the Vermillion Bird path master shook his head and laughed bitterly.

As the Vermillion Bird Dao master, his attainments in the Dao of alchemy were profound, but it wasn't easy for him to refine divine-level pills. The most powerful pill in the current pill world, Zi xutian, was only able to refine an 8th tribulation divine pill.

At present, it was impossible for anyone in Pangu world to produce immortal pills!

Tang Hao grinned wryly.

With his current alchemy Dao attainments, he could easily become an alchemy God and refine God-level pills like the Grand Yan golden pill and the creation divine pill. But immortal pills ... Forget it!

If one wanted to concoct immortal pills, skill alone was not enough. One also needed the support of a strong cultivation base.

"I can't do it now, but I can use it in the future! When I reach the 8th tribulation and open a few more apertures, I can probably give it a try!" Tang Hao mumbled.

Then, he made a few copies of the contents of the Jade slip and distributed them to the venerable sovereigns.

"Go! Hurry up and find the next one!"

Tang Hao steered the divine boat toward their next destination.

Very quickly, two days had passed. The number of ferocious beasts they had killed had risen to 12. They had found various treasures. Another drop of star dew had appeared, and it was taken by the Lord of numinous treasure.

Most of the flesh and blood of the twelve beasts had gone into Tang Hao's pocket.
