

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3435

“I’ve never seen him before!”

“I don’t know him!”

Everyone from the pill Sea Mountain discussed in low voices, their expressions becoming more and more contemptuous.

They didn’t know this guy, which meant he wasn’t a famous alchemy Grandmaster in the East continent.

Then, where did this person’s confidence come from to dare to come and challenge him?

“Someone came to challenge the pill Sea Mountain?”

“Which pill Dao faction are you from?”

Soon, the outside was also in an uproar. People rushed in and squeezed to the mountain Gate.

At first, they were all very excited, thinking that it was someone from another alchemy Holy Land, but they didn’t recognize him at all.

“You’re not playing around, are you?”

“Who’s playing around? those who dare to push down the stele are courting death!”

They sized up the white-robed figure and discussed animatedly.

More and more people gathered, and after a while, all four sides were filled with people. In the middle of the pill Sea Mountain, there were also many figures, and there was no lack of yang gods.

People of this level were all level one alchemy grandmasters.

“Three-star realm ... You have some strength!”

“Who gave him the confidence to challenge our pill Sea Mountain?”

These level one alchemy grandmasters looked at him with some contempt in their eyes.

In the East continent, the strength of the pill Sea Mountain was the strongest among the several pill Dao forces. This was also publicly acknowledged. Therefore, no one had dared to challenge him for thousands of years.

Now, a guy of unknown origin actually dared to come and challenge him. It was truly somewhat laughable.

“Who has come to challenge my pill Sea Mountain?”

A moment later, a loud shout came from the depths of the pill Sea Mountain.

When the voice rang out, it was still far away, but when it landed, it was already close.

“Pill elder!”

In an instant, all the figures in the sky turned around and bowed.

“Greetings, pill elder!”

Outside, the crowd bowed in unison and greeted respectfully.

It was one of the five pill elders of pill Sea Mountain.

“It’s you?”

A white-robed, tall and thin old man descended from the sky and landed in front of the mountain Gate.

He looked thin and Haggard, but his aura was extremely strong. He was a late-stage yang God.

“It is!”

Tang Hao looked straight at him and nodded.

“Report your name first!”

The old man shouted.

“There’s no need for that! Don’t tell me that a nameless person doesn’t have the right to challenge your pill Sea Mountain?” Tang Hao said.

“No, I’m just curious. What gave you the confidence to challenge my mountain? you should know that the alchemy Dao of my mountain is the best in the East continent. I’m afraid you’re just asking for humiliation!”

The old man laughed, his expression proud.

“Pill elder is right. I’m just afraid you’re asking to be humiliated!”

Everyone laughed along.

“Since I’m here, I naturally have the confidence! Pill elder, you don’t have to worry about me!” Tang Hao smiled.

“Hahaha! Good, you have guts!”

The old man laughed and said, “since you are so confident, then I, dan hai mountain, will accept your challenge. I just wonder how you want to challenge me and what form you want to choose?”

“Let’s use the rules of your pill Sea Mountain!”

“Are you sure?”

The old man was stunned.

“Naturally!”

“Good! My pill Sea Mountain did have a challenge rule a long time ago. Look, there are seventy-two first-grade peaks in my pill Sea Mountain, which represent seventy-two level one Alchemist grandmasters. You can choose a few to challenge. ”

“The first option is for you to choose three. As long as you win two, it will be your win. Otherwise, it will be your loss.”

“The second method is to choose five, and you need to win three.”

“There’s one last option. Choose seven ...”

“Take a look, which method do you want to choose?”

The old man turned around and pointed to the vast mountain behind him as he introduced.

“No matter what it is, he has no hope!”

“You have to win at least two level one alchemy grandmasters. How is that possible!”

The crowd sneered.

The so-called victory here was not just a simple competition of a few events. Instead, it was to complete the challenges given by the level 1 alchemy grandmasters or discuss alchemy. Only when they were convinced by the alchemy grandmasters could it be considered a victory.

Even in the pill Sea Mountain, there were only a few level one alchemy grandmasters who could do it.

“Your Excellency, have you thought it through?”

The old man asked Tang Hao after a while.

His expression was very relaxed, but he didn't put this person in his eyes at all.

He only treated this matter as a joke.

“Seven ...”

Tang Hao said.

“You want to choose the last one?”

When the old man heard this, he was stunned and in disbelief.

This was the most difficult one. One had to defeat four level one alchemy grandmasters.

Everyone was shocked.

“No! I mean ... Seven is too few!”

Tang Hao smiled and shook his head.

“Too ... Too little? What do you mean by that?”

The old man was stunned and confused.

Seven is too few?

What nonsense was this guy talking about?

“Since I’m here, I’ll challenge all of you. There are seventy-two peaks, so I’ll challenge them one by one. I won’t miss a single one. If I lose even one, it’ll be my loss. What do you think, pill elder?”

Tang Hao chuckled as he watched pill elder.

“You ...”

Pill elder’s eyes were wide open, and his face was twisted with shock.

He could not believe his ears!

What was this guy saying?

He wanted to challenge all the level one alchemists in his pill Sea Mountain?

Moreover, he even dared to say that he would win all of them!

Where did this lunatic come from?

“Crazy! He’s a madman!”

Everyone else was equally shocked and in disbelief.

When they came back to their senses, they kept exclaiming in shock, and the whole place was in an uproar.

“He’s sick! Pill elder, don’t pay any attention to this madman. I think he’s just here to cause trouble!”

“Exactly, who does he think he is? He’s challenging all of us!”

The group of level one alchemy grandmasters all shouted angrily.

All of them were grandmasters of the Dao of alchemy, and were of incomparably noble status. When they went out, they would be sought after by people. And yet, this person was saying that he wanted to challenge all of them in one go. Wasn’t this a complete humiliation?

This was something they could not tolerate.

“What’s wrong? Don’t you dare?”

Tang Hao looked around and smiled.

“What did you just say? Who wouldn’t dare!”

“Don’t be so arrogant!”

Everyone from pill Sea Mountain cursed.

“Pill elder, are you going to accept this challenge?”

Tang Hao asked, looking at pill elder.

The old man stood in place with a hesitant expression.

“Good! I, pill Sea Mountain, will take it! But let’s talk first. If you lose, what price will you have to pay?” A moment later, he revealed a determined expression and shouted.

“You can do whatever you want to me!”

Tang Hao said.

“Alright!”

The old man shouted.

“But if I win, I want one thing from your pill Sea Mountain.” Tang Hao said.

“Impossible!”

The old man laughed.

What was this guy thinking? did he really think that he could defeat all the grandmasters of pill Sea Mountain by himself?

It was truly a fool's dream!

"But what if we win?"

"If you win, I can give you the entire pill Sea Mountain!"

The old man sneered.

It was impossible anyway, so he just casually bragged.

"Alright!"

Tang Hao nodded and smiled.

"Then you just wait. Let's go and prepare. The challenge will begin in three days!"

After the old man finished speaking, he turned around and led the group of alchemy grandmasters into the mountain.
