

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 940

The discovery that the crown prince of the Qing Kingdom had been robbed caused a great uproar.

It was not uncommon for people to take advantage of the chaos at Rainbow Mountain to rob others, but no one would dare rob the crown prince of the Qing Kingdom.

Everyone thought that the robber was too brazen.

At the same time, they were also shocked by the robber's strength. One who could knock out two Golden Core Perfected Masters must also be a Perfected Master with extraordinary strength.

"It's the same guy who did in the prince from the Cangwu Kingdom, right?"

Someone remembered what happened to the prince of Cangwu Kingdom.

"That can't be! Two princes? Does that guy have a death wish?"

Everyone was shocked again.

The families who dared declare themselves as a kingdom wielded considerable influence. Offending one was no small matter, let alone two in a row.

After discussing it for a while, they continued to dig for treasure.

To them, those princes and princesses were not as important as treasure.

Soon, another piece of news spread and shocked everyone in the area.

The third prince of Jin Kingdom and his four guards were knocked out and robbed.

“This is the third royalty! Oh my god, don’t tell me it’s caused by one person!”

Everyone was beginning to panic.

The person was insane to offend three royal families in a row!

“Don’t tell me that there’s more?”

They could not help but wonder, but they would not believe it. It would be crazy if that were true!

With that suspicion in mind, someone began to search around the area. They found many victims in secluded corners. In some cases, the victims were piled up in mounds.

Those usually noble princes and princesses were thrown on the ground like trash.

Some had swollen faces, and some were stripped down to their underwear. They looked incomparably pathetic.

Other than royalty, many elite disciples from major sects as well as ordinary cultivators were victims.

The discovery stunned everyone!

That was too crazy!

They had lost count of the number of victims. It was not surprising if the number was more than a hundred.

“Who could it be? Where did this madman come from?”

“This is really serious!”

Everyone was in disbelief. They had never seen someone offend so many influential forces at once.

They could imagine the shockwaves once the news spread throughout the southern region.

Many of the young people there were extremely furious. Those beautiful princesses and female elite disciples were knocked out and tossed into a corner.

“Is that guy even a man? He even knocked out Princess Yun!”

“He’s inhuman!”

The Princess Yun that they were talking about was the third princess of the Yun Kingdom. She was a famous beauty in the southern region and had countless admirers.

Soon, the victims woke up.

They were livid when they thought about what happened before, especially those from the royal families.

Usually, everyone was polite and respectful to them, and no one dared to offend them. Now, some guy knocked them out and robbed them clean.

That was a disgrace!

“The robber must be still here. We must find him, kill him, and chop him into mincemeat!”

“That’s right! We must avenge this! Anyone who crosses the Qing family will die in an unmarked grave.”

They gnashed their teeth and cursed angrily.

“How are you going to defeat him though?” Someone said calmly.

Everyone suddenly became silent.

Indeed, that guy was quite formidable. Not only was he good at sneak attacks, but he was also very fast. They could not guard against him, and they were already knocked out before they could react.

They did not even know what cultivation base that guy had.

They expected that the robber was at least a Perfected Master, seeing how he managed to knock out Golden Core cultivators so easily. He could not have been in the State of the Nascent Soul; those peerless experts would not stoop to sneak attacks.

“A club to the head and robbing them clean? Why does it sound so familiar?”

Several cultivators from the borderlands were puzzled.

They seemed to have heard of similar incidents before.

After thinking for a while, one of them suddenly slapped his thigh and shouted, “Damn! Isn’t that Liu Heihu?”

The other people also came to a sudden realization. “So it’s him! I was wondering why it sounded so familiar.”

The conversation immediately attracted everyone’s attention.

“Who’s Liu Heihu?” They immediately surrounded those people and asked eagerly.

Those people immediately panicked when all the royalty surrounded them!

“Uh... Liu Heihu? His nickname is Ballsy Bro, and he’s a really ballsy thief. Back then, he managed to fool several major sects in the borderlands and cleaned out their treasure vaults. His signature move is a club to the back of the head!” They explained.

Everyone was speechless when they heard that.

Ballsy Bro? The name explained his character, and what he did was worthy of the title. Not any random cat burglar could steal from the treasure vaults of multiple sects.

“That must be him. It can’t be wrong!” The crown prince of the Qing kingdom gritted his teeth and said.

The signature move was the same, and the crimes were carried out with the same audacity. There was definitely no mistake.

“What’s his cultivation base?” He asked again.

“He was in the peak of the State of Foundation Establishment last time, but he might have broken through. His movement technique is incredibly fast. Back then, many people were chasing after him, but he still managed to escape.”

“Yes, that’s definitely him!”

Everyone became even more certain.

“So he’s probably in the early period at most. He wouldn’t have beaten me if he hadn’t caught me off guard!”

“If we meet him again, I’ll definitely break his neck!”

The guards looked resentful as they spoke harshly.

“How dare he act so brazenly when he’s only in the early period? He’ll regret it. Let’s go and look for him!” The crown prince of the Qing Kingdom waved his hand and left with his guards.

The royalty left one after another with their guards, each of them filled with killing intent.

“That Ballsy Bro is too despicable. We can’t dig for treasures in peace with him around. We must get rid of him!”

“We must take revenge for Princess Yun!”

Upon hearing that the culprit was only a Golden Core cultivator in the early period, they felt bolder. They cheered as they followed the mob.

They separated into teams and spread out in all directions.

Meanwhile, Tang Hao was still committing crimes. He spotted another prince, knocked him out, and robbed him in one fell swoop.

“Nice!”

Tang Hao felt refreshed. It was truly a big haul this time. Those royalty were all moving treasure chests. Robbing one was already enough, let alone so many.

He tossed the prince to a corner and was about to leave while humming a tune.

At the same time, he bumped into a crowd of people coming toward him.

In an instant, Tang Hao was stunned.

Those people were also stunned. Then, their faces twitched viciously.

‘We’ve found the bastard!’

“You’re not going to escape this time, Liu Heihu!” The leader of the group roared angrily.

Tang Hao was stunned again. His face was full of astonishment.
