

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3178

“It’s broken again!”

The mission Hall was in an uproar.

Countless disciples had gathered inside and outside the hall, and the atmosphere was extremely lively.

Five days ago, the news that Qin Dali had completed another seven-star Mission had spread throughout the entire sect. It caused a huge sensation, and disciples from all over the sect came to watch.

And in these five days, quite a few more 7-star missions had been cleared.

“That’s amazing!”

Everyone exclaimed in admiration.

It was already not easy to clear one seven-star Mission. To clear five or six in a row, he was simply a god-like existence!

“Brother Qin’s poison Dao is truly terrifying to the extreme!”

Everyone looked into the hall with respect in their eyes.

They’ve all heard that Brother Qin’s body is filled with countless poisons. There’s the immortal decaying powder, the immortal devouring pill, and each one is more powerful than the last.

This had truly shocked them. Who would have thought that this Brother Qin was actually a poison expert?

They were both shocked and afraid. In their hearts, this Brother Qin's status had risen infinitely. He had become the person in the entire sect that they could not afford to offend!

"Brother Qin, he ... Is really powerful!"

Outside the main hall, Princess Zi Yang also exclaimed in surprise.

As she looked into the hall, her beautiful eyes flickered with a strange light.

She was even more determined to win this man over.

At such a young age, he already had the cultivation base of a half-step golden immortal. Furthermore, he had such a powerful poison Dao. His future was limitless. Even if he couldn't win her over, he must at least be on good terms with her.

"It's broken! Another one has been cracked, it's The Feather men's crown mission. Brother Qin poisoned the entire feather men race and easily obtained the crown!"

"I know this mission. It's even harder than the mermaid King's Pearl, but it was actually broken!"

Very quickly, another piece of news came from the hall.

There was another wave of commotion both inside and outside the hall.

All the disciples were extremely excited.

However, the elders in the hall all had bitter expressions.

Seven!

This kid had completed seven missions in a row and obtained 16 connate spirit items, not to mention the other Dao attainment and treasures like immortal artifacts.

Their hearts ached so much that they could barely breathe.

“Are you tired? do you want to rest for a while?”

“Yup! We’ve done so many missions, it’s time to rest!”

When they saw the person coming out of the passage, they hurriedly went up to him and warmly asked about his well-being.

“I’m not tired!”

Tang Hao smiled.

The elders’ faces stiffened, and they almost cried.

“I’ll make two more!”

Tang Hao knew what the elders were thinking. Although there were many connate spirit items in the sect, they couldn't afford to be taken away like this. He just needed to make two more to make twenty.

He couldn't go too far and really take all the connate spirit items.

He did some calculations. If there were twenty pieces, he would have five pieces left after giving four pieces each to Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci, two to Fei Wan, and five to ye.

He didn't need these five items for the time being, so he could save them for now.

"Good! Then two!"

The elders heaved a sigh of relief when they heard him.

Tang Hao picked two more missions. He spent a day on each and completed them easily.

"Take care!"

A group of elders clustered around him and warmly sent him out of the hall.

"Many thanks, elder. I will come again in the future."

Tang Hao turned around and smiled at them after they left the hall.

Don't!

Please don't!

Elder Zhao was so scared that his face turned green and he almost shouted.

F*ck!

If you were to come again, would the other disciples have a way out?

I'm begging you, please wake up and don't come back. Just go back and lie down!

He cursed in his heart.

The other elders were also ridiculing in their hearts.

Especially elder di. In the past, he had been thinking about how to train this kid and make him more diligent. But now, he just wanted this kid to go back and lie down obediently.

"Congratulations, Brother Qin!"

Tang Hao turned around and took a few steps. Many disciples came forward to congratulate him.

However, they all maintained a distance of five feet, as if they were somewhat afraid and did not dare to get too close. Their expressions were even more respectful than before, full of reverence.

Tang Hao returned to the cave abode after dealing with the situation.

After sitting down, he took out all his gains and organized them.

The biggest gain was naturally the 20 connate spirit items.

Next were some zenith heaven Immortal Weapons and immortal materials.

As for Dao attainment, even though he had 500000, Dao attainment was something he had no lack of at the moment. He had killed a group of heaven Immortals who were close to the peak in Nantian city, and then massacred the entire Pingtian sect. He had so many Dao attainment that he couldn't even count them.

"You guys can choose! Take whatever you like, and each of you can pick four!"

He called for Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci and took out spiritual items for them to choose.

The two girls picked four items each.

"Many thanks, young master!"

Ji chunxuan said respectfully as she put away the spiritual item and bowed.

"You don't have to be so polite!"

Tang Hao chuckled.

The two girls had been with him for so many years. He was not used to them being so polite.

Ji chunxuan stood up, her expression still respectful.

When she first met this person, she was quite open, but the longer she followed this person, the more restrained she became, and the more reverence she felt in her heart.

His young master was now a late golden immortal. Even in the immortal world, he was a giant with a lofty status.

Moreover, young master had been too good to them all these years. He had never asked them to serve him or ask for anything from them. This made her feel like she owed him. When she faced young master, she became more restrained.

“Many thanks, young master!”

Ji Qiuci smiled and was much more casual.

“Also, take this cultivation. It can help you to form the Golden Flower faster.” Tang Hao took out two heaven-earth bags and gave them to the two girls.

“By the way, when you’ve condensed the Golden Flower, go out on my behalf.”

Then, he suddenly said, as if he had thought of something.

“Young master, what’s wrong?”

Ji Qiuci was surprised.

“Help me take these two spiritual items to the Holy beast Palace.” Tang Hao said as he handed over Two Spirit items.

Next, he had to continue refining pills and break through to the state of great fulfilment. He really had no time to go out, so he might as well let these two girls do it for him. They hadn’t gone out for a long time, so it was a good time for them to go out and take a walk.

With their strength, there was no risk.

“Oh, Yingluo!”

Ji Qiuci suddenly understood. She pursed her lips and smiled mischievously. “Young master, don’t worry. When the time comes, we’ll definitely bring it to you. We’ll also help you take a good look at sister feiwan!”

Ji chunxuan, who was standing at the side, was stunned. Her brows furrowed slightly.

She knew about the relationship between the young master and fairy Yun.

She wasn’t jealous, just a little envious.

“Perhaps, this isn’t too bad!”

She raised her eyes and looked at the young master in front of her.

At least, she could stay by the young master’s side. That was enough. She was already very satisfied!

“Alright, I’m done!”

Tang Hao smiled at them and waved his hand.

The two girls bade their farewells and left the hall.
