

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3284

“Breaking it with one palm ... What big words!”

A burst of exclamations rose from all directions.

Many people were speechless.

No matter what kind of magical power you have, you can break it with one palm?

This tone was arrogant to the point of no end!

Even in the true immortal realm, no one would dare to say such a thing, let alone in the zenith heaven realm. Those who could reach the zenith heaven realm were all peerless old monsters with powerful divine powers. It was impossible to break all of them with one palm!

If someone else, such as heavenly venerate Xumi, had said something like this, they would have laughed out loud.

However, at this moment, when these words came out of the mouth of that demon, they could not laugh no matter what.

Their eyes were wide open as they stared blankly at the giant purple-gold Palm that had condensed in the void.

It was just an aura, but it was enough to make their hearts tremble and they almost couldn't breathe.

Many people started to shiver under this monstrous pressure.

They felt as if this was really the palm of an ancient immortal Emperor or Godking. It had reached out from the ancient void, and its divine might was boundless, like a deep abyss or a prison.

BOOM!

Then, there were several deafening sounds.

It was this God King's giant palm that had struck out and collided with the golden sword light and the boundless black mist.

The two celestial Venerables attacked with all their might. Their eyes were wide open, and their expressions were somewhat crazy.

They gritted their teeth and activated their celestial core power and Taoist connotation to resist the giant purple-gold Palm.

However, their efforts only lasted for a moment. Soon, the black mist and the golden sword radiance were both shattered.

The giant purple-gold Palm tore through everything with an unstoppable momentum.

"How is that possible?"

Celestial venerable Xumi's body trembled and his face turned pale.

He looked at the huge palm in front of him in disbelief.

He and the Lord of the Night, two Celestial Masters, joined forces, but they couldn't even block one palm?

What kind of heaven-defying magical power was this?

"Mother of God!"

On the side, the dark night Lord's eyes almost popped out.

He didn't know where this handprint came from, but it was terrifyingly powerful!

Bang Bang!

There were two loud explosions.

Then, there were two muffled groans. The two celestial Venerables' bodies trembled and were sent flying. They crashed into the protective shield of the formation and fell down.

Whoosh!

A white-robed figure arrived above their heads like a ghost. He stretched out his hand again and struck out.

Bang!

With another earth-shaking sound, the two old monsters were ruthlessly slapped down and smashed to the ground. Their immortal robes had become dim and messy. Their hair was disheveled and they looked extremely embarrassed.

Before they could get up, another palm landed on their heads, and they couldn't help but cry out in pain. The immortal robes on their bodies were torn.

The entire immortal Palace shook violently, and the halls in all directions collapsed.

Peng Peng Peng!

A deafening explosion shook the heavens and earth.

Everyone was stunned.

Their eyes were wide open as they looked at the scene in disbelief.

Celestial master Xumi and Lord of the dark night were pressed to the ground and bombarded crazily. Their clothes were torn, and they were naked. Soon, even their physical bodies were blown apart. Their skin and flesh were split open, and blood and flesh splattered everywhere.

Heavenly venerate Xumi was in a better state as he resisted the urge to scream. However, the dark night Lord screamed at the top of his lungs like a pig being slaughtered.

“Stinky brat, F * ck your mother!”

From time to time, he would even curse out in anger.

However, the next moment, he screamed again.

In midair, Tang Hao's expression was as cold as ice. He continuously sent out one hand seal after another.

He only stopped after a long time.

On the ground, the two old monsters were in an extremely sorry state. Even their breathing had become extremely weak. They were paralyzed on the ground, unable to move for a moment.

Tang Hao glared at them coldly, but did not attack again.

They were all at the zenith heaven realm, so he could not kill them. Even the celestial refining pool could not kill them.

He swept his eyes around and glanced at the great fiends and old demons hidden in the crowd.

He remembered the countless people he had killed and the people who had been watching him in the dark.

"You, should die!"

He aimed at one of them, and his figure flashed as he swept over. He raised his hand and slapped.

The old monster was stunned for a moment, and then he was so shocked that his soul almost flew out of his body.

He screamed and tried to escape, but it was too late. The palm slammed down and imprinted on his body.

Ah!

There was a short scream.

His body exploded into a cloud of blood mist.

By the time he was reborn, Tang Hao had already activated the great void divine furnace.

He grabbed the divine furnace and flew back to the celestial refining pool. He took out the old monster and threw him into the pool.

Gulu Gulu!

The old man struggled a few times before he was pulled down by the blood.

Not long after, the blood water churned and a golden object floated up. It was the essence of the old monster.

Si si si!

Gasps could be heard from all directions.

Many people were shocked.

He was an old monster who was half a step to the zenith heaven realm. He had the chance to advance to the zenith heaven realm, but he had died so easily.

This person had the highest cultivation level among the people who had died in the celestial refining pool.

Tang Hao grabbed the golden light, opened his mouth, and swallowed it.

The surging Taoist connotation gushed into his dantian's sea of Dao like a river and was absorbed by his natal world. Soon, Dao stars were formed.

"As expected of a half-step zenith heaven!"

Tang Hao smiled. He was happy.

This one alone was worth who knew how many Dao beads, and it had directly increased his realm by a large margin.

He turned around again and looked around.

"Not good!"

"Quickly Dodge!"

The old monsters and demons in the crowd were all shocked. Some of them used spell techniques to hide themselves, while others fled in all directions to avoid this disaster.

“It’s you!”

Tang Hao aimed at one of them and attacked again. He raised his hand and unleashed the great palm of destruction.

If one palm wasn’t enough, then he would use two palms and then suppress it with another.

After throwing it into the celestial refining pool, it would be refined to death in a short while.

After swallowing the essence, he did not stop and continued to capture people.

Soon, a few more peak golden Immortals and half-step great beasts were subdued and thrown into the pool to be refined to death.

In the beginning, everyone was still a little shocked, and they would exclaim a few times.

However, they gradually became numb to it.

In the crowd, the heavenly venerable rank auras were concealed. They were afraid of attracting the attention of this kid and ending up in the same sorry state as Xu mi and an ye.

As for heavenly venerate Xumi and the dark night Lord, they both hid to the side.

Seeing this scene, their expressions did not look too good.

This kid was already abnormal enough. After devouring these people’s Taoist connotation, his cultivation base would skyrocket, and his divine arts would definitely become even more terrifying.

After killing another one, Tang Hao turned around and looked. He had no more targets to choose from, so he stopped.

At this moment, the immortal King formation that enveloped the surroundings also happened to open.
