

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3198

“It can’t be!”

Princess Zi Yang stood there in a daze.

Her beautiful eyes widened as she stared at the dark golden giant not far away. She could not believe it.

At this moment, the thoughts that were lingering in her mind were too unbelievable!

That demon was most likely Brother Qin!

“Yeah! Who else could it be other than him?”

Suddenly, she smiled bitterly.

Now that he thought about it carefully, there were indeed many suspicious points about this Brother Qin. He was clearly so young, but he was so powerful, crushing those of the same cultivation level, and easily completing 7-star missions. He was also usually so low-key, not stepping out of the door ...

It turned out that he was the peerless monster who had shaken the immortal world!

“No wonder!”

She shook her head and couldn’t help but sigh.

It was such a pity that she didn’t notice such a shocking figure beside her.

She didn't have any bad intentions, but she wanted to make friends with him.

"Daoist Zi Yang, what's wrong?"

A disciple saw her sighing and asked curiously.

She told him what she had discovered.

Hearing this, all the disciples were dumbstruck.

They turned around and looked at the figure in the distance, unable to come back to their senses for a long time.

This news was too shocking!

In the blink of an eye, another two to four hours passed.

As time passed, more and more people arrived. Golden Immortals from all walks of life stood in the void.

However, everyone was watching, and no one made a move.

They all knew that they couldn't deal with this monster with the power of a golden immortal, because this monster was invincible among golden Immortals.

It would only be possible if all of them joined forces.

However, in front of them, there was still the Emperor puppet sect. They really didn't dare to offend them.

"There's no sound coming from the cauldron!"

"Are you going to die?"

"Impossible ... How long has it been refined? that's a golden immortal! It's too difficult to get rid of the Golden Flower and turn it into a golden immortal. Even a great eternity immortal would find it difficult to do so."

From time to time, they would glance at the divine furnace with horror on their faces.

In just half a day, he had refined a gold immortal into nothingness. This kind of technique was too terrifying!

"Everyone from the Emperor puppet sect, you're not his opponent, so move aside! Let this old man do it!"

Soon, another two to four hours passed.

In the sky, a ripple appeared in the void, and a figure shuttled out, shouting loudly.

Everyone looked over and was shocked.

Then, there was an uproar, and the world was in an uproar.

Finally, a celestial of the great all-embracing heaven arrived!

This was Samantabhadra, one of the three heavenly venerates of the Yuanshi sect.

“There should be more than one of the three heavenly venerates of the Yuanshi sect. The other two should be here soon!”

Someone exclaimed in a low voice.

Originally, these Immortals of the great all-embracing heaven were elusive existences, but since the appearance of that monster, these Immortals all appeared and paid attention to the news of that monster every day.

Last time, Nantian city had attracted almost all the great eternity Immortals.

Once the news came out, these great eternity Immortals naturally couldn't sit still and would all move out.

Sure enough, in just a moment, two ripples appeared in the void behind Samantabhadra and two figures stepped out. They were both Immortals of the great all-embracing heaven.

They were the other two heavenly venerates of the Yuanshi sect, Huang Long Daoist and heaven's path Daoist.

Whoosh!

The crowd was getting more and more excited.

Everyone from the Emperor puppet sect turned around to look, and their expressions changed.

Three great eternity Immortals!

This lineup was too terrifying!

If they were to fight, the hundred golden Immortals would not be able to resist at all.

“Three exalted Celestials, this person is now a disciple of my Emperor puppet sect. How can we step aside? this is a family matter of my Emperor puppet sect. There’s no need to trouble the few of you to care about it.” The great elder cupped his hands in obeisance.

After all, his Emperor puppet sect was also an Immortal King Force. Since the sect master wasn’t around, he was the acting sect master. In terms of status, he was on equal footing with these celestial Venerables.

“He’s a disciple of your Emperor puppet sect? Buzzzzzz! What a joke!”

The heavenly Dao Daoist snorted and sneered.

“Does your Emperor puppet sect mean to stop us?”

Samantabhadra’s face darkened and his tone was impolite.

If it was any other time, they would naturally have to give some face to Emperor puppet sect. But now, faced with the temptation of two immortal Emperor Supreme treasures, who would care so much?

“Celestial venerable, are you saying that you’re going to make a move?”

The Grand elder’s expression froze.

“If you don’t move, don’t blame us for being impolite!” Samantabhadra snorted.

“Don’t waste your breath on them. Hurry up and take action. After suppressing that kid, leave immediately!”

At this moment, Tian Daoist shouted with an anxious expression.

Since they were the first batch of great eternity Immortals to arrive, they should take this opportunity to kill this kid. Otherwise, if they delayed and the other great eternity Immortals arrived, they would have no chance.

As he spoke, his figure flickered and disappeared from where he was.

In the next moment, he was already in the sea of lightning.

“Brat, you’ve been toying with me. Are you happy?”

He shouted, his eyes filled with joy.

In that pursuit, he was with a group of zenith heaven Immortals, but this kid was like a stray dog, splitting more than a dozen continents and finally losing them. He had become a complete joke and lost all face.

Also, when he rushed to Nantian city last time, this kid had already slipped away and he missed again.

This time, he finally caught it!

He wanted to capture this kid and imprison him in the sect. He wanted to take his body, his luck, and all his heaven-defying treasures and secret techniques.

With this thought, he clenched his right hand into a fist and punched forward.

Bang!

A surge of indescribable power instantly burst out and blasted the giant's body.

The giant's body exploded and a huge hole appeared.

He immediately laughed out loud, his face carefree.

Peng Peng Peng!

He punched several times, and holes were blasted on the huge body.

“What?”

Just as he was feeling excited, his eyes suddenly narrowed. He saw that the holes were recovering at an amazing speed. In the blink of an eye, they were back to normal.

“This ... How is this possible?”

His eyes were wide open, filled with shock.

This was an immortal spirit body, and it was mainly made of gold and iron. Once it was damaged, it needed to be repaired afterward, which was very troublesome. However, the immortal spirit body in front of him had recovered automatically!

“Unbelievable!”

At the side, celestial venerable Samantabhadra and celestial venerable Huang Long exclaimed in surprise, their eyes burning with excitement.

This brat’s immortal spirit body was indeed extraordinary. As long as they could suppress this brat, they would be able to obtain the refinement method of this immortal spirit body and use it to strengthen their own immortal spirit bodies.

Their figures moved, and they swept out in unison.

One of them flicked his sleeve, and a golden immortal rope flew out. The other took out a mirror, which spun and instantly expanded to tens of thousands of feet wide. It hung high in the sky, blocking the pouring lightning.

Then, the mirror shook and shot out a beam of divine light toward the dark golden giant.
