

Mission To Remarry Chapter 894

“Were they wearing their watches when they left?” Madilyn, who was calmer than Roxanne, asked with a frown.

An error occurred. Please try again later

At once, a light bulb went off in Roxanne’s mind. At the same time, regret and frustration inundated her.

Too many things had happened today that everything else fled my mind when I realized that Archie and Benny had gone missing, leaving panic all that remained. Luckily, I went over to look for Madilyn!

Following Madilyn’s reminder, she called Archie and Benny without delay.

Alas, Archie didn’t answer even after a long while had passed.

She then called Benny, but still, no one picked up.

As Roxanne and Madilyn listened to the ringing tone drifting out of the phone, their hearts sank to the bottom.

There were too many reasons that Archie and Benny weren’t answering the calls.

The worst possibility flashed across their minds...

nails into her palms to force herself to remain calm. Unlocking her phone, she checked saw the two tiny green dots on can

seen the GPS location, Madilyn immediately

while staring at the two tiny green dots that were seemingly overlapping, not daring to take her eyes off for even

Thus, they wouldn’t have any trouble tracking Archie and distance between her current location and the tiny

...

Estella tilted her head in puzzlement at the someone is before he shook his head guiltily. “No, it’s just

he hid

Benny's watch

it off

their watches kept flashing, Archie and Benny exchanged a look brimming with

we fail to pick up her calls! At that time, later, Madilyn brought the car to a stop and door plate above, her expression changed, and she instinctively cast a look at her expression was far